SMITH NOT TO MAKE RUN FOR COUZENS' SEAT

DETROIT ATTORNEY WILL SUPPORT TUTTLE.

(By The Associated Press.) Detroit, Sept. 3.—Hal H. Smith, prominent Detroit attorney, tonight formally announced his withdrawal as a Republican candidate for the United States senate.

Smith's statement, in part, follows: "I have come to the conclusion that it is my duty to withdraw my name as a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator."

"It is of the utmost importance that Michigan return a loyal Republican to the United States senate in this fall's election. There is a chance—I hope it is remote—that the senate may be confronted with the task of the selection of a vice president. It would be the greatest misfortune if Michigan did not then have one senator who would vote for Charles G. Dawes.

"I am not yet assured that if Senator Couzens is elected he would vote for Mr. Dawes. I am not sure that if he is nominated he will be elected, and in that case it is quite certain that Michigan's vote would be cast for Mr. Dawes."

"This situation is of enough importance to compel every sincere Republican to make any sacrifice possible to prevent the loss of this vote. The loss of one Republican vote might lose the presidency, for if the house of representatives did not agree on the president the choice of the senate would be president."

"But almost as important is the necessity of electing to the senate a majority of loyal Republicans who will support President Coolidge and Republican policies. It is certain that Senator Couzens will oppose the president on his program of tax reform and it is not certain that he will support him on other measures. He does not agree to join with the other Republicans in an effort to further Republican policies. The loss of a single vote in the senate may affect the whole course of legislation and have a profound influence on the future of our government."

"Very early this year, I began the campaign against Senator Couzens' party irregularity and his opposition to Coolidge and the Republican program and during my campaign I have devoted all my efforts to a public discussion of these questions. I think I can properly say that I have done everything in my power to bring about the defeat of the present senator, except to himself withdraw, in the hope that thereby the

Assassin Fails In Attempt On Premier's Life

(By The Associated Press.) London, Sept. 4.—A dispatch to the Daily Express, from Rome says an attempt was made Sunday night to assassinate Premier Mussolini while he was travelling in an automobile from Acquafredda to Rome. Shots were fired at the premier, the correspondent declared, and missed him, but an automobile which was following was struck by a number of bullets.

YOUTH RESENTS NEWSPAPER ACT

Letter Written Darrow By Leopold Causes Indignation.

(By The Associated Press.) Chicago, Sept. 3.—Nathan Leopold, Jr., who with his brother, Richard, is awaiting sentence for kidnapping and killing young Robert Franks, tonight expressed indignation to Clarence S. Darrow, chief of counsel for the defense, suggesting disposition of ornithological specimens and other of his belongings in case Judge John R. Caverly exacts the death penalty as punishment for the crime.

"He declared that the instrument was not a will but simply a letter of instruction and maintained that the continued publication of his correspondence would alienate friends to whom he writes."

"I may now be forced to alter my will if that is what you call the letter of instruction I wrote to Mr. Darrow," he told reporters sarcastically. "Besides, it was a private document between myself and my attorney, and not intended for the public. Its publication simply means that I am out from the friends I still pride myself on having. Certainly no one wants to receive a letter from me at the expense of having his name publicly linked with that of a murderer."

Both Leopold and Loeb expressed indifference to what their sentence will be on September 10 when Judge Caverly will announce their punishment.

Arms Conference in Europe, Plan of British Chief

(By The Associated Press.) Geneva, Sept. 3.—The next disarmament conference must be held in Europe, not Washington, Ramsey MacDonald, the British prime minister, declared tonight in explaining Great Britain's position on the great problems before the league assembly.

Mr. MacDonald expressed the conviction that any new conference, if it discussed reduction of land armaments, should be held in Europe, because it could best treat here conditions existing in Europe. The heads of the European states must attend such a conference if the conference hoped to accomplish anything authoritatively.

For instance, he went on, if it were held in Geneva the European premiers could come here for 10 days and then return to their regular duties. The conference would probably last several months, and the premiers must be free to go back and forth. If held in Washington it would be impossible for the premiers to spend sufficient time there.

KLANSMEN NOT PERMITTED TO WEAR REGALIA

Militia Preserve Quiet In Herrin At Funerals and During Inquest.

(By The Associated Press.) Herrin, Ill., Sept. 3.—Military rule asserted itself here today while the inquest was being held into the deaths of the six men slain in Williamson county's latest clash of citizens against citizens.

It was the irrevocable word of Captain Harold Bigelow, in command of the 18 militiamen who have been kept there to prevent a probable renewal of civil warfare, that prevented the local Klan from appearing in public in the Klan regalia at the funeral of one of the victims of last Saturday's clash between Klansmen and Sheriff Galligan and his force, and against it was Captain Bigelow's orders that dissuaded the sheriff from coming over from Marion this afternoon to get the automobile he had intended to seize Saturday when the clash resulted.

Uniforms Barred. When it became known that the Klansmen contemplated appearing in their regalia at the funeral of Charles Willard, Captain Bigelow sent word to the Klan officers that they would not be permitted to appear on the streets with their regalia, but that they could don them at the grave and remove their Klan garb before leaving the cemetery.

The coroner's inquest adjourned at 3 o'clock this afternoon until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. No testimony of importance was offered by the witnesses who appeared at the afternoon session. Lawrence Baldski who last Saturday reported that he was attacked by a group of men just outside of Herrin that afternoon "because I was a witness of the shooting Saturday," told the jury that he didn't know anything about the outbreak.

"I asked John Smith what all the excitement was about," Baldski testified, and said Smith answered him: "Oh, nothing, just six or seven men were killed."

Coroner McGowan expressed the belief the hearing would continue through tomorrow and possibly Friday.

Chemical Plant at Soo Is Destroyed

(By The Associated Press.) Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sept. 3.—Fire followed by the explosion of several vats of crude alcohol today destroyed the chemical plant and office buildings of the Cadillac Soo Lumber and Chemical Company. Officers of the company estimated the loss at $150,000.

The blaze started in a tank of tar outside the distilling plant. Spreading to the chemical plant, it exploded several vats of crude alcohol, tearing off the roof and consuming the two story office building.

West Virginia To Start South Today

(By The Associated Press.) Rockland, Me., Sept. 3.—The U. S. West Virginia, last ship of the super dreadnaught class to be built until the end of the ten-year naval holiday, leaves for southern waters tomorrow, having completed satisfactorily the last of her week's standardization trials on the Rockland course today.

Members of the trial board, on their departure for Washington, declared her performance had been highly satisfactory.

LaFollette-Backed Candidates With One Exception Are Returned Victors in Wisconsin.

