

10 Airplanes Leave Escanaba to Attend Dedication at Blaney

Ten airplanes—the Ford Tri-Motor, six army pursuit machines, "The Pride of Appleton," the Swallow of the U. P. Airways, Inc. and the Fairchild ship of the Weeks Aircraft company of Milwaukee—hopped off late yesterday afternoon for Blaney to participate in the dedication of the new airport there today.

Gov. Fred W. Green and his party, after visiting the U. P. State Fair during the afternoon, boarded the Ford Tri-Motor monoplane at 4:15 p. m. at the local airport and in scarcely more than a half hour they landed in Blaney. A banquet at the Celibeth Tavern, at which the distinguished visitors of the Blaney Park program last evening. This morning the formal dedication of the airport will take place, and the Green party will hop off again in the afternoon to Menominee, making a brief stop while enroute to Chicago and the Dearborn airport at Detroit.

After the dedication, the six pursuit planes will return to Selfridge Field, Mt. Clemens, by way of the Straits, and the Appleton and Milwaukee ships will go to their respective home ports without stopping here.

Flies to Kingsford.
The huge all-metal ship took a jaunt to Kingsford in the morning, leaving at 10:15 and arriving at the new Ford airport at 11 o'clock. Bucking a 30-mile northwest wind, the "silver goose" was unable to make more than a top speed of 85 miles per hour. But with the wind on its tail on the return trip it developed a speed of 125 miles per hour, negotiating the 45 air-mile distance in 25 minutes.

The massive circle, 60 feet in diameter, at the Ford airport was discernible from five miles away with the plane traveling at an altitude of 1,000 feet. From a 2,000-foot altitude the sign can be seen from ten miles away. The Ford airfield, opened about two months ago, comprises sixty acres and is situated a mile and a half northwest of the village of Kingsford. With an east-west runway of 1,800 feet and a north-south runway of 2,400 feet, the field is large enough for the landing of the larger type of aircraft.

Members of Party.
Making the trip to Kingsford were: F. L. Black, director of advertising, Ford Motor company; E. S. Kingsford, Ford dealer of Iron Mountain; John Doyle, Iron Mountain, superintendent of the body plant, Ford Motor company; Victor Perini, Iron Mountain, general superintendent of the upper peninsula operations of the Ford company; F. W. Donnell, International News Reel photographer; H. J. Norton, Escanaba Ford dealer; Joseph Sturgeon, publisher of the Delta Reporter; Gladstone; William J. DuChaine of the Escanaba Daily Press staff; Harry McGee, pilot, and C. W. Bradley, mechanic.

Members of the party were taken to the Kingsford Community club for luncheon upon their arrival, and afterward visited the various departments of the large Ford Motor company's plant. Mr. Perini and Mr. Doyle remained in Kingsford, and on the return trip the new passengers in the 12-passenger plane were T. A. Masterson, managing editor of the Iron Mountain News, Mrs. E. L. Kingsford, Victor Bellagamba and Carl G. Miller, residents of Iron Mountain. The plane left the Kingsford airport at 1:50 p. m. and raced an impeding rain storm into Escanaba, arriving at the airport here at 2:15 p. m.

Army Plane Maneuver.
Before departing for Blaney, the six army pursuit planes maneuvered over the city, throngs watching their brilliant performance. The Ford tri-motor plane, with Gov. Green's party, was the last to leave here. In the machine, besides the governor and pilots, were: O. D. Murphy, U. S. department of commerce aviation inspector; G. V. Smith, International News Reel cameraman; H. B. Fuller, Lansing, deputy auditor general; Fred A. Chapman, manager of the Michigan State Fair; Norvell Tyrell, the governor's son-in-law; H. J. Norton, Escanaba Ford dealer; Capt. Lawrence King of the governor's staff; E. J. French, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce airport committee; H. P. Lindsay, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; F. W. Black, director of advertising, Ford Motor company, and C. J. Byrns, manager of the Birds Eye Veneer company, Escanaba.

The Fairchild four-passenger plane, piloted by Edgar LaParle, chief pilot of the Weeks Aircraft company of Milwaukee, reached Escanaba at 1:30 a. m. and departed for Blaney at 4 p. m. The passengers were: J. W. Vetter, Milwaukee; Walker C. Russell, of the Russell Detective Agency, Milwaukee; R. L. Riggs, reported of the Milwaukee Journal, and Marie Rowell of Waukesha, Wis.

