PARTY LOSES ONE VOTE IN

REPUBLICAN CHIEFS WANT ILLINOIS ELECTION

BY DAVID LAWRENCE.

(Copyright 1928, by the Escanabo Press) Washington, Jan. 23.-The United States Senate is content to go on functioning with only one senator from Illinois, Governor Small's statement that the state of Illinois had been given an unwarranted affront by the refusal to seat Senator-elect Frank L. Smith caused senators to point to the language of the resolution adopted and suggested that Illinois had affronted the senate by presenting credentials 'tainted with fraud and corruption."

Talk of legal proceedings is not taken seriously on Capitol Hill, for in the last analysis the supreme court of the United States would be asked to set aside a vote of 61 to 23 as to who shall sit in a legislative body whose rules are made by itself. And an opinion against the senate not only would not be expected but it is a question as to who could enforce such a decision against the senate.

Senate Must Be Judge. The theory which the majority the senate holds is that a senor is not merely the representative of his own state and that Illinois does not send a man to the senate simply to vote on matters pertaining to Illinois, but on legislation affecting the entire union, and that the senate itself must be the judge of whether it will permit anyone to vote whose credentials are in the original instance said to be tainted with corruption and fraud.

The 61 to 23 vote was a surprise in the sense that it was not expected to be so large. This together with the senators present but paired one against the other shows that more than two thirds was available. And even Smith had been formally given the cath of office there was a two-thirds vote to expel him un-

AT THE STRAND.

Political corruption, savoring of the "graft" stories of recent newspaper elaboration, plays an important part in the theme of "Not For Publication," Ralph Ince's latest starring and directoral effort which is playing at the Strand theatre.

The story deals with the timely subject of partisan influences. motivated by politics, and the power they exert in governmental administration. The award of a great dam construction contract proves the bone of contention in this instance, with the alliance of a politician and a political boss on one hand fighting a militant newspaper on the other.

Ince plays the role of the contractor and political boss, and Rex Lease is seen on the opposing side as the employe of the newspaper. Jola Mendez plays the leading feminine role as the sister of the contractor.

Others in the cast include Roy Laidlaw, Eugene Strong, Thomas Brower and Tom McGuire. The story, based on "The Temple of the Giants," by Robert Wells Ritchie, was adapted by Ewart Adamson

Will You Put In Or Take Out During 1928?

The other day someone said that the secret of happiness lay in finding something bigger than ourselves, and working for it. And they added, caustically, that if we didn't have such a thing in view, it was time to enlarge our horizon. Do you know that struck us as one of the best rules of living we have ever heard, and our "bigger thing" is going to be the future of the town we live in.

A city doesn't just grow. It is built upor torn down-by the people who form a part of it. We have all known towns whose civic spirit was surly and suspicious. Every merchant there was afraid that his neighbor was going to get more out of it than he. Nobody ever seemed to worry about putting in.

Our city isn't that kind. We don't think that it ever will be. Certainly it won't if every one of us works as hard as he can to make this town a better place to live in.

We're going to do our part. Will you?

The Hickman case has set a bad example which is making many folk lose confidence in much-advertised California. The quick disposal of the Hotelling case is an example of real justice that is bound to have a widespread influence to prevent other crimes of a similar nature. Mr. Seegmiller undoubtedly could have played a game of delay and subterfuge and thus acquired some notoriety. She had arrived at the apartment that morning a few minutes after seven, and, as was her custum, had let herself in with her own key, as her mistress generally slept till late. Once or twice a week she came early to do sewing and mending for Miss Odell before the latter arose. On this particular morning she had come early to make an alteration in a gown.

