

LULL REPORTED IN CHINESE HOSTILITIES

Regional Accords To Be Retained in Protocol

MUST MEET WITH APPROVAL OF FULL COMMISSION; DAY TAKEN REACHING AGREEMENT

LIMITATIONS FIXED FOR OPERATION, HOWEVER.

(By The Associated Press.)
Geneva, Sept. 17.—Regional accords between states will continue to form one of the essential features of the draft protocol written by Dr. Edouard Benes, if the action taken today by the sub-committee on disarmament is approved by the full commission and the assembly. Some of the keenest intellects of the world struggled all day with this question of supplementary alliances which have always made the English fearful, and others, too, on the ground that they would only engender counter-alliances and tend to destroy that peace which the league of nations is striving to make lasting.

The agreement reached today authorizes these special accords, but makes it perfectly clear that they will operate only when an aggressor state has declined to accept an arbitral sentence and the word goes forth that all the signatories must come forward with their punitive sanctions.

Furthermore, these supplementary accords will not only be registered, but will remain open for the signature of all the nations members of the league which desire to adhere to them.

France's offer to found an institute of intellectual co-operation at Paris has created a discussion which has gone far beyond the limits anybody had expected. Many of the delegations seem to fear that such an institute would gradually develop into an entirely French organization, embracing French ideas and dominated by French thought.

To prevent any misunderstanding the French today proposed that the institute should not only be under the complete direction of the league of nations, but that a special commission of five persons of different nationalities should be appointed to direct the institute under the supervision of the league of nations' committee on international co-operation.

Naval Matters To Be Brought Before Secretary of Navy

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Sept. 17.—President Coolidge made it known today that he called Secretary Wilbur here from California "to consult him on important naval matters of purely domestic concern". Persistent speculation and inquiries at the White House since the president's message was sent, brought forth today an official denial that the president had heard any criticism of any speeches made on the coast by Secretary Wilbur, or any comments concerning them other than that they had been very helpful.

(By The Associated Press.)

MAJOR PARTIES ARE FLYED BY INDEPENDENTS

LaFollette To Get Full Support in State

(By The Associated Press.)
Lansing, Mich., Sept. 17.—Scouring the policies and the administrations of the major parties, 299 delegates to the first state convention of the recently formed Independent Progressive party today pledged themselves to the support of Robert M. LaFollette for president and Burton K. Wheeler for vice president.

The group of men and women were wildly enthusiastic as they formally gave the new party with fighting togs. They interspersed the business of the convention with songs and cheers. It was unique as a state political gathering in that there was no keynote speech, and no long winded perorations. But the brief remarks offered by those in charge of the affair brimmed over with optimism and conveyed to a receptive audience the belief that there will be another upset this fall like that in 1912 which registered a plurality in the columns of a third party. While no attempt was made to link the LaFollette movement directly with the Bull Moose party that once swept this state, the new party chiefs avowed unrestrainedly that what has happened once can happen again, and professed to see LaFollette and his running mate finding favor here in the eyes of the same persons who voted for Rooseveltian doctrines and principles.

Local Issues Out.

The convention steered away from the introduction of local issues into the campaign. It went on record as devoted to one cause—that of LaFollette and Wheeler. No state ticket was named; no endorsements of individual candidates were offered and no stand on the Ku Klux Klan or other controversial issues was taken. A set of resolutions was adopted, urging the repeal of the Esch-Cummins transportation act; scouring the oil interests that contributed to both major parties; urging the divorce of "private control over governmental functions," and demanding the election of LaFollette and Wheeler. A state angle was lightly touched when a resolution was accepted calling upon members of the new party to "work for the election of state and local candidates who have shown by their records and attitude that they will adhere to the progressive principles for which the progressive principles for which they serve a wise balance of authority between the executive and legislative branches of our government." The closest the assembly came to touching on the Klan or prohibition issues was this:
"We foster and cherish the spirit of liberty and toleration that is the foundation of all democracy."
State Slate Unnamed.
The convention left with the state central committee the power to select a state slate of independent candidates.

LEGION'S NEXT CONVENTION IS GIVEN TO OMAHA

Landis Receives An Ovation From Vets At St. Paul

(By The Associated Press.)
St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 17.—Decision to hold the 1925 convention in Omaha and an ovation for former Judge Kenesaw M. Landis marked the third day's session of the American Legion's sixth annual convention here today.
Interrupted frequently by wild outbursts of applause, Mr. Landis spoke extemporaneously, scoring the topic that had been assigned to him, that on the constitution, as this was constitution day at the convention.
"Why, God bless you," he said, "talk the constitution of the United States to the Legion? Had it not been for what the organizations represented by this outfit did, there wouldn't be any constitution of the United States."
From a bitter denunciation of those who have spread "villainous propaganda" about the Legion, he turned to the problems of getting the electorate of the country to the polls, and recommended that any man falling a second time to vote should be cast into jail.
Accept Report.
Besides selecting the 1925 meeting place and hearing Judge Landis, the convention accepted the committee report promising the 1925 convention to Philadelphia, and agreed to entertain an invitation from France for the 1928 convention in Paris.
Greetings from the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled American Veterans and the British Legion and an address by George L. Berry, representing the American Federation of Labor, completed the day's business session.

