SENATE PLANS TO ELIMINATE SURPLUS CURB

HOUSE PROVISION NOT EASILY ENFORCED

BY DAVID LAWRENCE. Copyright 1928, by the Escanaba Press. Washington, April 16.—The senate finance committee will eliminate from the tax bill that provision inserted by the house which attempts to fix definitely the amount of income that a corporation must distribute annually out of its surplus.

Real Estate Affected.

Under these circumstances corporations are willing to go back to the present provisions of the law which they regard as more or less ineffective. For, they say, who is to determine in a particular business what is a safe or unsafe accumulation of surplus and what the hazards of the future are likely to be.

Bound by Contracts.

Many realty corporations are bound by their agreements with first mortgage bondholders to retain as big a surplus as possible and some are even restricted as to the paying of any common stock dividends until the mortgages remain unpaid.

EVIDENCE IS NOT ALLOWED

Expect Sinclair Attorneys to Rearrange Their Defense Action

Washington, Apr. 16.—(P)—Readjustment of the defense of Harry F. Sinclair in his trial on conspiracy charges was presaged today by the ruling of Justice Jennings Bailey excluding evidence relative to the threat of drainage of Teapot Dome by wells in the Salt Creek field prior to the lease of the reserve by Albert B. Fall, former interior secretary.

George P. Hoover, counsel for Sinclair, characterized such testimony as of essential continuity for the defense, but Owen J. Roberts, special government oil prosecutor, objected on the grounds it bore no relation to the charge against the oil operator, and therefore was not admissible. He was sustained by the court.

As the defense began today the first presentation of Sinclair's case, the two sides won and lost points when Justice Bailey permitted testimony to show a payment of $25,000 in Liberty bonds to Fall in 1923 and refused to permit testimony concerning the leasing of the Elk Hills reserve by the former cabinet officer to R. A. Doherty.

The trial was interrupted at one point by the court, who announced that he had been informed a newspaper had or intended to publish the deposition of Fall, taken two weeks ago in El Paso at the instance of the defense. Justice Bailey announced that publication of the deposition before it was introduced in evidence, in his opinion would constitute contempt of court and would be punished accordingly.

The question was brought to the attention of the court by the prosecution, following the publication by the Washington Herald today of quotations purporting to be part of the deposition. This matter was discussed again between Justice Bailey and counsel for both sides at the close of court. It was learned later that Justice Bailey was undecided whether he would take any action. The jury, being locked up, did not see the publication.

Arthur W. Ambrose, manager of production for the Empire Oil and Gas company of Oklahoma and a former government geologist, testified for the defense that he drew up the Teapot Dome lease in conjunction with J. W. Zevely and A. E. Watts, representing Sinclair. Fall, he said, gave him instructions as to the general outline of the special provisions of the lease, while its routine clauses conformed to the departmental form.

Ambrose drew up the lease for about three hours and his responses repeatedly precipitated clashes between counsel over the admissibility of testimony regarding drainage, which the court had excluded. Defense insistence, however, succeeded in getting some of this testimony before the jury. This revealed that Ambrose had drawn up a report at Fall's request, saying that there was drainage danger at Teapot Dome "ultimately." He testified that he commended that report to be put down.

Ambrose said Fall called him to his office on February 18, 1922, where he was introduced to Zevely and Sinclair. He had first learned of the proposed lease to Sinclair February 8, and at the second meeting he was given an outline of the proposal the oil man had submitted. It then required him two weeks to complete drawing up the lease.

On cross-examination, Roberts swung into a rapid questioning of Ambrose in which he brought out that although the witness had drawn up the Teapot lease he had never so handled any other lease, that work being left to the general land office.

Greenly Island, with fuel, by plane. If it should prove impossible to repair the Bremen on Greenly Island, Miss Junkers said she would take the crew back to New York in the F-13.

LEAVES TODAY. Clarke City, Que., Apr. 16.—(Canadian Press)—Col. James Fitzmaurice, one of the heroes of the Bremen's trans-Atlantic flight will leave Natasquan, Que., where he is spending the night, at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning on the second stage of his journey from Greenly Island to civilization, and is expected to land at Murray Bay, Que., three hours later.

Montreal, Que., Apr. 16.—(P)—The Junkers monoplane F-13, sister ship of the trans-Atlantic monoplane Bremen, landed at St. Hubert airport today after a flight of a little less than three hours from Curtis Field, N. Y.

Miss Herta Junkers, daughter of the builder of the Bremen, explained the purpose of the flight was to study "more closely the Bremen situation." She said there was little possibility of flying the ship to Greenly Island, where the Bremen landed Friday after its hop from Ireland.

The length of her stay in Montreal, Miss Junkers said, will depend entirely on the news that comes from the Bremen's crew.

Miss Junkers, who alternated at the controls with pilot, Fred Melchior, during the flight from Curtis field, also was accompanied by her brother, Erhardt Junkers.

Senator Caraway Attacks Lobbyists

Washington, Apr. 16.—(P)—Lobbyists drew fire from the senate today as Senator Haraway, Democrat, Arkansas, proposed an inquiry of the financing and activities of various associations and special organizations about Washington.

Senator King, Democrat, of Utah, joined in the attack with an assault upon those who would influence congress in behalf of special legislation and both senators charged certain organization leaders with sending out "lies."

The Arkansas senator was particularly put out at what he termed a lobby from every state in the Union which was seeking to mislead the senate in regard to his pending bill for regulation of cotton futures trading. His resolution would have a senate committee investigate all lobbying activities, however, and he said there were 350 or 400 special associations in Washington.

Senator King mentioned a Mr. Noble of Chicago whom he charged with circulating "lies" about the position of senators on a bill for development of agriculture extension work.

DEATH CLAIMS E. M. STATLER

Worked Up From Bellhop to Owner of Chain of Hostelties

New York, Apr. 16.—(P)—Ellsworth Milton Statler, who built from meager wages and the tips of a bellboy the hotel chain bearing his name, died today after a two weeks' illness of pneumonia.

His death, at the age of 64 in the Hotel Pennsylvania, the largest of a string of his hostelties in Buffalo, St. Louis, Cleveland, Detroit, Boston and New York, terminated another romance of the rise of a poor boy to millionaire.

He was born in Somerset county, Pennsylvania, in 1863, and as a boy of nine he went to work as a stoker in the "Glory Hole" of a glass factory in Wheeling, W. Va., where he earned 50 cents a day.

His next job as a six dollars a month bellboy in the McClure House in Wheeling, gave him his first hotel experience, out of which he built temporary structures at the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo in 1901 and at the St. Louis exposition in 1904, and later the Buffalo Statler, his first venture in the permanent hotel business.

Was Married Twice. Mr. Statler was a chevalier of the Legion of Honor and a 33rd degree Mason.

He was married twice. His first wife was Mary L. Manderbach of Akron, Ohio, who died in October, 1925. Last spring he married Alice M. Seidler, who had been his secretary for 11 years. She is 35.

