

MARX-STRESEMAN GOVERNMENT WINS

Remove Agriculture From Politics, Dawes' Solution

METHODS USED TO CLARIFY REPARATIONS SITUATION IN EUROPE ARE RECOMMENDED

WORLD WAR BLAMED FOR CONDITIONS GENERALLY.

(By The Associated Press.) Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 29.—Removal of the agricultural problem from politics and its solution by an impartial, non-partisan, competent commission under the same methods of procedure which ended the European reparations tangle, was advocated here tonight by Charles G. Dawes, Republican candidate for vice president.

Mr. Dawes, speaking to an audience in the University of Nebraska memorial stadium which included many old friends and neighbors who had given him an enthusiastic welcome earlier in the day, declared the agricultural question had been discussed from the standpoint of national interest and not party interest.

World War Blamed. The Republican vice presidential nominee declared the causes of agricultural distress to be fundamental with conditions resulting from the World War the great underlying factor, and the solutions from the problem so numerous and diversified that the task only could be undertaken with promise of success by such a national commission as has been proposed and will shortly be appointed by President Coolidge.

Mr. Dawes deliberately selected the corn belt, with the great northwestern wheat regions not far away, as the point from which to send out his message on the agricultural question—an address on which he admitted today he has spent more time and energy than on all his other speeches together.

His old friends in Lincoln returned the compliment by decorating the city with green stalks of corn and by staking a parade in carrying more than 100 men marched carrying stalks of Nebraska's principal crop.

Prices Not Permanent. The nominee came to Nebraska at a time when the hopes of its farmers had been raised by improvement in corn prospects and by increased prices, but in his speech tonight he warned that the present prices which he explained were due to operation of the law of supply and demand, were not permanent and that a lasting solution must be arranged.

Mr. Dawes was introduced by Mark Woods, one of the first men in Nebraska to propose the nomination of the former Nebraskan as vice president. Mr. Woods' reference to ratification of the Dawes reparation plan today by the German reichstag was loudly cheered.

Taking notice that Governor Charles W. Bryan, the Democratic nominee for the vice presidency, is a resident of Lincoln, Mr. Dawes had in his address with a complimentary reference to Nebraska's governor.

Michigan's Claim Gathers Strength At Day's Hearing

(By The Associated Press.) Ephraim, Wis., Aug. 29.—The steamer McCormick Betty put in here tonight with officials of Michigan and Wisconsin, who held depositions at Detroit Harbor and on Washington Island, Wis., today in the boundary dispute pending in the United States supreme court.

Captain Knutson, aged 70, former lighthouse keeper on Washington Island, gave testimony tending to show that the usual traffic in the waters of Green Bay followed the course of the middle of the bay with an outlet at Death's Door, which formed the boundary line claimed by Michigan.

He also testified that some lake traffic in the early days passed through Rock Island channel into Lake Michigan, this channel being the boundary claimed by Wisconsin.

Michigan claimed the boundary to run between the Death's Door passage, while Wisconsin claimed the boundary to be the Rock Island passage. A number of islands in between the passages in dispute as to title are now under the jurisdiction of Wisconsin.

Testimony concerning early day traffic through Rock Island passage tends to substantiate Wisconsin's defense that this was the usual course taken by vessels in the early days, which was contemplated in the federal act authorizing the boundary between the two states.

TRAINING CAMP IS DISMISSED; BOYS GO HOME

Rudiments Of Military Life Taught 3,900 During 30 Days.

(By The Associated Press.) Camp Custer, Mich., Aug. 29.—Three states sent 3,900 boys to the citizens' military training camp 30 days ago, but Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin are receiving back today 3,900 bronzed, rugged and alert lads, fit and ready for the rigors of school or the shop.

That in brief tells the story of what the citizens' military training camp did for those who responded to the call of the government for young men to learn the rudiments of military training.

These embryo soldiers, all between the ages of 16 and 26, many of them high school and college students, were given intensive courses in military training each morning, but their health was never neglected. Each morning the boys were given "setting up" exercises and every afternoon was devoted to all kinds of athletic games or to swimming in Eagle Lake which proved the most popular spot on the reservation. Four of these camps will qualify a lad for a commission in the officers reserve corps.

Large Age Range. The average age of the boys who attended camp this year is 18 years, six months, according to Major L. E. Atkins. There were ten boys of the minimum age of 16 years, six months and the oldest was 26 years, 11 months. The men in the basic course averaged 18 years, two months; those in the red course, 18 years, ten months; in the white course, 19 years, 11 months, and those in the blue course, 20 years, 7 months.

A conservative estimate made by General Moseley, camp commander, places the cost of caring for each lad at ten dollars a day. The government furnished them with clothing, food, blankets and all equipment. In case of sickness, all medical attention and hospital service was furnished free of charge.

Plenty of entertainment was furnished by Captain G. R. Hedge, morale officer. There were free movies at the Liberty Theatre where numerous shows were given including an amateur minstrel by the C. M. T. C. boys themselves. The hostess house afforded them an opportunity to read magazines and write letters home, and the dances were also held there which were free to the boys.

Sharkey Knocked Out by Chilean

(By The Associated Press.) Boston, Aug. 29.—Quintin Romero - Rojas, Chilean heavyweight, turned a battle that was going against him into a victory tonight by knocking out Jack Sharkey of this city, until a few months ago, the heavyweight pride of the United States navy.

The blow that sent Sharkey down was a swinging right hook to the jaw in the closing seconds of the eighth round. The bell rung with Sharkey sprawled on the floor. He came up for the ninth round, but fell across the ring in a futile attempt to stand up.

Opposing Lawyers Fight in Corridor

(By The Associated Press.) Detroit, Aug. 29.—William Cohen and Mark Goodwin, attorneys representing opposing parties to a divorce case being tried in circuit court here, came to blows in the corridor of the county building after their remarks in court became so heated that Judge Ernest P. Lajole, fearing trouble, adjourned court.

The bout ended in a draw when another attorney happened along and separated the combatants before much damage had been done to either. Goodwin accused Cohen of calling him a liar in court. Cohen, it seems, had declared he would not believe Goodwin under oath.

