HAITI RULING BARRING KING IS IMPORTANT

FOREIGN COUNTRIES MAY BAR OTHER SOLONS.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Mar. 14.—(AP)—Refusal of Haiti to permit Senator King of Utah to enter that country on the ground that his presence would lend encouragement to agitators against the existing government is in itself an incident of no great importance but its use as a precedent by other countries is quite another matter.

Members of the American senate have lately developed the idea that they are as much empowered to conduct inquiries abroad and even to discuss with foreign governments pending questions of as are officials of the department of state. The theory has been built up because the senate impressed the world with its treaty-making power by rejecting the Versailles treaty. Ever since that time foreign governments have been looking to the senate almost as much as the department of state for a hint of American foreign policy.

While it might not be polite or discreet for a nation like France to bar senators who have attacked her policies, nevertheless France would be just as much within her rights in barring American senators from landing at her ports as is Haiti. The right to exclude is an inherent attribute of sovereignty. The only people who cannot be excluded are officials who are clothed with diplomatic immunity.

Branches Coordinate. In view of the fact that some members of the senate insist that the upper house of congress is co-ordinate with the executive branch of the government in

Plot to Poison Guards Bared

Leopold Alleged to Have Induced Convicts to Make Escape.

Chicago, Mar. 15.—(AP)—Confronted with an ex-convict's story of a wholesale prison delivery to be carried out by poisoning all the guards at Joliet penitentiary under the alleged lead of Nathan Leopold, one of the slayers of Bobby Franks, officers tonight continued to delve into the story that followed two escapes of prisoners recently.

State's Attorney Rehn tonight indicated that a grand jury would be asked to help, although after a hasty review of the story he had declined to believe it.

Meantime, prison officials and state authorities prepared for any emergency which might arise by Saturday, when officials, guards and trustees were to have been poisoned, according to details of the plan bared by Leo Delgado, recently released from the prison.

Poisoning of the guards was to be accomplished, Delgado related, by placing poison in their food which was prepared by convicts.

Leopold Had $2,000. Warden Elmer Green said he has instituted an investigation into Leopold's alleged connection with the plot. Delgado said Leopold had in his possession $2,000 which was to be used by the prisoners after their escape.

Leopold's brother, however, denied that such money was available to the thrill slayer of little Bobby Franks. Prison authorities said that current accounts of prisoners never told more than a few dollars. "We will go into all angles of this case, from the escape of the three convicts—Bernardo Rizo, Robert Torres and Gregoria Rizo—last Saturday, to the reported poison plot, and there may be some indictments," Rehn said.

Rizo was not captured. The prison cook, Carlos Stepien, a Chicago bandit, was transferred from his duties this morning at the order of Warden Green.

To Inhibit Mexicans. The three Mexicans, two of whom were wounded and who fatally wounded a patrolman when he sought to capture them, probably will be indicted here for the policeman's slaying. "Matthew Zimmer, deputy superintendent of police, asserted today. The trio with three other convicts are already under sentence of death for the slaying of Deputy Warden Klein in their escape from prison some months ago. A stay of execution and an appeal for a review of their case kept them from the gallows, however."

Warden Green could not account for the linking of Leopold's name with the alleged escape plot, as he is detained in the new prison building which is some distance from the old prison where the general delivery was to have taken place.

Judge Sweeps Arguments of Counsel Aside

Washington, Mar. 15.—(AP)—Stripping the senate contempt case against Harry F. Sinclair of the legal technicalities in which it had become meshed, Justice Hitz bluntly announced today to counsel that he would leave only four facts to the determination of the jury which probably will get the case tomorrow.

"I am only going to leave it to the jury to say," he stated, "whether as a matter of fact Mr. Sinclair was summoned, whether he appeared, whether the questions were put to him and whether he refused to answer."

The government has offered evidence to show all four things and there has been no defense evidence to controvert it. In fact, the only evidence the defense was permitted to offer was the statement Sinclair made to the senate oil committee when he appeared on March 22, 1924, and explained his reasons for refusing to answer.

Justice Hitz's instructions are to follow very closely those given to the celebrated Chapman case of contempt of a congressional committee in which the jurp returned a verdict of guilty after deliberating for more than 24 hours.

After he had overruled a defense motion for a directed verdict of not guilty and had heard argument on nearly half a hundred government and defense prayers to the jury, Justice Hitz electrified the crowd in the small District of Columbia supreme court room with this declaration:

"Now, gentlemen, I have come to my conclusions about this case. I am not going to leave for this jury to pass upon, any aspect of the pertinency of any of these questions (the four questions set out in the indictment which Sinclair refused to answer.)"

Question of Law. "I think it is a question of law for the court to decide and I am going to decide it. I am going to leave it to the jury to say whether as a matter of fact Mr. Sinclair was summoned, whether he appeared, whether the questions were put to him and whether he refused to answer."

"And for the purpose of my relation to the jury it is sufficient if a paper writing was served upon him and he came in response to it and by Senator Smoot (then chairman of the senate oil committee) or some other senator, an oath was administered as a matter of fact the questions were put and he declined to answer."

"Now whether the officers who served the papers in New York or the senator who applied the oath to him here had at that moment legal authority to do it may be of controlling importance in this case, but it is not a question for this jury to decide."

Verdict on That Basis. "Now that is my view of it and that is what I am going to tell them. And I am going to take a verdict on that basis."

2 YOUNGSTERS FOUND DEAD IN SMALL CLOSET

FATHER IS BLAMED FOR GARY ETHER MURDERS.

Gary, Ind., Mar. 15.—(AP)—The bodies of two small children of Walter Scholl, Gary accountant, were found stuffed in a clothes closet of their home today by police who broke into the house at the telephoned request of the stepmother, who called from Chicago. The children, Vivian, 8, and Donald, 6, apparently had died from ether administered last week. Scholl could not be found.

Margaret Scholl, foster mother of the two children, notified the Gary police by long distance telephone from Chicago, that they would find the bodies in the home. She had previously received a letter from Scholl in which he declared his intent to end his own life, but first wished to dispose of the children.

Two ether-soaked towels were found in the clothes closet. He rented the house a week ago, paying a full month's rent, saying he had to move in at once. No furnishings were found in the house.

Break Into House. Gary police broke into the house when Mrs. Scholl insisted they would find the bodies there. She is enroute to Gary from Chicago.

A search is being made for the body of Scholl. He lived in Chicago and was apparently a traveling salesman.

Several sample cases contained a varied assortment of goods, from peanuts to soap and kitchen utensils, were found in a garage.

A laundry bag containing clothing for the two children and a bundle with a St. Louis address also were found wrapped in some laundry bearing Scholl's laundry mark.

The package, addressed to Rev. Fr. Dempsey, St. Louis, bore a return address of W. C. Scholl, St. Louis. It had been carried in the laundry bag, Gary police asserted. Its contents are undetermined.

The bodies of the two children are held by Coroner E. Evans, who removed them to an undertaking establishment.

The house which Scholl rented last Wednesday is in a sparsely settled district. Neither the building agent nor the owner have seen Scholl since Wednesday. The children have been dead about a week, the coroner believes, and this is borne out by information furnished by the Gary police who asserted they were called last Thursday by Mrs. Scholl from Chicago who urged them to go to the house and look for the bodies. She explained that she knew Scholl well enough to know that he meant he would slay the two children and himself as he said in his letter to her. The letter was written from Gary the same day that Scholl rented the house.

Police twice investigated but because of the house being neglected to batter down the doors.

