

BLOCKADE OF BILLS LOOMS IN HOUSE

DECREE GIVES STRENGTH TO PRIMARY IDEA

FINAL BALLOT NOT ENTIRE ELECTION, INFERENCE.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Mar. 9.—The supreme court of the United States has handed down a decision which may give added strength to the idea that an "election" now-days includes not merely the final balloting but the preliminary steps...

The Texas statute which has just been held unconstitutional by an unanimous decision of the supreme court was passed with the idea that negroes could be prohibited from voting in the Democratic primaries and yet not disturb their privilege of voting in a Republican primary...

The constitution does not, of course, guarantee the right to vote as this is a matter on which the states can prescribe qualifications. Thus the Democrats in the south can insist that certain educational requirements be satisfied before a voter is accepted...

The moot point involved in the question of prohibiting negroes from voting was, however, not as much concern to politicians here as the inclusion of the primary in the election process which is subject to federal supervision.

Schuyler Defeats Muma in Menominee

Menominee, March 9.—With the vote in all of the larger precincts in the county tabulated, Paul Schuyler had a lead of about 600 votes over James Muma for the Republican nomination for county school commissioner. The vote stood 1,573 for Schuyler and 976 for Muma.

Sutherland Wins in Iron Mountain

Iron Mountain, March 9.—Mayor Al Sutherland was re-nomination in Tuesday's primary election, defeating Walter A. Hense, former mayor, by the decisive majority of 555 votes. Sutherland carried three out of five wards. The election was one of the quietest this city has held in years, contrasting sharply with the mud slinging that has characterized many previous campaigns.

Talks on Health

By Dr. Morris Fishbein

The human body is a combination of tissue cells bound together into various systems. Including, for example, the muscles, the bones, the circulation of the blood, the nervous system, the digestive tract and the special organs.

Through the process by which this machine develops. It tends usually to get along satisfactorily if left largely alone. There resides within it the power for repair, a power which makes it differ for instance from such machinery as might be found in an automobile.

It possesses also the power known as the mind, the intelligence or the will, which makes it possible for the possessor of the body to realize when things go wrong and to take steps toward their correction if he thinks this desirable.

Some persons are much more conscious of things that go wrong than others. They are likely to concentrate on physical difficulties to such an extent as never to be quite satisfied with life because of their irritation with their tissues.

Assuming that a person is in good physical health, assuming that he has had a complete physical examination at the hands of a competent physician and has been told that there is nothing of importance wrong with him, he may wish to know how to conduct himself so as to do everything possible to avoid disease in the future. Certain health habits may be recommended to him as contributing toward this end.

The first of these is to keep calm. Without being able to

Legion Convention Dates Officially Fixed, June 23-24

Dates for the annual convention of the Upper Peninsula Association of American Legion Posts have been officially set at June 23-24, it was announced by Thomas Beaton and Edward Moersch, who attended the executive committee meeting held at Crystal Falls last Sunday. The Legion Auxiliary association of the district will meet at the same time.

The delegates to the conference were urged to get in touch with school officials throughout the peninsula, for the purpose of arranging a half-holiday on Armistice Day, if possible.

It is expected that the attendance at the Iron River reunion will pass the 2,000-mark. Among those who have been invited are Vice President Dawes and General John J. Pershing.

Mr. Beaton gave a detailed report of the activities of Cloverland Post.

LIST DWINDLES TO 15 IN PLAY FOR CUE TITLE

With eight players having been eliminated in the first two rounds, 15 of the cue artists are still in the running in the three-cushion billiard tournament at the United Cigar store. Six of those who have not yet lost two games maintain a perfect average with two games won and none lost.

When a player loses two games he is eliminated from tournament play.

Coach Lamber Gives Congratulations to Michigan Cage Five

Ann Arbor, Mar. 9.—(P)—Members of the Michigan championship Western Conference basketball team were congratulated in a telegram received here tonight by Coach J. Mather from Ward Lamber, coach of the Purdue basketball team and members of his squad. The telegram follows: "We are taking this opportunity to congratulate you on winning the conference basketball championship and on your clean sportsmanlike playing in both games with us, which also characterized the play of the Michigan team throughout the season. The 1927 basketball team is a champion in every respect and well deserves the title."

The Purdue team is tied with Indiana for second place in the conference standing. The export trade in canaries from Yorkshire to the United States is increasing and mail steamers often take out from 800 to 1,000 birds at a time.

