

GREEN OKES NEW TAX COMMISSION

FLOOD SITTING USELESS, CAL STILL THINKS

CONVENTION MEETS TO TALK PLANS OF RELIEF.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE (Copyright 1927, by the Escanaba Press) Washington, June 1.—President Coolidge remains unconvinced that an extra session of congress is necessary to deal with the flood situation. Senator Robinson, Democratic leader, tried to persuade him to ask the members of two congressional committees to meet in advance of December and begin to formulate a program but the president felt that this was a matter for the committee members themselves to decide.

There meets in Chicago this week a convention of business and industrial leaders as well as members of the delegations in congress who come from the flooded area. The purpose of the convention is to develop public sentiment for relief plans. The Louisiana delegation wants an extra session of congress called and is willing to ask leaders of all parties to agree that nothing else should be discussed but flood relief measures. Whether the leaders could bind individual members remains doubtful but the proposal emphasizes that the chief difficulty about calling an extra session is that other subjects may be introduced for debate which would interfere with prompt action on the flood measures.

Politics Creeps In. Politics, of course, creeps into the problems from all sides. The Republican majority in the senate is slender. The moment the senate met it would be confronted with the question of seating or unseating Messrs. Vane of Pennsylvania and Smith of Illinois. The insurgent Republicans are asking for a chance to turn their firebrands against the administration on questions like farm relief and foreign policy. The administration can think of a dozen reasons why the calling of an extra session would be embarrassing but those who are concerned with flood relief can think of many more reasons why the emergency in the Mississippi valley should transcend all political considerations and bring insurgents and regulars out of their political atmosphere for the earnest consideration of relief measures.

The president, meanwhile, is asking every agency of the government, like the Army Engineer Corps and the Farm Loan Bureau, to co-operate in every way with the people in the flood area through the extension of credits and otherwise. Public Sentiment Guide. He doubts whether any action could be taken by congress at this time, that could bring further aid. The general question of flood control is so large that it will take many weeks to debate and the administration hopes to be ready with a flood program when congress does convene. It all depends on public sentiment and if the demand for an extra session should grow there is always the possibility that congress might be summoned for a meeting in September. The president, however, has not been apprised of any general demand for an extra session though he notes that some of his political adversaries are clamoring for such a meeting. Secretary Hoover's reports to the president have been the latter's guide and these reports have indicated that everything that could be done is being done by the Red Cross and the several states and communities affected and that an extra session at this time appears unnecessary.

WOMEN'S MEET TO END TODAY

General Federation Re-affirms Confidence in Dry Law.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 2.—(AP)—With several of its most important questions already passed upon, the biennial council of the General Federation of Women's Clubs tonight prepared to enter upon the last day's sessions. Entertainment features, centering in "sand dune" parties at three Michigan lake front towns, will make up Saturday's program.

The council today reaffirmed its stand in favor of prohibition, disposed of resolutions affecting the American Indian, heard confidences expressed in the girl of 1927 and analyzed the needs and shortcomings of the American home. The biggest business in the world is the conducting of the home, Mrs. Anna Peaks Genny, of Chicago, told the council, and the business of being a woman is the business of getting a dollar's worth for every dollar spent. Her advice to the club women was "not to ask the dollar where it has been; tell it where to go."

Change to "Homemaker." A plea to have the classification "homemaker" recognized by the census bureau rather than "housewife," was made by Mrs. Maggie Barry of College Station, Texas, chairman of the department of the American home, who explained that the home is a partnership proposition, "a fifty-fifty, man and woman job." She urged club women to support the Capper-Ketcham bill, passed by the house of representatives in the last session of congress, which would provide for men and women extension agents in equitable portions in the counties of the different states, on the line with a campaign for betterment of the farm home.

In reaffirming its stand on prohibition the federation went on record as opposing any weakening of the state or national enforcement laws, and favoring "adequate appropriations" for enforcement work. Give Indian Rights. Resolutions concerning Indians called for reaffirmation of the federation's support of laws "designed to give him his rights under the constitution"; authorized the organization to act regarding an "emergency" created by appropriation bill riders alleged to strike at the Indian's financial safety, and endorsed measures to place upon the states in which Indians reside some of the responsibility for conduct of their affairs. Rogers City Girl's Death Investigated

Rogers City, Mich., June 2.—(AP)—Investigation of the death of Miss Florence Reo, 21, found slain on a road near here Tuesday night continued today with the hearing of evidence by a coroner's jury. Officers disclosed that the young woman apparently had been slain elsewhere and the body carried to the lonely road where it was found by four local school boys. There was no blood on the clothing, although an autopsy revealed that the girl had died of a blow that crushed the skull. No weapon was found, witnesses testified at the inquest.

CHAPLIN HITS BACK AT LITA

Fires Broadside of Denials and Counter Charges.

Los Angeles, June 2.—(AP)—Charles Chaplin today leaped onto the divorce battle ground which had been dominated by his wife, Lita Grey Chaplin for nearly five months and took up the fight by firing a broadside of denials and counter-charges in a 100-page cross-complaint and answer to his wife's suit. Mrs. Chaplin was charged by her husband with defiantly associating for a long period of time with two young men whom he did not name, with frequent intoxication, neglect of their two children, extravagance and fortune seeking.

The comedian of the films pictured himself as a hard-working, faithful, loving and indulgent husband and father. His complaint represented his 19-year-old wife as neglecting their home and children for parties and excessive liquor drinking with other young men and as defiant to his wishes as to her conduct. Chaplin declared his wife had demanded $1,125,000 of him and not merely the half of that amount which she was entitled to. He declared the community property amounted to $255,000 and this and separate property to $1,125,000. He declared his wife unfit to have the care and support of their children, and asked the court to deny her decree for divorce and to grant to him instead the divorce and custody of their two children, Charles Spencer, Jr., and Sidney Earl, aged about two and one, respectively. The movie actor and producer denied that he had ever spent a great part of his time since he was married with motion picture actresses or any other women, either publicly or privately. Chaplin declared his wife had defamed one of their children by asserting that it was "born out of wedlock."

Among other charges by his wife, Chaplin denied: That when she came to his room last November 29 he picked up a gun, waved it and threatened to kill her if she dared to leave his home or "tell the newspapers about this." That he handed her the gun and said: "There is one way to end it all." That he had never said: "I might get suddenly crazy any time and kill you." That there ever was a time when her keys would not open the door to their home; that she was unable to get in because the door locks had been changed and that he said to her: "I guess the servants are trying to protect me." Chaplin asserted that Mrs. Chaplin had invited a certain young man to parties at her home against his wishes, and demanded.

BIBLE USED TO TRAP WITNESS

Purnell's Lawyers Try to Impeach Story of Mrs. Hansel.

St. Joseph, Mich., June 2.—(AP)—Attorneys for the House of David turned to the Scriptures today in an effort to impeach the testimony of Mrs. Esther Hansel, star witness for the state in the dissolution proceedings against the colony here. W. J. Barnard, chief defense counsel, declared that Benjamin Purnell, who Mrs. Hansel claimed set himself up as the savior of all believers, based his statements and teachings upon the Bible. When Purnell told his followers to "save their kingdom," he meant it might be necessary to give strangers to the faith only part of the truth, Barnard argued. Mrs. Hansel insisted Purnell meant what he said. The witness averred Purnell imbued the colonists with the belief that he was a younger brother of Jesus. Benjamin claimed he would lead all Israelites to everlasting life, she said.

Barrage of Questions. "He claimed to be the resurrection and the life for Israelites," Mrs. Hansel testified. The former Shiloh girl declared that she belongs to no church. Barnard hurled question after question to Mrs. Hansel in an attempt to show that she rounded up witnesses for the state by promising them financial gain. "We are going to impeach this witness' testimony," he shouted. Mrs. Hansel denied she told her sister they would "get something" if they testified for the state but would go to prison if they took the stand for the colony. She admitted accepting $5 a day and expenses from the state prior to the suit. She was traveling around interviewing former members of the colony, she stated.

The witness declared Purnell banded all the colony funds. At one time he had $100,000 in a safe in his room, she declared. The colony deposited only enough money in the bank to meet current expenses—Purnell keeping the rest, she asserted. Trembling Monarch. Purnell was pictured as a trembling monarch who constantly feared arrest. A Mother Hubbard gown, a red wig and a corset were kept in readiness so he could flee if the need arose, she said. Mrs. Hansel described a network of tunnels she claimed ran through the colony grounds. They were avenues of escape for Benjamin, she said. All have been removed and filled in now, she continued. Declaring that Purnell was a vain fraud, Mrs. Hansel testified he trimmed his whiskers, although he taught his followers it was wrong to even round the corners of the hair or beard.

Mary Purnell, Benjamin's wife, was linked with the king as an instigator of plots to protect the colony. Mrs. Hansel stated Mary asked her to write a threatening letter to the Fortney girls when they were about to start suit. The witness said she refused to carry out the order and incurred Mary's displeasure. Would Fire Lawyers. A gale of laughter swept over the courtroom when Mrs. Hansel in answer to Barnard's question as to what she would advise Purnell to do if she still was his confidential adviser, replied she would tell him to "fire Barnard and Dewhurst." They are the colony's attorneys. The defense attorney made strenuous efforts to break down Mrs. Hansel's charge that Purnell was anxious for new members (Continued On Page Two.)

First Bootlegger in Canada Caught

Windsor, Ont., June 2.—(AP)—The first arrest of an alleged bootlegger since opening of the government liquor stores here, was made tonight by police who raided the home of Miss Angelina Lorenzo and confiscated a quantity of liquor which did not bear the government seal. The woman was believed to have been catering to the "one day" tourist trade.

CHICAGO ENDS DIVERSION PLEA

Lawyers Point Out Need for Navigation on Mississippi.

Washington, June 2.—(AP)—The Chicago sanitary district today concluded the presentation of its case before Charles E. Hughes, special master for the supreme court, in the suit to restrain it from withdrawing water from Lake Michigan. The states of Louisiana, Missouri, Arkansas, Mississippi, Kentucky and Tennessee, appearing as intervening defendants, also pleaded for continuance of the present diversion to maintain and promote Great Lakes-to-Gulf navigation. James M. Beck, former United States solicitor general, upheld the constitutionality of Secretary Weeks' executive order of March 3, 1925, permitting the water diversion and alleged that the whole question was one for congressional and not judicial action. Cornelius Linde of Chicago, and Daniel N. Kirby of St. Louis, speaking for the intervening defendants, pictured the great necessity for efficient Great Lakes-to-Gulf navigation not only for the states immediately concerned, but for the whole United States. For this, they said, the diversion at Chicago was imperative as it gives the Mississippi the necessary depth. The Mississippi navigation, they said, would counteract present transportation discrimination to which the valley states are subjected. It would neutralize the effect of heavy rail rates now depressing the valley, grain and cotton prices. Finally, they asserted, it would largely compensate for lack due to the Panama canal of Pacific markets for valley products and draw manufacturers to the vicinity of the river. Dismissal of the suit on the alleged ground that it was brought in the interest of hydro-electric power concerns and that the controversy was fundamentally a political question open to legislative and not judicial settlement, was asked in a brief submitted by H. S. Johnson of Chicago.

