VIRGINIA NOT YET IN SMITH CAMPAIGN BAG

FAVORITE SON TO GET STATE'S BALLOTS

BY DAVID LAWRENCE.

Copyright 1928, by the Escanaba Press. Richmond, Va., April 7.—If Al Smith could work out a formula that would enable the Virginia practical politicians to support him, they would do so.

Something of a promise from Al Smith about law enforcement that would enable the southern politicians to narrow the field of opposition to him may prove a turning point in the Houston convention comes to a critical point and a few southern votes are needed to get two-thirds.

Has Favorite Son.

But at the moment the Virginia sentiment is affirmatively not for the New York governor. The viewpoint here is merely that the Virginians prefer that if Al Smith is really to be nominated, the initiative and the necessary ballots come from other states.

South Could Gain. Yet the antipathy toward the New York governor can hardly be erased at this time by a promise of a vice-presidential nomination to a southerner. It will be one way to present a united front to the country if Governor Smith should be nominated, but on the other hand, the south has not yet conceded the nomination of the New York governor.

Unquestionably the strongest influence in favor of Al Smith is the fact that he is looked upon

Dewey Furnace Company to Begin Installations for 1928 Season Soon

Within two weeks the Dewey Furnace company of this city, manufacturers of Delta furnaces, will begin the installation of furnaces for the season of 1928 in homes of Escanaba and the upper peninsula of Michigan.

Directors of the recently incorporated company, made up in its entirety of Escanaba men, held a meeting on Friday when definite production and sales plans for the season were formulated and all of those interested in the company are most enthusiastic over their prospects that are offered.

The Chatsfield Machine Foundry company, at whose plant the furnaces will be manufactured, has just completed the installation of machinery at a cost of $10,000, to be used exclusively in the turning out of the Dewey Furnace company's product. Within two weeks that portion of the plant will be in full operation, with a capacity of four furnaces per day.

The company's sales division is already efficiently organized and a number of contracts have already been booked for the installation of furnaces as soon as spring weather conditions develop.

Two salesmen this season will be assigned to the upper peninsula territory, outside of Escanaba and Gladstone while three men will make a careful sales canvass of the two Delta county cities, during the spring and early summer months.

The officers and directors of the Dewey Furnace company are: Herman Gessner, president; W. R. Smith, vice president; H. H. Shepeck, secretary; Samuel Mills, treasurer; H. B. Markham, general manager; A. J. Young and John P. Norton. Other stockholders in the company are: A. H. Groesbeck, H. P. Hansen, Peter Jensen, Daniel D. Dewey, Charles M. Thatcher, A. E. Anderson, D. J. Gauvin, Edward Erickson, Sr., and T. F. Kessler.

Fifty Now in Use. The Dewey Furnace company was formally organized during the winter, to take over the business established here last summer by H. B. Markham and Daniel Dewey. During the first summer, operating under difficulties, Mr. Dewey and Mr. Markham installed approximately fifty furnaces in Escanaba homes. A canvass made by Escanaba businessmen of the owners of these furnaces early this spring, proved that every owner of a Dewey furnace during the past winter is a highly enthusiastic user.

The Escanaba manufactured furnace embodies many new and important features in warm air heating and in actual use the type has been proven to be of the best. Escanaba businessmen who became associated with the enterprise are now confident that a most substantial future lies ahead for an efficient moist air furnace manufactured in the peninsula.

All of the stock in the company issued up to this time is held by Escanaba men and it is hoped that a small block of stock, still remaining in the treasury, will be taken up by other Escanaba men.

Outlook Promising. The company's sales division is already efficiently organized and a number of contracts have already been booked for the installation of furnaces as soon as spring weather conditions develop.

TAX MEASURE IN FOR SOME HARD KNOCKS

THINK REPUBLICANS CAN WITHSTAND AUTO MAKERS

Washington, Apr. 7.—(P)—The administration tax reduction program presented to the senate this week by Secretary Mellon is in for some severe knocks next week by the representatives of business and the automobile industry but the Republican majority of the senate finance committee was confident today of holding its position for the Mellon plan.

Meanwhile, Chairman Smoot of the committee, who is in charge of the Republican majority on the committee, announced today that the previous decision for a 12 per cent corporation tax was only tentative. He indicated strongly that an attempt may be made later to make this rate 12 1/2 per cent.

The corporation tax is one of the main points of contention in the bill. The house voted to slash this rate from 13 1/2 per cent to 11 1/2 per cent. Mr. Mellon said this was too much. He favored 12 per cent and in his first action, the committee tentatively accepted this figure, but now Senator Smoot appears to be ready to boost it up to 12 1/2 per cent because of other prospective reductions.

The Republican majority also is standing pat for the $200,000,000 limitation on tax reduction set by Secretary Mellon, but the Democrats hope to have their contention for a $300,000 figure bolstered up during the week by experts who will appear before the committee in public hearings.

Even should the Republican majority in committee succeed in holding the bill within the limitations set by the treasury, Democrats believe they will be supported sufficiently on the floor to obtain repeal of the automobile levy of 3 per cent which was voted by the house, but which Mr. Mellon wants to retain.

Organize Search for Missing Boy

Detroit, April 7.—(P)—An organized search for 8-year-old Frank Rupert, Jr., missing from his home here since last Wednesday, was under way tonight by fellow workers of the child's father at an automobile factory.

It was planned to thoroughly comb railroad yards and vacant lots and probe sinkholes and isolated sections of Connors Creek in the vicinity of the Rupert home in the search for the missing boy.

Frank disappeared when he left his home Wednesday afternoon to play.

Baldoned, April 7.—(P)—On a mere matter of Col. James Fitzmaurice's life insurance, seemed to hang tonight the chances for a takeoff either late tonight or tomorrow of the German plane, Bremen, with its German-Irish crew on a non-stop flight to America attempt.

OIL MAN WILL ADMIT GIVING BONDS TO FALL

WILL NOT MENTION FORMATION OF COMPANY

Washington, April 7.—(P)—The story of the formation of the Continental Trading company, which government prosecutors sought to bring out at previous trials of Harry F. Sinclair, wealthy oil operator, may not be touched upon during the Sinclair trial to open Monday.

The oil man, it was learned today, will admit that he gave former Secretary of the Interior Fall $233,000, part in bonds of the Continental company, purchased with oil profits, and will insist that the payment was for one-third interest in Fall's Tres Ritos Cattle and Land company in New Mexico.

Sinclair will maintain that the source of the bonds is not material to the government charges against him of conspiring to defraud the government in the Teapot Dome oil lease. The prosecution contends that Sinclair gave the bonds to Fall as a bribe after the latter signed the lease giving the oil man the naval reserve.

That the government is ready to go into the Continental deal, should it find it necessary, is indicated by the calling of Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, as a witness. Stewart with Sinclair, James E. O'Neill and H. H. Blackmen, guaranteed to the late A. E. Humphreys of Denver, the performance of the contract through which the Continental company purchased 33,000,000 barrels of oil from him. Stewart was instructed to bring along documents concerning the formation of the Continental company, which the senate oil investigating committee has as yet been unable to get into its record.

Mrs. Lindbergh to Make Flight to Canadian City

Detroit, April 7.—(P)—Weather permitting, Mrs. Evangeline L. Lindbergh, school teacher - mother of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, will take off Monday on a flight to Toronto, Ont., where she is to be a guest of the Ontario Educational association.

The trip is to be made in a five-passenger Buhl cabin plane, piloted by Louis G. Melster, of the Buhl Aircraft company. Miss Maud Dawson, a fellow teacher who accompanied Mrs. Lindbergh on her recent trip to Boston, and Mrs. Melster, will be the other members of the party. Mrs. Lindbergh is to be made a life member of the Canadian association.

Mrs. Lindbergh said today she is looking forward to her trip, not only because of the close relationship between Canada and the United States, but also because it was the home of her ancestors in the frontier days. Her father, Dr. Charles H. Lind, was a native of Renton, near Simcoe, Norfolk county, Ontario.

She will fly over ground once trodden by her forefathers as far back as the Revolutionary war period when Coy. Robert Lind lived in a cabin where Hamilton, Ont., now is located and later founded that city.

BODY OF DEPEW IS TAKEN HOME

Countryside and City Join in Paying Tribute to Former Statesman

New York, Apr. 7.—(P)—Accompanied by the tribute of a nation, the body of Chauncey Mitchell Depew was taken back today to his native village of Peekskill in the highlands of the Hudson.

In a great, white mausoleum in the rolling hills outside the village, the casket was hidden from a world in which over a period of almost 94 years, he had risen from country boy to the combined distinction of statesman, railroad executive, humorist and philosopher.

The quiet countryside and speeding New York joined to extend final honors. Old residents of Peekskill who knew Mr. Depew as a youth and children to whom his name is legend crowded the streets of the village and stood with bare heads as the funeral cortege arrived under police escort from New York where thousands earlier had assembled for services in St. Thomas' Episcopal church in Fifth avenue.

POLITICS ARE NOT SETTLED

Some Difficulties Are Removed But Too Early for Forecasts

Washington, April 7.—(AP)—The political cross-winds of April are sweeping away some of the clouds that have made it difficult to size up the trend of the presidential campaign, but conditions still are too unsettled for accurate June forecasts.

