NO INDICATION OF BIG STRIKE TODAY

Operations at all Docks of Escanaba Today Continued without Interruption and Threatened Walk-out of Mates, Firemen, Oilers and Dock Workers did not Materialize. Lake Carriers and Longshoremen Appear to be Watching Each Other Closely Without Taking any Decisive Action.

No indications of the threatened general stop of all traffic on the Great Lakes which was scheduled for May 1, was shown in Escanaba today.

At the docks of both the North-Western and St. Paul roads all boats in port were taking on loads today and no indications of a walkout by the mates, firemen, oilers and dock workers, as had been threatened, was shown.

A message was received by the officials of one of the docks this morning that the mates had been called out by President D. J. Keefe of the Longshoremen but if such an order was issued its effect was not shown at this port.

All boats that arrived in port today moved to their berths at the ore docks as usual and the intimation that was made yesterday afternoon by President Keefe that the mates and firemen of all boats arriving at upper lake ports today would leave their posts as soon as the boats had been made fast, was not carried out.

It was claimed yesterday afternoon that the Longshoremen ordered to strike included all men employed on iron ore, coal, merchandise and lumber docks, the firemen and oilers on steamers and all tugmen. Such mates as already belong to the union it was said would also leave their posts.

Not only were there no indications of a strike at iron ore and coal docks or on the vessels in port today, but the crew of the tug Tomlinson were at their work as usual and made no move to leave their posts.

Capt. Charles Rouch, of the Tomlinson, said that he had heard little of the threatened strike and that he did not believe that his men intended to go out.

The strike which was threatened to open today throughout the Great Lakes has been brought about through the refusal of the Lake Carriers' association to recognize the Mates, union which is affiliated with the International Longshoremen's union.

The Lake Carriers have persistently refused to hire mates belonging to the union and for two months the pilots, with the assistance of the Longshoremen, have been perfecting plans for the conflict scheduled for May 1.

The game between the Lake Carriers and the Longshoremen's union has impressed outsiders as one of monumental bluff upon the result of which the livelihood of 50,000 men was at stake and it was expected that the bluff of one side would be called out last night.

The indications at this port today were that the situation remains unchanged with each side watching the actions of the other closely and the developments of the next few days will be watched with interest by marine men all along the lakes.

D. J. Keefe, president of the Longshoremen, did not deny yesterday that all the workers affiliated with his organization have been ordered out. He positively declined to give out any statement, and said he did not propose to do so later. A meeting of the executive committee of the Lake Carriers has been called at Cleveland to determine upon a plan of campaign in case the men are ordered to strike.

Vesselmen had not generally placed great confidence either in the statements of Keefe that the men would strike, or in the equally positive statements of President Livingstone that the Lake Carriers would fight. It was believed that some sort of a compromise at the last minute would be reached, and that the strike, which would be the most disastrous of any in the latter day marine, would be avoided. Even with the positive declarations of the two presidents, many believe that one or the other would give way before the gaze of battle was thrown down.

"Upon what I consider absolutely reliable authority," said President William Livingstone of the Lake Carriers' association. "I have learned that President D. J. Keefe of the International Longshoremen's Marine and Transport Workers' union has ordered the members of his union to strike at midnight tonight. The locals ordered out include the ore and package freight handlers, the grain scoopers, the firemen and oilers, tugmen and a problematic number of mates. Mr. Keefe asserts that his association numbers among its members a large majority of the mates, but as to this we do not know.

"We have not been looking for trouble, but now that it is forced upon us the longshoremen's union will know that they have been in a fight. We are rapidly making preparations to meet the emergency created by the coming strike. A meeting of the executive committee of the Lake Carriers will be called immediately to arrange and develop further plans for operating our boats than we already have. General Manager Harry Cully of the steel corporation fleet has ordered his fleet, now bound down, to tie up outside the harbor at Cleveland, so that there will not be a congestion at the docks there."

