December 12, 1972

Boo-zho Anishinabe--

The Nishnawbe News is well into its second year of publication--a newspaper serving Indians of North America. It is written by Indians for Indians. The paper tries to represent all views fairly, and is not a paper for any special group.

It is published by the Organization of North American Indian Students of NMU, and has been supported by Northern Michigan University. This money has helped the Nishnawbe News get started and the paper is now well established. This support will be ending soon, and now we must turn to Indian people to keep your paper going on a firm footing.

We hope that you can spare $2.00 for one year's subscription. (Up to now, the paper has been mailed free to Indian people.) If you have paid already, please disregard this appeal. If you think you can spare more than $2.00, we will be happy to accept whatever amount you can send our way. On the other hand, if $2.00 is too much, send what you can.

Would you please send your subscription fee as soon as possible? We are depending on you to help us keep the Nishnawbe News going, and keep Indian people informed.

Mee-gwetch,
