LYRICS OF LIFE

By Douglas Malloch Copyright 1927 by Douglas Malloch THIS MAKES A HOUSE. This makes a house (not many rooms Cluttered with chairs and other wares): A vase in which one red rose blooms, A strip of carpet on the stairs, A simple table simply laid, Some silver, rather than much plate, An inglenook, a friendly book, A seat or two before the grate, A few good pictures on the wall, Neither too massive nor too loud, (Better a wall with none at all Than one where many push and crowd), Some rugs that scarcely rugs suggest, So unobtrusive to the sight, A place the guest may sit and rest, Or read beside the shaded light, Your poverty or wealth effaced, By rooms where either is forgot, That tell of taste, not need nor waste, Not whether you are rich or not, A place of beauty, not expense, Shelter, and not a glittering dome, The excellence that hearts can sense, This makes a house, this makes a home.

LEGION QUOTAS ARE ASSIGNED

Besemer—The membership quota for the Besemer American Legion post for the coming year is 114, Ironwood 255, Ramsay 24 and Wakefield 55, according to C. R. Duda, commander, and Guy M. Cox, adjutant. An effort is being made to enroll 4,000 members before the American Legion convention in June.

The following instructions were mailed to the individual posts this week:

In behalf of the Upper Peninsula association, we desire to thank the posts for the splendid reception accorded our department officers on their tour of the upper peninsula this month. Their visit has certainly done much to advise the posts just what department headquarters are doing. They did much to bring closer co-operation between department headquarters and the upper peninsula and to boost membership.

"Our goal in the upper peninsula this year is 4,000 members and a committee has outlined the enclosed quotas covering our membership. If each post goes over the top we will have over 4,000 members by the time of our upper peninsula reunion. This quota is based on the past four year average which is a fair means of outlining our required membership.

Upper Peninsula Reunion. Besemer is making splendid preparations for the upper peninsula reunion, June 21, 22 and 23. Several notables have already been invited and it is expected that this will be the greatest gathering that has ever been held in the upper peninsula. A complete program will be forwarded to you shortly.

"Ten posts in the upper peninsula have already contributed $2 as their share to the Hostess House at Battle Creek and we trust that the balance of the posts will take some action in this regard so that the upper peninsula will have a room completely outfitted and dedicated to them.

In order to hold up our end on membership, we must do everything possible to boost same between now and the time of our upper peninsula reunion. Also, please remember, boost your own community activities in every way.

Posts Assigned Quotas. The following quotas have been assigned to the various posts:

- L'Anse, 73; Bretting, 105; Iron Mountain, 243; Besemer, 114; Ironwood, 255; Ramsay, 24; Wakefield, 55; Cajumet, 196; Chassell, 36; Hancock, 254; Lake Linden, 55; Houghton, 78; South Range, 25; Crystal Falls, 214; Iron River, 174; Caspian, 55; Stribanough, 100; Abmesek, 52; Ishpeming, 166; Marquette, 184; Negaunee, 187; Republic, 31; Ewen, 84; Ontonagon, 85; Rockland, 21; Munising, 102; Mackinaw City, 24; Sault Ste. Marie, 151; Escanaba, 253; Gladstone, 81; Nahma, 39; Rapid River, 24; Newberry, 64; Mackinac Island, 20; Mackinaw, 318; Powers, 19; Stephenson, 51; Manistique, 100.

Engine Passes Over Marinette Boy, But He Escapes Unhurt

Marinette, Wis.—Irvin Buckheim, 20, son of Albert Buckheim, 1011 Marinette avenue, Marinette, had a miraculous escape from death Monday evening, when he plunged onto the track in front of an approaching passenger train at the C. and N. W. depot, and the engine passed over him. He was found beneath the cab of the locomotive and was taken in an ambulance to the M. and M. hospital.

His escape from extremely serious injuries seems to have been almost as marvelous as his missing death. His left foot was crushed so that the amputation of the front half of the foot was necessary, also two toes on the right foot. There was no skull fracture as at first supposed and the X-ray showed no other fracture whatever. He was badly bruised about the legs and other parts of the body but unless some internal injury develops, he will recover.

Fell From Illness. The young man, who works in the office of the Northern hotel, Hall avenue, had gone to the station with the hotel mail. He was leaning on a truck about half way between the freight and passenger stations when he was taken ill. He said that his head ached terribly and he became nauseated. He went to the edge of the platform, presumably to vomit, when he pitched headlong onto the track in the path of the approaching Cannon Ball train.

