ORATORS CLASH FRIDAY NIGHT

Sub-District Contest Will Be Held in St. Joseph's Auditorium.

Will Escanaba repeat last year's success? That is the question to be decided Friday evening in St. Joseph's auditorium. Last year at the sub-district contest at the Soo, Escanaba succeeded in winning both first places, and one of the second places. Edward "Buck" Curran of Escanaba high school won the oratorical contest, and George Stolk from St. Joe's succeeded in winning the declamatory part of the affair. The second place won by Escanaba was taken by William Peters, Escanaba high school.

Escanaba will be represented by three of the same speakers of the local schools as last year. Owing to the experience of the representatives, Escanaba will make just as strong a bid for first places as they did last year. Marvin Hira with his oration, "America a Shylock," and George Stolk delivering his declamation, "Lincoln, a Man Called God," will again represent St. Joseph's high school. Harry Erickson with his oration, "The Ships of State," and William Peters giving "Littleton's Armistice Day Address," will represent Escanaba high school. The question as to whether or not Escanaba will repeat this year rests on these four speakers.

Other Contestants.
Other contestants are as follows: Oratory, Laura Leonard, Sault Ste. Marie, "Abraham Lincoln"; Arne Falbeck, Rudyard, "The Reign of Terror"; Marion Palmer, Newberry, "The Heart of Youth." Declamatory: Jeanette Sigler, Manistique, "The Blue and the Gray," by Henry Cabot Lodge; Merle Clark, Sault Ste. Marie, "I Am Innocent of This Blood," by Alfred R. Reiman; Mary Glenn Jackson, Gladstone, "The Birth of the Star Spangled Banner," by Henry Watters; Edgar McLean, Rudyard, "The New South," by Charles W. Grady; Kathryn Kintzert, Newberry, "Intervention in Cuba," by Thurston.

Advanced ticket sales indicate a full house for the contest Friday evening. Parents, friends and the public are cordially invited.

TOWEY SPEAKS TO ROTARY AT IRON MOUNTAIN

Dr. John W. Towey, superintendent of the Delta-Menominee tuberculosis sanitarium at Powers, told members of the Iron Mountain Rotary club in an address Tuesday, that Dickinson county would find the job of maintaining its own sanitarium a "white elephant" and a burden for the taxpayers.

Dickinson county voters, on April 4, will accept or reject a proposition giving that county a one-third interest in the Delta-Menominee institution, and a bond issue of $50,000 is asked for that purpose.

Answering claims made in Iron Mountain that Dickinson county should build its own sanitarium, Dr. Towey asserted that the cost of maintenance would be excessive, and that the chance to obtain outside "pay" patients would be slight, since Gogebic, Marquette, Delta and Menominee counties have sanitariums.

In order to be eligible for state aid, the county would have to provide a certain specialized and registered staff for its hospital

DELTA COUNTY COWS LEADING

2 Individual Age Championships in February Association Second.

Menominee County dairy herds carried off the highest honors in cow testing association work for February, according to the report of J. G. Wells, Jr., dairy specialist for the Michigan State College. The herd of Carl Hansen in that county, eleven pure bred and grade Jerseys, led all others in the district with an average of 1036 pounds of milk and 47.1 pounds of butter fat. A three year old cow in the herd led that age class with 1364 pounds of milk and 62.7 pounds of fat. The Menominee association led all other groups in production with an average of 695 pounds of milk and 25.8 pounds of fat per cow.

The high small sized herd was Victor Ganin's five pure bred and grade Holsteins in Iron County, producing 1053 pounds of milk and 37.2 pounds of fat per cow. The high mature cow was from Fisher Bros., herd in the same county, a grade Holstein with 2,299 pounds of milk and 75.9 pounds of fat.

Delta County cows led two individual age classes, Henry Verrote's pure bred Holstein leading the two year olds with 1475 pounds of milk and 53.1 pounds of fat, while Anderson Bros., four year grade Holstein was high in that class with 1893 pounds of milk and 56.5 pounds of fat. The Delta group also ranked second in average production, with 587 pounds of milk and 25 pounds of fat per cow.

