

BREWER OKENS BOARD'S ACTS

(By The Associated Press.) Lansing, Mich., Mar. 6.—In defense of the action of the administrative board in appropriating emergency sums totalling approximately $1,600,500 since the last meeting of the legislature, which was questioned yesterday by Senator Harry F. Whitley, of Dowagiac, Senator Burney E. Brower, of Jackson, administration floor leader, today presented the senate with figures indicating to justify the board's actions. Senator Whitley had presented a report of appropriations made by the board, with the statement that he questioned the authority of the board to make such appropriations without the consent of the legislature.

President Coolidge and other high government officials attended memorial services for the late President Ebert of Germany. Another favorable report on the nomination of Charles E. Warren at attorney general was ordered by the senate judiciary committee. It was announced that President Coolidge would not fill any federal judgeship vacancies until Charles B. Warren is confirmed as attorney general.

4 CALLED IN DEATH PROBE

(By The Associated Press.) Chicago, Mar. 6.—Four witnesses who have testified in the McClintock inquest were summoned to the office of the Assistant State's Attorney John X. Sharbaro late today to answer questions. Mr. Sharbaro did not explain the reason for calling the witnesses but he stated that no grand jury action was contemplated at this time. The witnesses include Dr. George Fosberg, who testified at the inquest that William D. Shepherd, foster-father and chief heir of William Nelson McClintock, had consulted him regarding typhoid germs and the effects of certain poisons. Another witness was John P. Marchand, former salesman for the National University of Science, who had identified Shepherd as a man who, under an assumed name, inquired about a course in bacteriology at the school. Dr. C. C. Faiman, head of the school, told Mr. Sharbaro today he knew nothing about Shepherd. Dr. Faiman remarked at the memory of Marchand, who, he said, was asked to resign because of unreliability.

BANKERS PLAN FOREIGN LOAN

(By The Associated Press.) New York, Mar. 6.—While no formal discussions or negotiations regarding the establishment of an American credit to aid Great Britain in the restoration of the gold standard have been opened, international bankers indicated today that Great Britain would encounter little difficulty in arranging a loan of anywhere from $100,000,000 to $500,000,000 for that purpose. If such a credit is made available it probably will be a private banking operation, involving the "earmarking" of gold which could be drawn if needed. The advantage of the arrangement, bankers explained, would be to provide insurance for Great Britain against any unexpected adverse turn in trade conditions which might react against British credit if experienced while the work of building up England's currency position was in progress. No information has been received by bankers here regarding a reported second visit of Montague Norman, governor of the Bank of England to the United States to discuss financial problems.

Conservation Dept. Desires Opinion of Attorney General

(By The Associated Press.) Lansing, Mich., Mar. 6.—The department of conservation has asked the attorney general's office to render an opinion on the constitutionality of the law authorizing leases on property in the St. Clair flats, by the department, it became known today. Until the opinion is returned, John Baird, director of conservation, states he will hold up further lease grants on the St. Clair flats. The action of the department of conservation follows long discussion on the part of conservation officials and others as to the legality of the measure. Such grants, it is thought, should be solely in the hands of the state legislature.

Draft Measure to Solve Problem of Cutover Lands Tax

(By The Associated Press.) Saginaw, Mich., Mar. 6.—Drafting of a bill to provide solution of the cutover land problem of Michigan was completed Friday, Edgar Cochran, of the state conservation department, told the Michigan Commercial Secretaries' Association at their state convention here Friday. The bill, providing for a tax of five cents per acre on cutover lands, would enable present owners to hold these properties and develop them for reforestation purposes, said Mr. Cochran. He said tax delinquent lands are reverting to the state at an alarming rate. That 7,500,000 acres have been tax delinquent for two years and that 20 counties are facing bankruptcy as the result of present high taxes on cutover lands. The new bill, he said, will remedy this situation.

Aerial defense probe has ended. Its words for 10 weeks placed end to end reached no conclusion. Navy says our aviators are all up in the air. Aviators claim our navy is all at sea. That leaves our defense up a tree. The Democratic party is out of debt, so we look for more predictions of the end of the world soon. They are still arguing over Muscle Shoals. ORDERS REPLY TO WILLS DEF

Athletic Commission Is Forcing Dempsey To Meet Negro.

(By The Associated Press.) New York, Mar. 6.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, must accept or decline a challenge filed by Harry Wills, negro heavyweight, within 24 hours or take his place among the black-listed in this state. This ultimatum was issued by the state athletic commission today after a stormy session in which both the Wills and Gibbons challenges were considered. Wills Given Priority. The heavyweight title holder was officially notified of the two challenges in a telegram sent to him in Los Angeles by the commission late today. The Wills challenge was given priority because it was filed one week before Gibbons sent in his battle bid. Chairman James J. Farley, speaking for the commission, said: "The commission has decreed that the Wills challenge should be given precedence over the Gibbons challenge because it was filed first. We have taken both challenges under careful consideration and find that the only way we can get any action is by taking the matter right to headquarters. Want Jack's Decision. Dempsey must make a decision, one way or the other, on the Wills challenge now. Asked what the commission's attitude would be if Dempsey attempted to sidestep the Wills challenge and accept that of Gibbons, Commissioner Farley said: "We will cross that bridge when we come to it."

