

JACKSON ACQUITTED OF BRIBERY CHARGE

JUDGE ACTS ON MOTION OF DEFENSE

GOVERNOR OBJECTS TO MOVEMENT OF LAWYERS

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 16—(AP)—Ed Jackson, Indiana's governor, was a free man tonight over his own protest. Against his will, defense attorneys won acquittal on the ground that the state had failed to prove one phase of its case—concealment of an alleged attempt to bribe former Governor Warren T. McCray in 1923.

The trial ended late today when Judge Charles M. McCabe sustained a motion that the jury be instructed to return a verdict of not guilty. The formal jury took only a few minutes after the court made his ruling.

Governor Jackson wanted to continue through the case to meet the testimony presented by the prosecution—that he and others offered former Governor McCray $10,000 in 1923 and a guarantee of immunity from conviction on charges pending against him if he would name James E. McDonald to the vacant Marion county proctorship. The motion for an instructed verdict was presented immediately after the state had rested its case.

Judge McCabe, after pondering for more than four hours over the motion for acquittal, made it clear to the jury that the governor's discharge was solely on the ground that the state had failed to prove there had been any positive act of concealment of the alleged crime which would cause a cessation of operation of the statute of limitations.

Jackson Nervous. Trial on a charge of commission of the alleged offense itself could not be held because the indictment was defective.

State Republican Convention to Be Held at Detroit

Lansing, Feb. 16—(AP)—The Republican state convention for the purpose of naming seven delegates at large to the national convention in Kansas City will be held in Detroit April 25. The meeting will be held in Cass Technical high school. Phillip T. Colgrove of Hastings will serve as temporary chairman and deliver the keynote address.

Aside from naming the delegates at large, the convention will have little business except to listen to speeches and adopt resolutions. It is expected there will be plenty of political gossip and possibly a few quietly launched booms, inasmuch as shortly after the convention the presidential year campaigns including those for state offices, will get under way.

Rudolph W. Grant of Detroit was selected sergeant-at-arms of the convention by the central committee. A proposal by Milton T. Carmichael of Detroit that the convention be held May 2 was laughed down by the delegates on the ground it would interfere with trout fishing.

County conventions will be held April 11, nine days after the presidential primary which falls on April 2.

Potter Says Home Rule Amendments Will Be Necessary

Lansing, Feb. 16—Governor Green today received an opinion from W. W. Potter, attorney general, advising him that amendments to the home rule act are necessary if Detroit is to legally increase its bonding ability, but withheld comment as to the possibility of a special session.

The governor stated he will study the opinion. The probability exists that he will seek to determine how unanimous the sentiment is in Detroit in favor of increased bonding. Unless there is rather uniform agreement along the members of the Detroit delegation to the legislature and others connected with Detroit affairs, it is possible the governor will decide the legislation is not essential at this time.

If an extra session is called the governor will be asked to submit a host of other subjects.

CLOWN DEAD

Eddie Foy, for years a matinee idol, playing leading roles in comedy productions and in vaudeville circuits, died suddenly yesterday, following a heart attack.

FAMOUS ACTOR DIES SUDDENLY

Eddie Foy Was Hero of Iroquois Theatre Fire in Chicago

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 16—(AP)—The farewell tour of Eddie Foy, veteran stage comedian, ended in death here today. As he had willed it, Mr. Foy died before age had forced him from the footlights.

The 71-year-old actor appeared at the Orpheum theatre last night in his play, "The Fallen Star." A heart attack seized him when he awoke in his hotel room this morning and within a little more than an hour he was dead.

After lying in state in an undertaking parlor, arrangements were made to send the body tonight to New Rochelle, N. Y., for burial.

News of the passing of Mr. Foy, who had been on the stage for more than half a century, brought words of condolence from theatrical stars throughout the country. "A great actor," "the greatest clown" and "a lovable character" were terms used in describing the veteran.

Mr. Foy who was the actor's fourth wife, was with him at death. The Rev. Fr. John Hennessey administered the last rites of the Catholic church.

Six of the seven Foy children, who were scheduled to open a vaudeville engagement at Madison, Wis., today, were notified and will join the funeral party at Chicago. The eldest son was in California.

Mr. Foy had been subject to heart attacks for several months, but his condition was not regarded as serious.

A benefit performance for the Chicago Newsboys' Home in which he did a clog dance was Eddie Foy's stepping stone to the professional stage. Once there he continued to entertain American audiences for more than 50 years and thus made a record which few stage folks have ever equalled.

When he offered to do his bit for the Chicago newsboys in 1869, but his number was so well received that numerous offers for professional engagements quickly came to him.

For several years, however, Mr. Foy continued to do his dancing in what might nowdays be termed cabarets. In 1876 he had an engagement with Cosmopolitan Vaudeville in Chicago and

Governor Will Keep Close Tab On State Agriculture Board

East Lansing, Feb. 16—(AP)—Governor Green will keep close tabs on the future activities of the state board of agriculture according to a statement today. He will insist on harmony.

"I shall not sit back and let dissension tear down this institution," the governor stated. "The college is too valuable to the state to permit factional disputes to interfere with it."

Governor Green's statement was in reference to reports that internal dissension had arisen in board and faculty ranks over the appointment of an acting president yesterday. The board's action, however, was unanimous and no evidence of disagreement was seen at the monthly meeting.

IS YOUNGEST MAN TO EVER HOLD OFFICE

WAS ASSISTANT UNDER WILLIAM W. POTTER

Lansing, Feb. 16—(AP)—Wilber M. Brucker of Saginaw, assistant attorney general, was made attorney general by Gov. Fred W. Green today. He succeeds W. W. Potter who was appointed to the supreme court bench. Potter and Brucker will be inducted into their new duties Friday. Acting Chief Justice Grant M. Fellows will administer the oath of office.

Announcement of Brucker's appointment late this afternoon ended a many sided contest for the place. Emerson R. Boyles, deputy attorney general, was a candidate. He had back of him many probate judges and the residents of his district. War veteran organizations massed themselves solidly behind Brucker.

The new attorney general stated he will ask Boyles to continue as deputy. Whether Boyles will do so was a question, but the governor and others were urging him to remain on the job.

Made Assistant in 1926.

Brucker is one of the youngest men to ever hold the office of attorney general. He was born in Saginaw 33 years ago. Educated in the public schools and the University of Michigan from which he graduated in 1916, he plunged immediately into the military service. As a private in the 33rd infantry, national guard, he was dispatched to the border. When this country entered the World War he was sent to the First Officers' training camp at Fort Sheridan early in 1917. Before the end of that year he was in France with the Rainbow division as a lieutenant of infantry. He was with the fighting outfit through all of its engagements.

In 1919, Brucker was made assistant prosecutor of Saginaw, and later served two terms as prosecutor. At the conclusion of his last term December 31, 1926, he came to Lansing under Potter as an assistant attorney general. He figured in the state's most important cases, representing the attorney general in the House of David, Rich appeal, Lakes level and other litigation.

Ambassador Will Not Withdraw His Two Resignations

Havana, Feb. 16—(AP)—Dr. Honorio Pueyrredon, ambassador to Washington and president of the Argentine delegation to the sixth Pan American conference has refused to withdraw his resignation of both posts, he disclosed here tonight when he made public the texts of telegrams he has sent to his government.

The cable correspondence revealed that the resignations were submitted late Tuesday night following upon receipt of instructions to sign with reservations, the projected Pan American union convention, even if it did not contain the clause looking toward removal of tariff barriers on which he had insisted. Dr. Pueyrredon sent another cablegram to Buenos Aires today insisting that his resignations be accepted.

JURY STILL IN DISAGREEMENT

Twelve Trying Harry Hill for Murder Locked Up for Night

Ottawa, Ill., Feb. 16—(AP)—The jury deliberating the fate of Harry Hill, charged with the murder of his mother, Mrs. Eliza Hill, was locked up in its hotel quarters here at 9 o'clock tonight, at the end of the fifty-fifth hour since it received the case. Twice during the day they asked to be discharged, telling Judge Joe Davis they could not agree. Reports said they apparently were deadlocked, 8 to 4 for conviction.

The case of the young man, accused of shooting his elderly mother and burying her body in a basement, was given to the jury Tuesday afternoon. A disagreement was reported yesterday, when the men were sent back by Judge Joe A. Davis.

The judge repeated his refusal today and from his remarks later it was taken that he would hold the jurors at least until tomorrow night. Defense attorneys at a conference with the judge and state's attorney urged the jurors be permitted to go home. Judge Davis said he would not consider that until the men were given more of an opportunity to reach a verdict.

Previously the senate had rejected, 59 to 15, an amendment proposed by Senator Reed, Pennsylvania, proposing an inquiry also into the coal freight rate structure and the two hours of debate today on the resolution centered almost entirely on this amendment which was opposed by senators from the southern coal states, who asked a separate investigation.

Find Body Believed To Be That of Flyer in Dole Air Derby

Ventura, Cal., Feb. 16—(AP)—The body of a man believed to be one of the missing trans-Pacific Dole flyers, was washed ashore near here today. The only identification possible was bits of clothing, identified as that of the navy, clinging to the body, which gave evidence of having been in the water for some time.

The only naval aviator unaccounted for in the Dole flight was Lieut. Vilas R. Knope of San Diego. He was the navigator of the ill-fated Miss Doran, which carried John Pedlar as pilot and Miss Mildred Doran as a passenger. Pedlar and Miss Doran were from Flint, Mich.

In the Dole flight five planes started from San Francisco for Honolulu where the first to arrive was to be paid a $25,000 prize. Only two reached their goal.

The body was found in shallow water along the coast line near Hueneme, Cal. Investigators said the body was that of a man about 30 years old and of an athletic type.

Flesh from the arms and legs had been eaten away by deep-sea fish. About the neck remained a band which is thought to be that of a naval aviator.

