BILLIONS AT STAKE IN NEW TEST OF I. C. C.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Washington, April 1.—Perhaps the most important test of the power of the Interstate Commerce Commission since that body was created by Congress now will be placed before the Supreme court of the United States to determine whether a proper basis for rate-making is the reproduction cost of the actual investment in a railroad.

DUTY AND BEAUTY

They're a duty-bound bunch, those immigration officials. The far-famed pugnacity of Miss Jacqueline Schally, "most beautiful woman in France," made no impression on their hearts at all when she arrived at New York to compete in the Atlantic City and other beauty contests and she was for a time detained at Ellis Island.

FERDINAND IS CONVALESCENT; MAY RECOVER

RUMANIANS REJOICE AT GOOD NEWS ABOUT KING.

Bucharest, April 2.—(AP)—News that King Ferdinand's condition had improved tonight was received with enthusiasm throughout Rumania. The members of the royal family were optimistic that he would pull through, and this optimism was shared by his physicians.

THIS TIME HE TUMBLED

For the first time in all his many horseback tumbles, an action picture is taken of the Prince of Wales (left) actually coming a cropper. It is evident from the singular position of his mount's hind legs as he clears the first hurdle in the Grand Military Lightweight Point-to-Point steeplechase at Holdenby, England, that the hurdle has been overjumped, explaining why horse and rider went head over heels.

OPERATORS OF MINES PREDICT LONG IDLENESS

ARE UNWILLING TO RENEW OLD WAGE CONTRACTS.

Chicago, April 2.—(AP)—Expressing a willingness to "talk over the situation with union officials at all times," Illinois operators tonight were nevertheless pessimistic concerning any early resumption of work in the bituminous coal fields, idle because of the failure of operators and miners to agree upon a new wage scale.

One Teacher, One Pupil Constitutes This High School

Cheyenne, Wyo., April 2.—(AP)—For a high position on the list of small things that are being done in a big way, Lewis C. Tidball, secretary of the Wyoming state board of education, submits the Elk Mountain high school. This public high school is housed in a one-room building.

4,000 MEN TO EMBARK SOON FOR FAR EAST

ENGLAND WILL TAKE FIRM STAND ON REPARATION.

London, April 2.—(AP)—New evidence was given today of Great Britain's firm determination to exact reparations from the Chinese nationalists for the Nanking outbreak, in which several foreigners were killed or injured.

MOTORIST HITS CHILD, ESCAPES

Fazer Youngster, of Wilson, Lies at Point of Death.

The three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Fazer of Wilson is near death at the home of his parents as the result of injuries received last night at about 7:35 o'clock when he was struck by a light coupe in front of the Ed. Hakes home at Wilson on route M-15.

INTENDED TO KILL

Washington, April 2.—(AP)—An emphatic reiteration of the charge that nationalist soldiers deliberately and with intent to kill fired on British, Japanese and American consuls "knowing them to be such," during the Nanking outrages was received by the state department today from Consul John K. Davis, who is still at Nanking, aboard a warship.

Issue Now Pertinent.

In a nut-shell, the Transportation Act of 1920 permitted the railroads to earn up to six per cent in any one year and anything in excess of that sum was to be divided equally between the government and the railroads.

BANDITS SLAY YANK ENGINEER

Mexican Situation Given New Twist by Bloody Murder.

Washington, April 2.—(AP)—The murder of Edgar M. Wilkins, American mining engineer, by Mexican bandits, at a time when the killing last September of another American, Jacob Rosenzweig, still is an unsettled diplomatic case, has given a new twist to the already disturbed relations between the United States and Mexico.

SAPIRO FACING WEEK ON STAND

Ford Rests Easily Following Accident; No Inquiry.

Detroit, April 2.—(AP)—Possibility of another week under cross examination in his $1,000,000 libel suit against Henry Ford, faces Aaron Sapiro, organizer of cooperative farming associations.

Tonight Ford rested easily and, according to his doctors, was well on the road to complete recovery from injuries received when his little coupe was sideswiped and forced from the highway last Sunday night.

All probability of official investigation of the mishap, passed today when Robert H. Tomp, prosecuting attorney of Wayne county, announced that he was satisfied to accept the report of Ford detectives that their efforts to fix responsibility had convinced them Mr. Ford was injured in an unavoidable accident.

Sinclair Lease Is Unlawful, Counsel for U. S. Contends

Washington, April 2.—(AP)—Harry F. Sinclair's lease and contract for the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve in Wyoming were in effect declared illegal by the supreme court in its decision in the Doherty leasing case, governmental counsel contended in a brief filed in the court today, preparatory to oral argument on Sinclair's appeal in about ten days.

BY JAMES POWERS.

NEA Service Writer. New York.—The day has passed when hallyhood stars could string their names up in flashing bulbs, announce a premier, and be reasonably certain of hearing the turnstiles click.

Old stand-bys, heretofore sure-fire crowd-getters, favorite idols and producers, are crumpling in heaps every week as unknown stars in unknown vehicles are flashing to the front.

"Broadway," with its likable little hoover, Lee Tracy, and its suave young producer, Jed Harris, bounced out of nowhere into the White Way's biggest hit with no fanfare of trumpets.

"Chicago" that satire on the American system of justice, written by a clever girl reporter who signed her daily sob column Maurine Watkins, came slowly down the aisle to be acclaimed with a clatter of hand-clapping that nightly grows noisier.

"The Barker," by Kenyon Nicholson, starring Walter Huston as "Nifty" Miller, opened without the slightest provocation one evening, and has been jamming them in ever since.

And while all these "upstarts" are cornering the spotlight, not to mention the shekels, what is the old guard doing?

Eugene O'Neill says his "Beyond the Horizon" revived for a short time only to droop. A Chicago test frightened producers away from his "Lazarus Laughed."

Pauline Lord flailed out in "Sandalwood," J. P. McAvoy, papa of "The Pottery," wrote "God Loves Us," and then changed his faith to skepticism as it staggered into the wings.

George Kelly, wearing such prize feathers as "The Show-Off," and "Craig's Wife" in his bonnet, hopefully started "Daisy Mayme" on its way only to see it flop.

Jim Tully's "Black Boy" took a nose dive. Alice Brady watched three plays sink under her trim feet.

