More Stocks Establish New Highs on Day's Activities, However.

(By The Associated Press.) New York, Nov. 14.—Trading on the New York Stock Exchange slowed up perceptibly today when the day's sales, aggregating 1,916,700 shares, fell below the two million mark for the first full session since a week ago Thursday.

Prices Are Boosted. The boom, which has been based on the speculative theory that a marked revival of trade was in prospect, has added more than three billion dollars to the quoted value of securities traded here since the day after election.

N. Y. C. In Demand. New York Central was in brisk demand, being boosted up to 117 1/2, its highest price in 12 years, and 2 1/2 points above last night's close. Wild Ducks Dying From Long Drought

(By The Associated Press.) Shreveport, La., Nov. 14.—The drought in Louisiana is resulting in the death of thousands of wild ducks in a most unusual manner. North Louisiana is dotted with great earthen tanks to store crude oil from the Arkansas and Louisiana fields and with most of the small lakes and marshes dry, and minor streams little more than brooks, ducks arriving from the north are mistaking the oil tanks for water and alighting in them.

REDUCTION OF TAX RATES UP TO CONGRESS

ADMINISTRATION NOT TO URGE SLICE AT ONCE.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Nov. 14.—The administration has decided to leave to congress to decide whether a horizontal cut of 25 percent in income taxes shall be put through at the short session beginning in December and ending in March.

There are several reasons given for declining to recommend a tax cut but at the same time no statement is being made that the president would veto a joint resolution to provide for a reduction in taxes.

Senator Smoot, chairman of the senate finance committee, is in favor of such a resolution. In the house no doubt will appear a similar sentiment. The treasury department knows that in its last experience with congress, the democrats and insurgent republicans united to ignore the essentials of the Mellon Plan.

TAX REDUCTION TO MARK TIME UNTIL JUNE 30

Action at Present Not Proper, Is Belief of Administration.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Nov. 14.—The administration does not feel that the question of tax reduction should be taken up until the government's books are balanced at the close of this fiscal year, which ends next June 30.

Until that time it is the opinion of President Coolidge that the actual amount of reduction possible cannot be determined and scientific action is thus impossible.

Administration spokesmen have consistently pointed out that an orderly program for further tax reduction is not possible until the surplus available for a cut is known.

Seven Men Held As Suspects in Bank Robberies
(By The Associated Press.)
Lansing, Mich., Nov. 14.—Seven men are under arrest charged with complicity in the Springfield and Gregory bank robberies, it was announced today by the state police. According to Lieutenant John Palmer, who has spent weeks investigating, three of the men have been identified as among those who held up the Springfield bank and escaped with approximately $75,000 in cash and negotiable bonds. The others, he stated, are charged with participation either in the Springfield or Gregory robberies. He believes that all were members of the same gang. Charges of robbery armed have been placed against them.

The men held are Clare Avery, Howard Welch, Ed McDonald, Charles L. Mooney, William Stowe, Willie Schumaker and Ivan Hill. Welch, Avery and Schumaker are held in the Jackson jail. Stowe, Mooney and McDonald are in Howell. The whereabouts of Hill, who was arrested in Chicago and who is a parole violator, was not revealed. The rest of the prisoners were rounded up in Battle Creek and Jackson.

Lieutenant Palmer expressed his belief that the arrest of the seven men has broken up a bandit band that has been preying on small Michigan banks. The investigation into the past records of the individuals is to be continued, and it is not probable, he asserted, that they will be charged with implication in other robberies.

Annual Barbeque Is Held at M. A. C.

Questions Right of Judge To Pass on Ballot Dispute
(By The Associated Press.)
Detroit, Nov. 14.—George A. Kelly, corporation counsel, acting for the city election commission, questioned the authority of Judge Dewitt H. Merriam to pass on the legality of the disputed ballots cast for mayor in the election November 4, in answer today to the petition of Charles Bowles, sticker candidate in the mayoralty election, for a writ of mandamus to compel the counting of ballots asserted to be obviously intended for him, but made out incorrectly.

In his petition for the writ, Bowles asked that ballots on which his surname was misspelled or on which middle initials were written or on which the "X" was not marked in the proper place, be counted in the recount now in progress. The answer was filed at the opening of a hearing in circuit court of an order to the election commission to show cause why the disputed ballots should not be counted.

Attorneys for Bowles rejected a suggestion by Judge Merriam that he adjourn the hearing for 24 hours until it could be more definitely determined whether Bowles would be elected if all disputed ballots were counted for him.

