FOUR TRANS-ATLANTIC FLYERS SAFE

"America", Lost for Hours Forced Down In English Channel

FOUR FLYERS REACH SHORE SAFELY; SHIP BADLY DAMAGED IN FALL; LOSE WAY IN HEAVY RAIN AND FOG.

(BULLETIN) (Special to The Press, 2:30 a. m.) Paris, July 1.—(AP)—The government at Paris was notified this morning that the trans-Atlantic plane "America" dropped into the English Channel 170 miles from Paris.

(BULLETIN) Paris, July 1.—(AP)—Messages received through different wireless stations supposedly from Commander Byrd between 12:10 and 12:50 o'clock this morning led the authorities to believe he was somewhere south of Paris during that time.

(BULLETIN) Berlin, July 1.—(AP)—Ten of the Lufthansa airdromes in south Germany are holding their fastest planes in readiness should Commander Byrd appear over German territory on a possible flight to Vienna.

(BULLETIN) Paris, July 1.—(AP)—Commander Richard E. Byrd and his comrades in the monoplane America are lost somewhere in France in the early morning hours.

"Living Laboratory" Receives Due Award

New York, June 30.—(AP)—A former army private, crippled from the ravages of yellow fever, when he served as a living laboratory in 1900 for Dr. Walter Reed who was seeking to trace the origin of the disease, received a reward for his heroic deed today.

Confab Moves Forward In Mutual Confidence

Geneva, Switzerland, June 30.—(AP)—The tripartite naval conference moved forward today in an atmosphere of mutual confidence, which was the immediate outcome of Great Britain's spontaneous act in proclaiming to the world that the British empire seeks no supremacy over the United States in sea power.

18 Deaths Result From Prostration

Chicago, June 30.—(AP)—The midwest sweltered again today with no relief in sight. In Chicago the temperature was 93 at 3 p. m., having climbed steadily all day at the rate of a degree an hour.

GOV'T SURPLUS LARGEST EVER

$640,000,000 in Treasury As Fiscal Period Closes. Washington, June 30.—(AP)—The government rounded out the fiscal year tonight with a treasury surplus estimated at $635,000,000 to $640,000,000, the greatest in history.

GROUP ROBBED 7,000 CHURCHES

15,000 Systematic Robberies Completed by Organized Gang. Cincinnati, June 30.—(AP)—The systematic execution of 15,000 robberies of 7,000 Catholic churches in every state of the United States and in Canada, during twenty-seven years by a gang, whose leader held a grudge against the Catholic church, was revealed here today.

FORD PLANES AT CURTISS FIELD

Fourteen Entrants Complete Fifth Leg of 4,110 Mile Journey.

New York, June 30.—(AP)—The 14 planes entered in the national air tour were on the ground at Curtiss Field, Long Island, tonight, after completing the fifth leg of their 4,110 mile journey.

Trans-Atlantic Flight Grips Cal's Attention

Rapid City, S. D., June 30.—(AP)—The last expectant hours of another flight between New York and Europe were followed with great interest today by President Coolidge, who although sequestered in the mountains of South Dakota, was kept in touch with Commander Byrd's progress.

ed plane difficult to reach by bad roads, and much time elapsed before a personal investigation by the newspapermen revealed the identity of the report.

But at first so certain did it seem that the plane had come down that H. A. Gibbons, representative of Rodman Wanamaker, backer of the trans-Atlantic flight, started for the place. Some time before 1 o'clock, however, someone reported the whir of propellers over LeBourget, and Commandant Renvoise started the fares going again to be sure. Soon after that the lack of confirmation of the alleged landing made the situation serious, and eventually it was discovered to be without foundation.

Hard Job for Reporters. Despite this, rural gendarmes and others searched the isle section for any trace of the plane. The search proved fruitless and was abandoned at 5 a. m.

For the reporters it was a hard job to get to Islay which lies at the far end of Paris outside Porte de Versailles. It was a long run by car over slippery pavements from the heart of the city and even a longer and more trying run from LeBourget.

Then at Porte de Versailles there was an annoying stop for a check-up of the "octrol," or local taxis, which are charged on gasoline, and another run along a dark road to the field. There was not a telephone available there at that time of night, and the same long ride back to Paris was necessary before central offices would be informed and the news authoritatively denied.

For most of the newspapermen, the trip took nearly an hour, and for those who were painstaking enough to check up all possible sources, even longer.

Roosevelt Field, N. Y., June 30.—(AP)—Two youthful wives, whose husbands were somewhere in fog-bound skies above France, refused to admit the possibility of danger tonight and smiled from ashen faces as they reiterated their belief that all would turn out well.

Two Reports Erroneous.

Mrs. George Noville and Mrs. Bert Acosta, wives of the pilot and engineer of the Byrd flight, arrived at the hangar early this evening to celebrate the successful termination of the flight as soon as it should be announced.

Twice during the long hours their prayers seemed to have been answered but twice their hopes were dashed and the vigil had to be begun once more. During the evening there was a report that the America was over LeBourget field. This was almost immediately withdrawn as erroneous by the Western Union which had issued it. Later an apparently authentic announcement was made by officials at LeBourget that the America had come down in the outskirts of Paris. This also proved to be untrue.

Say Flyers Are Safe.

"I'm not worried," Mrs. Acosta asserted. "I know Bert and the others will get to their destination. I'm not afraid."

Mrs. Noville nodded and said she too knew the fliers were safe. But the strain of the long wait was evident in both women's faces.

The wives had been the guests of honor at a banquet in the hangar held to celebrate the termination of the flight. On the report that the America had landed all was excitement and jubilation among the several hundred persons present.

Report Hope Celebration.

An orchestra played patriotic airs. Men and women cheered. Fireworks were set off. And a parade was formed which marched out to the incline from which the "America" took off in yesterday's dawn.

It was as this parade returned to the hangar that word came of the reports being untrue. The crowd became quiet, the fireworks ceased, the orchestra stopped playing. And then the banquet guests began slipping away until the hangar was almost empty.

In the little office at one end of the hangar Mrs. Acosta and Mrs. Noville sat silently, waiting for more reports and hoping that the suspense was almost over.

WOULD NOT LAND BLINDLY.

Winchester, Va., June 30.—(AP)—"It is absolutely inconceivable to me that Dick would land at night unless he knew exactly where he was. I believe he is going somewhere else or staying in the air until daylight." Thomas Byrd, brother of Commander Richard E. Byrd, of the America, told the Associated Press tonight.

BACKER AWAITS WORD.

Paris, July 1.—(AP)—Being of the opinion that the America has landed somewhere around Paris, H. A. Gibbons, representative of Rodman Wanamaker shortly before 6 o'clock this morning was waiting for the opening at 7 o'clock of the telegraph stations to hear from Commander Byrd.

Believe Plane Near.

All the telephone and telegraph offices in the provinces close at 7 p. m., and do not open till 7 a. m.

While waiting with the son of Rodman Wanamaker, Mr. Gibbons said: "Our theory is that the America landed somewhere around Paris and that the pilot and his companions probably are safe, but we are ready to go to their help in case they met with serious accident."

Paris, July 1.—(AP)—The report of the landing of Commander Byrd's plane was given out at the LeBourget field as official and was later broadcast by the official national station and the admiral in charge at Havre was told to cease activities to find the plane as it was landed at Islay les Moulins, the village sort of circulating. Glad to Be in Hawaii. Hegenberger's talk was just as brief. He expressed their bewilderment at finding that they were really here and continued: "We're grateful that we were chosen for the mission. It is a dream come true. I can't find words to express my appreciation of the reception you have given us."

"During the three years I was stationed at Hawaii I learned to love the people here and it seems good to be back again."

Lewis Introduces Flyers. Then he sat down. "Bravo, kid," commented Maitland.