The engineer saw him when a short distance away and applied the brakes immediately. The locomotive passed over his prostrate form until the tender was reached when it stopped.

Floyd Leslie, well-known local resident, was at the scene and crawled under the engine and got the boy's unconscious form out from under it. He was then hurried to the hospital. Although there were rumors of attempted suicide, facts do not warrant any such assumption. The young man seen a short time before was in buoyant spirits and he says himself that he knew nothing of an approaching train and in fact knew nothing of the accident until he became conscious in the ambulance. It appears to doctors and others, acquainted with the facts, that he was taken unexpectedly ill, as stated and that when he went to the edge of the platform, he became dizzy and pitched onto the track. It was the noon hour before surgeons had completed their work at the hospital this morning.

Music Festival Is Postponed Until May 4

The third annual music festival which was scheduled to be held in the Escanaba high school auditorium tomorrow evening, April 20, has been postponed until Friday evening, May 4. The affair was delayed as a precaution spreading of the epidemic of colds and other sickness, which has been so prevalent in the schools during the last two weeks. This postponement is the third of scheduled events at the Escanaba high school in the last week. It was pointed out that although the absence of pupils has decreased materially this week, the situation is still serious and that every precaution must be taken to prevent an increase in the epidemic.

Preparations to make the festival the best since its origin two years ago, will be continued despite the postponement. Every high school musical organization will participate.

BEFORE AND AFTER

These two pictures tell a most impressive tale. A new barn of durable construction—and the wreck of the same barn caused by cyclone. Read below the pictures.

This big new barn, 40x60 feet, was built about four years ago of the very best grade of materials. Was located 4 miles east of Clare and belonged to Jas. A. Reeder. This picture was taken just after the barn was built and before it was painted.

This is the same barn taken just after the cyclone of May 9, 1927, showing its complete wreck. We promptly paid a $3,000.00 loss on this building. Several head of purebred stock, including a two thousand pound Durham bull, were killed, no insurance. Also three autos ruined, no insurance.

The storm which wrecked this barn caused thousands of dollars damage in the state. This Company paid

Over $78,000 in May 1927 to property owners who suffered loss.

There have been damaging windstorms in Michigan every year for 38 years.

FATHERS AND SONS ENJOY BANQUET

Approximately 170 "boys" from Manistique and vicinity sat shoulder-to-shoulder Tuesday night at the Father and Son banquet sponsored by the local Hi-Y club. It was a notable event all around— notable from the standpoint of the club members who arranged the details of the event, and notable also from the standpoint of the boys, old and young, who attended. Some of the men were merely "adopted" fathers for the occasion, but all of them were sons, and there was no distinction drawn. Fathers and sons present at this gathering were either all men or all boys. There were no religious distinctions, and all creeds were represented.

The scene of the affair was the recreation room of the M. E. church, North Cedar street. Six tables accommodated the guests, and the serving of the meal was done efficiently by the members of the Methodist Ladies' Aid and their assistants. The Manistique high school band played as the assemblage was seated, and there was group singing under the leadership of W. F. Kefaever.

George Nicholson, president of the Hi-Y club, officiated as toastmaster following the meal, and introduced Ian MacKilligan, of the city, as the first speaker. This was followed by a musical number which made a big hit with the fathers and sons. Owen Martin, violinist, and Gunnar Lindstrom, accordion artist, rendered a series of catchy tunes in such manner that even the preachers present couldn't keep their feet still.

The toastmaster then introduced his own father, George Nicholson, Sr., who spoke of boys' work from the standpoint of a dad, and urged fathers to give a little more time to their jobs as parents.

Ray Johns, well known at Manistique for his work with boys as upper peninsula Y. M. C. A. secretary, was the next speaker on the program, and his short talk carried a plea for support of the Hi-Y club and the work among boys which it represents.

The high school boys' quartet, composed of Carlton Walker, bass; Ian MacKilligan, baritone; Paul Peterson, second tenor; and Fred Griffin, first tenor, sang "Kentucky Babe," following which the speaker of the evening, E. L. Pearce of Marquette was announced. Mr. Pearce, who heads the finance committee of the upper peninsula boys' work, had an interesting message for the boys and men, a plea for more complete understanding of relationships, and suggestions to it boys as to what their fathers want them to be.

The banquet was so successful in bringing about a closer comradeship between boys and men, that it is almost certain to become an annual event at Manistique. Similar banquets have been staged in the past, but this one arranged by the Hi-Y club "had them all faded" as one of the boys expressed it.

