ADVERTISING.
THE THEORY OF ADVERTISING:
—USE THE—
NEWSPAPERS
AND KEEP AT IT.

Intelligent advertisers are learning to beware of the catch penny, illegitimate mediums of advertising so much affected hitherto by dealers who thought that cheapness always meant economy, and that in the advertising department of any business the principle governing the conduct of the other departments no longer obtained. Messrs. W. W. Sharp & Co., of New York, have already published some striking testimony given by the great merchants whose names are familiar in the mouths of Americans as household words. That of the leading dry goods house in New York is herewith presented:
"Of all the methods open to the merchant for advertising his business, an experience of nearly half a century enables us to unhesitatingly declare in favor of the newspaper. It is, without exception, the most economical, persistent, painstaking and successful canvasser any business firm can secure for the purpose of bringing their goods to the attention of the consumer.
No comment upon this recital of experience is needed further than to note that the firm who write this have taken the sound, scientific view of advertising—that they recognize the necessity for persistence, and understand that the newspaper has done its duty when it has brought the advertiser's goods to the attention of the consumer.
Some advertisers think that because an advertisement which appears to-day is not followed to-morrow by an appreciable increase of sales, the advertisement has done no good and the theory of advertising is false. Through this perhaps impossible to insert a notice that will not be read—let any Diddy-mus put a three-line card, "Wanted—A Dog," in the obscurest corner, and be convinced of this—it is not to be expected that the moment a person casts his eye upon an advertiser's announcement he sets out for the advertiser's store. He may at the time need any article in the merchant's line, or he may deal with another house. But if the representation is attractive he will almost inevitably, whenever he needs anything of the kind announced, turn to the paper where he saw the card and give the advertiser a trial. The merchant should regard his outlay for advertising as he would that for painting his building or putting up his sign-board—as a necessary charge upon the whole year's business, the effect of which is not to be perceived immediately. Men do not sow wheat one day and harvest it the next.
The man who has begun to advertise must keep on advertising if he desires a continual increase in the volume of his business. He may keep a steady clientele of satisfied customers, but the chances are that some of these will be detached by seeing the advantages of other dealers persistently advocated. He will certainly not attract new patrons. They will go elsewhere, just as they would seek another store than his, if on coming to his door, they found it locked and shutters up.

The Secret of Wealth.
Broken down invalids do you wish to gain flesh, to acquire an appetite, to enjoy a regular habit of body, to obtain refreshing sleep, to feel and know that every fibre and tissue of your system is being braced up and renovated. If so commence at once a course of Golden Seal Bitters. In one week you will be convalescent. In a month you will be well. Don't despair because you have a weak constitution. Fortify the body against disease by purifying all the fluids with Golden Seal Bitters. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fortified. The liver, the stomach, the bowels, the kidneys, are rendered disease proof by this great invigorator. Ruinous bills for medical attendance may be avoided by counteracting the first symptoms of sickness with these Bitters. They are recommended from friend to friend, and the sale increases daily. We warrant a cure. They are a positive cure also for all female complaints. In these diseases they have no equal. Take no others. Sold by J. N. Mead and Geo. Preston. 45

A WASHINGTON correspondent of the Cleveland Plaindealer asks "Is Secretary Endicott a democrat?" Can't say, really; perhaps Mr. Cleveland could give some information on the subject. The correspondent seems to have serious doubts about it.

FRANK JAMES wants people to remark that he is "not responsible for all the lawless acts done in the state of Missouri." Possibly; Missouri is a large state and rather lawless, but its no sure thing that he did not "put up" the Blue Spring job, even if he had no hand in the execution.

REV. DR. REED, of Milwaukee, is pitching into the Y. M. C. A. for receiving donations from the brewers. The Rev. Dr. is "more nice than wise," and the association will no doubt continue to accept all money offered it and endure his criticism.

THE Knights of labor at Pittsburg have undertaken to assume control of the mining operations on the Monongahela river, taking the work out of the hands of the Miner Union. The secretary of that organization states the numerical strength of the union at 4,000 in the district and in the state 60,000, and that it does not intend to surrender to the K. of L.

IT LEAKS out that the men who butchered the Chinamen at Rock Spring are not American but, chiefly, Poles and Hungarians; the same breed that destroyed property and threatens life at Cleveland and parades the streets of Chicago with red flags and threatening transparencies; a race that needs (and will yet receive) killing. "They that take the sword" says the scripture "shall perish by the sword."

THE massacre of the Chinese coal miners at Rock Spring, Wyoming, was entirely without excuse. They did not support American miners nor work for less wages—their only offense was that they would not join the Miner Union and go on strike.

THE Union Pacific railroad company has coal mines at Carbon, Rock Spring and Evanston, in Wyoming, worked partly by white and partly by Chinese labor. Trouble has been brewing for some time and on Wednesday of last week the white men at the camp at Rock Spring attacked, captured, and burned the coolie camp, killing fifteen coolies and driving the remainder to the hills. The sheriff of the county is powerless to protect the coolies or keep the peace, there are no troops except those of the United States available and Gen. Schofield can't find any law for using them, so the coolies are in a very bad way. There are three camps at Carbon and Evanston as well, and the probability is that they will be cleared out also. It is a little surprising that Gen. Schofield can find no law empowering him to use the forces under his command to quell a mob and put a stop to bloodshed, but not more strange than that he should wait to look for it. One thing is evident—the Chinese must go.