(By The Associated Press.) New York, Mar. 6.—The New York state athletic commission today wired Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, at Los Angeles, demanding that he reply within 24 hours to the challenge filed by Harry Wills, negro contender, for a title match here. The commission, taking action to force Dempsey to meet his negro challenger before taking on any other opponents within its jurisdiction, notified the champion that Wills' formal challenge had been filed February 17, last, a week prior to the one filed by Tom Gibbons, St. Paul heavyweight. The action on the heavyweight situation followed an unexpected shift in the organization of the commission by which James A. Farley, of Stony Point, N. Y., replaced George E. Brower, as chairman. Farley was elected by the votes of himself and the remaining commissioner, William Muldoon at a meeting which was not attended by Brower.

(By The Associated Press.) Los Angeles, Mar. 6.—Dictation on the part of the New York state athletic commission as to who Jack Dempsey, heavyweight boxing champion, shall and shall not fight is out of the question. Jack Kearns, the titleholder's manager, declared here late today in answer to a demand by the New York commission that Dempsey reply within 24 hours to the challenge of Harry Wills, the negro contender.

(By The Associated Press.) C.—Preparations were completed by both sides tonight for a sharp struggle at the hearing here late tomorrow before Superior Court Judge Michael Schnecke, of habes corpus proceedings in the case of Gutzon Borglum, whose extradition to Georgia is sought to face charges of larceny and malicious mischief in connection with the alleged destruction of models and working plans of the Stone Mountain Confederate memorial. The law firm of W. P. Bynum of Raleigh, and State Senator Charles U. Harris have been retained by the state of Georgia to assist C. W. Ramspeck, city court solicitor of Decatur, Ga., in seeking the sculptor's removal to that state. E. S. Parker, Jr., of this city, will represent Borglum. of water for sanitation at Chicago does affect navigation on the Great Lakes adversely, and that this diversion of water from Lake Michigan should be reduced to reasonable lengths with utmost dispatch. I appreciate that the desired reduction cannot be made instantaneously." In transmitting Major Putnam's recommendations to Secretary Weeks with his approval, General Taylor said:

"The problem of construction recommended is limited to five years, as it is not possible to predict that advance may be made in the science of sewage disposal during the next five years. It is entirely within the realms of possibility that during that period such advance may be made as to warrant the department's insisting on an even more rapid rate of progress thereafter, should a renewal of this permit be sought. A shorter period for the permit is not believed advisable as it would be difficult to prescribe sufficient progress in the way of construction of sewage treatment plants and require a substantial reduction in the diversion upon the renewal of the permit.

To Reduce Gradually. "It is, of course, highly desirable that the excessive diversion of water from Lake Michigan be reduced to reasonable limits with the utmost dispatch. For humanitarian reasons, it is impracticable to make the desired reduction instantaneously, and it is believed that the procedure proposed by the district engineers is the most reasonable and just to all concerned that can be adopted."

Submitting his recommendations on March 2, 1925, Major Putnam pointed out that "local authorities are faced with the alternative of a reduction in the amount of diversion of 4,167 cubic feet per second by March 5, 1925, or relief by congress or the war department." Secretary Weeks later held that he was not required to take action by March 5, and deferred announcement of his decision until today when the limited relief included in the permit was granted.

LAKE SHIPPING VICTORY.

Cleveland, Mar. 6.—Secretary Weeks' permit limiting the diversion of water at Chicago was characterized as a victory for Great Lakes shipping by Harvey D. Goulder, Cleveland, who led the fight to curb the diversion. "While it failed to go as far as we had hoped, the ruling is a beginning," Goulder said. "It is at least restrictive. At paves the way to a gradual diminution of the diversion to a point necessary for canal navigation; which is less than 1000 cubic feet a second."

Goulder said he was somewhat "mystified by the provision in the ruling requiring the Chicago sanitary district to deposit $1,000,000 as an evidence of good faith in meeting Chicago's share of any compensation works that may be required to hold up the lake levels.

"Who else than Chicago should 'share' in building these works?" he asked. "Without the diversion such work would not be necessary."

69th Congress To Give Farmer Help, Belief of Coolidge

(By The Associated Press.)

Washington, Mar. 6.—Much of the opposition that helped cause the failure in the last congress of legislation recommended by his agricultural conference, will, in the opinion of President Coolidge, be dissipated during the recess by more careful study of the proposals on the part of their critics.

He feels that the opposition came chiefly from persons who deal in farm products or have been engaged in organizing the farmers and fear establishment of a federal co-operative marketing agency would deprive them of opportunity for such service, with practically none from the farmers themselves, and is hopeful that legislation along the lines recommended will be enacted by the sixty-ninth congress. It was made clear today, however, that he has not altered his decision not to call an extra session of the congress at this time for enactment of agricultural legislation or for any other purpose.

Turkey Refuses To Discuss Removal of Grecian Clergy

Geneva, Mar. 6.—Turkey has asked the council of the league of nations not to discuss the deportation from Constantinople of the Most Reverend Constantinos, patriarch of the Greek Orthodox Church, on which Greece has appealed to the league for action under the covenant. The Turkish authorities point out that consideration of the deportation is a matter "endangering friendly relations."