"General" Jones Is Married But She'll Still Be A "Miss"

New York, Mar. 15.—(AP)—Omitting the word "obey" and explaining that she will continue professionally as "Miss" "General" Rosalie Jones, feminist and heiress to a $5,000,000 estate, was married today to United States Senator Clarence C. Dill, of Spokane, Washington.

Miss Jones, who won national prominence in the women's suffrage movement, "gave herself away" at the ceremony, which was performed at her suburban home in Cold Spring Harbor, Long Island.

"My mother is dead," she said, "and I'll not have anyone else give me away. I guess I'm big enough to take the responsibility."

Residents of Cold Spring Harbor crowded the little Episcopal church to witness the wedding of their "most famous citizen." The ceremony was followed by a reception in New York.

OFFICERS FIND PART OF LOOT

Suspect Leads Police to Place Where $30,000 Was Buried.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Mar. 15.—(AP)—Thirty thousand dollars in currency, part of the plot of the bandits who blew up an armored automobile of the Pittsburgh Terminal Coal company last Friday, was found by county detectives, buried on a farm near Bentleyville, Pa. The officers were led to the caches by Joseph Jaworski, a suspect held in the case.

The money, wrapped in paper, was dug up on the farm of Joe Weckosi, another suspect who is at large. Jaworski was arrested in the Weckosi farm house near Bentleyville the day after the bandits set off two black powder mines, planted in a highway, blew the pay car into the air and escaped with $104,000.

George Murren, chief of Allegheny detectives and a squad of officers this afternoon took Jaworski to the farmhouse where he and Stanley Meloski, another suspect who had previously been erroneously reported as released, were grilled. Finally Murren turned to Jaworski and told him he had better tell where the money was secreted, because they already knew he was wanted in Detroit in connection with the murder of a policeman. He then led the detectives to the spot where the money was buried.

After turning up the $30,000, detectives said they hoped to find the remainder of the loot on the farm. Some believed, however, that the remainder of the money was carried away by the five or six bandits who escaped and who are being sought in Detroit.

After a description of Jaworski was sent to the Michigan City, Edward Fox, chief of the Detroit detective force.

BLOCKS MOVE FOR VOTE AT THIS SESSION

CIRCULATE PETITION ASKING RECONSIDERATION.

Lansing, Mar. 15.—(AP)—A petition circulated in the senate tonight by Senators Norman B. Horton and Chester E. Howell of Saginaw following the action of the senate judiciary committee, served to complicate the status of the Armstrong-Palmer capital punishment bill.

Proponents of the measure were certain they could secure sufficient signatures to cause the committee members who voted to take the bill to reconsider their action.

The petition is without precedent in the senate chamber. Dennis E. Alward, secretary, says:

Lansing, Mar. 15.—(AP)—The senate judiciary committee after a brief skirmish for position accepted the dictum of a majority vote of its membership today, and tabled indefinitely the Armstrong-Palmer capital punishment bill previously adopted by the house by a vote of 61 to 35.

Determined to clear away other obstacles, the same majority passed to the discard Senator Vincent Martin's bill proposing death in the lethal gas chamber for first degree murderers and would have done the same with Seth Q. Pulver's bill had not Senator Pulver pleaded for extended consideration.

Senator Pulver's bill proposes death by hanging for first degree murderers who commit first degree murder while escaping from prison or while at large.

The motion to "perpetually postpone consideration" of the Armstrong-Palmer bill was made by Senator Albert J. Engel and was adopted by a vote of 4 to 3. Those voting for the motion were Senators George M. Condon of Detroit, Seymour Person of Lansing, Engel of Lake City and Cass J. Jankowski of Detroit. Those opposing the motion were Senators Joseph Bahorski of Detroit, Herbert J. Rushton of Escanaba and Pulver of Orosco.

Motion Turned Down. Prior to the putting of the motion for postponement Senator Bahorski had demanded consideration of a motion put two weeks ago that the bill be voted out with the recommendation that it pass. This motion was defeated by a 5 to 2 vote.

Senator Pulver made his position clear by saying that he would not vote to place before the senate the bill as drawn, which proposes death by electrocution of first degree murderers in the discretion of judge and jury. An attempt by Senator Bahorski to amend the bill placing the burden of passing the death sentence upon the judge was discouraged by Senator Rushton who said it was "apparent the committee will not vote for any bill proposing capital punishment, however drawn."

Senator Rushton opposed the attitude of the committee which he said refused to place before the senate a measure which has been passed by the house and has brought extended comment from the citizens of the state.

Jankowski for Initiative. Senator Jankowski whose indication has held the committee from action for two weeks, returned to the legislature today with an extended statement in which he cited six reasons for capital punishment and ten against it. His decision to vote against the measure in committee was based partially, he said, on the belief "that the legislature should not take upon itself the passage of a bill with such momentous consequences without consulting the will of the people. The proper course would be by 'initiative of the people.'"

Ford Will Testify Monday in Libel Suit for $1,000,000

Detroit, Mar. 15.—(AP)—Henry Ford will take the witness stand Monday in the $1,000,000 libel suit filed against him by Aaron Sapro of Chicago, organizer of cooperative marketing organizations, who claims his reputation was injured by articles appearing in Ford's publication, the Dearborn Independent.

This was decided at a conference of counsel for both sides today after a jury had been sworn in before Judge Fred M. Raymond of the U. S. district court.

Six women and six men skillfully parried with attorneys and the judge in the tiny marble-walled courtroom and succeeded in being chosen to sit as jurors in what promises to be a long drawn-out trial. No alibis were forthcoming as to business duties, illness in the family or prejudices. It was obvious all wished to serve.

Read Questions Carefully. Carefully, the white-haired senator from Missouri, James A. Reed, appearing for Ford, questioned the veniremen to bring out possibilities of prejudice, religion, or unfavorable fraternal alliances. One man was excused after he informed the court he had been a member of the Ku Klux Klan, although he had not been active, and two members of the Jewish race were excused.

HENRY FORD.

William Henry Gallagher, attorney for Sapro, began his opening plea after the jury had been sworn in. He declared the right of free speech was open to all, but when a publication injured the good character and reputation of an individual, it is to be regarded as a menace. It was important, he said, to take into consideration the motives behind an article, whether the heart was in the right place or malice and ill-will were involved. The phraseology and character of the publication should also be considered.

Of the six women chosen as jurors, four gave their occupations as house-wives. Mrs. Anna McKonen of Detroit, Mrs. Hannah Brown of Farmington, Mrs. Emma Clarkson of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Clara M. Hoffman of Detroit, Mrs. Grace A. Jewell of this city, said she was a former nurse and now a sales woman, while Mrs. Grace Stiles is a widow.

Six Men Chosen. The six men chosen are Herbert Schoenhals, Chelsea hardware merchant; Carl P. Haag, retired Detroit drug clerk; A. N. Duart, Detroit accountant; Charles T. Daley, Waterloo implement dealer; Charles A. Parkhurst, Mason drygoods merchant, and Ernst Schweim, Farmington safe employe.

A total of 17 veniremen were examined for duty.

vote wishes to take the measure away from the committee, further consideration of the capital punishment at the present session is relegated to a remote possibility. Senate procedure forbids the holding of a committee of a bill to which it is opposed, unless a strong and active majority so wills. It is pointed out that senators who might have voted for the bill if reported out, would not vote to take it away from the committee, thus lessening the numbers who have expressed approval of the bill.

FORD TO TAKE WITNESS STAND IN LIBEL SUIT

race without exposing himself to libel." Attorney Gallagher said in his opening plea, "but when he makes an individual the target for his attacks, he makes himself subject to discipline."