A BUSINESS man, once engaged in telegraphing, writes the Telegraphers Advocate to the effect that the business of the country suffers because Tom Eckert has "jammed the life out of the men." He is right, as far as he goes, but that is only half-way. Eckert is the hammer only, Jay Gould is the brain that directs and the arm that wields the hammer. That shrewd, grasping, unscrupulous demi-devil uses such blockheads as was Fisk and as Eckers is to do the brutality which he can plan but lacks the blood to carry into effect. The Fisks and Eckers are but his tools—he is the work-man.

DANA, of the New York Sun, whom providence permitted—omniscience only knows why—to act under Stanton as "assistant" to that very energetic war Secretary, reviews the "siege of Vicksburg" as told by Gen. Grant in the September Century and hints that Gen. Grant did not tell the whole truth, in that he did not mention Charles A. Dana. Gen. Rosecrans ought to write the "Field of Chickamauga" and give Mr. Dana full credit for his share in the exploits of that Sunday and Monday. Do it, General, for Mr. Dana's sake. Give him his place in history.

PETER WHITE confirms Carroll's story except as to a few unimportant particulars. He says he did not have any knowledge of Swineford's intention to go to Alaska until he saw his appointment in the papers—he never owned nor desired to own any land in Alaska, mineral or otherwise, he does not, has not, and will not pay Swineford any salary nor has any proposition that he should ever been considered or made. With these few exceptions Carroll's statement is correct—Mr. Swineford has gone to Alaska—and yet Mr. White calls Mr. Carroll untruthful.

THE Union Iron & Steel company, of Chicago, has been reorganized. H. H. Porter is president, J. C. Morse vice-pres't, C. U. Hilliard secretary and treasurer and Robert Forsythe superintendent and general manager. The new company is in easy circumstances financially and is going ahead vigorously; the blast furnace will be started in November and the entire works will be in operation by the first of January with alterations and improvements which will make them the equal of any steel manufacturing establishment in America in every respect.

AN OAKLAND county farmer named McMannus played a bogus oil-well game on certain Detroit gentlemen of means and came near succeeding. He "salted" his farm with crude petroleum, induced them to advance the money necessary to sink a test well, managed to "salt" the well also and was almost at the point of taking big money for his farm when the curiosity of one of their number led to an investigation and that to the exposure of the attempt at fraud. McMannus is missing and Farrand Henry don't like to be asked the price of oil.

DEMOCRATIC authority says that the administration of the postoffice department not only appoints thieves from its own ranks to office, as in the case of McNamara and others, but retains in office or re-appoints republicans who are crooked enough to suit, instancing one in New York, a defaulter, one in Ohio of the same sort, and others, who are guilty of "grave delinquencies." Naturally, those fellows are not "offensive" to a democratic administration; they are promising neophytes of the bourbon faith and deserve encouragement.

A NEW STAR has appeared in the center of the great nebula in the constellation Andromeda and the astronomers are watching it with much interest. It is believed that they see, for the first time since astronomy became a science, a world in the process of formation and a confirmation of the nebular hypothesis of world making. When first observed the star appeared of the 9th magnitude but has increased until it is now of the 5th and appears to be absorbing the nebula.

THE state board of health sends us (and all local health officers) three circulars, no's 91, 92 and 93. The first is rules for prevention of introduction of communicable diseases; the second rules for the prevention and restriction of cholera and the third conditions of the removal of sick persons or infested articles. In another place will be found an abstract of No. 92.

THE State Democrat admits that "there is war in the democratic camp at Fort Huron," but it will not admit what is patent to all, that the "war" is as wide as the state. There are not offices enough to go 'round and that's what's the matter. Two hungry dogs and only one bone is a condition that renders a fight inevitable.

THE massacre of the Chinese coal miners at Rock Spring, Wyoming, was entirely without excuse. They did not support American miners nor work for less wages—their only offense was that they would not join the Miner Union and go on strike.

The state board of health, in its tract No. 92, begins by saying that cholera can not originate in Michigan but must come from abroad. Conditions do exist, however, favorable to its spread when introduced and these must be removed. Clean up all filthy places and see to it that the water supply is and is kept uncontaminated is the first suggestion. If a case of cholera occurs disinfect all discharges, by the mouth, bowels or skin of the patient, by mixing the discharges with a strong solution of copperas, chloride of lime, chlorinated soda or chloride of zinc, and then bury where they can not infect any source of drinking water. Burn all cast-off clothing, bedding, etc. This applies to the premonitory diarrhea as well as to the discharges after the disease has become recognizable as cholera. Wrap the bodies of those who die with cholera in cloths saturated with a disinfectant; a solution of chlorinated soda or of chloride of zinc: Clothing too valuable to burn may be placed in these solutions and boiled, but the best way is to burn. The room in which a cholera case has occurred, with its carpets, furniture, etc., should be thoroughly fumigated with burning sulphur. Those in attendance, nurses, must use the disinfectants freely—must never eat or drink in the room or without disinfecting. Give prompt notice of any case which may occur to local health officers and to state board at Lansing. Copies of the document may be obtained by application to the state board.

