CECIL RESIGNS, YANKS REVIVE DISARM HOPE

FAVORABLY REACTS TO VISCOUNT'S QUITTING.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE. (Copyright 1927, by the Associated Press) Washington, Aug. 31.—Renewed hope has developed here that the movement for a reduction of naval armament may yet succeed. The frank statement by Viscount Cecil that he was out of sympathy with the British government's instructions to him at Geneva which he now has made the occasion for resignation here, has produced a favorable reaction here.

Attitude Has Changed.

If, therefore, one of the principal delegates to the Armament Conference from the nation which is unable to accept America's proposal now comes out with a statement of the British government, the opportunity for the conference to be renewed at some future date is expected to arise. What puzzled American observers was that Britain should exhibit in 1927 an attitude toward the problem of limiting armaments so different from that manifested here in 1921. If there were possibilities of friction between the United States and Britain, the reason for continued competition might be understood.

Cecil Aids Cause.

Viscount Cecil's statement that Britain should have met the position at Geneva without sacrificing British interests is regarded here as a manly and sportsmanlike declaration and will go far toward aiding public opinion to understand the causes of the breakdown. The fact that there is a division of opinion abroad on the armament problem will stimulate the American government to keep up the debate in the hope that through diplomatic channels some fundamental agreement may yet be reached which will make it possible to apply a treaty among Britain, the United States and Japan.

FAME'S NEW DAUGHTER

Here you are, gentlemen—Lorelei Lee herself, the very blonde of your legendary preference!

Find Aliens Bootleg Birth Certificates

Washington—Bootlegging of birth certificates is a mushroom growth that has developed under the rigid provisions of the restrictive immigration law.

The practice stems from the fact that children of aliens born in the United States are citizens and, therefore, entitled to enter the country without reference to immigration requirements.

Much of the bootlegging of birth certificates is not a commercial, but a friendly act. A relative, or a friend of a relative, or an acquaintance to come to the United States, where wealth is relatively easy to obtain.

Nevertheless, the law takes no cognizance of the friendly nature of such a violation. It is just as much a violation as if the certificate had been sold or loaned for a consideration, as often happens.

German Transport Companies Favored by Court Decision

Berlin—The German Supreme Court has decided that private air transport companies cannot be held liable for loss of life or injuries or for loss of goods carried by air.

Actions for damages, according to this court, could only be brought if the carrying company were a state organization or held a monopoly, in which latter case the traveler could plead force majeure.

The German Luftthansa, among two or three other European flying concerns, has solved the difficulty by insuring all their passengers against loss of life or limb.

GAS PETITIONS CASE TO COURT

Haggerty Will Show Why He Objects to State Referendum.

Lansing, Mich., Aug. 31—(AP)—The state supreme court is expected to issue an order Thursday requiring John S. Haggerty, secretary of state, to show cause why he should not be compelled to accept referendum petitions and delay the effectiveness of the three cent gasoline tax law.

Petitions seeking a writ of mandamus to compel Haggerty to accept referendum petitions and to delay the collection of the extra cent were submitted to the court by Care Retan, former attorney general on behalf of the automobile club.

Retan, who is a member of the automobile club, Haggerty, upon the advice of the attorney general, has refused to accept the referendum petitions. If the court should rule they must be accepted a popular referendum could not be held until November, 1928, and the three cent law could not go into effect until after that election.

First Cop Recalls Hollywood of Yore, Ere Jail Was Built

Hollywood, Cal.—(AP)—Sensational headlines featuring the word "Hollywood" were lacking when G. T. Gower was city marshal and the police station was a bungalow covered with roses.

That was more than 20 years ago, but Gower remembers the crime history of the period well, because it was so short. "I was twice elected city marshal," he said, chatting over old times in the shade of a great pepper tree which his sister planted on the Gower place some 50 years ago, before there was any Hollywood.

"I remember the case well. My prisoner was operating a cafe and soft drink bar. He had violated the liquor ordinance of Hollywood, which even at that time was determined to be a dry town.

"He expected friends to produce bail for him, so I waited around for awhile. Finally we got hungry and had lunch in his cafe. I paid for it—70 cents. He was an expensive prisoner."

The afternoon wore on into the evening and still no bail was forthcoming. Gower had no regular jail in which the prisoner could sleep, so he took him home and put him up overnight on a spare couch.

"Yes, I left the front door unlocked as usual that night," he recalled. "You know we never bolted our doors in those days. Why should we? No one ever stole anything."

But Hollywood was awake to the need of jail facilities. For awhile there was an arrangement under which prisoners of the city could be boarded at the county jail in Los Angeles. Then a small concrete "tank" equipped with a lock was built in the backyard of the rose-bowered police station and city hall.

