

THOUSANDS ARE FIGHTING FOREST FIRES

SOME CABINET CHANGES WILL COME, BELIEF MEMBERS INTEND TO RETIRE TO PRIVATE LIFE.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Several changes in the cabinet by next spring are looked for in Washington as a result of reports that some members intend to retire to private life for personal reasons and a belief that President Coolidge after next March 4, will prefer a cabinet entirely of his own selection.

Upon assuming the presidency after the death of President Harding, Mr. Coolidge requested all members of the new cabinet not to submit their resignations. While he has made no such request now with the approach of a term of four years to which he has been elected by vote of the people, he has neither asked for nor received in any way resignations of members of the present cabinet.

It is expected that he will urge successfully several members of the present cabinet to continue in office after his inauguration in March. Although Secretary Hughes is understood to have indicated to friends that he would prefer to private reasons to return to the practice of law, it is the general view that the secretary of state will continue at his post for a year, if not longer, while Secretaries Mellon and Hoover as well as Attorney General Stone are regarded as fixtures.

Work to Retire. On the other hand Hubert Work, secretary of the interior, has intimated to friends he wishes to retire. Mrs. Work recently died and he is known to have felt the shock very severely.

While Secretary Weeks is close to the administration and regarded as the man for the office, friends report that he, too, because of ill health and for personal reasons, would like to step out of official life.

There are also persistent reports that Secretary Wilbur is being considered for a federal judgeship in California. He came from the bench to head the navy department but is one of the two members in the present cabinet selected by Mr. Coolidge.

The postoffice department portfolio, long regarded as an office for the president's campaign manager, is mentioned as a post that may be offered to William M. Butler, chairman of the Republican national committee.

May Keep Gore. At present, however, Mr. Coolidge is centering his attention on the vacant post of Secretary of Agriculture. Some believe it possible that he retain Howard M. Gore, acting secretary, in that office until March 4 when the latter will be come governor of West Virginia.

DROP OF COSTS OF GOVERNMENT HELD POSSIBLE

Experts Are Still At Work on Budget for 1926

Washington, Nov. 8.—The cost of running the federal government in the fiscal year beginning next July 1, may fall below three billions dollars, or half a billion dollars less than the estimated expenditures for the current fiscal year.

On the basis of estimates prepared by the budget bureau and on which its conferences with the spending departments of the government practically have been completed, the anticipated appropriations for the year beginning next July 1 stood tonight at $2,980,000,000, exclusive of the postoffice department, the receipts of which are expected to balance the expenditures.

Officials of the budget still have work to do on the "budget of 1926" which will be submitted by the president to the forthcoming short session of congress. But they have gone so thoroughly into every estimate, great and small, submitted to them by the several branches of the government that they feel any changes to be made hereafter will be in the nature of thousands rather than millions of dollars.

To Study Figures. Brigadier General H. M. Lord, director of the budget, will go over the figures and tabulations with President Coolidge sometime next week and after that, it is expected, the government cost estimates will be ready for the public printer as the next stage in transmission to the president and to congress.

On the basis of the figures as they stood tonight, the ordinary expenditures are expected to fall below $1,700,000,000, exclusive of those by the postoffice department. This contemplates retention of the present basis of income and few in the government anticipate that congress will have time to do anything on tax reduction since President Coolidge has indicated he will not call the new congress, just elected, into an extraordinary session.

The great reduction in the public debt accomplished by the treasury in the last few years has begun to show its effect on expenditures and for the fiscal year 1926, the interest is calculated not to exceed $830,000,000.

EVERY EFFORT BEING MADE TO SAVE SENATOR

Lodge Fails Perceptibly During Day, Doctors in Charge Report.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 8.—The outlook for the recovery of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, who suffered a stroke at Charlesgate Hospital here Wednesday, was declared less favorable tonight by his attending physicians. A bulletin issued tonight announced that he had failed perceptibly since morning.

The announcement tonight followed a bulletin at noon today which stated that the senator was somewhat weaker than he had been, although his condition at that time was essentially the same as it had been for the preceding 72 hours. The announcement tonight at 6:20 stated: "Condition less favorable. Has failed perceptibly during the day."

It was signed by Doctors John H. Cunningham and Frederick H. Winslow. Partly Conscious. Although in a state of coma during the greater part of the day, Senator Lodge had brief periods of consciousness. Dr. Cunningham said that he had smiled and squeezed his hand several times in response to a request as to whether he recognized him.

Five relatives of the senator gathered at the hospital tonight for consultation with Dr. Cunningham. Members of the family have closed the Lodge home at Nahant and have taken up residence at the home of the senator's son, John C. Lodge, in Boston.

As the senator senior from this state, now in his 75th year, fought his battle for life, every precaution to keep the neighborhood free from noise was taken. Traffic on Memorial Drive near the hospital was rerouted by a metropolitan officer.

Just before midnight Dr. Cunningham issued a bulletin on the condition of Mr. Lodge in which he said: "The outlook remains unfavorable. Lost ground during the past 24 hours."

Stroke Is Fatal To Detroit Man

Detroit, Nov. 8.—Edwin S. Bartlett, 52 years old, assistant prosecuting attorney for Wayne county, prominent lawyer and former mayor of Highland Park, died suddenly following a stroke of apoplexy late today.

He was stricken while engaged with fellow parishioners in grading the lawn of the new Trinity Methodist Episcopal church in Highland Park. He was taken to the Highland Park general hospital, but failed to regain consciousness.

Bartlett was appointed to the prosecutor's staff in 1918 by Charles H. Jasnowski, and has served the county continuously since that time. His widow and two children, all of Highland Park, survive. There is one daughter, Laura, and a son, Edwin, Jr., the latter a freshman at Cornell University.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Michigan's other two touchdowns were contributed by Rockwell, one with the help of Friedman. A march down the field from the Michigan 40-yard line in the second period preceded a pass, Friedman to Rockwell, that scored a touchdown. In the first period Rockwell shot off Northwestern's right tackle 25 yards for a score.

Aside from Friedman's passes, most of Michigan's ground gaining was done by Marion who time after time hit the line with results. Rockwell used Marion often, and rarely did the big fullback (made over from an end) fail to advance. Herrstein, playing left half in place of Captain Steger, and Gregory, who replaced Herrstein, stood out in the Michigan attack.

Flankers Work Fast. Rockwell's first touchdowns were indirectly due to fast, effective work of the Wolverine flankers. Rockwell had punted, and the ball was downed on the Northwestern five-yard line. Wiencke, seeking to kick out of danger, was so hurried by the French Radicals Given Blame for Spanish Mishaps

Madrid, Nov. 8.—An official statement was issued by the military directorate today dealing with what are called the "apparent revolutionary happenings in Spain caused by anarchists from France acting in concert with syndicalists in Spain."

About 30 suspicious individuals who came armed from France, the statement says, engaged in a battle with police forces at Vera, Navarre, one policeman being killed. One of the men was killed, one was gravely wounded and six were arrested. Later twenty-two more of them were rounded up, and of this number four were killed. Upon all of them, according to the police, leaflets were found calling for a revolution in Spain.

A court martial is being held in Barcelona to deal with the slayers of a policeman who was killed in a gun duel with revolutionary suspects on Thursday.

Mrs. Harding witnessed the operation with but little shock, according to announcement of her physicians and tonight was said to "manifest her usual courage and helpfulness."

FIRST MEMBER OF GANG GETS AN ACQUITTAL

Jury Decides Grandsky Was in Bed at Time of Murder.

Detroit, Nov. 8.—Frank Grandsky, alleged member of the "Parmenty" "shotgun gang" was acquitted by a jury in Judge Edward J. Jeffries' court concluded Saturday after brief deliberation. The prosecution sought to show that Grandsky was one of the party who dragged Lambert into a machine, robbed him of $4,000 and a $1,500 diamond ring before they shot and killed him. Grandsky offered as his defense an alibi with the aid of three little girls who testified he was home throughout the day.

As the first of the notorious "shotgun-gang" of local robbers and thugs to go to trial in connection with Lambert's death, Grandsky claimed he went to bed at midnight, the day preceding the murder and remained there until noon of the day in question. The robbery and shooting occurred about 10.30 a. m.

Taken In Marquette. Grandsky was arrested in Marquette with Fred Parmenty, acknowledged chief of the "shotgun" gang and Vance Hardy, another reputed member. The police authorities of that community suspected that the presence of Parmenty and his associates in that city boded ill for the inhabitants. In fact, they had reason to suspect, they advised Detroit authorities, that the visitors were scheming to liberate former colleagues from the state prison there.

Other alleged members of the Parmenty organization waiting trial in connection with Lambert's death and the more recent robbery of the Continental Bank where Patrolman William Ashworth was killed, are Vance Hardy, Peter Hickey, Henry Rensenski and Joseph Paris. Parmenty was shot and killed by local detectives last summer.

Bowles' Petition for Vote Recount Filed with City

Detroit, Nov. 8.—Immediately after the filing of the petition of Charles Bowles, "sticker candidate" late today for a recount of the majority vote in which he trailed John W. Smith by approximately 10,000 votes and lost thousands by disqualification of ballots on which his name was misspelled, the machinery necessary for a retabulation started.

The recounting of the vote probably will begin Wednesday morning, according to Oakley E. Distin, secretary of the city election commission and orders for forms for the recount were placed Saturday so that there will be no delay on that score.

Bowles, before filing his application for a recount, waited until after the city election commission had announced the results of its official canvass of the vote. The figures did not differ materially from those announced early last Wednesday of the preliminary official canvass which was made to the public late Wednesday.

No fraud or questionable irregularities were alleged by Bowles in his petition for a recount, his plea being based upon the fact that the election board in the various precincts were forced to work all day Tuesday, Tuesday night and sometimes all day Wednesday, causing many mistakes in the tabulation of the vote for mayor.

Massachusetts Is Scene of Big Fire

North Adams, Mass., Nov. 8.—Forest fires which have been raging on Hoosac Mountain since yesterday and which late this afternoon were believed to be under control, broke out afresh tonight and were burning more furiously than ever. More than 400 men including two companies of national guardsmen were fighting the flames, which were gradually extending toward the town of Florida.

QUARTET HELD IN CONNECTION WITH SHOOTING

Juvenile Delinquency Charges Will Be Preferred

New York, Nov. 8.—Arraignment of the four boys, ranging in age from 8 to 13 years, who are being held in connection with the fatal shooting of the 13-year-old Ernest Scher, Jr., whose body was found last night hidden in a swamp near Richmond Hills, Long Island, today was postponed until next Tuesday. They will be arraigned on charges of juvenile delinquency.

Meanwhile, detectives continued to question the four youths, who have firmly held to their story that Scher boy was shot accidentally and that they hid his body because they feared they would be blamed.

Arthur McMan, 12, who is alleged to have received the fatal trigger that caused the death, showed no signs of nervousness as the detectives examined him. Harold, his 8-year-old brother, is one of the boys being held. The others are Adam Rotunda, 12, and Charles Hirschfeld, 8.

For ten days the boys kept their silence while the swamp was being searched by airplanes, blood hounds, police and citizens. They maintained they knew nothing of the Scher boy's disappearance until last night, when through conflicting statements which two of them made, the police learned that Ernest had been shot.

The parents of the dead boy accepted the explanation of the boys that their son had been killed by the accidental discharge of a rifle with which they were hunting muskrats in the swamp.

Hotel a Month, Is Record Michigan's Metropolis Sets

Detroit, Nov. 8.—During the past 18 months Detroit has established a new record in building more than one hotel a month. During this period 20 large and small hotels have been erected, ranging from 50 to 1,200 rooms, representing investments of approximately $25,000,000.

The 20 hotels makes an addition of 5,937 rooms available to tourists and convention delegates according to the Detroit Convention and Tourist Bureau. More than 100 conventions have been arranged for 1925. Among those to be held in Detroit next year are: National Association of Real Estate Boards, the National Restaurant Association, National Association of Cost Accountants, American Railway Bowlers' Association, Society of Automotive Engineers, Mississippi Valley Historical Association, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, Scandinavian Fraternity of America and National Association of Letter Carriers.