The high producing herd of sixteen or more cows, was the Marquette Branch Prison, where 23 pure bred Holsteins averaged 985 pounds of milk and 31.2 pounds of fat.

Following Menominee and Delta in average production, the associations ranked as follows: Gogebic-Iron, Alger, Ontonagon and Chippewa.

During the month eleven unprofitable cows were sold to the butcher while sixty-two produced more than fifty pounds of fat, and 100, more than 1250 pounds of milk.

CROP SPECIAL STARTS JAUNT

Train Will Arrive in Escanaba Thursday, March 31.

Upper Peninsula crops experts are at work arranging farm exhibits in the "Crops Special Train" which left Marquette Wednesday morning on a month's tour of agricultural districts in the Upper Peninsula. The train will be in Escanaba Thursday evening, March 31 at 7 o'clock.

It has been estimated by the crops experts that Upper Peninsula farmers lose about $4,000,000 a year by planting poor seeds. The purpose in view is to educate the farmers as to the kind of seeds that should be used in their regions.

Lectures, displays and results of actual experiments in the peninsula will be given free of charge to all farmers who wish to attend.

Active men resent crippling pain

"HAD TO BE CARRIED LIKE A BABY"

Quickly put on feet again by simple home treatment

Laid up for two weeks with an attack of rheumatism or neuritis in the leg, a Canadian writes all the way from Moncton, N. B., to tell of the quick relief he got when he began using a simple, old-fashioned home remedy.

"I could not walk for two weeks," he writes. "I had to be carried around like a baby. But one bottle of Sloan's Liniment put me on my feet again."

Sloan's gives real help to all kinds of muscular pain because it strikes up your body's own curative forces to drive out the germs and poisons that cause the trouble. Just pat it on lightly—and a healing tide of fresh, germ-destroying blood is sent tingling through the pain-ridden tissue. No rubbing! It's the medicine itself that does the work.

Soon the swelling and inflammation go down. The aching stops. Almost suddenly you find yourself really free from pain, really comfortable at last. Get a bottle today and have it on hand. All druggists—35 cents.

PHILLIES ARE NOT IMPROVED

Evans Sees Little More Pitching Strength; New Hurlers.

BY BILLY EVANS.
 Bradenton, Fla.—For several years it has been a much mooted question among fans as to just what league the Phillies were in. Surely not the National!

Keeping the Phillies in the league is the task that confronts Manager "Stuffy" McInnis, new pilot of the Philadelphia National. It is quite some job.

It is customary to blame the failure of a major league club on the manager, yet no man can win ball games unless he has the material to work with. That has been the prevailing fault of the Phillies.

No manager, no matter how smart he may be, can make hits in a pinch or strike the batter out with the bases filled. That is up to the ball players.

"Stuffy" McInnis, a brilliant player in his day, with plenty of gray matter, trained under one of baseball's greatest leaders, Connie Mack—"Stuffy" knows the game. He is a likeable chap, and I am sure his players will give him their best efforts. But it takes more than good wishes and kindly feelings to win ball games.

Philadelphia managers in the past have been handicapped in their usually futile efforts to escape last place. It remains to be seen how well McInnis can win ball games with the material at hand.

Being smart, "Stuffy" fully realizes the task that is ahead. He frankly admits that at least four clubs, possibly five, have a decided edge on him. He has no visions of a first division berth, although I am sure to land one would be more than acceptable. I imagine if he were able to finish fifth, at the top of the second division, he would get all the thrills of a pennant winner.

The team that has been handed over to McInnis is much the same club that finished in the cellar last season. Only in pitching will it be materially different.

Knowing the part efficient pitching plays in baseball, McInnis, through the medium of several trades, has considerably changed the personnel of his staff.