France and Canada Laud Yank Lawyers

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 31—(AP)—Tributes from France and Canada to the lawyers of the United States and an outline of the work that is before it marked the opening today of the fiftieth annual convention of the American Bar association.

Maurice Bokanowski, French minister of commerce, paid France's tribute. That of Canada was delivered by George K. Montgomery, of the Montreal Bar association, and representative of the Canadian Bar association.

Charles S. Whitman, president of the American Bar association, and former governor of New York, set the wheels of the convention in motion with his opening address, in which he cited as a work of outstanding merit the accomplishments of recent conferences between members of the bar association and the American Federation of Labor, looking toward the settlement of interstate commerce labor disputes by modern methods.

Aged Pair to Take Long Trip by Plane

Portland Maine, Aug. 31—(AP)—"These fappers are altogether too fly," said Charles W. Bradley, 99 year old Rochester, N. H., resident, today in announcing that he will accompany "Grandma" Almatia Bennett of Chicopee, Mass., on an aerial excursion from Old Orchard, Maine, to Boston, September 8, in observance of her 101st birthday.

Mr. Bradley, former Rochester brick manufacturer, chief of police, real estate dealer, high school principal and temperance worker, who was 99 last April, is remarkably active and, almost daily is seen about the streets in his home city.

Two years ago, he "took up" aviation, and with Capt. Harry M. Jones made a flight over Old Orchard and vicinity. Today the Portland aviator, who has agreed to pilot Grandma Bennett on her 101st birthday, received word from Mr. Bradley that he would be delighted to act as escort for her on the flight from Old Orchard to Boston and said that he would do his best to keep the spry little woman "from attempting to stage a parachute jump."

London, Aug. 31—(AP)—Many of the girls born in the British Isles in the last fortnight have been named "Betty," not after Princess Betty, but after Betty Nuthall, whose tennis achievements in the United States are the pride and hope of all British sportsmen and sportswomen, who glory in the fine showing she made against Helen Wills. The press heralds the 16-year-old girl as a possible world champion two years hence.

Yank Cavalry Sack Serves Paris Newale English Judge Rules

Paris—Many an object brought to France by the American Expeditionary Forces is still in use here. Trucks with "U. S. A." on their radiators are often seen. Raspberries work in old army uniforms of the United States.

But one of the most striking mementoes of America's part in the war is a cavalry pack bag, doing duty as the newshag of a Paris youngster. It is strapped to the handle-bars of the boy's bicycle.

The relic first belonged to L. Troop of the First Wisconsin Cavalry, but the insignia and markings have been nearly obliterated by fresh stanchions showing ownership to O Battery 120th Artillery, with the red and white circle insignia of the 32nd Division.

Dakota Scouts Name Camp After Coolidge

Rapid City, S. D., Aug. 31—(AP)—Another memorial to President Coolidge's summer in the Black Hills was left to South Dakota today when Camp Coolidge was dedicated as a retreat for Boy Scouts near Custer at a ceremony attended by the president.

Previously the state had re-named one of the peaks in the Black Hills Mount Coolidge, and the rippling trout stream which flows past the summer White House has been called Grace Coolidge creek. Farther up in the hills a memorial is being carved of Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln and Roosevelt, and the president has been asked to write the inscription to appear below, explaining its meaning.

Except for the short journey to Custer, Mr. Coolidge spent the whole day at the game lodge. Meanwhile, preparations are going ahead for Mr. Coolidge's departure for Washington next week.

Injunction Brought Against Engineers

Cleveland, O., Aug. 31—(AP)—An injunction suit, seeking to prevent the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers Building association from using any part of the $4,000,000 received recently from the Baltimore Trust company on any of their financial projects, was filed late today in common pleas court here by Isabel E. Hysell on behalf of stockholders of the Brotherhood investment company.

The $4,000,000 was to be turned over to the building association and bank as a deed of trust, corresponding to a mortgage; the petition stated. The petition, which supplements three previous suits asking judgment of $7,000,000 against Brotherhood officers, states that the organization's Mutual Life and Accident Insurance association previously held the mortgages on 470 B. of L. E. office building and bank here.

Despite this, the petition complains, the trustees obtained $4,000,000 on a deed of trust on the downtown buildings from the Brotherhood Trust company to use for investment purposes.

STATE TROOPER ARRESTS THIEF

Sergt. Keune, Going to Accident, Finds Burglar.

Iron Mountain, Aug. 31.—An unusual yarn of the happenstance arrest of a man who later confessed complicity in an offense for which a complaint had been issued, implicating two others, was brought here from Menominee county by Trooper O'Boyle, of the Iron Mountain detachment of state police.

Lieut. Charles Engle, in charge of the Iron Mountain station, received a call from the Menominee county authorities, at Hermansville, asking his co-operation in a search for culprits who had broken into three business places and had stolen a quantity of merchandise and some cash.