NOTRE DAME'S CARD HARDEST

Evans Longs for World Series of the Football Teams.

BY BILLY EVANS. Notre Dame doesn't draw the line anywhere in football.

For a number of years Coach Knute Rockne's proteges have played the hardest schedule among the major colleges.

There never is a breathing spell on any schedule compiled by Rockne, who seems to thrive on action.

Many coaches arrange for a soft game or an off-day prior to all important game. Not Rockne.

With him every game is important. Each Saturday clash, a battle.

Since Princeton, after two successive wallpings, appears to have enough of Notre Dame, Rockne picks something tougher for his team.

Next year Pennsylvania, boasting one of the greatest teams in the east, takes the place of Princeton on the Notre Dame schedule.

Too bad there isn't a football world series. Notre Dame, Illinois, California and Pennsylvania would certainly be eligible. Some attraction.

Dope Is Futile. There is no doping football this year.

Trying to pick the winners with any degree of certainty is courting ridicule.

Once upon a time, not so many years back, football ran true to form and it was almost a "bone" for a critic to slip up in his forecasts of the big games.

Just to illustrate: Recently one of football's leading experts, nationally known writer, who in his forecast was a football expert during the winners survey Dahn consulted.

It is rather surprising that more diversified strategy is not used when inside of the enemy's 30-yard line, rather than the old stereotyped line plays.

Mix Them Up. Perhaps it is the failure to mix up the plays, the use of a change of pace, that makes it a more difficult matter to advance the ball after getting inside the enemy's 30-yard zone.

Excursion Vessel To Become Ferry

(By The Associated Press.) Detroit, Nov. 8.—The Detroit and Windsor Ferry Company has awarded a contract to the Great Lakes Engineering Works of Detroit to convert the day excursion steamer Britannia into an automobile and passenger ferry.

The Britannia, one of the newest and largest excursion steamers in the ferry company's fleet, has a capacity of 3,000 passengers.

When rebuilt along the lines of the steamer LaSalle, which plies between Detroit and Windsor and is considered one of the most successful automobile carriers in the country, the Britannia will have almost an equal capacity.

When placed in commission about January 3, 1925, the new ferry will be able to accommodate 375 automobiles an hour.

speed with which the Michigan ends bore down on him that his boot was poor. Michigan getting the ball on the Northwestern 24-yard line.

On the next play came the touchdown. Rockwell's right tackle for the score, being tackled just as he fell across the line. He failed to kick the added points.

After the next kickoff, Northwestern tried passes, but could not get one completed. Baker was hitting the line occasionally, but for only small gains. The Michigan backfield, on the other hand, was showing speed and power in frequent attacks on the line.

Baker made good two of his passes to Seldel in the second period, but the Northwestern attack was not sustained, the Wolverines breaking it up before it could get close to the Michigan goal. When the second period was half over, Michigan began a drive down the field from her own 40-yard line, smashes by Marion and Herrstein putting the ball on the Northwestern 30-yard line.

Rockwell Goes Over. Then Friedman opened up. On a fourth down, with 11 yards to go, the former Cleveland high school star, whirled the ball through the air to Rockwell, who romped the remaining 12 yards to Michigan's second touchdown. Rockwell kicked the added point.

The next score followed quickly. After Michigan had kicked off, Baker, standing almost on his own goal line, forward passed to the first line for scrimmage. Friedman intercepted it, coming back 13 yards to be downed on Northwestern's 22-yard line.

Friedman passed to Marion who pushed passed to Marion who in turn sent a solitary Northwestern line to make the touchdown. Rockwell kicking the extra point.

Before Michigan's notable drive was done in the third period, the Wolverines showing an invulnerable defense to Baker's passing tactics. Defeated in efforts to gain ground through the air, Northwestern tried the Michigan line with no better results. Wiencke picked up a few yards occasionally, but the advance was uncertain and rare. It was in this period that Michigan tried a place kick. Rockwell made the attempt from near midfield, but the ball went low.

Pass Is Intercepted. Northwestern, putting the ball in play on its own 20-yard line, again made the mistake, previously proved fatal, of attempting a passing game. Gregory intercepted the pass on the Purple 44-yard line. On a fake pass to Gregory, Friedman sent a long pass to Rockwell who caught it on the 15 yard line and ran over for the touchdown. Rockwell's toe again added the extra point.

Marion continued to be the ground gaining sensation of the Michigan backfield, straight line-bucking and smashing only considered, tearing through the Northwestern line repeatedly for gains. Steele was opening holes for him. Rockwell was giving the big fullback plenty of work, and Marion seemed to thrive on it.

In the final period Coach Little began dumping his reserves into the game, replacing Marion and Friedman and several men on the line. The reserves, with Parker in Friedman's place, took the ball to within 10 yards of the Northwestern goal, but failed to score. Two passes grounded and Parker's drop kick went wide.

JAVELIN STAR AMBIDEXTEROUS

BY JOE WILLIAMS. Gunnar Lindstrom of Sweden has just broken the world record for throwing the javelin, with a mark of 66.62 meters. The old record was 65.10 meters, held by John Myrta of Finland.

Myrta won the Olympic championship last July. Lindstrom was second in the event.

A javelin, if perchance you haven't yet met one face to face, is a long steel-tipped spear and is thrown with a swishing arm movement somewhat after the manner of a ball thrown from the outfield.

For years the Swedes and the Finns have monopolized top honors in the event. Myrta's old mark, for instance, was made five years ago. Until Lindstrom came along Myrta was considered the wonder man of the spears. The Ty Cobb of that sport.

He's Ambidexterous. Lindstrom is probably even more remarkable than the old champion. The Swede is ambidexterous. On the same day he set a new world record with his right hand he flung the spear 48.55 with his left. Two-handed aggregate of 117.17 meters.

This indicates, among other things, that a man trained for the purpose has nearly 800 inches of throwing power in his right arm than his left. Lindstrom hurled the lance more than 20 meters farther with his right. A meter, as you know, is a fraction more than 39 inches.

What would the ambidexterous Swede do in this country as a baseball pitcher or a forward passer on the gridiron?

What would be the effect on a batter facing a pitcher capable of throwing a ball with equal power with either hand, and not knowing in advance which delivery to expect? A terrific bewildering at best.

Few Have Twin Wives. There have been ambidexterous pitchers in baseball but none of them ever made any marked progress. It seems to be no trick at all for a batter to change from right to left, as Frankie Frisch of the Giants does, for example, but it's something else again with the pitchers.

Of even greater rarity is the ambidexterous golfer. We have seen Joe Kirkwood play several trick shots left-handed but the records fail to disclose any top ranking player who was impartially gifted with either hand. Whether this could be turned into an advantage is a problem.

Generally a golfer is reluctant to try anything different if he is going well, and when adversity does suggest that he make a change he promptly proceeds to go worse.

So maybe that's why we have no right and left-handed swingers.

Grand Opera Over Phone for Nickel

Munich.—Put a nickel in the slot and hear tonight's opera performance in the State opera house, is the latest Munich slogan. The telephone administration has just opened four opera-hearing halls in Munich suburbs, where long rows of pay-telephones wait for customers, eager to hear grand opera for 50 pfennigs.

Telephone subscribers may use their phones at home against a monthly fee for the opera service. When the subscriber, who listens to grand opera is wanted by another subscriber, the exchange interrupts the entertainment for the duration of the conversation. The transmission is entirely over wires and has nothing to do with radio. Subscribers, however, are allowed to hook up amplifier units and loud-talkers, as used in the radio field.

THE NEA PLAY JURY'S TEN BEST PLAYS.

The Guardsman. The Show-Off. Expressing Willie. Cobra. The Miracle. Rain. What Price Glory. Minick. Dancing Mothers. The Best People.

BY THE NEA PLAY JURY. Ethel Barrymore, lacking a suitable vehicle from this season's writing, has brought out "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," somewhat shaky and outgrown, model of 1893.

The appearance of America's premier actress in Sir Arthur Wing Pinero's famous play constitutes one of the even... the plays it, it re... Barrymore with interest... the audience at least as long as she is in sight.

And it teaches us how far the world has traveled in 32 years. We know that men's speech today is not like the stilted conversation in the opening scene, nor the almost laughably futile impressions of Mr. Tanqueray at the close. We wonder if men ever did talk that way. The tragic motion does not appear any longer necessarily tragic.

The story concerns a man of position, wealth and loneliness who marries a woman whose experience with men has been varied and comprehensive, but has not included formal matrimony. She desired her new position ardently, but found lonely respectability boring.

Miss Barrymore creates a flashy and adventurous Mrs. Tanqueray, not attracting sympathy so much as furnishing entertainment.

Melodrama shouts and throbs and pleases in "Alloy," new play by Robert Ritz at the Princess. Scene: the kitchen of a steel worker's home. Cast: bestial husband, deserving wife, noble boarder. The wife herself courageously and sincerely offers herself to the boarder whom she loves. He refuses until the husband's own cruelty and unfaithfulness make the choice for her. Boarder knocks down husband and walks off with wife. The lead parts are played consistently well by Minna Gombel, Byron Beasley and Ivan Miller.

"The Rising Son" is a product of the pen of J. C. Nugent and Elliot Nugent, who, with Ruth Nugent, play the three leads. Sort of family affair, as it were. More to be expected from the authors of Kempy. It drags in spots, but the comedy is clean, the wit sparkling and rapierlike at times.

The father who longs to write highbrow stuff, but is hampered by his limited vocabulary, sends his son to college to gain equipment for the fame the father has missed. The boy would rather start New England hotels, and incidentally marry the girl of his choice. The girl's aristocratic aunt is forced by penury to open an inn, with the boy as manager. Mary Shaw as Mrs. Malone, mother of the author, is the outstanding hit of the play. Her character playing is first. J. C. Nugent as the father is good, and his drinking of some B. P. liquor is a marvelous piece of work. While "The Rising Son" will never rise to fame, it affords an evening of laughter and entertainment.

Afloat All Night in Cabin Cruiser on Lake, Rescued

(By The Associated Press.) Detroit, Nov. 8.—Frank F. Wells, of Toledo, Ohio, was rescued from Lake Erie, where he had been afloat in a cabin cruiser since Friday night, by members of the coast guard late today. He was brought to Detroit where he told coast guard officers that his companion, known only to him as Clifford, was afloat on the lake in another boat.

According to Wells' story, he and the other man were towing a motorless boat from Fremont, Ohio, to Toledo. During the storm Friday night the hawser that connected Wells' craft with the motorless boat broke, leaving the man in the other vessel stranded on the lake.

The navigating crew ran out of gasoline and left Wells helpless in the storm. The coast guard cutter CG-115, enroute from Detroit to Buffalo, found Wells, wet, hungry and suffering from exposure, almost too weak to climb into the cutter.

"I was ready to take to the water if you fellows had not come along," he told rescuers. "The thought of another miserable night on that cold, sinking boat had just about broken me. I preferred death to that torture again."

Coast guards will start a search at daylight tomorrow for Wells' companion.

Labor Heads Meet To Discuss Their Legislative Work

(By The Associated Press.) Cleveland, O., Nov. 8.—Chief executives or representatives of twenty railroad brotherhoods and affiliated labor organizations met here today to plan a legislative campaign before congress, particularly regarding the Howell-Barkley bill, which seeks the abolition of the United States railroad labor board.

Warren S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, who issued the call for the meeting, presided.

The railway brotherhoods and unions will seek to have congress when it reconvenes in December pass the Howell-Barkley bill which would substitute machinery for the mediation of railway labor disputes for the arbitration provisions in the transportation act of 1920.

According to a statement of Mr. Stone given out after the meeting, the bill would be revised by the old joint conference boards created by the Newlands and Erdman acts.