PITTSBURG dispatches say that "the sales reported this week were the largest of the season, aggregating almost 9,000 tons, and while there has been no advance in prices a much stronger feeling obtains on the part of the sellers. The improved demand for finished iron has, as might be expected, increased the inquiry for the raw articles on the part of consumers, many of whom were low in stock, and, apprehensive that the market might possibly take a turn upward, some of them have been buying pretty freely within the past few days, anxious to guard against the possibility referred to. It is but proper to state in this connection that some of the largest sales reported are for forward delivery, running from 30 to 60 and even to 90 days. At present prices there are as many if not more buyers than sellers, and for the time being the latter have the advantage." And the same condition of trade obtains at other trade centers. The outlook is encouraging.

"Too d—d deliberate to suit anybody but the muggwumps," is Mr. Cleveland, in the opinion of Mr. Stuart, of the Salt Democrat, nor is he singular in holding that opinion.—Escanaba Iron Port.

A "singular" admission for VanDuser of the Iron Port to make, though. However, he did not quote us quite correctly. The "cuss word" should have been omitted. But perhaps VanDuser feels that way himself.—Chippewa Co. Democrat.

That's not a swear, it's a stutter. Yes, the Iron Port would like to see "the rascals" superseded more rapidly. We regard every republican hold-over as a paroled man and we want a general exchange to get 'oar men into the ranks.

"THE tall Sycamore of the Wabash," Dan Voorhees, secured the appointment of Chas. R. Faulkner as chief of division of records in the pension office: This is the style of the Hoosier:

WASHINGTON D. C., Aug. 29, '85.—Mr. William Holaway, editor of the Times: Sir, Will you please send me a copy of the Times that has Jap Turpy Letter in it about my appointment in the pension office, it was one day this week, yours respectfully, C. R. Falkner. I have heard that he Rote one but I couldn't get the date of the paper. C. R. F.

SUPPOSE Gen. Grant did believe Tilden elected in 1876: he was not. The commission created especially to determine that point so decided, and that was the end of the controversy. Tilden tried by a vote—to try to steal a vote, but could do neither, and only such incorrigible bourbons as the Detroit Free Press have referred to the matter for five years. Dry up. Find something later to talk about. That chesnut is too stale altogether.

THE greenbackers and nationalists, through their organs and speakers, claim that "the alliance between the minority parties in Michigan is honorable." Aye, if you will have it so, but is it profitable to anybody but the bourbons? Is the greenback hope any brighter in consequence thereof? Was Begole's administration a boon to the party to which he belonged? Does it pay to play second fiddle to the bourbon democracy?

THE Chicago anarchists, nihilists, or whatever they call themselves, held convulse at Ogden's Grove on Monday. They talked blood and fire, or thought they did; in reality it was but beer and smoke—cheap beer and villainously rank smoke, at that. They ought to be caught and washed, once; it would probably kill a few of the dirtiest, but it would reform the rest.

UNTIL the railways are capitalized at the smallest sum which, honestly and frugally expended, would pay their cost, and conducted for the benefit of the public, there can be no question of destroying or reducing the value of the great natural highways, the rivers and lakes by bridges. The rivers belong to the people—the railways belong to Vanderbilt and Gould.

THE Germans took actual possession of one of the Caroline islands and the war party in Spain is howling for the scalps of the naval commanders who did not prevent it—for war, and for Alphonso's crown unless he goes in for a fight. It will blow over. Spain is in no condition to fight and the king knows it if his subjects do not.

THOMAS K. BEECHER protests against "the torrent of adulation" poured out upon the coffin of Gen. Grant. It was to be expected of him. He never would "bow down and worship" anything made of clay.

The Center, the organ of the prohibitionists of Michigan speaks of the republican party as "the party that hushed the groans of the slave by making him a free man, that strangled treason and made the Nation's credit superior to any in the old world," and shamelessly exults in the belief that that party "is shorn of its power, and the prohibitionists did the shearing." They have defeated the party of liberty, the party of law, the party of progress and turned the country over to its old antagonist, the party of slavery, of treason, of lawlessness, of reaction, and the Center is proud of its work.

"THE ALASKAN" is to be a "weekly newspaper, devoted exclusively to the development of the material resources of the territory of Alaska," and will be issued about the first proximo. To its columns will contribute Gov. Swineford, Hon. D. A. Ball, Col. R. D. Crittenden, Capt. K. Cowles, J. G. Fuller, Bart Atkins and others, who know some one thing and some another, and each how to tell what he does know. Price $3 per annum. Address "The Alaskan, Sitka, Alaska," enclosing that amount and be posted as to what is going on in "Seward's purchase."

THIS steady progress of land transportation requires water transportation to give way before it. And the time is soon coming when no opposition will avail to prevent the bridging of all streams and straits whether they are called Mississippi or Detroit. Usually the water crocodines on the land, but this is a reverse of the business.—Detroit Free Press.

What railway company owns or subsidizes that paper; or does it favor the railway kings against the people by instinct? The sentiment of the above paragraph is simply damnable.