Mr. Berry himself a delegate from Tennessee, promised the Legion the "whole hearted support of the American Federation of Labor" for reduction of illiteracy, spread of Americanism, child welfare and "an unadulterated affection and love for country."

RACINE WINS.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 17.—For the fourth consecutive year, Racine Post Number 76 of Racine, Wis., won the drum corps competition at the national convention of the American Legion here tonight.

CONTEMPLATED SUICIDE; RUN DOWN BY AUTO

ST. JOSEPH PASTOR LEFT HOME AFTER ROW WITH WIFE.

(By The Associated Press.)
Chicago, Sept. 17.—Reverend Leslie Anderson, of St. Joseph, Mich., was found unconscious on a downtown street today, having been struck by an automobile, the police believe. Two blocks away was his automobile in which was pinned several notes, one of which began with: "One who is about to die salutes you." Anderson was brought to the county hospital, where it was said he will recover. How he came to be injured he could not say. He said that he left St. Joseph, following a quarrel with his wife and the "first thing I knew I was in Chicago."

Was Out of Funds.

"I found myself out of funds," he continued, "and made several trips to Libertyville in search of employment. Last, I came back. I wrote a letter to my wife in the automobile and pinned it to the cushion of the seat. That is the last thing I remember."
"I wanted to die. I thought that was the best way out of my troubles."

ELDERS BACK HIM.

St. Joseph, Mich., Sept. 17.—Reverend L. R. Anderson, found in Chicago in a semi-conscious condition, has the moral support of the elders of the First Evangelical church here of which he was pastor and of the presiding elder of this district, according to information here following the announcement of his leaving.

The elders were apprised of his leaving the church last Sunday by Supervising Elder Strohe. Mr. Strohe occupied the church in the morning and announced to the congregation that "your pastor is supposed to be preaching at Bainbridge." Later, however, he met with elders and told them of their leader's departure. According to the elders, he declared he was willing to transfer Mr. Anderson to some other charge.

FAIR ATTRACTS LARGER CROWDS THAN LAST YEAR

Airplane Stunts On Today's Program; Stores Close

Attendance figures announced last night for yesterday's session of the fair were 25 per cent in excess of figures for Wednesday of last year while those of Tuesday were 60 per cent higher than the same day last year.
The management announced last night that Cameron and Williams, aviation specialists, would perform stunts during the session today and would also take up passengers. This is something of an added attraction.

Judges Complete Work.

Yesterday was judging day, and the colored ribbons were hung on the halters of the horses and cattle, or tacked up on the pens of the smaller animals, and on the racks and tables where the household exhibits are shown. Competition in virtually all classes was very keen, and there was a great deal of interest in the work of the judges.

(By The Associated Press.)
Chicago, Sept. 17.—John W. Coverdale resigned as secretary and director of organization of the American Farm Bureau Federation at the quarterly session of the executive committee here today and Gray Silver resigned as director of the legislative department and Washington representative of the federation.

Mr. Silver is president of the grain marketing company, and Mr. Coverdale is secretary and treasurer.

Mr. Coverdale retained his position as treasurer of the American Farm Bureau Federation. Farm Bureau officials said a new secretary probably will not be named before the first of the year, but that an acting Washington representative probably will be appointed soon.

CHEKIANG'S FORCES ARE NOW BEING REINFORCED.

(By The Associated Press.)
Shanghai, Sept. 18.—Two days and a night of continuous stubborn resistance by the Chekiang soldiers defending Shanghai against the onslaught of troops from Kiangsu province were followed late last night by a lull in the fighting. Despite the heavy attack, the positions of the two armies were reported virtually unchanged.

CHEKIANG'S FORCES ARE NOW BEING REINFORCED.

Early this morning, reinforcements were being rushed from the Chekiang headquarters at Lungwha six miles south of here, to relieve the worn out men at the front, while on the battle line everything possible was being done to strengthen the defenders' lines.

CHEKIANG'S FORCES ARE NOW BEING REINFORCED.

Shortly after the firing ceased, the leaders in the different sectors—at Lubo, on the coast northwest of the city; at Hwangtu, on the Shanghai-Nanking railway to the west, and at Kiating, between the other two points—were called to headquarters at Lungwha for a conference. At this hour (3 a. m.) the conference was still in session.