Conventions delegates are being chosen at such a clip that a politician to qualify as an expert, must have a head for figures as well as know something about campaign strategy. At that, two thirds of the Republicans who will hold credentials at Kansas City nine weeks hence, and 75 per cent of the delegates to the Houston convention two weeks later remain to be selected—and this factor adds to the uncertainty of the days ahead.

As it stands now among Republican contenders, Hoover is out ahead with 164 instructed and claimed delegates. Lowden, in the lead until this week, has an even 100, Curtis 23, and Norris 16, with the preference of 56 in doubt.

Of the Democrats, Smith is far to the front with 186 instructed and claimed convention votes. Reed of Missouri has 35 and George of Georgia 28, with 38 in doubt.

Generally, it is agreed that barring upsets, Hoover will go into the Republican convention with the most delegates, and that the New York governor will be in the same position at Houston.

Both Hoover and Smith are themselves lined up against "the field." Some of the commerce secretary's supporters say they see victory in sight; others, more cautious, are making no claims but are hopeful. There is the same division of sentiment in the Smith camp.

As for their rivals, most of them are going on the theory that both are far away from the nomination and will never make the grade. They foresee a demand for a compromise candidate or an opportunity for a "dark horse" and are making preparations to take advantage of any such breaks.

Whoever is nominated at Kansas City must muster a majority—545—while at Houston 733 1/2 votes—two-thirds—will be needed.

For the moment, the Republicans have their eyes on the approaching Ohio and Indiana primaries where Hoover is facing stiff fights, and on Massachusetts, New York and Pennsylvania. The Hoover managers are seeking to strengthen the secretary's hand in the Bay state primaries April 24, the same day voting in Ohio will tell conclusively the effect of Senator Willis' death.

On all sides there is a tendency to feel that the uninstructed delegates from New York, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts may have the deciding say in the Kansas City convention, and campaign plans are being laid accordingly in both the Hoover and anti-Hoover camps.

California, with its May 1 primaries, is counted on to give a line on the comparative strength of Smith, Walsh and Reed in the Democratic contest. All three have slates of delegates. In Wisconsin, Reed got the preference vote which is not binding, but sought no delegates. Smith took all the delegates, a Walsh slate of delegates-at-large going down to defeat.

At least one of the preliminaries to the Kansas City convention has been disposed of. Senator Fess of Ohio has been selected Koxpoter. He favored the drafting of Coolidge at one time, later became one of the Willis candidates for delegate in Ohio, and is not looked on as unfriendly to Hoover. Predictions are that Senator Moses of New Hampshire will be permanent convention chairman.

During the next week or two, a call probably will go out for a meeting of the Democratic convention arrangements committee. Thus far most of the talk has centered on Claude G. Bower, New York author and editor, for keynoter, with Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, among those mentioned for permanent chairman.

Streams overflowing their banks at Grayling have destroyed a number of hatcheries at the state fish preserve. Most of the highways have been made impassable.

A drop in the Muskegon river at Big Rapids, where a large power dam is located, has alleviated fears that it would be washed out. A blizzard from the northwest that struck Muskegon tonight added to difficulties there. All telephone communication was severed and commercial and railroad telegraph lines were damaged.

Carnegie Library Notes

Circulation statistics of the Carnegie Public Library show that during the year which ended April 1, 75,973 volumes were circulated. This was a gain of 3,235 volumes over the preceding year. The library was open 396 days. Therefore, the average daily circulation was 248. During the period from October to March, 963 books were circulated from the station at the Webster school.

During the past month the circulation totaled 8,384 and the average daily circulation was 310, the smallest daily circulation in March was 224 and the largest 493.

During the past week 34 books in the French language were catalogued. These are mostly classics edited with notes for the use of students of French. The library frequently has calls for books in the French language and at present there is a greater demand as a group of women from the Escanaba Woman's club is studying French. Among the interesting books to be catalogued and put into circulation the coming week are the following:

- Inman, A. C., ed.—Soldier of the South, war letters of General Pickens to his wife.
- Little, R. H.—Better Angels.
- Vestal, Stanley—Kit Carson, the Happy Warrior of the Old West.
- Byrd, R. E.—Skyward.
- De Viori, V. E.—Mussolini, the Man of Destiny.
- Roosevelt, Nicholas—The Restless Pacific.
- Sandburg, Carl—American Song Bag.
- Chesteron, G. K.—Robert Louis Stevenson.
- Johnson, Martin—Safari, a Saga of the African Blue.
- Morrow, H. W.—Mary Todd Lincoln.
- Mathews, Shaller—The French Revolution.

of trustees met the procession at the Peekskill village line and escorted it to historic Hillside cemetery two miles from Peekskill's main street where Mr. Depew was born. ## VIRGINIA NOT YET IN SMITH CAMPAIGN BAG as an extraordinary vote-getter. The argument heard again and again is that the south stands an opportunity to reap gain if there is a democratic victory. A democratic congress might be swept into power, which would mean that southern members would become chairmen of important committees. Also the appointment of important federal officers from the democratic party would be more than welcome in Dixieland. And the south nowadays has much more at stake than ever before because the federal government is a larger factor in financial and business expansion than at any time since the war.

Would Carry State.
The desire for a democratic victory is the biggest single influence that will make the south adopt a more or less passive attitude toward the New York governor's candidacy. And that about describes the feeling here. If the rest of the democratic party decides on Al Smith as a standard-bearer, Virginia will not stand in the way. Once nominated, Virginia's electoral vote would be cast for him.

driving home in his automobile. He is married and the father of a young son. That Gaynor was a prisoner was revealed last Tuesday when two men approached his partner, James McCormick, with a demand for $100,000 ransom and the threat the McCormick would be "taken for a ride" if he notified the police.

Marked Money Refused.
McCormick arranged for the men to return yesterday for the money, he held out for a lower figure, and offering $10,000. The bills were marked, and despite the death threat, he had secreted a dozen detectives in the automobile sales room.

The men refused the money, hurried out and sped away in an automobile. The detectives followed for miles and then, fearing an escape, overtook the automobile and arrested the two men.

After long questioning at the detective bureau, the pair suddenly was hustled into a detective motor car and away at midnight.

The ride ended at a cottage on Higgins Road near Dundee, Ill., about forty miles from Chicago. The chief of police of Dundee, without knowledge of the arrests, said there were indications Gaynor had been held captive in the cottage.

SUPPORTS MEN ASSAILING KLAN

Founder of Organization Files Deposition in Court

Pittsburgh, Apr. 7.—(AP)—Charging that he was marked for death because he openly opposed "maladministration" of the affairs of the Ku Klux Klan under the Evans administration, William J. Simmons, founder of the order, filed a deposition in federal court here today, supporting five former members in their suit to have a receiver appointed for the Klan in this state.

The receivership suit, a counter action filed after the Klan had asked that the former members be restrained from using its name, will be called up in court Monday. The former members ask that a receiver be named and that the Klan account for all money collected in the state. The Klan, asking the restraining order, sought $100,000 damages from the ex-members, claiming they collected that sum from Klan members without authorization.

Simmons, in his deposition, assailed the administration of Imperial Wizard Hiram W. Evans, and charged that he had "available information" indicating that persons connected with Evans had sought to take his life. He said that Phil Fox, publicity agent for Evans, had attempted to assassinate him the day before Fox killed Capt. W. S. Coburn, Atlanta attorney.

"Since the present administration took charge of the Klan," Simmons continued, "judging from all that I have been able to see and hear, it has been destructive and conducted contrary to its original plans and purposes. x x x I could not consistently remain or be a member of the order and thereby endorse the maladministration of the organization. high as 150,000, while others were more conservative, but just as confident. Expect Emmerson Victory. Considerable discussion in Chicago today centered around Mayor Thompson, adherent of the Small-Thompson-Crowe faction, who suggested that he would consider resigning from office if Emmerson were elected governor and Swanson state's attorney, Mayor Thompson has borne the brunt of the decision of the opposing Republican faction aimed principally at the mayor's "America First" slogan, his opposition to King George and crime conditions in Chicago.

Rodney H. Brandon, campaign manager for Emmerson, in a statement tonight said he expected to win by 200,000, "if the supporters of good government get out and vote. He based his prediction on an estimated majority of 100,000 in Cook county (Chicago) and a similar majority downstate.

The Democrats had few statements to offer because most of the candidates for important offices were unopposed. They made an appeal, however, for a large vote to gauge the party's strength.

Will not heed him. For some mystified reason or other, Bill Loutit and George Hogarth do not seem to want to take my advice on any subject. They always answer my letters, and tell me my suggestive hints have been taken under advisement, but they never do anything about it.

All details for an impressive Easter service in the First Presbyterian church have been completed. Two anthems will be sung in the morning by the quartet. There will also be a solo by Miss Grace Mills. The pastor will speak on the theme, "The Abundant Life."

THIS DAY OF CRIME. It would be rather easy to get quite pessimistic about the condition of the United States right now, if you tried to.

Much of the daily news isn't at all comforting. There is Chicago, where crime seems to be absolutely defiant to society.

The sum total is, at times, depressing. It would be quite easy to conclude that civilization is going to the bowwows.

But, after all, we do pretty well considering. We mustn't be impatient; mustn't expect too much of ourselves.

The ancestors of every one of us a thousand years ago were plunged in barbarism. Europe, in the dark ages, was not an admirable place.

That was a thousand years ago. An impartial witness from a more enlightened planet might easily have concluded that all mankind was fast on the road to besthood.