The "Pride of Appleton" carried K. M. Haugen, general manager of the North American Airways, Appleton; Lydia Kallshek, Milwaukee aviatrix; Mr. Young, Bell Telephone company manager of Menominee; Eliya West, pilot, and wife; and George Apitz, Bessemer, relief pilot.

"Wallie" Arntzen and C. Harold Westcott, manager of the U. P. Airways, went to Blaney in the Swallow.

Fair Enough!

John L. McNamara, secretary of the State Fair at Detroit, who has been here all week assisting in the handling of programs, left last night for his home.

The shower, early in the afternoon program yesterday, sent holders of box seats, including the governor and his party, scampering for cover under the sheltered portion of the stand. The rain did not last long.

The mule race drivers, yesterday, were two members of the board of managers of the fair. They were Dr. A. Saunders of Menominee county, and David Erkin of Mackinaw county.

The Florists Association of America, through C. Peterson & Sons, of Escanaba, presented Gov. Green with a beautiful bouquet at the afternoon performance. The movie men took pictures of the presentation.

Four of the Hoggan Hippodrome horses staged a running race as a special attraction for the youngsters in the afternoon.

Someone may ask: "Why do people display a collection of cracked cups and other dishes at a fair?" These were never intended for the antiques department and you will not find them there. They are on a table in the north wing of the exposition building and they represent samplings of the various dishes taken from restaurants and hotels during the past year—dishes with cracks in them which everyone should refuse to eat and drink from. Such dishes belong in the garbage can to be thrown far away from the home and eating houses.

As everyone knows, bacteria thrives on heat, and when a cup is cracked the bacteria are in these cracks. When hot coffee is poured into the cups the cracks expand and the germs are scattered about in the liquid. Therefore, cracked dishes should never be used even after they are washed, as the dishwasher is never as hot as the coffee and these are dangerous enemies to the health of each individual.

Of valuable information and interest to all is the demonstration in the north wing of the main building where the barberry bush and its dreadful damage done to crops is demonstrated. Everyone who visits this section will be presented with a booklet giving the analysis of the barberry rust and this is so clearly explained that everyone will do their utmost to help in the campaign of destroying this enemy of our grain crops. A visit to this section will convince anyone of the work which is being carried on by the department of agriculture in the eradication of this troublesome plant, once used as an ornamental hedge, but now a dreaded enemy.

The Danforth Holstein-Friesian Association composed of Escanaba business men and Delta County farmers was organized in January, 1924. It was organized primarily to improve the Dairy Stock of the County. Each farmer who took a share of stock in the association was entitled to one cow. The cow belonged to the association but the farmer received all milk that she gave and one-half the increase. The Association was organized for five years at the end of which time all original stock and the increase was to be sold at Auction. The original purchase consisted of sixteen heifers and a bull. These animals were purchased in Livingston County and were all from high producing herds. The cow testing records show that some very good individuals were secured and through the use of a good sire there are thirty-two outstanding females which will be in the sale. The sale also includes two bull calves that have good cow testing association records, and will be a credit to any herd.

An exceptionally large crowd of Peninsula residents attended the U. P. State Fair at Escanaba during the past week. It is believed that there has never been so many local people, within one week, visiting the county seat, as there has been during the fair week. All were highly pleased with the fair attractions.

Local schools were closed Friday, to give teachers and pupils an opportunity to attend the fair.

Unable to get to the big fair, the little folks of the kindergarten class had a miniature fair of their own in the school building. Fruits and vegetables were taken to school for the event which seemed to please the youngsters highly. One little chap deserved a prize for his product, even though it was not home grown. It was an orange. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gauthier and Mrs. Lemire have returned home after a motor trip which included stops at Ishpeming, Marquette, Calumet and Lake Linden. They were away about ten days. Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Dess of Escanaba were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas DeaRochers here.

A pouring rain which commenced early Friday morning and continued during a large part of the day, was the cause of much disappointment to many local people who had made plans to attend the fair. Some of these did go in spite of the unpleasant weather, while others cancelled the trip.