Little of Interest Develops at Trial
(By The Associated Press.)
Chicago, Nov. 14.—Reports that prohibition agents and United States attorneys are interested in any disclosures by James Murray, Chicago politician, that he was engaged in beer running expeditions instead of plotting train robberies, were all that enlivened a day of humdrum testimony today in the trial of Murray, William Fahy, former postal inspector, and Walter McComb for participation in the $2,000,000 mail robbery at Rondout, Ill., last June. Six others have confessed.

When the jurors were questioned, defense attorneys asked them if they would be prejudiced if they found one of the defendants had been engaged in beer running activities.

Government witnesses spent the entire day in tracing the snipments of money and bonds taken in the robbery.

Hillsdale Takes Titular Contest From Olivet, 21-7
(By The Associated Press.)
Charlotte, Mich., Nov. 14.—Hillsdale won the championship of the Michigan Intercollegiate Association here this afternoon, defeating Olivet College 21 to 7 after the Congregationalists held the Baptists scoreless in the first half.

Changing tactics in the final half, Hillsdale carried the ball 50 yards down the field with passes where Dorsch plunged over the line for the first score. Olivet's lone score came in the last quarter when Null intercepted a pass and ran 35 yards to plant the oval behind the posts.

After long passes had advanced the ball to the Olivet goal, Reynolds pushed across the two final touchdowns which gave the Baptists the crown won by Alma College last year.

100th Anniversary Will Be Observed
(By The Associated Press.)
Detroit, Nov. 14.—Episcopalians of the entire Detroit diocese, numbering 21,000 communicants, will unite with St. Paul's Cathedral in the eight-day celebration, commencing Sunday of the 100th anniversary of St. Paul's, the starting point of Episcopal church work in the old northwest territory.

Although the anniversary is that of St. Paul's church and cathedral, it is of almost equal significance to the entire diocese, for St. Paul's throughout its entire history has been a "mother church" and the organization of the diocese itself resulted from the initiative and enterprise of St. Paul's. One of the 30 Episcopal parishes and missions in Detroit and vicinity, almost are direct off-shoots of the pioneering organization formed when Detroit was little more than a village a century ago.

Wound Proves Too Much for Deputy
(By The Associated Press.)
Mexico City, Nov. 4.—Lecpoldo Guerrero, aged member of the Mexican chamber of deputies from Zacatecas, who was wounded in a shooting affray which followed a stormy debate in the chamber last Wednesday night, died today.

Deputy Luis Morales, prominent Mexican labor leader, who was also shot, is improving rapidly and there was said to be little doubt that he would recover.

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Nov. 14.—Reports of sweeping changes in the cabinet were characterized today at the White House as rumors and without foundation.

It was announced there earlier in the week that only Secretary Davis of the department of labor had indicated to the president he wished to retire after next March 4.

On each other's toes he was following slowly past the casket while the police battled the crowds of curious outside. The casket was lifted from its bed and carried to a motor car by eight associates of the deceased, including Louis Alton, his lieutenant on whose shoulders his mantle of power is reported to have descended.

The 30 Trucks Needed.
Thirty trucks were packed with the floral offerings. The procession included a gigantic heart of 500 pink roses from O'Bannon's and a seven foot pillar of lilies and roses bearing a "To our Pal—from the scores of elaborate flowers were sent anonymously during Chicago's business trip to the funeral cortege, traveling 30 miles an hour, headed by Mount Carmel cemetery. The procession included scores of limousines in which rode O'Bannon's enemies as well as his, and they were followed by trucks bearing the floral offerings. At the grave a short prayer was said by a priest and the body was lowered into the earth under a blanket of roses.

Pictures Wrecked.
The casket disappeared when O'Bannon's pals of days, with hardening faces to more accustomed affairs, two of them, spring two super photographers on a ladder snapping pictures of the climbed the scaffold and photographers scurried safety, smashed the plates confiscated the cameras.

Meanwhile, the police were trying to fathom the mystery surrounding the slaying. Michael Russo, head of the street gang's union and said to have been friendly with O'Bannon, was to the funeral and then hurried to the police who had been hunting the city over for him. He was released after questioning with Chief of Police A. Collins today and the chief to nip in the plans of the gunmen reprisals by arresting and putting in jail anyone found trying a weapon.