Mr. Gallagher described the Dearborn Independent as a peculiar publication, carrying no advertising and supported entirely by Mr. Ford. The publication was merely the creature of Henry Ford, said he, his mouthpiece and spokesman. When it was started, it was announced as Henry Ford's effort to benefit humanity.

Has Yearly Deficit. "The Dearborn Independent has a yearly deficit of $250,000 to $300,000 a year," said the attorney. "We expect to show that Mr. Ford makes it up, and that the Dearborn Independent owes the Ford Motor company at least $2,000,000."

Gallagher pictured Aaron Sapiro as a man who had risen in spite of difficulties. Born in 1854 in San Francisco he spent the early years of his life in an orphanage following the death of his father. Winning a medal and $250 in money for excellence in grammar school, he said, Sapiro completed high school, attended Hebrew Union college at Cincinnati and later was graduated from Hastings Law college in California. It was his appointment as counsel for the California State Market commission that led Sapiro into formation of cooperative organizations, Mr. Gallagher said.

Sapiro claims that the series of articles in the Dearborn Independent in 1924-25 charged that he was a member of a Jewish conspiracy to exploit agriculture and spread communism throughout the country. This, he alleged, injured his reputation with the farmers, among whom he has been organizing cooperative organizations for 15 years.

Ford counsel, headed by Senator Reed won a victory earlier in the day when Judge Raymond refused to grant a motion of the plaintiffs to strike out the plea of the defendant on the ground that it was evasive. This, the defense pointed out would have hampered them in introducing evidence.

Attorney Gallagher's plea was not completed when court recessed this evening and he will complete it tomorrow.

Lists of witnesses which the defense plans to put on the stand read during the day by Judge Raymond to determine whether any of the prospective jurors were acquainted with them indicated they were evenly scattered over the country, the greater number being from the Middle West.

ASK GROWERS' SUPPORT. Hartford, Conn., Mar. 15.—(AP)—Tobacco growers of the Connecticut valley say counsel for Henry Ford has made efforts to obtain their support of his stand as defendant in the million dollar libel action brought by Aaron Sapiro in Detroit. The tobacco growers have an association with a cooperative marketing plan which was prepared by Mr. Sapiro six years ago when the organization was formed.

Albert E. Fricke, chairman of the fourth district of the Connecticut Valley Tobacco association, said today that some time ago a New York attorney visited him and asked him to make a statement in the interest of Henry Ford to the effect that he (Mr. Fricke) was of the opinion that Sapiro formed these various cooperative associations in behalf of Jewish financiers. Mr. Fricke said that he refused to make any such statement.

Mr. Fricke stated that he had no knowledge that the Jewish financiers had profited from the organization of such associations.

Bills Authorizing Sales Reported Out by House Committee

Lansing, Mar. 15.—(AP)—Two bills introduced in the legislature by Representative William J. Yesterday, Walter, 18-year-old Brooklyn youth, stopped at the home of Anna, 16-year-old honor student at a Brooklyn high school. They were sweethearts.

AIR COMMISSION IN FIRST MEET

New Radio Body Continues Amateurs' Licenses Indefinitely.

Washington, Mar. 15.—(AP)—The new federal radio commission completed its organization today and took several steps toward establishing its authority over communication by ether. Its first order settled all immediate concerns which radio amateurs on shipboard, or in the amateur field have felt as to how the new regime might affect them, by continuing all licenses of that character hitherto granted by the commerce department for an indefinite period.

A second decision touched upon the most congested radio phase, and by it all operators of broadcast stations are notified to apply in the near future for a renewal of permits to operate.

In the meantime, beginning on March 23, in Washington, the commission will hold four days of open hearings to consider what shall be done with radio broadcasting. It will prepare and send out special forms to all holders of permits to broadcast or to transmit radio from point to point on which applications for the right to continue operation may be made.

Made Through Inspectors. It was stressed in the commission's first public statement that these applications should be made and returned to the commission through the supervision inspectors through the office of each of the several districts laid out over the country by the commerce department.

The formal session at which the commission acted was called by its chairman, Admiral Bullard, who is now en route to Washington from China, and was presided over by the vice-chairman, E. O. Sykes, of Mississippi. In spite of being handicapped by a failure on the part of congress to appropriate funds, the commission will undertake its work, the statement said, and does not expect to be too much handicapped to meet its necessary obligations.

handling foreign relations, the next step may be a request to foreign powers to clothe American senators with all the privileges and immunities which attach to ambassadors and ministers and members of their staffs. The argument might be advanced that since a third or fourth secretary holds all the diplomatic privileges, surely members of the senate foreign relations committee might have the same right. This would permit Senator King, for example, to investigate conditions at Haiti and would enable senators to visit Nicaragua and the other trouble spots of the western hemisphere.

Mr. King visited the Near East last year in order to inform himself on the pending treaty of Lausanne which the department of state had negotiated with Turkey and which failed of adoption at the last session of congress. American senators are taking more and more interest in foreign questions and their desire to get first-hand the facts is one that the department of state is not trying to discourage. Indeed, the department asked Haiti to let Senator King make his survey.

FAIL TO VOTE ON LENNON BILL

Senate Hears Provisions of Corporation Probe Measure.

Lansing, Mar. 15.—(AP)—The Lennon bill, which would give the Michigan public utility commission authority to demand the records of corporations furnishing supplies or other services to Michigan public utilities, was sent scurrying back to the public utilities committee of the senate today, despite the efforts of Senator Howard Baxter, chairman of the committee, and Senator Peter B. Lennon to secure its passage.

The vote, which took the bill from third reading back into the committee was 22 to 9. Senator Chester Howell, Seymour Persons and Arthur Wood, three of the five members of the committee voted to send the measure back.

The bill, as explained by Senator Lennon, was drawn to compel the American Telephone & Telegraph company to open their books to the Michigan public utility commission for inspection, relative to the commission's attempt to rearrange telephone rate schedules.

In reply to the French fear that work of the preparatory commission might be jeopardized and authority of the league undermined, the note continued: "The government of the United States desires to emphasize the fact that it proposed the initiation of the Geneva negotiations by representatives of certain powers at the forthcoming meeting of the preparatory commission and is therefore of the opinion that far from undermining the authority of the League of Nations, such conversations as those proposed would be of great service to that body in its advance toward a solution of a difficult problem."

The two notes stated that in view of British and Japanese acceptance of the Washington agreement has decided to enter into three conversations in which it hopes for Italian and French representation in order that those two governments may be fully cognizant of the course of negotiations and of the agreements which may be entered into.

When Jaworski was arrested, he had $57 in his pocket, including two bills containing serial numbers similar to bills given to coal miners as pay shortly before the armored car was blown up. He was arrested shortly after officers found the bandits' automobile secreted on the Weckowski farm.

WECOSKI ARRESTED.

Detroit, Mar. 15.—(AP)—Joseph Weckowski, wanted in connection with the robbery of an armored payroll car last Friday near Bentleyville, Pa., was arrested here late tonight when detectives raided the home of his sister.

Weckowski had been under surveillance here for two days, detectives revealed. They swooped down on the house of his sister tonight in the hope of apprehending him and other members of the band still at large, after receiving information that they were expected to visit the place.

Only Weckowski and the woman were found in the place, however, and a thorough search failed to reveal any of the loot obtained in the holdup.

Two of Weckowski's companions were reported to police to have arrived in Detroit today and were still being sought.

Weckowski and Paul Topps, alias Jaworski, held in Pennsylvania in connection with the Bentleyville holdup, are believed by police to have headed a band of local highwaymen specializing in thefts similar to the Pennsylvania robbery.