Observance Is Asked By Mayor In Proclamation

From time immemorial the first Monday of September in each year has been widely recognized in this country and foreign lands as a day set apart to the great cause of labor.

The very basis of our prosperity is based on fairness and justice to labor. That the worker is entitled to a fair share of what he produces, is now established and Labor Day is fittingly celebrated in recognition of labor's long struggle to obtain its rights. It is no longer debatable that a worker is entitled to a great deal more than a living wage. Therefore the great accomplishments of labor has resulted in the day being set apart to celebrate its achievements.

It is fitting that the people of the City of Escanaba unite in celebration of this day, and I therefore, on behalf of the City of Escanaba, respectfully urge all our citizens to join in the celebration of the day and to enter into the spirit of this occasion; to close their plants, shops, and stores, so that all employes and employees may observe the day.

Respectfully, WM. J. HANRAHAN, Mayor.

FRANKS TRIAL COST IS HIGH

Estimated Expenditures Run Close To Quarter Million Dollars.

(By The Associated Press.) Chicago, Aug. 29.—The cost of deciding between hanging or imprisonment for Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb for kidnaping and murdering Robert Franks will amount to a quarter of a million dollars, according to a compilation of estimates by state and defense, fees to attorneys to make up the larger items of both state and defense costs.

Not all bills are in, but Lawrence Cuneo, secretary to Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, who fought for the noose for the youths against the defense plea for life sentences in the preliminary, estimated the total would be "between $50,000 and $60,000." The defense spent another $50,000, according to Clarence S. Darrow, chief of defense counsel, with attorneys' fees yet to be fixed.

Establishes Record. Other trials have cost the state greater amounts, it was pointed out, but the Franks hearing established a record for a plea of guilty, the state's effort being directed toward the severer of the two punishments.

The salary of Judge John R. Caverly, who has the case under advisement until 9:30 a. m. September 10, was figured in the state's expense, as was that of Mr. Crowe and his assistants. That totaled $5,850. Stenography cost $5,000, attorneys' fees are estimated at $11,000.

Mr. Darrow and his associates agreed to have their fees set by a committee of the Chicago Bar Association, which has not acted.

Caverly In Court. Judge Caverly was in his courtroom for a brief time today to discharge the grand jury, his last official act as chief justice of the criminal courts of Cook county. He will remain here a few days more perusing the approximately 2,000 pages of the record of the hearing, and then will retire to prepare his decision.

Loeb and Leopold, attired in new clothing, held forth gaily at the county jail today. Foreman Leopold visited his brother this afternoon and spoke to Nathan Cohen about newspaper reports that he and Loeb generally were referred to as displaying indifference. Such accounts were worrying his father, Foreman told Nathan, and he asked that Nathan exercise care not to give such impressions.

(By The Associated Press.) Ironwood, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ible, and 9 year old son of Gary, Ible, were injured when their automobile went into a ditch near here today. Ruth, 14 year old daughter, was unhurt. They will resume their journey in a few days.

WALES ARRIVES FOR HOLIDAY IN UNITED STATES

No Pomp Or Ceremony Marks Landing Of Young Prince.

(By The Associated Press.) New York, 29.—Edward, Prince of Wales, arrived today. Slightly built and diffident, he blushed while newspaper correspondents and reception committees thronged about to greet him, on his second visit to the United States. Three army airplanes hovered over the liner Berengaria and thousands of persons ashore and in small boats around the ship strained their eyes for a sight of the distinguished young Englishman.

Soon he climbed down a ladder to a private yacht, which took him to Glen Cove on the north shore of Long Island, whence he journeyed by motor to the home of James A. Burden, at Syosset. He will depart early tomorrow morning for Washington, to be the guest of President Coolidge at luncheon.

Returning to Syosset, he will stay there for about two weeks. The prince, wearing a blue shirt and collar and a sack suit of light grey, looked more like a college boy than a man of 30 years, reared to be a king. Despite his having travelled virtually around the world, and having spoken at diplomatic dinners in many capitals, the prince appeared to be deeply embarrassed when he found 75 newspapermen awaiting him on the starboard deck.

He shook hands with a few of the reporters and in response to one or two formal questions he glanced about as if bewildered, felt in his pockets, then turned to Major Oscar N. Solbert, his American aide, saying: "I've got a written statement somewhere. Where is it?"

Before the prepared statement was found, more queries came from the group, and the prince finally spoke a few words, hesitatingly, and once or twice with a slight stammer.

"I'm happy to be in America," he said. "I like your country very much."

He lowered his flushed face and added: "The fact that I come over here for the holiday is the best I can say in that direction."

It was a young woman journalist who pushed forward and put the inevitable question as to the prince's possible marriage. He smiled tolerantly and said, no, he was not engaged. Then came this one: "Would you marry an American girl if you fell in love with one?" The prince smiled again, but did not reply.

He explained he had crossed the sea for a holiday and expressed the hope that the newspapermen would make matters as easy for him as possible. Then he gave out his written statement, saying he was glad to renew American acquaintances and predicting that the polo match between the British and American teams, which he will attend, would be "the finest exhibition of a great game which the world can produce today."

There was no royal pomp about the arrival of the prince. At his own request there was no military or naval salutes. The only display of that sort was the airplane escort, which circled around the Berengaria as she steamed into the bay. From one of the planes addresses of welcome, written by Governor Smith and Mayor Hyman were read into a radio transmitter, while the prince listened. The liner did not fly the royal standard, the visit being nominally unofficial.

EIGHT KILLED BY EXPLOSION OF GAS TANKS

1,500 GALLONS ARE IGNITED; CAUSE UNKNOWN.

(By The Associated Press.) Pittsburgh, Aug. 29.—An explosion of gasoline late today in the garage of the Peoples' Natural Gas Company, took a toll of eight lives, three of them boys, caused probable fatal injury to seven persons and less serious injury to seven others. A part of the Peoples' Natural Gas Building was wrecked and adjoining buildings were shaken by the blast. The property damage was estimated at $10,000.

The explosion occurred when a 1,500 gallon tank of gasoline was being drained into the storage tank at the garage. Four automobiles in the garage and six others standing in the street were destroyed by fire which followed the blast. Flames shot through windows and doorways of the building from the truck which had hauled the gasoline tank into the garage. Officials of the company declare they could assign no cause for the blast.

