Daugherty-Miller Jury Retires Unable to Reach Verdict

OUT 11 HOURS; THINK MILLER FATE DECIDED

CASE OF DAUGHERTY PROLONGS DELIBERATION.

New York, Mar. 2-(AP)—After ten and one-half hours of deliberation, the jury in the Daugherty-Miller trial, was locked up tonight without reporting a verdict.

Shortly after 11 o'clock, the jury was brought in to receive instructions. The matters that puzzled them pertained to the fact that M. Daugherty, former attorney general.

Attorneys expressed belief that the jurors had agreed on a verdict for Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian.

IS SECOND TRIAL.

Federal Court, New York, Mar. 2-(AP)—In a dim and littered room in which another jury argued for 65 hours to a disagreement, 12 men again gathered to decide the guilt or innocence of former Atty. Gen. Harry M. Daugherty and former Allen Property Custodian Thomas W. Miller.

The jurors were given the case at 11:10 o'clock this afternoon, following a two-hour charge by Judge John C. Knox, U. S. Atty. Emory R. Buckner concluded a summation that had consumed two days in the half hour between the opening of court and the judge's charge.

At 6 o'clock, reporters peering through windows opposite the jury room, saw the jurors gesticulating and pounding on the table around which they sat. They had not asked the court for instructions or exhibits.

Walked in Corridors. Shortly after the jury retired to deliberate, Daugherty and Miller strolled up and down the corridors of the federal building. They seldom spoke of the trial, and they did not speak as they awaited the verdict.

Daugherty and Miller were charged with conspiracy to defraud the United States of their honest and unbiased services as government officials in connection with the allowance in 1921 of claims for $7,000,000 proceeds of the sale of seized American Metal company shares.

Senate Passes 130 Bills in 3 Hours

Washington, Mar. 1-(AP)—One hundred and thirty bills and resolutions were approved tonight by the senate in a three-hour session. This cleared the calendar of a large number of claims, pensions and other measures but left for further consideration such bills as the alien property return and the $125,000,000 public buildings program.

Senator Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, tried on three different occasions to obtain unanimous consent toward taking up the alien property bill at a night session to-morrow night, but objection was raised upon each occasion.

MINE DISASTERS TAKE 65 LIVES

Two Catastrophes Take Huge Toll in English Mines.

London, Mar. 1-(AP)—Great Britain's mining industry today was stricken by two disasters, one in Wales and the other in Nottinghamshire, Eng., with a death toll that was feared would reach 65.

The Welsh disaster took place in a mine situated near Owm, a small town that lies in the shadow of the so-called moving mountain, Domen Fawr, which only last year caused a nearby river to shift its course and to overflow the town and many miners' homes.

An explosion early this morning in the marine colliery of one of the largest pits of the Ebbwvale company, employing 1,700 men, caused deaths that are known to number 23, with 28 men missing. Most of the latter are believed to be trapped by a wall of flame, and hope for them has virtually been abandoned.

Most Escaped. There were 120 operators working when the explosion occurred. Most of them were able to reach the surface, but the others were so far underground that escape was impossible. Albert Button, a 23-year-old miner, was among those who had safety within his grasp, but when he heard that his brother was entombed he turned back and perished in an attempt to save him.

The other disaster, which took place near Mansfield about two hours after the Owm explosion, is believed to have taken the lives of 14 men. It occurred in a new pit of the Bilthorne colliery when a cage, descending with eight miners, was struck by 100 tons of water piping which collapsed. The wreckage put the pit pumps out of action and sent the cage crashing 250 yards to the bottom of the shaft where nine men were working.

Saved Only Three. A party of miners at a dance in the neighboring village of Olketon rushed to the rescue, but was able to save only three of the men. Hope was abandoned for the others as water began pouring into the shaft at the rate of 60,000 gallons an hour.

King George, Queen Mary and many public bodies have sent messages of condolences on the two disasters.

$50,000,000 Hotel Apartment Will Be Erected in Detroit

Detroit, Mar. 1-(AP)—Construction of the first unit of a hotel apartment, which will eventually involve a $50,000,000 investment, will be started in the downtown district before the end of the month by the J. B. Cook, Jr. corporation, it was announced tonight.

$25,000 Damage in Paige Factory Fire

Detroit, Mar. 1-(AP)—Damage estimated at $25,000 was caused by fire which broke out in the enameling plant of the Paige-Detroit Motor Car company, Forces of the Detroit and Fordson fire departments co-operated in fighting the fire and succeeded in preventing the blaze spreading to the company's plant.

BORAH'S NOTES BRING 'SPLIT' WITH COOLIDGE

ACTION OF SENATOR BREAKS ALL PRECEDENTS.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

(Copyright 1926, by the Escanaba Press) Washington, Feb. 28.—President Coolidge has come to an apparent break with the chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, Senator Borah.

The action of the latter in breaking all precedents by communicating with a foreign government direct instead of through the department of state has stirred up a resentment which may influence the action of the executive to proclaim anew that the spokesman of the American government under the constitution is the president and not a member of the senate.

Borah telegraphed President Calles of Mexico for certain information about oil concessions. The president of Mexico violated the proprieties by answering the telegram. Usually the procedure is to transmit an answer to the embassy in Washington with instructions to give the reply to the department of state to be forwarded to the inquirer, whether he be a member of the senate or an official in another government department. Even the secretary of commerce or the secretary of the treasury cannot communicate directly with a foreign government except through the good offices of the department of state. This has been the procedure for generations.

No Law Violated. Indeed, a law known as the "Logan Act" has been on the statute books ever since President Washington resented the course of Senator Logan, who went to France and interviewed government officials there in an effort to prevent war. The law was passed at the instance of President Calles to Senator Borah, not routed through normal diplomatic channels. Another suggestion was that negotiations might be in prospect to extend the life of the Mexican-American claims commission, to expire within a few months. None of the suggestions succeeded in drawing a reply of any kind from the state department.

COMPROMISE ON POSTAL RATES

Senate, House Conferees Are Agreeable to Revision.

Washington, Mar. 1-(AP)—A compromise on postal rates revision, under which 1921 second-class charges would be restored, was agreed to today by a majority of house and senate conferees on postal legislation.

The senate conferees for the restoration of the 1921 rates on second-class matter, newspapers and periodicals, and when the house conferees refused to accept this proposal Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee, its author, declined to sign the report. In addition to the second-class rates the conferees agreed to retain the two-cent service charge on parcels post packages in the first, second and third zones. In the other five zones this charge would be reduced to one cent.

The proposed rates on second-class matter are: First and second zones: One and three-fourths cents per pound on the advertising matter, newspapers and periodicals. In the third zone: Two and one-half cents per pound. Fourth zone: Four cents per pound. Fifth zone: Four and three-quarter cents. Sixth zone: Five and one-half cents. Seventh zone: Seven cents. Eighth zone: Seven and three-quarter cents. Senator McKellar said he refused to sign the report because he believed that all the rates agreed upon were higher than the traffic would bear.

Coolidge Still Hopes for 5-Power Arms Cut

Washington, March 1-(AP)—In the face of French and Italian rejection of the American five power naval limitation treaty extension plan, President Coolidge remains hopeful of the ultimate success of his efforts to further curb competitive sea armament building.

Emphasis was made at the White House today on the fact that the Washington government had proposed limitation, not reduction, of cruiser, destroyer and submarine tonnage. The statement may prove to be significant as indicating the road President Coolidge hopes to follow if pressing forward his proposal for immediate, practical steps to stop an international race in warship building programs.

Study of the British and Japanese replies, accepting the American proposal as well as of the French and Italian communications, may point out an opportunity for further American initiative. There has been time for supplementary informal exchanges both in Paris and Rome in the light of which the formal refusals might be given a somewhat different interpretation. The president has not conferred as yet with Secretary Kellogg to determine further procedure.

U. S. NOTE TO MEXICO SECRET

Has No Relation to Land Controversy; Speculation Rife.

Washington, Mar. 1-(AP)—Flat refusal at the state department to throw any light on the American note handed to the Mexican foreign office opened the way for unlimited speculation tonight as to the latest evidence of friction between the two governments. The department, however, did say that the communication had no relation to the oil and land controversy laws, but made no comment on the statement from Mexico City that the note was of unusual importance.

Efforts to guess the subject of the note ranged all the way from the trouble American insurance companies have encountered with new Mexican regulatory legislation to the possibility that the state department had protested direct communications from President Calles to Senator Borah, not routed through normal diplomatic channels.

Another suggestion was that negotiations might be in prospect to extend the life of the Mexican-American claims commission, to expire within a few months. None of the suggestions succeeded in drawing a reply of any kind from the state department.

It was pointed out, however, that correspondence occurred frequently between the two governments on a variety of subjects without even the fact that communications had been exchanged being made public. Most of these latter changes were on minor questions, it was said.

There was a general disposition to accept at face value the statement that the note did not concern the oil and land question. Whether the note is destined for simultaneous publication in Mexico and Washington at some future date is not known, but there have been no preliminary intimations here that an additional serious controversy with the Calles administration had developed.

ELECTION PROBE IS FILIBUSTERED

Slush Funds Committee Question Entangles Senators.

Washington, Mar. 1-(AP)—While the senate arose over the resolution proposing to extend the life of the campaign funds committee and to permit it to open the more than 8,000 ballot boxes brought here from Pennsylvania under an order directing that committee to investigate the senatorial election there last November.

A filibuster was brought into play against this resolution, preventing action today and arousing such bitter feelings that warnings were given from both the Republican and Democratic sides that delaying tactics would be employed on all legislation until adjournment at noon Friday.

Such tactics, however, are not expected to prevent a vote on the prohibition reorganization measure on which the senate invoked its cloture debate limiting rule yesterday by one more than the required two-thirds majority. As soon as this bill is voted on, probably tomorrow, Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, chairman of the campaign funds committee, plans to make a motion to take up his recommendation extending the authority of his special committee through the summer recess.