Business Good in U. S.; Storm Has Telling Effect

New York, Sept. 21—(AP)—Dun's tomorrow will say: The satisfaction derived from a further seasonal commercial expansion has been overshadowed by the recent destructive tropical hurricane, extending to the lower Atlantic coast and followed by severe storms in other sections. Although the work of reconstruction and rehabilitation ultimately will give impetus to some branches of business, the immediate results in the affected regions, and to some extent in outlying territory, naturally are deleterious. Broadly, however, trade has followed the upward course that invariably develops at this period, evidence of rains being more numerous in reports covering the country, as a whole. The spreading of mercantile and industrial operations is not now, nor has it been for a long time, evenly distributed, but the existing irregularities and contrasts do not obscure the fact that the underlying conditions are favorable. Political influences are not acting as a brake on progress, and such retarding elements as prevail are outweighed by stimulating forces.

BY STANLEY W. PRENOSIL Associated Press Financial Editor

x) - Ex-dividend .055. New York, Sept. 21 - (AP) - Heavy buying of the motor shares, several of which moved into new high ground, featured the irregular higher price movement in today's stock market.

Up until the last few minutes of trading, the ticker kept fairly well abreast of the market. The day's sales of 4,765,100 shares have only been exceeded a few times this year. Transactions in General Motors Common, which climbed more than 6 points to a new 1928 high at 218 3/4, comprised nearly one-tenth of the day's entire volume of business.

Lowering of the call money rate from 8 to 7 1/2 per cent with predictions in banking quarters of relatively easy call money rates next week, helped considerably in reviving bullish enthusiasm. Wall Street did not appear to be unduly disturbed by the increase of $5,000,000 in Federal Reserve Bankers' Loans which was attributed, in part, to heavy new bond financing.

Today's rise in General Motors was based on a report that President Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., might have something interesting to say on the eve of his departure for Europe. Chrysler was taken in hand late in the session and pushed up 5 points to a new top at 111 1/4.

Buying of the oils centered largely in the low and medium priced issues. Sinclair sold up to 21 7/8, a new top, on a large turnover. Revival of activity and strength in Superior Oil was based on the report that the recent acquisition of the Moody Corporation, owning 65,000 acres of oil lands in Texas, New Mexico and Colorado, was part of a plan to make Superior the nucleus of another large mid-continent company.

Greene Cananea Copper, soaring 10 3/4 points to 132 3/4, was one of the outstanding individual strong spots. Others were Coty, DuPont, S. H. Kress, National Dairy Products, National Supply and National Tea, all up 5 to 8 points. Brooklyn Union Gas, Burroughs Adding Machine, Eisenlohr, Lambert, Fleischman and the Purity Baking Stocks were among the score or so issues to establish new peak prices for the year.

Wright aeronautical broke 9 points and rallied 2 and Curtiss fell 3 1/4 and rallied fractionally. Commercial Solvents, W. T. Grant, Motor Products, Radio and the U. S. Rubber Shares also were conspicuously heavy. Freeport Texas sustained an over-night loss of nearly 10 points at 60 and then rebounded to 62 1/2. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Chicago, Sept. 21 - (AP) - Potatoes, receipts 119 cars; on track 215; total U. S. shipments 1933 cars. Trading fair, market slightly weaker. Wisconsin sacked round whites, 90 at 1.10; mostly around 1.00; bulk 90 at 1.15; Minnesota sacked sand-laid Ohio 1.10 at 1.15; Nebraska sacked Irish cobbles, 1.10 at 1.20; Idaho sacked rurals 1.25 at 1.35.

VEGETABLES SHOW QUALITY

95 Entries of Potatoes on Exhibit at State Fair

The large display of farm products shown at the U. P. State Fair speaks well for the interest shown in this section. Not only the farmers of the upper peninsula stopped to view the display, but every one of the 30,000 visitors who spent the day here Thursday lingered long at the various displays which are grouped in the main building. In this section also the exhibits are rather crowded and if the interest continues, a larger space will be allotted to the display next year.

There are 95 entries of potatoes and every variety grown in this section was shown. Prizes were awarded the best. Displays were made of blue, white, pink and yellow ribbons are attached to the prize winning exhibits.

Ten varieties of pumpkins are shown, extra large pumpkins, smaller ones of rich flavor and good quality, and the entire pumpkin exhibit fills one long table.

Cucumbers, large and small, the pickling kind and the others for table use, and seed cucumbers fill a large space and many premium ribbons are seen in this section.

Carrots are firm and well arranged. There are only 58 entries but all are very fine specimens of the carrot crop.

Head lettuce comprises 12 entries, parsley 18 entries, citron, round and oblong, good-sized, several entries; melons one entry, colorable five entries, yellow bantam corn nine, popcorn, black and light, several entries.