Anderson and Anderson, proprietors of a general store, reported the theft of a quantity of cigars, flashlights, jack knives, a sheep skin coat, several caps and a number of pairs of shoes. J. P. Melchior, operating an oil station at Wallace, reported that between $7 and $8 in cash had been taken from his cash register. Bell Bichel, proprietor of a store at Nadeau, reported the theft of cash from a gum machine and a sweater.

All of the thefts, according to the reports, were committed some time Monday evening, August 22.

"Bump Into" Car

A few days ago Sergeant Keune, of the Newberry detachment, while riding to the scene of an accident, came suddenly upon a large Auburn touring car, parked in a side road, near a farm house. As the sergeant drew near, two men, sitting in the car, suddenly straightened up, started the motor and shot out onto the main road.

As the state patrolman drew up near the side road a third man came running out of the woods, shouting and waving to his two companions as they sped off down the road.

Keune stopped the man and looked him over. Perched on his head was a new cap which tallied specifically with the description of some of the caps stolen from Anderson.

Keune, in an under arrest.

Keune questioned the man, and the man gave him his name as Leonard Raim and, under further questioning, admitted that he and the two men who had escaped "pulled" the three robberies. He refused to give the names of the other two, and said he didn't know where they had gone.

Back went Sergeant Keune down the road in the direction of the fleeing Auburn. He found the car, abandoned, a few miles from the spot where he had arrested Raim.

Raim and the Auburn are being held at Newberry. Finger prints on pieces of broken glass, one of the places robbed will be preserved and a careful search of Bertillon records made in an effort to identify the other two men.

Meanwhile Sergeant Keune has strengthened his belief in the old adage, "You never can tell what will happen next."

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE DELFT.
The thrilling horse race which climaxes King Baggot's Universal Jewel production "Down the Stretch" which comes to the Delft today, has been proclaimed the most realistic in the history of the motion picture industry.

"Instead of ordering the jockeys of the various mounts to hold up their horses so the favorite might win on the home stretch, Director Baggot staged a series of elimination races and then had Robert Agnew, who plays the part of Marty Kruger, mount the fastest horse of the group at the time the picture was taken.

In addition to Agnew, other featured players in the cast of "Down the Stretch" are, Marian Nixon, Otis Harlan, Ward Crane, Ena Gregory, Jack Daugherty and Virginia True Boardman.

AT THE STRAND.
Actors who appear in the final scenes of "The Broncho Twister," Fox Films new production starring Tom Mix, escape death by the jingle of the spurs on their boot heels. These striking scenes will be shown at the Strand again today.

The closing sequence pictures a desperate gun battle at a ranch house. The desperadoes have Tom surrounded and his fortress is shot full of holes. He finds a barrel of powder to which he attaches a lighted fuse. Then he rolls the barrel from a higher tower over the roofs of several lower structures. It hits the ground and explodes just as the desperadoes are dashing from one structure to another. The side of the house is ripped off by the blast just as the last of the gang dive through the doorway.

In filming these scenes many old troopers in the cast had the thrill of their lives, as they later told Mix.

Clouds Give Idea to Sculptor For Lindbergh Statue

Houston, Texas.—Out of a cloud Enrico Cerrachio, sculptor, has evolved the idea of a statue to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, the trans-Atlantic flier.

The Italian artist sits for hours on the veranda of his Colonial home here and watches the clouds roll by. They present a fantasia to his artist eyes. Pirate ships, the head of Christ, a thousand figures which linger for an instant and fade before the wind.

The day the "Lone Eagle" landed at Le Bourget field in Paris, Cerrachio was sitting on the veranda reading a newspaper, thinking and watching the clouds. As he watched there appeared, he relates, an odd formation in the sky which impressed him—a cone-shaped cloud with the point upright.

Cerrachio's mind toyed with the mind image the clouds had given him. Suddenly, with Lindbergh in his mind, the conception of a statue came to him—Lindbergh stepping lightly, joyously, confidently from a billowing cloud.

Hidden within the hollows of waves which form the lower part of the completed statue Cerrachio plans electric lights which will cast vague shadows upon the rolling clouds directly above the water.

Back went Sergeant Keune down the road in the direction of the fleeing Auburn. He found the car, abandoned, a few miles from the spot where he had arrested Raim.

Raim and the Auburn are being held at Newberry. Finger prints on pieces of broken glass, one of the places robbed will be preserved and a careful search of Bertillon records made in an effort to identify the other two men.

It's Easy to Start Beaver Ranch, Says Conservation Man

"Any upper peninsula citizen owning or purchasing beaver lands may start a beaver farm in this territory by first—suitably fencing his lands for beaver retention commission at Lansing," said L. J. Young, director of conservation, in a recent communication to the Upper Peninsula Development bureau.

