DRY QUESTION, NOT RELIGION, SMITH'S ISSUE

NEW YORK GOVERNOR PLEASES PARTY IN LETTER.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE (Copyright 1927, by the Escanaba Press) Washington, April 19.—Governor Al Smith's reply to Charles C. Marshall, declaring that he recognizes no power of the church to interfere with affairs of state presents the paradox of being welcomed by both the Democrats who are opposed to the governor's nomination for president as well as those who are outspokenly for him.

Screen Star Held During Death Probe

Hollywood, Cal., April 19.—(AP)—Paul Kelly, stage and screen actor, held for investigation following the death this morning of Ray Raymond, musical comedy actor, today told newspaper reporters that he and Raymond had engaged in a fist fight after Kelly had admitted that he was in love with Raymond's wife, Dorothy Mackay, actress.

CANTON PARTY SPLIT IN TWO BY CIVIL WAR

REDS FIGHT CONSERVATIVES IN NEW CONFLICT.

Shanghai, April 19.—(AP)—Actual warfare between the contending factions in the nationalist (Cantonese) ranks has started. Almost simultaneously with General Chiang's announcement of the principles on which he is establishing his government at Nanking, the Hankow government, described as the radical section of the Kuomintang (Cantonese political party) today issued a mandate dismissing Chiang Kai-Shek as commander-in-chief.

SNYDER TRIAL PICKS 1 JUROR

Second Day of Marathon Murder Case Closes Uneventfully.

New York, April 19.—(AP)—At the close of the second day of the examination of witnesses in the trial of Ruth Brown Snyder and Henry Judd Gray for the murder of Albert Snyder, only one juror had been selected. Since the trial opened Monday, more than four score prospective jurors have been examined.

General Feng Yu-Hsiang, the "Christian general" and leader of the Kuominchun or national people's party in northern China, was appointed as Chiang's successor. General Tang Seng-Chi, military governor of Honan, was named as associate generalissimo, and received orders to move his troops immediately towards Nanking to attack Chiang.

The severance of all relations with Nanking and Shanghai also was announced by the Hankow government.

Chiang's Position Clear. With these definite acts of belligerency between the warring sections of the Cantonese, General Chiang has made his position clear. From Nanking comes the information that the new government had its inception there at a great mass meeting, at which many notables spoke. Chiang himself declared that he was not establishing a new government, but merely removing the nationalist headquarters from Nanking, purging the Kuomintang of communists and seeking to bring about the return to the fundamental principles of the late Sun Yat-Sen.