The labor provisions of the transportation act were declared by the delegates at the meeting to be a "complete failure."

Details of the railway organizations' plan to push the Howell-Barkley bill were not divulged.

The conference is understood also to have canvassed the general situation of railway labor from a legislative point of view.

Taber Won't Talk on Possibilities

(By The Associated Press.) Columbus, O., Nov. 8.—L. J. Taber, master of the National Grange who yesterday was appointed by President Coolidge on a commission to investigate agricultural conditions issued a statement here tonight in which he said that for him to discuss any legislative policy at this time that the commission might undertake would be out of place considering that no conference yet had been held with the president.

the predominating part with Robert Loraine as balancing figure. It is the story of the neurotic wife of a scientist who becomes jealous of his work. Bedeviled by her fleshly attempts to revive his interest, the husband shoots her. The play seems principally worth while as an exhibition of Miss Cornell's quite tremendous abilities.

THE NEA BOOK SURVEY'S TEN BEST BOOKS.

"The White Monkey," John Galworthy. "The Back of the Book," Margaret Lech. "Shackled," Achmed Abdullah. "A Boy in the Bush," D. H. Lawrence. "Marbecka," Selma Lagerlof. "A Passage to India," E. M. Forster. "Julia Cane," Harvey O'Higgins. "Some Do Not," Ford Madox Ford. "Isles of Illusion" (Anonymous).

BY THE NEA BOOK SURVEY. It took a long time for the very literary essayists to discover the art that lies behind vaudeville clownery, comic strips, jazz bands and the like.

Then, one day, Gilbert Seldes wrote the "Seven Lively Arts" and told New York what every vaudeville goer and comic reader in the rest of the country had known for years. New York learned with amazement that stars of its funniest revues were commonplace vaudeville names about the "provinces."

All of which is by way of preface to a prediction—some day the very literary critics are going to discover Hugh Wiley's "Wildcat Marsden" and Will James' cowboy stuff and realize that here are contributions, not only to the American folklore and background, but to the slang idiom of the time.

For years "the four-leaf wildcat" has been rambling his good natured, darkey way through Wiley's short stories. Now he appears in a new volume of tales, "The Prowler" (Knopf), in which effort of plot invention often becomes too apparent, but in which something like justice can be done the character.

Here is fabulous tale-telling of the Paul Bunyan school with a character that could be interpreted in a full chapter of symbolism; the complete fatalist and fatalist are combined in the "wildcat"; fate breaks things for him, in spite of himself; he is the minstrel man, the swashbuckler, Al Jolson, and all stage impersonations of the negro put together. His combination of made-to-order slang and hifalutin rhetoric are great stuff.

Already the Wildcat's dice-shooting lingo is a slang classic. Will James in "Cowboys—North and South" (Scribners) does a true-to-life job with the cowboy, giving to posterity his picturesque vernacular and background.

They are recommended for the student of the American scene and tongue.

"Shackled" (Brentano), by Achmed Abdullah is far and away the most colorful writing in many a week. No sheiks and naught gals, we warn you. Rather a well-born Arab girl, whose father wishes her to marry none but a descendant of the "prophet."

"This man does not present himself. The father dies penniless and she has only herself to sell. A family conference decides that she is to be educated, but this she resents because education is thought in her land to be only for the poor clerical classes. Her tutor brings, the heart complications that draw the story to a most colorful crisis.

Sooner or later someone was bound to write the story of the conflict of Germanic and American bloods in an Anglo-German at the time of the World War and Robert E. McClure has done it in "The Dominant Blood" (Doubleday, Page). The mother is Teuton, the father is American and the result shows in some admirably written scenes of his adolescence and childhood. He is surely an uncomfortable combination—although this surveyor has seen many such mixed ones who took it in no manner so hard. We understand that Booth Tarkington has referred to it as "a big, fine piece of work," and who are we—?

Jack Bethea, for some years managing editor of the Birmingham Post, is another newspaperman to turn novelist, his first work being "Bed Rock" (Houghton, Mifflin), which the survey is told, already has been sold to the movie. The scene is laid in the coal mine belts where the young hero decides to come up from the ranks by wedding the daughter of the company president. This he succeeds in doing, but the girl learns his motive, her love turns to hate and there is melodrama to burn in the excitement that take place before he has "fought his way back."

Many Friends Attend Funeral of Police Chief

Impressive funeral services were held at nine o'clock Saturday morning at St. Patrick's church for George McCarthy who had served for thirty-nine years as police officer in this city. Mr. McCarthy was widely known and the church was filled with sorrowing relatives and friends who came to pay their last respects to the memory of the veteran officer. Many old residents of the city were numbered in the vast audience.

Rev. Fr. J. Mockler was the celebrant at the solemn requiem high mass assisted by Rev. Fr. R. G. Jacques and Rev. Fr. N. Stehlin.

During the services Ralph Finley sang "Holy Spirit Near My Prayer" and Mrs. J. Kress sang "O Merit am Passions". Mrs. Wm. Ramspeck presided at the organ and a chorus of twenty voices rendered excellent music.

Rev. Fr. Mockler delivered a beautiful funeral oration and paid a lovely tribute to the memory of the man who has been a good citizen, a devoted father and true friend to all.

At the home of his son where the body lay in state, a large number of beautiful floral tributes surrounded the steel casket, among these were a large floral piece from the city of Escanaba which he had served so faithfully for many years and one emblem which was unusually attractive was a large star of gold colored chrysanthemums on which were the words "Our First Chief" this being from the police department. There were also a large number of spiritual offerings.

Friday evening the members of the city police department went to the home in a body and viewed the remains.

The close friends who carried the casket to and from the funeral car were Chief of Police John J. Tolan, Sheriff Joseph Carney, James Doherty, J. B. Moran, John Stack Jr. and M. C. Quinn.

The out of town relatives who came here to attend the obsequies were Mr. and Mrs. George McCarthy, Milwaukee, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. John McCarthy, Loretto, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Murray, Norway, Mich., Mrs. Timothy Norton, Quarry, Wis., Mr. Michael Costello and Mr. Daniel Costello Fond du Lac, Wis.

Interment was made in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Ingenuity and skill have conquered the clothes washing problem by giving women a care-free washer.

But what is a care-free washer?

A care-free washer brings relief from trouble and worry. Has no complicated machinery. Nothing to oil or clean. Not a single part to lift out or in. No machinery in the tub, yet clothes are turned over and over, leaving none on the bottom of the tub while washing. Water always active—no scum line.

Simple, sturdy, built to give life-time service—that's the Coffield, care-free washer.

Children's Book Week Plans Completed Here

Featuring the Escanaba Carnegie Library's plans for the annual observance of Children's Book Week, Nov. 9-16, is an intensely interesting display of original posters, drawn by public school children to stimulate interest in the event.

The artists have used a wide variety of mediums—pen, pencil, poster color, water color, oil crayon, colored crayon and cut out—to express their ideas. Many of the posters are strikingly original and are well drawn. The posters are on display in the lecture room in the basement of the building.

Here, also are tables, filled with children's books. Many are new ones; many others the old favorites. All are attractively bound, beautifully printed—and the illustrations are exceptional. Children will be delighted with them.

Children's book week has as its object, the increasing of the interest of young people in good books. It is staged just before the Christmas gift-buying season opens in order that the youngsters may be attracted to the books and the parents may be guided by these preferences.

Fathers and mothers will find much of interest in the library during next week, and children certainly will be pleased.

The Osteopath's Point of View

I AM a physician with the best general therapy I know, proved by the results of 50 years of actual practice. I know that I can cure some diseases. I know I can palliate many diseases. I do not know what I can palliate. But it is my duty to give every possible chance to every sufferer that comes to me. It may be possible or probable or positively true that my therapy in its present stage of development is practically worthless for malignant tumors. This does not mean that I have abandoned belief that if this therapy were absolutely understood the above statement would have to be modified. But in most other diseases I am absolutely of the conviction that Osteopathy should be tried whether the disease has been regarded in the past as wholly outside of the domain of therapy, or whether it has been classified as curable. In other words, I myself would be treated by an Osteopath no matter what condition I were in, even if I were operated upon for a removable tumor. I would take pre-operative and post-operative osteopathic treatment. I regard it as an essential in every case of disease to try osteopathic treatment, because as yet nobody can say whether my art is positively useless in any condition of disease, with the exception of the aforesaid malignant tumors, and these themselves may come under the domain of this art in the future, when science has pronounced her last word upon it. Speaking to my own heart and conscience, I can truly say: Try Osteopathy. Were I not able to say this to my own heart and conscience, I would be disposed to abandon my profession.

BOOZE RUNNER STAGES WRECK NEAR CITY HALL

Danforth Man Makes Things Convenient For Cops

August Chouinard, of Danforth, came to town last night with eight 1-gallon jugs of "moon" in his automobile, whizzed south on 11th street, and at the corner of that thoroughfare and First Avenue South—within a few yards of police headquarters—crashed into another machine.

The result was that Chouinard and seven of the jugs of liquor spent the night at the police station, and Chouinard's machine went to a garage for repairs. It was badly damaged.

The eighth jug of moon was tossed out of the car, at the time of the wreck and saturated the air with odors which indicated that the manufacturer of the stuff had what the cops call "poor luck with the last batch."

The Good MAXWELL

At first, the wheat market displayed hesitancy, Liverpool quotations having failed to make any response to yesterday's advance in prices on this side of the Atlantic.

Despite heavy profit taking sales, the wheat market rallied well from every setback. Coincident with the big export clearances, there was a decided falling off in the volume of domestic receipts west and southwest, with country offerings light.

Corn and oats sympathized with the wheat advance. Besides, country offerings of corn to arrive were scanty.

Provisions were governed by upturns in the value of grain and hogs.

Maroons Hold Illini To Tie In Brilliant Game

BASEBALL GAME UNINTERESTING TO FRENCH FANS

(By The Associated Press.) Paris, Nov. 8.—More than 6,000 French spectators, more or less tired, although somewhat curious, were introduced to baseball today, when the New York Giants defeated the Chicago White Sox, 8 to 6, in an exhibition game at the Olympic Stadium.

There were some signs of interest when the Giants tallied six runs in the seventh and single runs in the following two innings. But the French seemed rather puzzled to know what it was all about.

They expressed some surprise when hot liners appeared, or sizzling grounders were gathered in and shot to first, but it all looked so easy that they soon took any good work for granted.

American Rooters.—There were a number present—voiced their disappointment at intervals, for they found the game slow and played. Hoghey Jennings, jumping up and down on the coaching line, said:

"This is like a funeral. When Heinie Grob stopped a hot liner from the hat of Dave Bancroft, the French 'fans' arose to their feet and asked:

"Why did he stop it?" One Frenchman remarked to another: "Why, it's not as speedy as association football."

"Why doesn't he hit it?" asked the French spectator when the batsman fanned. They wondered why the Giants and Sox, who they had heard, received more pay than the president of France, couldn't hit a ball when it was thrown to them.

Don't Fathom Game.—A diagram and technical explanation of the game of baseball, perfectly clear to anyone who already knew something of it, was distributed in circular form. But the French didn't understand it. They couldn't see any difference between a high fly and a foul top or a home run. "Why doesn't he run?" they said to each other when a batter flew out. One of them suggested that Kamm, the Chicago third baseman, ought to have a little more wire netting between his legs when he muffed a couple of fast ones.

One of the mysteries to which "enthusiasts" was why the umpire made strange motions. A few of the well formed natives asked why there was no suggestion of killing the umpire, as they had often read was always made at baseball games in the United States.

The French were entirely polite at today's exhibition, but as Manager McGraw said: "We can never put it over on them here."

Maryland Is Easy for Yale Gridders

(By The Associated Press.) New Haven, Conn., Nov. 8.—Maryland, the eleven that came nearest to defeating the champion Yale team last year, was completely outplayed in the annual conflict in the bowl this afternoon, being overwhelmed 47 to 0 by a Bull Dog team composed entirely of substitutes. While the Marylanders fought hard they never had a chance. Many third team players were used by Yale.