CITIZENSHIP CLASSES. The Constitution Education Association is doing a good work by fostering citizenship classes throughout the country.

A SIGN OF PROSPERITY. Federal Reserve bank statistics show that in February of this year more automobiles were sold than in February of 1927.

NEW WAYS TO GOVERN. Will this country, sooner or later, have to put its best minds to work devising entirely new methods of government? Prof. Charles E. Merriam, chairman of the Department of Political Science of the University of Chicago, seems to think so.

"Regions of the type of New York, Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia are unites in the economic sense and they also represent types of social and cultural unities," he says.

GIRL ALONE

CHAPTER XIX

The next morning—the carnival's second and last day in Stanton—Sally overslept. She did not awaken until a tiny hand tugged impatiently at her hair.

"You looked so pretty asleep that I hated to awaken you," the midget told her. "But it's getting late, and I want my breakfast. I'm dressed."

"There's a bucket of water and a tin basin," Miss Tanner told her brusquely, to hide the pleasure which Sally's caress had given her. "All the other girls have gone to the cook tent, so you can dress in peace."

"I didn't thank you properly last night for taking my part against Nita," Sally said shyly, as she hastily drew on her stockings. "But I do thank you, Betty, with all my heart. I was so frightened—for David—"

"What I said to Nita will hold her for a while," Betty Tanner nodded with satisfaction. "But I don't trust her. She'll do something underhand if she thinks she can get away with it. But don't worry. Once the carnival gets out of this state, you and your David will be pretty safe. I don't think the police will bother about extradition, even if Nita should tip them off. In the mean time, I'll break the first law of carnival and try to learn something of Nita's past. I've seen her turn pale more than once when a detective or a policeman loomed up unexpectedly and seemed to be giving her the once-over. Oh, dear, I'm getting to be as slinky as any of the girls," she mourned.

After Sally had splashed in the tin basin and had combed and braided her hair, she hesitated for a long minute over the two new dresses that had mysteriously found their way into the trunk. She caught herself up at the thought. Of course, if they were not mysterious, "Pop" and Mrs. Bybee had provided them, out of the infinite kindness of their hearts. Were they always so kind to the carnival's new recruits? Gratitude welling up in her impressionable young heart, she dressed herself in the little white voile, splashed with tiny blue and yellow wild flowers.

Last night's breeze had brought with it a light, cooling shower, and still lingered under the hot caress of the June sun. Sally sang, at Betty's request, as she sped across vacant lots to the show train resting engineers on a spur track. At the sound of her fresh, young voice, carolling an old song of summertime and love, David Nash thrust his head out of the little high window in the box of a kitchen at the end of the dining car, and waved an egg-turner at her, lips and teeth and eyes flashing gay greetings to her.

"Better tell your David how Nita's been carrying on," the midget piped from Sally's shoulder. Song fled from Sally's throat and heart. "No," she shook her head. She couldn't be a tattletale. If the orphanage had taught her nothing else it had taught her not to be a tale-bearer. Besides, to talk of Nita and her threats would make it necessary to tell David all that Nita had said, and at the thought Sally's cheeks went scarlet. It might kill his friend-ship for her to let him know that she had apparently all the carnival folk—had labeled that friendship "love." Why couldn't they let her and David alone? Why snatch up this beautiful thing, this precious friendship, and maul it about, sticking labels all over it until it was ruined?

She had placed the midget in her own little high chair at her own particular table in the privilege car and was hurrying down the car bound for the cook tent and her own breakfast when Winfield Bybee and his wife entered. Mrs. Bybee was dressed as if for a journey of importance.

Winfield Bybee boomed out a greeting to Sally, tilting his head to peer into her smiling blue eyes. "All dolled up and looking pretty enough to eat," he chuckled. "Ain't that a new dress?"

"Oh, yes, and it fits perfectly," Sally gazed. "Thanks so very much for the trunk and the dresses, Mrs. Bybee," she added, tactfully addressing the showman's wife. "I'll pay you back out of my salary as I make it—"

Why buy performance that CHRYSLER "72" has obsoleted?

Illustrous New Chrysler "72" Crown Sedan $1795

CHRYSLER "72" performance obsoletes all other performance at its price or even for $1000 more.

The first Chrysler, four years ago, put in the discard the cumbersome, bulky vehicles of its day.

Illustrous New Chrysler "72" Prices Two-passenger Coupe (with rumble seat), $1545; Royal Sedan, $1595; Sport Roadster (with rumble seat), $1595; Four-passenger Coupe, $1595; Town Sedan, $1695; Convertible Coupe (with rumble seat), $1745; Crown Sedan, $1795. All prices f. o. b. Detroit, subject to current Federal excise tax. Chrysler dealers are in position to extend the convenience of time payments.

Engineering genius and precision manufacture have gone steadily forward to greater heights. That is why the "72" today gives you performance that sets the pace for the entire industry for years to come. 7 brake horsepower. 72 miles and more per hour. Vibrationless smoothness that only a Chrysler counterweight 7-bearing crankshaft can give. Flashing acceleration in traffic. There are no hills to the "72." Longer chassis with no side-sway-spring ends mounted in rubber shock insulators give consummate ease of riding. Why pay a premium for the out-of-date performance others give? See analysis in the Chrysler "72." You will realize then how Chrysler "72"—at less money—makes a dead letter of a other performance in its field today.

DR. GREEN TO ADDRESS CLUB

University Extension Lecture Next on Woman's Club Program

Dr. Catherine Green of the University of Michigan will address the members of the Escanaba Woman's club Wednesday afternoon in the First Presbyterian church on "The Pre-School Child." Dr. Green is coming to Escanaba under the auspices of the University Extension department. She is a speaker who is able to combine a thorough technical and scientific knowledge of her subject with unusual talents as a lecturer, and what she will have to say here will be of considerable interest and importance.

The meeting will be open to the public and all who are interested are invited and urged to attend, the officers of the Woman's club emphasized yesterday.

In addition to the lecture by Dr. Green, there will be vocal music by Mrs. John A. Semer and Mrs. James Frost.

Ludwig Boasts He Is Champion Egg Eater in County

Ludwig Nelson, a member of fire station No. 1, besides being a good fire eater, now makes claim to a new distinction—the champion soft-boiled Easter egg eater of Delta county.

You probably have heard the story of the colored boy who ate a large watermelon before he took a bet that he could eat one of similar size. Well, that's a story which may be fictitious, but the tale of the great Ludwig isn't.

Ludwig made a bet yesterday with Ray Gasman, another member of the fire department, that he could eat two dozen soft-boiled eggs. It was agreed that if he could devour the 24 pieces of hen fruit that Ray would pay for them, while in the event he failed in the test, he would pay the groceryman himself.

The bet was on. The eggs were hulled. Jack Floyd, another fireman, and "Babe" Nolden of the city health office, were called in as Ludwig's seconds, their duties being to shell the eggs while the marathon egg-eater was doing his stuff. Ludwig made rapid time in consuming the first dozen, but he slowed up in making the last lap. He had to take a drink of water while swallowing each of the last three eggs. However, he disposed of the 24 dozen within six minutes, which isn't such a bad record.

Ludwig now boasts that he can eat four dozen at one sitting, but he can find no one to put up a wager. The Ace-High Egg Ranch has offered Ludwig an attractive

Easter Cantata to Be Presented by Lutheran Chorus

An Easter cantata, entitled "The Crucified," by George B. Nevin, will be rendered at the Bethany Evangelical Lutheran church this evening by a chorus of 25 voices. The message of this cantata presents the final scenes in the life and suffering of Christ and His resurrection under the following captions, "The Upper Room," "Assurance," "Benediction," "Betrayal," "Judgment," "Calvary," "Resurrection" and "Lives Again Our Glorious King."

The chorus has worked diligently during several weeks under the leadership of Mrs. V. F. Anderson in preparing this Easter message in song and music. Eddie Olson will direct the chorus this evening and Mrs. C. Albert Lund will be the accompanist.

Special music by the chorus and a quartet, also by Roy Pearson, violinist, will feature this morning's service. In connection with this service, five adults will be received into membership of the church through confirmation and a number of other adults and children by letters of dismission from other Lutheran churches. Both services during the day will be conducted in the language of the land.

Victor Moreau, a student of Marquette university, Milwaukee, is spending the Easter vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Moreau, South Ninth street.

Girard and Glazier Going to Outdoor Show in Chicago

William F. Girard, world's champion log roller of Gladstone, Mich., and George Glazier of Washburn, Wis., will put on their birling exhibitions at the Outdoor Life show in Chicago's Coliseum, May 7 to 12. This will be the third time the famous team will have appeared at the Chicago exposition.

From Chicago, Girard and Glazier will go to Cleveland, where they will perform in Public hall during the Ohio Sportsmen's show, May 17 to 23.

"Michigan avenue will be one of the biggest sights at the Outdoor Life and Motor Boat show this spring," says Milo E. Westbrook, Chicago, manager of the show. "It is now certain that the exhibits in preparation by the Michigan conservation department and others from that state will be splendid ones."

The U. P. Development bureau will have an outstanding display in cooperation with chambers of commerce and civic organizations throughout the peninsula and Algona. The bureau's literature will be supplanted by material from many cities and towns. Several organizations are planning to send representatives who will assist with the work of distribution and in answering inquiries.