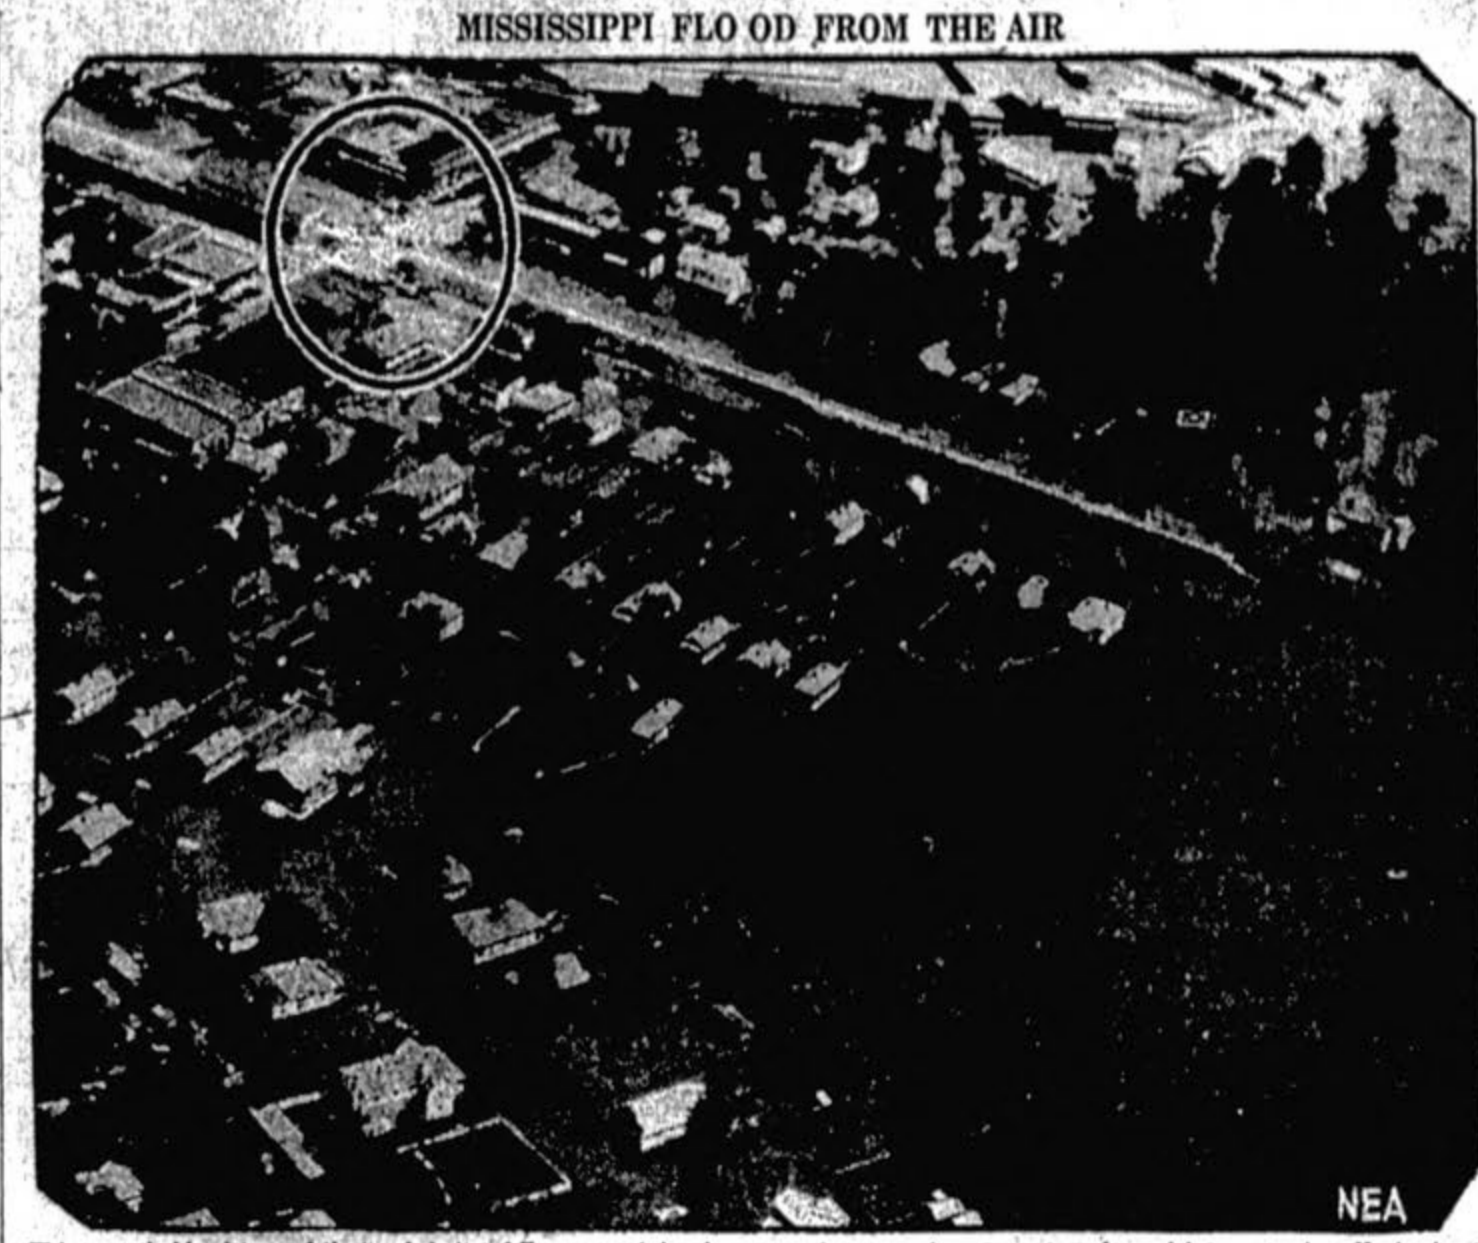

He emphasized three points: First, that the spirit of the revolution inaugurated by Sun Yat-Sen against the Manchurian regime must continue to inspire the people; second, that Nanking must be the capital for many reasons among them the fact that Sun Yat-Sen's mausoleum is there and also because the people must show that despite recent events the leaders were not afraid to establish the seat of government in that city; third, that the people must never be governed by military cliques or foreign oppression.

Lake Levels Bill Adopted by Senate

Lansing, April 19.—(AP)—The Truettner bill, by which Gogebic county seeks to control the level of Lake Gogebic and if necessary condemn the dam owned by the Victoria Mining company on the Ontonagon river in Ontonagon county was adopted by the senate today.

Senators James Wilcox of Ontonagon and Arthur Wood of Detroit voted against the bill. The bill amends a law by which the boards of supervisors of two or more counties in which lakes or streams, may petition the circuit court for condemnation of lands for dams or control of lake levels.

Though the bill is drawn with the view of settling the dispute in the upper peninsula the measure would affect the entire state.

NEW ROAD BILL IN COMMITTEE

Amended Finance Proposal Favors Poorer Counties.

Lansing, April 19.—(AP)—An amended highway finance proposal made its appearance in the house today, but it was quickly hauled into the roads and bridges committee. The general aviation committee reported the "amerson bill," amended to provide for a three-cent gasoline tax and the distribution of 7-16 of the weight tax revenues to the counties under the existing apportionment plan and 1-16 on a new basis which would aid the poorer counties. The smaller fund would be divided so the counties with the lowest valuation would receive five times as much as those of the largest valuation. Intervening counties would get four, three or two times as much as the wealthiest counties.

The measure in its amended form is favored by members from the districts which now levy a 6-mill tax for highway purposes—that is the poorer counties. Some farmer members, who are not opposed to the principle of the proposed apportionment, object to the bill because it increases the gasoline tax, but makes no provision for reducing weight levies.

Committee to Meet. The roads and bridges committee plans to meet Wednesday. The Leland three-cent gas tax bill which has passed the senate is before the committee. It is possible the senate measure will be amended to suit the ideas of house leaders and be reported instead of the Cameron bill.

A conflict developed among members of the Wayne delegation as to who shall appoint traffic judges under the Wardell bill authorizing the creation of municipal traffic courts. The measure provides appointments shall be by the council. An amendment was proposed by Representative John Simpson of Jackson, proposing to give the power to the mayor. Representatives Wardell, Charles Culver and others from Wayne opposed the amendment while Representative Matthew F. Callahan believed Mayor Smith should have the appointive power. He declared traffic violators in Detroit are being railroaded to prison because "one of the judges likes publicity." The amendment lost.

Clause Undesirable. A message from the executive office defeated the attempt of Representative Culver and others to attach an immediate effect clause to the DeBoer fireworks bill. Representative DeBoer stated the governor authorized him to say immediate effect was not desirable. If the measure was put into operation at once it would prohibit the sale or use of explosive firecrackers at once. As it was sent to the senate, without the immediate effect provision, it will not interfere with Fourth of July celebrations until 1928.

Poison Booze Kills 3 Iron Mountain Youths

Iron Mountain, April 19.—(Special)—Arthur LaFreniere, 27; Hugh Darrow, 26, and Harris England, 26, all of Iron Mountain are dead and authorities are investigating rumors that others are seriously ill as a result of drinking poisoned alcohol.

Darrow died Monday night at a local hospital less than an hour after being taken there. LaFreniere died at his home at 8 o'clock this morning and England died at his home at 1:35 this afternoon. All three had been ill for two or three days.

Last Wednesday afternoon Darrow and LaFreniere left here for Iron River where it is reported they drank copiously of alleged moonshine whiskey. The two returned to this city Saturday afternoon. It is believed that they joined England Saturday evening at a dance hall where all three indulged in heavy drinking. The three young men felt ill Sunday afternoon but did not believe they were poisoned. Darrow and England were confined to their homes but LaFreniere went to another dance where he collapsed. Monday morning the three were deathly sick but still did not believe that liquor was the cause.

$350,000 BLAZE WAS INCENDIARY

Former Truck Driver Confesses He Started Resort Fire.

Grand Rapids, April 19.—(AP)—Confession made by Earl Childs, 29, former truck driver, at Allegan today and outlined and confirmed to the satisfaction of officials later in the day when he was taken to the ruins of the $350,000 fire, paved the way for action by the state tonight to prosecute those who officers charged participated in the plot which led to the disastrous Macatawa Park summer resort cottage fire Thursday night. Childs picked two oil cans out of the ruins of the "Lind Dale" cottage, one of 24 that burned, and said they were the cans he emptied upon a pile of mattresses which was then fired with a slow wick.

In his confession, made to Sheriff Ben Lugten and Prosecutor Harry Pell, Childs told how he had gone to the park Thursday afternoon with the wick hidden in his car and how he had turned back and then gone to the resort a second time and finally set off the fire. He asserted that James L. Eckert, a former restaurant owner here, had engaged him to set the fire. Both he and Eckert are held under $5,000 bond following their arraignment in justice court at Allegan on arson charges.

Yale, Mich., April 19.—(AP)—Allen Main, farmer, was seriously injured tonight and several head of cattle hurt when a barn was blown down on the Main farm at Roseburg, during a severe wind and electrical storm tonight. Lightning struck at several other places in the vicinity of Roseburg.

CAL DISAVOWS HOOVER BREAK

Stories of Rift in Cabinet Unconditionally Vetoed.

Washington, April 19.—(AP)—The story of a rift between President Coolidge and Secretary Hoover was vetoed unconditionally today at the White House.

The president authorized the statement that he was so well satisfied with Mr. Hoover's administration and elsewhere that he rated him as well qualified for any position in the cabinet that he would be willing to accept. To this was added a complete disavowal that any disparagement was intended by the recent White House pronouncement eliminating Mr. Hoover as a possible successor to Secretary Kellogg, should the latter give up his post at the state department. It was declared this observation had been entirely misinterpreted.