Mrs. Harding Near Crisis, Is Report from Dr. Sawyer
(By The Associated Press.)
Marion, O., Nov. 15.—Mrs. Florence Kling Harding, seriously ill at White Oaks Farm here, is "approaching a crisis" a bulletin issued at 1:45 a. m. stated, "we are anxiously awaiting the coming of morning." Dr. Carl W. Sawyer, her physician, said.

Revising a little from a depressing condition earlier in the evening, the late president's widow rested but little during the night. Her physician expressed "grave" concern, but said she might rally with the coming of morning.

Marion, O., Nov. 14.—The condition of Mrs. Florence Kling Harding was reported tonight as worse in a bulletin issued by her physician, Dr. Carl W. Sawyer. Dr. Sawyer said that Mrs. Harding suffered two slight "air hunger spells" today similar to one last night when she breathed only with extreme difficulty. The bulletin said:

"Mrs. Harding had a very miserable day and is miserable tonight. She has failed considerably during the last 24 hours."

A later statement tonight by Dr. Sawyer said:

"Mrs. Harding's condition shows no change tonight. The exhaustion is extreme. She has had a few light attacks similar to the one she suffered last night. She is rapidly approaching the critical stage."

President Plans To Speak Twice
(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Nov. 14.—Under a revised plan President Coolidge expects to deliver two addresses during his visit to Chicago in December to attend the international livestock exposition.

He plans to attend a luncheon at the Commercial Club at noon on December 4, and deliver an informal address and in the evening he plans to speak at the livestock show.

The presidential party will leave Washington on the afternoon of December 3, expecting to remain in Chicago one day. No speeches will be made by the president, either going or coming from Chicago, it was said today at the White House.

Funding of Pole Debt To America Finally Settled
(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Nov. 14.—The American government today entered into an agreement with Poland for funding that nation's debt to the United States. The agreement, the fifth among the powers to whom funds have been loaned, is similar to the funding settlements which have preceded it, and calls for full liquidation of the obligation of $179,565,025 in 62 years.

With the signatures of Secretary Mellon and President Coolidge, and that of Minister Wroblewski, of Poland, the agreement together with one with Lithuania signed some weeks ago, is ready for submission to congress.

The Polish indebtedness represents obligations received by the United States in connection with the sale of surplus war supplies, relief supplies furnished by the American Relief Administration, the sale of flour by the United States Grain Corporation, and services rendered by the United States shipping board.

City Council of Detroit Voices Its Disapproval
(By The Associated Press.)
Detroit, Nov. 14.—Perhaps the strongest protest yet made against the diversion of water from the Great Lakes to the Chicago drainage canal was that made by the Detroit city council today at the suggestion of the Detroit Board of Commerce. It is in the form of a resolution, the preamble to which gives the history of the controversy and protests against the continuance of the nuisance. It comes opportunistly as the United States supreme court will hear arguments on the case Monday.

Dry Forces Raid Alleged Rummers in Houghton Co.
(By The Associated Press.)
Houghton, Mich., Nov. 14.—Thirty arrests of proprietors of alleged blind pigs had been made up to tonight in what Leo J. Grove, upper peninsula prohibition enforcement chief, admits is to be a wholesale cleanup of the Copper Country. Grove has 25 warrants yet to serve here, the total of 55 being the largest number ever issued at one time in the upper peninsula.

The arrests are the result of a months' visit of two Milwaukee detectives who posed as prospective purchasers of saloons in the district.

The raids have been in progress now for three days but a number of the men wanted have gone "deer hunting" and have not yet been located.

Navy To Disregard Appeal of Shearer
(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Nov. 14.—Plans for using the hull of the former battleship Washington as a target will be carried out, Secretary Wilbur said today, regardless of the appeal filed by counsel for William B. Shearer, of New York, from the decision of Justice Hitz, in the supreme court of the District of Columbia, upholding the departmental authority for thus disposing of the vessel. Notation of an appeal did not act as a stay in the case, the secretary said.

Navy tugs are enroute to Philadelphia to tow the Washington to the experiment site near the Chesapeake Capes.

They returned back at the pier, the Jersey City fire of explaining that the call was unauthorized and the office permitted many of the men driven from the fire to return to their homes. Potter's Resignation as Utilities Body Head Expected.

(By The Associated Press.)
Lansing, Mich., Nov. 14.—Rumors that there will be vacancies in two or three state posts within the next few weeks or months were persistent in official circles here today. It was reported that W. W. Potter, chairman of the public utilities commission, may resign and that others in his department may also leave. Potter was a candidate against Governor Groesbeck for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. He was highly displeased when the governor decided to run for a third term, after he (Potter) had announced his candidacy. Formerly he was rated as a close friend of the administration but now it would not be surprising to see him cut away from the administration group.