May Send Leopold to Insane Asylum

Chicago, June 2.—(AP)—A noted alienist visited Nathan Leopold, Jr., in Joliet penitentiary today and convened with him for half an hour at the invitation of Leopold's family in what many construed as an effort to have one of the slayers of little Bobby Franks moved from the penitentiary to an asylum although Leopold's father denied such was the motive. The alienist was Dr. Bernard Glueck, former psychiatrist at Sing Sing prison. Leopold, who with Richard Loeb, is serving a life sentence for the slaying of the Franks boy and faces another 99 year sentence for kidnaping, talked with the psychiatrist for half an hour. When Dr. Glueck left the prison he refused to comment on the conversation. Leopold's father, however, said the psychiatrist is making a study of prisoners and prisons and had expressed a desire to visit the prison and the senior Leopold said he merely had obtained a permit for this and had asked that his own visiting day to his son be advanced to Saturday. BAD WEATHER, LINDY DELAYS CHANNEL HOP

LANDS IN ENGLAND AFTER STARTING ON FLIGHT.

(BULLETIN) Lympne, England, June 3.—(AP)—After flying 38 minutes from Kenley, Captain Lindbergh landed here at 6:58 a. m., today, deciding to postpone his crossing of the English Channel and his return to Paris until more favorable weather conditions. There was fog above the channel. Captain Lindbergh is flying across the English Channel in a British plane. As he took his seat in the machine, at 6:15 a. m., about 100 persons who had been waiting at the airfield for some hours for the start, cheered enthusiastically. Two other planes escorted him. Lindy made a perfect start. He climbed rapidly to 1,000 feet, when he went into formation with the two escorts. Circling over the airfield once, he headed straight southeast for the coast near Folkestone. Weather prospects were good. While adjusting his parachute, Lindy told a newspaperman, "I've had a great time in England and I hope to return."

Extremely Popular. The visiting aviator made himself extremely popular among the officers and airmen at the Kenley field, and all of them were up at dawn to see him off. A weather report this morning said there was a heavy ground mist at Dorking, in the path of the flight over England to the channel, but that there were no clouds for 4,000 feet above England or across the channel. On the French side clouds at a height of 1,000 feet were reported. POSTPONED DAY. London, June 2.—(AP)—Adverse weather reports today forced Capt. Charles Lindbergh to postpone until tomorrow his return to Paris by air. With that care and quiet thoroughness which characterized his preparations for his epic trans-Atlantic flight, the American flyer aced at in the little headquarters office of the Kenley military air station this afternoon and as the adverse weather reports from South England and the Channel and Northern France were laid before him and as the mist and fog rolled up over the edges of the treacherous air path to Paris, Lindbergh waited for nearly two hours to see if conditions would improve, and then decided to start from England at dawn tomorrow. He had tea with the officers and tonight he slept at their mess—among men who talk his language of aeronautics and to whom he is as much a hero as he is to the crowds who have followed him in France, Belgium and England. Calles' Wife Succumbs to Heart Attack

SENORA NATALIA CALLES

LOS ANGELES, June 2.—(AP)—Senora Natalia Calles, wife of President Calles of Mexico, died in a hospital here at 3:30 p. m., today, of a heart attack suffered five days after a major operation. Senora Calles, who came here two weeks ago after attending the marriage of her daughter, Senorita Ernestina to Thomas Arnold of New York, at Nogales, Ariz., had been progressing favorably from the operation, until after noon today. At that time she suffered a sudden heart attack and the end was foreseen in a bulletin issued by her physician Dr. Alejandro Wallace shortly after the turn for the worse. She entered the California Lutheran hospital for observation after having developed intestinal and gall bladder troubles which her physician characterized as extremely serious. She rallied quickly from the shock of the operation and was thought to be on the road to rapid recovery when the heart attack came. (Continued On Page Two.)

ACTION KICKS LORD OUT OF STATE OFFICE

"TAX DODGERS WILL HOLD JUBILEE," SAYS LORD.

Lansing, June 2.—(AP)—The William J. Thomas bill which authorizes the appointment of a three man state tax commission, to succeed the commission of which George Lord of Detroit is now chairman, was signed today by Governor Fred W. Green. In signing the measure which was the subject of debate throughout the legislative session and which brought forth the united opposition of the Wayne county delegation, Governor Green said he could not announce the names of the men who would succeed the present commissioners. "One man will be appointed from the upper peninsula, one from Detroit and one from somewhere else," Governor Green said. "I will not do anything about these appointments at the present time." George Lord, when informed of the signing of the bill said, "well, the tax dodgers will hold a jubilee now."

Espele Bill Signed. Governor Green also signed the Espele bill authorizing the drawing of a new contract by the state with the Grand Trunk Railroad relative to the moving of the tracks of the Detroit, Grand Haven and Milwaukee lines to make way for the wider Woodward avenue project. Other bills signed included: The Baxter-Campbell bill containing the Hoover traffic code and eliminating the set speed limit to provide for a speed which would allow the motorist to halt "within the assured safe distance" of the car or pedestrian ahead. The administration deficiency appropriation carrying total appropriation of $4,660,072 to cover deficits charged to the various state institutions, boards and commissions. The Karcher bill, providing for a $1 anglers license fee for residents of the state over 21 years of age. (Continued On Page Two.)

MARINES MOVE TO NORTH CHINA

Williams Reports 3,000 Will Guard Whites in Tientsin.

Washington, June 2.—(AP)—Further steps in the concentration of American marine forces in the Tientsin area of north China to be in a better position to protect American and other foreign lives and property in the event of an emergency were reported officially today to the navy department. Advice, cabled by Admiral Williams, commanding the Asiatic fleet, mentioned only about 3,000 of the marines in the Asiatic area and did not state the disposition of the remainder. The first dispatch from Admiral Williams said the transport Chaumont was taking the more than 1500 marines from the Philippines to Shanghai to be nearer the trouble zone in north China and that the transfer was decided upon at this time to avoid the typhoon season in the islands. Official advice yesterday were to the effect that 1700 marines from Olongapo, P. I., had left three or four days ago for Tientsin and made no mention of stopping at Shanghai. It is still the belief in these quarters that this detachment ultimately will go to Tientsin. The second dispatch received today said that about 1500 marines were being sent from Shanghai to Taku Bar, near Tientsin, on the transport Henderson. (Continued On Page Two.)

WHEN PARIS WENT WILD OVER 'LINDY'

It took plenty of police to hold the crowds in line when Captain Charles A. Lindbergh went around Paris, as this photo shows. The car at the curb has just deposited the young flyer at the American Club; see how the eager Parisians press against the gendarmes in their desire to see the bro of th trans-Atlantic flight.

DEFENSE RAKES SCREAM STORY

Fails to Trip Up State's Witness in Loomis Murder Trial.

Detroit, June 2—(AP)—The story of Thomas Blockson, Detroit barber, and his wife, Mrs. Ethel Bell Blockson, that they heard moans and a scream emanating from the home of Dr. Frank R. Loomis shortly before 9 p. m. on February 22, the night Dr. Loomis' wife was murdered, withstood another day of sustained attacks by defense counsel today in the trial of the physician on a charge of first degree murder.

Louis J. Colombo, attorney for Dr. Loomis, inquired into the personal history of Blockson, and hurled question after question in an attempt to uncover some discrepancy of time in the testimony but the barber steadily stuck to his story that he and his wife had arrived in the Loomis neighborhood before 9 o'clock and heard moans and the sound of breaking glass and had seen a pane fall from the window of the Loomis sun parlor.

Star Witnesses
The Blocksons are the star witnesses in the prosecution of Dr. Loomis. In their testimony it is hoped to break down the defense contention that the physician left his home at precisely 9 o'clock and returned 45 minutes later to find his wife dead. Blockson was called to the witness stand late yesterday afternoon and his direct examination was completed this morning. He corroborated in detail the testimony given previously by his wife. Today in cross-examination, he was led back over parts of his story and testified that he looked at his watch as they got off the street car, that he had compared his with clocks that night and the next morning and that he had referred to the times of his movements in a statement made to Paul O. Buckley, assistant prosecuting attorney.

The jury was excused while Mr. Colombo asked Robert M. Tom, prosecuting attorney, for a copy of this statement so that he might compare it with the testimony. Mr. Tom opposed the request and the trial was resumed without any decision on the point.

Testimony Stands.
During the cross-examination today, Dr. Colombo asked Judge John V. Brennan to order stricken from the record the testimony given yesterday by Blockson that he believed there was a family quarrel in the Loomis house that night. The court permitted the testimony to stand because it was offered as Blockson's explanation for not investigating the scream and reporting it at a nearby police station.

Questions regarding the marriage of the Blocksons three weeks ago, interposed by Mr. Colombo, led nowhere. To a query of "you were married for this case so you'd look better before the jury, weren't you?" Blockson returned a prompt "no, sir." Previously, while Mrs. Blockson was on the stand for cross-examination, Mr. Colombo had inquired in detail about her relations with Blockson before the following February 22.

Japanese Await Verdict On Eels
Tokyo—(AP)—Japan is awaiting the verdict of Americans as to the merits of 1,000 succulent Japanese eels which were shipped to the United States some time ago with five ferocious fighting cocks and 12 pedigreed goldfish. The goldfish are of a royal strain which it is hoped will excite the interest of American goldfish lovers and thereby bring more business to Nippon.

As for the eels, the Japanese are certain there is a fortune in the business if the Americans can only be induced to cultivate a taste for the snake-like fish.

entered by a grade school pupil illustrating the ideal home or the failures of the home, was awarded to Sylvia M. Whitman of Newport, R. I. She depicted the ideal home, John Hammill of Corvallis, Mich., was given first honorable mention for his depiction of the failure of the home.

Mrs. W. W. Green of Biggs, Cal., speaking on "comforts and discomforts of the farm woman," asserted that the farm woman has felt sharp money in many cases to spend on her family than has the city woman during the past few years.

Often times the farm woman's discomforts, she said, "are mental as well as physical."

As a remedy for the discomforts she advocated an educational program to teach the planning of clothing, balancing of diets, better methods of cooking and simplified housework methods.

Mrs. Bessie Mott of New York City, urged the elimination of "finance illiteracy" and declared that the elimination of banks "with no right to exist" will make banking safer for the women of America.

Mrs. John D. Sherman, federation president, asked for protection of the good name of the General Federation of Women's clubs as you would your own family or your honor.

"The people attack the general federation," she said, "because it is the largest of all the women's organizations working for the welfare of women and children. The attacks are made upon us because we are doing a good work for humanity; if we weren't, they wouldn't pay any attention to us."

A woman's club of New York City was censured for a speaker who attacked the federation.

UP TO STATES.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 2—(AP)—The suspension of the Louisville Women's club from the Kentucky Federation is a matter "for the sole consideration" of the latter organization, Mrs. John D. Sherman, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, replied today to a formal protest directed to her and delegates attending the biennial council.

The protest, contained in a letter from Mrs. Margaret H. Englehard, president of the Louisville club, was considered at a meeting of the executive committee late today.

"The by-laws of the Kentucky federation provide that membership in the general federation accrues only through membership in the state federation and no action by this council is possible or appropriate," said a letter from Mrs. Sherman.

"Perhaps it may not be amiss to remind you that the question of your relation to the general federation was given exhaustive hearing at the biennial of the general federation in June, 1926, both by the executive committee and the full delegate body."

The Louisville club was suspended after a controversy over adherence to the legislative program of the general federation.

In a statement made public with the letter, the executive committee said it wished to "call attention to some inaccuracies contained in the letter of the Louisville Women's club addressed to the general federation council."

"From the minutes of the annual meeting of the Kentucky federation," the statement continued, "we learn that the Louisville Women's club was not expelled, but suspended, which suspension might be lifted upon compliance by the club with the condition which led to the suspension. That in the opinion of this executive committee and of the best legal advisers suspension was both just and legal and with full authority; that by such minutes we also learn that ample notice and hearing were accorded."

MEET TO TALK FLOOD RELIEF

Will Attack Problem of Harnessing Father of Waters.

