

MISS POLLARD IN TEARS

THE JUDGE, JURY AND COUNSEL ARE DEEPLY MOVED.

While the Curtain Rings Down on the Plaintiff Sobbing as if Her Heart Would Break—A Sad Story of Deception and Sin Practiced by Defendant.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—When the shrill voice of the bailiff cried adjournment in the bare old circuit court the veiled face of Madeline Pollard was buried in her arms upon the rough board top of the witness box behind which she had sat for three days. The only sound which had broken such a silence as seldom falls on a court room was a sobbing that seemed to come from her inmost heart.

As during the day before the witness pointed every answer with a shaft for the man she says wronged her. Did she write letters to Rhodes—while the mistress of the Kentucky stevedam—asking him for money and appointing meetings with him? It was chargeable to Breckinridge. Did she write other letters to Rhodes pretending to be at New Orleans and describing the city? It was likewise chargeable. Did she write other letters? The letters she said were all planned by Breckinridge—some of them written on a typewriter by him. All had the purpose of preventing Rhodes from finding out her relations with Breckinridge, and he was the instigator of them all. Indeed the witness painted the darling of Kentuckians very black from beginning to end.

that if I kept them they would be surely traced to him. A woman can't do more than that. She can't do more than give up her children. I laid my baby in its coffin because it needed a mother's care, which I had not been able to give it, because he made me put it away from me. I never—let—him—see—me—cry—over—it. I never."

KOSSUTH IS NO MORE.

The Well Known Hungarian Patriot Passes to Eternity.

TURN, March 21.—Louis Kosuth died at 10:55 o'clock last evening. Kosuth's end was extremely painful. He showed signs of consciousness until the last. He expired in the arms of his son, and died pressing the hand of the Hungarian Deputy Karolyi. The members of his family and a few of his intimate friends stood around the bedside of the expiring patriot.

A HOLLOW PEACE AT DENVER.

Condition of Affairs That May Yet Result in Bloodshed.

DENVER, March 19.—General McCook has withdrawn the federal troops from this city to Fort Logan, the state troops have all gone to Cripple Creek and the city has assumed its statu quo ante bellum. The dispute between the governor and the commissioners will come up before the supreme court, but a new difficulty has arisen. Orr and Martin, by advice of their counsel, say they will not be governed by the supreme court decision and will insist on a decision in the regular way, through the case in the district court—proceedings against the new commissioners for contempt in disregarding Judge Graham's injunction.

HONORS TO NEAL DOW.

The Veteran Coldwater Man's Birthday Anniversary Kept.

PORTLAND, Me., March 21.—The birthday of Neal Dow was celebrated here. The old temperance reformer was unusually bright and said he was in the best of health. Congratulatory telegrams in large numbers were received from all parts of the world.

LONDON, March 21.—The meeting in Exeter hall to celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of the birthday of Neal Dow was an immense success. The hall was packed to its utmost capacity and the greatest enthusiasm was manifested.

DENVER, March 21.—The nineteenth birthday anniversary of Neal Dow, the famous temperance lecturer, was appropriately celebrated at the Peoples' Tabernacle here. At night Rev. Dr. Kerr Tupper lectured on "Neal Dow and Prohibition Laws," and addresses were made by Mrs. Annie Dow Urie and Mrs. Eva Higgins.

CHICAGO, March 21.—News from all parts of the north and west of this country shows that the Neal Dow birthday anniversary was very generally observed.

President Has the Seigniorage Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Chairman Pearson, of the house committee on enrolled bills, has presented the Bland silver seigniorage bill to Private Secretary Thurber, who accepted for it in the president's name. The constitutional ten days' limitation within which it must be acted upon began today. Very speedy action on the part of the president is not expected, as the measure will be given very earnest and thorough consideration.

Hart Is Nervy to the Last.

The Straits Not Yet Open.

The Re-publican, of St. Ignace, says: "The ice in the south passage remains intact. It is piled up high between McGillin's and Waugoshance; though right warm weather may soften it so that boats can force a passage by April 1st, but we are not betting on so early a date."

THE CYCLONE IN TEXAS.

THE DEATH ROLL WILL PROBABLY FOOT UP TWENTY,

While Over 100 Is Likely To Be the Record of Injured—Emery, Tex., Knocked Out of Existence and the Sufferers Call for Help—Correct List of the Dead.

DALLAS, Tex., March 20.—The storms which swept over northern Texas Saturday night, Sunday and Monday night and which were prevailing yesterday are unparalleled in severity. The death roll will reach twenty and the list of wounded over 100. At Emery, the capital of Reine county, the cyclone knocked the town nearly out of existence. There were many other towns visited and handled roughly. Mayor Barry has called upon our citizens for contributions to relieve the sufferers, many of whom have been ruined and mourn the loss of members of their families. Sunday night an electric storm, followed by a miniature deluge of rain fell upon Dallas and all the counties around us. No breaks in the railroads have been reported, but it is nearly certain that some will occur. The river in front of the city is rising rapidly.