It is his hope that the veteran John Scott, obtained from the New York Giants, and Alexander Ferguson and Herb Pruett, American League discards, will help his ball club. I feel that this trio will do that very thing, but whether enough to keep the club out of the cellar is a question.

John Scott, who has had a meteoric career in the National League, varying from a world series hero to a pitcher waived out of the majors because of a supposed incurable arm, is still a pretty good bet. He knows how to pitch and how to get the ball over, two most important assets.

Alex Ferguson will be recalled as the pitcher who kept the Washington club in the running in the 1925 series with Pittsburgh by working two great ames. Pruett, as a member of the St. Louis Browns, gained fame by his ability to strike out Babe Ruth almost as he pleased. He didn't find other hitters so soft.

McInnis believes these three experienced pitchers, plus Harold Carlson, a mighty fine performer, and Wayland Dean, former Giant, will help round out a big league combination.

Of his recruits, Edward "Lefty" Taber, a semi-pro, looks promising. I watched him hold the Washington club to six hits and two runs in five innings. Taber wears heavy spectacles while pitching, similar to those used by Lee Meadows when he starred for the Phillies.

I wish "Stuffy" McInnis huge jobs of success, for he is a fine fellow, but I fear he will have plenty to worry about before the 1927 season is over.

THIRD GAME TO "KEGEL" A 928, high team score for one game so far.

The 2548 mark made by the Tilbert crew puts them into second place and pushes the Nordgren Clothiers into fourth. The Gladstone Community club spilled the hardwood for a score of 2507, giving them third place in the five man event.

Bink Big Aid.
 Mike Bink aided the Tilbert team materially in their final game when he bowled 225 for high score in a tournament game. George O'Brien with his score of 222 held the high score honor until last night.

Swan and Vandeweghe of Gladstone jumped into first place in the doubles races with a mark of 1079. Pray and Leach, who had bowled the only doubles previous to last night, were pushed into second with their 959 while Kemp and Kobliska of Gladstone rolled into third money in that event with a 941. Nylund and McNabb with consequence, hold fourth place with a score of 877.

Kemp and Kobliska bowled the first singles games last night and turned in totals for three games of 545 and 513, respectively. Kemp's first two games of 190 and 195 came as the result of consistent and plucky bowling. He fell down slightly in the third game, getting a score of 182. Kobliska, after rolling a 178 in the first game, went to pieces in the second and totaled a poor 155. His third game was a comeback with 180.

All in Money.
 Each event last night showed the bowlers in the money. The two five man teams, three doubles combinations and two singles series all ranking among the first five and Mike Bink jumping into first chances on the bowling ball that is being offered for high score in any tournament game.

Atlanta, Mar. 23.—(AP)—Shifting of battle grounds, sale of an infielder and continuance of the "injury jinx" following the Washington Senators marked major league baseball training in the south today.

Plus this came reports from the east that Herb Pennock, star of the New York Yankees' slab team, was leaving for Florida to talk terms with club owners. Herbert was said to be holding out for $20,000 per annum.

The Washington invalid list today stood at four with Tris Speaker and Sammy Rice, right fielder and timely hitter extraordinary, the two latest casualties. Both were in a bad way from injuries received yesterday at Avon Park, where Tris twisted a knee and Rice sprained a hip. Walter Johnson, who suffered a fractured ankle recently, and Manager Harris with a split finger, were the other two disabled Nats.

Adams Is Sold.
 The Yanks announced at St. Petersburg the sale of Spencer Adams, utility infielder to the St. Louis Browns. Dan Howley has been known to have been seeking an extra man for his inner works.

At St. Augustine, the New York Giants christened their new training field with an exhibition clash with the Jacksonville Southeastern League. The Cincinnati Reds had arrived on the east coast and met the Indianapolis American Association club at Palm Beach.

Seven other major league teams also were in action across the state, with only the Browns and Cardinals inactive.