The investigators believed the body was that of Lieutenant Knope. An inquest will be held tomorrow at Oxnard, Cal., where the body was taken.

Political Spotlight Shifts to New York

Washington, Feb. 16—(AP)—The Republican political spotlight shifted momentarily today to New York state where party leaders have maintained a studied reticence toward all the candidates.

George K. Morris, Republican chairman of the Empire state, visited President Coolidge and although reports of a revived "draft Coolidge" campaign preceded him to Washington, he said afterward he had not discussed presidential politics with the president. He indicated that he felt it unlikely that Mr. Coolidge would be a candidate and that nothing had taken place to modify the determination of state leaders to send an unfrustrated delegation to Kansas City.

A little later Joseph Steinberg, treasurer of the Curtis-for-President club of New York, emerged from a conference with Senator Curtis, claiming that the Kansas delegation would have the support of the Curtis New York supporters, he said, were co-operating with Morris, national committee man Hill and other leaders, to prevent definite instruction for any candidate, feeling certain that in such an event Senator Curtis would get at least as big a share as any of his rivals.

Both the Hoover and Lowden people have been active in New York. Before he went to the White House Mr. Morris talked with Ogen House Mr. Morris recently the Republican nominee for governor in New York and now under-secretary of the treasury. Mills is openly for Hoover.

If Republican speculation is shifting eastward, the questioning eyes of the Democrats are turning toward the west. Senator Reed of Missouri completed plans today for the first real swing round the circle to be made by any presidential aspirant. The senator will leave Washington Saturday for a campaign trip into at least nine states, all beyond the Mississippi. His speaking dates, so far as arranged, are:

Dallas, Feb. 20; Tulsa, Feb. 21;

GREEN SAYS OSBORN OUT OF RUNNING

FORMER GOVERNOR WILL NOT SEEK NOMINATION

Lansing, Feb. 16—(AP)—Chase S. Osborn, former governor, who has been variously mentioned as a possible favorite son candidate for the Republican presidential preference in Michigan in opposition to Herbert Hoover and a possible aspirant for the nomination for U. S. senator next fall, will not enter the presidential primary April 2, Gov. Fred W. Green asserted today.

The governor said he has Osborn's personal assurance that he will not enter the primary. Osborn is opposed to Hoover, but evidently prefers not to oppose him by running against him in the primary. Governor Green is supporting Hoover.

While the governor, emphatic in his assertion that Osborn will not seek presidential preference, he was silent on the question of whether the former governor will enter the senatorial race. The governor indicated he has no knowledge of what intentions Osborn may have relative to the senatorial contest.

Several in Senatorial Race.

The governor's announcement was occasioned by Osborn's recent remark in a speech in which he intimated he might enter the presidential primary.

Arthur Vandenberg, Grand Rapids publisher, is a probable candidate for the Republican senatorial nomination. His candidacy has been generally accepted by a number of organizations which have endorsed him for the place. The names most frequently spoken of as possible opposition to him are Osborn, former Gov. Albert E. Sleeper, perhaps George Welsh, former lieutenant governor, and Charles S. Mott of Flint.

No definite intimation has come from Mott, however, that he is contemplating entering the race.

Governor Green, in a Muskegon speech, declared he would remain neutral in the senatorial primary as among Vandenberg, Osborn and Sleeper. Welsh, of course, would be considered aligned with the Groesbeck faction of the party.

Men Attacked From Rear

Grove's death was caused by a broken neck, an examination made after the bodies had been removed to Williamport, revealed.

The authorities, piercing together evidence, said it appeared that Grove, who was driving, had been seized by one of the prisoners and his head bent back over the seat until his neck was broken. At the same time the other prisoner apparently seized an automobile crank which was known to have been in the rear seat, and smashed McClure over the head.

Bodies Near House.

The motor car was found at Decatur, Ill., several days ago. It had a bullet hole through the windshield.

A diamond ring still was on McClure's hand and a diamond stickpin in his tie. His watch also was in his pocket.

The place where the men were found was within 300 yards of

WOMAN IN DITCH

Detroit, Feb. 16—(AP)—An unidentified woman about 35 whose body was found today in a ditch alongside a highway near Plymouth, a suburb, is believed by police to have been beaten and shot to death in an automobile and her body thrown out of the car.

The woman, well-dressed, had been shot in the head and the abdomen and there was a third bullet hole in her hat. Two scalp wounds also were found.

Bloodstains on the pavement indicated, police said, that the woman's body first had been thrown out of the car and later dragged off the road. Her slayer had covered her face with her coat.

Shot While On Ground.

The body was discovered by Paul Lee and Scott Davis, carpenters, while police were investigating a report by Mrs. Harry Robinson, who resides near where the body was found, that she heard several shots fired about 4 a. m.

Clothing worn by the woman bore labels of Detroit stores. She was about 5 feet, 3 or 4 inches tall, weighed about 125 pounds, had brown eyes, dark brown bobbed hair and wore a black hat, seal coat, black satin dress and black pumps.

Discovery this afternoon of a bullet imbedded in the ground where the woman's head lay, indicated in the belief of police that she had been shot through the head while she lay on the ground. Another bullet, flattened as though it had hit the pavement, was found nearby.

G. M. BROKE ALL RECORDS

New Marks Set by Manufacturers in Sales and Profits

New York, Feb. 16—(AP)—New records in both sales and profits were established by General Motors corporation in 1927, an official summary of the annual report shows. Earnings on the common stock were equivalent to $12.99 a share, against $10.19 in 1926, calculated on a comparable basis.

Net earnings for the year were $235,104,826 after deducting $3,214,183, the proportion of earnings and losses of subsidiary companies not consolidated, but accruing to General Motors in excess of dividends received. This figure appears as a deduction in the income account for the first time. The report said, due to losses of Yellow Truck and Coach Manufacturing company and Vauhall Motors, Limited, of which losses the corporation's proportion was $7,070,176.

After paying $9,109,330 in regular dividends on preferred and debenture stocks, there remained $225,995,446, the amount earned on the common shares. To make a fair comparison with 1926, it is necessary to include for that year, the statement said, earnings accruing to the minority interests of Fisher Body corporation, outstanding right to June 30, 1926, which results in $194,645,462 for 1926. Earnings for 1927 therefore compared with 1926, on a comparative basis, show an increase of $40,459,364, or 20.8 per cent.

Sold Million and Half Cars.

A total of $73,939,478 was paid as regular dividends on the common stock in 1927 and two extra dividends aggregating $80,896,603 were declared, making $154,836,081 in dividends on the common for the year. This included an extra of $43,600,000 paid January 3, 1928, to shareholders of record November 19, 1927, and compares with total cash dividends of $103,930,993 on the common stock declared in 1926.

Retail sales of cars in this country and abroad were 1,554,577, exceeding all previous records by 338,751 cars and a gain of 27.9 per cent over 1926. The corporation's sales, excluding all inter-company items, amounted to $1,269,519,673, an increase of $111,366,335 over the previous year.

Cash in banks, government securities and marketable securities at the close of the year amounted to $208,170,198, compared with $135,398,306 at the close of 1926. Current assets were $432,280,123, exceeding current liabilities by $272,923,976. The total of capital stock and surplus increased $123,477,765, of which $94,373,598 is accounted for by earnings reinvested in the business. Investments in affiliated and miscellaneous companies of $98,262,014 increased $18,546,191 over the previous year.

HOOVER FLOOD PLAN SEEN AS MAJOR ISSUE

POLITICAL FOES HOPE TO BRING SPLIT

BY DAVID LAWRENCE.

(Copyright 1928, by the Escanaba Press) Washington, Feb. 16.—If anybody thinks that by summoning Secretary Hoover to testify before congressional committees on flood control, a wedge will be driven between the secretary of commerce and President Coolidge, he is much mistaken.

This is the view given out in quarters friendly to Mr. Hoover in connection with the attempt to get the secretary of commerce to give congress the opinions he is said to have expressed when he first visited the Mississippi valley.

The incident has a significance not only of a political nature but it is related closely to the fight that the Mississippi valley is making for funds to be supplied in their entirety by the federal government.

Predicted U. S. Aid.

When Mr. Hoover visited the south, he told the principal men of the various states which he toured that he felt sure the federal government would come to the aid of the valley. Stories have been circulated that Mr. Hoover promised to recommend to Mr. Coolidge that the federal government do the whole job.

When the president's message was delivered to congress, however, the Mississippi valley was amazed to find that Mr. Coolidge had proposed an eighty per cent appropriation by the government, the other twenty per cent to be supplied by the states.

Complications were seen immediately as to how the 20 per cent could be apportioned especially as states like Louisiana insisted that they were affected by waters arising from twenty or more other states. It is an open secret that Mr. Hoover favored a more liberal program than that advocated by President Coolidge but he did not take issue with the president when the latter made his decision. The secretary of commerce felt it was his duty to recommend and Mr. Coolidge's duty to do the deciding. It is not known just what Mr. Hoover did tell the president, in fact, it is said that while he favored a liberal expenditure by the federal government he did not believe the states should be freed from all responsibility for financing flood prevention.

Two Motives Seen.

There are two motives therefore in the effort to get Mr. Hoover on the stand. First, the political folks want to show that his recent statement on entering the Ohio primaries to the effect that he would stand by President Coolidge would if continued as a presidential policy in the event that Mr. Hoover were nominated and elected, mean a reversal of his attitude as expressed to the people in the valley. The other is to force the secretary of commerce by his testimony to lend ment was returned nearly two years after the statute of limitations had run its course. Judge McCabe pointed out. The state had failed, he declared, to void the statute because it did not prove the act of concealment.

It was a slightly perspiring, nervous defendant who heard the court rule. For the first time, the governor showed outward evidence of strain. Judge McCabe's long absence from the court room while he studied the defense motion, appeared to increase the tension that spread throughout the crowded seat of justice.