A Corrected List of Dead. Following is a revised list of the dead and injured at Lansing's Swith, the center of Sunday morning's cyclone, six miles from here. The dead number eight as follows: Alex Lester, Sarah Lester, Alex Lester, Jr., Robert Lester, Sissy Lester, Jasper Collins, Dock Simmons, and Arthur Lester. Mortally wounded—Mollie Collins, Frank Dizon, and Odessa Lester—all colored. Seriously injured are ten or fifteen others, both white and black.

Reports from Nacogdoches are that the neighborhood has been swept by two cyclones and a drenching rain. Communication with the stricken section has been suspended and only meagre details are obtainable. Every house on the Whitaker negro colony was blown away and a number of persons severely hurt. In the Grimes neighborhood, eight miles from there, not a fence nor house is left. Dan Grimes was killed and his wife, who was confined to her bed, received fatal injuries. Her babe, a few days old, escaped. Another cyclone two miles east wrecked all the houses in the McCuiston mill settlement. The corpse of a young lady who died the night before was mangled beyond recognition. Many inmates of the houses were fatally injured. Jake Ballinger, an old blind man, was killed by flying timbers.

Two Towns Reported Wiped Out. Relief parties have been organized. It is reported that Hilland, in Bell county, and Bartlett in Williamson county, were wiped out, but no authentic news is yet obtainable from these places as the wire are down. A destructive cyclone also struck in the vicinity of Luffin, and laid bare everything in its path. About a dozen farm houses within three miles of the place were completely demolished.

Another tornado struck the edge of Luffin and three houses were wrecked and their contents scattered over the country a distance of a mile or two. Several persons were seriously injured, but none fatally. A house was blown down and a man killed at Emporia, ten miles below Luffin. People in the storm's path are in a deplorable condition, all of their household goods either scattered out of reach or entirely destroyed, and they have not shelter from the downpour of rain which has been falling all day. Huge pines were broken up and twisted.

A dispatch from Texarkana, Ark., says: "A report has reached this city to the effect that a very disastrous cyclone visited Saratoga, Ark., and the vicinity, killing five people and severely injuring several others. Saratoga is about twenty-five miles from a telegraph office and late particulars cannot be obtained, but the report of the disaster which reached this city is credited. This city and section of the country has been visited by one of the heaviest rain falls known here for years."

From Gainesville, Tex., comes the report that the most violent electric and hail storm ever known has been prevailing here during the past three days, causing all streams to overflow their banks. Fears are entertained that much damage will be done.

A storm struck Bartlett, a town about twenty-five miles south of Belton, Tex., doing great damage. The Methodist and Baptist churches were blown down and completely wrecked. All the school houses were blown from their foundations.

THE TARIFF BILL IS COMPLETED.

Sugar Gets an Increase of One-eighth Cent a Pound in Duty.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The Democratic members of the finance committee have completed consideration of the tariff bill, and in its revised and completed form it was submitted to the full committee, Republicans and Democrats. The most interesting change in the bill is in the sugar schedule, a change being made by which an additional duty of one-eighth of one cent per pound is given on all sugars testing above 98 degrees by the polariscope test, or which are above No. 16 Dutch standard in color.

The provisions abrogating the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty are struck from the revised bill and a specific declaration is inserted repealing the reciprocity treaties negotiated under the McKinley act. Little changes are innumerable—sometimes increasing the duty and in other cases decreasing it. In introducing the bill Voorhees said there would be no written report, but when the bill was called up there would be a statement.

The Cripple Creek Troubles.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., March 21.—A secret conference of mine owners has been held at which the situation at Cripple Creek was thoroughly discussed. They are determined to adhere to the original schedule of nine hours at $3, and will have nothing to do with compromise, saying that the matter is now in the courts and must be settled according to the dictates of the courts. The sheriff has put the governor on record by sending him a telegram stating the serious consequences likely to ensue if the militia was withdrawn. The owners have also memorialized the governor asking that the troops be retained to protect life and property and holding him responsible.

Started at a Reduction.

CHICAGO, March 20.—The Illinois Steel company's plant at South Chicago, employing about 5,000 men, has started at the following rates of wages: Common laborers receive $1 a day instead of $1.20 and $1.25 as heretofore. Men who have received $2 a day will now get but $1.44. Watchmen who got $25 a month will only receive $43, and so on through the scale of other occupations.