The crowd cheered as Maj. Gen. Edward M. Lewis introduced each flyer, linking their names with those of Lowell Smith, the late Capt. John Rogers, Charles Lindbergh and Clarence Chamberlain.

Gov. Wallace R. Farrington described the aviators as "modest men, like all pioneers" and asserted "your arrival was the answer to our prayers. Our ambition to become more closely related to the mainland of America is now realized with your deed."

French Table D'Hote Discards 'Free Wine'

Paris—Paris is gradually getting drier. Economy and not morality is reforming the wets. The low-priced table d'hote or "prix fixe" lunch or dinner has had the customary quarter of a bottle of wine eliminated from the menu.

The organization of restaurateurs and wine-merchants interested in the moderate cost meal announced its members were losing too much money on wine. They had allowed 10% of the total price to cover the drink but wine has nearly doubled since last year and now the dries can drink water with a clear conscience since they won't be wasting wine for which they have paid.

The higher-priced restaurants long ago discontinued the serving of wine as a part of meals.

Perm., U. S. S. R.—Government Census agents discovered recently a hitherto unknown religious sect, whose members spend the greater part of their lives in the cellars of their houses to protect themselves against the "evil eye" of people of other religion.

pick up a message denying the landing and saying the plane was believed to be over Cherbourg.

The only certain thing was that the last signal from the America was an SOS which several radio stations picked up at 1:25 a. m.

Commandant Renvoise, announced that he would keep the lights at LeBourget going until dawn. Meanwhile, he ordered an investigation into the origin of the report.

Exports at LeBourget shook their heads and expressed the fear that the plane had been forced down in some plowed field, with possibly serious results.

B. of L. E. Hold Triennial Meet

Cleveland, June 30.—(AP)—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, through its triennial convention here late today, reverted to its former method of organization in which the grand chief engineer is its chief executive officer. The action, which eliminates the offices of president, first and second vice presidents and treasurer, came with the adoption of a committee resolution which provided for the change but made no mention whatever of the present holders of these offices.

A second resolution adopted by the convention authorized Alvany Johnston, present grand chief engineer, to name a board of three temporary trustees to take over the management of the brotherhood's financial enterprises.

William B. Prenter, president of the brotherhood; L. G. Priging, first vice president; Harry P. Daugherty, second vice president, and C. E. Lindquist, secretary, are the officers who will be eliminated by the action. They will continue to hold offices until the regular election of officers comes up at the close of the convention, by a week or ten days from now. At that time, on the basis of today's action, the offices will be permitted to lapse.

BANKS TO FORM VIGILANTES

Coroners' Inquests, Not Courts, to Try Hold-up Cases.

Bank robbery cases in Delta county will be tried at coroner's inquests rather than the criminal courts.

Initial steps in the inauguration of the Vigilante system were taken at a meeting of the county's bankers, held in the city hall, at which Joseph Rylands, director of organization, Michigan Bankers' association, was the principal speaker.

The Vigilante plan, now in force in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Wisconsin, Ohio, Kansas, Minnesota and other states. In the last four years has reduced the number of violent crimes against banks more than 80 per cent and made the capture of the bandits absolutely certain. In lower Michigan bank holdups have virtually been eliminated.

Simple But Effective. The plan is simple, but very effective. Banks are equipped with silent alarms which carry the news of robberies to the places of business, near the bank, where special deputies, well armed and alert, are stationed. These special deputies can be mobilized in a minute or two. Automobile transportation is always available. There is a special telephone arrangement which within a few minutes gets the vigilantes of surrounding towns into the roads, ready for battle. In no instance have bandits ever been able to escape from localities where the system has been developed.

Tracing the warfare between the crook and the bank which always has existed and probably always will exist, Mr. Rylands pointed out that a new type of bandit has been produced in the last few years. "The yegg or safe-blower no longer spends hours wrestling with a vault door," he said. "That's too slow; too risky. He walks into the bank in broad daylight and sticks the place up. Then he makes a carefully planned getaway in a high powered motor car.

Depends on Surprise. "He depends, in a large measure, upon the surprise element to make the job successful. And he also depends upon the unpreparedness of the enforcement officers to enable him to get away." "I have known communities in which a single deputy sheriff, armed with only a small pistol and a black-jack, and only with a small, inexpensive automobile, was called upon to set out in pursuit of a tremendously powerful machine containing five or six desperadoes armed with weapons of all sorts, including Thompson machine guns.

Those days are gone in Michigan and other states which have adopted the Vigilante plan. The new system prepares the banks for any emergency, thereby destroying any advantage the surprise element may give the bandit. And by filling the whole surrounding country with deputies, the bandits have a very slight chance of getting away, even if they succeed in staging the hold-up."

Delta First in U. P. The bankers took tentative steps towards the formation of a county bankers' federation, with a central vigilance committee, and will proceed to put the rest of the system into operation.

Delta county was Mr. Rylands' first stop in the upper peninsula. The Michigan Bankers' association, having completed the organization below the straits, hopes to complete the organization work in the upper peninsula within the next few weeks.

Mr. Rylands, accompanied by Mrs. Rylands, left Rogers City at 3:30 a. m. yesterday. The bus in which they were passengers lost a wheel near St. Ignace yesterday afternoon and they arrived here just in time to hold the meeting. He will visit Sault Ste. Marie today and other counties in rapid succession.

Judge Who Founded Juvenile Court Ousted From Office

Denver, Colo., June 30.—(AP)—Ben B. Lindsey, founder of the juvenile court which he made nationally known, was ousted from office today with the formal signing of a court decree that he was illegally elected in November, 1924.

A decision of the Denver district court and affirmed by the Colorado supreme court and the United States supreme court held that the late Royal K. Graham was elected to the juvenile court judgeship in the 1924 election. Graham committed suicide more than a year ago and his widow carried on the suit.

The juvenile court was founded by Judge Lindsey 27 years ago and he has served as the judge since that time.

He attributes his removal from office to the Ku Klux Klan. Lindsey has been much in the limelight since the founding of the court. Recently his advocacy of companionate marriage made him a storm center of controversy that has brought forth much bitter argument.

A successor to Lindsey has not been elected by the Denver county commissioners.

Washington—The huge pressure testing machine in the laboratory of the U. S. Bureau of Standards, here, had to exert a force of 51 pounds before it succeeded in cracking the shell of an egg.

This is shown in an inspection of the apparatus by members of the Pan-American Industrial Conference now in this country.

So delicately tuned is the pressure machine that only the egg shell was crushed, while the inner membrane of the egg remained intact.

MORE PRAISE FOR LOOP IDEA

Michigan, Indiana Interests Add Endorsement of Project.

The Escanaba Chamber of Commerce proposal that the road around Lake Michigan be looped with an unbroken ribbon of concrete, continues to bring in enthusiastic comments.

S. R. Banyon, editor of the Benton Harbor News-Palladium, wires: "The Looping Lake Michigan proposal is, we believe, an excellent thing from the standpoint of tourist traffic; indeed, from almost every Michigan asset. We believe an organized effort should be made to put the loop through. You are on the right track and we'll be glad to co-operate."

Bert Nutting, secretary of the Petoskey Chamber of Commerce, writes that the proposal appeals to him as being a very fine one and adds that he will sound out the opinions of his board of directors at the first opportunity.

The Gary, Ind., Chamber of Commerce, through its secretary, James U. Nicholas, writes: "Our good roads committee thinks favorably of the advisability of making an organized effort to secure the early completion of a concrete highway looping Lake Michigan. You, of course, know that the Indiana portion of such a highway is already constructed but we feel that our people would be very glad to support such a project and we hope you will keep us advised of developments on the premises."

