

NESBITT CONFESSES BATHTUB MURDER

NEW YORK ASKS CAL'S AID IN SEAWAY FIGHT

CONFLICTING IDEAS DANGEROUS TO EACH OTHER.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Mar. 12.—The outcome of the controversy that has arisen as to whether American shippers shall use the Great Lakes St. Lawrence waterway or turn to the new project proposed by Governor Smith of New York for a canal to go through American territory entirely was the failure of both.

The fight promises to be long-drawn out and intense and the usual result of a situation in which two rival proposals are presented is that one kills off the other.

Both sides have presented their views to President Coolidge who will ultimately favor. The army engineers are engaged in surveying the St. Lawrence project and a report is expected in April. Mr. Coolidge in the very nature of things doesn't want to commit till that report is available. Yet the secretaries of war and navy already have approved the project which calls for a canal through New York state and a deeper Hudson.

New York Active.

Senator Wadsworth of New York was at the White House today to urge the President to back up the recommendations of the secretary of the navy and the secretary of war. Although Mr. Wadsworth is a republican and the project was advanced by a democratic governor in the Empire state, the subject has no politics in it so far as New York state is concerned as New York naturally wants the waterway to go via the Hudson instead of the St. Lawrence. Mr. Wadsworth is up for re-election this fall and, of course, in the sense that he may be able to accomplish something for New York state his friends see political opportunity for him in advocating the new waterway idea.

Similarly the senators from western states who are opposing the New York waterway because they think it is too expensive are aware of the interest their constituents are taking in getting some kind of a project built. Some of the middle western senators are saying that the New York state project will cost a half billion dollars more than the other and they fear the expense will kill it.

Broadly speaking the subject promises to be a real issue as soon as the report of the engineers is available in April. The idea for a waterway which shall make it possible for trans-Atlantic steamers to load at Chicago and lake ports generally is one which every city and commercial center in the eastern half of the United States near the Great Lakes is bound to be interested. Just what effect the proposed waterways would have on rail traffic has not yet been definitely established. The waterways are usable of course only certain seasons of the year but the need for development of inland waterways has been so apparent since the freight congestion during the world war that it is not believed the railroads generally will use their influence to fight the projects though here and there individual roads may oppose the new route.

Must Get Together.

At the present writing if the advocates of the two schemes do not get together it looks as if the whole idea of a new route to the west will be delayed in being put into effect. Long drawn out debate and several projects have delayed a solution of the Muscle Shoals question and the outlook for early action on the new Canals is for a similar period of investigation, voluminous reports, debate and inaction.

SEES ASSAILANT GET LIFE TERM

This is the latest picture of Miss Louise King of Battle Creek, Mich., taken at the door of the Mason, Mich., courthouse during trial of her charge of assault against Arthur Rich, millionaire's son. With her is Assistant Prosecutor A. J. Lockton. Rich was convicted and given a life term in prison.

3 Killed in Rioting Over Church Closing in Mexican Village

Nayarit, Mex., Mar. 12.—(AP)—Three representatives of the state of Nayarit were killed and a number of persons injured, one girl probably fatally, in a riot resulting from orders to close a Catholic church at Jalisquillo, a neighboring town. The officials were met by armed opposition from church followers.

This is believed to be the first bloodshed in the nation as a result of the stringent closing laws imposed upon churches by the national government and is the first on the west coast of Mexico. Priest Stand Ground.

A Catholic priest at Jalisquillo had failed to comply with the closing law and was standing his ground against presidential orders with the backing of his flock. Upon the appearance of the representatives of the government at Jalisquillo, they were met by an infuriated mob of men, women and children, which demanded their withdrawal. These representatives were Mayor Romero of Jalisquillo, Francisco Torres Maldonado and member of the Mexican national legislature and Antonio Ortega. Undaunted by the mob confronting them, the three men faced the gathering and read the authorization of the government's closing of the church. Soldiers in sufficient numbers to protect the dignitaries were not available. In the emergency, the mayor of the town was called upon to back up the representatives from the state capital.

People Attack Trio. At first, he sided with the worshippers. Later, being convinced of his obligation to back up the orders of the president and of the state governor, he reversed his decision. When the mayor turned against them, the people fell upon the trio. Before calm was restored, the three dignitaries had been so badly mutilated that they died before medical attention could be rendered. Several women and numbers of children received serious injuries.

Gov't to Pay 1 1/4 Per Cent Over Par for Liberty Bonds

Washington, Mar. 12.—(AP)—The government will pay an average of 1 1/4 per cent above par for $121,750,000 in third Liberty bonds which it recently offered to buy direct from holders. No prices were set in the treasury's offer to buy these bonds, which mature in 1928 and bear interest of 4 1/2 per cent. All proposals for sale at prices not exceeding 101-10-32 have been accepted. Secretary Mellon announced tonight. Payment on all accepted offers will be made March 23, when the bonds to be sold should be in the hands of the federal reserve banks. More than $148,000,000 of the bonds were tendered for sale.

October 12 Named National Holiday in Italian Bill

Rome, Mar. 12.—(AP)—The senate today approved a bill by which October 12, the day on which Christopher Columbus of Genoa, discovered America, will be proclaimed a national holiday in Italy.

LOCARNO PACT SPIRIT DASHED, AUSTEN THINKS

USELESS TO CONFER WITH GERMANS, HE SAYS.

Geneva, Mar. 13.—(AP)—Sir Austen Chamberlain, the British foreign secretary, indicated his belief in a confidential talk with the British newspapermen early today that the crisis over the question of increasing the number of League of Nations council seats has reached the proportions of a disaster with paralysis of the atmosphere created by the Locarno accords. Sir Austen announced that it was useless to continue the conversations with the Germans, because he was convinced they would be fruitless. Hence, it had been decided to turn over the whole problem to the council of the League of Nations. This would take it out of the hands of representatives of the countries who signed the Locarno pacts and who have been meeting throughout the week in an effort to reach a solution of the difficulty brought on by the demands of Poland, Spain and Brazil for seats on the council and the stand taken by Germany, that she must enter the council alone at the present time.

Austen's Hopes Dispersed. The British foreign secretary declared he had been hopeful Friday morning, but that after he had received a communication from the German chancellor, Dr. Luther, rejecting the allied proposal, he felt certain the fulfillment of a further meeting between the Rhine pact signatories. This proposal, described by Sir Austen as embodying extreme concessions, provided that Poland should be given a non-permanent seat on the council.

"We are faced with a real tragedy," said Sir Austen, "and it is impossible to predict what the reaction will be. The tragedy is also that Germany has done this thing."

LUTHER WON'T BUDGE.

Geneva, Mar. 12.—(AP)—Receiving the German newspapermen tonight, Chancellor Luther declared the German delegation would maintain its position to the very end and that, moreover, he had told this to Sir Austen Chamberlain, the British foreign secretary, tonight. Chancellor Luther reiterated that Germany could make no commitments as to what she would do after entering the league before being admitted. He added that in a spirit of accommodation the Germans on Sunday suggested that the council appoint a sub-committee to study the question of reorganization of the council. This was the limit to which Germany could go at present.

CONFESSION IS BARED AT TRIAL

Marshall's First Story of Killing Girl Disclosed.

Philadelphia, Mar. 12.—(AP)—The written confession of David L. Marshall that he cut up the body of Anna May Dietrich after she had committed suicide, alleged to have been made to the district attorney of Delaware county, was read at his trial today.

It was the first of two confessions he is alleged to have made, the second having been obtained by the district attorney of Philadelphia. The second confession has never been made public.

Feared Friendship Results. Marshall, who is charged with having killed Miss Dietrich in his chiropractic office when, he said, she threatened to expose their relations, had been calmly listening to the court proceedings ever since the trial started last Monday. Today, he squirmed in his chair as William Taylor, district attorney of Delaware county, recounted the incidents prior to Marshall's confession and told what the prisoner said when he finally admitted he cut up the body of the woman.

In the confession read to the jury today Marshall said that he had met the girl seven or eight years ago. He said that "fearing their friendship would reach serious proportions, after knowing her for a few years, he told her that they must break their relationship socially, but not professionally."

"Fearing the medical profession would blame chiropractic treatment for the young woman's death," said Marshall in the statement, "and fearing the notoriety that would ensue, I decided to leave the body there (Marshall's office) for the time being."

Later in the statement, Marshall asserted he had "found a small bottle containing a white powder which he presumed was poison." The confession then went into detail concerning the cutting up and distribution of the body and disposal of the knife and saw.

Railway Station Heavily Damaged in Chinese Fight

Tientsin, Mar. 12.—(AP)—Heavy firing was resumed this morning at Lanchow, about a hundred miles northeast of this city, resulting in heavy damage to the railway station and numerous casualties among civilians. It is believed that a general attack by the Fengtien army of Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, the Manchurian chief against the Kuminchun (national armies) defending the line of the Lan river for the central government, is imminent.

BUTLER ENTERS NAVY HOSPITAL

Marines Officer to Have Several Infected Teeth Extracted.

San Diego, Cal., Mar. 12.—(AP)—Brig. Gen. Smedley D. Butler, who a few days ago preferred charges of intoxication against Col. Alexander S. Williams, thus taking him from command of the fourth regiment of marines, returned to San Diego today after a short stay in Los Angeles and entered the navy hospital as a patient.

General Butler told reporters he had several infected teeth which were to be extracted in a few days, his blood pressure was dangerously low and he would be in the hospital for several days. Capt. Raymond Spear, commandant at the hospital, said General Butler would have to remain in bed for a week.

General Butler declined to discuss the case of Colonel Williams. He also declined to talk about a letter sent to Secretary Wilbur of the navy department and to Attorney General Webb of California by the San Diego County Federated Trades and Labor Council. This letter criticized a speech made by General Butler at a meeting of the American Legion here Monday.

The general, in his address, told of his experiences in Philadelphia, his instructions to the police there to "shoot to kill" and of raids made there under his orders. The letter charged that these remarks were "anarchistic and inflammatory."

CURRAN QUILTS ELLIS ISLAND

Immigration Chief Took Prominent Part in Cathcart Case.

New York, Mar. 12.—(AP)—Henry H. Curran, immigration commissioner at Ellis Island, announced today that he had forwarded his resignation to President Coolidge to become effective March 31, in order to become counsel of the City club.

Commissioner Curran was appointed by President Harding and assumed office on July 1, 1923. He was reappointed by President Coolidge in December, 1923. He declined to say whether he would make any recommendations or change in policies at Ellis Island prior to the date his resignation becomes effective. He will assume charge of the civic work of the City club on April 1.

Mr. Curran recently came into wide prominence during the controversy over the detention of Vorse, Countess of Cathart, at Ellis Island, on the grounds of "moral turpitude."

HIGHLY REGARDED.

Washington, Mar. 12.—(AP)—Despite differences between immigration Commissioner Curran and labor department executives which at times have reached the controversy stage, department officials tonight expressed high regard for his record at Ellis Island and no indication was given that his resignation was due to any cause other than a desire to accept a more remunerative position.

