LLOYD'S WILL PROVIDES BIG CHARITY FUND

MOST OF ESTATE TO GO TO FREE CLINIC.

Memominee, Mich., Sept. 12.—(Special)—By the terms of the will probated Monday of Marshall B. Lloyd, late inventor, baby carriage manufacturer, banker and merchant of Memominee, about one-seventh of his estate is left to his wife and the balance ultimately is incorporated in the Marshall B. Lloyd fund to be devoted to charitable purposes, particularly to the establishment of an institution in Memominee for medical diagnosis and temporary care of the sick.

The estate includes approximately $2,000,000 personal property and $150,000 real estate besides the income from royalties and patent rights on his inventions. Whatever income accrues either from his patents or from the Lloyd department store and Lloyd theater of Memominee becomes a part of the Marshall B. Lloyd fund.

Provides for Mausoleum. The will provides for $10,000 to $20,000 for a mausoleum for Mr. Lloyd and a $6,000 fund for its perpetual care. Mrs. Lloyd receives $150,000 in trust pursuant to the terms of an antenuptial agreement made in 1922. She also receives all his real estate including the home in Memominee and a winter home in Miami, Fla., together with household effects, automobiles and jewelry.

Frank Crookill Lloyd of Los Angeles, an adopted son, is left $10. (Ten Dollars). For several years Mr. Lloyd and his adopted son were estranged.

The remainder of the estate is divided into 52 shares of approximately $20,000 each. Ten shares of this is set aside for the Marshall B. Lloyd fund for charitable purposes. The remaining 42 shares revert to the fund upon the death of the persons to whom the income of such shares is bequeathed during their lifetime.

Mrs. Lloyd, the widow, is bequeathed the income eventually of the deceased, receives the income from 5 shares. The income from the balance of the shares ($7) goes to the family of Cyrus Sins Lloyd, Santa Monica, Cal., a brother of Marshall Lloyd. The three sisters of Marshall Lloyd are not mentioned in the bequest. Olive Gifford, daughter of Mrs. Ernest Gifford of Lockport, N. Y., is the only niece or nephew mentioned outside of the Cyrus Lloyd family.

Cyrus S. Lloyd receives the income from 10 shares. His sons and daughters mentioned are: William J. 10 shares, Alfred 5 shares, Cyrus, Jr., 10 shares, Eleanor 5 shares, Grace 3 shares, Gladys 3 shares, Jack 5 shares, Marshall 3 shares, Mabel 2 shares, Dora 3 shares, Charles 3 shares, Marshall Burns Lloyd, a grandson, son of William J., receives 5 shares.

The trustees of the estate are the Detroit Trust company, Henrietta Lloyd, the widow, and Atty. Isaac B. Lipson of Chicago.

Million Invested in Store. Mr. Lloyd had nearly $1,000,000 invested in the Lloyd department store and Lloyd theater of Memominee, occupying the premises of the Community building corporation owned by 1,503 local stockholders. Mr. Lloyd promoted this enterprise about two years before his death, encouraging the erection of a building that cost nearly $600,000 and himself leasing it. By his will the store and theater practically become civic enterprises, for their earnings go into the trust fund all of which ultimately is for civic advancement. It is known that aside from humanitarian reasons, Mr. Lloyd believed that the foundation of a free clinic in Memominee eventually would lead to commercial growth of the city through the attraction of persons seeking medical aid.

It is also known that he based his plans on the experience and advice of the Mayors of Rochester. It has been predicted that within a generation the Marshall B. Lloyd fund will be in excess of $10,000,000.

Find Difficulty in Selecting Jury to Try John L. Duvall

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 12.—(AP)—Fixed opinions of prospective jurors today impeded progress in the trial of Mayor John L. Duvall of Indianapolis on a charge of violating the corrupt practices act. When court adjourned eight chairs held men who had passed the first examination made by defense attorneys. Nineteen others had been excused for cause or for personal reasons and Special Judge C. C. Shriely of the Marion county criminal court ordered another venire of fifty names to be drawn. The specific charge against the mayor is that he promised William H. Armistage, Republican political leader, the privilege of naming two persons to the board of public works and also to select the city engineer in turn for his support in his last campaign. Duvall also is charged with having failed to list a $10,000 campaign contribution from Armistage.

NOLDEN HEADS MEMBER DRIVE

Appointed Colonel in Chamber of Commerce Team.

E. J. Nolden has accepted the position of Colonel to be in command of the large team organization in the Chamber of Commerce membership-renewal and stock-taking campaign. As soon as he has accepted this assignment Colonel Nolden immediately began to build up his organization. He has secured as the three majors to be in charge of the three divisions in the sales force, H. D. Brackett, in command of Division 1; C. W. Stoll, in command of Division 2, and O. Sundquist, in command of Division No. 3.

Each division will consist of three teams, each made up of a captain and six lieutenants. Major Stoll has already announced the appointment and acceptance of his three captains, H. H. Hughtitt, O. C. Curtis and E. G. Bennett.

As soon as the other majors have appointed their captains there will be a meeting of the colonel, majors and captains to select the lieutenants to fill the ranks of the various teams. When all positions have been filled, Colonel Nolden will have a force of seventy men.

Issuing Prospectus. The prospect committee met at Chamber of Commerce headquarters last night and checked over a long list of names that has been prepared by the office staff. On this list has been placed the names of individuals and firms who are considered as prospects for membership in the Chamber. Members of the committee are J. J. Bartella, Walter Lippold, George M. Haberle, E. O. Perrin, H. A. Peterson, W. J. Schmitt, M. J. Ryan, Frank Lindenthal and L. A. Stade.

This week a prospectus, setting forth the plans and purposes of the movement now underway in the Chamber of Commerce, will be mailed to every person or firm whose name is left on the list.

State Board Adopts Committee Reports; Raise General Tax

Lansing, Sept. 12.—(AP)—The state administrative board today adopted the report of the board's finance committee recommending a general property tax of $24,500,000 for the year 1927 as compared with $17,800,000 for 1926. The 1927 state legislature appointed through tax clause bills $26,900,000. The administration's deficiency bill as passed by the legislature to cover deficiencies in the various state department and institutions originally called for $4,660,072 from which the committee pared $645,562. The remaining amount was deducted by the committee, to be taken from the proceeds of the corporation tax and other fees amounting to approximately $2,500,000.

The action of the board runs counter to an opinion rendered by W. W. Potter, state attorney general, who ruled Saturday that neither Governor Fred W. Green nor the state administrative board could anticipate the possible income of the state and that unless actual surplus existed in the state treasury such a reduction could not be made. According to Q. B. Fuller, auditor general such a surplus does not exist.

VERMONT VOTE SELECTS CAL AS CANDIDATE

'STRAWS' SHOW POPULAR SENTIMENT.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE. (Copyright 1927, by the Associated Press)

Washington, Sept. 10.—Although it is a long time between now and election day, the straw vote method of ascertaining popular sentiment is beginning to show some interesting results.

In rock-ribbed Republican Vermont, the voters have, of course, a deep-seated faith in President Coolidge and the poll taken by the Burlington Free Press shows that the I-do-not-choose-to-run statement did not affect their desires. For the rank and file of the voters want to draft Mr. Coolidge.

Fully 1812 voted to draft Mr. Coolidge as against 411 opposed. On the question of what candidate would be preferred if Mr. Coolidge did not accept the nomination, Herbert Hoover received 895 first choice votes and 441 as second choice.

Hoover Surprises Friends. This is regarded in Washington as very significant, for it had not been supposed here that Mr. Hoover had any considerable strength in New England. It was natural to find Mr. Hughes receiving 689 votes as first choice and 429 as second choice as he carried Vermont without difficulty in 1916. Charles G. Dawes was third with 355 first choice votes and 234 second.—Speaker Longworth polled 51 first choice but 115 second choice votes. Senator Borah had 58 first choice and 64 second choice and Governor Lowden, of Illinois, was at the bottom of the list with 30 first choice and 70 second choice.

It is significant, also, that the Democrats of Vermont voted almost unanimously for Al Smith, who received 200 out of the 229 votes cast by the Democrats—and Vermont is far from being considered a wet state. Other Democrats in the order of their choice were Senator Reed, 11 first choice, 41 second; and scattered votes for Governor Ritchie, of Maryland, and Governor Donahy of Ohio.

Used the Mail. The poll was not printed in the Free Press itself, but every subscriber received a printed postcard as there was no chance of repetition and a certified public accountant certified the accuracy of the count.

League Has No Power in Zone. Panama Canal Offers No Right of Jurisdiction.

League Has No Power in Zone

Panama Canal Offers No Right of Jurisdiction.

Washington, Sept. 12.—(AP)—Both state department officials and ranking members of the senate foreign relations committee declared flatly today that the league of nations had no jurisdiction whatever over American control of the Pan American canal zone. Their declarations were evoked by a statement Saturday to the assembly of the league at Geneva by Dr. Enrique Morales, Panamanian representative, that the sovereignty dispute over the zone might form a subject for arbitration.

At the state department it was declared that the question of the exercise by the United States of sovereignty over the canal zone was not in dispute with Pan America and that the government of that country had not submitted any request for modification of the new treaty which still is before the Panamanian congress.

Chairman Borah, of the foreign relations committee, asserted that "whatever controversy there may be with regard to sovereignty over the zone would be settled by the United States and Panama."

"Neither the league of nations nor any outside influence has anything to do with the adjustment of that matter," he added. Senator Swanson, of Virginia, ranking Democrat on the committee, said that in his judgment the United States possesses "absolute sovereignty over the Panama canal zone and does not propose to submit that question of the arbitration of any tribunal."