Topps or Jaworski, according to police, is wanted here on a charge of murder in connection with the slaying of Ross Lonney, driver of an armored truck during a payroll holdup here November 30, 1925. Two members of the band were later apprehended and sentenced to life imprisonment. Lonney was driver for the Brinks Express company, the same concern that was in charge of transporting the $104,000 payroll stolen in the Bentleyville robbery.

Weckowski, who was arrested shortly before midnight, was taken to headquarters where he was being questioned by officers. He denied connection with the Bentleyville robbery.

Weckowski admitted that he owned the farm where $30,000 of the loot was found today but declared he had no knowledge of the robbery. He said he had been visiting friends in a city near Bentleyville at the time of the robbery and did not return until a day later.

When he drove up to his home, he declared he saw a number of officers surrounding the place and

CHINESE SHOOT AT DESTROYER

Shanghai, Mar. 15.—(AP)—Investigation has been ordered by the United States authorities of a new international incident which occurred on Sunday when Chinese soldiers fired on the American destroyer Preble and a Standard Oil launch, which the destroyer was protecting from Chinese interference 13 miles from Wuhu on the Yangtze river.

The Preble had placed an armed party aboard the launch and was escorting her out of danger when she was fired on. The bridge of the destroyer was struck twice but there were no casualties and the Americans replied to the Chinese fire with machine guns.

John Van A. Macmurray, American minister at Peking, has instructed Frank P. U. S. Orders Investigation of Outbreak Sunday.

Shanghai, Mar. 15.—(AP)—Investigation has been ordered by the United States authorities of a new international incident which occurred on Sunday when Chinese soldiers fired on the American destroyer Preble and a Standard Oil launch, which the destroyer was protecting from Chinese interference 13 miles from Wuhu on the Yangtze river.

The Preble had placed an armed party aboard the launch and was escorting her out of danger when she was fired on. The bridge of the destroyer was struck twice but there were no casualties and the Americans replied to the Chinese fire with machine guns.

John Van A. Macmurray, American minister at Peking, has instructed Frank P. Lochart, consul general at Hankow, to investigate the incident and a formal protest will be made to the Chinese government which only recently captured Wuhu, if it is found that nationalists were responsible for the attack.

OBITUARY

MRS. MOSE BENOIT.

Many relatives and friends attended the funeral services for Mrs. Mose Benoit of Danforth, which were held Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at Sacred Heart church at Schaffer, when Rev. Fr. Philippe de Neri Juras was the celebrant at the requiem high mass.

The close friends who acted as pallbearers were: Thomas Bedard, Phillip Vachon, Dolphis Lavigne, Joseph Nantelle, Eli Dupont and Archie Lebrun. Burial was in the Schaffer cemetery.

AN EASY WAY TO LOSE FAT

The right way to lose fat is by combating the cause. By correcting a gland which largely controls nutrition. No abnormal exercise or diet is required. Simply take Marmola Prescription Tablets, four a day, until proper results are accomplished.

Marmola is the scientific method. It has been used for 19 years. The normal figures that it brings are seen in every circle now. And the use has grown, through those results, to very large proportions.

All drugists supply Marmola at $1 a box. Each box contains a pamphlet which explains the results you see and feel. Go get it now. Learn what others know about it. You will be delighted.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE DELFT.

Harold Lloyd, the lovable, spectacled laugster, will be seen at the Delft again today in "The Kid Brother". "The Kid Brother" is the sort of thing we expect from Lloyd. That is, its very unusualness—of plot, gags and action—make it stand out and alone. In a field as crowded as it is large, Harold's friendly face shines out. Truly has he been crowned and truly does he deserve a scepter as the king of comedy.

His latest, in which he receives able support from a company headed by Jobyna Ralston, Ralph Yearsley, Eddie Boland and Walter James, takes place "up in them thar hills." As Harold Hickory, youngest son of the biggest man in town, Lloyd creates a character that's slightly reminiscent of "Grandma's Boy."

The actual story starts when a medicine show comes to town. The whole outfit—strong man, "spieler" and dancing girl—arrive at Sheriff Hickory's for a permit. With father's badge on his chest, Harold, under the soulful appeal of the girl's eyes, signs their document. Then, when Hickory gets home, things start hummin'. Father insists that if Harold had enough authority to issue a license, he'll have to make them leave. Harold, victim of an inferiority complex, starts off. The laughs do too, and they don't stop till the final closeup.

AT THE STRAND.

Virginia Valli, Lou Tellegen, Tullio Carmentati and other popular screen players will be seen at the Strand Theatre today when "Stage Madness" begins a two day engagement at this theatre.

This is a Victor Schertzinger production for Fox Films based upon the romance of a celebrated French dancer who places her hopes of a career before her duties as a wife and mother.

Carmenati, cast as the artist-husband, is said to do some magnificent work. Lou Tellegen, as the heavy, is suave and graceful, displaying the sure touch of the artist which has won for him the appellation of "the most magnetic figure in the motion picture industry."

Others in the cast are Richard Walling and Virginia Bradford, two of the most appealing young featured players in the film colony. Comedy situations are furnished by Tyler Brooke, who won national acclaim as a result of his work in "No, No, Nanette" and other legitimate stage successes.

Nick Tartaglione, largest man in New England, weight 519, was arrested for breaking the dry law. We predict some big strong fellow would come along and crack it.

FINE PROGRAM FOR PATRICK'S DAY PROMISED Three Showings of Famous Picture at Delft

There will be three showings Thursday, St. Patrick's Day, of the feature picture, "Forever After," under auspices of St. Patrick's organizations. A special program by local talent also will be given, and special music by the orchestra will be still another feature.

The shows will start at 2:30 o'clock, 7 o'clock and 9 o'clock. Children are urged to attend the matinee, when two children will be admitted on one adult ticket. These annual entertainments, celebrating the Feast of St. Patrick, have always been well attended and this one is expected to be particularly well patronized because of the excellence of the program. "Forever After" is a stirring drama written by Owen Davis. Lloyd Hughes and Mary Astor are the featured players and they are supported by an exceptionally strong cast. The story deals with small town life, college football and the World war.

When the state owned ferry was established to connect the two peninsulas of Michigan, through the adoption by the state legislature of the Bohn Bill, it was the intent of the proponents of that measure to provide transportation, at the lowest possible cost, in order to encourage, to the greatest possible degree, traffic between the two sections of Michigan.

TRUCK WEIGHT LIMIT IMPOSED

Highway Dept. Takes steps to Protect Roads During Breakup.

The Delta county road commission has received instructions from Frank F. Rogers, state highway commissioner, stating that until further notice, steel-tired vehicles in the county will be restricted to 300 pounds per inch of tire width. Under normal conditions, 600 pounds per inch of tire is allowed.

The loading of trucks has also been restricted to 450 pounds per inch of tire width. During the summer months, trucks are allowed to load 750 pounds per inch of tire width.

The highway department feels that the steel wagon tires are doing more damage to the roads during the breakup period than are pneumatic tires.

One of the worst breakups in recent years is under way, it was said. The condition is due largely to the fact that the roads were opened to winter traffic and that the frost went deeper into the roads than usual. Repair crews are busy, however, and the roads will be in good shape as soon as the frost leaves.

Will Be Patrolled.

Weight restrictions will be lifted as soon as the roads are dry and in passable condition. During the period of the breakup, county highway patrolmen and members of the Michigan state police will be on duty, equipped with loadmeters with which to weigh the tireloads of heavily burdened trucks and wagons. All vehicles found to be overweight will be lightened of their excess by the officers wherever found.