To date the list of communities arranging to participate with the bureau includes Ironwood, Bessemer, Baraga, L'Anse, Ontonagon, Iron River, Republic, Ishpeming, Hancock, Houghton, Marquette, Mumsing, Newberry, Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Manistique, Escanaba, Gladstone, St. Ignace, Norway and Iron Mountain. Exposition dates are May 7-12, and the place is the Coliseum, Washburn avenue, Chicago.

Heavy Gale Breaks Up Bay de Noc Ice

Whipped by a 42-mile gale, the ice in Escanaba harbor started breaking up rapidly late yesterday while sometime Friday night the vast ice field south of the point had completely vanished from Little Bay de Noc.

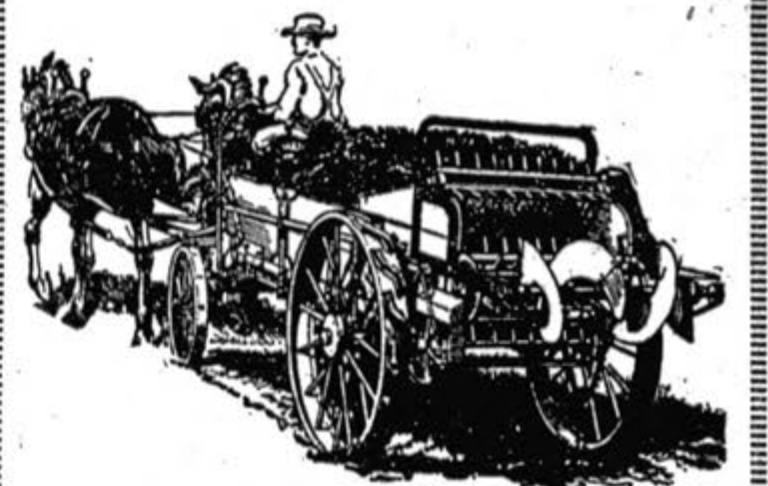

In the harbor, the ice measured all the way from 9 to 20 inches, according to U. S. weather bureau measurements taken yesterday. Open water was appearing in many places in the afternoon, however and it was expected that a good portion would be driven out into Lake Michigan by this morning. Last year, the bay was entirely cleared of ice on April 5.

French Represents Escanaba At Air Mail Conference

E. J. French, chairman of the airport committee of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, will go to Milwaukee Monday to attend a conference of representatives of Wisconsin cities with federal air-mail officials, relative to the establishment of two airplane mail routes through the state of Wisconsin. Establishment of such service, it was pointed out yesterday, would undoubtedly be of immense value to Escanaba, particularly if the government could be persuaded to extend one of the routes northward into the upper peninsula.

McCormick-Deering Spreaders

THE time and labor you save by using a McCormick-Deering spreader amounts to cash equivalent to a substantial payment. The increased crop production you can get by spreading manure evenly and thinly over more acres will lower production costs so much that you cannot afford to continue hand spreading.

The patented widespread spiral on the McCormick-Deering accounts for the exceptionally wide spread. It is never necessary to drive over freshly spread manure.

The light draft of McCormick-Deering spreaders increases their durability and makes possible spreading full-capacity loads without overloading teams. Their durability extends the purchase price over years of continuous usage.

Now is the time to spread manure and today is the day to ask us for prices.

LENN RILEY FATALLY HURT

Automobile Salesman Dies After Car Accident on U. S. 2

Lenn Riley, 30, salesman for the Mack-Chrysler company, died at Francis hospital 6 o'clock yesterday morning as the result of injuries received when the automobile in which he was driving, overturned on the concrete highway at Twenty-third street about 10 o'clock Friday night.

An X-ray examination showed that he had suffered a severe contusion of the spine and probable fracture of the neck. His death was unexpected, for after the accident he was able to walk around at first, believing that he only bruised his neck.

According to the story told by Riley after the mishap, he was driving from Schaffer with Louis on 1209 North Twenty-first street. He was driving about 35 miles an hour, he said, and in attempting to pass a car, his automobile went into the soft sand of pavement and somersaulted in the ditch. The car was only slightly damaged.

Riley's Head Struck Top.
There was evidence that Riley's head had struck the top with some great force. Caron was only taken up. The two men were taken up by Jerry Desmond and Pepin, passing motorists, and taken to the home of William as, 507 South Tenth street. Mr. Riley told Mr. Moras what had happened and asked him to get the checker and take the wrecked car to the garage, which was done.

In the meantime, a physician was called and he advised that the injured man be taken to the hospital.

Riley retained control of his arms and legs, although he complained that it was with some difficulty that he could move his head.

Funeral On Monday.
Riley came to Escanaba last week from Janesville, Wis., where he was employed with the district office of the Chevrolet Motor company. Besides his brother, Charles Riley, of Decatur, Ga., another brother, Earl W. Riley, of Winterhaven, Fla., and

Salvation Army Finance Drive to Open April 16

Preliminary steps towards the organization of a central committee to handle the details of the annual Salvation Army campaign for funds here, have been taken under the direction of Charles J. Byrns, chairman of the Army's advisory committee.

At a meeting of representatives of the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, Mr. Byrns was elected chairman; George G. Geniesse, vice chairman; M. N. Smith, treasurer, and O. I. Bandoen, secretary.

The campaign will open on April 16, when Salvation Army workers will address the service clubs for the purpose of giving the members a more intimate knowledge of the work that is being done here by the Army. Team workers will meet on April 17 for final instructions, and the "field" work will be carried on April 18-19-20, it was decided.

The last Salvation Army drive, staged here in December, 1926, resulted in raising a fund of a little over $3,100. Money has been paid out of this fund to the local Salvation Army at a rate of $175 a month, and in addition, $355 has been paid out to the national headquarters.

Members of the central committee are: C. J. Byrns, chairman; M. K. Bissell, L. A. Erickson, George G. Geniesse, G. N. Harder, M. N. Smith, August Bloomstrom, Sam Dunn, H. H. Houghitt, J. B. Moran and O. I. Bandoen.

Mr. Byrns has appointed the following committees:
To Work Out Details—O. I. Bandoen, August Bloomstrom and H. H. Houghitt.
Team Organization—C. J. Byrns and George G. Geniesse.
Publicity—J. P. Norton and H. K. Rammel.

two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Apfelbeck, New York City, and Mrs. John Atkins, Chicago.

The body was taken to the Anderson Funeral Home to be prepared for burial. Funeral services will be held at the Anderson chapel 2 o'clock Monday afternoon and burial will be in Lakeview cemetery. Rev. J. C. Evans will officiate.

Mr. Riley was considered to be one of the most efficient automobile salesmen ever to be associated with any agency in this city. His pleasing manner won for him the immediate confidence of those with whom he came in contact and was the means of building up for him a host of friends in this city and territory in a comparatively short time. His sudden death has come as a tremendous shock not only to members of his family and those with whom he was associated in business, but to all who had been privileged to know him.

CAUTION

Should Be Learned From the Misfortunes of Others

Sure! It ought to be—but isn't. You drive along and everything is all right as long as it is all right. The road narrows, the shoulders are narrow. You need at least half of the road but you don't get it. Result: A bent fender, a broken running board and maybe more—wife and kids scared half to death.

Both cars damaged and who's going to pay the repair bills? Who, indeed, unless the cars were insured!

SERVICE FOR HOME-OWNER AND BUILDER

TEXTURED WALL FINISHES FINDING INCREASED FAVOR

Textured wall finishes apparently are here to stay. When this method of interior decoration first was introduced in modern building, there were folk who insisted that the textured wall finish was no more than "jazz plastering" and that vogue for such finishes would perish with the "jazz age."

Such carping seems to have been ill-founded, for a study of modern decorating reveals that textured finishes are vastly on the increase, rather than on the decline and that the texture-range of the various mediums used for this interesting method of home-decoration also is on the increase.

The earliest of the textured wall finishes were adapted from the textures used in the various styles of "Period" architecture, and the texture medium really came in with development in this country of the "Period" architectural styles. When a family built a home adapted from the Spanish architectural style, for example, it was natural for them to seek an interior finish that would harmonize with the exterior. In such a case it was a "shaggy" textured finish that had to be chosen, for it was precisely this kind of finish that was used in Spain.

Same True of All Styles.

The same procedure held true with all the "Period" architectural styles—the Italian, the French, the English and so on. But as the texture of wall finish came into wider use, all restrictions on its use in only "Period" style homes were lost sight of, for a soon was apparent that the texture effects to be obtained were virtually endless and that properly chosen textured finishes enhance the beauty of any interior.

Now, one of the greatest virtues of the textured wall finish is the ease with which decorative effects of this kind can be achieved. Principally used for textured walls and ceilings are the plastic paints—materials that come in the form of a white powder and that require only the addition of water and mineral pigment before application. Very often the mineral pigment is left out of the original "mix," and the plastic paint is applied in its natural white color, then textured and then a glaze to which color has been added is applied. Before the glaze is dried it is wiped with a cloth. This wipes the color from the high spots in the texture but leaves it in the depressions, the decorated wall having a two-toned color effect.

How Textures Are Produced.

Textures in plastic paint are produced after the paint has been applied but while it still is "tacky," that is, before it has hardened. Almost any instrument dragged or brushed over the wall will produce a texture. It isn't even possible to brush the plastic paint on smoothly, for the brush marks will always show.