Famous Traveler to Give Lecture at Manistique Tonight

Some startling facts regarding the South American continent will be brought out by Edward Tomlinson, brilliant publicist and world traveler, who will give his enthralling lecture "The New South America" in Manistique tonight. Mr. Tomlinson will speak at the high school auditorium, supplying the final number of the local yecum course.

Bratt, states Mr. Tomlinson, is as large as the United States, plus another Texas. Tacna-Arica, over which Chile and Peru have been disputing for so many years, is not a mere spot on the map, but has about half the area of the state of Massachusetts. Argentina, the most progressive and up-to-date republic of South America, equals in area all the United States east of the Mississippi.

Economically, South America is more important to the United States than any other continent in the world, Mr. Tomlinson believes. More than half of all our foreign investments are in Latin America, the greatest potential market for our manufacturers.

Many other startling revelations in regard to the civilization south of us are brought out by Mr. Tomlinson, who is a world-recognized authority on South America.

ASK SCHOOL TO EMPLOY NURSE

Sometime in the near future, the Manistique Woman's club plans to place before the local board of education a suggestion for providing the city schools with a public health nurse, said nurse to be employed under the direction of the superintendent of schools, and working on the same status as a regular teacher.

The proposal was presented to the Women's club members Tuesday by their welfare committee, and action was taken immediately, the club voting approval of the plan to bring the matter before the school board. Attention was called to the need of a school nurse, and it was believed that the work could be carried on most efficiently under supervision of the school officials, rather than the city or county.

A report on the progress of the scholarship fund being built up by the Woman's club showed that $500 had been added to the treasury for this purpose during the current club year. Proceeds from entertainments and other events provided the source of revenue.

Mention was again made of the fact that evergreen trees are obtainable through the conservation committee of the club for decorative or utility planting. These trees are secured through the courtesy of Walter Moon of this city, and may be procured by anyone at 50 cents each.

BENEFIT SHOW IS GIVEN YESTERDAY

Capacity houses greeted "The Smart Set", starring the inimitable and irrepressible Bill Haines, and a playlet, "The Debating Society" features of a show given yesterday at the Rialto theatre by the Parent-Teacher association, for the benefit of the playground fund.

There were three performances, a matinee at 3:45 o'clock and evening shows at 7:05 and 9 o'clock.

The playlet, a one act home talent show, revolved on the question, "Resolved, That the Horse is a Greater Benefit to Mankind Than the Whale." It proved a farcical debate, full of ridiculously humorous situations.

It was presented by a talented cast under the capable direction of Mrs. Rolland A. Hale.

The cast of characters is: The President—Dick Foster. The Secretary—Jim Mingay. Affirmative—Laurence Van Horn, Clifford Sutter, Vernon White.

Negative—Herbert Van Horn, Neil Fillmore, Ray Barber.

The net proceeds derived from this show will not be known until a final checkup, on the ticket sale is made.

THEATRES

AT THE RIALTO.

His black hair was slick and shiny like patent leather, so they called him "The Patent Leather Kid."

He was an East Side boxer so unpopular that he always drew big crowds—crowds hoping to see him knocked out, or at least that patent leather hair matted.

Richard Barthelmess has one of the greatest roles of his screen career in "The Patent Leather Kid," First National's mighty epic of the U. S. tank corps now at the Rialto theater following its sensational Broadway run.

"The Patent Leather Kid" is the story of a pugilist who is drafted for the war much against his will, but who emerges with a decoration of bravery and ultimately wins the girl he loves. The story gives Barthelmess every chance for a human, convincing portrayal of a man who is redeemed through suffering and a woman's love, and the ever-popular Dick makes the most of the opportunities.

Molly O'Day, a newcomer to the screen, plays opposite Barthelmess, and her interpretation of the role of "The Golden Dancer" marks her as one of the screen finds of the year.

The spectacular war scenes made at Camp Lewis, Washington, are admitted to be the best ever recorded by the camera.

Feel Miserable This Spring?

To Be Well Your Kidneys Must Function Properly.

SPRING find you, tired, nervous and depressed? Are you stiff and achy, subject to nagging backache, drowsy headaches and dizzy spells? Are kidney excretions too frequent, scanty or burning in passage? Too often this indicates sluggish kidneys and shouldn't be neglected.

Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic; increase the secretion of the kidneys and thus aid in the elimination of waste impurities. Doan's are endorsed everywhere. Ask your neighbor.

50,000 Users Endorse Doan's!