Beans are shown in 16 different varieties, both string and wax; onions, white, red and golden skin, many entries of each variety, small pickling onions, summer savory, yellow ward bush, dill six entries, hops one entry, clover 11 entries, and all of these various vegetables have been awarded first, second and third prizes.

Squash of every variety, crooked neck Hubbard and others, 15 varieties and many entries; also white squash seldom seen in this part of the state.

Cabbage is unusually hard and of a good grade. Many heads fill a large space in the exhibit, and first, second and third prizes have been awarded in this department.

If the display of cabbage were cut into salad, there would have been enough to feed the 30,000 visitors on Thursday. Purple-red cabbage received four prizes, and other varieties are shown, including the curly leaf cabbage which is rare.

Cauliflower is fine this year. Kale is shown, poppy seed in bags and green and yellow peas are displayed in bins. Celery and celery root are fine; egg plants are also shown.

The tomatoes, is chopped into pickles, would feed the residents of this city several weeks. There are 33 entries of green tomatoes, with first, second and third prizes; 20 entries of red tomatoes, and many others too numerous to mention.

Horse radish, bagas, parsnips, turnips of every variety and the beets, all kinds and so many of them on display; 38 entries of sugar beets, 30 entries of red beets, and the size and weight are remarkable.

Charles Gagnon, 77, Takes Ride in Plane

Charles Gagnon, 77 years old, was a passenger in the North American Airways monoplane for a trip over the city Thursday. It was his first airplane ride. K. M. Haugen, of Appleton, president of the company and pilot of the plane, posed in front of the ship with Mr. Gagnon for a picture. Mr. Gagnon is the world's oldest professional trick and fancy ice skater.

"Cap and Toby" Win First In Horse-Pulling Contest Threaten to Smash Record

Old "Cap and Toby" owned by the I. Stephenson Company of Wells, won the Upper Peninsula heavyweight horse-pulling championship at the Upper Peninsula State Fair grounds yesterday morning. The team, driven by John Boucher, made a successful haul of 2800 pounds on the truck-mounted dynamometer—a pull equivalent to 18½ tons on concrete pavement—to take the 1928 title. Then in an added effort, they came very near to setting a new all-time Upper Peninsula record. Had the footing been more firm they probably would have set a new mark of 3050 pounds, but because of the heavy condition of the race track, the contest was moved to the sod-covered infield which offered footing considerably less secure than a dry clay-topped track. The official distance for a complete pull is 27½ feet. They managed to take the 3050 pounds 4½ feet, but were unable to pull the remainder of the distance, to break the existing record. They had, therefore, to be content with the 1928 championship with the prospect of looking forward, later, to a chance at the all-time peninsula record.

Cap and Toby are 14 and 15 years old, respectively. They weigh 3400 pounds and are in the yard service at the I. S. Co. Plant at Wells.

Gardner Team Second.

Second place in the contest went to another Delta county team, owned by Peter Gardner. This team pulled 2600 pounds and got a two-foot haul on 2500 pounds.

McLean-Frisch.

St. Boniface's church at Detroit was the scene of a pretty wedding Thursday, August 30th, at 9 o'clock when Miss Revere Geraldine McLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McLean, formerly of this city, became the bride of Henry F. Frisch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Frisch of Port Huron, Mich.

Rev. Fr. W. R. Yahner performed the ceremony. The bridal gown was white satin with an over-skirt of duchess lace made with an uneven hem. The bridal veil of tulle was fastened with a crown of pearls and orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet in shower fashion, was of bridal roses, feverfew, baby's breath and lillies of the valley. The bride wore a three strand necklace of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Ann Frisch, maid of honor, wore a sleeveless gown of baby blue taffeta faced with pink taffeta. A Queen Mary collar adorned the neck and a silver wreath with worm completed her costume. Mrs. Joseph Mallin was matron of honor and wore a Venetian blue georgette gown trimmed in Rhinestones, and a hat of the same shade. Miss Margaret Gelbel, bridesmaid, wore a gown of powder blue georgette trimmed with pearls and a silver wreath. They carried Premier and Columbia roses, feverfew, mignonette in shower effect.

Mr. Frisch was attended by Norland Brewster and the ushers were Joseph Mallin and Joseph Kirschner.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Mary McLean and daughters Miss Nora McLean, Mrs. Carl A. Johnson, of this city, Mrs. C. C. Hanley and son Bernard, North Tonawanda, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Frisch, Port Huron, Mich.