A successor will be recommended to President Coolidge by Secretary Davis of the labor department, but he would not disclose tonight whom he had in mind for appointment to the $6,500 post, which is regarded as the most difficult in the immigration service. Second Assistant Secretary Husband, who was formerly commissioner general of immigration, said only one man was under consideration for the commission, but he likewise refused to divulge his name.

Abolishment of Danish Army and Navy Is Proposed

Copenhagen, Denmark, Mar. 12.—(AP)—The folketing (house of commons) today passed the third reading of the disarmament bill, which calls for virtual abolishment of the Danish army and navy, leaving only frontier and customs guards and a number of vessels for coast duty. The vote was 75 to 71.

COOLIDGE IS MUCH BETTER, DOCTOR SAYS

HEART ACTION GOOD; COLONEL LOOKS CHEERFUL.

Plymouth, Vt., Mar. 12.—(AP)—Col. John C. Coolidge, father of the president, rallied today after a sickness of many months had developed critical symptoms. Tonight, his physician, Dr. Albert M. Cram of Bridgewater, announced that the colonel's condition showed definite improvement.

As the physician late in the afternoon left the Coolidge home, he gave a reassuring bulletin to a group of neighbors and newspapermen.

Heart Action Stronger. "Colonel Coolidge's heart action is much slower than it was last night, and is stronger," he said. "I feel that his condition is better than it has been for several days. His pulse is regular, and he seems cheerful. He is not suffering pain."

Last night, Dr. Cram said his patient had a heart attack attended by extreme weakness. The symptoms, it was indicated, probably were of a digestive disorder.

"While there is no doubt that the condition of Colonel Coolidge is grave," he said, "and that he can never regain his full health, I believe he has successfully passed the present crisis."

Roads Snowed Under.

The chief topic of conversation in the general store, Plymouth's place of assembly and social center, was whether developments in his father's condition would be grave enough to bring the president here from Washington. If the president should consider it necessary to come here at this season, he would have to cover the 13 miles from Ludlow by sleigh or snowmobile, it was agreed, because the heavy snowfalls of February and March have closed the highway to automobiles. Drifts from six to eight feet deep have been heaped up in places.

Last night a big tractor snow plow which had been set to work on the Ludlow end of the road, broke down. With its collapse went all immediate hope of a plowed-out highway.

The trip by sleigh occupies more than two hours, while the snowmobile, a combination of sled and tractor, makes the run in an hour.

TALKS WITH FATHER.

Washington, Mar. 12.—(AP)—President Coolidge talked by telephone today with his father who is ill in Plymouth, Vt., and was encouraged over the improvement shown.

Unless Colonel Coolidge's condition should become worse, the president does not intend to go to Plymouth, now reported to him as virtually snowbound.

The word received today over the private wire to the White House was that the colonel was brighter and better, with his pulse and temperature almost normal.

Strikers Arrested in New York City

New York, Mar. 12.—(AP)—More than two hundred textile workers from Passaic who came to New York today to sell tags for the benefit of the strikers, retreated after 33 of their number had been arrested and charged dis disorderly conduct. No permit had been issued for the "tag day."

One woman was included among those arrested. There was no unusual demonstration.

Dawes Forces Watson to Face Chair While Speaking in Senate

Washington, Mar. 12.—(AP)—Invoking another senate rule which has been much abused, Vice President Dawes today compelled Senator Watson, Republican, Indiana, to face the chair while speaking. Questioning Senator Fees, Republican, Ohio, who was in the back row, Senator Watson began speaking with his expansive back toward the vice president. "The senator will face the chair," interrupted Vice President Dawes. "Mr. President," bowed Senator Watson, turning around, and then turned back toward Senator Fees. "The senator will face the chair," reiterated the vice president while floor and galleries laughed.

ASKS DRY VOTE

Emory Buckner, federal district attorney in New York, who is in charge of prohibition enforcement there, has assailed the prohibition forces for opposing a national referendum on the liquor issue. "Since when should anyone espouse a law which could not stand the fresh air of the ballot box?" he asked.

CAL IS NEUTRAL IN CANAL FIGHT

President Will Maintain Hands-Off Policy in Matter.

Washington, Mar. 12.—(AP)—Despite appeals to him by both sides, President Coolidge does not intend to take sides in the dispute over a route for a Great Lakes-Atlantic canal until he has investigated.

The White House announced today that he was remaining neutral in the midst of the barrage of arguments showered down about him. To this barrage Secretary Wilbur added today an open letter denying indirectly a charge that he was playing politics when he recently pointed out the benefits of the All-American-Ontario-Hudson route. This route has been declared economically unjustified by army engineers, but Chairman Dempsey of the house rivers and harbors committee favors it.

"The navy department," said Mr. Wilbur in a letter to Mr. Dempsey, "has expressed no opinion whatever upon the feasibility of this canal or the desirability of its construction, other than the opinion that if such a canal is constructed it would be of incidental value to the national defense."

Education Measure Offered in Senate

Washington, Mar. 12.—(AP)—Chairman Phipps of the senate education committee poled the hopes of advocates of a federal education department today by introducing a federal education bill making no mention of such a department. It merely would provide extended aid to education and research work along the present lines. The present education bureau in the interior department would have an additional $250,000, and additional personnel.

SENTENCED FOR LIFE.

Boston, Mass., Mar. 12.—(AP)—Frank Creorian, alias Frank Corey of Worcester, acquitted last August of the murder of Mrs. Mae Price, theatrical company wardrobe mistress, was convicted tonight of robbing the murdered woman. Judge David A. Lourie sentenced him to life imprisonment and pending appeal to the supreme court, ordered him held in $100,000 bail.

HE BURNED PAJAMAS.

"I don't remember anything until I was standing in the bathroom shaking like a leaf. I washed and that made me feel better. Then I put my clothes on and put the pajamas in the furnace." He said he did not know how his wife got in the bathtub. "I might have put her there," he said. "Did you try to revive her?" he was asked. "No," he answered. "I was crying. I didn't know what to do."

KILLED WIFE AFTER FIGHT, HE DECLARES

ADMISSION SOLVES DEATH MYSTERY IN TROY, O.

Troy, Ohio, Mar. 12.—(AP)—In the presence of a half-dozen witnesses, Jacob C. Nesbitt tonight confessed he killed his wife, Frances Drake Nesbitt, three weeks ago today. He said he had been quarrelling "over everything."

The confession came after five hours of questioning in the Nesbitt home, according to Or Slater, Cincinnati private detective.

He said Nesbitt broke down completely and made a clear breast of it. Nesbitt, according to Slater, declared he did not know what he hit his wife.

Quarrelled Since Marriage. The murder occurred Friday morning after Nesbitt and his wife had arisen.

"We have quarrelled ever since we were married, Slater quoted Nesbitt as having said. "We quarrelled over everything, business and personal matters."

"We quarrelled Thursday night and we got up Friday in the same mood. I got mad, and hit Frances in the face with my fist. Then everything got red."

"I have only a hazy remembrance of what happened after I struck her with my fist."

For three weeks, the Nesbitt murder has presented a baffling wall of mystery to officials who have worked feverishly to unearth a tangible clue.

Nesbitt Helped Probers. The point had almost been reached where everyone concerned believed the murder would remain unsolved forever.

Nesbitt himself has been the most active in attempting to run down clues. He has worked with newspaper men and with Slater ever since the latter came here to take charge of the case a week ago. He had never been accused of the murder and today was the first time he had been questioned at any length. At the coroner's inquest, he answered questions apparently in a straightforward manner, and the coroner's verdict as rendered at the close was that Mrs. Nesbitt had died from concussion of the brain, the result of having been struck by an unknown instrument in the hands of an unknown person.

Nesbitt Breaks Down. For five hours, Nesbitt, Slater and the rest of the officers who had worked on the case went over it from start to finish. Finally it was apparent that Nesbitt was becoming agitated and the officials determined to press him. "Did you murder your wife?" was shot at him.

"I did," he said sobbing. "I did."

Then officials called a stenographer, and County Prosecutor L. E. Harvey started the questioning.

"I'll tell it all," Nesbitt said. He then recounted the quarrel that preceded the murder. He said they were so angry with each other he slept on the davenport in the living room the night before the murder. He could not remember, he said, with what instrument he struck his wife after he had given her a blow in the face with his hand.

He Burned Pajamas. "I don't remember anything until I was standing in the bathroom shaking like a leaf. I washed and that made me feel better. Then I put my clothes on and put the pajamas in the furnace."

He said he did not know how his wife got in the bathtub. "I might have put her there," he said. "Did you try to revive her?" he was asked. "No," he answered. "I was crying. I didn't know what to do."

NEW EXPLAINS POSTAL RATES

Higher Charges Reduced Revenue Last Six Months, Claim.

Washington, Mar. 12.—(AP)—Postmaster General New today reported on his study of the postal rate structure in response to a senate resolution and at the same time Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee, introduced a bill to lower the rates.

Despite a decline during the last six months of 1925, Mr. New predicted that the postal business eventually would reach a normal status under the increased rates affected by the last congress to meet salary increases and estimated that the total revenue for the present fiscal year ending June 30 would be $673,876,987 compared with $599,591,477 last year which was $74,285,510 less than operating expenses.

Postal Revenue Decreased. He explained that the estimate was based on actual receipts for the first six months and asserted that, since the first of the year, there had been a "slight decrease" in postal revenues which, if continued, would reduce the total several million dollars.

The report showed that the department had handled 721,279,719 fewer pieces of mail in the latter half of 1925, when the new rates were effective, than during the same period in 1924 under lower rate schedules. Postal business took a sharp slump immediately after adoption of the higher rates, it said, but it has increased substantially with indications that it will return to normal.

STATE LEADING SAFETY MOVE

Wolverine Delegates Will Show Nation What Michigan Has Done.

The second National Conference on Street and Highway Safety, when it meets in Washington on March 24, will learn, first-hand, from a group of prominent Michigan men, that this state, a leader in the manufacture of automobiles, also is a leader in making them safe.

Gov. A. J. Groesbeck has named the following delegates to the conference:

From Detroit: Sheriff George A. Walters, W. E. Metzger, Detroit Automobile club; Col. Sidney D. Waldon, president, Rapid Transit commission; Capt. W. S. Gilbreath, Detroit Automobile club, and Thomas P. Henry, president, American Automobile association.

From Lansing: Frank F. Rogers, State Highway Commissioner; Alan G. Straith, Commissioner of the Department of Public Safety; Alfred Seymour, chief of police.

From Grand Rapids: Col. James Sinks, director of public safety.

Meeting Leads Way. The Michigan delegation will be in a position to lead the way in the national movement for uniform traffic laws, because of the thorough and intensive work Michigan has done along those lines the last few months.

Escanaba's chief of police, John J. Tolan, was one of the members of the state committee which framed the model ordinance and Escanaba was among the first cities to adopt it.