Editors Discuss Religion in New Issue of the Will o' the Wisp; Out Today

With a new artistic cover design and a further increase in size, the summer number of The Will o' the Wisp, which will be on sale in all Escanaba and Gladstone drug stores today, takes its place among the leaders of the small magazine.

In the summer number of the publication the editors, C. Hjalmar Nelson and J. Gunnar Back, touch upon the religious question for the first time since the establishment of the publication. The matter of religious belief is always an interesting one and in two personal letters the editors have treated the subject in a very able manner, expressing views, which although hardly orthodox, are not only personal but at the same time appear to speak for youth in general.

Tourist Camp Article. Among other questions of interest to Escanaba people is a treatise on the tourist camp on the Ford River road which is given a not very gentle comment written by a visiting tourist.

In addition to the work of the editors, 11 others have contributed bits of poetry, articles and short stories to the summer number. Hal K. Rammel and his Skittles are back again and W. Benson Dooling has contributed a short story written in Cabell's favorite style.

In a recent editorial in his Weekly, E. Haldeman Julius of Girard, Kan., described Will o' the Wisp as "a good, sound, worthy, much-needed idea. The youth of the country is swamped with all sorts of nonsense, the object being to turn them into patriotic automats,

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE DELFT.
With five leading ladies, a Rolls Royce and a bicycle, Harry Langdon had the makings of plenty of romance for "Long Pants," his new starring funfest now playing at the Delft. Priscilla Bonner, who scored with Harry in "The Strong Man," is one of the main causes of romance. Alma Bennett, silky vamp, is another.

Reversing the usual course of ambitious youth, Harry switched from a Rolls Royce to a bicycle, vintage 1908 overnight. The Rolls had been easy to secure; there is no dearth of expensive motor cars in Hollywood. But it took the prop man more than a week to locate a bicycle old enough to serve the purpose, and still able to navigate.

Although rich in boy and girl romance, with moments of heavier fervor, the story is based on a mother love theme. Gladys Brockwell plays Harry's mother and Albert Roscoe his father. The place is San Francisco; the time is before and after the famous fire.

JUNE HEAVIEST BRIDAL MONTH

Forty-Seven Couples Licensed in Escanaba, Records Show.

More marriage licenses were disposed of at the county clerk's office during the month of June this year than in any year since 1920. Forty-seven couples applied for permits to wed this June. In 1920 there were 61 licenses granted.

The month of June stands far in the lead of any month of the year for marriage licenses. "June brides" is the explanation. Yesterday was the only day of the month on which there were no applications.

The figures for June applications during the past seven years are: June 1920—61; 1921—41; 1922—41; 1923—42; 1924—34; 1925—41; 1926—37; 1927—47.

TWO WOMEN FOUND HELP

Their Sickness Banished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mrs. Nina Matteson, Box 208, Oxford, N. Y., writes: "If it had not been for your medicine, I could not have done my work as it should have been done. Mother told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I had read in different papers what it had done for different women. She wanted me to try it, so my husband got me one bottle at first; then I took two others. . . . Now I am feeling quite strong again."

Mrs. Ernest Tanguay of Adams, Mass., says she was ill for four years and could not sleep nights or go out on the street. She read about the Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking eight bottles she was able to do all her work and go anywhere and is quite herself again.

This dependable Vegetable Compound is a household word in thousands of homes. The fourth generation is now learning the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If this medicine has helped other women, why shouldn't it help you? At your druggist's.

LOST 30 YEARS.

Baltimore—In a letter recently received from her daughter, Mary, Mrs. Randolph Winslow learned that Mary was greatly enjoying her vacation and that she was a "good girl." The letter had been written 30 years ago. Mary now has two children of her own. The letter was hidden in the bottom of the Winslow mail box, which had served on the old front porch for 40 years.

AT THE STRAND.

Illimitable wastes of sea, a tiny, rocky islet bare of vegetation, a tottering gusty, old light-house occasional ships far off, stirring vague memories of a vast and wonderful world lost in some dimness of the past, a gruff, bearded, old Dutch peasant with a hook where his right hand had been; his cruel, lustful monster of a humpbacked son, his drooling idiot of a grandson—what a horrible environment for the blooming of a lovely and delicate flower, in one of the worst places of the world among misshapen clods and noxious weeds.

That is the setting in "Bride of the Storm," now at the Strand, in which John Harron as Dick Wayne, lieutenant in the U. S. Navy, finds Dolores Costello as Faith Fitzbush. She is the victim, at a tender age, of a shipwreck and a conspiracy on the part of the three keepers of Pag Light in the Dutch East Indies to obtain her parental estates in Maryland by marriage to the idiot Hans.

Women Thank Science

for this new hygienic pad that discards easily as tissue—no laundry

By ELLEN J. BUCKLAND
Registered Nurse

THERE is now an exquisite successor to the old-time "sanitary pad." A new way that offers far greater protection. A way that ends the old problem of disposal.

Eight in 10 better-class women now use "Kotex."

Discards like tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

Five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads.

Deodorizes, thus ending all danger of offending.

Obtainable at all drug and department stores simply by saying "Kotex." You ask for it without hesitancy.

Be sure to get the genuine. Only Kotex itself is "like" Kotex. In fairness to yourself, try it.

SALESMAN SAM

THE BILLION DOLLAR EDUCATIONAL MILE

There has of late been much ballyhooing over America's billion dollar industries—the several railroads, steel companies, oil companies and other giant corporations with assets over the billion mark.

Were the assets of all the college and university endowments added, the figure would reach into the tens of billions. Harvard has $69,000,000; Columbia, $59,000,000; Yale, $41,000,000; Chicago, $35,000,000; Leland Stanford, Mass. Tech and Duke close to $20,000,000 class; Carnegie Tech., McGill, Northwestern, Texas, Toronto, Rice and Princeton struggle along with a paltry $10,000,000 to $15,000,000, and even the sorriest of jerkwater institutions gets over the $1,000,000 mark or perishes.

Gifts are made no longer by the thousands, but by the millions. George Baker has just added $1,000,000 to the original $5,000,000 he gave to the Harvard business school, and that is representative of the scale on which the endowments pile up.

The major industry of the United States now seems to be not oil, or automobiles, or steel, or rails, but education.

AGRICULTURE'S WORST PARASITE. To the majority of farmers, bankers are orcs seeking whom they may devour.

Industry, as the director of the agricultural commission of the American Bankers' Association points out, suffers because of inefficient firms. These back numbers stick to old methods of production and place goods on the market, even at a loss, to compete with the more efficient institutions.

Unfortunately, in agriculture, the inefficient farmers can hang on forever because they can produce under any and all adverse circumstances enough to keep soul and body together.

The Piffle Hook

THE WORLD, as two or three grey-bearded philosophers have sagely remarked, is a small place after all. But with airplanes winging to Paris, Berlin and Honolulu it's so small that one begins to realize why he no longer readily can find a place to park the family silver.

PROMOTING BLUE SKY.

Aviation history is being written at such a rate now that actual flying is having a hard time keeping up to the developments on paper. Today's count of flying fields and planes is out of date tomorrow, while map makers who would chart air routes dare call no graph complete.

No worse setback could be given aviation at this opportune moment than an era of watered airports and allegedly commercial flying companies.

But aviation has succeeded in spite of its handicaps, and is now ready for its merited boom. If the financial control of the industry is put in the hands of men as sane as the inventors and the flyers, there will be no grief.

AND ANOTHER THING: Paul Berlenbach was fifteen pounds lighter than Charles Rammel and of course, enjoyed the advantage of being able to step around faster. Why didn't Paul pick on somebody his size? Besides, we have heard it rumored that the referee used to take Berlenbach's girl-friend's sister out to lunch.

Grace Vanderbilt eloped with a mining engineer, but there isn't anything scandalous about that. We know an heiress, once upon a time, who ran away and married a Rotarian.