Factory Representative Gives Salesmen Interesting Lecture.

Super peninsula dealers in Buick motor cars attended a sales school and conference held yesterday in the show rooms of the Escanaba Motor company. F. T. Wilson of Flint, representing the manufacturers, was in charge of the lecture and demonstration. His talk was built around the chassis of a Buick car and included a great deal of information concerning the mechanical features of the machine. This chassis will remain at the Escanaba Motor company for public inspection, it was announced. Most of the out-of-town dealers returned to their homes last night in Buick cars. Those who attended included: F. T. Wilson of Flint, E. H. Hanson, Earl Lowe, Arthur Anderson of Marquette; John Lizotte and James Cox of Munising; James Emery and J. R. Evans of Marquette; J. E. Johnson and G. R. Johnson of Iron Mountain; Z. M. Hayes of Manistique; W. J. Christie and John Armstrong of Sault Ste. Marie; George House, Harold Foster, H. L. Duff of Newberry; E. J. French, Charles Hammar, A. N. Wilson, J. W. Boney, E. O. Anderson, George W. Gonless and Thomas W. Stodden of Escanaba.

Driver and Horse Rescued from Bay

By Police, Firemen

Members of the police and fire departments were given a work-out yesterday that, by way of variety proved interesting, when they found that John Johnson, 1100 South Seventh street, his horse and cart were stranded in open water near the end of the lighthouse point on the north shore. Johnson was driving on the ice from the south end of the bay when his horse fell through into open water. He managed to get out of the cutter and hold the horse, whose head was just above water, while someone on shore who had seen the accident called the police-department for help. With the aid of ropes the firemen and police-officers were able to get the horse from the cold water. Mr. Johnson immediately took the animal to a warm stall and administered medical attention.

Change in State's Ferry Rates Made

By Frank Rogers

Frank H. Rogers, state highway commissioner, has announced a slight change in 1927 state ferry rates at the Straits of Mackinac. The charges for cars and trucks will be the same as last year's but a charge of twenty-five cents will be made hereafter for each passenger, drivers and children expected. Nearly 75,000 cars patronized the state ferries last year, practically all carrying extra passengers and many loaded to capacity. The above charge should result in a handsome increase in revenue for the season.

To Those Who Suffer Stomach Distress, Gas And Indigestion

PEOPLES DRUG STORE Makes This Offer
Money Back If One Bottle of Dare's Mentha Pepsin Doesn't Do You More Good Than Anything You Ever Used.

You can be so distressed with gas and fullness and bloating from an overworked, abused or weak stomach that you think your heart is going to stop beating. Your stomach may be so distended that your breathing is short and gaspy. You think perhaps you are suffocating. You are dizzy and pray for quick relief—what's to be done? Just one tablespoonful of Dare's Mentha Pepsin and speedily the gas disappears, the pressure on the heart ceases and you can breathe deep and naturally. Oh! What blessed relief; but why not get rid of such attacks altogether? Why have them at all? With this wonderful medicine you can overcome dyspepsia, or that condition of faulty digestion that keeps the stomach in constant rebellion and one bottle will prove it. Over 6,000 bottles sold in one small New Jersey town last year—and the best druggists the country over concede that its phenomenal sales are due to the fact that most cases are promptly relieved. Ask for Dare's Mentha Pepsin, a pleasant to take, health-building stomach elixir that Peoples Drug Store and regular pharmacists anywhere in America guarantee. Adv.