Word from the Bradenton camp of the Phillies was that Stuffy McInnis and Jack Scott, holdout pitcher, had failed to reach terms but that another conference was to be had in an effort to reach an agreement.

Offered Brooklyn Catcher.
 Jack Hendricks, boss of the Reds, was said to have been offered a pitcher and catcher from Brooklyn, in exchange for Hugh Critz, holdout second baseman. The Cincinnati pilot is also expecting Adolpho Luque, pitcher, at Palm Beach tomorrow to confer about a contract.

The Detroit Tigers were in an exhibition clash at San Antonio with the local club there, and they are likewise engaged tomorrow. Another Tiger team meets Texas University tomorrow and Rip Collins, veteran Detroit pitcher, will hurl. The game will be at Austin, Collins' old home town.

The Boston Red Sox met New Orleans of the Southern Association.

Detroit Bantam Pug Knocks Out Keller

Detroit, Mar. 23.—(AP)—Clarence Rosen, Detroit bantamweight, knocked out Babe Keller of Cleveland in the first round of a scheduled 10-round bout here tonight.

A smashing over-hand right that landed under Keller's temple, dropped the Clevelander to the floor to the full count. Five minutes elapsed before Keller regained consciousness after being dragged to his corner.

Rosen weighed 117½ pounds and Keller was one pound lighter.

"BABE" SMITH TO LEAVE FOR WEST FRIDAY

Star High School Athlete Moving to Coast

Harold Smith, probably better known as "Babe" or "Midget" who was last fall the captain of the unbeaten and untied Escanaba high school football team, is leaving Escanaba Friday night with his parents, bound for Pasadena, Cal.

Smith has a wonderful athletic record in Escanaba high school, having won three letters in football in as many years. He has twice won the coveted "E" in basketball and dashes 100 yards nicely on the cinder path, winning a letter in that sport last year.

Although Smith has shown well in three major sports, the gridiron is where he has been most brilliant. When a freshman, weighing less than 100 pounds, he proved his skill in advancing the pigskin under Coach Thompson. After taking on a little more weight, he made the team as a regular in C. B. Hoels' first season here. Smith was so well thought of that his teammates elected him captain of last fall's squad, and he proved a worthy to every coach on the Escanaba card. With Gunderman, Deslites and Oborg, he was a member of one of the most well balanced backfields in Escanaba high gridiron history. Working behind an equally as well balanced line, Smith could always be depended upon for accurate passing and kicking, and ran the ends with lightning speed.

His many friends regret that he is leaving Escanaba without completing his high school career which promised to be so brilliant. Local fans expect to hear about his success on California soil next fall.

TWO TEAMS ARE READY TO HOP INTO TOURNEY

Indees and Ramblers Leave Today for Ishpeming

Having completed three days of their most strenuous workouts of the season both the Ramblers and the Independents basketball teams, will hold light practice drills tonight as final preparations for the Upper Peninsula Amateur tournament that opens at Ishpeming Friday morning.

The Indees will be entered in the class A division of the tournament, while the Ramblers are in class B, with all teams that have a squad average of less than 136 pounds.

Some of the Ramblers have been going without water and other nourishment that tends to put on weight in order that they might be qualified for their division.

Manager Paul Verina of the Indees said yesterday that he would probably take the following eight players with him to the tournament: Coach I. W. Soderberg, Gafner, Schram, St. Louis, Blomstrom, Barry, Andrews and Turnquist. The list may be changed today, but both Coach Soderberg and Verina were fairly well convinced that the squad would be comprised of those players.

Harold Smith, who has been coaching the Ramblers does not expect to accompany the team to Ishpeming. In the event that Tobin does not make the weight, he will act as coach, but with only one pound to reduce, it looked yesterday as though I. W. Soderberg, coach of the Indees, would probably act as coach for the Ramblers also. The following men are expected to make the trip: Tobin, Demars, Schou, Lough, St. Louis, M. Berglund, Smith and Byrns.

