

RHINELANDER LOSES ANNULMENT SUIT

PUBLIC WANTS CONGRESS TO SHOW ACTION

ACCOMPLISHMENTS DEMANDED BY PEOPLE.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Dec. 5.—Congress comes back next Monday under circumstances altogether unique in legislative history.

The demand of the hour is to get things done. For years congress has gone its leisurely way heedless of the clamor for action instead of talk.

Over in the house the situation is even better than it has been for years. The rules permit of quick dispatch of bills and the republicans have such a comfortable majority that they will feel inclined to return to the rules of a couple of sessions ago.

Insurgency disappears. Most of the insurgency has disappeared, because the 1924 elections gave the republicans such a clear hold that a combination between democrats and insurgent republicans would be of little avail now.

Election to Decide. Looking ahead to the 1926 elections, when one-third of the senate comes up for re-election, the democratic members are from strictly democratic states.

Coolidge Strong Leader. Standing out above all other factors at the moment, is the prestige of the president with his own party.

Expect to Get Technical and Photographic Information. Dayton, O., Dec. 5.—While data expected to be obtained by Lieut. John T. McReady, McCook Field flyer, in his scheduled altitude flight, will prove of invaluable aid to the army air service.

In California, a man wrote his will on a butcher's order book. Perhaps he was just going to price a steak.

Poem to Kipling Recalled by His Recent Illness

Liverpool, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Rudyard Kipling's present illness recalls memories of the writer's attack of pneumonia in New York City in 1899 when, after news that the danger point had been passed, the following verse, signed "Tommy Atkins," appeared in the Liverpool Daily Post:

"We 'ard as you was fightin' 'ard just as we know you would. But we 'ardly 'oped you'd turn 'is flank; They said you 'ardly could, But the news 'as come this mornin'.

AUTO TRAPPED IN BAD STORM

Driver and Six Passengers Rescued Near Denver, Colo.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 5.—(AP)—Trapped yesterday in a blinding snow storm on the summit of Berthoud Pass about sixty miles west of Denver, with the mercury below zero, Dennis Tilden, a stage driver operating between Denver and Steamboat Springs and his six passengers, among them two women, were rescued today after spending the night in a board shack.

The rescue party arrived with a team and sled. The horses were able to drag the automobile stage over the summit of the pass and down to Empire, Colo., and safely.

Frantic efforts by Tilden and four men passengers had enabled the party to proceed but 11 miles through the great snow drifts from morning until late last night, while the women fought to escape freezing. They were Mrs. Fred McMahon and her aged mother, Mrs. Anna Markle, of Denver.

$7,000 Taken by Detroit Robbers

Detroit, Dec. 5.—(AP)—More than $7,000 was the loot obtained by robbers in Detroit today, the largest single amount taken being $5,000. Edward H. Dohman, restaurant proprietor, saved half of the $10,000 he had drawn from a bank to cash checks of customers over the week-end. After robbers had forced his automobile to a curb, Dohman ran through between two buildings and tossed a package of $5,000 into the living room of a house occupied by Mrs. J. J. Wittgen.

The robbers climbed into the window, took the $5,000 and permitted Dohman to escape with the other package. Four armed men held up a Michigan Savings bank branch, took $2,000, fired a shot at Anthony Ray, the manager, and escaped in an automobile which a fifth member of the gang had in readiness outside.

Fireman Is Killed in Buffalo Blaze

Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 5.—(AP)—One fireman was killed and five others were injured today when the plant of the Buffalo Body Corporation here was swept by fire. Three ladders laden with firemen went down with a falling wall. The loss exceeds $300,000.

SIXTY-NINTH CONGRESS TO OPEN MONDAY

INSURGENTS' STATUS STILL UNDECIDED BY G. O. P.

Washington, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Still facing a final decision as to their relationship with the insurgents of their party, Republicans of the house and senate took final steps today to organize the two houses on Monday. Senate Republicans held their pre-session conference without even discussing the question of whether Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin is to be treated as one of their group.

House Removes Insurgents. At the same time, the Republican committee on committees in the house carried out the policy adopted by the party caucus last spring of removing the supporters of the late Robert M. LaFollette from the "key" committees.

None of the other insurgents has a place on important committees, but some have chairmanships or ranking places on minor standing bodies of the house. Whether they are to retain these positions is a problem with which the majority party still has to deal.

At their conference today the Wisconsin delegation decided to issue a formal statement tomorrow clearly defining their position. There were indications that its members intend to act as a unit Monday and to adhere to the position they took two years ago when they made a determined fight for amendment of the then existing rules.

Salvage of S-51 Postponed to Spring

Washington, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Salvage operations on the submarine S-51, sunk off Block Island, R. I., September 25, were abandoned by Secretary Wilbur today until next spring.

U. S. Volcano Again Is Active

Redding, Cal., Dec. 5.—(AP)—Lassen Peak, the only active volcano in the continental United States, is again in eruption with a two-day display of smoke after several months of inactivity.

Yesterday morning, the peak belched forth a huge column of smoke which continued for several hours until 2:30 p. m. It was plainly visible from here, and attracted the attention of motorists and train tourists.

At sunrise this morning, observers reported that the atmosphere around the peak was clear, but an hour later, a column of smoke was seen to rise from the crater. It continued in volume, assuming large proportions, and lasted for several hours.

MIDDLE WEST HIT BY STORM

Heavy Snowfall in Minnesota; Mercury Goes Downward.

Chicago, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Old man winter, heralded by a nose-diving mercury and whistling blizzards, laid an icy hand on the Middle West tonight.

Train services was slowed up, wire communications were interfered with and in some places roads were blocked by a snow storm driven in the teeth of strong shifting winds. Little immediate relief is in sight although the snow is expected to abate tomorrow while the cold continues.

Four to six inches of snow covered Minnesota, one death was reported from exposure in Iowa which was also blizzard swept. The air mail was halted by the blizzard at Iowa City and at Muscatine a radio aerial tower collapsed. Temperatures of 12 degrees above zero were reported.

Progressives Won't Hold Meet at Early Date, Officers Say

Cleveland, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Members of the Progressive party, at a regional conference here today, voted against holding a national convention of the party at an early date.

The decision was reached after several speakers had declared that a convention within the next few weeks would call forth representatives from only a small portion of the country.

Trace Profanity in Radio Concerts to 2 Chattering Birds

Washington, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Occasional flashes of profanity, uttered in Portuguese, which have alienated several broadcasting programs of station WRC here recently, have been traced to two chattering magicians in the Pan-American Union building.

Army Air Service to Benefit by MacReady's Altitude Test unable to do little else than see to the maneuvering of his ship. To Make Flight Soar. MacReady is to take to the air within the next two or three weeks at the field here. The McCook pilot says that at an altitude of from 30,000 to 40,000 feet cameras will register clearly objects on earth, which when enlarged, will show clearly all details which may be sought by army officials during periods of combat.

CAL OUTLINES HIS VIEWS ON COAL PROBLEM

CONTENTS OF LETTER TO LEWIS NOT MADE KNOWN.

Washington, Dec. 5.—(AP)—President Coolidge outlined his views on the coal situation in a letter today to John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers, but they were not disclosed at the White House. Instead announcement was made that publication was being withheld purposely for fear of embarrassment to efforts to restore peace in the anthracite region.

WRITERS MIGHT JOIN A. F. OF L.

N. Y. Dramatists Seek to Bar Fox Company Play Project.

New York, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Forty leading New York dramatists, composing the dramatists guild of the Authors League of America, Inc., are considering applying for membership in the American Federation of Labor or taking some drastic action to forestall what they construe as an attempt on the part of William Fox, motion picture producer, to corner the New York play market.

A meeting of the playwrights last night was attended by Arthur Richman, Channing Pollock, Hartley Monners, Owen Davis, George Middleton, Roy Cooper Megrue and other authors of like standing. The writers are much alarmed over the situation and believe some action on their part is imperative.