Judge Edward J. Jeffries, of Detroit, was elected permanent chairman of the convention. Sybrant Wasson, of Grand Rapids, chairman of the state central committee, acted as temporary chairman. He delivered a keynote address. Albert Sæther, of Detroit, was secretary of the convention and Eugene Brock, of Detroit, secretary of the central committee. The convention ratified the officers and membership of the central committee as named by the LaFollette workers when they held their informal meeting here August 30.

The technical steps necessary to qualify LaFollette and Wheeler as independent candidates in this state, were completed when the convention chose 15 electors whose names will appear in the independent column in the November election. James H. Pound, of Detroit, and Albert M. Todd, of Kalamazoo, were named electors at large. The following electors were chosen from the various congressional districts:

fifth. He reached Tunney with sweeping rights and lefts to the head while Tunney continued his body attack at close range.

Tunney had the shade in the sixth which was tame. He continued to pound Greb's body in the clinches and caused Harry to miss frequently with right and left swings to the head.

The seventh was fairly even and was filled with lively exchanges. They set such a furious pace that neither heard the bell and continued to exchange punches until the referee separated them. Tunney's punches were more accurate, many of Greb's swings going around Gene's head and shoulders.

Greb opened up the eighth with a wild fury and almost fell over the top rope when he missed a wild swing. Tunney carried the fight to him, winning the round as the result of effective body punching. Gene complained to the referee that Greb was guilty of butting him with his head.

Greb reached Tunney with a right to the body and long lefts to the head in the ninth, whipping over a solid right to the chin as the bell sounded.

Greb flew into Tunney at the start of the tenth, scoring effectively but Gene drove him to the ropes later and evened it up. They exchanged punches in the center of the ring on ten terms, Tunney driving both sides to the body whenever they tangled up.

Preliminaries. In a fast six round preliminary Frank Stellmack of Cleveland defeated Jack Stewart of Wheeling, W. Va. Stewart was dropped for an 8 count in the third round with a left hook. They weighed 134 1/2 pounds.

The semi-windup resulted in a technical knockout for Al Zeimler of Cleveland, a former protegee of Johnny Kilbane, over Bobby Rendeirle of Toledo in the fifth round of a scheduled six-round go. Rendeirle, substituting for Johnny Andrews of Toledo, was helpless on the ropes where the referee ended the contest.

Zeimler weighed 120 pounds while Rendeirle scaled 120 1/2.

Bryan Has Better Chance Than Davis To Cop Presidency

(By The Associated Press.)

Alma, Mich., Sept. 17.—Charles Bryan has a better chance to become president than Davis, asserted Bird J. Vincent, congressman of the eighth district, before the Gratiot county Republicans today in showing the necessity of the Republicans electing Coolidge and keeping the contest out of congress.

He states that he did not believe that the lower house could pick a president and that it would be very possible for the senate to elect Bryan as vice president, whereon he would succeed to the presidency March 4, without a person having voted to make him president.

Gratiot Republicans, who had given Perry a big plurality in the primary endorsed Governor Groesbeck and the state administration.

American Share of Canada Financing Will Be $90,000,000

(By The Associated Press.)

New York, Sept. 17.—The American portion of the Canadian government's $200,000,000 financing, consisting of $90,000,000 one year four per cent notes, has been awarded to a banking group headed by the Chase Securities Corporation, it was announced tonight, public offerings of the issue will be made tomorrow at par.

General Patrick, stating that the army already possessed an "automatic pilot" that flies airplanes without anyone aboard, expressed the belief that their control by radio was only a matter of brief development and that "whole flocks" of such planes controlled by a man in a distant airplane, would in future operate against hostile cities, attacking at the will of the remote pilot.

"We have really gone so far," General Patrick said, "as to now believe that transportation of an expeditionary force across the sea is an impossibility. If the Germans had known in the world war what we know now, few of our million men would have reached France."

Washington, Sept. 17.—A carefully worded statement of his political views, in part a challenge to the two old parties, has been prepared by Senator Robert M. LaFollette, independent presidential candidate, for presentation tomorrow night at the rally his supporters will hold in Madison Square Garden, New York City. The text of the senator's address, which he spent nearly a week preparing, was completed late today. If he confines himself to his manuscript without extemporaneous interpolations, it was said he probably would speak ninety minutes. Baltimore Fighter Trims Mike Moran (By The Associated Press.) ASK THAT '91' BE TRUNK LINE

County road commissioners of Menominee, Delta and Dickinson counties are preparing for a joint meeting at which plans will be made for some definite action in getting before the state legislature this winter a request that highway 91 between Cedar River and Escanaba, and county road 98 between Foster City and Narenta be placed on the state trunk line system.