The object of the second conference will be to decide upon uniform traffic laws for all states. President Coolidge, in his letter to Governor Groesbeck, contends the need for such a law is imperative and points out the year's casualties of 24,000 killed and 50,000 injured.

Members of various civic and automotive organizations in Michigan will urge at the conference that the Michigan uniform law drafted at a meeting in Grand Rapids several months ago and since adopted by many municipalities be used as a model by the conference.

Recently leaders of newly all civic and automotive organizations in Detroit met at the Hotel Statler, where the uniform law, amended to suit the peculiar traffic conditions in Detroit, was studied.

Urge Michigan Plan. All persons present pledged themselves to do everything possible to induce the Detroit council to pass such an ordinance in lieu of the municipality of ordinances, under which traffic is controlled in Detroit at this time.

At that meeting it was announced that after the law was prepared in the form of a codified traffic ordinance, it would be presented to the council with a request that it be passed immediately, so the governor's delegates could go to the Washington conference with the argument that the law is in effect in practically every city and village in Michigan.

Sixteen Old Fiddlers Now Lined up for Elk's Contest; Room for More

Sixteen entries have been chalked up by the Elks for the Old Fiddlers' contest which will be staged here April 7, as one of the feature attractions of the order's annual indoor circus.

Three of them came in yesterday. They were from: J. B. Swan, Gladstone; Edward Curran, Lathrop; Charles Nattel, Escanaba. All of them are expert musicians and will contribute some foot-warming stuff to the contest, besides giving other contestants a lot of competition for the possession of the gold watch trophy and the other prizes which will be awarded.

Here's the entry blank again today. Any resident of the Upper Peninsula, who is more than 40 years of age and who does not play the violin "by note," is eligible.

I am an old fiddler. I am more than 40 years of age and I am not familiar with the new-fangled foolishness called "playing by note."

I desire to enter the Old Fiddlers' contest to be conducted by the Escanaba Elks the first week in April.

OVERCOAT IS RETURNED.

Seattle, Wash.—Washington State Forest Supervisor Sylvester has received the weather-worn remains of an overcoat which he left on the summit of Overcoat Peak in the Cascade mountains 28 years ago. It was forwarded to him in an envelope. He left it buttoned around a rock for use as a signal when he completed surveying in that region in 1897. The peak was named from the coat.

FISH MEMBER OF OLD TRIBE?

Recalled That Bay Was Stocked With Them 45 Years Ago.

History repeats and maybe fish do the same. Police Chief John J. Tolan recalls that about thirty years ago a fish, similar to the "mystery" pulled out of the bay in the Daniels & Sons nets, was snared here and was the subject of considerable speculation until an old-timer of that day remembered that someone, 15 years previous, had stocked the waters hereabout with a species of western trout. The chief believes the Daniels catch is a descendant of the earlier brood.

HER OWN WAY

A GIRL OF TODAY

A GOOD BLUFF.

"I turned toward the door of Mr. Sterns' office, when he called me back. 'Here, I didn't say for you to go immediately,' he shouted. 'Well that's the way we're going,' I answered composedly. 'At that, he came off his high horse for he knew I was the best hat checker in town and had more friends than any other girl in such a position. He also knew you are the prettiest girl he had ever had at his place. We both meant money to him and he wasn't going to let us go. 'Oh, Mamie, be yourself. Go back and take care of your little forlorn chicken if you want to, but remember that the first complaint I hear of either of you, out the 'firm' goes.'"

After that things went along fairly smoothly. Mamie acted as a buffer to me at the restaurant and I helped her out when her mother's complaints nearly drove her wild at home. I grew in time to be what Chuck would have called "hard-boiled." The tinsel-clink of silly compliments meant nothing to me and I was able either to ignore or turn aside with an irrelevant remark the too obvious flatteries of the masquerade. It was impossible, however, to act at all times as though I did not understand the advances of Horton, Sterns' friend, and I would not let Mamie interfere as she wanted to when others of our patrons' speeches and actions

Watch Your Breakfast

Start every day with food that "stands by" you

HOW you feel all morning depends largely on what you eat for breakfast. Thousands have unenergetic forenoons because of wrong breakfast eating. To feel right, you must have a well-balanced, complete breakfast ration. At most other meals—lunch and dinner—you get it. But breakfast is a hurried meal, often badly chosen. Thus Quaker Oats, containing 16% protein, food's great tissue builder, 58% carbohydrate, its great energy element, plus all-important vitamins and the "bulk" that makes laxatives seldom needed, is the dietetic urge of the world today. It is food that "stands by" you through the morning. Food that should start every breakfast in your home. Quick Quaker cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. That's faster than plain toast. Don't deny yourself the natural stimulation this rich food offers.

Doctor finds high heels are making hoofs of women's feet. That's fine. Horshoes are cheap. I kept congratulating myself that I had never seen anyone in the restaurant who had known me before coming here, for, although I was making considerable money with my wages and tips, I knew I was going to leave the place as soon as possible. I did not like it in any way. I grew to hate the ordinary "man about town"—the "lobby lizard," as Mamie called him. The difference in his attitude to the young women he brought to luncheon and dinner and the girl employees of the restaurant, was an insult to womanhood. I have known fathers and sons to make remarks to Mamie and me who would knock a man down for making the same remark to their women-folk. For a long time I had managed to pass this sort of thing over, but one evening the climax came.

MARKET NEWS

STOCK PRICES KEEP SOARING

Table with columns: Date, Industrials, Railroads. Rows: Friday, Thursday, Week ago, Year ago, High 1926, Low 1926, Total stock sales, Ex-dividend.

New York, Mar. 12—(AP)—The upward movement of prices was resumed in today's stock market with the rails and oils again in the forefront of the advance.

Bullish sentiment was created by the improvement in the credit position, as indicated by the substantial decrease in brokers' loans in the week ended March 5, the decrease in rediscouunts last week and the continuance of relatively easy money rates.

Delaware and Hudson led the advance in the railroad group by soaring nearly 8 points to 174 1/2, the highest price since 1912, on rumors of an early distribution of its coal company assets.

Persistent rumors that General Petroleum was to be absorbed by the Standard Oil Company of New York or merged with some California company, sent that stock up 3 1/2 points at 62 1/2, on total transactions of over 110,000 shares.

Buying of the steel shares was stimulated by reports of a substantial increase in inquiries in the first ten days of March and by rumors of an early resumption of dividends on Republica Steel.

Call money held steady at 4 1/2 per cent all day. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Foreign exchanges were irregular. Demand sterling and French francs held relatively steady at $4.85 1/2 and 3.64 cents, respectively.

Chicago, Mar. 12—(AP)—Wheat prices went sharply upward today, accelerated by export purchasing on a broad scale. It was estimated that in the last 24 hours 2,000,000 bushels of North American wheat had been taken for prompt shipment for Europe.

Farm Leaders Agree to Changes to Bill

Washington, Mar. 12—(AP)—Farm relief leaders of the middle-west have agreed to important changes in their legislative program, which will be laid before the house agricultural committee in a completed bill within a few days.

Although the delegation from eleven states had not reached an accord tonight on all points, it was learned that the bill would contain a clause placing an embargo on importation of corn for a year.

The measure will retain a federal farm board, with authority to contract for exporting surplus crops, any losses to be borne by a revolving fund. This fund would be initiated by an appropriation of $250,000,000 and permanently financed through an equalization fee paid by manufacturers processing agricultural commodities.

BASKET :-:

sugar, 2 tablespoons gelatine, 1 cup whipping cream, 4 tablespoons powdered sugar, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, few grains salt.

Wash prunes well and let stand over night in cold water to cover. In the morning stew slowly in this water until tender but not mushy or broken. Drain and measure juice. There should be two and one-half cups. Soften gelatine in 1/4 cup cold water for ten minutes. Combine prune juice and granulated sugar and bring to the boiling point. Add softened gelatine and stir until dissolved. Remove from fire and let stand until cool. Remove stones from prunes, keeping the fruit as perfect as possible. Dip each prune into liquid and arrange in rows in the ring mold. When firm to the touch pour in jelly and let stand until "set" and chilled. When ready to serve unmold onto a large plate. Whip cream until solid, adding powdered sugar and vanilla when cream thickens. Fill center of mold with whipped cream and serve. Canned cherries and strips of citron can be used to garnish the dish if desired.

This recipe will serve eight persons.

Breakfast—Oranges, cereal, thin cream, fish hash, corn bread, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Spinach and cheese souffle, toasted corn bread, rhubarb tapioca, milk, tea.

Dinner—Stuffed pork tenderloin, fried apple rings, onions baked in hooks, radishes, whole wheat bread, steamed fig pudding, milk, coffee.

Bulk is added to the breakfast menu by serving whole oranges rather than just juice. While children under four years of age should never be given more than the juice of an orange older children and adults need the "roughage" found in the pulp of the fruit.

As rhubarb comes into market keep in mind the necessity of serving it often.

Rhubarb Tapioca.
One cup quick-cooking tapioca, 2 cups water, 3 cups rhubarb cut in inch lengths, 1-8 teaspoon salt, 4 cups sugar, 1/4 teaspoon soda. Cook tapioca in water with salt until clear. Pour boiling water to more than cover over rhubarb, add soda and let boil up once. Drain and rinse in clear cold water. Add to boiling, tapioca with sugar and cook five or ten minutes. Turn into a mold and let stand several hours to chill and become firm. Serve with sweetened whipped cream or sugar and cream.

The apple rings are sprinkled with sugar and cinnamon before frying and the fruit is not pared.

White Radio Bill Studied by House

Washington, Mar. 17—(AP)—Consideration of the White bill to regulate radio was begun today by the house with a number of amendments regarding its progress.

Without a record vote, the house adopted an amendment by Representative Lehibach, Republican, New Jersey, to provide that after passage of the measure, all existing broadcasting licenses upon expiration must come under provision of the bill.

An amendment by Representative Blanton, Democrat, Texas, to provide that slanderous or abusive language used by a broadcaster will be punishable under federal libel and slander laws, was rejected.

$100,000 Worth of Champagne Seized

New York, Mar. 12—(AP)—Customs officials today announced the seizure of champagne estimated to be valued at more than $100,000, "supper club" prices, which was brought to this port aboard the President Polk and President Hayes, both Dollar Line steamers, now in the round-the-world tourist trade.

The champagne, totaling more than 400 cases, was in 200 barrels marked "crude alum," "sulphate of aluminum," and "colored earth."

The first consignment of 100 barrels was not claimed immediately at the dock after the arrival of the President Hayes and was consigned to warehouses.

Discovery of their contents was made when one of them accidentally fell and broke. The others were opened and two cases of champagne were found secreted under layers of colored earth.

Escanaba, Gladstone Eliminated in Preliminary Rounds of Tourney

HILLTOPS LOSE BY 12-10 SCORE

Lead 7-2 at End of Half; Ironwood Rallies in Second.