The presidential disclaimer added a new and the White House hopes, a final chapter to an entrancing summer classic of Washington political gossip. For upwards of a week, stories of cabinet troubles have been passed about, now in one form and now in another. They proved the more engrossing to the politicians because of a long-standing but never authoritatively confirmed story that should Mr. Coolidge decide not to be a candidate for re-election, a considerable part of the administration forces would fall into line behind Mr. Hoover.

It was a spark which started the fast-spreading gossip about a split between the president's closest advisers in a quarter where the Coolidge foreign policies have not always been received with enthusiasm the hint was dropped that Secretary Hoover had some ideas of his own about the American attitude toward China, and that if his advice were followed things might be different. This hint was sufficient to start a guessing contest of great proportions, despite the fact that Mr. Hoover himself has disclosed only the most enthusiastic support for the administration's policy in the Far East and always has been counted as one of those on whose advice the president leans heavily in formulating his foreign policy.

Chesapeake & Ohio to Buy Two Roads

Richmond, Va., April 19.—(AP)—Stockholders of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway company today approved the plans of the board of directors for purchase of the Erie and Pere Marquette railroads. Authority for the merger is now being sought before the interstate commerce commission.

A minority report which in effect sought to prevent purchase of the road was defeated simultaneously with approval of the directors' report. Votes representing $10,437,000 were cast in favor of the merger, and 126,458 shares were voted against.

TWISTERS CUT PATH OF RUIN IN MID-STATE

25 DEAD, 200 HURT, MEAGER REPORTS DISCLOSE.

Springfield, Ill., April 19.—(AP)—Tearing a straight line through six central Illinois counties, a series of tornadoes and line squalls this afternoon brought death to upwards of two score persons, injury to 200 others, and left scores in a dozen communities homeless. Uncertainty colored all reports and gave rise to belief that further reports may send the fatality and injury figures higher, or eliminate some names from the list of dead. Where damage was heaviest wires are down, and definite reports are available only from those who are penetrating the territory over tree-strewn and water-soaked roads, by horse and wagon.

Among the communities reporting fatalities were: Carrollton, 8 killed and 12 injured. Bucalahart, 5 killed. Cornland, 3 killed. Clinton, 13 injured. Chestnut, 2 killed. Hardin, 1 killed. Centerville, 4 killed and 5 injured. Mt. Pulaski, 1 killed and 6 injured. Wrights, 5 killed and 2 injured. Laomi, 6 killed. Woodville, 2 killed. Kafer, 1 killed.

Series of Squalls. The freak storm started at the Mississippi river, and was described by weather bureau officials as a series of line squalls as distinguished from a tornado. School children were among the chief sufferers in today's storm. Three were reported to have been killed or injured when the storm wrecked rural schools elsewhere, according to fragmentary reports.

The storm, for the most part, struck small towns of 200 or 300 population, then descended again on villages and hamlets further away. Besides the loss of life, heavy property damage was done, but the damage did not approach the figure of the tornado of two years ago, when upwards of 800 persons were killed in the southern part of the state.

Much Property Damaged. Buildings were wrecked, trees uprooted and wire communications with the stricken districts virtually were cut off for several hours. Within an hour after first reports of the loss of life came from the storm-swept district, relief measures were under way. First aid was rendered by volunteer assistants who penetrated the damaged area from larger towns from 25 to 75 miles away. The Red Cross at St. Louis and at Chicago planned to send immediate help where it was most needed.

Many of the injured were taken to Jacksonville and other nearby towns. Early reports indicated that the damage would be more than $1,000,000. Doctors were sent into the stricken area from nearby towns. School Teacher Killed. One of the school buildings hit was at Centerville, three miles southwest of Carrollton, where Miss Annie Keller, the teacher, was reported dead and a half dozen or more injured. Two other school children were killed at Chestnut in Logan county when a school building was wrecked.

16 DEAD IN SOUTH. Kansas City, April 19.—(AP)—Sixteen more deaths were added today to the heavy toll of floods, tornadoes and freak storms that have swept the southwest in the last two weeks, as the elements renewed their onslaught in Kansas, western Missouri, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

Rivers in southeastern Kansas, fed by rains of cloudburst proportions, tonight neared record heights, with hundreds of families in the lowlands driven from their homes and thousands of acres inundated. The Verdigris, Neosho, Fall, Cottonwood, Walnut and Arkansas rivers in Kansas were spreading over the lowlands and pouring their waters into Oklahoma.

Negro Quartet Drown. Two negro men and two negro women, attempting to rescue a marooned family near Oklawaha, Okla., were drowned as their boat overturned. Twelve more lives were reported taken by tornadoes. Rescue parties returning to Hugo, Okla., late today said at least 10 persons lost their lives in southeastern Choctaw county last night. The known dead were Jim Brewer and his family of six, who lived on the Kiamichi river.

Sapiro Charges Ford Agents are Tampering With Libel Suit Jury

Detroit, April 19.—(AP)—Chaos took possession of Aaron Sapiro's $1,000,000 libel suit against Henry Ford today and shrouded its status after next Thursday in extreme uncertainty. Court was adjourned until then upon the plea of counsel for the automobile manufacturer that their leader, Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, would be unable to appear before that time because of illness, and with the request was coupled the formal serving of notice that the alleged official misconduct of a woman juror would be the ground for a motion for a mistrial. Sapiro's chief of counsel, William Henry Gallagher, countered with assertions that Ford detectives had meddled with the jurors, that the defense's case had collapsed and that the Ford attorneys had disregarded propriety in conferring privately with Judge Fred M. Raymond, but did not renew his motion for a mistrial made and denied several days. Two protracted secret confer-

RETAILERS FIND BOOKS CLOSED

Ford Refuses to Reveal Information About Chain Stores.

Relief parties estimated that 50 persons had been injured in adjacent areas in north Texas and southeastern Oklahoma. Mrs. Fannie McCutcheon, 30, was killed by a twister that struck Granger, Tex. Several persons were injured.

Detroit, April 19—(AP)—Members of the committee of the Michigan Retail Dealers association, recently invited to inspect the Ford food and merchandise commissaries to learn how the concerns operate at a profit and at the same time undersell retail merchants, have as yet obtained no such information.

Hivers Run Wild. The rampaging Cottonwood river late today was running through the streets of Saffordville and Plymouth, Kans., while Dunlap on the Neosho was marooned and boats were being used on the main street.

Mr. Brown said the committee had been given to understand that the books of the commissaries would be thrown open for their inspection, in connection with the announcement that the Ford concerns netted a profit of $400,000 last year.

England Soon to Make One Radio Hop to Australia

Sydney, Australia—(NEA)—Work on the beam wireless system which will link Australia, Canada and England is well under way according to U. S. Trade Commissioner E. G. Babbitt, here.

The Ford stores were closed to the public last Saturday after a protest meeting called by the association. The meeting was held for the purpose of taking action against the Ford organization which speakers declared was forcing small food and merchandising retailers out of business.

Authorities Seek Persons Who Set High School Fire

Almont, Mich., April 19—A reward of $500 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the persons who fired the Almont high school building last night was offered by the school board today simultaneous with indications from Lansing that the state fire marshal's office would investigate the blaze which destroyed the building, the scene last week of a student strike.