Senators Reed of Pennsylvania and Moses of New Hampshire, Republicans, intend to continue the filibuster to prevent senate action. They consumed all of the time allotted today to the campaign committee resolution with points of order and the reading of the journal of the senate proceedings yesterday and last night.

Senate Confirms Wham Nomination

Washington, Mar. 1-(AP)—The nomination of Fred L. Wham of Centralia, to succeed George W. English as federal judge for the eastern district of Illinois, was confirmed late today by the senate.

Would I Were a Knight, Quoth He, and the Duel Started—in New York

New York, March 1-(AP)—The house of Carrington was today a house divided against itself, divided in dramatic fashion by a midnight passage at arms with walking sticks, one a dapper malacca and the other a sinister sounding staff of snakewood.

The conflict was called a duel by Col. Edward Codrington Carrington, wealthy Chicagoan, and wielder of the snakewood rapier, who is under bail of $1,000 for hearing Thursday on a charge of assault.

But his brother, Campbell Carrington, wealthy New Yorker, confined to a hospital with lacerations of the face, said it was no duel at all, but that he had been struck down from behind "by a craven blow." He added that as soon as he got out of the hospital he would take steps to have "the so-called colonel" confined for observation as to his mental condition.

one had been watching and from which his brother emerged. Colonel Carrington, who is 55 years old, has a $1,900,000 alienation of real estate suit pending against his brother, who is 52, and cross-suits for divorce between the colonel and his wife are also on the calendar for trial in Chicago.

When police were notified by hospital authorities of the younger brother's condition, they questioned him, and then arrested the colonel, who acquired his title as a member of the staff of Governor Goldsborough of Maryland in 1911.

The colonel, a large man with a manner of speech reminiscent of the days when duelling was more common than now, showed no reluctance in talking about the matter at headquarters. He said he came to New York to get evidence against his wife and brother and last night watched until the brother came out of Mrs. Carrington's house. "Are you looking for me?" STRONG GANG OF SWINDLERS APPREHENDED

POLICE THINK BANK BURGLARS STOLE $500,000.

Chicago, Mar. 1-(AP)—A gang of five alleged bank bandits and swindlers, reputed to be one of the most methodical which ever operated in the northwest, directly charged with robberies totaling close to $250,000, and believed to have been involved in robberies exceeding $500,000, is in the custody of police here tonight.

"Big Dave" Earsman, one of the men, locked up, is reputed to have been the head of the gang. He was arrested today when he appeared at the detective bureau to make inquiries about John "Shinner" Crawford, first of the five to be taken, who was arrested yesterday.

On information obtained from these two, detectives raided a flat and rounded up the other three—Tony Sirpa, 45; Frank Hayward, 40, and Robert Raymond, alias "Doc" Reed, a white-haired man of 67.

$135,000 Robbery. The banks which the gang are accused of robbing are in Minnesota, Wisconsin, South Dakota and Michigan. The largest robbery was that of the First National bank of Columbus, Wis., September 20, 1925, when $125,000 was stolen. In the robbery of the Olmstead Country Trust and Savings bank of Rochester, Minn., on December 24, 1926, of which the gang is accused, two policemen were shot and wounded, and $30,000 was taken.

Other robberies charged against the men by A. M. DeVoursney, manager of the protective department of the Wisconsin Bankers' association, Milwaukee, and Charles D. Brown of the Minnesota Bankers' association, Minneapolis, include the Bank of Broadhead, Wis., August 6, 1926, $16,000; First National bank of New Rockford, N. D., September 30, 1926, $60,000; Minnetonka State bank, Excelsior, Minn., October, 1925, $10,000; First National bank of Dowagiac, Mich., last November, $40,000.

Sirpa and Raymond or "Doc" Reed with Tom Brady, the latter not arrested, are wanted by post-office inspectors at St. Louis, Mo., on charges of swindling a real estate dealer of that city out of $10,000.

The arrests were brought about by cooperation of the banking associations of Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, postal inspectors, police of various cities, and private detectives. Lieut. Edward Birmingham of the Chicago police shadowed them for two days. A telephone tip led to discovery of their hangout here.

CAL SELECTS RADIO COMISH

Names of Five Members Sent to Senate for Confirmation.

Washington, Mar. 1-(AP)—Choosing from a field of more than 900, President Coolidge today picked the five members of the new radio commission and sent the nominations to the senate for confirmation before adjournment of congress Friday.

The president's selections were: Rear Admiral William H. Sicular, retired, of Media, Pa., six-year term. Orestes H. Caldwell, of Bronzville, New York, five years. Eugene O. Sykes, of Jackson, Miss., four years. Henry A. Bellows of Minneapolis, three years. John P. Dillon of San Francisco, two years.

One nominee is from each of the five districts into which the United States was divided by the radio control act. Sykes and Bellows are Democrats.

In choosing his commission which will have wide control powers, President Coolidge carried out his intention of selecting men experienced in radio communication or familiar with the legal and business conditions surrounding the industry.

Shaw Calls Student at Appleton "Liar"

Appleton, Wis., Mar. 1-(AP)—"An ingenious young liar," is George Bernard Shaw's description of Miss Marjiam Stephenson of Wausau, Wis., a student at Lawrence College here.

Miss Stephenson recently prepared a criticism of the "philosophy of Shaw" for her philosophy course at Lawrence. She mailed a copy to Shaw in London and received this comment from him: "You are quite an ingenious young liar. How many marks did they give you? A career as a journalist is indicated. Good luck to you."

WHISKEY BILL PASSES HOUSE

Permits Private Manufacture of Medical Liqueur.

Washington, Mar. 1-(AP)—The house passed the ways and means committee's medicinal whiskey bill today while the senate, operating under the cloture rule, which limits debate, drove toward a vote on the administration's proposal to create prohibition and customs bureaus in the treasury department.

The medicinal whiskey bill which now goes to the senate, would permit private manufacture of liquor under the supervision of the treasury and is intended to replenish stocks which are approaching depletion.

In the senate, during debate on the reorganization bill, Senator Copeland, Democrat, New York, charged Senators Bruce, Maryland and Edwards, New Jersey, wet Democrats, with doing modification "irreparable harm" by opposing the administration's measure. After he had been assailed by the New Jersey and Maryland senators for supporting cloture yesterday, Copeland, who recently turned to the wet cause, explained that he was supporting the administration's bill, and believed in enforcement, although he considered the prohibition law unworkable.

Lives Shattered. The customary wet and dry lines in the house were shattered on the whiskey bill vote. It was sent to the senate after several hours of acrimonious debate by a vote of 209 to 151.

During the debate repeated attacks were made upon Secretary Mellon, Representative Howard, Democrat, Nebraska, going so far as to offer an amendment to entitle the bill as an "act for the relief of Mellon and associates." Other members charged that it placed a monopoly in the treasury secretary's hands.

The bill would give the secretary of the treasury authority to permit manufacture of whiskey "at a reasonable price," in from two to six distilleries under regulations prescribed by him.

Profit Regulated. While no restrictions as to amounts are placed upon the secretary, it is contemplated here, between two and three million gallons annually will be necessary to keep an adequate supply on hand. Retailers would be required to sell the whiskey at a profit not in excess of 100 per cent and the profit to the distilleries would be limited to ten cents a gallon under amendments offered by Representative W. E. Hull of Illinois, a former distiller.

Monarchist Move in Poland is Rumored

Bucharest, Mar. 1-(AP)—Reports received here from Lodz, Poland, state that a monarchist movement has begun in Poland.

London, Mar. 1-(AP)—No reports of the beginning of a monarchist movement in Poland, as contained in a dispatch from Bucharest had been received here tonight.

Although a monarchist movement in Poland has been talked of for some time, there have been no recent reports indicating activity of any extended character. Last October, Marshal Pilsudski, the Polish premier and minister of war, took part in what was described in political circles as a monarchist conference, the occasion being the decoration with military cross of the sarcophagus of Prince Stanislas Radzivil, who was killed in the Bolshevik war in 1920. Since then there has been no indication of monarchist activity, except for a street battle in Warsaw between members of the peasant monarchist party and the peasant communist party on February 4.

GREEN HAILED AS NEW CHIEF OF HIS PARTY

REMNANTS OF GROESBECK REGIME ARE WIPED AWAY.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Mar. 1-(AP)—Gov. Fred W. Green today assumed the top job for several years by Alex J. Groesbeck. The Republican state convention here conferred upon him the stewardship of the party destinies in Michigan, if he cares to accept.

Throughout Monday night and until shortly before the convention convened today, ominous thunder clouds of opposition roared. John S. Haggerty, secretary of state, insisted that William Green, Wayne county auditor, be made chairman of the Republican state central committee. The governor just as vigorously demanded that Gerrit J. Diekema, of Holland, have the place. The battle waged, with neither side giving quarter until noon. Then the Haggerty forces decided their quest was futile and conceded the selection of Mr. Diekema, thus giving the governor and indisputable victory.

Governor Green took no personal part in the nomination for superintendent of public instruction, but his leaders in the organization, which carried him to victory last fall, endorsed Webster H. Pearce of Mt. Pleasant. The convention never even questioned the choice, figuring Pearce was an administration candidate. Wilford L. Coffey, incumbent superintendent, and Groesbeck appointee, and Mrs. Nellie B. Chisholm of Muskegon entered the lists against Pearce. Before the first ballot was completed their cause was hopelessly lost and they withdrew. When the roll call had proceeded as far as VanBuren county, Pearce had nearly 1,600 votes, Coffey had slightly in excess of 50 and Mrs. Chisholm had about 60.

Incumbents Chosen. Aside from Diekema and Pearce—the only candidates over which a contest was even thought of—all incumbents were renominated as the Republican candidates in the April election. Justices John E. Rird of Adrian and Nelson M. Sharpe of West Branch were renominated for justices of the supreme court with opposition. Benjamin S. Hanchett of Grand Rapids and Lucius L. Hubbard of Houghton for regents of the university; Fred A. Jeffers of Palmsdays for the state board of education and Melville B. McPherson of Lowell, and J. R. McCall of Detroit, for the state board of agriculture, were renominated by acclamation.