Marquette, Mar. 12.—(Special)—Unable to hold on to the 7-2 lead they had hung up during the first half before the slashing assault of the Ironwood offensive machine, the Escanaba high school was forced out of the running in the Upper Peninsula basketball tournament by a 12-10 score in the opening Class B game this morning.

The Ironwood crew, staging a magnificent comeback during the second half, managed to tie the score at ten-all by the time the gun ended the regulation four periods. During the overtime period, the Escanaba defense wavered and Lakso, Ironwood forward, dashed through for the basket that sewed up the game and probably the Class B title.

It seemed for a time that Escanaba was going to furnish the biggest upset of the tournament done so far, the Ironwood outfit 7-2 at the half, and hanging on to a narrow lead up to the last minutes of play. With Captain Lawrence of Escanaba out on fouls during the latter part of the game, Spera managed to loop the basket for the count that tied the game.

Ironwood, as usual, had a colorful team in action and played a keen passing game, but its attempts to connect with the basket were erratic.

Summary of Game.

The game opened with Escanaba racing the ball down the floor several times, but missing shots at the basket. Spera missed the free throw on Lawrence's foul. Berigan made one point on Maki's personal.

Rockberg missed a free shot on Lakso's personal. Lakso missed two free throws on Berigan's personal. Spera missed a free throw on Lawrence's personal. Rockburg then scored a field goal for Escanaba. Rockburg added a point on Lakso's personal as the quarter ended, 3 to 0, in favor of Escanaba.

A few moments after the opening of the second quarter, the referee called a technical foul on Maki, and Lawrence added a point in the throw. Zambowitz missed a free throw on Berigan's personal. Spera opened the scoring for Ironwood when he made two points on Carlson's personal.

After Lawrence and Rockburg worked the ball down the floor by brilliant teamwork, Lawrence made a pretty loop of the basket. Nelmark missed two free throws on Carlson's personal. Zambowitz missed a free throw on Lawrence's personal as the half ended, 7 to 2, in Escanaba's favor.

Early Max Seven-Point Lead.

Immediately after the beginning of the second half, Rockburg added two points on a field goal, making the score 9 to 2. Escanaba showed wonderful teamwork but was missing short shots under the basket. Zambowitz made a field basket for Ironwood.

Lakso added two more points on a field goal soon after Zambowitz, making the score 9 to 6 with the Reddies still leading. Stegath then rebounded Lawrence, who was taken out after four personals had been called on him. Zambowitz added a point on Lawrence's foul.

Johnson missed two free throws on Zambowitz's personal. Maki replaced West for Ironwood. The third quarter ended: Escanaba 9; Ironwood 7.

At the beginning of the final stanza, Johnson added one on Zambowitz's personal. Lakso missed a free throw on Carlson's personal, and then Maki made a point on Rockburg's personal. Ironwood was working the ball repeatedly down to the basket, but was having hard luck in making the short shots. With about one minute to play, Escanaba started to stall. Spera broke through Escanaba's stalling defense, dribbled under the basket and scored a field goal, bringing the score 12-10 all. The crowd went wild.

Both teams began to miss a lot of long shots, and the period ended, 12 to 10.

Get Plenty of Shots.

In the first stages of the three-minute overtime period, both teams took numerous shots at the basket but failed to register. Spera finally again flashed through the Hilltops' defense, dribbled to under the basket, and scored the deciding field goal. With a minute to play, Escanaba, on the tip-off, worked the ball down the floor, but missed in the try for the basket. A few seconds later the game ended, 12 to 10, in favor of Ironwood.

SHERIFF ENDS FIGHT FIASCO

Stribling-Tunney Match Definitely Stopped at Miami.

Miami, Fla., Mar. 12.—(AP)—Sheriff Henry Chase this afternoon wrote "finis" to Promoter Baugh's half-completed dream of a 10-round no-decision bout here tonight between Gene Tunney and W. L. (Young) Stribling. The sheriff terminated three days of futile efforts to put on the fight when he appeared at the last of the many conferences and emphatically asserted that he would enforce the orders of Gov. John W. Martin and not allow the fight to be held even though a way out of the tangle was found.

Electrical Firm Sues.

Almost on the heels of Sheriff Chase's order, the Abbot Electrical company of Miami entered suit against Jess Baugh, the promoter, for $3,500 to recover electrical fixtures installed in the stadium.

City officials and leading sportsmen of Miami closeted themselves with Billy Gibson, manager of Tunney, and Stribling three times during the day. At the third conference, Sheriff Chase appeared and delivered his message. After that the argument concerned only the manner in which ticket holders would be protected.

$22,000 Taken In.

"Tiny" Parker, Miami agent who handled the advance sale of tickets, said that about $22,000 worth of tickets had been sold up to the time the fight was called off. Steps are being taken by city officials to handle the refund so as to assure the ticket holders of a full refund.

Neither Gibson or Stribling would comment on the offers to stage the fight in New York or Los Angeles which Tex Rickard and Joe Levy made.

New York, Mar. 12.—(AP)—Gene Tunney and Young Stribling, whose scheduled clash in Miami, Fla., tonight has been called off, will be offered terms for a match at Madison Square Garden May 17, featuring a charity program sponsored by the state athletic commission.

Badgers, Hoosiers Star in Field Meet

Chicago, Mar. 12.—(AP)—Wisconsin and Indiana entrants turned in the best performances in the quarter and half-mile preliminaries tonight to the sixteenth annual indoor track and field championships of the Western Conference at Northwestern university tomorrow night.

Kennedy of Wisconsin, flashing through the quarter mile run in 53.1-10 seconds, led four qualifiers. The others were Cuhil, and Roberts, Iowa and Feinsinger, Michigan.

By placing three men in the two events, which were the only preliminaries required, Iowa insured a position as strong contender for first honors in the meet which it has demonstrated in previous meets this season.

The other Big Ten schools which have shown unusual strength in previous track events are Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin.

32 Teams to Play in Catholic Meet

Chicago, Mar. 12.—(AP)—Thirty-two teams will compete for the national Catholic interscholastic basketball championship starting at Loyola university here next Thursday.

The entries, closing today, showed the names of 28 teams from 19 states but four additional teams will be selected for an application list of teams which have presented claims to sectional titles.

Yankee Fans Worried Over Ruth; Think He Has Lost Batting Eye

New York, Mar. 12.—(AP)—The failure of Babe Ruth so far to show anything approaching his old-time clouting consistency in the training camp battles, is beginning to worry the Yankees' followers.

The big fellow's more ardent supporters feel that it is too early to become alarmed; that it is only a question of time before the Yankee star strikes his real stride. These boosters point out that Ruth was never in better playing trim than now.

Other critics incline to the belief that the Babe faces a harder struggle than many contemplate despite his good general condition. Over-anxiousness to make good, they point out, may be a handicap. In addition, pitchers who gained confidence by subduing Ruth last season are expected to be less shy of the big fellow's hitting powers during the coming campaign.

Dope Badly Upset On Opening Day of U. P. Basketball Meet

Many of Schools Picked to Win Fail to Come Through Prelims.

The dope bucket was tipped over and the contents scattered in all directions in the preliminary rounds of the Upper Michigan Class B and Class C basketball tournament at Marquette yesterday. The semi-finals results helped to straighten matters out to some extent but not a whole lot and today Ironwood and Negaunee will meet in the finals for Class B honors and Newberry and Crystal Falls will battle for the Class C championship of the peninsula. The winners of these two games are playing tonight for Upper Michigan honors and the right to represent this section in the state tournament, two weeks from now.

Gladstone's Defeat Surprise.

Probably the greatest upset of the tournament was Gladstone's downfall in the preliminary battle with Munising. The Alger county aggregation were doped as easy prey for the speedy Kellman and would probably have lost but for the fact that three of Gladstone's stars were disqualified on personal fouls, leaving that outfit with but four men to finish the game.

Wakefield, doped by some sports writers as certain of Class C honors, faltered before the strong Newberry quintet of loopers and dropped out of competition in the semi-finals, leaving Newberry and Crystal Falls to play off today. The Celery City crew seem pretty certain of attaining class honors and should put up a tough battle for the peninsula championship.

Escanaba's downfall was predicted by Marquette scribes who picked Ironwood as the class champion. The Gogebic team was not displaying championship form yesterday, however, and if the northerners don't show a sudden improvement they will fall victim to Negaunee in the finals this afternoon.

Newberry Going Strong.

Negaunee's showing was another unexpected feature of the tournament. Her 20 to 19 victory over Ishpeming was certainly unexpected but not any more so than the 22 to 8 trouncing the Hematites handed the over-confident aggregation of basket-slingers hailing from Iron Mountain.

But although most of the first day dope went astray, here's the outlook for today. Newberry should come out on top in her battle with Crystal Falls for Class C honors and if Negaunee shows anything like the form she did yesterday Ironwood is due for an awful trimming.

That leaves Negaunee and Newberry to fight it out for Upper Michigan honors tonight. Negaunee may show the effects of the hard pace she has been setting but it appears that the U. P. finals should be a thriller with two evenly matched teams battling for peninsula honors.

2 U. S. STARS IN NET FINALS

Nice, France, Mar. 12.—(AP)—The finals of the Nice tennis tournament tomorrow will be an all-American affair—one between the West and the East. Miss Helen Wills of California will meet Miss Isabella Lee Mumford of Boston.

In a one-sided match today, in which Helen frequently experimented with her racket to improve certain of her strokes, the California girl eliminated Mme. Peterie of Hungary, 6-2, 6-2.

The outcome of the other semi-finals match between Miss Mumford and Miss Eileen Bennett of England was something of a surprise, for although the New England girl has played at Wimbledon, her game was not considered strong enough to overcome Miss Bennett. Using a slow stroke, which apparently puzzled Miss Bennett, Miss Mumford succeeded in winning the match, 4-6, 6-4, 6-0.

Miss Wills and her English partner in the mixed doubles, Charles S. Kingsley, reached the semi-finals of this part of the tournament by defeating Miss. Bourgeois and M. Garon, 6-1, 6-3. The Anglo-American pair now will meet Miss Mitchell and Charles F. Aeschmann, and, if they win, they will play Miss. Vlasto and Henri Cochet in the finals.

The Northtown quintet of basket tossers defeated the Press Neverswets by a 20 to 17 score at the Webster school gymnasium last night in an overtime period game.

The Press outfit were in the lead for the greater part of the battle, but the Northtown crew managed to tie the score at 15-15 just before the whistle ended the regulation four periods.

Taylor Spills 1083 Pins in Five Games

Earl Taylor, crack Escanaba bowler, after a month's absence from the pin-scattering sport, spilled a total of 1083 of the maples in five games yesterday, hitting a single-game high mark of 257. Taylor was tuning up for the visit of the Escanaba team in the Upper Peninsula tournament at Ishpeming next Sunday.

Besides Taylor, the Escanaba quintet will contain Joe D. Johnson, Carl Sawyer, Ed Moersch and Ollie Pfister.