F. L. Betts, county road superintendent of Menominee, asserts that the joint Menominee and Delta county road between Cedar River and Escanaba is in better shape than the state trunk line between Menominee and Cedar River. He claims that the 91 route to Marquette and the copper country, Munising, Newberry and the Soo is 8 miles shorter and that it also does away with the congestion of traffic in the numerous villages on 12 and 15 which are carrying more than 1,000 vehicles each 10-hour day. The traffic on 91 is 80 per cent foreign traffic, statistics show, not only because it is the shortest distance but because of its scenic advantages. The Chicago Auto Club and other tourist and automobile organizations route thru traffic to the north over 91.

Is State Proposition. Mr. Betts states that the Menominee road commission feels that 91 is a state proposition as it carries through traffic to so great an extent, and the state, not the county, should take care of it. Of the 30 miles between Cedar River and Escanaba, 12 miles are in Menominee county and 15 miles in Delta county.

The same conditions prevail on highway 90 and three counties are directly interested in it—Menominee, Delta and Dickinson. By way of county road 90 about 14 miles are saved between Escanaba and Crystal Falls and other points east and north. The state trunk line from Ranville, which is directly north of Iron Mountain, to Foster City, and from Escanaba to Narenta. Of the stretch now on county road between the two places 7 miles are in Dickinson, 20 miles in Menominee and 5 miles in Delta.

Requires Legislation. The only way in which county road can be placed on the state trunk line is through an act of the state legislature. Each county in the state is allowed 3 miles of trunk line per township survey of 36 miles square. Each county in the upper peninsula has that mileage, but by special acts of the legislature there are counties in the southern part of the state that have as high as 8 miles or more per township survey. That was necessary, as is the case locally, in order to connect up gaps in the trunk line.

Menominee, Delta and Dickinson desire to get together in order to push legislation for this improvement which would be a great benefit to each of the three counties. By granting the trunk line the state will pay 82½ per cent of the cost of construction and 65 per cent of cost of maintenance instead of the counties bearing the entire cost.

Dr. Frank Poole and Miss Melita G. Hutzler, lay a foundation for the clinics to which following explaining the need for the "Keep Well" campaign and the methods the state is using to get the "Health" idea across.

Particular stress is laid in the care of children, more especially those of pre-school age, Mrs. Runnels said.

"Youngsters," she said, "usually begin accumulating defects at the age of two. This condition exists until the ages of seven and eight when the cumulative peak is reached. Obviously the children must enter school life within these age limits and they should be accorded the proper care. The work of the doctors follows the much advocated periodic physical examinations."

Three doctors and their attending nurses form the clinic staff. Dr. Wallace H. Smith examines all well adults, and Dr. F. L. Ross conducts the school children's clinic. Dr. Iva M. Likley is in charge of the baby clinic and she is prepared to examine 20 to 30 infants each day. All of the clinics are for well people and those already under treatment or having chronic ailments are advised to see their private physicians.

EMANUEL ROSSITER.

Word has been received in the city of the death at Superior, Wis., of Emanuel Rossiter, an early resident of Escanaba and known to a host of Escanaba's older citizens. He was popularly known among friends in Escanaba as "Manny" Rossiter and during his residence in Superior has visited with local friends on a number of occasions. He left Escanaba in 1888 and excepting for the periods of the Spanish-American and the World Wars in which he served, he had made his home in Wisconsin cities.

Of his death a Superior dispatch says: "Lieut. Col. Emanuel Rossiter, veteran of the Spanish-American and world wars, and prominent in military circles in the northwest, died yesterday at a Superior hospital, after a lingering illness from heart disease."

"Col. Rossiter was born in Fort Huron, Wis., in 1863 and has been a resident in Superior since 1917. He was corporal in Company I, Third Wisconsin Infantry, during the Spanish-American war, becoming captain later when it was reorganized. At the outbreak of the war he was commissioned lieutenant colonel and became second in command of the Sixth Wisconsin Infantry, but because of illness, could not go across with his unit.

"He went to France later, however, with the quartermaster corps. When the war ended he was commissioned lieutenant colonel in the Wisconsin National guard reserve. He is survived by his wife. A military funeral was held Tuesday morning. Burial will be here."

BETTER TIMES AHEAD.
The iron and steel industry, which leads the way for all other business activities, is slowly but steadily climbing back up toward full-time operations.

The gain in pig iron production in August was only 6 per cent over the July output. But it was the first check to the drop that started late in March.

With the national election out of the way, and uncertainty and superstitious public fear allayed, times may boom suddenly. The iron and steel industry not infrequently leaps upward with rather amazing speed.

In August, pig iron output had dropped to 1,816,170 tons. In four months it was up past 3,000,000 tons.