Turkey, who is not a member of the league, was invited to send a delegate to next week's meeting of the council to present the Turkish side of the dispute. Today's telegram from Ankara is Turkey's only acknowledgment of the invitation and it is assumed here Turkey will refuse to discuss the subject.

There is no way of compelling Turkey to participate in the council's inquiry but the council can go ahead without the presence of a Turkish representative. It is explained in league circles that should Turkey resort to war after ignoring the council's invitation she would become a presumptive aggressor and thus be subject to sanctions under the league covenant.

Having worked the ball down to the locals' basket, however, the Escanaba parochials fell down and were unable to send it through the hoop. STOCK PRICES GET IRREGULAR Strong Tone in Early Part of Day Varies At Closing.

New York, Mar. 6.—Stock prices displayed a strong tone in the early part of today's market, but developed irregularity towards the close as a result of the customary week-end profit taking and bear selling inspired by the sharp break in wheat prices. Excellent support was provided, however, for most of the high grade industrial shares, many of which closed 1 to 3½ points higher.

More Buying Orders. There was a large accumulation of overnight buying orders on the retention of the 3½ per cent rediscount rate and the prospect that several large industrial companies will follow the example of the American Locomotive director in making a generous distribution to stockholders during the coming year.

Heavy accumulation of United States Steel common, which crossed 125 and closed just under that figure for a net gain of 1½, was one of the day's features. Studebaker closed fractionally lower at 44½. Further accumulation of the low priced petroleum shares was based on merger reports and expectations of an early advance in mid-continent crude prices.

N. C. & St. L. Ry. Soars. Independent strength was shown by Allis Chalmers, Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit, Detroit Edison, Federal Light and Traction, Maxwell Motor B, Manhattan Electrical Supply, National Lead, Railway Steel Spring and others.

Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis continued to respond to rumors of its acquisition by another road by soaring 7 points to a record top at 155. Wabash common and Baltimore and Ohio both touched new highs for the year but the net gains were of a fractional nature.

Call Money Steady. Call money held steady at 3½ per cent. The time money market was somewhat firmer with lenders not disposed to make any loans below four per cent, even for the shorter maturities. Commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Foreign exchanges displayed a firm tone. Demand sterling held steady around $4.76½ and French francs rallied about 6½ points to 5.16 cents. Most of the other European exchanges showed nominal gains. Japanese yen touched a new high on the movement at 40½.

Menus for a Family
SISTER MARY

BY SISTER MARY.
Whether people observe Lent in the kitchen or not, for the sake of their health they should use less meat as the spring days come.

In my series of Lenten Recipes, I shall give numerous dishes that will be appetizing and satisfactory substitutes for meat. The cost of many of these dishes will be considerably less than a meat course, also.

Baked Herring.
Allow one medium sized fish for two persons. Have fish cleaned and boned. Wash carefully in very cold water and dry between towels. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and few drops of lemon juice. Roll in fine corn meal. Put into a well-greased shallow pan or on a baking sheet, skin side down. Brown skin side and then turn and brown flesh side. Bake 20 or 25 minutes in a hot oven. Serve garnished with slices of lemon.

Baking the fish in the oven prevents the odor of the cooking fish from penetrating through the house.

Broiled Halibut Steak.
Have fish cut in inch slices, one and one-half pounds halibut steak will serve four persons. Wash steaks and wipe as dry as possible. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and place in a well greased broiler. Turn often while broiling. When fish is tender and a delicate brown remove from broiler to hot platter spread with softened butter and sprinkle with finely minced parsley and a dash of paprika.

To remove fish from broiler loosen on one side, turn and loosen from other side. A double-broiled broiler is imperative for the broiling of most kinds of fish.

Whole fish are turned but once during broiling, the skin side being browned first and then the flesh side.

Baked and Stuffed Fish.
Any fish weighing from two to four or five pounds can be stuffed and baked. Blue fish, small cod, haddock, lake trout, whitefish and mackerel are delicious baked and make a substantial "piece de resistance" for dinner.

Oyster stuffing is particularly "taste-y" with cod and halibut and a bread or cracker stuffing is always good with any fish. Mushrooms add much to the dish if a company dinner is wanted.

Plain Stuffing.
One cup bread crumbs, 1 cup cracker crumbs, 6 tablespoons melted butter, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 teaspoon onion juice, 4 tablespoons hot water, 2 teaspoons minced parsley.

Mix ingredients in order given. Omit onion juice and add 41 tablespoon lemon juice and 1 cup oysters to above rule to make oyster stuffing. All cracker crumbs can be used if preferred.

Mushroom Stuffing.
Two cups bread crumbs, 4 tablespoons melted butter, 6 tablespoons chopped mushrooms, 1 tablespoon capers, 1 teaspoon tabasco sauce.

Squeeze bread crumbs out of hot water. Add melted butter, mushrooms, capers and tabasco sauce and mix well.

Remove scales, fins, head and tail from a fresh codfish weighing about four pounds. Open, clean and wipe with a piece of cheesecloth wrung out of cold water. Sprinkle inside with pepper.

MARKET BASKET

Fill with stuffing and tie securely. Place on fish sheet in dripping pan and bake 45 minutes in a hot oven. Baste with 2 tablespoons butter melted in 1/2 cup boiling water.

