Office of Coordinator of American Indian Programs

RE: Nishnawbe News

Mr. George Bennett, Director, Michigan Commission on Indian Affairs will be here today between 12:30 and 5:00 P. M. to discuss possibilities of the Commission including their news items in the Nishnawbe News on a monthly basis. It is my understanding the Commission incurs a monthly cost of around $400.00 for their present publication. I'm under the impression it is George's feeling they could assist the Nishnawbe News with a comparable amount, and our paper would take over the task of their present monthly news publication. These are discussion items we hope to get into. Realizing the short notice, and my not knowing when you were going to be in this week, I'd like to ask you to get together with us if possible. I just got the call from George on Tuesday of this week regarding his coming on campus today.