Theatre Monopoly Seen. Maurice Ravnes, production manager of the William Fox corporation, admitted today that Fox representatives have approached a number of New York's leading producers and that "contracts are about to be signed" with them whereby Fox will finance the production of plays for the legitimate stage.

TWO DIE WHEN AUTO CRASHES

Car Hits Train Near Kalamazoo; Driver Not Injured.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Dec. 5.—(AP)—Skidding over an ice-covered pavement, an automobile carrying three passengers crashed into a locomotive of a New York Central train south of Portage this afternoon, killing William MacGregor, 25, Battle Creek, instantly, and fatally injuring Miss Harriet Krebs, 22, of Sturris.

Miss Krebs died five hours after the accident in a hospital here. The third passenger Herbert C. Spier, 22, Battle Creek, driver of the car, escaped without injury.

The three young persons were enroute to Sturgis from Battle Creek and were to be guests at a party tonight. Both MacGregor and Miss Krebs suffered fractured skulls and internal injuries. The car was completely demolished.

Italian and English Vessels in Collision

Baltimore, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Information received here tonight by way of Norfolk, Va., indicated that the Italian steamer Campania, which was in collision today off Point No. Point with the British steamer Mombasa, had been reached by the coast guard cutter Apache. The cutter Manning, the report said, was taking the crew to Norfolk. All were believed safe.

Rudyard Kipling Keeps Improving

Burwash, Sussex England, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Rudyard Kipling's improvement was maintained today and the prospects of his recovery are more hopeful. Lord Dawson, the king's physician, who is attending the noted author made this statement to The Associated Press tonight. He had spent a considerable time with the patient.

2 LOSE LIVES IN MINE FIRE

Four Seriously Ill From Smoke in Boulder Hospital.

Nederland, Colo., Dec. 5.—(AP)—Firesides in the little homes of the mining town of Cardinal and surrounding communities lighted happy family circles tonight for all of the men, except two, who were trapped in the Fairview company's gold, silver and lead mine yesterday morning, had come out alive.

TO PREACH ON ASSAULT CASE

Battle Creek Ministers Criticize Jury for Disagreement.

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 5.—(AP)—Admission by the prosecutor that the sheriff's department, after a day spent traveling through the county running down rumors, had found no speck of evidence that there had been tampering with the jury, first formal statement by defense counsel, reference to the case by a minister from his pulpit today and all promise of four other ministers that they would discuss various phases of morals brought up during the trial were the day's developments in the Arthur Rich case, following disagreement of the jury Thursday.

Argentina and Chile Will Be Invited to Geneva Arms Parley

Geneva, Dec. 5.—(AP)—If the council of the League of Nations follows the views expressed by the league's disarmament council, Argentina and Chile, like the United States and Russia, will be invited to sit officially on the special commission on preparation for the proposed disarmament conference.

The disarmament council, which met today and did not succeed in concluding its labors for the reason that difficulties arose over the common text of the program of study which will be placed before the new preparatory body. Great Britain and France are at differing views as set forth by Lord Cecil and M. Boncour, but various members said after the meeting that a joint program would undoubtedly be found Monday to which date the disarmament council adjourned.

ALICE DIDN'T DECEIVE KIP, JURY DECIDES

RHINELANDER'S WIFE FILES SUIT FOR SEPARATION.

White Plains, N. Y., Dec. 5.—(AP)—Leonard Kip Rhinelander, young member of a socially prominent family who today lost his suit for annulment of his marriage to Alice Beatrice Jones, former mulatto housemaid, now faces a suit for separation by Mrs. Rhinelander.

Announcement that summons and complaints in the suit for separation have been issued was made by Mrs. Rhinelander's counsel, Lee Parsons Davis, soon after the jury in the annulment case had returned a verdict favorable to Mrs. Rhinelander. The papers in the separation action include a request for alimony and counsel fees, but Mr. Davis did not reveal the amount asked.

Plaintiff to Appeal. Immediately after announcement of the jury's verdict, Isaac N. Mills, chief counsel for Rhinelander announced that he would appeal the verdict.

Although the jury was not empowered to pass upon the granting of an annulment, its findings on seven questions propounded to it will serve as a basis for the decision of Justice Morchauer, who presided at the trial.

Davis had said in court during the trial that Mrs. Rhinelander and her husband never could live together again regardless of the outcome of that case. This would be impossible, he said, because of the way they "besmirched each other" during the trial.

When the jury's answers had been read, Rhinelander's counsel moved to have the verdict set aside as contrary to the weight of evidence. Justice Morchauer reserved decision on this motion. He announced that he will render his decision as to the annulment within a few days and requested Rhinelander's attorney to file a brief on his objections to the jury.

COURT-MARTIAL HEARS EBERLE

Officer Says Lansdowne Was Willing to Take Trip.

Washington, Dec. 5—(AP)—Admiral Edward W. Eberle, senior ranking naval officer on the active list, gave the army court-martial today his sworn word that the dirigible Shenandoah was not ordered to make the disastrous mid-west flight over the protest of its commanding officer, Lieut. Com. Zachary Lansdowne. He vigorously denied that the ship had been ordered on a propaganda mission or had been sent out by officers lacking aviation understanding of the projected flight.

Tells Purpose of Trip. Before the veteran officer left the stand where he sat for more than two hours facing Col. William Mitchell, defendant in the trial and author of published charges that the Shenandoah's loss was the result of incompetence and neglect, he gave the court a detailed account of the preparations that were made for the Shenandoah's flight and explained at length why it had been authorized by the navy department.

The purpose of the trip, the admiral said, "was to train the officers and men in overland as well as water flying and to get some idea on the commercial air routes to the west, especially in the vicinity of Detroit.

We wanted also to train the Shenandoah's crew so the ship, in time of emergency, would be able to come east to another; to the Mexican border or the Great Lakes.

BOMBING RING NATION-WIDE?

Chicago, Dec. 5—(AP)—A theory that principals in the bombings under investigation here are part of a nation-wide syndicate of criminal bombers is being considered, Assistant State Attorney J. P. Savage said today with the indictment of the thirty-fifth suspect.

"As yet we have no proof of that," he said, "but I believe the situation acutely manifested here reveals throughout the country. We have received requests from several cities asking information which might bear on bombings and destruction of property.

"Citizens of Gary, Ind., Detroit, Mich., and Corpus Christi, Texas, are among those suspecting that our bombings have ramifications in their cities. Gary citizens report that there has been unexplained violence in connection with barber shops. A firm of lawyers retained by an association at Detroit wants light on outrages against its owners and building owners, his firm is proceeding on the theory of a national bombing trust."

TEXAS SOLONS MEET DOOMED

Illegal to Get Private Funds to Finance Special Session.

Austin, Tex., Dec. 5—(AP)—Financing or underwriting of the expenses of a special session of the Texas house of representatives for "preachment purposes from private individual sources is unconstitutional and unwarranted as against public policy, Attorney General Moody of Texas ruled tonight.

This opinion held there would be no authority to issue warrants against exhausted appropriations made for the contingent expenses of the 58th legislature to cover compensation of members of the house while attending an impeachment session should it be called by the speaker.

It stated that the attorney general assumed that the speaker in his letter made no reference to deficiency warrants issued against a deficiency granted by the governor.

Corinne Griffith in 'Classified' Tops Bill at The Delft Monday

TODAY'S PROGRAMS At the Delft—"Grounds for Divorce," a marriage comedy, in which Florence Vidor, Matt Moore and Louise Fazenda are featured. At the Strand—Fred Thompson and his famous horse, Silver King, in a speedy Western picture, "Riding the Wind."

At St. Joseph's—"His Buddy's Wife," a post-war story, featuring Glenn Hunter, in the cast, also, are Edna Murphy, Flora Finch and Blanche Davenport. Corinne Griffith, star; Edna Ferber, author; June Mathis, scenarist. Sounds like a pretty good combination where screen entertainment is concerned, doesn't it?