Chicago, June 2—(AP)—Somewhat fewer in numbers than the thousands expected, but nevertheless representative of the diversified interests involved, approximately 900 men and women from 27 Mississippi valley states today formed the first flood control conference to aid in coping with one of the nation's greatest problems—the recurring floods in the Mississippi river and its tributaries.

After three days of study, the conference next Saturday will adopt recommendations it hopes may aid congress in taking the steps necessary to avoid a similar catastrophe in the future.

President Coolidge and his administration recognize the seriousness of the situation and regard the present disaster in the lower Mississippi valley as the ground for some of the most serious work for the next congress, Dwight Davis, secretary of war, the president's representative, declared.

Secretary Davis will address the conference tomorrow morning giving first impressions of the flood. Major General Edgar Jadwin, chief of the army engineers, will dwell upon the details of the engineering work necessary in meeting the challenge of the father of waters.

A half dozen speakers at the initial session this afternoon voiced the demand that the floods be controlled and that partisan politics and petty sectional ambitions not find their way to the convention floor.

Instate Bridge Will Be Discussed

Marinette, Wis., June 2—(AP)—Wisconsin and Michigan state highway commissions will meet here tomorrow in an effort to solve the problem of interstate bridges between Marinette and its neighbor, Menominee, Michigan. Two interstate bridges between the two cities have been closed to all but pedestrians for weeks and a meeting will try to form a satisfactory arrangement for middle bridge project. The Wisconsin state railroad commission will continue an adjourned meeting held in March to determine what proportion of the new bridge the M. and N. Light and Traction Company should pay. A petition to the Marinette city council, asking that franchise of traction be cancelled also will be heard by the commission and application of the traction company to commission to determine recent city ordinance requiring it to run cars on the middle bridge, recently closed by Menominee as unreasonable will likewise be considered, along with the plan for substituting buses for street cars.

French Think Sports May Cure Communism
Paris—(AP)—Sport is one thing on which communists and their critics agree.

Sport is being fostered by Bolshevik leaders here and cross-country bicycle races organized by and limited to the disciples of Moscow have brought new enthusiasm into the red camp.

Opponents of the communists political tenets applaud the sporting effort as the best cure for communism. They remark that healthy exercise is much better than listening to dull speeches in ill-smelling halls. Sport, they say, will teach the young idea an independence that will not brook too much rule, and a joy in life that will smile at the tale of tribulation the communist organ daily tells.

bound creatures who have been crowding him much of late. It was because of this experience with the American birdman that the British air forces authorities realized the great responsibility they had as his host tonight.

Wing Commander H. M. Brock, in charge at Kenley station, has issued an order to his two squadrons of air fighters that Captain Lindbergh is not to be given any plane except the one carefully tested and designated for his Paris trip tomorrow. Nor is he to be taken as a passenger by other pilots.

Lady told the Associated Press correspondent this evening that there need be no worry about him; all he wanted was rest, so as to be ready bright and early for the hop to the continent.

ROYAL RECEPTION.

Washington, June 2—(AP)—Charles A. Lindbergh is to receive a welcome and reception in Washington such as has been accorded to no other private citizen in the history of the republic.

This was determined upon today by the semi-official entertainment committee after it had been informed that the scout cruiser Memphis would arrive at the navy yard here at noon on Saturday, June 11, bearing from Europe the flying hero of the world and the airplane in which he flew from New York to Paris.

The official welcome to the eagle of the air will begin before he sights his native shores. And fittingly enough it will be other eagles of the air—army and navy aviators—who will extend the first greetings. Two dozen of them in as many planes will fly far to sea to escort the Memphis to the Virginia Capes.

To lead parade.

The official reception committee, made up of cabinet, army, navy, marine corps and coast guard officers and leading citizens of the District of Columbia, will greet Lindbergh as he steps down the gangplank and accompany him to an automobile in which he will lead a parade from the navy yard over famous Pennsylvania avenue through the capitol grounds and to the Washington Monument.

There, President Coolidge on behalf of an admiring nation, will present to the air hero the first distinguished flying cross ever to be struck off, the design of which has been hastily approved for this occasion. The cross is of bronze and bears a four-bladed propeller.

Recovering After Serious Operation

Chicago, June 2—(AP)—Walter D. Graham, famous University of Michigan athlete, from 1900 to 1904 and head of the Graham Electrical Supply company, of Chicago, who underwent an operation for a tumor of the brain, Tuesday, was reported considerably improved today. Graham recovered consciousness today, recognized his wife and talked to her. His attending physician said that if no unforeseen complications appear, Graham probably will recover.

FLOOD MAKES FINAL ATTACK

Crest Passes Last Towns On Way to Gulf of Mexico.

New Orleans, June 2—(AP)—The Atchafalaya river flood exerted pressure on the last line of man-made barriers tonight as it gathered the diminished force of its crest in the south portion of central Louisiana before passing out into the Gulf of Mexico.

With the flood away over the Louisiana lowlands likely to be prolonged although not rendered more severe, by the new crest riding down the Mississippi river, efforts were made to hold protection levees to prevent the inundation of towns near Morgan City, about 12 miles west of New Orleans.

Berwick, safe and dry behind a seven-foot levee on the banks of the swirling Atchafalaya, labored to bolster the dyke, fearing that a break might inundate the town to a depth of five feet. While it was believed that the effort would be successful, the inhabitants of the town, numbering 2,000, were preparing to lift themselves to plank sidewalks on scaffolding just as their neighbors across the river in Morgan City have done.

While all but ten of the 1,000 residents of Gibson, about 25 miles east of Morgan City, evacuated the town in fear that the swollen Bayou Black would pile in additional waters, the population of Donner, a sawmill town nearby, worked on a six-foot levee which has been holding the water out.

A peculiar situation exists in the flood level on a line with Morgan City across the Atchafalaya river basin since the level is almost two feet higher east of Morgan City than it is on the main stream in the little port city.

Weather bureau officials attribute the massing of waters to the eastward to westerly winds and to the rapid flow of water through the river outlet at Morgan City which has continually depressed the flood level there in comparison with stages to the east and west.

Baptist Convention Discusses Dry Law

Chicago, June 2—(AP)—Obstacles to the complete enforcement of the prohibition laws were pointed out, and ways of removing them suggested by two leaders of reform organizations and a member of congress at today's session of the northern Baptist convention here.

"Wet" newspapers that hold the law up to ridicule; apathy of voters; "old grads" who take liquor to their alma maters and society leaders who introduce alcoholic beverages at their gatherings, are chiefly responsible for opposition to the law, said Mrs. Ella A. Boole, national president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Two Women Choked and Shot to Death

Wilkes Barre, Pa., June 2—(AP)—Beaten, choked and shot, two young women were found dead today on a little-traveled wagon road five miles east of Pittston. The victims were Edith Fozzo, 19, and Jennie Monica, also 19, cousins. Both lived in Wilkes Barre.

Carmel Marranca, 35, of Pittston, owner of an automobile found near where the bodies were discovered, was arrested and held without bail in connection with the case. He contends that the car was stolen during the night from in front of his home, where he said it had been parked by his brother, Samuel, 23. Samuel Marranca has not been located.

A check-up by the police showed that the victims had left the home of one of the girls last night presumably to go to a show. The mutilated bodies were discovered by John Yasko, watchman at an abandoned mine. The clothes had been torn from both girls. Their bodies were covered with bruises inflicted by their assailants' fists and their throats bore imprints of the slayers' fingers. Each had bullet wounds in the head. The police supposition is that the girls were strangled and then shot.

Ambassador Denies He Intends to Quit

Mexico City, June 2—(AP)—American Ambassador James R. Sheffield, in response to persistent newspaper inquiries today issued a formal written statement saying that he has not yet resigned, but not saying whether he may or may not resign after reaching the United States on his forthcoming vacation.

The American ambassador, who has planned to pay an official visit to President Calles at noon today, prior to his departing for the United States, will leave Mexico without saying good-bye to the president, who is ill.

Mr. Sheffield's statement on the reports of his resignation was as follows:

"In view of press reports concerning my alleged resignation, I desire to state that I have not resigned."

The idea still persists in the American colony that Mr. Sheffield may resign after he reaches the United States.

The name Sing Sing comes from the Sin Sinck Indians, original inhabitants of the region in which the prison now stands.

DELIVERY BOY KILLED WOMAN?

Chicago Housewife Murdered by Mysterious Assailant.

Chicago, June 2—(AP)—Mrs. Mary Sletsema, 35, was attacked, garroted with a telephone cord and laid dead in the midst of her ransacked home here today.

The woman's body, the clothing torn as though in a fierce struggle for her life, was found lying in the front room of her little flat by her husband, Martin, when he returned from work. Every room in the house had been ransacked. The woman's purse which had contained $30, lay on the floor, empty.

Mrs. Sletsema's arms and clothing were covered with blood stains, indicating she had fought with her assailant. Two blood-stained towels were found in the bathroom where the slayer had washed before leaving. The house was locked, and the police believe that the man locked the front door on leaving and pocketed the key.

A delivery boy for a neighborhood meat market was held for questioning when a key in his possession was found to fit the door of the flat.

The boy admitted making two trips to the woman's home during the day, but denied slaying her.

Stains on his shoes might be blood, he said, but probably came from working about the meat shop. He explained a cut on his finger by stating that it was done with a knife but later said he cut it himself with a wire.

The delivery boy gave his name as Michael Hirsch, age 25. He was found to be carrying a pocket knife and three small lengths of light cord, similar to that which the woman was strangled. He maintained his innocence despite the additional evidence of hair on the cords, similar to the woman's.

OLD RESIDENT DIES SUDDENLY

Stroke Fatal to Charles Haglund; Born Here in 1877.

The sudden death early yesterday of Charles Haglund was a severe shock to members of his family and a wide circle of friends in this city. Mr. Haglund suffered a stroke of paralysis while at work at the Webster school Wednesday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock. He went to his home across from the school and the family physician was called. He retired and apparently died well for a few hours when about 9 o'clock in the evening his condition became serious and the physician was called again. Mr. Haglund's pastor was summoned and the last sacraments were administered. He passed away at 6:30 o'clock Thursday morning at the family home, 1124 Washington avenue.

Mr. Haglund was born in this city June 10th, 1877 and lived here practically all his life. He was known to many persons and enjoyed the friendship of a wide circle of acquaintances. He was a member of the K. O. T. M., Protective Home Circle and St. Joseph's Branch of the Holy Name Society. He is survived by his wife whom he married twenty-three years ago and one son, Mark, aged fifteen, one brother, William Haglund of this city and one sister, Mrs. Robert Morton of Seattle, Wash.

The body was prepared for burial at the Alto Funeral Home and will be removed to the family home this morning at ten o'clock. Funeral services will be held at St. Joseph's church Saturday morning at nine o'clock with Rev. Fr. Bertrand Labinski O. F. M. as celebrant at the requiem high mass. Burial will be in the family lot in Lakeview cemetery, where his mother is buried.

Members of St. Joseph's Holy Name Society will go to the home in a body this evening after services to recite the rosary. Members of the Married Ladies' Altar Society of which Mrs. Haglund is a member will go to the home this evening after the W. C. O. F. meeting. Members of the Women's Benefit Association of which Mrs. Haglund is an officer will assemble at the home of Miss Mabel Bowers, 305 N. 13th st. this afternoon at two-thirty and will go to the home in a body. Members of these organizations having cars are urged to use them to convey members to the home on Washington avenue.