Mrs. Fred Jones, 1132 Chatham St., Alpena, Mich., says: "I have proven the value of Doan's Pills and am glad to recommend them. My kidneys acted so freely and I had headaches that annoyed me considerably. I tried easily, felt out of sorts and was sore and stiff. Doan's Pills benefited me more than anything else and I have felt fine since using them."

Carroll's Pitching Aids Tigers to Beat Browns

ST. LOUIS IS LOSER, 4 TO 1

Detroit Hurler Allows Only Six Scattered Hits in Slugfest

St. Louis, Apr. 18—(P)—Carroll's masterful pitching enabled the Detroit Tigers to defeat the re-constructed St. Louis Browns today in their opening game here this season, 4 to 1.

Carroll allowed six scattered hits. The only Brown run came in the eighth when McNeely singled, Kress doubled and Brannon walked, filling the bases, and Manush walked forcing McNeely over the plate.

Easterling in the ninth hit a home run which was the longest ever seen at Sportsman's Park. The ball hit the roof of the pavilion near the bleachers and bounced into Grand avenue.

Threatening weather held paid attendance to 6,332.

Hooks and Slides

Looking over the winter golf records it can be seen that the season was not so bad for Johnny Farrell and Macdonald Smith, who won more of the important prize money in the California, Texas and Florida opens.

Farrell and Smith earned $6,500 each and some $15,000 in other cash prizes went to Bill Meihorn, Gene Sarazen, Bobby Cruickshank and Tommy Armour.

Cruikshank failed to win a single big tournament, but he finished third in four tournaments and managed to place third among the money winners for the season with $4500.

Smith played in nine tournaments, won three, was second twice and finished third and fourth in two others, a total of seven-times when he was well up in the money.

YANKS TROUNCE RED SOX, 10-7

New York Batters Hammer in Ten Runs in First Five Innings

Boston, Apr. 18—(P)—Hamming Bradley and Russell for ten runs in the first five innings of today's game, the New York Yankees defeated the Boston Red Sox, 10 to 7, in a free-hitting contest.

The first two Boston pitchers were batted out, Simmons and Morris held the Yankees safe through the last four innings. Hoyt was hit hard but went the route for New York in his first start.

Ken Williams hit the only home run of the game, in the last half of the ninth. Morning and afternoon games will be played tomorrow in celebration of Patriots' Day.

Two Home Runs by O'Doul Aid New York to Win Victory

New York, Apr. 18—(P)—Two home runs by Frank ("Lefty") O'Doul enabled the New York Giants to score an easy victory over the Phillies by 5 to 1 here today, and to take the odd game of the three-game series.

Larry Benton made his second start and registered his second victory of the season. Pruett pitched well for Philadelphia after Roush was removed. Andy Cohen went hitless for the first time this season.

M. S. C. MAT MEN WIN MEET

State College Upsets Dope by Defeating Wolverines

East Lansing, Apr. 18—(P)—Michigan State college upset the dope here tonight by retaining its Michigan A. A. U. wrestling team title, ousting out the University of Michigan, 18 to 15. State grapplers only took two first places, while Michigan garnered three, but the large number of unattached athletes cut down team averages.

Two falls featured the individual championships and the sectional trout for the American Olympic finals to be staged in Grand Rapids in July. Ferrari, State, put List, State, to the mat in 4 minutes 28 seconds in the 191-pound division.

Blindfolded... in scientific test of leading Cigarettes, W. T. Benda selects Old Gold

W. T. Benda, in his studio... while test was being made. In background may be seen some of the famous Benda masks.

"I have been an inveterate cigarette smoker for years and my interest in cigarettes not only induced me to make this blindfold test, but to make it three times in succession."

"Each time I selected the same cigarette—OLD GOLD."

"However, there was no other choice that I could honestly make. OLD GOLD was so superior and its delicacy of aroma, its rich, full flavor so entirely free from any hint of sting or burn that it immediately appealed to my taste."

"Since the test I have been smoking OLD GOLDS steadily and I find that they are the most satisfying cigarettes I have ever smoked."

How Test Was Made
Mr. Benda was blindfolded, and, in the presence of two responsible witnesses, was given one each of the four leading cigarettes to smoke. To clear the taste, coffee was served before each cigarette. Mr. Benda was unaware of the identity of these cigarettes during test. After smoking the four cigarettes, he was asked to designate by number his choice. He replied, "Number 4," which was OLD GOLD.

RISKO IS JUST A TOUGH BUM

No Reason for His Winning Fights, But He Does

BY HENRY L. FARRELL, NEA Service Sports Writer. Following the very effective...

The blimp-like former amateur of Cleveland is in the singular position of a fighter branded and stamped as no good...