Jungle Breath

Five minutes passed. Ten minutes. A two-tones, that strange South American animal which, like the mole, lives always underground, began its fantastic, resonant hammering beneath them.

Elise rested her weary wrist. "Do you think... he's... hit?" she asked slowly.

"No... no... Er... no." The old man's voice expressed a cheerfulness he did not feel. "He's all right."

"Let me tie up your arm again. The bleeding's recommenced." She made the bandage tighter. As she did so, the door opened cautiously. Vilak stepped inside. His clothes were covered with mud, his face scratched with brambles.

"Bad shots," he grunted. "Or they would have had me. Moon went under for a minute. Thought I was safe but it came out in a hurry and they saw me. Fuse's lit all right."

The old man wondered why he had shut the door. "Where is... er... Prentiss?" "Went over to the house to get something. Said he'd be back in a minute."

Once more the log thundered against the gate with an increased violence which showed that the attackers had well profited by their rest. The iron, weakened by the previous assaults, could no longer resist the tremendous blows rained upon it. It cracked explosively.

"Broken through," Vilak snapped. "The water'll have to be fast."

A torch glared along the creek, then another and another. "Try to smoke us out, probably. Won't get them very far, when we're in this stone tower."

One torch seemed to speed through the gate. A moment later all the torches were extinguished. Vilak swiftly glanced at his watch. "Fuse been burning seven minutes," he said placidly. "Two minutes overdue as nearly as I can calculate a makeshift affair. Our friends are now undoubtedly crawling through the gate. If it doesn't go off soon, we'll be in trouble. Wonder what's keeping Prentiss."

He slipped a pellet of betel into his mouth and fixed his gaze upon his watch. A bit of mortar loosened by the firing dropped down upon his muddy black hair and a few of the grains fell into one of Elise's eyes. Quickly, dextrously, he began to remove them.

A flash of light colored the sky behind the house; the roar of a powerful explosion shook the ground. "There it goes," Vilak murmured.

The roar of the explosion was followed by the clatter of crashing rocks, then the steady, dull thunder of rushing water. Frightened shouts arose from the bushes at the creek; the watchers in the tower could see shadows scurrying frantically about, some dodging back to the bushes, others racing to the house, all fleeing from the unseen, booming peril whose nature they could divine only dimly.

With a muffled report, the fast-sending wall toward the lake collapsed as a huge wave of water sweeping down from above surged against it. A mad, moving mountain, spreading wider and wider as it went, it circled house and tower, and hurtled toward the creek, sweeping away trees, walls, low-lying sheds, anything which came within its fierce embrace.

A second wave came down upon the first; it swirled up the ground around the tower and began licking at the foundation stones. The three inside watched it fascinated, tried to distinguish whether the black forms bobbing on its crest were branches or men. But the moon had gone under a cloud again and they could see clearly only a few feet ahead.

The water began trickling over the door-sill. The old man eyed it apprehensively. Vilak caught his glance. "No use worrying, Nanny. Coolly be lit his cigaret. The trickle became more rapid. Vilak held up his cigaret case. The old man shook his head nervously.

"I tell you there's no use worrying," Vilak went on, his eyes again at the window. "Either the water rises, and makes the tower collapse, or it doesn't. These are the only two things that can possibly happen. If it collapses, then it'll be time to think about it. Meanwhile, we've done everything

Castle Sad Scene For Hindenburg

Berlin—As long as Field Marshal von Hindenburg is president of the German republic, the offer of Wilhelmshohe Castle by the city of Cassel, as a summer "White House" is unlikely to be accepted.

This was emphatically stated by a person qualified by years of intimate acquaintance with the soldier-president.

"I regard the project as impracticable for psychological reasons," this person said. "Wilhelmshohe is the scene of von Hindenburg's greatest disappointments, of his bitterest memories.

"When the Kaiser left for Holland in November, 1918, his last request to the field marshal was that he bring the troops back from the front in ordered fashion. This von Hindenburg did. He dismissed them at Wilhelmshohe. It was a tragic moment for the aged leader—the outward manifestation that a lost war had been fought."

It was at Wilhelmshohe that

LYRICS OF LIFE

By Douglas Malloch

I've noticed this: on dismal days We always wear our browns and grays, But when of summer someone thinks, We always wear our blues and pinks.

That's something I have thought about, And have it almost figured out, Perhaps our faces, like the skies, Make people glad, or otherwise, If cloudy days make things look sad, I guess a frown is just as bad, But if the sun can make it shine, I guess a smile is just as fine.

So, after this, I know what I Am going to do, or going to try: It's not to pout and not to frown, Till people think of gray and brown. That's not the way to want to be, When other people look at me. No, this is what I want to do— Make people think of pink and blue!

Kings and Diplomats Visit Zoo Animals

Berlin (P)—The inmates of Hagenbeck's celebrated zoo at Hamburg received unusual callers recently, when on the same day a king, a diplomat and an editor, each from a different country, came to pay their respects to the quadrupeds, bipeds and creeping things.

The king was Gustav of Sweden, who dropped in to see the animals on his way home from Italy, Spain and France. The diplomat was the Japanese consul general at Berlin, the editor M. Perron, well known Paris journalist.

Hagenbeck's has again become one of the chief points of interest to travelers from all over the world. It is sometimes called the "Sears Roebuck for animals," in view of the fact that directors of zoos everywhere replenish their stock from Hagenbeck's.

Fourth of July Program In Escanaba to Include Large Fireworks Display

Fireworks will be added to the program of the Fourth of July celebration to be staged here Monday under auspices of the city administration. It was announced yesterday by City Manager T. F. Kessler. The city was fortunate enough to get in touch with a fireworks manufacturer who, because of a misunderstanding, had a large, especially made display on his hands. It is now on its way to Escanaba by express and will arrive here Saturday morning. The larger displays of fireworks are manufactured only on special order and Mr. Kessler regards the securing of the supply as a piece of exceptional good luck. The observance here will be "safe and sane." In the afternoon, from 1 to 2:30 there will be a program of sports and games in the city park especially for the boys and girls. Mike Walsh and Dr. Edward Hirm will be in charge. They are arranging an attractive and interesting program for the occasion. The events will be strictly for school boys and girls. It was emphasized.

A band concert in Ludington park will be the attraction Monday afternoon beginning at 2:30 o'clock. At 7:30 the band will play for dancing on the pavement in front of the Delta county courthouse in South Third street. This will be followed by another band concert in Ludington park and the fireworks display will complete the celebration.

The celebration is planned, according to members of the city administration, to provide entertainment for the folks who will remain in Escanaba over the Fourth. It at first was decided that there would be no observance of the holiday here. There was an insistent demand for "something doing," however, and the foregoing program was arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Woolpert, county school commissioner, will leave this morning by motor for a trip of several weeks. They plan to visit New York state, and attend several school conventions on the way.

Miss Helen Walker of Racine, Wis., is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fugere, of this city.

Kirkwood Thomson left Wednesday evening for Kansas City, Mo., where he will visit with relatives for the next few weeks.

One Man Fined, Licenses of Two Offenders Revoked.