Winds Keep Craft in Japan

(BULLETIN)

Tokyo, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Dispatches from Omura said that stormy weather is holding up the flight of the American round-the-world monoplane, the Pride of Detroit, there. William S. Brock and Edward F. Schlee, co-pilots of the ship, had intended to hop off for Tokyo today, but they are expected to wait now until tomorrow unless the weather improves.

Tokyo, Sept. 12.—(AP)—Japanese flyers were extremely doubtful today that the American aviators, William S. Brock and Edward F. Schlee, now at Omura, Japan, would succeed in flying their monoplane, Pride of Detroit, across the Pacific to complete their air journey around the world.

When informed that Brock and Schlee had announced firm intention of flying across the 2,450 miles of landless ocean from Tokyo to the tiny Midway Islands, the Japanese airmen said the effort would be suicidal. The islands are of coral sand, difficult for a land plane to use in alighting or departing.

At attempt to reach America by way of the long line of Kurile Islands of Japan and the Aleutian Islands extending hundreds of miles from the Alaskan peninsula would be most hazardous, said the Japanese experts. The Kuriles and Aleutians, shrouded in fog, are stormwreath, and although successfully negotiated by the United States army world flyers in 1924, the route is considered unsafe except under organized safeguards.

Meanwhile, Brock and Schlee were planning to resume their flight toward Tokyo tomorrow from Omura, after two failures to reach their Japanese destination from Shanghai and Omura. Forced back by storm and fog, they were determined to try again to reach the Kasumigaura air-drome near Tokyo before continuing their flight across the Pacific. The Omura Kasumigaura hop is about 600 miles.

In their effort to break the world encircling record of 28 1/2 days, Brock and Schlee have been out seventeen days from Detroit and have covered less than 12,000 miles of the total of 22,067 miles.

Blue and Gray May Unite for Meeting

Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 12.—(AP)—Have the years so changed the spirit of antagonism that a reunion of the Blue and Gray might be possible?

Opinions among the veterans gathered here for the annual encampment of the G. A. R., vary but there are many who believe that such a reunion might be a good thing for both the north and south.

Here is pictured Old Glory's take-off at Old Orchard Beach, Maine, in her attempted flight to Rome, after weeks of delay. The pilots, Lloyd W. Bertand and James D. Wreckage of the ill-fated plane was found just two degrees from where the liner Transylvania had searched when she received the aviators' S. O. S. Rescuers found no trace of the men.

ASSAULT CHARGE AGAINST RUTH

Cripple Says Babe Injured Him on July 4th.

New York, Sept. 12.—(AP)—"Babe" Ruth, baseball's home run king, was identified in court today by Bernard Neimeyer, a cripple, as the man who had assaulted him last July 4, but Ruth denied the charge, offering two alibi witnesses to prove he was in Garfield, N. J., at the time. The case was continued until Friday to allow Neimeyer time to get witnesses.

Ruth was arrested on a John Doe warrant, because Neimeyer never had seen the Yankee outfielder and couldn't identify him for police purposes in making out the summons. Neimeyer is sure he knows Ruth now, however, for he said in court: "I will never forget his physique, his face, and his dog trot walk."

Neimeyer testified that last July 4, shortly after being released from a hospital where he had been for a month getting treatment for his spine, fractured in a fall, he encountered Ruth on upper Broadway, near a hotel that is a rendezvous for baseball players. Neimeyer said two women brushed against him in passing and that a large man called out to ask if he, Neimeyer, had spoken to them. One of the women said "no," but the large man "struck me a terrible blow in the eye," Neimeyer said.

Ruth Surprised. A crowd gathered and remarks of bystanders, according to Neimeyer, revealed the large man as one George Herman Ruth, of baseball renown. Neimeyer said Ruth accused him of having spoken to his wife, although she had denied it when Ruth first called out to her. Neimeyer said he tried to have Ruth arrested then, but a heavy traffic policeman refused, advising him to "call the patrolman on the beat."

Neimeyer said, declined to interfere. After the man and two women had left in a taxi, he said, he got a summons which was served at the Yankee stadium July 29.

Ruth declared he was "much surprised" by the complaint, and sorry for Neimeyer. The baseball player's alibi witnesses were Philip Goldsmith and Charles J. Elias, both of New York.

U. S. BALLOON MAY BE WINNER

"Detroit", Piloted by R. G. Hill, Down in Georgia.

Detroit, Sept. 12.—(AP)—With all of the entrants in the annual Gordon Bennett balloon race landed safely tonight unofficial indications were that the United States entry Detroit, piloted by R. G. Hill of Detroit, had won the race. Hill's balloon was brought down at Baxley, Ga., several miles farther from the starting point here than any of the other entries.

Only a few miles short of the point reached by the Detroit were grouped three other balloons, the Lafayette, French entry; the Goodyear VI, another United States entry; and the Barmen, Germany's representative. The Lafayette landed at Waverly Hall, Ga., the Barmen at Fort Valley, Ga., and the Goodyear VI at Waverly, Ga.

The remainder of the fifteen entries were strung out through the Carolinas north as far as Sugar Island in Lake Erie off Sandusky, Ohio. The balloons and the landing places follow: The Dux, Italy, Newberry, S. C. The Bee, England, Randolph, Va. Paris-Bruxelles, France, Dunn, N. C. U. S. Army, York, S. C. Halveta, Swiss, Statesville, N. C. Wallonie, Belgium, Greenville, S. C. Brandenburg, Germany, Sugar Island, Lake Erie. Belgica, Belgium, near Syracuse, S. C. Rex, Italy, Cleveland county, North Carolina. Hispania, Spain, Eutawville, S. C. Munster, Germany, Simpson's Ferry, near Columbus, S. C.

Although the winner of the race will not be officially named until a final check-up and inspection of the balloon barographs is made by the International Aeronautical association in Washington, there is little doubt that Hill and his co-pilot, A. G. Schlosser have won a leg on the historical Bennett trophy.

Covers 800 Miles. The award is based alone on distance from the starting point, and the fact that the Detroit was in the air longer than the other entries does not enter into the complications. The distance traversed by the Detroit is approximately 800 miles by airline, far short of the distance record for the event. The record, 1353 miles, was set up by Maurice Bessime, French pilot in 1920 when he took his balloon from Stuttgart, Germany to Moscow, Russia.

However the distance attained was considered very good by promoters of the race in view of the recalcitrant winds prevailing at the start Saturday afternoon. The work of the pilots in maneuvering their bags due south from here in the face of southeasterly winds and thereby avoiding the Atlantic ocean, was considered a remarkable exhibition of ballooning skill.

RESCUE CRAFT FINDS NO SIGN OF THREE MEN

BOAT CHARTERED BY PAPER MAKES FIND.

St. John's, N. F., Sept. 12.—(AP)—The government steamer Kyle, chartered by the New York Daily Mirror to search for the missing trans-Atlantic monoplane Old Glory, reported to the government tonight that she had picked up a piece of the plane late today but found no sign of the crew. The message from the Kyle said the wreckage was found at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. The position was given as latitude 51:17 north; longitude 39:23 west. No particulars of the parts of Old Glory which were picked up were forwarded to the government.

The position at which the Old Glory's wreckage was reported found is approximately two degrees from the charted point to which the Anchor liner Transylvania sailed after receiving the plane's SOS. "Transylvania proceeded toward estimated position in latitude 49.30 north, longitude 41.00 west." Captain David W. Bone of the liner radioed the Associated Press last Wednesday as he went to the rescue.

The Old Glory was manned by Pilots Lloyd W. Bertand and James D. Hill, and carried Philip A. Payne, managing editor of the Daily Mirror, as a passenger.

New York, Sept. 12.—(AP)—The monoplane Old Glory, sponsored by William Randolph Hearst, which took off from Old Orchard, Maine, at 12:39 p. m., eastern standard time, Tuesday, September 6, carrying Pilots Lloyd W. Bertand and James D. Hill and Philip A. Payne, managing editor of the Daily Mirror, as a passenger, disappeared in the early morning of September 7. The plane last was sighted by the steamship California at midnight Tuesday about 350 miles to sea of the Newfoundland coast.

Four hours later on SOS was heard by the steamers Carman Lapland and Transylvania, followed by a message giving the location of the Old Glory in distress as "five hours out of Newfoundland, east. All three vessels rushed to the rescue. Offer Rewards. Wide areas near the source of the SOS were patrolled during the daylight hours of Wednesday, but no trace of the ill-fated plane or its occupants was found, although officers, crews and passengers on the ships maintained the keenest scrutiny of the rough seas.

The steamship Kyle was chartered by the Daily Mirror and last Saturday put out to search for the missing flyers. Rewards totaling $25,000 for the finding of the plane already had been offered by M. Hearst, backer of the flight.

FIND WRECKAGE. London, Sept. 12.—(AP)—Wreckage of an airplane consisting of part of a wing has been washed ashore at Newquay, Cornwall, says a message to Loyds from that place. Inquiry is being made into the identity of the wreckage.

Romance of Blonde Beauty Ends; Gets Property, Income

Cleveland, O., Sept. 12.—(AP)—The romance of a blonde beauty, who was employed as a ticket seller at a local motion picture theatre, with her millionaire "prince" ended today when Mrs. Helen Long Grassell was granted a divorce from Edward Grassell, heir to the Grassell chemical fortune, in common pleas court here. Gross neglect of duty was given as grounds for the divorce.

Once a ticket seller, drawing $4 a week in a local theatre, Mrs. Grassell found herself today with property valued at more than $1,000,000 and an allowance of $24,000 a year from a trust fund provided by Grassell.

While permitting her to retain her $24,000 annuity, the court decreed she must relinquish any interest in Grassell's trust, the income from 1,200 shares of preferred stock in the Grassell Chemical company and she must pay $15,000 in debts outstanding against her.