That may happen again in iron and steel—and in general business. All hope so.

Lots of business rainbows in the sky. Election will soon be over. Steel industry on the upgrade. Europe, having finally settled the reparations problem (for a time, at least), should commence faster; this, in turn, would stimulate American business.

The farmer is in better shape, his buying power gradually being restored. Business failures recently have been the lowest of the year. Railroad freight loadings have been running the highest of the year to date.

All these point infallibly to better times ahead.

America went through severe hard times a few years back. That always occurs after a big boom. Here's what happened after the Napoleonic wars and after the Civil War:

War's end brought a boom, followed by depression in which prices dropped. Then came another boom, and prices went up but not quite as high as before. Later things slumped and prices sagged. Then recovery. And so on.

We've been going through the same process—a post-war boom, depression, another boom or secondary period of inflation, and recently the reaction, downward. The stage again is set for a turn upward.

We'd be better off if we could have good business all the time, instead of booms and depressions alternating. The thing could be arranged—and will be later, when men understand more about controlling the buying power of the dollar, or, in other words, how to stabilize prices.

Business conditions and prices are Siamese twins.

ON COUNTING VOTES.
The city of Grand Rapids, Michigan, in the primary election last week, used voting machines for the first time, and according to the Grand Rapids Press, they were a dismal failure. Some of the machines failed to function and generally they proved themselves inadequate.

The Press bemoaned the fact that many voters were turned away, after a tremendous effort had been made to bring out a large vote. Apparently the voting machine is not all that is claimed for it, because the Press voices the opinion that the old fashioned booth and pencil still are supreme in point of accuracy.

For a community like Escanaba, there seems to be little desire to change the method of voting. The present system is adequate. There is, however, one change in the method of counting which might be considered for adoption. That involves the establishment of one central place for counting ballots.

Notes are gathered two or three times during election day—at noon, evening and when the polls close. Counting is started as soon as the first votes are received and continued throughout the day until all ballots are counted. The results of the election are not made known until the polls close. The work of the election is completed early and the results are known soon after.

Under the present system, election officials are kept up to date on the progress of the election. The results of the election are not made known until the polls close. The work of the election is completed early and the results are known soon after.

H. HEAFIELD, Editor

SOME GARDEN HISTORY

We are indebted to Wm. Winters sr. and Van's Harbor for the following incident which gives a little idea of existing conditions here before many of us saw the light of day. It was before our county seat of the neighbour city of Manistique of our own Garden had attained the rank of cities. Sac Bay was a thriving little settlement composed mainly of men who drew their living from the deer. It was in the early seventies, when the Methodist was doing Pioneer Missionary work in this part of the state which was then known as a part of the back woods of America. One of the ministers of the Methodist Church, familiarly known as "Long John" sent to the Sac Bay settlement to take the Gospel light. With the exception of an occasional log hut, what is now known as Manistique, was the nearest settlement which was considered to be a preaching point on the Sac Bay parish. Regular preaching services were conducted in the Sac Bay schoolhouse, which still stands near the Pizala residence, by the tall gentlemen of the cloth. Regular trips were made to the station away up in the north. The only means of travel in those days was by foot or horseback. Mr. John owned a horse which was a willing worker in the great work of evangelizing this part of the world. It was on one of these long and lonesome trips that our friend made a stop at the home of a friend, a few miles out of town in order that his faithful horse might take a refreshing drink. He did not dismount and the horse took his fill and, without asking the permission of the preacher proceeded to do what all horses like to do, that is to take a roll. There is no record of what the preacher said or of what he thought, but he did get very wet, right to the skin. Fortunately it was a warm June day and Mr. John took off his wet duds, hung them on a hickory tree, and waited, until they were dry. That experience would we think be almost embarrassing as would a preacher of our day. Our informant declares that that particular preaching appointment was not kept and the little flock waiting long, wondering what had happened to their faithful pastor.

NEED FIRE PROTECTION

The fire of Monday night on the Ed Joque farm near the grade schools when five thousand dollars worth of farm crops and buildings went up in smoke is just another reminder of the inadequate fire protection the village possesses. It is generally conceded that our fire fighting apparatus is altogether insufficient for the demands placed upon it. It is safe to say that very few villages of the size of Garden can compare with us for our fire loss. Much credit was due to our own fire department and the volunteer helpers for their prompt work on Monday night. The side of the adjoining residence had already caught fire but the quick work of the department checked it before serious damage was done. We are not criticizing our officials but it is not generally known that the village treasury has been absolutely depleted for some time past, and it has been impossible to spend money on fire fighting apparatus under such conditions. But it should be remembered that somebody pays the cost of unpreparedness. Monday's blaze, to say nothing of the numerous other fire losses would have gone a long way to place our fire department on a working basis. But since the replating of the village, the village taxes have been coming in so that there should be before long a small balance in the treasury. Taxpayers and householders should demand that they get some adequate fire protection for the tax money they are annually paying to the village. It is believed that something will be done in the near future to remedy these serious conditions.