When cod, halibut, haddock or mackerel are stuffed with a plain stuffing, gashes should be cut on each side of fat salt pork inserted. The fish then is not basted with the butter and water, but with the fat in the pan.

Fish Chowder.
Three pounds cod or haddock, 4 good-sized potatoes, 1 onion, 3 slices fat salt pork, 3 cups scalded milk, 1 tablespoon butter, salt and pepper, 6 common soda crackers.

Have fish skinned and cleaned, but head and tail left on. Remove head, tail and backbone. Put into a stew pan, cover with cold water and bring slowly to the boiling point. Simmer 20 minutes. Cut fish two-inch pieces. Cut pork into small pieces and try out fat. Add onion cut into thin slices and cook five minutes. Strain fat into kettle. Pare potatoes and cut into half-inch slices. Parboil for five minutes. Drain and add to fat in kettle. Add 2 cups boiling water, broth strained from fish bones and fish tender. Add milk, salt, pepper and butter and bring to the boiling point. Split crackers and soak in enough cold milk to moisten. Add to chowder and serve.

A fish chowder served with a substantial salad and dessert makes a nourishing and satisfying dinner for the first warm days of spring.

For luncheon nothing is more delicious than a fish salad of some sort. Lobster, crab meat and shrimp combine with celery perfectly for a "special" salad, while tuna fish and salmon and some of the smoked fishes furnish delicious, inexpensive salads.

Breakfast—Shredded fresh pineapple, baked hash, graham and raisin gems, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Creamed mushrooms on toast, fruit salad, filled cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Casserole of halibut, parsnip fritters, head lettuce with French vegetable dressing, coconut and orange puff pudding, rye rolls, milk, coffee.

The juice from the pineapple, sweetened slightly, can be given to a child of four years. If graham toast can be conveniently served to children under 10 years of age in place of the hot gems, so much the better. No cereal is suggested as the hash and buttered toast or gems with milk furnish the needed nutrients.

The creamed eggs and mushrooms would make a delicious company luncheon dish. Patty shells could be used instead of toast.

Creamed Eggs and Mushrooms on Toast.
Four eggs, 1/4 pound mushrooms, 4 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 1/2 cups milk, salt and paprika.

Cook eggs in water just below the boiling point for 30 minutes. Drop at once into cold water and let stand 10 minutes. Remove shells and cut in halves lengthwise. Melt butter in saucepan, add mushrooms cleaned and cut in small pieces and cook five minutes. Sift over flour and stir with a fork until the flour is perfectly blended. Add milk slowly, stirring constantly. Cook until smooth and creamy. Arrange eggs on triangles of toast and pour over sauce. Serve at once.

Do not cut bread too thick for the toast, and toast an even golden brown on both sides.

Filled Cookies.
One egg, 1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup butter, 1/2 cup water, 2 3/4 cups flour, 2 teaspoons cream of tartar, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1/4 teaspoon salt.

Filling—3/4 cup chopped and seeded raisins, 1/2 cup chopped nut meats, 1-3 cup sugar, 1/2 cup water, 1 teaspoon flour, few grains salt. Mix flour and sugar and salt for the filling and add to raisins and nuts. Add water and cook, stirring to make smooth, until thick.

Cream butter and sugar and add well-beaten egg. Mix and sift dry ingredients and add alternately with water to first mixture. Roll on a floured molding board to not more than three-fourths inch thickness. Cut with cookie cutter first dipped in flour. Drop a teaspoonful of the filling in the center of half the cookies. Flatten and cover with remaining cookies. Press edges together and put on a floured baking sheet. Bake 12 minutes in a moderately hot oven.

Casserole of Halibut.
Two pounds halibut, 1 cup carrots cut in matchlike pieces, 1/2 cup diced celery, 2 small onions, 4 tablespoons butter, 1/2 cup stale bread crumbs, 6 medium-sized potatoes, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 2 cups canned tomatoes.

Remove skin and bone from fish. Melt butter and cook the onions, cut in thin slices, and the carrots until a delicate brown. Put a layer of fish in a buttered casserole, cover with carrots, onions and celery and sprinkle with crumbs.

Season with salt and pepper and pour over part of the tomatoes. Continue layer for layer until all is used. Put the potatoes, cut in squares, on top. Cover dish and bake one hour in a moderate oven. If too dry, add a few tablespoons boiling water.

Serve from the casserole.

Bacon and Tomatoes.
Eight or ten slices of bacon, 1 onion, 2 tablespoons flour, 2 cups canned tomatoes, 1-8 teaspoon pepper.

Broil bacon in a hot frying pan. Reserve two tablespoons of the fat. Stir flour in the fat. Add tomatoes and minced onion, stirring constantly, and cook until thick and smooth. Season with pepper. Arrange bacon on a hot platter and pour over sauce. Serve very hot.

Raised Corn Bread.
One-fourth compressed yeast cake, 1/2 cup water, 1/2 cup milk, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons lard, 1 1/2 cups cornmeal, 1 1/2 cups white flour.

Scald milk and water. When lukewarm add yeast cake dissolved in one-fourth cup lukewarm flour. Add sugar, salt and lard. Mix flour and cornmeal and stir in enough to make a stiff dough. Knead in the rest. Cover and let rise in a warm place over night. In the morning knead again and make into loaves. Cover and let rise to double its bulk. Bake 45 minutes in a hot oven.