A RUMOR is current that Bonanza Mackay is trying to buy the Herald with the intention of placing John Russell Young at the head of the editorial staff. It would make James Gordon Bennett's bones squirm in their place of rest should young Jim sell, but he may do it for all that. The rumor says further that Mackay has already a mortgage on it, having advanced largely to Bennett in the cable enterprise, which absorbed eight millions.

POWDERLY, master workman of the Knights of Labor, is very level-headed. Speaking of strikes, he said that they bring to the front a class of men who live, not by labor, but upon labor troubles and commit acts for which the laborer is blamed. "We do not want any more such strikes. Better take very little and avoid them."

BIG WATER Tuesday night and Wednesday. Washington street, from Main to East river was three feet under water. The whole East river front and the flats on the north side were under water. On some of the north and south streets water came as far as Main street. Fort Howard was flooded.—G. B. Advocate.

SAM MORLEY was appointed postmaster at Bridgeport, Marion county, Indiana, but it was found out that he had served a two-years' term in the penitentiary, for a larceny, and a demand is made for his removal. He was appointed on the recommendation of the congressman from that district.

THE race for the America's cup, between the Puritan and Geneta, failed on Monday for lack of wind and on Wednesday because of a collision between the yachts (the fault of the Puritan and forfeited the race but the Englishman would not claim it) and was sailed yesterday, Friday, perhaps.

MRS. ISABELLA D. L. HUNT, widow of a democratic soldier, was postmaster at Cannelton, but has been removed to make place for the editor of the democratic paper at that place. She was declared by Congressman Kleiner o. p. Nice pair, Mr. Kleiner and his small-potato editor.

A POLICE raid on a Jackson gambling house caught the mayor, the city attorney and sundry others of the solid men of the city, and now the mayor, attorney, and solid men are clamoring for the overthrow of the police commission. Nice fight, as it stands.

SINCE the New York Times turned muggwump it has lost influence, lost custom and lost money. It stood, as a republican paper, near the head of the list—now it lags very near the foot, and everybody says "serves it right."

"BULLETIN No. 6" from the Agricultural College treats of milk fever in milk cows, its prevention and treatment. It and the inaugural address by President Willits are just received, for which our thanks are due and tendered.

THE Norway Current comes this week enlarged by a column and otherwise bettered. Cook, as heretofore, publisher—Alex. Sutherland editor and manager. Ought to live—will, probably.

They will save hundreds of dollars in doctor's bills every year. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by George Preston. 21

THE WOLF AND THE HARES.

A FABLE.
Once upon a time there was a certain colony of hares, with plenty of cat, lots of time for recreation, and perfect harmony between them. No colony could have been better situated, but one day a wolf stalked in among them and began:
"What do I see here? You seem happy, but you are not. You appear prosperous, but you are really in a starving condition. You look sleek, but that is all outward appearance. I tell you, you are in a bad way, and if something is not speedily done you will be no better off than catfish and slaves."
The hares were dumb with astonishment, and it was some time before the leader could ask for an explanation.
"Why," said the wolf, "the owner of this land has fenced you out of at least half your former territory."
"But he owns it all and has a right to do with his own what pleases him best," said the hare.
"No he hasn't. When his rights conflict with yours he must be put down."
"But he allows us plenty of room as it is; and having been our friend in our days of weakness, we should not turn upon him in our strength."
The wolf argued and the hare protested, but the wolf finally made part of the colony believe that they were terribly oppressed and badly stepped upon, and he set them up to demand more territory. When the old hare saw them about to depart he said:
"You had better let well enough alone. In seeking to grasp too much you may lose all. We have lived here in peace and plenty for years, even when it was hard for the owner to pay taxes and keep this land out of the market. Be satisfied that we have had all that we have earned."
His words fell upon the air. The wolf, too lazy to work, and too unprincipled to get credit, had thoroughly excited the hares, and away they went.
"What!" exclaimed the owner after they had started their grievance, "are you not satisfied with free rent for half my land?"
"But we are oppressed."
"How? Have you not shared my prosperity?"
"Yes."
"Haven't you been well fed?"
"Yes, but we want our rights."
"What are they?"
"We want more room."
"But I can't spare it. Even now I am giving more than I can well spare."
"Well, we must have more room or else we will leave. We will not be oppressed."
The farmer could grant no more room, and the hares at once withdrew from the lands. In a week, after enduring cold, hunger and discomforts they returned to the colony.
"You are not wanted here," said the old hare as he met them. "You are too conceited, too selfish to respect the rights of others, and we could not live in harmony."
The hares then went to the farmer, and he replied: "You were not satisfied with half, and you shall have none; go where you will."
The hares wandered over the country, hungry and dejected, and one day met the wolf and upbraided him for their condition.
"You go to grass," was the sturdy reply.
"You knew me for a lazy, seditious wolf, and if you were fools enough to obey my advice, you must take the consequences. By setting you against the farmer I set you against each other, and now while you recriminate I will indulge in rabbit pie."
MORAL:
Rabbit pie is good—when you aren't the rabbit.

APPLICATION.
When laboring men follow the advice of a jack-leg lawyer or a scurvy, pot-house politician and "strike," they play hare to his wolf and furnish him rabbit pie.