The notary hearing barred Grassell's relations, with "another woman" whom he met in Miami, Fla., and now is living in Washington, D. C. Grassell admitted that he had lavished gifts on the "other woman," who was a saleslady in a Miami shop.

HILL MAINTAINS HIS INNOCENCE

Questioning Fails to Bring Confession From Youth.

Ottawa, Ill., Sept. 12.—(AP)—Rushed from the Pacific coast where he was arrested in connection with the death of his mother, questioned in the dim lit cellar at the edge of the shallow grave where her body was found, and then locked up in the county jail, Harry Hill steadfastly maintained his innocence today.

He did not kill his mother, the divorced wife of a wealthy Streator, Ill., physician, he said, and could prove it when the time came.

"I felt badly when I stood there beside her grave," said the young man for whom a nation-wide search was made and who was finally found in Seattle, Wash., after he had sold his automobile and been traced by its engine numbers. "But I wasn't going to cry before the state's attorney."

His only opportunity to get out of jail is by a writ of habeas corpus, and whether such action would be taken, his father, Dr. H. C. Hill, did not say. A new attorney, Arthur Shea, of Streator, has been added to the Hill staff.

Russel O. Hansen, state's attorney, is busy with the trial of Ray Zerkle of Ottawa, who is accused of killing his uncle, and announced he would have nothing to say about the Hill case until the grand jury meets, October 10. Harry is being held on a coroner's mittimus and on complaint of William Robb, chief of police at Streator.

EXTRA SESSION IS NOT NEEDED

Officials of Republican Party Meet With President.

Washington, Sept. 12.—(AP)—Summoned to the White House for their views on the necessity for a special session of congress both Senators Curtis, of Kansas, and Representative Tilson of Connecticut, Republican leaders of the senate and house emphatically informed President Coolidge, just back from his vacation in the Black Hills, that they saw no need for one.

Senator Curtis said also that he could see no advantage in calling the senate together ahead of the regular meeting time in December to take up the contests against the election of Senators-elect Smith of Illinois and Vard of Pennsylvania, both Republicans. Considerable fireworks are in prospect over each contest and apparently he didn't think a month of discussion would dispose of them.

STATE RECEIVES BACK TAX CHECK

Ann Arbor Railroad Pays $30,500 on Road Branch.

Lansing, Sept. 12.—(AP)—The state administrative board today accepted a check for $30,500 from the Ann Arbor railroad, representing approximately one-half of the total taxes and penalties on the short branch of the Manistique and Lake Superior railroad, thus marking the abandonment of a line which has been unused for several years.

O. B. Fuller, auditor general, reported that from his observation, the properties of the railroad would not return an amount equal to the check tendered by the owners and moved that the check be accepted.

Frank Rogers, state highway commissioner, reported that the state had earned a revenue of approximately $100,000 on the Mackinac state ferry during the past season, an increase of $50,000 over the previous year. He recommended the construction of an additional ferry line to accommodate tourists and hunters, seeking the upper peninsula resorts and hunting grounds.

Colonel Carl B. Fritsche of Detroit, asked the board to release moneys appropriated without tax clauses, for dredging of the lower river end of Grosse Ile (Detroit), accepted as headquarters of the second naval aviation squadron. He declared the navy department at Washington had already assigned three naval officers and twenty-five men to the air base on which no work had yet been started. The legislature appropriated $100,000 for improvement of the river site, of which Colonel Fritsche declares at least $40,000 will be needed for dredging and leveling of the down-river port.

Chicago is spending $1,700,000 to build a bridge where there is as yet no river. When it is finished, a channel will be dug and the Chicago River will flow where now there are only railroad tracks.

Actress Files Suit for Divorce from Criminal Husband

Chicago, Sept. 12.—(AP)—Fannie Brice, musical comedy star, who promised unending love for Jules "Nicky" Arnstein, her husband, when he went to prison, today filed suit for divorce here against Arnstein, recently released from Leavenworth penitentiary after serving a sentence for his connection with a $5,000,000 New York bond theft ring.

The comedienne charged her "Nicky" had been too friendly with a Chicago woman and had turned up his nose at her when she had her own nose repaired by a plastic surgery operation.

"After I had my nose fixed," she said, "he suffered an inferiority complex and said that since I had become beautiful, I was not the same Fannie he used to know."

Arnstein came here after his release from prison and had been reported about to engage in an electric display sign business with "Big Tim" Murphy whom he met in prison while Murphy, Chicago labor leader, was serving a term for mail robbery.

ly after supper. When Nurmi left, it appears that Hakki commenced to scold his wife for being too friendly toward Nurmi. Nurmi, according to the neighbors, had visited very little at the Hakki home, and came to their home on Sunday afternoon only after repeated invitation from Hakki himself.

Hakki had been working on the Lawrence Malloy farm in Lathrop the past few days. He and his wife lived in Milwaukee for awhile before coming here. They have a 13-month-old child.

Another sister, Lempi, who lives in Milwaukee, came to Lathrop only Sunday, having been called to attend to her mother, who is seriously ill. The mother has not yet been told of the shooting of her daughter, and this news is being withheld for fear the shock might cause her death.

No formal charge has been filed against Hakki. Little hope is held out for his wife's recovery and it was the opinion of attendants at the hospital that she would not live more than a couple of days. Her left side is paralyzed, and her skull is severely crushed.

HIDE CARUSO'S REMAINS Naples—Tourists in Naples no longer may view the embalmed body of Enrico Caruso, the great tenor. ### JACK STARTS TO TRAIN SECRETLY

Former Champ to Have Only One More Showing Before Public.

Lincoln Fields Crest, Ill., Sept. 12.—(AP)—Settling into a new order of things in which newspapermen have but little part, Jack Dempsey today punched the light and heavy bags five rounds for exercise—and for the benefit of the scribes. Tonight behind closely guarded walls of canvas and without a single "war correspondent" on the premises, Jack was scheduled to best his sparring mates for at least four rounds.

Dempsey switched training plans last night when he worked out in secret for four rounds under powerful floodlights on the race track lawn. He announced after the drill that representatives of the press would see him only at his afternoon exercise during the ten days intervening before the title match with Gene Tunney at Soldier's Field. Today Jack promised the scribes a "last look" next Sunday night when the former champion is scheduled to finish boxing.

Lake Villa, Ill., Sept. 12.—(AP)—A day of complete rest from training sent Gene Tunney, the heavyweight champion, on a long automobile ride, all by himself, today, in an effort to keep cool with the thermometer hovering around 92.

Even Eddie Egan, Tunney's pal and constant companion, was left behind when the champion hopped in his car shortly after lunch and started toward Lake Forest and Lake Michigan.

Before he left, Gene took pains to deny that he had ever heard of "the ridiculous and laughable report" that an effort had been made to bribe him with a million dollars to throw the championship battle with Jack Dempsey, September 22.

"Such stories appear before every fight," said Gene. "This one makes the battle official. I shall throw every resource, every ounce of strength, into the match with Dempsey. I believe I will knock him out."

States entry marked the second consecutive year that America had won the event. W. T. Van Orman won a leg on the trophy last year at Antwerp when he distanced competitors by taking his bag from there to Solveters, Sweden.

The trophy at present is held by Belgium and goes to the country which wins the event for three successive years. Hill's victory will give the United States two legs on the cup and an American victory next year, permanent possession.

The race got under way here Saturday in a driving rainstorm and as the balloons were wafted over the lower lakes region they ran into a cyclical windstorm. All but one of the entries, the German balloon Brandenburg, however, succeeded in getting through the storm. The Brandenburg landed in an island off Sandusky, Ohio. The other pilots on landing also reported encountering severe storms farther south, and one bag was sucked to an altitude of 27,000 feet.

Harold Knopp Stops Burke in 3rd Round

Detroit, Sept. 12.—(AP)—Harold Knopp, Toledo featherweight boxer, stopped Vic Burke of Detroit, in the third round of a scheduled 10-round bout here tonight. Fritz Anderson of Detroit scored a technical knockout over Gene Conway of Scranton, Pa., in the second round, and Archie Cook won in the same manner from Battling Kuze.

In the other bouts, Dixie Davis of Terre Haute, Ind., had an edge over Nick Malone of Toledo and Chuck Curtis of Detroit fought a draw with Billy Matelick of Los Angeles in six rounds.

HALF-HOLIDAY ON RACE DATE

Business Houses Asked by Mayor to Close Thursday Afternoon.

URGES HALF HOLIDAY

Mayor George G. Geniesse, yesterday, in a statement addressed to the people of Escanaba, asked that a civic half-holiday be observed Thursday so that the racing program might be enjoyed by all.

"This is the time of the year when the fair spirit prevails," said Mr. Geniesse. "It is a mighty good thing for folks to interest themselves in matters of this sort. There is no county fair this year, but part of the fair's entertainment is to be taken care of by the racing program.

"In order that fair-time may not be passed unnoticed, I respectfully urge that Escanaba enjoy a civic half-holiday Thursday, September 15, and that everyone who can do so attend the races."

Horses that burned up the track at the Marquette fair grounds last week will be seen in action at the fair grounds here when the racing program of the Escanaba Driving Club is held Thursday and Friday, September 15 and 16.

Allene Patch and Teddy Patch, two speedy horses from Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., who captured prize money at Marquette, were unloaded at the local track yesterday. Allene Patch, who was injured in Thursday's events at Marquette when three horses spilled, made a remarkable performance in coming in first in the opening event of Saturday's program.

Hazel Direct, another horse from the Canadian Soo, has also arrived here. This horse won first money in the 2:20 pace at Marquette Saturday afternoon. Finishing a poor fourth in the first heat and third in the second, Hazel Direct responded to extraordinary urging by her driver, Morrison, and led the field in the third and fourth heats.