Even the importations from Paris and Moscow that heretofore caused a wide ripple made but feeble impression. Cecile Sorel with her company and Sascha Guitry teamed with Yvonne Printemps were disappointed, and the Habima Players from Moscow also went blank.

The Russian Ballet and Art Theater, usually good for a fair run, suffered from the same blighting frost along with the Chariot's Revue.

girls that Earl Carroll tried to inject into his Vanities. The Russian blood transfusion failed.

Frank Craven now is playing in "Money From Home," but thus far has not set the place on fire, and Louis Mann came back with "That French Lady," seemingly due also for an early exit.

The days when David Belasco could announce a premier, with said premier going over with assured "click," are no more.

The leading shows, on Broadway now, as attested by consecutive performance records, are "Broadway," "Chicago," "Able, My Irish Rose," "The Barker" and "The Noose."

Openings this week were headed by Jeanne Eagels in "The Cardboard Lover." It relieves the fear that he might cling forever to her old hit, "Rain."

It is a flimsy, much-quarreled-about comedy with ups and downs of distracted rigamarole and pert Parisian situations. It is written by Jacques Deval and once offered to Laurette Taylor, who snubbed it after a try-out.

Leslie Howard who plays the poor bewish young chap who contracts to become the lover of a rich and lovely divorcee, takes a great deal of the hurrahs away from the star.

His specific duty is to keep the lady from her former husband, the former husband from the lady. It becomes a strenuous and tricky business involving pajama parties of the first and second order, subterfuge and fake suicides, broken hearts and shattered bric-a-brac until the lady knows her mind and the right man.

Taken by and large "Her Cardboard Lover" is no great, original or perfect piece, but probably due to dance for some green weeks on precisely the same spot, where they buried "The Captive."

"Lucky" is a stupendous, as usual, Dillingham production, featuring Walter Catlett, Richard Gallagher and Mary Eaton (she is Lucky the Ceylonese pearl diver). Paul Whiteman's hand, the Keller sisters, the Albertina Rasch girls, Princess White Deer, Ruby Keller are in the large and sparkling cast. "Lucky" is the only legitimate successor and heir apparent to "Sunny."

"The Spider" is probably the best of the trick plays offered this season. It has as much mystery as any of them and more novelty.

CHARRED BODY FOUND IN ASHES

Believed to Be That of Man Who Killed Aged Farmer.

Benton Harbor, Mich., April 2.—(AP)—Identity of a charred body found in the ashes of a small farmhouse where Michael Zerbe, 87, was slain early Friday morning by an axe-wielding murderer and his aged wife probably fatally hacked when she attempted feeble resistance, "virtually was fixed tonight."

Findings of a gold watch and a ring of keys near the body, which for half a day had been mistaken for that of a huge air-dale dog of the Zerbes, brought two persons who identified them as belonging to Walter Wallach. A score of deputies and a posse of farmers had combed the surrounding country of the St. Joseph river in a search for Wallach, named by Mrs. Zerbe before she lapsed into unconsciousness.

The body was burned beyond identification.

Frank Hickok of Buchanan identified the watch as having belonged to Wallach, while Mrs. Mary Kent, former Buchanan postmistress, who had rented Wallach a garage, said one of the keys belonged to Wallach.

Although authorities, particularly Sheriff Fred G. Bryant and Coroner George H. Slaughter believe the evidence points to Wallach as the slayer, they also are considering a theory that he may have been slain with Zerbe and left to be burned. The body was found directly below an upstairs bedroom, frequently occupied by Wallach before his estrangement from his former wife, Zerbe's daughter. Near the body were the remains of a bed. School children declared they saw Wallach near the home at nightfall Wednesday.

Wallach's wife left him two years ago. Since then, family acquaintances told Sheriff Bryant, he has depended upon Zerbe for financial aid on occasions, and recently, it was said, was refused assistance on the part of his former wife's family.

Mrs. Zerbe was slightly improved late today, according to information from the home of her son, Riley Zerbe, where she was taken Friday morning.

Much Intolerance in America, Says U. of W. Professor

Philadelphia, April 1.—(AP)—Intolerance is widespread in America and whether "we can support free institutions is problematical," Dr. Alexander Meiklejohn, former president of Amherst college and now associated with the University of Wisconsin, asserted today before the educators attending school men's week.

Many outstanding Americans, including Washington, Lincoln and Wilson, had to bear the sting of opposition and ridicule during their lives because their opinions differed from the rank and file, Dr. Meiklejohn said.

"I am not sure America can support free courts, a free press, a free literature, a free theatre and a free life," he asserted. "Russia and Italy have tried and failed. I wonder if America will fail, too."

The colonial ambitions of European nations in the Mediterranean area threaten the world's peace, Prof. Hugh C. Wendell of New York university told the conference. Control of the waterways of the Red sea and the Mediterranean is coveted by all the great powers; he said.

"So long as Great Britain and France pursue a friendly policy, peace in the Mediterranean will be maintained," Dr. Wendell asserted. "A serious divergence of vital interest over colonial possessions, however, will result in conflict which will involve the whole of Europe."

FALL, DOHENY ORDER REVOKED

Coolidge Annuls Harding Order Issued to Oil Operators.

Washington, Apr. 2.—(AP)—President Coolidge has revoked the executive order issued by President Harding on May 31, 1921, under which Albert B. Fall as interior secretary negotiated the naval oil reserve leases with Edward L. Doheny and Harry F. Sinclair which led to both civil and criminal actions in the federal courts.

The order of revocation was dated last March 17 and it was stated at the White House that it was issued in keeping with the decision of the U. S. supreme court revoking the contracts and leases made with Doheny covering the Elk Hills, Cal. reserve and oil tank storage at Pearl Harbor.

By this order jurisdiction over all of the reserves save that in Wyoming—the celebrated Teapot Dome—is left exclusively with the navy department. The Wyoming reserve still is in dispute with Sinclair appealing to the supreme court; from a circuit court decision revoking the lease. Both during the senate investigation and the hearings on the civil suits for the recovery of the reserves, President Harding's order was attacked as illegal because it in effect set aside an act of congress placing jurisdiction in the navy department.