At his bedside when he died were his wife and his son, Milton H. Statler. He is also survived by a daughter, Elva, another son who bore his name, three brothers and a sister. The brothers and his sister live in Buffalo.

Private funeral services will take place Wednesday at the Hotel Pennsylvania. Burial will be in Mount Kensico cemetery.

SEEKS SPEEDY ACTION ON BILL

Chairman Wants Special Legislation on Farm Relief Measure

Washington, Apr. 16.—(P)—A move was initiated in the house today by Chairman Haugen of the agriculture committee to obtain privileged legislative status for the McNary-Haugen farm bill with the introduction of a resolution requesting that the measure be called up at the earliest possible date.

The resolution asked that the bill be considered under an agreement to set aside 16 hours for discussion of its provisions—one of the longest periods requested for debate on a measure in recent years. The Mississippi flood control bill, which will be taken up tomorrow will be debated for only twelve hours.

Speaker Longworth referred the resolution to the rules committee which last week tentatively decided to give the farm bill the legislative right of way shortly after disposition of the flood measure. This is expected to bring the farm proposal before the house some time next week.

Haugen said in the resolution that the agriculture committee specifically desired the house to consider the Haugen measure, which it drafted, in preference to the McNary bill recently passed by the senate.

The two bills were practically alike as reported by the respective house and senate agriculture committees but the senate adopted several amendments to the McNary bill applying to cotton, thus creating a difference between the two measures.

Meanwhile two Republican members of the house agriculture committee, Representative Fort of New Jersey, and Pratt, of New York, filed a minority report protesting against enactment of the Haugen bill, predicting that it would receive a presidential veto because of its equalization fee provisions.

Stenographer, Two Brothers Plead Not Guilty

St. Joseph, Mich., April 16.—(P)—Marguerite Bumbaugh, jointly charged with two brothers George and Girard, with the murder of Walter H. Cook, Niles manufacturer, two weeks ago, stood mute when arraigned before Circuit Judge Charles E. White, today. Pleas of not guilty were entered, and the trio was returned to the county jail to await trial next month.

The state charges that Miss Bumbaugh walked into the office of her former employer and shot him down, while her brothers menaced other employees. Miss Bumbaugh claimed cook mistreated her and owed her more than $3,000 back salary. Her attorneys intend to ask examination by alienists. Her defense will be based on a plea of temporary insanity.

POLAR AIRSHIP BEING REPAIRED

Italian Dirigible Italia Weathers Severe Storm

Stolz, Germany, Apr. 16.—(P)—Gen. Umberto Nobile, who brought his dirigible Italia through heavy weather from Milan to the Sedin airbase in a perilous thirty-hour flight, sprang the first surprise of his brief stay at Stolz by quietly stealing away from the hotel to the airbase this morning when everybody was supposed he was sleeping. Meeting the Italian mechanics who preceded him a fortnight ago, he instructed them to repair the damage to the left stabilizer, which was slightly disabled, and also to overhaul the engines.

Returning to his hotel, he rested for a few hours and emerged in buoyant mood, now that the first actual stop on his Antarctic expedition has been taken.

"Yesterday's perilous flight," he said, "showed that the Italia is equal to any occasion. At times a head wind blew at 90 kilometres an hour, and as the Italia only makes 100 kilometres an hour, we could negotiate only ten kilometres hourly for part of our journey. No wonder it took 30 1/2 hours instead of 20. It was then that my crew showed the stuff they are made of; they never flinched. I am proud of them."

Whether trial flights of the dirigible will be undertaken from Stolz, he added, remains to be seen.

General Nobile knows the Sedin hangar quite well, for he was a member of the Entente commission which inspected all the German hangars after the war. He also was instrumental in dismantling the big Stolz airframe, little dreaming that the time would come when he would need for the accommodation of his airship the smaller hangar, which was left standing, as it was regarded as unimportant.

Officials of Coal Companies Testify; Mines Lost Money

Washington, Apr. 16.—(P)—Under demand of the senate coal committee for production and sales figures, West Virginia operators testified today that their mines from 1923 through the first five months of 1927 had lost money at the rate of $40,000 yearly.

The testimony came from James D. and D. W. Boons, who gave the figures after the committee in executive session decided over the protest of southern West Virginia non-union operators that the data was essential to the inquiry it is making into the bituminous fields.

Among the questions asked by the committee of the operators were:

Wages paid various classes of labor; total tonnage produced, with cost of production and sales realization; amount sold and delivered to railroads; a sample of standard employment contracts and a sample of house leases were demanded by the committee.

Coal mined at a cost of $1,546,609.26 brought a sales realization of $1,320,072.61, the committee was told by the witnesses.

J. D. Bradley, president of the Elk River Coal and Lumber company of West Virginia, said that the West Virginia's coal industry had expanded and prospered with the elimination of the United Mine Workers as an industrial factor in that state.

Whether the office had been broken into cannot be determined last night. Fire Chief Arvid Johnson stated that the office door, though closed, was unlocked upon their arrival. The convention, attended by delegations from all of eight counties in the district, was in perfect harmony on every issue all elections and endorsement being by acclamation.

Franklin P. T. A.—The Franklin P. T. A. will meet on Wednesday, April 18, at 4 o'clock. Since this will be the last business meeting of the year, the officers request a large attendance of parents. Miss O'Connor will be the principal speaker of the afternoon. The various grades will report in the way in which each spent the attendance dollar during the year. Coffee and cake will be served at the close of the meeting, so it is asked that those attending bring a cup and spoon.

Frank Kraus III—Frank Kraus, former well-known Escanaban, who for several years has been superintendent of the Menominee Herald-Leader print shop, is seriously ill with pneumonia in a Milwaukee hospital. It has been learned here. His chances for recovery were said to be uncertain. Mr. Kraus was formerly foreman in the Escanaba Press plant, and at one time was one of the publishers of the Gladstone Reporter.

Jefferson P. T. A.—The Jefferson Parent-Teacher association will meet at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Prof. Ulrich Zachaty, violinist director of the Delft theatre, will play a violin solo, and Mrs. S. W. Brennan will give a talk. Those attending are asked to bring cup and spoon.

NICOTINE IS KING.

Washington—The average American consumed 734 cigars, 62 cigars, three pounds of chewing and smoking tobacco and one-third of a pound of snuff last year. Government reports show that $8 billion cigars, nearly seven and a half billion cigars and more than 350 million pounds of chewing and smoking tobacco were consumed in 1927.

Salvation Army's Work Here Reviewed by High Official

Among the sixty-five youngsters who attended the Salvation Army Sunday school in Escanaba Sunday was a rugged and sturdy but grimy and tattered boy, six or seven years old, who was a stranger of the Salvation Army workers. One of the young women spied the little fellow and greeted him:

"Hello, sonny. We're mighty glad to have you with us today."

Then, with her handkerchief, she wiped his face and his nose—a most necessary operation—and implanted a kiss upon his lips. The boy's eyes filled with tears.