Upper Peninsula.

—May Merwin fell, in the rink, and broke her left leg. Measles in town—case in editor's family.—Manistique Pioneer.

—Two fillers, working in the top-house of the Jones furnace, quarreled and fought and had a narrow escape from rolling into the stack.—Negaunee Herald.

—The woods are full of pine-hunters and they all want good timber. Plenty wild cranberries and blackberries. J. E. Abbott is principal of the public school for the coming year. Chicken thieves abound.—Florence News.

—W. L. Davis and a man named Robin have taken homesteads about 15 miles south of L'Anse and quite a colony is expected to follow them. The lands are rich and will soon become valuable.—L'Anse Sentinel, enlarged and improved.

—"Little Jake" Seligman, of Bay City, has bought 6,000 acres of pine lands in the u. p. Jacob Obeig, at work in the hold of the Francis Palms, was hit by a falling ore-bucket and so badly hurt that he will probably die.—Mining Journal toth.

—Hotel business good, but with better hotels will be better [What's the matter with Curt's house—Curt dead?] Strauss got good water and plenty of it at 130 feet. One firm expended $315 in eight months for advertising and made money by it [Of course]. One man and twenty women employed in public school.—North Star.

August Steinfeld, in attempting to step from the bucket to the second level in the Tamarack mine, fell to the bottom of the shaft and broke his spine. He will live but will be crippled. Fifteen members of the Houghton county bicycle club are wheeling to Copper Harbor for a week's outing.—Calmnet News.

—The Vermillion mines had sent to market on Saturday last, 146,000 tons. Nick Floyd, whose leg was broken in four places by a rock which fell upon him, not only "not lose it but is going to have a serviceable leg of it in a very short time. Been trout-fishing; harder work than bucking cordwood and ruinous to reputation for veracity besides: won't do it again—never.—Tower Press.

—Iron county votes for Escanaba as the site for the u. p. prison. Somebody was fooling around Nick Gilman's place when nobody but Mrs. G. was at home, but he quit, promptly, when she "cut loose" with a revolver. That's the dose for 'em. Washburn road company foolish to go to Saunderson's Point; could do a great deal better at Escanaba. The publisher has removed his family to Iron River.—Iron River Reporter.

—The northeast downed the telegraph wires last night—no report. A bed of fine pottery clay exists near Marquette, of which beautiful brick could be made at a cost of not over $8 per thousand [Ought to be used]. At the fire on Monday night a man risked singeing his beard, if no more, to bring out the occupant of the cradle—a rag baby. Good joke, but the black woman would have saved a meat baby had one been there.—M. J., 9th.

—Storm of Tuesday severe and much damage resulted. Steamboat dock and three warehouses wrecked; Detroit Lumber company and M. F. Merck lost lumber; several structures near the bay undermined. Water higher than ever before known. Judge Grant is holding term. The electric light company has put in another dynamo and now runs 85 lights. The "Brown Incandescent" system for private houses is soon to be added.—Menominee Herald.

—The unfinished opera-house ought to be completed; it can be bought low. The persons who guaranteed the management of the Urso-Potter Vescesius course had to give a dance to get even. Quinnesec put up the cash necessary to drive a shaft to Buell's new find as soon as it was asked for. The drill hole for water on the Chapin location is down 400 feet but no water, or not enough, yet. There are rumors that the Union mine, Crystal Falls, and the Florence will soon be wrought again; guesses, merely.—Men. Range.

—"Vishna," otherwise Charles M. Howell, discontinues his letters to the Mining Journal and severs his connection with that paper in order to devote his time to the elaboration of his politico-economic ideas and their publication in book form. A two-day run at the Ropes mine—about 44 tons of rock—cleaned up 133 ounces of amalgam, worth $399. Jerry Lemaire is missing and unaccounted for at Negaunee. Peter White has put $10,000 into a gold-fund near Ishpeming [Must be a pretty sure thing].—M. J., 5th.

—Chicago parties have bought $97,000 worth of pine of the Canal company, on Pine creek, and will cut it to which end camps will be established and men hired at once. A Business Men's Protective Association was organized on Tuesday. L. J. Kimball is president, Will Ramsdell secretary and C. T. McElroy treasurer [The town board and the new postmaster seem to be what they want to protect themselves against]. The new pumping machinery for the Norway mine has been tested and found to work perfectly. The drill at the Perkins, down over 400 feet, is still in quartzite and will be moved soon unless some better indications are struck. Indiana mine now employs 100 men but will double its force soon.—Norway Current.

—Dwyer & Ward have a promising show for gold near the rich find on the Lake Superior property. Three assays by Jones of Ishpeming, show $9.69, $10.93 and $11.06 to the ton of vein matter. The body of Alex. Pearce was found near the camp-meeting grounds on the shore of Teal Lake, Negaunee, on Saturday night. He died of heart disease. Age 45 years. The dry-house at the Winthrop mine was burned on Monday morning. Loss $1,500, chiefly the clothing of the night shift then underground. A two-story wooden building on fifth street was gutted by fire on Monday night.—Mining Journal, 8th.

The State.

One Perry, a Petoskey tooth-cobber, administered 15 grains of chloral to Mrs. D. Brown and extracted eleven teeth. She don't need them, being dead.