(By The Associated Press.) Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 3.—Governor J. J. Blaine, endorsed by Senator Robert M. LaFollette, not only obtained a plurality over his nearest competitor, Arthur R. Hirst, of between 65,000 and 70,000 votes, but rolled up a

PRINCE AVOIDS ALL PUBLICITY

Attends Polo Matches But Leaves When He Is Recognized.

(By The Associated Press.) Spyssett, N. Y., Sept. 3.—The Prince of Wales gets credit for an achievement today. He witnessed the polo practice of members of the British and American international teams on two different grounds and was seen by only a small part of the crowds gathered at either place.

Before driving to the polo grounds he rode over to Locust Valley and paid a call at the home of John W. Davis, the Democratic nominee for president. Mr. Davis, who was ambassador to Great Britain from 1918 to 1921 and met the prince at diplomatic affairs in London, was in the west on a campaigning tour, but Mrs. Davis received the royal heir.

At the Meadowbrook Club, where the international matches will be played a large crowd assembled to see the British poloists play a scratch game against an American four.

Curious Disappointed. Halfway between the goal posts several hundred of Long Island's society folks sat, some of them in motor cars and one group in F. Ambrose Clark's coach with four horses. Everybody assumed that His Highness would drive up in his car and take a seat among the clubmen on the ground or in a small elevated stand.

There was a long wait and much glancing around whenever a car arrived. Meanwhile a royal guest, accompanied by Major E. D. Metcalfe, Colonel C. G. Charlton and General Trotter, his equerries, was sitting on a camp chair at the end of the field farthest from the main gate where earlier the chauffeurs had taken position with an air of being used to that locality.

In Remote Corner. The prince had entered the field, unaccompanied by his usual attendants and driven to the paddock side of the grounds, thence to the remote corner where most spectators would not have cared to go. He sat smoking a cigarette and apparently enjoying the race he had played up on an expectant crowd. A few photographers found him out, but he let them snap away without hindrance. He appeared to be less apprehensive of photographers than of crowds.

After watching a very fast and brilliant game for half an hour, he slipped away again, and motored to the polo grounds on the W. R. Grace estate. There the audience was equally distinguished.

STATE'S DRYS HAVE SETTLED ON CANDIDATES

Couzens Is Opposed By Organizations; Send Out 3,000 Letters.

(By The Associated Press.) Lansing, Sept. 3.—The two major dry organizations of the state today went on record as being in entire harmony in their choice of candidates in the primary election, September 9. The Michigan Anti-Saloon League sent out letters to the pastors of 3,000 churches, asking them to stress the importance of beating James Couzens, Republican senatorial candidate, and of getting out a solid vote for Judge Arthur J. Tuttle, for the senatorial nomination, and Luren D. Dickinson, for lieutenant governor. In circulars sent with the letters the League cautioned the dry voters to "be sure and vote against George Welsh," who is opposing Dickinson.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union also today announced its unqualified endorsement of Tuttle and Dickinson, and urged that its followers combine with the other dry workers and "go to the polls to beat Couzens."

Only One Difference. There is one slight difference in the slates set forth by the two organizations, but it is more one of omission on the part of the League here than any sharp dissension of opinion. The W. C. T. U. endorsed State Senator Charles R. Sligh, of Grand Rapids, for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. The Anti-Saloon League, which recently lauded Governor Groesbeck's enforcement work, had this to say about the gubernatorial situation:

"There are one Democratic and seven Republican candidates. All gave favorable replies to our questionnaire. No recommendation. In addition to Tuttle and Dickinson, the league has flat footedly endorsed two congressional candidates. They are Representatives Grant Hudson, in the sixth district and Louis C. Crampton in the seventh. Both are opposed for the Republican nomination by candidates listed as "favorable." Hudson by George G. Foster, of Lansing, and Crampton by Oren G. Johnson, of Postoria.

League Choices Named. For the rest of the congressional slate the league recommends all who are running for another term except Robert H. Clancy, who is unopposed for the Democratic nomination in the first (Detroit) district, and Clarence J. McLeod, who has two opponents for the Republican nomination in the thirteenth (Detroit). Thus Congressman Earl C. Michener, of Adrian, Arthur B. Williams, Battle Creek; John C. Ketcham, Hastings; Carl E. Mapes, Grand Rapids; Bird J. Vincent, Saginaw; James C. McLaughlin, Muskegon; Roy O. Woodruff, Bay City; Frank D. Scott, Alpena, and W. Frank James, Hancock, are approved by the league.

The eleventh hour drive for support for the chosen dry candidates is scheduled for next Sunday. The league has sent to the pastors of churches, condensed three-minute speeches. The pastors are asked to have them delivered either by laymen or themselves.

In addition to its state-wide drive for Tuttle and Dickinson, the league has asked the churches and dry forces of the sixth and seventh districts to work tirelessly for the re-election of Congressmen Hudson and Crampton. The other districts and the legislative and local slates are left largely to the dry workers in the counties and districts.

Woman Compelled To Postpone Swim

(By The Associated Press.) Calla, France, Sept. 3.—A stiff northerly breeze, causing a heavy surf to break sharply against the cliffs at Cap Gris-Nez, made it impossible for Miss Lillian G. Harris, young Anglo-Argentine swimmer, to start her cross-channel swim at six o'clock this evening. She expected to make the attempt at 11 o'clock if the weather conditions improved.

Democrats Adopt Anti-Klan Plank

(By The Associated Press.) Austin, Tex., Sept. 3.—A strong anti-Klan plank including a plank favoring laws which would require the membership of the Ku Klux Klan to be published, was adopted today at the closing session of the Democratic state convention. In addition the convention endorsed and ratified the nomination of Mrs. William Ferguson of Temple, for governor.

BATTLE RAGING ALONG RAILWAY

(By The Associated Press.) Peking, Sept. 4.—The Peking newspapers allege that General Chang Tso-Lin, who controls the province of Manchuria, has contributed $3,000,000 to General Lu Hsiang-shiang, the Tsuchun of Chekiang, whose forces are at present engaged in battle with the troops of General Chi Shieh-Yuan of Kiangsu for the possession of Shanghai and has promised him military assistance when it is opportune.

Large Forces Of Chinese Are Engaged; Artillery In Action.

Though there is no present evidence of Chang's intention to participate in the civil war, beyond his alleged letter threatening intervention, residents of Peking, spending the summer at points reached by the Peking-Mukden railway, along which Chang would bring his troops southward, have been advised by Chinese friends to leave those places in view of the probable interruption of the line.

Shanghai, Sept. 4.—A pitched battle between the forces of Lu Hsiang-shiang, Tsuchun of Chekiang and Chi Shieh-Yuan, governor of Kiangsu, opened at daylight this morning along the Shanghai-Nanking railway near Hwangtu, about a dozen miles from Shanghai, according to reports from Defense Commissioner Ho.