Scenes of wildest confusion followed until police reserves arrived and established fire lines. Windows within a radius of eight blocks were shattered.

About 25 persons were in the building at the time, the majority of them being girls. Three young women were among those injured. They were hurled across the room by the blast. The others hurried to the street from the third floor where they had been working.

REVOLUTION IN CHINA RESUMES

Refugees Pack Railway Trains From Zones Of Fighting.

(By The Associated Press.) Shanghai, Aug. 29.—Despite efforts being made by the Chinese banking and commercial interests of Shanghai to bring opposing leaders together to discuss terms of peace, all China tonight was awaiting reports of the outbreak of actual fighting in the area where Chi Shieh-Yuan and Lu Yung-Hsiang are concentrating their forces.

Recent heavy rains in that vicinity which have hampered troop movements have been succeeded by fair weather which is expected to speed developments. The troops now occupy a line from Taihu Lake to Kiatinghsien, near Wooning.

Reports from Soochow, Chinkiang, Nanking and other cities state that both troops and workers are being drafted by the wholesale, regardless of sex.

Trains arriving here continue to be packed with refugees. Financial affairs in Shanghai are badly unsettled, with food prices soaring.

Surplus Is Reported As Near Half Billion Mark, Also.

(By The Associated Press.) Lansing, Mich., Aug. 29.—Assets of the Ford Motor Company are listed at $568,101,639.16 and the surplus of the company is placed at $442,041,081.12 in a report filed with the corporation department of the secretary of state's office here Friday morning. The report is filed together with the payment of the corporation tax of two and one-half mills for each dollar of paid up capital and surplus. The report is for the year ending December 31, 1923.

Under the head of assets there is listed as cash patent rights, formulas, good will and value of credits owing to the corporation a total of $251,173,580.74. Stocks and bonds amount to $40,963,073.28; merchandise and supplies, $91,328,306.48; prepaid expenses, $847,187.81; and fixed assets less reserve for depreciation, $180,789,450.82. The liabilities include accounts payable, $51,002,155; employees' investment, $28,357,782.46; accrued expenses and taxes payable, $37,253,092.62; amortization of patents, $183,028.06; capital stock, $17,254,500, and the surplus, $100,000,000. An increase of $27,911,923 in surplus reported by the Ford Motor Company for the 12 months ended June 30 which brought profit and loss surplus to $442,041,082 was the smallest gain shown since the company has been required to make public its balance sheet. The gain in the preceding 12 months was $124,192,862. On the basis of $17,264,500 capital stock, the gain in surplus would be equal to $161.67 a share compared with $179.35 a share in the previous corresponding period. The cash item, which included good will, trade marks and credits owed the company was given as $251,173,583 against $230,811,918 the year before.

Officer Reports Heroism of Men in Saving Fuel

(By The Associated Press.) Detroit, Aug. 29.—Blame for the liquor explosion last Wednesday in a west side precinct police station which caused the death of three prisoners and injury to 10 others was placed on the police by Stephen Kyle, 21, a prisoner who was burned, when he was questioned today by William P. Rutledge, superintendent of police, concerning the fire.

Kyle declared he heard an officer say, "let's light a match and see what will happen." The explosion followed immediately, according to his story.

He added, however, that it did not seem possible that enough time had elapsed between the remark and the explosion to permit of a match being struck.

Police have emphatically denied that any of the officers dumping the liquor was smoking or striking matches. Officials have held that the explosion was caused either by a match lighted by a prisoner or a spark from a nail in the heel of an officers shoe.

William Harris, 31, arrested Tuesday for carrying concealed weapons, died Thursday night of wounds received in the fire. He was the third victim to die.

Legion Auxiliary Delegates Suffer From Poisoning

(By The Associated Press.) Worcester, Mass., Aug. 29.—More than 100 delegates attending the annual convention of the Massachusetts American Legion Auxiliary were suddenly stricken ill today with what physicians diagnosed as ptomaine poisoning, following the convention banquet Thursday night.

Although the condition of about 25 was described as "serious though not dangerous, virtually every one of the 100 women suffered so severely from the attack that they had to receive medical attention.

When the women proceeded to hand out the ballots to the national deputies it was observed that they requested both red and white cards. The red card was a negative vote and it was exhibited in the plain view of members of other parties and to occupants in the gallery. But scores of opera glasses from the gallery, which followed this clumsy display of legdemans by the reactionaries, observed by disappearance of the red ballots under the seats of those deputies, while the white cards, indicating a vote in affirmation of the question at issue, were hastily chucked into the ballot box.

FRATERNALISM GIVEN PRAISE

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Aug. 29.—Lauding the purposes of fraternalism, President Coolidge today told delegates to the national fraternal congress of America in convention here that true fraternalities were "strong relices of ordered government, according to the public law."

Mr. Coolidge, in his address, delivered from the south portico of the White House, did not mention by name any fraternal order or secret society nor did he touch directly on politics or campaign issues.

Outlining "the homely virtues"—industry, thrift, loyalty, common sense, faith and the golden rule—the president said he endorsed fraternalism because that spirit attempted "to translate these ideals into daily life and action."

Based on Religion. "The rituals of nearly all fraternal organizations," he added, "are based upon religion. No true fraternity can rest on any other conception. It is for these reasons that they are the supporters of the true aims of society, strong reliance of ordered government, according to public law, able advocates of the cause of righteousness and religion, and effective promoters of peace and good will among the nations of the earth."

Mr. Coolidge wrote most of the addresses during his stay at Plymouth, Vt., and it dealt at length on his views on the "homely virtues" as he described them.

Desk Is Cleared. Going to his desk immediately after an early breakfast which was served when he arrived from the train this morning after his vacation in Vermont, the president put in a busy day and tonight the desk was clear.

The usual Friday cabinet meeting was held during the day, the various cabinet members who have been away during the summer, joining with the chief executive in an hour's session in picking up the threads of business again. Nothing special was considered, however.

It was said the president has no plans for a speaking trip during the campaign and has not received any late reports on the political situation from William M. Butler, chairman of the Republican national committee.

He appeared much rested from the vacation at his father's home in Plymouth.