Davis May Quit.
James Davis, federal prohibition director with headquarters in Detroit, is another said to be contemplating resigning. It is rumored that about the first of the year Davis may go into other work. He was formerly connected with the state tax commission and there have been reports that he would not object to returning.

Linked with the talk of resignations was gossip of contests for the posts to be filled in the next spring election. Thomas E. Johnson, superintendent of public instruction, and Frank Rogers, highway commissioner, will be candidates. Johnson is not generally considered as close to the administration group and there is conjecture as to whether another candidate may not be put in the field by the Groesbeck forces. Rogers, because of his firm stand in favor of a gasoline tax, may be opposed by a Wayne candidate, it was said. The terms of two members of the state board of agriculture, Mrs. Dora H. Stockman and L. Whitney Watkins, expire. The upper peninsula has no representation on the board and it is talked that that section of the state may put forward a candidate in the spring convention.

NEXT WEEK TO BE SET ASIDE FOR EDUCATION

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Nov. 14.—President Coolidge described education as "America's noblest contribution to civilization" in a proclamation issued today designating November 17 to 23 as American Education Week.

A broad and liberal culture is necessary to enable men to think and to know how to live, the president declared in his proclamation, adding:

"An educated fool is a sorry spectacle, but he is not nearly so dangerous to society as a rich fool. We want neither in this country. We want the educated to know how to work and the rich to know how to think."

Calling attention to large numbers of children who failed to receive educational advantages, "either through negligence or because of insufficient circumstances which might be controlled with sufficient effort," the president asserted this condition "demands the solicitude of all patriotic citizens."

All Are Involved.
"It involves," he said, "not only the persons immediately concerned and the communities in which they live, but the nation itself, for the welfare of the country depends upon the character and the intelligence of those who cast the ballots."

The proclamation recommends that governors of states issue proclamations emphasizing the services rendered by educational institutions, and urges educators and all others connected with the teaching profession to take part in observance of the week. It suggests that patriotic, civic, religious, social and other organizations also contribute to its success by conducting meetings and demonstrations.

"Education has come to be nearer to the hearts of the American people than any other single public interest," the proclamation says in recommending continuance of vigorous campaigns in the interest of education. These campaigns have concentrated attention upon the needs of education, it is pointed out, and the "cumulative impetus of mass action has been peculiarly beneficial."

Gas Tax Supported By Convention of Utility Commission

(By The Associated Press.)
Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 14.—Concluding four days, crowded with consideration of problems affecting every phase of utility regulations, state public service commissions of the nation brought their deliberations to a close late today, when the 36th annual convention of the National Association of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners was declared adjourned. The next convention will be held in Washington, D. C., from November 10 to 13, 1925.

Telephones, electric plants, motor vehicles, express companies, and the Boy Scout movement were but a few of the subjects given careful attention by the convention in its closing session.

"The gasoline tax is the only tax yet devised that is fair and equitable to all users of the highways," the committee on motor vehicles transportation reported to the convention. "In any fee system involving vehicles using the highways, the gasoline tax should be a part of the system," the report declared. "It is easily and cheaply administered and is paid without burden or complaint from the public."

In the state of Washington, the report said, the amount contributed by stages in license money and gasoline tax, will average about sixty per cent more per mile of travel than that contributed by private cars. The report was presented to the convention by Director E. V. Kuykendall of Washington.

The convention amended its constitution to provide for a permanent committee on public relations of regulatory bodies. The action accompanied an amendment which created as a permanent standing committee of the association, the committee appointed earlier in the week to co-operate with the interstate commerce commission.

Albion, Mich., Nov. 14.—Charles Ballard, of Chicago, was injured near here this afternoon when an automobile in which he was riding with four other men skidded in loose gravel and overturned. At the hospital here it was said that Ballard had four fractured ribs and was suffering from shock. Other occupants of the car were not injured.

NEW SERVICE TO COMMENCE NEXT SPRING

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Nov. 14.—The government has blazed the trail for an 8 to 9 hour overnight air mail service between New York and Chicago, both ways, it was disclosed today by Carl F. Egge, general superintendent of the postoffice department's air mail division.

Routes have been mapped, terminals, way stations and emergency fields are being acquired; machines and personnel have been assigned, and all the powerful lighting equipment for night flying is being set up.