His qualifications are an annoying left hook and a concrete constitution. His chief virtue as a fighter...

The point may be illustrated by a story told by the matchmaker who arranged the fight between Risko and Tunney...

"Now tell me," Tunney said to the matchmaker when they were alone, "just what kind of a fighter is this Risko?"

"He's just a tough bum," the matchmaker told him. "That's what they are still saying about him three years later."

Those who saw the fight remember that for two rounds Risko mauled Tunney all over the ring and looked like a sure winner until Tunney nearly knocked his head off with a right hand late in the third round...

That inelegant expression—tough bum—described Risko properly at that time and applies to him perhaps to a lesser degree today. He is still as tough as he was then and they will tell you in Cleveland that he hasn't improved a lick as a fighter since he left the amateurs.

Uncle Sam Sending Big Gun to Canal

Watertown, Mass.—A monster gun that will hurl a ton of steel 29 miles is on its way from the government arsenal at Watertown to the Panama Canal.

The NUT CRACKER by Joe Williams

President Coolidge, it seems, is a rabid baseball fan. He heaved out a ball for Washington and the Red Sox to start the season with. Besides that, he stayed all through the first inning.

He should have waited to see his old home town assume leadership of the American league. It's been a long time since that ever happened.

The New York Giants suffered intensely the loss of Rogers Hornsby, according to figures on the opening day. Those who threatened a boycott because Rogers had been traded were true to their word. Every seat was sold.

McGraw, of course, demonstrated by playing Andrew Cohen at second base that he never even thinks of gate receipts. There are more than 200,000 Cohens in New York and that many more Cohens who have changed their names to Kelly.

Mr. Heydler says this year's race in the National League is going to be pretty close. Mr. Barnd, strange to say, predicts the same thing for the American League. But the fans are tickled about that.

By the way, weren't there some people running across the country? What has become of them?

Stangler Lewis is booked for a match in Houston during the Democratic convention in June. If the Democrats are all that they used to be and the Stangler is not a man to pass up an opportunity, he ought to get several weeks' steady work down there.

Mr. O'Goofy has been trying to get Jack Curley to promote a match between Lewis and senator Heflin.

Maie Murray sued a California architect because, she says, a houseful of antiques he sold her was not all it was represented to be. If Miss Murray wants some genuine antiques, of course, we can give her the address of a gentleman in Philadelphia.

Mercedes Gleitz, typist, swam the Strait of Gibraltar the other day. O'Goofy, in a deep moment of depression, just mumbled something about "why she doesn't try the Florida keys."

What a poem the man Tennyson might have written if he only had let the brook alone and waited to do a piece about C. C. Pyle!

This derby isn't going on forever, of course, but it just goes to show that a serial story requires absolutely no patience at all.

Burt Shotten says the Cardinals will win the pennant. The craven!

London Police Have Towers of Granite

London, England (AP)—A granite cooling tower, impregnable to attack, has been built at one corner of Trafalgar Square for the use of police to observe crowds who hold indignation meetings and demonstrations in that public place.

Hitherto the police have been able only to use a small telephone booth for communication with headquarters, and being on a level with the crowds have not been able to overlook the whole square.

"CAGE QUEEN"

"Queen of the Cagers" was the title bestowed on Miss Adena Turner, star forward with the St. Joseph, Mo., Jolly Club at the recent national basketball tournament for girls at Wichita, Kas. Miss Turner has red hair.

READY FOR BOAT

Vaughn W. Stevenson, a sophomore at the University of Iowa, became an outstanding candidate for the United States Olympic team recently when he ran 300 yards in 29 8-10 seconds. The recognized world's record is 30 6-10 seconds, made by Bernie Wefers in 1896, and the American record was 30 2-10 seconds, made by Charley Paddock in 1921.

There is sophistication in New York, of course. But also there is self-consciousness; there are young women who feel that they are not making the right kind of remarks at the proper time; there are those who feel they are continually talking out of turn—opening their mouth, as the ancient wheeze has it, only to place their foot therein.

So, we have the social coach, who teaches young ladies to keep their feet away from their mouths, to use the Queen's English, to look smart, to employ 75-cent words and what to talk about and when and how.

The other day I had the pleasure of conversing with a social coach, Miss Louise she calls herself, and her explanation of her art was interesting.

"Women's great falling," she told me, "lies in not knowing what to talk about. Talk? Oh, yes, they can talk, surely. But so often of such remote subjects so remote from the topics people want them to talk about! Any number of women of wealth and background I have met, and at interesting conversations they are utter novices."