Support Tumble, Is Word Sen. Farmers

(By The Associated Press.) Lansing, Mich., Aug. 29.—Five leaders of Michigan farm organizations today urged farmers of the state to support the candidacy of Judge Arthur J. Tuttle, for the Republican nomination for the United States senate.

L. Whitney Watkins, state commissioner of agriculture; A. B. Cook, manager of the Michigan State Grange; N. P. Hull, a past master of the Grange; C. H. Bramble, a prominent Grange leader, and Lee Noble, president of the Farmers Clubs of Michigan, sent out an open letter to the members of their organizations and agriculturists in general, setting forth Judge Tuttle's campaign.

NATIONALISTS FLOP WHEN FINAL VOTE IS BROUGHT UP.

(By The Associated Press.) Berlin, Aug. 29.—The turnout by 48 German nationalist reichstag deputies late this afternoon gave the Marx-Stresemann government a comfortable majority in favor of the London reparations agreement. The nationalist flop in by the reactionaries was ostentatiously concealed up to the time of balloting on the railway bill began, both the bank and debenture laws having previously been adopted by rising votes.

When the women proceeded to hand out the ballots to the national deputies it was observed that they requested both red and white cards. The red card was a negative vote and it was exhibited in the plain view of members of other parties and to occupants in the gallery. But scores of opera glasses from the gallery, which followed this clumsy display of legdemans by the reactionaries, observed by disappearance of the red ballots under the seats of those deputies, while the white cards, indicating a vote in affirmation of the question at issue, were hastily chucked into the ballot box.

Big Majority Given. In support of the railway bill 314 votes were cast, against 127 votes in opposition, which came from the communists and the Ludendorff party and 48 nationalist members, the government receiving a majority considerably in excess of the constitutional two thirds requirement.

The voting on the London agreements supplied a singular, but not sensational climax, of four weeks of partisan warfare on the Dawes report, the bulk of which was supplied by the German nationalist party which, up to 24 hours ago, kept up an attitude of militant opposition to the London agreement and the Marx government.

The government, by reason of this fact, was forced into a position where it had determined to dissolve the reichstag and ratify the agreement on its own responsibilities in the event the Hert-Von Tirpitz party refused to yield.

No issues which engaged German post war parliaments had produced a flood of partisan acerbities and political discussions of equal vehemence, both in the reichstag and among the scores of party organs, and in political circles today's vote is clearly described as a "final victory for the Marx-Stresemann government, which before and since the conferences in London had conducted a sturdy above-board fight for the adoption of the Dawes plan.

Officers Blamed By Prisoners for Booze Explosion

(By The Associated Press.) Aboard the U. S. S. Richmond at Ice Tickle, Labrador, Aug. 29.—The heroism of former Lieutenant George Noville, U. S. naval reserve, in charge of fuels and supplies at Indian Harbor and Seaman Joseph Bowl and William Cahill, of the destroyer Lawrence, in rescuing 18 drums of fuel after battling in icy water up to their necks during the 40 mile gale Wednesday night has saved the flight of the American army world fliers from indefinite postponement.

The story was related today by Lieutenant Noville on coming aboard the Richmond after 70 hours of vigilance on duty ashore. Noville's camp was inundated during the storm and the drums, weighing 450 pounds each, which were afloat near shore, broke loose and began pounding on the rocks. The men tried to recapture the drums but their boat capsized in the freezing water. They battled with the elements from seven in the evening until midnight and finally lashed the drums together and dragged them to the beach.

Rudder Jams; Big Vessel Is Delayed

(By The Associated Press.) Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 29.—The steamer Greater, Detroit, the latest lake passenger liner, was delayed about an hour leaving Buffalo tonight on the return half of her maiden trip to Detroit. Her rudder jammed just as she passed between the broad-water into the lake. Pugs towed her out of the channel into deep water. After her rudder was righted she resumed her journey.

SEEK TO LIMIT INCREASES OF STATE TAXES

(By The Associated Press.) Detroit—Tax limitation is to be asked of the 1925 legislature by the Michigan Real Estate Association and allied organizations.

A measure similar to one of the last assembly will be submitted. It will probably provide that state taxes may not be increased more than 2 per cent a year.

According to officers of the association, considerable support is assured by candidates for nomination and election to both branches.

It is the belief of the heads of the real estate organization that by them, is the only solution of the real property tax problems.

LUMBER DEMAND HOLDS STRONG

Demand for lumber holds up satisfactorily, according to the American Lumberman, Chicago. Southern pine demand, as visualized by the Southern Pine Association barometer, remains several notches over normal.

Prices have shown no further notable increases, but the tendency as a general proposition remains upward. However, there is reported to be a larger number of transit cars afloat now, as a result of recent speculative activities of wholesalers, and while these usually are readily absorbed, there have been cases where concessions have been granted in order to avoid demurrage.

The call for Douglas fir remains considerably in excess of output, and that market is very strong. Bookings at West Coast Lumbermen's Association mills during the four weeks ended Aug. 16 averaged 22 per cent above production.

There has been a marked revival in demand for western pines, particularly those of inland Empire extraction. Early this month the order column of the Western Pine Manufacturers' Association's barometer leaped up to 108 percent of normal, compared with production at 97 percent and shipments at 83 percent of the same mark.

TOMMY AND PA.

"Heavens! What a kid!" exclaimed Mr. Askitt. "I'd like to know what would have happened if I had asked as many questions as you do when I was a boy?"

"Perhaps you would have been able to answer mine," snickered Tommy. Pa grinned.

"What's the possessive form of Mr. Pa?"

"Mrs.," answered Pa, without looking up.

"Your name should have been Aleck," said Pa, "instead of William."

"Tommy grinned. 'Pa, is today tomorrow?'"

"Of course not. Don't be silly," answered his father.

"But you said it was," said Tommy.

"Is that so? Tell me, when I ever said today was tomorrow?" demanded Pa.

"Yesterday," answered Tommy.

"Then I was right. Today was tomorrow yesterday, just as yesterday was today yesterday and tomorrow will be today yesterday, which makes, today yesterday tomorrow. Got anything to say about it?"

"No," faltered Tommy. "I couldn't follow that stuff. I'll bet you got all mixed up anyhow."