Evidence before the senate oil committee was that the executive order which Harding signed was drawn in the interior department and the charge was that the plan of leasing the reserves originated with Fall, who accepted $100,000 from Doheny during the negotiations covering the Elk Hills reserve.

DR. HENDERSON HERE MONDAY

Extension Director for State University
Coming.

Prof. W. D. Henderson, director of the University of Michigan extension division, will come to Escanaba Monday afternoon to address the Escanaba Woman's club at 3 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church. His subject will be "The New World and the New Woman."

Dr. Henderson is, without doubt, the best known member of the University of Michigan faculty. He was formerly professor of engineering physics at the university. Since he became head of the extension department he has spoken in every city, village and hamlet in the state. His lectures are always instructive and thoroughly entertaining and it is expected that a large crowd will hear him Monday.

Monday night Dr. Henderson will speak in Gladstone on "The Boy Problem," the lecture being under auspices of the Gladstone Child's Welfare club. He is also appearing at Manistique, Rapid River, Powers, Stephenson, Menominee and at other points in this region on the present trip.

There will be no admission charge here Monday and the public is invited to attend.

GLEE CLUB TO SING AT CHURCH

Oriole Chorus From
Augustana College
Coming Here.

The Oriole chorus, a Girls' Glee club from Augustana college, Rock Island, Ill., will give a concert in the Ev. Lutheran Bethany church in this city Friday evening, April 22. The chorus is under the direction of Arthur Cassing, voice instructor in the conservatory department of the college.

Ewald Lawson, violinist, will accompany the chorus on this concert trip. Mr. Lawson is a violinist of more than usual ability. A varied program of sacred and secular songs will be rendered by the chorus.

The Oriole chorus visited this city about four years ago and at that time gave a concert that was highly pleasing. The chorus is said to have reached a degree of musical perfection that has never before been attained. Its personnel is made up of twenty young ladies.

The concert will be given under the auspices of the Luther League of the local church.

ENGADINE

(Mrs. C. W. Comfort, Corr.)
Miss Bertie Clegg spent Sunday with home folks in Manistique. Mr. and Mrs. Teach drove to Newberry Friday, returning in a new Chevrolet they had purchased.

The Runyan family has moved back from Manistique where they went in the fall. Art Hancock's truck moved the goods.

Pete Brock came home last Friday and remained a few days as he was troubled with an infection in his hand.

Mrs. Myrtle Eckley, reporter for the Republican News from this place, returned a few days ago from an extended visit with friends in the Soo, Detour and other points.

Miss Elsie Rifenburg, cashier of the Mackinac County Bank, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents in Manistique.

George Findley of Newberry was a business caller in Engadine last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Vallier visited at the Thomas Vallier home Saturday and Sunday.

The Methodist Aid has been again busy with a quilt, this time at the Claude O'Neal home.

Fred Teske who had a sale near Blaney last week has moved his family into the Lynn house in Engadine.

John Werner was an over-Sunday visitor with relatives here. He is busy in Manistique these days with his pool hall.

Carl Lynn and Mr. Runyan came over from Manistique Sunday.

A shoe salesman from McMilly, Pete Hewlett, was in town last week calling at the homes. Purchasers say he has fine shoes.

Billie Wright of Curtis was a business caller here Saturday.

R. C. Hollsted went to Ann Arbor Friday to consult specialists. He returned home Tuesday.

C. F. Johnson, principal of the Manistique Junior High, who is an independent candidate for the office of commissioner of schools in Mackinac county was in town last week getting acquainted with the voters.

Voters, don't forget the spring election comes Monday, April 4.

Fred Schroeder is getting ready to build a barn. It is always a good advertisement for a community where building is in progress.

The auditor for the Soo Line was in town last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Holson Brawley visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl O'Neal plan to move back to town Saturday. They have been in Manistique all winter and the cafe has been closed. The Bell Telephone central will soon be moved into the cafe, too.

Joe L. Burnett has again been appointed conservation agent for this territory. He has orders to begin work the first of the month. He has many friends here who will be glad to hear of his appointment.

Mike Elsner has been hauling a lot of cement for use in building his new house, barn and other buildings.

Mrs. Syversen returned Sunday from Green Bay. Her daughter, Lily, had an operation in that city for appendicitis Wednesday of last week. She is improving as fast as could be expected.

The Anderson school was without a teacher last week but the board was very fortunate in securing the services of Mrs. B. C. Teach. She is an experienced teacher and will, undoubtedly, finish out the year. She goes back to town each evening to look after the home and see that Mr. Teach has plenty to eat.

Sark Kiocher who has been in Fibron's Quarry all winter returned to his home on the Sand Hill to find his suit, overcoat and valuable watch gone. A suit case filled with clothing and belonging to another man was also stolen. No trace has so far been found leading to the person who would stoop to do such a petty shameful deed.

Frank Quinn will run on slips for the office of highway commissioner. Art Hancock is the one whose name will appear on the ballot. This was a close contest at the caucus and promises to add interest to the election Monday. Art has been holding the job and Quinn held the office years ago. So come on voters and let's see who is the more popular man for the place.

AMUSEMENTS

PRaises COLLEEN'S WORK.
Mae Tinee, the motion picture critic of the Chicago Tribune, in her review of "Orchids and Ermine," the picture scheduled for the Delft Monday, pronounced it a story "which will chase your gloom and make the smiles pop out."

"Colleen," said Miss Tinee, "is not gold-digging. No. She's Cinderella again and doing a beautiful job of it. Her present opus is a bright little number that I dare you not to like!"

"Orchids and Ermine" is a clean, companionable bit of entertainment, excellently groomed from the production standpoint. Its subtleties and situations have a lively, stepping humor and I will say for myself that I did not right merrily over some of the wise cracks. (No, we are not Scotch.)

"The heroine of this delectable portion of screen fare starts out by wishing she had orchids and ermine and ends by—? Well, again you think you're going to learn the plot. But I say unto you as I hope Mr. Dever will say to Mr. Thompson on the morn of April 6, "You have another think coming."

Jack Mulhall is Colleen's vis-a-vis this time, and it has become common knowledge that when Jack Mulhall is in a picture, the picture's good in the spots where he is. He dittoes many previous successes in "Orchids and Ermine."