It seems you just have to have personality these days to get along. By the way, Miss Louise's real name is Beverly Colfax, and she comes from Atlanta, Ga.

Look out for the sight-seeing buses at Times Square! Unless you wish to pass a considerable fraction of the day sitting there watching the passing scenery, be absolutely certain that the bus is going to start for its destination, whether it be Coney Island, Chinatown or around town. All these bus lines hire "decoys" to sit in the cars, thus giving the impression that others are ready to take the trip. As soon as a few people get on the "dummies" get off and sit in another bus. Meanwhile the driver will assure you that "we start in just a minute!" Don't believe him! He'll get your money and keep you waiting. The best system, perhaps, is to make your arrangements with the hotel at which you stop.

Hightoned Names Help Swindlers

Paris (AP)—The psychology of names is interesting to the police since a bright official recently tried to learn why people trust crooks. France de Balzac, a large attractive woman who took the cream of several fortunes, is cited as a striking illustration. The police saw no adequate reason why business men and society people should have trusted her. Her victims, however, gradually revealed her power. Her name, first of all, gave her the entrée because it sounded "chic." "France" and "Balzac" inspired lofty reactions in her victims. The "de" indicated some sort of latent nobility. The name as a whole struck those who were killed as strangely familiar, as of someone of importance they ought to know. The official language of Brazil is Portuguese.

Hooks and Slides

Although not very much has been said about it this spring, the name of Johnny Mostil probably will be read often this summer in the lineup of the Chicago White Sox.

And if so—just how good will Mostil be? Just a year ago, before injuries forced him out, Mostil was rated one of the great outfielders of the game. He was a dangerous hitter, an excellent base runner and one of the swiftest men in the field.

Then Mostil forced himself out. It was thought he never would be able to play major league baseball again and, if fortunate enough to do so, hardly would be anything near his old self.

Johnny is back. He may not play regularly for the Sox this summer, but he will be in no telling just how his game will be. Confidence in himself is the big thing Johnny has in this characteristic, but it is the thing he needs more than ever now. Encouragement he has now and always has had from Manager Ray Schalk and other baseball players.

Russell "Lena" Blackburne, Schalk's assistant at Chicago, thinks Johnny will have a big year. He doesn't believe that Mostil will play regularly, but he does think he will be inserted as a pinch hitter and runner in many games this season, and perhaps will be in the lineup for, entire games at a time.

"Mostil made some great catches during spring training, and I have a good hunch that the old boy will be the Mostil of old," he says. "Just wait and see for yourself."

Here's hoping Blackburne is correct in his deductions. With Mostil back in the form he once exhibited, he would be a welcome addition to that White Sox outfield, at present a very capable one with Bib Falk, Bobby Barrett, Randy Moore and Alex Metzler doing chores for Schalk.

Wilson to End Career Unless something happens soon, the last Army-Navy contest for no one knows how long will be staged on June 2 when the soccer teams of the two government institutions meet.

Incidentally, that game will be the last time the Navy will have to contend with Harry Wilson in the garb of an opponent.

Since their squabble over the three-year eligibility rule it has been understood that the two schools would have no further athletic relations after July 1. That decision was reached months ago. It is unchanged now and the soccer game is the last of the contests to be held between the two schools.

For seven years, while attending Penn State and West Point, Wilson has been competing against the Middies. He has taken part in victories and has suffered defeats many times, but the soccer game will be his last victory or defeat.

Perhaps sports writers in the future when writing of the last athletic contest between the Navy and the Army will be able to definitely place this coming soccer struggle by remembering it as the game in which Wilson ended his athletic competition against the Navy.

Nice reading matter can be fashioned out of the unknown substitute who goes in and delivers for the big star in the great emergency. And even if he doesn't deliver in victorious style he makes a good story.

Leonard Grant, a young football player from New York University, who is six feet two and weighs 218 pounds, delivered as a substitute hero in the intercollegiate boxing championships.

"TNT" Lassman, 1927 Intercollegiate heavyweight champion, captain of the N. Y. U. eleven and an All-America star, broke his leg last fall and couldn't go out for boxing. Grant, who plays next to his captain on the line, answered the call for help and with very little coaching went into the championship tournament and won the title.

Claude Grigsby, captain of the Georgetown football team, heard the same distress-call from the boxing coach and answered it. He got a fine beating but proved himself a great sportsman.

Georgetown's star heavyweight was injured shortly before the championship tournament, and as colleges always want an entry in the heavyweight class, the coach called for volunteers. Grigsby never had the gloves on before but he answered the call and went into the tournament. He took a fine beating, but he wasn't knocked out, and the fair name of Georgetown was represented.