Ella's Marble Cake.

Two eggs, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 2 cups flour, 1 cup sweet milk, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 6 tablespoons melted butter, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 4 tablespoons cocoa.

Beat eggs until very light with a Dover beater. Beat in sugar. Sift in part of the flour. Dissolve baking powder in milk and add to batter. Add remaining oil and beat until smooth. Stir in melted butter and vanilla. Divide batter equally and stir the cocoa into one part. Put a layer of plain batter into a buttered and floured loaf cake pan. Add a layer of cocoa batter, distributing it unevenly and cover with remaining plain batter. Bake in a moderate oven for 40 minutes.

APPLE SAUCE.

Add a few slices of lemon to your quartered apples when making apple sauce. It brings out the flavor very successfully.

COOKING SOUPS.

All soups should be started with cold water, heating slowly and never allowed to cook above the simmering point.

tors to force an adjournment by breaking the quorum.
Although President Coolidge, in his inaugural address, reiterated his stand in favor of adherence to the world court, he does not intend to send a message on it to the special session of the senate, feeling that his position is sufficiently well known to make such a formality unnecessary.
Chairman Borah of the foreign relations committee, said that if opportunity presented, he might press his resolution urging recognition of the Russian soviet government. Otherwise, he will carry the question to the country during the recess, he said, and bring it up at the next session.
Democrats Harmonious.
Harmony was declared by those participating to have been the watchword of the Democratic conference preceding the senate session. All present officers were re-elected—Senator Robinson as leader; Senator Walsh, of Indiana, vice chairman; Senator Gerry, of Rhode Island, "whip," and Senator King, Utah, secretary.
A steering committee was appointed to fill Democratic vacancies on the standing committees of the senate and its report will be submitted at a conference called for tomorrow. At the same time sena-the clubs which make up the association, on that date, will elect officers, draft schedules and transact other business of importance.

Whether Escanaba is to have a baseball club next summer must be decided before the date of that meeting. Any delegate from this city to the meeting must know, as nearly as such knowledge is possible, what sort of team he's going to put on the diamond here, and how far he can go in the way of incurring expense.

It takes money to run ball clubs. It also takes more support than the desires and efforts of one or two fans. If Escanaba is to have a place in the up-state league, something should be started now—right now.

"A Smothering Angel"

BY JANE PHELPS.

DAY DREAMS OF DOROTHY COMING BACK. Chapter XXXVII. As the visit of Reed's aunt had disturbed Margaret, so had the sight of the woman who resembled Dorothy remained with Reed. It had brought back thoughts long quiescent, had awakened longings he thought dead. Reed felt Dorothy's attraction, the natural attraction he had always felt for her revive. He had an obsession that she was near. Because of Margaret, Reed was trying to put thoughts of Dorothy aside; yet he found himself calling upon his memory for everything connected with her—their life together—the happy part of that life. Reed's old ardor awoke within him. He saw Dorothy's lovely, teasing face, her pouting lips, her golden hair he so loved to touch. At times he had thought Dorothy might be dead, her silence had been so like the silence of the grave. But now she seemed very near him; it seemed almost as if she were in the house. Reed wandered into Dorothy's room—the room from which he had been barred for a month before she left. At first he had gone there often but it had been a long time now since he had entered. Martha kept it in perfect order, and as he gazed hungrily about, Reed could almost hear Dorothy's laughing voice begging him to kiss her; asking if he loved her. That gay, litting voice that had been one of her charms. A large picture of Dorothy hung on the wall. A wonderful likeness. The eyes smiled at him, the lips pouted. A groan broke from Reed's lips and he flung himself in a chair—Dorothy's favorite chair where she used to sit so often, one foot under her like a child. With an abrupt gesture as if he suddenly was aware of danger in his thoughts, Reed arose and hurried from the room. He would think of Dorothy no longer. She had left him. She had ceased to love him. She had gone away rather than face life with him. And he had been glad. Reed recalled the sense of freedom that had come to him after his first agonized search for Dorothy was over of the delight he felt that he could work unimpeded by her presence, her demands. Reed felt a sense of shame at the recollection, a shame that made him flush. "You have broken your promises!" a voice ejaculated imperiously. Reed started violently, so like Dorothy's voice was his conscience upbraiding him. Then the voice was silent as if certain it needed to say no more. Reed bowed his head on his arms. He was filled with a sorrow, an uneasiness as though sensing trouble. IF Dorothy should come back— Reed stood up, shook himself with an impatient gesture. What a fool he was to let a fancied likeness upset him so! No use lying to bed while he was in this condition, he would go to his study, write. Reed found writing impossible. After several futile efforts he gave it up. He would go out, take a brisk walk. There was nothing like walking for clearing one's mind of disturbing thoughts, for inducing sleep. Reed sought the park, but his steps lagged, his thoughts remained unchanged. He dropped upon the nearest bench falling on the green painted seat as one does when in despair. Late pedestrians passed him, motor cars filled with gay, noisy people, but Reed neither saw nor heard. Again he went over the time when his efforts to discover her whereabouts had failed one by one and he had given up, certain he never would see her again. Then reason, cold, cutting, came to Reed's aid. Dorothy hadn't loved him, or she wouldn't have loved him. He had been almost a failure with her beside him, now he was a success. And he had Margaret! For the first time that night Reed thought of her, her helpful companionship, her only desire his success. Why should he make himself miserable thinking of a woman who had wanted to leave him? Some day he would marry Margaret—Reed felt he owed her that. But he must first be free, and he dreaded the taking of the step to free himself. But he must, and soon. Strangely, when Reed thought of Margaret it was always as the helpful companion. Never had Margaret, the woman, appeared to him in his thoughts. He felt no ardor quickening his veins, only a great sense of gratitude. Reed was getting chilly, arose, and walked briskly home. Nothing like a good walk to make one sleepy, he thought as he yawned prodigiously. Reed dreamed of Margaret, that she had reins about his neck, and was driving him, making him go faster and faster—yet he saw no goal, no place to stop. Tomorrow—Dorothy's Father Dies Less than 50 years ago a child of nine was condemned to death for stealing paint in England valued at two pence.