CAR SMASHED UP

Garden people were quite excited on Thursday night about 10:30 when it was noised abroad that an Essex Touring car, owned and operated by Frank Gray was lying disabled in the ditch within the village limits. Scores of sightseers made their way thither to see the car which had only one sound wheel left. The wind shield and top were completely destroyed and the car lay in the ditch at right angles to the highway. Various reasons have been given for the smash up but the car left in the highway, struck and old balm of gilead stump, rolled over at least once before finally settling down in the ditch. The driver, with a companion, Willis McNally, hung on to the bitter end and, after quiet was restored, were able to get out and rejoice that they were alive, and also to wonder what unseen hand protected them. Three wheels were brought up the next day and placed on the car and the driver was able to start up the engine and drive the car away.

Mrs. Noe's maiden name was Louisa Boudreau. She was born in New York State sixty six years ago and her husband was born in Canada seventy six years ago. NERVOUS, RUN-DOWN MOTHERS
Worn Out Caring for Children and Housework—See how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helps

Indianapolis, Indiana.—"I was in a very nervous and run-down condition while nursing my baby, and hearing some talk of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I began taking it. From the second bottle I noticed a big improvement, and I am still taking it. I am not a bit nervous now, and feel like a different person. It is a great medicine for any one in a nervous, run-down condition and I would be glad to give any one advice about taking it. I think there is no better medicine and give you permission to publish this letter."—Mrs. ANNA SMITH, 841 W. Norwood St., Indianapolis, Indiana.

The important thing about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is that it does help women suffering from the ailments common to their sex. If you are nervous and run-down and have pains in your lower parts and in your back, remember that the Vegetable Compound has relieved other women having the same symptoms. STORES CLOSE SUNDAY
A movement which has been on foot for some time past culminated last week end when it was announced that the village stores will in the future be closed all day Sunday. It is to be hoped that every storekeeper will observe the rule religiously and we might further express the hope that the purchasing public will see to it that all their supplies are purchased before the Sabbath and if perchance they do forget, to refrain from even asking that any individual store keeper should break the rule for their particular convenience. Our Merchants need a day of rest as much as any other person and it is only by cooperating of the public with them that this is possible. The village will be taking a step in the forward direction by falling in line with this movement.

ESKY TEACHERS HOPE TO BRING MEETING HERE
The Escanaba schools are the only ones in the Upper Peninsula to report a "hundred percent" membership in the Michigan State Teachers' Association, according to S. R. Anderson, of Marquette, secretary of District No. 7, of the state body.

The former "Upper Peninsula Educational Association," voted last year, to affiliate with the state organization, and the territory north of the straits has been designated as "District No. 7" by the parent body. The merger was arranged by a special committee consisting of W. E. Olds, superintendent of schools of Escanaba, Simon R. Anderson, Marquette county school commissioner, and Edward Miller, of Detroit. It becomes effective this year.

At the first meeting of the Escanaba teachers this season the 93 instructors in the grade and high school voted to become members of the state association and the remittance dues, sent at one time, brought forth some complimentary remarks from Mr. Anderson.

The Escanaba delegation is expected to make a strong bid for the 1925 district convention, where they attend the annual session at Marquette next Oct. 9 and 10.

BOYS LEAGUE WINNERS GET A CUP TODAY

Members of the Lakeside boys baseball team, champions of the Manistique Boys League, will be guests of honor today at a noonday banquet given by the Manistique Rotary club.

A baseball league for boys is a new idea at Manistique, and was started this summer for the first time. The league was organized, at the suggestion of Fred Walker, then manager of the Manistique baseball team, and is sponsored by the local Rotary Club. Players on the city baseball team were assigned to each of the boys' teams as coaches. The league was intended to encourage good sportsmanship among the boys, and it was arranged to give the teams credit for their conduct on the field, in addition to the winning of games.

The Lakeside Giants won through the season in whirlwind style, followed closely by the Central Grays. The Giants lost one game toward the later part of the season, and that to the Grays. This was the only game lost in the entire series, and their percentage entitled them to first place in the league. They also received a word mark for their conduct and sportsmanship.

The Rotarians purchased a handsome cup for the winners, and this will be presented to the captain of the team at the banquet today. The boys plan to place their trophy on exhibition, notably in the trophy cabinet of the high school.