Judge Asks That Police Training be College Course

East Lansing, Feb. 16.—(P)—A course at Michigan State college for the training of police is advocated by Charles B. Collingwood, Ingham county circuit judge, according to a letter from the judge to the state board of agriculture disclosed today.

Following a statement in regard to the recent courses the college has offered, with special references to military science, Judge Collingwood attributes a large degree of the success of criminals to the fact that in many instances they are more intelligent than police.

Judge Collingwood's novel plan has the approbation of William B. Rutledge, police commissioner of Detroit, according to a letter from the commissioner to the judge.

Water, land and air are now used regularly for traffic between Detroit and Cleveland.

On Vaudeville Circuits. Mr. Foy's reputation as a versatile performer and comedian led to his engagement for a part in the Kelly and Mason company playing "The Tigers"...

Some of the later successes in which Mr. Foy played leading parts were "The Strollers," "Piff, Paff, Pouf," "The Earl and the Girl," "The Orchid," "Up and Down Broadway," "Mr. Hamlet of Broadway," "Over the River," and "Slumwhere in New York."

During the latter years of his career, Mr. Foy devoted himself almost exclusively to the vaudeville circuits. He appeared for several seasons with his seven children, billed as "Eddie Foy and the Little Foyes."

Was in Iroquois Fire. In January, 1923, Mr. Foy married as his fourth wife, Mrs. Marie Combs, a widow of 29, whose home was at Sadalia, Mo.

Volunteering a reason for his marriage, Mr. Foy said: "I don't intend to be alone in my old age. I see my children growing up and drawing away from me. I love children and I'm going to raise another family. I want a home with little ones in it. I'll make my friend Dr. Coue proud of me."

Mr. Foy was playing at the Iroquois theater, Chicago, when it was destroyed by fire December 30, 1903, and which resulted in the loss of 602 lives.

While Secretary Hoover is fishing in Florida, the scrap between his supporters and Senator Willis for Ohio delegates to the Kansas City convention goes on. Willis just now is conducting a long-range fight from his office here.

The prospects of a bitter fight in Ohio is causing Republicans in the state's congressional delegation some concern. Representative Burton of Cleveland is out for Hoover.

Vice President Dawes was described as "smooth as oil" in the house today by Representative Howard, Democrat, Nebraska, who said that "Charlie Dawes would be as satisfactory as president to the 'big money interests' as Herbert Hoover."

Howard made no reference to prospective nominees in his own party. He said that both Dawes and Hoover are "sweethearts of the Mellon-Morgan combination," and that if he were forced to choose between them, "I'd choose Charlie Dawes."

U. S. SUPPORT IS ANNOUNCED

Hughes Says Country Will Back Move to Outlaw War

Havana, Feb. 16.—(P)—Charles Evans Hughes, chairman of the American delegation at the Sixth Pan-American conference and the applause of the representatives of all the republics of the western world today threw the whole weight of the United States behind the proposal to outlaw all aggressive warfare in this hemisphere.

At the same time, Mr. Hughes outlined to the conference a plan for the maintenance of American peace. He was again applauded when he declared his country to be "opposed to any acts of aggression, desirous of seeing force abolished from this hemisphere and seeks nothing but the prosperity, independence and friendship of all the American states."

Then the committee on public international law met and selected for discussion the report on pacific settlement of international disputes prepared by Ricardo Alfaro of Panama and elaborated by the sub-committee.

Early in the discussion, Fernando Gonzales Roa of Mexico introduced a resolution in which all aggressive war was declared illegal and providing that international disputes should be settled by pacific means.

This proposition had the fullest support of Mr. Hughes when he spoke soon afterwards. "The United States joins most heartily," he said, "in the declaration that there shall be no more war of aggression in America."

"We must show that this hemisphere is dedicated to peace and seeks pacific solution of difficulties."

Turning to the concrete problem of preventing the employment of violence, Mr. Hughes proposed that the American countries improve their mutual relations and avoid war by the establishment of joint international commissions patterned on the lines of the American-Canadian boundary commissions.

Mr. Hughes pledged "all the energy and strength I possess to promote the pacific settlement of disputes. All means to that end, he continued, fell under three main headings—periodical conferences or meetings for candid exchange of views on controversial subjects; measures for conciliation, namely, "practicable provisions whereby 'reason may have play before force takes the field,' and judicial settlement, for which definite institutions would be necessary, as reason and justice are not, as he expressed it, "mere abstractions, to which we give verbal devotion."

ANOTHER UNSOLICITED TRIBUTE FOR ALL-BRAN

Good news for sufferers from constipation

Mrs. Kiehl sat down and wrote us a letter when she had proved ALL-BRAN a safe "sure-cure" for constipation. Read her voluntary tribute:

"I have been using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN for quite some time and I want to tell you how much I appreciate it. I have found it a sure-cure for constipation, and know it is a remarkable regulator for the stomach. After using it, my family and I certainly will not be without it. I have even gone so far as to send some of it to my mother in Poland, Europe."

Perhaps you know what a terrible affliction constipation is. Blighting wherever it thrives. Ruining health, marring beauty. Causing headaches, back pains, foul breath, loss of sleep—indeed, leading to more than forty serious diseases.

But did you know it can be easily relieved by a pleasant cereal food? Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to bring relief. Eat two tablespoons daily—chronic cases, with every meal. Serve with milk or cream—fruits or honey added. Use in cooking. At grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Man Arrested for Vagrancy Is Held as Bank Robber

Ithaca, Mich., Feb. 16.—(P)—David Ellsworth, 34 years old, arrested recently in Canada on a charge of vagrancy, is held in jail here on a charge of participating in the robbery of a bank at Bannister, November 25, 1925. Floyd Moore of Lansing, who was assistant cashier of the bank at the time of the robbery, identified Ellsworth as one of two men who held him up. Examination has been set for Tuesday.

A warrant charging Ellsworth with robbery is held at Saginaw. He had been employed on the farm of Timothy O'Hearn, but while the family were away, disappeared. Later, O'Hearn reported the loss of $17.

1 Minute Interviews

FIELDING H. YOST SAYS: In 1926, President C. C. Little of the University of Michigan proposed to the Western Conference that each member have two teams instead of one in football and that they schedule simultaneous home-and-home games.

In other words, Dr. Little proposed that Michigan play Ohio, for example, in Ann Arbor and in Columbus at the same hour on the same day, each university putting two teams on the field. I will not go into the reasons that prompted this proposal.

Dr. Little's suggestion was not, however, received with any great degree of enthusiasm and the project failed of adoption.

At the meeting of Western Conference officials held in Chicago in December, 1927, it was proposed that this body once more permit the scheduling of outside games by "reserve" or "second teams," as was the case back as far as 1905.

This proposal was passed and it became optional with each member of the Western Conference whether it was to form second teams and, if so, whether it was to schedule games for such teams outside the walls of the institution.

This is the "two team" situation in the Western Conference. We still have our first varsity team as in the past. But now, if we wish, we may organize the reserve material into a subordinate team and arrange games for it with similar teams in other institutions or with the first teams in smaller colleges.

Manistique, Feb. 16.—(Special)—Manistique high school debating team and the Iron Mountain high school team will clash for the championship of the upper peninsula at an early date as a result of last night's victory in the semi-final rounds of the tourney.

At Manistique, the Escanaba affirmative team was downed by the 'Stique negatives by a unanimous decision. Bessemer suffered the same at the hands of Iron Mountain in the Ford City high school auditorium. Both debates were held last night.

Judges at Manistique were, J. A. Wood, superintendent of schools at Manistique, Carl Titus, superintendent of schools at Cheboygan, and David Lynch, debate coach at Ishpeming.

Army Planes On Good Will Tour Forced to Land

Traverse City, Mich., Feb. 16.—(P)—Twelve army pursuit planes under command of Major Thomas G. Lanphier of Selfridge field, touring the northern part of Michigan, were forced to land at Leaning, Michigan this afternoon after flying into a blinding snowstorm.

The group, which took off from Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, about 4 o'clock this afternoon plans to continue the flight here tomorrow morning.

Two Douglas C-1 transport planes which have accompanied the army fliers since their start from winter headquarters at Osoda, completed the trip here, landing on the ice. One of the big planes was damaged in landing and will be dismantled.

The right lower wing and right landing gear were broken when the pilot, Lieutenant Joseph Soper, made a heavy landing on the skis with which the fourteen planes are equipped.

The army fliers are testing flying equipment subjected to the trying conditions of winter flying.

The second transport plane was forced to land on the ice of Hay Lake, 10 miles south of Sault Ste. Marie yesterday afternoon on the flight from Osoda, when the gasoline supply was exhausted.

Iron Trade Review

Consumers of finished steel are specifying against first quarter contracts at a rate indicating no abatement of consumption, but fresh buying less as the necessity for supplemental purchases has not arisen and producers are not yet soliciting second quarter business, says Iron Trade Review, of Cleveland.

Production, meanwhile, is slowly working up. Eastern Pennsylvania mills have eased off in some heavy products but the Pittsburgh district approaches an 85 per cent in-got rate, Chicago holds at about 93 per cent and the Mahoning valley, unsteady recently, has made important gains this week. Steel production generally approximates the high rate of late January, and thus far appears to have topped last February slightly.

All changes in steel prices continue to be advances. Hot strip levels have been marked up $2 per ton for the second quarter. Sheet-makers have reaffirmed for the next quarter the levels they originally announced for this quarter but have since shaded up to $5 per ton. The small business booked recently in bars, plates and shapes has been on the basis of 1.85c, Pittsburgh, or $1 per ton over current contracts. If makers again advance, as planned, it will attest their confidence in the market.

For evidence of a less active market, seasonal conditions are largely responsible. Mid-February normally is a time when buying is not spectacular and the mills are busy working off tonnage booked in January. Specifications for finished steel are emanating from such diversified sources and the course of prices is so contrary to the softness of a year ago that, considered broadly, the position of the industry is better than a year ago.