Charles Ehnerd of Escanaba has two horses, Butcher the Great and Hal McKinnon, on hand. Butcher the Great returns to Escanaba, fresh from a first-place victory in the 2:18 trot at the Shawano fair.

Maggie Frisco, the Frank Ehnerd entry from Wrightstown, Wis., will also appear on the Escanaba program. Quite a number of horses, enroute to the Schoolcraft county fair at Manistique next week, will stop off here to take part in the events.

Atty. H. J. Rushton, secretary of the Escanaba Driving Club, reports that the track is in fine shape, and that everything points toward a successful meeting here. Business places and offices in the city will close on Thursday afternoon, the opening day, and with the increased interest being shown in horse racing, it is expected that an unusually large attendance will be enjoyed.

Delta Hotel Pole Hit by Lightning

A lightning bolt yesterday morning struck the flag pole on the Delta hotel and splintered it in many pieces. No other damage was done as the lightning dissipated itself at the concrete base of the pole. Grounding wires on the building, which serve the same purpose as lightning rods, prevented further damage.

The electric power lines in the city were closed down for about a half hour yesterday morning while workmen repaired several transformers at the lightning plant.

Talks on Health

By Dr. Morris Fishbein

ERRORS IN DIET ARE ONE CAUSE OF TOOTH DECAY.

The popular slogan that a clean tooth never decays is probably correct if associated with the right definition of a "clean tooth."

It is equally true that millions of unclean teeth never decay. Of course, unclean teeth are not desirable, because they permit the growth of bacteria that are usually associated with foul breath, they are unesthetic in appearance and they are associated with irritations of the gums, cheeks and tongue that may be serious.

Breaking the Enamel.

About 1890 it was shown that certain acids formed by the action of mouth bacteria on a substance containing sugar when held in contact with enamel of the teeth for a certain number of hours would cause the enamel to fall apart and open the way to destruction of the softer dentin substance beneath.

Since the acid must exist in concentrated form in order to do such work, the process usually goes on only in the tiny pits, fissures or other defects in the enamel, or in the spaces between the teeth.

The exposed surfaces of the teeth seldom decay because the natural movements of the lips, cheeks and tongue help to keep them clean.

Dietary Mistakes.

Associated with the cause of tooth decay are errors in the diet. It is useless to take in large amounts of calcium, unless the calcium is assimilated. Apparently phosphorus, the products of certain glands, ultra-violet rays, and the vitamins are involved in the use of calcium by the body and must be taken in the diet in order to permit the process to go on satisfactorily.

Once decay begins, once the enamel of the tooth is broken down, bacteria, constantly present in the mouth, aid the destruction. Chemical changes occur that are disastrous.

The most that anyone can do is to keep teeth clean by the best methods possible, to overcome acids by the proper use of alkaline washes or pastes, and to see that the diet is of the proper nature to keep the teeth in a state of satisfactory nutrition.

ALL-A STUDENTS CLUB'S GUESTS

Michigan Tech Faculty Man Gives Excellent Address.

To attain high scholastic standing is a most praiseworthy achievement, but it is not sufficient to make a real "top-notch" engineer, W. F. Nachazel, professor of engineering at Michigan Tech, Houghton, told the All-A students of Escanaba and St. Joseph's high schools at the regular meeting of the Kiwanis club yesterday. His subject was "Top-Notchers." The honor students were the day's special guests of the Kiwanians.

"The real top-notch is not only a book worm but a leader in student thought and student activities," said Professor Nachazel. "One who has the ability to attain high standing in the class room has the ability also to attain leadership in other lines."

Reviewing the careers of top-notchers in various fields, the speaker pointed out that all of them were men who were thoroughly trained for their job, were not ashamed to seek the advice of others, and were willing to give their associates and subordinates full credit for their part in any achievement.

Envy Is Ruinous

"Envy provides the mud that failure throws at success," he declared. "The man who is envious of another's progress never reaches the top-notch class."

Professor Nachazel was introduced by Lloyd Walker, who presided over the meeting. The honor students were presented by Mr. Walker to the club.

There was special singing led by O. I. Bannan, assisted by Charles Johnson and his banjo, and Miss Margaret Compher, the club's regular pianist.

Play on School Swings at Night Banned by Police

Complaints that children playing on the new playground equipment at the Jefferson school are raising much commotion at late hours are being received at the police department. These complaints are made by residents of Jefferson school neighborhood. Reports of rowdiness at other schools have also come in.

Chief of Police John J. Tolan has issued an appeal to parents and teachers to assist the police in abolishing this nuisance. Teachers and parents have been notified to tell the children that no playing at the school grounds will be permitted after 6 p. m.

"We don't want to deny children their play," Chief Tolan said, "but we believe there is sufficient time for recreation during the daytime. The use of the school swings and other apparatus during the late hours of night cannot be permitted, however."

Under the almost cloudless skies of the upper Nile Valley in Egypt, the depth of water evaporated amounts to 19 feet.

Escanaba and Gladstone, being the largest communities in the county, received the largest sums, Escanaba receiving out of the primary school fund a sum of $58,853 and Gladstone $22,603.15. Ensign township received the smallest amount which was $3,017. This apportionment does not include the five per cent provided for under the Escanaba plan. This is being held up, pending a decision as to the constitutionality of the law. Following is a table showing the number of children in the various districts, and the amounts distributed from the primary school fund and the library fund:

Farming Increasing in Upper Michigan

The number of farms in the upper peninsula increased from 8,914 in 1910 to 14,372 in 1920, according to statistics recently compiled by E. G. Amos, county agent leader for the upper peninsula, for farm census reports.

During the same period the amount of land used for farming increased from 912,000 acres to 1,290,471 acres and the number of improved acres in farms increased from 339,000 to 503,709.

The value of all farm property in the upper peninsula increased from $69,226,985 in 1920 to $70,545,401 in 1924. In 1924 the value of all crops on upper peninsula farms was $12,263,245, according to the federal census figures.

The following table, compiled by Mr. Amos, gives interesting figures to show the progress of the agricultural industry in this part of Michigan:

CIVIC LEADERS LAUD 'SEE-SEE'

D. P. McRae, M. K. Bissell, W. R. Smith Express Views to Press.

Three more prominent Escanabans, in interviews with The Press yesterday, gave their emphatic endorsement to the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce and its work.

They were: D. P. McRae, president of the Escanaba Trades and Labor Council; W. R. Smith, of the Delta Hardware company, and M. K. Bissell, one of the leading lumbermen of the district.

Mr. McRae emphasized, particularly, the spirit of good-will and community enterprise the chamber has fostered.

"I am very much in favor of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce," he said. "Had it done nothing more than put over the Escanaba Plan in the distribution of school funds, it would justify its existence, when the city is receiving $20,000 and the county $40,000 per year. This, from a monetary standpoint is worthy of appreciation by the taxpayers. But what is of inestimable value is the community spirit and good-will it has fostered in the city and county—something that cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents. Let us put Escanaba on the map. Can we do it? Yes. How? By co-operation. Let us all pull together. In union there is strength," he quoted the words of Abraham Lincoln. "United we stand; divided we fall."

Civic Improvements.
The Chamber of Commerce leadership in civic improvements has been an outstanding achievement here, Mr. Bissell pointed out. Its permanence is assured, he believed.

Mr. Bissell said:
"The planning and financing of the Ludington Street White Way, which initiated a program that has resulted in eleven miles of boulevard lighting in our city, is just one example of how a community problem that had been worrying the citizens for years, can be solved when a modern Chamber of Commerce has been organized in a city. The Chamber of Commerce is no longer an experiment. It is a permanent institution that I know the forward looking people of this city are going to continue to support, because they realize there are many things that still need to be done and that the necessity for united community effort will always exist in this community just as it does in every other community."

Building for Future.
Mr. Smith believes that the achievements of the Chamber of Commerce not only have justified a large measure of pride, but that a continuation of the leadership and willingness to work" assures a glowing future for this city.

Mr. Smith said:
"The Chamber of Commerce of any city has come to be the barometer of civic pride and its accomplishments the measure of progress in many lines. Escanaba can well point with pride to the many things which are real accomplishments. The street lighting, roads, agricultural co-operation, 'Escanaba Plan' of school fund distribution, and a long list of others stand as the result of six years of team thinking and team working. I believe that given representative man power and adequate finance, and a program of work evolved from the thinking of its membership, we are at the beginning only of the things that will make Escanaba the greatest city in the Upper Peninsula. It requires only leadership and a willingness to work. We should all do our best for a greater city."

Tax Penalty Will Start Next Friday
City Treasurer, A. J. Manley announces that September 15 will be the last day on which city taxpayers may pay their taxes without the penalty charge. After Thursday, a penalty fee of four per cent will be charged.

Famous former heavyweight champion, with Mrs. Corbett after breakfast at their home at Bayside, L. I., recommends Lucky Strikes.

William Faversham, The Popular Actor, writes:

"For years I have been a Lucky Strike enthusiast, in fact, I never smoke any other cigarette. In all this time I have never been troubled with throat irritations. In addition to the enjoyment that I get from the superior quality of Lucky Strikes, it is wonderful to know that my voice will never be affected by smoking."

SAYS CURWOOD NOT BETRAYED

Norman Hill Declares Action Not Blow at Late Author.

Sault Ste. Marie, Sept. 12—Vigorous denial of the charge made by members of the Shawansee conservation commission "betrayed the late James Oliver Curwood," by action taken last week, has been made by Norman H. Hill of the Soo, a member of the commission.

Mr. Hill declared that the commission did Wednesday just what it would have done had Mr. Curwood been alive and still a member of the commission, with the single exception of lifting the ban on fox squirrels, this action being taken following a four to three vote in favor of lifting the ban.