Mr. Haglund was engaged in the cigar manufacturing business many years and for the past few years has been employed as jan-

Saint and Sinner

By Anne Austin

At the first drug store they reached, Faith parked the car, on the back seat of which Bob sat between his two prisoners, Brady W. Hutchinson and Sammy Horne, alighted and went in to telephone Churchill himself answered the phone.

In a low, rapid voice Faith told him where she was, and made her request that the lawyer join her and Bob as soon as possible.

Rather grudgingly, but unable to refuse the compelling urgency in her voice, Churchill promised to leave his house at once in his own car.

When Churchill arrived, within ten minutes, in a large sedan driven by his chauffeur, he was amazed to find Bob Hathaway guarding two prisoners with an automatic.

"Hutchinson," he gasped. "Good Lord, Bob, what does this mean?"

"Meet the murderer, Mr. Churchill," Bob grinned. "And his playmate, Sammy Horne."

When Bob told him of Sammy Horne's unsolicited confession, involving himself as well as Hutchinson, Churchill whistled with amazement. "Well, I guess that clinches it," he admitted. "We've already introduced testimony on the brown and yellow taxi seen in the alley behind Cluney's house the night of the murder. The shoes Hutchinson wore as the crippled beggar will undoubtedly fit the measurements of those footprints in the snow."

"And I'll stake my life on that bit of strap fitting into this harness that Hutchinson used to strap up his leg so that it would make those lying footprints," Bob interrupted eagerly. "And you have the threatening letter that Hutchinson wrote to Uncle Ralph. It shouldn't be hard to pin that on him, in view of all the circumstances and the dope you've already got on Hutchinson, through Crowell."

"But if Sammy Horne confesses," Faith began, bewildered. "Takes more than a confession to convict a man of murder," Churchill told her. "Have to have corroborating testimony. But we've got more than enough evidence to hang Churchill and send Horne up for life, unless he gets leniency for turning state's evidence. I doubt if Banning will be willing to let him turn state's evidence, however, since you two seem to have caught them both dead to rights. But what I don't want is for Banning or the papers to get wind of this until court opens tomorrow, and then I'll manage the show. Cherry has got to be vindicated in open court."

A GARDEN PROBLEM.
We have the bulbs and seeds all in. We're just about all in ourselves; And yet no greater joy you win Than when a fellow digs and delves. For now we're sitting down to wait Until the plants come peeping through; But all the early things are late. We only see a leaf or two.

There's only one way, after all, To do in such a case as that. When you're forgotten, can't recall, Where everything is planted at. We can't remember all the seeds We planted in this yard of ours; But if they live we know they're weeds, And if they die we know they're flow'rs.

IT IS THE HIGHWAY men of the Upper Peninsula who are in session here today, not the highwaymen. Nor do we approve of the practice of calling an asphalt salesman a road agent. It would be unkind to detour the delegates to the road entrance to the court house and cause them to travel over a freshly tarred driveway but the punishment should fit the crime. They're going to talk about uniform county road signs upon the assumption that motorists have time to read as they ride. Frank Rogers is trying to explain why all of the state's highway money for the year can't be spent in one county. The convention motto is 'Hell is paved with good intentions. The longest way round is usually the roughest way home. Pete Dillman demonstrated yesterday that he can still smile and say 'no.' It's a short lane that has no roadway. The course of true roadmaking never runs smoothly. Or what have you?

Jungle Breath

In a few moments Nunnally and Vilak were riding slowly up the road, their shadows dancing fantastically before them on the gray mud. Their course for the first mile lay over the highway they had taken in the afternoon. They crossed the bridge over the river, which was swirling hungrily between its low banks along which ran the railroad.

The chemist obeyed. Vilak leaned over in his saddle, snatched up a sharp rock from the roadway and hurled it at the lower branch of the tree he had indicated just at the end of the bridge. There was a sharp cry, then a crash in the brush.

Vilak placidly brushed the mud from his finger. "Nothing to be alarmed about. Just the common garden variety of holdup man, I think. After you've been down in this part of the country a while you'll take it as naturally as your meals. The end of the bridge is one of their favorite places, point their revolvers at you without being seen and shout down to you to throw your money into the road. Then after you've gone, they come down and get it. An easy and almost infallibly safe method, for, not being visible, their victims have no chance of resistance.

Oh, they don't take chances, these brave young bloods. A great improvement over the American method. In about another half a second we would have heard the Brazilian equivalent of 'hands up,' and if you were a good scared Indian you would have thrown everything you had in your pockets onto the road and run like mad. Either it was one of these thieving gentry or someone who wanted to kill me for reasons and motives unknown."

The chemist, his little body taut on his horse, stared blankly in the direction of the crashing brush. "Er... why didn't you shoot at him? And why are you not pursuing him now... yes... pursuing!"

"I didn't shoot at him because a rock serves the purpose amply and I don't kill unless I have to. I'm not pursuing him because we've much more important things to do, where we may need every bit of energy we have, and we'd only be wasting it on a fruitless chase which would come to nothing. I know these jungles too well.

That man's an eighth of a mile from here now and safe as if he were a thousand. If he's a thief, the police will get him—maybe. Theft's punished worse than murder here, anyway. If he's one of my particular friends, then undoubtedly we'll meet again. Concentration, mon cher, is the best strategy. Stick to the main road. Or as an esteemed pugilist, who was once one of my intimates, told me, don't guard your chin and thereby expose your solar plexus."

OLD MASTERS

I sat with love upon a woodside well, Leaning across the water, I and he; Nor ever did he speak nor looked at me, But touched his lute wherein was audible The certain secret thing he had to tell: Only our mirrored eyes met silently In the low wave; and that sound came to be The passionate voice I knew; and my tears fell. And at their fall, his eyes beneath grew hers; And with his foot, and with his wing-feathers He swept the spring that watered my heart's drouth. Then the dark ripples spread to waving hair, And as I stooped, her own lips rising there, Bubbled with brimming kisses at my mouth.

Jurists' Wigs Cause Head Scratching

London—It is wigs and not vexing thoughts which cause English judges to scratch their heads so frequently. The older the wig the more the wearer scratches, it is pointed out by wigmakers, because stray strands from the head piece become inverted and then tickle the judges' scalps. A. R. Witts, one of the two remaining legal wigmakers in the British Isles, has given the matter much thought. He has lived in the Temple, the ancient headquarters of London's legal fraternity 25 years and supplies barristers all over the world. The wigs are entirely made by hand from the hair of white horses bred in China. Those worn by barristers have twenty "sausages" curls around the head, a "kiss curl" at the back of the neck and two baby curls on the talls. A judge's wig has 24 rows of curls, each "curl" on a separate spring, the wig weighing from 4 to 6 1/2 ounces.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS:

Peninsula Highway Makers Open Convention

Snow Removal Program Throughout Michigan Planned Next Winter

That the state of Michigan has practically decided to adopt as a permanent policy, winter road maintenance in every section of this state, was the intimation made to members of the Northern Michigan Road Builders' association, members of the Escanaba Rotary club and other citizens of Delta county and the peninsula, by Frank F. Rogers, state highway commissioner, following a banquet at the Delta hotel here last night.

Mr. Rogers asserted that it has been established through indisputable figures prepared by his department that it would be a serious economic mistake to abandon state-wide snow removal program such as was inaugurated during the past winter. He said that the state of Michigan has over $200,000,000 invested in roads while the people of the state have over a billion dollars invested in automobiles and trucks, a large part of which would be rendered useless through a portion of each year if a winter road maintenance program were not attempted. He said that the actual cost of snow removal in the state during the past winter proved to be less than one-fourth of the previous annual maintenance cost on the state's trunk line highways and because of this fact and Michigan's tremendous investment in roads and automobile equipment, he asserted to be his belief that the state could afford to continue the snow removal program that was so efficiently carried out during the past winter.

Interesting Facts.

Mr. Rogers' address was filled with highly interesting facts concerning Michigan's road construction and maintenance problems. He showed that while the state highway department has between $27,000,000 and $28,000,000 in its annual budget, a considerable part of that amount is consumed annually in fixed charges and maintenance costs, leaving but a comparatively small part of the original fund for actual road building work. He said that in spite of the fact that the state of Michigan authorized and issued $50,000,000 in state highway bonds in 1919, not one dollar in general property tax has ever been levied to pay the interest of that issue.

Of the total receipts of the department each year approximately $4,000,000 is required annually to pay interest and retire bonds as they fall due. Maintenance work on the trunk line highways of the state costs annually $4,500,000. An indebtedness of the department owed to the counties of the state in past due state rewards is being reduced annually from payments made from the funds at the disposal of the department, and in addition $6,000,000 is annually being returned to the counties from the weight tax returns.

Mr. Rogers said that the two-cent gas tax produced for the state highway department last year approximately $10,700,000 while the weight tax produced approximately $16,000,000 and from the federal government the department received in state rewards a total of $2,114,000.

$6,000,000 More.

Mr. Rogers predicted that the additional amount added to the gasoline tax by the state legislature in this session, which will become effective in September, will produce approximately $6,000,000 additional for the department annually and for the four months of this year that the tax will be effective he estimated it would produce for the department an additional $2,000,000.

Mr. Rogers pointed out that with permanent types of pavement costing between $30,000 and $40,000 per mile, until the state's bonds and interest charges are materially reduced and the department's indebtedness to the counties eliminated, Michigan's road construction progress must necessarily be slow.

He asserted, however, that it was the fixed policy of the department to so maintain highways of other than permanent construction type in such condition that they would meet the needs of the traffic developed from year to year, until permanent pavements can be constructed.

Mr. Rogers was given a tremendous ovation when he was introduced and when he concluded, the interest of his audience was evidenced by prolonged and vigorous applause.

Sawyer Talks Briefly.

K. I. Sawyer of Marquette, president of the Northern Michigan Road Builders' association, also spoke briefly in the after-banquet program reviewing the 19 years in the history of the organization and the progress that had been made in road construction work in this section of Michigan in that period. The inimitable Robert C. Pryall was introduced and thoroughly pleased the audience with a group of dialect stories and songs. Among the notables attending last night's banquet were Congressman Frank P. Bohn of Newberry, Senator Walter Truettner of Bessemer, Rover C. Dillman, assistant

Bohn Recalls Roadless Days of Peninsula

CONGRESSMAN FRANK P. BOHN came over to Escanaba from his home in Newberry yesterday in three and one-half hours, and the trip recalled a previous experience on the same highway which was not nearly so comfortable nor so satisfactory.

"I remember the summer of 1914," he told the Road Builders' convention in a short address, "I also made an automobile trip from Newberry to Escanaba. We left Newberry at 7:30 o'clock in the morning and we arrived in Escanaba at 8:45 that evening. And we were covered so thickly with dust that none of us could be recognized."

Dr. Bohn pledged his support as a public official to any movement or project which will lead to better highways "and more of them."

Iron Trade Review

Cleveland, Ohio, June 2.—Iron Trade Review today says: Pig iron production declined 4 per cent in May. A preliminary estimate places the month's total at 3,891,038 tons, compared with 3,424,376 tons in April and 3,477,820 tons in May, 1926. The daily average rate in May was 109,388 tons, against 114,146 tons in April and 112,187 tons last May. At the close of May, 212 blast furnaces, or 9 less than at the beginning, were active.

This decline in pig iron production, seems likely to prove representative as well of the situation in steel ingots. Judging from the dearth of spot pig iron buying and the lighter specifications for finished steel, the downward trend in production should continue at least through early June.

May brought no improvement to the position of steel producers. Coincident with a seasonal contraction of demand, consumers developed a tendency to pare their orders to a still finer point, and the meager backlogs of the mills have almost vanished. Excepting sheets, strip and cold finished bars, the price situation became progressively easier.