After a textured wall or ceiling produced with plastic paint has been sized or glazed, it can be washed clean with ordinary soap and water when it becomes soiled.

ALL SPACE UTILIZED IN THIS COLONIAL HOME

Designed by WAKEFIELD WORCESTER, Architect, 25 West 44th Street, New York City.

The essential prototype of this attractive residence is a box, yet the skill of the architect has been sufficient to remove any suggestion of harsh angularity. Instead the house is gracious, hospitable and virtually free of oppressive formality. Now, a house that is a box in its essential structure is a house that is inexpensive to erect and maintain, for all space is utilized.

The interior arrangement of this house should commend itself to any family requiring the amount of living-space shown. All the rooms are of good size and are lighted from at least two sides. A wide lot would be required, if both porches were erected, for each porch is eight and one-half feet wide. The porches, of course, could be omitted, but they offer so much convenience and comfort, and add so much to the graciousness of the design, that one would hesitate to build the house without them.

A feature of this house is that the design lends itself to any type of exterior finish. The roof can be of slate or shingles; the exterior walls of wood siding, stucco or brick.

ARRANGEMENTS: Three bedrooms and two baths on second floor; extra large closet off principal chamber; porch decks suitable for airing spaces. Living-room, dining-room, entrance hall, kitchen and service-entry, downstairs.

DIMENSIONS: 32 feet wide by 26 feet deep.

CLOSETS: Four upstairs, including linen locker; coatroom off entrance hall; pantry off kitchen.

CONSTRUCTION: This house adapted to any construction system. Wood frame would be the least expensive and could be fire-protected and insulated through the use of products made for that purpose.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES ON HOME PROBLEMS

Question: Should shingles be used on a roof of less than 30 degrees slope?

A roof of less than 30 degrees slope will not drain properly if roofed with shingles. This lack of draining will cause the shingles to rot.

Question: How can I remedy the too great noise that penetrates from one floor to the other in the apartment building I own?

Put a sound-deadening material, such as dry-fill gypsum, between the rough and finish flooring, or apply an insulating rock lath plaster base to furring strips nailed to the ceiling and plaster over the rock lath.

Question: Can you name for me, in a general way, the points that should be considered in building a home, and the order in which they should be considered?

Good construction should come first, then economy, then convenience and last appearance.

INDIAN ORIGIN OF HOTEL NAME GETS WRITE-UP

Something of the past history of the Ossawinimakee hotel, and the meaning of its tongue-twisting title is supplied in an interesting illustrated article which appears in the current issue of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau News. The item reads:

"For the love of Mike, what does it mean?"

"That's usually the first query uttered with awe and wonder by the tourist, as he lands at the Ossawinimakee's front door in Manistique. Big as the Ossa, a name reaches the width of the large rooms on the hotel's front. Some name, this Ossawinimakee."

"Manistique and Schoolcraft county are rich with Indian history. You meet it at every turn. The name of the city means 'the red sand beach.' Indian Lake, Kitch-iti-kipi, Hiawatha, Arrowhead Inn, Ossawinimakee, you can't go far in any direction without being reminded of some Indian."

"Queer that no one in Manistique seems to know the meaning of Ossawinimakee. One older than the other thinks it means 'the great one man.' Interesting, if true, it seems to link up the Chipewyan with the ancient Greeks, no named one of their mountains 'Ossa.'"

"We know anyway that Ossawinimakee was a great chief, one of the last to govern the Lake Michigan Indians under their old tribal forms. He lived and ruled on the shores of an Inyan lake near Manistique, and here he is buried just beside the famous golf grounds of the Inyan Lake Golf and Country Club. Around him sleep the members of his tribe. One could ever choose a lovelier spot for a final rest."

"So while there are very few Indians left, the memory of their chief is kept green in the clean, hospitable and beautifully situated Hotel Ossawinimakee, overlooking Lake Michigan and the harbor of Manistique. The Ossa was built years ago by the Chicago Lumber company and Abijah Weston, its president, of Painted Post, N. Y., an eastern lumber yard was in the town of Buffalo, N. Y., and at that time the company owned and operated three sawmills, a planing mill and a lath mill and a hardwood flooring mill at Manistique."

"The Chicago Lumber company owned the boats on which its lumber and other products were shipped to the east. About 1823 built the Manistique and Lake Superior railway from Manistique to a connection with the S. S. and A. railway at Shingleton."

"The company officials were strictly 'dry' and no bar was ever installed in the Ossawinimakee. Its builders were the owners of the townsite as well, and the hotel was built for the convenience of the owners. Its employees and guests. It has 45 rooms and capacity for 80 guests. Its immaculate cleanliness and excellent table are the subjects of frequent compliments to the proprietors, Louis Mallette and John Hayden. Another of its attractions is the pure and sparkling water from the hotel's privately owned Artesian well."

"It gives us the greatest satisfaction to greet, as we constantly do, the guests who have returned to us again and again for a quarter of a century," said Mallette. "We have earned their good-will through good service, and they are our best publicity agents. Our tourist business increases yearly, and as the fame of Kitch-iti-kipi, the big spring, Indian Lake and Schoolcraft's other attractions is spread broad, we expect this growth will continue. Even as Ossawinimakee was a great and good chief, so do we strive to maintain at a high standard of excellence this hotel named for him."

WATER RISING ON U. S. 2; MAY STOP TRAFFIC

Flood waters were reported receding at Seney yesterday, with a resultant rise in the high stage of the Manistique river, main drainage channel for more than three-fourths of Schoolcraft county. Highway M-28, flooded near the Bullock ranch, was reported clear again yesterday, and at other points a drop of about 12 inches was noted.

M-77 between Germfask and Seney was still under water, back water on the river had covered M-98, the Newberry road, in several places, and teams were making a mile haul pulling out motorists in the vicinity of Blaney and Germfask.

Flood water on US-2 just east of Manistique continued to rise at Jamestown slough, and measurements taken by the highway engineer, J. E. McCarthy, Saturday morning, showed that the water had reached a depth of 17 inches. Cars were still going through, though proceeding with extreme caution, and it was feared that traffic would be blocked completely in a short time.

Freshets were roaring down the spillways of the Manistique river at Manistique, with all flood gates open along the flume, but there was no danger anticipated from the high water.

A private industrial intake dam used by the Berry Chemical company was being watched, the floods threatening to carry it away into the lake. At Riverside Park, the water was several inches deep over the top of the intake dam. Unless large accumulations of rubbish from the swamps accumulate at the dam no trouble is expected at this point.

SHOW-DOWN IS DUE THIS WEEK IN ELKS SERIES

Only two matches were rolled last week in the Elks Bowling League, which is now starting its last week, with a hot race still on for money positions.

The Cubs were able to grab two from the leading Yanks, and the Tigers, from their position in the cellar, won two from the third place Giants in a close battle of pins, featured by a tie game. The Tigers took the first set, the second was 826-all, and the third went to the Giants, necessitating a fourth stanza, which the Benkals annexed 799 to 778. The Giants, however, were winners on totals, and the evening's entertainment was free for them.

Games postponed during the past week will probably not be rolled until next week, although the schedule comes to an official close Thursday night. The final games are sure to be the center of interest, for anything can happen, and the standings of the leaders will probably not be definitely placed until the last ball of the last game crashes down into the pits.

Games booked for this last week are as follows:

Monday, Pirates and Bear Cats; Tuesday, Papermakers and Yanks; Wednesday, Cubs and Giants; Thursday or Friday, Tigers and Lions.

Here are the standings, as the end of the week found them:

GARDEN BAY

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the barn on the Ovid Cota farm north of the village late Thursday night. About twenty tons of hay were in the building at the time. It is believed that the loss is partially covered by insurance. This is the third fire within a period of two weeks.

Lawrence Egert of Fayette was a business caller in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Jensen of Escanaba spent Easter at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rufus Spaulding of Kate's Bay.

Mrs. Rufus Spaulding is slowly improving. She has been sick during the greater part of the winter.

Mrs. Fred Olmsted of Nahma has been called here on account of the serious sickness of her aged father, Mr. John Derosa of this place. Her brothers John and Peter of Milwaukee have also been called. Mr. Derosa has been sick during the greater part of the winter.

Don Joque was a business caller in Escanaba Wednesday.

The Hennessey Transfer Co. of this place have just hauled about six hundred bushels of potatoes from Fayette to Cooks. They were the property of B. I. Mohundru of Fayette who is shipping them to Southern Illinois to be used for seed. The side roads were too bad to allow a truck to get in to the Mohundru farm. The potatoes were hauled by teams to the County road, and from there taken to the depot by truck. Even the County road is almost impassable in places, numerous cars and trucks have been stuck during the past week. A rain which continued practically the whole of Friday, has made conditions worse over the week-end.

Several friends of Mrs. John Lang surprised her on her birthday, April 5. Mrs. Lang received many nice gifts. At the conclusion of a delightful social time, a delicious luncheon was served. The party included: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thill, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Peterson and daughter, Mrs. Hazen Reach, Mrs. George Lemar, Mrs. Clevis Raymond, Mrs. Sarah Dalton and daughter Sadie, Mrs. John Chaffee, Mrs. Wilfred Chandona, Mrs. Anna Casey, Mrs. Martin Birk and daughter, Mrs. Harvey Humber and Mrs. David Thill.