"Had Mr. Curwood been alive the vote would probably have been four to three against lifting the ban. The ban was placed on fox squirrels as a result of a questionnaire which asked opinion of sportsmen of the state regarding black, gray, and fox squirrels. A recent survey shows that the black and gray are scarce and in need of protection, but that fox squirrels are numerous, and so this corrective action was taken."

Spike Horn Deer.

As to the charge that the commission "removed the ban on spike horn deer," Mr. Hill pointed out that there was no ban on spike horns, and that Mr. Curwood's proposal that the discretionary power act be invoked to place such a ban was opposed at the last two meetings.

"I told Mr. Curwood and the commission at the July meeting that there was no present proposal of limiting the killing of deer to antlered bucks. I was not present at the August meeting, which Mr. Curwood attended and at which no action was taken. Had Mr. Curwood lived and been in attendance this week, you may be sure that if he proposed the placing of such a ban, I would have opposed him again, and I believe a majority of the commission would have been with me."

Fish Spear.

As to the spearing of fish, the order was made by the commission because of the fact that it was unfair and discriminatory. It provided that spearing is illegal south of town 20 (the northern boundary of Mason, Lake, Osceola, Clare, Gladwin and Arenac counties), and legal in the counties north of that line.

"Mr. Whiteley, who succeeded Mr. Curwood on the commission, is sincerely of the belief that such a ruling, made by the former commission, is unfair, and his arguments prevailed with the commission. The action taken Wednesday which lifts the spearing ban south of line 20 will be followed by an investigation and further rulings will be made which will be in conformity with the interests of true conservation and with the idea of giving all the people of the state a fair show. Certainly there was no rhyme or reason for the ruling made by the old commission which said that spearing was legal above an arbitrarily placed line and illegal below it."

Rabbits.

"I am glad to see that the action of the commission rescinding the order shortening the rabbit season meets with general approval," said Mr. Hill. "This action was taken at the vehement insistence of Mr. Curwood, without proper investigation. I urged him at the time to wait until such investigation was made, but he refused to wait, and insisted on action. Inasmuch as I had battled with him at this same meeting on the spike horn deer proposition and succeeded in getting him to withdraw his proposal, I gave in as a compromise, for the time being, and pending investigation. Had Mr. Curwood lived I should have insisted Wednesday on the revocation of the rabbit order, and I know that the other commissioners, with the possible exception of Mr. Curwood, would have been with me."

That "politics" actuated the commission in its actions Wednesday was dismissed by Mr. Hill as absurd. He pointed to the statement of Albert Stoll, Jr., conservation editor of the Detroit News, and a former secretary of the department, to the effect that the action taken by the commission on Wednesday was "the best day's work since it was appointed in January."

"Mr. Stoll is not only a fine sportsman, but, unlike many sportsmen, is thoroughly conversant with conditions and not swayed by prejudice and local interests." He has been frank and honest in his criticisms of the present commission and his approval means more to me than the half-cocked criticisms of those who don't know or seem to care about the facts."

Joseph Buchanan Injured by Blast

Joseph Buchanan, son of Mrs. Anna Buchanan, 1704 First avenue south, was seriously injured when a carbon gas tank exploded in an ice cream parlor at Green Bay on Sunday, according to work received here. He was taken to one of the Green Bay hospitals. His mother was called to his bedside yesterday morning.

Mr. Buchanan is a former resident of Escanaba, and is now engaged in the undertaking business in Luxemburg, Wis. He is the son-in-law of Chief of Police John J. Tolian of this city, his first wife being formerly Miss Eva Tolian, who died four years ago.

FARM PROFITS CUT BY FIRES

Thirty-five Per Cent of Farm Blazes From Carelessness.

Lower production costs and not higher prices are needed by the American farmer to free him from difficulties, Walter Bauer, president of Pyrens Manufacturing company, declared recently, asserting "the American farmer is the most careless property owner in the world," and that as a result fire insurance companies were faced with a serious problem.

Ninety-six farms burn up every day of the year at a total annual cost of $150,000,000, Mr. Bauer declared. This figure is based on insurance statistics and does not take into consideration about 25 per cent of the farms not insured.

Many large stock fire insurance companies are declining to renew fire policies on rural properties owing to their unfavorable loss experience in the last few years, Mr. Bauer said. The companies are not canceling existing policies, but are discontinuing their protection as policies mature, except as a matter of accommodation.

Burden on Mutuals.

This throws a tremendous burden on the farm mutual fire insurance companies of the middle west now doing their best to educate the farmer through advertising campaigns.

A group of important middle western companies recently got together to finance a joint educational fire prevention campaign.

"Thirty-five per cent of farm fires are from unknown causes," declared Mr. Bauer, "or, in other words, from carelessness. Anyone traveling through the agricultural districts knows how careless the American farmer is. He will leave a brand new tractor out in all weather, hoping that everything will turn out all right and that it won't rust in its most important parts. He does not look after his property and takes little or no protection against fire, although his property is many miles from an organized fire department."

Must Bear Some Loss.

"The farmer does not realize that even if he is insured his loss probably will far exceed the money he can collect. On the average the actual loss of value from fire exceeds the insurance by 50 per cent. The farmer does not realize when he joins a farm mutual association that he pays indirectly for the carelessness of other farmers. These losses, of course, keep up the cost of agriculture in this country and discourage those who turn to the land for a living."

"If the farmer could be induced to use the ordinary care taken in business to keep down costs, he would be able to make a more profitable living."

"I could not predict that the time may come when the average farmer will find it impossible to obtain real insurance, because there always will be an insurance company willing to take risks. But the highly unfavorable farm loss situation creates a new problem for fire insurance companies. Rates on farm policies have been going up for years and they probably will keep on rising unless something is done to correct the situation. During the past few years the annual destruction of farm property by fire has more than tripled."

Loss Ratio Grows Higher.

"Insurance companies have been hoping for years that losses would decline, and in this they have been disappointed. It is getting increasingly difficult for agents to place that type of business."

"In the five years, 1919 to 1923, total insured farm losses for the entire country were only $141,000,000. In 1925 the cost of farm fires was $150,000,000."

"Banks and finance companies making a specialty of lending money on farm mortgages are giving the fire insurance factor serious consideration. Should the fire insurance companies back down the mortgage companies would have to do the same thing and the farmer would then find himself in a much worse position."

"One big factor seems to be the increase in spontaneous combustion largely due to increased production of hay. This could be offset by getting the hay properly dried before putting it into the bays."

Dairy Farms Suffer.

"Losses have hit in particular the dairy farmers, where the size of the barns has increased greatly to take care of increasing production. These larger barns possess a greater attraction for lightning and should have, but don't most of the time, lightning rods."

"A remarkable contrast is shown in Canada's farming districts where losses by fire have been falling each year since 1922. In 1925 Canada's fire losses were 31 per cent below 1922. The Canadian government has done great work in educating the farmers and encouraging them to form their own fire fighting forces with suitable up-to-date apparatus."

CARS FOR TOURISTS.

Tourists arriving in France may now hire automobiles for touring as they do in this country. These become available to offset the high cost of shipping automobiles even across the channel from England.

ACCIDENTS INCREASE.

During 1926 there were 4,885 fatal accidents and 133,888 non-fatal accidents, in Great Britain. In 1925 there were 3,971 fatal and 111,502 non-fatalities.

So great is the demand among furriers for rabbit skins that trappers in Australia are having a "boom" time, some making as much as $150 a week.

EXHIBIT HALL TO BE FILLED

Applications for exhibit space at the Schoolcraft county fair indicate that the main exposition hall will be filled to overflowing this year with mercantile displays when the annual event opens next week.

Secretary W. G. Stephens is assuming that all local merchants who have previously occupied space in the display hall will again fill up the booths which bear their names. In addition, he has received applications from several out-of-town concerns who are anxious to show their products at the local fair. Through various channels, these merchants have learned that the fair at Manistique is to be much larger than before, and they recognize it as an ideal opportunity for bringing their messages before the people by means of attractive exhibits of goods. It is expected that every available space will be taken up when the fair hall opens to the public next Tuesday, September 20.

Banners Up Tomorrow

Advertising banners are to be strung up throughout the streets of Manistique tomorrow. Mr. Stephens said. The Manistique Light and Power company has freely granted permission for the use of their poles to support the street signs, and has also given the fair association the use of the light company line crew to fasten up the banners on Wednesday.

DEDICATION AT HIAWATHA WINS WIDE COMMENT

Wide interest was attracted by the recent M-94 dedication which took place at Hiawatha, as shown by newspaper items and comments from prominent highway officials. State Highway Commissioner F. F. Rogers had a word of warm commendation for the event when he stopped over in the city last week, and expressed regret that he was not able to be present. Others on the highway staff agree that the celebration was one of the high spots in the entire good roads development program.

MICHIGAN ROADS AND PAVEMENTS

"Michigan Roads and Pavements," in the current issue, regarding the demonstration: "M-94, the new state trunk line that connects Manistique with Shingleton and there opens a short route between the important roads along Lake Michigan and those along Lake Superior, was formally dedicated last Tuesday evening, August 30, at a monster celebration held at Hiawatha Grange hall, by which the new road passes. The new highway, although not yet completed by any means, presents a far different appearance than early this spring. The old roadbed has been widened and in many stretches an entirely new one has been built in order to eliminate the many curves in the old road. When the new road is completed it will be one of the finest drives in the north country.

"Approximately 400 persons, including business men of Manistique and farmers throughout the county, took part in the celebration. The state highway department was represented by H. I. Davies, division engineer, who makes his headquarters in Escanaba. Others on the speaking program were Representative D. F. Morrison of Garmistak, A. L. Byers of Hiawatha, Supervisor C. H. Howard, County Engineer J. E. McCarthy, Atty. J. J. Herbert and Dr. H. L. Mead, president of the Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Mead ably officiated as toastmaster.