IN NEW YORK

New York.—Unless the immigration authorities can stop it on the ground of "moral turpitude," or some similar ground, the noise of this raucous city is about to be increased by the "Ballet Mechanique."

This is the celebrated composition of George Antheil, consisting, we are told, of some 11 mechanical pianos, all going at once, eight xylophones, four brass drums and a few airplane propellers.

With all going at once the sound, perhaps, may prove an echo of a busy afternoon at Times Square.

Mayhap this was the inspiration, for the composer, who set Paris on its ears and now returns with this last word in modernism, came—not from Moscow—but from Paterson, N. J.

Our own sight-seeing bus—The still-walking sandwich man of Broadway flirting with a stenographer in a second-story window. . . . This idea becomes particularly convincing when one notices their hats, which are rather cheap and, hence, perhaps, their own. . . . Girls arranging cigarettes in a Broadway window. Particularly the one with her legs crossed. Scores of men are packed at the window. Somehow we feel they are not looking at the cigarettes. And, somehow, we also feel the girl was not hired for her facility at "cigarette-handling. . . . The parade uniforms worn by tollers in a 34th street shoe repairing emporium. . . .

A house built on a motortruck. Actually it is a tailoring emporium. Suits and coats are pressed while you wait and the wise young man who conducts this establishment does not have to pay rent. His shop can be in any district to which he wishes to drive. Wonder why this wouldn't work in rural communities? . . . Ruins of the famous Clark mansion on Fifth avenue. They called it "Clark's folly" and its cost was placed at seven millions. And that was back in 1898. Among other things 36 servants' quarters, and a ceiling hewed from Sherwood forest. . . .

It's the world's largest market place now. The White Hand gang used to operate there, and blood spilled freely where Italians now sell their vegetables and the pungent aroma of high-proof cheese mingles the air.

Wallabout Market it is called! The gang seems long ago and far away, and as the merchants cry their peaceful wares it seems incredible that this was once the theater of war for Jack Caniff, Joe Lacey and such veterans of the quick-trigger finger.

Probably no district in America held more crime in its time, for aside from being a stronghold of gangsterism, this belt sheltered also a crew of slick thieves and robbers, who became known as the "litters."

One by one the gangs of old vanish from the scene. Over on the East Side, where 14th street picks up its assortment of movie houses, fire sales and cheap stores, there is no hint of barking guns, and Hell's Kitchen is a line of peaceful street vendors.

And old Wallabout, as tough as any, and tougher than some, turns out to be the home of a 45-acre market place.

CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! See if tongue is coated, breath hot or stomach sour

"California Fig Syrup" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Fig Syrup," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless, "fruity laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

When the little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleanser" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Fig Syrup," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, sold by "California Fig Syrup Company." Adv.

BY THE SEA PLAY JURY

New York.—Difficulties of drawing a line between good and bad, cleanliness and dirt, merit and trash, show up brilliantly whenever anyone makes the attempt to draw such a line.

So it is with the present lullaboo along Broadway over the stage. Admittedly, plays have been presented which are cheap, vulgar, smutty, bad. Does the ticket-buying public need a policeman to protect it, or is stupidity its own punishment and its dirt a weapon of suicide?

Well, as the censorship applied to three plays in New York, it dealt its hardest blow at the play which had been praised by more clergymen and intellectuals than had condemned it. And one which perhaps deserved the worst that fate might deal was so stimulated by the police raid that, instead of closing, it moved into a larger theater.

Amid the confusion, perhaps the best way to individual opinion is to look at the plays to which police objected. Here are the three:

"The Captive"—which is a different class from the banal sex shows. It is an adaptation by Arthur Hornblow, Jr., of Eduard Bourdet's La Prisonnier and is a genuine achievement in dramatic producing, expertly written and admirably played.

Helen Menken is "The Captive." She is enslaved by the noxious chains of abnormality.

Basil Rathbone plays the part of her distracted lover. He is innocent, unable to understand why his sweetheart seemingly is cold to him and why she constantly leans toward a mysterious "lover" who sends daily gifts of violets. This mysterious sorceress never actually makes her appearance on the boards.

Certain of the scenes are heady with the wine of choice writing and brilliant portraiture.

"The Virgin Man"—This piece was intended to be funny. On the kindest estimate, it is not.

An upper West Side demi-mondaine marries a middle-aged man who has a son in Yale. This son is a shy, modest lad who supposedly believes in Santa Claus, the stork, and Easter eggs. He comes home one summer to meet his new mother. The wife, a former girl chum and gold digger, and a farcical French maid all try to seduce him in senses that are purported to be full of rib-tickling laughter.

Whenever the lines drag, which they frequently do, there are any number of "damns," "bells," and "omigawds" sprinkled in.

"Sex"—Is a comedy drama starring Mae West. It is ostensibly a jumbled reflection of the underworld of Montreal and Trinidad. It is a world of ruthless, evil-minded, foul-mouthed crooks. The scenes are cluttered with harlots, procurers and degenerates. "Depraved and dull," was the consensus of most critics. Most of the scenes are in bedrooms and bar rooms.

"All barriers of conventional word and act are swept away and nothing left but stark naked lust," wrote one reviewer. Mae West is a tough dancing girl. She is assisted by a good orchestra. She plays her part with sincerity but without distinction.

One other effect of the police activity is revealed in the musical reviews. The girls have put on more clothes. Some which gave absolutely complete lessons in external anatomy have allowed some province to the imagination. The flurry is expected to be just passing, however.

But in the plays and shows which remains, there still is literal reporting of gutter speech. Not only is normal sex appetite exhibited, but the pathological aspects of both men and women are treated in every tone, from the scientific to the pornographic. And at the same time, there are plays of imposing success to which any one may take his aunt from Hicksville.

The London Sedan $1295

While it is true that the Greater Oakland Six is built to a degree of precision once undreamed-of save in hand-built cars—

—while it embodies engineering features found in no other automobile in the world, regardless of price—

—no small part of Oakland's irresistibly spreading popularity can be traced to the universal appeal of Oakland-Fisher bodies.

"Body by Fisher" is a magic phrase wherever automobiles are known.

Yet Fisher's mastery in body building was never more brilliantly revealed than in the Greater Oakland Six. For here, in a car of the $1000 class, are elements of style, items of convenience and provisions for comfort usually associated with cars costing twice as much!

Spend half an hour going over the Greater Oakland Six—and you will clearly understand why its popularity is growing day by day.

Lindquist Nuptials. Announcements have been received in this city of the marriage of Miss Elsie Lindquist and Leslie Kleinhenz both of Ironwood.

Christensen-Holland. Miss Hilda Marie Christensen, stepdaughter of Ernest Olson, was married to John Holland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Holland, of this city at the Olson residence last night at 5 o'clock.

The bride and groom were attended by the bride's brother and sister, Peter of this city and Miss Mildred of Chicago. The home had been prettily decorated for the occasion.

The bride was dressed in a white gown and carried a bouquet of roses. The bridesmaid was dressed in tan, wore a picture hat, and also carried roses.

The bride's brother, Leonard Olson, played the wedding march on the violin.

Following the ceremony which was witnessed by near friends and relatives, the guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding dinner.

Mr. Rameau, 80-year-old grandfather of the bride, was among the guests present for the ceremony.

The bride and groom left last night for Green Bay on a short honeymoon trip. They will return to Escanaba soon, and will be at home at 211 North Fourteenth street.

Mr. Holland is widely known in Escanaba. He is employed as a mechanic at the Ford garage. The bride has been residing with Mr. and Mrs. William Auerbach for the past two and a half years.