"What one would like to know from Mr. Mulhall is—does he wear the glasses because his eyes hurt or because he wants to look like Harold Lloyd? Sympathy, if the first be true. Condemnation, if the latter is a fact. Him's a sweet boy as is—so, better for, be contented as he are.

"Little Colleen as a switchboard operator in the lobby of a big New York hotel has a role made exactly to her measure. She is utterly adorable as Pink. Funny, serious, big-eyed, wise, foolish, winsome little thing, putting the old byes in their places!"

A series of "Scout" stories, thrilling tales of heroism and courage, are being broadcast by Lady Baltimore of Station WBAL, Baltimore.

- 2 Choice of modern simplified design. Material and workmanship of Studebaker quality throughout, comparable to the finest automobiles. Self-energizing four-wheel brakes, nickel plated bumper front and rear, motorometer, beautiful crown fenders, and numerous other quality features never before furnished in a $1,000 car.
- 3 Beauty and smartness characterizes the car. The body, fenders and general outlines were designed by R. H. Dietrich, one of the foremost custom body designers of the country. The car has irresistible style appeal. It created a sensation at all of the European automobile shows and the shows in this country, where it was viewed by over two million people.
- 4 The performance of the car is remarkably efficient and much superior to most, if not all, cars in the $1,000 field. It will accelerate from 5 to 25 miles in 8 1/2 seconds; climb an 11% grade in high gear and develop 60 miles per hour. It is free from mechanical defects and will stay out of the repair shop.
- 5 The car is well balanced, with scientific spring suspension and seat cushioning. The result is the superior riding qualities of the big, high priced cars. In riding comfort, the car is equaled by few, if any, small cars on the market.
- 6 The price of $995 f. o. b. Detroit is low compared with half a dozen other Sixes selling for more money. Actual comparisons with such cars, ranged alongside an Erskine, will demonstrate the truth of this assertion.

If you appreciate quality and value, examine and drive an ERSKINE SIX before you buy any car this Spring

Other models are the Tourer, seating five, $945; the Custom Coupe with dicker seat, seating four, $995; and the Business Coupe seating two, $945 f. o. b. factory, with excise tax and freight to be added.

WHY NOT? There exists in the United States a more virile religious conscience than has ever before been recorded in history.

Thinking people, generally, have come to appreciate that the cure for the ills and other undesirable developments of the day lies in a return to first principles. And in those "first principles," foremost in the list stands the acceptance, passively at least, of some form of religion.

No matter to what form of religion a man may affix his belief there is one day in the religious calendar that generally demands his respect and observance. That day is Good Friday. Municipalities and institutions in this nation are coming to recognize that this day an opportunity for the fostering of a greatly needed religious confidence.

AN EFFICIENT OFFICER. Rumors were afloat, yesterday, that Phil Hupp, justice of the peace at Gladstone, will have opposition in the person of a "slip" candidate, still unnamed. Mr. Hupp has occupied the office for six years. He has conducted the affairs of the office with ability and dignity, administering justice fearlessly and efficiently.

SOCIALISM—OR WHAT? The socialistic doctrine of yesterday is the mainstay of tomorrow's conservatives; the man who was a radical in the 'nineties finds himself classed as a Tory in the year 1927.

WANTED: MORE NEWS.

It is regrettable that the Chinese situation is such that clearer and more definite news dispatches cannot be had from the troubled areas. After reading diligently all of the dispatches on the Nanking affair, one finds oneself still pretty much in the dark as to exactly what happened. Just how many people were killed, why, and by whom, are things that no one in this country can say definitely.

First, the fighting in China is above all a civil war, pure and simple, with the anti-foreign agitation playing a minor part. Civil wars are always bloody, and the Chinese non-combatants are suffering far more heavily than any group of white men.

Second, the British and American forces in China are not there to intervene between the two factions but to protect British and American subjects. Neither we nor England are at war with China, or with any faction in China.

Third, the gathering of uncolored news in China is so difficult that we in America can well take most of the atrocity stories with the proverbial pinch of salt. Fourth, the influence of Soviet Russia on the Cantonese is probably far less powerful than some people think. The Soviets would like, of course, to see a world conflagration started in China, and they are doing all they can to take credit for the present war, but the Chinese people are not, by nature, the kind of people who take to communist doctrines.

THE OLD ORDER CHANGING. The old order changed, giving place to new—or so, at least, said the poet. This maxim, it seems, applies even to so conservative an institution as the United States army. Recently Congress increased the allowance for the doughboy's food. Now there is made public a typical week-day menu for a detachment of regulars assigned to duty at West Point.

HOPE FOR THE CRIPPLED. One of the problems of this efficient industrial age of ours is the plighting of physically afflicted men in jobs where they can support themselves. The man with poor eyes, a bad leg or a twisted hand is rightfully handicapped nowadays, but there is a ray of hope in a report from the Welfare Council of New York City.

KING GEORGE of England has discontinued the practice of taking his own wine to state dinners. The custom it seems, had its origin several centuries ago when one of George's predecessors drank wine furnished by a host and found himself more or less fatally poisoned.

"Only twenty of the twenty-five winners will compete," Lella told Billy as they sat over their lunch on the cafe table. "You know Susie Howard's leaving the store Saturday night, and Callie Bostwick, who won the twenty-fifth prize, says she wouldn't waste ink and paper on the silly contest. So does that Meyers girl who won the next to the last prize."

"I couldn't put down on paper what I'd really do," Lella whispered, her face freckled with a staining a dull red. "I'd go to Paris and have all those beauty treatments they write about. I'd get reduced and have my face peeled, and my nose made smaller and straighter, and get my hair dyed and permanent-waved, and hire the best modiste I could find. Oh, I sound crazy, I know."

"Oh, I couldn't," Lella flushed more darkly. "I'd just die if anybody but you knew what I really want to do. And what's the use?" she asked dreamily. "It's all just make-believe. I'll never have a hundred thousand dollars, or Stanley Powers, or—anything."

Iron Trade Review

Cleveland, Ohio, Mar. 31—Iron Trade Review today says: With the coming of the second quarter the iron and steel industry enters a period marked for declining production. For three consecutive years March has proved the zenith of mill effort and the months of the second quarter have brought progressive, albeit moderate, recession.