Grinning non-committally, Pa clapped the radio phones on his ears and tuned in MYOB.

have been friends for 35 years," he remarked. "W. J. and I started housekeeping within about four blocks of each other here in Lincoln. It all goes to show that political differences need not separate friends."

The nominee began his discussion of campaign issues with a discussion of what he termed "the greatest issue in this campaign—the constitution of the United States."

"What are the flags and what are the battle lines in this campaign? On one side stands President Coolidge, on the constitution of the United States and the American flag. On the other is dangerous and untried radicalism represented by Robert M. LaFollette under the red flag."

Applause interrupted the nominee as he proceeded with his prepared address and finally he stopped and exclaimed:

"The purpose of this speech is not to get people to applaud, but to get them to think."

The stand from which Mr. Dawes spoke was located in the center of the stadium's football field with great concrete stands stretching away to either side.

Amplifying apparatus carried the voices to the furthestmost parts of the stadium, and six radio stations of the middle western states broadcast the address of the vice presidential nominee through that section and into the borderland of the east and Rocky Mountain sections.

A reminder of the old fashioned political meetings was given by a torchlight parade as Mr. Dawes was escorted to the stand.

The meeting was formally opened by Harry G. Sackett, Republican state chairman, whose mention at the outset of the name of Calvin Coolidge was loudly cheered.

MARKET TODAY SHOULD DRAW BIGGER CROWD

With favorable weather permitting, today's market bids fair to be the most successful held since the inception of the public buying forum.

Market Manager Greenfield has not let up his program for today, having worked to that end since the last market, and expresses confidence that local housewives will turn out in larger numbers than they have heretofore.

Though no complaint can be registered concerning the number of Escanaba ladies to patronize the market in its past proceedings, yet, there is considerable more room for patronage in view of the fact that the number of farmers to ply their trade here on Tuesday and Saturday mornings is on the increase, and there must be corresponding augmentation, if the market is to flourish.

Meats, vegetable, chicken, to be disposed this morning are all fresh, as in the past, and housewives make no mistake by bringing their baskets there for replenishing. The market will open at seven o'clock and will continue till all vestiges of a crowd disappear.

MRS. LOUIS JOHNSON. Word was received in the city yesterday of the sudden death at New Orleans, La., of Mrs. Louis Johnson, mother of C. E. Johnson, foreman of the mechanical department at The Daily Press office.

Mrs. Johnson was widely known in Escanaba, where she resided for over 25 years, leaving for Louisiana with her husband 12 years ago. It had been known that she was not enjoying robust health for the past several weeks, but it was not until a message was received yesterday morning that it was known her condition was serious. Mr. Johnson was making preparations to hasten to his mother's bedside, when a message was received announcing her death. He left for New Orleans last night to be present at the funeral.

Mr. Louis Johnson for many years was engaged as publisher of The Medborgars in this city and after disposing of that publication moved with his wife to the south. Mrs. Johnson was widely known in Escanaba and was held in the highest esteem by all who enjoyed her acquaintance. She was about 60 years of age and is survived by her husband and son. She was a member of the Morning Star Society of Escanaba.

Mr. Henderson, acting as toastmaster, introduced Mr. Irving and Mr. McCloy, who made brief addresses following the serving of dinner. Although an entertainer who had been unable to be present, the occasion was so successful that the newsdealers and Times men voted that it be made an annual affair.

ESK YGIRL IN NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING

Word was recently received in the city from Iron Mountain, that an Escanaba girl, Miss Doure narrowly escaped death by drowning, while on a visit to that city a short time ago.

In company with three girl friends, Miss Doure was enjoying a swim in a river near the home she was visiting, and in an essay to dive from a tree on the bank of the river, became entangled in the weedy bed of the stream. Both she and Miss Roach, her host on the visit, dove simultaneously, the latter immediately returning to the surface.

Miss Doure, however, failed to appear, having become entangled in the weeds, and wedged between two logs; Miss Roach after some difficulty, succeeding in extricating the girl from her plight.

It was established during the hearing, it is said, that Richards admitted making moonshine whiskey and that when he was being brought here after being shot said that he would give up the illegal manufacture of illicit liquor when he recovered.

Woman Bandit Is U. P. Girl

Mrs. William Fahy, wanted by federal authorities for alleged connections with the $2,000,000 mail robbery at Roundout, Ill., a short time ago, was formerly an Upper Peninsula girl. It was learned here recently.

BODY SHIPPED TO KENTUCKY

The body of Walter Richards, who was fatally wounded Saturday afternoon when he is said to have failed to obey the commands of Trooper Fred Keune, of the Michigan state police, in a raid on a still operated by Richards and a companion, who escaped, was shipped to his former home in Grayson, Ky., this afternoon by the state.

Following Richards' death, Acting Coroner Genelle of Luce county, viewed the body and determined that an inquest was not necessary. A justice court investigation was held later before Justice Genelle, conducted by Prosecuting Attorney Prestias W. Brown, and it was found that there was no cause for a warrant to be issued against the state officer as he was fulfilling his duties and was justified in the shooting.

It was established during the hearing, it is said, that Richards admitted making moonshine whiskey and that when he was being brought here after being shot said that he would give up the illegal manufacture of illicit liquor when he recovered.

Two small boys, playing on a raft on the north shore near the light-house, were given the scare of their young lives yesterday afternoon, when the high wind carried the raft away from shore and they were floating out into the bay when rescued by John Birk.

The boys had been playing on the raft for some time when Mr. Birk, who was fishing from a row boat off the shore, was attracted by their cries. He saw that the raft had been carried out into the bay by a high southerly wind and the two boys were crying lustily when his attention was attracted. He at once rowed to their rescue and succeeded in taking them ashore.

No innovation introduced by Escanaba's present form of government has proven more popular with the people at large than the establishment of a municipal band, which has presented a series of concerts throughout the past summer. By the plan Escanaba has not only been provided with a creditable band but the people have been permitted to enjoy its programs. By alternately staging the concerts at Ludington park, in the east end of the city, and at Rose park, on the north side, the band programs have been made available for a large part of Escanaba's population.