"If the tract selected has no beaver," continues Mr. Young, "the animals can be secured by application to the state department of conservation. The state's prices for beavers are nominal, according to the animals' age and sex, and are about equivalent to the pelt value. The state secured live beavers at considerable cost to itself and it cannot provide them free. It sells them to bona fide Michigan breeders with the proviso that they must not be resold for breeding purposes in other states."

Old Berlin Church Has Leaning Steeple

Berlin—Berlin has a "leaning tower." The steeple of the 13th century St. Mary's Church, in the old part of town has been found to be more than three feet out of plumb. It was found that the wooden structure on which the top of the steeple rests is badly rotted.

The parish, the population of which has declined from 30,000 to 2,000, is too poor to undertake thorough restoration. Iron stays prevent danger of collapse.

The old church is famous for its antiquities, among which is a rare 15th century "Dance of Death" painting.

He was the founder and for many years the proprietor of an important industrial establishment here. And as mayor of Escanaba, a member of the board of education and of the Delta county board he made important contributions to the city's development.

His unflinching cheerfulness, kindness and helpfulness won him a circle of friends which few men could claim. O. P. Chatfield was the type of citizen a community can not easily replace.

WHY NOT REPEAL IT? Thousands of boxing fans will witness the Dempsey-Tunney fight in Chicago.

The fight is a legal and legitimate affair, sanctioned by law. Such a spectacle would be legal in Michigan, and in most of the other states.

Enforcement of the law, in recent years, has been only technical. The messenger who crossed the state line with a copy of the film has gone immediately to the United States district attorney, pled guilty to a violation of the law, paid a fine of $1,000 and gone on his way, showing the picture at a cost which made it prohibitive to the managers of theatres in smaller cities.

AMATEUR BASEBALL. Escanaba is about to complete the second season of baseball conducted strictly on an amateur basis. The amateur plan—a wide departure from methods employed here for many years—can be regarded as a success here and it is safe to predict that it will be a long time before this city returns to professional ranks.

deficits to meet at the curtain rolls down on the season. One of the important games of the season is scheduled to take place Sunday. The Independents and the North-Westerns, local franchise holders in the league, will hold their closing battle of the year. Upon the outcome of this battle will depend, in all probability, whether the pennant will come to this city.

ORDERLY MARKETING. The secret of adequate prices for the farmers' products lies not so much in legislation as it does in an orderly system of supplying the market.

The plan is based on the successful method followed by the great Canadian co-operatives. Wheat growers sign to sell their grain through a central agency. When 50 per cent of the wheat acreage of the four states has been thus organized, the contracts will become effective.

STEPHENSON FAIR, SEPT. 20

One of the Finest Exhibits in Peninsula Promised.

The fifteenth annual Cloverland Farmers' fair, to be held at the Stephenson fair grounds September 20, 21, 22 and 23, promises in prospect to bring together some of the finest agricultural exhibits ever assembled in the county to compete for the fine list of cash and merchandise prizes that has been posted.

The fair activities have been divided this year into twelve departments: being those for horses, cattle, swine, sheep, poultry, grain and vegetables, potatoes, fruit, boys and girls' club work, needlework and fine arts, cooking and canning, and educational work.

The policies in force at previous Cloverland fairs will obtain for the most part in this year's revival. Single admission charge will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children under 12 years. The sale of season tickets, offering four admissions for $1.50, will close September 17.

Besides the regularly scheduled cash awards for livestock exhibits the Bank of Stephenson, to denote its interest in development of the dairy industry in Menominee county, has offered $150, in cash, to be spread on the fair premium list for award to cattle exhibitors.

Judging of horses will take place Wednesday afternoon, September 21, under the supervision of Albert Ford, who has announced classification for stallions, heavy draft horses and light draft horses.