June opens with the iron and steel industry focusing attention upon the third quarter. Inquiry for this delivery is broadening and while not yet at the peak, is sufficient to promise a good quarter, possibly better than the second in point of tonnage. Large automotive interests are contracting for the third quarter; with a new Ford in the offing and other makers expected to hold their own, the outlook is improving. Much of the 53,000 tons of heavy finished steel, required for freight cars now on inquiry, will be rolled next quarter. Farm implement manufacturers will be specifying for their fall run.

Third quarter interest in pig iron is developing, as usual, earliest in Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and the Buffalo district. While greater strength seems to be accruing in sheet prices, the real test will be afforded at Detroit this week when large automotive interests, particularly General Motors subsidiaries, contract for the third quarter. The level of 4.25 cents Pittsburgh on auto body sheets is subjected to the greatest pressure.

For plates, shapes and bars based at Pittsburgh, 1.85c appears to have become the general market and concession under this level has been made on attractive business. The disposition of consumers to place their buying under further check has intensified sales effort and mill competition has rarely been keener.

NEW ROAD LAWS ARE REVIEWED

Plans for Year's Construction Not Yet Approved by Board.

Frank F. Rogers, state highway commissioner, and G. C. Dillman, deputy commissioner, in addresses at the Northern Michigan Road Builders' association convention yesterday morning, gave an interesting and instructive summary of new highway legislation and financing, and sketched, in brief, plans for the immediate future.

The tentative construction program for the upper peninsula has been made up, Mr. Dillman said, but until it has been approved by the administrative board, it can not be announced.

Construction contracts, totalling $9,000,000, are now under way in Michigan, Mr. Rogers said. Much of this work was "let" last fall so that early starts could be taken by the contractors. This policy will be followed again this year and most of next year's construction will be sold to bidders this fall. The tentative three-year program, now in the making, calls for a "big share" of the work in the upper peninsula, Mr. Dillman revealed.

The three-cent gasoline tax, Mr. Rogers estimates, will produce about $2,000,000 more this year than the present two-cent tax would have produced. The total will be about $11,000,000 or $12,000,000 this year.

Lists New Laws.

Mr. Dillman described the new gas tax as "by far the most important piece of road legislation" passed by the legislature at its last session.

Among the legislative acts which he mentioned in his review were:

Provision for the payment to cities of $2,000 a mile for maintenance of trunk lines in cities where the maintenance burden is altogether on the municipality.

The Burke law, requiring the removal of slashings and debris from timber operations at least 100 feet from roadways.

The law giving maintenance machinery at work on roads the right-of-way over all other traffic.

Creation of a "wet traffic season" in March, April and May and limiting of truck load weights during that period.

Provisions for establishing automatic signals at railway crossings with the installation cost split equally by the railroad and the county, township or city.

New regulations for the use of convicts on road work.

A new condemnation law, giving the state highway commissioner power to hold "hearings on necessity" and take immediate action after the hearing.

A law making it possible to apply the special assessment system for financing roads through districts which would be particularly benefited by such roads.

A law prohibiting the abandonment of roads which skirt lakes and streams except through circuit court action.

Laws facilitating the lighting of roads and the building of sidewalks by townships.

Speed Limit Revised.

Removal of speed limit restrictions, and making the maximum speed that which can be employed carefully, safely and prudently; making it a felony to drive a car without the owner's permission; requiring all school busses to stop at railway and interurban crossings.

Many other new laws were touched upon in the review.

A number of them have not yet been signed by the governor.

ROAD REPAIRS TO BE OUT OF WAY BY JULY 1

Tiney, Davies Urge Speeding Up of Operations

Maintenance and repair work on the state highways of Michigan should be out of the way by July 1—the opening of the heavy traffic season—B. C. Tiney, state maintenance engineer, told delegates to the Northern Michigan Road Builders' association convention here yesterday.

Mr. Tiney urged, particularly, that tar surfacing and the laying of loose gravel be suspended during the months of July and August. "Get your machinery off the roads and let the motorists have the highways during the heavy traffic season," he advised the county road makers.

Tar Unpopular With Drivers.

If necessary, forces should be increased for the remainder of the month, so that the maintenance work can be completed. Then, if some tar and graveling operations remain undone, they should be laid aside until September, rather than make driving conditions unpleasant and uncomfortable for visitors, Mr. Tiney said.

The state maintenance department, he told the delegates, is forced to regard the state as a whole and its program is arranged from that viewpoint. He urged counties to co-operate in their maintenance projects when advantages are to be gained by working together.

Snow removal was described by Mr. Tiney as a maintenance problem of increasing importance. "After all," he said, "maintenance is the service branch of road building. If by giving additional service we can increase the use of our highways, we are going in the right direction."

Davies Also Speaks.

H. I. Davies, division engineer, at the morning session, also urged that repairs be out of the way by July 1. Adverse weather has slowed up operations considerably, he said, but every effort was being made by his department to make July 1 the deadline.

Last winter's snow removal program, Mr. Davies said, resulted in giving the department considerable valuable data. For instance, it was learned that in certain flat, cleared country plowing alongside of the road is just as efficient as erecting snow fencing. Drainage is also an important problem and one that is claiming much of the state's attention, Mr. Davies disclosed.

St. Joseph's High School Girl Wins Prize for Essay

Miss Marie Clement, a St. Joseph's high school student, has been awarded second prize in the state of Michigan for her essay, "The Relation of Chemistry to Agriculture." The contest was conducted by the American Chemical society and the prize is a set of standard reference books, "Chemistry in Industry." Miss Clement's essay tells in a novel manner, the many uses of chemistry on the farm.

SIGNS, TIMBER 'ROUND-TABLED'

Most of Peninsula Counties Have Definite Park Programs.

Virtually all counties of the peninsula went on record yesterday, at the Road Builders' convention, as favoring uniform county road markings, and acquiring, wherever possible, of roadside timber reserves and park tracts. These topics were discussed in two lively "round tables" at the afternoon session.

B. C. Tiney, maintenance engineer of the state department, presented the case for uniform road markings and gave the state's viewpoint. President Sawyer then called on the various county delegations to present their views.

H. P. Larson of Iron county, read a paper on Timber Reserves and Wide Rights-of-Way, which started the spirited discussion of that subject.

Virtually all of the counties of the peninsula except Chippewa and Mackinac have done more or less work towards acquiring timber tracts, either along the road or for parks, it was revealed as the delegates answered President Sawyer's roll call. In many instances lumber operators have shown a splendid spirit of cooperation in this particular. The Ford Motor company, the Cleveland Cliffs iron company and the Von Platen-Fox company were particularly mentioned.

School Playground Equipment Ordered

At the meeting of the Escanaba board of education held Wednesday it was decided that playground equipment be purchased for the Jefferson and Webster schools. It is not known whether the equipment installed by the Franklin school students on that playground last year will be duplicated.

G. C. Dillman told the convention that the state highway department plans to spend $50,000 in the peninsula this year in this sort of work.

It is probable that uniform road signs and timber reserves will figure prominently in the report of the resolutions committee this morning.

Peterson's Shoe Store Meets

the increasing demand for its Footwear with increased facilities for service.

This week the Peterson Shoe Store completed the installation of additional shelving and display racks placing them in position of being able to carry several hundred more pairs of footwear in their show room and to more efficiently handle a rapidly increasing patronage.

Ever since its inception—over 26 years ago—the Peterson Shoe Store has experienced a steady and sound growth until today it has, perhaps, the most frequent footwear stock turnover in the Upper Peninsula. It has constantly been the policy of this store to meet the growing demand for its services with facilities that are just a step ahead. The recent stock additions and remodeling are a part of this program.

Road Builders Discuss Wide Variety of Topics in Annual Convention

New state highway legislation and its effect on road construction in the peninsula; snow removal; maintenance problems; uniform markings for county roads; county timber reserves and parks, and wider rights-of-way, were the principal topics discussed in yesterday's busy session of the annual convention of the Northern Michigan Road Builders' association.

Keenest interest among the fifty engineers and commissioners representing the fifteen counties of the peninsula, was displayed in the personal conferences each county group had with State Highway Commissioner F. F. Rogers and members of his staff. These interviews were staged in "reverse alphabetical" order and continued throughout the day. Many local problems were threshed out.

Mr. Rogers was accompanied by Escanaba by the following members of his staff: G. C. Dillman, deputy commissioner; C. A. Melick, state bridge engineer, and R. C. Tiney, state maintenance engineer. The entire upper peninsula staff of H. I. Davies, division engineer, was also present. These included R. Martin, maintenance engineer, at Newberry; R. S. Read, maintenance engineer, at Crystal Falls; A. R.

Schafer and G. D. Trap, resident engineers in charge of road and bridge construction with offices at Newberry and Crystal Falls, respectively.

Bohn is Visitor.

Congressman Frank P. Bohn of Newberry attended the afternoon session. State Senator Walter Truettner of Bessemer, and State Representative Gust Hartman of Houghton and William Burke of L'Anse also were in attendance.

There was, of course, the usual sprinkling of machinery and material salesmen. J. W. Hannon, editor of Michigan Roads and Bridges, also came with the Rogers party.

Mr. Rogers and Mr. Melick will go to Menominee today to attend a conference which is expected to result in solution of some of the problems arising from the Marinette-Menominee bridge. Other members of the state staff will remain in Escanaba for the second day's session today.

All of the counties were represented when President K. I. Sawyer, of Marquette county, called the first session to order yesterday morning. The program, arranged by Secretary R. P. Mason, of Delta county, was carried out in detail, the only added event being a brief talk by Congressman Bohn in the afternoon.

The delegates spent the luncheon hour, yesterday, at the Bichler Brothers' gravel pit where they were served with a noon-day meal and shown the workings of the splendidly equipped gravel plant.

Banquet Last Night.

Motion pictures, shown at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, showed graphically the removal of snow in Houghton county.

The annual banquet took place at 6:15 o'clock in the Delta hotel.

The annual business meeting, including the report of the resolutions committee, the election of officers and the designation of next year's meeting place, will be the principal order of business this morning.

D. Van Wagner will address the morning session on lubrication, and the afternoon will be given over to inspection trips.

The following are members of the resolutions committee, which will report this morning: Commissioner Brown, of Alger county, chairman; F. J. McLean, Houghton; Louis Nadeau, Menominee; H. P. Larson, Iron; C. F. Winkler, Gogebic, and L. F. Lavigne, Chippewa.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE DELFT.

Buster Keaton, he of the frozen face, comes to the Delft Friday and Saturday in "The General," his great comedy spectacle of the sixties, the comedian's most pretentious effort. "The General" cost $500,000 to produce and it is Buster's first United Artists picture, placing him in the same category with Mary Pickford, Gloria Swanson, Charlie Chaplin, Douglas Fairbanks, John Barrymore and other dominating film stars who comprise United Artists membership.

"The General" is based on actual historical fact. The Andrews Railroad Raid of 1862 inspired the comedian to make a huge comedy spectacle, with thousands of soldiers and lavish sets in nature's studio, with three Civil War railroad engines bumping over the ties and jouncing audiences out of their seats with laughter. Marian Mack, a brunette, is the Southern belle for whom the gallant Buster stakes his shirt, the gray flannel one.

Unlike many comedies, "The General" has a real love story running through it, a breath-taking, hair-raising tale of soldiers and engines and sweethearts, and a face that never smiles. The girl thinks Buster is a slacker because the recruiting officer thinks an engineer more valuable to the South than a foot soldier. But Buster shows her, and how!

AT THE STRAND.

"One Chance In A Million" the latest action photodrama starring William Fairbanks gives the screen's most strenuous stunt man plenty to do at the Strand today and Saturday.