Colonel Paul Henderson, second assistant postmaster general, has ordered the new service installed for early next spring, probably in April. This, said Mr. Egge, will give the government "a double track" air mail system between here and Chicago and will make a total of 1,905 miles over which night flying will be continuous.

Thus night flying would be in progress over the entire transcontinental route and there would be two deliveries of air mail daily, instead of the present one, at all points along the route. The air mail service would be "double track" throughout as soon as the demand of patrons westward from Chicago promised to make it feasible.

Night mail will leave the New York terminal at 10 p. m., reaching Chicago nine hours later (6 a. m.) for distribution with the first regular delivery. Night mail will leave the Chicago terminal at 9 p. m., reaching New York 8 hours later (8 a. m.) also for the day's first delivery. Due to prevailing winds, the westward flight will be an hour longer.

Mr. Egge pointed out that the best mail train time between the two cities is now 20 hours, and virtually two days are lost in the transaction of business by train mail, but with the air mail, he said, a ten hour service from postoffice to postoffice would be maintained. Letters mailed at the close of business in a terminal city or any intervening air mail station would be at destination

MAN MISSING SINCE JULY 9

Sheriff Asked to Aid in Search for William E. Gosnell of Escanaba.

Aid of the Delta county sheriff's department, in a search for William E. Gosnell, 53, who was last seen by members of his family on July 9, last, was requested yesterday by Mrs. Gosnell.

The case was not reported to the authorities earlier, it was explained, because Mrs. Gosnell had expected him to return.

Gosnell was employed, until July 9, at the Bird's Eye Veneer Company's plant. He quit his job on that day and went home, leaving a short time later, supposedly to go down town. He did not return.

There had been no trouble at home, and no reason could be assigned for his disappearance, it was stated.

Mr. Gosnell is described as 53 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches in height, weight 150 pounds. He had brown eyes, a moustache, and a large tumor on the right side of his neck.

The sheriff's department will make every effort to trace the missing man, it was emphasized.

He has a large family, living at 630 South 16th street.

Pair Stabbed; One Held by Officers

(By The Associated Press.)
Los Angeles, Nov. 14.—Two persons, and not one, were implicated in the slaying here Monday of Harry Katz, a diamond broker, antiquarian and musician, according to the testimony at the inquest here today of Mrs. R. B. Dexter, niece of Katz' apartment house manager. The inquest verdict was death from a gunshot wound inflicted by unidentified persons with murderous intent.

Mrs. Dexter positively declared that she heard the footsteps of two men coming down the stairs after she heard the shot fired that ended Katz' life. She said that she went to the door of her aunt's apartment on the floor below that on which the Katz apartment is located and saw the street door closing behind the feet of the pair in flight.

Immediately after, Mrs. Dexter testified, Katz staggered down the stairs into her aunt's apartment, where he died a few moments later.

COLD WEATHER HELPS HUNTERS

Many, However, Still Hope for More Snow Next Week.

Colder weather, although it did not bring with it as much snow as many hunters desire, has improved woods conditions for deer slayers, and the annual venison kill in this part of the peninsula will be large.

The first week of the season saw many large, antlered specimens unloaded here, and many have gone through in automobiles and by train baggage to points outside the peninsula.

Hunters who have returned with the licenses filed report they had little difficulty in finding the one buck allowed by law, and contend the kill would be far and away ahead of last year.

Buck Law "Sold."

Their experience this year also has served to convince many of the men, more thoroughly than ever, that the Michigan one-buck law is a huge success.

Although several accidents have been reported in various parts of the peninsula, the yearly human casualty list is still below its usual size for the first week, veteran observers declared.

TARKINGTON PLAY HERE ON TUESDAY

"Mister Antonio," Booth Tarkington's well known and well liked play, will be presented to Gladstone in a reading, Tuesday evening, when Professor Lionel Crocker of the University of Michigan appears here.

The reading will be given by Professor Crocker in the assembly room of the Senior high school building and will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. Because it is a part of the university extension course no admission fee will be charged for a number for which a high price would otherwise be charged.

The reading will be for everyone who wishes to attend and an invitation has been issued through the school authorities to the general public.

"Mister Antonio" is ranked among the most popular of Booth Tarkington's writings and its fund of humor and pathos with its fine character delineation have won it a following composed of everyone who has ever read or seen it.

Should Attract Many. It was given in Gladstone a few years ago as a reading, but many people did not hear it at that time, and Tuesday night should see a capacity audience of those who have seen the play and of those who are meeting "Mister Antonio" for the first time.