One drunken driver is serving a 30-day sentence in the county jail and another paid a fine of $50 and costs following their arraignment before Justice James S. Doherty yesterday morning. The driver serving the jail sentence was arrested by members of the police department Wednesday night after he had crashed into two cars near the St. Paul ore dock. He was given an alternative of a

$50 fine and costs or 30 days in jail. The second driver was arrested by members of the sheriff's department Wednesday and was arraigned yesterday. Licenses for both were revoked for one year. Detroit Will Have Safe and Sane July Fourth Celebration

Lansing, June 30—(AP)—Detroit will have a safe and sane Fourth of July. The state supreme court today refused to issue an order staying the enforcement of the city's anti-fireworks ordinance. A petition was filed by Clarence Retan, former attorney general, on behalf of a number of Detroit dealers who claimed they would suffer a large monetary loss if the ordinance is enforced. It prohibits the sale or use of fireworks except for public displays. The petition contended the city has no right to enforce local police regulations in conflict with the legislative act of 1925 which permits the sale and use of fireworks. NEW HOSPITAL IS OKAYED BY COUNTY BOARD

In a vote taken Wednesday, supervisors of Schoolcraft county expressed themselves as unanimously in favor of bonding the county for a hospital, and will call a special election for deciding the question at the earliest possible date.

"Resolved, that owing to the immediate necessity of a hospital in Schoolcraft county to care for our people whom at present we are compelled to send to Ann Arbor or other hospitals at a cost far in excess of what the same service would cost in our own hospital."

"Be it Resolved, that the members of this board of supervisors are favorable to the bonding of said county in the sum of $75,000 for hospital purposes and that the people of Schoolcraft county be called to vote upon this proposition as soon as possible, allowing the time required by law for calling a special election."

"W. G. STEPHENS, JOHN A. FALK." Provision for circulating petitions among the voters as required by law was also made at the board session Wednesday.

Garden Couple Wed Wednesday

The wedding of Miss Anna Mercier and Joseph Gardipee was solemnized at Garden Wednesday, with Rev. V. C. Savage officiating. Leo Mercier and Adele Mercier acted as witnesses.

WADMA NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Gereau and two sons Richard and Antoine of Esauin motored to Escanaba Saturday afternoon on business, returning to their home Sunday.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Belongay of Nahma was injured Tuesday morning while loading lumber at the saw mill. The tram saw way and young Belonger crashed to the ground with a load of lumber. He fell about 15 feet.

Antoine and Richard Gereau and Eloise motored to Escanaba Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Flette of Camp Fire spent Sunday and Monday with Mr. Flette's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Gereau of Esauin.

Onis King motored to St. Jacques Sunday afternoon for a visit with relatives.

SING IT TO MARINES! Chicago—Al Jolson signalled a recent radio appeal in behalf of flood sufferers by singing "April Showers"—a touchy subject, doubtless, with flood victims who for weeks had been fighting the waters started down the Mississippi by real April showers.

LEGAL PRONUNCIATION. Little Rock—Arkansas is one state which is pronounced by law. Under a statutory provision the name of the state is "Are-cansaw" and not "Are-kansas."

VOTE REPAIRS FOR THE ROAD TO BIG SPRING

Before the close of their June meeting on Wednesday, the Schoolcraft county board of supervisors made provision for improvement of the road to the Big Spring, thus showing their interest in this natural wonder which this year is attracting more attention than ever, and bids fair to become a state park site.

The road commission at Manistique was instructed to keep the route to the spring in shape for traffic, and supervisors have pledged all possible support in negotiations for taking over the property.

To cover contingencies and extra work, the board ordered a transfer of $3,500 from the general fund to the county road commission fund.

County School Commissioner W. T. S. Cornell was given an allowance of $200 per year for expenses in addition to his regular salary, fixed eight years ago at $1,500 per annum.

An inventory of the real and personal property of the county was ordered of the building and grounds committee.

The county clerk will be sent to a convention at Adrian, with expenses paid by the county. Repairs to county buildings have been authorized, and will be ordered as needed.

Adjournment was ordered until July 12 at 8 a. m., standard time, at which time the supervisors expect to act on petitions for a county hospital and call a special election for deciding the bond issue.

CITY BRIEFS

Mrs. J. Sell of Sheboygan, Wis., who has been visiting at the George Nicholson home in Manistique, left Wednesday for her home.

Enroute to the annual state chiropractors' convention, E. L. Schatzman left Wednesday evening for lower Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin O'Hara of Detroit are staying at their cottage on the west side of Indian Lake.

Having purchased the former First National Bank cottage, Attorney Anderson and wife of Chicago are spending a two weeks' vacation at Harrison Beach, Indian Lake.

Mrs. H. Batsakis, Peter and Pauline Graphos left Thursday morning for their homes at Traverse City. They were accompanied by Constantine Graphos, brother of Peter and Pauline.

Mrs. Chester Currie and daughter, Jane, are visiting relatives and friends at the Soo.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Bolitho, daughter Louise, and son Bob, returned Wednesday evening by motor from Chicago. They were accompanied by Mrs. George Quick and son, Jimmy.

Leaving this morning for Boston, Mass., Mrs. Gordon Hughes and daughters, Catherine and Sally Ann, will visit with relatives and friends for about four months.

PRODUCE PANTS AND KEEP OUT OF JAIL HOUSE

One of the members of the colored vaudeville troupe which visited Manistique Wednesday must have been short of pants.

While in a local tailor shop waiting for a curtain in their stage properties to be repaired, the young "high yellow" gentleman chanced to pick up a pair of long ones that didn't belong to him.

The tailor, Elmer Nicholson, discovered the fact when another party came in to claim a suit he had left to be pressed or repaired. The suit was there—but minus the pants.

Nicholson recalled that the colored trouper had been the last visitor in his establishment, and advised Chief of Police John Peterson. The chief located the performer in their rooms at a local hotel, and accompanied by the tailor demanded return of the trousers.

At first the song and dance man denied emphatically that he had any knowledge of the missing tubes. Then John went to the manager of the company, the husky lad that stings "He's in the Jail House Now," as his stage specialty.

"I'll give you 10 minutes to get those pants," said the chief. "If they are not produced in that time there will be no show at the theater tonight."

Threatened thus with "the jail house" for himself, the boss of the company retired for a consultation with his chorus man, and when he returned he had the pants.

Concerned only with returning the trousers to their owner, Mr. Nicholson preferred no charges against the performer with taking ways, and the entire troupe was allowed to go on its way unmolested, able to sing again tonight with carefree heart: "He's in the Jail House Now."

Postponed Games Played Tonight

Games which were scheduled for June 21 in the Manistique diamond ball league, and postponed on account of rain will be played tonight. According to the schedule the Business Men will play the Independents on Diamond No. 1 and the Lime Co. and Firemen will meet on Diamond No. 2.

Games postponed from June 22, also on account of inclement weather will be played off next week on Friday night.

Guests Honored at Dinner Dance

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kefauver and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cockram entertained at a dinner dance, Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Merkel of Mason City, Ia., and Mrs. C. E. Kaye, Lansing, all former residents of Manistique.

There were 20 guests present.

RAPID RIVER

(Mrs. Elizabeth Barboe, corr.) Miss Gertrude Grandchamp returned Sunday evening from Iron River where she was a guest at the sixth annual reunion of the Upper Peninsula Association of American Legion Auxiliaries.

Miss Grandchamp has taken an active part in the local unit, has held the office of committee woman of the Eleventh District for two years and Saturday was elected treasurer of the association. The local unit received both National and Association citations for their splendid work for the past year.

Many national and department officers of both the Legion and Auxiliary were present at the reunion and all spoke of the wonderful work the Upper Peninsula association has accomplished.

They have learned that the Upper Peninsula of Michigan is on the map. The association performs many little acts, which seem unimportant to us, but which bring much happiness to our boys in the hospitals and to the "kiddies of our buddies" at the hospital.

For instance each patient at the hospital is remembered with a gift on his birthday. What this means to the boys, is best expressed by one of them as follows: "When you are feeling blue and discouraged and everything seems to be going against you, and you think no one knows I am here, or cares a thing about me, along comes the mail man with birthday greeting for you and even a gift, addressed directly to you; or possibly it is some smoke or a new magazine. Well you know things look a lot different and a fellow begins to think that some one does care about him."