SWIMMING MEET

Ann Arbor, Mich., Mar. 12.—(AP)—Michigan placed 13 men in the preliminaries of the Western Conference swimming meet here tonight. The final events will be held tomorrow night.

Minnesota was second in number of men obtaining places, with seven and Northwestern and Wisconsin both placed four. Iowa and Purdue had three entrants placed.

In the two relay events, Michigan, Minnesota, Northwestern and Wisconsin were the four teams gaining places.

The preliminaries brought out no fast times and few featuers.

Iron Mountain Outfit "Cracked" Under Strain of Tourney Play.

Marquette, Mich., Mar. 12.—(AP)—Negaunee and Ironwood will fight it out tomorrow afternoon for the Class B basketball championship of the Upper Peninsula, as a result of games played in the Northern State Normal gymnasium this evening. Newberry and Crystal Falls play for Class C honors.

Ironwood defeated Houghton, 23 to 21, and in the final game of the night, Iron Mountain "cracked" Negaunee, taking an easy decision, 22-8. Crystal Falls, with its victory over Munising, 17-10, won the right to face Newberry in the Class C finals Saturday afternoon. Wakefield was no match for Newberry, which is picked to win in Class C. COOKS FIVE BATTLE VALIANTLY AGAINST HEAVY BERGLANDERS

Marquette, Mar. 12.—(Special)—Cooks was forced out of the competition in the last of the Class D games on Thursday night, losing 18 to 13 to Bergland. The battle was hard-fought throughout, Cooks not conceding Bergland a thing until the game was ended.

Cooks won the admiration of the audience, because it conceded Bergland 15 pounds to the man. B. Wright started for the losers, playing an excellent floor game and scoring 10 of his team's 15 points. Bergland is picked to win from Champion when the two meet in the Class D semi-finals Saturday morning. The Ontonagon county entry displayed a whole-hearted attack, though this was handicapped by poor passing.

TRAINING CAMP FLASHES

By NEA Service.

Shreveport, La., March 12.—With Chief Bender on the White Sox, the personnel of the club savors much of a wild west show or Ranch 101. Providing they stick, there will be four Indians on the team. They are pitchers McBee and Carney and Outfielder Najao.

Manager Eddie Collins says there are a number of other players not Indians who are fitted to qualify for the wild west staff, particularly some of his pitchers.

Fears are expressed that Ike Davis will be of little use to the Sox this year. The cast wasn't removed from the broken leg until after Christmas. So it is very questionable if he will be fit to go.

"Some of the experts insist Davis failed at short for us last year," says Eddie Collins. "I can't agree with them. Any player capable of stepping into the majors and playing something like 150 games has made good. I wish I could feel that he would be as capable this year."

The White Sox would welcome a hard-hitting, left-handed outfielder. With Ray Schalk catching and Bill Barrett in right field, the club will be a tuffie shy on portside batters. There would be only two left-handed clubbers, Collins and Falk.

Eddie Collins, who injured his leg so badly in a game with the Athletics last fall, says he feels no ill effects and believes he will play as well as ever this year, at the same time admitting that after 20 years he is slowing up a trifle.

"Do you expect to catch 100 games this year?" Ray Schalk was asked.

"I am going to catch just as many as I am physically able to, provided Eddie wants me in there, and I hope it's at least 100 times."

The New Red Book of Records, recently issued, doesn't give Schalk all that is coming to him as an "ironman" performer. It has him catching 1455 games over 14 seasons. Schalk says it should be 1655. The record has him starting his career in 1912, whereas he caught about 30 games in the closing days of the 1912 race.

Tom Gulley, once the property of the Cleveland Indians, who slugged the ball in the Southern last year, has a fine chance of sticking with the Sox. He is a left-handed hitter and, if he can field as well as he appears able to hit, he should do.

Shortstop Hunnefeld, who hails from Portland, that has turned out such stars as Bancroft, Peckinpaugh and Hollocher, is a cocky young man. He is satisfied that he is going to stick under the big show and wants every one to know it. He keeps up a constant chatter and some of it is of a critical nature. John McGraw would be crazy about his style, for it fits perfectly the Little Nap's scheme of play.

VETS WORRYING EDDIE COLLINS

White Sox Manager Deeply Concerned Over Their Condition.

BY BILLY EVANS.
Shreveport, La., March 12.—To most managers the possibilities of the rookies are the most important features of spring training.

Not so with Eddie Collins, famous leader of the Chicago White Sox. He is more concerned over the condition of his veterans.

Just how good his veteran spitball pitcher, Red Faber, will be is one of his problems. He is starting his thirteenth season with the White Sox.

I know any number of players who would view their thirteenth season in the majors with considerable apprehension, not to say superstition. Faber isn't a bit fussy about the hoodoo number.

Scotts 20 Victories.
"I am going to win 15 games for Eddie this year and, with the bats, I might cop 20."

That was the way Faber summed up his chances of having a good year. He looks in fine shape and if trying will win from 15 to 20 battles, Red will turn the trick.

However, the two chief worries of Collins is Catcher Ray Schalk and Shortstop Everett Scott.

These two veterans enjoy the unique distinction of not only being outstanding stars at their positions, but "iron men" as well, to use the parlance of baseball.

Scott holds all records for continuous play with 1307 games to his credit, while Schalk has caught 1655 games over a period of 14 seasons.

For 11 consecutive years Schalk set a record that will stand for many years, if not all time. He took part in 100 or more games each season. He ended the streak in 1924, when injuries kept him out of the fray most of the year. He did a comeback last season, officiating in 135.

It is impossible to compute what it means to the Chicago White Sox to have Schalk able to take part in from 100 to 130 ball games. His superb direction back of the plate is needed in every game.

With Schalk doing bench duty, it is conservative to say the effectiveness of the pitching staff is diminished 20 per cent. That will give you a slight idea of what his presence in the game means.

While Manager Huggins of New York and Harris of Washington cut loose from Scott, Eddie Collins is placing much dependence on the work of the veteran. He is banking on Scott to help solve the shortstop situation, the one flaw in the White Sox machine.

No wonder Manager Eddie is much concerned over the condition of Scott and Schalk.

Different Sets of Officials at Michigan Games

Ann Arbor, Mich., March 12.—(P)—Michigan and Minnesota, in addition to playing two games in the same year, will have another experiment in playing the games under two entirely different sets of officials. Either by accident or intent none of the men who hold the whistles and watches in the game at Ann Arbor Oct. 16 will be present when the two teams meet at Minneapolis November 20th.

Frank Birch makes his first appearance over a Michigan team in several years in the Ann Arbor battle. He will be followed by Walter Eckersall as referee of the game at Minneapolis. W. D. Knight umpires the first game; John Schommer the second. Col. Hackett is field judge of the first; Fred Gardner of the second. R. C. Huston is head linesman at Ann Arbor; Perry Graves at Minneapolis.

Few new officials appear in the list of men assigned to the Michigan team for the year. Cochran and McDonald who appear in the Oklahoma Aggie game are officials of the Missouri Valley Conference. Cochran having been a student at Kalamazoo College back in the early days while McDonald is from Brown University.

Lee Daniels, refereeing the Michigan State game, is from Loyola, (Chicago) while Milton Ghee, field judge of the same game is the old Dartmouth quarterback. Grant Ward, head linesman, is former intra mural head at Ohio State.

Jay Wyatt, head linesman of the Ohio game, is a former Missouri University athlete while Graves is from Illinois. Lipp, who appears as headlinesman of the Wisconsin game is a former Chicago player and former official over Michigan teams who before this year has been listed as Lipski.

Two of the officials for the Navy game will be named by the Annapolis authorities.

"They Don't Come Back" Adage Proven by Jeffries-Johnson Scrap for Heavyweight Title

BY JOE WILLIAMS.
The old ring adage, that "they don't come back," was never more ruthlessly applied than to the case of old Jim Jeffries when he tried to bring the heavyweight title back to the white race at Reno, Nev., July 4, 1910.

Jeff had been out of the ring since he voluntarily relinquished his title to Marvin Hart seven years before. Friends persuaded him to come back when Jack Johnson brought the negro race to only heavyweight title by knocking out Tommy Burns, who had previously taken the title from Hart.

Boxing men really believed big Jeff could put the negro battler down. The halo of the white man's great ring career, during which he had won 22 championship fights without once going to his knees, still hung over him. Jeff's strength was prodigious. Few fighters had been able to resist his wrestling tactics and his great left hand pushed out like a battering ram.

But it didn't take many rounds for ring experts to see Jeff was only a shell of the fighter of seven years before. He used none of his short, bull-like rushes; none of his trip-hammer blows to the body.

Johnson entered the ring entertaining a wholesome fear of Jeffries' famed left. He had worked out his own system of defense for it. He laid his right glove on Jeff's left forearm and kept it there virtually throughout the fight.

As early as the sixth round the crowd sensed the passing of Jeffries. The negro's persistent left, that kept darting in and out like an angry bee, laid open Big Jim's lip and closed his right eye.

Johnson's confidence increased as Jeffries grew weaker. He accompanied his blows with sneers. "Old man, it's all over but the shoutin'," he told Jeffries.

That came in the fifteenth round, but it was almost as tumultuous for the game white man, standing up under a merciless beating, as for the victorious champion.

Jeffries went into a clinch. He looked terribly tired. His right eye was closed to a slit, his left swollen, his nose split and his lips bloody. Johnson broke from the clinch as Jeff backed toward the ropes, and, at the same instant, drove his right to Jeff's body and his left to the chin. Jeff's hands dropped to his sides; he slowly collapsed to a sitting position. He tried to rise and fell over backward, half in and half out of the ring.

The arena was in an uproar. Jim Corbett, his face ashen, sat speechless in Jeffries' corner. John L. Sullivan jumped to his feet on the opposite side of the ring. These old fighters have "taken it" themselves. They could see the end.

Jeffries was pushed back into the ring. Johnson stepped in deliberately and smashed him on the jaw with a right and left. Jeff went down again.

The crowd began to yell to Referee Tex Rickard: "Stop it! Stop it!" Tex himself was yelling, but Johnson was too engrossed in the business before him to pay attention. He waited for Jeff to lumber to his feet, then began mauling him across the ring. Corbett came running beside the ring with outstretched arms, shouting, "Go back! Don't hit him! Don't put the old fellow out!"

Johnson never hesitated. He beat down Jeffries' pitiful defense and planted a right smash and two left hooks to the jaw. Jeff went down for the third time. He was trying to get up when Tex raised Johnson's arm, stopping the fight.

Jeffries was pushed back into the ring. Johnson stepped in deliberately and smashed him on the jaw with a right and left. Jeff went down again.

BRADY DEFEATS SID BARBARIAN

Michigan Flash Stages Great Comeback in Detroit Armory

Detroit, March 12 (Special)—Jimmy Brady, veteran lightweight flash, pulled a surprise party on ring fans here last night when he made a great comeback, defeating Sid Barbarian of Detroit for the state title. Brady outboxed and beat Barbarian all the way winning a great fight which thrilled the 2,000 fans that filled the Armory.