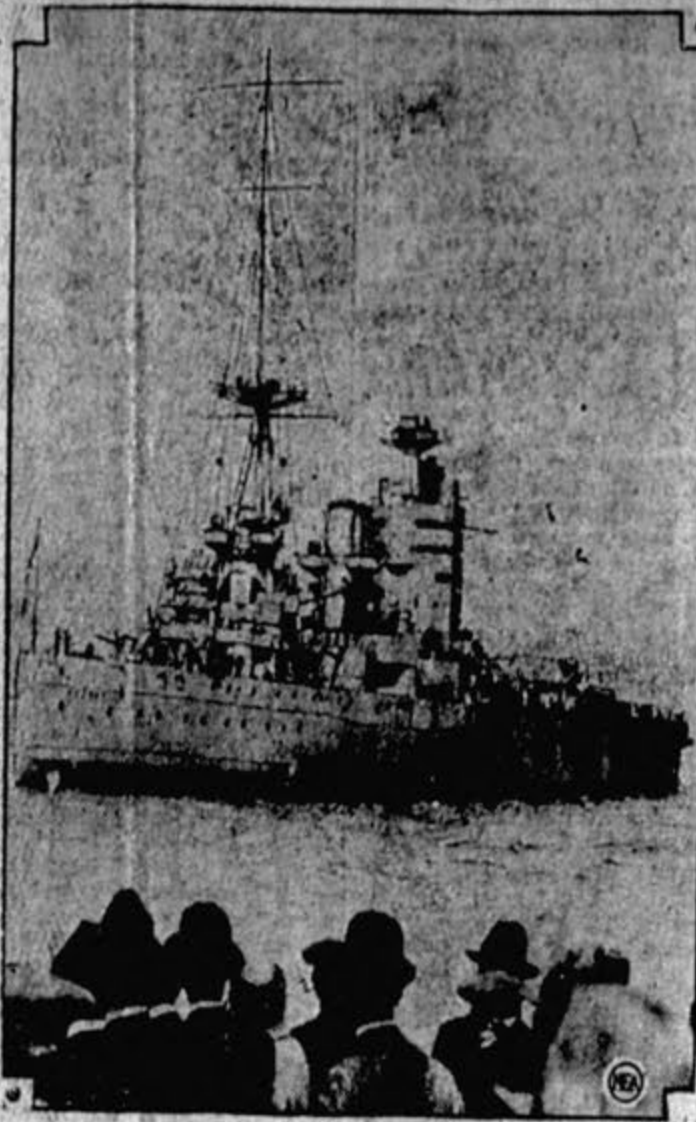

Menominee county is essentially a Holstein county and that breed of cattle will accordingly receive the most attention at the fair judging, but the importance of a few good Guernsey and Jersey herds from the county will not be overlooked. G. A. Thorpe, superintendent of the department of cattle, announces judging of Holstein, Jersey, Guernsey and Brown Swiss stock, with a varied schedule of cash prizes in each classification.

Swine Department. Supt. August Neville, of the department, has prepared a schedule of judging and premiums for the following breeds: Duroc, Jersey, Poland China, Chester White and O. I. C. Hampshire, Yorkshire and Tanworth. Individual and stock premiums for sheep will be awarded after judging of Shropshire, Cotswold, Southdown, Hampshire, Oxford, Leicester, Lincoln and Fine Wool breeds. Mr. Neville is also superintendent of the sheep exhibit.

Poultry judging at the fair will be under the supervision of O. Borklund. Exhibits of 48 breeds of chickens and of geese, ducks, turkeys and pigeons are expected. Poultry will be judged Wednesday afternoon, September 21.

Weighing ten tons, it travels on an ordinary railroad track and is capable of a high rate of speed, but the maximum permissible speed has been limited to 40 miles an hour.

Reward Offered by Dahlia Grower for Thieves' Arrest

J. H. Hanson, 220 South Eleventh street, yesterday offered a reward of $50 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of persons who raided his flower garden Tuesday night, stealing flowers and doing considerable damage to plants.

Mr. Hanson has a magnificent assortment of dahlias, many of them of unusually rare varieties. His garden has taken a lot of time, expense and care. He frequently has been bothered by thieves, but Tuesday night's raid was the worst the garden has experienced, he said.

Footprints left behind by the intruders indicated that thievery was committed by women. Mr. Hanson said, "I'll cheerfully pay $50 reward to anyone who will furnish me with the evidence leading to the arrest and conviction of persons guilty of raiding the garden Tuesday night," he declared.

SUGGESTS $5 DIVORCE

Chicago—With Chicago divorce court dockets so crowded that investigation of the case is impossible, Judge Joseph B. David suggests a law permitting divorces to anyone at a flat rate of $5. As it is today, he says, "the man cheats the wife; the wife cheats the husband; they both cheat the children and conspire to cheat the judge. So why run up the courts with fraudulent divorces?"

The Soul of the Modern Girl Laid Bare!

Someone had once said she was as pagan as Egypt—and the name had stuck. She was making the best of her opportunities—gossip was making the worst of them—malice and rumor had spun a web of scandal round her life. . . No, it's not a flapper picture, but the tense drama of a modern girl, who knew her own mind, and followed its dictate—a story of modern youth and love that will open your eyes to beauties and terrors that beset the life of a society beauty—a picture that will hold your interest from beginning to end.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bassett, 92, oldest inhabitant of this village, was visited recently by two strange men who introduced themselves as "Mr. Cummings" and "Mr. Smith." They had lived here many years ago, they said, and wanted to talk a bit with the oldest resident.

Mrs. Bassett replied that she did not remember any Cummings in the village. Then her face lighted with inspiration.

"What are your real names?" she asked quickly.

"I call him Sidney and he calls me Horace," was the reply revealing to the aged mother that the pair were her two sons who had gone to America 34 years ago. They had come home for the first time since leaving this country.