The battle commenced with a heavy attack by the Kiangsu troops, estimated at 10,000. While the left wing of the Chekiang army was forced back, the center and right slowly gained ground, according to Ho's secretary. Later reinforcements reached the Chekiang left wing, enabling it to push forward at 5 o'clock. On the whole the Chekiang force gained about two miles.

Brigade Routed. At eight o'clock this morning a Kiangsu brigade, commanded by General Ma Yuzen, estimated at 5,000, attacked the Chekiang force of the same strength outside Luho. This engagement, according to the Lungwa headquarters, resulted after an hour's fighting, disastrously for the Kiangsu brigade, which at 9:30 was reported in full retreat, with the Chekiang troops pursuing them.

There were also many casualties in the sector. All reports indicate that the engagement is becoming general in the whole area from the Shanghai-Nanking railway to the coast. There is an artillery action along the railway.

Army Airman Sets New Flight Record

(By The Associated Press.) Boston, Sept. 3.—Lieutenant R. C. Moffat, United States army, today established what is believed to be a new record for flying between here and New York City when he covered the 365 miles to New York and return in 2 hours and 12 minutes.

Lieutenant Moffat, who is attached to the air service in the first corps area, made the flight in the Curtiss pursuit plane. His record for the round trip included a seven minute stop at Mitchell Field, Long Island.

Windsor's Liquor Cases Dismissed

(By The Associated Press.) Detroit, Sept. 3.—A blanket dismissal covering the more than 80 remaining cases of the 190 brought before Magistrate W. E. Gundy in Windsor, Ont., in what was to have been a complete drying up of the border cities liquor traffic came today at the request of James C. Makins, special crown prosecutor appointed by the province to conduct the prosecutions.

A week ago the special prosecution asked for a continuance of the remaining cases to enable him to confer with the general of Ontario. The for the dismissal resulted this conference.

Jack Dempsey Not Planning Marriage

Switch Engine Hits Baker Automobile; Attorney Not Hurt

Atty. James C. Baker narrowly escaped death yesterday afternoon when his automobile was struck by a switch engine in the yards of the Northwestern Co. & Lumber Company at Gladstone. The automobile was almost completely demolished. Baker remained safely in the driver's seat as the car was dragged for nearly 75 feet and escaped without the slightest injury.

Ancestor Worship Opposed by Munro

(By The Associated Press.) Plymouth, Mass., Sept. 3.—The general society of Mayflower descendants should get away from too much ancestor worship, said Addison P. Munro, of Providence, R. I., after his election as governor general at the closing session of the triennial congress today. Mr. Munro, who had previously served as secretary-general, said that the society ought to take its place as an active force in current affairs.

LOSES TO MUNISING BY 2 TO 1 SCORE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

Chatham, Mich., Sept. 3.—(Special)—Manistique dropped into second place in the U. P. Association as the result of the Schoolcrafters' 2 to 1 defeat at the hands of the Munising aggregation here this afternoon, and Escanaba's victory over Ishpeming.

Lane allowed seven hits, but these were widely scattered and the Manistique batsmen could not connect with the ball at the critical moments when several men were on base. Johnson of Manistique allowed but four hits, but the Algerites crossed the plate twice, both times due to Manistique errors. Lane struck out nine men and Johnson six.

Boston, Sept. 3.—Nehf held Boston to two hits, both in the first inning of today's game with the Giants, and the New York club won 4 to 1. The work of Pitcher Graham of the Braves recalled from Worcester, was good, but scratch hits figured largely in three of New York's runs.

MISS CUMMINGS IS BEATEN IN SECOND ROUND OF TOURNAMENT

Nyatt, R. I., Sept. 3.—An exciting match that went three extra holes today assured a new queen in American golf this year. Miss Edith Cummings of Chicago was dethroned as champion by Miss Miriam Burns of Kansas City, in the second round of the women's national tournament at the Rhode Island Country Club.

The result was the more pleasing to Miss Burns because in the recent western women's title event she lost the championship to Miss Cummings by 12 to 10, illness being a large factor in her defeat then. Joe Horgan of New York, caddy for Miss Cummings, carried with her clubs today a new horse shoe to make sure that the number of her competitors badge, thirteen, would not be unlucky. It seemed for awhile as if the horse shoe would be effective for the breaks were all against Miss Burns. But the better long shots of Miss Burns in a heavy wind told in the end, despite poor putting and bad judgement at times in the selection of clubs for approaching.

DARIO RESTA DIES WHEN CAR CRASHES INTO IRON FENCE

Brooklands, England, Sept. 3.—The speed king, Dario Resta, hero of countless automobile victories and hair breadth escapes during his twenty years career as a racer, met a terrible end today on the Brooklands track, which he quite recently had described as the "easiest track in the world to race on."

Resta was driving his 160-horsepower Grand Prix Sunbeam with the intention of breaking the 50 kilometer record. The car had made a couple of circuits of the track when suddenly it skidded for about three hundred yards, then turned sideways, dashed over a bank and crashed into an iron fence, nose dived into the ground on the far side of the fence, righted itself and burst into flames.

Resta was thrown out with terrific force and his head must have struck either one of the large wooden posts supporting the fence or some part of the car, for he was almost decapitated and had other terrible injuries. He died instantly. His body was picked up a few yards from the car.

YANKEES FIGHTING HARD TO OVERTAKE LEADING SENATORS

New York, Sept. 3.—The New York Yankees, fighting desperately for their fourth consecutive pennant in the American League, reduced Washington's lead to one full game today by defeating Boston, 11 to 8, while Stanley Harris' Washington Senators were idle.

Detroit, with only a slight chance for first money, improved its position by taking two games from Chicago, pulling up to within five games of the Yankees.

The schedule for the remainder of the season does not favor either team, both facing the difficult assignment of traveling west to meet all of the western teams and both finishing the season away from their local yards.

BOXER UNCONSCIOUS; TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 3.—Charley Holman, Baltimore featherweight, was taken to Mercy Hospital, unconscious and said by physicians to be suffering from a hemorrhage of the brain after being knocked out by Lew Mayrs, also of Baltimore in the twelfth round of a scheduled 12 round bout for the "southern feather weight championship" here tonight.

Physicians at the hospital said the fighter had also sustained a bad concussion of the brain, and described his condition as very serious. Holman had not regained consciousness two hours after the fight. Holman had the better of the fight for the first seven rounds, but weakened fast during the remainder of the bout and took a severe drubbing from Mayrs. In the twelfth round he fell to the mat once, and was twice felled by his opponent.