DEATH CLAIMS WILLIS QUICK ON SATURDAY

Willis L. Quick, resident of Manistique for 38 years, died at 10:45 Saturday morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. Eva Burley of Manistique.

Mr. Quick was 67 years of age, born at Cooper Plains, N. Y., and his death leaves but two surviving members of the family. In addition to Mrs. Burley, with whom he made his home, Mr. Quick leaves one half-brother, Hiram Quick.

The funeral will be held Monday afternoon at the Burley home, with services at 3:30 p. m., conducted by Rev. Joseph Grossa of the First Baptist church. Burial will be in Lakeview cemetery.

CITY BRIEFS

Mrs. H. Hargreaves and daughter, Helen, will leave Manistique today to attend the Midwest Hairdressers' convention, to be held at Chicago, with headquarters at Hotel Sherman. They expect to be gone about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Malchow and son, Roy, arrived in Manistique Friday from Menasha, Wis., and will be guests over Easter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Malchow, Schoolcraft avenue.

An Easter Monday ball will be staged tomorrow night at the Gorsch hall, Manistique, under auspices of the Manistique Rod and Gun club. A large crowd is anticipated.

The Catholic Ladies' Aid will meet Wednesday at 2:30 p. m., in the St. Francis school basement, with Mrs. Leo Thomas as hostess.

Announcement has been made of a fancy work sale to be staged next Saturday at the Weber and Vaughan store by the Lady Foresters of this city. All kinds of articles will be on sale, and $1 will be the top price.

A mixture of snow, rain and fine hail was the weather man's offering at Manistique yesterday and pre-Easter weather prospects were not entirely favorable.

Guest Room for Eucken Students

Berlin (AP)—American savants who wish to study the life and work of the late Rudolf Eucken, famous German philosopher, at Jena university, the scene of his activities, will find that a guest room is ready for them at the Eucken House recently dedicated in the presence of his widow and his son.

The Eucken House purposes "to retain for posterity the spiritual heritage of Rudolf Eucken, to make it available to ensuing generations and thus to constitute a center for the study of the philosophy of Rudolf Eucken, further, in the spirit of Rudolf Eucken to advance and deepen the intellectual exchange between the cultured people of the earth."

In pursuit of its purpose the house affords to foreign savants special opportunities for study, brings German and foreign students together within its halls for mutual exchanges of views.

On the roster of the international honorary committee are the following names of American professors: Kuno Franke, Cambridge, Mass.; Julius Goebel, Urbana, Ill.; W. E. Hocking, Cambridge, Mass.; Rufus M. Jones, Haverford, Pa.; Wilbur M. Urban, Hanover, N. H.; and Dr. R. C. Schiedt, Lancaster, Pa.

Soo Tries to Get Air Mail Service

Sault Ste. Marie, April 7—Sault Ste. Marie may have the distinction of being the first upper peninsula town to be accorded United States air mail service, according to Postmaster William M. Snell, who is communicating with air-mail chiefs at Washington, D. C.

Mr. Snell has made his request that the air mail be extended to the Sault and Washington authorities have assured their careful consideration. In view of the recent performance of army planes in taking mail to Detour it is probable that the Sault's case will be considered closely.

"It may be," said Mr. Snell, "that we will get our airplane landing field none too soon."

The nearest air mail stations now are at Chicago and Detroit. The department proposes to extend the mail service to Saginaw and Grand Rapids. Mr. Snell's request points out that it would be advisable to extend the service still farther north from Saginaw to Alpena, St. Ignace, Mackinaw City and the Sault and from the Sault back to Grand Rapids.

The making of Sault Ste. Marie an air mail port would give the citizens here fast service to and from Detroit, Cleveland, New York, San Francisco and other cities on or near the air mail lanes. Many inquiries concerning air mail have been received at the office here, Mr. Snell said, and many are taking advantage of the air mail service.

Two planes every 24 hours leave and arrive at Chicago and New York, the Overnight leaving New York at 8 p. m., eastern time, and arriving at Chicago at 5:35 a. m., central time, and the Transcontinental leaving New York at 11 a. m., and arriving at Chicago at 7 p. m. The Overnight plane leaves Chicago at 8 p. m. and arrives in New York at 6:15 a. m., the following day, and the Transcontinental leaves Chicago at 8 a. m. and arrives at New York at 7 p. m.

A westbound ship leaves Chicago at 7:50 p. m. and arrives at San Francisco the following day at 4:30 p. m. Ships leave San Francisco at 7 a. m. and arrive at Chicago at 5:45 a. m. the following day.

Vessel Draft May Be Nineteen Feet

Sault Ste. Marie—With lake levels higher than in March last year, indications are that the navigation season will open here with recommended draft of 18 feet 9 inches or 19 feet. Last year the recommended draft of lake steamers April 13, the opening date, was 18 feet 9 inches. This was raised to 19 feet May 2, to 19 feet 3 inches June 1 and to 19 feet 6 inches July 25.—When the season closed the recommended draft was 19 feet.

Last month Lake Superior was .16 foot lower than in February but was .42 foot higher than in March a year ago, and .44 foot above the average stage of March for ten years.

Lakes Michigan and Huron were .15 foot higher in March than in February and .45 foot higher than the March stage of a year ago but .39 foot below the average stage of the past ten years. Lake Erie also was .38 foot higher than the March stage of a year ago. Lake Ontario last month was .36 foot higher than the March stage of a year ago.

FATHER-SON BANQUET WILL BE APRIL 13TH

April 17 has been definitely selected as the date for Manistique father-and-son banquet, a community affair sponsored by the Hi-Y club in cooperation with the boys' work committee of the Rotary club.

The event will open with a 6:30 dinner at the M. E. church recreation room, followed by an interesting program on which E. L. Pearce of Marquette is scheduled as the principal speaker. Music will be supplied by the high school band and boys' quartet, and there will be short talks by one father and one son.

The affair is to be inter-denominational, and open to all fathers and sons in the community. Any man wishing to attend, but not fortunate enough to have a son, is advised to communicate with R. H. Wilson and steps will be taken to provide an "adopted son" for the evening from the list of available boys who haven't fathers.

Tickets for the banquet will go on sale Monday.

Chamber Commerce Will Be Host to Judge H. Runnels

Herbert W. Runnels, new circuit judge, will be a guest of the Manistique Chamber of Commerce at a special meeting Monday night. Judge Runnels will arrive from the Soo to open the April term of circuit court Monday, and has been invited to speak to the chamber.

The session will open with a dinner at 6:15, and there are several matters of importance regarding the season advertising program and local development projects to be taken up at this time.

Identify Diamonds With Violet Rays

Paris (AP)—Just exactly what a diamond looks like, just exactly how it sparkles, can now be recorded by violet ray photographs, says M. Malaval, who long has sought to perfect an accurate method of identifying stones.

Violet rays, he says, bring out every gleam in the jewels and reveal the special characteristics peculiar to stones from different fields.

Under a white light it never has been possible to photograph diamonds well, says Malaval, but now they can be graded with great exactness and identified, if stolen, even if re-cut.

CITY MANAGER'S ADDRESS IN YEAR BOOK

Magazine Contains Details of Ass'n Convention

Of particular interest to Gladstone people is the fourteenth year book, "Public Management," which contains the address given by City Manager F. R. Buechner at the fourteenth annual convention of the International City Managers' association held at Dubuque, Ia., in September, a cut of Mr. Buechner, and the proceedings of the session at which he was named first vice president of the association.

The city manager's talk was on "Problems of the City Manager in a Small Town."

The address itself was re-printed in full in the magazine, followed by the comments in the discussion of the address.

The proceedings of the convention are also given in detail which include the nomination and election of Mr. Buechner.

THEATRES

RIALTO TODAY.

A cast of exceptionally high caliber is seen in support of Dorothy Mackail and Jack Mulhall in "Ladies' Night in a Turkish Bath," the new First National feature comedy coming today to the Rialto theater here.

The picture, based on the famous Charlton Andrews - Avery Hopwood stage farce, was personally supervised by Edward Small and directed by Edward Cline, well-known comedy director.

"LINDY" MONDAY.

In a new film which might be called an historical document, the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer company reviews the spectacular aeronautical career of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh. Beginning with his preparations for the New York-Paris non-stop flight and ending with his return to St. Louis after a successful termination of the good-will tour through the Central American republics and the Caribbean Islands, every detail of Lindy's flights is shown in this film, and explained by means of graphic maps and charts.

This feature picture, representing a worthwhile innovation in motion pictures is playing at the Rialto theater Monday and Tuesday. It is a faithful recording of a flying career which proves that the truth is more thrilling than fiction on celluloid as well as on the printed page.

During the past year Lindbergh has been in the air 400 hours, in itself a notable thing. During these four hundred hours he has triced traversed this continent, visiting every single state in the Union, flown across the Atlantic to Paris, guided "The Spirit of St. Louis" to Central America and the islands of the Caribbean Sea and returned to the city of St. Louis. Not only was the performance of every one of these flights meticulously done and with proper adherence to schedule, but also it was done safely. Not one accident marked the 40 days and nights which Lindbergh has spent in the air during the course of a year.

FEATURE MONDAY.

Gangsters love diamonds. Which is why Lon Chaney, in his role as the gangster czar in "The Big City," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's sensational romance of the underworld, coming Monday and Tuesday to the Rialto theater, wears a huge collection of gems—while in private life he never wears jewelry.