Brady, for many years a favorite, retired from the game several months ago. Offers of important matches, however, lured him back and he staked his future in a bout with the man on whom his former championship toga fell, Sid Barbarian, the "Armenian assassin."

It was apparent that Brady's rest did him a world of good and his flashy speed never was more effective. It was evident after the first round that Barbarian was a beaten boxer.

Mel Jorgenson, of Escanaba, who has been trying to procure a match with Brady, was at the ringside and one of the first to congratulate the lanky St. Ignace product on his victory.

CIGAR MEN OF CITY ORGANIZE

Association Formed to Promote Interests of Industry Here.

The Escanaba Cigar Manufacturers' association has been organized for the purpose of promoting the interests of the local cigar factories and to increase and improve the manufacturing facilities in this city. It was announced yesterday. The association expects to impress upon the public the value of the industry to Escanaba, the high quality of cigars manufactured here and the desire of the industry to cooperate with other organizations looking towards the betterment of conditions generally in this city. It was said.

Officers will be named at the next meeting of the association which will be held in the near future.

The chief grounds for a famous divorce filed recently is that they have been married since 1925.

OBITUARY

MRS. PAUL ZIMMERMAN.
Funeral services for Mrs. Paul Zimmerman of Ford River will be held from the family home Monday afternoon at one o'clock when Rev. C. A. Lund of this city will officiate at the services. Two daughters Miss Malvina and Miss Elsa Zimmerman arrived yesterday from Milwaukee to attend the funeral services.

FRANK DOBNIK.
Frank Dobnik aged 48 passed away at a local hospital Friday morning. He had been admitted to the hospital Tuesday night suffering from alcoholism and his condition was serious when admitted. He has a brother in Milwaukee who has been notified of his death. He made his home at 239 Stephenson Avenue. The body was taken to the Allo Funeral Home where it will remain pending word from the brother.

doir cap to the grocery store, women never appear outside their own doors in one half of the slothful, shiftless, good-for-nothing array that a lot of good citizens of the other sex are continually seen in. Why is it? Perhaps there is no particular virtue in being sleeked up all the time, and certainly there is nothing so offensive to the hearty person of masculine gender as the well-oiled young man whose handkerchief protrudes from his coat sleeve, whose vest buttons look as if they had been massaged and manicured an hour before, and who can wear patent leather shoes six months without getting a lot of nicks in them.

Mr. Davis, Secretary of War; Mr. Wilbur, Secretary of the Navy; and Mr. Crowley, president of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, have written letters favoring an "all-American" route across New York from the Great Lakes to the Sea, in preference to the St. Lawrence Waterway. They claim to have been guided by military considerations.

This is all said in a spirit of humility. We realize that one man is at bottom as bad as another, and if one looks a little more perk than his neighbor, it is his wife who really deserves the credit. It is nothing than can be reformed, we suppose, and perhaps the women glory in their superiority, and wouldn't have the menfolk all spick and span even if they could.

LYRICS OF LIFE

By Douglas Malloch

THE GOOD OF LIFE.

In war we learn the worth of peace, In pain the joy that once was ours; It seems until the summer ceases We never realize the flow'rs.

The world might never know a war, We might have joy forevermore, If men but saw along the way The blessings that they have today.

So, do not think too much of things That hurt, there is so much to bless; For one who says the word that stings A hundred speak with gentleness.

We need not with the rest contend If God has given us a friend, We need not weep for summers flown If in our heart one rose we own.

she is all of that, why, you might be willing to give her something better than an even break. "Oh, you're an utter fool. Won't you ever get any sense?" "Sure you haven't fallen for her, Jim?" Barry was grinning broadly.

But he looked at Jimmy with a keen, appraising eye and detected the expression of pain on Jimmy's countenance. "Why, what's the matter, Jim? Is it as bad as that? What did she do to you?" "I'll feel better if I unload my troubles on you, Barry. In your ignorant way you asked me if I had fallen for Olga Maynard. No, perhaps I'd be better off if I had. I fell for Mary Lowell, and I fell hard. And now she's going to marry Sam Church."

"Well," commented Barry bluntly, "the young lady seems to know what side her bread is buttered on. Sam's got the heavy dough, I hear." "You would say that, Barry, if you knew her."

"Until I see it through." "Well, maybe I can see your side of it, Jim." Barry laid his hand on the other's shoulder. "But," he declared through compressed lips, "if anyone tried to harm Janet, I'd kill him."

GOODRICH LINE BOATS TO STOP AT MANISTIQUE

The Goodrich Transit company boats, plying Lake Michigan between Chicago, Milwaukee and Whitefish Bay, may in the future stop at Manistique as one of their regular stops during the summer if negotiations now being carried on between the local Chamber of Commerce and the transit company prove favorable. In a communication received from P. Robbins, passenger traffic manager of the Goodrich people, inquiries are made as to local harbor conditions, and the possibilities of working up a passenger and packet freight trade at this point. With the campaign now being made for advertising the summer attractions of this community, the query of the boat company comes as a welcome one, and regular stops of the Goodrich line boats would be regarded as an added asset, one that would prove a convenience to many vacationists. Another desirable feature is that the boat line would offer an opportunity for shipment of fruits and berries, both to and from the local port. Harbor conditions here are favorable for the landing of boats such as are used in lake traffic. The last vessel of this kind to land here was the S. S. Carolina, which brought a company of Milwaukee boosters on their lake tour last summer. Some little difficulty was experienced by the boat at that time, due to unfamiliarity with harbor conditions that could be remedied with little trouble. In years past, the local harbor was a busy one, and residents remember when the port was a stopping place for scores of lake boats.

Prepare Ballots for Vote on the Movie Question "Shall moving pictures be shown in Manistique on Sunday?" is a question which will be placed before local voters at the city spring election on April 5. A meeting of the local election commission has been called for next week, and at this meeting the printing of ballots will be authorized. The three men on the commission will also designate the wordings of the question, and decided upon the form in which it is to be submitted to the voters. Indications were that the proposal would be put as above unless the commission decides to mention moving picture "theaters" specifically, in which event the question is put, a "yes" vote will be in favor of Sunday movies and "no" vote will be against them.

CLUB BOOSTS FIRE FLYER; HERE MAR. 16

The conservation department of the State Federation of Women's clubs has urged all women to visit the Forest Fire Fighting Flyer, which will swing through the Upper Peninsula next week, arriving at Manistique on Tuesday, February 16 at 9:00 a. m. The flyer will remain in the city until after noon, leaving in time to reach Cooks at 2:30 p. m. The Manistique Woman's club will be pleased to cooperate with other clubs and other organizations in the city to arrange speaking engagements. High school children are also invited to visit the train, which carries interesting exhibits on methods of fire prevention and combating brush blazes, with other conservation topics. Motion pictures will be shown in the exhibition car, and the list of speakers who accompany the car include such well-known conservation workers as: Dr. Raphael Zon, director, Lakes Forestry Experiment headquarters, St. Paul, Minn. O. T. Swan, secretary, Northern Hemlock and Hardwood association, Oshkosh, Wis. Crosby Hoar, district forest inspector, Duluth, Minn. L. F. Livingston, Michigan State college, Marquette. George Amundson, agricultural engineering specialist, Michigan State college, Marquette. Herman Lundin, member of the state department of conservation, Gaylord, Mich. J. H. Jarberg, Hancock, Mich. T. F. Marston, secretary, North Eastern Michigan Development bureau, Bay City. G. E. Bishop, secretary, Upper Peninsula Development bureau, Marquette. Dr. John N. Lowe, Marquette. Prof. L. J. Young, head of the department of forestry, University of Michigan. The train carries exhibits showing methods of prevention and combating forest fires. A lecture car will enable visitors to hear the speeches while inside. The speaking personnel has been arranged for by G. E. Bishop, secretary of the Upper Peninsula Development bureau.

IRISH COMEDY, ATTRACTION ON PATRICK'S DAY

St. Francis Dramatic club will present the modern Irish comedy, "Kathleen Mavourneen," at a St. Patrick's Day entertainment to be given in the Gero theater at Manistique on March 17, at 8:15 p. m. There will also be a matinee at 4:00 p. m. "Kathleen Mavourneen" is described as a charming romance that sparkles with lovable Irish humor and wit. It is not an Irish play of the hackneyed variety, has freshness and variety, and the action moves rapidly and smoothly. The Boston Daily Advertiser says of the play: "One of the brightest and most charming Irish comedies seen here in many years," and the Baltimore Sun said: "It was not only the Irish who enjoyed it, but everyone else." Blended with smiles and tears, this show will be presented by local talent for the approval of the Manistique public next Wednesday afternoon and evening. Popular and witty Irish songs will be sung between the acts. "Flannigan's Irish Jubilee," by Walter Johnson and Charles Cook, will be one of the specialty features. Seats for the show can be reserved at the Central Pharmacy after 9:00 a. m., Monday.

After Sickness Get Strong Quick New Pleasant Way To Take Cod Liver Oil—Puts on Weight. Nothing like the wonderful vitalizing vitamins in Cod Liver Oil to help convalescing people to quickly get strong and well—everybody knows that. But nobody wants to take the ill-smelling, horrible tasting, stomach upsetting oil itself, so nowadays, up to date medical men are ordering a tablet of Cod Liver Oil and it surely has proved a blessing to thousands of people who have been sapped of their natural strength after a severe illness and especially after the Grippe or a stubborn cough or cold. Ask Hill Drug Co. or any drug-gist for a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets. They cost but little, are sugar coated and as pleasant to take as candy. Skinny men and women take them to speedily put on plenty of good healthy solid flesh and for this purpose they are so extremely good that thin men and women often take on 5 pounds or more in 30 days. As a matter of fact, your druggist is authorized to return your money if you don't take on 5 pounds in 30 days. Be sure and ask for McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—60 Tablets—60 cents. Adv. G876-72-1t.

CHURCH ELDERS ROMP AND DON FEMALE ATTIRE

Burlesquing the activities of the Woman's society, the Elders of the Presbyterian church of Manistique gave a hilarious program at the church parlors Thursday evening. Members of the board of elders, attired in female wearing apparel, impersonated the various members and officers of the ladies' society, and carried out a regular meeting, all in due form. Several musical numbers were featured, all to the great delight and surprise of many of the ladies, who saw some of their individual traits and mannerisms disclosed by the male actors. Two officers of the burlesque "society" presided at a long table where refreshments were served cafeteria style after the meeting.