NO INTERFERENCE WITH WILLS-FIRPO BOUT ANTICIPATED

New York, Sept. 3.—Having shifted from Saratoga Springs to New York the scene of preparations for his 12-round battle with Harry Wills at Boyle's Thirty Acres on the night of September 11, Luis Angel Firpo today rearranged his training schedule while Tex Rickard took steps to thwart any attempts to block the fight, growing out of agitation for the deportation of the Argentine heavyweight.

"I anticipate no actual interference with the match, despite proceedings now before the department of labor," said Rickard, referring to the efforts of the Reverend William S. Chase to have Firpo deported.

Nevertheless, Rickard seemed relieved when informed that in department of labor circles it was not felt that sufficient time remained to accomplish deportation proceedings against Firpo before the fight.

Should an order against Firpo be issued, it was pointed out, upon completion of the investigation by immigration authorities, the Argentine still would have recourse to the courts for a stay. The promoter's legal advisers are prepared for just such an eventuality.

TO ERECT DOZEN NEW MEMORIALS IN WASHINGTON

Washington.—Plans for erecting a dozen new memorials in the nation's capital, already noted for its statuary, are now under way. Congressional sanction has been given for ten to be unveiled in the near future.

The statue of General San Martin, termed the "George Washington of Argentina," soon to be officially presented by the government of his country to America has arrived in Washington. Methodists are making preparations for a memorial to Francis Asbury, one of the country's earliest ministers, which will be unveiled in October. The nuns of the battle fields of the Civil War will have a monument to their memory here, thanks to the efforts of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

"Heroes that sacrificed their lives, that women and children might be saved, in the tragic catastrophe of the sinking of the steamship Titanic" will be honored in a memorial which will overlook the Potomac River. Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, who recently executed the Buffalo Bill monument, will design this monument. A figure with outstretched arms will symbolize the memory of the deed which the Women's Titanic Memorial Association seeks to perpetuate.

The First Division memorial, commemorating men of the American Expeditionary Force of that fighting organization, has already been erected south of the State and War Department building and will be unveiled in October. A memorial to President Buchanan is to be erected in Meridian Hill Park. Serenity, a gift of Charles Deering of Chicago, is among Washington's future pieces of statuary. A Navy and Marine memorial is in process of preparation.

A memorial to John Ericsson, inventor and constructor of the Monitor of Civil War fame, is to be raised south of the Lincoln Memorial. The state of Pennsylvania is pushing plans to erect a memorial to the memory of Major General George Gordon Meade, commander of the army of the Potomac.

Prominent among proposals for monuments pending in Congress is one for commemorating the late President Theodore Roosevelt.

FIREFSTONE BULLDOG

"Replaced With the Firestone Bulldog and Gas Consumption Was Reduced"

R. D. Drew of Pioneer Band and Gravel Co., of Seattle, Wash., unhesitatingly recommends the Firestone Bulldog.

"I have owned and operated dump trucks for the past ten years. During this time I have had experience with practically all of the best known makes of solid truck tires. In February of this year, I equipped with new rubber, not Firestone. Immediately my gas consumption averaged from 5 to 6 gallons per day more. In April I replaced this with the Firestone Bulldog and my gas consumption was reduced to a normal amount. In view of the performance of this equipment, with its wonderful traction ability, I unhesitatingly recommend the Firestone Bulldog Cushion Tire."—R. D. Drew.

Any of the dealers listed below will be glad to show you this sturdy tire and explain its unusual road-gripping features. Drive in today.

GRAVEL ROADS OUT OF DATE

Tourists Demand Dustless Highways, Riley Tells Kiwanians.

That the old-time dirty, dusty gravel and "white top" macadam roads are obsolete and a barrier to the development to tourist trade was the keynote of an address, given before the Kiwanis club yesterday by Thomas J. Riley, Escanaba attorney, who has just returned from an extended tour through Southern Canada and New England.

"Tourists absolutely refuse to travel over roads which are dusty and rough going," said Mr. Riley. "If it is necessary to dodge such roads, they'll go many, many miles out of their way. They demand roads that provide easy and comfortable travel and that start somewhere and end somewhere."

Niagara Falls, Boston and other points of geographical and historical interest in the east are the Mecca of thousands of automobile travelers this season, he said. The roads are filled with solid processions of motor cars and the camp sites are filled with tents every night. The east is making a strong bid for the very profitable tourist business, and is developing it into a great industry.

Praises U. P. Trails.
Mr. Riley praised the roads in the upper peninsula and said they graded up very well with the roads in other sections, but he characterized one important road in lower Michigan—that between St. Ignace and Port Huron—as one of the poorest he had struck in the states. The Canadian roads, outside of the metropolitan areas, were deplorable, he asserted.

Mr. Riley spent considerable time in Maine and New Hampshire, around his old "stamping grounds" as football coach at the University of Maine and Amherst College.

Senior Class In High Is Largest In Local History

The largest senior class in the history of Escanaba high school has been enrolled at the school this week. The total yesterday was 144, with indications that one or two more might be added during the week. The Junior class, of 144, also is a record-breaker. Of the 200 Freshmen who entered school in the fall of 1923, exactly 179 survived to begin Sophomore activities this year.

School activities proceeded briskly yesterday and another day or two will find things running with mid-year smoothness, executives said.

PUT SERVICE ABOVE SELF IN PUBLIC OFFICE

Judge Yelland Calls Attention To Facts In Campaign.

In response to a request for a statement as to his candidacy, Judge Judd Yelland yesterday issued the following:

"You have asked me to make a statement about my candidacy for the office of Judge of Probate. There are only a few things I would call the attention of the people to. The first is that long service in a judicial position is no reason whatever why a change of officers should be made. I do not want to even intimate that any change should be made in any clerical office on account of a long and successful service, but it doubly applies to a judicial position. In a clerical position the same work is done year after year, but in a judicial position like Judge of Probate, we never have two things come before the court which are just the same. No two estates are alike. No two wills present the same legal question. No two juvenile cases are the same. Every question coming before the Probate Judge is different and requires decision. I have never known of a Supreme Court Judge or a Circuit Court Judge in this part of the state to have opposition for re-election. This is because public sentiment is strongly in favor of keeping judicial officers in office as long as they perform the duties satisfactory to the people. All you have to do is look at the adjoining counties; take Menominee and Schoolcraft counties, the Probate Judges have no opposition, although they have both been in office much longer than I have. In Menominee county both parties have nominated Judge Stiles.