This triumvirate is responsible for the new bill to be offered at the Delft Monday and Tuesday next week, when First National presents "Classified."

Thousands have read the story of that name as it appeared in Cosmopolitan magazine. Other thousands are familiar with June Mathis' achievements as a screen writer. And as for Corinne Griffith, it would be a daring thing to attempt to estimate the number of her admirers the world over.

"Classified" brings to the screen a new type—the girl who takes your want ad over the phone. Also, it gives Miss Griffith a new opportunity at characterization, as she has never before attempted to portray this sort of personality. Her success is reported as having been complete.

Jack Mulhall and many prominent screen artists are enrolled with Miss Griffith in placing this delightful story of life in a New York flat upon the screen.

Constance Talmadge in "Her Sister from Paris" will be the Delft attraction Wednesday and Thursday.

Decide to Withdraw U. S. Boats at Syria

Washington, Dec. 5—(AP)—Decision to withdraw the two American destroyers stationed at Beirut, Syria, as no longer necessary for the protection of American lives and property, was reached today at the state department. They will be withdrawn at the convenience of the navy department "at an early date."

The most dangerous activity on earth is jumping at conclusions.

PARTRIDGE OF U. P. FOUND TO BE UNTAINTED
Eastern Expert Says Birds Are O. K.

Charles Winnimaki, Keweenaw conservation officer, recently secured six partridge which he forwarded to Cornell university where a survey is being made by the laboratory of ornithology in a nationwide study of grouse and diseases which are believed to be reducing the number of these birds in the United States.

Leading ornithologists of the country are engaged in the survey and the results are eagerly awaited by the conservation department of several states and by sportsmen of the nation.

According to the letter, the birds found in Keweenaw were in a state of good health and an increase in their numbers can be expected next year of other agencies do not destroy them. The letter, written to Mr. Winnimaki by Arthur A. Allen, professor of ornithology at Cornell, follows:

"I thank you for your letter of November 14, and the six specimens or ruffed grouse. We have been over them very carefully, and find each one free from disease or parasites of any kind. This is rather unusual, and speaks well for the birds of your vicinity. "I note that you state the grouse are below normal this year, but if these are fair samples they should be on the increase and be back to normal by next year. We are planning to continue this investigation of the grouse for two more years, and I hope we can count on you for your continued co-operation and particularly we would like to hear next year from you with regard to the relative abundance of the birds."

Play to Be Given at Presbyterian Church Tonight

"The Northwest Passage," a play written by Rev. Henry Little of New York City, will be given in the main auditorium of the First Presbyterian church tonight at 7:30. The leading parts are taken by Janet Owen, Josephine Work, Warren Edwards, Wesley Erickson and Robert Curtis. Supporting this group will be a chorus of young people who will sing at various stages of the play. Music on the organ is also employed.

Columbus searched diligently for the Northwest passage, and so did men for years afterward without success. At last the true goal has been located and it will be revealed in the course of the play. There is no admission charge. The play is given as a part of the evening worship, taking about forty minutes. The entire service will close at 8:30.

Petitions Get Fast Action When They File Requests for Public Improvements

Escanaba's council-manager administration in the last three years has established a record which City Clerk Carl E. Anderson believes is in a class by itself in the entire country.

In the three-year period, taxpayers have addressed 76 petitions to the council, asking for public improvements of various sorts. Of these, 73 have been completed, two have been ordered done as quickly as funds are available and weather conditions more favorable. Only one has been turned down.

"If responsiveness to the wishes of the people really is the surest test of democracy and efficiency," Mr. Anderson said yesterday, "then the record proves conclusively that Escanaba's city government is just about perfect. "Petitions for public improvements during the last three years have included requests for water mains, gas mains, sewer extensions, street lights, pavements, acquisition of park lands, sidewalks, bridge repairs, drainage ditches and changes of street names.

All Get Action. "The speed with which these petitions have been acted upon and the requests carried out has been another remarkable phase of the record. No one has ever petitioned the council for anything without getting prompt and effective action from the administration, and in only one instance in three years has the request been denied. In that one instance, the request was for an additional arc light. The council, upon learning that there already was a light within two hundred feet of the spot designated in the petition, decided that the cost of the improvement would not warrant the placing of the additional light in that locality.

"Improvement petitions, requesting water main extensions, are still to be carried out. Funds for the work were not available in the current year's budget. The work was ordered done next year, the cost will be budgeted and the mains installed as requested just as quickly as weather conditions in the spring permit. "In addition to the 76 specific written requests filed, scores and scores of other jobs, requested orally, or done without any special demand except the obvious need for the work, have been completed."

Tabulation of Work. The list of formal petitions, as tabulated by Mr. Anderson, follows:

Type of Job	Pet.	Done
Water Mains	9	*7
Gas Mains	10	10
Sewer Mains	16	16
Street Lights	20	19
Pavements	11	11
Miscellaneous	10	10
Totals	76	73

*Work in two jobs ordered.

FRIEDMAN ON SECOND TEAM

Grange Gets Quarterback Position on First String Eleven.

BY BILLY EVANS. Nine colleges from every section of the United States are represented on my 1925 All-American eleven.

In making my selections I have had the counsel of 50 leading coaches of the United States and perhaps as many scouts.

Nine of the 10 coaches in the Western Conference have lent their assistance. An even dozen eastern mentors have supplied me with much valuable information.

The four leading coaches of the west, Enoch Bagshaw of Washington, Glenn Warner of Stanford, Andy Smith of California and Howard Jones of Southern California, have wised me up on the situation out there.

From the South I received the correct dope from Dan McGugin of Vanderbilt, W. A. Alexander of Georgia Tech, C. D. Shaughnessy of Tulane, Wallace Wade of Alabama and G. C. Woodruff of Georgia.

Other famous coaches who have assisted me in preparation of my 1925 eleven are Knute Rockne of Notre Dame, Ernest Bearg of Nebraska, Earle Neale of Virginia, as well as many others.

To all of them many, many thanks. Only two colleges, Dartmouth and Michigan, get more than one place on the team, each being twice honored.

My two ends are from Michigan and Dartmouth, generally considered the premier teams by the experts, although the coast and the south will no doubt beg to differ.

Michigan to Play Gopher Gridders Twice Next Fall

BIG TEN GRID CARD DECIDED

Insures Four Conference Games for Minnesota Eleven.

Chicago, Dec. 5.—(AP)—A momentous meeting of the athletic directors of the Western Conference was broken tonight when Michigan agreed to play Minnesota twice in the 1926 football season, in order to insure the required four conference games for Minnesota. Such a return game arrangement has never before been experienced in the Big Ten.

The first game will be played at Ann Arbor, October 16, and the second one at Minneapolis, November 20.

SCHEDULE FIXED. Chicago, Dec. 5.—(AP)—The Western Conference football schedule for 1926 was arranged tonight by the athletic directors as follows: October 2—South Dakota at Northwestern.

October 9—Charleston at Northwestern. Butler at Illinois. Ohio Wesleyan at Ohio State. Kentucky at Indiana.

October 16—Wisconsin at Purdue. Minnesota at Michigan. Indiana at Northwestern. Iowa at Illinois. Ohio State vs. Columbia at New York.

Chicago vs. Pennsylvania at Philadelphia. October 23—Indiana at Wisconsin. North Dakota at Minnesota. Illinois at Michigan. Notre Dame at Northwestern. Iowa at Ohio.

Baseball Card of Wolverines Is Announced

Chicago, Dec. 5.—(AP)—The 1926 baseball schedule of the University of Michigan was announced today as follows:

April 21—Michigan Aggies at Ann Arbor. April 24—Purdue at LaFayette. April 26—Ohio at Columbus.