Garagemen Slip; Irregulars Win

Shifting to low gear, the Schoellcraft Auto company bowlers were unable to make the grade against the Braut Irregulars in a match at the Braut alleys Thursday. The garagemen won the last two games, but were unable to overcome the margin made by their opponents in the first stanza, and lost by 42 pins. The scores: AUTO COMPANY—3174. AT THE COMMUNITY

Percy Marmont heads an excellent cast in "The Shining Adventure," which will be the feature attraction at the Community theatre today. Marmont is cast as a philanthropic physician who is the means of reuniting estranged sisters and bringing happiness into many lives. Playing opposite Marmont is Mabel Ballin, the beautiful young screen actress who has appeared in no small number of recent successes. Then come Ben Alexander, a boy who has done more consistently good work on the screen than possibly any other youth. Today the work of Ben Alexander in D. W. Griffith's "Hearts of the World" still is talk of the film fans. In addition to these stellar figures are an able array of other screen players to be seen, among them Phylomena Van Zant, who was chosen by Douglas Fairbanks for an important part in his big success, "Don Q." Others in the cast include Mary Jane Irving, the delightful child actress, and the talented Franklin Trippett.

AT THE LYRIC

Twisting, turning, leaping, punching, jumping Dick Talmadge, the King of High and Lofly Acting, revels in his glory in his latest production for F. B. O. entitled "The Blue Streak." The picture will be shown at the Lyric theatre for the last time today, and Talmadge fans can ill afford to miss it. No more amusing or actionful story has been flashed across the silver sheet since Hector was a very small mongrel nut. It is corking entertainment that James Bell Smith and Noel Smith have turned out—the former as the author and the latter as director. Mr. Talmadge is supported by a sterling cast in his escapades in the southern republic and especially fine work is done by Louise Lorraine, Henry Hebert, Charles Cary, Charles Malles and Victor Dillingham.

IRISH PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR MARCH 17TH

A St. Patrick's Day entertainment with a program of Irish numbers in keeping with the spirit of the day will be given Wednesday evening, March 17, at the Community theater in connection with the regular program of the Obrecht Sisters, it was announced yesterday. The program, arranged by the Community management, will present an exceptionally fine group of talented Gladstone people in song, dance and entertainment numbers, as well as a short interesting talk on the day and its patron saint. "St. Patrick and Ireland" will be the topic of the talk which will be given by Rev. Fr. S. Maller pastor of All Saints' Catholic church, and which will feature the program. Quartet selections of old Irish songs which are known and loved by everyone will be given by a quartet being arranged by Mrs. H. W. Blackwell with Miss Maurie McDonald as accompanist. An Irish dance, in costume, will be given by little Miss Hazel Sword, with Miss McDonald playing. A surprise number by Percy Cameron, the "Irish-Swede," who is known as one of the best entertainers of the city, will be another attraction. Another big feature will be an old-time fiddler's contest in which all Gladstone old-time fiddlers are invited to take part. Playing will be limited to a certain number of minutes. Judges will be appointed and a prize will be awarded to the winner. Applications at Press Office. Applications for the contest are to be made at once at the Daily Press office, Phone 32, and the entrants in the contest will be limited to the first six whose names are turned in. The program will be one of the best St. Patrick's Day entertainments arranged in some time and, combined with the regular program of the Obrecht Sisters the evening's program will be a big attraction.

SUPT. TEAGUE GIVES DETAILS OF CENSUS

Announcement concerning the taking of the school census this year, work on which has already been started under the supervision of Mrs. H. J. Skogquist, has been made as follows by Supt. C. H. Teague, of the Gladstone schools: "The school census is to be taken in March this year instead of May. The new state child accounting law, which was passed at the last legislature—1925, provides that the school census shall be taken throughout the state from the 11th to 31st of March, otherwise to be taken each year as before. The new law requires, in addition to the names and ages of children, the country of birth of parents, information as to whether they own their homes or rent, whether they are citizens, or if not, whether they have taken out their first papers. "The new census is a part of the state child accounting plan in which the Educational Department at Lansing is undertaking the task of knowing at all times where the children of required school age, namely seven to sixteen years, are, in order that the children will receive the educational attention that the state expects. "The state primary money, of course, will be distributed according to the census. At the same time the census of deaf, blind, and crippled children will be taken. The names of children with defective vision between the ages of seven and nineteen; children deaf or partially deaf from seven to nineteen; children who are crippled from three to nineteen. "The census for school purposes includes all children five to nineteen years of age inclusive who reside in the city of Gladstone or make this city their home, and children living elsewhere temporarily but whose parents or guardians reside in the city. "Parents should do everything possible to assist the census taker in securing the correct data because it is essential. In the first place, because of the distribution of primary money, and second, it will mean much to the pupil later in having the correct information on file in the school and in the state department at Lansing. The census will be taken by a responsible person starting March 11th and must be finished on March 31. Mrs. Florence Skogquist will take the census. "C. H. TEAGUE."

JUDGE WILL SPEAK HERE SUNDAY NIGHT

A public gathering to which men and women are cordially invited will be held here Sunday night at the Eagles' hall when Judge Thomas E. O'Donnell of Kansas City, a prominent speaker, will give an address on a number of topics of vital interest at the present time. Judge O'Donnell will speak here under the sponsorship of the Gladstone Association of Eagles but his talk will be on topics of interest to everyone, not only members of the lodge, and it is expected that a big crowd will be out to hear him. The session plan will be one of the chief topics in his address and this and many other problems will be thoroughly discussed. The address will begin at 8 o'clock. An invitation to the general public, both men and women, has been extended.

MAYOR BUSHONG CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION

Mayor I. N. Bushong, who has headed the Gladstone city commission, since the adoption of its new charter and manager-commission form of government, will be a candidate for re-election to the commission. A petition, signed by laboring and business men of the city, and placed in circulation by friends of Mayor Bushong who at the present time is in Honolulu, was filed Friday morning at the city clerk's office. The petition is the first to be filed for candidates for the election April 5. The final date for the filing of petitions of candidates is Tuesday, April 16. The terms of two commissioners will be filed at the April 5 election, those of Mayor Bushong and Claude E. Hawkins. Both offices will be for terms of three years. A petition for Mr. Hawkins is now in circulation, but it has not yet been placed on file at the city hall. Mayor Bushong has been a member of the commission since the first election following the adoption of the charter and has been re-elected mayor during the three years and has served as head of the body throughout that time. Just received on Columbia records, by Henry Ford's Old-Fashioned Dance Orchestra, a number of old-time dances, including quadrilles, reels, polkas, etc. Estenson, corner Tenth and Delta. G875-72-2t. MRS. ROSENBLUM PRESIDENT OF EAST END P-T

Mrs. Henry Rosenblum was elected president of the East End Parent-Teachers' association, continuing in the office which she has held since the recent organization of the unit, at the regular March meeting held Wednesday night at the East End school building. The officers for the year, elected, are: Mrs. Rosenblum, president. Mrs. Ole Peterson, first vice president. Otto Goodman, second vice president. Miss Minnie Allyn, third vice president. Mrs. Fred Mingay, secretary. Mrs. Brockert, treasurer. The meeting of the association was well attended with a large number of visitors from other units. Routine matters were given attention in the business meeting preceding the election. The association expressed its appreciation to the board of education in the help given in arranging the piano for the school. A committee of Mrs. Julius Bredahl and Mrs. H. J. Skogquist was appointed to find ways and means of raising funds to defray the remaining obligations due on the piano. Program. A program was given with the following enjoyable numbers: "My Tribute"—Audience. Report on Older Boys' Conference at Marquette—Gordon Hood. Vocal Solo—Mrs. H. Skogquist. Recitation, "Bobby Shaftoe"—Elizabeth Kee. Piano Duet—Marie Bredahl and Virginia Goodman. The program was arranged by Mrs. Herman Kinnie, chairman of that committee. A social hour followed with Mrs. William Marble in charge. Light refreshments were served. Six new members were admitted to the association. Good Collection. A collection taken up to be added to the piano fund was unusually generous and the response was gratifying to those in charge.

Miss Gerry Legault of Marquette is visiting friends in this city. Miss Norma Johnson is attending the tournament at Marquette.

The Very Idea!

By Nell Corbett

INSPIRATION.

Sometimes a fella can't get down to work. His mind's full of cobwebs; his pep full of shirk. The going, at best, rather strikes him as rough and he sidetracks his tol, 'cause he'd much rather "sluff."

It may be that something has kinda gone wrong, and hindered the smoothness of pluggin' along. His normal ambition has met with reverse through some little thing that, of course, might be worse.

But when a man's aimin' to hit on all four, and fate sticks its nose in and gums up his score, he often gives in to the easiest way and work thoughts are carelessly stopped for a day.

It all goes to prove that he's human, I guess, an' just a bit weak, if he'd really confess. The get-up and pep-up is easy to lack. The thing that he needs is a slap on the back.

How often does man give the credit that's due to someone, when needed, who always comes through? He'll swing back in form, full of grit, full of life, through real inspiration that comes from his wife.

King Alfonso of Spain denies that he is to fly to South America by airplane—which ruins our whole afternoon.

There are 80,000,000 conversations held over the Bell telephones in the U. S. every day. No wonder the line's busy.

It's a great piece of advice—make the best of what you've got. But watcha gonna do if ya haven't got anything?

The brand new car would climb no hills.

The owner raised the devil. The dealer said, "I told you it was fine, upon the level."

NOW, HONESTLY—

"Sunny how people go into a restaurant, read over the menu, and complain 'cause nothing looks good."

We just don't stop to think that maybe it's our fault—instead of the restaurant's.

It's purty dern difficult to give folks what they want, when they don't know what it is.

And that's the position an eating place is in some of the time.

When you can't make up your mind as to what will please the palate, you can't expect the menu card to have it scheduled.

Most anything tastes good—if you're in a good frame of mind.

When a girl marries a man who drinks, it's either to reform him—find out where he gets it.

HUM. Understands that guy who used to give you money has gone and got married.

SPORTLIGHTS

In 1920 Sam Rice of Washington stole 62 bases. It stands as one of the best efforts since the pilfering art has been more or less shoved into the background.

Incidentally Rice's performance on the sacks that year was the best he's exhibited in his major league career. He has averaged around 25 swipes per season in other campaigns.

They call him "Man O' War" in baseball circles because of his speed and foot. He's one of the fastest men on the base paths in the majors today. If more stress were placed on stealing cushions by big league pilots, Rice would undoubtedly have an even better record in this department of play.

Lumber Orders Go Far Ahead of the Production Rate

Orders booked for 351 of the principal softwood mills during the week ended Feb. 27 were 13 percent ahead of their production, but their shipments were only 9 percent ahead of the same mark, so that there has been an increase in the total of unfilled orders. Bad weather in most consuming sections, however, according to the American Lumberman, Chicago, has been retarding the opening up of spring demand for building items. Retailers generally have their stocks in fair shape for spring, but are keeping their holdings small and depending on quick delivery of their wants. Some sellers had counted on an earlier opening of spring business and shipped unsold cars into the larger distributing centers, and price concessions have been obtainable on these. But quotations are firm practically throughout the lists on items to be shipped from the mills, and with building started the movement should speed up all along the line and lead prices some buoyancy.