Included in the student contingent which left yesterday were: Elmer Gustafson, Albert Olson, Harry Olson, Gustaf Danielson, and Thomas Seller, all bound for Ann Arbor; James Fitzgerald, who will enter the University of Detroit; Nels Marin, en route to Albion College; Clarence Chartier, returning to resume his University course; Lyle Smith, Orville Smith, Barney Johnson, who will enter the Western State Normal at Kalamazoo for two years preparatory work before entering the University. The latter three plan to visit relatives of the Smiths at Owassee before proceeding on to Kalamazoo.

Other Manistique young people will leave later in the week to resume courses in lower Michigan institutions of learning.

Jim Troyer Has Good Luck On A Fishing Trip

James Troyer, Jr., of Manistique, experienced some good bass fishing while on a vacation at Sault Ste. Marie, according to a report received here.

With his wife, parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Metz of this city, Mr. Troyer spent ten days at Oak Ridge, a spot in fishing place. Nearly every day, members of the party were able to catch their limit of five bass, and on Wednesday of last week the Troyers hooked eight, the smallest of which weighed three pounds, and the largest four pounds and 14 ounces. The latter was caught by Mr. Troyer, Jr., of Manistique, and is said to have been the largest bass taken from the river this season.

Bowling Alley Will Open Up This Saturday

Another sign of fall is the opening of the Braut bowling alley, which will take place on Saturday afternoon of this week, according to the announcement made yesterday by E. O. Braut, proprietor.

The alleys are being sanded and shelled in preparation for the opening of the bowling season, and will be ready to speed the first ball on its way on Saturday. More extensive improvements will be made at a later date, Mr. Braut states.

The Elks' Club also plans to improve their alleys this year, and the floors are to receive a special surface treatment before the alleys are opened for the season.

Mead Engaged As Football Official

Dr. H. L. Mead of Manistique has been engaged by Newberry high school to act as official for the opening game of the Celery City football season, which will be played there on Saturday, September 27.

Newberry's opponents on that date will be Escanaba high, and a hard game is anticipated.

GREAT RACES PROMISED AT COUNTY FAIR

This year's speed program at the Schoolcraft county fair promises to be one of the best in the history of the fair association. An ideal track, fast horses, and plenty of 'em, are the factors that will contribute to the success of the speed program this year.

Present indications are that from 35 to 40 horses will come to Manistique for the fair races next week. "Track" by all of the horses now racing at the Escanaba fair, will be seen in action here. The competition will be keen, and O. W. Huffer, superintendent of speed, promises plenty of action for fair visitors.

The track was never in better condition than it is at the present time, and is conceded to rank with the fastest in the upper peninsula. Weather conditions have been just right, and frequent rains during the summer have only served to pack the clay surface which was a little heavy last year. The track has been receiving constant care all so, and is as smooth as it can be made.

With favorable weather during fair week, horse racing fans will get plenty of thrills out of the speed program at the Schoolcraft fair.

Two changes are noted in the racing schedule. The event listed as a 2:15 pace has been changed to a 2:14 to meet existing conditions, and the 2:10 pace listed for one of the days has been changed to a 2:20 trot to accommodate some trotters which will be entered.

Cost 2 Million To Make Picture

Two million dollars is said to have been expended in the making of the photoplay, "Napoleon and Josephine," which will be seen by Manistique folks at the Gero theater tonight. Gertrude McCoy, famous international beauty, plays the part of Josephine. Gwyn Evans is Napoleon and is reported to be a faithful counterpart of that famous figure of history.

The story deals with the meeting of Napoleon, then a young artillery officer, with Josephine D'Beauharnais, a Parisian beauty. With their marriage begins Napoleon's hardships of which Josephine shares. The outcome of these efforts and privations is the Imperial Throne, with Napoleon as Emperor, and Josephine as consort. Their happiness is marred, however, by the fact that no son has been born to them, and thus the Emperor's dream of a mighty dynasty cannot be fulfilled. Josephine sacrifices her position as wife and Queen that Napoleon's desire may be fulfilled, and the haughty Arch-Duchess Marie-Louise of Austria, reigns in her stead. To the successor of Josephine is born a boy. With his birth, Napoleon's career commences its descent. The retreat of Moscow is followed by an insurrection in Paris, where the crowd attacks the Royal Palace. Marie Louise, terror-stricken, seeks refuge in her boudoir, and only the arrival of Josephine quiets the mob's anger and saves Napoleon's son.

As a result of his failures, Napoleon abdicates, and his wife and son flee to protection of her father in Austria. Exiled to Elba, Napoleon's dreams appear to be shattered, but later he is recalled and for one hundred days is Emperor of France again. This brief kingship closes with Waterloo, and is followed by his second exile to St. Helena, where he died.

HIGH SQUAD READY FOR MANISTIQUE

The first football game of the season is scheduled for Saturday afternoon when Coach Gordon's men are to battle with the Manistique eleven here on the home gridiron.