Indications today were that the fire started under a stairway on the first floor of the building. An empty kerosene can was found in the basement of the building and the doors to the building were open when firemen arrived.

Farmers' Attacker Killed by Posse

Grand Rapids, April 19—(AP)—Joe Williams, alias Roy Gulliver, 35, who yesterday with William Boynton, 34, Belmont, Mich., bound and attacked Mrs. Dan Reichelt in Solon township and later bound her husband and brother-in-law at the point of a gun was shot and killed at the farm house of Ed Koehle, two miles from the scene of the attack this afternoon.

SENATOR FACES FRAUD CHARGE

Bahorski Arrested by Van Buren Sheriff in Capitol.

Lansing, April 19—(AP)—Senator Joseph Bahorski of Detroit, was served with a warrant in the state capitol today by Sheriff Glenn C. Weaver of Van Buren county charged with "fraudulently obtaining a signature to an instrument." He was taken to Paw Paw for confinement in the county jail there.

His attempt to avoid arrest under the immunity granted members of the legislature failed when Robert Cavanaugh, Van Buren county prosecutor pointed out that his alleged offense constituted a felony.

The warrant was signed by John Burns of Paw Paw, who claimed that Senator Bahorski vouched for the responsibility of one, Charles V. King, who, with Burns, signed bonds of $3,000 each for William Murdock and Henry Lee, charged with illegally transporting liquor.

Quit claim deeds for property said to have been valued at $15,000 were offered by King for bond, Weaver claims. The two prisoners were released and disappeared, causing forfeiture of the bonds. Later, Weaver says, the deeds were found to be fraudulent.

Senator Bahorski denies vouching for the responsibility of King and claims he was only acting as attorney for the alleged bootleggers. Senator Seth Q. Pulver of Owosso has offered to serve as Senator Bahorski's attorney.

William E. Robb of Howell, secretary of the Howell Automobile Insurance company, followed Bahorski to Paw Paw for the purpose of furnishing bail for the senator. Bahorski's hearing will be held in justice court at Paw Paw immediately after the present session of the legislature, it has been agreed.

"Peaches" Browning Bested in Argument

Chicago, April 19—(AP)—Frances "Peaches" Browning, who recently lost a husband and a lawsuit, today lost an argument. A traffic officer arrested Al Mann, son of Fred Mann, at whose cabaret "Peaches" is dancing, for speeding while the girl was riding with him.

She argued so vociferously about her companion's arrest that the officer also arrested her on a charge of disorderly conduct. She furnished $500 bond.

The woman said Compton and her husband had been drinking, soon got into a violent quarrel, and in the fight that ensued the husband knocked Compton down and killed him by trampling the fallen man's head under his heels.

Another Fight for Death Bill Planned

Lansing, April 19—(AP)—Senator Arthur E. Wood of Detroit today announced his intention of making a motion at Wednesday's session of the senate which would, if passed, take from the senate judiciary committee the Armstrong-Palmer capital punishment bill.

Repeated attempts of proponents of capital punishment, including a petition signed by members of the senate, to secure consideration on the floor of this issue, have failed. In announcing his intended action Senator Wood asked that the senate believe he did not intend to pass any slur upon the judgment of those members of the seven-man committee which had blocked consideration of capital punishment.

Representative Joseph C. Armstrong of Detroit, whose name is attached to the bill now in the senate committee, said Senator Wood's action receives his support. "We are through throwing flowers and are ready to use the club," he said.

Senate Approved Gun Toting Bill

Lansing, April 19—(AP)—A gun toting bill known as the Pulver-Wojcik bill, was adopted unanimously by the senate today.

Under its provisions all pistols in the state would have to be registered by presenting them to the chief of police or sheriff by November 1, 1927.

The bill is a redraft drawn by Robert M. Toms, Wayne county prosecutor, substituting the Wojcik bill which was returned to the house today to clear the way for the new measure.

Wholesale or retail dealers in firearms and collectors of guns as relics, souvenirs or antiques, are exempted.

To those desiring to obtain a pistol a license must be obtained from the chief of police in cities or the sheriff outside of cities. This license bearing full descriptions must be returned by the dealer and placed on file. Felons and minors under the age of 19 years would be prohibited from purchasing or carrying such arms.

WASHINGTON IS NATION'S GUIDE

D. A. R. Speaker Says His Speeches Influence Country.

Washington, April 19—(AP)—George Washington's speeches and state papers still are guide posts in the conduct of American governmental affairs. Mrs. Albert J. Brossseau, president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, declared today in a Mount Vernon ceremony by the society's annual continental congress, in which wreaths were laid on the tombs of the first president and his wife.

"Washington lived the ordinary span of man's life measured in years," she said. "But in fame and influence he has never died. Every year adds to the lustre of his name and the potency of his deeds."

To the woman of the United States, Mrs. Brossseau said, Martha Washington is "the exemplar of all that is highest and finest in American womanhood."

Mrs. Brossseau and the other national officers of the society tonight held a reception for members of congress.

Mrs. Eliza Ferry Leary of the state of Washington was a vice chairman of the committee in charge of the Washington tomb ceremony.

At the morning business session, the congress adopted a resolution reaffirming its faith in the Bible and urging wider use of the Scriptures in the public schools.

North-Western to Shut Down Shops Here for a Week

Escanaba shops of the Chicago & North-Western will shut down next Saturday night for one week, it was announced in bulletins posted here yesterday. Approximately 140 men are affected, officials said. The order was also said to affect North-Western shops in six other cities of the system. Fear of a coal shortage, due to the suspension of work in the union mines of the central west was given as one cause of the move on the part of the company, and the men were told they would be recalled to their jobs as quickly as conditions made resumption of work possible. The order affects departments known as the "back shops" here. The roundhouse and car department will continue to operate, it was said.

TWO TRAINS TO BE TAKEN OFF

Protests of Escanaba Citizens Unheeded by the C. & N. W.

Official announcement was received from the central offices of the Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, at Chicago, by the Peninsula division offices here yesterday, of the formal order for the discontinuance of Train No. 221, which arrives in Escanaba from Chicago each morning at 8:35 o'clock, as a daily train and providing for the operation of that train on Sunday only, effective Sunday, April 24. In operation the order will provide Escanaba with but a single daily train from Chicago each morning, instead of two morning trains, excepting on Sundays, when trains will arrive here from Chicago, as in the past, at 4:30 a. m. and 8:35 a. m. The discontinuance of Train No. 221, as a daily, has been protested vigorously by the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce and it is likely that other organizations will take similar action in an effort to bring about a revocation of the Chicago order.

Also, under the new general time table received here yesterday and made effective next Sunday, Train No. 10 which now leaves Escanaba each morning at 6:30 o'clock, for Bowers, to connect with the Iron Range train, will be operated on Sundays only.

Train No. 214, which now leaves Escanaba each morning at 7:05 o'clock excepting Sundays, will leave Escanaba at 8:45 o'clock, each morning, excepting Sundays, to provide the Iron Range connection for Escanaba

CHRYSLER

Now 4th of World's Great Companies

Swept past all but three in dollar volume by public endorsement

MOTOR car figures for the last six months of last year and the first few months of this, register an amazing reversal of public opinion.