A THOUGHT

Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.—Eph. 4:29. A good word is an easy obligation; but not to speak ill requires only our silence, which costs nothing.—Tillotson. Moscow. Unusually light sentences for murder now are being imposed in Soviet Russia. Conviction for first degree murder usually results in a five-year sentence. It very rarely exceeds 10 years. The death sentence is given only for revolutionary activity against the soviet government. Bernarriere, France—Paul Merland, a 14-year-old boy living here, now weighs 504 pounds and is still growing. His weight increased 42 pounds in the last year. Arthur—How long before she will make her appearance? George—She is upstairs making it now.—London Answers.

LUMBER WEAK BUT STRENGTH IS IN SIGHT

The lumber market has a weaker aspect this week, owing to the softening of southern pine prices. However, the outlook has not been marred, and fundamental conditions generally show strength.

The Douglas fir market has shown no important change. Prices are being well held at recent levels, the downward tendency that previously characterized them having to a large extent disappeared with the curtailment of production.

Watching the antics of the first lioness wind of spring I saw seven men lose their hats at one time and laughed in high glee as they chased them.

Splendid Cast to Be Seen in "Rain" Here Next Week

George Lee Hall

It is seldom that a cast of such even excellence and real Broadway calibre is seen in one organization as that which is appearing in "RAIN."

Other well known names in the cast include John Walter, S. Miller Kent, Shep Camp, Douglas R. Dumbrell, Percy Jennings, Margaret Bloodgood, Marion Marcus Clark, and others.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE DELFT. The psychology that lurks behind the potted fern, the enamelled phonograph or the broad-based velvet portieres, the true spirit of the "newly rich" home, was transcribed to the screen in Hobart Henley's production of "The Turmoil."

Henley, inclines toward a perfect presentation of thoughts as well as action in a picture. Psychology he holds more important than anything else.

In the new picture he put Tarkington's story on the screen, page after page. This has seldom been successfully done, but so dramatic is the story itself as to be considered a director's find.

William Fairbanks and Eva Novak are co-stars in "A Fight for Honor," a railroading picture which is the current feature at the Strand. The story tells of a young man who fights through difficulties, his own father has turned against him. Alone he fights to gain the health and happiness of the girl he loves and circumvents a rascal who seeks to wed her and ruin her father.

Mrs. S. Roberge's Funeral Held Friday Morning

St. Anne's church was the scene of most impressive funeral services Friday morning at nine o'clock when the last sad rites were performed over the body of Mrs. S. Roberge who died Tuesday after an illness of several weeks duration.

Rev. Fr. R. G. Jacques, pastor of the parish was the celebrant at the solemn requiem high mass. Rev. Fr. W. Wachter was deacon and Rev. Fr. Daniel Linderot O. F. M. was subdeacon.

Mr. Jacques delivered an eloquent funeral oration, paying a lovely tribute to the memory of the beloved mother who had reared a large family and whose ideals were her God, her home and her country.

Two autos conveyed the beautiful flowers to the cemetery and were placed about the cedar lined grave where the body was confined beside that of her husband who died 19 years ago.

The choir rendered excellent music. Miss I. Villomure presided at the organ. At the close of the services Victor Moreau a grandson rendered a tenor solo, "Will You Come to My Grave."

Members of St. Anne's Fidelity and St. Croix Society attended the services in a body.

IN NEW YORK

New York, Mar. 6.—Warfare goes on between pigeon raisers of the lower East Side almost every day. Pigeon cotes are placed on the roofs of high tenements. The nucleus of each flock is a group of fine-bred homing pigeons which never fail to return to their own cote.

A man in attendance at each cote during all hours of daylight. When he sees a lone pigeon in the air he releases his flock. The pigeons soar up to the lone flier and in their own way induce it to join the flock.

Trouble begins when two pigeon keepers send up their flocks at the same time. The two flocks merge with each other and sometimes only the true homing pigeons of one flock return to their home cote, the others, being of a gregarious nature, going with the bigger flock.

Then words fly between the rival pigeon raisers. And sometimes fists and bullets.

The police have records of hiding crooks using homing pigeons to carry messages to and from confederates.

Orchard Street is the most colorful spot in all New York, I believe. It is one of many of the East Side streets lined with push carts, but it has the most interesting display of wares.