Superintendent Davidson of the billet spoke of the dress the local unit sent Helen Krunabanski at Easter. He said: "It would have pleased the Ladies of Rapid River if they could have seen Helen on Easter morning when she had on her new pink dress with perfume on her handkerchief."

Those that attended the Royal Neighbors League convention at Hermanville Tuesday were: Mesdames Sundquist, R. C. Young, Napoleon Boudah, E. Caswell, Charles Hamilton, O. D'Amour, George Birch, W. J. Miller, Phillip Grandchamp and Elizabeth Miller.

Elizabeth Miller sang a solo for the entertainment from Arbutus Camp, Rapid River. About 200 Neighbors were in attendance. Every Neighbor reported a delightful time and were royally entertained.

Kenneth Langerquist is somewhat better and is recovering from the infection in his ear. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Reitemer and children of Chicago spent Monday afternoon at the Grandchamp home. Mrs. Reitemer was formally Margaret Johnston.

Mrs. Albert Caswell and Marian motored to Ishpeming Friday to visit friends.

Mrs. Eimer Viland is leaving Tuesday for a visit at Big Bay.

Mrs. Albert Caswell entertained her sister, Mrs. Herman Micklow of Champlain, this week.

H. J. Wilford returned Monday from his weeks vacation at Detroit feeling fine. He was accompanied home by Earl Overshaw and his friend, Miss Dorothea House. Miss Rouse will visit here ten days and will spend part of the time out at camp.

Mrs. Morris Shane and daughter Marian expect to leave for Washington, July 5. Mrs. Shane will visit her brother and wife and other friends while there and Marian will attend the term of summer school. John Wickstrom and his wife are located quite close to Seattle.

Painting the town hall commenced Wednesday, the Young Bros. have accepted the job. This will be another marked improvement to the Main street.

There was quite a train wreck at the depot at Eben Junction Tuesday. There were miraculous escapes of death for a little child who was between the two tracks, also two men at the depot. No injury definite has been learned as to what caused the accident.

Mrs. George Birch motored from Detroit here Saturday. They left home at 3 a. m., and arrived at 6 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Pfeifer returned home Tuesday afternoon from Waukegan, Wis. They stopped enroute at Green Bay to visit relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Pfeifer have been at their daughter's six weeks visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. George Goodchild and family of Iron Mountain visited Sunday at the Dallas Kniskern home.

Mr. and Mrs. Weeks and family have moved in the Norman Hill residence. Mr. Weeks is the new depot agent stationed here.

Mr. Harvey Denny of Escanaba visited Monday and Tuesday at the homes of her sisters here.

Little Pay Bingham had the misfortune to fall off the L. E. Scott truck Saturday and hurt his head and arm. Nothing serious, but painful.

Miss Lola Barboe returned home Sunday morning from Kalmar by train. Miss Lola is recovering nicely from her operation, but intends to remain on duty this summer to fully regain her health.

Rapid River is making every possible preparation for a glorious Independence Day.

Henning O. Danielson, Student Pastor. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Shippy, Mrs. James McPherson and Eric Snell motored to Green Bay Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Shippy and Snell had business to transact in the city.

W. J. Miller attended the supervisors meeting in Escanaba Monday. He was selected director, one of the five of the upper peninsula directors of the Development bureau.

Tom O'Leary, accompanied by Dr. Barnhart and family, left week for Chicago. Tom is to have some dental work while there. They expect to return by Saturday.

NEED FARMERS Peking—China needs farmers. Hundreds of thousands of acres which ordinarily produce rice and millet are not even being plowed this year. With more than 2,000,000 men in the armies, and many others turned brigands because of the annual seizure of their crops, the protect is serious.

POOR CUSS AND BROWNIE VISIT AT MANISTIQUE Taking a swing up U. S. 2, "Brownie and the Poor Cuss", official representatives of the Milwaukee Journal Tour club, stopped over in Manistique Thursday afternoon. Each year the Milwaukeeans travel all of the main highways, and some not so main, in Wisconsin and adjacent states, making a log of their journey and mapping routes for the benefit of the touring public.

Brownie, whose real name is Rowland, is the driver, and the Poor Cuss is his scribe. Altering their usual practice of driving new cars, the pair this year are using a series of used models of various makes, taking a different brand of car for each trip. On their visit to Manistique the highwayfarers had a Nash six sedan whose speedometer registered in the twenty-five thousands.

Port vs. Starboard in Golf Foursome Sunday Afternoon In a match to decide once and for all the question of supremacy between southpaw and right-wing golfers, Jack Quirk and T. R. Southard will play James C. Wood and Alvin Nelson at the Indian Lake golf course Sunday afternoon.

It is reported that the gee and haw match will be played for a side bet of $100. Wood and Nelson, the left side wheelers, have been going good this season, and promise to give the other pair a hot battle. Specifications call for krow-fite balls throughout the contest.

Talks on Health

By Dr. Morris Fishbein

How Greatest Geniuses Showed Ability in Childhood. A review of the studies of genius published by the psychological department of Stanford University raises the question as to who was the brightest child that ever lived. Goethe is credited with an intelligence quotient of 180, which means that at five years of age he was as far advanced as the average child of ten. When he was 12 years old, he amused himself by planning and sketching out a novel written in seven languages. It is said of John Stewart Mill, the English economist, that he had no childhood, since his interest and activities were mature from the first. He began to learn Greek at three, was reading Plato at seven and by the age of nine had mastered conic sections.

IN NEW YORK

New York, June 30.—A very pretty young woman is living for a week in a Fifth Avenue window. Of course it's to advertise furniture. She arises in the window early in the morning and makes breakfast. She bustles herself about the house, demonstrating the kitchen, the sweeper and whatnot. She entertains at lunch and guests arrive. She entertains at tea and more guests arrive. She cooks and sweeps and sews and reads. And the world goes marching by to stop and gape. A great crowd gathers to watch her living in a window. Police are called out to keep the street clear.

Why should the world be interested? . . . She does nothing that any housewife doesn't do, and yet they stand for hours and watch. They go away and come back.

I began to wonder about the pretty young woman. Why did she live in a window? Therein I found another little story of New York. She had tried to make her way in the films. She had had small parts, extra parts and such, and once or twice had flickered in "stunt" pictures. But she never quite caught on. They assured her that her window life would be filmed and displayed. Perhaps, thought she, it would lead to something better. . . .

Manhattan Snapshots — Flappers are still wearing those ankle bracelets. . . . Why? Particularly when the ankles are none too good?

Broadway is looking more deserted. . . . Forty-six shows closed in a single night recently. . . . A tough summer for chorines! . . . The balloon woman of Central Park and the man who day after day goes about Pennsylvania station scraping up wads of gum carelessly tossed away by scurrying commuters. . . . The crowd that always seems to be lined up before phone booths in a Broadway cigar store. . . . As though there were no other phones to be found elsewhere on the big "main stem."

Rafaelo Diaz tenor for the Metropolitan, garbed in a chef's outfit and serving chiton con carne he made himself. . . . Most good artists are good cooks. . . . Broadway actors crabbing about summer "pay cuts." . . . A lot of shows survive that way. . . . And it's better than no job at all.

And Tin-Pan Alley now has a song that combines Lindbergh and Chamberlin. Levine appears somewhere in the second verse.

Subway diggers uncovering remains of historic graveyard just off Broadway. . . . And the old Madison Square Garden rapidly becoming a huge skyscraper. . . . Wherewith the day's jaunt ends.

—GILBERT SWAN.

YOUNG PEOPLE HOLD MEETING THIS EVENING

The Swedish Mission Young People's society will meet this evening at 8 o'clock at the church. The program is as follows: Scripture reading and prayer—A. T. Sahlberg.