Heavy frost all over the lower peninsula on the night of Sept. 1 and 2.

Joseph Rabotole was killed by being thrown against a gang of saws in a mill at Bay City on the 2d.

J. B. Russell was transfixed by an edging thrown from a circular saw and his intestines perforated in two places, but recovered.

Andrew Brown stole two horses at Grand Haven but, instead of getting away with them, hung around for enough more to make a good thing, and was taken in by the cops.

M. H. Nichols and wife celebrated their golden wedding at Jackson on the 2d.

Three hoodlums who attacked a colored school teacher on his way home from a church festival at Jackson on the evening of the 3d, waked up the wrong passenger. "The coon" had a gun, and Isaac Maxey is dead and Wm. Anderson and Albert Starkey are wounded.

Professor Lodeman, of the normal school, partially demented from the effect of chloroform carelessly administered, attempted suicide by shooting on the 2d. He will live.

George Dennis attempted to jack-knife out of the Cadillac lock-up but did not whittle the hole large enough. When his shoulders were outside and his hips inside and he could neither go ahead nor back out he called for help.

Pontiac is debating the question of a water supply and has about decided on a system of works.

Charlevoix is to have a $250,000 flouring establishment.

Ansley Gray, a prohibition preacher sometime, is "on a big drunk."

A Lapeer woman with a $40,000 bank account and something wrong with her reasoning powers wants to marry Vanderbilt.

A Flint woman tried to get rid of an obnoxious son-in-law by mixing powdered glass with his food, but the fellow was too "fly" and got on to the old girl's game before his intestinal canal was entirely cut to pieces. He had a close call but will live, and loves his wife too well to punish her mother.

The salvation mob suffers defeat; roughs beat it, which is all wrong, and policemen capture it, which is all right.

Bronson & Stickney's mill at Big Rapids was burned on the 3d. Loss $7,000, insurance $4,000.

The Detroit, Bay City & Alpena railroad is to be extended to Black River, 30 miles.

Elk Rapids furnace has an order for 400 tons of iron to go to England.

An Adrian judge took the whole court, officers, jury and witnesses, twenty-two miles in the rain to view the theater of an alleged attempt to commit a rape.

HAY COVERS.
Safe and Economical Investment for the Farm.
The idea should never be given up that "hay covers" are one of the safest and most economical investments on the farm. The time is coming when no well regulated farm will do without them in a climate where rainfall in hay harvest is almost certain. Farmers must more fully appreciate the difference in the nutritive value of hay rightly-cured and that poorly done. Hay can nearly always be perfectly cured with the aid of caps for it when cooked up.
Cut hay (timothy) just before the seed is formed—just when the blossoms are falling off. Cut the grass any time when the dew or rain are off, and always cock it up before rain or the dew falls on it, with at least three hundred weight in a bunch and cover with caps. In this condition it will cure the best, and if the weather be costly, or it is not convenient to haul in, it will stand safely a week. When ready to haul in on a fair day, uncover the cocks, throw over and open to the sun and air. One person can be doing this while the others are drawing in. When the hay gets ripe and almost worthless, the patent stacker may be used, when hay can be cut and stacked the same day. But under no circumstances should hay be exposed over night spread out in the dew or exposed to rain. Nor should any sensible man listen to the now-fangled theories that hay will keep and be sweet and nutritious which is put into mow or stack half cured. The principles of chemistry are as unalterable, and can no more be violated with impunity, than can the decalogue.
Hay caps are cheap, and if well taken care of, will last a lifetime. When haying is laid they should be carefully dried, laid evenly one upon another, rolled up tight and tied, and placed where neither dampness nor mice will disturb them. To make them impervious to water, they can be stepped in a solution of alum and sugar of lead. They are then water proof. One ton of good hay saved from destruction by exposure to a storm will pay for several such caps.—Iowa State Register.

ST. LOUIS manufactures the largest quantity of White Lead of any city in the WORLD; and its genuine brands;
"Collier Company,"
"Southern Company,"
"St. Louis L. & O. Co., Red Seal,"
are always perfectly pure, and known and used everywhere. Consumers of White Lead should insist upon having the above genuine brands. Dealers can buy direct from factory, or from jobbers in Chicago or elsewhere.

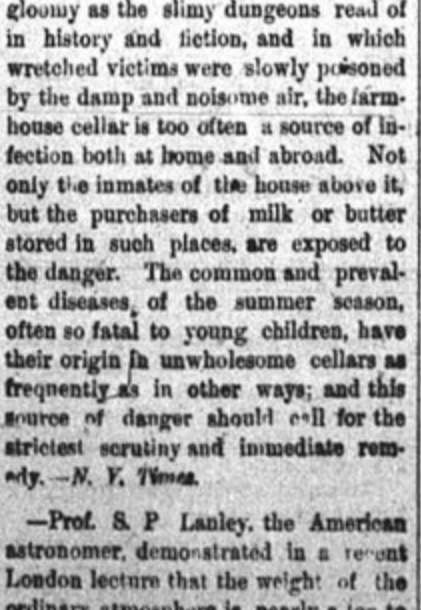

The Cellar.