Reward Efficiency.
"If a change were made just as soon as an officer becomes efficient and acquainted with the duties of the office, it would demoralize our system of courts. The same reason applies to trades and positions on railroads. After a person learns his trade or a railroad man after long service becomes efficient, to take the position that a change should be made in that trade or position would demoralize the trade and the railroad service. I have no objection to any person or persons running against me for Judge of Probate, but the point I am trying to make is that if my service in the office has been satisfactory, and what it should be, the people will make no change, but will endorse my record at Probate Judge. Some people may say, 'Oh, he has had it long enough, give some other a chance,' but such an attitude does not show proper consideration of the subject and certainly is a poor standard on which to base a vote for any candidate. When it can be said after fifteen years of service that no complaint has ever been made of a single act of mine as Probate Judge, it seems to me is a record that the people can not and will not overlook. My long service, instead of being a reason for a change, is the strongest reason I can present to the intelligent electors why they should cast their votes for me.

Not Highly Paid Office.
"The next question I would call the people's attention to is more personal and is not material to the issue, and it is with a great deal of hesitancy I mention it. It is the opinion of some misinformed people, that the Probate Judge is a highly paid officer and that I have accumulated considerable money while holding the office. If any such statements have ever been made, some one has been misinformed. No county officer in Delta County is receiving one cent more than he ought to receive. It may surprise people to know that the office of Judge of Probate pays less than any other county officer, except County Treasurer. I have never been able to accumulate any money from the Probate Office since I have held the position. Any statement made to the contrary is absolutely false and I do not think any person would accuse me of making any mis-statements. If any person is seeking the office of Judge of Probate with the view of accumulating money, he will be sadly disappointed. According to my idea, no person should seek the office of Judge of Probate because he wants a job, or on account of the salary. All of us should be employed in some useful occupation and there should be a higher and better reason for seeking the office of Judge of Probate than the question of money. I have learned long ago there is something else in life besides money. If I had in mind the question of accumulating money, I certainly would not be a candidate for Judge of Probate. The question of salary is secondary with me, although all of us have to make a living. I am a candidate for Probate Judge because I am qualified to render the right kind of service to the people in that office, and the probate work is more congenial to me than anything else I could do.

"Another matter that is so palpably untrue that it is ridiculous is a report circulated about the county, in which I am held responsible for the editorial opinions of The Daily Press. The fact that I hold stock in the Escanaba Morning Press Company certainly does not entitle me to direct the editorial policy of The Press, and I can say truthfully that I have never attempted to suggest its policy and there have been many times when editorials appearing in The Press were wholly at variance with personal views.

"Let's be honest with ourselves and in casting our vote for any candidate ask ourselves the questions: What kind of a record

DAWES PLAN IS GIVEN INTERESTING REVIEW BEFORE ROTARIANS

The Dawes reparation plan was most interestingly explained to members of the Escanaba Rotary club, at their regular meeting yesterday, by Atty. James C. Baker. Mr. Baker presented in concise form the fundamental principles of the plan together with many of its definite provisions, giving to many members of the club a comprehensive idea of which it will function.

The address of Atty. Baker's was considered one of the most carefully prepared as well as one of the most interesting addresses delivered before the club this year and when the speaker had concluded he was rewarded with an ovation which lasted for several minutes.

Based On Right Principle.
In his discussion of the plan Mr. Baker showed that the plan evolved by the commission headed by Gen. Dawes was based not only legitimate reparations due the nations suffering from the invasion by the German army, but upon Germany's ability to pay and fixing the total reparations to be settled. The manner in which the reparations fund is to be raised in Germany, through taxation, railroads, industrial bonds was carefully explained by the speaker, together with all other important features of the plan.

The address delivered by Mr. Baker gave to many members of the club their first definite idea as to what provisions constituted the plan and in what manner it is expected to function.

Committee Appointed.
Acting President O. C. Curtis yesterday announced the appointment of a committee to act with organizations already functioning, to provide Escanaba with an adequate athletic field and to sponsor the establishment of supervised play-grounds in the city, such as has already been endorsed by the Escanaba Trades

FINANCE

Phone 1... BEST NATIONAL... You should buy from Escanaba merchants because it pays you, as we have convinced you in the foregoing articles of the series. It means money in your pocket.

And it means money out of your pocket if you don't. If you made a practice of shopping at the city stores or if you order your goods shipped in by mail, you have only to figure up what these goods have cost you, and compare the total with what the same bill of goods would have cost at home.

For instance, the railroad fare or auto trip, your hotel bill, the time you waste, the goods you buy that you don't need, the higher prices you pay on account of the stupendous overhead at the city store—all these things must be paid out of your pocket in addition to the value of the goods themselves, plus a reasonable profit.

Every dollar that goes over the counter of the local merchants pays tribute to the entire community. It comes back to you in fullest measure. The merchant has the interests of the home town at heart. If from nothing more than a selfish standpoint, he is the best booster the home town has, because the greater the well-being of its citizens, the better the pay they receive for their labor, the more comfortable their homes are and the better the streets are kept, the more efficient the schools, the better the fire and police protection, the more attractive does the community prove for others seeking homes, and therefore the greater is the number of its possible customers.

Buy of the home-town merchant and you assure Escanaba of a permanent booster. He does not plan to stay here for a certain length of time, and then to move to some other place; he is here to stay, for it is his home, and the home of his children.

To maintain this leadership our home-town merchants must be supported. They set the pace and rally the forces of good citizenship. Go over a list of your merchants and convince yourself that this is so. The men in your general stores, in your dry goods and grocery stores, your hardware and implement dealers, your druggists, your harness shop and shoe store men, your tin-smiths, your garage men, your elevator men and your produce dealers, your lumber merchants and dealers in building supplies, the men running your dairies and creameries, mills and factories, as well as other employers of labor, and others in the various affiliated lines.

Their leadership deserves the support of every good citizen in town. In fact, every man, woman and child in the community has a moral responsibility in the matter. These men work for the good of the home town, and everybody who has the welfare of the community at heart is in duty bound to work with them and keep them in the things they are trying to accomplish.

VALENTINO'S NEW PICTURE ARRIVES MONDAY

"Monsieur Beaucuire" Delft Feature Soon. Rudolph Valentino has three big love scenes in the motion picture version in the motion picture story, "Monsieur Beaucuire," coming to the Delft Theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Two of them are with Bebe Daniels and one is with Doris Kenyon. All three are what studio officials term "high-powered."

Valentino proves, in his three love scenes, that to make love, which has made him one of the most fascinating and compelling screen stars of today, his first scene with the Princess (Bebe Daniels) ends unsuccessfully and sends him off to Bath, England. There he meets the lovely Lady Mary (Doris Kenyon) and the heart of this young Frenchman flutters momentarily. But his flight of fancy for the English lady also ends disastrously and back to France he goes to find that the love which he once held for the Princess still burns in his breast. The final love scene between the Duke and the Princess is said to be one of the most tender and most picturesque ever photographed for a motion picture.