FARM THIEVING RESUMED; DIG OUT POTATOES

Stealing of farm produce continues apace among Schoolcraft residents, with no apparent remedy.

Among recent losers is a family at Marquette, whose cellar was raided while they were asleep, the thief taking canned goods and other contents of the basement. Then there is a farmer near Cooks, who came out to his potato field one morning to find that 110 rows had been dug up during the night, and the crop carried away. Other instances equally as bad have been reported in the past few weeks as farm and truck garden crops become ready for market.

Ships Out Lumber From Steuben Camp

Louis Hanneman, former Steuben lumberman, arrived in Manistique this week from Duluth, Minn., where he recently completed the sawing of 3,100,000 feet of lumber located some 35 miles north of Duluth.

Mr. Hanneman came here to superintend the shipping of 200,000 feet of lumber from Steuben, the final lot of pine and hemlock saved while he was operating there. He is considering other proposals for contract sawing in this section.

Another scalp was collected by the Manistique baseball team Sunday in a post-season event at St. Ignace. The Straits city was trimmed, 5 to 5, by the Smith's Schoolcraft aggregation.

Bill Vassan ably officiated on the mound and Bob Harbin was on the receiving end. The diamond was in poor condition, and this gave the locals a group of errors, but they came through strong and easily sewed up the game with a series of healthy hits.

Due to preparations being made for the Schoolcraft county fair, the Manistique team will be able to play no more home games this month, but Manager A. J. Smith has one or two offers from nearby cities which may be accepted.

E. A. ERICKSON TELLS OF CLUB

Fine Paper Read Before Rotarions on Monday.

A splendid paper on the Gladstone City club, a civic organization which has been making rapid progress since its organization, was read before the Gladstone Rotary club Monday noon by Ewald A. Erickson, president of the club.

The talk was the principal part of the program for the day. Mr. Erickson opened his talk by telling of the long-felt need of a City club in Gladstone and of the organization of the present club with its purposes and aims. Going from these topics he spoke of the club's achievements up to the present time.

From the very beginning of our club," Mr. Erickson stated, "many matters of interest to the city, to our business and to all concerned have been discussed. I also want to mention here that the club is always open to suggestions and will support and foster any good idea of cause that will do good for our city, directly or indirectly. At the first, members were questioned what they considered our first important objective.

All seemed of one opinion that a better road leading into Gladstone from Flat Rock should be sponsored. We immediately got in touch with Escanaba township officers and brought the matter before their attention. They, too, were anxious to have something done, as it meant another means by which they could dispose of their produce, by making it easier to reach another market. Shortly afterward, we had a joint meeting at the Escanaba township hall at which time some one voiced the belief that our county road commission should take over this highway. Not long afterward the township officials and members of the Gladstone City club approached the Delta county road commission and now have their promise that this road will be developed as a county road as soon as it seems advisable to take it over.

"The first of August, the long felt need of a farm market came to a head at our regular monthly meeting. A committee composed of City club members were selected and they immediately got back of the project and in an amazingly short time established Gladstone's first successful farm market on Saturday, August 20. Under the supervision of this committee and the cooperation of city officers, the market has shown an increase both in farmers displaying produce and patronage."

Mr. Erickson also described another project, the comprehensive survey which was undertaken by the club acting upon the suggestion of A. T. Sohlberg, telling of the project in detail.

In conclusion, Mr. Erickson said:

"Needs Business Men. "The club needs busy men—not afraid to shoulder duties that seem to be no one's duties. Look at the large cities. At one time way back they were small. Most of them must credit some business organization for their success. Don't misunderstand me. I do not mean that the Gladstone City club will transform this city into a large metropolis as it does magically. But you can rest assured that your chances are far greater by having a commercial organization. A club that is awake and doing things soon finds its way into the eyes of the outer world."

"The City club composed of small membership has made progress and although not so great we hope it will lead to greater things. We are not using this opportunity to solicit members but we believe every man in Gladstone who has the city at heart should belong. No heavy financial burden has been placed on any man. Yet we are convinced every cent expended in an effort to attract attention to our city will repay each one many fold. We need you in this club and should we, as one man stated, only get together once a month—rub shoulders and learn to know our fellow men, we will find that it has been a success."

LOCAL GIRL WINS FIRST

All Saints' Seventh Grade Student Is Champion Speller.

Gladstone generally and All Saints' parochial school in particular won exceptional recognition at the Marquette county fair, when a Gladstone student, Olga Stanich, a pupil of the seventh grade of All Saints' school, took first prize in the fair spelling contest.

Marie Roberts of Negaunee won second prize.

The contest in which Olga and another seventh grade student, Ernest Fraser, represented All Saints' school, was held Saturday with 11 students, representing 10 schools competing. Sister Ethel, instructor of the seventh grade, accompanied her pupils to Marquette for the event.

The contest was conducted by Prof. C. C. Wiggins of the Northern State Teachers' college faculty with Mrs. Gilbert L. Brown and Professor Mattson of the mathematics department as referees.

The spellers dropped out one by one until only Miss Roberts and the Gladstone entrant remained. It was said in an account of the contest, Olga then winning when Miss Roberts failed to spell "supplementary," spelling it "supplementry." Some of the "sticker" on which students failed were "philosophical," "appropriate" and "embarrassment."

Fancy work, practical sewing and drawing entered by All Saints students at the Marquette fair, also won prizes and a report on this is expected from the fair officials within a few days.

Miss Jen Alme of Rhineland left Sunday evening for her home after spending the last few days as the guest of Miss Fern Woodhall at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Woodhall.

New York, Sept. 12.—(P)—Reactionary tendencies developed today in all speculative markets. Stock prices sold down one to six points in a broad selling movement inspired by the market's up of call money rates to the highest levels in more than two months.

The reaction in the stock market came after an opening outburst of strength in which more than a score issues were elevated to new high levels for the year or longer.

Outside of the break in commodities, there was little in the day's news to influence to price movement.

U. S. Steel common, after duplicating the year's high of 157 for the closing issue, sold down to 153 1/2, presenting just above that level for a net loss of 1 3/8.

Selling pressure was effective against a number of the so-called "blue chip" issues, particularly Air Reduction, Commercial Solvents, Detroit Edison, Dupont and Woolworth, all of which sold down 3 points or so.

Iron and steel again developed in Brigs Body, which broke more than four points to its new 1927 low at 21 1/2 on fears for the safety of the $3 annual dividend.

Among the issues to reach new high ground were American Telephone, International Telephone, Studebaker, Burroughs Adding Machine, Reynolds Tobacco B. and United Fruit, but not all the gains were maintained.

Rails offered better resistance to pressure than the Industrials, Pennsylvania and Chicago Northwestern attained new peak prices and Union Pacific advanced to within a fraction of the year's high.

Saint and Sinner

On Monday, about an hour after Cherry and Bob had left for the office, Cherry to resume her duties as her brother-in-law's secretary, Fay Lane, Junior's driver, quiet little wife, arrived for one of her infrequent visits. Faith, who looked a little untidy after her share of the morning's housework and her bathing of the baby, led Fay into her bedroom where they could talk while she changed her dress and smoothed her hair.

"Something on your mind, dear?" Faith asked suddenly, after a keen look at Fay's slightly troubled, transparent young face. "How is Junior?"

"Oh, Long's fine," Fay replied, smiling the little secret, tender smile of the beloved wife who has no doubt of her husband's devotion. "Yes, there is something on my mind, Faith. It's about—Daddy Lane. I—I think he wants to come and live with us—with Long and me."

"Isn't he happy here?" Faith demanded, on the defensive instantly. "I'm sure I've tried to make him comfortable, to show him he's wanted—"

"It's not that, Faith," Fay protested unhappily. "He likes the old place. I suppose he misses Mother Lane, feels closer to her in the house that was their home for so long. And I think your home is just a little too splendid for him—he feels out of place in its newness and the lovely, modern room you've given him. And"

"I don't know," Faith said, smiling. "I'll try to make it comfortable for him. I'll try to make it comfortable for him. I'll try to make it comfortable for him."

"I'll try to make it comfortable for him. I'll try to make it comfortable for him. I'll try to make it comfortable for him."

"I'll try to make it comfortable for him. I'll try to make it comfortable for him. I'll try to make it comfortable for him."

"I'll try to make it comfortable for him. I'll try to make it comfortable for him. I'll try to make it comfortable for him."

On tears, and her hands trembled as she inserted a shell hairpin in the shining brown loop of hair on the nape of her neck. "Oh, I suppose I'll have to tell you one other reason," Fay laughed nervously. "He's got it into his head that your Kate Lundy is trying to marry him—"

"Kate Lundy?" Faith gasped, then began to laugh helplessly. "Of all the ridiculous things! Why—Mrs. Lundy wouldn't dream—"

"But she stopped, recalling tiny, trivial incidents that had gone unmarked at the time: an extra chop on Jim Lane's plate; flowers in his bedroom; Kate humming as she darned Jim Lane's socks—"

"Oh, dear! Maybe he's right! And the poor darling doesn't want me to have to send a perfectly good house-keeper and cook away! Is that it, Fay?" Her brow had cleared again, and there was a fond light in her big brown eyes.

"Well," Fay laughed, too, "that's partly right. But I think Dad's scared to death that he'll want her! He's awfully lonesome. Faith, in spite of the fact that he's living here with you all—He feels that it would be a slight upon Mother Lane if he married someone else. Shall I tell him it's all right—that you understand and will lend him to us for a while, at least? I'll be good to him, Faith. I love him a lot, the poor dear."