The convention was one of the briefest in the state political history. Al E. Petermah of Calumet, delivered the keynote speech. He made it short and snappy and thereby made a decided hit with the delegates.

The Republican party has suffered from a lack of teamwork before, and probably will again," he said. "But the sporting spirit is to play together, and I predict that in the coming years the stalwarts of the party will be sitting on the sidelines urging team play. In 1928, Michigan will go solidly Republican and will send a Republican to the United States senate."

Green Gets Ovation. The delegates gave Governor Green a tremendous ovation when he was escorted to the platform. They insisted upon a speech. The governor asserted he was glad to see the party back in the ways of harmony and efficiency. He admitted he had taken a part in the chairmanship fight that waged Hard Knocks. Hard knocks temper the tough steel and give suppleness to the sword, strength to the shield. Troubles have tested the strongest man. Failures have fitted greatest successes. Discouragements have developed staying powers that have carried men over all obstacles.

Adversity tells a man the truth about himself. When there's no one to depend on, he learns to depend on his own resources. Misfortune is the mother of new resources.

CHANGE ROUTE ON M-12 ROAD

Highway Will Not Turn West at Rockville Fire Tower.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mar. 1.—State Highway M-12 will not turn west at the Rockville fire tower after the highway commission's present plans for a new route are completed. And, instead of turning north at the "Hessel corner," three miles north of Hessel, the road from St. Ignace will continue straight east until it strikes the Cedarville highway.

The state has taken over the three-mile stretch between the Hessel corner of M-12 and the Cedarville-Soo road and plans to improve it as part of M-12, eliminating the present bad stretch between Rockville and the Hessel corner.

The change will shorten the distance between Cedarville and St. Ignace approximately two miles. The distance from the Sault to St. Ignace will remain the same—62 miles.

The state highway department has already taken over the road leading north from Cedarville in Mackinac county and has let a contract for $65,000 for improvement. The work will begin this spring.

The Mackinac county board of supervisors has taken over the road leading north from Hessel to connect with M-12 and has appropriated $6,000 for improvements. Improvements are also planned by Clark township for improvement of the township road between Hessel and Cedarville. Last year that township spent $8,000 on its highways.

Earlier opening of navigation is predicted by men who are in close touch with ice conditions at Sault Ste. Marie, and the prophecy has been made that steamers will be operating early in April.

The Sault Ste. Marie News says: "According to Capt. N. L. Larson of the U. S. Light House Tender Clover, signs of an earlier break-up are now evident. February has been mild and unless March puts a stop to the thaw now in progress, the ice will break up rapidly.

"Open water is evident above little rapids cut, according to one coast guardsman, water separating the two Saults is gradually pushing back the ice. Water covered the ice yesterday and today.

"No word has yet been received whether the steamers Tremaine and Werner will be relieved of their grain cargoes. It is understood that owners are still in communication with Capt. Alton Cornwall relative to the feasibility of removing the grain and shipping it to Buffalo by rail."

During the past two months prominent business men in many parts of the country have been invited to join what is now the "National General Committee."

This committee sponsors all the religious broadcasting of the Church Federation of Greater New York and aids in creating a program that will be the best in religious thought common to all beliefs.

The broadcasting plans at present are the continuation of the Sunday afternoon "Young People's Conference" from WEAP and chain stations and an evening program named "People's Radio Vespers" for the WJZ hook-up.

The Federation of Churches in New York has broadcast more than 1200 services during the past four years. The aim of these broadcasts is to send out a helpful, non-controversial message and sacred music that can be accepted by an audience made up of men and women of all religious faiths.

JAPAN AIDS INDUSTRY. Japan is planning to aid its domestic automobile industry. Many methods are being considered, among them: subsidizing the industry, cooperative organization by manufacturers aided by government loans at low interest and the mandatory use by all imperial government offices of domestic manufactured cars.

AMERICA BIG EXPORTER.

More than 60 countries in the eastern and western hemispheres are now buying a large part of their automobile accessories from concerns in the United States and Canada.

START FREIGHT SURVEY.

The most intensive freight rate research ever undertaken by the automobile industry has been announced at a meeting of traffic managers of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

OBITUARY

A. A. HAKES.
Many bereaved relatives and friends attended the funeral services which were held for A. A. Hakes, pioneer resident and retired farmer of Bark River, which were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Swedish Lutheran church. Rev. Holquist, of Iron River officiated. Interment was in a steel vault in the family lot in the Bark River cemetery.

The casket was borne by Ed Zastrow, Lawrence Belanger, Carl Sindell, E. F. Krause, Alex Wilson and Joseph Rheume.

Many beautiful floral tributes surrounded the casket, testimonials of the esteem in which the deceased was held by a host of friends.

Out-of-town relatives included Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hakes, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Maas, Iron Mountain; Mrs. Fred Bezier, Pocatello, Idaho; Ray Ostrander, Madison, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hakes, Wilson; Elmer Hakes, Eustis; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bagley, Walter Bagley, Mrs. Gertrude Bagley, Mr. and Mrs. William Kell, Jr., Wilson; Gibson Henderson, Iron Mountain; Mrs. C. Thompson, Mrs. Alice Rosand, Mr. and Mrs. William Case, Mrs. Anna Case, Mrs. John Gasman, Mrs. A. Swanstrom, Ole Anderson of Escanaba.

The church was filled to the doors and a long cortege of cars accompanied the remains to the cemetery.

WILLIAM MCGOVERN, SR.
Impressive funeral services were held Tuesday morning at nine o'clock at St. Patrick's church for William McGovern, Sr., who passed away at his home 519 North Twentieth street Saturday afternoon.

Rev. Fr. John Mockler was the celebrant at the solemn requiem high mass assisted by very Rev. R. G. Jacques as deacon and Rev. Fr. Raymond Bergeron as sub-deacon.

Many floral and spiritual offerings surrounded the casket at the family home where scores of friends called to extend sympathy to the members of the family.

The honorary pallbearers representing the local Council Knights of Columbus were E. F. O'Leary, J. P. Kennally, Earl Allingham, Maurice Coll, Francis McCauley and Charles Ford.

The active pallbearers were five sons and a son-in-law of the deceased, Bernard, John, William, Jr., Frank and Leo McGovern and R. M. Foss. Out of town relatives who came to this city for the funeral included: Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Knapp, Leo McGovern, Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Foss, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Gardner of Milwaukee, Wis.

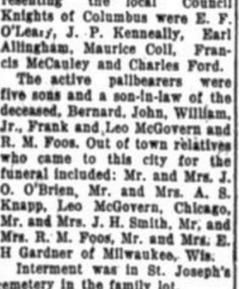

Interment was in St. Joseph's cemetery in the family lot.

SOCIAL
Wedding Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Anderson, 1220 First avenue south, entertained twelve guests at their home Tuesday afternoon on the occasion of the seventh anniversary of their wedding. The afternoon was pleasantly spent, after which Mrs. Anderson served a six o'clock dinner.

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

Hurry, Mother! Remove poisons from little stomach, liver, bowels

Give "California Fig Syrup" if cross, bilious or feverish

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't eating, acting and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that the little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, fall of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup" and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bits neatly sweep out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mother can rest easy after giving this harmless, "fruit laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little stomach, liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit! Be sure you get the genuine! See that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

CHURCHES EXPAND BROADCAST WORK

New York—The Greater New York Federation of Churches is planning a 1927 program of religious broadcasting larger in scope than anything heretofore attempted by this radio pioneering organization.

During the past two months prominent business men in many parts of the country have been invited to join what is now the "National General Committee."

This committee sponsors all the religious broadcasting of the Church Federation of Greater New York and aids in creating a program that will be the best in religious thought common to all beliefs.

BAKING EXPERT TO BE TEACHER

Miss Blanche Keller Will Hold School Here Thursday, Friday.

Modern inventions that help to make the tasks of the housewife less tedious, and new and efficient "short cuts" in culinary methods will be demonstrated, Thursday and Friday in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church by Miss Blanche Keller, of Minneapolis. Miss Keller was the 1926 champion breakbaker at the Minnesota state fair. She was graduated from the University of Minnesota and has had wide experience as a teacher of home economics in high schools and colleges. Miss Keller also will demonstrate the art of baking in the high school this week, and will conduct a school in the Community building in Gladstone Saturday.

Thursday's program will include the baking of bread and bread variations, making 25 or 30 varieties of plain and fancy rolls from one dough. This includes French fingers, crescents, water and plain lunch and dinner rolls, apple, caramel, buttered and almond rolls, Swedish tea rings and other tasty preparations.

Cakes and variations, including the making of four cakes from one recipe, and many new cookies and icings will be demonstrated Friday. Suggestions on 16 varieties of cake will be given and four kinds actually will be baked.

Saturday at Gladstone Miss Keller will demonstrate quick breads and luncheon dishes, new fruit and meat varieties.

The classes begin promptly at 2 o'clock and the public is invited to attend.

SURE WAY TO STOP NIGHT COUGHING
A Treatment That Ends Night Coughs in 15 Minutes.

Persistent night coughing is usually due to causes which cough syrups and patent medicine do not touch. A remarkable prescription known as Thoxine, working on an entirely different principle, goes direct to the cause, and is guaranteed to stop the stubbornest cough within 15 minutes. One swallow is all that's needed. If it fails, get your money back. No chloroform or other harmful drugs. Safe for children. Equally good for sore throat for which purpose it is far superior to gargles. 25c, 50c, and $1.00. At all druggists. Adv.

Dresser and Bed for McLaughlin Home Are Needed

A single bed, with mattress and springs, and a dresser are needed to complete the furnishing of the McLaughlin home, Miss Martha Green, chairman of the Woman's club philanthropic committee, announced yesterday. All other articles necessary have been supplied, Miss Green said.