After three years Chrysler has been swept by popular approval from twenty-seventh to fourth place—led only by one great independent manufacturer and by two units of a corporate group.

The Chrysler watchword from the very first has been emphasis upon quality rather than quantity—but quantity has rolled up in ever increasing volume as a result of this outstanding Chrysler quality.

In the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, after only three years of public history, Chrysler has been swept in recent months past all but two individual cars which are units in a corporate group of seven cars.

No such realigning has taken place since automobiles were first built; and yet the process is strictly in line with the public disposition to approve and admire individual initiative, to recognize and reward engineering progressiveness and valorous disregard for out-worn traditions.

Because nothing like it has ever happened before in the history of motor cars, the moral is so plain that there is nothing left for the discriminating buyer to do but learn through actual riding and personal experience why Chrysler has registered this amazing advance.

The four great Chrysler Cars are themselves the strongest evidence of the new standard and new qualities of performance and long life which have brought about such an amazing readjustment in America's greatest manufacturing industry.

DAUGHTERS OF MIDAS

CHAPTER XXVII

Anger at Clay's curt refusal of her request that he return to the home of his father, and thus make unnecessary the strange contest by which T. Q. would choose a daughter and an heiress to his fortune, carried Billy Wells on a high tide of furious resolve, until it landed in her own bedroom.

Viola, the maid who had been assigned by Mrs. Meadows to look after the girls' clothes and to help them with their dressing when needed, told her that Nyda and Winnie had not yet returned. Dinner was to be at seven. It was now a few minutes after six.

"Violet or rose bath salts, Miss Billy?" the colored maid's coaxing voice called from the bathroom. She liked the girls, particularly Winnie and Billy, because they did not "rits" her, as did Nyda.

"Both," Billy answered absently. The maid's giggle jerked her to her feet. She padded to the big four poster bed and frowningly inspected the dress which Viola had laid out for her.

"Bath ready, Miss Billy. I heard Miss Nyda bangin' the door to her room." Viola dragged past the bed on slow, reluctant feet. "Reckon I better go see kin I help her dress. She powerful hard to please, Miss Billy."

"Tell her and Miss Shelton I want to see them both here in my room before they go down for dinner, Viola. Tell them it's extremely important."

She was relaxing in the seductive warmth of her rose-scented bath when Viola knocked softly upon the door.

"Miss Nyda won't lemme in," the colored girl called in a frightened voice. "She cryin'." Miss Billy, Miss Winnie ain't come in yet.

"All right, Viola. I'll go to Miss Lomax's room as soon as I'm out of my bath. Thank you. Oh, say, you might brush the toes of my shoes with a little of that silver shoe polish, if you don't mind."

When she had bathed, she thrust her bare feet into a new pair of blue satin mules, stopping on a gauzy envelope, chemise of white chiffon, shivered a bit with sensuous delight at the feel of the exquisite material on her skin, then wrapped a robe about her, and scurried to Nyda's room. She knocked. There was no answer, but she heard the muffled sound of weeping.

"It's me—Billy," she called softly through the keyhole. "Please let me in, Nyda. There's something terribly important I must tell you—immediately."

There was the sound of feet thudding from bed to floor, and in a moment a stormy-eyed, disheveled-haired Nyda opened the door stungly, holding it defensively. "I've got to come in, Nyda. I'm awfully sorry if you don't want me. Are you in trouble? Can't I help you, honey?"

"Oh, well," Nyda allowed the little figure to slip in under her arm. "I suppose I've got to dress for dinner. There's nothing the matter. I'm just blue."

Nyda ripped open the snaps of her one-piece Chanel-red velvet dress and drew it over her head, tossing it petulantly upon the notice lounge. But Billy did not notice where the dress landed. Her eyes were fixed in horror on Nyda's shoulder, a bruise that had evidently been freshly and violently placed there.

Billy glanced at the spot that held Nyda's eye in fascinated horror, then clasped a trembling hand upon it, while her eyes glared at Billy with animal-like fury. "Spying on me! Can't you mind your own business? I—I hurt myself. Got thrown against the door of a car when it almost turned over. Quit staring at me, you little fool!"

"What in the world are you two quarrelling about?" Winnie's gay voice caroled from the door, which the two girls had not heard her open.

"I'm glad you're here, Winnie," Billy answered quietly, though her blue eyes were blazing with scorn of Nyda. "I've got something to tell you both. It may make you feel better, Nyda," she added, her voice softening, for she knew that the black-eyed beauty was merely taking out her rage at Eddie Banning upon the first innocent bystander. But why had Eddie Banning struck Nyda?

"I've got loads to tell you, too," Winnie laughed exultantly. "Oh, girl, I've learned to skate! Dal says I'm a natural-born stunt skater! Honestly! He's a marvelous teacher, simply divine! I could have skated forever, with his arms about me." Billy had an insane desire to choke that pretty, soft white neck.

IN NEW YORK

New York.—Manhattan's latest fad is a ship club moored at a pier along the Hudson.

The membership is made up largely of "big names" from Broadway and others from the wealthy "who's who" who become bored with the commonplace in diversion. It is a three-masted old schooner and has been rigged up with a dance floor, club rooms and living compartments. When the warm weather comes it will cruise about the Hudson and around the sound.

Actors who have shows, to reach will be taken ashore in special launches, while those who want to rest "at sea" over Sunday can pick up the ship by launch connection and spend a week-end on the water.

The dock where it is tied throngs with an army of curious ones trying to peer into its mysteries, if any. It is operated as any other club, with restricted membership list, dues and all such.

Another "new racket" of the big street, and one that is causing more than a little concern, is the bars, operating more or less openly with accommodations for women.

Variety, the theatrical newspaper, picturesquely refers to this modern variant on the old "dance hall girl" of the Barbary Coast in San Francisco as "liquor-line Lulus." The difference is that the old dance hall girls did not drink half as much as they appeared to. Furthermore their trade was definitely branded.

In the Broadway resorts appear flappers of suspicious years who actually pour down all the grog that comes their way and ask no questions concerning the purchaser. They never buy their own, excepting the gratuity of any stranger. Warning that such proceedings will end in one of the big scandals of Broadway have thus far gone unheeded and, I have it from good authority, the boldness of operations has been steadily increasing.

Most of these girl and women patrons are not of the Broadway neighborhood, but members of the new gin generation which has leaped to do its heavy and violent drinking at the modern cocktail parties. The price they are asked to pay before the evening has passed is obvious, and there is no indication that have been unwilling.

Three girls begin a hidden, desperate struggle to win a fortune, while Billy Wells find it worth while?

Garbage

A clean city is not alone governed by the appearance of the streets or that property fronting on the streets. The alleys and rear yards are the indicators, as to the sanitary condition of the properties.

One factor that will aid the accomplishment of good sanitary conditions about the city are:

- 1. Fly tight garbage cans.
2. Wrap all garbage in paper before depositing in garbage cans.
3. Keep garbage can in yard where it is accessible to garbage collectors.
4. Always keep cover tightly on can.

All stores selling garbage cans have agreed to allow a 15% discount on these cans purchased during the month of April.

PLEAS SHORTEN TERM OF COURT

Torval Brandt Convicted of Simple Assault Yesterday.