Town Helps Sheriff to Win Back Health

Falls City, Neb.—Sheriff Albert R. Young has returned to his job from a health quest which was financed by $1,500 of public subscriptions.

Young, known in Nebraska as "the sheriff without an enemy," suffered a breakdown from overwork, and citizens raised funds to send him away to recuperate. Bankers, clergymen, farmers, merchants and convicted bootleggers were among the contributors to the fund.

Within a week after his departure his wife was appointed to serve in his stead, at full salary, until her husband recovered.

Divorce is most likely during the third and fourth years after marriage, court records show.

Native animals, birds and fish, both game and predatory, will be shown. There will be 24 aquaria of fish featuring trout which the state breeds, rainbow, brook, German brown, lake and albino.

From the game farm at the Mason will come Lady Anhurst, Chinese ring neck, golden, silver and Reeves pheasants. Canadian geese, many kinds of ducks and owls will be on hand.

While the animals may be the most interesting part of this state department's show for the public, the Lansing bureau will have much other material on display.

Vierkoetter Wins Canadian $30,000 Marathon

German Baker Crosses Finish Line After 11 Hour Battle in Water

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 31.—(P)—Ernst Vierkoetter, a powerful German baker who previously had conquered the English channel, won the Canadian National 21 mile marathon swim tonight. He covered the distance in 11 hours, 42 minutes and 12 seconds, winning $30,000 of the $50,000 prize money. His time first was announced as 11 hours and 45 minutes flat, but later was corrected, reducing it more than two minutes.

The throng that jammed the waterfront gave the German a tremendous ovation as he crossed the finish line more than two miles ahead of his nearest competitor, Georges Michel of France, another baker who also had swum the English channel.

Appears Fresh. Vierkoetter appeared comparatively fresh at the finish, despite the grueling grind in the cold waters of the lake. After he crossed the line he held his hands high out of the water in a gesture of jubilation while the hundreds of boats let loose with their sirens.

Starting at 8:30 a. m., eastern daylight time, Vierkoetter ploughed his way around the triangular course, took the lead from George Young, winner of the Catalina channel swim and Toronto favorite, at the four and one half mile mark and from then on was never headed. Young collapsed shortly after the German passed him. Vierkoetter maintained a steady stroke throughout the three trips around the course and appeared to find the cold waters of Lake Ontario mild in comparison with the treacherous tides and choppy waves of the English channel. As he went into the turn at the last mile there was no quickening of pace, no splashing, no looking back, despite the fact that a fleet of boats escorted him. Every stroke spectators counted and a crowd in a large sailboat showed me the way to go.

At the finish line thousands jammed the water front and there was a rush to see the winner. The grease with which he had been so liberally smeared when he started the race had washed off in patches and the baker presented a somewhat plebeian appearance as he was taken out of the water. He was hurried away by his trainers.

MICHEL SECOND. Toronto, Ont., Sept. 1.—(P)—Georges Michel, French baker, crossed the finish line at 12:45 o'clock this morning to win second place in the Canadian national marathon swim. The victory carries with it a prize of $7,500.

Other swimmers, including Martha Stager of Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Lottie Schoemmel; Edith Heidin, Toronto; Henry L. Sullivan, Lowell, Mass., and Herr Von Papenfuss of South Africa, were all out of the water before Michel reached the goal.

Sullivan had been reached out of the race earlier in the day because of an error in reading the number of his boat, but was later found plodding along and was in eighth place when he left the water. Michel's official time for the 21-mile swim was 16 hours and 12 minutes. He was accorded a tremendous ovation as he was hustled away to his hotel.

Wrestlers aren't the only ones who live on the fat of the land. There are marathon swimmers. "Dorrell" Sumner, seen in Atlantic City when he swam, was the first to be used to pitch for the Yankees. Or maybe it was one of Tex Rickard's "splashes" practicing underhand work. Statements from all camps on the Chicago fight card say they are going to murder each other. The local citizenry is wondering what it will do with the saving in munitions. "Three-City" fight war ends. In 1926 the Dempsey-Tunney fight was held in Philly. In 1927 the Dempsey-Tunney fight will be held in Chicago. In 1928 the Dempsey-Tunney fight will be held in New York. Paulino says he had a tough time getting into the big dough because all his friends laughed at his clumsy style. Evidently the first 100 sneers are the hardest.

BENGALS DROP 2 TO BROWNS

Effective Pitching and Timely Hitting Wins for St. Louis.

St. Louis, Aug. 31.—(P)—Effective pitching and timely hitting enabled the St. Louis Browns to end their losing streak and win both games of a double-header from the Detroit Tigers today, 3 to 1 and 4 to 2. Both teams had lost six in a row prior to today. Ken Williams' home run with two men on base in the first inning accounted for the Browns' scoring in the first game. Rice's homer with one on helped in the second game in which Van Gilder allowed the visitors only three hits.