"Gosh, lady," he said. "Are you really that glad to see me? Do you really care that much?" Right at that moment, said Staff Captain Harold Madison of Chicago, in describing the incident to an audience here yesterday, "that youngster's spirit of rebellion which had been fostered and neglected by the hard knocks he had been receiving, was broken down. He had found somebody who cared enough about him to tell him so. That greeting, and that kiss may be the biggest single thing in that youngster's life."

Captain Madison, in addresses before the Escanaba Kiwanis and Rotary clubs yesterday, reviewed some of the Army's work in this community, and told many stories he had collected from the reports the local staff have sent to his office.

Practical Charity. "Just this morning," said he, "while the Army staff was preparing for breakfast, a call came in for help. The captain responded. She found a home in which the father and mother were both sick in bed; a half-dozen small children were hungry with no food in the house; the stock of fuel was about gone. Captain Strand made the sick folks as comfortable as possible, preparing breakfast for the family, and got the little ones ready for school, cleaned the house and did the other work necessary and then came back to the Salvation Army barracks for her own morning meal. That was not an unusual thing for her," Captain Madison declared. "It was just a part of the day's work. In fact, her lieutenant responded to a similar call a few minutes later."

"These are things the Salvation Army is doing in Escanaba, every day in the year. The local corps rendered assistance of some sort in 925 homes of your city last year. A total of 1547 garments were given away to needy persons, and 326 pairs of shoes in the twelve months. Groceries and provisions valued at $1300 were distributed in addition to the 183 Christmas baskets distributed during the holidays. More than 300 children, in addition to the baskets, were given toys, stockings, mittens and other Christmas gifts.

Needs Human Touch. "Your city welfare department may be functioning ever so efficiently, but there are many things that financial aid will not do. Orders on the city treasury will not sew buttons on clothing, or cook meals, or make beds, or scrub floors, or do any of the other thousand and one things the Salvation Army workers are doing every day."

"You already have been told that during the last year, six unfortunate girls who were about to become illegitimate mothers were taken to the Salvation Army Rescue homes. But did you know that in addition to these, three others have been cared for through the critical period, solely by and at the expense of the Army? There are so many things we can not tell you about. It wouldn't be fair to those whom the Army has helped. But anyone who is skeptical about the Army's efficiency here can get all the information needed to convince him, by calling at headquarters and going over just one day's routine."

The Salvation Army is proud of the support that Escanaba has given its work in the past, Captain Madison declared. The advisory committee is made up of busy, business men and men of this type have taken active parts in the fund-raising campaigns. "The Army is trying constantly to measure up to this faith and confidence."

"And I am sure your reward comes in knowing that you have been able to help in the great work of the Salvation Army." While the Army's work is of a charitable nature, its activities in other fields are of importance, Captain Madison pointed out. The children, nearly 100 in number, who are enrolled in its Sunday school, are receiving religious training from no other source. Then he told of a young man, dependent and down-and-out, who asked the Army for help. He found it, of course, and by the aid of a Salvation Army officer he enlisted in the U. S. Navy. He returned to Escanaba on leave recently, for the purpose of telling the officer who had helped him, how deeply he appreciated

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE DELFT. "The masterpiece of the motion picture maker's art. An epic of the life of a common man that combines the delicacy of a Rembrandt, the sweep of a Velasquez, the power of a Wagner and the dramatic touch of a Victor Hugo."

These are the words spoken in praise of "The Way of All Flesh" the picture now at the Delft which is among the ten greatest pictures ever made.

Critics have declared that the thing most impressive about "The Way of All Flesh" is its humanness, its dramatic simplicity and the vividness of its central character as played by the man who made "The Last Laugh" and "Variety" what they were. Jannings himself considers it the finest effort of his life.

Support worthy of his talents her aid, and how well he was doing as an enlisted man in Uncle Sam's "first arm of defense." Men who are going out on the firing-line Wednesday to raise funds for the support of the local post for another year, were named yesterday as follows: W. J. Clark, A. H. Groesbeck, C. R. Henderson, C. W. Bissell, Guy Sullivan, Robert Selkirk, Ed Erickson, Matt Petersen, M. J. Lang, Charles Gessner, Harold Lindsay, L. G. Sawdy, Waldo Roberts, H. D. Brackett, John A. Lemmer, C. W. Bennett, Charles McCauley and Miles Thomas.

These workers, and members of the advisory committee, will meet at the Ludington hotel at noon today to make plans for the "step-off" Wednesday morning.

was given him by Paramount Famous Lasky. Belle Bennett, the wife, heads the featured cast. Miss Bennett's "Stella Dallas" is one of the screen's never-to-be-forgotten characters. Another who gave up her starring rights for the Jannings picture is Phyllis Haver, considered by many the most beautiful blonde in America. Others in the cast are of equal importance and ability, notably Donald Keith and Fred Kohler.

The picture was directed by Victor Fleming, who made "The Rough Riders," "Mantrap" and many other box office winners.

AT THE STRAND. The first accurate screen representation of the French penal settlement for life prisoners at Devil's Island is on view now at the Strand theatre, where the picture of that name is being played. Pauline Frederick heads the cast, which includes George Lewis, Marion Nixon, Richard Tucker, Harry Northrup, John Miljan and Leo White. Frank O'Connor directed the drama from the screen play by Leah Baird.

Puts An End To Bunion Pains

No Need to Suffer Another Day

There is one simple yet inexpensive way to reduce inflammation of swollen toe joints and help get them down to normal and that is to apply Moore's Emerald Oil night and morning. Ask any first class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces lasts a long time and furthermore if one bottle of Emerald Oil does not give you complete satisfaction you can have your money refunded. Special note: People who want to reduce swollen or varicose veins should get a bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil at once. Applied night and morning as directed they will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.—Adv.

many staunch, old-line politicians are "flaming red."
It appears that political Socialism has had to go into the field of international politics for most of its major issues and there, too, it will find many supporters of its ideas among the "regulars" of the major parties.

VANDENBERG'S DEBUT
Senator Vandenberg's first week at Washington has been full of activity. Scarcely had he tested the durability of his chair in the senate chamber when he was called upon to preside. A few days later he introduced his first bill, and then he was appointed to membership on four different committees. There can be no doubt that the new senator enjoyed himself during that week, for he is a man of action.

WHERE ARE THE RADICALS?
The Socialists have been holding their national convention in New York City. The keynote speech was delivered, the other day, by Morris Hillquit, prominent New York lawyer. Party demands set forth by Mr. Hillquit were: abolition of injunctions in labor disputes, immediate recognition of Soviet Russia, government insurance of workers, withdrawal of armed forces from Nicaragua and other Central American countries, and relaxation of government stricture upon the personal habits of citizens.

The terms "socialism" and "radicalism" have been so long synonymous in the minds of the average voters, that one looks, unconsciously, for the "red ink" in Mr. Hillquit's keynote address. It is, perhaps, radical in the sense that it marks a sharp departure from present-day conditions and practices, but it will also be remembered that every plank, with the possible exception of government insurance for workers, has been advocated, from time to time, by staunch members of both the Democratic and Republican parties in the United States senate and elsewhere.