Faith, kissing her sister-in-law felt a twinge of conscience because, deep in her heart, she was a little relieved that there would be one less person to keep her from having a private life with her husband.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE DELFT The Delft, today, will present a twin-feature program consisting of the Dempsey-Sharkey fight pictures (reviewed elsewhere) and the Jules Verne story, "Michael Strogoff." The Verne picture will undoubtedly awaken the fondest of memories among the men and women of Escanaba who witnessed it as a stage play in years gone by.

AT THE STRAND There is an old-fashioned melodrama, yet with a new kind of a plot, being shown at the Strand. It started last night and will run for two days. It is the "The Transcontinental Limited."

How an old-fashioned melodrama can be combined with a new idea is shown in this most admirable production. It is the story of an old engineer and his wife in whose lives the wreck of the Transcontinental plays a most important part.

Alec B. Francis takes the role of the engineer and Edith York of the wife. Their performance is excellent. Their charming daughter, who is taken by Eugene Gilbert, is wooed and won by the speedy and breezy Johnny Walker, who will always be remembered for his splendid work in "Over the Hill" and in subsequent big productions.

The important part which the train takes in the ultimate happiness of the characters gives the story a most unusual plot.

German Scientists to Aid Turk Farmers Angora, Turkey (AP)—That the "new" Turkey is not slowing down on the ambitious farm program which it inaugurated with the establishment of the republic three years ago is evidenced by the arrival here of two German agricultural specialists, Herr Oldenberger and Herr Schmidt, officials of the German Ministry of Agriculture. They have been engaged by the Turkish government to organize an agricultural institute in the Turkish capital. Measures taken to aid the condition of Anatolian peasants include the suppression of the tithe, the war waged on brigands and on the over-lords who kept the peasants in a feudal state of bondage, the introduction of farm machinery, especially American tractors, the free distribution of seeds and the sending of Turkish students to European agricultural schools. Much Clothing Is Donated to Poor

City Clerk Carl E. Anderson reports that there has been a generous response to his appeal for old wearing apparel to clothe the poor children of the city who needed clothing for school wear. More clothing than was really needed was received, and there were also offers of money by some persons. The surplus clothing will be turned over to the Salvation Army. This fine response shows that Escanaba people are always ready to answer the call for help for every needy cause.

Athletics Take Last of Series from Detroit, 5 to 4

SCORE TIED IN EIGHTH FRAME

Tigers Make First Score in Third; Drop Game 5-4.

Philadelphia, Sept. 12.—(AP)—The Athletics wound up the series with Detroit today by winning their third game in four by a score of 5 to 4. Detroit tied the score in the eighth but a walk to Cahrane, Jacobson's single and a sacrifice fly scored the winning run in the home half of the inning. Bob Fothergill hit a homer in the seventh.

The Tigers, although they got two hits in the second inning, did not score until the third, when the same number of blows resulted in the first run of the game. After Gibson had been tossed out by Bishop and Warner had fled out, Gehring doubled and then rode home when McManus matched the blow.

The Athletics evened the count in their half of the same inning on Hale's single and French's double, and then added two more in the fifth.

Meanwhile, the Tigers advanced through three scoreless innings. Fothergill's homer accounted for a single tally in the seventh, but Philadelphia increased its lead by making an error run in their half of the frame. Hale's triple drove Bishop across the plate after he had been hit by a pitched ball.

The Tigers tied the count in the eighth with what proved to be their last runs of the game. Warner singled to left field and went to second when Gehring poked out a like blow to center. McManus was out on a grounder to Rommel, but Warner scored a moment later on the next play when the Athletic hurler heaved a wild pitch. Gehring advanced to third at the same time and was in easy position to go home on Hillman's sacrifice.

The Athletics made the result certain in their half of the inning with the run, started by a pass to Cochran. Fox's fly and Jacobson's single followed, and the runner scored when Collins, pinch hitting for Boley, lifted a second fly to Hellmann. Rommel was tossed out to prevent further scoring.

A wild throw by Galloway put Warner on base in the last inning after Bassler had fled out and Wingo had been thrown out, but Gehring's liner to Galloway ended the game.

REID DEFEATED IN FIRST ROUND

Clarence Gamber of Pine Lake Takes Opening Match.

Detroit, Sept. 12.—(AP)—Wilfred Reid, defending champion, was defeated in the first round of the State Professional Golfer's association tournament here today by Clarence Gamber of Pine Lake, 4 and 3. Aside from losing his title, Reid was deprived of another honor when Emerick Kocsis established a new course record of 70, one under par, to head the list in the morning 18-hole qualifying round. Reid held the former mark with a 73.

After his remarkable qualifying round, Kocsis lost his chance for title play in the afternoon when he was defeated by Kenneth Martin, 2 and 1.

Stanley Hancock, assistant pro at Meadowbrook, put up a stubborn battle before he bowed to Al Watrous, 3 and 1. Two down at the fifteenth, Hancock shot a birdie four to cut the upstate golfer's lead to one and became a menace. To continue the struggle, Watrous got a birdie three on the sixteenth, but it was matched when Hancock holed a sizeable putt.

Watrous ended the match on the seventeenth when he holed his chip shot. In this round Watrous turned in a 70 to equal the course mark set by Kocsis in the morning. Through the draw Watrous and Gamber are in opposite sections and may meet in the 36-hole final Wednesday. Results of today's matches follow:

Kenneth Martin (Hudson's) beat Emerick Kocsis (Wise's) 2 and 1. Charles Hillendort (Lochmor) beat Arthur Ham (Plum Hollow) 2 and 1. Clarence Gamber (Pine Lake) beat Wilfred Reid (Country Club) 4 and 3. Jimmy Kinnear (Wise's) beat Jock Dryburg (St. Clair) 6 and 5. Al Watrous (Grand Rapids) beat Stanley Hancock (Meadowbrook) 3 and 1. Benno Kautke (Lochmor) beat George Knight (Fort Huron) 2 up. Nick Webber (Grand Rapids) beat Jack Elphick (Hawthorne Valley) 7 and 6. Jimmy Campbell (Forest Lake) beat George Hosner (Highlands) 2 and 1.

PREP FOOTBALL MEN WILL MEET AT IRONWOOD

A. W. Thompson Calls Conference of Coaches.

The second annual football rules interpretation meeting for upper peninsula high schools will be held at Ironwood in the high school at 10:00 a. m., Monday, September 10. The first meeting of this kind was held last fall in the Iron Mountain high school and was attended by approximately sixty-five superintendents, principals, coaches, and players. The date for this year's upper peninsula football meeting was set by vote of the superintendents, principals and coaches who gathered at the Escanaba high school last winter for the basketball rules meeting. Ironwood invited the group to meet to discuss football rules in its school and the invitation was accepted by those present.

The meeting was set for 10:00 o'clock in the morning with the idea that many of the men could travel toward Ironwood on Sunday, have the meeting in the morning and early afternoon and finish up in time to make the return trip to their homes that day.

The upper peninsula meeting will follow the state meeting which is to be held at Michigan State college, East Lansing, on the previous Saturday, September 17. A. W. Thompson, director of state interscholastic athletics, will attend the upper peninsula meeting and assist in the discussion. He is attending the western conference meeting on Saturday, September 10, in Chicago and will have the benefit of both western conference discussion and the state meeting before attending the upper peninsula conference of coaches. All indications point to a good report at Ironwood.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 12.—(AP)—Home runs by Glenn Wright and Earl Smith gave Pittsburgh its third straight victory over Philadelphia today, 3 to 2. Carmen Hill, chalking up his 21st victory of the season, allowed the Phils but four hits. The victory enabled the Pirates to retain their lead in the hectic National League race.

Infighting Led to Punches

Dempsey's Greatest Knockouts That Put French Idol Down

Terrific infighting, with many solid smashes to the jaw and heart, won for Champion Jack Dempsey over colorful Georges Carpentier, idol of France, at Jersey City in July, 1921.

The end came in the fourth round, one minute and 16 seconds after it had started, and a right smash to the jaw put the Frenchman down and out.

Fighting tigerishly, at his best at close quarters, Dempsey easily won the first round.

The second was Carpentier's round. He hooked Dempsey with a left and dazed the champion. He followed it with a crushing right and it was easily apparent to the 30,000 fans that Dempsey was troubled.

But over-anxiety to end the fight caused Carpentier to miss many blows—and also made him lose his chance to leave the ring wearing Dempsey's title.

The third was Dempsey's round. Infighting again proved the feature, and the round ended with Dempsey superior to the World War hero.

A right to the jaw sent Carpentier down for a count of nine. Many thought this was the end. A right to the heart that slipped under Carpentier's left arm topped the latter inert to the floor, head down. Then the finish—a right to the jaw.

It was not a popular victory, for Carpentier had been the sentimental favorite to win over the champion.

RAILS DEFEAT WELLS, 4 TO 3

Northwesterns Win First Game From Mill Town Aggregation.

In a post-season game, the Chicago & Northwestern baseball nine registered its first victory of the year over the strong Wells aggregation at the Wells diamond Sunday afternoon by a score of 4 to 3.

Wells outlived the Railroaders, and played errorless ball as compared to three misplays by the Northwestern crew, but a disastrous seventh-inning rally proved the mill town club's undoing.

Wells started the scoring in the second inning. Couillard walked, and Lemke sacrificed. Stelmets singled, scoring Couillard.

The Northwestern team was held scoreless until the fatal seventh inning when they bunched hits off Pitcher Everett Wells. The trouble started when Bink walked. Jomars slapped a single, and Van Effen duplicated the stunt. Timberback, subbing for Clouthier, rapped out a liner down the third-base line, scoring Bink and Jomars. Wells was then relieved by Lemke. Jomars grounded out. Olson singled, scoring Timberback and Van Effen. Johnson flied out to Stelmets.

