

From the desk of
JIM CARTER

Attended by Nishnubee
News staff members, who reported that our paper
was held up at the Conf.
as an example of what a good paper should be.

NIMC-IV

National Indian Media Conference May 12-14, 1980 Anaheim, California

MEMO TO: NIMC-IV CONFEREES

The Native American Public Broadcasting Consortium, Lincoln, Nebraska and the American Indian Film Institute, Culver City, California will co-host the FOURTH ANNUAL NATIONAL INDIAN MEDIA CONFERENCE.

The conference is set for May 12-13-14, 1980, at the Quality Inn Hotel, 616 Convention Way, Anaheim, California 92802. (714) 750-3131

Make reservations no later than April 28, 1980 to ensure lodging requirements.

For conference room rates, specify registration for National Indian Media Conference.

Conference costs and particulars:

- Room rates: $32.00 per person, single or double, per day.
- Airport bus service: L.A. International to Anaheim - $4.35
Orange County Airport to Anaheim - $1.85

- Plan A - $50.00 - Includes conference registration, badge, admission to seminars, all seminar materials and NIMC-IV Banquet, May 12th, 7:30 P.M.

- Plan B - $40.00 - Includes registration only, badge, admission to seminars and all seminar materials.

Special Events:

Sunday, May 11, 7:00-9:00 P.M.

Media Adjustment Hour, Cash Bar, Entertainment, Poolside.

Monday, May 12, 7:30 P.M.

NIMC-IV Banquet - $15.00 for non-registrants to conference.

- Entree: Roast Prime Rib of Beef
- Guest Speaker
- Special Guests
- Indian of Year Awards
- Entertainment

Wednesday, May 14, 12 noon

NIMC-IV Luncheon - $5.00 to all participants.

- Entree: Tenderloin Beef Tips Burgundy
- Guest Speaker

Sponsors reserve the right to any additions/changes in conference agenda. For further NIMC-IV information, call:

Frank Blythe/NAPBC (402) 472-3522
Michael Smith/AIFI (213) 570-9259