"WHY THEY WON'T"
The Crystal Falls Diamond Drill has its own ideas on the prohibition question: "Senator Borah wants both political parties to declare themselves on the prohibition question. It is doubtful if Senator Borah will succeed in getting either party to come out flat-footed for or against the principle of prohibition as interpreted through the Volstead act. The reasons are very apparent: the time is not yet ripe for such a stand one way or the other and it's not ripe for the reason that the great majority of the 'Mr. and Mrs. Average Voter' hasn't awakened to the true situation between what is a moral issue pure and simple and what is a political issue with just enough of a tint of morality to camouflage it. Prohibition is a political question, purely and simply; temperance is a moral issue. The two have been so deftly combined by interested parties that it will take several years yet to get the differentiation recognized in the minds of the voters.

SENATOR BORAH will rise or fall greatly in prestige at the Republican national convention declared in Washington political dooper. That will be no novelty to Senator Borah. GIRL ALONE

CHAPTER XXVI
Sally's first impulse, when she saw the children of the orphanage come tumbling into the Palace of Wonders, was to flee. She was so conscious of being Sally Ford, whose rightful place was with those staring, shy little girls in white lawn "Sunday" dresses, that she completely forgot for one moment of pure terror that to them she would merely be "Princess Lalla," favorite crystal-gazer to the Sultan of Turkey before she escaped from his harem.

Cowering low in her high-backed gilded chair, in an effort to make herself as small and inconspicuous as possible—a useless effort really, since she was by far the prettiest and most romantic figure in the tent, dressed as she was in Oriental trappings—she watched the children, whom she knew so well, with a pang of homesickness.

Not that she would want to be back with them! But they were her people, the only chums she had ever known. How well she knew how they felt, liberated for one blessed afternoon from the bleak corridors of the orphanage, catapulted by someone's generosity into fairyland. For them the carnival was fairyland. These romance-and-beauty-starved orphans saw only glamor and wonder, believed with all their hearts every extravagant word that Gus, the Barker, uttered in his stentorian bark.

Suddenly love and compassion filled her heart to overflowing. She wanted to run down the steps that led to her little platform and gather Clara and Thelma and Betsy to her breast. She felt so much older and wiser than she had been two weeks ago, when she had "played-acted" for them as they scrubbed the floor of the dormitory. How awed and admiring they would be if, when their thin little bodies were pressed tight in her arms, she should whisper, "It's me—Sally—play-acting! It's me, kids! But of course she couldn't do it; she would be betraying not only herself but David, and she would rather die than that David should be caught and punished for defending her against Clem Carson.

As the children milled excitedly in the tent, huddling together in groups like sheep, holding each other's hands, giggling and whispering together as their awed eyes roamed from one "freak" to another, Sally searched their faces hungrily, jealously.

Thelma had cut a deep gash in her cheek; it would leave a scar. Six-year-old Betsy had a summer cold and no handkerchiefs; her cheeks were painted poppy-red with fever, or perhaps it was only excitement. But of course she couldn't do it; she would be betraying not only herself but David, and she would rather die than that David should be caught and punished for defending her against Clem Carson.

LYRICS OF LIFE

THE FRIENDS ONE NEEDS.
Here are the friends a fellow needs:
A few kind friends to wink at deeds
A fellow does, some foolish blunder;
And then what other friends I wonder?
A few close friends, in age or youth,
To whom he dares to tell the truth,
Some patient friends to hear his troubles
And help repair his shattered bubbles.
These friends he needs, and needs some more:
A lot of friends to find his door,
To come and fill his house with laughter;
Then two or three to linger after,
To sit and smoke the final smoke,
Finish the food, repeat the joke,
Yes, when the casual friend's a rover,
A few to stay and talk things over.
He needs another friend or so,
A few rich friends, they're nice to know,
He needs some old friends, tried and true friends,
And now and then a few, good new friends,
But how shall any man acquire
All of the friends that men desire?
Why, it is very simple, brothers:
By being all these things to others.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS

"Eet costs nothin' to get se fortune told. Womens and mens must pay 25 cents to learn past, present and future, but for you-nothin'! Come up here by my side. I weel read the crystal."

Betsy's eyes grew rounder and rounder; her little mouth fell open in astonishment. Then with a wild shout of joy she stumbled up the stairs and flung her arms about Sally crying and laughing: "You're not, Princess Lalla! You're Sally Ford, play-acting! Oh Sally, I'm so glad I found you! Hey, kids! Kids! It's Sally Ford, play-acting!"

"TED" BALDWIN OPENS SEASON

Pilots His Speedster, Fiji, on Escanaba River Sunday

"Ted" Baldwin was the first out-board motorboat enthusiast to open the 1928 boating season Sunday afternoon when he piloted his speedster, "Fiji," over the chilly waters of the Escanaba river.

With the departure of ice from Bay de Noc, a large number of motorboat owners are hurriedly making preparations to launch their craft. Albert Christensen is getting his speed boat, "Apple Sauce," in shape, while Grant Hewitt and William J. Smith are also working on similar type of boats.

Other boat owners who are making read for summer recreation on bays and lakes are: T. F. Kessler, Ben Young, John K. Stack, John Bretzman, John S. Peterson, Edwin Erickson, Ralph Olson and Gideon Stegath.

Public interest in boating is mounting rapidly in this section in proportion to that being shown throughout the country. A recent report published by the U. S. department of commerce gave the total number of registered motor boats in the country at the close of 1927 as 229,455.

"A car no longer completely answers a family's transportation and recreation needs," a prominent boat manufacturer stated recently.

"We have barely begun to realize the advantages and conveniences of motor boating. Within ten years it is our prediction that there will be in the United States at least 50 million individually owned and operated motor boats."

LUTHERANS TO MEET IN MAY

District Church Representatives Plan Gathering Here

Active workers in twenty Lutheran churches in the Green Bay district of Augustana synod will meet in Bethany Lutheran church, Escanaba, Sunday afternoon, May 20, to prepare for a complete canvass of their congregations in the appeal of Augustana college, Rock Island, Ill., for $1,000,000.

Dr. Julius Lincoln and Rev. C. O. Bengtson, both of Chicago, and Mrs. Nels Lundgren, wife of an Omaha pastor, and Prof. I. M. Anderson of Rock Island will be present to inspire and instruct the various committees.

A special quartet of college students will give a program of sacred songs. The singers are Carl Gustafson of Funk, Neb., Hubert Pearson of Centerville, Iowa, Florence Campbell of Erie, Ill., and Mildred Nelson of Rock Island.

A filled church auditorium is expected for the general mass meeting which will follow the workers' rally and which will be open to all members of the Green Bay district churches and to any others who desire to attend.

Other churches in this district are located in Marinette, Peshtigo, Escanaba, Dargott, Wallace, Menominee, Gladstone, Metrololitan, Perkins, Ford River, Mosling, Carney, Whitefish, Norway, Bark River, McAllister, Stonington, Isabella, Iron Mountain, Pembine and Quinnesne.