The Marylanders' hard tackling, however, left several marks on the Yale players, while they themselves had to call time more than once to allow their tacklers to recuperate from hard blows. Yale scored in each period.

Boston College Triumphant in Marquette Game

(By The Associated Press.) Boston, Nov. 8.—Boston College overwhelmed the Marquette University football team 34 to 7 here today, scoring touchdowns in all of the four periods. Chuck Darling, blond Boston College star, ripped repeatedly thru the Marquette defense for gains and scored four of the Eagles' five touchdowns, besides featuring defense.

Only once did Marquette display a sustained offensive and that was in the third period when a long drive down the field, culminating for Demolting at quarter, seized a forward pass and crossed the Eagles' goal line.

Durdue Wins Over DePauw Gridders

(By The Associated Press.) Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 8.—Durdue, after being held about even in the first half by DePauw University, opened up a strong running attack today and won, 36 to 0. After Tabue dropped a field goal from the 25 yard line in the first period, no scoring was done until late in the second when Babr ran 55 yards and then sent Hillman over shortly afterward. Helrick in the final period ran sixty yards for a touchdown, and Monroe, fullback, scored the last two markers, one on a 10-yard plunge through the line and the last on an intercepted pass, followed a 25 yard run.

(By The Associated Press.) Alma, Mich., Nov. 8.—Albion College defeated Alma College here today, 5 to 0. Robinson's field goal from the 16-yard line brought the winning count for the visitors. The victory was a story of wasted opportunities by the home team. Twice in the first quarter and once in the second, Alma had the ball on the five-yard line but was unable to put it over for a touchdown. TWO ESCANABA "PREPS" IDLE

Local Squads Have Light Drills in Lieu of Games Yesterday..

Both Escanaba high school football teams were idle yesterday. Coaches Thompson, of Escanaba high, and Carr of St. Joseph's, gave their squads light workouts, but neither team did anything strenuous. They meet next Saturday at South Park in a return game for the benefit of the school athletic stadium fund.

Injuries to players on the St. Joe squad, which have reduced the effectiveness of the parochial in their last two games, are healing rapidly and Coach Carr will have his full strength next Saturday for the first time in a month.

Escanaba high also will be in first class condition for the fray. The possibility that the postponed Escanaba-Negaunee game may be played on Tuesday—Armistice Day—was discussed freely yesterday, but no decision was reached. It is understood that if the Negaunee team has an opportunity to get in a practice session before the holiday, the Miners may consent to come here on November 11.

Athletic Field Boosts Start.

Announcement that the city council and the board of education were in agreement on a plan to construct an athletic field on the city's 20-acre tract south of the city gave interest in the St. Joseph-Escanaba game next week a big boost. Tickets to the encounter should sell like the proverbial hot cakes.

If hopes of having the new field in condition for next season can be realized, the contest will be the last one played on the South Park Sahara.

OHIO STATE IS NOSED OUT OF TITULAR RACE

(By The Associated Press.) Columbus, O., Nov. 8.—Indiana, changing from her regular crimson jerseys to black ones, cast a dark and disastrous cloud over Ohio State's western conference championship aspirations here today when she unexpectedly set the Buckeyes down on the short end of a 12 to 7 score.

The first half of the game was a listless affair marked only by the exceedingly poor punting by both teams. With the beginning of the second half, however, the contest took on a tinge of a real fight and within eight minutes Indiana had scored more points upon Ohio State than the rest of the Buckeye opponents had been able to amass all year.

Marks, outstanding star of the game, scored both Indiana touchdowns, making his first one after receiving a toss from Salmi while only four yards from the goal line and registering the second on the longest run made in the Ohio stadium this season, carrying the oval 56 yards. This score was made on the first play after an Ohio State back had fumbled an Indiana punt, Indiana recovering. Both of Captain Sloate's tries for point after touchdown failed.

Kiee scored the Buckeye's lone touchdown when he received a double pass from Wendler on the seven yard line, and added the extra point by a dropkick.

Haskell Takes Out Revenge on Brown University Squad

(By The Associated Press.) Providence, R. I., Nov. 8.—The Haskell Indians of Lawrence, Kansas, beaten last week by Boston College by a 34 to 7 score, handed the Brown University football team a severe setback this afternoon, defeating the Brunonians by 17 to 13. The Indians scored in the first quarter when Kipp intercepted a pass on his own 35-yard line and ran 65 yards for a score. The next tally came early in the second period, Norton making a field goal from the 31-yard mark. An 80-yard march with John Levi, stalwart Redskin, carrying the ball three out of every four plays, accounted for the third and final score. Smith kicked both goals after touchdowns. Payer and Dixon scored Brown's touchdowns. In the second and third periods, Keefer kicking the goal after the second tally. Keefer also contributed a 42-yard run along the sidelines after snaring one of John Levi's punts in the final quarter.

Driving Offensive by Chicagoans Surprises Zuppke Men at Start

West Virginians Take Colgate Into Camp by 34 to 2

(By The Associated Press.) Morgantown, W. Va., Nov. 8.—West Virginia's football team rose to its greatest strength of the season here today and defeated Colgate 34 to 2. The Mountaineers showed a powerful attack that swept the Colgate defense aside in every quarter while on the defense, the Mountaineers held the Maroon to two first downs, both of them made late in the game.

West Virginia got off to a commanding lead by scoring two touchdowns in the first quarter and added a touchdown in each of the other three periods. Colgate's only score, a safety, came in the second quarter when Captain Crowther of the Maroon, blocked Oliver's punt and Captain Graham of the Mountaineers fell on the ball behind his own goal line.

West Virginia made 21 first downs, while Colgate made two. The game, witnessed by a crowd of 35,000 spectators, was full of thrills from the very first kickoff. Grange, living up to his reputation as the most sensational runner of modern football, provided a thrill after another, finally sending the crowd into a frenzy of excitement in the third period when with Illinois trailing 12 to 14, the famous red-headed halfback broke away for an eighty-yard run through the end of the Maroon team and scored the touchdown that enabled Illinois to tie the count.

Ames Achieves A Tie With Gophers

(By The Associated Press.) Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 8.—Victory perched on seeming security on the shoulders of Iowa State's fighting eleven until the last five minutes of play, when Minnesota, after blocking an attempted place kick, fought its way to a touchdown and a 7 to 7 tie here today.

It was in the first two minutes of play that Ames' touchdown came, when Norton Behm, on the first play after the initial kickoff, romped for 80 yards and a touchdown and J. Behm kicked goal. Then through the interval until that final five minute dash, the men from Ames outplayed the Gophers, running their ends in midfield, successfully tossing pretty passes, and held near the Minnesota goal, failed in three attempts at place kicks.

Railroad Bowling League Organized

The Chicago & North-Western bowling league season will open early this week at the Arcade Alleys. Ten teams, including two from the ore dock construction crews, have been given franchises in the organization. There is every indication that the season will be as successful as its predecessors.

McCarthy Goes Over

Fighting his way through the line by sheer strength, McCarthy marched down the field and hammered the ball across the Illinois goal for the first score of the game. Chicago outplayed the Illini in every department during the initial period, scoring 12 first downs to none for Illinois.

After McCarthy's touchdown the Maroons repeated the process, Wally Marke, who replaced McCarthy, Thomas and Kernwein slashing the Illinois line for consistent gains. At the end of the period, Stag's men lacked but a few inches of another touchdown and Harry Thomas drove through left tackle for the marker on the first play of the second period.

Illinois, in possession of the ball in safe territory for the first time since the beginning of the game, lost no time in unleashing Grange. Mixing lengthy forward passes with off tackle smashes by Grange and Schultz, the Illini rushed the ball to Chicago's four-yard line. Grange dived across for Illinois' first touchdown after a wide run around left end.

Illinois' elevation was short lived, as Chicago held, and then took Britton's punt on the 50-yard line. After a 28-yard pass, Thomas to Cunningham, the Maroons resumed battering Mar tactics and Francis, who replaced Marks at fullback, made a third touchdown, giving the Maroons a 14-point lead.

Fakes Get Score.—Illinois again resorted to a pass when she gained the ball on her 20-yard line. After Grange had torn off two dashes of 12 and 15 yards, Chicago held and it was fourth down with a pass to go. Here Britton sprung a tight one. A fake punt to Grange, which netted 25 yards, and placed the ball on Chicago's 25-yard marker. A moment later a fake place kick, which wound up in a triple pass to Grange added 15 yards more and the red-headed skinned Chicago's left end for Illinois' second touchdown.

Early in the third period Keithwein pulled a surprise punt from the shadow of his own goal posts, which Illinois did not recover until it had rolled to her 20-yard line. On the next play Grange took the ball and ran 80 yards off left tackle, through the entire team for one of his famous marathon touchdowns; Britton kicked goal, tying the score.

Carnegie Tech Is Much Outclassed

(By The Associated Press.) State College, Pa., Nov. 8.—Poh-sylvania State ran rough shod over Carnegie Tech in their annual battle here today, 22 to 7. Tech was outplayed throughout the first three periods by a virtually new Penn State team which tore their line to shreds.

UPBAYS DEFEAT 'STIQUE, 19-7

Gordon's Men Take Final Contest of Season Yesterday.

(By The Associated Press.) Manistique, Nov. 8 (Special)—Manistique high school lost its eighth consecutive football game today, when Gladstone won the season's closing engagement, 19 to 7. Gladstone scored a touchdown in the first period and two in the final stanza. One was on a 45-yard run by Reese who followed it up later with a 35-yard scoring sprint.

Manistique came to life for a brief time in the last quarter, and by a series of line smashes, carried the ball down the field and scored a touchdown. Nelson muffed the finishing spurt and Muelking kicked goal. The score then was 13 to 7 in the Delta county team's favor and it appeared as if the Schoolcrafters had a chance to tie things up. The rally was halted, however, when Gladstone intercepted, held the homelings and then proceeded to score again on an intercepted forward pass by Goodman.

An unusual feature was the fact that the third quarter ended with the ball exactly in the middle of the field. All that was necessary for the teams to do was change the direction in which they were heading.

It was the second game Manistique had lost to Gladstone this season. The other games were with Sault Ste. Marie, Munising, St. Joseph's, Escanaba and Newberry.

Butler Threatens Iowa Several Times In Ragged Game

(By The Associated Press.) Iowa City, Ia., Nov. 8.—The curtain fell in the 1924 football season for Iowa City today when the University of Iowa eleven squeezed through a 7 to 0 victory over Butler College of Indianapolis. All the remaining games on the Hawkeyes' schedule will be played on opponents' fields.

Although each team played raggedly in spots, the game was a close contest. Iowa's scant margin, several times was threatened, especially in the last quarter, when Canfield, Kilgore and Paul, charging the Hawkeye line for consistent gains, brought the ball within the Iowa five-yard line.

Iowa's touchdown came at the beginning of the second period. Parkin received Wood's punt on the Butler 45-yard line. The Hawkeye captain with five tacklers bearing down on him, sidestepped, pivoted and ran the full length to behind the goal posts, but the referee called the ball back to where a Butler tackle had held a safety man fifteen yards. On the next play, however, Parkin passed a short one to Schierman who received the ball on the Butler 15-yard line and dodged through a secondary defense for a touchdown. Hancock kicked goal.

Farmers Trimmed by St. Louis "U"

(By The Associated Press.) St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 8.—Led by their star fullback, Frank Ramacciotti, the St. Louis University football team today overcame a 3 to 0 lead in the final period and with a safety and touchdown gained nine points and a victory over the powerful Michigan Aggies' team here today.

Matched in weight, the two teams played two scoreless quarters with the East Lansing team slightly superior. The Aggies scored their only points on a kick from placement from the 15-yard line by Neller in the third quarter.