Although the situation is far from serious, this week as for several preceding weeks is increasing talk of deferred deliveries. Neither price nor delivery is any consideration in spotty automotive specifying, but the stiffer price attitude of fabricators, especially at Chicago, is precipitating some structural awards. Freight car builders are almost thirty days advanced over last year's program.

For mid-quarter, pig iron is active both in sales and shipment. At Pittsburgh several producers have advanced 25 cents, to $17.50, valley, on foundry and malleable. Automotive foundries are taking heavy tonnages from the lake furnaces. Sales at Cleveland totaled 23,000 tons, Boston, in selling 10,000 tons, had the best week in a month. Inquiry at St. Louis aggregates 10,000 tons and at New York 12,000 tons. Prices in the east are a trifle unsteady, for one thing because as low as $16.25, furnace, have been asked by a Buffalo producer. The American Radiator company has closed on 30,000 tons of foundry iron for second quarter at prices higher than it paid for first quarter iron.

LOCAL PRIESTS ATTEND RITES

Delta County Clergymen Participate in Dedication

Elaborate ceremonies marked the dedication of the new St. John's church at Ishpeming, Wednesday, February 15, when Rt. Rev. Joseph Pinten, bishop of Grand Rapids, assisted by a large number of priests of the Marquette diocese, performed the dedicatory services and officiated at the pontifical high mass and benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, which followed the blessing and formal opening of the church.

The special dedication sermon was given by Rev. Fr. James Miller, chaplain of St. Joseph's hospital at Menominee and at one time chaplain of St. Francis hospital in this city.

Father Miller praised the priests and members of the parish for their work and gifts which made the building of a new church possible.

At the conclusion of the services, Bishop Pinten and the clergy were guests of honor at a dinner served by the women of the congregation in St. John's hall. Other guests included the trustees of the parish, Thomas F. Imbs of St. Louis, architect and contractor, who erected the church, and the young men of the parish who are ushers. Atty. Thomas Clancy, an active member of the parish, acted as toastmaster.

Bishop Pinten was the principal speaker, and expressed his delight at meeting again his friends in the diocese of Marquette. He lauded the Rev. Fr. Henry Kron, pastor under whose guidance the church was built at a cost of $55,000, and the members of the congregation for their financial subscriptions.

Several visiting priests spoke and Rev. Fr. Kron thanked Bishop Pinten and out-of-town priests and members of the building committee. He also thanked Rev. Fr. Paul LeGouvin for having allowed the congregation to attend religious services at St. Joseph's church while the new church was under construction.

At the pontifical high mass, Bishop Pinten was assisted by the following priests: Assistant priest, Very Rev. A. J. Rezak of Houghton, deacon and sub-deacon of the throne; Very Rev. H. A. Buchholz, Marquette, and Rev. Fr. Joseph Dittman, Negaunee, deacon and sub-deacon of the mass; Rev. Fr. George Dingfelder of Marquette, and Rev. Fr. Herbert Klosterkemper, O. F. M., of this city; master of ceremonies, Rev. Fr. N. Stehlin of Marquette.

Other priests who attended include: Very Rev. R. G. Jacques, of this city; Rev. Fr. Paul LeGouvin, Ishpeming; Rev. Fr. Ling of Ewen; Rev. Fr. Jodocy, Marquette; Rev. Fr. J. Guertin, Rapid River; Rev. Fr. Stahl, Republic; Rev. Fr. J. Pelletier, Chassel; Dr. James Lenhart, Iron River; Rev. Fr. Bleeker, Franklin Mine; Rev. Fr. D. J. Breault, Bark River; Rev. Fr. Swaboda, Bessemer; Rev. Fr. Dufresne, Marquette; Rev. Fr. David of Crystal Falls; Rev. Fr. Laundry, Marquette; Rev. Peter Dapper, Champion; Rev. Fr. James Corcoran, Houghton; and Rev. Fr. James Miller, Menominee.

The choir rendered an unusually fine musical program. In the evening, Rev. Fr. Herbert Klosterkemper officiated at the consecration of the stations of the cross, followed by benediction. The services in the evening were largely attended.

Card Party Successful Affair

The card party which was sponsored by the members of St. Patrick's parish at the parish hall Wednesday evening, was very well attended and a large number of tables were occupied with players. The honors in bridge went to Mrs. A. E. Walsh and Wilbur Lafond; in five hundred, to Mrs. Edward Demers, Frank Beaudry; in pinocle to Mrs. Ed Christensen and James Gannon.

The lunch which was unusually fine was served by the members of the Young Girls' club and the ushers of the church.

W. C. O. F. Banquet

Members of St. Anne's Court No. 197 W. C. O. F. held their annual banquet at St. Anne's hall Tuesday evening when a five course meal was served at six thirty o'clock.

The tables were handsomely appointed and the service was quick and well managed. The members had as their guests Rev. Fr. G. Jacques and Rev. Fr. A. Waechter and members of St. Anne's choir.

After the banquet musical numbers were rendered by the choir including solos by Mesdames Thomas Tournant and Thomas St. Jacques and Joseph Delorier. St. Card playing followed with awards going to Miss Cora Villeneuve, Mrs. Joseph Charlebois Sr. and Miss Irene Villeneuve.

Card Party Tonight

The members of the Women's Benefit Association will hold a card party at Grenier's hall this evening when twelve members will act as hostesses and invite three guests for their card tables.

Five hundred and bridge will be played and a lunch served. Owing to the fact that many members and guests are attending the novena at St. Patrick's church the program of cards will start at 8:15 o'clock thus allowing the members to go to church. The usual committee will take charge of the coffee and will serve. Hostesses are asked to bring card table covers also lunch for four, 4 cups and 4 spoons.

Winner Open at Delft Saturday

Frank Winninger and his company will open their annual Escanaba engagement Sunday, at the Delft, with matinee and night performances of "Gertie," a brand new comedy. The piece has an especially "fat" part for Mr. Winninger and is said to be one of the most satisfactory offerings he has had in his repertoire in several years.

The company's engagement will continue throughout next week, and will include a number of new and successful New York successes, as well as one or two of the pieces which have long been favorites of Frank and his audiences.

Seats for the engagement will go on sale at the Delft box office Saturday.

He is raising a mustache and making considerable headway with it. Somebody sent him a beautiful, hand-painted mustache coffee-cup through the mails, in an attractive valentine package. TO HOLD REV. SAVAGEAU RITES AT ESCANABA

Army Chaplain's Body Expected to Arrive in April

Advice received from the Quartermaster General's office at Washington, D. C., by relatives, conveyed the information that the body of Rev. Edmund E. Savageau, First Lieutenant in the U. S. Army who died February 2nd at Manila left the Philippines Wednesday aboard the transport Thomas to be brought to this country for burial in this city in St. Joseph's cemetery where his mother is buried.

The body of the young chaplain will be transferred at a California port to the transport Cambria, the letter said, and taken to New York City where officers of the quartermaster general will take charge of it. The Cambria is expected to dock in the eastern port about April 7th but definite information on that point will be received from the army by members of Rev. Savageau's family later.

The remains will be shipped to this city instead of Depere as was first stated, where full military honors will be accorded. Lieut. Savageau when his funeral is held at St. Anne's church.

In the letter received by the family, the writer, Lieut. Col. K. J. Hampton, extended on behalf of the Quartermaster's corps, sincere sympathy in their bereavement to all members of Rev. Savageau's family.

The body is expected to arrive here some time after Easter, if calculations work out as expected.

Lindsay to Give Lincoln Lecture in Local Church

"That is the best talk on Lincoln that I have ever heard," was one of many praises spoken about Harold Lindsay's address, which was given at the Rotary Club last Monday, and which will be given in the First Presbyterian church this coming Sunday night at 7:30. Many of the men present said that they wanted to hear it again and would bring their wives with them. It is a scholarly treatment of America's most beloved great man, combining interest, instruction, and inspiration.

The rest of the service will be prepared as a fitting background to the address. The robed chorus choir will sing a special number. Many comments have been made on the high quality of the music that the girls are rendering.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE DELFT.

"Thunder," the police dog plays the lead in "Wolf Fangs" which comes to the Delft today.

"Thunder" is a thoroughbred, champion in his class. His real name, under which he is registered with the American Kennel Club, is Beneva Tillo Von Riedenberg. He comes from the kennels of Frank Foster Davis, an authority on police dogs, whose animals are well known throughout the country.

"Thunder" was developed by Davis with the idea of featuring him in motion picture work. For this reason, his master taught the dog to respond only to commands given in German, in this way insuring instant response in spite of any "lines" that were being spoken at the same time by the actors on the set, or by directions given by the director to the human actors.

In "Wolf Fangs" he was supported by a cast of trained canines, including thirty "extras" for the wolf pack, as well as an exceptionally well chosen human cast. The story, based on an original by Elizabeth Pickett and Seton I. Miller, gives the intelligent dog an opportunity to show his almost uncanny sense of dramatic values and characterization.

AT THE STRAND.

Mistaken for a newlywed when he is just out of law school and on his way to the big city to make his fortune, is the amusing predicament of Monty Banks in his latest comedy, "Horse Shoes," which will be the feature attraction on the program of the Strand today and Saturday.

Jean Arthur plays the part of the beautiful young lady he is supposed to be hooked up with for better or worse, etc., etc. The fact is, Monty wouldn't mind at all being married to her, complications set in which make this so-called one of the most uproarious ever concocted for a comedy drama.

Needless to say, Monty does woo and win her before all is said and done, but ere this happy event takes place, he goes through more misadventures than a wealthy butter and egg man touring the Night Clubs.

700 BOYS TO ATTEND MEET

Conference at Sault Will Be Attended by Big Crowd

All roads for the Older Boys' Conference of the peninsula lead to the Soo this week. Delta County is sending a large delegation. In addition to the thirty-one boys going from the city of Escanaba, the following are registered: Gladstone 16, Rapid River 5, Perkins 4, Cornell 2, Nahma 3, and Garden 4.