Vocal solo—Dorothy Goodman. Talk—Rev. P. E. Palmquist. Piano solo—Miss Marie Bre-dahl.

Selections—Ladies' Quartet. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. A. T. Sahlberg. After the lunch the girls will assist in making flowers which will be used to decorate the church for the Young People's Sunday school convention which will be held in Gladstone the latter part of the month.

All members of the society are asked to make a special effort to be present at the meeting tonight.

THEATRES

AT THE LYRIC

Billy Sullivan, reputed to be a direct descendant of the famous Sullivan family, will be seen at the Lyric Theatre beginning today in "THE PATENT LEATHER PUG," a comedy-drama produced by Harry J. Brown for Rayart release.

"THE PATENT LEATHER PUG" centers around the prize ring. A frivolous young society man discovers that a lightweight champion is paying marked attention to his fiancée and decides over night to go into training. The rich young man has a hard time of it, though, for on a number of successive occasions when he has finally persuaded the champ to battle with him they are interrupted by the R. Y. M.'s father. At last, however, they fight it out on a raft towed seaward by a motor-boat, and the boy wins his father's approval and the hand of a beautiful girl.

George Sand wrote twice as much in a week as many authors do in a month, and Madam de Staël by the brilliance of her intellect influenced the history of nations. All of the Bronte sisters were gifted writers. An investigation of children today shows many boys and girls with intelligence quotients well up to those of the geniuses that have been mentioned in this and in previous articles on the subject. It is every parent's duty to see children are given every chance possible to develop themselves for the good of civilization in general.

GIRLS ARE GUESTS AT PICNIC DINNER

STOCK MARKET IS UNSTEADY

STOCK SALES AVERAGES.

Table with columns: Date, Industrials, Railroads. Rows: Twenty, Twenty, Thursday, Wednesday, Week ago, Year ago, High 1927, Low 1927, Total stock sales, shares, x-Ex-dividend.

New York, June 30—(AP)—Selling squalls swept through today's stock market at frequent intervals, giving it a ragged appearance most of the time.

Speculators for the decline were aided in their campaign of unfavorable trade developments. The publication of the annual report of the American Car and Foundry company, showing that the full dividend on the common stock was not earned, coming soon after the announcement of a reduction in operations at the Baldwin plant, led to renewed selling of the railroad equipment shares.

Call money renewed at 5 per cent and held steady at that figure all day, although funds were reported obtainable in the "outside market" as low as 4 1/4.

There was no change in time money and commercial paper rates. After the close of the market, it was announced that the New York federal reserve bank rate was unchanged at 4 per cent.

Saint and Sinner

Faith and Chris both started to their feet the same instant, but Chris' longer legs carried him to the girl in the doorway before Faith could reach her.

Cherry's small body, braced against the door frame, was swathed from shoulders to heels in pale blue chiffon, made extravagantly full and finished with cascades of cream-colored silk lace that rippled from the low neck to the hem and fell like cobwebs over her white, rounded arms.

She hardly knew that she had moved before she was tugging frantically at Chris' arms, rigid in a powerful embrace. The man paid no more attention to Faith than if she had been a fly buzzing about him.

"I knew," he panted, his hands hard upon Cherry's shoulders, holding her slightly away from him, but not releasing her, "that if I could kiss you again I'd have you! You're mine, do you hear? Mine! And I'll kill any man that tries to take you away from me! Mine!"

Color rushed into Cherry's white face, her eyes blazed. One of her small hands struck out suddenly and left its print upon the left cheek of her husband's flushed face.

"I'll see her damned before I'll let her have a divorce!" Chris clenched his hands so that the knuckles cracked. "If there's any divorce in this happy little family, I'll get it!"

"Oh, don't talk like a move villain, Chris!" Cherry's hands amused little laugh rang out, like metal striking upon metal. "Do you think I've been spending my time cutting out paper dolls since the trial? I know all about you and Lola Gonzalez. Oh, that hits home, does it?" she demanded triumphantly, as Chris flushed more darkly and tried to speak.

She had just started to their feet the same instant, but Chris' longer legs carried him to the girl in the doorway before Faith could reach her.

Walker Retains Middleweight Championship

DETROIT TIGERS WIN FROM CLEVELAND INDIANS, 6 to 5

WINS BY KAYO IN 10TH ROUND

Tommy Milligan Suffers Severe Beating by American.

London, June 30.—(P)—Mickey Walker, fighting Irish-American, successfully defended the middleweight championship of the world tonight by knocking out Tommy Milligan of Scotland in the tenth round of a fast and slugger match as British rings ever have seen.

Walker, the first American to stake his world's championship in a London ring since Willie Ritchie lost the lightweight crown to Freddy Welsh in 1914, outlasted his Scotch rival. Milligan was floored five times before a right to the jaw sent him sprawling on the canvas, groggy and bleeding, for the last time in the tenth round. It was to have been a 20-round encounter.

"Smiling Mickey" was carried from the ring on the shoulders of his admirers, but it was necessary to summon a physician to give prompt attention to Milligan, who was thoroughly whipped and suffered from several cuts about the face.

It was a battle of speed against punch and the wallop won. Both apparently swung for a knockout from the start, but in the early rounds Milligan's greater speed enabled him to outpoint the American. Walker, in his usual bull dog fashion, kept boxing in, falling away with both hands and steadily wearing down Milligan's resistance.

A tide turned definitely toward Walker in the fifth round and in the seventh he floored Milligan twice with vicious right hooks, following lefts to the body. The Scot rallied after both knockdowns to fly furiously at his rival, but the sting in his blows was fast diminishing. Twice again in the ninth round, Milligan hit the mat from the impact of hard rights and the end was in sight as he came out for the tenth round in sorry shape. A left to the head floored him for the first time and he was up only a few seconds before crumpling for the last time.

It was Walker's first fight in defense of the 160-pound crown he won from Tiger Flowers in Chicago last December. Milligan who had a semi-successful invasion of the United States as a welterweight over a year ago, holds the European middleweight title. Walker was the favorite tonight before the fight, but the New Jersey Irishman surprised many of his followers by the rushing power behind his right-hand punches.

Precise weights of the boxers were announced, officials stating merely they were within the specified 160 pounds.

For the battle, Walker received $15,000 (approximately $75,000) and Milligan $5,000 ($25,000).

Classy Performers Are Entered in Flat Rock Race Meet

A variety of talent from the U. P. is expected to exhibit some fast stuff on the Flat Rock race course, Sunday afternoon, when several motorcycle racing events are scheduled. Performers from Escanaba include George Pepin, Leo Loeffler and Bill Wilson. Several dirt track artists from Iron Mountain are also entered in the racing contests.

The track has been conditioned for real, classy riding. With the group of boys in line for entry in the events, a good afternoon is assured for devotees of motorcycle racing.

A large number of people are expected to bring picnic lunches, to be eaten at noon under the large shade trees in the park. Ice cream, nuts and all kinds of confections will be sold on the grounds.

Strange how this grain market is acting up, after all the nice class prophecies and all!

MALONEY WINS FROM GORMAN

Bostonian Fouled by Kenosha Boxer in Fourth; Bud Had Lead.

Chicago, June 30.—(P)—Jim Maloney of Boston was awarded the decision over Bud Gorman, Kenosha, Wis., heavyweight, in the fourth round of their 10-round bout here tonight on a foul.

In a crouch, Gorman led a left hook, accidentally striking Maloney in the groin. Maloney collapsed. An examination developed that he was unable to continue.

The first and third rounds were fairly even, and Gorman had the advantage in the second.

In the semi-final, Arthur DeKuh, Italian heavyweight, was also fouled by Farmer Lodge of St. Paul in the seventh round. Lodge was cautioned about hitting low and one of his blows disabled DeKuh. Lodge had the worst of the bout as far as it went.