"Let's go up," Billy vigorously brushed powder from the front of her little brown velvet dress. "I'm not so stuck on this contest business myself. I hope this is the last of T. Q.'s bright ideas."

"Good afternoon," whispered, foreign bending of the body at the hips, and that smile on his lips and in his eyes, which changed his face so miraculously. "Some gloves, please, for a young lady. French gray short gloves, with stitched cuffs."

in history, and it seems possible that statistics for the entire industry will reveal only a few points deviation from the all-time high of last year. Incoming second quarter business, meanwhile, has buttressed order books and provided momentum for the transition.

"I believe the young lady's hands are almost as small as yours," he smiled. She was passionately grateful that she need feel no shame for her hands. "I wear a five and a half," she answered in a low voice, to match the low, almost caressing intimacy of his own tones.

"Have you forgotten your note from T. Q.?" Julie Barker, who had been an interested observer of the sale, inquired caustically. "Wonder who the sheik is? Gee, Billy, you fell for him like a ton of bricks."

NASH
Leads the World in Motor Car Value

How many main bearings in your motor car? Nash recommends 7

Because for the finest and smoothest performance results, you need 7, rather than 3 or 4.

Obviously, 3 or 4 supports for a crankshaft cannot give it the rigidity and smoothness of 7. That is why Nash—with customary engineering progressiveness—has developed the 7-bearing motor for all Nash models.

The 7 bearings of Nash achieve power-smoothness and quietness, and achieve it, moreover, with no sacrifice of acceleration. In fact, the proper support of the crankshaft decidedly improves the energy and aggressiveness of the car.

Here is another fact to remember about the 7 bearings of Nash: They have more bearing surface, by actual measurement, than any 6-cylinder engine of similar size and price, no matter how many bearings it has. (Actually 20 square inches more than leading cars with fewer bearings.)

When you buy your 1927 motor car be sure to ask: "How many main bearings?" And for better results choose the car that has 7. Nash offers you this performance-advantage in every single model, whether you pay $2090 for it or only $865.

The mechanism is almost human. It puts the record on the turn-table—plays it, takes it off—places it in a drawer—puts on the next record and so on, through twelve selections. Plays a complete symphony straight through. Furnishes dance music without anyone's having to stop and change records.

Continuous music by the world's foremost artists while you dine... at bridge parties... for dancing... for programs of any nature, planned in advance. You simply play—and relax! Music of your own choosing, furnished by the amazing Orthophonic Victrola—the instrument that has astounded musicians and music-lovers the world over.

ELECTION TO BE QUIET ONE

Little on Ballot to Stir Up Interest of Local Voters.

Election, Monday, in Escanaba and most of the other political subdivisions of Delta county, will be a comparatively quiet affair. There are no contests on the county ticket, and in the city it is an "off" year for the council.

Gladstone has a spirited contest for city commissioner; two complete tickets are in the field in the field in Brampton township. B. R. Micks, present Brampton supervisor, is not a candidate this year.

Among the other members of the county board, William J. Miller of Masonville, defeated in the annual township caucus, is running on slips against Ruben Young, the caucus nominee. Charles Gauthier of Garden is opposed by Harry Green, a former member of the board.

City Clerk Carl E. Anderson estimated yesterday that not more than 200 votes would be cast in Escanaba. The council recently ordered that polling place staffs be reduced from five to three persons.

The only county office to be filled will be commissioner of schools and C. U. Woolpert is unopposed for the job.

State Tickets.
The state tickets are as follows:
Two justices of supreme court: Republican, John E. Bird and Nelson Sharpe; Democratic, J. W. Anderson and Emmet L. Beach; Workers Party, Cyril Lambkin and John Kilska.

Two regents of university: Republican, Benjamin Handchelt and Lucious L. Hubbard; Democratic, Eta C. Boltwood and

Y. M. C. A. Quartet Here On April 22

The Y. M. C. A. College quartet of Chicago, under the leadership of George W. Campbell, a noted song leader and musical director, is booked by the Esky Mortorboard for an appearance here Friday, April 22.

The people of Escanaba are already acquainted with George W. Campbell as he was the song leader for the Older Boys' conference held in this city in February. In a recent holiday tour of sixteen days, the quartet appeared before sixty-four audiences in thirteen different cities. Reports from these cities praise the quartet very enthusiastically.

Bright Lights Injure the Eyes

Bright lights and moving pictures cause some eyes undue strain impairing their usefulness to the extent that in most cases headaches and other ills result. The delicacy of the eyes always should always be borne in mind. They are of such value that, at all times, they should not be abused. Glasses will reduce strain and add much comfort to both health and happiness. An examination will reveal the actual condition and whether you need glasses or not. f.o.b. Detroit

In the Chrysler "50", Walter P. Chrysler and his corps of engineers, studying the field of fine and low-priced six-cylinder cars, strove to produce a four-cylinder car which would unmistakably advertise its greater value by its greater performance, greater sturdiness and greater long life.

In its 50-miles-plus per hour, 5 to 25 miles in 8 seconds, 25 miles to the gallon, they gave the public something immediate, something convincing, something final and conclusive with which to measure Chrysler "50" against and above anything around its class either in six or four cylinders.

Chrysler "50" has been overwhelmingly accepted by the public for what it was designed and built to be—the giant of its class in Standardized Quality, outstanding performance, full family size, complete appointment and every essential that makes for outstanding and indisputable value.

The Finest Eight Performance without Penalty of High Cost

UNTIL the coming of the Hupmobile Eight, this most luxurious form of motoring entailed both high first cost and prohibitive cost of upkeep.

Hupmobile changed all previous conceptions of eight-cylinder performance with a straight-eight of elemental simplicity, designed to give superior smoothness on long fuel mileage.

Thus Hupmobile removed the last obstacles which had prevented thousands from driving an eight, demonstrated its superiority over the higher-priced sixes, and won the largest straight-eight following in the world.

The only way to appreciate the vast difference between Hupmobile Eight and lesser types is to drive this Eight yourself.

Class J Mikado Locomotive Has Bethlehem Auxiliary.