Alumni and other former students throughout the United States have contributed $250,000 to the appeal and this, together with several large donations, makes the present total of the fund $520,000.

The general congregational canvass will be made the week of May 20 to 23.

Augustana college hopes to raise $1,500,000 so as to be able to maintain its high scholastic standing of sixty-eight years of Christian service. It plans to erect a new science hall, a men's dormitory, and a conservatory of music building and to add to its endowment fund.

SCHOOL VOTERS MUST REGISTER

Board of Education Makes Plans for Coming Election

Registration of the qualified school electors of the city of Escanaba will be held in three polling places on Saturday, April 28, and Sunday, May 19, it has been announced by the board of education.

School electors are persons, male or female, who are 21 years of age or older and who own property which is assessed for school purposes, or who are the parents or guardians of children between the ages of five and twenty.

All school electors must be registered as such in order to be eligible to vote in forthcoming school elections. Registration on the city's books as a voter is not sufficient. The law requires that separate school registration be made. It is explained, however, that persons who already are registered and who have not changed their addresses since their registration was made, need not register again.

Three Polling Places.

City polling precincts Nos. 1, 2, 3, 8 have been designated as School Precinct No. 1, and its polling place will be the city hall.

City voting precincts Nos. 4, 5, 6 will be known as School Precinct No. 2, and its polling place will be the Jefferson school building.

City voting precinct No. 7 will be known as School Precinct No. 3, and its polling place will be the No. 2 fire station, on Sheridan Road.

Persons desiring to register as school electors will be able to do so in the three school precinct polling places above described, on April 28 and May 19, or they can register at any time between April 17 and May 19 by applying to Louis N. Schemmel, secretary of the board of education.

BANDITS SHOOT POLICE OFFICER

Patrolmen Surprise Gang After Express Truck Holdup

Toledo, Apr. 16—(P)—Special details of police combed this city tonight for machine gun bandits who shot and killed Patrolman George Zientara after they had stolen an American Railway Express truck and abducted the four men who were guarding it.

The spectacular hold-up and gun play availed the bandits nothing, for they left behind in a garage, where Zientara and another policeman surprised them, two unopened strong-boxes which they obtained from the truck. There was approximately $4,000 in the boxes, but this was left intact.

Five men were in the gang that captured the truck after it left Union station this morning, but only two of them were in the bandit car, mounted with a machine gun, which Patrolmen Zientara and Charles Biskupal trailed to the gang's lair.

The garage, police later discovered, was in the rear of an apartment house where the five bandits and two women had been living. Police believed the gangsters came here from Chicago, but were fairly certain that they had made no attempt to leave the city tonight.

Unarm Truck Guards.

A few hours after the holdup, two women, alleged to be those who were living with the bandits, were arrested for investigation. With them were two small children.

The robbers seized the express truck after it left the station, and unarmed the guards. Three miles out they transferred the strong-boxes to their own machine, which had been following the truck. When a Toledo university student attempted to interfere, they took him captive. The student and the guards later were released.

Zientara and Biskupal, patrolling the streets in a police car, saw a big machine speed around a corner and pull into a garage. Their suspicions were aroused and they followed. When Zientara alighted from the car, he fell before a fusillade of machine gun fire. Biskupal saw that resistance would be fatal and he, too, dropped, as though he had been wounded.

Leaving their own machine, the two bandits stole the police car and sped away. A short time later, the police car was found abandoned on a side street.

Leads off first and holds its lead

With more horsepower per pound than any other motor car in its class, the Victory easily triumphs in performance.

For this exceptional ratio of power to weight gives the Victory an advantage which its rivals simply cannot hope to compete with.

You notice the difference instantly at the take-off—the Victory always leading. You notice it still more at top speed—the Victory always holding its lead. And when the hills are reached, all attempts to follow the Victory abruptly end.

Rugged Dodge construction makes possible this calibre of power, and the car's unique and beautiful design is peculiarly adapted to fast, smooth travel.

The chassis frame, for instance, is the full width of the body—eliminating body overhang and sidesway. And the gravity (or safety) center is lower because there are no body sills.

A car that deserves the brilliant welcome it has received—and one that you should drive and study at your first opportunity.

COUNTY TO BUY EIGHT HOUSES

Following a suggestion of the poor commission, the Schoolcraft county board of supervisors last week approved the purchase of eight small houses located in this city, to be used in caring for poor families which are county charges.

The eight buildings, most of them located on the west side of the city, were bought for $3,000, and the board has entered into a contract whereby payments are made at the rate of $50 a month with 4 per cent interest. In this way, the county will acquire possession of real estate valued normally at several times the purchase price by means of a monthly payment less than the nominal rental.

For some time, the county has been facing the problem of housing indigent families which cannot be cared for at the county poor house, and homes have been rented for the needy ones. By acquiring these houses through purchase, the county does away with the necessity of these rentals, and also makes an investment in Manistique real estate which will increase in value as the city expands. The buildings involved in the purchase are owned by Andrew Wurster of this city.

The various places were inspected by supervisors during their regular meeting last week.

Acid Stomach

"Phillips Milk of Magnesia" Better than Soda

Hereafter, instead of soda take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly. For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, lessens the stomach sweet and free from all gases. It neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges the souring waste from the system without purging. Besides, it is more pleasant to take than soda. Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drug store. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Co. and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875. Adv.

IN NEW YORK

New York.—The far-famed "gay white way" no longer is a mere dizzy glare of bright lights. It is one of the New York's most profitable industries. The battle for space upon which to hang the burning bulbs goes merrily on from month to month. Roof space is at a premium and old buildings, which once faced destruction of the wrecking crew, rest their exteriors for fabulous amounts while allowing the interiors to remain rotting shells. Landlords have become quite willing to sacrifice rentals in order to sell parking space for electric signs. Choice corners and locations bring huge figures.

With the cost of upkeep thus mounting, the same study is given to the bright light signs as marks the beginning of a big advertising campaign. Expert designers now plan the glistening displays and the effects are studied with the same care that a movie director takes in taking his crucial scenes.

One of the best instances of this on Broadway today is the Madison Square Garden sign. Since the key purpose of this huge display is to point out to the visitor and the transient stroller the exact location of the new garden, four huge glittering arrows flash off and on so that none can mistake the direction.

Those dramas of the night club world, such as "Broadway," are far from being mere fragments of imagination. Tense drama, lurking behind the peep-holes of the speakeasy door, often come to light.

Not long ago one was enacted in 45th street. Gorillas of the underworld were sent out to "get" a certain place. The lookout man at the door was warned to keep a careful guard. A few nights later, while peering through his peephole in answer to the bell, he refused admission to a suspicious looking stranger. At his refusal a gun was whipped out and a bullet went crashing through the door. The doorman was hit in the arm.