The conference limit set originally at 500 boys, has had to be twice expanded because of the wide-spread demand. Nearly 700 boys will be registered when the conference opens, Friday noon.

The program is in its final shape, with Head Coach "Tad" Wieman, Ann Arbor, Dr. H. S. Dimock, Chicago, Rev. Axel Pearson, Ironwood, George Campbell, St. Louis, and Fred Freeman, Detroit, ready to speak to the boys.

The recreational program on Saturday afternoon will consist of a hockey game between two of the Soo's leading teams, inspection of the locks, visit to the Canadian Soo, and basketball and bowling at the Union Carbide Recreational Building.

Closes Sunday. The conference will close with the big fellowship meeting, Sunday afternoon, in time for the boys to get the special train, which will leave the Soo at 6:30 o'clock, coming direct to Marquette, connecting with points west.

An interesting feature of the conference will be two sessions of discussion groups, when the boys will be divided into groups of twenty-five each, representing various towns and given the opportunity to discuss what they consider their most important problems under good leadership.

"The Early Bird" Is Big Success

Rapid River, Feb. 16—(Special) "An Early Bird" the play which was staged at the Rapid River gym Wednesday by the students of Rapid River high school, under the direction of Miss Irene Dotsch was an outstanding success from a social and financial standpoint.

The proceeds were far more than the expectations of those in charge of the play and everyone who took part in the play deserves credit for the excellent manner in which their parts were played.

The gym was filled with relatives and friends of the players and several out-of-town visitors have attended. The young people have been urged to present the play again and are formulating plans for a second performance to be given in the near future at Nahma.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"After having my first baby, I lost weight, no matter what I did. Then a doctor told me I would be better if I had another baby, which I did. But I got worse, was always sickly and went down to 98 pounds. My neighbor told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it helped her very much, so I tried it. After taking four bottles, I weigh 116 pounds. It has just done wonders for me and I can do my housework now without one bit of trouble."—Mrs. M. RISSINGER, 10004 Nelson Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

THE CANARY MURDER CASE

CHAPTER XXVIII

"I'm sure it will be a success," Vance spoke with disarming friendliness. "Were you home alone last Monday evening?"

"Hardly." The idea seemed to amuse her. "I went to the 'Scandals'—but I came home early. I knew Loney—Mr. Mannix—was coming."

"I trust he appreciated your sacrifice," Vance, I believe, was disappointed by this unexpected alibi of Mannix's. It was, indeed, so final that further interrogation concerning it seemed futile.

"Some men are like that. Poor old Pop! He even phoned me Monday night to call up Margy for him and try to arrange a party—Maybe if I'd done it, she wouldn't be dead now... It's a funny world, isn't it?"

"Oh, no end funny," Vance smoked calmly for a minute; he could not help admiring his self-control. "What time did Mr. Cleaver phone you Monday night?"

"Let me see..." She pursed her lips prettily. "It was just ten minutes to twelve. I remember that the little chime clock on the mantel over there was striking midnight, and at first I couldn't hear Pop very well. You see, I always keep my clock ten minutes fast so I'll never be late for an appointment."

"Vance compared the clock with his watch. "Yes, it's ten minutes fast—And what about the party?"

"Oh, I was too busy talking about the new show, and I had to refuse. Anyway, Mr. Mannix didn't want to have a party that night... It wasn't my fault, was it?"

"Not a bit of it," Vance assured her. "Work comes before pleasure—especially work as important as yours... And now, there is one other man I want to ask you about, and then I won't bother you any more—What was the situation between Miss Odell and Doctor Lindquist?"

"Miss LaFosse became genuinely perturbed. "I was afraid you were going to ask me about him." There was apprehension in her eyes. "I don't know just what to say. He was wildly in love with Margy; and she led him on, too. But she was sorry for it afterward, because he got jealous—like a crazy person."

"He used to pester the life out of her. And once—do you know!—he threatened to shoot her, and then shoot himself. I told Margy to look out for him. But she didn't seem to be afraid. Anyway I think she was taking awful chances... Oh! Do you think it could have been—do you really think—"

"And wasn't there any one else?" Vance interrupted, "who might have felt the same way?"—any one Miss Odell had reason to fear?"

"No," Miss LaFosse shook her head. "Margy didn't know many men intimately. She didn't change often, if you know what I mean. There wasn't anybody else outside of those you've mentioned, except, of course, Mr. Spotswoode. He cut Pop out—several months ago. She went to dinner with him Monday night, too. I wanted her to go to the 'Scandals' with me—that's how I know."

"Vance rose and held out his hand. "You've been very kind. And you have nothing whatever to fear. No one shall ever know of our little visit this morning."

"Who do you think killed Margy?" There was genuine emotion in the girl's voice. "Loney says it was probably some burglar who wanted her jewels."

"I'm too wise to sow discord in this happy ménage by even questioning Mr. Mannix's opinion," said Vance half banteringly. "No one knows who's guilty;"

"But what really worries me is that story of the doctor. Jealous mania: it squares with Ambrose's character perfectly. He's the kind that does go off his head. I know his confession of paternalism was a red herring. My word! So the doctor was making threats and flourishing pistols, eh? Bad, bad. I don't like it. With those ears of his, he wouldn't hesitate to pull the trigger. Paranoia—that's it. Delusions of persecution. Probably thought the girl and Pop—or maybe the girl and Spotswoode—were plotting his misery and laughing at him."

"You can't tell about those chaps. They're deep—and they're dangerous. The canny Alys had him sized up—warned the Canary against him... Taken by and large, it's a devilish tangle. Anyway, I feel rather backed. We're moving—oh, undoubtedly, we're moving—though in what direction I can't even guess. It's beastly annoying."

"Markham was waiting for you at the Bankers' Club. He greeted Vance irritably. "What have you got to tell me

TIPS FOR TAXPAYERS

NO. FIVE. To be allowed an exemption of $3,500, a married couple must have "lived together" in the eyes of the law for the entire taxable year. However, in the absence of continuous residence together the question of whether man and wife are living together depends upon the character of separation. If, occasionally, the husband is away on business, or if, for any necessary reason, a temporary separation exists, the full exemption is allowed. But when the husband deliberately and continuously makes his home at one place and the wife at another, they are classed as single persons, and each is allowed an exemption of $1,500 only.

In the absence of continuous actual residence together, whether a person with dependent relatives is the head of a family, and therefore entitled to an exemption of $3,500, also depends upon the character of the separation. If a father is away on business or a child or other dependent is away at school or on a visit, the common home being maintained, the exemption applies. If a parent is obliged to maintain his dependent children in a boarding house while he lives elsewhere, the exemption may still apply. But if beneficiary and dependent needlessly and continuously live apart, the status of a head of a family does not exist, irrespective of the support given.

His successor is H. C. Sanderson, who for a number of years had been connected with the National Grocer organization at Lansing and other points in the Lower Peninsula.

Mr. Kamrath plans to enter another field of activity, the details of which will be announced in the near future. His decision to leave the position which he held for some time was a matter of regret to the National Grocer Company, his associates in the organization and the customers. LONDON WOMAN IS PICKLED TO DEATH

By NEA Service London—The doctor said she had died of "chronic intoxication." But neighbors insist she was pickled to death. The evidence submitted to a coroner's jury, probing the death of Miss May Robsley, 60, brought out the fact that she had drunk a pint of commercial vinegar daily for 30 years. Even in case of illness, when she could not eat, she still insisted on having her pint of vinegar, according to witnesses.

Talks on Health

By Dr. Morris Fishbein

IS YOUR DIET ADEQUATE?

In a single brief paragraph Dr. V. A. Mottram, professor of physiology of the University of London, gives the characteristics of an inadequate diet.

The diet may be insufficient in quantity or quality. It may yield too little building material (protein mainly), too little fuel material (fats, carbohydrate, and surplus protein), or too little in the way of catalytic substances (mineral matter—for example, iron, iodine, calcium—and vitamins).

The quality of the proteins may be poor—cereal proteins do not seem to have the biological value of meat or milk proteins. Then, too, the diet may be inadequate because it has too little (or perhaps too much) roughage, because the proportions between the different constituents are wrong, or because the way in which the food is given to the digestive cells is wrong. Finally, no two persons have digestive systems exactly alike.

For years bread has been called the staff of life. Bread is an inadequate diet for a nursing mother and her offspring during the nursing period. Spackling rats whose mothers are receiving bread alone grow only half as fast as those whose mothers are receiving bread and milk.

Mottram finds that the inadequacy of the bread is not due mainly to a lack of vitamins A and D or to a relatively small amount of vitamin B, or to a lack of mineral matter. He believes that the inadequacy is also related to the nature of the proteins in the bread. He is convinced that the inadequacy of bread, apart from possible defects in vitamin and salt content, is due both to the small quantity and the poor quality of protein.

RAPID RIVER

The Luther League of the Bethany Church of Whitefish will give a benefit social at the Luther Hall Saturday evening at eight o'clock at which time the following program will be rendered:

Opening song—Audience. Invocation—Luther League President, Carl Johnson. Song—"Some Blessed Day"—Bethany Choir. Talk—W. J. Miller. Piano Solo—Astrid Skodquist. Reading—"Love Thy Neighbor As Thyself"—Carl Johnson. Vocal Solo—Virginia Goodman. Recitation—Beth Olson. Quintet—"My Savior Changes Not"—Leon Johnson, Elaine Johnson, Elizabeth Miller, W. J. Miller. Recitation—Eileen Johnson. Piano Duet—Norma and Hil-dur Oberg. Vocal Duet—Mrs. R. M. Christianson and E. Johnson. Recitation—"Give Me Love Now"—Lee Lagerquist. Vocal Duet—Verona Johnson and Irma Prohl. Reading—Elizabeth Nygren. Vocal Solo—Elizabeth Miller. Recitation—Virginia Goodman. Violin Duet—Rev. Hugo and Mildred Peterson. Vocal Solo—Mrs. Victor Goodman.