Hospital Requests Motorists to Keep Autos Off Grass

During the winter months when the rear entrance at St. Francis hospital was closed several cars and ambulances drove over the lawn when conveying patients to and from the institution. Now that the snow has disappeared and the ground is soft, the public has been asked not to drive inside the grounds. The street has been cleared away in front of the hospital in Thirtieth street and parking space is made for cars. Anyone driving to the hospital to visit or deliver anything or for any other reason is asked not to park within 20 feet of the front gate so as to permit the ambulances or cars carrying patients to have ample room at the front gate. This request has been made from time to time and many people have paid no attention to it. Again the attendants ask that the rule be obeyed. Many times cars have to be pushed away when an ambulance arrives, and this delays the conveying of the patient to the building. Cars of any description are prohibited inside the fence or on the grounds. An airplane of only 29 horsepower recently flew over the Alps attaining a height of nearly 14,000 feet on the way. They were fortunate in getting the children all out. Axel Magnusson made a business trip to Rapid River Tuesday afternoon. Simon Olson, the school teacher, accompanied him. There are quite a number of men peeling posts and excelsior wood on the banking ground here. At this time of year, they cannot do much of anything else. Mrs. Emily Olson made a business trip to Gladstone Tuesday. Mrs. Neva Barbeau, Clarice and Ruby Lindquist spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Andy Magnusson. Mrs. John Granholm, who went to Ann Arbor for an operation a week or so ago, is improving favorably. Hans Hanson of Ogontz was a caller here Tuesday. Harold Gustafson of Ogontz transacted business here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson were pleasant surprised at their home, 215 South Eighteenth street, Saturday evening when thirty-five friends came to their home unexpectedly and spent the evening in playing cards. Ladies' prizes were won by Mrs. Phil Goudreau first, Mrs. Joseph Lemire second, and Mrs. Fred Mathieson third, consolation, Mrs. William Weicher. Gentlemen's prizes went to B. Vandenburg first, Ben Sauriol second, and Phil Goudreau third, while Oscar Kvan was awarded the consolation. Lunch was served and the couple were presented with a gift.

Benefit Shower

Mrs. Steven Burak and Mrs. R. E. Allingham of Groos entertained a party of ladies Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Burak. The affair was a benefit shower for Mrs. Harry McLaughlin, whose home was destroyed by fire some time ago. Five hundred was the chief diversion, prizes being awarded to Mrs. Emil Zeno first, Mrs. Charles Ostlund second, and Mrs. Elmer Klasek consolation. A beautiful baby crib will be placed in the McLaughlin home by the ladies.

SWAM TO FAME

Cannes, France—An ex-New York boy, calling himself by the name Huger, is well on his way toward becoming the czar of the beach at Cannes. Eighteen months ago, broke in Paris, he remembered his one accomplishment, swimming, and went south to start a school. Now he spends 16 hours a day with his classes on the beach and is reported to be getting moderately wealthy.

FEW CHILD FATALITIES

Remarkable progress in the reduction of the number of children's lives lost in automobile accidents has been accomplished in Louisville, Ky., according to the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce. The child motor fatalities in that city were 63 per cent lower in 1926 than in 1923.

Fifth Normal Idea Dead; Repeal Bill Given No Thought

Lansing, Mar. 9.—(AP)—The House commit on education has voted today for the repeal of the 1923 appropriation for a fifth state normal college. Representative Dennis G. Clancy of Hillsdale asserted today. The chairman of the committee is Representative Edward L. Sargent of Emmet county. Petoskey, which was designated by the state board of education as the location for the normal, is in that county. Despite the possibility, the repeal bill may not reach the floor of the legislature, the fifth normal project is considered dead. The present law provides that when appropriations are not extended during the biennial period for which they were intended, they automatically lapse and the money goes to the general fund. The fifth normal appropriation of $550,000 is in this category and the money will revert to the general fund July 1, unless an amendatory measure is passed and given immediate effect.

Thirteen U. P. Groups Prepare to Cooperate in Booth.

Governor Fred W. Green of Michigan will lead the Michigan delegation of conservationists and will join with the governors of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois and Iowa in a conservation congress at the Out-Door Life Exposition in Chicago, May 1-14. Conservation and its relation to tourist traffic will be among the subjects discussed.

The enormous possibilities of the annual Chicago Out-Door Life Exposition as a means of advertising the lake states and of promulgating the gospel of the northland summer out-of-doors is not only appreciated by Governor Green, but it has been visioned by thirteen communities and associations in various parts of the upper peninsula who have assured the Upper Peninsula Development bureau of their hearty co-operation when the latter stages its annual exhibit in the Chicago Coliseum.

The Lloyd Manufacturing company of Menominee is arranging to equip the bureau's booth with its furniture throughout, which insures an attractive setting and will afford some excellent advertising to a leading upper peninsula product.

Motion Pictures Planned.

More than 100,000 pieces of special literature are being prepared by the bureau and participating organizations for distribution at the show. Arrangements are under way for the display of motion pictures of many beauty spots in Cloverland. The bureau's booth will be adorned with a number of new scenic banners and a wealth of interesting material, and all indications point to the upper peninsula's achieving the outstanding exhibit of the exposition. It will surpass in many ways the display of last year which Chicago papers pronounced the best in the big building.

Every effort is being made to give just representation to all sections of the peninsula, and the scenic advantages of every county and community will be exhibited with the utmost impartiality.