Harry Hellmann, who had slipped from the lead of the American League batters, hopped back again, getting three hits in four times at bat in the first game and one out of two in the second.

The Tigers' lone score in the first game came in the third inning with two out. Hellmann doubled to score on McManus' double. Ken Williams gave the Browns their only and sufficient scores in the first inning when he drove a mighty wallop over the right field fence after Rice had doubled and Sisler singled.

Prepares to Score. Detroit prepared to score several times but Sam Jones and the Brown infield halted each attempt. In the eighth the Tigers had three on bases following singles by Hellmann and Gehring and a pass to Blue. With one out Woodall fouled out. Bassler, batting for Smith, drove a bouncer which hopped over Jones' head. Hellmann had crossed the plate with Gehring on his heels when Mellie's throw reached Sisler. The decision went to the Browns. Again in the ninth with one out, Manush was walked, and after Fothergill's bunt was fielded Hellmann drove a hard one to right field. But Mellie leaped in the air to take the drive to double Manush at first.

In the second game the Browns took an early lead, slamming in four runs in the third inning. With one down, O'Rourke singled off Haskell Billings and Rice drove out a home run. Sisler singled and Williams grounded out. Miller batted to a bouncer and Sisler advanced to third. Miller started a delayed steal. Billings started to throw to second but feeling Sisler on the way home changed too late. Sisler scoring and Miller going to second. Dixon singled and Miller crossed the plate with what turned out to be the winning run.

NEW FOOTBALL RULES PRINTED

Ball Passed Backward in Backfield Is Called "Dead"

Ann Arbor.—(P)—Receipt here of the printed list of football rules and the coming of the changes has convinced local coaches that a ball, passed backward in any part of the football field, becomes a "dead" ball the moment it strikes the ground. The rule, as written in the regulations for play, and as interpreted in approved rulings, is so all embracing that a ball hitting the ground on a backward pass by the team not putting a ball in play becomes a dead ball.

In the original discussion of this rule, soon after it was passed, the feeling was expressed that when the final wording of the rule was agreed upon, it was probable that such a backward pass might be made only back of the line of scrimmage. This premise was based on the rule that a forward pass may be made only from a point five yards back of the line of scrimmage.

Remove Risk. With a backward pass becoming a dead ball at any point, the rule opens up the possibility of the man carrying the ball passing it back to another player who has a more open field. The dropping or fumbling of the ball in such a play would result only in the ball going into play in possession of the side making the pass, at the point where the ball hit the ground.

Rule 17, which covers backward passing, provides first for a dead ball when the "snapper-back" passes the ball across the sidelines. The second section covers the failure to catch a backward pass and its grounding by the team making the pass, while the third section covers the status of a backward pass made by a team which did not put the ball in play.

The interpretations define the status of a ball in possession, and also of a forward pass made in advance of the line of scrimmage. The fact that a man running free in the field may pass the ball backward without fear of losing possession of it if a fumble occurs has possibilities of opening up the game of football which the local coaches have considered.

Goal Posts Moved. Other changes in the rules, which came in for a large amount of study in the final days of the coaching school here, include the moving back of the goal posts from the goal lines to the end lines, the more strict definition of what a player may wear to limit the possibilities of injury to opponents, and the suggestion to officials of counting out one-two-three-four as the time in which all players have completed a shift must come to a complete stop. The new rule does not stop a single player from moving directly or obliquely toward his end line, provided he is five yards back of the scrimmage line when the ball is put into play, and seven men are on the line of scrimmage.

Delay of more than 30 seconds in putting the ball into play, "after it is ready for the play," and continuance of a huddle for more than 15 seconds is considered an unreasonable delay in the game and is penalized by loss of five yards. While not in the rules, the committee announced in a preliminary footnote that "it has no objections to the game being limited to a specified number of plays instead of by time, provided such arrangement is agreed to by both teams."

Can Cover Kicks. The rules have also been changed so that when a receiving team "muffs" or touches a ball kicked by the opposition, the kicking team may recover and retain the ball at the point of recovery, but may not run with the ball.

FORMER PASTOR VISITOR HERE

Reverend Carl Antonson Founded Local Swedish Baptist Church.

Rev. Carl Antonson of Los Angeles arrived here yesterday to visit for ten days with the congregation of the Swedish Baptist church, of which he was the first pastor a quarter of a century ago. Rev. Antonson attended the Swedish Baptist Jubilee in Chicago and came here from that event.

Rev. Antonson organized the Swedish Baptist church here in 1902. He was pastor of the church for two years. In 1904 he went to Manitowish where he remained for several years, until he accepted a call to Central Baptist church in St. Paul, where he remained six years. Then he went to Los Angeles. More recently he has been an evangelist for the Swedish Baptist denomination, his fields covering about half of the United States.