Any person who can supply the articles mentioned is urged to call Miss Green at once.

It is hoped that the four-room flat, into which the mother who lost four babies in last week's fire, will be able to leave the hospital this week, and may be removed into her new home.

Collection of funds is continuing, Harry Tilbert, general chairman of the relief committee, said last night. A complete statement of the collections will be made just as quickly as a check-up of the money can be made.

Contributions still may be made to Mr. Tilbert.

LIGHTS FOR STEPPERS.
A bill requiring pedestrians who walk on highways at night to carry a light or red reflector visible for at least 50 feet has been introduced in the Connecticut legislature by Representative Robert E. Foot.

SWEDISH "SONGBIRD" Will Give Recital In City Tonight

Miss Elsa Akerstedt, the Swedish soprano, will sing a recital tonight in the North Star hall, beginning at 8 o'clock. Miss Akerstedt, since her highly successful appearance here last year, has completed a tour of the northwest, in which she was enthusiastically received. Operatic and folk songs are featured in her program. The attraction is one of deep interest to local music lovers and she will undoubtedly be heard by a large audience.

Klotz Is Released Under $300 Bonds

Peter Klotz, Maple Ridge township, whose still was confiscated with 20 gallons of sugar mash and about 25 gallons of alleged moonshine whiskey by the sheriff's department Monday afternoon was arraigned in Justice Henry E. Ranguette's court yesterday morning for a preliminary examination. Klotz was released under bonds of $300 and was bound over to the next term of circuit court.

Flying and Business

Fifty years ago people would have laughed at the suggestion that there might be a close relation between man's desire to fly and practical business.

Today flying is no longer a dream but a reality—and big business is making practical use of aviation.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has found the airplane to be a most valuable business asset.

From the beginning the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has had profound faith in the future of commercial aviation and has made a practical contribution to its development.

Anticipating the growth of commercial aviation, this Company foresaw the need for new and special products from petroleum, and immediately set out to develop them with scientific thoroughness.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) was successful in perfecting products to meet all the requirements of aviation.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) manufactures a large part of the gasoline and lubricating oils used by airplanes today.

The faith of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) in commercial aviation has proved well founded.

It is estimated that between 3,500 and 5,000 airplanes are now in commercial use in this country, besides the huge fleet of planes used in air mail transportation—and there are 3,608 landing fields in the United States.

The U. S. Air Mail, inaugurated on June 15, 1918, is the most successful exploit of its kind in the world. A total of approximately six million miles are flown by air mail planes annually. Much of the flying is done at night, and routes which total 9,450 miles are covered with systematic regularity.

The U. S. Air Mail is a dependable, nationwide service that will grow steadily in scope and importance because this increase of speed in communication is needed in every part of the country. Industry is rapidly appreciating its tremendous commercial value.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) believes that the remarkable development of commercial aviation in the past year is preparation for a brilliant future.

Stimulus and growth through proper direction and control is assured through the issuance by the Department of Commerce of the Air Regulations for civil aviation.

Flying is becoming an increasingly important part of American business life.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) appreciates the value of commercial aviation in its own business of serving the thirty million people of the Middle West with constantly increasing efficiency and skill.

Today flying is no longer a dream but a reality—and big business is making practical use of aviation.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has found the airplane to be a most valuable business asset.

From the beginning the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has had profound faith in the future of commercial aviation and has made a practical contribution to its development.

Anticipating the growth of commercial aviation, this Company foresaw the need for new and special products from petroleum, and immediately set out to develop them with scientific thoroughness.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) was successful in perfecting products to meet all the requirements of aviation.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) manufactures a large part of the gasoline and lubricating oils used by airplanes today.

The faith of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) in commercial aviation has proved well founded.

It is estimated that between 3,500 and 5,000 airplanes are now in commercial use in this country, besides the huge fleet of planes used in air mail transportation—and there are 3,608 landing fields in the United States.

The U. S. Air Mail, inaugurated on June 15, 1918, is the most successful exploit of its kind in the world. A total of approximately six million miles are flown by air mail planes annually. Much of the flying is done at night, and routes which total 9,450 miles are covered with systematic regularity.

The U. S. Air Mail is a dependable, nationwide service that will grow steadily in scope and importance because this increase of speed in communication is needed in every part of the country. Industry is rapidly appreciating its tremendous commercial value.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) believes that the remarkable development of commercial aviation in the past year is preparation for a brilliant future.

Stimulus and growth through proper direction and control is assured through the issuance by the Department of Commerce of the Air Regulations for civil aviation.

Flying is becoming an increasingly important part of American business life.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) appreciates the value of commercial aviation in its own business of serving the thirty million people of the Middle West with constantly increasing efficiency and skill.

Fifty years ago people would have laughed at the suggestion that there might be a close relation between man's desire to fly and practical business.

queste. Negaunee, Ishpeming, Houghton, Hancock and Calumet, and other copper country communities over the D. S. S. & A. R. R. and C. & N. W. R. R., with good train service. The Soo Line maintains good service from points east, namely, Manistique, Sault Ste. Marie, St. Ignace and good train connections can be made to Munising and Newberry. The train service to Escanaba from all points in the upper peninsula cannot be duplicated by the auto service which radiates from any other city.

In this day and age the auto is performing a wonderful transportation service. Nearly everyone has a car. Escanaba has become the real auto road center of the upper peninsula. The state highways are in wonderful condition and radiate in every direction so that no part of the upper peninsula is further away than 6 hours by auto. This is due to the fact that the roads are good enough to allow an auto to travel from 25 to 45 miles an hour or faster without interruption so far as the roads are concerned.

If a farm census were to be taken of the upper peninsula the facts would show that Escanaba is the center of the farming industry of the upper peninsula. The farthest north you go in the upper peninsula the fewer the farms. The large number of farms are located in the southern half of the peninsula which makes Escanaba the natural center for this industry. It is hoped that the greatest part of the attendance at a State Fair will be from the rural communities as they are the people that a State Fair encourage and benefit.

Escanaba is also the center of population. It is nearer to the greatest number of people residing in the Upper Peninsula than any other city. With exception of Ironwood and the Soo over 50% of the population of the Upper Peninsula is within three hours ride from Escanaba.

An Upper Peninsula State Fair is necessary for the encouragement and advancement of the natural industries of that section of Michigan and Escanaba would prove an ideal location for such a fair.

WAGES. The National Industrial Conference Board finds that the cost of living in the United States is now, on an average, 68 per cent above the 1914 level.

The average weekly earnings of factory workers, as represented by New York figures, are 123 per cent above 1914.

Economists, putting these two facts together, conclude that "real wages of labor," that is, what the workers can buy with his wages, are now at the highest level in American history. There is general hope that wages will stay at this high level. Even many employers who would welcome lower wages in their own industry are inclined to admit, with Henry Ford, that high wages contribute to the general prosperity by increasing the purchasing power of the most numerous class. If there are to be any wage revisions downward this year, it is hoped that they will be slight.

On the other hand, it is well, in the opinion of disinterested observers, for labor not to seek any extensive wage increases at this time. If labor can hold what it has, it will be well off. Official Washington seems more interested in establishing good government abroad than at home.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

THE CAREFUL MAN.
He's rather choice about
The car:
He never drives it out
So far,
Or ever lets it stand
So long,
But that he's right on hand
If wrong
The carburetor, air
Or clutch,
To give it tender care
And touch.
In fact he worries quite
A lot,
If this or that is right
Or not,
His rifle or his reel
Or pup,
Till midnight often he'll
Sit up
To clean a gun, to mend
A wire,
To nurse a dog, attend
A fire.
I'm glad to see him take
Such care
Adjust and mend and make Repair.
A careful man is good
To see,
But, oh, I wish he would
Whim me—
Would take the time for love,
For life,
Would be as careful of
His wife!

SENATOR BORAH has broken a precedent! Not a new-fangled, machine-made, motorized, automatic precedent, but a quaint old-fashioned one, whittled by hand in the cradle days of the republic and mellowed by years of cuddling. We have no idea of what the punishment will be. Mr. Coolidge appears to be considerably vexed about it. There is even some talk of sentencing Mr. Borah to serve four years as vice president.

HKR: How come all the noise about my pedal extremities? I would not part with them for quite a few yen. As you probably know I am also a candidate for Governor of the State of Superior and I think I can beat you to it because I intend to make a house-to-house canvass with those two pedals. If that fails I may accept the offer of the Chinese government to convert them into gunboats for service on the Yankee river, or I might even take up the offer of Book Brothers, at Detroit, who want them for the foundation for their new $5-story building. Who are Un-bay Bill and Cousin John, anyway? Yohn Yeh Be and that fellow with the name a railroad eating house beware or I shall sick the Irish setter or the Alre-dale Pup on you the next time you come over.

Those of you who depend, exclusively on The Piffle Hook for the news of the day, are reminded that the Escanaba Municipal Band, assisted by some other artists of exceptional ability, is giving an indoor concert in the high school auditorium Thursday night. No admission will be charged and readers of this column are especially invited.

ON SECOND thought, perhaps Mr. Coolidge will discover that there are plenty of precedents left in Washington, to last until James A. Reed takes the presidential oath of office.

There, There, Dearie: Calm Yourself; She'll Tell Us In Due Time!

HKR: Have Dimples send you a difficult one. That diamond ring and head of lettuce thing is too easy. I shan't even waste your valuable space and my valuable time sending you the answer. I suppose however, that I am the first to solve it.

CHAPTER XXXIV
You think! Don't you know? Don't you know whether Croydron Sears was ever at Mr. Folsom's home? Angelica Fair insisted. "He was once, to my knowledge," replied Ross. "What was the occasion?" "It was a sort of reception, Miss Fair. Mr. Folsom was having a small exhibition of his art treasures. You know, Mr. Folsom traveled a lot and collected many things such as interest Mr. Sears. I remember seeing him at that time, but I'm not sure of any other time, Miss."