It was one of those situations where the "coons" couldn't be called. Nor did the man wish to go to a public hospital and take the risk of having the affair get into the newspapers and thus bring the police down on the hideaway. Bleeding and pale, he went into the kitchen. A steel carving knife was carefully cleaned and, after taking a few shots of the bar's best brew, the doorman allowed the bullet to be cut out with this crude weapon. Bandaging up his wound, he went back to his post and stayed there until dawn came and the place closed up. Then he went to a doctor.

The story has become a minor classic in the long list of unwritten melodramas of the "big street." —GILBERT SWAN.

HAINES FILM FEATURE OF BENEFIT SHOW

Laughter on horseback, romance on the polo field, with a hero of the "400" who rated 100 per cent in the night clubs.

That in brief is William Haines' new starring picture for Metro Goldwyn-Mayer which will be shown at the Rialto theatre Wednesday as the feature of the Parent-Teacher playground benefit show at the Rialto Theatre, a comedy that positively scintillates with laughs, that thrills with love interest, and vibrates with excitement.

Haines has established for himself a reputation for turning out consistently good pictures, but with "The Smart Set" he outdoes himself. The story is that of a smart society and a millionaire's son who because of a natural gift for polo makes the all-American team for the international cup contest with the British.

How his own cockiness first wins him a place on the squad and then loses both his father's respect, his position and the girl he loves, only to win it all back and more at the crucial last instant of one of the greatest dramatic polo struggles ever filmed, makes an enthralling story which would win and hold interest for its dramatic story alone. However, that isn't the half of it, for "The Smart Set" is a picture of a million laughs as well.

Allice Day as the society heroine furnishes a perfect foil for Haines' love-making. Hobart Bosworth as the father, and Jack Holt as the sympathetic heavy, are marvelous in their portrayals. Constance Howard and Coy Watson, Jr., in small roles demonstrate their ability as trouper.

Jack Conway furnishes the best direction of his career and Byron Morgan has written a cracker-jack of a story.

And anybody who ever thought that polo was a game for rich men's sons to kill an idle afternoon is urged to see this picture and be immediately disillusioned—and how! It's plenty thrilling.

MARKET NEWS

OILS FEATURE OF STOCK MART

Table with columns: Date, Industrials, Railroads. Rows: Monday, Saturday, Week ago, Year ago, High 1928, Low 1928.

New York, Apr. 16-(P)—Strength and activity of the oil shares, a dozen of which attained new peak prices, featured today's irregular stock market in which many of the recent speculative favorites lost ground.

There was little in the week-end news to influence the price movement. Lowering of the call money rate from 5 to 4 1/2 per cent tended to allay fears of immediate credit stringency.

No special reason was advanced for the sudden buying of the oil shares, except that they have been lagging behind the general list.

Some uneasiness developed as a result of the rather persistent liquidation of U. S. Steel common and General Motors, each of which closed about 3 points lower.

On the other hand, General Electric was bid up more than 7 points to a new high record at 174 1/2.

Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

A sharp rise of more than 2 cents a bushel in wheat prices, on buying influenced by reports of excessively cold weather, featured the commodity markets.

A break of 10 points in Japanese yen to 47.60 cents was the only change of any consequence in the foreign exchange market.

HONOR MEMORY OF FLANNIGAN

Bar Members Also Pay Tribute to Late Attorney Riley

High tribute was paid by members of the Delta County Bar association to the late Justice R. C. Flannigan and Atty. Thomas J. Riley at memorial services held in the courtroom here yesterday afternoon.

A resolution, reviewing the life of the late judge of the 25th judicial circuit and describing in glowing terms his fine traits of character, was read by Atty. H. J. Rushton and placed into the record of the court.

Brief talks concerning the two men were made by George C. Higbee, court reporter; Atty. G. R. Empton, S. M. Matthews, Torval E. Strom, James Frost, H. J. Rushton, N. C. Spencer and Judge Frank A. Bell.

Flannigan Resolution. The text of the resolution of the bar association paying tribute to the late Attorney Riley has previously appeared in the Press.

The following is the text of the resolution incident to the death of Justice Flannigan:

"The 25th Judicial Circuit, of which Delta County is a part, occupies an outstanding position in the judicial system of the state. From the time of its organization in 1881 to about the first of October, 1927, it had been presided over by only three judges—Honorable Claudius B. Grant, Honorable John W. Stone and Honorable Richard C. Flannigan.

Each of these in the order named left the Circuit bench to take a seat upon the Supreme tribunal of the State and there added to the prestige of a distinguished court. Such a record cannot help but be a source of pride to each member of this Bar.

The purpose of this memorial is to place on the permanent records of this court an expression of the high regard in which the last of these three great jurists, the Honorable Richard C. Flannigan, was held by his colleagues.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, Apr. 16.—Buying ardor, ascribed in a great degree to the general public, swept all grain today up to fresh high price records for the season.

judiciary. It is only necessary to learn from those who have had to deal with judges of mediocre ability and doubtful integrity the difficulties which confront a bar so afflicted and perhaps it is only those who can fully appreciate the blessings which have been ours during all these years.

"Nothing finer, nothing more eulogistic, nothing which would sound more pleasing, were he able to hear what we now say, could be said than to assert in all truth and sincerity that at no time during his long service on the bench could any one rightfully question the honesty, the sincerity or the good conscience of any act or decision of this man.

"It is true that there were frequent differences of opinion, many of them widely divergent and deep-seated. There were differences of temperament and of judgment, but every member of this Bar, even those of us who perhaps differed most frequently and most radically, had the utmost confidence in the honesty and integrity and good faith of his action.

"Of any judge, it is impossible to say more. To expect more would be to ask that which it is not within the power of the human mind to give.

"To attempt to say much about his experience in the Supreme court is to enter the realm of the pathetic—almost the tragic. He was inducted into office on the Fourth day of October, 1927. It was the climax of a lifelong ambition and many years of hard work and health-destroying labor.

"When he took the bench of this circuit in 1909, he followed one of the ablest jurists in the history of the state. He undertook the burden of a circuit in which the known yardsticks, by all the known yardsticks, was double that of any other circuit in the state.

"It would be nothing short of hypocritical to state that he had no desire to assume this position. It was doubtless the fruition of a laudable and public-spirited ambition on his part.

"But after all, we are not at all certain but that events moved along about as he would have had them. Those who knew his temperament, those who occasionally got a little beneath his exterior, could not fall but sense a certain spirit of mystic-ly, and finally to place himself in the front ranks of a most distinguished group of jurists.

"The Bar and the people of this County have lost a loyal friend, a wise counselor, a courageous and able judge. We cannot hope to retrieve the loss, but as we may to a small degree console ourselves by the consideration and possibly an emulation of those qualities and, to a small degree, honor his memory by placing a memorial on the records of this court.

"Occasions like this present a great temptation to gloss over or ignore many human characteristics which we sometimes consider as defects. Aside from any question of propriety, such a course here would be most regrettable. To remove the little eccentricities would obliterate the picture of our friend and leave the features of an unknown character.