The Billikens first scored in the final quarter when Fremont who had replaced Lyman at quarterback and Stanton fell on the ball for a safety, for the Billikens. A fifty-yard run through the center Aggie team by Ramacciotti later in the quarter gave St. Louis six more points. Stanton kicked for the extra points.

A. was too much for Kalamazoo College this afternoon and as a result the locale went down to a 21 to 7 defeat. The visitors put over three touchdowns in the first half after which the locale was able to hold them safely. Kalamazoo outfought Hillsdale in the final quarter and put over a touchdown near the close of the game.

Army Wins Despite Floridan Tenacity

(By The Associated Press.) West Point, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The Army today defeated the University of Florida, 14 to 7, in a game featured by the bull dog tenacity of the southern combination, outplayed during most of the game. The Alligators, led by the brilliant Jones, came back after a poor start and tried to score, only when the feet Wilson made a sensational run for touchdown.

TIGERS SCORE DECISIVE WIN OVER HARVARD

(By The Associated Press.) Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 8.—Princeton came back to one of the greatest moments of gridiron glory she has ever known today and under a crimson sky sent Harvard down to the most crushing defeat in the 47 years of rivalry between these two ancient feuds.

Out of the depths of mediocrity and disappointment the Tigers—eleven fighting, irresistible juggernaut—rose to heights of astonishing brilliancy to overwhelm Harvard by a score of 31 to 0, in one of the most sensational upsets football annals have ever recorded.

Banked around the sides of the Harvard stadium, a vast crowd of 53,000 had come in expectation of a Harvard victory, for the Crimson ruled a decided pre-game favorite, but instead it was thrown into a frenzy by a comeback as spectacular as it was startling and effective. Harvard Too Weak.

After the first period, when Harvard's stubborn defense twice thrust back Tiger drives, the Crimson had nothing capable of checking this force antagonist who lashed out with stunning power on all sides and with the swiftness of lightning. Touchdowns in the second and third periods, and two in the fourth, intermingled with field goals in the second and fourth periods, represented the toll of Tiger damage.

It became a rout as the shadows crept over the giant amphitheatre, a continual sweep of streaking Orange and Black jerseys over the chalk lines. And when the final whistle blew, Princeton's cohorts, already whipped to a frenzied pitch, swept down on the gridiron in a wild outburst of enthusiasm. Around the field the wildly excited mob surged, marching behind a buffeted Princeton band and all but unroofed the Crimson goal post that during the afternoon seemed an irresistible magnet to Tiger ball carriers.

Over the stretch of years since Harvard and Princeton began their rivalry in 1877 no victory has been recorded as decisive as that of today. Only twice before has a score rivaling today's Tiger total been put up on each of these occasions, when Princeton also was triumphant, the margin of victory was not so great. In 1881 Princeton won 31 to 6, while five years later the Tigers scored 11 to 15. Princeton now has a margin of 15 victories to nine for Harvard, while three ties have figured in the 27 clashes between them.

Michigan Aggies Are Beaten, 9 to 3

(By The Associated Press.) St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 8.—The St. Louis University football spectators here today by triumphing over the hefty Michigan Aggies machine, 9 to 3. The teams squared evenly matched until the last period when Ramacciotti, star St. Louis fullback, eluded the straggle by a thrilling 55-yard run around end for a touchdown.

A safety was added a few minutes later when an Aggie pass was blocked behind the goal line. Neller made the only Aggie score when he put over a 15-yard placement kick in the third period.

BOOZE RUNNER STAGES WRECK NEAR CITY HALL

Danforth Man Makes Things Convenient For Cops

August Chouinard, of Danforth, came to town last night with eight 1-gallon jugs of "moon" in his automobile, whizzed south on 11th street, and at the corner of that thoroughfare and First Avenue South—within a few yards of police headquarters—crashed into another machine.

The result was that Chouinard and seven of the jugs of liquor spent the night at the police station, and Chouinard's machine went to a garage for repairs. It was badly damaged.

The eighth jug of moon was tossed out of the car, at the time of the wreck and saturated the air with odors which indicated that the manufacturer of the stuff had what the cops call "poor luck with the last batch."

Chouinard will be charged with transportation and possession of liquor. He told the officers he was delivering it for another fellow whose name he could not recall.

Whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance; but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.—Matt. 13:12.

Abundance consists not alone in material possession, but in an unobscured spirit.—Selden.

The Good MAXWELL

Despite heavy profit taking sales, the wheat market rallied well from every setback. Coincident with the big export clearances, there was a decided falling off in the volume of domestic receipts west and southwest, with country offerings light.

Corn and oats sympathized with the wheat advance. Besides, country offerings of corn to arrive were scanty. Provisions were governed by upturns in the value of grain and hogs.

CHICAGO POTATOES. Chicago, Nov. 8.—Potatoes, trading moderate: market firm; receipts 117 cars; total United States shipments, 842; Minnesota and North Dakota sacked Red river Ohio $1.00 at 11.05; Minnesota sacked round whites, 70c at 90c; Wisconsin sacked round whites, 75c at 90c; bulk, 85c at 90c.

CHICAGO GRAIN. Chicago, Nov. 8.—Brisak general buying carried the wheat market up today to a new high price record for the season, May delivery touching $1.57 3/4, about 1/8 advance since the low point the day before election. Wheat closed unsettled with December 1.51 5/8 to 1.51 3/4 and May 1.37 1/8 to 1.37 1/2, showing 1/4 to 2 1/4 gain compared with yesterday's finish.

Other net gains were: Rye 1/4 to 3/8; Corn 1/8 to 1/4; oats 1/4 to 3/8 and provisions 2c to 4c.

At first, the wheat market displayed hesitancy. Liverpool quotations having failed to make any response to yesterday's advance in prices on this side of the Atlantic. It soon became evident, however, that export interests were active buyers here and with the latest European crop estimates 35,000,000 bushels less than was indicated a month ago, the market quickly became sensitive to news of unfavorable crop conditions in Argentina and Australia.

CHICAGO BUTTER. Chicago, Nov. 8.—Trading in the butter market today continued quiet, with the market lone steady. Demand, however, was almost entirely lacking with the medium and lower grades difficult to move. The centralized car market was steady with trading dull.

Maroons Hold Illini To Tie In Brilliant Game

BASEBALL GAME UNINTERESTING TO FRENCH FANS

(By The Associated Press.) Paris, Nov. 8.—More than 6,000 French spectators, more or less bored, although somewhat curious, were introduced to baseball today, when the New York Giants defeated the Chicago White Sox, 8 to 0, in an exhibition game at the Olympic Stadium.

There were some signs of interest when the Giants tallied six runs in the seventh and eighth in the following two innings. But the French seemed rather puzzled to know what it was all about.

They expressed some surprise when hot liners appeared, or sizzling grounders were gathered in and shot to first, but it all looked so easy that they soon took any good work for granted.

American Razz Teams.—There were a number present who voiced their disappointment at intervals, for they found the game slow with few flashes of big league form displayed. Hughie Jennings, jumping up and down on the coaching line, said: "This is like a funeral."

When Heinie Groh stopped a hot liner from the bat of Dave Bancroft, the French "fans" arose to their feet and asked: "Why did he stop it?"

One Frenchman remarked to another: "Why is it not as speedy as association football?"

"Why doesn't he hit it?" asked the French spectator when the batsman fanned. They wondered why the Giants and Sox, who they had heard, received more pay than the president of France, couldn't hit a ball when it was thrown to them.

Don't Fathom Game.—A diagram and technical explanation of the game of baseball, perfectly clear to anyone who already knew something of it, was distributed in circular form. But the French didn't understand it. They couldn't see any difference between a high fly and a foul top or a home run. "Why doesn't he run?" they said to each other when a batter flew out. One of them suggested that Kamm, the Chicago third baseman, ought to have a little more wire netting between his legs when he muffed a couple of fast ones.

One of the mysteries to the "enthusiasts" was why the umpire made strange motions. A few of the well formed natives asked why there was no suggestion of killing the umpire, as they had often read was always made at baseball games in the United States.

The French were entirely polite at today's exhibition, but as Manager McGraw said: "We can never put it over on them here."

Maryland Is Easy for Yale Gridders

(By The Associated Press.) New Haven, Conn., Nov. 8.—Maryland, the eleven that came nearest to defeating the champion Yale team last year, was completely outplayed in the annual conflict in the bowl this afternoon, being overwhelmed 47 to 0 by a Bull Dog team composed entirely of substitutes. While the Marylanders fought hard they never had a chance. Many third team players were used by Yale.

The Marylanders' hard tackling, however, left several marks on the Yale players, while they themselves had to call time more than once to allow their tacklers to recuperate from hard blows. Yale scored in each period.

Boston College Triumphant in Marquette Game

(By The Associated Press.) Boston, Nov. 8.—Boston College overwhelmed the Marquette University football team 34 to 7 here today scoring touchdowns in all of the four periods. Chuck Darling, blond Boston College field star, ripped repeatedly thru the Marquette defense for gains and scored four of the Eagles' five touchdowns, besides featuring defense.

Only once did Marquette display a sustained offensive and that was in the third period when after a long drive down the field, Gavin, substituting for Demoling at quarter, seized a forward pass and crossed the Eagles' goal line.

Surdue Wins Over DePauw Gridders

(By The Associated Press.) Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 8.—Surdue, after being held about even in the first half by DePauw University, opened up a strong running attack today and won, 36 to 0. After Tabue dropped a field goal from the 25 yard line in the first period, no scoring was done until late in the second when Babr ran 55 yards and then sent Hillman over shortly afterward. Heilrick in the final period ran sixty yards for a touchdown, and Monroe, fullback, scored the last two markers, one on a 10-yard plunge through the line and the last on an intercepted pass, followed a 25 yard run.

TWO ESCANABA "PREPS" IDLE

Local Squads Have Light Drills in Lieu of Games Yesterday.

Both Escanaba high school football teams were idle yesterday.

Coaches Thompson, of Escanaba high, and Carr of St. Joseph's, gave their squads light workouts, but neither team did anything strenuous. They meet next Saturday at South Park in a return game for the benefit of the school athletic stadium fund.

Injuries to players on the St. Joe squad, which have reduced the effectiveness of the parochial in their last two games, are healing rapidly and Coach Carr will have his full strength next Saturday for the first time in a month.

Escanaba high also will be in first class condition for the fray. The possibility that the postponed Escanaba-Negaunee game may be played on Tuesday—Armistice Day—was discussed freely yesterday, but no decision was reached. It is understood that if the Negaunee team has an opportunity to get in a practice session before the holiday, the Miners may consent to come here on November 11.

Athletic Field Boosts Start. Announcement that the city council and the board of education were in agreement on a plan to construct an athletic field on the city's 20-acre tract south of the city gave interest in the St. Joseph-Escanaba game next week a big boost. Tickets to the encounter should sell like the proverbial hot cakes.

If hopes of having the new field in condition for next season can be realized, the contest will be the last one played on the South Park Sahara.

OHIO STATE IS NOSED OUT OF TITULAR RACE

(By The Associated Press.) Columbus, O., Nov. 8.—Indiana, changing from her regular crimson jerseys to black ones, cast a dark and disastrous cloud over Ohio State's western conference championship aspirations here today when she unexpectedly set the Buckeyes down on the short end of a 12 to 7 score.

The first half of the game was a listless affair marked only by the exceedingly poor punting by both teams. With the beginning of the second half, however, the contest took on a tinge of a real fight and within eight minutes Indiana had scored more points upon Ohio State than the rest of the Buckeye opponents had been able to amass all year.

Marks, outstanding star of the game, scored both Indiana touchdowns, making his first one after receiving a toss from Salmi while only four yards from the goal line and registering the second on the longest run made in the Ohio stadium this season, carrying the oval 56 yards. This score was made on the first play after an Ohio State back had fumbled an Indiana punt, Indiana recovering. Both of Captain Sloate's tries for point after touchdown failed.