May 3—Indiana at Ann Arbor. May 7—Wisconsin at Madison. May 8—Minnesota at Minneapolis. May 10—Iowa at Ann Arbor.

May 15—Illinois at Urbana. May 17—Iowa at Iowa City. May 19—Michigan Aggies at East Lansing. May 21—Ohio at Ann Arbor.

May 22—Illinois at Ann Arbor. May 29—Wisconsin at Ann Arbor. A field basket from the middle of the floor by Art Olson shortly after resumption of play in the second quarter was the only count registered by the Boston Store basketball quint, alias Shelton's All-Stars, when they ran up against the Escanaba Independents at the Escanaba high school gymnasium last night.

The Independents outplayed the Bostonians both defensively and offensively, not even giving their opponents a chance of getting near their goal, while Gagner, Andrews and Soderberg were piling up the field baskets for the independent crew. The final score was 37 to 2 in favor of the Independents.

BIG 10 ADOPTS 4-GAME RULE

Grange and Professionalism Discussed by Grid Coaches.

Chicago, Dec. 5.—(AP)—The faculty representatives at the meeting of Western Conference officials today adopted a four-game rule, to avoid in the future a situation like that at Minnesota this fall where only three Big Ten football games were scheduled. Each Big Ten team it was voted, must schedule four conference games before taking on non-conference opponents.

Grange is Discussed. "Red" Grange and the effect of professionalism on intercollegiate football was discussed everywhere about the sessions, but no action was taken. "What can we do about it?" said Professor O. F. Long of Northwestern. "We cannot ask the football players to pledge themselves not to play professional football after they have finished their Big Ten careers."

To Curtail Scouting. The faculty members decided to ask the athletic directors and coaches not to send so many scouts to watch future opponents, as the press stands of the stadiums were getting over-crowded with "Buffalo Bills." They recommended that the scouts be kept to one for each school at each game, if possible.

Track Meets Set. The control of the indoor and outdoor track meets of the conference was taken out of the hands of the graduate managers and given over to the athletic directors. Dates for meets were set as follows: Swimming championship—March 12 and 13, at Michigan.

'ECKY' SELECTS BIG TEN TEAM

Oosterbaan, Edwards and Friedman on All-Conference.

Chicago, Dec. 5.—(AP)—The All-Western Conference football selections of Walter Eckersall of the Chicago Tribune, prominent football critic, were announced tonight, with "Red" Grange as left halfback and captain because "he is the greatest running back in the history of football."

The eleven players chosen by Eckersall, himself a noted quarterback in the 1900's and for many years a popular football referee and writer, are as follows: Benny Oosterbaan, Michigan, left end.

Daryl Harmon, Wisconsin, right halfback. Austin "Five Yards" McCarty, Chicago, fullback. Three of Eckersall's selections were captains of their teams this year. Lowry, Henderson and Grange, and Friedman is next year's captain at Michigan, while Harmon will captain the Wisconsin eleven.

Friedman is the most accurate place kicker in the conference, says Eckersall, in giving the reasons for his choices. McCarty is the hardest hitting back in the conference. Oosterbaan gives every indication of developing into one of the best wing men in the history of Michigan football, he says. Hess was the outstanding guard in the Big Ten while Wash was given the other guard position because few gains were ever made over or through him.

SIDE LINES

Here's the All-Conference, selected by Albin Holdren in "The Big Ten Weekly" magazine:

Ends: Oosterbaan, Michigan, and Kassel, Illinois. Tackles: Henderson, Chicago, and Edwards, Michigan. Guards: Brown, Michigan, and Hess, Ohio State. Center: Lowry, Northwestern. Quarterback: Friedman, Michigan.

Halves: Alquist, Minnesota, and Grange, Illinois. Fullback: McCarthy, Chicago. The "Athlete and Sportsman" magazine, in its December issue, lists the following All-American as having been picked by 225 of the leading football coaches of the country: Ends: Tully, Dartmouth, and Oosterbaan, Michigan.

Tackles: Weir, Nebraska, and Lindenmeyer, Missouri. Guards: Carey, Cornell, and Hess, Ohio State. Quarterback: Grange, Illinois. Halves: Oberlander, Dartmouth, and Tryon, Colgate. Fullback: Nevers, Stanford. The canvass of coaches was made by Jim Thorpe, famous Indian athlete who was three times an All-American, and Charles Padock, champion sprinter. Thorpe and Padock are associated editors of the "Athlete and Sportsman."

N. D. Gridders Play Huskers Next Nov. 6. Chicago, Dec. 5.—(AP)—The annual football game between Notre Dame and Nebraska next season will be played at Lincoln, Neb., November 6. The scheduling of this gridiron classic on that date was agreed upon today after a long discussion of the coaches who are attending the annual Western Conference schedule meeting here. Nebraska accepted an invitation to play a return game with the University of Washington, at Seattle next Thanksgiving.

Washington, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Gonzaga high school today won the Eastern Jesuit high school football championship, defeating St. James of Haverhill, Mass., 28 to 6. How many games did the Yale basketball team win and lose last season?—F. G. H. Won three, lost 19. How many years did Bob Loya play major league ball?—D. S. T. Eighteen years.

GRANGE-BEARS BEAT JACKETS

'Red' Makes 2 Touchdowns for 14-7 Win at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Mr. "Red" Grange, Wheaton's widely known loeman, aided at crucial moments by other members of the Chicago Bears, defeated the Frankford Yellow Jackets, 14 to 7, in a National League professional football game here today.

It was the second appearance in Philadelphia of the galloping ghost of the gridiron, his first being last month when a member of the Illinois football team and its brightest star. Approximately 30,000 spectators sat through a drizzling rain, at Shibe Park to watch the Western tornado go through his paces in the mud. The field was too deep in mire for "Red" to electrify the crowd with his spectacular runs but he kept trying and the Bears' two touchdowns were scored by the phantom. His longest run was one of 15 yards in the first period and in the fourth he made one of ten which took the ball to within striking distance of the Yellow Jackets' goal. After two tries "Red" slid across the line for his second tally. In the first quarter a 25-yard pass to Grange took the ball to the five-yard line and on the first play after the teams had changed goals in the second, Grange shot through tackle for his first touchdown.

Grange withdrew soon after this and did not go on the field during the third period. In the middle of the fourth after the Yellow Jackets had tied the score at 7 to 7, he was back and soon scored for the second time.

THE REFEREE. How many games did the Yale basketball team win and lose last season?—F. G. H. Won three, lost 19. How many years did Bob Loya play major league ball?—D. S. T. Eighteen years.

KIRSTINS SHIP TO RUSS GOV'T

Local Firm Reports Big Foreign Demand for Pullers.

Farm implements, made in Escanaba, will be used extensively on farms in Russia, it is expected, as a result of the shipment on Friday of one carload of Kirstin horse power and hand-power stump pullers to Leningrad, capital city of Russia. The stump pullers were ordered on trial by the Russian government for the purpose of cooperating with agricultural development in that country.

The Kirstin company has been advised that this is but an initial order, and that large additional orders may be expected as soon as these machines are in operation.

Other Countries Users.
The Russian government is not the first government to officially recognize and purchase Kirstin stump pullers. The Japanese government has for the last eight years regularly purchased, at different intervals during each year, a quantity of Kirstin stump pullers, and in its official record the Kirstin is the only stump puller that the government authorizes the purchase of by its various departments.

The Canadian government has also officially recognized the Kirstin as being a machine which they authorize to be purchased and paid for by the government under their Soldier Settlement Board. Hundreds of Kirstin stump pullers are operating all throughout the Dominion of Canada.

The English government has also officially approved and purchased several carloads of Kirstin stump pullers for use in their settlement work in Australia, which approval was in the face of much lower priced machines which could be purchased elsewhere. However, the Kirstin proved so entirely satisfactory that they felt it warranted the increased price as well as the additional expense of freight from Escanaba to Australia.