Examples of Sportsmanship It was this same Grigsby who twice distinguished himself for sportsmanship on the football field last fall.

In the Lafayette game one of the star Lafayette backs was knocked out and time was called. When time was up the player hadn't come to sufficiently and they were about to lead him from the field when Grigsby came to the rescue and called time out for Georgetown so the player would have another two minutes.

Later in another game, in a serious situation, the opposing team called time out and was told that it would cost a penalty as the team had exceeded the allowance of the rules. A penalty would have ruined that chance to score, but Grigsby again came to the rescue.

"Georgetown now taking time out," he said to the referee and thereby gave the other fellows their chance for a conference and a breathing spell.

John McGraw might say that is too much of a fraternal spirit for athletes, but Georgetown didn't

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE DELFT. No wiser selection than that of Marlon Davies could have been made to play the role of Phoebe Throssel in Sir James Barrie's "Quality Street," which Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has made into a film play and which opened yesterday at the Delft theatre.

"Quality Street," known throughout the world as one of the best whimsical vehicles ever written, has been endeared to the American public by Maude Adams, and more recently by Helen Hayes, both of whom played the role upon the stage which Miss Davies plays so well upon the screen.

The role demands a certain loss anything by it and it is quite likely that Grigsby's name will be respected for some time at those two institutions.

What Penn Did Giving the other fellow a break is one of the highest traits of sportsmanship and it doesn't always cost.

During the hottest part of a hot race in the eastern intercollegiate basketball league this season, the official scorekeepers made a mistake in scoring that gave Dartmouth a victory over Pennsylvania that looked to be the margin by which Penn would lose a chance for the championship.

An official protest was lodged with a demand that the game be played over, but the university athletic officials refused to demand another game.

They said the friendly feeling of years' standing between Dartmouth and Pennsylvania would not be imperiled by the result of a basketball game and the score stood as it was incorrectly recorded.

Pennsylvania then went on and won the championship after being forced to engage in a play-off with Princeton.

portrayal of the whimsical which not one actress in a hundred could offer with any marked degree of success.

It is to be hoped that Marlon will be given more roles like it for the sake of picture-goers who, though many would deny it, appreciate a good portrayal of a classic role.

The Barrie vehicle gives Miss Davies ample opportunity to exercise her talents as a comedienne but at the same time it demands the pathos and drama in which this star is so rich.

The settings of this picture are remarkable and will, no doubt, be copied for many a wealthy home. The costumes are quaint and exceedingly becoming to Miss Davies' quaint blonde beauty.

AT THE STRAND. In "Daredevil's Reward," a Fox Films production starring Tom Mix, which will be shown at the Strand again today, Mix is cast in the role of a ranger masquerading as a highwayman.

So intent is he in making love to the charming occupant of the stage he is holding up, Mix forgets his mission and leaves without touching the money shipment.

Determined to prevent the money falling into unscrupulous hands, Mix then masquerades as the camp cook, which involves him in a series of smashing scenes.

In the cast with Mix are Natalie Joyce, Lawford Davidson, Billy Bletcher, William Welsh and Harry Cording.

Closer than a tattooed anchor

P.A. and I are like that. Closer than the paper on the wall. P.A. is so companionable, so genuinely friendly. When you open the tidy red tin, you get a fragrant notice of how friendly it's going to be in a pipe. Then you tamp in a load and apply the match. Man, that taste! Cool as an Eskimo's front porch. Refreshing as arctic sunshine. Mellow and mild and long-burning, with a full, rich tobacco-body that puts you next to a new kind of pipe-joy. Here's a smoke that you can write home about. It's got everything! They tell me more P.A. is smoked than any other brand. I believe it, and I think I know why. If you don't know the deep-down satisfaction of a jimmy-pipe and Prince Albert, you've been missing the best bet in the whole tobacco-line. I'm giving it to you straight, Men.

JURY FAILS TO RETURN VERDICT

Jurors Hearing Case of Otto Reinholdsen Dismissed for Night

The circuit court jury hearing the case of Otto Reinholdsen of Stonington, facing manslaughter and negligent homicide charges in connection with the death of Armour Girard, Masonville youth, in an auto accident last October, was dismissed for the night at 11 o'clock last night after failing to reach a verdict. The jurors were allowed to return to their homes and will reconvene for further deliberation this morning.