The Chicago & North-Western has just received for service on the Peninsula division a new departure in locomotives. This is No. 2564, a class-J Mikado type, equipped, however, with a recent development, and entirely new in this section, a Bethlehem auxiliary locomotive, constructed as a part of the tender of the locomotive, and usually called a tender booster.

This is in the form of an assisting locomotive built into and forming the rear truck of the tender, in which all four wheels of the rear truck are driving wheels, which assist the locomotive in starting and in pulling the train over the heavier grades when stalling is imminent or to save doubling over hills where the booster can handle the load.
This locomotive was on a trial run on this division on Thursday, when it hauled a train of 129 cars into Escanaba from Green Bay. A similar locomotive, the No. 2570, also a class-J,

At the Strand: George O'Hara in a comedy drama, "Going the Limit." Sally Long and Murdock MacQuarrie are among those in the supporting cast.

STRAND MONDAY.

A cast wanting nothing in ability or popularity has been assembled to appear in "Burning Gold" which will be shown at the Strand Monday and Tuesday. There are Herbert Rawlinson, a star for many, many moons; Mildred Harris, a celebrity of equally long standing, and Shirley Palmer and Sheldon Lewis, both of whom are remembered for some of the finest impersonations ever known to the screen.

Jack Noble, a prominent figure in production circles, is both author and director of this film and has given expression to the finest that is in him in "Burning Gold."
COLLEEN MOORE COMING.
Fashions of the year just opening are a feature of Colleen Moore's newest picture, "Orchids and Ermine," coming to the Delft theatre Monday and Tuesday.

Scores of innovations in gowns, wraps and slippers are a part of the story. Director Alfred Santell took particular care during the filming of the picture, however, not to force the fashions on his audience as a show, but to make them a natural part of the production.
"Instead of having just any women wear our gorgeous clothes as minor players, we engaged women who could wear clothes well, and had them outfitted with fashions that will be in vogue a year from now," said Santell.
Colleen Moore wears several stunning outfits in "Orchids and Ermine," most of which were designed and made while she was in New York for the filming of the exterior scenes of the story.

John McCormick produced and which First National is releasing. The other supporting players include Sam Hardy, Gwen Lee, Alma Bennett, Hedda Hopper, Kate Price, Jed Prouty, Emily Fitzroy, Caroline Snowdon, Yola d'Avril and Brooks Benedict.

Insure in April

DURING the month of April the men and organizations named below will dedicate their efforts and devote their time to a purpose that should have the enthusiastic support of every good citizen.