At this time a free will offering will be lifted. Benediction—Carl Johnson. A pot luck lunch will be served followed by a social hour. As this is for a very worthy cause, we kindly urge a large attendance. The Luther League, Carl Johnson, President.

However, this pronouncement of Mottram is not supposed to give aid and comfort to the lovers of brown bread as preferred to white bread. "The main trouble of entering such a discussion," says Mottram, "is that the protagonists on each side have an odium for the other almost theological—a sure sign of the insecurity of the foundations of their beliefs."

Animal proteins such as those of meat, even gelatins, supplement the proteins of bread. The experiments reveal that male animals need more protein of high biological value and more vitamin B than do females.

Both brown and white breads, used exclusively, would be poor articles for diet. It should be realized that practically no one lives on bread alone. In a mixed diet, brown bread apparently has no superiority over white bread.

Industrial Hearing Board Meets Monday

Silas J. McGeagor of the state department of labor and industry, will hold industrial accident hearings in the Delta county court house on Monday, Feb. 20, it was announced yesterday. It is expected that a number of important cases will be heard at that time.

The burning of coal in London was a punishable offense in the fourteenth century, one man actually being executed for disobeying the order.

IN NEW YORK

New York—Wherever one turns in Manhattan, some new mechanical contrivance jumps out to impress the eye. No penny, nickel or dime is safe from the temptation of a nearby slot-machine of some sort. A leading patent attorney told me the other day that some 5000 ideas for track machines go through his hands en route to Washington each year.

Certainly, a tour of Manhattan leaves one a bit staggered by the extent of the mechanical invasion. Beginning at the drug store with the stamp and gum machines, or in the subway with the money-changing machines, the peanut machines, the sandwich or the old-fashioned chocolate machines, it is possible to pick up the trail on Broadway and there locate soda water machines where, for a nickel, one's pet soda is dispensed; or photograph-while-you-wait machines; or machines that polish your finger nails and give you a partial manure; or the pie and coffee machines of the Automat; or cigar-vending machines, or cigar machines. There's a six-cent emporium where you can tune in on your favorite radio station and, ear phones to ears, spend a pleasant afternoon.

There's a machine for checking your hat and coat; a machine for protecting your umbrellas and canes; a machine that gives you a shoe shine; a machine that dries your hands in the washroom and another that gives you special liquid soap, or face powder, or perfume; there's a machine for lip stick and a machine for powder puffs. And so it goes. Someone tells me that a hair-cutting machine will soon make it appearance in the uptown belt. If this keeps up, a few years will see us doing about 60 per cent of our purchasing through slot machines.

Perhaps the boys in the O. K. Tin Shop, Muskogee, Oklahoma, don't know about it. In which case it is my duty to inform them that they harbor a candidate for the last of Broadway-wise-crackers in the person of Albert Pullen. At least Al sends us his contrion the back of O. K. Tin Shop stationery. It is barely possible that, even as the casual passersby use the stationery of the big Manhattan hotels when they write home, that some of the boys in Muskogee use the tin shop letterheads. Or it may be that Al hasn't liked the wise cracks we sometimes slip into the end of the column. Anyway he sends us some suggestions for membership in your Nonsense Club—seemingly to forget that this is a column devoted to serious purposes and the uplift of mankind.

People that Al seem to think can't happen in this day and age are the college boy who says to his father: "I cleaned the car up good so you could use it tonight." And the murderer who says to the judge: "Yes, I'm guilty. And I'm not insane either!" And the little boy who says to his mother: "Oh, swell, I'm going to get some castor oil!"

Speaking of hotel paper reminds me that some of the big New York hostilities have been imposed on so much by persons dropping into the writing rooms that they now give out paper only when the individual shows that she's a registered guest. Some of them have handed out thousands of dollars worth of very fancy stationery to people who never buy so much as a cigaret or a cup of tea. —GILBERT SWAN.

CATFISH GROWS IN COAST BEAN PATCH

West Palm Beach (NEA)—Farmer Jake Gray swears to this fish story from the Everglades. He was plowing his bean patch, he says, when he turned up a live catfish.

If true, there is no telling what might have happened if the fish had remained in the soil and become crossed with a snap bean. The glades might have produced a stew that would be the envy of the new infamous army "slungullion."

Passenger Plane Crashes Into Sea; One Seriously Hurt

Miami, Fla., Feb. 15—(AP)—A Cuba-American Air Lines seaplane carrying 19 persons, plunged into Biscayne Bay, two miles from shore, late today, seriously injuring Ray Jackson, 33, of Miami. Members of the crew, a government inspector, and 12 other passengers suffered only minor bruises and shock when the plane fell to the water from an altitude of 200 feet.

The crash came when one of the plane's motors stopped without warning while the machine was tilted into a turn and the power of the second motor was not sufficient to straighten the craft out in the air.

Charles A. Bove, pilot, leveled the machine just before it struck the water, but the force of the impact ripped the bottom out of the cabin and cockpit. The plane sank.

Jackson's right hand was severed when he attempted to save himself by grasping the still revolving propeller of the second motor.

Some of the plane's passengers, among whom were five women, were thrown into the water through the bottom and others crawled out the cabin door. The pilot and mechanics climbed to safety from the cockpit.

A. B. Chalk, piloting a plane of the Causeways Airways, saw the crash from the air and landed his plane near a ship dock and enlisted aid of a speedboat, which proceeded to the scene of the accident and picked up the passengers and crew of the wrecked ship.

MANISTIQUE

TIMBER THEFT NOT INTENDED, SAYS N. KULKKI

Nestor Kulkki of Negaunee, who is charged with trespass on timber lands owned by Louis Lavak, was arraigned before Justice W. A. McKinney Thursday morning, and has been placed under $500 bond for his appearance at a preliminary hearing February 28.

The complaint states that Kulkki willfully cut timber belonging to one John Heino on one of the Lavak "forties." Kulkki maintains that he followed what he believed to be the correct property lines, and that his trespass on the other man's property was not done with intent to commit theft.

He claims a five-year contract on adjoining timber land, and believed he was cutting his own logs, he said. Witnesses will be called for the hearing February 28.

BADGER BOYS OPPOSE VETS IN CAGE DUEL

Basketball bugs of Manistique are preparing to throng the high school gym tonight, assured of one of the best cage exhibitions of the season. The principals will be the Manistique Legion team and their first out-state opponents of the season, the Neenah-Menasha Yellowjackets.

Coming with a classy percentage of wins on their record, the Wisconsin pros promise to give the Manistique vets their fastest and stiffest battle of the season.

Stars on the visiting team include ex-college cagers, and every member of the team is a player who has made a name for himself in Badger basketball circles.

Bill Cook will officiate at the same tonight, which will start at 8:30 sharp, following a preliminary event between the freshmen and juniors. The Legion management has contracted for this attraction at considerable expense, and they are hoping for a record attendance at the gym tonight. Negotiations are under way for other games on the schedule of the local vets, who now have a record of four wins in five starts. Their one defeat was at the hands of Iron Mountain, but they later secured revenge by administering a decisive trimming to the Mountaineers.

Student Workers Organize "Union"

Madison, Wis. (AP)—University of Wisconsin students who help pay their way through college by working their spare time have banded together into the Student Workers League.

It is headed by Louis Klevay, Milwaukee, senior in labor economics, and is regarded as the first student labor organization in the country.

Substantially, the league was organized to try and obtain better wages for student workers, who now average around 35 cents an hour, characterized by Klevay as unfair.

The organization also will serve as a clearing house for jobs and as mediator between student workers and employers.

NO HOLDS BARRED

Kansas City—There are no limitations to the amount or kind of "teasing" a wife may do in order to get friend husband out of bed and to work on time in the morning. Given Enough Wine For Rest of Life

Berlin (AP)—Frau Cosima Wagner, widow of Richard Wagner, who recently celebrated her ninetieth birthday, has become the owner of enough champagne to last her probably for the rest of her life.

Among the thousands who delivered messages of congratulation on her unusual birthday anniversary there was also a deputation from her home town of Bayreuth, headed by the two burgomasters and the committee of elders of the city council. These not only brought her a gorgeous bouquet of flowers, but also an arrangement of ninety bottles of champagne.

The city fathers had learned from Frau Cosima's physician that a sip of champagne daily would be a desirable stimulant.

PLAYGROUND PROGRAM IS OUTLINED

Interesting Statement Issued by P-T Unit.

The following statement in regard to the plans of the Central Unit, Parent Teacher Association, for playground improvement was issued yesterday by the Playgrounds committee of the association:

"Play is the natural vocation of childhood. The child at play embodies the hope of the race. Only happy children can offer definite promise of becoming good citizens. Happiness is the inalienable birthright of childhood. To deplete it of this heritage were to destroy the nation. To increase its opportunities for happiness is to make sure the foundations for a greater nation.

"The picture of a child always alone is infinitely sad. On the other hand, the gang is a menace to society. The old back-log barn, the favorite trysting place of the boys of past generations, has had a pernicious influence on civilization. It has set wolves upon the world. It has counteracted the effect of a million homilies.

"Our time is beginning to understand the problem, and is groping for a solution. To invite the boy into the open; to give him companionship of his kind without the hazard of evil contacts; to direct his energies in a way that will conform to his needs without depriving him of the joy of life; these are the ends sought.

"An attempt is being made to solve the problem through community play grounds, with supervised and directed play. In some cities it is being undertaken as a municipal function. In other places the projects are in the hands of school parties. And in some towns play grounds have been established through efforts of Women's Clubs and Civic organizations of various kinds.