While the two lovers, in the Gardens of Versailles, are locked in each other's arms, King Louis XV and his court parade down the famous steps in the gardens, while sparkling water plunges down the cascades. It is a scene of great beauty. Forrest Halsey, who adapted "The Humming Bird" to the screen, prepared the scenario for "Monsieur Beaucuire." The screen version of the popular story wrote it originally. Bebe Daniels, Lois Wilson, Doris Kenyon and Lowell Sherman are featured in support of Valentino.

For Renomination To the Voters of Delta County: I wish through the medium of the press to formally announce my candidacy for the nomination on the Republican ticket for the office of Prosecuting Attorney. I feel that the office of Prosecuting Attorney is one of the most important administrative and judicial offices of the county, and that the Prosecutor should be the directing head of the law enforcement machinery of the county. If nominated and elected I shall use my best efforts to perform the duties of that office, as the constitution and laws of the State of Michigan intend that they should be performed. Particularly, I believe that persons accused of violating the law, should be given an opportunity to have their cases tried in the local circuit court where they have an opportunity to have a fair trial. I do not believe that violators of the law should be put to the prohibitive expense of defending themselves in a court long distant from their residence in Delta County. I also believe that the office of Prosecutor should be made self-sustaining, and if convicted men are to be fined they should be fined in our local courts and the money kept at home. I earnestly solicit the support of all voters who wish to see the office of Prosecuting Attorney filled in an efficient and proper manner. JAMES C. BAKER. Primaries September 9, 1924. 1923—German miners began to return to work in the Ruhr.

To the Voters of Delta County: There seems to be some misunderstanding as to the authority of the prosecuting attorney in disposing of certain cases. Any person who is at all familiar with our present system of laws must know that both the state and federal governments have prohibition laws, which are separately enforced by these two governments. The prosecuting attorney is charged with the prosecution of cases under the state law only, and the only method by which the federal courts can be denied jurisdiction of these cases is by the repeal of the Volstead Act and of the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. It is as vain for a state official to complain of the jurisdiction of the federal courts as for a federal official to protest the trial of these cases in the circuit courts. My conception of the duty of a prosecuting attorney is to enforce the law as he finds it without fear or favor, and this I have tried to do. On this principle I earnestly solicit your votes and support. Respectfully, George W. Carr (POLITICAL ADVERTISING)

Pop Geers, Famous Driver, Dies

DEATH RESULTS FROM ACCIDENT

Horse Falls; Tangles Driver With Sulky; Injuries Fatal.

(By The Associated Press.) Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 3.—Edward F. (Pop) Geers, Memphis, Tenn., dean of American harness drivers and known for many years as the "grand old man of the trotting turf," died "in the harness" today.

The veteran horseman was fatally injured when his mare, Miladi Guy, stumbled and fell during the first harness race at the West Virginia Fair.

Diagnosed from the overstrained sulky, Geers was thrown more than 15 feet ahead of the horse and suffered injuries which caused his death three hours later in the Ohio Valley hospital.

Today has been set aside as "Geers Day" at the state fair and a great crowd had turned out to honor the premier rolsman who for fifty years had been making history on the American trotting turf.

A shudder went through the crowd as driver, horse and sulky went down. Other horses in the race were swung wide of the fallen horse and driver by inches as they thundered past.

Santa The Great had repeated his heat victory as race officials rushed to the hospital. He did not regain consciousness and died with his nephew, Robert Neal, of Memphis, and two lifelong friends, Lefe Schaffer and Roderick Ratterson, noted horsemen, at his bedside.

Cleveland, Sept. 3.—Geers, who had devoted most of his life as a horseman on the Grand Circuit, made his only appearance this year on the big circuit at North Randall, July 4th.

In 1881, John D. Rockefeller, Sr., a spectator at a race in which Geers drove Annie W., took a fancy for the horse and paid Geers $10,000 for the mare.

His total earnings for his employers and himself in 50 years driving are said to total more than $2,000,000.

Funeral Friday. Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 3.—Funeral services for Edward F. (Pop) Geers, who was killed in an accident at Wheeling, W. Va., today, will be conducted here Friday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wallace Cunningham.

Low Scores Made In Chicago Meet

(By The Associated Press.) Chicago, Sept. 3.—Extraordinary low scores were made at Calumet Country Club by contestants in the amateur-professional best ball play.

Bob White, a youthful amateur of Olympia Fields Club, Chicago, and Monte Dura of Aberdeen, Wash., turned in low score of 33-32-65.

Third place went to E. Williams and T. A. Smoot, who scored 35-32-67 between them.

Among the 150,000 passengers carried by the British air transport service during the past year, only one life was lost.

horse, a small chestnut stallion called Little Dave. Without the knowledge of his clerical employer Geers entered the latter in the green trot, racing him to a skeleton wagon and winning in straight heats.

In 1875 Geers opened a public training stable in Nashville and it was then that he became interested in the Hal family of pacers, one of the principal members of which was Brown Hal.

Broken bones, sprains and bruises, suffered in races, caused the old driver to limp and to even sit a bit sideways in the sulky.

Geers is survived by three daughters and two sisters. The daughters are Mrs. Wallace Cunningham and Mrs. A. V. Taylor.

Edward Frank's Geers, familiarly known to thousands of race followers as "Pop" Geers, was the dean of the American turf and the most widely known of all drivers and trainers of trotters and pacers.

Mr. Geers was born Jan. 25, 1851, near Lebanon, Tenn. He groomed horses one year, but at 20 he had a horse of his own and he was the trainer.

(By The Associated Press.) Chicago, Sept. 3.—By winning both games of a double header today Detroit got an even break in the six game series against the White Sox.

He also stated that he had heard nothing of the reported shifting of Klan support from himself to Judge Tuttle.

Similarly the onlookers interrupted their view of another beautifully played match to glance about for the heir to the British throne. Not finding him, they generally assumed that he had patriotically gone to the British players' match only.

After a while a few with powerful lenses saw a slight figure sitting on the wooden sideline near the scoreboard on the side of the field opposite the audience. Only a few were on that side. Soon here and there a few onlookers would discreetly and with a great air of casualness edge their way out of the crowd and walk very slowly and nonchalantly around the end of the field. A photographer mounted atop a motor car soon began to click busily.

When this procession had grown to noticeable proportions, the prince and his aides rose and started to leave. Those seated on his side of the field rose and followed the royal visitor who walked with his hands in his pockets, a distinct hump on his shoulders and the embarrassed air that he invariably manifests when crowds assemble around him.