New Club Meets. The newly organized M. G. club met at the home of the Misses Lucille and Florence Curtis last night. The following officers were elected:

President, Bertha Champion; vice president, Lucille Curtis; reporter, Rose Decaire. The business session was adjourned at 9:30 o'clock and the members enjoyed a social hour.

Surprised On Birthday. Mrs. Thomas Charlott was pleasantly surprised at her home, 819 Lake Shore Drive, last evening by the Berean class of the First Baptist church.

HOUSEHOLD PLANTS. English Ivy and cacti are the most popular plants for the smart home.

HEADACHE? TAKE DI-JO. Practically all cases of headache come from the stomach.

Resents Foreigners. Paris—Vincent Dindy, one of the leading French composers, has joined the group opposed to foreign artists in Paris. He expresses the opinion that there are too many foreign singers, musicians, orchestra conductors and other artists—outnumbering the French 10 to 1.

Talks on Health

By Dr. Morris Fishbein

INFECTION OF EAR TUBES MAY CAUSE DEAFNESS

The proper care of the ears ordinarily involves special attention to the nose and throat. When infected, the infection usually comes from the nose or throat by the way of the eustachian tubes.

The wax in the ear is a normal substance if it is secreted in ordinary amounts. Sometimes it seems to develop in excess and it may cause sufficient blocking to produce deafness.

Easy to Clean. The canal of the ear may be cleaned by carefully syringing it with warm water, wiping the walls later with a bit of cotton.

Small babies are likely to put playthings into the ear. These should be removed by an expert, since awkward attempts result in laceration.

More and more physicians are giving attention to the possible relationship of the wear and tear on the human body from noise to both mental and physical disturbances.

New York, Mar. 15.—(AP)—The stock market developed a pronounced reactionary trend today despite sporadic efforts of speculators to rally the market by bidding up special stocks.

Bullish enthusiasm for the motors, which was at high pitch yesterday, had subsided materially today, although General Motors touched a new record top at 174 1/2 and then slid back to 174, or within a fraction of the record high, and then lost most of its gain.

Oil prices were liquidated freely as a result of the recent extensive crude oil and gasoline price cuts, several of them selling around the year's low levels.

Money Rates Unchanged.
Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged. Reactionary price tendencies also predominated in the commodity markets.

SAINT and SINNER

Anne Austin 1926 by NEA SERVICE

Faith and Bob and Jim Lane were five minutes late for the opening of the afternoon session of court. Examination of a taleman was going forward when they took their seats.

"He'll do," Faith heard Cherry murmur to Churchill. "He looks like Dad. And he says he has a daughter just my age. He'll always be thinking—'What if it was my girl?' Did you bring me a paper darling?" she asked of Faith, her golden eyes as wide and eager as a child's.

"Please look as if you cared about Chris' being ill," Faith begged in a whisper. "The reporters are all watching you. And they're criticizing you in their stories, jumping to conclusions which are going to hurt you."

Cherry's small, coral mouth set stubbornly, and the shock her head slightly. But Faith was relieved to see that almost instantly the expressive face changed, registered concern. Cherry even managed a couple of great, round, glistening tears, which slipped down her cheeks—as white and fine and smooth as petals of a gardenia. The lovely little mouth trembled convincingly.

"I'm thinking of Mugsy," she whispered brokenly to Faith. "That's the only thing that can make me cry. Listen, darling. Send Chris a pot of lilies with my name on the card. Think of it. Faith—lilies for Chris! I hope he will realize how ironic that is! And I'll write a note to go with them. And be sure to tell the reporters that I'm doing it."

The business of impaneling a jury went tediously on. With almost comical ferocity Tom Banning, the district attorney, fought for the acceptance of old men of approximately Ralph Cluny's age, old men who were widowers or bachelors and who would naturally visualize themselves in the predicament of the dead man—murdered for their money by scheming gold-diggers. Just as persistently, though far more suavely, Stephen Churchill fought to exclude such talemen and strove to fill the jury box with middle-aged, married men, fathers of souls and daughters of some where near Cherry's and Chris' age.

At four o'clock the panel had been exhausted and the judge had ordered the clerk to draw in open court and the sheriff to summon 150 jurors, to appear in court the next morning—Tuesday, January 18th.

GIANTS TRAIN 3 MORE DAYS

"Jawn" McGraw's Men Will Rest Awhile Before Season Opens.

Atlanta, Mar. 15.—(AP)—The New York Giants pushed ahead in spring training today for only three days are left before the men of "Jawn" McGraw pull stakes and leave their Sarasota conditioning grounds. The next stop of the Giants is set for St. Augustine where they will tarry for a brief spell before shaking the orange leaves off their baseball shoes and going into the actual playing season.

The Giants released Porter, pitcher, to Scranton of the New York-Pennsylvania League today, along with Otis Crowder, who was sent to the Buffalo Internationals. Collins, a pitcher, also was returned to the Buffalo team.

Announcement came from Clearwater that Bill Doak had come to terms with the Brooklyn Robins, after leaving the Dodger camp last week in a huff.

Leach Joins Phillies. Fred Leach, outfielder, joined the Phillies during the day at Bradenton, but Jack Scott was still a holdout. The Phillies have billed all extra game for tomorrow, meeting the Buffalo club.

Exhibition games today engaged 10 of the 11 clubs training in Florida.

Expected to Pitch. Jess Haines and Hal Smith are expected to pitch for the Cards in an exhibition encounter. Alexander is also in fine shape at Avon Park.

In the camp of the Detroit Tigers at San Antonio, Texas, Lil Stoner, diminutive right-hander, is expected to get his 1927 baptism under fire tomorrow when he faces the Texas League club there. Lefty Johns also is expected to get a call.

ENSIGN NEWS.

(Ruth Wilson, Corr.) Mrs. Agnes Johnson was called to Nahma Wednesday morning on account of her mother not feeling so well. Mrs. Johnson has been at Nahma with her daughter, Mrs. Russell McClintch, since early last fall under the care of Dr. Summerbell, she was getting along very nicely up until last week when she suffered another bad spell.

Mrs. Violette and Mrs. Wm. Cashin of Escanaba, visited Howard Johnson and wife Wednesday and also accompanied Mr. Johnson to Isabella where they attended the funeral of the late Edward Johnson, an uncle of Howard Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bourgeois, Mrs. John Nadeau of Isabella and Mrs. Francis Nadeau of Nahma Junction, stopped here a few minutes Thursday enroute to Perkins.

Miss Emma Burcakowski of Alton was a business caller here Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burch of Alton are proud parents of a baby girl, born March 10th. Dr. Kee of Gladstone was in attendance, both mother and baby are doing nicely.

A. Magnusson spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Neva Barbeau.

There was a good crowd out for caucus Saturday which was held at Alton in the Grange hall. Herman Weberg and Wallace Johnson were business callers here Saturday.

Miss Lottie Cashin and Roy Estenson of Escanaba were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnson Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Meddie Barbeau of Escanaba were callers here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Sundberg of Alton were callers here Sunday evening.

Bill Violette, Miss Marie Brown, Zilda Gerow and Howard Dupont of Escanaba, stopped and said "Hello" to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnson Sunday evening on their return trip from Nahma, they had to be in Escanaba by seven o'clock, so they hadn't much time to visit.

Lillian Gorham who has been ailing for some time and was taken to consult Dr. Groos of Escanaba a few days ago, is feeling some better.

George Anderson arrived home Monday morning from Milwaukee where he has been employed for the past six months.

Axel Magnusson visited friends at Nahma Sunday.