DAINTY COLLARS. Flesh-colored organdie or voile makes very dainty collars and cuffs for dark colored frocks of bengaline or serge.

Gloves are seldom worn in the evening except for such formal occasions as the opera or theater, when white suede or glace kid is appropriate.

TAME BEARS DON'T COUNT, SAY FRIENDS

Will Marble is one of Gladstone's most prominent sportsmen, no dispute there, but it is reasonable to believe that everyone is not acquainted with his skill as a hunter of bears—tame bears.

Mr. Marble, the story goes, returned from a business trip of six or eight weeks' duration and immediately left for camp on a deer hunting trip. It was then that Mr. Marble met a cub.

It was then that the cub met an untimely finish. Which was well and good until two trappers identified the remains as all that was earthly of their tame and gentle camp pet.

Now Mr. Marble's friends are insisting that regardless of his part performance no mighty hunter is going to receive credit for shooting a tame bear.

BALL ADDS FUNDS TO TREASURY

A good sized sum was placed in the Legion treasury as the result of the Armistice Day ball, it was announced yesterday by the post officials, who at the same time asked that the public be thanked for its patronage of the dance.

The fund in the treasury will be used for welfare work for ex-servicemen and their families, a work the Legion has been carrying out as far as its means has permitted.

The Military Ball was well arranged and well conducted and proved a most enjoyable event on the Legion Armistice Day program.

FUNERAL WILL BE HELD AT WHITEFISH

Funeral services for Wallace Lagerquist, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neils Lagerquist of Whitefish, who dropped dead while deer hunting Wednesday, will be held Sunday at the Whitefish church.

The services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the Rev. C. E. Olson, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran Church, of this city, officiating.

Burial will be made in the Rapid River cemetery.

CON FEENEY ON WINNING FROSH TEAM

The fact that Claude Murdock was not in his usual position in the Kalamazoo Normal lineup November 7, prevented the meeting of Murdock and John "Con" Feeney, stars on the Gladstone high school team, on opposing eleven in the battle between the Western Normal and the Notre Dame freshmen team, played at Kalamazoo on that day.

The Notre Dame eleven on which Feeney is playing right half, downed the Kalamazoo team for the first time this year, the frosh taking the game, 15 to 7.

A press account of the game says: "In the first two quarters the freshmen outplayed their heavier opponents, but in the third period Coach Martineau's men came back strong and carried the ball for a long march down the field for their only touchdown.

"With five minutes to go and the score 7 to 3 in favor of the Normal school, Tommy Byrne, Notre Dame end, received a fumble and ran 80 yards for a score. Feeney missed goal and the count stood 9 to 7.

"Western State Normal received and from then on cut loose with an ineffectual barrage of passes. With 30 seconds to play, Byrne duplicated his first touchdown, grabbing a fumble caused by a hard tackle behind the normal scrimmage line. He ran 40 yards for a second touchdown. Feeney failed to kick goal.

"Boeringer, Notre Dame captain, was a stalwart on defense and played a good all around game. Quinn, Feeney and Collins played well in the backfield."

Will ask, of bringing humor into the training of youngsters? "Tell the truth," he answers readily. "The truth's nothing funnier than the truth. That's why so many people go round the corner to invent something.

"Let us take a very ordinary family situation. One of the parents has been talking with the child. The child spouts out a very bragging and sage series of comments. Of course, you have to call his bluff. That is always essential. But how? The truth, of course!

"So you look at the child rather quizzically and say: 'You know more about it than anybody in the world, don't you?'"

"Now the child really believed that he knew more about it than anyone else, so you have told him what he considered the truth. But it's a humorous comment. He really has known little about the thing he talked of. And when you call him, the child immediately knows that he hasn't known much about it."

"The bit of biting humor, or sarcasm, has taught the child a lesson in boasting."

"When he thinks it over later, the thing will strike the child funny. A good humored tongue-lash is worth a dozen old-fashioned slippers."

"I have handled all the family situations in that manner. Visitors have come to our house and been non-plussed by the manner in which we talk to each other. But it's a healthy thing. One of the finest ways to get into family hot water is to make your wife the butt of your jokes if she hasn't been trained for it."

"Most people are too sensitive and thus are hard hit by life. If they have been the butt of family repartee and have learned how to come back, they are in a far better position to face the realities of life. The necessary give-and-take is implanted."