Ship to Africa.
In Africa, the Kirstin is distributed by Allen, Wack & Shepherd at Delagoa Bay, South Africa, and these people have been handling these machines for the past six years, ordering regular quantities several times each season.

In Belgium and surrounding territory, the Kirstin company is represented by Hoesselet & F. De Limon at 182, Rue de la Loi, Brussels, Belgium, who have carried this representation for a number of years, and produced a most satisfactory volume of business.

Export Business Better.
Within the last 30 days, contracts covering South America, Cuba, and all other important territories have been closed, and very satisfactory connections for the development of this territory have been made.

Since the war, the large volume of export business formerly done by the Kirstin company was practically eliminated, but conditions now are showing an indication of return of a volume even in excess of the amount of business done formerly, as it appears that the business has been accumulating up until this time, merely waiting for the conditions to properly adjust themselves so that the business could be placed.

George Truckey Knows

The American Legion Weekly, in its leading editorial last week, under the caption, "George Truckey Knows," paid the following tribute to the local man:

"George Truckey is a disabled man. He lives in Escanaba, Mich. He earns a living selling lead pencils on a street corner.

"But George Truckey was not disabled in the World War. He became a casualty in industry. A patternworker, he was slowly poisoned by the materials with which he worked until his limbs were twisted and he had to take to crutches. He is slowly becoming paralyzed.

"George Truckey gave $1.88 in pennies, nickels and dimes to the American Legion Endowment fund when Cloverland Post of Escanaba conducted a campaign to raise its town's quota by having its own members and others give a day's wages to the fund.

"George Truckey knows what it means to be disabled. He knows how hard it is to make pennies grow into dollars to support himself, his wife and his adopted six-year-old daughter.

"The American Legion Endowment fund will be more than a fund of five million dollars. Not measurable in money is the vastness of sympathy and good will with which those dollars are bound together."

River all down the line there was a good-sized snowfall. Four or five inches were reported at Marinette and the depth was slightly greater in localities somewhat farther southward. It rained throughout the day here but were indications that there might be a change into snow by morning.

Pythian Sisters Dance.
Both the young and older folks of Escanaba and vicinity are anticipating an enjoyable evening at the annual invitational dance to be given by the Pythian Sisters at the Coliseum next Friday evening, December 11. The past chiefs of the temple will act as chaperones, and the music will be furnished by the Midnight Entertainers.
Invitations have been issued to approximately a thousand and it is expected that a record crowd will take advantage of them, and help swell the Educational fund of the order, which was instituted to loan to young folks desiring more education.
Those desiring to turn in further names for invitations can do so by calling either 1270-W or 603-W.

Odd Fellows' Dance.
The I. O. O. F. Encampment will give another of their popular dances at the Odd Fellows' hall Thursday evening, December 10, when the Foot Warmers orchestra will furnish the musical program. The Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their friends are cordially invited to attend.

Club Plans Welfare Benefit.
To raise funds to carry on community work that has been planned, the Escanaba Woman's club will give a dancing party at the Coliseum on the night of December 29.
A committee, headed by Mrs. L. P. Treiber, has been busy making the arrangements and an evening of great enjoyment is assured all who purchase tickets. Mrs. Louis Bowe is ticket chairman.

Music will be furnished by the Midnight Entertainers. The club hopes to raise funds with this event and others that are planned for community welfare work.

Kentucky Steal.
The "Kentucky Steal" will be the feature at tonight's skating party at the Coliseum. The usual matinee will be held in the afternoon. For next Thursday night a "Block" party is planned with $2.50 in gold as the prize.

BUILDING THE WILLIAMSON LINE OF WARM AIR FURNACES
During the many years of the Williamson business experience their constant aim has been to make The Williamson line the best possible to produce. That their efforts have been successful is proved by the fact that from the small beginning they have attained the position of the largest manufacturer of warm air heating and ventilating equipment in the United States.
This enviable position has been reached solely through the superior merit of their product. Their constant aims have been to improve the quality of their furnaces in material, workmanship and design, and to furnish a well made article—one that will give better and more economical heating results and greater satisfaction than any other firm can furnish at the same or even higher cost.

Escanaba Ore Shipments Pass Last Year's Total By Nearly 1,500,000 Tons

Escanaba's ore shipments this year totalled 5,844,276 tons, an increase of 1,498,513 tons, or about 40 per cent over the season of 1924...

Of the 1925 total, the Chicago and North-Western handled 3,666,301 tons during the season and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul a total of 1,957,975 tons.

The Escanaba docks, this year, handled 10.44 per cent of the total ore shipped from the Great Lakes district, as compared with 9.94 per cent last year.

from the district was 84,074,079 tons this season as compared to 42,614,886 tons last year, an increase of 11,549,413 tons, or 28.99 per cent.

November shipments here also were considerably larger than November, 1924. The Escanaba docks handled 681,039 tons last month, as compared with 495,137 tons during the closing month last year.

The Chicago and North-Western docks here ranged fourth in the Great Lakes district. The North-Western docks at Ashland, the Great Northern docks at Superior and the D. & I. R. docks at Two Harbors were the ones which exceeded the local total.

For the month of November, however, the North-Western here ranked third, passing Two Harbors on the final month's loading.

Evidence Against Dwyer Syndicate Compiled by U. S. Gov't.

New York, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Evidence to be submitted to a special grand jury Monday in an effort to smash the so-called Dwyer liquor syndicate and its alleged tentacles of bribery and corruption in coast guard and prohibition forces, was compiled today by Assistant District Attorney Buckner and three assistants.

"We intend to follow the evidence which comes into our possession, no matter where it leads. Where persons in the employ of the government are implicated, there will be no quiet resignations under the expedient of silence.

He also said even the number of witnesses who would be allowed to testify before the grand jury under promises of immunity would be limited.

Coincident with his announcement of the sweeping offensive against the alleged Dwyer syndicate, dispatches from Washington quoted Gen. Lincoln G. Andrews, prohibition head, as saying the arrest of William Dwyer and 20 alleged confederates was only the start of similar demonstrations throughout the country.

Adventists Will Observe Annual Week of Prayer

The annual week of prayer for the Seventh-day Adventists is celebrated this week the world over.

The local church pastor, Evangelist A. L. Beasley, has been appointed to visit several churches nearby the city, including his own at Ludington and Nineteenth streets. Monday, Wednesday and Friday he visits Wilson, Gladstone and Perkins, respectively.

Evangelist J. D. Reavis, home missionary and Sabbath school secretary for Upper Wisconsin and Michigan with headquarters at Ashland, Wis., is visiting Mr. Beasley and addressed their church yesterday, their Sabbath. He goes on to Menominee and Iron Mountain this week. Mr. Reavis reports more than 25,000 baptisms during 1924.

Mr. Reavis explained that special revival efforts will be conducted in all of their denominational schools during this week of prayer. The studies are shortened, less work is required of the students, and a fast is suggested. The annual holiday offering for missions is taken in all

Presbyterian Church Budget 15 Millions

Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 5.—(AP)—The budget for the Presbyterian church in the United States for 1926 totalling $15,000,000, was approved by the general council here today after a two-day session in which demands totalling $18,000,000 were laid down. The budget corresponds for the most part with that of 1925.

Bay City, Dec. 5.—(AP)—John Weingott, 51, unmarried, an employe of the Columbia Sugar company plant here, was instantly killed this afternoon when struck by a south bound Michigan Central passenger train near the southern limits of the city as he was crossing the tracks on his way to work.

COMING MONDAY

A thrilling attack by a wild horde of real Arabs on a picturesque old French outpost held by Sudanese troops. Scenes at a slave market in the public square in a quaint old Algerian town.

Great camel caravans moving majestically across the Sahara desert. These are some of the high lights that feature "A Son of the Sahara," the first National picture coming to the Community theatre Monday.

And best of all, each of these scenes was filmed right in the locale of the story, the Algerian Sahara.