"In Gladstone the Central Unit of the Parent Teacher Association has undertaken to put over a project of this kind. The Board of Education owns a tract of land south of Montana Ave., between Tenth and Eleventh streets. It is a pretty spot, partly wooded but with about a third of the area open and offering space for play ground equipment. It has been offered to the Association for the present purpose. Considerable work has already been done in filling and leveling and an ice rink was provided for the winter through the efforts of the organization.

"It is proposed to brush out the entire plot, complete the work of filling and leveling, and provide such apparatus as can be made available. There are spaces for tennis courts, small boys' baseball diamonds, as well as for a considerable amount of equipment. It might even be possible to provide Gladstone with a good spot for horse shoes, to accommodate those who like this old game.

"Plans for financing the project have not as yet been definitely formed. But it is expected that a general canvass will be made so that all who wish may have an opportunity to contribute. A special effort will be made to enlist the co-operation of all social and civic organizations in the city.

"Some time in the spring before the golf bug becomes too virulent a call may be made for volunteers to go down and brush out the plot, clear out old stumps and rubbish, and thus do their little bit. Might not be a bad idea at that to get a little special training in advance for the really serious business of the summer-on-the-links.

"The whole project would seem to merit support.

"It will improve a piece of Gladstone vacant area.

"It will increase the value of a publicly owned piece of property.

"It will give the P. T. A. a good and sufficient excuse for its existence.

"But most important of all it will make for the happiness and well-being of the city's most valued possession—its boys and girls.

"The Playgrounds Committee of the Gladstone Parent-Teacher Ass'n 'Central Unit'.

Royal Employment Regarded Highly

London (AP)—Employment by the Prince of Wales is regarded as an "open sesame" in certain social and financial circles.

Ralph Thornton, 29, a mechanic, needed a little pocket money. He made himself acquainted with a young woman, posing as the chauffeur of the Prince of Wales. When he suggested that she marry him, she agreed and lent him a couple of pounds as evidence of her good faith. Then together they visited the girl's parents and the masquerading suitor borrowed ten pounds from the "old man."

Thornton next introduced himself to a taxi driver as the Prince's chauffeur and persuaded the man to cash a check for five pounds.

"He said he was the Prince's chauffeur and I thought that was gilt-edged security," said the taxi driver at the trial.

"I suppose you expected to be invited to court," replied the judge, before sending Thornton to prison.

Playing of Pembaur Overcomes Reserve

Berlin (AP)—To dispel the habitual atmosphere of frigid reserve between Prussians and Bavarians prevailing at the recent inauguration of the new Prussian location in Munich, Professor Joseph Pembaur, the eminent pianist, was asked to play.

When the deafening applause following the virtuoso's rendering of Liszt's legend "St. Francis walking upon the waters" had subsided, the Prussian premier Otto Braun walked over to Professor Pembaur, warmly shook his hand and exclaimed: "You surely must be a Bavarian—none other could have pounded a Prussian piano so effectively."

DEMAND FOR TREASURY BONDS

STOCK SALES AVERAGES. Twenty Twenty Thursday 183.33 140.62 Wednesday 184.04 139.95

New York, Feb. 16.—(P)—General heaviness of recent pool favorites in the stock market and a sudden expansion in the demand for U. S. treasury bonds were the outstanding developments in the financial situation today.

Stiffening time money and commercial paper rates undoubtedly had an effect on sentiment, and some hesitancy was created by fears in some quarters that another increase in brokers' loans might develop.

The sudden demand for U. S. government bonds was unexplained, especially in the face of tightening money rates, but it was suggested that market operators may have been disposed to transfer some of the idle funds from the stock market, which has been showing marked signs of weakening.

The stock market started upward with a rush at the opening, led by numbers public utilities which had been stimulated by the senate's rejection of the Walsh resolution calling for a senatorial investigation of super power projects.

Very little change was noted in foreign exchanges. Sterling cables ruled slightly higher around $4.57 1/2-32, and French francs held close to yesterday's final quotations.

An advance of about 2 cents a bushel in wheat futures held the principal interest in the commodity markets. Cotton, coffee and raw sugar quotations were steady, but sugar futures were weak, showing recessions of 1 to 7 points.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK Chicago, Feb. 16.—Cattle, receipts 7,000, fed steers fully steady with recent uneven and sharp downturns, lower grade predominating.

CHICAGO POTATOES Chicago, Feb. 16.—Potatoes, receipts 118 cars, on track 232, total United States shipments, 867 cars; demand and trading slow, market steady.

Subscribers to Hospital Fund Are Asked for Checks

The following statement was issued yesterday by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Elks:

"The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Elks would esteem it a favor if all those who have promised money for the charity bed which they are sponsoring, would send in their contribution at once. The women find it most trying to be obliged to telephone or call several times for a promised donation. It should be recalled that theirs is a labor of love, and that it is a more graceful gesture to lighten the burden of solicitation than to make it more generous."

"It is conceded, of course, that there are many calls upon the generosity of the merchants, professional men and others; yet, it is believed that their charity will not stop short on this worthy enterprise, and with Lent approaching, the recreational demands will be lessened and the desirability of good works more readily recognized."

"The ladies suggest, therefore, that their request is timely and appropriate and it is their hope that it will be acted upon as such with all possible expediency by those who have not yet sent in their contribution."

"Those who may have forgotten by whom they have been solicited may send their checks directly to Mrs. Oscar Kraus, 615 South Thirteenth street, city."

Put-in-Bay, O.—Rattlesnake Island off Lake Erie coast here, was without beef recently, because a "dead" bull injured the butcher and forced him to retreat to the mainland. In winter the island stores its beef on the hoof and hires a butcher to do the slaughtering. On this occasion, Mr. Butcher shot Mr. Bull and the animal fell apparently dead. But as the knife descended for the "bleeding" Mr. Bull scrambled back on the hoof and chased Mr. Butcher back to his boat and the mainland.

Iron Mountain Five Defeats Hilltoppers, 31 to

RONZONI LEADS SCORING ATTACK

Game Even in First Half; Esky Defense Falters During Second

The Iron Mountain's rangy basketball team decisively defeated Escanaba high school in a bitterly contested game at the high school gymnasium last night. The final score was 31 to 10.

After holding the visitors on even terms the first quarter, the local defense faltered and the half found Iron Mountain leading, 12-7. The second half was all Iron Mountain. Led by the stock Ronzoni, the invaders scored time after time from the floor while the locals were unable to locate the hoop once from the court throughout the entire half.

Thiebert, visiting left forward, led the Iron Mountain attack with five baskets from mid-floor and points south. The defensive work of Ronzoni and Cordy was the best seen on the local court all season.

Gustafson played a stellar game for Escanaba until pensioned, via the four personal fouls shortly before the end of the third quarter. Ronzoni started the scoring with a basket near the foul line. The Iron Mountain captain dribbled through the entire Escanaba defense to score. Olson scored on a free throw. Dyer related on Pelin's foul. Ronzoni added one on Gustafson's felony and Lambert sank a pretty goal from mid-floor. Dyer fouled Gustafson who made good on the award. Taking the ball off his own backboard, Gustafson dribbled the entire length of the floor and eluded the Iron Mountain guards for a goal under the basket. Dyer, a second later, evened matters with a goal from the side of the court. Dyer missed a free throw as the quarter ended, 12-7.

Ronzoni again opened the scoring with a pretty follow-up shot from scrimmage. Pelin scored a point on Dyer's foul. Tioranni dribbled to the foul line and threw a basket. A second later Thiebert found the hoop from the center of the floor. It was a beautiful shot. Time out, Escanaba. The half ended shortly after play was resumed. Score 12-7.

Sent in Substitutes. Snyder, playing a hard, fast game throughout, opened the half with a free throw. Dyer blew a free throw and Gustafson dribbled the length of the floor once more, only to have the ball roll around the rim and drop out. The red-head was playing a great game at guard. Thiebert disturbed the draperies from center, added a point on a foul and varied the monotony by sinking one from far down the floor, all inside of a minute's play. Dyer threw a field goal. With the score 19-8 Gustafson fouled Ronzoni and was directed to the showers. The victim threw two perfect free throws, as the quarter ended with the score 21-8. The locals, playing a fast hard game, were having difficulty in penetrating the visitors' defense and the few shots they had were hurried.

Lambert counted on Ferzacca's foul. Thiebert ran the Iron Mountain total to 23 with a goal from the floor after pretty team work by the entire team. He scored a second later from the center of the floor. Cordy added a point on Pelin's misdeemeanor. Cordy fouled Lambert who made the free throw. Iron Mountain, resorting to stall-ing, drew up the local defense and Ronzoni lumbered up the floor for a basket. Lambert missed two free throws. Tioranni scored from under the basket. With but a minute remaining, both coaches made numerous substitutions and the game ended as Ronzoni scored from the foul line on Don Anderson's foul. Final score, 31-10.

The summary: A large delegation of Iron Mountain fans were present at the game. Williamson of Gwinn and Nor-man of Marquette handled the game in a capable manner.

STARS BRING LARGE SUMS

Coast League Owners Holdout for Fancy Figures

BY BILLY EVANS
Coast league ball players come high. There is a reason, of course; possibly it is superlative ability and then again maybe the climate has something to do with it.

It is an interesting fact that a majority of the high-priced minor league players now doing business in the majors first gained fame on the Pacific coast.

Jimmy O'Connell set the fashion. More or less, in high prices when the Giants paid $75,000 for him. He had a varying career with the Giants.

Several times McGraw weakened on him, feeling he couldn't make the grade. Always, at such times, O'Connell would show enough stuff to cause McGraw to change his mind. Just when it seemed he was about ready to deliver, he was barred from baseball.

Billy Kamm of Chicago, one of the greatest fielding third basemen of all time and a pretty fair batsman, cost the White Sox in the neighborhood of $100,000 in money and players.