Walk along one block and in these two-wheeled carts you'll see displayed bright silk scarfs, second hand shoes and clothes, candy, cakes, and broken hardware of all sorts, new and mended chinaware, vegetables, fruits, bread, cheese, electric irons and curling irons, new and old books, translating dictionaries, table delicacies from foreign lands and other articles, too numerous to mention.

The whole blends into a mass of brilliant color in which move bearded patriarchs, squat ugly

PETITION ASKS FOR CHANGE IN CITY CHARTER

A petition was in circulation in Manistique yesterday, asking that the question of revising the city charter to accommodate a commission form of government be put to the voters at the next election.

The circulation of a petition comes as the culmination of a movement that has been drawing to a head for several weeks. Several members of the present city council have expressed themselves as favoring the change of charter, and it is predicted that the support of the council will be added in bringing the matter up before the voters at the April election.

"Shall the Manistique city charter be amended," is the question which the voters may decide. If the proposal is carried, the next step will be the drafting of a charter, and this in turn must be approved by the voters of the city.

Postpone Hearing of George Udell; Jury Trial Asked

At the request of the respondent, the trial of George Udell, charged with illegal killing of a deer, was postponed in Justice W. A. McKinney's court yesterday. The new date set for the trial is March 17.

Mr. Udell, who resides in the vicinity of the Smith camp, High Road, was arrested by Game Warden Paul Knuth. Traces of blood and hair found on the Udell premises were claimed by the owner to have come from a calf which he butchered. The warden, however, was sure that the hair was deer hair, and placed the man under arrest.

Mr. Udell, who is a young American student, is the master of seven languages at the age of 15. He came from America a year ago with the degree of bachelor of arts and now has been given a master's degree. His mother speaks 15 languages.

SAMOAN CLOTH PRESENTED TO LOCAL LIBRARY

Samples of cloth made by natives of Uncle Sam's Samoan Islands are now included among the objects of interest in the curio cabinet of the Manistique Public Library.

The cloth presented to the school by Dr. Rawei was made by the islanders from the bark of certain trees, and is the same ki dask used by them for clothing. In his talk Monday night, the lecturer explained how this material is made, and gave scores of other interesting facts about life of the South Sea Islanders.

Other interesting relics recently added to the collection include a white flint arrow head, about 3 1/2 inches long, found and contributed by David Podleski, a high school boy living at Manistique Heights.

Mrs. Alice Coffey of this city has given the saw from a sawfish captured on the coast of Florida many years ago. The fish use this elongation of the snout as a weapon, striking sidewise with it to kill, and cutting up the bodies of their victims with it. Strong teeth are found all around the edges of a flat bony plate.

BACK FROM SIX MONTHS IN EUROPE

After six months spent in various parts of Europe, including the countries of Germany, Holland, Belgium, France and England, Louis Cretons, manager of the Lyric Theater, Mrs. Cretons and their daughter, Mary, returned to Gladstone Thursday night.

The return trip was made aboard the Olympic, which left South Hampton, Eng., on Wednesday, February 25, and arrived in New York, Wednesday, March 4, 24 hours late, after one of the roughest voyages it has made.

Mr. and Mrs. Cretons and their daughter, landed in New York on the morning of Wednesday, and left there at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, arriving in Gladstone Thursday night by way of Bay City and Mackinac.

They left Gladstone early in September and set sail on the Minedosa on September 15 from Canada. Their extended visit in Europe was spent in touring through different countries and visiting points of interest, among them the cities of Paris, London, Brussels, Antwerp and the Ruhr district.

Members of the party traveled by motor while in Europe.

Mr. Cretons said yesterday that his vacation trip was thoroughly enjoyed but that he was "glad to be back home again."

Concerning the arrival of the Olympic, on which Mr. Cretons and the members of his party returned, a press account said:

"The Olympic reached port today, 24 hours overdue, with a pilot's shield, a galley funnel and a compass pedestal damaged by heavy seas."

"Among her passengers were Prince Antoine Bibesco, Roumanian ambassador to Washington; Willis H. Booth, president of the International Chamber of Commerce, and John W. Doty, builder of skyscraper foundations."

Six or seven calls regarding the dog came from Gladstone and two or three from Escanaba.

SNOW PLOW IS USED TO CLEAR SNOW

The city snow plow, which finished clearing the streets of drifts after the snow storm, was also put into use to plow a roadway across the ice to facilitate the sewerage disposal work which is being done.

Sewerage is now being hauled in trucks across the ice to the point and dumped there. A discharge pipe has been constructed in the tanks to a point above the trucks through which the waste is ejected by a centrifugal pump, making it possible to load a truck in two minutes. Three trucks are in operation.

This method is working out successfully and will be continued as long as possible.

SOME CHANGES IN TAX LAWS

Income Tax Collectors Urge Payers to Study New Provisions.

Officials of the internal revenue department point out several changes in the 1924 revenue act, which income taxpayers are urged to study with considerable care before making their return.

There is no change in the exemption for single persons which is $1,000. Married persons living together and heads of families are allowed by the revenue act of 1924 an exemption of $2,500, regardless of the amount of net income. Under the preceding act the exemption for married persons and heads of families was $2,500 if the aggregate net income was $5,000 or less and $3,000 if net income exceeded $5,000. If they make separate returns such exemption must be taken by either or divided between them.