Escanaba's council manager government is proving that it is capable of functioning, not only to provide this city with a more efficient government than ever before, but by placing municipal affairs upon a sound business basis, but in providing wholesome entertainment for its people.

GAINING ADHERENT.

The manner in which the so-called "Escanaba Plan" for distributing the state primary school interest fund, is gaining adherents even in cities that would use under the operation of the plan is indicated in the following editorial from the Grand Rapids Press: "Kent county this year is receiving back from the state for aid in supporting its schools almost as much as it paid out to the state last year from its general property tax. We paid $807,276. We are getting back a state check for $773,695.

Which naturally looks like a rather good thing for Kent county. But it should be remembered that it is not general property tax money which is sent back to us. It is money received from the railroads, telegraph and telephone companies and certain other corporations exempted from property taxes by the constitution. A good share of it is collected right here in Grand Rapids. The city cannot assess against property which pays it. When state taxes are computed it is a common error to forget and overlook this large primary school fund, which amounted to $11,800,000 last year and is credited out of specific taxes collected from the various utilities. It is true enough that it can be used for but one specific purpose and does not help out in general city expenses, from which the utilities have been exempted. Also that the burden of taxation is falling heavier and heavier upon the cities where so much property pays nothing locally for police, fire and other protection given it. But the primary school fund is a valuable spur. It conduces to a uniformly good minimum schooling throughout the state. Counties keep up their primary schools in order to be entitled to it. Some poor counties could hardly continue education without it. And it is probably just that the great industrial counties should assist the less well-to-do in order to equalize opportunity for all children throughout the state.

The primary school fund law is, unfortunately, drawn in such a way as to discriminate unfairly against some industrial sections and in favor of others. For an example, Escanaba is a railroad center and most of the city's taxable wealth is in the form of roundhouses, tracks and railroad equipment. Only the state is permitted to tax this property, and all the proceeds go into the primary school fund. This reduces the property tax possibilities of Escanaba to such a degree that the city has hardly enough property left to maintain its city government and schools at their efficiency minimum. The result is that all utility towns in such situations are anxious that the redistributing of the primary fund be restricted on a new basis which would help them reduce their overwilling tax rate. Helen Lorimore's Legacy

BY JANE PRELPS.

EDWARD LEE TELLS HELEN HIS STORY. Chapter II.

Wheelock stood his ground, paying no slightest attention to Helen's order to leave. "Did you hear me, Wheelock? I told you to go." It was the old, prideful Helen Lorimore who spoke, the girl who was accustomed to giving orders to servants, who demanded her bidding be done at once. "Wheelock winced under the lash of her tone, then spoke angrily: "That fellow is a thief—your uncle's adopted son."

up. I was banished. The law didn't touch me, yet I am branded a thief. I carry the burden of a crime I did not commit. "I know you didn't. I have always known you were good," Helen said very low. Then: "That is why Uncle Henry left the ranch to me."

"Yes. He tore up the will that made me his heir and made another at once. He had spoken of you to me. I had seen your picture. I knew you that day in the station. He had told me you were very wealthy, that you needed nothing he could give you. So I knew you didn't need the ranch. But I am glad you have it now that I know you. It was hard at first to think kindly of any one who had taken it from me, even innocently, I loved it so, the only home I had ever known. But now— "Oh, it was too terrible! Helen interrupted. "I did not need it—then. I hated the thought of the care it might be. I love it now, but to have taken it from you—you—" "I am glad it is yours, Helen, so don't feel that way about it. I will tell you all that happened, then you will understand why I couldn't go against father, couldn't demand an investigation, a trial." A long minute he waited. "I was only a little shaver when Henry Drayton adopted me. My father and mother died within two days of each other and he took me in. He learned to love me. I know, but nothing like I loved him. I was his son, and no son ever had a dearer, more indulgent father or a happier home. I was told from the beginning that some day it was to be mine; and I loved the ranch only a little less than I loved him, my foster father. When he forbade investigation, I proved my love for him as he wished, keeping his unsullied name out of the courts. Since then I have been branded as a thief, outlawed. That father died believing me guilty has been almost more than I could bear." Roy's voice trembled, but his steadfast eyes never wavered. Tomorrow—Helen Tells Roy She Believes Him Innocent.

OUR BOYHOOD HEROES

CLAIMS SMITH HOLDS POLE IN SENATE RACE

Detroit Man Visits City In Interest of Hal H. Smith.

Henry J. Kennedy, vice president of the Central West Casualty Company, of Detroit, spent yesterday in Escanaba in the interest of Hal H. Smith, of Detroit, for the Republican nomination for United States senator. Party Must Unite. "Republicans of Michigan generally agree that Michigan's present United States senator, James Couzens, has read himself out of the party and that it would be a party calamity to send him back to Washington," said Mr. Kennedy yesterday. "Throughout the state Republicans are awakening to the fact that unless they centralize on one strong candidate, Couzens will be permitted to win the nomination. "Mr. Smith has a strong organization in every county in the state; he was in the race for the nomination ten weeks before Judge Arthur Tuttle of Detroit announced his candidacy; he is a staunch Republican and a sound business man and his friends sincerely believe that he is going to win the nomination."

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE STRAND.

Robert E. Sherwood, famous movie critic of the New York Herald and Life, classed Laurette Taylor's "Peg O' My Heart" as one of the best pictures made during 1923. Mr. Sherwood's selections were made with a great deal of discrimination and have been looked upon as accurate criterion. Now Mr. Sherwood declares he is looking forward in keen anticipation to include "Happiness," Miss Taylor's latest Metro picture, now being shown at the Strand on his list of perfect pictures for 1924. "Happiness" was adapted to the screen by J. Hartley Manners from his stage play of the same name. Chester A. Lyons was photographer.

AT THE DELFT.

Between scenes, during the making of Colleen Moore's new starring vehicle, "The Perfect Flapper," a First National Picture, which is attracting crowds to the Delft Theatre, Sydney Chaplin, who plays the role of "Dick" whittled away time by reading booklets on the work of dogs in the World War. Dogs are a hobby with Chaplin and he can probably relate more stories on dogs than any other person in motion pictures.