Educational System is Socialistic, Says Little

Ann Arbor, Mich., Mar. 8.—(P)—The country's educational system is socialistic because it gives too little attention to making studies fit the student; it must be made democratic.

Thus Clarence Cook Little, the 38-year-old president of the University of Michigan, crisply outlined what he considers the principal fault of present-day educational methods.

Ten thousand students are governed by Dr. Little, one of the youngest university presidents of the United States, who brings to his tasks the vigor of an athlete and the energy of an Edison. It is not uncommon for him to spend eighteen hours a day at his work.

Democratic education! Frequently, Dr. Little may be seen swinging briskly down Ann Arbor streets, a market basket over his arm. He has been to the grocery store and butcher shop. He likes to bargain.

Herculean Task. He sees his idea of "democratic education" as an Herculean task requiring generations to develop. But he is not dismayed at the size of the job.

"I would rather push a big weight a short distance than throw a pebble out of sight," he said.

The ideal educational system in his mind would emphasize three points:

Bring out the personal qualifications of the student as an asset to the state.

Interest all students in some phase of public service.

Bring about intelligent use of recreational time.

The socialistic tinge of present methods, he believes, consists of laying down set forms and rules for all the people, making them share alike in education.

"When blanket rules for all people are laid down, the people are being fooled," he said. "And another thing, the present-day boy and girl grow up thinking nothing more important than themselves. It is our duty to show them there are many important things than the individual."

Program Idealistic? "Isn't the program somewhat idealistic?" Dr. Little was asked. "In what way?"

"Well, you propose to fit studies to the individual; where would you begin the program?"

"At the bottom of the ladder."

"You mean in the primary grades?"

"Yes, and even in the kindergarten and in the home."

"Yet, it still seems somewhat idealistic," the interviewer persisted.

"You know the educational system takes care of a multitude of pupils."

"It does; and that is more reason why it should be more democratic as distinguished from socialistic. I believe that this democratic system is coming. I probably won't see it; it will require generations to develop, and I am but doing my bit in the direction I believe right."

Dr. Little is in his second year as president of the University of Michigan. He sleeps but six hours out of the 24, and finds his relaxation mainly in the evenings in the real artist and given an opportunity had no difficulty living up to his publicity.

The "breaks" work both ways. Thus there was the case of another singer who got away to extremely bad luck.

He was scheduled to make a debut in an opera he had never before sung. The premiere was at a matinee. It so happened that the night performance was one of great importance. So the critics left early that they might write their articles, have their dinners and be back at certain time.

The singer, nervous over his debut, did not get his critics until after most of the critics had left. Thus he received but half-hearted approval. Thereafter he struggled along in the background until cast in a performance attended by all the prominent critics, whereupon he was enthusiastically received and today he is a leading star.

Pension Payments by Government for May, June Hampered

Washington, Mar. 9.—The failure of congress to pass the second deficiency bill will make it impossible for the Bureau of Pensions to make payments of war pensions of any kind during the months of May and June, it was stated at the bureau here. The civil service pensioners, however, will receive their usual checks, for this type of pension has its own funds and there is no shortage.

All war pensions, including those of the Civil war, Spanish-American war and the Philippine insurrection, will be held up unless some plan is devised to handle the situation, the commissioner's office declared.

Generally, the failure of the bill is not considered serious enough to warrant the calling of an extra session of congress.

Fathers and Sons to Hold Banquet Friday Night

Torval E. Strom will be the principal speaker at the annual Father and Son banquet at the First Presbyterian church Friday night. Any one who desires to attend the banquet will be welcome to do so, but reservations must be made with Rev. John B. Hubbard, pastor of the church, today.

Men who have no sons of their own will be supplied with a boy partner for the occasion, if desired. It is expected that 200 men and boys will attend the affair.

In addition to Mr. Strom's address there will be a number of selections by the Presbyterian Bible school orchestra, a playlet written especially for the occasion, and group singing led by Hugo Swanson.

IN NEW YORK

New York.—Fame, as so many have discovered, is likely to be achieved through some trifling incident.

A film actor, going about unrecognized for years, suddenly dons a pair of tortoise shell glasses and, lo, his fame and fortune are at hand.

A musical comedy performer, bawling about the country in small parts, gets the bright idea of talking to the orchestra leader, and, lo, four months later he is hailed by Broadway as a master of originality.

It is so even in the world of musicians, painters and such. Invariably the question is asked why one artist becomes a celebrity and another of even greater ability goes through a terrific struggle, attracting only slight attention.