"Oh, well, I don't suppose it matters. I don't believe I know much about detective work. And anyway, I don't believe Mr. Sears killed Mr. Folsom, do you?" "I shouldn't think so, ma'am," and with that they were in sight of the Majusaca and Angel scurried off to her bathroom.

As Robin Sears and Riggs entered the auction room, it was Robin who took the lead. Demanding the proprietor, in a tone which brought him a warning nudge from Riggs, he asked for a private interview.

On learning who he was, this was readily granted, and Mr. Giddings, who represented the absent Mr. Barchester, took them into a private office.

"I'd like to know," Robin began, "if you'd be good enough to tell me of all the knives or daggers my father has brought here."

"I can tell you most of them," was the reply, "but some small items are sold in bundles, as we call them, and so are not recorded individually."

"I should think an antique dagger of sufficient importance to be recorded," Robin said, and, as the fire in his eyes was growing brighter under the irritation of the other's suavity, Riggs took a hand.

"Never mind the value or importance of the sale," he suggested, "just tell us what your records charge to Mr. Croydron Sears."

The list was interesting, though not long, and the net result of information was that Croydron Sears had bought, in all, six daggers of antique Oriental workmanship.

"Robin was amazed, for he knew of only the two that were acknowledged at the inquest. But he preserved a quiet sternness now; indeed, the young face grew more composed as the situation seemed to acquire seriousness.

"The police have interviewed you as to all this," he asked of Mr. Giddings. "Many times, especially in the last twenty-four hours."

"Why so much questioning?" put in Riggs. "Because they want to be sure that it was Mr. Sears who bought the dagger that killed Mr. Folsom," Giddings replied, straight-forwardly. "Of course, that needn't mean that Mr. Sears used it," he added quickly as he noted Robin's face.

"No, it needn't," said that young man with quiet simplicity. "And have the police assured themselves?" asked Riggs. "We can't be positive," Giddings returned. "When Mr. Sears came the second time that evening he was not so much interested for the sales were of small lots or single pieces of small value. But he did pick up two or three numbers, one of which contained an old pichaq."

"Then why isn't that positive?" broke in Robin quickly. "Because there was another bundle or lot sold, which also contained an old pichaq, and no one can say which was the weapon later exhibited at the inquest."

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS:

LEON EPHRIAM, PIONEER, DEAD

Old Resident Had Been in Ill Health for Some Time.

Leon Ephriam, pioneer resident of Escanaba, and widely known throughout the peninsula, passed away yesterday afternoon at the family home, 521 South Seventh street, after an illness of several months. Mr. Ephriam suffered from an affection of the liver and his condition had gradually grown more critical until the end came shortly before 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The body was removed to the Anderson Funeral Home and will probably remain there until some time today, when it will be returned to the family home. Funeral services will be conducted from the home Thursday afternoon at 7:30 o'clock, with Rev. J. B. Hubbard of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Burial will be in Lakeview cemetery. The services will be under the joint auspices of Delta Lodge No. 134, F. and A. M., and Delta Chapter No. 115, Royal Arch Masons, of which Mr. Ephriam was a member.

Mr. Ephriam was born at New Lisbon, Wis., 71 years ago, and came to Escanaba with his parents, his father, Meyer Ephriam, being one of the pioneer clothing merchants of this city. When a young man Mr. Ephriam went to Manistique where he conducted a clothing store for a number of years, and during his residence there served as postmaster of that city. Later he spent several years in the south, and returned to Escanaba about 25 years ago. Since that time he had made this city his home continuously.

Four Sisters Survive.
He is survived by four sisters: Mrs. Sarah Merriam, Miss Eva Ephriam and Mrs. R. E. Morrell of this city, and Mrs. Marion Allison of Minneapolis.

Mr. Ephriam was widely known not only in Escanaba, but in many cities throughout the peninsula, and a host of friends will deeply regret to learn of his death.

Young Industry Takes Huge Lead in Sugar Making

By NEA Service
Denver, Colo.—American sugar now means beet sugar.

Today practically all sugar extracted from continental American crops is produced in 89 beet sugar factories. Less than 7 per cent comes from the old cane plantations of Louisiana, the last stronghold of the passing planter.

Recent estimates for the 1926-27 crop year show an output of 233,000 tons of refined sugar extracted from beets in the United States, as compared with a probable 57,850 tons from Louisiana cane, a loss of more than 51 per cent from Louisiana's production for the previous year of 133,330 tons.

In spite of beet crop difficulties, chiefly in California and Utah, the beet sugar estimate of 233,000 tons for this year represents an increase of 2.7 per cent over the 1925-26 sugar production of 219,000 tons.

Colorado Leads Industry
Colorado, a faint dot on the beet map a quarter of a century ago, now leads the states of the union for the crop year 1926-27 with an estimated production of 150,000 tons of sugar, extracted from about 2,000,000 acres of sugar beets grown on 225,000 acres.

Michigan is second, according to estimates by the United States Department of Agriculture, with 175,000 tons of beet sugar, although Nebraska is forging toward second place with 150,000 tons of sugar. California and Utah, once vigorous contenders, have practically dropped out this crop year because of beet diseases.

Allocation of beet sugar factories is as follows: Colorado 16; Michigan 16; Utah 15; Idaho 7; Nebraska 6; California 5; Ohio 5; Wyoming 4; Wisconsin 4; Montana 3; Iowa 2 and other states 5, making 89 in all. Three new factories are being built in South Dakota, Montana and Nebraska.

GAY BACHELORS.
Vienna—With more than 150,000 bachelors in Vienna, marriage is becoming more and more unpopular with the young men. In 1926 the marriages numbered only about half the total of 1920. Housing conditions are reported as one drawback. The birthrate is said to be falling in all parts of Austria, but illegitimacy has been on the increase.

Brooms have been replaced by vacuum cleaners in the barracks of the French armies.

BRIEFLY TOLD

Equitable Fraternal Union—The organization of Escanaba Assembly No. 796, Equitable Fraternal Union, took place in the North Star hall on Monday night. The meeting was called to order by Supreme Vice President Norton J. Williams of Neenah, Wis., assisted by the local deputies, Krueger and Byrns. There were fifty charter members and the following officers were elected:

President—E. Boisclair.
Fast President—Joseph Russell.
Vice President—Frank E. Kreuger.

Adviser—Kathryn Byrns.
Secretary—Louis Delanger.
Treasurer—Dr. Edward Hiru.
Warden—Noel S. Picha.
Inner Guard—Mina Kaufman.
Outer Guard—Gilbert F. Byrns.
Trustees—Dr. John J. Walsh, Jules J. DeGrand, Henrietta Kress.
Newly elected officers were installed by Supreme Vice President Williams, who made a very able talk on the necessity of insurance, quoting facts where insurance had been neglected. Each of the order officers in turn were called upon to make short talks. Mr. Williams was well pleased with the attendance and promised to send a ritualistic instructor for their next regular meeting. The meeting was followed by a banquet and an entertainment given by Johnson's orchestra.

Royal Neighbors—The Cloverland Post of the Royal Neighbors of America will not hold its regular meeting tonight, due to the fact that it is Ash Wednesday. It was announced yesterday. All members who wish to pay their dues may do so with the recorder until further notice.

New Shoe Store—A branch store of the G. R. Kinney Shoe company from Sault Ste. Marie to Escanaba has been announced by Darrell Rasmussen, manager of the store. The store will be opened in the building formerly occupied by "Candyland" confectionary, the last of March or early in April. The company deals exclusively in shoes.

First M. E. Church—The monthly church night will be observed at the First Methodist Episcopal church this evening. Supper will be served at 6:30. There will be singing of old-time songs and Atty. J. C. Baker will deliver an address upon the theme, "Christianity and its Influence on Civil Law." A good attendance is anticipated.

Preparing Drama—Members of the Young People's society of the First Methodist church are preparing a religious drama entitled "The Challenge of the Cross." It will be given next Sunday evening. Further details will appear in a later edition of The Press.

Ladies' Aid—The Ladies' Aid society of the Swedish Methodist church will hold its monthly social Thursday in the church parlors at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Algot Nelson and Mrs. William Gaffin will be the hostesses. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Epworth League—The Epworth League of the Bark River M. E. church will meet Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Dahlberg, Bark River.

SPEAKERS AT E. H. S. NAMED

Harry Erickson, School Orator, William Peters, Declaimer.

Harry Erickson, senior, and William Peters, sophomore, were chosen to represent Escanaba high school as orator and declaimer, respectively, in the contest held in Escanaba high school yesterday morning.

Erickson with his oration, "Twentieth Century Crime," and Miss Ethel Gessner with an oration entitled, "America's Peril," also a discussion of crime, were the only two entrants in the oratorical preliminary.

William Peters recited as his declamation, Littleton's "Armistice Day Address of 1921." The other entrants in the declamation contest are Jane Glavin, who gave Thurston's "Plea for Cuba"; Marguerite Kis with "The New South," by Grady, and Walter Peters with "The Cross of Gold," by William Jennings Bryan.

Both Peters and Erickson are members of the Escanaba high school debate squad and are coached in both activities by Merrill J. Erickson, of the high school faculty. Erickson is a veteran member of the debate squad and is a very capable speaker. This is his first year in oratory work. William Peters represented Escanaba high school in the debate platform last year in the sub-district contest held at the Sault. Coach Heaphy expects that both of his candidates will get through the sub-district eliminations and make a strong bid for upper peninsula honors.

Needham Elected State Republican Committee Member
W. H. Needham, of this city, chairman of the Delta county board of supervisors and president of the Upper Peninsula Supervisors association, was yesterday elected as a member of the Republican state central committee of Michigan, at the Republican state convention at Grand Rapids. Other members of the state central committee from the Eleventh congressional district elector with Mr. Needham are: John Galster of Petoskey and Mrs. M. DeFoe of Alpena.

The position to which Mr. Needham has been elected is an honorary one and the recognition won by the Escanaba man will be a matter of deep satisfaction to his many friends in this city and county.