Vessel owners and the iron mining companies are better prepared for a strike than their statements would indicate. Conference after conference has been held during the past week in a secret way and a plan of campaign has been outlined at these conferences to meet the demands of the longshoremen. Many vessel owners in their contracts with masters, engineers and others of crews have expressly stipulated that in case of strike the wages of the entire crew would cease the day the ship could no longer navigate. For a week past every time shipment of grain for export has been diverted from the lakes to the railroads, and vesselmen at both Chicago and Duluth are amply protected against damage suits if the grain they agreed to carry is held back.

RESUME SERVICE ON MAY TENTH

Full Weather Report from 52 Cities in United States and Canada Each day After Next Wednesday.

The first weather map of the season will be issued by Observer W. P. Stewart, according to instructions that have been received from the headquarters of the department, on May 10. On that date the map service will be resumed and will be continued each day with the exception of Sundays until Dec. 10 when as a general rule the navigation season is closed.

The storm warning signal service has already been resumed and will be continued until orders are received from the headquarters of the department to discontinue the service.

When the weather map service is resumed telegraphic reports on weather conditions will be received from 52 cities in the United States and Canada and while the resumption of the service will greatly increase the work of the observer here much more satisfactory service can be given to the people of the city and lake captains touching at this port.

FRISCO DISASTER BOOMING TRADE

New York, May 1.—Special.—The prospective rebuilding of San Francisco, together with the resumption of building operations in all sections of the country, is causing almost unprecedented activity in the hardware trade. The demand for wire and cut nails and for mechanics' tools is unusually brisk, and manufacturers are, only with the greatest difficulty, meeting the requirements of jobbers and retailers.

NO OFFICERS NAMED TONIGHT

Mayor Perron will Present List to Council for Confirmation on Evening of May 7.

Officers for the different appointive offices in the city of Escanaba will not be named by Mayor Perron at the meeting of the council tonight.

It was announced by the mayor today that his appointments will be presented to the council at a regular meeting on the evening of May 7 and only routine business will be transacted by the city fathers tonight.

It is provided in the charter of the city that appointments for the different city offices may be made on the first Monday of May or at any subsequent regular meeting of the council and under which provision the mayor will defer action for one week.

Following is the portion of the charter relating to the time when appointments shall be made: "Appointments to office, except appointments to fill vacancies, shall be made on the first Monday in May of each year, but appointments which for any cause shall not be made on that day, may be made by the mayor and confirmed at any subsequent regular meeting of the council."

GOOD NUMBERS MARK THE BILL

Strong List of Attractions is Offered by Manager Salinsky at Ben's Theater this Week.

Blossom Robinson, who appeared in one of the best singing specialties that has been booked by Manager Salinsky in several weeks, was accorded a decided ovation by both audiences who saw the opening performance at Ben's theater last night.

Miss Robinson has a voice of considerable range and the numbers which she gave were well selected to accord with her vocal abilities.

At each of the performances last night her number was greeted with applause and the encores which were given showed well the bit that had been made with the crowd.

Spargue and Mack, who appear in a comedy sketch called The Irish Alderman, have a number that has some entertaining features and was well received by the audience.

Claude Ranf, a slack wire equilibrist, made a decided hit with the first night audience and established a standing with the patrons of the amusement place which will make his specialty one of the leading attractions of the week offered by Manager Salinsky.

The moving pictures shown this week are exceptionally interesting and held the attention of the audience closely when the feature of the entertainment program was given.

The illustrated song given this week adds its share in bringing the bill up to the required standard.

REVOLUTION SONS MEET

Boston, Mass., May 1.—Special.—More than twenty states were represented by delegates this morning when the seventeenth annual congress of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution was called to order at the Hotel Vendome. Gen. Francis H. Appleton, president of the society, presided. The morning session was devoted to the reception of delegates and the transaction of routine business. An early adjournment was taken to permit the members to go on a sight-seeing trip to Lexington, Concord and other places of historic interest. The sessions tomorrow will be held in Faneuil Hall. Ex-congressman Cornelius A. Pugsley of New York and Daniel M. Lord of Chicago appear to be the most prominent candidates for the presidency of the society. Many of the delegates are said to favor the re-election of Gen. Horace Porter, who held the office of president-general of the society for a number of years before his appointment as ambassador to France.