Torval Brandt of Bay de Noc township, was found guilty of "simple assault" by a jury in circuit court yesterday. It was charged by the state that Brandt broke a window in the home of Andrew Reinholdsen, an aged man in whose home Brandt's divorced wife was housekeeper, crawled through the window with a rifle in his hand and threatened Reinholdsen. Brandt admitted breaking the window and entering the house with a rifle but denied that he assaulted anyone.

Members of the jury were: Oscar Nelson, B. D. Brophy, John Logan, George Krause, E. A. Laux, Frank Forest, William Folio, George Walker, Edith Drading, Charles Green, James J. Ray and Arthur Thompson.

John Alfred "Long Ear" Johnson, whose forgery case was scheduled to follow the Brandt case, sprung a surprise by appearing in court and entering a plea of guilty to one count against him. Almost immediately afterward it was announced that the court would be asked to nolle the case of Arthur Deroshier, charged with possession of liquor, because information had been received that the liquor did not belong to Deroshier.

Then More Pleas.

Then pleas of guilty were entered by Julius Carlson to larceny, John Marcello to violation of the prohibition law, and Anthony Doutré to desertion and abandonment. This, Prosecutor Glenn W. Jackson announced, virtually completed the criminal calendar and forecast an abrupt end to what had promised to be a rather lengthy term.

Three law cases remained on the docket for the attention of the jury late yesterday afternoon.

Cold Weather to Follow Tuesday's Heavy Rainfall

Rain, totalling nearly an inch fell in Escanaba yesterday morning followed Monday's extremely mild temperature, and a cold blast is on the way, it was said yesterday at the government weather station. The thermometer registered 63 degrees Monday. This was warmer than usual, for April, but it fell far short of the April record of 81 degrees established in 1915. Below-freezing temperatures, reported in the Northwest yesterday, are sweeping this way and there is a strong probability that the mercury here also will drop below the freezing mark. H. H. Spindler, local weather observer said.

CARS SHINED INSIDE; $100 PLUS COSTS

Chris Johnson of the Danforth hill is spending 30 days in the county jail as a result of Judge Henry Ranguette's decision of his paying a fine of $100 and costs of 30 days in jail for driving while drunk.

Johnson was arrested Sunday afternoon by members of the police department when the car which he was driving smashed into the curb at the corner of Third avenue north and Fourteenth street, smashing two wheels on the right side of the car.

He was given a preliminary examination before Judge Ranguette Monday night.

The creation of an entirely new series of color combinations for the Greater Oakland Six is a typical instance of Oakland progressiveness. Mechanically, the Greater Oakland Six represents the supreme achievement in the Oakland price field. It provides elements of stamina and endurance seemingly beyond belief—as demonstrated by the brilliant manner in which it completed the 100,000 mile treadmill test that preceded the transcontinental run it is now in the course of completing. Yet today the Greater Oakland Six embodies not only all the advantages of rigidly controlled quality, but also the freshness of new colors in Duco. Come in! See how these new colors in Duco now add an extra measure of value to the Greater Oakland Six.

Escanaba and St. Ignace will be linked by a rapid motor bus service if a permit to operate a line between Manistique and Escanaba is granted one of the two applicants by the Public Utilities Commission. Hearings on applications for permits filed with the commission by the St. Ignace-Manistique Bus company and by W. J. Heslop of Gladstone were heard by Commissioner Rolph Duff at Sault Ste. THEATRES

AT THE LYRIC.
 Adolphe Menjou may remain Uncle Sam's suave sophisticate, Harold Lloyd should keep on as America's perennial playboy, Jack Holt, can continue upholding the honor of the West, Babe Daniels may well stay on as Hollywood's joyful tomboy but— as for Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton—let them continue to be the screen's funniest comedy team, in films similar to 1926's "Fun Fest," "Behind the Front."

And so—the picture which arrives at the Lyric Theatre today and Thursday traces the lives of a prize fighter and his manager from the day they innocently join the Navy till their final return to the ring. If you don't believe it to be chuck full of shrieks, listen to one typical situation.

AT THE COMMUNITY.
 The new William de Mille production for Paramount, "Men and Women," adapted for the screen by Clara Bowler from the stage success by the same name by David Belasco and Henry C. DeMille, will be shown at the Community theatre today.

Richard Dix, Neil Hamilton, Claire Adams and Robert Edison are featured in the cast. Hamilton plays an assistant bank cashier (Dix is the cashier), who plunges in Wall Street and cleans up a neat sum. His broker gets Dix interested in a deal, and the cashier uses some bank securities to put the thing over.

Talks on Health
 By Dr. Morris Fishbein

COD LIVER OIL WILL END DANGER OF RICKETS.

There was a time when rickets affected as many as 50 to 80 per cent of all children. In this disease the long bones do not grow properly; the child becomes emaciated, restless and irritable; its muscles are flabby, and for this reason it develops a "pot-belly."

Along the sides of the chest where the bones of the ribs meet the cartilages little knobs appear, giving the appearance of what is known as the "rickety rosary." Such children have "chicken breasts." The head bones are deformed and present a square-headed appearance.

The bones of the arms and legs bend and the child becomes knock-kneed or bow-legged; it may even develop a twisted spine. Such a child is especially susceptible to infection, and rickety children do not ordinarily live long.

One of the greatest discoveries of modern times is the determination of the fact that this disease is due to the absence from the body of vitamin D, which seems to control the use in the body of calcium and of phosphorus, and also to the absence of sunlight, of which the ultraviolet rays seem to be definitely associated with the production of vitamin D.

Vitamin D is especially abundant in cod liver oil. Today physicians recognize that this substance should be given regularly to all children, particularly during the winter months. Expectant mothers and nursing mothers are also urged to take cod liver oil so that the important substance may reach the child through them. This vitamin appears also in butter and in egg yolk, but not in such quantities as are available in cod liver oil.

Rickets is rare in tropical countries because the skin of people in such places is exposed to the ultraviolet rays of the sun. It has been learned that these rays will not pass through ordinary window glass, but that quartz glass will permit their passage.

The British Medical Research Council has given special attention to vitamin D. Mr. Webster and Dr. Rosenheim of that organization have found it possible to develop vitamin D in the substance known as cholesterol by exposing that substance to ultraviolet light.

The farmer knows now that cod liver oil, food subjected to the ultraviolet rays and the use of the mercury vapor lamp may be of importance in increasing the egg-laying capacity of hens. Furthermore, investigators have found that a relative deficiency of vitamin D results in much more decay of the teeth, in slowing their development and, in general, harm to the dental structures.

EASTER BALL BIG SUCCESS

Trainmen Entertain at Thirty-Fourth Annual Dance.

One of the most successful and enjoyable parties of the year was that held Monday night, when Goodwill Lodge, No. 103, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, entertained at their 34th annual Easter Monday ball.

The party was held in the Community auditorium and was attended by a large crowd, including visitors from Escanaba, Rapid River and other nearby places, as well as Gladstone guests.

The auditorium was decorated in an attractive and clever scheme worked out by the committee and its assistants. Colors used on the railroad were used in streamers, combining the railroad signal flags and banners and lighted lanterns in the decorations. Just outside the entrance to the auditorium was a miniature caboose with the lanterns and this effect was also carried out on the stage. Semaphores on the stage were used as a novel means of indicating the dances. Colored lights used for the waltzes completed the attractive scheme.