Junior Cage Teams Play for City Championship

A question uppermost in the minds of Escanaba's juveniles for some time, that has provoked vehement debate wherever ardent basketball fans happened to cluster together, will be settled once and for all, definitely and satisfactorily, when the E. F. U. junior cage tournament gets under way at the Webster gym tonight, to decide the city championship.

Twelve teams composed of boys who, according to the rules, are not "professional players," but ranging from 15 years of threabouts, downward, will combat with all the ferocity of sincere youth for the shining, burnished, silver cup that goes to the winners.

The excitement starts at 6:30 when the impressive array of juvenile talent clashes in the preliminaries. Six games will be played tonight. Three will be played tomorrow night. One of that trio will draw a bye for the final, and the other two teams will clash in a semi-final game Saturday afternoon. The grand climax to three days of furious basket-tossing is ordered for Saturday night when pre-tournament speeches will be in order after the crucial contest.

A small admission will be charged at the door.

Strong-Armed Officials.
 Officials of the tournament, foreseeing a display of over-enthusiasm unless strong-armed officials are secured, have hired the services of three Johnsons (not related) who promise to meet the requirements fully. In the heat of cage battles, now history, did these stock Scandinavianians earn their nicknames. One is better known as "Tarnax," the second is "Tiger," and the third is designated by "A." The "A's" name is much implied.

Following are the teams and their lineups as they will play tonight:

Black Hawks vs. Junior Herringchokers.
 Black Hawks—Rose, rf; Joint, lf; Froberg, c; Richards, rg; Moersch, lg; Hinn, lg; Cass, f; Clyde Moersch, c. Andrew Lang, manager.

STRANGLE HOLD PUT UNDER BAN

All Other Grips Legal When Orange & Black Meets Faculty.

There will be no need to mobilize the ambulance corps or to have all doctors on hand when the Orange and Black society and the Escanaba high school faculty indoor baseball teams engage in their fifth annual clash in the Escanaba high gym tonight. The game will start promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

This annual classic, in the high school saga was once an opportunity for the students to air their individual grudges against the faculty, but it finally got to a point where the instructors could stand it no longer and razing was ruled out of order by the "Judge Landis corporation."

It has been rumored about the high school that Judge Landis, the czar of baseball, would pitch the first ball in tonight's game, but it has been proven as only a dream. There will be no need for a scandal investigation as all players on the Orange and Black society team are in good amateur standing and the faculty although professionals, are to receive no money whatsoever for their performance.

Captains Oborg of the Orange and Hoels of the faculty have been putting their squads through secret drills frequently during the past few weeks. Each squad has a number of trick plays heretofore unused in baseball that they plan on releasing in the last few innings if the game is close.

Decisive Event.
 That the battle will be fiercely contested is evidenced by the fact that each of the squads have won the prized horseshoe trophy twice. The rusty piece of horse footwear that has been presented each year to the captain of the winning team is now in the trophy case at the high school, waiting for another inscription to be put on it.

It is expected that a large crowd of high school students and adults will be on hand when the curtain is drawn on Escanaba's only indoor diamond classic of the year.

Modern taste revels in the goodness of Camel

SMOKERS of today—the most particular and hardest to please—find their smoking wishes realized in the mellow goodness of Camels. They demand the choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos, and find them in Camel gloriously blended. Modern smokers put Camel ahead of all other cigarettes.

You should know the mildness, the mellowness that brings enjoyment to present-day smokers. You'll find it in Camel—every good point that could be looked for in a cigarette.

It's the modern favorite.

"Prayer Meeting" Steps Aside for New Service; Local Pastor Tells Why

(NOTE: The mid-week church service, which for decades has been known as "prayer meeting," has undergone an almost revolutionary change throughout America during the last year or two. When Rev. John B. Hubbard of the First Presbyterian church announced this week that the type of mid-week service at his church was about to be revised, The Press asked him to write an article about the movement, in general. His article follows.—THE EDITOR.)