HE'S STILL A BATTLER

Here's Battling Nelson (left) following his arrest at Chicago on that charge. It took ten men to convince the former lightweight champ he ought to submit to a warrant accusing him of pilfering a movie film. The charge was filed in Montana. The picture shows the "Durable Dane" with a Chicago detective.

RAMBLERS LOSE TO NAHMA FIVE

The E. F. U. Ramblers, city champions, went down to defeat at the hands of the strong Nahma Legion five at the Nahma gym last night. The score of the rough and tumble game was 37 to 16.

Referee Phalen called the fouls closely, taking L. Kamps, Ranganette, Schou and Burns out of the game on personals.

The lineup: NAHMA (37) RAMBLERS (16) L. Kamps (8) - F - Pelin (3) R. Kamps (4) - F - St. Louis (4) W. Ranganette (2) O - Schou Tatrov - G - Demare (7) Warner (19) - G - Tobin (3) Sub: Nahma: E. Ranganette (4) for Warner, Graunedt for R. Kamps, Ramblers: Burns for Pelin, Smith for St. Louis. Referee: Phalen, Nahma.

Press Carriers and Blackhawks Divide Honors at Webster

The Blackhawks and the Press Carriers split a double-header at the Webster gym last night, both cage games being furiously contested. The Carriers took the first game, 19 to 17, and the Hawks were victorious in the second, 16 to 14.

The lineup: Blackhawk: L. Joint, H. Rose, Cass and O. Swanson, forwards; C. Moersch, center; Richards, Moersch and C. Hain, guards.

Wolverines Defeat English Methodists

The newly organized Wolverine basketball team defeated the English Methodists at the high school gym last night by the one-sided score of 21 to 4.

The lineup and summary: METHODISTS WOLVERINES Smith (1) - F - Hamelin (10) Wilkinson (1) - F - Beggs (4) Hart (2) - C - Walker (3) Baird (2) - G - Erickson (3) Kuntze (2) - G - Gabourie Substitutions: Methodists, Jackson for Hart; Wolverines, Bourke or Walker.

THE REFEREE

What is Krf Fletcher doing this season?—R. N. O. He is engaged as coach with the New York Yankees.

What schools are in the Big Ten Conference?—P. M. M. Indiana, Michigan, Purdue, Iowa, Ohio State, Illinois, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Chicago and Northwestern.

How long did Earl Shesly stay in the minors before he was acquired by the White Sox?—A. H. S. About 10 years. He started with Vancouver in 1918 and played with San Francisco, Spokane, Walla Walla and Salt Lake before he was traded to the White Sox for Jordan, Lynn and cash reported as $15,000.

Who were involved in the deal that sent Schang and Harper to New York from the Red Sox in 1921?—R. S. H. Schang, Hoyt and Harper were exchanged for Vick, Frit, Thormahlen and Riel.

EGG PRODUCTION HIGH. The average egg production of each hen in the third annual egg-laying contest of the Oklahoma Agricultural and Mining colleges reached 194.44. This exceeded the record for either of the previous contests.

BILLY EVANS SAYS

YANKEE MANAGER SURE TO WIN.

St. Petersburg, Fla.—Four years ago the New York Yankees came to St. Petersburg to train. They immediately started to win American League pennants.

That winter Miller Huggins became a resident of St. Petersburg. I know he is crazy about the city now. Perhaps he was merely playing a hunch then.

Ball players are a mighty superstitious lot and managers come under the same heading. I am inclined to think that Miller's first reaction was that St. Petersburg was lucky for him, since he won a pennant the first year his team trained there.

Anyway, Huggins is now one of the leading citizens; his name is in the city directory; he has a telephone number; the cops all salute him as he passes by, and he numbers the mayor as his best friend.

Incidentally, I might add that St. Petersburg has been lucky for him in other than baseball ventures. He is one of those who have made a lot of money out of real estate. There are several people in Florida who haven't.

Hans Golf in Spring Training. Ran into Huggins on the street the day before the arrival of his athletes. Had a most interesting chat with him. Miller Huggins is one of the smartest men in baseball. He knows his stuff.

A little incident that cropped out during our conversation is typical of his methods. Huggins likes golf. He plays plenty of it during the winter months. However, he is of the opinion there is nothing in common between golf and baseball.

"This is my last day of golf," he said, as we parted company. "I want to get in at least 26 holes today."

Pressed for an explanation as to the last-day stuff, he replied: "I put the bars up on golf during spring training and I don't care to indulge in any recreation I deny my players."

Great Booster for Florida. Huggins is a great booster for St. Petersburg and Florida. You know he expresses his true feelings on the subject, for he has nothing to sell.

He doesn't take seriously the setback of last year, due to the bursting of the real estate bubble on the frustrated finance scale and the hurricane that visited the east coast.

"You can't beat the climate," says Huggins, and I firmly agree with him on that point. "The state may have its faults but the climate is not one of them." Then to illustrate this point, he tells this story:

"Two Irishmen, seeing Niagara Falls for the first time, marveled at the amount of water that kept passing over the falls. Said one of them: "Just think Mike there is no way of stopping it!"

"It's the same way with the sun in Florida," said Huggins, drawing his parallel; "you just can't keep it from shining. So long as it continues, the success of Florida is assured."

INDEES, NAHMA MEET TONIGHT

Press and Psalmingsers to Clash in Preliminary at 7:15.

Starting lineups: Nahma Indees: Gafer (C) - LF - Warner (9) St. Louis - RF - Camps Blomstrom - C - Ranguette Soderberg - LG - Malcolm Schram - RO - Tatrov

With county honors at stake tonight, the fast Nahma Legion basketball team will tangle with the Escanaba Independents, on the local floor, in a game that promises to be a struggle from the initial basket to the final whistle.

Nahma will invade Escanaba with an all-star lineup that includes the brilliant Warner at forward and Tatrov, stocky defense, celebrities, and offense that has averaged close to forty points this season and a record of sixteen wins out of nineteen games played this year.

The Indees, while not boasting an equally impressive record, are conceded to have one of the best amateur teams that ever represented Escanaba in basketball and are co-claimants of the county title.

Nahma, having defeated all comers in their section of the peninsula, are confident of hurdling the final obstacle to undisputed honors. The Indees have likewise disposed of all aspirants in this vicinity with ease and indifference. All indications point to a closely contested battle, both squads being about equal in reserve strength.

Barry, Mulvaney and Audrey Andrews, recent acquisitions to the Independent squad, have been showing up well in practice and will doubtless be used in tonight's game. The latter, has especially shown aptitude in locating the basket and will probably alternate at one of the forward positions.

Aside from the Indee-Rambler game scheduled for Friday, the game tonight will mark the final appearance of the Independents on the home floor, and a large crowd is expected to be present.

A contingent of Nahma fans will accompany their team here, expecting to see their favorites vanquish the locals, and clinch the championship.

PRESS-PSALMSINGERS. Manager Paul Vesina of the Escanaba Independents, announced late yesterday that he was successful in scheduling the Psalmingsers vs. the Press Typelinters as a preliminary to the Indee-Nahma game.

Those who saw the Press tournament are familiar with the brand of basketball these teams displayed and the fact that they finished second and third, respectively, indicates that this game will be another hard-fought affair.

The Psalmingsers' lineup will be bolstered up by the return of Chester Erickson, star guard who was unable to appear in the tournament due to illness. The Press will probably present the same front that brought them to the finals.

"Tarzan" Johnson will call the first game at 7:15. The Indee-Nahma battle will begin immediately after the Psalmingsers-Press game.