Billy Bink's Arcadians, seven-piece orchestra, furnished exceptionally fine program of dance music with members of the orchestra, accomplishing entertainers, varying the program: Square dances and circular two-steps were included in the program. Rufus Dunn calling for these. The dance program began at 9 o'clock and continued until 2:30 o'clock.

Roses in shades of pink and red were presented to the ladies. The party was in every respect a decided success and great credit is due the committee. Archie Cowan, chairman; W. S. Hoellp and R. L. Smith, and their assistants.

LEGION WILL OFFER $5,000 FOR HOSPITAL

W. L. Middlebrook of Manistique was re-elected chairman of the Schoolcraft county board of supervisors at the opening of their regular April session at the court house Tuesday morning.

With Supervisor Middlebrook again installed in the chair, and all members of the board present, the officials proceeded at once with the business at hand.

Correspondence read included communications asking for local support for the Turner bill, by which Schoolcraft county, which receives $4,773 in school money, and also the crippled children's aid bill now pending in the legislature.

It was indicated that both measures would receive the backing of the local board. The matter of additional fare charges now being made on the state-owned ferry at the straits was brought up for discussion, and the Schoolcraft supervisors joined with other counties of the upper peninsula in making a protest against the added tax.

Dine at Poorhouse. It was announced that all members of the board, together with court house officials, would be guests of the poor commission at a 12 o'clock dinner served at the county house yesterday.

At the afternoon session, the supervisors heard a few facts on the county agent question, as presented by E. G. Amos, a former resident of this city, now at the head of the upper peninsula county farm agents.

Schoolcraft county has been without an agricultural leader for the past three years, and a movement has been started to re-instate this office. A local committee appeared before the board to ask that they reconsider their recent action and again authorize the engaging of a competent agricultural representative. The board has promised to give the matter due consideration.

Will Urge Hospital. Another important matter to be brought before the board is a proposal for a city and county hospital. The local American Legion has offered the county a cash gift of $5,000 to be used expressly for hospital purposes.

The only stipulation made by the Legion men is that the hospital be known as the American Legion Memorial hospital, and that two rooms be reserved for the free use of the ex-service men and their families or dependents.

The Legion offer will be submitted to the board today by E. R. Monroe and A. O. Dredahl, a special committee from the veterans' organization.

Nervous Wreck Is in Town Tonight. Picture fans in Manistique like outdoor pictures and feature comedies. That's why the local Woman's club has chosen "The Nervous Wreck" for their benefit attraction at the Gero theater today.

This offering combines the two popular features. It is an abridged version of a festival of the locale, and is also a comedy of the first water, featuring Harrison Ford, Phyllis Haver, Chester Conklin, Mack Swain and Hobart Bosworth.

A huge Spanish hacienda was built in the Santa Monica mountains as a location for much of the action. This hacienda differed widely from the average western home, being a replica of the palatial residence of a large western landholder whose property is nearly as extensive as some of the smaller eastern states.

Another rancho was erected on the Christie location at Westwood, complete in its duplication of the many buildings found on a cattle ranch. This was erected at greater expense than a location trip to Arizona would have entailed, in order to take advantage of certain lighting equipment and technical facilities only available in the studio area of Los Angeles.

missionary is wooed from the purpose, with which he set out and, quite unaware of what is happening to him, is slowly converted by the natives. It all comes about through the influence of the affection and child-like Luell, a native boy whom Mr. Fortune has come to think about as his first—not only—convert. That Luell is not converted to anything except a strong attachment to the white man is shown in many amusing ways, and the fact that the good missionary has come to see religion in a new light is developed in a faintly mocking manner up to the time of the earthquake which rocks the little island whereafter he comes to a realization of his dereliction and speeds himself away convinced that he has cast aside God.

Conscience Bothers This Man; Pays His Bill after 31 Years

Writing all the way from Aberdeen, Wash., a man past middle age has just paid a board bill which he "jumped" in Manistique 31 years ago.

In those days, with board at $14 a month, a young man put up at the John Larson home in this city. After staying for nearly a month, he left for parts unknown leaving his board bill unpaid. Recently Mrs. Larson unexpectedly received a letter from the man, in which inquiries were made as to his former landlady's whereabouts. The desired information was supplied, and this week Mrs. Larson received $10 in payment of the board bill contracted way back in 1895.

BY THE NEA BOOK SURVEY. As the second volume to be broadcast to its widely scattered list of subscribers, the recently born Literary Guild of America has chosen, most happily, Sylvia Warner's "Mr. Fortune's Maggot."

The prospect of a so slyly satirical and civilized tale getting an audience, it perhaps could not otherwise hope for, makes one a bit grateful to these newly arrived mediums for the distribution of literature. It seems to us the imperative duty of these various book clubs to make their selections, not from the beaten path, but from those rare and sparkling efforts that might otherwise get lost in the shuffle and which deserve a wide audience and a wide appreciation.

Selecting some obviously sure-fire product as "Elmer Gantry," for instance, seems almost a waste of time. The Lewis opus needs no distribution agency outside its own publishers; it is certain to be read by almost everybody.

But about a season ago there crept quietly from England a few thousand hold-overs from an English publishing house under the title of "Lolly Willows," a bit so charming that blasé critics grinned their delight and wondered who the Dickens this Warner woman might be.

About a Missionary. Since this seems to be an open season for missionaries, evangelists and such, let us hasten to announce that Mrs. Warner's second book is about a missionary, but he is no Gantry. He is a kindly, timid soul who has been worked almost to exhaustion in a South Sea mission until he gets his precious assignment to the tranquil, sequestered island of Fanua. He is warned in advance that the brown-skinned natives of Fanua are not easy to deal with; they are a people who have in their language no such words as chastity and gratitude. They are veritable children, living in the life, completely unused to any of the complexities of the white man and with a religion so simple and a viewpoint so simple that they are bound to prove disarming to any but the most hardened religious zealot, which Mr. Fortune is.

Whether or not he is a better Christian for his experiences will be left to the reader. Our own reaction was one of frequent delight at the author's abilities, to say nothing of the shrewd delicacy of her sermon.

Cleveland's Errors Costly, Detroit Wins, 8 to 5

MILLER POOR RELIEF HURLER

Stoner for Tigers Holds Indians in Check Until Seventh.

Cleveland, April 19—(AP)—Poor relief pitching by Miller and three costly errors gave the Detroit Tigers the final game and the series today, the score being 8 to 5. Stoner held the Indians in check until the seventh while Cleveland's errors had given Detroit the lead and the game in the same inning.

Jackie Warner, Tiger third baseman, proved the hero of the game. He drove in four of Detroit's eight runs. Warner came to bat in the sixth with runners on second and third and his drive through short sent both home. Again in the seventh, with the bases filled, he hit through Lutzke and Sewell and produced two more runs.

Despite the fact that today's game was the first in which Lili Stoner had been allowed to go more than four innings, he acquitted himself creditably. He was effective for six innings and then with his team leading, 3 to 2, he let down a trifle and allowed Cleveland two runs on two singles and a double.