Must Live Together.
The exemption of $2,500 is allowed married couples only if they live together. In the absence of continuous actual residence together, the exemption depends upon the character of the separation. The new regulations provide that if occasionally and temporarily a wife is away on a visit or a husband is away on business, the joint home being maintained, the full exemption is allowable. The unavoidable absence of a husband or wife at a sanitarium on account of illness does not preclude claiming the exemption. But if continually and voluntarily the husband makes his residence at one place and the wife at another, they are not living together within the eyes of the income tax law. Each must file a return if his or her income is $1,000 or more, and each is allowed only the $1,000 exemption granted a single person.

Exemption for Dependents.
No change is made in the provision allowing the taxpayer, in addition to a personal exemption, a credit of $400 for each person depending on him or her and receiving chief support. If such person is under 18 years of age or incapable of self support because mentally or physically defective, the term "mentally or physically defective" includes not only cripples and those mentally defective, but persons in ill health and the aged. The $400 credit does not apply to the wife or husband of a taxpayer, though one may be totally dependent upon the other.

Mercury Sets New Altitude Record; But it Won't Last

The warm sun which drove the thermometer up to the highest point of the year—49 degrees—and kept the water from melting snow running down the streets, and standing in lakes at some of the corners, will not return today, according to the weather bureau forecast.

"Snow and much colder," the local station predicted.

The "high" yesterday contrasted with the "low" of Sunday when 13 degrees below zero was recorded, made a spread of 62 degrees in five days, certainly sufficient variety for anyone.

DOG QUARANTINE ORDER IS ISSUED BY HEALTH OFFICER

Animal Killed Here Had Rabies, State Experts Report.

Dogs in the city of Escanaba must be kept tied up on their owners' premises, or, if permitted to run at large, must wear muzzles, a quarantine order, issued by Dr. H. J. Defnet, city health commissioner, said. Police were instructed to enforce the order to the letter effective immediately.

The order followed a few minutes after the receipt of a telegram from Ann Arbor, revealing that the brain of a dog, sent there by Dr. Defnet on February 28, for analysis, had rabies. The dog had been shot by the police.

No Hauntings Bitten.
Although sick dogs have been numerous here and many of them have been destroyed—usually at the request of the owners—so far as is known, no one has been bitten by one of them. Care has been taken to prevent any dog, suspected of being a victim of the malady, from reaching the advanced and most rabid stages.

"We have been watching the situation closely since the outbreak in Masonville, in which three small children were bitten," Dr. Defnet said yesterday. "We have advised owners of sick dogs to get rid of them immediately. This has been done in a great many cases. Brains of several of these dogs have been sent to Ann Arbor. The report we received yesterday, however, is the first we have received from the state laboratory positively declaring the malady to be rabies."

Situation Serious.
"It is impossible to exaggerate the seriousness of the situation. It is hardly possible that the case we discovered last week is the only one in the community."

"Nor can we predict what the outcome may be. The afflicted animal may have bitten other dogs. If that is the case, it possibly will be several weeks before traces of the disease are noted on the other victims."

"How long it will be necessary to keep the quarantine in effect also depends upon developments. It will be two to three months at least. If other cases come to light it may be much longer than that."

The police department, for several weeks, had carried instructions to "take no chances" with sick dogs. Hydrophobia is too deadly to warrant any, save the most stringent measures.

To Enforce Order.
"The health department's order will be carried out," Chief Toland said last night. "Dogs found running at large without muzzles will be shot."

State veterinarians have warned practitioners in other parts of the state where rabies has been discovered, not to attempt to treat dogs seized with any sort of diseases which cannot be readily and positively diagnosed. They recommended that all dogs showing signs of illness of any kind be immediately killed.

1500 Vaccinations in Escanaba During Month of February

More than 1,500 Escanaba school children were vaccinated during the month of February, the records at the office of Dr. H. J. Defnet, city health commissioner, show. The number was much larger than Dr. Defnet expected. About 65 per cent of the children to whom vaccination was offered, accepted, it was estimated.

The vaccination was not compulsory. It was warned, however, that there was considerable smallpox in this territory, and that discovery of an active case here would be followed immediately by an order requiring all children to show vaccination certificates before they were allowed to continue in school.

Doctors and the school health staff were kept busy for several weeks "scratching arms."

100,000 YEARS OLD
London—The skull found at Broken Hill, Rhodesia, in 1921, is believed to be that of a man 100,000 years old. Sir Arthur Keith, conservator of the Royal College of Surgeons' Museum, says, "We cannot fit in this skull with any type of man with which we are familiar," he says. The skull strongly resembles a gorilla, but the placing of the bones indicates the pre-history man could walk upright.

Rawei Closes Lyceum Course With Recital On South Sea Isles

Wherahiko Rawei, native Polynesian, gave an interesting recital entitled, "Uncle Sam's Samoan Islanders: Their Arts, Crafts, Music and Songs," at the Escanaba High school auditorium last night at the last number on the local lyceum course. The auditorium was filled to capacity and the lecture was greatly enjoyed by all who heard it.

Rawei appeared in the picturesque native costume and aided by the beautiful scenic background he transported his audience into the South Seas. The talk proved very entertaining as well as educational and gave his hearers a very realistic picture of the island peoples and their customs.