Kiese scored the Buckeye's lone touchdown when he received a double pass from Wendler on the seven yard line, and added the extra point by a dropkick.

Haskell Takes Out Revenge on Brown University Squad

(By The Associated Press.) Providence, R. I., Nov. 8.—The Haskell Indians of Lawrence, Kansas, beaten last week by Boston College by a 34 to 7 score, handed the Brown University football team a severe setback this afternoon, defeating the Brunonians by 17 to 13. The Indians scored in the first quarter when Kipp intercepted a pass on his own 35-yard line and ran 65 yards for a score. The next tally came early in the second period, Norton making a field goal from the 31-yard mark. An 80-yard march with John Levi, stalwart Redskin, carrying the ball, accounted for the third and final score. Smith kicked both goals after touchdowns. Payer and Dixon scored Brown's touchdowns. In the second and third periods, Keefer kicking the goal after the second tally. Keefer also contributed a 42-yard run along the sidelines after snaring one of John Levi's punts in the final quarter.

Alma Bows Before Albion Onslaught

(By The Associated Press.) Alma, Mich., Nov. 8.—Albion College defeated Alma College here today, 3 to 0. Robinson's field goal from the 16-yard line brought the winning count for the visitors. The victory was a story of wasted opportunities by the home team. Twice in the first quarter and once in the second, Alma had the ball on the five-yard line but was unable to put it over for a touchdown. Field goals were tried in the third and fourth period, but failed.

West Virginians Take Colgate Into Camp by 34 to 2

(By The Associated Press.) Morgantown, W. Va., Nov. 8.—West Virginia's football team rose to its greatest strength of the season here today and defeated Colgate 34 to 2. The Mountaineers showed a powerful attack that swept the Colgate defense aside in every quarter while on the defense, the Mountaineers held the Maroon to two first downs, both of them made late in the game.

West Virginia got off to a commanding lead by scoring two touchdowns in the first quarter and added a touchdown in each of the other three periods. Colgate's only score, a safety, came in the second quarter when Captain Crowther of the Maroon, blocked Oliver's punt and Captain Graham of the Mountaineers fell on the ball behind his own goal line.

West Virginia made 21 first downs, while Colgate made two.

Ames Achieves A Tie With Gophers

(By The Associated Press.) Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 8.—Victory perched in seeming security on the shoulders of Iowa State's fighting eleven until the last five minutes of play, when Minnesota, after blocking an attempted place kick, fought its way to a touchdown and a 7 to 7 tie here today.

It was in the first two minutes of play that Ames' touchdown came, when Norton Behm, on the first play after the initial kickoff, romped through the Gopher eleven for 80 yards and a touchdown and J. Behm kicked goal.

Then through the interval until that final five minute dash, the men from Ames outplayed the Gophers, running their ends in midfield, successfully tossing pretty passes, and held near the Minnesota goal, failed in three attempts at place kicks.

Railroad Bowling League Organized

The Chicago & North-Western bowling league season will open early this week at the Arcade alleys. Ten teams, including two from the ore dock construction crews, have been given franchises in the organization. There is every indication that the season will be as successful as its predecessors.

McCarthy Goes Over

Fighting his way through the line by sheer strength, McCarthy hammered down the field and hammered the ball across the Illinois line for the first score of the game. Chicago outplayed the Illini in every department during the initial period, scoring 12 first downs to none for Illinois.

IN NEW YORK

Judge Elbert H. Gary, steel magnate, has Box 19 in the famous Golden Horseshoe of the Metropolitan Opera which has just opened its season with "Aida." It is reported along Broadway that he paid Henry Frick $200,000 for the box.

In 31 years only seven boxes in the Golden Horseshoe have changed hands. In 1892 the 35 boxes in the charmed circle were sold for $30,000 each, but the purchasers paid an additional $30,000 tax to support the venture.

The original holders drew lots for choice and J. P. Morgan won in the draw. He selected Box 35, the one farthest from the stage. He was also seventh in the draw and took Box 31 as his second choice. However, some of the high-hats were disappointed in the drawing and concessions had to be made. In the final alignment Cornelius Vanderbilt was installed in Box 31.

One not only buys a social prestige when purchasing a box in the Golden Horseshoe. He makes a worthwhile investment as well. The property on which the Metropolitan stands at 40th street and Broadway was recently appraised at $1,050,000 by the city.

And if one doesn't care to attend to every performance, a box with six seats can easily be rented for $100. There are 120 performances during the season.

With only seven changes in ownership in the Golden Horseshoe it is presumed that the upper crust of New York society has been denied but little since 1892.

Along the North River docks... A Portuguese sailor with a livid scar on his neck; his blouse turned down as though to boast of the scar. What's his story? A grizzled old fellow in rage watching the tide flow up the river. Watching and seeing nothing. What's his story? Under a sidetracked freight car a young fellow, filthy and unkempt, curled up there like a bit of human flotsam washed ashore. What's his story? Out of a window above a squalid livery stable, a little boy peers. Pale, wistful, lonely. Immediately before him nothing but human scum passes. In the background great ships come and go from the seven seas. Of what is he dreaming? What will his story be? JAMES W. DEAN.

Carnegie Tech Is Much Outclassed

(By The Associated Press.) State College, Pa., Nov. 8.—Pennsylvania State ran rough shod over Carnegie Tech in their annual battle here today, 22 to 7. Tech was outplayed throughout the first three periods by a virtually new Penn State team which tore their line to shreds.

UPBAYS DEFEAT 'STIQUE, 19-7

Gordon's Men Take Final Contest of Season Yesterday.

Manistique, Nov. 8 (Special).—Manistique high school lost its eighth consecutive football game today, when Gladstone won the season's closing engagement, 19 to 7. Gladstone scored a touchdown in the first period and two in the final stanza. One was on a 45-yard end run by Reese who followed it up later with a 35-yard scoring sprint.

Manistique came to life for a brief time in the last quarter, and by a series of line smashes, carried the ball down the field and scored a touchdown. Nelson muffed the finishing spurt and Muelled kicking goal. The score then was 13 to 7 in the Delta county team's favor and it appeared as if the Schoolcrafters had a chance to tie things up. The rally was halted, however, when Gladstone braced, held the homelings and then proceeded to score again on an intercepted forward pass by Goodman.

An unusual feature was the fact that the third quarter ended with the ball exactly in the middle of the field. All that was necessary for the teams to do was change the direction in which they were heading.

It was the second game Manistique had lost to Gladstone this season. The other games were with Saint Ste. Marie, Munising, St. Joseph's, Escanaba and Newberry.

Butler Threatens Iowa Several Times In Ragged Game

(By The Associated Press.) Iowa City, Ia., Nov. 8.—The curtain fell in the 1924 football season for Iowa City today when the University of Iowa eleven squeezed through a 7 to 0 victory over Butler College of Indianapolis. All the remaining games on the Hawkeyes' schedule will be played on opponents' fields.

Although each team played raggedly in spots, the game was a close contest. Iowa's scant margin several times was threatened, especially in the last quarter, when Canfield, Kilgore and Paul, charging the Hawkeye line for consistent games, brought the ball within the Iowa five-yard line.

Iowa's touchdown came at the beginning of the second period. Parkin received Wood's punt on the Butler 45-yard line. The Hawkeye captain with five tacklers bearing down on him, sidestepped, pivoted and ran the full length to behind the goal posts, but the referee called the ball back to where a Butler tackle had held a safety man and the Butler team was penalized fifteen yards. On the next play, however, Parkin passed a short one to Schierman who received the ball on the Butler 15-yard line and dodged through a secondary defense for a touchdown. Hancock kicked goal.

Farmers Trimmed by St. Louis "U"

(By The Associated Press.) St. Louis, Nov. 8.—Led by their star fullback, Frank Ramacciotti, the St. Louis University football team today overcame a 3 to 0 lead in the final period and with a safety and touchdown gained nine points and a victory over the powerful Michigan Aggies' team here today.

Matched in weight, the two teams played two scoreless quarters with the East Lansing team slightly superior.

The Aggies scored their only points on a kick from placement from the 15-yard line by Neller in the third quarter.

The Billikens first scored in the final quarter when Fremont had replaced Lynman at quarterback for the Aggies, tried three passes and Stanton fell on the ball for a safety, for the Billikens.

A fifty-yard run through the entire line by Ramacciotti later in the quarter gave St. Louis six more points. Stanton kicked for the extra points.

Hillsdale Downs Kalamazoo, 21 to 7

(By The Associated Press.) Kalamazoo, Mich., Nov. 8.—The passing game of the Hillsdale leaders of the M. I. A. was too much for Kalamazoo College this afternoon and as a result the locals went down to a 21 to 7 defeat. The visitors put over three touchdowns in the first half after which the locals were able to hold them safely. Kalamazoo outfigured Hillsdale in the final quarter and put over a touchdown near the close of the game.

Early in the third period Keithwell pulled a surprise punt from the shadow of his own goal posts, which Illinois did not recover until it had rolled to her 20-yard line. On the next play Grange took the ball and ran 90 yards off left tackle, through the entire team for one of his famous maroon touchdowns; Britton kicked goal, tying the score.

Army Wins Despite Floridan Tenacity

(By The Associated Press.) West Point, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The Army today defeated the University of Florida, 14 to 7, in a game featured by the bull dog tenacity of the southern combination, outplayed during most of the game. The Alligators, led by the brilliant Jones, came back after a poor start and tried to score, only when the feet Wilson made a sensational run for touchdown.

TIGERS SCORE DECISIVE WIN OVER HARVARD

(By The Associated Press.) Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 8.—Princeton came back to one of the greatest moments of gridiron glory she has ever known today and under a crimson sky sent Harvard down to the most crushing defeat in the 47 years of rivalry between these two ancient foes.

Out of the depths of mediocrity and disappointment the Tigers' eleven fighting, irresistible junglemens-rose to heights of astonishing brilliancy to overwhelm Harvard by a score of 31 to 0, in one of the most sensational upsets of football annals have ever recorded.

Banked around the sides of the Harvard stadium, a vast crowd of 53,000 had come in expectation of a Harvard victory, for the Crimson ruled a decided pre-game favorite, but instead it was thrown into a frenzy by a come-back as spectacular as it was startling and effective.

Harvard Too Weak. After the first period, when Harvard's stubborn defense twice thrust back Tiger drives, the Crimson had nothing capable of checking this fierce antagonist who lashed out with stunning power on all sides and with the swiftness of lightning. Touchdowns in the second and third periods, and two in the fourth, intermingled with field goals in the second and fourth periods, represented the toll of Tiger damage.

It became a rout as the shadows crept over the giant amphitheatre, a continual sweep of stroaking Orange and Black jerseys over the chalk lines. And when the final whistle blew, Princeton's cohorts, already whipped to a frenzied pitch, swept down on the gridiron in a wild outburst of enthusiasm. Around the field the wildly excited mob surged, marching behind a buffeted Princeton band and all but buoyed the Crimson goal post that during the afternoon seemed an irresistible magnet to Tiger ball carriers.

Over the stretch of years since Harvard and Princeton began their rivalry in 1877 no victory has been recorded as decisive as that of today. Only twice before has a score rivalling today's Tiger total been put up on each of these occasions, when Princeton also was triumphant the margin of victory was not so great. In 1883 Princeton won, 31 to 6, while five years later the Tigers scored 11 to 15. Princeton now has a margin of 15 victories to 6 for Harvard, while three ties have figured in the 27 clashes between them.

Michigan Aggies Are Beaten, 9 to 3

(By The Associated Press.) St. Louis, Nov. 8.—The St. Louis University football squad expectations here today by triumphing over the hefty Michigan Aggie machine, 9 to 3. The teams seemed evenly matched until the first period when Ramacciotti, star S. Louis fullback, clashed the victory by a thrilling 55-yard run around end for a touchdown.

A safety was added a few minutes later when an Aggie pass was blocked behind the goal line. Neller had the only Aggie score when he put over a 12-yard placement kick in the third period.