Bert Lytell is to be seen in the leading male role as a white man who, having been led to believe that he is an Arab, accepts the place of a sheik.

Claire Windsor as Barbara Langston has the principal feminine part. Other American players who made the trip to northern Africa to appear in this picturization of launched on Tuesday or Wednesday and the work that has been accomplished, is being done and will be achieved by the organization here in the future, warrants a generous response from the people.

All of the funds raised in the drive of this week will be spent for the support of the Salvation Army in Escanaba, under the direction and supervision of an advisory committee of Escanaba men.

RED CROSS SEALS

Red Cross Christmas seals are to be distributed here next week. With the proceeds the Delta and Menominee Women's clubs hope to finance a valuable and important program of public nursing, health education and other activities against tuberculosis.

MANISTIQUE VOTES TOMORROW

Manistique will tomorrow settle not only a domestic problem, involving the affairs of that city, but will tell the world the degree of civic patriotism, the desire to progress, that exists among the majority of its residents.

Manistique will tomorrow decide whether it is to join the growing army of municipalities in the peninsula, in Michigan and the nation, who have turned their backs upon time honored, but antiquated and inefficient methods of handling public business and have set their faces toward a future of progress, by the application of simple and sound business principles in the conduct of municipal affairs.

The principles involved in a council-manager government can no longer be regarded as theoretical or experimental. They have been adopted by hundreds of American cities and are today in successful operation in every American city in which they have been permitted to function.

It has been proven by the experience of every city in which complete council manager government has been adopted, that this plan of government eliminates waste of public funds; it eliminates duplication of effort and so centralizes both authority and responsibility that government becomes more responsive to public need and demand than under any other governmental scheme yet devised.

The experience of every city in which it has been adopted, proves that it operates for the benefit of the people of the entire municipality and not for the benefit of any particular section, faction or division in society.

Finally the experience of every city in which a council manager government has been adopted, proves the elimination of politics and heated annual municipal election, makes possible the development of a united civic spirit, without which no city can hope to progress.

Manistique will settle her own problem in her own way, tomorrow, but the eyes of the outside world will be fixed upon the result.

THE SALVATION ARMY CALLS

Escanaba this week will open its heart and its purse to the Salvation Army, established and functioning in this city for the benefit of the city's unfortunate sick and needy inhabitants.

LYRICS OF LIFE

By Douglas Malloch
PITY THE MAN.
I pity the man who has no wealth.
Who has no store of gold—
Oh, not the wealth we win by stealth,
We win by business bold—
I pity the man who has no store
Of memories forevermore
Of happy days, of days ago,
For happier days that follow on.

SPINSTERHOOD

BEGIN HERE TODAY
BARBARA HAWLEY, 25, breaks with her fiancé, BRUCE REYNOLDS, and gets a job on the Press in order to see life.

He dismissed her before she could protest. Barbara turned and followed the corridor. There were two doors ahead.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

It was three-thirty when Barbara dragged herself up the stairs again and met her mother in the upper hall.

"Why mummy," she said, "have you been sitting up for me?"

"Not exactly. But I couldn't sleep; so I thought I'd sit by the front window for a while. There's a fire in your room."

"This sort of thing's got to stop, you know," scolded Barbara. "A newspaper reporter can't have her family acting like that."

But the crackling fire and the glass of warm milk that her mother had prepared, brought new color to her cheeks.

"What a queer woman the murderer was, mother," she said, as she kicked off her shoes and reached for her bedroom slippers.

"A lady, unmistakably. But she wasn't a bit sorry she killed him. Said it was her own affair, and you couldn't beat life."

"I wonder if you can," replied her mother, speaking almost under her breath.

A calendar stood on the desk by the window. As Barbara passed it, on her way to snap the light switch off, she stooped and picked it up. A red cross marked the day on which she had broken with Bruce.

Four days had passed since then.

The Press office had sunk into its late afternoon siesta. The hum of the typewriter instruments was hushed, and only two typewriters clicked spasmodically in opposite corners of the room.

Over one of these Barbara sat. Within earshot, three reporters, tilted far back in their chairs, were discussing life and letters, lazily.

Barbara leaned forward to listen, and one of them caught sight of her. "Hi, Miss Hawley, you look as if you had something to say on this subject. If so spill it. Free speech is the rule here."

Barbara had opened her lips to answer when the door of McDermott's office opened and he beckoned to her.

It was the first time that she had been granted private audience with the managing editor.

McDermott stood beside his desk, flicking ashes thoughtfully on the floor. "I have a hunch for a story, Miss Hawley," he said.

"There's a new real estate firm in town that looks like good material. Manners, Stone and Reynolds, they call themselves. Starting out to develop a model community for homes."

"It seems they have bought a section out west which they mean to develop as a model—latest architecture, paving, landscaping, and so forth—just to show what can be done. I hear they're going to splash millions into it. Call it Valse Acres, I think."

"Got the tip from a chap at my pool club the other day. None of the other sheets have heard of it. How'd you like to run over this afternoon and sew the story up for us?"

Barbara caught her breath and was silent. McDermott looked at her curiously, but said nothing.

than men to be sober when a big story breaks.
"Wow, Babe!" yelled Bob in glee. "What a knockout blow. Sinbad hasn't much comeback on that score."

"But I never thought you were a cat, Babe. Guess you've been working too late nights and forgetting your daily dozen. Old temper's on the warpath."

"I'm not a cat," snapped Barbara. "But I get so tired of superior males, I'm not always responsible. Sinbad knows I like him. But he also knows I'm just as good a newspaper man as there is on this staff. And I get just as good assignments."

"Oh, Miss Hawley, Mr. Wells wants to see you," Miss Badger's voice cut in. Barbara turned, startled. It was the first time that the society editor had ever volunteered a remark to her.

Wells looked up with his chronic frown of anxiety when Barbara approached. "You'll find a stack of letters in over on that table—lover's mail. Miss Badger tells me she no longer has time for the column. And I said I'd hand it over to you. Better look 'em over tonight and pick 'em out."

"Lovelorn," repeated Barbara, aghast. "Sure, Dotty Dimple's advice to young girls, Winnifred's Warnings, you know the stuff."

"What's the matter, Babe?" asked Bob, when she returned to the group. Sinbad Sullivan was just lurching away to the elevator.

Barbara turned a face toward him half humorous, half tragic. "Wells has given me the Lovelorn column." She dumped the mass of mail on her desk. Lavender and pink envelopes predominated.

Bob opened his mouth to roar, but changed his mind and shut it again. "Well," he said, his eyes twinkling. "This has the elements of great tragedy. I can see that."

Barbara's face was more solemn. "Cut it out, Bob," she retorted. "How would you like to do advice to young girls and Winnifred's Warnings?"

"Right in my line," said Bob. "But of course we men don't ever get a chance at that kind of assignment. Tough!"

Barbara walked away. She could not trust herself to speak. She found Miss Badger standing beside her. "You'll learn the Lovelorn column in quite a while, Miss Hawley. Every letter has to be answered, either in print, or personally. And you have to be very careful what advice you give. Always be conservative, you know. Tell 'em to come in at 2 p. m., and never to kiss anybody they're not engaged to, and never give any advice that will break up a home, or stir wives to revolt, or anything like that."

"Quite a responsibility, really. But you'll get along all right. You've reached years of discretion yourself."

"Thank you, Miss Badger," Barbara's voice was velvety. "You should know. How many years is it that you've run this column—15 or 20?"

She turned and walked back to her desk.

Bob came back to her. "I say, Babe, I didn't mean to hurt your feelings. You've always been such a good scout that I thought we could tease you."

"I know, Bob," she answered. "But I can't imagine what's wrong with me lately. I'm cross and snappy all the time, and there are days when I hate everybody around me. I'm afraid I'm getting to be a sour old woman already, and I'm only 25. What'll I be when I'm 35?"