Mr. Fairbanks portrays a most baffling character wherein the spectator is never sure whether he is really the hero or a very smooth crook. The plot deals with the schemes of a clever gang of jewel thieves who make their hunting ground amid the realms of smart society. Jerry Blaine, a good looking youth makes a most unconvincing entrance into the house of the wealthy Richard Torrence and at the same time a valuable pearl necklace belonging to Ruth Torrence disappears. Just what takes place is exciting in the extreme and the true status of Jerry is made known after a series of most dramatic incidents.

OBITUARY

MRS. J. H. TRACY.
The body of Mrs. J. H. Tracy, former resident of this city, arrived from Lakewood, N. J., Thursday morning and short services were held at the grave in the family lot in Lakeview cemetery where her husband, the late Dr. J. H. Tracy, was buried a number of years ago. Rev. J. Crippens Evans officiated at the services.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Osburn and Mr. Coe of Cleveland, Ohio, accompanied the remains to this city.

NELSON INFANT.
Norbert Unifield Nelson, two-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson, 323 North Twelfth street, died at the family home at 1:45 yesterday afternoon. The body was taken to the Anderson Funeral Home to be prepared for burial. Funeral services will be held at St. Patrick's church at 2:30 this afternoon. Rev. Fr. R. Bergeron will officiate. Burial will be in Lakeview cemetery.

BABY BROWN.
Bernard Edward Brown, five-week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, 311 North Twelfth street, died at the family home at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The body was taken to the Allo Funeral home and will be returned to the home at 9 o'clock this morning. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from St. Joseph's church, with Rev. Fr. Bertrand Labinski officiating. Burial will be in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Officers Check Up Drivers' Licenses

Matt Wagner of the secretary of state office in Lansing assisted by members of the sheriff's department stopped hundreds of Escanaba cars yesterday afternoon in their check-up on operators' licenses.

Every person that did not have a license was sent immediately to either the sheriff's office or the police department for licenses. Operators must carry the licenses on their persons. A check-up on brakes and headlights will also be made this afternoon and evening. Drivers are warned to have their brakes and lights in proper condition.

Sportsmen to Hold Meeting at Palmer

The spring meeting of the Northern Michigan Sportsmen's association will be held in the town hall at Palmer on Tuesday, June 14. It has been announced by Peter Trudell, Jr., of Negaunee, president. Dr. P. S. Lovjoy of the department of conservation will attend. Other notables have been invited. An effort will be made, also, to have all the members of the legislature from the upper peninsula present.

IN NEW YORK

New York, June 1.—No street in these United States seems more inconspicuously named than Maiden Lane.

It was thus dubbed when Manhattan was a scattered group of shacks and farms along the Battery. Its name originated at a time when it was used as a pathway for Sunday strolls.

Today, and for more than a generation, it has suggested the flash of costly gems, the bickering and trading in sparklers. It is the capital of jewelry, the symbol of human vanity and luxury. The simple maids who trod its course in ye olden days would be startled and shocked at the display of glitter in that little belt on the fringe of the Wall street district, hemmed in by Nassau, John and Williams streets. All this to ye maidens of the early Maiden Lane connoted sinful waste and vanity—and, if one cares to grow philosophical on such matters, they were right.

Millions in baubles are hidden behind these business-like fronts. At night bars rise to protect windows and showcases are stripped of the trays of sparkling wealth. The casual looking men who lean in the doorways or pass by from time to time are guards and detectives keeping an eye open for those who prey upon gem dealers.

Now and then—not often—a car drives up, a couple saunters carelessly in, there are sounds of shots and a struggle and the car goes sneaking away. One picks up the evening paper to read of a holdup or an attempt there at.

Next week is the last week in school for the seniors of Manistique high, and baccalaureate services on June 12 will mark the beginning of the graduation exercises which culminate with commencement day on June 15.

Final examinations for the class of '27 take place next Thursday, the class day exercises will be on the following Tuesday, with commencement on Wednesday, and the senior prom, last social event of the school year, on Thursday.

Dr. E. A. Ross, head of the department of sociology at the University of Wisconsin, will be the commencement speaker.

STEUBEN MAN IS RELEASED ON PROBATION

Probation has been granted to Clifford Morford of Steuben, who appeared in justice court at Manistique to answer to charges of larceny filed by George W. Foote. Several lantern globes stored in a barn at the Foote camp were the articles involved in the testimony given on Tuesday and Wednesday, at which hearing Foote, Morford, Alice Davis, William Davis and George Marsh were witnesses.

LICENSE ISSUED.

A marriage license has been filed at the court house in Manistique for Enoch E. Johnson and Gertrude M. Settergren, both of Chicago. The latter is a former resident of Manistique, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Settergren of this city.

Your "Regular" Pain Now Needless

Menstruation is a perfectly natural process, but the painful part is NECESSARY. Long study has absolutely conquered menstrual pain. Science now offers women reliable and complete relief—in a simple, utterly harmless tablet called Midol.

This newest achievement of the laboratory has nothing to do with drastic, habit-forming drugs that kill pain by numbing the whole system! Midol acts directly on the organs affected by menstruation, and nowhere else. Yet relief and absolute comfort come in five to seven minutes!

So, why have a twinge of pain—feel "low" or even uncomfortable! Or take anything to depress the heart or upset the system? All drug stores have Midol in a thin aluminum box that tucks in purse or pocket—for 50 cents.

PENNY ADOPTS PRESS AS ITS SALES MEDIUM

Starting with this morning's issue and on Tuesdays and Fridays hereafter, the combined advertising of the Escanaba and Manistique J. C. Penney company stores will appear in the Escanaba Daily Press. Values advertised will be available both at Manistique and Escanaba.

While the Escanaba store of the J. C. Penney store has been a regular advertiser with the Press, the adoption of it by the Manistique store as a publicity vehicle is somewhat of an innovation—a step that was preceded by a careful investigation analysis of Press circulation in Manistique and trading area—at the present time in excess of 1300 daily subscribers. Averaging five readers to each paper delivered, the Manistique store of the J. C. Penney company will tell their story twice a week to approximately 6,500 Manistique and vicinity people.

Manistique and vicinity folks will find it to their advantage to carefully read the J. C. Penney advertisement appearing in this morning's issue as well as those that will follow on Tuesdays and Fridays of the future.

Attend Anniversary of Nahma Couple

Accompanied by her sons, William and Victor and their families, Mrs. Georgiana Courneya of Manistique attended a surprise party at Nahma Sunday, the occasion being the thirty-third wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sturgeon, formerly of this city.

Many friends and relatives, both from Escanaba and Manistique were present. Music and dancing furnished the entertainment, after which a lunch was served.

Among the guests from Escanaba was Joseph Trudeau, a cousin of the "bride," who acted as best man at the wedding 33 years ago. Relatives present included: Mrs. Georgiana Courneya and granddaughter Lucille, Mr. and Mrs. William Courneya, Ruth and Versal; Victor and Marjorie Courneya, all of Manistique; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fish, Clemens and Marjorie; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Trudeau and daughter, Jeanette, Mr. and Mrs. William McDonald and daughter Florence, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hamlin, Edward, Margaret and Marie, all of Escanaba; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Witty and daughter, Norma of Isabella, Mrs. Witty being a daughter of Mrs. Sturgeon; Mr. and Mrs. George Stratton, Percy, Luella and Lauretta, of Nahma.

Mesdames Sturgeon and Stratton accompanied Mrs. Courneya back to Manistique on Tuesday, and spent the day visiting friends and relatives in this city.

Arson Hearing Set for June 8

Examination of Melvin Bigelow, Germfask resident charged with setting fire to his home, is scheduled to take place in Justice W. A. McKinney's court next Wednesday, June 8.

Bigelow appeared with Attorney O'Connor on Wednesday and asked a hearing on the arson charge. Bond for his appearance next week was given by S. S. Sexton in the amount of $500.

MEETS SATURDAY.

A regular meeting of the Eastern Star has been set for Saturday evening, June 4, at 8 o'clock. The business meeting will be followed by a social hour with refreshments.

MAYOR GIVES HIS VIEW ON CITY TANGLE

"It seems time that I made a public statement as to the political situation in Manistique, because it has certain peculiarities that warrant explanation," said Mayor R. B. Waddell yesterday, when questioned by the Press reporter regarding his viewpoint in the present civic war within the council.

The first question asked by the reporter was: "What in your opinion is the underlying factor which brought about the present crisis? Have you felt any pressure of public opinion—any demand from the people for removal of the manager?"

In reply, Mr. Waddell said: "After a thorough investigation, it seems to be prompted by purely personal motives. There has been no demand come to me regarding the charges or the discharge of the manager."

People Satisfied.

"In spite of the fact that a majority of the city council are lined up against Mr. Wallis, our city manager, it seems amply demonstrated that most of the citizens approve of his administration. While he has made certain enemies by his unswerving path toward a better and more economical administration for our town, he has made friends by the hundreds among the class of people that have the best interests of Manistique at heart."

"For this reason, when certain so-called 'charges' were preferred against him by three members of the council, both Mr. Falk and I felt that they were most unjust and uncalled for. At the hearing some weeks later, Mr. Wallis was clearly successful in refuting these accusations. My decision to retain him certainly seemed to meet the approval of most of the large group of citizens that attended the hearing. This feeling was further evidenced the next morning when a meeting of representative business men was held for the purpose of starting the three recall petitions now in circulation."

The reporter then brought up the subject of the more recent salary imbroglio and asked: "Were you consulted in the framing of the salaries resolution?"

"No," the mayor replied. "It was framed and presented by Councilmen Gero, Middlebrook and Cookson without talking to the other members of the council."

Manager Will 'Stick.'

"Holding the balance of the power in the council, these three members on Tuesday voted to reduce the manager's salary to an absurd figure, presumably in an effort to force him to resign. I want to make it clear that it is because Mr. Wallis has been assured that these councilmen do not represent the true sentiment of the community he has decided to 'stick.'"

Another query was: "Well, Mr. Waddell, what do you think is necessary now to restore harmony in the Manistique council?"

"To this the mayor's only reply was, 'In my opinion, it would be impossible to secure harmony or co-operation with the present personnel.'"

In conclusion, he was asked if he felt that the new form of government was a success in Manistique, after a trial of one year.

"So far as I can ascertain, the people are satisfied," declared Mayor Waddell, "and that's what we're looking for."

Annual Junior Prom Tonight

Two social events prominent in high school annuals are on the schedule for the week at Manistique.

The first is the junior prom, which is staged tonight at the high school gymnasium, followed by the senior prom next Thursday evening. Parents of students are invited to both functions.

FRESHMEN PLAN SALE.

The freshman class of Manistique high school will stage a bake sale Saturday afternoon at the Gunnarson and Kefauver store. They plan to have a big line of goods on display.

CHURCH AT NAHMA.

Services at the Nahma United church will be conducted tonight at 7:30 by Rev. C. S. Risley of the M. E. church, Manistique.

CITY BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McCormack of Menominee and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crawford of Cedar River were guests at the Mead home the past week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted McCullough left Wednesday morning for Pontiac after visiting friends and relatives in Manistique.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Riedinger and Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell of Ishpeming were the guests of Mrs. Mary Holbein on Memorial day.

CLEAN-UP OF RUBBISH ABOUT COMPLETED

The annual clean-up of rubbish which the city street department is conducting is being speeded up this week with both city trucks being used for the work.

The clean-up has been completed on the north side of Delta avenue and south to the alley between Michigan and Wisconsin at the present time and the entire job will be completed as soon as possible.