"A little brown pipe from which he drew such constant solace, the long black tie on which he seemed to finger about for the keynote of his utterances, the unruly locks of hair which fell across his face, the sly pieces of humor which unfortunately were not included in the stenographic notes, but which made a trial in his court a constant source of exhilaration—these are the things which will be remembered as the earmarks of his personality. They were the warp which held together the conventional woof of the fabric and combined to make the tapestry-like portrait which we cannot forget.

"The profession and a few students will know and perhaps remember the things which can be gleaned from the printed record of his decisions, but it was this unique and unusual combination of distinctly human traits, together with a keen mind and great learning, which enabled him to lift himself out of humble surroundings, to secure and hold the confidence of an important and exacting clientele, to obtain the approval of the popular mind while he guided the people wise-

GIANTS SUFFER FIRST DEFEAT

Philadelphia Nationals Carry Off Victory, 7 to 5

New York, Apr. 16.—(P)—The New York Giants suffered their first defeat of the season here today when Cy Williams, pinch-batter for Bob McGraw, touch Fitzsimmons for a home run with two Philhills on base in the eighth. Philadelphia won, 7 to 5. This was the first circuit smash of the season for Williams, who tied with Hack Wilson of the Cubs for the National League home run leadership last season.
Bill Walker, recruit left hander from Denver, held the Phils safe for six innings, pitching his way out of every difficult situation, but had to give way to Fitzsimmons when the Quakers launched a hard attack in the seventh and eighth. Williams' home run capped the Philadelphia onslaught which netted five runs in the eighth.

White Sox Trim Browns, 7 to 0

Chicago, Apr. 16.—(P)—Manager Schalk shook up his lineup, put Alphonse Thomas on the mound and the White Sox defeated the St. Louis Browns, 7 to 0, for their first victory of the season today.
In addition to holding the slugger Browns to seven scattered hits, Thomas hit a home run with one man on base in the fourth inning. Johnny Mostil, veteran Sox outfielder, played his first game of the season, played a single, sacrificed once and made a sensational catch, stopping a Brown threat.

Two Errors Costly for Detroit; Indians Win

Detroit, Apr. 16.—(P)—Two costly errors by Marty McManus, Tiger third baseman, contributed to Detroit's 5 to 4 defeat by the Cleveland Indians in the third game of the series here today.
With two out in the fifth inning, McManus threw wide and high to Neun on two fielding efforts which helped Cleveland to three runs. A Tiger rally in the eighth inning fell one run short of tying the score.
Lind, Indian second baseman, handled 10 assists and one put-out, while Jackie Tavener, Tiger shortstop went through the nine innings without a ball coming his way.
George Uhle and Earl Whitehill were engaged in an even battle from the mound until the fifth. Whitehill had retired two men when Uhle hit to McManus. Marty's peg to Neun pulled the Tiger first baseman off the bag and Jamieson's double scored Uhle. Lind hit to McManus and again the second baseman threw high, putting two on the bases. Gerken's double scored Jamieson and Lind. Sewell singled to score Gerken. Whitehill retired Burns.

Uhle carried the four-run advantage into the Tigers' half of the eighth when Easterling, pinch hitting for Whitehill opened with a single. Neun singled, forcing Easterling to second. Gehring singled Neun to second and Neun scored when Rice doubled. Uhle tightened to fan Hellmann, but McManus doubled to score Gehring and Rice. Fothergill fouled out to end the rally.
Gerken, Cleveland center fielder, led the Indian batting attack with a triple and double scoring two runs.
Uhle and Whitehill allowed but one walk apiece.

Lou Gehrig's Second Homer Opens Winning Batting Spree

Boston, Apr. 16.—(P)—Lou Gehrig's second home run of the season, off Danny MacFayden, with nobody on base in the second inning, was the first shot in a barrage which enabled the New York Yankees to win, 7 to 2, in their first game in Boston this season. The Yankees drove MacFayden from the box with a five-run rally which put the game on ice in the third.
George Pipgras, a Yankee hero in the last world series, started his first championship game of the year, and held the Red Sox safe at all times. Boston got only five hits off him.

new American lock at Sault Ste. Marie, and the development of such power as is incidental to navigation, submitted by the Canadian government, placed Canada's share at $400,830,000 and the United States' share at $383,183,000.
Canada expressed a desire "for reaching a comprehensive settlement of all outstanding problems affecting the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence, including the preservation of the waters properly belonging to the St. Lawrence watershed." The United States concurred in extending the discussions to these problems which include diversion of water at Chicago and elsewhere.
"While the United States is not in complete agreement with the representations made by the Canadian government as to the relative benefits and ultimate costs and the divisions of expense to be borne by each country," Secretary Kellogg stated, "it is inclined to regard as an acceptable basis of negotiation a proposal along the general lines suggested." Canada, replying, said it did not appear necessary at the present stage to discuss relative benefits and divisions of costs in detail.
The proposal for deferring development of the international section and giving preference to other sections is not favored by the United States which believes the entire navigation system should be completed substantially at the same time and that the United States ought to have the advantage of its share of the power on the international section without waiting until Canada may be able to sell her power from these works.
General accord with the principles of the division of costs as outlined by Canada was expressed by Mr. Kellogg, but exception was taken to inclusion in the balance sheet of the costs of the St. Lawrence and old Welland canals except so far as they may be of use to the deeper system. It would also seem necessary, he said, to differentiate between the costs that may probably be

Two Trophies Are Given for Relay Carnival June 2

The Delta Hardware and the Fair Store have already offered trophies to be given in the upper peninsula relay carnival to the teams winning any of the relays or special events. Six more trophies are needed so that one can be given to the winners of each of the events of which there are eight. Any local dealer who is willing to offer a trophy for the relay carnival is asked to get in touch with Prin. John A. Lemmer of the Escanaba high school.
According to plans now pending for the carnival, this first annual upper peninsula relays which will be held here June 2 will be one of the year's biggest athletic spectacles. Entries are expected from practically every high school in the peninsula which has track as their major spring sport. Work on the completion of the new quarter-mile track at the Escanaba athletic field will begin as soon as conditions permit.

Nine Athletic Cup Awards are Given

East Lansing, Apr. 16.—(P)—Nine athletic scholarship cup awards for the winter term at Michigan State college with one award to a co-ed were announced today. They are: Basketball, Robert J. McGillivuddy, Lansing; Track, Harold L. McAtee, Dundee; wrestling, George D. Ferrar, Bossmer; fencing, Miss Audrey Glenn, West Branch; freshman basketball, Arthur J. Haza, Muskegon; freshman track, John D. Reid, Ironwood; freshman wrestling, Donald J. Deming, Homer; freshman fencing, Gordon F. Evans, Battle Creek, and informal hockey, Peter C. Stima, Copper City.
The bout was marred by incessant holding. Neither fighter appeared to exert himself unduly. The crowd bowed steadily throughout the match.
Tony Ligouri, a newcomer to the east from Des Moines, Iowa, furnished most of the night's action by knocking out Frank Zakre of New York in the third round of a six-round bout. Ligouri floored the New Yorker with right hand smashes just as the bell rang in the second round. Zavarina lasted only 26 seconds of the third. Ligouri weighed 136 1/2; Zavarina 139 3/4.