Connie Mack one year paid Portland something like $40,000 for Third Baseman Sammy Hale and about $60,000 to Salt Lake for Outfielder Paul Strand. This investment of one hundred thousand gave Mack a good third sacker but Strand was a complete bust.

Tony Lazzeri cost the New York Yankees about $40,000 and it was money well spent. This young man just about started the team chap-tered by Miller Huggins on the way to pennants.

While no definite figure was ever given out by the Pittsburgh club, it is conservative to say that Barney Dreyfus paid about $75,000 for Paul Waner and Hal Rhyne. The latter player, touted as highly as Waner, has failed to be of much use to Pittsburgh, but Waner proved to be the sensation of the league. Last season, his second year in the organization, he was voted the most valuable player in the National.

Only recently, the New York Yankees, pleased with their investment in Tony Lazzeri, went out and bought two of the star infielders of the Coast League for 1929 delivery. I have reference to Reese and Lary. It is hardly possible that either of these two will displace Lazzeri or Koegel, but their addition greatly strengthens the Yankees' reserve.

The veteran Joe Dugan cannot go many more years at third base and it is just possible that either Reese or Lary might be made over into the custodian of the third corner.

AMERICANS TAKE ONLY ONE TITLE

Olympic Winter Sports Programs Suffer From Mild Weather

St. Moritz, Switzerland, Feb. 16.—(AP)—In the midst of the open season on protests, chief features so far in the Olympic winter sports program, America's speed skaters set out for home today with only one title and that unofficially in the duffle bags. Hundreds of Olympic athletes, but few officials, made the American representatives an enthusiastic god-speed as the delegation pulled out for Paris.

At this winter playground, avalanches of soft snow tumbled down from the mountains and skating rinks resembled swimming pools under a warm sun and balmy breezes.

Irving Jaffe, New York flyer, who scored the fastest time in the 10,000 meter event only to see the race cancelled because of soft ice and unseasonable weather was the object of the special attention of one delegation of Swiss athletes, who carried a banner inscribed: "Jaffe, winner of the 10,000 meters. Long live America!"

Despite the protests of Gustavus Kirby, American representative, the International Skating federation stuck to its ruling that the race must be run again. Kirby was stymied by the decision, since no skaters are left in St. Moritz. Most of the Scandinavian delegates departed for home yesterday.

Hockey Match Delayed.
Protests again became the order of the day as soon as Canada hopped into the center of the hockey limelight. The dominion team, an overwhelming favorite, cast an eye at the torrid weather, another at the swimming pool labelled the hockey rink and refused point-blank to meet Sweden this afternoon in the first of the semi-final matches.

"We came here to play hockey and not water polo," said P. J. Mulneux, chairman of the Canadian Olympic committee. The match finally was set for 8 a. m. tomorrow morning, when the sun is neither high nor warm.

Play continued in the hockey eliminations today. Belgium defeated France 3 to 1; Switzerland shut out Hungary, 1 to 0. The program is now two days behind schedule.

Spartans to Meet U. of Detroit 5
East Lansing, Feb. 16.—(AP)—Michigan State Spartans presenting a revised lineup from the original one of the season, will invade the University of Detroit's backyard in the hope of obtaining a second basketball victory this season from their traditional rivals.

After four straight wins from Notre Dame, Hope, Hilledale and Albion, the lineup which started the Spartans on their late victorious march is apt to remain intact for the Titan game. Dickson and Denherder, forwards; Feldt, center, and Schau and Russo, guards, constitute the winning combination.

When Detroit met the Spartans here Russo and Denherder did not appear in the original lineup. The game resulted in 27 to 23 win for State after a hard fight. Grove, substitute forward, is apt to see some action because of his good work in recent games.

Lloyd Guenther Takes Commanding Lead in Tourney
Saranac Lake, N. Y., Feb. 16.—(AP)—A commanding lead in the gold cup amateur outdoor speed skating tournament here was attained today by Lloyd Guenther of Detroit, when he took second place in the one-seventh mile race. In the one-seventh mile race, the races were skated on far better ice condition than yesterday when soft ice slowed down one race and caused another to be postponed. Eddie Sealless, New York, and Allan Potts, Brooklyn, pressed Guenther in the last lap of the mile race, with Sealless crossing the finish line in second place.

Eddie Jacobson, Chicago, won the one-seventh mile event, with Guenther only a few inches behind.

Paris.—The first complete trainload of oranges ever shipped direct to Paris from Spain recently arrived after a run of about 72 hours from Madrid, or half the time required by water or package rail express. The 35 cars were laden with 5,300,000 pounds of oranges.

Co-Ops Grow Abroad
London.—Co-operative societies, such as wholesale, retail, productive and distributive federations and supply associations, have more than 5,000,000 members in Great Britain and Ireland. The organizations, which exceed 1,400 in number have assets totaling above £200,000,000.

Great Britain's postage stamps have been printed by only four different firms since 1839.

British Racing Car Comes Near to Serious Mishap

Daytona Beach, Fla., Feb. 16.—(AP)—Hurling along at an unofficial speed of 175 miles an hour, despite a rain-beaten beach, Capt. Malcolm Campbell, British automobile racer, escaped possible serious injury here today when his giant speedster struck a rut and was catapulted 30 feet through the air.

So great was the impact when the 12-cylinder juggernaut settled back on the beach that it smashed a bracket on the rear shock absorber and ripped away the underscreen.

Captain Campbell was half thrown from the driver's seat, but maintained control of the machine and completed a trial run down the beach at reduced speed.

The British pilot was putting his racer through its first test here preliminary to an attempt to break the world's speed record of 203.7 miles per hour, made by a fellow countryman, Major H. O. D. Seagrave, here last year. He said the necessary repairs could be made within a few hours and that he probably would give his speedster another workout tomorrow.

Prepare 36 Cylinder Machine.
Frank Lockhart, internationally known driver, also expects to give his 16-cylinder Stutz "Blackhawk Special," a run tomorrow in preparation for a try at the record.

J. M. White, Philadelphia manufacturer, continued today to condition his triplex special for a similar test, although as at present constructed, his mount will not be sanctioned by the American Automobile association because it is not equipped with a clutch and reverse gear. The Philadelphia said, however, that if his machine reached expectations in trials, he would install the necessary transmission system.

Stock car races scheduled for today were postponed on account of the rain.

Wants Another Trial.
Stan Baumgartner, who has been unsuccessful in all previous big league trials, has several offers to try again and will do so this season if he can get his release from the Seattle club.

In the first four innings of a game in the Piedmont League last season, Baxter Jordan, third baseman who now is the property of the New York Giants, started four double plays.

Versatile Collegian.
Claudine Vincent, Oklahoma A. and M. student, boxes as a professional on week-ends, attends school during the week, and runs the student association of his college as president in his spare time.

TYPESLINGERS MEET BUCKEYES

Herringchokers vs. Invincibles in Preliminary at Webster Gym

The Daily Press Typeslingers, led by Schou, captain and star center, will meet the Buckeye five of Gladstone at the Webster gym this evening.

Each team boasts a long list of victories, the Typeslingers being undefeated in the City Amateur Basketball League. The Buckeye aggregation is composed of former high school stars, including Moore, Berg, and others.

The Typeslingers possess a strong lineup, with veterans of three years' playing, and last year runners-up in the amateur city tournament. Besides league games, the Press crew have met and defeated some of the strongest amateur teams of this region, including Nahma and Garden. They have lost only three games in fourteen starts.

Chokers, Invincibles Meet.
The Norwegian Lutheran Herringchokers and the E. F. U. Invincibles will meet in a preliminary at 7 o'clock. The Chokers will use their old veterans, W. Arntzen, Inglebrightsen and Johnson who have aided in winning many victories for the Norwegian team. This team has not been playing, except for two games at the opening of the season.

The Invincibles, veterans of many cage contests, will enter the game tonight determined to defeat the Herringchokers, who have won one game since reorganizing recently.

"Tiger" Johnson of the Roughhouse Gang will handle the whistle for the games. The main go will start at 8 o'clock. A small admission will be charged.

Booth Topped Welch
Although it is generally believed that Gibby Welch topped the Pittsburgh backs this past fall in making points, that honor really fell to Dick Booth, who scored 89 points.

Grid Stars in Bout
Dick Dodson and Dave McArthur, Tennessee grid stars, are anxious to become professional boxers. They fought each other in their first bout and Dodson put McArthur to rout.

Noe Daoust, aged 77, a resident of this city for the past 50 years, passed away Thursday morning at 3 o'clock, following a paralytic stroke which he suffered at his home last Saturday night. He was taken to St. Francis hospital in an unconscious condition and died without regaining his senses.

Mr. Daoust was born in St. Benoit, province of Quebec, Canada, and came to this city fifty years ago. He conducted a boarding house at First avenue north and Fourteenth street until 17 years ago when he entered the employ of the C. M. & St. Paul docks.

HOOVER FLOOD PLAN SEEN AS MAJOR ISSUE

the weight of his present prestige to the efforts of the Mississippi valley to convince congress that it must go further than President Coolidge recommended.

Tax Reduction.
Wrapped up in the controversy is the matter of tax reduction for it is assumed that when the treasury finds out what the totals of the March 15 payments are, a definite sum will be recommended for flood prevention. In other words, the secretary of commerce does not regard the matter as closed by any means and he will tell the senate committee that summons him exactly what he found and what he recommended on his visit to the flood areas.

Russians in Exile Build Olden Church

Paris (AP)—A church of the middle ages has been built in a dark narrow street as a "museum of faith" by exiled Russians.

It is a twelfth century Greek Orthodox church constructed of wood and bricks and decorated in the rich, garish style of old with gold walls and steps and deep blues and reds in the pictorial panels and hung with a few rare bits of tapestry brought out by the faithful when they fled from the land of the soviets.

Byzantine saints and patriarchs and their stories are pictured on the walls and ikons are placed above the draped dais.

The first public operatic performance is believed to have been staged 327 years ago at a French royal wedding.