The jurors who are serving in the case are: P. N. Peterson, Mrs. Lillian Sullivan, Irene Thompson, Victor Anderson, R. P. Jensen, Mrs. Mary E. Main, Andrew Swanstrom, Charles Carlson, Henry Norman, Roger L. Smith, Kolman Casper and J. I. Chase.

The case was placed in the hands of the jury at 3:30 p. m. Prosecuting Attorney Glenn W. Jackson opened the arguments for the state at 11 a. m., shortly after the court had overruled a motion of the defense for dismissal. Attorney N. C. Spencer concluded his arguments before recess was taken for the noon hour and the defense arguments were completed by Attorney H. J. Rushton, also of defense counsel, after the opening of the afternoon session. After the closing address, Judge Frank A. Bell gave his charge to the jury, outlining the rules of law involved and instructing them they could render one of three verdicts: guilty of manslaughter, guilty of negligent homicide, or not guilty.

That Otto Reinholdsen was not drunk at the time of the accident, despite the fact he had taken a few drinks of liquor several hours prior to the occurrence of the mishap, was one of the principal contentions by defense counsel. Witnesses were also called by the defense to show that the automobile, which was driven by Armour Girard who was killed in the accident, was parked, without lights, in the middle of the road at the time of the collision. At Tuesday's session, state's witnesses, who were occupants of the Girard automobile, testified that they were not parked but that the driver was applying the brakes about the time the two cars came together.

Rheinholdsen took the stand in his own defense to conclude the defense testimony. He said he took two drinks at the John Bursucowski farmhouse before going out to Camp 5, near Nahma Junction, but that he had no drinks on the way as was testified by his two companions, Larson and Jacobson. Rheinholdsen testified that he also had drunk two bottles of homebrew beer shortly before midnight at the dance, but stoutly maintained he was drunk at any time. Others who were at the lumber camp dance, including Mr. and Mrs. Adam Lambert, Raymond Lambert, and John Thompson, bolstered up his defense by declaring he did not show any effects from the drinking.

Saw Parked Car, Claim.
Mr. and Mrs. Lambert testified that they left the camp for Stonington ahead of Rheinholdsen and that as they passed the scene of the accident, before it occurred, they saw an automobile parked on the road. They said there was some kind of a covering on the car, but could not positively identify it as Girard's car.

In addressing the jury, Prosecuting Attorney Jackson reviewed the testimony given by county officers who were called to the scene of the accident on the morning of October 23. He declared that the evidence showed that the Dodge touring car, driven by Rheinholdsen, had hit the other automobile with great force, indicating that Rheinholdsen was driving at a high rate of speed. He also brought

ARMY DRIVE IS WELL ON WAY

Solicitors Report Cordial Greetings on First Calls Made Yesterday

Escanaba has a heart. Solicitors who went out yesterday morning to begin the campaign for funds to finance the work of the Salvation Army for another year, reported, without exception, that they had met with a kindly and courteous reception at the hands of everyone upon whom they called. The returns had not been tabulated last night. Only about one-third of the territory to be covered had been gone over. But many substantial contributions had been received and prospects for raising a fund large enough to finance the work for some time to come, were said to be bright.

The "Everyone give something" idea has taken hold, it was said, and in addition to the large contributions from heads of business concerns, many small gifts were reported.

"If the results of yesterday's drive are indicative of what we may expect Thursday and Friday, we can be assured that the campaign will be a success," said Charles J. Byrns, general chairman. "That is, of course, assuming that there is no slowing up in the activity of the men on the firing line and no lessening of the generosity of the people upon whom they will call."

May Mail Checks.
The Salvation Army's monthly budget is $175 and it is hoped in this drive to raise enough money to maintain the work for at least 15 months, making another drive unnecessary before the summer or fall of 1929.

Attention again was called to the fact that there will be no personal interviews outside of the business district, but that folks who want to contribute, can mail their checks to Mr. Byrns at the Birdseye Veneer company, or to M. N. Smith at the Escanaba National bank.

RUSTY STEEL.
Hot vinegar and salt will clean rusty steel, if one is persistent. Then rub it hard with a piece of dark flannel until it shines.

TUNA FILLER.
In making chicken pie, croquets or any other left-over dish, tuna fish can be used with bits of chicken without detection.

out that it was unlikely that the young people, returning at 3 o'clock in the morning from a party at the Wickstrom farm, would park their car on the roadside while enroute to their homes.

Defense counsel stressed the point that there had been no evidence presented that Rheinholdsen was drunk, and suggested that it was probable that Girard had driven his car into the path of Rheinholdsen's automobile when he had reached down to pull the brake lever.