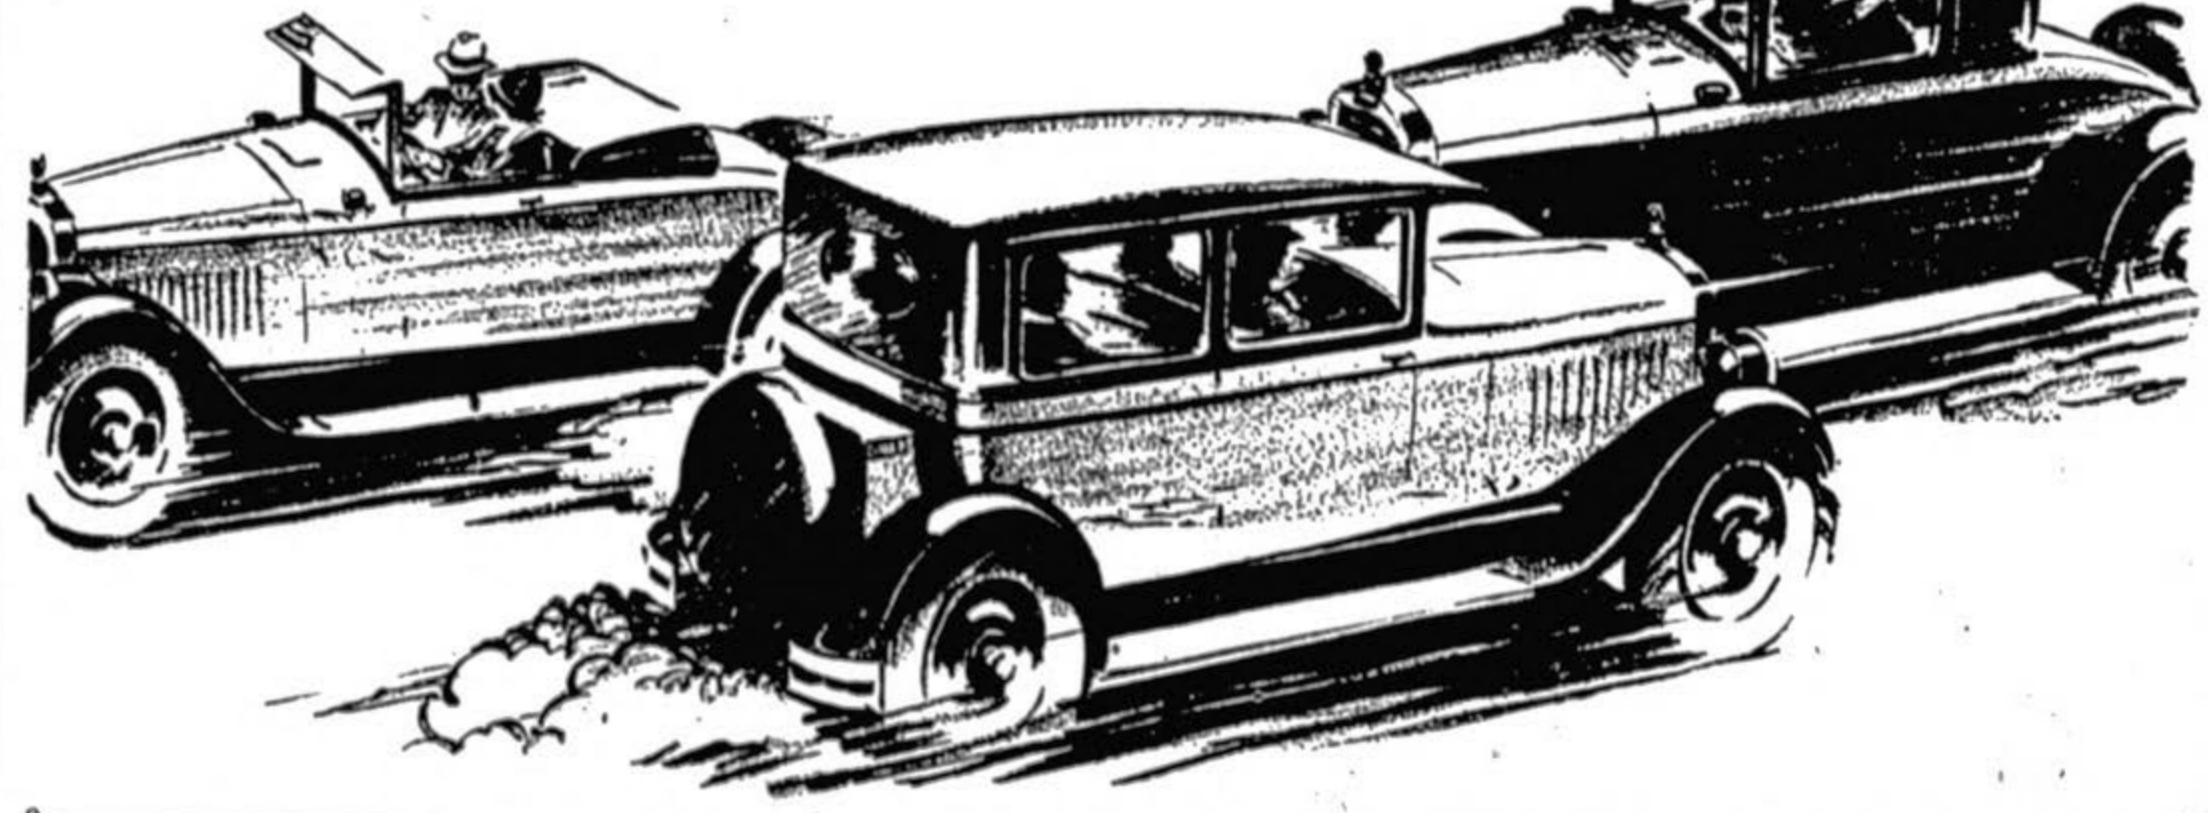

April is to be Automobile Insurance Month, with special emphasis on public liability insurance. An attempt will be made to cover every licensed automobile in the state with adequate insurance against casualties. 100% coverage is the goal, and how nearly it shall be reached depends upon the cooperation of the public, for whose principle benefit the effort is to be made.

For his own protection no person should be driving a car without safe, sound liability insurance.

These agents representing the leading automobile insurance stock companies stand ready to sacrifice all other forms of their general insurance business during April and concentrate on this one most important and timely matter.

Help them make this city—this state—an example to all others. As a good citizen—as a fair minded motorist—as a rightful pedestrian, let your friends and acquaintances know what you think of any automobile owner who will venture into today's traffic stream without full insurance coverage. Spread the gospel—"Insure in April".

COUPLE ADMITS DRUG ROBBERY

Gladstone Men Arrested for Entering Store at Wells.

Archie Gravel, 24, and Earl "Bucky" Sterns, both of Gladstone, have been arrested and are in custody in the county jail in connection with burglary of the Bladco drug store at Wells Thursday night, March 24.

Gravel was taken at his home by Sheriff Elmer Swanson, Deputy Earl Bordials and Charles Enzells, lieutenant of the state police, who conducted the hunt yesterday afternoon at about 2:30 o'clock. Part of the $800 worth of articles that were taken by the burglars were found in the Gravel home at Gladstone when officers searched the place.

When Gravel admitted that he had been assisted in the act by one of his friends, the officers attempted to identify Gravel's associate on the night of the robbery. After he had been taken to the county jail, Gravel admitted that Earl Sterns had aided him but had afterward left for Goodman, Wis. Sheriff Swanson, Deputy Henry Breaull and Lieutenant Enzells left within a short time for Goodman where Gravel's accomplice was put under arrest.

Took Street Car.
According to the story told to the authorities by Gravel, he and Sterns left Gladstone on the 8 o'clock street car the night of the robbery, after only a few minutes' deliberation as to whether they should break into the drug store. Arriving in Wells about 8:30 o'clock, they made preparations, and in less than 15 minutes they had entered through a rear window.

At first they planned to take only a few pocket knives and other similar articles that would not be missed. "After we had started the job we hated to leave with only knives and razor blades so we emptied a 100 pound sack of sugar and a 100 pound sack of salt that were in the rear of the building and filled them up with cameras, toilet articles," Gravel said.

After ransacking the place the pair escaped through the rear window and headed for the railroad tracks, each carrying a sack.

They walked along the tracks to the Gladstone bluff where they divided the loot. Gravel taking a small portion of it. Sterns hid his share in a shack while Gravel took his home.

"I had no idea that we could be caught, although we made no preliminary preparations," Gravel told the authorities.

Gravel denied having taken the McCauley automobile which was stolen on the same night, and entering the Tractor company depot at Wells.

Sterns left shortly after the robbery for Goodman, Wis. Gravel claims to have known Sterns for only a few weeks. The former was born and reared in Gladstone, and after leaving Gladstone high school in his eleventh year he worked for the Buckeye company. Last winter he was in the employ of the Bay de Noc lumber company at Nahnah. He admits having taken tools from automobiles in Gladstone a few weeks previous to the Wells drug store robbery, but never before was held on any charge.

NEW VICTROLA TO BE SHOWN HERE MONDAY

Plays 12 Records Without Being Touched

The latest development in the field of musical reproduction, a talking machine which automatically changes its own records and operates continuously for an hour with a single filling of the record magazine, will be demonstrated to the public here Monday, beginning at 9 a. m. and continuing until 5 p. m. The instrument will be presented by Lang and Hess who have received one of the first instruments to be completed at the plant of the Victor Talking Machine company.

The machine was demonstrated to Victor dealers of the peninsula several weeks ago at the Delta hotel by representatives of the company.

Twelve records can be placed in the magazine of the instrument at one time, the starting switch turned and every one of the records played to completion without attention from the operator.