EMOS MAY TRY TO ABSORB RADICAL GROUP

TALK ABOUT 1928 IS ALREADY IN AIR.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
 (Copyright 1924, by the Escanaba Press.)
 Washington, Nov. 8.—Hope for eternal life in the democratic fight and nothing appears more significant than the recurrent mention of William C. McAdoo for 1928. Instead of accepting the post of Tuesday as a verdict of conservatism, the democrats regarding it as the result of their own bad tactics.

This has more than passing importance as a post mortem. It shows what the democrats are trying to do next. For they are examining the election returns the more they are convinced that LaFollette was the cause of their defeat. Just as Roosevelt in 1912 proved the basis of the republican party LaFollette without perhaps including it assisted materially in securing a conservative in power.

Will There Be Merger?
 Immediately after 1912, the republicans especially those who supported Roosevelt, saw the wisdom of keeping the party united and the reunited in 1916, Col. Roosevelt was so anxious to defeat the democratic administration in 1916 that despite appeals of a staunch battalion of moozers he refused to be a third party candidate again.

Robert M. LaFollette and his followers still stick to their plan of forming this winter a third party organization? The Broad Brotherhoods and the American Federation of Labor and the other groups which lent support to LaFollette now that a continuance of their struggle against conservative doctrine will be futile unless they permit themselves to be absorbed by it.

There always is a momentum in the established parties. In Ohio and New York where no outstanding third party candidates for governor, the democratic candidate—Governor Doan and Governor Smith—won by comfortable majorities notwithstanding the tremendous rallies given Coolidge. In New York the vote given Norman Thomas, socialist candidate for governor, would have gone to Al Smith as in previous elections the only lesson of the New York state contest is that Smith, beaten, would have been able to attribute to some extent his defeat to the loss of the few votes that might otherwise have gone to him.

Labor Was Divided.
 Labor stands at the close of the campaign defeated in its serious attempt to back a third party candidate. Friction inside labor's ranks throughout the campaign when so many of its leaders insisted on going to the polls indicates that some of the leftists recognized that the LaFollette campaign was merely a dividing their own ranks.

The talk of McAdoo for 1928

may never mean his nomination. He will be 64 years old then and as a rule candidates for president do not win the nomination at that age though LaFollette's advanced age was not often talked about in the campaign. The mention of McAdoo does mean that the democrats are already discussing the necessity of choosing a leader who will win for them the support of the voters who cast their ballots for LaFollette, together with those who may at the end of four years want a change from republican rule.

Talk Not Premature.
 To the average man the mention of 1928 may seem premature and academic. But unfortunately it isn't. Members of congress look far ahead politically and vote and act in respect to legislation with an idea of what will prove wise for 1926—the next congressional election—and 1928 the next presidential contest. One third of the membership of the senate changes in two years and the primary campaign of some of these men will be on in a year and a half. If the democrats decide to attempt a real coalition with the insurgent republicans for the benefit of the next campaign they will lay their plans now.

Farmers Shun LaFollette.
 While the Coolidge electoral votes came from the west as well as the east and even included some of the border states where conservatism is entrenched, the addition of the LaFollette and Davis popular votes in the states west of the Mississippi river show that the margin for Coolidge would have been closer had these two parties combined than was the case in the east. The democratic opportunity doesn't seem to lie in the east. Nor would it appear that the labor vote in industrial centers of the east are of sufficient influence to win over the rural districts. LaFollette made little impression on the farms of the eastern states.

Turning to the west it is apparent that not only did the democrats in large numbers go over to the LaFollette standard but that many republicans went to the LaFollette standard but that many republicans went to the third party ticket. The big independent group of voters as a rule decides elections in the west.

There is nothing to show that LaFollette got a bigger slice of that group than President Coolidge. All the democrats can note from the results is that had they combined with LaFollette or had there been nominated a democrat who could have appealed to the LaFollette faction the race would have been closer in the west and the south would have gone along as usual.

Under the circumstances the republicans having gathered virtually all the conservatives, the next move in American politics will be an effort to make the democratic party a liberal, if not ultra-radical opposition to the republicans. And if they win converts in congress these will come from western republicans who think such a course conforms to the will of the west.

IRISH CAPTURE FIRST CONTEST FROM BADGERS

(By The Associated Press.)
 Madison, Wis., Nov. 8.—Notre Dame slashed Wisconsin's defense to ribbons at Camp Randall this afternoon, and defeated the Cardinals for the first time in five starts, 38 to 3. Previously Notre Dame had failed to score on Wisconsin. Today, Crowley, Don Miller, Rouch, Layden, Cerney and Heez added points to the team's total.

Crowley gave the spectators their greatest thrill when he ran 55 yards through a broken field, until Doye Harmon fought his way through the blocking Notre Dame men and stopped him.

That run broke the hearts of Wisconsin men. The first period had ended 3 to 3, both having scored a dropkick. Cerney kicked a dropkick for Notre Dame during that period. Rockne started his second team and permitted it to remain in the fighting until Wisconsin forced its way to Notre Dame's 15-yard line.

At that point, Rockne sent in his first string outfit, and although they were able to hold Wisconsin from scoring a touchdown, Doyle Harmon's dropkick from the 12-yard line counted.

With the first string team on the field, Wisconsin's defense was wrecked in a slashing attack at ends and slants off tackle, combined with straight smashes into the line and a brilliant passing game.

WANT ICE RINK AT MANISTIQUE

With winter at hand, several suggestions have been made by Manistique young people relative to skating rink, which they believe should be provided somewhere in the city.

The question is one that has been previously discussed and considered by the local Chamber of Commerce, but no action taken on account of a lack of funds.

During winter, the members of the club, by subscription, raised a sufficient amount to make substantial repairs on the toboggan run, which is now in very good shape.

Skating is another healthful winter recreation that would be popular if a safe and satisfactory expanse of ice were provided, together with a small shelter for the skaters in cold weather.

Communications have been received by this paper, asking that the matter be again taken up by the Chamber of Commerce, with a view of arriving at some solution on the winter recreation problem at Manistique. Several possible sites for an ice rink have been suggested.

"Monsieur Beaucaire," with Rudolph Valentino in the title role, is the picture Manistique fans will see at the Gero theater Monday night. The play is adapted from the story by Booth Tarkington.

Imagine the love interest of "The Shiek," the romantic coloring of "Blood and Sand," and the spectacle of "The Four Horsemen," combined in one photoplay and you begin to understand why "Monsieur Beaucaire" is a photoplay of amazing beauty and power.

To the students of history it will be an inspiration; to the schoolboy it will be an education, and to the mass film fan it will be a revelation. All the pomp and magnificence of the Court of Louis XV, victorious for its love affairs, its strategy, honor and vice!

The charming Mme. Pompadour, the absolute King, the crafty Richelieu—they live once more! And there isn't a man or woman who will fail to sympathize and thrill with the merry, dashing Due de Chartres with all his merriment and all his rights! Verily, it is a play to perfection!

For the supporting cast, it will be set up as a standard of excellence, including as it does, Bebe Daniels, Lois Wilson, Doris Kenyon, Lowell Sherman, John Kenyon, John Davidson, Lucretia Duval and many, many others famous on stage and screen.

Film fans, you who have about as great pictures you have seen, go "Monsieur Beaucaire" and you will have something to brag about!

M. E. Sunday School Has New Officers

Following is a list of officers of the Methodist Sunday School at Manistique, elected at a recent meeting: W. G. Stephens—Superintendent.

D. J. Ward—Assistant Supt. Edna Chenoweth—Secretary. Jacob Pattinson—Treasurer. Kathleen Gliddon—Organist.

Ethel Pearce—Assistant Org. Mrs. M. Bundy—Choirister. William Mueller, Jr.—Librarian.

Mrs. B. A. Craver—Supt. Primary Dept. The Sunday School orchestra, composed entirely of young ladies of the church, now plays every Sunday during the Sunday School session.

The organization has also played for church services. Great interest is being manifested on all sides in the coming production of "The Blue Bandits," at the Gero Theater, Tuesday, Nov. 25.

It will be given under the auspices of St. Alban's Guild of the Episcopal Church and will be produced entirely by local talent.

Mr. John T. McDonough, the author and composer of "The Blue Bandits" will come to Manistique and take personal charge of all rehearsals and the big performance night.

"The Blue Bandits," which is rated as very high musically is described as a light comic opera with all the big features of a musical comedy. It is filled with beautiful music, catchy songs, exasperating comedy and has the supreme distinction of having a plot far above the ordinary run of shows of this type.

The cast calls for about twenty people and the chorus for about fifty and already a large number of our local celebrities have signified their intention to help to make "The Blue Bandits" a success.

Mr. McDonough carries with him a full complement of scenery and costumes. "We feel that we are very fortunate in securing 'The Blue Bandits' for our show this year," said Thom, irr, to a reporter, today.

The committee who attended the show in Escanaba where it was recently given with tremendous success by The American Legion there, are very loud in their praises of the merits of the show. It is far above the ordinary run of amateur entertainments and is of such a high type and character as to interest the very best talent and people wherever it is given.

We also feel we are more than fortunate in securing the Gero theater for our production and we are sparing no effort to make "The Blue Bandits" the best and most notable home talent show ever attempted here.

The rehearsals which will start Tuesday evening, will be held at the Elks' Temple at 7:30 sharp.

Noted Lecturer Coming Wednesday Seat reservations will begin on Monday at 5 p. m., for the next number of the Manistique lyceum course, Anna Dickie Olsen, lecturer, who will be heard here Wednesday evening, November 12, at the auditorium, the address starting at 8:15 sharp.

Her talk at the high school this week will be on present-day problems.

Old County Fair Banners Still Up

Some very uncomplimentary things have been said by Manistique residents regarding the county fair banners still strung across certain downtown streets.

The faded and frayed banners, hanging dimly on a rope are an eye-sore, the folks say, and detract from the usual neat appearance of the city. They have served their purpose, and someone should climb up the poles and tear them down.

FERRY DOCK IMPROVEMENTS NOW COMPLETE

Contractors completed work Friday on $25,000 worth of permanent improvements made at the Ann Arbor ferry docks at Manistique.

The undertaking was in the hands of McMullen and Pitz of Manistowic, and L. J. Allen was the supervising engineer.

The work consisted of installing a new crib of heavy timbers, filled with one-man stone, and putting in new furling along the slip where the ferries dock.

A barge, carrying the steam shovel and other equipment used by the contractors, will be taken back to Manistowic as soon as the towing tug arrives.

PART OF NINTH STREET TO BE READY SHORTLY

While paving operations on the west half of the last block of Voorhis avenue have been suspended because of cold weather, Nebel Brothers, contractors, are engaged in preparing for the opening of the stretch between the Hansen & Jensen oil station and Third avenue.

The street will be open to Third avenue probably by the middle of the week, much earlier than was anticipated by those in charge.

Workmen are now engaged in removing the top protection of gravel which has been placed on the concrete during the curing process.

With the opening of the street to Third avenue the temporary detour over the field near the Soo line tracks will be eliminated and it will be possible to detour either east or west on Third avenue.

On Minnesota. The same force of workmen will be put on Minnesota avenue, during the delay, to finish leveling off the sand at the intersection and to complete the filling in back of the curbing and to level off piles of excavated material which was placed in embankment on cross streets, along with other finishing work.

Three days of warm weather will see the completion of the 500 feet of pavement still to be finished and the workmen are finishing other jobs while awaiting favorable weather.

LEGION PLANS FOR ARMISTICE DAY ELABORATE

Final details for the biggest Armistice Day celebration Gladstone has ever held, will be completed Monday night when members of August Mattson post, American Legion who are in charge of the day's festivities, meet at their club rooms to complete arrangements for the day.

Tuesday's celebration will be the most elaborate of its kind ever held in Gladstone and nothing is being overlooked by the legion men in their preparations.

Tickets for the banquet have been selling rapidly, with indications that the attendance at this will equal and perhaps pass the record attendance at the booster banquet.