Marquette to Send Ten Crack Bowlers To U. P. Tourney

Marquette, March 15.—Marquette will send at least two teams to the annual upper peninsula bowling tournament, which opens in Escanaba, March 21. It was made known yesterday. One of the tourney teams is the Mineralites, composed of A. F. Sheldon, Arthur Utberg, A. C. Richards, Sam Ford and M. H. Ford, captain. The other quint will be known as the Queen City team and will be composed of Matt Peura, Ollie Stillman, Ed Yahnaki, L. V. Johnson and Charles M. Garmon, captain.

This means that Marquette will be represented by 10 of the city's best pin smashers, several of them veterans of many tournaments and winners of many honors in tourney events, and alley sharks from other towns in the peninsula will have to be on their toes, if they expect to keep the Marquette men from trotting home with a lot of cash prizes.

The Gold Top Malt Extracts, of Ishpeming, a team formed to enter the tourney at Escanaba, has challenged any five-man team in Marquette for a three-game match, total pins, to be rolled on the Marquette alley Wednesday evening, March 16, beginning at 7:30. The challenge has been accepted and the match is on.

Baracas Lose Game to Wolverines 29-9

The Baptist Baracas, holders of fourth place in the Press tourney, went down to defeat before the Wolverines at the Baptist gym last night. The score was 29 to 9.

The lineup: BAPTISTS Christensen (4) P - Hamelin (14) Palm (3) - F - Walker (4) Bowers (3) - C - Gabourie (2) Gunderman (1) G - Erickson (3) Brown - G - Erickson (3) Substitutions: Baracas: Walker for Gunderman, Gunderman for Bowers; Wolverines, Bourke for Walker.

GUNDERMAN TO PILOT CAGERS

E. H. S. Guard Elected Captain; Nine "E's" to Be Given.

Kenneth Gunderman, guard on the Escanaba high school basketball team during the season just completed, has been elected by the nine basketball letter men to pilot the Orange and Black in their 1927-28 cage campaign.

Gunderman's exceptional ability on defense and his continual fighting spirit were dominant factors in his choice as captain of next year's team.

Coach C. B. Roels will present nine "E's" to members of this year's squad at the general assembly meeting of the student body in the high school auditorium this afternoon. Roels' wish was that the names of the nine players who will receive the awards not to be mentioned until after the presentation.

High School Track Fund Receives $10 from Press Tourney

Principal J. A. Lemmer of Escanaba high school, yesterday received a check for $10 from Roland St. Mitchell and Cliff Beaudin of the Daily Press staff, to be turned over to the E. H. S. track fund. St. Mitchell and Beaudin conducted the Daily Press amateur basketball tournament held last week, and made the donation from the proceeds of the affair.

Boys Clear Tennis Court at St. Joe's

A group of tennis enthusiasts set to work yesterday noon to clear the asphalt tennis court near St. Joseph's school. The boys had picks, shovels, axes, buckets and carts. The work of getting rid of the ice that had been used for an ice rink during the winter months is not an easy one and will require a lot of work by the boys. With the help of Old Sol the court should be ready for use in a week or so.

41 Answer Roels' Call for Track Work; Eskey High' Prspects Good

Forty-one aspirants for track and field honors reported in "full bloom" to Coach C. B. Roels at Escanaba high school yesterday afternoon and showed signs of being eager to get out and prance awhile in preparation for the track and field meet schedule in line for the Highlanders.

The freshmen top the list of candidates with 14 and the sophomores a close second with one less. The juniors have ten and the seniors four on the squad.

Gladwyn Oberg, captain, and a few of the distance runners, have been holding workouts rather regularly for more than a month. Some of the boys are already in good condition and need only the finishing touches to prepare them for the big meets.

Has Few Veterans. Coach Roels has a few veterans on the squad and expects to use them as a nucleus about which he will build a well-balanced team.

The proposition of a new cinder track at the athletic field has put added interest in the sprints with the result that many underclassmen are out, hoping they get a chance to run on the new "pavement."

Those who have thus far signed up for track are: Seniors—Captain Oberg, Roger Smith, William Boyle and Willard Rockberg. Juniors—Kenneth Gunderman, Hilming Olson, Bob Matthews, Tom Froberg, Howard Sullivan, Matt Erickson, Merrill Snyder, Melvin Johnson, George Erdman and Edward McFadden.

Freshmen—Leonard Johnson, Don Anderson, George Bonafed, Edward Murphy, Claude Tobin, Henry Brown, John Pelin, Herbert Carlson, Francis D'Amour, Noel Savard, Bill Grossbeck, Ray Dube, Don Holmes and Harold Lempe.

MR. O'GOOFTY comes to bat with a weird suggestion. . . Make 'em climb off their bikes the last three days and go around on pogo sticks.

The hokey: "My men are such a fine and clean-cut band of gentlemen that a rigorous system of discipline will not be necessary to prevent them breaking training rules this year."—John McGraw.

TWO laughs: "Funney says he views with alarm his alleged crop of contenders and a New York chorus girl kicked a man in the eye for ogling her legs."

A man in Boston was fined $150 for selling liquor to his father. Maybe they were only co-founders of Father and Son week.

GRID STAR SHINES AS TRACK MAN

By NEA Service Syracuse, N. Y.—When the intercollegiate track and field championships are run off next May don't be surprised if Ray Barbuti hits the tape first in the 440-yard dash.

Ray Barbuti, if you haven't heard of him before, is captain-elect and the fullback of the Syracuse university football team. He's well known to eastern football fans for his speed, which enabled him to reel off many thrilling broken field runs in the last two football seasons.

Last season Barbuti cut quite a figure in indoor campaigning as a member of the Orange one-mile relay team. Outdoors—in training for the intercollegiate—he cut a much wider swath. Late in April he walked out one day and ran a dead heat with Cecil Cooke, a teammate, who went on to win the intercollegiate 440-yard crown the following month.

Two weeks before the intercollegiate meet he was clocked in better than 49 seconds. How much better. Tom Keane would not admit. But Tom, the crafty old veteran, who has given the track world such noted quarter-milers as Charlie Reidpath and Allen Woodring of Olympic fame and Cecil Cooke, the present 440-yard champion, was envious.

Then one day Coach Keane showed up looking as though he had lost his home. Quickly the news spread over the campus. Ray Barbuti has been taken down with tonsillitis.

Yes, that was it. One of the greatest quarter-mile prospects Syracuse has ever produced, was cheated of his big chance almost on the very eve of the intercollegiate meet.

That was almost a year ago. Since then Barbuti has dispossessed those tonsils. And he's added strength and speed and running lore, and he's daily getting more running by the side of Cecil Cooke, the champion, and under the watchful eyes of Tom Keane, whom you will recall, if you're old enough, was a world's professional sprint champion years back. There are many who believe Barbuti is faster than Cooke.

Congress seems to have gone on a fastbuster.

BLIND ORATOR HERE TONIGHT

Fred S. Attwood to Address Knights of Pythias Group.

Fred S. Attwood, Supreme Prelate of the Knights of Pythias, will be the honor guest of the local Pythians tonight. Mr. Attwood, widely known as "the blind orator," will deliver his lecture, "Am I My Brother's Keeper." The meeting will be open to Pythians and their friends. Several groups of men and boys have been especially invited to attend.

In addition to Mr. Attwood's lecture, there will be music by the Masonic orchestra, and Hugo Swanson will sing.

Mr. Attwood, although sightless has won national recognition as a student, and an orator. Those who have heard him in the past know that a rare treat is in store for those who hear him tonight.

A child in Chicago begged to stay up a little later, saving her life because a building next door fell into her bedroom. All you children who don't want to go to bed and who have a building next door take notice.