BY REV. JOHN B. HUBBARD

The prayer meeting, as it has been conducted for decades, is a flat failure in the large majority of cases, if results mean anything. The story of the minister who announced on Sunday morning: "The pastor and the janitor will meet as usual on Wednesday night for prayer meeting," approaches the truth to a startling degree. One of the nation's twenty-five greatest preachers had an average attendance of five at prayer meeting in one church he served.

The service is attracting few people today, and it is a question if it ever was a great power in the church, as it only attracted a handful, being almost completely shunned by the young people. If they went, it was because they were forced to go. The faithful few came week after week, said the same prayers, monotonously sang the same hymns. There were the same long pauses fraught with anxious waiting for somebody to say something. The minister was not well prepared as he did not expect many anyway, and altogether it was heart-breaking for the preacher, and a matter of duty to the pillars of the church. But ministers have kept on working and hoping, listlessly announcing the service on Sunday morning, knowing that none of the young people would be among those present, that the officers of the church would be absent, and in fact, deep down in his heart he did not care much about going himself. This old way will not work for the new day. It is a useless and false reverence that clings to this meeting. So far as the twentieth century is concerned, it is dead. There must be a new type of service.

There is no question about the fact that a service is needed somewhere between the two Sundays. Man is a spiritual being and his soul needs nourishment to save it from the suffocation of materialism. It would be better to have nothing than to have this relic of former days hanging on the body ecclesiastic like a mill stone. Consequently, wide-awake clergymen, whose minds are open enough to recognize the fact that the new need not be sacrilegious, are using modern methods to meet this problem of the prayer meeting.

It is psychologically bad even to use the name "prayer meeting," because of the terrifying connotation that it has for the general run of the congregation, so "church night," "family night," the "sanctuary service" and other names are being employed. Instead of planning little for it, and not expecting much from it, it is being regarded as one of the most important meetings of the week. In view of the changes that have been made in it.

In the old type of prayer meeting, everyone was brought to prayer, giving a sentence prayer. To most of those present, it was an impossible request. They would rather have been burned at the stake. To the old reliable who did pray, it was too great a pleasure, and some of the "sentence" prayers lasted fifteen minutes. The praying was formal and perfunctory in the main. One was supposed to pray after a certain fashion, and to testify according to a certain established code, and he did, whether it was sincere or not. Most people are not trained to pray in public. It is torture for them to do it. A beautiful and helpful custom has been adopted, that of singing a prayer hymn. There are many such, expressing the inmost longings of the soul much more adequately than the old repetitions of the same requests, week after week. It is unselfish. Everyone has a chance to pray. It is above all else inspiring.

Good News Period.

The old-fashioned method of having testimony has dropped out, too, and if it has not, it should. It was too much concerned with what the "Lord has done for ME!" Instead of that there is a "good news period" when interesting information about the local church, and the church at large are given briefly by any having the facts. It is a sort of spiritual gossip, that induces a very desirable informality and spirit of good cheer.

At least once a month there should be a feature service presenting an outside speaker, or something equally good. Many churches start this meeting with a pot-luck supper, and conclude the evening after the service proper is over, with a period of games and other entertainment, making a real family night of the occasion, in which the members of the congregation may become acquainted with each other.

To Tell Story of Play.

The Presbyterian church has been exemplifying some of these new features and is planning to introduce more of them each week, in an effort to meet the new demands of the new day. Farewell has been said to the old type of prayer meeting. The new ideas will be present in the four pre-Easter services to be given, starting tonight at 7:30. Mrs. Edward Lucas will sing, St. Chrysostom will lead in prayer, the message from a great man will be there to inspire those present, a prayer hymn will be sung, and the pastor, Rev. John B. Hubbard, will tell the story of "The Fool," by Channing Pollock, which was played to packed houses for hundreds of nights in New York City. It centers about a minister who tried to live like Christ in the twentieth century. He had a rugged road to travel. It is full of thrills and inspiration and practical Christianity.