Everyone admits that the "breaks" figure to a large extent. Arthur Judson, the concert manager, told me the other day of an American singer who had been appearing at the Metropolitan for a number of years, and getting only the most-casual sort of public notice.

One day there came a squabble over curtain calls. It was during a very important revival and, on the face of the circumstances, it looked as though the American had been slighted by a veteran in a curtain-call. As a matter of fact the circumstances arose purely accidentally.

But the audience resented the situation and expressed itself in clamorous shouting. A leading critic was present and turned the episode into a rather sensational story which appeared on his newspaper's front page.

Overnight the struggling artist became a personage of great importance. He was not one bit a better artist than he had been, but he happened to get a "break."

Ordinarily critics might have been smoking in the foyer, or the audience would not have taken the matter to heart, or the curtain call confusion would never have occurred.

The singer was, of course, a

—and No Place to Go!

We find ourselves, almost without realizing it, a nation on wheels. We drive or ride in more than 22,000,000 motor vehicles.

We pack the paved highways coming in and out of town. We over-run even so-called remote regions. And we are pounding to pieces all but permanent roads.

This year probably 3,000,000 new cars will be on the road. Compared to this increase, the mileage of new permanent roads will be insignificant.

We don't want to be a nation on wheels, with no place to go.

The answer is, build more, and where necessary, wider concrete roads and streets—and start building them now.

Not in a long time have general conditions been so favorable for carrying on such public works as permanent highway building.

WEEPAH, BOOM CAMP, GROWING

Gold-Mad Crowds Build Colorful Town on Drab Desert.

Tonopah, Nev., Mar. 9.—(P)—Weepah, the west's newest boom gold camp, which was but a bit of flat terrain, lifeless and colorless, a few days ago, has begun to mushroom out in all directions. It is a sort of synthetic town without survey, landscaping or local government, but with a very keen and definite purpose, that of the hunt for the yellow earth treasure.

Some semblance of order is being attempted, however, as the prospectors arrive. Fifteen tents and tarpaulin homes follow a line that the doctory settlers believe will mark the main street. One woman is waiting for the coming of a tent outfit so that she can set up an eating place. The base for lodgings, victuals and water still remains in Tonopah, as this is the nearest point for transacting business with banks, the telegraph and supply houses.

Weepah Growing.
But Weepah is being put together, bit by bit, on its founding of stunningly rich pay dirt and should be functioning in all city and domestic departments in a few weeks' time.

The throng of prospectors is watching Frank Horton, the original locator, to see how he is going to handle the workings on his claim where the bonanza was struck. Should he decide to work from the bottom of his old shaft, driving up to the high grade deposit, there may be a lull in camp activity until it can be seen what the development will produce.

But if he goes ahead and makes a cleanup from the surface, it is expected that the countryside will roar with activity and another Klondike will be on its way.

Last week, the two 19-year-old prospectors who located the big pay dirt, were offered $1,000 just to show the place where they had uncovered the gold. They refused. One of them, Horton's son, said that he would await the arrival of his father from Los Angeles and would tell him only. Today they were offered $2,000 cash and a big block of stock in a new company to operate their claims, but they refused. They want to "go it" alone.

First Company Forms.
The first company to be formed in the district filed articles of incorporation today. It is backed by Fort Worth, Texas, capital.

Weepah camp is in Esmeralda county. It is nearly 40 miles northwest of Tonopah and lies so close to the Nye county line that unofficial survey put it in that county at first. Comparatively

Raucholz and Ming in Tiff as Fishing Bill Passes House

Lansing, Mar. 9.—(P)—Over the objection of Representative John Raucholz of Saginaw, that he didn't want a representative from Alpena seeking legislation affecting Saginaw county in committee of the whole, the house today approved two bills by Representative Fred R. Ming advocating the abolition of the remaining riparian rights for commercial fishermen in the waters of Saginaw bay.

Representative Raucholz said he didn't see why a representative from Alpena should have to attend to legislation for Saginaw county and objected to consideration of the bill. Representative Ming replied that he is not from Alpena, but from Cheboygan, and that the measures do not affect Saginaw county.

"If the gentleman will look at the map any look up the law," Representative Ming said, "he will see the bills seek to repeal the riparian rights in the waters of Saginaw bay bordering on Isoco and Arenac counties."