Just as he walked past the goal posts, the player shot the ball in that direction, and Wales and his companions scurried hastily back. The prince climbed back over the wooden rail fence over which he had entered and the crowd climbed too. As he got into his car and drove away to dress for dinner at the Piping Rock Club tonight, the crowd stood and watched.

The people of Pictou, with whom they had sojourned for the past week, he said, had grown to love and respect them and would follow with peculiar interest the completion of their flight.

Wild Oats

WHEN Dan took Evelyn in his arms and told her that he loved her she believed him.

In her ignorance of life she had no way of knowing he was not in earnest.

If she had known she was only one of many girls into whose ears he had poured the same sweet sounding words, what a world of shame and degradation she would have been spared.

"His False Standard"—in True Story

Magazine for October is a story of the sowing of wild oats—and the reaping of a crop of agony. If every man and woman could see the broken hearts and ruined hopes, the days and nights of remorse and tears that follow wrong-doing—no young man would trifle with a woman's love and no girl would give her heart to any man until she had made sure that his intentions were honorable.

Don't fail to read this thrilling lesson from life.

Other Absorbing Stories from Life

Here are just a few of the unusual features in the October issue of True Story Magazine

"Her Final Choice"—Kina, an orphan, languished for love. So when Peter Hoppe came into her life, she fell on easy prey to his seeming devotion. She little realized that in throwing herself into his arms, she was inviting tragedy.

"What Every Woman Hopes"—Loving in the country, Madge thought no temptation of city life could ever lure her into wrong. But Madge did not know how easy and attractive each little downward step made, and how surely she was to have to turn for her soul.

"The Network of Fate"—When Janet cocooned from her husband that his blood had made improper suggestions to her—she believed her alliance the only way to save her husband from ruin. How she had to literally chew her way out of hell as a result, is a most heart gripping narrative.

"You Belong to Me"—When Avery Holton

lured her into a loveless marriage, Alice was afraid to withdraw from an alliance that was loathsome to her. Had she been properly taught from her childhood days, what agony of mind and soul she might have escaped.

The Gage of Battle

In this country's mighty conflict is raging. Evil is battling to destroy all that is virtuous and good.

The weapons of Evil are deceit, treachery, cunning. It strikes in the shadows and attacks in the dark. Against such a foe, moralizing avails little. The fight calls for action—determined, fearless. True Story Magazine, as published by Barrer Macfadden represents that kind of action.

True Story needs but one weapon—the sword of truth. If it can save others the tragedy of evil, if it can show young people the perils and penalties of wrong—it will have gone far in its battle for right.

UNITE ON TUTTLE.

A feeling is growing throughout Michigan that in spite of the fact that Hal H. Smith, of Detroit possesses all of the qualifications to make for Michigan a thoroughly representative United States senator, he is not sufficiently known in the state to defeat James Couzens. In the necessity that exists to allow Michigan, an overwhelmingly Republican state to be represented in the senate by a real Republican, the belief is crystallizing that Judge Arthur J. Tuttle is the single candidate in the six cornered race who can retire Couzens to a position in private life where his pro-LaFollette and anti-Coolidge tendencies may be beautified for personal amusement, without endangering public good. Judge Tuttle is such a Republican as members of that party in Michigan can be proud to support. He possesses unusual qualifications for the office and in addition holds a state-wide acquaintance that should be of inestimable value to his candidacy. Judge Tuttle has never been defeated for any office for which he has been a candidate and is now engaged in a state-wide, determined campaign for the office he is now seeking.

The cause of Republicanism in Michigan demands that Couzens be defeated and the single man now in the race who has a chance to accomplish that much to be desired end, is believed to be Judge Tuttle.

Coolidge Republicans in Michigan will make no mistake if they line up solidly back of Tuttle's candidacy.

IT IS UNFAIR.

A great many people are prone to discuss the Franks case with relation to the decision of the trial judge, and they freely give their opinion as to the decision Sept. 10, and why it will be. It is not uncommon to hear expressed the belief that the court has been influenced one way or another to save the boys from the gallows.

Such talk is manifestly unfair. The trial judge must decide one of the most outstanding cases in criminal courts in recent years. Many of those who talk volubly about what Judge Caverly will decide, would quail before the responsibility which is his. It is a tremendous load and only a strong man could stand up under it.

Whatever the decision, the American people, particularly those who have discussed the case so freely and as freely expressed their opinions as to what the decision will be, should accept it as satisfactory. It must be remembered that Judge Caverly has heard all the evidence and the public has not. He has studied the case since first he knew he was to hear it. His decision will be fair because it will be based on facts and intimate knowledge of the case.

FORTUNATE FOR MICHIGAN.

There is at least one consolation in the Michigan gubernatorial contest. James Hamilton, opponent of the parochial school amendment, and Rev. Frederick W. Perry, another candidate in favor of the amendment, are both being the Republican nomination for governor. Thus they will split the parochial school amendment vote so that there will be little chance for either to be elected. But for Perry's entrance into the race, it was admitted by friends of parochial schools that Hamilton was a strong contender for the nomination. Each is urging the other to quit the race, but neither will do so. And it's most fortunate for Michigan.

HELEN TELLS ROY WHOM SHE SAW Chapter XLIV
"Wait a moment, I must go back a little," Helen said. She then told Roy of seeing the man remove the stones, of how she had dug them up and found the canvas sack that she had seen replaced. Then she told of the night the man had put the money in the black bag, and the canvas bag in his pocket.

"And I'll watch the pump house. I have an idea Wheelock will do nothing until he is ready to leave. He can carry the money away in his luggage without exciting comment or notice. Now, here's Martha! You're to have some supper with me before you go." Roy protested he wasn't hungry, but followed Helen to the dining room, and soon her gay laugh rang out. He was as delighted as a small boy with all Martha had provided, and ate so heartily that Helen asked him how much she should provide when he really was hungry.

Martha hovered about her face beaming, loath to leave "Mr. Roy" a moment, and Helen, knowing they could do more that night, determined that Roy should forget for a time the cloud hanging over him. She chatted blithely and, supper over, led him into the big living room and played and sang for him. After a bit he joined her and she was delighted and surprised at his voice, a cultivated baritone. "I always sang," he told her when she expressed her pleasure, and Father insisted I should be taught to sing correctly. He was very fond of music, and sometimes we would sit for hours on the porch while I sang to him."

Afterward they talked again for a few moments before Roy bade her good night. Helen would meet him two days hence, find out if Wilson had been able to identify the bag, and in the meantime she would keep a "close" watch on Wheelock and framed in the open doorway watching until Roy disappeared, then turned and went slowly to her room. She had mentioned Martha to say nothing of his visit. No one else had seen him. "He is innocent, I know it. But, oh, to prove it!" Helen said to herself.