"I think schools should have a course in humor for all children and some day it will be so."

"For general application about the house I should say that it is best to start with the wife before the children are born and then start on the children as soon as they can talk. Just tell them the truth, either as they see it or as you see it, and you will generally find the result funny."

Masson, who has trailed the elusive joke back to its early historic lair, says that there are but 29 joke situations and all jokes from the beginning of time have been variations on these themes.

"Love is the most popular joke subject," he has found. "This covers the happy though married variety, the troubles of the young sutor, the difficulties of newlyweds, the lovesick maid or man, and that whole category. These have widest appeal, largely because of the kick that most people get out of seeing others in uncomfortable positions. Most everybody has been in some ridiculous love situation and jokes based on these belong to the misery-loves-company variety."

"How to tell a story? There is no short cut, says Masson. "The best short story tellers are those who build up their backgrounds," he added. "And such a method takes a great deal of imagination. The joke itself is always funnier and better, if the teller has colored his background and characters."

TRUTH FUNNIER THAN FICTION

Feed Jokes to Kids in Big Doses Says Tom Masson.

BY GENE COHN, NEA Service Writer. Glen Ridge, N. J.—"In teaching your children the alphabet of life, don't forget that it stands for Humor!"

That has been the "success text" of Thomas L. Masson, one of America's outstanding authorities on fun, in bringing up his family of four. Today, with each of the joke-fed offspring a successful proof of the theory, Masson declares that all parents should have their daily humor along with their daily bread.

Masson was a bit better equipped to experiment than are most men. He knows 50,000 jokes. He was for years editor of "Life," and author of a number of books, the latest of which is "Tom Masson's Annual."

Out of all his experiences in the world of laughs he says the greatest fun of all is bringing up children. His own family grown, he now practices on his grandchildren.

But what is his method, you will ask, of bringing humor into the training of youngsters? "Tell the truth," he answers readily. "The truth's nothing funnier than the truth. That's why so many people go round the corner to invent something."

"Let us take a very ordinary family situation. One of the parents has been talking with the child. The child spouts out a very bragging and sage series of comments. Of course, you have to call his bluff. That is always essential. But how? The truth, of course!

Mrs. Jiggins, who was reading a newspaper, observed to her husband that the paper contained an article entitled "Women work for the feeble-minded."

Now, Mr. Jiggins was in a reactionary mood. So he grunted and said: "I should like to know what women have ever done for the feeble-minded."

"They usually marry them, my dear," replied Mrs. Jiggins sweetly. —Philadelphia Public Ledger.

FAKERS CAPITALIZE BIG NAMES

BY GEORGE BRITT
NEA Service Writer
Names and titles sound like a million dollars and promotion purposes can be bought quite cheaply. One of the most alluring of names in the United States was put for $50 a month, and in one month only one promoter could get only four pounds a week, but often the promoters take the names they need without paying anything.

"Big names are the promoter's prime bait for suckers," says Edward A. Schwab, head of fraud investigations for the National Vigilance Committee of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, who quotes the prices listed.
"A wise investor will be thrown off guard immediately when he sees an endorsement directly or indirectly from a prominent person. Legitimate business uses such endorsement sometimes, of course, but it is a favorite trick of the swindler. The public is tremendously impressed by big names.

"Our bureau estimated that $600,000,000 was lost in America last year through frauds. The post-office inspectors put it at $1,000,000,000. Half of that was attracted by the promoters using impressive names and titles to inspire confidence.
"Contrary to their knowledge, the names and pictures of Thomas A. Edison and Henry Ford were used by promoters of fake land selling schemes around Muscle Shoals. I just ran across an advertisement of a Texas oil promoter which says, 'Big men like John J. McGraw of the New York Giants, and Mayor Hyman of New York, invest their money on the judgment of ———'.

"Our best name cases, of course, was that of old 'General' Robert A. Lee in the Texas oil game. The promoters found him working as a janitor. They convinced him he was a relative of the Confederate hero and brought him in. In the end they swindled him out of the very money they paid for his name.
"I found a close parallel to this in England last summer. A promoter who had made things too hot for himself in the United States was putting over a Texas oil scheme, using the name of a peer as chairman of his board of directors. He sent out fac-simile letters from his lordship on crested stationery, recommending the investment. The lord, as a matter of fact, was bankrupt in both reputation and finances and was receiving four pounds a week for the use of his name.