Smith's Campaign For Presidency Is Launched Already

New York, Mar. 9.—(P)—The campaign for nomination of Gov. Alfred E. Smith as Democratic presidential candidate already is under way, it was declared today following a conference of party leaders here.

John F. Carew, chairman of the New York Democratic delegation in the house of representatives, made the statement following a conference between the delegation and George W. Olvany, leader of Tammany Hall.

"We are already at work and propose to nominate him," said Representative Carew. "Our assurances from virtually every state are that Al Smith is wanted by a majority of the Democrats for president."

Mr. Olvany added that in his opinion, "the nation-wide sentiment for nomination of Governor Smith is of such proportions that the governor should be asked to permit his friends to go to work for him."

The conferees were understood to have reached virtual agreement that it would be to Governor Smith's advantage to hold the national convention at Cleveland rather than Denver.

REINSTATEMENT OF VETS URGED

Final Date for Conversion of Insurance Is July 2.

The final date for reinstatement and conversion of government insurance is July 2, and an active campaign urging ex-servicemen to reinstate is being carried by the Detroit regional office of the U. S. Veterans' bureau, with the assistance of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Legion and the American Red Cross.

Each unit of these organizations has full information regarding the subject of government insurance and can aid veterans in completing their applications. There have been in the past several extensions of time for reinstatement of government insurance, but due to the fact that in 1926 a five-year convertible term policy was authorized and the adjournment of congress on March 4, there will not be a further extension and this will be the last opportunity that ex-servicemen will have to preserve this insurance.

Ex-servicemen in Michigan have allowed over $1,000,000,000 of the insurance that they carried during their military service to lapse. The total amount of insurance lapsed throughout the United States is over $30,000,000,000. Many veterans have exercised their good judgment by reinstating and there is now in force insurance in the amount of approximately $2,000,000,000. The greater part of the original amount of insurance, however, remains lapsed and unless this is reinstated before July 2, it will be forever lost.

Many Advantageous Features.
The policies offered by the government are standard and have many advantageous features. The reinstatement requirements are very simple. The probable reason for the failure of ex-servicemen to reinstate their insurance since the various policies are unusually desirable has been widely discussed. According to Luther E. Ellis, manager of the Michigan regional office of the Veterans' bureau, the reason can be most likely traced to the fact that the average man does not seek life insurance, but takes it only when convinced by someone else of its necessity. The problem confronting the Veterans' bureau is therefore of attempting to reach each veteran individually insofar as possible.

Government insurance is issued at cost, and there are no paid agents.

U. of M. Students Plan to Boycott Ann Arbor Shows

Ann Arbor, Mar. 9.—(P)—Students at the University of Michigan held a mass meeting here tonight to work out plans for a boycott of local theaters, scene of a student rush Monday night during which several of the youths were injured by police guards.

President Clarence Cook Little of the university, who attended the meeting, was said to favor a plan for promoting entertainment at Hill Auditorium at the university. Other matters discussed were ways and means of eliminating theater rushes with their attendant danger of creating stampedes.

One student, Henry Blakely of Rockford, Ill., a senior, who is said to have received a charge from a tear gas shell full in the face during the disturbance, is confined to the university hospital. A number of other students were treated at the institution. Henry H. Kember of Indianapolis, a graduate, was arrested, but later released.

The pressman working in a newspaper office at Dorchester, Mass., used to have great trouble with rheumatic stiffness owing to frequent sudden draughts of cold air when his doors were opened to take in rolls of paper.

One of their number began using Sloan's Liniment and now they all chip in to keep Sloan's always on hand for the entire shop.

"After my day's work I rub a little Sloan's Liniment on my back and legs. It never fails."

Sloan's gives real help because it doesn't just deaden the pain. It gets at the cause.

Apply gently, without rubbing. Right away you feel the comforting glowing warmth as the new blood is brought to the sore spots, and soon the aching stops. Get a bottle today. All druggists—35 cents.

This does the work of 50 pounds of ice—and more—every day!

Be ready for hot weather—make your ice box a Frigidaire

IF it were possible for you to keep your ice-box filled—constantly—24 hours a day—you would still not have as good refrigeration as the Frigidaire frost-coil will give you, without any attention on your part.

If you have any standard make of ice-box, you can have Frigidaire installed in it and from that time you can forget about refrigeration. Your meats, vegetables and other foods will be kept better than you were ever able to keep them before. Spoiled foods will be a thing of the past.

Come in and let us demonstrate Frigidaire to you.