In Monday's demonstration, Mr. Lang will illustrate the manner in which the new invention may be used in playing and desired assortment of records, or for the reproduction of an entire symphony requiring up to twelve record surfaces. Either 10 or 12-inch records may be played. Some of the greatest orchestras of America and Europe have recently made remarkable recordings of a number of the world's finest symphonic compositions, which can now be played in

SENTENCES OF SLAYERS STAND

Supreme Court Confirms Verdict of Detroit Court.

Lansing, April 1—(AP)—The supreme court affirmed the convictions of two Detroit murderers. They are James Cipriano who killed his wife and brother-in-law, and John Hardman who shot Alberta Hatter, his sweetheart.

The petition of John F. Simmons for a writ of mandamus to compel the Detroit election board to provide for the election of a judge to fill the vacancy on the Wayne bench caused by the death of Judge George P. Codd, was denied. The court ruled insufficient time was allowed for its consideration as the election must be held April 4.

The court granted an injunction to Floyd M. Glover of the Flint Oil company against William F. Mallock of the Lincoln Petroleum Produce company to restrain the latter from conducting a lottery. It was held the distribution of tickets by Mallock, with the promise of prizes for the lucky members, was a lottery in violation of the law.

A judgment in favor of Charles Edwin Brown against the Pere Marquette railroad was set aside. In January, 1923, an extra freight train left Saginaw for Toledo. Engine trouble developed but the crew struggled along until the train reached Alexis Booth, three miles from the Toledo yards. At that time the 16 hours which is prescribed by federal statutes as the limit of consecutive labor for railroad workers, expired. The crew of which Brown was head brakeman, left the train on the main track. The engineer called the Saginaw dispatcher to tell him "our time is up—help needed to get in the train." Brown went to the caboose and went to sleep. A few minutes after a fast Detroit Toledo express crashed into the freight, killing two men and injuring Brown.

The supreme court held Brown was off duty when he went to the caboose at the expiration of 16 hours and therefore may not recover from the railroad.

De Pinedo Changes Plans Unexpectedly

New Orleans, April 1—(AP)—Adapting his plans to the date, Com. Francisco de Pinedo played an April fool prank on New Orleans today.

An announcement that he would take off this morning for San Antonio on the next stage of his four-continent trip brought a small crowd to the industrial docks to witness his departure. But the unreliable date and the sudden indisposition of one of his companions, caused a change in his plans at midnight last night and the crowd was left waiting at the pier.

The commander was engaged in conferences with United States aviation men during a large part of the day and as a result of these conferences and through the insistence of Galveston citizens he again altered his itinerary to make Galveston the first stop after he takes off here tomorrow.

The plane will get into the air between 5 and 6 o'clock, he said, and he expects to reach Galveston some four or five hours later, remaining there about an hour. His next stop, tomorrow afternoon, will take him to Medina lake, near San Antonio, where he will refuel, spending the night in San Antonio.

His plane, a giant two-engine monoplane, christened the Santa Maria after the flagship of Christopher Columbus, has been carefully gone over and all worn parts have been replaced. New propellers have been added.

"It's all right on top," she said, peering over the side of the car at the flat tire.

SCHOOL MUSIC MEET PLANNED

Annual Festival Will Be Held Thursday Night.

The outstanding school musical event of the year, towards which the 125 music pupils in Escanaba high school have been pointing under the direction of R. W. Nordling since school opened last fall, will be the annual "Music Festival" in the school auditorium Thursday night. Eight musical organizations will appear on the program.

In previous years, it was the custom to stage a number of concerts during the school term. Last year, however, the idea of giving one music festival was worked out and the affair Thursday night will be the second annual event of its kind. It also will take the form of a "tryout" to determine which school musical groups will compete in the upper peninsula contests in Marquette late in the spring. Five judges will grade the various groups and render a decision.

The organizations represented Thursday night will be the 50-piece orchestra, the grade school orchestra, the high school symphony orchestra, the girls' glee club, the boys' glee club, the mixed chorus, the string ensemble, the string quartet, and the high school band. On the program, also, will be one or two solo numbers.

"Forty Hours" to Be Conducted in St. Anne's Church

The annual Forty Hours Adoration will be held this week at St. Anne's church beginning at the 10:30 o'clock services today when Very Rev. Fr. R. G. Jacques, pastor, will be the celebrant at the solemn high mass, assisted by Rev. Fr. A. Weachter as deacon, and Rev. Fr. Oscar Fries, O. F. M., as sub-deacon.

The three day services will consist of masses on Monday and Tuesday at 5, 7 and 8 o'clock, with holy communion distributed at the masses.

The evening services will consist of a sermon, benediction of the blessed sacrament and devotions appropriate for the occasion. Sunday evening, Rev. Fr. A. Weachter will preach the English sermon. Monday evening, Rev. Fr. A. C. Colgnard of Perkins will preach a sermon in French, and Tuesday evening, Rev. Fr. J. D. Breault of Bark River will speak in English.

Confessions will be heard Sunday afternoons and evenings after the services.

At the closing services Tuesday

Solon Arrested for Absence from State Legislature Meet

Lansing, April 1—(AP)—A sudden call of the senate today which demanded the presence of all senators, caught the auster Senator Thomas Read of Oceana county absent from the chamber. A hurriedly dispatched sergeant-at-arms caught the senator emerging from Gov. Fred Green's office and immediately placed him under arrest.

When arraigned before the judging body of the senate, the gentleman from Shelby was found guilty of negligence and gross dereliction of duty.

To the pleas he had been absent on state business, Lieut. Gov. Luren Dickinson opined that his absence might be excusable in a younger member but for one who has served both as lieutenant governor and speaker of the house, such action was most reprehensible.

His fate was consigned to the evening, seventy-five little girls and forty altar boys will join in the solemn procession.

none too gentle members of the senate election committee to which committee, Senator Read once attempted to send a bill, obviously intended for another committee.

It was also discovered that Senator Read's absence was doubly reprehensible inasmuch as he had, earlier in today's session, lectured the members on their apparent tendency to give immediate effect to all measures passed. The senate roll call had disclosed just two-thirds of the membership were present. The absence of Senator Read broke this number, rendering it impossible to continue giving immediate effect to measures passed.

Upon the disclosure that the date was as of April first, and the promise of cigars from the erring member, Senator Read was allowed to resume his seat.