FRED OLMSTED HAS PROTEST

That no boys under legal age are permitted to enter his cigar store and billiard parlor and that none but regular patrons at his place of business congregate in front of the store, was the statement made yesterday by Fred Olmsted, Jr., of the United Cigar Store, who holds that a recent police order, against young men loitering in front of billiard parlors and pool halls, an unjust reflection against his business. "I have conducted a billiard parlor in Escanaba for many years and the charge is yet to be made that I have permitted boys under legal age to frequent my store," said Mr. Olmsted. "I have prided myself upon the class of trade attracted to the store and to be included in a general police order against loitering in front of billiard halls, is a reflection I do not believe I deserve. There isn't a chronic loafer permitted either in or about our store and never has been. All of our patrons are men who have regular employment and who naturally congregate in the evenings in front of the store, for want of a better place to meet. To class such men with chronic street loafers is unjust in the extreme and I greatly resent the implication against my place of business."

LARGE CROWD ON HAND FOR BAND CONCERT

Joseph Greenfield and his musical cohorts entertained a large gathering at Ludington Park last evening, in the last of the weekday concerts provided by the city. Concerts will be resumed next week at regular intervals. The Municipal band will also furnish music over the holiday period. The program last night followed: March—Free Lance. Sousa Selection—Santiago Flynn. Halle Intermezzo—Simple Aveu. Thome Waltz—Crimson Petals. Jewel Selection—Princess of India. King Selection—Flower Song. L'Age Masurka—La Caraine. Ganne Popular songs: When You Walk Out, Some One Else Walks In. Goose Waddle. Rag Tag. Dream of the Rabbit Flound. Selections—Songs of the Sunny South, and the Sons of Erie. The former was played at the request of some local citizens. Mrs. Georgiana Koch and sons Hubert and Donald Trotter and Earl Koch, returned to Chicago after a month's visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Juliette Boudreau, Second Avenue So. and at Flat Rock, Garden and Marquette with relatives and friends.

WHERE TO MARKET

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

GAIN WEIGHT.

Breakfast—One-half cup apple sauce, 2 pieces unbuttered gluten toast, 1 cup hot skimmed milk.
Luncheon—One cup clam bouillon with 1 poached egg, 4 toasted bread sticks, 1/4 cup combination vegetable salad, 1 fresh plum.
Dinner—Three ounces broiled porterhouse steak, 1 tablespoon creamed cauliflower, 1 ounce escarole with 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1/2 cantaloupe filled with mixed fruit, 1 thin slice whole wheat bread.

Bedtime—One cup skimmed milk.
Total calories, 1116. Protein, 29 1/2; fat, 25 1/2; carbohydrate, 56 1/2. Iron, .0201 gram.

If you are beginning to diet to reduce, you may feel very weak and tired and perfectly miserable and generally blue the first day or two. If this is the case and you are the mother of demanding youngsters, you will be wise not to be too radical. Above all, don't try to "do" without breakfast or think you can brace yourself up on coffee. This breakfast of apple sauce, toast and milk is nourishing and healthy.

You will find that as you eat less food and learn to get along without butter and sugar and cream you will feel better and need less food. Your stomach will slowly shrink to normal and that empty, gnawing feeling will go away.

The person who inherits a tendency toward stoutness must watch her diet closely if she would control the "tendency." It can be done, however, and comfortably, too.

GAIN WEIGHT.

Breakfast—One half cup apple sauce, 1 slice salt pork in 1/2 cup cream sauce on whole wheat toast, 2 cornmeal muffins, 1 tablespoon butter, hot water.
Midmorning lunch—One cup cocoa, 3 "salines".

Luncheon—One cup clam bouillon with 1 poached egg, 4 toasted bread sticks, 1 tablespoon butter, 1/2 cup combination vegetable salad with 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, 2 slices rye bread, 2 heaping tablespoons peach tapoco with 2 tablespoons whipped cream.

Afternoon tea—One large glass fruit punch with 2 cheese and preserved ginger sandwiches.
Dinner—One cup cream of mushroom soup, 3 ounces broiled porterhouse steak, 4 tablespoons French fried potatoes, 2 tablespoons steamed cauliflower in 2 tablespoons cream sauce, 1 ounce escarole with 2 tablespoons French dressing, 1/2 cantaloupe filled with mixed fruits, 2 hard rolls, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 tablespoon preserves.

Bedtime—One cup whole milk.
Total calories, 3907. Protein, 42 1/2; fat, 168 1/2; carbohydrate, 179 1/2. Iron, .0216 gram.

When your breakfast is heavy and rich in fat, drink hot water. A light breakfast is helped out by the use of cocoa.

If you are a busy woman who must make her cocoa for the mid-morning lunch, you will undoubtedly decide you "haven't time." But if you are sincere in your effort to gain weight you will find the mid-morning lunch very much worth while. And don't "lunch" standing. Sit down and rest!

Corn Souffle.

Two cups corn cut from the cob, 4 tablespoons butter, 1 1/4 cups soft bread crumbs, 2-3 cup milk, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 eggs, few grains pepper.

To cut corn from the cob cut a thin slice from the top of the kernels and scrape out the heart of the kernels with the blunt edge of the knife.

Melt butter, add crumbs and milk and cook, stirring constantly until smooth. Add yolks of eggs beaten until thick and lemon-colored, salt and pepper and corn. Fold in whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry. Turn into a buttered baking dish and bake 25 minutes in a moderate oven. Serve immediately.

Squash (for four persons), 1 egg, 4 tablespoons milk, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 teaspoon onion juice, fine sifted bread crumbs.

Par squash and cut in half-inch slices. Beat egg with milk and seasonings. Dip slices of squash in egg, then in crumbs and fry a golden brown first on one side and then on the other. Use half butter and half lard for frying and cook in a spider.

Tomato and Cheese Ball Salad.
One package cream cheese, 2 tablespoons finely chopped nuts, 2 tablespoons finely chopped ripe olives, cream to moisten, 2 large tomatoes.

Mash cheese and work smooth with cream. Add nuts and olives and salt and paprika to suit.

Before putting fish into the frying pan put a small bread-crust into the grease. When it becomes a golden brown you will know the grease is at just the right temperature for the fish. Leave the crust in the pan and it will prevent the fat from spluttering.