OUT OUR WAY

By Williams

tioned Martha to say nothing of his visit. No one else had seen him. "He is innocent, I know it. But, oh, to prove it!" Helen said to herself. Her days were full of work connected with the ranch, but she kept watchful eyes on Wheelock, and on the pump house. She was all impatience for Roy's return, would he find out anything that would help him? Acting on Roy's advice, Helen said nothing to annoy or anger Wheelock, treating him with the calm indifference she had of late, save when talking of ranch affairs. She was surprised at his manner, a mixture of servility and a wish to please. "He thinks I will change my mind and keep him," she thought, after he told her of some important business connected with the cattle, business he always had looked after. She said nothing to disabuse his find. She would let him think what he would, so that he did not disturb what he had hidden until she was ready. Helen rode out to meet Roy at the appointed time, hoping yet fearing. Identification of the bag might not be absolutely necessary to clear up the crime, but it would help wonderfully. Roy saw her coming, and Helen waved gayly. Her heart beat faster, and not all because of what he had to tell her, but for HIM. Tomorrow—Wilson identifies the Canvas Bag.

SCHOOLS BEGIN YEAR'S GRIND

Opening day passed uneventfully by, and pupils in the Manistique public schools settled down yesterday to the normal grind of school work.

Reports show an enrollment slightly less than last year, especially in the high school where 310 were enrolled on opening day, in comparison with the 340 of last year. The third and fourth grades were the only ones that were slightly crowded, according to Supt. A. F. Hall. One or two less teachers will be required this year.

In the parochial school, the enrollment is practically the same as last year.

Ms. Hugh Shea, of Germfask, who underwent an operation at the Rutledge Hospital last week, is convalescing.

FIRST GAME OF SEASON SEPTEMBER 20

The purple and white will swing into its football season in earnest the first of the week when Coach Gordon will send out the first call for practice in preparation for the opening game of the season here with Manistique high September 20.

Practice has been held every afternoon since the opening of school but the first general call will be issued the first of next week and the coach will begin the building up of his football machine.

Graduation took all but two of last year's regulars, Captain Soren Johnson and John Norton. Cameron and Reese, subs last season, are back and with these four men and the promising material that is out for the team the coach will start work in an effort to put a winning combination into the field again this year.

The first game will be played on the Gladstone field when Manistique comes here September 20. Six home games are scheduled.

Games.

The complete schedule for the season, given out yesterday, is:

Sept. 20—Manistique here.

Sept. 27—Isipungue here.

Oct. 4—Escanaba here.

Oct. 11—Open date.

Oct. 18—Iron Mountain here.

Oct. 25—Marquette here.

Nov. 1—Marquette here.

Nov. 8—Manistique there.

CITY BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baldwin of Detroit were week end guests at the home of the former's brother, Paul Baldwin, Range St. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Moulton left Wednesday morning on a motor trip to Menominee. They plan to return the latter part of the week.

Miss Bernadette Wall has resumed her duties at the Judge of Probate's office, after a vacation in Milwaukee.

Thomas LaFolite motored to Milwaukee last week for a visit. Floyd Gonyea expects to leave today for Detroit by motor, accompanied by Paul Klagstad, who has been vacationing in Manistique. From Detroit, Mr. Gonyea will proceed to St. Francis, where he will resume his studies at the seminary.

Mrs. Charles Ekberg is receiving medical treatment at the Rutledge Hospital.

The Misses Irene and Myrtle Olson left Manistique Monday, enroute to Northville, Michigan, where they will teach during the coming school year. Miss Irene will supervise music and art, and Miss Myrtle will teach in the primary department.

The Swedish Baptists will conduct a bake sale at the Sven Johnson Furniture store on Saturday of this week, September 6.

Charles Tyrrell left Manistique Tuesday for Minneapolis, where he will visit with relatives and attend the Minnesota State Fair. He expects to be employed there in the future.

Mrs. John Strokke of Alpena, formerly Miss Mary Carr, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carr or Cedar Street, Manistique.

Mrs. J. Stromer, who has been assisting in the ready-to-wear department of the Penney Store during the opening weeks, has returned to Marquette, where she has charge of a similar department in the chain store of that city.

Russell Watson returned this week from a visit at the Soo, accompanied by his aunt and uncle, who will be guests at the Watson home in Manistique for a few days.

Jean Hagblom left this week for Detroit to visit his son Uno, who is an attorney at that place.

FUNERAL OF SCHOOL GIRL HERE TODAY

Impressive funeral services will be held this afternoon for Lilly Marie Anderson, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, who passed away at midnight Sunday at the family home after an illness of one day.

The services will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock at the Swedish Lutheran Church, the Rev. C. E. Olsson officiating. Interment following will be made in Fernwood cemetery.

The death of Miss Anderson has come as a great sorrow to all who knew her and the love and esteem in which the school girl was held was shown yesterday by calls at the home and beautiful floral offerings.

LAST SHOWING OF "COVERED" WAGON TONIGHT

A picture of pictures—a novelty for the theatre-going public, is James Cruze's latest Paramount production, "The Covered Wagon" which will show tonight for the last time at the Community theatre.

Some 500 prairie schooners, 100 horses, 600 oxen, hundreds of actors and 1000 Indians from six different tribes, go to make up this stupendous production, the largest thus far presented to the motion-picture public.

J. Warren Kerrigan, Lois Wilson, Charles Ogle, Ernest Torrence, Tully Marshall, Alan Hale, Guy Oliver and John Fox are the principal players. The picture has adhered closely to the novel by Emerson Hough, and has lost none of the force and interest of the story. It is a love story that is different. Many difficulties are encountered by Lois Wilson and Kerrigan because of the fact that Alan Hale, as Sam Woodhull, believes that he is engaged to Molly, and refuses to tolerate Will Bannon's (Kerrigan) attentions to her. In the end, however, everything turns out for the best, and the finest motion picture ever seen in Gladstone comes to a close.

LOCALS PLAY MUNISING SATURDAY

The Gladstone ball club will have two stiff games on its schedule for the coming week end when it meets Munising here Saturday and Marquette here on Sunday.

The Munising game, although it will not count in the league standings, is bound to be an interesting contest. Bill Johnson, of Manistique, a hurler of no mean ability will take the mound for Gladstone Saturday and the game will be a pitching duel between him and Lane, Munising's colored man.

Sunday's game which will affect the league standings will see Stan Millard pitching for Gladstone which assures fans of some real ball when the Marquette-Gladstone game is called.

With the season nearing a close and the league race still to be settled, interest of the fans is high and both games will see big crowds on hand backing the team.