He renewed old friendships here by speaking last night in the church. He will also conduct meetings there tonight and Friday night. He will speak at the Sunday school service in the church at 9:45 o'clock Sunday morning, at the church service at 1 a. m., at Cornell at 3 p. m., and at the evening service in the church at 7:30 o'clock. The latter service will be in English.

Special services also will be held in the church next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

U. S. Tourists View St. Brendan's Tomb

Dingle, Irish Free State—American religious tourists are paying considerable attention to the historical remains of St. Brendan, the great Irish scholar and ecclesiastic of the fifth century.

Brendan is supposed to have departed from this picturesque fishing village on the southwest coast of Ireland in three rowing vessels, each containing 30 men and three benches of oars. He made three voyages. After the first voyage, lasting five years he returned with marvelous stories of remote islands, icebergs, volcanoes and wondrous visions.

On his second voyage he visited a remote island inhabited by the sole surviving hermit of a company of 12, who directed the navigator to the "Land of Promise," known in Irish as Tir Tairngire. Brendan spent 40 days on the water and then sighted land. Another 40 days were spent in land exploration. Then he and his followers reached a great and impassable river, after which they retraced their steps.

Historians say that there is reason to believe that this strange land was America. The impassable river might have been the Mississippi. Maps and charts showing Brendan's island in the Atlantic have been in circulation throughout Europe since the tenth century.

Brendan made a third voyage, this time going to Britain and then to Palestine and Greece. His voyages are particularly remarkable in view of the fact that parts of his vessels were constructed from hides of animals.

There are many relics in Kenosha County pointing to the presence of the saint. The highest mountain in the Dingle peninsula is named after him. He was born near Fenit, about seven miles from Tralee.

"FATHER" SHOW WELL RECEIVED BY DELFT CROWD

Production Best of Cartoon Comedy Series

E. J. Carpenter's "Bringing Up Father" paid its annual visit to the Delft last night. This time Jiggs was by title, at least—"In Politics." The production was the best Mr. Carpenter has brought here in the four or five years this city has been on his route cards. There was a particular improvement in the chorus, in the scenery and in the vocal talents of the entire group.

George W. Milton—he has been seen here before—was Jiggs and made him exactly like the McManus cartoon. Francis Farrell was also the pen-and-ink Maggie. Jessie Karnes was a first-rate Kitty and Billy Swan a capable Dinty.

Mr. Swan's acrobatic dancing specialty was one of the high spots of the evening. Gloria and Flora Fane in a harmonious song-dance offering were excellent. Another high-registering number was the rag-time version of the Lucia Sextet.

Taken as a whole, "Bringing Up Father in Politics" was satisfactory entertainment.

Owning an automobile in China is a distinct luxury. The license fee in one city costs $37.50 a month and gasoline at its cheapest is $1.50 a gallon. In addition, a drive through the main thoroughfares requires the services of at least four attendants.

The bride was attractively attired in a white satin dress, pearl embroidered and tulle veil caught with pearls, carrying a white pearl rosary, shower bouquet of roses and swansonia. The bridesmaid was dressed in shell pink tulle with hat to match. She carried sweet peas, gladiola and ferns.

Twenty guests, including the immediate families, enjoyed a six-course wedding dinner at 12 o'clock, with Mrs. Rose Wixon cateress.

Later, the bride and groom left on an extended wedding trip to the Wisconsin Dells, Madison and Chicago.

The bride is a popular Escanaba young lady. Recently she taught in the Hermansville high school. The groom is bookkeeper for the Wisconsin Land and Lumber company at Hermansville.

MacDonald Will Stay In Political Life

London—Ramsay MacDonald's recent declaration concerning his health has provoked a storm of discussion.

"I am going to turn over no new leaf," Mr. MacDonald said. "I am not going to take care of my health any more than I did before."

Mr. MacDonald's serious illness during his recent visit to the United States and his enforced rest from leadership of the Labor Party upon his return gave rise to rumors that he must leave public life.

The former Labor premier's declaration that he will carry on at any cost has won much approval from public men who believe there is too much mollycoddling nowadays.

Out of 60,000,000 men and women privileged to vote in the last presidential election, less than 30,000,000 placed ballots in the boxes.

Young People Will Return to School After Absences

Several young people who have been out of school for one, two or three years, will return to Escanaba high school this fall, it was announced by Principal John A. Lemmer yesterday.

Classification of new students who previously had not had an opportunity to complete this formality, continued yesterday. Students are urgently requested to call at the high school and classify before tonight, if they have not already done so.

No estimate of the probable enrollment this year will be possible until school opens next week, Mr. Lemmer said.