Postoffice inspectors are increasingly active, according to Schwab. One of their best weapons is the "fraud order." When a scheme is found to be fraudulent, the department withdraws from the promoter the use of the mails. By that means, thousands of dollars from victimized investors are returned to the senders.

STEFANSSON HERE NOV. 20

Famous Explorer's Lecture Will Be Star Number of C. L. B. Course.

Valbjalmur Stefansson, famous Arctic explorer, scientist and lecturer, who recently returned from Australia where he toured the "Never-Never Lands," will appear in Escanaba Thursday, Nov. 20. Mr. Stefansson's lecture will be the second number of the annual lecture course of the Community Educational bureau, and is expected to be the "star" attraction of the course.

Remarkable Career.
Stefansson has had a truly wonderful career. When he started his third polar expedition in 1913 the world stood aghast, for he departed bearing a theory and purpose so radical as to be pronounced insane by many of the best grounded experts.

He was going into the wilderness of the Northland to live off the country. He was going to find food in places where the land had been announced by the Encyclopedia Britannica to be "without animal life." Even some of the members of his party were extremely skeptical over his contention that one could live almost anywhere in the Arctic if one were content to live, not as Americans, but as Eskimos. He found a mutiny on his hands; dissension and resistance—but through it all he held to his purpose and in the end he won out. Stefansson proved this theory and remained in the Arctic for five years.

Reared in Dakota.
Born of Icelandic parents in Manitoba, Canada, Stefansson came to the United States as a child and was brought up on the prairies of North Dakota. In 1903 he received from the University of Iowa the degree of A. B., after which he went to Cambridge for post-graduate work at Harvard University. There he held a scholarship for one year and a fellowship for two years, and during the last of these years he was a member of the teaching staff of the Department of Anthropology at Harvard.

In 1906 he turned from teaching to exploring, and joined the Lemming-Mikkelsen expedition to the Arctic ocean, where they spent one winter. Again, in 1918, Stefansson went north to study the Eskimos, this time heading his own expedition.

International Figure.
Since his return in 1918 the geographical societies of the world have recognized his contributions to science by conferring on him their highest honors. He has been elected an Honorary Fellow of the American Museum of Natural History of New York and of the Italian Geographical Society.

The summer of 1924 finds him under way off in interior Australia, exploring parts of the famous "Never-Never" land, as the interior "bush" country is called. He will tell something of this latest trip in his lectures this winter.
Stefansson is a brilliant and successful writer and is the author of five books and many magazine articles. His lectures are not only instructive but entertaining. A reporter on the New Orleans Picayune wrote into his account of Stefansson's appearance there that he had laughed as wholeheartedly—and quite as unexpectedly—as he had at a lecture given by Irvin Cobb.

No Set Lecture.
The explorer has no set lecture, but varies each address according to his audience. His available subjects are: "The Friendly Arctic," "The Northward Course of Empire," "Hunters of the New North," "The Blond Eskimos," "Ice-land." He uses stereopticon views with some of his lectures.

MODEL TOWN

Out of 40 years of seclusion comes Mrs. Elizabeth Ollafer, 85, known about Irving, N. J., as a recluse, with the announcement that the 100-acre estate upon which she has lived in a little cabin will be built into a "model town" as an object lesson to the surrounding cities.

IN NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 14.—Gil Boag is broken-hearted. Broadway ain't what she used to be. Gil's first big strike at wealth and fame was in the Palais Royal. The other day Gil came back from Europe with his wife, who happens to be Gilda Gray, the shimmy queen.
"Oh, I want you to ride past the Palais Royal with me," said a friend who met them at the pier. "You can get a fine mess of chop suey there now for 55 cents."
"Nothing doing! I couldn't stand it," Gil answered. "And he hasn't passed Broadway and 48th street since."

An old-time New Yorker dropper in from California the other day. "Why don't you write something about Broadway's old age?" he asked. "There's nothing doing on the street now. Nobody has a good time. The place is covered with a lot of cheap lights and advertising. The hotel dining rooms are dead. All the gaiety in the cabarets is forced, artificial. Everybody is out for money and nobody's out for fun. The old stem isn't any more attractive than the midway at a county fair."

The man from California is right. In the old days men came out of Death Valley and out of Pittsburgh with bursting dust bags and bill folds and turned Broadway into a stream of flowing yellowbacks. Occasionally young ladies slipped their knock-out drops and took their rolls away from them. There was color in that.
It has been years since a real spender has hit town. Knock-out drops have gone out of style. The girls employ legal counsel to make pussyfooting sports write a check for them.