As soon as she opened the door she had been confronted by the disorder of the apartment, for the Venetian-glass doors of the foyer were wide open; and almost simultaneously she had noticed the body of her mistress on the davenport. She had called at once to

Jessup, the night telephone operator then on duty, who, after one glance into the living-room. had notified the police. She had then sat down in the public reception-room and waited for the arrival of the officers. Her testimony had been simple

"Phillips Milk of Magnesia" Better than Soda

Hereafter, instead of sous take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach,

For fifty years genuine "Philips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturatda, leaving the stomach sweet and acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges the souring waste from the system without purging. Besides, it is more pleas ant to take than soda. Insist up on "Phillips." Twenty-five cent from the South where they have and fifty cent bottles, any drugstore. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. THE CASE FOR DAILY NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

The question has been asked: What are the advantages of Daily Newspaper Advertising by contrast with all other forms of advertising?

In setting up these advantages, The Press does not discount supplementary forms of publicity. But the area of the Escanaba trading zone and its distribution of population are such, that Daily Newspaper Advertising has been and must be the basis of all the pointedly successful advertising campaigns.

1. UNIVERSAL APPEAL.

(a) Enters the home intimately.

The Press enters the home and has a more intimate appeal to all members of the family than any other reading matter.

(b) Reaches all classes.

The Press appeals to all literate members of the community, without distinction of race, class, creed, sex, income or occupa-

(c) Thorough distribution. . The newspaper finds its readers, whether they are at home or not.

(d) Reaches the business man. The Press is to the business executive the most necessary medium of information.

2. IMMEDIATE APPEARANCE.

(a) Impulse to immediate action. Because The Press deals with the immediate fact and the opinion of the day, its columns give an impulse to immediate ac-

(b) Quick insertion. Through the newspaper the reader may be reached within a few hours after copy is prepared.

(c) Quick Change.

Advertisements in The. Daily Press may be changed or even cancelled up to a few hours before going to press.

(d) Quick repetition.

A newspaper advertisement which proves successful can be repeated promptly before the conditions favoring success have altered.

Newspaper copy can be adapted to the day on which it appears, or to current events, and can avoid untimely references.

3. FREQUENCY OF APPEAR-

ANCE.

(a) The choice of the day.

The newspaper advertiser has his choice of the precise day of the week most suitable to his advertising. (b) Intensive campaigns. Newspaper advertising permits any inten(d) Cumulative effect.

A newspaper campaign may be planned to obtain a maximum cumulative effect. through the flexibility of space and inter-

4. LOCALIZED CIRCULATION.

(a) Close to place of purchase.

The reader of a Daily Press advertisement can go directly to the place where the article advertised is on sale.

(b) Concentrated territory. The Daily Press offers the maximum concentration of circulation in its community.

(c) Seasonable by territory.

Seasonable variations in the demand in different territories may be taken into account in newspaper advertising.

(d) Localized copy. Newspaper copy and illustrations may be made to meet precisely, and take advantage of local conditions.

The Daily Newspaper is the medium of the moment—the axis of opportunity; flexible, powerful and instantaneous in its ability to create sales.

BEWARE THE

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creo-sote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is reoognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion ontains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is

New Jackson Pen Will Normally Accommodate 4,400 Inmates

Lansing, Jan. 23-(AP)-The new prison at Jackson is to be expanded to double the capacity contemplated by the 1927 legislature to meet the steadily increasing criminal population.

The state administrative board today authorized John W. Miner, member of the prison commission, and Building Superintendent Fraser to proceed with the construction of cell block Additional units six and seven. units will be added rapidly. Five blocks are now completed, or in course of construction. The decision to finish ten blocks restores the new institution to virtually its original plan.

Former Gov. Alex J. Groesbeck planned for 13 cell blocks. Later, it was decided 10 would be sufficient. When Gov. Fred W. Green assumed office, he stated in a message to the legislature that because of treasury deficits and extravagances in the construction thus far, he advocated the completion of only five cell Uhlans Lose Lances The legislature therefore appropriated funds for only that many units.

Of these, 3306 were in Jackson. Marquette is the most seriously congested penal institution, accommodating 50% more prisoners than its cell capacity. Transfers may be affected to relieve the situation, as the new blocks are finished. Wood urged that more space be provided by building additional prisons rather than by releasing inmates.

It is expected eventually the old Jackson prison, located the city will be abandoned.