"Big Boy" Peterson, New Orleans heavyweight, knocked out Al Sherman, New York, in the second round of a scheduled 10-round contest.

Tom Kirby, Boston, outpointed Rocco Stramaglia in a six-round preliminary, and Cecil Harris, Chicago, and Roy Clark, Atlanta, boxed a four-round draw.

3 RUN RALLY AIDS BENGALS

Gehring Starts Attack With Home Run in Seventh.

Cleveland, O., June 30.—(P)—Detroit took the measure of Uhlre for the fifth time this season without reversal at his hands when the Tigers won from the Indians, 6 to 5, here today. At that, the Indians might have won had it not been for a three run rally that Gehring's home run started against Uhlre in the eighth inning. In the ninth the Indians batted a pair of runs and had the winning run on third when Fonseca forced Jamieson for the last out.

Cleveland scored one in the first inning on an error by Fothergill and singles by Fonseca and Burns.

The Tigers tied the count in the second. Hellmann singled after Fothergill grounded out and went to third on Neun's single to right. Tavenner forced Neun, but in the meantime Hellmann scored.

In the fifth, the Tigers added two more. Neun singled and went to third on Tavenner's double. Bassler lined to Hodapp and Holloway was out on an attempted bunt. Warner singled, scoring Neun and Tavenner.

Cleveland tied the score in the sixth on doubles by Fonseca and J. Sewell. Burns' sacrifice fly and a single by L. Sewell.

Gehring put the Tigers in the lead in the seventh with his homer, and Tavenner scored two more with a single a short time later.

Joe Sewell doubled to begin the Indians' ninth and his brother Luke scored him with a single. Summa hit another single. L. Sewell stopped at second. Jacobson sacrificed, sending Luke Sewell to third and Summa to second. Cullop batted to Buckeye. Warner made a fast play on Cullop's grounder, but L. Sewell scored while Summa, in position to score the tying run, reached third. Jamieson was passed, but Fonseca grounded to Tavenner, forcing Jamieson and ending the game.

MICKEY WALKER.

Mickey Walker, American middleweight, successfully defended his world championship title at London last night when he knocked out Tommy Milligan, middleweight champion of Europe, in the tenth round of a scheduled twenty-round bout.

Cochet Beats Tilden in Wimbledon Semi-Finals

Wimbledon, England, June 30.—(P)—Snatching victory out of the very jaws of defeat, Henry Cochet, one of France's "three musketeers" of tennis, wrote tennis history today when he defeated William T. Tilden, the American ace, after one of the greatest uphill battles ever staged on the Wimbledon championship tennis courts.

With the scoring of the last point, "Big Bill's" chances to stage his comeback on the championship course of Europe went with it. Close on the heels of his defeat last month by Rene Lacoste in the final round of the international hard court championships at St. Cloud came today's beating in the semi-finals of the men's singles of the Wimbledon championships at the hands of Cochet in a heart-breaking five-set match whose score was 2-6, 4-5, 7-5, 6-4, 6-3.

"Big Bill" was not the only favorite for the singles championship to find himself outside the championship fence. Rene Lacoste, the great French ace, who also had been picked as the probable finalist in the men's singles, went down before his compatriot, Jean Borotra, 6-4, 6-3, 1-6, 1-6, 6-2, in a match that was an anti-climax to the great Tilden-Cochet struggle.

Ed Cantin returned from Big Rapids where he has been attending the normal. Miss Bertie Clik is working at the Cloverland Cafe. Walt Kisby and Mr. and Mrs. George Young returned to Orid last week after camping at the lake.

The many friends of William Norvall, Jr., will be sorry to hear that he has been confined to his bed for the past seven months at his home in Seattle, Wash. William has lived here most of his life and is known to many.

Local people are getting ready to celebrate the Fourth in various places. Many will drive to Naubinway, and others to Manistique. Most of them will celebrate at Millie Coquins. Dancing and a ball game will be the order of the day.

A barn belonging to Joe Stinac, containing hay, an automobile, and some livestock was burned to the ground last week when struck by lightning. A large tree on the East road was also struck by lightning.

Ear Rings Required by Summer Neckline. Paris—The plain neck-lines, and more feminine hair styles of the season have pushed ear-rings to the fore. The complete costume of the Parisian usually includes ornaments in her ears. For day wear it may be only the conventional pearl button. But for evening pendant ear-rings are a vital part of the whole.

YANKEES TRIM RED SOX, 13-6

Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig Each Make Home Run; Tied at 25.

New York, June 30.—(P)—The Yankees slugged two Boston pitchers for 19 hits, totalling 32 bases and won another easy victory today by 13 to 6. New York scored in every inning with the exception of the seventh and eighth and it was the twelfth consecutive defeat for the tallied Red Sox. Lou Gehrig hit home run No. 25 with two on in the first inning, but Babe Ruth caught up to him in the fourth when he holed out his 25th with one on base.

Braves, Giants Divide Double Bill, 6-1, 11-6

Boston, June 30.—(P)—The Braves split a twin bill with the Giants today, taking the first tussle by 6 to 1 and losing out in the closing game by 11 to 6. Bob Smith held New York to six hits in the opener. With the Braves leading 6 to 1 in the second contest, the Giants fell on McQuillan in the eighth, scoring five runs and then made five more off Relief Pitcher Robertson in the ninth.

Sure cure for Ford chatter

NOT the car itself, not the transmission bands, not even the mechanic who last repaired the bands, should be blamed for Ford chatter.

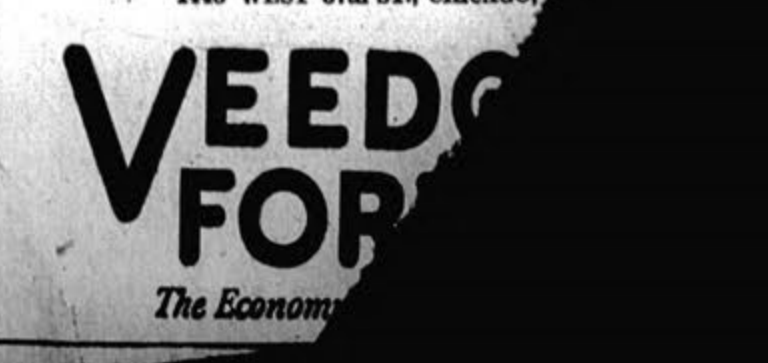

Nine times out of ten, chatter can be traced to incorrect lubrication. And ten times out of ten, chatter can be quickly cured by the use of the right oil—Veedol Forzol.

Veedol Forzol is expressly made for the double task of Ford lubrication. It properly lubricates the motor, resisting deadly heat and friction. And it correctly lubricates the transmission bands, assuring smooth control, and chatterless driving. For these reasons it gives eight definite operating economies:

- "The 8 Economies of Veedol Forzol" 1. Eliminates costly chatter 2. 10 to 25% gasoline saving 3. 10 to 25% saving in oil 4. Reduces carbon 10 to 25% 5. Resists heat and friction 6. Resists fuel dilution 7. Increases ability to coast 8. Reduces repair bills

For more power, greater economy and no chatter get Veedol Forzol today. Drive to a dealer who displays the orange and black Veedol Forzol sign. After one trial you'll always ask for Veedol Forzol by name.

Budweiser Real Hop Malt Syrup

Anheuser-Busch not only pays an extra price for the right to take first choice of the finest hops and barley grown in America and abroad . . .

But sorts, cleans and grades the barleys —malts them—blends them with the selected hops—even fills the cans and labels them—all in the Anheuser-Busch plants at St. Louis.

It is this constant, absolute control of quality from raw material to finished product that makes Budweiser Real Hop Malt Syrup worthy of the name you see on the label.