Wells started out in the eighth which netted two runs, one short of tying the count.

Another game between the two teams is being arranged for next Sunday.

PACKERS TRIM BADGERS, 34-0

First Game of Pro Grid Season Is Played at Green Bay.

Green Bay, Wis., Sept. 11. (Special)—A drizzle of forward passes dazzled the Milwaukee Badgers here this afternoon, and the Green Bay Packers won their first game of the National Professional Football League season, 34 to 0. It was really baseball weather rather than football weather, and fans, sitting in the hot sun, peeled off their coats and rolled up their shirt sleeves so as to be more comfortable.

The Packers resorted to a line attack at intervals, but were able to make longer gains by their aerial route. Dunn, former Marquette university star quarterback, shone brilliantly at the starting end of numerous passing plays. Dilweg, another Marquette product, played a star game at end.

In the first quarter, Dilweg broke away for a 60-yard run past the goal posts, but the touchdown was not allowed, the officials claiming that he had run out of bounds. In the second quarter, the Packers scored their first touchdown when O'Donnell, crossing a pass from Dunn, crossed the goal. Another pass, Dunn to Dilweg, in the same period brought the Packers six more points.

Heardson scored on a pass from Dunn in the third quarter. The old passing combination, Dunn to Lewellyn, started working in the final quarter, the latter Nebraska getting away for a touchdown. A thrilling 40 yard run by Enright in the last two minutes of play added a fitting finishing touch to the contest. Enright made his sensational run after receiving another pass from the Packers' quarterback.

Red Dunn made good on four out of five attempts to kick goal for the points after touchdowns.

Cardinals Shutout Brooklyn, 2 to 0

St. Louis, Sept. 12.—(AP)—Jim Bottomley's home run with Holm on base in the fifth inning gave Arthur Reinhart and the Cardinals a shutout victory over Brooklyn today, 2 to 0, as well as a clean sweep of the four game series. The triumph enabled St. Louis to keep pace with the Giants and two games from the Pirates, who also won. Reinhart held the Robins to six hits while Elliott was found for eleven. Elliott was effective in the pinches, however, twice stopping the Cards with the bases filled. Twelve Cardinals were left stranded on base.

Score: Cardinals, 000 000 000—0 6 0; Brooklyn, 000 020 000—2 11 3. Batteries: Elliott and Deberry; Reinhart and Snyder.

WANT AUTO INSURANCE. A committee of judges and lawyers in New York has drafted a report on traffic in the metropolis in which it urges the adoption of compulsory insurance, similar to that in Massachusetts. It also advises creation of a commission to adjust auto accident cases.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 12.—(AP)—Luque and Lucas took the Boston Braves into tow today, 6 to 4, and 3 to 0, respectively, in a double bill to make the Reds victors over Boston five in a row.

Dressen's triple with the score tied, 4 to 4, in the sixth inning of the first game, turned the trick for Cincinnati. It scored Hargrave, and then Dressen trotted in under a sacrifice fly for the final score.

GLADSTONE BEATS INDEES

Post Season Game Ends With 2-1 Score.

One of the best games of baseball played here this year settled the rivalry between the Escanaba Indees and the Gladstone club Sunday, Stanley Venne's champions taking the game 2 to 1.

The exhibition game gives the champions two out of three, each team having won and lost one during the regular season.

Vandeweghe on the mound for the locals pitched great ball, allowing only two hits. No member of the Escanaba team reached first until the sixth when Kegel was safe on an error by Vandeweghe.

A high point in the game was Buddy Gibbs' one handed catch in left field in the eighth. Gladstone scored in the first. A Kircher hit a two bagger, advanced on M. Kircher's single and scored on Johnson's sacrifice.

In the fourth Gregory singled, Alswede sacrificed and Schwalback scored when Ranguette was safe on an error.

Box score:

| By innings | R   | H   | E         |

BLANEY MEET SEPTEMBER 19

Osborn and "Brownie" to Address Supervisors and Bureau Men.

Delta county will send a delegation of members of the county board and the U. P. Development bureau to the meeting to be held at the Cellbeth Tavern at Blaney on Monday, September 19.

Hon. Chase S. Osborn of Sault Ste. Marie and W. W. Rowland, the famous "Brownie" of the Milwaukee Journal Tour club, will be among the principal speakers. The joint gathering of the Upper Peninsula Supervisors' association and the Upper Peninsula Development bureau was called in August by W. H. Needham, president of the supervisors association and John M. Bush, president of the development bureau. Various important matters relating to the work of the two organizations will be discussed.

Those expected to go from this county are G. N. Harder, Wells; J. P. Bushong, Gladstone; C. J. Byrnes, Escanaba; John P. Norton, Escanaba; W. J. Miller, Rapid River; A. A. Lundgaard, Cornell; W. H. Needham, Escanaba; L. J. Jacobs, Escanaba; George E. Harvey, Escanaba, and C. J. McCauley, Wells.

The beautiful new Cellbeth Tavern was chosen as the meeting place at the suggestion of G. Harold Earle, president of the Wisconsin Land & Lumber company, owners of the tavern, Blaney townsite and much surrounding property. The location in Schoolcraft county, at the junction of M-77 and U. S.-2, 25 miles northeast of Manistique, is one of the most central in the peninsula. Association and bureau members who have not visited Blaney since the close of lumbering operations there, will be amazed at the town's transformation into a handsome and right up-to-date resort. Cellbeth Tavern is a revelation. There are numerous cottages with modern equipment for tourists; a large store, a golf course and an artificial lake.

There will be a noon luncheon, followed by joint and separate sessions of the members of both organizations.

It is expected that the meetings will be over by 4 or 5 o'clock p. m., so that members wishing to return home the same evening can do so. There will be ample accommodations for those wishing to remain over.

BERG WRECKS HIS AIRPLANE

Well Known Pilot Makes Forced Landing When Plane Stalls.

Ernest Berg, aviator who has flown on many occasions over the city of Escanaba and who has many friends here, made a forced landing and wrecked his plane at the Marquette county fairgrounds on Saturday.

Berg was making a short flight with John Kozak as a passenger and the motor stalled when the plane was about 3,000 feet up over the fairgrounds, whereupon Berg swung around and headed for his landing field. The plane went into a nose dive two or three times and with no motive power to assist him, Berg had considerable difficulty preventing a drop.

By executing spiral glides, the aviator descended slowly and brought the plane into a field back of the fairgrounds. Traveling at a speed of about 75 miles an hour, it struck the ground and the landing gear crumpled. Out of control, the plane plunged through a fence and nosed in between two trees. The wings of the plane were crushed against the trees and the propeller was smashed.

Berg was unhurt and Kozak's only injury was a cut on one leg. Berg says he will be able to rebuild the plane, as the fuselage is intact and the motor is not damaged.

IN NEW YORK

New York—Whereas the mayors and demos of other cities are wont to take to themselves residences becoming their positions, Jimmy Walker, of New York, has steadfastly refused to leave the humble neighborhood in which he was reared.

The mayor of this big town lives on a rambling little street that corkscrews off of Greenwich Village. There is no way of identifying it from any of the row of remodeled, plain red-brick fronts that centered the Irish quarter in a day when the early Irish settlers of Manhattan ruled this particular roost.

This was the scene of Jimmy Walker's struggle when he was a poor kid writing song lyrics for a Broadway publishing firm.

Only an extra street light marks the mayor's home. Otherwise there is scattering of venerable street lamps and just cat-corner from the place, is a big lot, converted into a playground and overrun by Italian youngsters from the tenement belt that has taken over the buildings in which once dwelt the Irish aristocracy.

There is perhaps no person in Manhattan who reflects New York more thoroughly than this "midnight mayor." At first glance he might be mistaken for a prosperous hooper. Sartorially he combines Broadway and the city hall. Someone once suggested that Jimmy Walker and the Prince of Wales would make one of the greatest vaudeville teams ever created. But while the mayor's apparel has flash and somewhat reflects the George M. Cohan spirit, it is never in bad taste.

Perhaps the most New Yorkese habit of Jimmy Walker is that of arriving late at banquets, theaters and other festivities.

For few "regular New Yorkers" reach a theater for the opening curtain. Many a house that is sold to the doors will appear half empty until the first act is well under way.

Perhaps the greatest charm of the "midnight mayor" is his lack of pretension or ostentation. I remember seeing him one night during the intermission of a big movie opening standing chatting in the lobby with arms about the shoulders of two pretty maids, the attitude being struck with the utmost casualness. It would occur to no true New Yorker to find such a posture unbecoming. It is the casual gesture of camaraderie and good fellowship.

The midnight oil is his tonic. He knows every phase of his town. Not a night club but has

Fly-Tox Quickly Ends Mosquito Torment

Normal human blood is too thick to be drawn through the mosquito's small piercing tube. They must first inject a thinning fluid. ### This FREE Book Solves Your Home Heating Problems

Here's a book on home heating—just the book you have been wanting so you will know how to get the best heating system for your particular home.

This little book explains basement arrangement, chimney construction and how to save heat by insulating your attic.

More important than anything else, however, this book tells you how to get just the right amount of measured heat for each room, depending on sizes, area, window exposure, etc. It explains air circulation—how to have warm floors—how to avoid cold corners—how to have heat alike in all rooms. It tells how to save fuel—how to make your heating system last for years and years.

Better get the book before you build or remodel your home, or, if you are going to repair or alter your heating system, because it tells you how to have cleaned, moistened, circulated air to breathe. It also tells how to arrange for a permanent local service to look after your heating system—to adjust regulators, dampers, drafts and chains to get full value from fuel and to have regular furnace cleaning, inspection and repair service so you don't even have to think about them.

Send or phone for your copy today. It will be mailed postpaid.