Property owners are again asked to leave all rubbish at the alley line. Nothing will be removed from private property and those who wish the crew to haul 'way rubbish must aid to this extent.

REVIEW BOARD MEETING FOR THREE DAYS

The Board of Review will meet three days next week beginning Monday, holding its sessions in the City hall building, on the second floor.

The board will be in session each of the three days from 8 to 12 o'clock in the morning and from 1:30 to 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The sessions are the regular meetings held to review the city assessor's tax roll and to give property owners an opportunity to look over the proposed assessments and to make complaints if they wish to enter any.

THEATRES

"KID BOOTS"

For years Broadway claimed Eddie Cantor as its own. A million and a quarter people saw the musical comedy star in "Kid Boots" during its three-year New York run.

Now, Paramount, through the medium of a superb motion picture version of Florenz Ziegfeld's "Kid Boots," has brought the much lauded show and its star to the screen. "Kid Boots" opens at the Lyric Theatre today.

AT THE COMMUNITY.

A touch of Griffith. A bit of Murnau. A suggestion of Lubitsch and something distinctively original, refreshingly American and exhilaratingly modern. That is the impression of the directorial artistry of Lewis Milestone that one carries away from a showing of Warner Bros' production of "The Cave Man," starring Marie Prevost and Matt Moore, which opened yesterday at the Community theatre.

PRESBYTERIAN SOCIAL TONIGHT

Fine Program of Talent Arranged for Affair.

A feature social will be held this evening at Westminster Presbyterian church in the "Sack Social," plans for which have been under way for some time. The social will begin at 7:30 o'clock and everyone is invited to attend it.

There will be no admission charge outside of the "sock" contribution, which was explained in letters sent out in large numbers, and there will be no silver offering taken. Those who have not received socks may obtain them at the church or may go to the social without them.

The program, one of the finest arranged in some time, has been announced as follows by Rev. Robert Grant, pastor:

Selection—Orchestra. Miss Meroy Medill, Pianist.
 Vocal Solo—Mrs. H. W. Blackwell.

Guild Supper Big Success

The church supper served Wednesday evening by the guild of Trinity Episcopal church was a decided success with a big crowd attending and enjoying the delicious menu. Members of the guild in charge of the affair asked that their thanks be extended the general public for its patronage and all others who assisted.

CITY BRIEFS

Miss Margaret LaPine arrived Tuesday from Kendrick, Idaho, where she has been teaching, to spend her vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. LaPine.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Nelson, formerly of this city, and now located in Florida, have arrived here to spend a few days with Mr. Nelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Nelson.

Mrs. Willis McFarland, Lodi, Wis., motored to this city, to care for her mother, Mrs. Robert Grant, who has been ill for the past week and who is under the care of Dr. D. N. Kee.

Miss Georgia Miller of Detroit is visiting relatives here: B. J. Kemp left Wednesday evening on a business trip to Milwaukee.

Mrs. M. E. Wyatt and children, Marjorie Ann and Billy, have arrived from Flint to visit with Mrs. Wyatt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moore.

The Standard Bearers will give a bake sale at Erickson's Central Pharmacy Saturday afternoon. Phone orders will be taken care of by the committee. Those in charge are Charlotte Marble, June Woodhall, Evelyn Johnson, Christine MacMillan and Ruth Noreus.

A special feature of the Forty Hours' Devotion which just closed at All Saints' Catholic church was found in the beauty of the altar decorations which were in charge of the Sisters of St. Joseph. Flowers for the decorations were donated to the Sisters by Sacred Heart Court, Catholic Order of Foresters.

MARKET NEWS

MART FACTIONS FIGHT BITTERLY

STOCK SALES AVERAGES. Date Industrials Railroads

New York, June 2-(AP)—Opposing speculative forces staged a bitter struggle in today's stock market.

Several reasons were brought forward to explain the selling movement, but chief stress seemed to be on the belief that the technical position of the market had been weakened by the rapidity of the recent advance in many issues.

Speculators for the advance were loathe to relinquish control of the price movement, even temporarily, and developed enough buying power to keep the main trend upward.

Another flock of new high records was created in the railroad group, but major speculative activity seemed to center in Chicago, Great Western preferred and the Missouri Pacific issues.

Revival of activity and strength in General Motors sent that stock up nearly 3 points to a new record high level at 20 1/2.

Weak spots cropped out in several sections of the list, but there were no wide open breaks, few losses exceeding 2 points.

Rally of nearly 10 points in Italian lire which again sold around 5.60 cents, was the only development of consequence in the foreign exchange trading.

Yanks Aply Assist Ruether to Shut Out Tigers

DUTCH PITCHES AIRTIGHT BALL

New York Bunches Hits in Fifth, Sixth Innings to Win.

New York, June 2.—(AP)—The New York Yankees played snappy ball behind Dutch Ruether's great pitching and shut out the Detroit Tigers here today, 2 to 0. Ruether yielded only two hits. He pitched one of his best games since coming to New York, and in seven of the nine innings only three men faced him. Stoner also pitched well for the Tigers, but New York managed to bunch four of its eight hits in the fifth and sixth innings for two runs. Stoner suffered his first defeat of the season.

The lack of attack by Tiger batsmen was an unfortunate break for Stoner, who pitched one of his best games of the season. He held the Yankees to seven hits two of which were bunched in the fifth for a run and the same number in the sixth produced another tally.

Lazzeri opened the fifth with a single and raced to second on a blow by Morehart. While Grabowski was forcing Morehart, Lazzeri scored. In the sixth, Combs and Koenig collaborated in the making of the second and last counter. Koenig's single put Combs on third. Ruth sacrificed and Combs scored.

Moriarty juggled his batting lineup again today without result. Neun was elevated to second position and Gehring descended to sixth. Under the order of things, four right-handers in five-faced Ruether in a row. The middle of the defensive front was helpless before Ruether's pitching and the little that Woodall and Tavener at the bottom of the attack managed was of no material value.

THE REFEREE

Has any team played errorless ball during a world series?—F. B. B.
No. Boston Red Sox committed only one error in the 1918 series.

How many times has Babe Ruth played in a world series?—F. K.
Seven times, thrice with the Red Sox and four times with the Yankees.

Are there many instances where a major league player has hit three home runs in one game?—B. B.
No. Only 22 such feats are recorded.

CLEAN FLOORS.

Oiled floors, whether floor or linoleum, should be wiped with a cloth wet with kerosene, not with soap and water. Water dulls the finish.

COLLEGE TENNIS PLAYERS MEET

Finals in Michigan State College Tournament Tomorrow.

East Lansing, June 2.—(AP)—College tennis players of Michigan started working their way through the annual Michigan State College invitational meet here Thursday afternoon. The players went through two rounds Thursday and will resume play Friday with the finals scheduled for Saturday.

Only one upset marked the first day's play. Ted Hendershot, Michigan State college captain, went down before the brilliant playing of Votaw, Muskegon Junior college star. Hendershot lost 7-5, 1-6, 6-4.

College of the City of Detroit and Michigan State were tied for team honors with three points each tonight after the final matches were played late this evening. The Spartan freshmen, Grand Rapids Junior college and Battle Creek college, each had two points while Muskegon Junior and Western Normal had a point each.

The result of the second round follows:
E. Gloecksi (Grand Rapids Junior) D. Sincor (Battle Creek) 6-2, 6-2; Dukelsky (Muskegon Junior) D. Woolley (Central Normal) 6-0, 6-2; Brayton (Detroit City) defeated Lewis (Western Normal) 6-2, 6-3; Moss (Detroit City) defeated Kelly (Central Normal) 6-2, 6-1; Colvin (M. S. C.) defeated Forsman (Grand Rapids) 5-7, 6-1, 6-4; Perrin (M. S. C.) defeated Lugloski (Grand Rapids) 6-4, 6-4; Swan (State Fresh) defeated Kean (Detroit City) 6-4, 6-2; Baird (Battle Creek) defeated Page (Detroit City) 6-1, 6-2; H. Gloecksi (Grand Rapids) defeated Anway (Western Normal) 6-1, 6-1; Victorious (Battle Creek) defeated Jennings (Port Huron) 6-2, 5-7, 6-4; Spencer (Detroit City) defeated Williams (State Fresh) 6-2, 6-1; Bellar (Western Normal) defeated Blackman (Grand Rapids) 6-2, 1-6, 6-1; Farleman (M. S. C.) defeated Shigley (State Fresh) 6-1, 6-0.

BOXING

London, June 2.—(AP)—Archie Bell, New York bantamweight, won a decision from Kid Pattenden of London at the end of 15 rounds tonight. Bell inflicted severe body punishment on his rival in the early rounds. Pattenden, midway in the battle, staged a comeback. He floored the American in the eleventh, but Bell came back strong toward the close.

PIRATES POUND PHILLIES, 7 TO 3

Cy Williams Drives Out Tenth Home Run This Season.

Pittsburgh, June 2.—(AP)—Pittsburgh staged a batting rally in the seventh inning today to win from Philadelphia, 7 to 3. The Pirates scored a trio of runs in the third, hitting Ferguson freely, but in the sixth Cy Williams drove out his tenth homer of the season, scoring two runners and deadlocking the count. This was Hill's only bad inning.

GIANTS 5; REDS 4.

Cincinnati, O., June 2.—(AP)—The New York Giants were hard pressed to win their first game of their western invasion here today, but finally found their mark after Jackie Mey replaced Donohue in the twelfth inning.

Roush launched the winning attack in the twelfth with a single. Lindstrom beat out an infield hit and a freak fly by Harper forced Lindstrom and scored Roush.

The score: R. H. E.

Cincinnati 210 000 000 001-4 13 2
McQuillan, Grimes and O'Neil, Cummings; Donohue, May and Pictinich, Hargrave.

Walter Hagen is far from his golfing self, but John Golden, the North Jersey player, is a model of steadiness and will make a good teammate for Hagen. Al Espinosa who will probably replace Watrous, is playing great golf.

The play tomorrow will be four 36 holes of foursomes with eight singles matches of 36 holes to follow Saturday. Each match will be scored one point.

Walter Hagen and John Golden will play against George Duncan and Archie Compston. Johnny Farrell and Joe Turnesa will oppose Aubrey Boomer and C. A. Whitcombe. Bill Mehlhorn and Leo Riegel will line up against Ted Ray and Fred Robeson while Gene Sarazen and Al Espinosa of Al Watrous try conclusions with Arthur Havers and H. J. Jolly.

Aubrey Boomer, the hard hitting British player, showed the best golf seen on the course today with a snappy 71, one over a hard par on a course offering plenty of difficulties. The visitors were resting in the afternoon while the Americans played Scotch foursomes among themselves.

Farrel and Turnesa got a 69 in defeating Mehlhorn and Diegel, with a 77, five up and four to go. Sarazen and Espinosa defeated Hagen and Golden, one up, the winners getting a 74, against a 75 for the losers.

The following events will be held: Running high jump, running broad jump, hop-step and jump, 50-yard dash, 440-yard relay (eight on a team), baseball throw and basketball throw.

American Women in Tennis Semi-Finals

Stamford Hill, England, June 2.—(AP)—Helen Wills, Mrs. Molla Malory and Miss Elizabeth Ryan, all Americans, remain as semi-finalists in the women's tennis singles. Mrs. Malory defeated the other American entrant, Mrs. McClure Harper, 6-0, 6-1.

Miss Wills defeated Miss Valentine, England, in a somewhat close game, 6-2, 6-4. The English woman often gave as good as she got, but the American girl's tremendous drives and powerful, varied service, prevailed and she finished with a marvellously placed winning shot.