Announcement and Invitation Of Vital Importance to Escanaba Car Owners

The Announcement—

The "Inside Arm" Makes Repairs Perfect

The Escanaba Motor Company takes great pleasure in announcing the completion of a program of expansion laid out for its tire repair department.

An enlarged and renovated department, additional equipment and increased staff makes it now possible for us to provide Escanabans with a tire repair and vulcanizing service second to none in the Upper Peninsula.

This department is in charge of Sam Diller and Buster Vezna, both graduates of the Firestone Factory School of Tire Rebuilding, and thoroughly experienced in every phase of tire repairing and vulcanizing. Tires receiving vulcanizing service here receive a broad guarantee on the work. Records for perfect work established by this department in previous years, additional facilities for service and job guarantee is the basis on which we bid for your tire repairing. Here, as elsewhere in this concern, 24-hour service will be maintained.

TIRE REPAIR DEPARTMENT

SERVICE AS YOU WANT IT.

The Invitation—

We believe that many folks would appreciate the opportunity to view a modern tire repair and vulcanizing department and therefore, extend to you a cordial invitation to drop in anytime you have the leisure.

Never before have car operators been able to buy good tires as cheaply as they can today. But this all too brief era of lowest prices is soon to pass, according to all signs and omens. We are, therefore, making it a point to advise all prospective tire buyers to fill their present as well as future needs now. In order to make this matter easy financially, we permit the customer to select his needs, pay a small reserving fee and the balance as he takes delivery.

Isn't it natural that the originator of the Balloon tire should develop the most popular—of course that's—

A BIRD LOOKS DOWN from the air and sees other great birds taking off. This unusual photograph was taken from an airplane looking straight down upon a squadron of U. S. Navy seaplanes about to ascend from the water of San Diego (Calif.) harbor during maneuvers of the Pacific fleet.

NOTICE HOW THESE four horses clearing the water hurdle at Newbury race course, England, illustrate the complete cycle of motion for the jump. "Indian Summer," here leading, and the race winner, has his fore feet almost back to earth. The two next horses are at different arcs of the mid-air leap, while the fourth is just getting off the ground. Another strange thing for a jumping picture, not a rider is falling!

TEXAS GUNAN (arrow), prima donna of New York's night life, was met by a crowd of her own entertainers upon her release from the police station in which she was locked up nine hours in default of bail following a raid on the night club she rules as hostess and entertainer. Next day she appeared in the federal court to answer other proceedings against the club of which, the government contends, she really is the proprietress.

LIKE THE TRIUMPHAL RETURN to Rome of a Caesar, the arrival of Chang Kai-Shek at Hankow brought a colorful turnout of his followers. Chang, indicated above by the arrow and the circle, is the generalissimo of the Chinese Nationalists, something of a George Washington among his countrymen. Hankow is the Nationalist capital. Note the military band in the lower photo—playing, presumably, some Chinese version of "Mars, the Bringer of War."

NO FREE SHOW FOR CROWD AT COUNCIL HALL

Those who attended the Manistique city council meeting Monday night in the expectation of hearing a discussion on the request to oust the present administration were disappointed. Although personal letters inviting an open forum were sent by the administration to representative signers, none of the sponsors of the petition appeared, and the council took an early adjournment after a short routine business session that lasted less than half an hour.

Lyceum Bureau to Send Manistique An Extra Number

To compensate for curtailment of the Jackson Jubilee Singers program, due to illness of one of the members, Manistique lyceum course patrons will be given an extra number on this season's Redwood entertainment series. The added feature will be free to all holders of season tickets, the date and further details of the entertainment to be announced later.

WATCH THEFT LANDS SMITH BACK IN PEN

Only a few short months of freedom in a life of intermittent prison terms, and Russell Smith, 27, is back again at the Jackson penitentiary. Smith, a paroled prisoner, had been working in Manistique for the past few months, making his home at a local boarding house. Recently he stole a watch from a local apple dealer, was apprehended by Sheriff John M. Hewitt, and was taken into custody at the county jail, awaiting word from authorities at Jackson, where he had been paroled last December. On Monday, a deputy warden arrived and Smith was taken back in handcuffs Tuesday morning to the pen, facing again a term of several years.

New Developments Reported in Deal for Furnace Plant

Promising developments relative to the charcoal iron plant in Manistique were reported Monday at a meeting of city officials and local residents. Although the matter has not progressed sufficiently to permit publicity, it was intimated that there was a prospect for re-opening the plant under new ownership and resulting in the city, state and county. The meeting was called to determine the city's policy in regard to the tax matter if the proposed deal is consummated.

Renwick Funeral Held on Tuesday

Funeral services were held at Manistique yesterday afternoon for George Renwick, aged ex-school teacher, who was killed by a falling tree in the River road district last week. Rev. C. S. Risley of the Methodist church officiated at the services, and burial was in Lakov's cemetery, by request of the deceased. Local arrangements were made by Mr. Rohrbacher of Pontiac, a nephew, who was the only relative to attend the funeral.

St. Alban Party Is Big Success

There were 22 tables of bridge and five hundred players at the card party for St. Alban's guild given Monday evening in the Odd Fellows' hall at Manistique. The committee in charge included: Mrs. Carl Johnson, Mrs. Chester Currie and Mrs. C. M. Sigler. Refreshments were served. The winners at cards were: Bridge, Mrs. Markley, Miss Edna Tucker; five hundred, B. Gaffney; Mrs. G. Aanderud.

DEATH CALLS D. G. CURRIE TUESDAY P. M.

The death of D. G. Currie, old resident of Manistique, occurred Tuesday afternoon at his home, 500 Range street, following an illness of several months and an operation from which he failed to rally. Mr. Currie was 62 years of age, a native of Scotland, and had resided in Manistique for more than 40 years. He was a jeweler by trade, and for years kept a shop in this city, later becoming a traveling salesman. For the past few months he had been suffering from a hip trouble which forced him to remain at his home in this city, and a few weeks ago submitted to an operation for cancer at the Mayo hospital, Rochester. The survivors include his mother, Mrs. Janet Currie, two daughters, Gladys and Sarah, and one son, C. C. Currie. There is also a brother, John, of Dayton, Ohio, with whom the aged mother has been making her home.

CAN'T AFFORD DONATION, SAY CITY FATHERS

Shying at an appropriation which they believed would invite public criticism, the Manistique city council has deferred action on the Chamber of Commerce suggestion that the city set aside $1,500 to help defray the cost of a proposed tourist advertising program for 1927. Tentative plans for the advertising budget were presented two weeks ago, and after consideration, the council has decided to lay the matter over until another meeting.

Mary Pickford Matinee Today

Relucting Mary Pickford is back again! The famous little star, whose screen masterpieces have delighted millions throughout the world, has produced "Sparrows," another great picture—which has been called her greatest—and it is showing in Manistique tonight, with a unique performance at 4 p. m., under auspices of the Manistique Woman's club welfare committee. Mary is cast as "Mama Mollie," the little girl who mothers the forlorn children on the baby farm. She pilots them through many adventures providing much laughter, many thrills and not a few tears.

THEATRES

AT THE COMMUNITY. An exceedingly unusual situation in which the hero has to turn bandit to save the bank's money, is presented in "The Escape," the Pete Morrison starring vehicle which is coming today to the Community Theatre. This is a thrilling action melodrama of the West such as is dear to the hearts of all out-of-doors fans. Most people under the predicament of having to commit a crime to frustrate a band of criminals would not be willing to take the chance. But in this picture Morrison and his two trusty friends know of a planned robbery of the stage bringing money to the bank.

AT THE LYRIK.

An elaborate dream sequence, employing hundreds of people, and comprising one of the most novel scenes ever incorporated in a picture, was photographed by Monta Bell for his production of "The Boy Friend," which comes to the Lyric theater as a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture on Wednesday and Thursday. It is the dream of John-Harmon as Joe Pond, "the boy friend," who, believing that he is disgraced and has lost his girl, has a nightmare in which he sees the faults and virtues of his enemies and friends exaggerated many-fold. The "kick" of the dream, however, is the fact that everyone is charming. Joe has tried to impress upon the small town consciousness the importance of manners and graciousness without appreciable results.

"MISS CHERRY BLOSSOM" IS BIG SUCCESS

"Miss Cherry Blossom," a musical comedy in three acts, was presented last evening at Gladstone high school before an audience that filled the auditorium to its capacity. The operetta was said to be one of the finest productions given by the school in some time. Members of the Glee club, principals and choruses showed musical and dramatic talents that made the operetta a decided success from the standpoint of entertainment. Picturesque settings and costumes gave added charm to the play. The special orchestra playing the music of the operetta, was another enjoyable feature. The production was a splendid production and credit is due Van Knebel, director, his assistants, Miss Lucille Webb and Miss Gertrude Mueller, members of the cast and all committee workers.

TODAY in SPORTS

INDIANS PITCH CAMP IN SOUTH

Last of 14 Major League Teams Starts Spring Training.

Atlanta, Ga., Mar. 1.—(AP)—With the arrival of the Cleveland Indians at Lakeland, Fla., today, the 14 major league baseball training camps in Louisiana, Florida and Texas became the scenes of pennant aspirant action. The Indians were the last of the squads to reach their formal preparing base.

Although McCallister's men were officially behind the others in getting out, they have gotten quite a bit of work in already, during a stay of several days at Hot Springs, Ark.

At Shreveport and New Orleans, La., and San Antonio, Texas, the same is true of the Chicago White Sox, Boston Red Sox and Detroit Tigers, also late arrivals.

The Tigers were reinforced during the day by the arrival of Owen Carroll, former Holy Cross star, and Outfielder R. C. Holland. Moriaty had his men working under an almost summer sun that took yesterday's dampness of the grounds.

The Detroiters worked almost three hours before calling it a day.

Kamm Heads Sox.
Schalk named Willie Kamm, third baseman, as captain of the Chicago White Sox before trotting his 12 arrivals out to the Shreveport park for a light drill.