Cleveland also bunched a single and a double in the eighth to score another but Stoner settled down again in the ninth and escaped without damage despite a pass and an error by McManus.

An error by Joe Sewell made it possible for the Tigers to count twice in the opening inning, but Benny Karr kept his adversaries well in hand until the sixth when Wagner drove in the two markers.

Manager McCallister then yanked Karr and substituted Miller—a fatal action. The Tigers, aided by an error by Lutzke, counted four runs, sufficient to win the game. Miller, a southpaw, walked one, hit one and allowed three hits.

be wet, the majority of their delegations would control the casting of the ballots of their respective states by the unit rule.

If the Democratic party gets into a prohibition discussion, the chances of Al Smith being nominated are by no means bright, for there is a dry strength holding one third of the voting power of the state delegations sufficient to block his nomination. If the New York governor eliminates the prohibition issue and declares he will be guided by whatever platform is adopted and will not seek to impose his personal views, there will be a better chance of his winning delegates.

Year Until Convention.

The religious controversy has reached its climax fully a year in advance of the convention and has focused attention on prohibition. It is the only real barrier between Al Smith and the nomination and on the way he endeavors to overcome it will depend his opportunities for victory at the next national convention.

"Cy" Williams knocked out his third homer of the year in the third inning. Dazy Vance started in the box for Brooklyn, and was succeeded by Ehrhardt. It was the seventh defeat out of eight starts for the Robins this season. The Score:

BRAVES TAKE TWO.

Boston, April 19—(AP)—The Braves did their best to celebrate Patriot's Day, Boston's own holiday by trouncing the Giants by scores of 9 to 5 in the morning contest and 5 to 4 in the afternoon. A crowd of 35,000 witnessed the closing fray. New York knotted the count with two runs in the eighth only to have Boston push across what proved to be the winning run in their part of the frame on a single by Moore, an error by Farrell in trying to complete a double play and Burns' single.

THE INSIDE OF BASEBALL

1. What player first stole a base?
2. When was the National League organized?
3. In what year was the present size baseball adopted?
4. What was the pitching distance in the first year of the National League?
5. What was the rule on balls and strikes at that time?

THIS TELLS IT.

1. Eddie Culbert stole third in a game between the Keystones of Philadelphia and the Atlantics of Brooklyn in 1865.
2. In 1876 at Louisville, Ky. Organization was completed in New York at a later date.
3. In 1872 it was agreed the ball should weigh not less than five nor more than five and one-quarter ounces and must not measure less than nine or more than nine and one-quarter inches in circumference. It has never been changed.
4. The distance was 45 feet.
5. Three strikes and nine balls.

Manistique Bows to Esky Bowlers

Manistique Bows to Esky Bowlers

A pall has descended over the camp of the Manistique Elks, while their brother Escanabans are hilarious today, for the confident Schoolcrafters went down to ignominious defeat at the Arcade alleys last night before the terrific onslaught of their arch rivals. At the end of what shall go down in the book of time as a historic conflict, Escanaba was sitting securely on top of the heap, 7099 to 6789, a difference of 310 pins.

Carefully schooled in psychology, Escanaba started the match with a rush, spilling 2532 pins to their opponents' 2262. In the second game Manistique's bashful bowlers regained their self-confidence somewhat and closed up the gap, Escanaba still leading, however, 2407 to 2245.

Then time out was called between the second and third games by Manistique. The Schoolcrafters emerged from a secret pep session with eyes flashing and faces grim. Slowly and cautiously they advanced the crucial test. Strikes and spares were chalked up with monotonous regularity where blows and splits appeared before. It was a heroic rally, Manistique winning, 2282 to 2160, but the lead piled in the two previous games was not overcome.

BILLY EVANS SAYS

BILLY EVANS SAYS

OPPORTUNITY IN SPORT.

They say that opportunity comes but once in a lifetime in any line of endeavor.

If that holds true for sport, Johnny Risko, Cleveland heavyweight fighter, has had the big chance and failed to take advantage of it.

If mere physique, courage and a love of the game was all that was needed to be a champion, Johnny Risko would be at the top of the heavyweight division today.

However, a keen mind, the ability to wage a battle that will combat the style of milling of an opponent, and cleverness, play a part in the modern fight game.

Johnny Risko in this respect knows but one thing, fight, and he turns on the same brand of stuff for the clever boxer or the rugged mixer.

His plan of battle is to keep forcing the fight, throw punches from any and all angles and never back up.

That system is all right for the spectator, because it insures him plenty of action but only a very few fighters have reached the top through such methods.

THREE SENSATIONAL BOUTS.

Just one year ago at this time, Johnny Risko was just about the most talked about fighter in the country.

At Madison Square Garden he had decisively beaten the great Paul Berlenbach, then light heavyweight champion, New York's most popular fighter. Risko had beaten Berlenbach at his own game, slugging.

A few months prior to this bout, I had witnessed Risko giving Gene Tunney the fight of his life. True, Tunney beat Risko all the way, but he had to fight every minute and show all his stuff to do it.

I also had witnessed the New York bout between Jack Delaney and Risko. Delaney was given the decision, but I thought Risko earned a good draw.

A great fight against Gene Tunney, who later defeated Jack Dempsey for the heavyweight title, a whale of a showing against the dynamic Jack Delaney and a victory over Champion Paul Berlenbach.

Certainly those three fights within the short space of about six months entitled Risko to one of the big outdoor attractions in New York.

WILTED BEFORE CLEVERNESS.

It probably would have been a wise move to have saved Risko for Paul Berlenbach. Such a meeting at the Yankee Stadium or the Polo Grounds in New York, would have played to capacity after the way Risko had pasted Paralyzing Paul all over the Garden ring.

If there is one style of fighter who makes Risko look bad, it is the clever performer. After the Berlenbach conquest, that style of fighter should have been studiously avoided.

Instead, Risko agreed to take on Mike McTigue and "Young" Stribling, two of the cleverest light heavyweights in the game. The result of those two meetings is history. Risko was decisively outpointed.

Those two defeats, coming right after the sensational Berlenbach victory, practically wiped out all the glory of that success. It killed Risko as a "big shot" for an outdoor attraction, carrying a guarantee of $50,000 or more.

Johnny Risko is not a champion. He's a rugged trial horse. Yet his case is one of those unusual ones in which an unexpected victory suddenly thrust opportunity in front of the conqueror. Risko had the big chance but failed to make the most of it.

By both heart and intellect he is especially well qualified to treat this important matter. The boy and the girl in the community is being discussed by thinking people in the city with a view to some more adequate solution of the problem than has yet been reached. The skating rinks this past winter, and the parks, together with the project of the renovated swimming pool are all steps in the right direction. It so happens that just now both the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs have committees appointed to investigate as to what may be done, not alone for the coming summer, but relative to a well laid plan for years to come. Other unique and inspiring features of the new type of Church Night service will be in evidence on Thursday night.

St. Stephen's Guild Dance—The Women's Guild of St. Stephen's church will give a dancing party in the Coliseum Friday night, April 22. A splendid musical program has been arranged and the public is invited. Members of the committee are: Mrs. Charles Lewis, Mrs. Robert W. Your limbs, arms and legs will no longer feel cold and "go to sleep" because Basman's Gas Tablets prevent gas from interfering with the circulation.