The record for sales thus far goes to City Manager, F. R. Buechner who up to Saturday noon had disposed of sixty tickets for the banquet. Manager Buechner's sales indicated that a one hundred percent attendance of the Rotary club will mark the banquet.

Tickets for the sham battle and for the military ball in the evening have been going as fast as the banquet tickets and every event on the program will be attended by records crowds.

The banquet will begin at 1:30 o'clock at the Community building, with the Ladies' Aid society of Alice Memorial Methodist church preparing and serving. Following the banquet will be toasts, Armistice day addresses and a program of music.

The banquet program will close in time for those attending to reach the sham battle field. In time for the opening gun of the sham Battle of Verdun which will be fought out at dusk between two legion teams.

Military Ball. The evening's activities will be featured by the big military ball in the evening at the community auditorium.

Work of setting poles will begin at once and an effort will be made to complete this portion of the job before severe cold weather sets in.

The Delta Public Service company was organized recently by a group of Escanaba, Brampton and Perkins men. As a result of a hearing, held here about a week ago, the state public utilities commission approved its plans and authorized the sale of $25,000 in stock.

Officers of the company are: William H. Needham, president; Arthur Nelson, vice president; A. J. Volkert, of Brampton, treasurer, and W. B. Moreau, of Perkins, secretary. H. D. Gibbs, of Perkins, Mr. Nelson, Mr. Volkert, Mr. Needham and Mr. Moreau are members of the board of directors.

The company will buy the power from the Escanaba Traction company and distribute it over its transmission lines under the same general plan followed by the cities of Escanaba and Gladstone and other municipalities and concerns in this section.

Farmers and townspeople in the territory to be served by the company are greatly pleased with the plans to furnish them with electricity, it is said.

New opera chairs have been received by the management of St. Joseph's auditorium and the first installment will be placed in the hall for the evening performance of "The Spirit of the U. S. A." which will be shown there Tuesday, Nov. 11.

Analyze and Digest These Amazing Facts

The Car—Chrysler Six, Strictly Stock.
Date—September 17th.
Place—Fresno, Calif., Track.
Occasion—Los Angeles Times Trophy Cup Contest.
Driver—Ralph de Palma.
Distance—1,000 Continuous Miles.
Time—1,007 Minutes, 54 seconds.
Average Speed—59.54 Miles Per Hour.
Actual Running Time—878 Minutes, 10-10 Seconds.
Actual Average Speed—68.33 Miles Per Hour.
Timers—A. A. Representatives.

Here is a record-breaking demonstration of stamina and dogged endurance—the like of which the automotive industry has never witnessed before—A demonstration of something far greater than speed—A demonstration, most of all of superb engineering and materials and workmanship of the highest order.

A Chrysler Six stock car, driven by Ralph de Palma, won the Los Angeles Times Trophy Cup on the Fresno, California track, September 17th, by covering 1,000 miles in 1,007 minutes, 54 seconds, of elapsed time.

Deducting the time consumed by necessary stops such as for gas, oil, tires, etc., the actual net running time was 878 minutes, 10-10 seconds. The average speed was 68.331 miles per hour.

The Chrysler Six used for this amazing demonstration was strictly a stock car—exactly the same in every particular as the car you buy from the salesroom floor.

It was certified as a stock car by the committee under the rules of the contest.

Its time was clocked and certified by three associated members of the A. A. A.

Driving 1,000 miles in 878 minutes is something far more than an exhibition of speed.

To accomplish that feat requires hitherto unrealized stamina and endurance, engineering of unquestioned soundness and superiority, materials and workmanship of the highest order.

A car that can make such a record will do more than any owner will ever ask of it. It will have long life and cost amazingly little to maintain.

DESERVES SUPPORT.

Definite steps were taken by members of the Escanaba city council on Friday night to provide Escanaba with an ideal athletic field. In turning over to the board of education a twenty-acre tract of land owned by the city, in the southern section of the city, some useful purpose will be provided for an investment of a number of years ago and which up to this time has remained idle.

The tract lies immediately south of South park ball grounds, bordering on the bay. It's location is ideal, with a connection already provided with three car lines and lying directly on trunk line No. 91, running south out of Escanaba. The entire tract is level and can be converted to the purpose proposed by the council at a minimum of cost.

Considered in connection with plans already made by the board of education to level off the grounds already owned by the board of education, adjacent to the high school, and provide an open air gymnasium and practice field, the scheme is one that solves a situation that up to this time has seriously hindered any recreational or definite athletic program that might be undertaken in this city.

As compared with other nearby cities, notably Menominee and Marinette, Escanaba has been unfortunate in having no men of wealth to provide a memorial field or similar institution and if Escanaba is too seriously sponsored athletics and provide for the physical development of its future citizens, equally as important as mental training, the people must themselves provide the facilities.

The need for an athletic field has been felt for years, but its necessity has never been more fully proven than this season. When all athletic contests have been staged on a field so unfit for use that attendance has been discouraged and but a small measure of support made possible for a movement that should have the backing of all citizens.

CLIMATE CHANGES. Every old timer will tell you that we don't have winters now like those in the old days. When the boys and girls thought a bobbed party was the apex of fun and they were "right" and when nobody thought a thing of having to go out on a below-zero morning to thaw out the pump.

WEEKLY SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON BREAD FOR THE MULTITUDE

TEXT: John 6:1-15

After these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias. And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased. And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

Let us say frankly that if we could explain it, it would no longer be miraculous. And let us also frankly recognize that we are concerned here in these lesson expositions not with critical questions, but with spiritual interpretations. Our faith is primarily challenged not by the things that Jesus did, but by the Jesus who did them.

God uses feeble and seemingly inadequate instruments to accomplish great ends. While we think, then, of Jesus as the giver of food, the lover of men, who sympathizes with their hunger and feeds them from His compassion, let us realize the responsibilities that divine power places upon ourselves.

MISS—OR MRS.

BY JANE PHELPS.

A STRANGER IN MENTONE. Chapter XLVI. About four o'clock on the afternoon of the twenty-eighth of April a man stepped from the train and entered the station at Mentone. He waited quietly until the excitement of the arriving and outgoing train had subsided, and until the station was cleared. He then approached the station master and asked: "Is there a Mrs. Anderson living in this village?"

"No, there ain't no Mrs. Anderson. There ain't but one Anderson left, Miss Alvira, the school-teacher." A look of disappointment crossed the man's face. He looked about him as if undecided what he would do. Then: "Will you direct me to Miss Anderson's home?"

"You go straight down the main street 'till you come almost to the end. You'll see a house set way back from the road with big trees in the yard. That's it and Alvira'll be at home now. It's after four and school is out." The man thanked him and strode briskly down the street, the station master watching curiously until he was out of sight.

"Alvira had hurried home from school, changed into a working dress, and was pottering in her garden among her flowers. Only two days more and Homer Dwight would come for his answer. Her restlessness, her indecision, made staying indoors impossible. Alvira had no maid and she did not hear the door bell. A step on the walk startled her. She looked up, straightened, then stood as if petrified.

"Vira, Vira, I have found you at last!" Deering's hands went out to her. Blindly Alvira laid hers, soiled with the earth in which she had been digging, in them. It was the unconscious, the trusting response of a child. "Come into the house, dear, we have much to say to each other," and Deering, taking the initiative, led Alvira to the door, opened it and drew her inside.

How should she tell him, how confess the lie she had been living when she met him in San Francisco? To gain time Alvira left Deering to wash the soil from her hands, to change her working dress, and smooth her hair. She had to promise she wouldn't be long before Deering would let her go. Yet neither had said anything save the few words of surprised greeting.

God uses feeble and seemingly inadequate instruments to accomplish great ends. While we think, then, of Jesus as the giver of food, the lover of men, who sympathizes with their hunger and feeds them from His compassion, let us realize the responsibilities that divine power places upon ourselves. It may be our privilege to supply the loaves and fishes. We no more know what wonderful uses God may make of our small resources than did the awe-struck lad who lost his distinction of a place in the great-est of all books.

"Feet of Clay" Booked As Feature Of Delft's First Half-Week Bill

At the Delft—Rebe Daniels in "Dangerous Money." At the Strand—Dorothy Dalton in "The Moral Sinner." At St. Joseph's—An historical picture, "Napoleon and Josephine."

"Feet of Clay," a Cecil B. De Mille picture, will be shown at the Delft theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The story is one of New York and California and features Rod La Rocque, Vera Reynolds, Victor Varconi, Ricardo Cortez, Julia Faye, Theodore Kosloff and Robert Edeson in the principal roles.

The California episode consists of exotic beach carnival scenes at Catalina Island. You've never seen anything like it in all your born days. The New York scenes fit, according to the best DeMille standards of dramatic contrast, between the Harlem flat of Vera Reynolds and Rod La Rocque and the luxurious home of Julia Faye, Amy's mistress, and her husband, played by Robert Edeson.

Rin-Tin-Tin Coming. Rin-Tin-Tin will be featured on the Delft screen Thursday, Friday and Saturday in "Find Your Man." The story is laid in a lumber country and deals with a plot of some lumberjacks to steal government timber.

ST. JOSEPH'S AUDITORIUM. At St. Joseph's Auditorium today will be shown the great historic film "Napoleon and Josephine" one of the most thrilling and romantic pictures filmed by the A. G. B. Samuelson producers. In Vienna, Moscow, Berlin, Rome and Madrid all the crowned heads of Europe, with hatred and fear, bowed to the will of Napoleon. In France thirty million people worshipped his name!

Today's Anniversaries. 1824—Tenth presidential election, in which no candidate received a majority of the electoral vote, and the choice devolved upon the House of Representatives. 1841—King Edward VII, of Great Britain born in Buckingham Palace. Died there May 6, 1910.

St. Joseph's Auditorium. Here is a picture such as you have never seen before! You're going to thrill to the fascinating romance of Napoleon and Josephine—you're going to revel in the sheer beauty of the tremendous sets—you're going to marvel at the gigantic scenes—the Battle of Waterloo, the burning of Moscow, the retreat from the Russian city and many others of equal magnitude!

Presidential Elections Have Beneficial Effect On Business

By RODGER W. BABSON
Babson Park, Mass. November 8.
Roger W. Babson today issued the following statement regarding the election and business.

merchant to buy the goods; and up to the manufacturer to start the wheels of industry. We should all get busy and forge ahead. We cannot expect to get back at once to boom times. The readjustment process is not yet complete, but we have passed the low point and should steadily work upward.

Young Woman Is Called By Death

Surrounded by members of her family and while the pastor of the parish where she had attended services all her life was praying and the family knelt in prayer, Miss Clara Mary Moras, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McDonald, 513 South 13th Street, peacefully passed beyond the portals which closed forever between her and the dear ones left to mourn her.

All that medical science could do to save her life was tried. She spent several months at the Powers Sanatorium but returned to her home early in the summer where she was given the best of care that only a mother's love and devotion can give.

Patently suffering, she never murmured and daily her spiritual director came and gave her encouragement. Her death was like the passing of an angel, so sweet and pure had been the life of the young woman who was called to her reward when life seems to hold so much that is dear.

When she passed away, two Franciscan Sisters, former teachers, were at the bedside.

She leaves to mourn her besides her parents, three sisters, Mrs. Emil Berg, Hessemer, Mich.; Mrs. Roger Baker, and Florence Moras, city; three brothers, Roger Moras, Hermansville, Mich.; Henry and George of this city.

The body was prepared for burial at the Alto Funeral Home and will be returned to the family home today where it will remain until the hour of the funeral services which will be held at 8:00 o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Anne's Church. Rev. Fr. R. G. Jacques will be the celebrant at the requiem high mass. Burial will be in the family lot in St. Anne's cemetery.

Mrs. Frank J. Hull is the president and active manager of a $2,000,000 men's clothing manufacturing concern in Poughkeepsie, N. Y.