A cold wind and early morning sleet made the practice short.

The entire Red Sox outfit is due at New Orleans by tomorrow but so far only Manager Carrigan, Coach Heinie Wagner and Danie McPayden, rookie, have reported.

John McGraw's force was augmented at Sarasota during the day by the arrival of Terry and Jackson.

Six Cardinals hopped off the train at Avon Park and went to work. They included George Toporer, Roscoe Holm, Dan Clark, Lester Bell, Jim Bottomley and Darcey Flowers.

John Hawkins came to the Browns today via the Glants. Hawkins's men are fast rounding into shape.

Reuther Joins Yankees.
An old campaigner came to the Yankees with the arrival of Dutch Reuther, who was accompanied into camp by Spencer Adams.

Stuffy McInnis has ordered the Phillies to Bradentown and they will report at the park there tomorrow.

The Brooklyn Robins got a surprise package with the arrival of Jess Petty and a couple of holdouts, McWeeny and Eberhardt.

Eddie Collins was in uniform at Fort Myers today with the Athletics. The new infield of the Macks had Henson, Collins, Boley and Hale in the lineup.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE DELFT.
The Frank Waininger Comedy comedy in a mystery play, "The Flat Upstairs," will be the Delft attraction tonight. The play is a brand new one, with a "hat" part of the favorite comedian. Mr. Waininger's "Just Around the Corner," presented last night, is reviewed elsewhere in this paper.

AT THE STRAND.
There's a wealth of Western scenery in "The Overland Stage," starring Ken Maynard, which will be shown at the Strand Wednesday and Thursday.

The First National company, directed by Albert Rogell, journeyed first to Deadwood, S. D., where the great pageant and celebration of "The Days of '49'" was filmed as a cognate part of the story.

The celebration, held in August, was on a particularly impressive scale this year, because of the fact that it was the semi-centennial of the days that Deadwood celebrates.

Of course, the beautiful scenery of the Black Hills was utilized to the fullest extent.

After returning from South Dakota and working a few weeks in the studio, the company traveled a much shorter way to Hollywood, one of the real beauty spots of Southern California, where the picture was finished. It is recognized by every up-to-date producer that trips like these return more than their cost in the added beauty and appeal of the picture.

"The Overland Stage" is from the story by Marion Jackson. The cast includes Kathleen Collins, as leading lady.

BILLY EVANS

Big Gamble.

Every sport that calls for a supreme effort on the part of the performer involves a big gamble. I am speaking from a physical standpoint.

When a major league magnate pays anywhere from $25,000 to $100,000 or more for a "bush" league phenom, he is taking a long chance that the player will not only not deliver but remain immune from serious injury.

It's a double gamble with the magnate, financial as well as physical. The major league records reveal any number of cases where players, highly touted, have failed to make the grade.

Also, many rookies after showing enough stuff to win a regular berth, have had their careers quickly ended because of some injury that handicapped their play.

Baseball Worries.
While baseball is fairly free from personal contact, such as comes in football and basketball, still, sliding into bases and taking some desperate chance trying to stretch a hit, carry a big risk.

Just think what a blow it would have been to Connie Mack if, after paying better than one hundred thousand bucks for "Lefty" Grove, something had happened to that costly sputter of his which ended his pitching days.

I know of at least 20 major league pitchers who have had their careers cut short by having a muscle snap in the arm or shoulder.

Think of what a tough break it would have been for the White Sox if Bill Kamm, who cost practically as much as Grove, suffered a knee or ankle injury while sliding that put him permanently out of the running.

Such things often happen on the ball field.

Case of Carlaris.
The race horse game is an even more precarious business than baseball. This fact is recalled by the hard luck "Fatty" Anderson had with Carlaris, who a year ago at this time was the sensation of the turf.

Recently in looking over the results at Turfiana, I noticed where Carlaris had scored a victory at six furlongs. It caused me to hope that he might still have some of the speed that carried him to a memorable victory in the Coffroth Handicap of last year.

Shortly after that win, "Fatty" Anderson, owner of the big bay, turned down an offer of one-quarter of a million for Carlaris.

Brought east for feature stakes, Carlaris suffered several reverses and was finally withdrawn because of inability to hit his stride, due largely to leg injuries.

Offered $250,000 for Carlaris one year ago, Anderson might have trouble collecting $2500 for him today.

It's a great life if you don't weaken.

PSALMSINGERS CLIMB TO 2ND

The Swedish Methodist Psalmsingers gained one notch nearer the top of the church league standings last night when they defeated the St. Stevens by the lopsided score of 35 to 24.

The game was fast and rough. The Norwegian Lutheran Herringhookers who were idle last night were forced into third position after being in runner-up berth since Tuesday night.

Norlin, Singer forward, was the high point man of the evening with 21 points chalked up to his record.

The lineup and summary:
PSALMSINGERS (SS FG FT P T)

SEHVANT RETIRES.

Rome.—"Linda," as Miss Teodolinda Banfi is called, has grown feeble and will retire shortly from the service of Pope Pius XI. She is 70 now and has served the pope ever since he entered the priesthood. For years she has prepared or looked after the Pope's meals. The Pope eats but little—usually soup, fish or vegetables with a small glass of wine making up his principal meal, usually takes about 2 p. m.

A growing plant is better than cut flowers for a table centerpiece, provided the container is pretty.

KAER IS ALSO A TRACK STAR

Southern California Grid Star Due for Greater Honors.

By NEA Service
Los Angeles—Morton Kaer was a valuable athlete at the University of California long before he ever became a valuable member of the football team and later an All-American halfback.

Kaer was forced to allow his efforts in track to lag while he was gaining greater fame as a halfback. Now young Kaer is eager to surpass his efforts in football by greater performances in his first love—track.

When Kaer entered Southern California in 1923, he showed the makings of a four-letter man. He pitched on the baseball team, was considered a great track man, worked his way from the fourth Trosch eleven to the first, and played basketball.

During the track season of 1924, his freshman year, he turned in such creditable marks in so many different events that he was entered in the Olympic tryouts. He copied first in the pentathlon event in the trials, went to Paris, and had the distinction of being the only collegian to place.

All of this, mind you, despite the fact that he started off his performances with a tooth so badly ulcerated that his jaw was swollen almost to the point of breaking the skin. He finished sixth, having placed first in the 220-meter race, second in the javelin and third in the broad jump.

Kaer made the football team at Southern California the next year. His play was not brilliant. He next made the basketball team as a forward.

But there, if he had any ambitions for four letters, his ambition stopped—the faculty instituted a rule limiting athletes to only two sports.

Kaer chose football and track. In 1925 he led the touchdown makers of the nation with 14 markers. But in track he failed to reach the dizzy heights—he was unable to regain his old stride.

Last fall saw Kaer placed on practically every All-American selection in the nation. Now he wants to reach the same heights in track. Perhaps he will. At any rate, Coach Dean Cromwell has hopes that Kaer may be able to replace Kenneth Grumbles, intercollegiate and national A. A. U. champion, who has graduated. In the low hurdles, as well as throwing.

By consistent practice, Kaer may realize his ambition to surpass his grid fame on the track this fall.

No one knows any better than he does how much practice this will have to be put Kaer is willing to put in the time and Coach Cromwell is equally willing to work with him.

They called him "Devil-may-care" Kaer this fall because of his vicious playing on the gridiron.

Those who played against him, especially the Stanford outfit that eked out a 13-12 victory against the Southern California aggregation, can easily tell you that stopping Kaer, whether it was through the line or around ends, was a job of no easy ability.

Kaer's ambition is to again be ranked the leading pentathlon star among the collegiate track athletes. Perhaps he also nourishes an ambition to return to the Olympic games in 1928.

But whatever that ambition is, this All-American halfback, who once laid aside track in order to achieve fame in football, wants now to lay aside the sport in which he gained his greatest fame on the track and field.

If Kaer has a big year in track this spring a good many experts will be surprised, as it has been proved that there is little in common between track and football. Leading track coaches strongly discourage the playing of football by any likely freshmen prospects.

Few track stars have been very successful in football, particularly sprinters and hurdlers. They have not been able to make much use of their great speed. As a rule they are rather brittle about the legs and do not stand the pounding the players are subjected to in football.

During his football career, Kaer has suffered considerable from injuries and it is just possible that the strenuous life of the gridiron star has slowed him up some, thereby affecting his track possibilities.

Ball Bug Bites Dixie; Teams Start Practice

White Sox Get Workout Under Guidance of Ray Schalk.

Atlanta, Feb. 28.—(AP)—The baseball training barometer registered pop flies and peppery language on a new front in Dixie today as the conditioning area broadened to Louisiana and Texas.

At Shreveport, the real bug took a bite when Ray Schalk, veteran American League catcher, gave his White Sox of Chicago their first workout under him as manager. It was a small band today, but the diminutive receiver-manager will have a full fielder-in-a-week.

The Red Stockings of Boston were still to get under way at New Orleans, but by tomorrow, Bill Carrigan's force should have started.

The winds of Texas are beginning to blow off the diamond sands at San Antonio, as the men of George Moriarty gather. Clyde Manion, catcher, and the coaches lobbied a few over today.

White Sox Arrivals.
For the White Sox, Blankenship and Charlie Barnabe are the latest arrivals of note, and Blankenship has a notion that his arm will be in fine fettle after a few workouts with a little more heat. Today was chilly in Louisiana.

Along the already firmly entrenched Florida, the talk tonight was of holdouts for with the last day of reporting for the "dead line" changes, their registrar ymarks from "late" to "hold-out." There were many who were not even in sight, including the noted right field gunner, George H. Ruth.

Adolfo Luque, veteran pitcher was quoted recently as saying he would like to play with the New York Glants this year, but Manager Hendrix of Cincinnati said today:

"Adolfo Luque will not play with the Glants this year. If he plays baseball, it will be in the uniform of Cincinnati."