OLD BROOMS.
When a broom has worn unevenly, soak in hot suds, rinse and dry in the open air. Then cut the bristles evenly and you will find that you can still get much more service from it.

GOOD SHELF COVERING.
White oileath makes very good covering for kitchen shelves and it can be cleaned very easily.

OMIT IRONING.
Many people prefer to leave sheets unironed because they like the fresh smell of the sun-dried muslin or linen.

Form in small balls. Pare and chill tomatoes and cut in halves. Put one half for each serving on a bed of lettuce, add two or three cheese balls and pour French dressing over the whole.

By Barbara Brooks, Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Mich.

The Child Health Magazine published an article recently in which this sentence was used: "One can be what one chews to be."

Isn't this an interesting idea? It makes a strong appeal to us to select foods which have to be chewed so that our teeth will be stimulated and strengthened. It subtly conveys the thought that right foods mean no tooth aches or cavities, and few visits to the dentist.

Make crisp, dry toast. Butter it at the table so that it will be crisp when you eat it instead of soft and butter soaked. Select whole grain cereals rather than those which absorb the cream and slip down too readily.

For lunch and dinner use whole wheat and bran bread or muffins, crisp vegetables such as celery, radishes, cabbage, lettuce and other salad plants.

Proper Eating Road to Health

BY HORTENSE SAUNDERS
NEA Service Writer.

If we were to become idol worshippers we would take as the symbol of our devotion a slender graceful woman, according to Dr. Robert H. Rose of New York.

"Long ago, when little food was to be had in China and most of the population was half starved," he explains, "they visualized as their subconscious ideal a round-faced man with a huge stomach, distended from rich food and good living."

"Today we have more food than we want or need, most of us, and we have a tendency to take on flesh, so our ideal is a slender figure, possible with many of us only by abstemious selection at the lunch counter."

"I believe the next generation will be much more slender, more beautiful and infinitely more healthy than this one, because of this ideal."

Dr. Rose has just published a book, "Eat Your Way to Health," in which he makes it appear that we are the masters of our own fates and the captains of our jowls.

Fat Dangerous.

In gradually changing the physical architecture from the straight to the curved, Dr. Rose sees not only a less beautiful structure but on increased danger from high blood pressure, lung trouble and many tendencies that clip from 10 to 20 years from life.

His theory is simple. You are either just right, or too thin or too fat. If you are just right, you adopt a maintenance diet as soon as you feel yourself taking on weight. If you are too heavy, you follow a reducing diet until you have reduced to your proper proper weight, then continue on a maintenance diet which will keep you just there.

The diet to get thin allows you from 1000 to 1200 calories a day. The maintenance diet, upon which you neither lose nor gain is around 1800 a day. To build up you are allowed to go to 3000 calories a day or beyond. Consider Vitamins.

In order intelligently to build up your menus, the doctor believes you must take vitamins into consideration so that your diet is not too limited. The trouble with most diets that reduce very quickly is that they are limited to two or three foods and some part of the body may be entirely un nourished as a result.

If you are trying to reduce quickly and live on one food, undoubtedly milk is your best choice, he says, since it is the most nearly perfect food. But a more gradual reduction is more desirable.

Include in each day's fare the three vitamins. Vitamin A is found in fats, cream, butter, oil, fish, and green leaves such as spinach, lettuce, etc. Vitamin B is present in whole grain products, cereals, carrots, potatoes and many other vegetables. Vitamin C is found in green vegetables and fresh fruits, particularly lemon juice, orange juice, onion, tomato and cabbage juices.

CORNED BEEF AND HAM.

Corned beef and ham should be put in boiling water at the start. To put into cold water and then raise to boiling on the stove makes them tough.

NERBONNE SAYS TODAY:

We will be closed all day Monday.

Lady Helen Wins Three Heats of Gold Cup Racing

(By The Associated Press.)
Detroit, Aug. 29.—Showing her spry to a quartet of other speed boats, the Lady Helen of Aaron Delroy, a Detroit Yacht Club entry driven by Richard Locke, took the three 30-mile heats of the initial running of the junior gold cup today and won the trophy offered by Harry Greening, Hamilton speed boat enthusiast, and the late Colonel Thomas Duff of Toronto.
The stubborn Struan II trailed the Lady Helen in every heat around the three mile triangular course between Belle Isle and the American shore, but never seriously threatened. The three Watercars of Horace E. Dodge followed the Struan II, Watercar III finishing in third place.
The Lady Helen took the lead at the start of each heat and never was headed. The average speed for the three heats was 30.2 miles per hour, 29 miles per hour, and 30.3 miles per hour, respectively. Locke drove the first lap of the 90 mile race in the second heat when he turned the third lap at an average speed of 32.3 miles per hour.

Engine trouble bothered Horace Dodge's Watercar I, although at times he was able to show bursts of speed. In the second heat the Watercar II, driven by William Harn, developed engine trouble and was flagged. The Watercar I blew a cylinder head in the second heat and despite speedy work at the pits the speed boat was off to a late start for the final 30 miles. Despite this, Dodge brought his boat to a challenging position before the last lap was finished.
Silver Heels II virtually won the Sallan trophy, barring accidents, when it finished second in the second heat of the race which was completed late tonight. The craft won the first heat and was second to Jean A. which finished last in the first heat, in the second. The third heat will be raced tomorrow.
Silver Heels II is owned by Commodore A. A. Schantz and both boats are Detroit Yacht Club entries.

HELPED HER IN EVERY WAY

So Writes Mrs. Trombley of Sharon, Vt., Concerning Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"I was weak and run-down, had a tired feeling and bearing-down pains. I saw an advertisement in the newspaper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and began taking it. It has stopped these bearing-down pains and other bad feelings, and has helped me in every way. I have so much faith in the Vegetable Compound that I keep it on hand all of the time and recommend it whenever I have the opportunity."—Mrs. MABEL HARTMANN, 1824 Greene Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y. You must believe that a medicine that has helped other women will help you.

Glad to Help Others

"I had pains in my back and sides for many months, and my work would have to be left undone at those times. My sister told me what good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was doing her, so I tried it, and from the third bottle I was well and every one thought I looked better. I am glad to help others regain their health, and you may use my testimonial."—MABEL HARTMANN, 1824 Greene Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.