Nine Schools Entered in "Flivver" Carnival

Iron Mountain, June 2.—Success of the upper peninsula relays, the first of their kind, to be held at the Kingsford track Saturday, is assured with the entrance of nine teams in the carnival, among them the best of the upper peninsula of Michigan boasts.

Schools entered are Escanaba, Gladstone, Houghton, Menominee, Crystal Falls, Norway, Vulcan, Kingsford and Iron Mountain. Of these, Houghton, Escanaba and Menominee have been showing up splendidly in the early season work.

Houghton, the cream of the Copper Country talent, will send down a large delegation in the hope of bringing the honors of the first meet back to the land of the bronze metal.

U. S. GOLFERS IN WORK-OUT

British Rivals Rest as Americans Prepare for Match.

Worcester, Mass., June 2.—(AP)—While the British professional golfers entered in the Ryder cup match at the Worcester Country club rested today from the strenuous practice of the past two days, their American rivals put in a hard day over the course in preparation for the two days play, starting tomorrow. The British players since their arrival have been playing 36 holes practice daily but today contented themselves with an easy jaunt of 18 holes.

Indications tonight were that two well-known golfers will not be in the first day's international golf play. A split thumb threatened to keep Al Watrous, the Grand Rapids pro, off the American team for the opening competition of two ball or Scotch foursomes and perhaps prevent his participation in the singles to be played Saturday. George Gadd of Roehampton was off his game and will be replaced, at least in the foursomes, by H. J. Jolly.

Selection of the American team was delayed until late in the day. The play in the foursomes is not the best ball to which the Americans are accustomed with each player playing his own ball, so pairing the players was not easy. The first tentative teaming did not work well but it was believed that the final arrangement contrived to put the Americans best golf foot forward.

STATE TENNIS TOURNAMENT OPENS

High School Contestants to Play Off Second Round Today.

Ypsilanti, Mich., June 2.—(AP)—One round of matches in doubles and three matches in singles were played in the state high school tennis tournament here today. The winning teams in the doubles with Detroit Eastern form the eight teams scheduled to play in the second round of the singles tomorrow morning. The three matches in the singles reduced the field in that event to 16 for tomorrow's first round.

The Scores:
DOUBLES MATCHES: Royal Oak, defeated Savich and Bolton, Highland Park 5-6; 8-10; 6-3.
Gloster and Jackson, Detroit Northwestern, defeated Dane and Irwin, Grand Rapids Central, 6-3; 4-6; 6-3.

Heald and Lewis, Battle Creek, defeated Clark and Porter, Pontiac, 6-4; 6-4.
Laevin and Lignell, Grand Rapids South, defeated Davis and Sigmund, Hillsdale, 6-2; 6-1.

Jackson and Everden, Ontonagon, defeated Rahn and King, Benton Harbor, 5-7; 6-4; 9-7.
Bixby and Granow, Detroit Northwestern, defeated Letterman and Stenius, Detroit Central, 6-0; 6-1.

Barber and Moore, Hillsdale, defeated Densenbury and Nichols, Highland Park, 6-4; 4-6; 6-4.
SINGLES: Stenius, Detroit Central, defeated Stinfield, Kalamazoo, 6-0; 6-2.
Pendell, Saginaw, defeated Lester, Detroit Eastern, 3-6; 6-0; 6-0.

Modill, Midland, defeated Ryan, Grand Rapids Central, 6-2; 6-2.

Few are ready to concede that Silva will have an easy time after failing to stop Ross whom he battered around the ring. Ross, in fact, took a greater beating from Birch than he did from Silva, and on this argument fans are looking for a Birch victory.

The final chapter in the Mox-Grandy battle is expected to be another hot well worth seeing. Mox lost in the first encounter in the first round by a knock-out and technically lost the second on a foul after giving Grandy a terrific beating. In the minds of fans, things stand at a win apiece. Grandy's poor condition may have contributed to his downfall, but both men will enter the ring in their third fight in the proverbial pink. Grandy is down to rigid training schedule.

LEGION BOOKS BIRCH, SILVA FOR REUNION

Reunion Show at Iron River Offers 34 Rounds.

Joe Birch, slashing Milwaukee fighter and Jack Silva, of Davenport, will be the classic headline attraction on the American Legion convention fight card to be held probably on June 24. Both men will be asked this week by Promoter Joe Funkey to sign on the dotted line.

Frank Mox of Iron Mountain, and Bud Grandy of Iron River, with one victory apiece, will saw off their score on the same card if present plans of Funkey materialize.

In addition to these attractions, Funkey is seeking an opponent for Billie Dishaw of Crystal Falls, and someone for Jack Tebo of Iron River. In all, there will be 34 rounds of the best boxing the American Legion post has presented since it entered the right business.

See Real Slugfest.

Interest in the card so far as Iron River is concerned, will center about the Birch and Silva go with prospect for a slugfest that will eclipse the Birch-Ross battle. From what fans saw of Silva in his recent fight here, they believe Birch is the type to be pitted against him. Neither will show any quarter. Admirers of Birch are saying Silva will be punch-weary and disheartened from Joe's endurance and near the end of the fight will be so fatigued that the Badger ringster will have no difficulty in putting him away.

Few are ready to concede that Silva will have an easy time after failing to stop Ross whom he

DEVELOPMENT BUREAU MEETS

Many Delta County Men Attend Gathering at Ford City.

A considerable number of Escanaba and Delta county men yesterday attended the sixteenth annual meeting of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau at Iron Mountain, where representatives of the fifteen upper peninsula counties met to perpetuate the work of that organization.

As the result of the increased financial aid given to the bureau through the efforts of the Upper Peninsula Supervisors' association, reports were submitted at yesterday's meeting showing that it has been possible to most materially increase the bureau's advertising program for the upper peninsula. In addition to the usual booklets distributed to the number of 71,000 by the bureau during the present year, the bureau is carrying for the upper peninsula a six weeks' campaign of advertising in newspapers and magazines of the central west having a total circulation of more than 4,000,000. The bureau's campaign of advertising for this section of the state is just now being started in newspapers of Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukee, Kansas City, St. Louis, Cleveland and other cities and will be continued through June and a portion of July.

Sessions of the bureau were held at Iron Mountain yesterday throughout the forenoon, afternoon and evening. Among the speakers were: George E. Harvey of Escanaba, secretary of the Upper Peninsula Supervisors' association; E. G. Seivers, crop specialist for the Michigan State college in the peninsula; V. F. Bailey of the United States biological survey; John D. Willard, director of agriculture extension, Michigan State college; Leigh J. Young, director of the department of conservation; S. T. Dana, head of the forest experiment department of the state university; John A. Doelle, of the Michigan Real Estate association and former secretary of the Development Bureau, and Seth Gordon, extension secretary of the Isaak Walton League of America.

Soviet Minister to Britain Will Leave for Home Tomorrow

London, June 1—(P)—A. P. Rosengolz, the soviet charge d'affaires, has informed Sir Austen Chamberlain, British foreign secretary, that he will leave England from Victoria station at 11 o'clock Friday morning. Mr. Klinkshuck, head of the soviet trade delegation, which has been ordered out of England on the severance of relations, is also leaving Friday as is the soviet steamer Youshar from the Thames with a large number of those attached to the charge's office and Arcos, Ltd., the Russian trade organization.

Jerusalem, June 1—(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)—The break between the British government and soviet Russia will have its effect on the Russian Jewish immigration to Palestine, it was learned here today.

Following upon the severance of relations between the British government and the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics all application for visas of Russian Jewish immigrants to Palestine will be denied. Instructions issued to the immigration authorities indicate that those Russians who obtained visas before the Anglo-Soviet breach occurred will be admitted to the country.

HOW MRS. WEAVER WAS HELPED

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

As Mrs. Weaver herself says, "I was never very strong." This is a mild statement describing her condition, for, according to her letters, she was subjected to no small amount of ill health. Fortunately, her sister with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begged Mrs. Weaver to try it. "After three or four weeks," writes Mrs. Weaver, "I felt a great difference in myself. I would go to bed and sleep sound, and although I could not do very much work, I seemed stronger. I kept on taking it and now I am well and strong, do my work and take care of three children. I sure do tell my friends about your wonderful medicine, and I will answer any letters from women asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, East Smithfield St., Mt. Pleasant, Pa.

If you know that thousands of women suffering from troubles similar to those you are enduring had improved their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, wouldn't you think it was worth a trial?

SOCIAL

Young-Rowan.
Announcements have been received in the city of the marriage of Miss Florence Young of Randolph, Wis., and Otto Rowan, son of Mrs. Mary Rowan of 1513 North avenue, Milwaukee, Wis.

The wedding took place Saturday, May 28, at St. Paul's church in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The attendants were Mrs. Florence Westman and Bernard Rowan, brother and sister of the bridegroom. A wedding dinner was served at the home of Mrs. Rowan for immediate relatives. The couple are spending a few days at Randolph, Wis., after which they will make their home at Milwaukee, where Mr. Rowan is employed.

The bridegroom formerly lived in this city and is the second son of the late Joseph and Mrs. Rowan.

Birthday Party.
Raymond Taylor was the honor guest at a 6 o'clock dinner given at the family home, 1823 First avenue south, Wednesday evening on the occasion of his thirty-sixth birthday anniversary.

Immediate members of the two families gathered at the home and after the dinner, the evening was delightfully spent in social diversions. Mr. Taylor was the recipient of many pretty and useful gifts.

Nordgren-Strom.
Miss Elfreda Nordgren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Nordgren, of Daggett, became the bride of Fred Strom, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Gulensten, of Menominee, at the Swedish Baptist church Tuesday noon at 12 o'clock. Rev. John Hugo officiating. Miss Gladys Nordgren and Marvin Peterson were the attendants.

The bride was attired in a rose colored georgette gown with accessories to match. The bridesmaid was attired in a georgette gown with harmonizing hat and scarf.

They left after the ceremony for Menominee where they will make their home.

HAREM NOTE.
"L'Eveil," a Parisian creation of white crepe de chine with sparkling diamonds, has the swathed hipline, bolero waistline and a suggestion of the eulotte in its draped skirt which turns up under the hem.

MAY AVERAGE FOR RAINFALL

First Time in Nine Years That 55 Year Normal Was Reached.

For the first time in nine years rainfall in the month of May was normal in Escanaba and vicinity. The normal precipitation for May is 3.42 inches, and it is the first time since 1918 that amount has fallen. It is an excess of the 1.93 inches over rainfall in May, 1926.

The average daily temperature of 48 degrees was the same as in May, last year, a deficiency of 1.9 degrees from the normal over a 55-year period. An accumulated excess of 31.7 degrees is shown since January 1.

The highest temperature during the month was 74 degrees, reached on Sunday, May 22, and the lowest mark was 34 degrees, on Friday, the 20th.

There were three clear days during the month, 12 partly cloudy days, 16 on which the sky was completely overcast and 17 days on which precipitation occurred.

Escanaba Girl Made May Queen

Miss Marie Scheriff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Scheriff of this city, was signally honored at Prairie du Chien where she is a student at St. Mary's college when she was crowned May queen at the May festival held in that city Thursday, May 26. Besides being honored as May queen, Miss Scheriff, who is a junior at the college, has been president of her class during the school term. She is expected to arrive in this city this month to spend the vacation period at the parental home. Miss Scheriff is a graduate of St. Joseph's high school class of 1924.

Borger, Texas, June 1—(P)—Five men were injured, one probably fatally when a gas well caught fire at Sanford, Texas, late today. The well is about half a mile from one which took eight lives before it was extinguished at Sanford last week. The Crockett-Mellroy gas well fire, east of here which had been burning since Saturday was put out today with the aid of explosives.