"Gangsters," he says, "always wear diamonds. For one thing, a diamond can be turned into cash quickly in a getaway—so perhaps the fashion is a most practical one."

HORSES

Monday, April 9th, I will have a carload of horses at the Cloverland Barn, Gladstone.

TRAINMEN'S BALL MONDAY

Brotherhood Entertains at Annual Easter Dance

The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Goodwill Lodge, No. 103, will entertain at its 35th annual Easter Ball Monday evening at Terrace Gardens.

Preparations for the ball have been in progress for several weeks and one of the most successful of the annual parties, sponsored by the Brotherhood, is indicated.

The sale of tickets has been unusually large and the attendance will include not only large crowds from Escanaba, Gladstone and neighboring places, but guests from other parts of the division as well.

The Wolverines orchestra will play for the ball. There will be a number of special features.

The committee in charge is: Archie Cowen, chairman; Wesley G. Ward and Leslie Davis.

The Easter ball, the big dance after the Lenten season, is one of the big affairs of the year and the members of the Trainmen's lodge are overlooking no detail toward making it a success.

The dance is open to the public and everyone is cordially invited to attend.

JOHN MURDOCK CALLED AWAY BY MOTHER'S DEATH

Funeral Held Friday At Iowa Home

John Murdock is expected to return to Gladstone the first part of the week from Decorah, Ia., where he was called by the death of his mother, Mrs. Ada Murdock.

Mrs. Murdock passed away on Wednesday following an attack of influenza. Up to three weeks ago, she was in the best of health and her sudden death came as a severe shock to the members of the family.

Mr. Murdock left here Wednesday night, immediately upon receiving word of her death, to remain until after the funeral services, which were to be held on Friday.

Mrs. Murdock's husband preceded her in death by a number of years. Surviving her are four sons and two daughters.

Mrs. John Murdock was unable to accompany her husband because of a severe cold from which she has been suffering for the past several days.

Joe Poulin Now Holding Four Positions

Joseph Poulin, who received a majority of votes for the office of constable in the spring election, is now a man of four positions and four titles.

Mr. Poulin is a deputy fire warden, the Gladstone city sexton, a deputy sheriff and is now constable. In addition to these he often serves as an assistant on the police force. The new constable qualified for office Friday.

GIVE EASTER BALL AT RIALTO MONDAY NIGHT

Specials Decorations Will Be Used for Party

The Rialto ball room will be the scene of a pretty dancing party Monday evening when an Easter Monday ball, which the public is invited to attend, will be given there.

Attractive decorations in keeping with the spring season will be used, with gay colored ceiling drapes and banners, combined with novel lighting effects.

The Deep Water Five orchestra will play for the dance. The orchestra, following the Easter Ball, will open its regular season of dances at Brampton, Alton and other places, and is now engaged for a dance at Brampton, April 14.

Henning Bjork returned tonight to Crawfordsville, Ind., where he attends Wabash college, after spending the Easter holidays at his home here.

COMMUNICATIONS

Gladstone, Michigan. Parent-Teacher Association: Replying to your communication with reference to the members of the Order of Railway Conductors of Gladstone supporting the children's community playground.

This matter was taken up at regular meeting, March 25. After giving the matter careful consideration the members of the above named organization believe this playground should be built, and maintained by the City. Expenses to be taken care of by the City Budget and supervised by a joint committee appointed by the City Commission and the Public School Board. A competent attendant should be hired and paid by the City rather than by the P. T. association. They have given one example of their handling of children's recreation, namely, the skating park of the past winter, which proved a complete failure. Children should not be charged for the recreation which the parents should provide. By all means, let the playground be provided, and provided in the proper location. One of the main highways through our city is a very dangerous place to put children to play.

The members of Gladstone division, Order of Railway Conductors, are taxpayers and expect to pay their portion. (Signed) H. H. ALBIN, WILLIAM FOSTER, J. S. SWORD, Committee.

Miss Betty Mather, instructor in the Gladstone schools, is spending the Easter holidays as the guest of friends in Calumet.

37th Triennial Conclave
Will Draw Many
to Detroit

Detroit, April 7.—The 37th Triennial Conclave, which will be held in Detroit, July 15 to 19, will be the greatest assemblage of American Knights Templar ever held. This is borne out by reservation requests received at convalescent headquarters.

Practically seventy per cent of the Knights Templar population of the United States is within a day's ride of this city which means an influx of visitors that could not be expected at any recent convalesces.

Knights Templar, who also are railroad men, are working on a plan to have the road waive the validation of tickets, and if they are successful in their efforts...

Competitive and exhibition drills will be held on Belle Isle on new-made ground drained by filling in the Detroit river at the western end of the island.

Specialty decorated automobiles and chauffeurs will be supplied the officers of the grand encampment and grand commandery.

At the Strand: "Shootin' Irons," a galloping western melodrama, starring Jack Liden.

Paramount has assembled one of the most amazingly amusing bunch of human oddities in one film that local theatre audiences have seen in many a day.

W. C. Fields and Chester Conklin, the latter celebrated because he made the walrus mustache famous, have been made a comedy team, and their talents will be exhibited when "Two Flaming Youths" is screened.

"Two Flaming Youths" has been most appropriately named. The plot deals with the romantic and business adventure of Fields, as the owner of a defunct circus, and Conklin, who plays the sheriff of a small town.

Two of the most interesting features of every large convention will have been eliminated for the first time in history.

Competition and exhibition drills will be held on Belle Isle on new-made ground drained by filling in the Detroit river at the western end of the island.

Opening Game of Major League Season Tuesday

RED SOX MEET WASHINGTON

Entire, 16 Teams Clash Wednesday; Yanks Are Sure Winners

BY ALAN J. GOULD (Associated Press Sports Editor) New York, April 7.—(AP)—The Red Sox and Washington Nationals are the only two teams that have not yet played in the opening game of the major league season on Tuesday.

Another major league baseball campaign, with all its echoing tumult and roar, is at hand—the twenty-ninth season for the American League and the fifty-third for the National.

The skirmish of a solitary opening day game Tuesday at the national capital between the Washington and Boston Americans develops into a free-for-all on Wednesday when the entire battery of sixteen teams jumps into the fray.

Hope may be universal as they all face the barrier on even terms but if confidence is placed in the composite dope sheets, compiled by the Associated Press from the opinions of some fifty major league experts, the New York Yankees and Pittsburgh Pirates will meet next fall in the world's series for the second successive year.

The world's champion Yankees, picked to repeat by 42 writers, are the nearest thing to a unanimous choice and club has been in years. They dominate the American League field, where only the Athletics and Washington Senators have any other first place support.

Yanks Poor This Spring. The Pirates, favored to win again by 32 critics, also enjoy a substantial margin in the dope but the St. Louis Cardinals are the choice of 12 while the Chicago Cubs and New York Giants have enough support to indicate the belief that it will be at least a four-cornered affair in the National League.

Spring training performances have influenced many of the expert selections but the comparatively poor showing of the Yankees has done little to shake the general confidence that they will make it three pennants in a row. The way the world's champions have begun to hit in their last few games, although at the expense of minor league pitching, indicates that the reports of their decline were a bit exaggerated, if not premature.

The only spot in the National League race about which there appears no dispute is last place. The experts concede this to the Philadelphia Athletics. But in the American League the Browns and Red Sox, on the dopes, are neck and neck for this doubtful distinction.

Here's how the consensus of experts figures the outcome of the two pennant races:

National	American
Pittsburgh	New York
St. Louis	Philadelphia
Chicago	Washington
New York	Detroit
Boston	Chicago
Cincinnati	Cleveland
Brooklyn	St. Louis
Philadelphia	Boston

Braves Wallop Toledo, 12 to 3

Toledo, O., Apr. 7.—(AP)—The Boston Braves hit both Huntzinger and Ryan hard here today, and the National Leaguers pounded out a 12 to 3 victory over the Toledo American Association champions in the first of a two-game series.

The Braves bunched hits in the first, third and seventh for all their runs. R. Smith and Genewich held the minor leaguers to nine hits.

The Score: R. H. E. Boston (N) 304 000 50113 17 3 Toledo (AA) 200 000 100—3 9 2 R. Smith, Genewich and Taylor, Urban; Huntzinger, Ryan and O'Neil.

Chicago Tennis Star Wins Title in N. C. Meet

Asheville, N. C., Apr. 7.—(AP)—George M. Lott, the Chicago star, annexed the singles title in the Western North Carolina tennis tournament today by winning over Francis X. Shield, New York, the national junior champion, in four sets.

After Lott had him three-love in the first set, the New Yorker staged a brilliant rally to win the set, 6-4. The junior champion, however, was not able to maintain his lead, Lott forging ahead by invincible net play to win the next three sets straight, 6-3, 6-4 and 6-2.

Kansas City Team Loses to Chicago

Kansas City, Mo., Apr. 7.—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs, who recently won five exhibition games from the Pittsburgh Pirates in the west, trounced the Kansas City team of the American Association 9 to 4 today. Led by Kiki Cuyler, who hit safely three times, the Cubs pounded two pitchers for 12 hits.

Senators Defeat New York Giants

Washington, April 7.—(AP)—Given some good pitching for a change, the Washington Senators romped through to an easy 6 to 1 victory over the New York Giants today. The Senators' triumph ended a 13-game winning streak piled up by McGraw's aggregation and avenged in part, at least, the six straight defeats Washington had suffered at the hands of the Giants.