Southern pine bookings were 8 percent ahead of production. There is some improvement noted in northern markets. Florida sales are lighter than they were recently, but trade with the South as a whole continues good. Oil field interests and railroads have been in the market for timbers. Mill output has been expanding in preparation for spring, and the weather has been more favorable to seasoning.

The West Coast mills took orders for 3 percent more than their output. The improvement over the previous week is largely accounted for by a gain in large yards to the middle West, where traders are taking a good many mixed cars in preparation for spring trade. Bad weather is hampering development of Atlantic coast trade, and Florida demand is less urgent. Stocks in California are much reduced, and they will soon have to be replenished, as bright crop prospects are proving a stimulus to business.

Southern hardwood output has been gaining as a result of more favorable weather in mill sections, and buyers have depressed prices 10 to 15 percent by withholding their orders. Industrial consumption is so active that buyers can not long remain out of the market, and as it is highly probable that mills would continue to produce at less than current levels, quotations may be

BRISK BUYING, STABLE PRICES, FEATURE STEEL

Cleveland, Ohio, Mar. 11.—Iron Trade Review today says: Better business is developing in more quarters of the iron and steel market. Some quickening of new buying first appeared ten days or two weeks ago has made further progress the past week in automotive, building, railroad equipment, oil, gas and certain other fields. While the spirit of conservatism in providing beyond needs immediately in sight, continues marked among buyers, the general prospects show up more favorably as the second quarter of the year comes nearer. More stability of prices also is a helpful factor.

Reflecting the broader demand, steelworks and mill operations, already on a high plane, again have been pushed ahead a few steps. The Chicago district has added capacity to bring it up to 92 percent. With 20 out of 23 blast furnaces in action, the prospects are the Gary works this month may break its high record for tonnage established March 1925. More mill and steelmaking units have gone in at Pittsburgh and in the East.

Steel ingot production in February fell 1 per cent below January but reached the highest daily rate of any February in history. For the first two months of the year, ingot production is ahead of 1925 by 1.9 per cent. Output in February was at the annual rate of 49,180,000 tons which represented 87.82 per cent of the theoretical maximum and 98 per cent of the highest mark for any single month on record.

Locomotive buying which has been singularly lacking has come to the front in the railroad equipment market. New orders total about 175. The Pennsylvania is maturing a program to buy 300 locomotives. Another important week in railway cars has added 5000 to the year's total.

Building Programs.

Building work is moving ahead briskly with a large volume well spread out in all districts. The week's awards totaling 55,933 tons, covering 60 projects, again were the largest this year and were equalled or approached only six times last year.

Greater oil field activity is evidenced by the placing of 30,000 tons of additional pipe lines by the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey and the Humble Oil & Refining Co. and by the new demands for storage tanks.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE DELFT

"Lazybones," the William Fox film version of the Owen Davis stage play of the same name, which will be seen again today at the Delft theatre, promises something different. It is the story of a typical American small town and its citizens and is full of human touches that will appeal to everyone.

Charles (Buck) Jones is the star and is supported by a stellar company including Madge Bellamy, Zaou Pitta, Emily Fitzroy, William Norton Bailey, Edythe Chapman and Jane Novak.

AT THE STRAND

Another actress has broken away from "type" portrayals, and steps forth in a new light before the great army of American movie fans. Evelyn Brent, who has gained marked success as a skillful and adroit interpreter of heavy and semi-heavy roles, is now starring in a series of productions, the first of which is "The Dankerous Flirt," which is today's feature at the Strand.

Evelyn Brent takes the part of a wealthy young society girl, who has been suffering from depression all her life. This offers the actress a characterization entirely different from those which have made her famous, and she promises to create a new niche for herself in the hearts of moviegoers.

Keen competition in ferromanganese between domestic and foreign makers has brought a reduction by the former, of $15 a ton to $100, seaboard.

The fourth consecutive week finds Iron Trade Review composite of fourteen leading iron and steel products unchanged at $38.90.

New chapters of the "Green Archer" also are on the program.

SUNDAY HILLS

Mary Philbin will be seen at the Delft Sunday in "Stella Maria," adapted from William J. Locke's famous novel. Elliot Dexter and Gladys Brockwell are in the supporting cast.

Buck Jones will be the Strand's featured player Sunday, the play being "The Desert's Price," an adaptation of a William MacLeod Raine story.

HOLLYWOOD

Hollywood, March 12.—Sights and thoughts along the Boulevard: There goes Barbara Bedford, known back in her old home town as Violet Rose... wonder what her husband, Al Roseco, who used to be a leading man, is doing nowadays?... and her father, a paperhanger, where is he these days?... Seems only movie mothers flare in the limelight, fathers going on about their own business... Marion Davies, winsome, but stammering movie star, entering Paulists'... Chuck Reisner, ex-prizefighter, and now Charles Reisner, the eminent director, wearing a British-trousered suit... Oh, lookie, mamma, at all the white pants... summer is here—tra la, tra la... wonder if the moths have bothered mine any?... Nita Cavalier, famed for flourishing bare legs, going into hosiery shop... wonder why?—she never wears them... Nita also has one of Hollywood's best figures, according to her press-agent... she studied diligently to become a choir singer and succeeded on a movie actress... Fred Thompson, ex-preacher, and now a hero of western yearnings... he makes more now from one picture than a dozen ministers make in a score of years... of course, that is only the mercenary side, you say... Joe Benjamin, the fighter turned actor, prancing his lightweight carcass along the famed and falling way... Joe is known in film-land now as the husband of Marjua Nixon, the actress who is bent on a career... in recent interview she said she valued her career above home, babies et al... "I'm going to be a star or bust," she declared and, personally, I don't see why she'll have to explode... Bennie Zeldman standing on the corner... he started in the movie game as a telephone operator and is now a producer for United Artists... at that telephone operators are in a position to learn a lot... Mrs. Wallace Reid out driving alone... an ambitiously sincere figure in Hollywood's potpourri of four-flushing... Phillips Smalley, plump actor, strolling along with lithe girl... he is ex-mate of Lois Weber, only woman director in film-land... Bessie Love sporting "plus fours" and traffic going all one way... that may be why Bessie is wearing them...

John Barrymore's mime artistry is only equalled by his shrewd business ability. The actor, who receives $15,000 weekly from the Warner Brothers studio, not long ago had to work four hours over the stipulated seven days in a week in order to finish "Don Juan". Barrymore demanded that he be paid in full for a week. Warner Brothers argued along the lines of, "Aw now, be a good sport." And John replied, "Don't be silly." Yes, John got the $15,000.

... and the wheel goes round and round. Dot Farley was a star for the old Albuquerque company in Los Angeles 14 years ago and Jack Conway was her leading man. Now Conway is directing Dot in a character role at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios.

No Speed Limit on Private Paved Highway in Texas

San Antonio, Tex.—There is one paved highway in Texas on which there is no speed limit. Such signs as "FHYvers, do your best!" and, "Boys, let the girls drive," erected by a San Antonio auto repair shop, greet the motorist at intervals of thirty-five miles.

The road is not a state highway but a private one, built by San Antonio sportsmen. It leads to Medina Lake, a hunting and fishing resort, in the hills west of here. A charge is made against every car as it enters and leaves the vicinity of the lake.

Letter Awaiting Wesley K. Clark

There is an important letter for Wesley K. Clark at the postoffice. It's from the United States Veterans bureau. Clark is not known to postal clerks nor to American Legion officers who asked to Daily Press to give the matter publicity in the hope that Clark, or someone who knows him, might be reached.

Escanaba National Bank
Starting Monday, March 15th

Success and happiness the ultimate goals of every ambitious man and woman invariably have their beginnings and developments closely interwoven with the idea of Thrift. And thrift is one of the important elements that make possible the marvelous banking houses that this country possesses today.

It is because of the importance that thrift plays not only in our own affairs, but in every step of life, as well as a desire to give folks of this vicinity an opportunity to view these splendid drawings, that this banking house enthusiastically welcomed the opportunity to give them the prominence they deserve. We hope that everyone of you who read this announcement, or learn of it otherwise, will spare no effort to witness this exhibition of Thrift Posters in the lobby of our banking house.

In addition to the lobby display, a number of these posters will be reproduced in The Press at stated intervals through the courtesy of the Escanaba National Bank. The first appearing in tomorrow's issue.

IN NEW YORK

New York, March 12.—There is a theory that Broadway will struggle to its fluke breast any figure in a passing sensation or any personality who has long basked in the limelight.

Thus the Countess Cathcart on one hand and Marion Talley, the cornbelt Cinderella, on the other. But it doesn't always work.

The name of William Tilden, Jr., would draw a record crowd to any tennis match. And it was thought that this same name would jam theaters. So Bill Tilden appeared on Broadway in a show called "That Smith Boy."

Yet last week Tilden's show set a record for the poorest box office receipts of the season. One night it took in 26, and not one of these seats had been sold at the box office. On the following night the receipts were $22.

Try and figure it out!

Man or beast, some gesture of sensationalism is attempted by way of Broadway introduction.

There is, for instance, the story of "Phantom," whose name has just been added to the animal world's social register.

"Phantom" is a horse—the most intelligent horse in the world, they say. He has just been brought from Paris by Maurice Legarde, French movie figure, and his wife Billie Rand Legarde. "Phantom" soon is to join Rin-Tin-Tin and other famous animal actors.

But humans or animals, they're all alike to Broadway. One has to achieve Broadway repute, man, girl or horse.

And so the adventures of "Phantom" since his arrival have been exciting.

The Legardes decided to give a dinner to formally introduce "Phantom" to New Yorkers. The banquet was held at the Hotel Ansonia. "Phantom," who, according to his owners, can "do anything," was scheduled to walk up the hotel stairs to the 14th story and enter the banquet suite. Somehow or other the S. P. O. A. found out. "Phantom" had negotiated four flights when it became advisable to take him the rest of the way on the freight lift.

"Phantom" moved into a special bedroom, but someone on the floor called the police. Just as the guests were toasting the horse a sergeant and two police entered and demanded to know what a horse was doing in a hotel room.

"Phantom" returned to the stable via the freight elevator, his visit interrupted. Thereafter he was taken for a subway visit and, thence, to the Woolworth building.

As the result of his exploits he is now "accepted" and has vaudeville offers at fat figures.

Give What All Buyers Long Demanded in Vain!

With a swiftness that borders on the sensational, the new Pontiac Six is achieving a position of commanding leadership.

Everywhere, and instantly, motorists saw in this new General Motors Six these definite tangible qualities that they have always wanted, and wanted in vain—

- a big, powerful engine, with the largest piston displacement of any six below $1000.
- a superior Fisher body expressing a new order of beauty, smartness, and color contrast.
- an element of comfort and bigness that encourages relaxation over any road.
- a stamina inherent in quality design and quality manufacture.
- And finding these qualities at a price so low that only General Motors could achieve it, buyers have not hesitated to pronounce the Pontiac Six a value that cannot be matched.