The cellar—damp, confined and filled with unwholesome germs from decaying matter or from the reeking moisture of the soil—is the next serious danger to the overflowing cesspool. Dark and gloomy as the slimy dungeons read in history and fiction, and in which wretched victims were slowly poisoned by the damp and noisome air, the farmhouse cellar is too often a source of infection both at home and abroad. Not only the inmates of the house above it, but the purchasers of milk or butter stored in such places, are exposed to the danger. The common and prevalent diseases of the summer season, often so fatal to young children, have their origin in unwholesome cellars as frequently as in other ways; and this source of danger should call for the strictest scrutiny and immediate remedy.—N. Y. Times.

PARKER'S HAIR GALSAM
The popular favorite for dressing the hair, restoring its color when gray, and preventing dandruff. It cleanses the scalp, keeps the hair falling, and is most valuable in all scalp diseases.

PARKER'S TONIC
The Best Tonic Cure you can use. Recommended by eminent physicians. Popular for its well known properties of purifying the blood and building up the health and strength. It has made wonderful cures of Rheumatism, Neuritis, Throat, Lung, Liver, Kidney, and Nervous diseases, and has brought health and comfort to thousands of suffering women. Its property of increasing the nourishing quality of the blood, renders it as effective in restoring the vital energies that it often saves life. If you suffer from Debility, Giddiness, Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Neuralgia, Tremor, Sleeplessness, or other ailments, your blood is defective and is lacking in power to nourish and sustain the system. Don't wait till you are sick in bed, but use PARKER'S TONIC today. It will give you new life and vigor. Preparing by Dr. J. C. Parker, Lowell, Mass.

—Will Oliver writes us from Harney, Dakota.
—Mrs. Rolph went south last week on a visit.
—Counsellor Crocker, of Ishpeming, was in town over Sunday.
—Rev. H. W. Thompson has gone to attend conference.
—Peter Kluber, of Turin, called at the PORT office Tuesday.
—Miss Parker, of Marquette, is visiting at P. Van Valkenburg's.
—Ed. Erickson and John McNaughtan went south Sunday.
—Robert Peacock, of Whitefish, was in town on Saturday last.
—Capt. Donegan, of the Oak Leaf, called on the IRON PORT on Tuesday.
—Mr. Mason broke camp and returned to his residence in this city on Thursday.
—Harlow Brainerd and wife went by the Corona on Sunday to visit in Wisconsin.
—Mamie Ellsworth arrived, from a visit outside, on Friday evening of last week.
—Mr. M. F. Winters, of Neenah, Wis., is for the present the guest of E. P. Barras.
—F. O. Clark departed on Thursday on the Moore for Chicago to visit his relatives.
—L. Stegmiller has been at Marquette, serving as a juror in the U. S. court, since the first inst.
—Miss Daisy McCorquodale was the guest for an hour or so on Thursday of Miss Josie Longley.
—Mrs. Linsley and Miss Gertrude Selden visited at Stambaugh last week, returning on Friday evening.
—Mr. Fred. Thompson departed for lower Michigan on Tuesday and will remain there during the winter.
—Selah C. Macdonald has established himself at Bessemer, Ontonagon co., in a real-estate business.
—Frank Tyrrell, late caller for the railway company here, is now employed as checker on the ore dock at Ashland.
—Geo. Heathcote, formerly observer at this place for signal service, has left that service and is residing in Chicago.
—Bill Shay was in town on Saturday last. It will be "Mr. Shay" in a few years, when the farm has made him rich.
—W. F. Brotherton and family have returned; Will from the woods and Mrs. Brotherton from a visit in Wisconsin.
—Andy Wheaton came over on Saturday on purpose to pay a year's subscription to the IRON PORT and get the American Farmer.
—E. Gaynor, Esq., of Norway, was in town a couple of days this week. He proposes to spend the coming winter with his family in the south.
—C. W. Davis and wife, Mrs. Prentiss, and the young people, who have been in camp on Sanders' Point, went home by the Corona on Sunday.
—W. F. Riggs arrived here from Marquette on Saturday and went home, to Manistique, on the Moore, calling on the IRON PORT en passant.

Local Items.

—Mr. Felix Salvail now goes smiling with a full upper set of teeth, weighing less than three fourths of an ounce. They were made by, Dr. A. S. Winn.
—One of the attractive points in Green-hoot's new fall stock is his assortment of Ladies' Cloths. He offers them, plain or plaided, in all the latest shades and in all weights.
—The third of the Lyceum Course of entertainments, the Vesceus Concert of Ballad music, occurs on Wednesday evening next. At other points it has proved the most acceptable of the three. Seats at Mead's Godley's and Preston's.
—Gospel meeting in the Swedish Methodist church on the Sabbath (Saturday) at 3 p. m., and on Sunday at the usual hours, morning and evening. The preaching in the evening will be in the Swedish language.
M. B. MILLER, Elder.
—Bring your Job Printing (no matter what kind) to this office. A new job press and thirty odd fonts of new-style job type has been added to our outfit. If our prices are not low enough, say so and we'll give you figures to suit. Try us, once.
—The new Cook Stove, just introduced here by Dixon & Cook, is a new departure, and is a very sensible one, in stoves. The money it costs is put where it will do good—into the material and fittings of the stove—not into ornamentation. Drop in and look at it. It looks "like business."
—Greenhoot can not, in the space at his disposal in the IRON PORT, begin to enumerate the articles that go to make up his stock. Suffice it to say that in any line of goods in which he deals, no customer shall leave the place unsatisfied. He has the goods and will make the prices to sell them.
—Believing there is a demand for a school of a high order in the upper peninsula Mrs. M. B. Manger will open a school on Sept. 14, 1885, at her residence in Menominee, Michigan. She has been a teacher for a number of years and for more than eight past engaged in the city schools of Menominee. It is intended to unite through instruction with Christian culture. The location is on Ogden avenue in the most healthful portion of the city and parents contemplating sending their children abroad are requested to correspond with her. Terms and course of study furnished on application.