"Well, said Bob gravely. "If you don't get hold of yourself and live more sensibly, you'll be another Miss Badger at her age. You're burning the candle at both ends, Babe, working all hours and eating when you happen to think of it. You'd better take a tumble and let up a bit."

A few minutes later she left the office on her way to a beauty parlor.

"I want a shampoo and marcel and a facial massage and a manicure," she said to the crisp woman in charge. "And I want somebody to fuss over me without talking to me. I'm so tired of this universe I am afraid I'd shriek if anyone even spoke to me."

"You're a business woman, aren't you?" replied the woman. "We get lots of customers like you. In fact the bulk of our business comes from just such girls. I think we can make you comfortable."

The next two hours were a blissful series of warm lathers and cold cream pads and delicately perfumed rinses. Barbara lay under the deft hands of the girl operator, enjoying every process in complete relaxation. She closed her eyes and almost went to sleep during the massage.

Two women were talking in the next booth. "It sure makes me sick," said a harsh voice. "The way these sheltered women talk about us working girls spending our money in beauty shops and for clothes and things. They seem to think a woman who stays at home and lives on some man's fat has a better right to a marcel than the janes that get out and earn the two dollars herself."

"Should see my boss' wife. Every time she comes into the office, she gives my hair the once over and then looks as if she'd like to see me struck by lightning for my sinful extravagance."

PAUL'S VOYAGE AND SHIPWRECK

Acts 27:30-44. And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship.

Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

Wherefore I pray you to take some meat; for this is for your health; for there shall not a hair fall from the head of any of you. And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all; and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat. And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea. And when it was day, they knew not the land; but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoisted up the main-mast to the wind, and made toward shore.

And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship against the hinder part, and broke her, and remained unmoved, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; first into the sea, and got to land.

And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for December 6. Paul's Voyage and Shipwreck. Acts 27: 30-44.

BY WM. E. GILROY, D. D., Editor of The Congressionalist. The story of Paul's voyage to Rome and his shipwreck, as told in the twenty-seventh chapter of Acts, is not only one of the most thrilling narratives of the sea, but it is also said to be the most important account that has come down to us of shipping in ancient times.

The story of how the ship's master handled the ship in the storm, the undergirding, and other details have been valuable to experts for the light that they throw upon methods of navigation in the ancient world.

The interest of this narrative for the Bible student, however, is found in other directions, and it centers chiefly in Paul himself. Here we have amazing evidence of the sheer grandeur of moral heroism.

The full contrasts of the picture are so strong that it is almost impossible to see them in their full intensity.

Here was a comparatively unknown man, the preacher of an obscure and unpopular faith, whom people might have thought of as a mere fanatic.

In manifold ways and places this sublimity of character has been revealed in history. Possibilities of all examples is Jesus himself. He was in authority, not Roman governor, and even on the situation he had command of the situation. It was his to say, "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do."

NOVEMBER'S SIX BEST

The six "best sellers" of November, according to leading New York wholesalers, were: The Perennial Bachelor, by Anne Parrish. One Increasing Purpose, by A. S. M. Hutchinson. Glorious Apollo, by E. Harrington. The Keeper of Bees, by Gene Stratton-Porter. Soundings, by A. Hamilton Gibbs. The Professor's House, by W. L. Cather.

BY THE NEA BOOK SURVEY

It's just another street address so far as most of the world is concerned—14 Mulberry Place, Newark, N. J.

Newark itself hasn't been particularly interested in the old, red brick house until recently. The very people who live within its faded walls are more or less perplexed by the interest it suddenly has been attracting.

The colored landlady, seeking to be obliging, agrees to show a visitor around and speculates "as how they say a famous man used to live in this place."

But, if the plans of the Stephen Crane Association are carried out, 14 Mulberry place will be as far famed as the birthplace of Poe, the Old Curiosity Shop of Dickens, the tomb of Shakespeare, or any of the other national monuments to the world's great.

Here Stephen Crane was born—the last of fourteen children—to the Rev. J. T. Crane, a presiding elder of the district. If you please, and one of a large line dating back to the celebrated Jasper Crane, a founder of the prosperous New Jersey manufacturing town.

The city long since has grown away from Mulberry Place; the houses have become run down in the hole a bit; there is little to recall the dignity of an aristocratic neighborhood; the children of workmen about and play in the street.

The white-haired postman remembers—oh yes, the Rev. Crane—a fine man. And the little fellow Stephen—he was a great nuisance, always tearing around, a few old-timers recall. Not a bit studious-like.

Just now the place is in the limelight because steps are being taken to purchase it and turn the shabby old brick place into a sort of hall of lived beyond his measure 30 years, and there came the realization that it was about time proper recognition was given the youth whose colorful life ended in a little German town just about 10 years ago.

Several publishing houses have hastened to memorialize young Crane in special editions. The Appletons turned out a handsome edition of the classic "Red Badge of Courage," with an unusually well-rounded boards, with a tablet to the memory of one of America's greatest young geniuses.

And now Alfred Knopf announces "the finest collected edition ever given an American author." This edition in itself is a romance. The text of much of much of Crane's writing was known only to certain collectors. Old bookstores and auction rooms were searched and since 1921 the process of collecting has gone on, introductions to various volumes have been written by Joseph G. Gesheimer, Thomas Beer, who wrote the splendid Crane biography, H. L. Mencken and other.

Readers unacquainted with Crane's work can begin acquaintance through the Boy's Own Book, which H. G. W. declared the greatest show ever written.

What a cat Miss had been had to speak of her, though she were getting old!

The girl had stopped in the middle of the marcel, and was bending over Barbara.

"What about coming some day, Miss Hawley," she asked, and having one of our best mud-racks, followed by electric vibrations! It's fine for tiny wrinkles and for bleaching circles around the eyes. I'll guarantee that by the time you'll have two or three of the treatments, you won't look a day over 27."

The interurban was flying between gray November fields. Barbara lay back with her hat pulled over her eyes, trying to rest. The new marcel had caught her hair up in close boyish lines about her ears.

She was trying not to think. There was still a half hour before she would reach her home station. The lights in the car had just been turned on, and commuters were rustling the pages of their newspapers and talking in monotonous.

"Been noticing this new real estate firm?" said somebody in front of her. "Going big, looks like. See the Press says they're going to throw millions into the new Valse Acres development scheme. Show what progress really means. Better get Manners or Stone to come and talk before the Civitas club next Tuesday noon. They're big men, with a '44 idea."

"All the same," replied a drawing voice, "I wouldn't put a brass nickel in anything that Miss Manners is interested in. I don't like her eye, or her taste in men either."

Barbara sat bolt upright. "What a cat Miss had been had to speak of her, though she were getting old!"

SEALS FINANCE SPLENDID WORK

Sponsors of Campaign Outline Uses of Red Cross Funds.

Red Cross Christmas seals, which will go on sale throughout Delta and Menominee counties tomorrow, are financing widely varied and highly important and beneficial health activities in this section.

Mrs. George Beath, chairman of the Woman's club special committee, in a circular letter to friends of the movement, explains these projects in detail, as follows:

"We are sending this appeal to you today with the hope that as a public-spirited citizen you are willing to contribute your small share towards making your community a healthier place in which to live. Your contribution, added to many others will enable us to carry on in Delta and Menominee counties a definite health program, a program so wide in scope that each and every citizen of these two counties must be benefitted to some degree. May we mention merely a few of the features of this program as carried on during the past year.

Health Camp.

"This camp, established in 1925 and located in the Wells Memorial Park at Cedar River cared for 42 under-nourished girls during the past summer. These girls, between the ages of six and fifteen, came from scattered districts of Delta and Menominee counties. Many of them came from families having active tuberculosis and had been definitely exposed to the disease. During their month's stay, under medical supervision, they practised and were taught healthful living habits. Practically without exception these children left camp better physically than on admission and the lessons taught them here should be of benefit to them as they grow older. The camp was operated without a bit of expense to the children and was financed entirely from the Christmas Seal fund.