Connie Mack passed a minute at Fort Myers to deliberate on the absence of Joe Pate, season-old pitcher of the Fort Worth Texas League club, who came to the A's last year and of whom the elephant leader has predicted great things this year.

St. Louis Has Problems.
The champions of St. Louis also have their problems, for Tommy Thevenow and Flint Rhem are still missing. With the exception of them, the squad is expected to be complete by tomorrow.

Miller Huggins lamented a little during the day as he found 10 members of his outfit yet missing, but he cheerfully said, "the remainder of the squad will report on March 6." The Indians of Cleveland reach Lakeland tomorrow and a number of them have already worked out at the Hot Springs, Ark., warm baths.

The New York Glants' new turnstile clicking device—Rogers Hornsby of the wicked bat—worked steadily at Sarasota today as usual for the past week. Jack Bentley had a patched-up nine to meet one of Rogers' and the Glants had fun plenty.

Phillie Pitchers Gather.
In American League circles, the Washington Senators at Tampa were joined today by Corvleskie, Fred Marberry, Sammy Rice and "Goose" Goslin. Speaker comes in tomorrow. Manager Harris said. An exhibition game will be staged by the Boston Braves Saturday.

Eleven pitchers of the Phillies have gathered at Bradentown and will begin tossing the ball tomorrow. Infielders and outfielders are not expected for several days. At Tarpon Springs, Dan Howley, new manager of the St. Louis Browns, is putting his proteges through the paces regularly. Six of his men are missing, but said they would report at any time. They are Oscar Melillo, Frank O'Rourke, Ralph Cress, Walter Schenek, Kenneth Williams and Edmond Miller. None are holdouts, Howley declared emphatically.

Press Specials Win in Overtime Contest

The Press Specials defeated the North Town Oriels, 6 to 4, in an overtime game at the Webster gymnasium last night.

The lineup: Press Specials—Beggs, Schwartz 2, Sullivan 2, Clark 2, Stade, Swanson and Erickson; North Town Oriels—H. Shay, forward; Sjoberg, forward; Bloomquist, center 4; Boucher, left guard; Rodman, right guard, and A. Boucher.

COOL RECEPTION AWAITING RUTH

No Brass Bands to Blare at His Arrival in New York.

New York, Mar. 1.—(AP)—A cool and formal reception from the Yankees awaits Babe Ruth and his $100,000 salary ballyhoo upon his metropolitan homecoming from Hollywood tomorrow morning.

There will be no brass band to pace the tread of the heavy slugger as he descends from his transcontinental trip and steers a course toward the executive offices of the club. Neither is there any prospect under a haze of confetti and ticker tape. For throughout today the Yankees officials devoted a strong attention to throwing up a strong defense behind which to resist any overtures for an increase over the $52,000 he has received annually for the last three years.

Ruth is due here at 9:30 o'clock in the morning, but he will have to make his own appointment to see President Jacob Ruppert of the New York team.

"We have no engagement to see Ruth. He will have to call up and arrange an appointment like any of the other players," said Ruppert. Leaving Chicago early this afternoon, Ruth said he would accept no compromise on his $100,000 salary demand. Previously he has announced that unless his terms were met he would retire from baseball and go into business with his trainer, Artie McGovern.

Port Huron Champ Loses to Detroit Man in Billiards

Detroit, Mar. 1.—(AP)—Richard Urmay of Port Huron, state champion, was defeated by Marcel Camp of Detroit, 100 to 40, in 14 innings in the state open pocket billiard tournament here today.

Camp had an unfinished run of 19, while Urmay's best run was 12.

Another Detroit entry, Albert Erickson, defeated George Kilmer of Flint, 100 to 72, in 56 innings. Each had a high run of 11.

Maple Leafs Beat Pirates Puck Team

Toronto, March 1.—(AP)—Toronto Maple Leafs defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 4 to 1 tonight in their final meeting here of the current national hockey season. The Pirates took the lead in the first period when Drury scored but the Leafs tied the score in the second frame and rifled the puck past Worters three times in the final session.

Americans Advance in Puck Standings

New York, March 1.—(AP)—The New York Americans drew up on the third place Montreal Maroons in the international division of the national hockey league tonight by shutting out Boston 3 to 0. The locals scored all their goals in the first session.

HOCKEY GAMES 'FIXED'—RUMOR

National Hockey Circuit Will Probe Fraud Charges.

New York, Mar. 1.—(AP)—Professional hockey sharpened skates today to chase rumor through the league of sloughed games.

Declaring itself in on the open season of alleged fixed contests, the National Hockey circuit greeted with prompt denials a report that last Saturday's match here between the Ottawa Senators and New York Americans was "sloughed" to the Gotham sextet. The Americans won the game, 3 to 2, after 16 seconds of overtime play.

In answer to complaints that long odds were offered on the Americans to win the game, despite the fact that the Senators hold a commanding lead in the international section of the league, President Frank Calder of Montreal said he had received no facts to substantiate a charge of "sloughing."

"As far as I know this particular game was decided on its merits," he said. "Betting on results of games by officials and players is absolutely forbidden. No direct charge has been made to me and if any club has any information which would lead us to believe any game was not decided on its merits, the proper thing to do would be to lay a formal complaint."

Questioned at Ottawa, the members of the Senators' team asserted they never had wagered a cent on any game and conjoined their record of only seven defeats in 35 starts was ample reply to any claim of "laying down."

FEBRUARY WAS WARM MONTH

Average Temperature Six Degrees Above Normal; Maximum of 47.

With "Old Sol" blessing Escanaba with his warm rays to the extent that ten days in February showed the mercury to be above the freezing point, the average for the month is six degrees above the normal for February over a 55-year period and was the warmest February in this vicinity since 1921. The average for the month was 21 degrees above, as compared to 17 degrees above in 1926.

February 23 was the warmest day with an average temperature of 40 degrees for 24 hours and the maximum during that time at 47 degrees. February 22 was the second warmest day of the month with a maximum of 46 degrees and an average of 39 degrees.

Although February was exceptionally warm, there was a deficiency of .43 of an inch of precipitation, the normal for the month being 1.34 inches, while only .91 inch fell. There has been a deficiency of .77 of an inch in precipitation since January 1.

The coldest day in February was the 19th, when the mercury sneaked down to nine degrees below zero, although the average for the day was eight degrees above, as compared to an average of six degrees above on the 15th when the lowest temperature was only two below.

There was but one day in the month when a high wind prevailed. On the 17th a north wind gained a velocity of 34 miles an hour.

Winninger Gives Audience German Dialect Evening

Frank Winninger's droll German dialect foxtrot kept another capacity audience at the Delft theatre last night in an uproar of laughter.

The play was "Just Around the Corner," and it told of the climb of the Hensler family, in an Ohio city, from contended poverty to wealth, opulence and back again, in the third act, to their former lowly but happy estate.

The crowd was Frank's from his first entrance and Frank, real showman that he is, knew it, and he gave them exactly the thing they wanted and demanded—laughter. The costuming in the "fancy dress" party, in which the comedian appeared as Peter Stuyvesant—peg leg and all—was a well-blended portion of color, novelty and fun.

Frank's associates again demonstrated that they are the best "comedy company" Frank has ever built. Jesselyn Dellell, his charming and talented leading lady, Verona Sampson and Eugenia Hartman, Deborah Saming, Adolph Winniger, Hans Sandeen, Herbert Travis and Lawrence Deming not only furnished the comedian with adequate support, but contributed, individually, to the success of the evening.

The Delft orchestra came in for a share of the applause, too, with its program of "jazz" numbers. "The Flat Upstairs," a mystery play, is the Winninger offering for tonight.

The combined city and county sponge squad visited the place of Sam Ranguette, 309 South Tenth street, early last evening, and found sufficient evidence in the form of alleged moonshine whiskey to charge the proprietor with possession and keeping a place.

When the officers, Sheriff Elmer Swanson, Undersheriff Joseph Carney and City Officer Phil Bruce entered the saloon, Ranguette tried to destroy the evidence, but a sufficient quantity remained, which was confiscated.

A warrant charging Ranguette with possession and keeping a place will be served today.

BAND TO GIVE FINE CONCERT

Splendid Program of Music to Be Presented Thursday Night.

The Escanaba Municipal band will give an indoor concert in the high school auditorium Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

In addition to the band numbers, there will be readings by Miss Eula Mack, vocal solos by Miss Grace Mills, saxophone solos by Walter Lippold, marimba solos by Charles Johnson, and selection by a saxophone quintet.

A new band arrangement of the favorite song, "Mighty Lak a Rose," by Joseph Greenfield, will be another attractive feature.

There will be no admission charge, but children under 16 years of age must be accompanied by their parents.

The band has been working diligently for several weeks in preparation for the concert and an enjoyable evening is in store for music lovers.

St. Patrick's to Hold Mission Here Beginning Mar. 27

Rev. Fr. John Mookler, pastor of St. Patrick's parish, has announced that a mission lasting two weeks will be conducted at the church during Lent, commencing March 27, and ending on Palm Sunday, April 10. The mission will be conducted by two Redemptorist Fathers, Fr. Michael Pathe and Rev. Fr. M. C. Nugent of Detroit.

One week of the mission will be assigned to the men and boys and one week for the women and girls. At some time during the two weeks, there will be two or three services for the men and women together, at which time special sermons will be given.

Rev. Frs. Pathe and Nugent have preached many missions in various sections of the country, and are both very capable speakers.

It is expected that many persons will take advantage of this mission to perform their Easter duties and to benefit by the special indulgences and graces afforded at that time. The public will be heartily welcome at all the services. At the present time, Father Pathe is preaching a three weeks' mission at Holy Name cathedral in Detroit.

With the help of his wife and this Bank

When John Steadyman arrived here about twelve years ago he had $35, a wife, and a heart full of ambition. He got a job and a savings account here. He deposited regularly every pay day $2 or $3.

When he had $200 he went into business for himself with a wagon and the help of his wife. He still saved. He is now a prosperous merchant and property owner.