The score: R. H. E. New York (N) 000 001 000—1 2 1 Washington... 010 410 009—6 11 2 Benton, Barnes, Fitzsimmons and Hogan; Marberry and Tate.

SPREADING THE GAME
Prexy Barnard has some new rules for the American League, designed to speed up the play. Here are some suggestions he will not want to consider:

1—TEAMS PLAYING THE RED SOX SHOULD HAVE JUST ONE TIME AT BAT. THIS IS KNOWN AS THE EQUALIZATION PROCESS AND BESIDES SPEEDING THINGS UP WOULD GIVE BOSTON FANS THE FIRST GOOD TIME THEY'VE HAD IN YEARS.

2—When Babe Ruth comes to bat with the bases burdened, call all the runners off base and register four runs for Mr. Huggins' ball club. This will not only speed up games but prove also a great saving in baseballs.

3—Bar all baseball players who have reached the age of 90 years, except in the case of the Philadelphia Athletics. Mr. Mack shall be allowed five players past the century mark because he likes to have somebody around who remembers when the Athletics won a pennant.

4—Abolish the post of catcher, line up the batsmen in Indian file and give the pitcher a crate of balls at the start of each inning. Let him throw these balls in rapid order, each batsman to step up and take one poke at what we sport writers call the apple. If he misses, woe be to him; if he hits, woe be to the side in the field.

5—No more umpires. The players lose too much time with profane language when those chaps are around.

STORM FAILS TO STOP RACE

Marathon Runners Reach McClean, Tex.; Several Drop Out

McLean, Tex., April 7.—(AP)—Battling sleet and snow all the way, the parade of athletes in the cross-country foot race were led over a 38.8-mile lap from Groom to McLean today by Phillip Granville, Hamilton, Ont. The Canadian, who negotiated the storm-swept course in 5:29:48, ranks fifth in the long trail from Los Angeles, with elapsed time of 239:44:09.

The rigors of the blizzard forced three contestants out of the running and caused some to lag far behind. Among those who were unable to finish before nightfall were Arne Suominen, the Detroit Finn, who leads the field in elapsed time, John Salo, Paslaci, N. J., and Olli Wanttinen, New York, both of whom are in the first ten leaders, finished in a dead heat for second place in 6:37.

Others who finished in order were Pat DeMarr, Los Angeles; Fred Kamler, Miami, Fla.; John Stone, Marion, Ind.; Mike Joyce, Cleveland, and Andrew Payne, Claremore, Okla.

The runners and walkers in the race were quartered in hotels to-night after the caravan of trucks carrying tents and bedding became mired down on the road from Groom.

The field of contestants was reduced to 85 by the dropping out of Billy Busch, Boston; James White, Duluth, and Frank Shavez, Pasadena, Cal.

Voight Hotstatter of Manistec, Mich., who ranked fifth in the race until Wednesday despite a badly infected foot, withdrew from the race today.

"I wish I could carry on, but my feet won't make the grade," he said.

Illinois Track Team Beats U. of S. California

Los Angeles, Apr. 7.—(AP)—Illinois triumphed over Southern California by the narrow margin of two points in a track and field meet here today, that was not decided until the final event on the program.

The score was: Illinois 64; Southern California 62.

Browns Defeat Cardinals, 7 to 1

St. Louis, Mo., Apr. 7.—(AP)—In the face of a driving snow and cold weather, the St. Louis Browns nipped the Cardinals for a dozen hits and took a 7 to 1 victory in the first of the two-game city series here today.

The Score: R. H. E. St. Louis (A) 000 100 000—1 6 2 Philadelphia (N) 000 100 000—1 6 2 Philadelphia (A) 000 202 20x—6 9 0 Ferguson, Baecht, Sweetland and Wilson; Baecht, Sweetland and Wilson; Schulte; Grove, Romal and Cochrane.

Lefty Grova pitched five innings and rolled up nine strike outs. The game was called because of rain as the sixth inning opened.

GENE TUNNEY IS A GODFATHER

Besides taking care of himself in the ring, Gene Tunney, world's heavyweight champion, has another responsibility now—the spiritual welfare of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mahoney of Dayton, O. Gene became the child's godfather the other day at Miami Beach, Fla. Mahoney is general business manager of the Cox League of Newspapers.

RAMBLERS WIN TWO CONTESTS

Negaunee, Mich., April 7.—(Special)—The Escanaba Ramblers walked away with victories over two Negaunee basketball teams here today, defeating the Negaunee "X" cagers 41 to 14 in an afternoon contest, and the Aces, 23 to 13, tonight.

The Ramblers displayed good teamwork in both games, and counted heavily on the short passing offense. Lough, O'Brien, Hennessy and Demars played sensational ball.

The afternoon game was played at the Negaunee high school gym while the evening contest was staged at the Y. M. C. A.

Athletics Capture City Championship

Philadelphia, April 7.—(AP)—The Athletics captured the city baseball championship for the third straight year by defeating the Phillies today, 6 to 1. The victory gave the Americans four victories in five games. A sixth contest will conclude the series on Monday.

Lefty Grova pitched five innings and rolled up nine strike outs. The game was called because of rain as the sixth inning opened.

The Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia (N) 000 100 000—1 6 2 Philadelphia (A) 000 202 20x—6 9 0 Ferguson, Baecht, Sweetland and Wilson; Baecht, Sweetland and Wilson; Schulte; Grove, Romal and Cochrane.

"Cowboy" Weston Defeats Copulos in Billiard Meet

Chicago, Apr. 7.—(AP)—After losing four straight matches, the veteran Charles "Cowboy" Weston of Pittsburgh came back today to upset Gus Copulos of Detroit, 50 to 45, in the national three cushion billiard tournament. The match was hard fought and went 71 innings.

The defeat dropped Copulos from a tie for third place to fifth. Weston has been eliminated from championship consideration.

Allen Hall of St. Louis took undisputed possession of third place when he easily defeated Art Thurnblad of Chicago, 50 to 30, in 59 innings.

Willie Hoppe of New York and John Layton of St. Louis were still in the lead of the field competing for the championship with three victories and no losses. Otto Reisel was in fourth place with two wins and one defeat.

Yankees Lose to Brooklyn Robins

New York, April 7.—(AP)—No longer pitted against Class B opposition, the New York Yankees resumed their losing ways today, bowing to the Brooklyn Dodgers in an exhibition game in the Yankee stadium, 12 to 5. A crowd of 20,000 saw the game.

Jess Petty mowed down the Yankees as fast as they came to the plate during his five innings on the mound.

Watson Clark was reached for seven hits and all of the Yankees runs in the last four innings. A triple by Ruth in the eighth featuring a four-run by the champions.

The Score: R. H. E. Brooklyn... 115 100 103—12 16 2 New York A 000 000 140—5 8 3 Petty, Clark and Hargreaves; Hoyt, Pipgras, Shealey and Grabowski.

SEVERE STORM HITS ESCANABA

Traffic Impeded and Wire Communications Are Cut Off

One of the worst April blizzards in years struck Escanaba and vicinity yesterday afternoon and continued throughout the night until early this morning, covering the ground with a mantle of snow about four inches in depth.

A fierce gale, averaging from 40 to 45 miles per hour, caused serious drifting of snow on the highways, slowing up vehicular traffic. A window in the Federal Bakery shop was smashed by the force of the wind last night.

Milady, who had been making ardent preparations for participation in the annual Easter procession down the avenues, put away her new bonnets and colorful raiment with disgust, deciding to await a fairer day.

A light drizzle of rain and sleet Friday night covered the sidewalks and streets with a slippery film by morning. Many pedestrians took spills and a number of automobiles swerved in unexpected directions. A car, driven by Girard Depuydt, rammed into a lamp-post in front of the Herro Electric shop yesterday morning, smashing the light globe.

The situation was relieved about 3 o'clock in the afternoon when snow commenced to fall. The wind, however, grew in intensity and sent snowflakes swirling in the air to the discomfiture of pedestrians who braved the storm.

Luckily, there were no fires during the day and night for it would have been a hard task for the firemen to control a blaze if it had gotten a fair start. The city power lines went dead for about five minutes between 9 and 10 o'clock last night, due to some difficulty arising at the power dam station.

Street cars were running from 15 to 20 minutes behind schedule last night on account of the snow-storm.

Much damage was done to wires of the Michigan Bell Telephone company. Virtually all lines of communication from Escanaba to surrounding points were cut off, the telephone company reported late last night.

"What The Affiliated Convention Means to You"

On April 16th, the buyers of 196 of America's leading stores will meet in New York City, to combine their purchases for Summer and early Fall merchandise. We quote from a letter just received from our New York office:

"That our system of group purchases will save from 10 to 20% on clothing and furnishing goods, has been proven time and time again by the tremendous increase in volume of purchases at these conventions. Never before in our history has our organization lined up so many unusual propositions."

The above quotation is self explanatory. Every day Fair Store customers are benefiting by these savings. March was the first month in which we were able to offer our patrons the full benefits of this great buying combination. The result was an 18% increase in our business.

The success of this combination of stores is greatly due to the fact that only Standard Nationally known lines of merchandise are handled. At no time is quality sacrificed for price. More than ever you can look to the FAIR STORE for Quality, Style and Low Prices.