Health Nurse.

"By means of the seal sale fund it has been possible to employ a full-time public health nurse. A large percentage of this nurse's time is spent in the rural schools of Delta and Menominee counties. Children are examined and parents advised as to any showing defects. She is also instituting the modern health crusade in our rural schools. In addition to her school work, this nurse gives time to 'follow-up' work of known cases of tuberculosis and urges the examination of 'contacts'.

Chest Clinics.

"Free chest clinics have been established and are held each month both in Delta and Menominee counties. Anyone suspicious of any lung disease, may be examined free of charge at these clinics. They are always announced beforehand in the daily press.

"In addition to the above there are services rendered to the active tuberculosis and their families, too numerous to mention.

"Just remember there are many public-spirited citizens who give not only their money but also their time, at a great personal sacrifice, simply for the sake of making this our community—a better place in which to live and bring up their children. May we have your help?"

"Seventeen" Exerts Magic Influence in Seat Distribution

"Seventeen" continues to exhibit its magic powers. The money paid for the seventeenth seat reserved yesterday morning for the junior class play was refunded to the purchaser.

Free tickets will be given to the first two people living in house or building number 1717 who call at the high school Monday morning. The tickets may be secured from Bradford Loveland or Miss Esther Baldwin, junior class advisers.

Three free tickets will be given to three students who were 17 on the 17th of any month during the past year. The fortunate students are Mary Klettke, Refider Johnson and Del Olson, all members of the senior class.

An interesting coincidence has been discovered, in that Catherine Stolk, a member of the junior class who was recently operated on for appendicitis, is in room 17 at St. Francis hospital. If she is able to leave the hospital in time for the play she will be admitted free of charge.

The ticket reservation at the Office Service company yesterday showed that the advance sale of tickets has been exceptionally good. However, there are still many good seats left.

Forty Hours Will Begin Today At Saint Patrick's

The annual Forty Hours' Devotional will be held at St. Patrick's church beginning with a solemn high mass this morning at 10:30 o'clock when Rev. Fr. J. Mockler, pastor of the parish, will be the celebrant, assisted by Very Rev. Fr. R. G. Jacques and Very Rev. N. Stehlin.

The Sunday evening service will consist of the rosary, sermon and benediction with the blessed sacrament. The sermon this evening will be given by Rev. Fr. F. Seltzer of Dagget who is a well-known pulpit orator. Monday evening Rev. Fr. George Stuntebeck of Loretto, another forceful speaker, will occupy the pulpit.

Confession will be heard every afternoon at from 3 o'clock on and after the evening services. There will be masses daily at 5:30, 6:30 and high mass at 8 o'clock. Tuesday evening the solemn closing ceremonies will consist of a sermon, solemn procession and solemn benediction with the blessed sacrament when Very Rev. Fr. Henry Buchholz of Marquette will officiate, assisted by several priests of Delta county. Among the clergymen who are expected in the city for the ceremonies are: Rev. Fr. J. Guertin, Rapid River; Rev. Fr. T. Drenagaz, Foster City; Rev. Fr. G. Stuntebeck, Loretto; Rev. Fr. F. Geynet, Flat Rock; Rev. Fr. S. Malers, Gladstone; Rev. Fr. A. Coignard; Perkins; Rev. Fr. D. Joseph Breault, Bark River; Rev. Fr. P. N. Jutras, Schaffer, and others.

The sermon on Tuesday evening will be given by Very Rev. Fr. Henry Buchholz of Marquette. During the procession with the blessed sacrament little children will strew flowers ahead of the blessed sacrament. The children have been assigned regular hours to remain in church in meditation and the members of the parish will take turns in forming an honorary guard at the church while the blessed sacrament is exposed.

Father Mockler extends an invitation to all to attend these beautiful ceremonies and to receive the sacraments during these days of special grace.

The most incongruous thing on earth is a married man deliberately looking for an argument.

BAIRD TO TAKE CENSUS OF DEER KILL IN STATE

Will Try to Estimate Season's Result.

Lansing, Dec. 5—The state department of conservation will take a post mortem census of the legally killed deer that have been brought down across the straits and out of the wilderness counties of Lower Michigan the last two weeks.

John Baird, director of the department, announced that he will send questionnaires to each person who bought a deer hunting license this fall whereupon he will be asked to state whether he killed a deer and where he hunted. It is not expected that the questionnaires will enable the department to make an entirely accurate count of the bucks killed, but it is believed that they will produce an approximate figure that will be much more accurate than the guesses of other years.

Last year the state sold 33,000 deer licenses. This year the open season was only as long as it was in 1924, but even so it begins to appear that as many or more deer hunters were afield. County clerks throughout the state were supplied with as many license blanks this year as they sold last year and there has not been one of them who has not sent in for an additional allotment.

Check Does and Fawns.

The game census idea first was sponsored by the state of Pennsylvania, where it now is mandatory on the hunter to report all game killed. Last year 6,000 bucks and 600 bear were killed in Pennsylvania. Mr. Baird believes that fully 5,000 bucks have been killed in Michigan each fall since the one-buck law was passed and that this will be the record year.

To date the state wardens have shipped in 55 does and fawns which were illegally killed and then seized or found in the woods.

Children on Hand to Welcome Santa on His First Trip

Hundreds of children from Escanaba and the surrounding territory greeted Santa Claus as he came in at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon on the Chicago and North-Western and followed him downtown, first to the Fair store and then to the Coliseum where the old gentleman held a reception and passed out souvenirs. The arrival of Santa Claus is an annual event on the Christmas program of the Fair store and is always a big affair for the youngsters. This year's crowd, however, was larger and more enthusiastic than ever.

Some people have so much confidence in themselves they will call a dictionary a liar.

More Than $45,000 Paid To Members? Of Our 1925 Club

Did the postman bring you a Christmas Club check?

How to join the Christmas Club

You can become a member without any introduction or formality.

All you need do is to call at the bank and pay the first week's deposit.

Membership open to all—women, men, boys and girls.

We will give you full information when you call.

WE have made cash settlements to thousands of people in this community who joined our Christmas Club last year. Each member has received a substantial sum that solves the problem of extra money needed at holiday time.

Christmas Club saving is a systematic method by which you can plan to have a definite holiday fund next December. The amount depends on the deposits you make, which range from a few cents to a few dollars a week. You can select any class, according to your means and convenience. Join our 1926 Club now and have extra money next Christmas.

IT'S GREAT to belong to our Christmas Club

When you get your money back in a lump sum it will seem just like a gift from Santa Claus.

Join Our Christmas Club and you will find it's easy to accumulate all the money you will need for next Christmas.

"Listen in" on Oakland Owners

"I know now why Oakland is winning and holding good will." "My new Oakland Six out-performs even costly cars."

"I've never seen its equal for all-around economy." "My friends marvel at the car's nimbleness in traffic."

Tributes such as these are pouring in by thousands from new Oakland Six owners. These owners are not merely Oakland friends, they are Oakland fans—as enthusiastic over the car as over their favorite performer in sports.

And no wonder! The new Oakland Six—priced from $70 to $350 lower—embodies more than 100 improvements, including Air Cleaner, Oil Filter, Full Pressure Oiling System, Four Wheel Brake refinements and the Harmonic Balancer—an advanced engineering feature imparting unmatched freedom from vibration. As one owner says, "The car has everything!"

Roadster $975 (Old Price $1095) Landau Coupe $1125 (Old Price $1295)
Touring 1025 (Old Price 1095) Sedan 1195 (Old Price 1545)
Coach 1095 (Old Price 1215) Landau Sedan 1295 (Old Price 1645)

All prices at factory—General Motors True Payment Plan, according to the industry, have been made since 1924. This new low price at $40 to $50 per week payment.