Grant Gillis, rookie shortstop with the Washington Senators, was a three-sports star at the University of Alabama. He played football and baseball three seasons and basketball two seasons.

BOXING

Topeka, Kan., Apr. 16.—(P)—Bearcat Wright, Omaha negro, knocked out Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion of the world, in the fifth round here tonight. Honors were about even in the first four rounds, but in the fifth, a solar plexus blow followed by a right uppercut put the former champion down for the count. Wright weighed 211 pounds; Johnson 235.
Miami, Fla., Apr. 16.—(P)—Pal McDonald, Terre Haute, Ind., knocked out Billy Ryan, Cleveland, in the second round of a scheduled ten rounder here tonight. McDonald weighed 145 1/2 and Ryan 151 1/2.
Baltimore, Apr. 16.—(P)—Johnny Flincci, New York lightweight, fought a 12-round draw with Bobby Garcia of Baltimore, in 14th headliner at the 104th Regiment Armory here tonight.

Sammy Baker Wins Ten Round Bout

New York, Apr. 16.—(P)—Sammy Baker, Mitchell Field soldier and challenger for the welterweight championship, won a sluggy ten-round bout from Billy Alger of Phoenix, Ariz., here tonight. Despite his punishing reputation, Baker was unable to shake Alger with his heaviest clouts any time in the ten dreary rounds of mauling and wrestling. Baker scaled 147; Alger 145 3/4.

14 DEFENDANTS PLEAD GUILTY

April Term of Circuit Court Opens Here Yesterday

The April term of the Delta county circuit court opened yesterday with 14 defendants entering pleas of guilty before Judge Frank A. Bell. Eight entered pleas of not guilty.

James Powers, who pleaded guilty to assault with a dangerous weapon, was placed on two years' probation and was ordered by the court to pay $100 and costs. He was arrested by police about three months ago after he had struck his sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas Powers, with a cobbler's hammer.

Sentences on the others will be passed on Saturday morning. They are: Prohibition law violation, Frank Choinard, John Fenton, Emil Sigbloom, Edward Merringer, William O'Donnell, William Sauer, Dan Campbell, Henry Bono, Arthur Young and Archie Turan; burglary, Dave McLeod; disorderly conduct, third offense, Dave McNellis; forgery, Edwin Hurney.

McLeod, who pleaded guilty to a charge of breaking and entering the Ensign store and post-office, pleaded not guilty to a second charge of burglarizing the H. Deloris warehouse at Garden. It is expected that the latter case will be dismissed when he is sentenced for the Ensign robbery.

Cases For Trial

Cases which have been marked for trial are: Prohibition law violation, John Lindstrom, Mrs. Mary Shea, John Morrish, Justin McCarthy, John Sullivan; manslaughter and negligent homicide, Otto Rheinholdsen; bastardy, James Martin, Oscar Bloomquist, Lawrence LaPlant, Nell McQuay; breaking and entering and larceny, Frank Lamb alias Ernest Dennis. The trial of Otto Rheinholdsen will open at 9 o'clock this morning.

Upon the motion of prosecuting Atty. Glenn W. Jackson, the case against Adolph Quist, charged with manslaughter and negligent homicide, was dismissed. Quist was arrested several months ago when the car in which he was driving, crashed into an E. and L. S. train, resulting in the death of Rudolph Johnson, a companion. In making the request for dismissal, the prosecuting attorney stated that he had obtained the testimony of two doctors, attending Quist after the accident; who declared that Quist was not under the influence of liquor.

McNellis Case Nolle. The case of John McNellis, charged with prohibition law violation, was nolle prossed, owing to the fact that the defendant recently was convicted in federal court and sentenced to serve a term in prison.

The following cases were passed yesterday: Albert Larson, Ed Hart, Earl St. Clair Dahn, Frank Eugates August Niemi, Walter Bennett, Ernest Dufresne, John Stasowich, August Johnson, all prohibition violation; Charles Tebola, abandonment; Max Holzgrebe, forgery. Cases continued until the next term of court are: Daniel Russell and Peter Foy, prohibition violation.

Firemen Called to Knutson Residence

Firemen were called out at 12:30 o'clock yesterday morning to extinguish a blaze at the home of Mrs. Lydia Knutson, 1515 Lindigton street.

A closet room and the hallway were badly scorched by the flames. It is believed the fire was caused by sparks flying out of the "clean-out hole" in the chimney which was located in the closet, where some clothing was ignited.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 20 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Olive Tablets do not contain calomel; just a healing, soothing vegetable laxative mixed with olive oil.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" — bad breath — dull, tired feeling — sick headache — torpid liver — constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime. Thousands take them every night to keep right. Try them, 1c, 3c, 6c. — Adv.

Kiwanians Hear "Army" Executive

Preparations for the part the Kiwanis club will play in the Salvation Army drive to be held this week, occupied the time and attention of members of the club at the weekly luncheon yesterday. Charles J. Byrns, chairman of the local Salvation Army advisory committee, presided and the principal speaker was Staff Capt. Harold Madison of Chicago, general secretary of the "Army", who gave an interesting address. D. B. Rasmussen, manager of the Kinney Shoe Store, was introduced as a new member of the club.

ROTARY URGED TO HELP BOYS

Minnesota Jurist Delivers Eloquent Address Here Yesterday

Judge C. R. Magney, of the district court of Minnesota and former mayor of Duluth, delivered a fervent and eloquent appeal before members of the Escanaba Rotary club yesterday, for greater interest on the part of all men in boys' work and boy problems. Judge Magney for several years has been prominently identified with various forms of boys' work in Duluth and asserted that this activity had brought to him a tremendous measure of satisfaction.

He asserted that the natural background of the peninsula and of Minnesota with their wealth of scenery in forests, lakes and streams, furnished the ideal setting for giving to boys of these districts wholesome memories that will cling throughout their lives, if adults will but make it possible for boys to become intimately acquainted with the natural beauties about them. Judge Magney is a strong advocate of the Boy Scout movement and is a firm believer in the good accomplished through summer camps, in the depth of forests, where city contamination cannot penetrate. It is in such surroundings, said the speaker, that love and admiration for nature is engendered and fundamentals of character developed that will remain with a youth throughout his life.

Impressions Last

Judge Magney called attention to lasting impressions gained in youth and asserted that business and professional men of any community who are not showing a whole-hearted interest in giving to the boys of their own communities proper impressions, to carry into their manhood, are not discharging the debt they owe to the coming generation of men.

Judge Magney's address was followed by a tremendous round of applause, following which he was accorded a standing vote of thanks by the Rotary club members. C. J. Byrns, general chairman of the Salvation Army drive committee, and Harold Madison, of Chicago, general secretary of the Salvation Army in this territory, appeared before the Rotary club and explained the need for replenishing funds for the local Salvation Army corps and also outlined plans for the drive that is to be undertaken in this city on Wednesday of this week.