W. C. T. U.

BE THE LADY OF THE W. C. T. U.
—[Pledge of Temperance Union: "In the full belief of the existence and power of Almighty God, and acknowledging our accountability to Him, we solemnly promise that we will not make, buy, sell, use, furnish or cause to be furnished to others as a beverage any spirituous liquors, and by all just means in our power to banish the use of intoxicating liquors from our land and to advance the cause of temperance."
—Regular prayer-meeting at the reading-room Friday evenings at 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited.
—The next regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the reading rooms, Saturday afternoon, Sept. 12, 1885, at 3 p. m.
—"Temperance is the proper control of the appetites. It implies the moderate use of good things and total abstinence from poisons. Alcohol and tobacco are poisons."
—"Every living being is provided with a certain amount of innate vital force which must last for life, be that long or short, and the stimulants use this up, so that what might last many years, is expended in a few. We may hear it said "Oh, that put life into me," whereas it only called up reserve power which by and by may be wished for in vain."—Dr. R. E. Heath.
—The bright little child that God took away! Ah! you would not have been away so many nights if you had thought she was going away so soon. Your wife has never brightened up since then. She has not got over it. She will never get over it. What a pity it is that you can not spend more evenings at home consoling that great sorrow. Oh, you can not drown that grief in the wine cup! You can not forget those little arms that were thrown around your neck while she said, "Papa, do stay home to-night, do stay home to-night!" You can not wipe from your lips the dying kiss of that little child. And yet there has been many a man so completely overcome by the fascinations of a dissipating club-house that he went off the night the child was dying of scarlet fever. He came back about midnight and it was all over. The eyes were closed. The undertaker had done his work. The wife lay unconscious in the next room from having watched for three weeks. He came up stairs, and he saw the empty cradle, and saw the window up. He said, "What is the matter?" In God's judgment day he will find out what was the matter. Oh, man astray, God help you.—Dr. Talmage.
—Who should sustain prohibition:
The young man who is in danger.
The father whose example will be followed by the sons.
The father who wants to protect his daughter from the curse of being married to a drinking man.
The total abstainer who does not need saloons.
The drinking man who feels the tempting power of saloons.
The moderate drinker who may become a drunkard if the saloons continue.
The rich man whose taxes are largely increased by saloons.
The poor man who is compelled to support an army of worthless men because they are rum-sellers.
The patriot who loves his country.
The Christian, who like the good Samaritan, loves his neighbor.
The minister whose flock is ravaged by strong drink.
The teacher who is the leader of his scholars.
The business man because the liquor traffic injures his trade.
The landlord because the rum-sellers often get much of the money that ought to be paid for rent.
Travelers, because their lives are imperiled by being in the hands of intemperate men.
The women who suffer the most from rum.
—The Center.
—A fruitful field for prohibitory work in the far west is afforded by the immense ranches. If their owners would prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors upon them, as they have a perfect right to do, a vast region in each state and territory of the comparatively undeveloped western half of the country would, not only be started in the right direction, but the cause of a very large proportion of western crime and disorder would be removed. There is not a ranch proprietor who has not suffered large pecuniary loss, and embarrassments of many kinds through the recklessness and quarrelsomeness of habitually drunken employes. The experience of the largest ranchman in Los Angeles county, California, who, after two murders—both caused by drunkenness—had been committed on his estate, was compelled in self defense to banish liquor from his lands, is, so far as the provocation toward his decisive action is concerned, no uncommon one. Direct appeals to the ranchmen ought therefore to effect a great deal.

IMPROVEMENTS and additions recently made to Judge Ramsdell's already fine barn make it altogether the finest and most complete in all its appointments of any building of its kind in northern Michigan, if not in the state. As it now stands, its length is 125 feet, and breadth 56 feet. One-half of it is three stories in height and the remainder two stories. The basement is larger than most barns. To build it required 56 cords of stone. The main cellar is 53x34 feet, the canned fruit cellar 14x14, the hen house 14x36, the stable 50x56. Among the other compartments of the building are a milk room through which flows constantly pure water from the hill springs, a large fruit packing room, a carpenter's shop, etc. Water from the springs is also conveyed to the stables, hen house, etc. A fire-place in the main cellar furnishes facilities for cooking feed, or any other purpose required. A visit to this establishment will repay any one at all interested in farm matters.—Grand Traverse Herald.