Though Gladstone has defeated Manistique for two successive seasons, the game should be more closely contested this year for Manistique has many of its old-men-back-while the local team is handicapped by the loss of most of the experienced players. The new men however are rounding into shape well and are expected to put up a good game. Practice has been held up a good deal this week on account and from there to the Hugh B. Laing home here where it will remain in state until the time of the services.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Laing home, the Rev. J. M. Bolton, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment will be made in the family lot at Fernwood cemetery.

Lived Here.

Mr. Laing was formerly a Gladstone resident and is widely known throughout the community. At one time he conducted a store here with Hugh and Peter, his brothers. Ten years ago he moved to Flint where he was connected with the Chevrolet Motor company.

He enjoyed the sincere friendship of a large number of people here and his death will be mourned by all who knew him.

of minor injuries, particularly among the punters, but it is hoped that this will not interfere to any great extent with their struggle with Crittenden's squad.

TOURNEY GOES OVER THE TOP

The first day of the first horse-shoe-tourney ever conducted in this city proved an unequalled success at the Northern Michigan Fair yesterday. The day's receipts were much larger than had been anticipated and the crowds that constantly sought opportunity to play, kept the attendants on tip-toe during the afternoon.

The four courses for the men and the two for the ladies were in constant use and there was a fear expressed last evening that it would be necessary to construct more courses for the remainder of the week.

Poster (My Man Wins.
The high scores yesterday were recorded by Phil Milligan of Foster City, who registered 46 points with 48 shoes. Joe La Fonde of the Escanaba Fire department and Gus Trotter tied for second honors with 45 each.

Chairman Needham of the committee in charge of the tourney expected Hiram Buckleserger, middle states champion, would arrive this morning or late last evening to give an exhibition of his skill and to take on any challengers who might care to risk $50 on each ringer. However, Mr. Buckleserger will not be permitted to engage in the tourney as a contestant, his visit here being purely for exhibition purposes. The prize competition is confined to amateur pitchers alone.

Judge Gross Enthused.
P. J. Gross, presiding judge, is more than enthusiastic about the first day's success and says all he needs now is more help in the scoring department. This will be provided today and indications are that there will be more applicants for cards than can be accommodated. This will mean that the tournament has gone over in splendid style and that next year more elaborate prizes will be offered and the tourney conducted on a scale more in keeping with its popularity at that time.

Friday Last Day.
The tournament will run through Friday, the last day of the fair, and before the end it is expected that virtually every horseshoe pitcher in Delta county will have turned in a score, not alone for the purpose of winning a prize, but one which he can keep as a mark to shoot at in the future.

The tourney is proving to be one of the big features of the fair, as had been predicted, and a record breaking entry list is almost certain for today.

Manufacturers' Booth Pleases Fair Visitors

The Delta County Manufacturers Exhibit at the Northern Michigan Fair has so far attracted much attention. Every visitor who sees it is amazed at the amount of products which are manufactured in Delta county. The exhibit is in the auto show room and occupies one whole side of the building. Beginning at the door from the main building one sees the exact reproduction of the exhibit which was shown at Detroit, May 3 to 17, 1924, where it won first honors.

Good Will Farm's Tag Day Plans Are Near Completion

SATURDAY will be tag day in Escanaba for the benefit of Good Will Farm. Arrangements for the sale of tags are now being perfected.

For more than twenty years Good Will Farm has been doing a work which only an organization of the sort can do. It has been giving shelter to children of all ages, classes, and religions, when they were without other home and ineligible to any state institution.

While it has given them shelter it has, during their stay in the home attempted in every way to make them physically healthy, and clean in body and mind through regular habits and right ways of work and play.

Many hundreds of children have been cared for in this way during the years that have passed, until they should go into a suitable home of their own, or back to a rehabilitated home or friends, or in case of special defects, to such state institution as suited their requirement.

Without such care there is no doubt whatever that many must be carried by currents of misfortune into evil ways, always costly to the individual and to the public.

The Coliseum's opening, Tuesday night, with the Escanaba Municipal Band providing the music, was a huge success. Skaters expressed their approval of the condition of the floor, the new decorations and the improvements which Manager Flath has made during the summer.

Much Interest Shown In High School Debating

The debating season was officially opened at the Escanaba high school, when approximately twenty candidates reported at the first meeting of the year. General instructions were given to the candidates, and plans made for the first preliminary tryouts to be held in about a month.

Interest in debating at the local high school is at high pitch and a stiff battle is expected for the first places on the teams. Four of last year's regulars are back and a number of other talented speakers are trying out for places.

Miss Stella O'Shea of Marinette arrived Wednesday to attend the funeral of a friend.