The admirers of General Porter urge that his election again would be a fitting tribute to his services to the nation in the recovery of the body of Admiral John Paul Jones. It is doubtful, however, if General Porter will permit his name to be used.

CUTE LOVER ELUDES FATHER

Irate Parent Attempts to stop Ceremony at St. Joseph but is Outwitted by Groom.

An enraged father, a pretty girl and a clever lover figured in one of the most interesting marriage scenes ever enacted at St. Joseph.

There was no indication of trouble when Louis J. Holderman, of Napoleon, Ind., walked into Clerk Miner's office and inquired for a marriage license. He was taken into the inner office and the license made out as requested.

The young man then inquired whether he could be married in the clerk's office or whether it would be necessary for him to hunt up a minister. He finally decided that his bride to be would probably have a preference for a parsonage. He left the office, brushing past an elderly man who was talking with a deputy clerk.

Then came the curious part of the chain of events. The elderly gentleman was the father of Miss Lovinia Grunwaldt, of Bremen, Ind., to wed whom Holderman had just taken out a license.

Either the father did not notice the young man or else did not know him by sight, for he paid no attention when the young lover slipped by him and out of the door.

The old gentleman was inquiring if a license had been issued to anyone by the name of Holderman, and when Clerk Miner informed him that the young man had just gone out he turned and ran into the corridor.

It was then that the chase began. The lover dashed out through a back way just a minute ahead of the angry father and made tracks down the street. The pursuer was far in his wake. He was doing his best to overtake the younger man and suddenly drew a big revolver from his back pocket. He raised it threateningly, but his good judgement evidently got the better of his anger, for he retraced his steps and hunted for Sheriff Tennant.

It was then that the young lover showed his cleverness. He threw the father off the scent, and after picking up the young lady, was married at the home of a local pastor while the irate parent was sitting in the office of the sheriff pouring out his tale of woe and demanding that something be done.

Later in the day a reconciliation was effected between the couple and the father. He gave them his blessing and they departed for Indiana.

TAX LANDS ARE BEING OFFERED

Annual Sale of Titles to Property in Delta County, Returned Delinquent was Opened Today.

The annual sale of state lands in Delta county on which taxes were not paid in the year 1904 and previous years, and were returned as delinquent by the auditor general's department, was opened at the office of the county treasurer this morning.

But few were attracted at the opening day of the sale and but few of the descriptions named in the delinquent list found buyers.

County Treasurer Semer read the descriptions in this office this morning while an interested row of prospective buyers sat at the side of the room and held the printed list awaiting the offering of descriptions considered by them to be desirable.

The task is a monotonous one and will be continued by the county treasurer each day for ten days.

The number of descriptions on the delinquent list has been gradually decreasing in Delta county, with the constant growth of the value of property in this district, for several years and the time is not believed to be far in the future when the delinquent tax list of this county will reach such a low point that it will attract but little attention.

HAVE MISSION AT HUBBEL

Rev. Father Vincent a Franciscan missionary arrived this morning from Louisville, Ky., and is stopping at St. Joseph Rectory on his way to Hubbell, Mich., where assisted by Father Forrest of St. Joseph's church he will give a mission in St. Cecilia church from May 6 to 18.

EXTENSION WORK NOT YET BEGUN

Definite Time for Construction of Telephone Line to Manistique has not been Announced.

Work on the extension of the Michigan State Telephone company's system from Gladstone to Manistique, will be undertaken as soon as the company's construction crew can complete work now undertaken and be brought to this district.

District Manager Miles Thomas has not yet received any definite information as to when the construction of the extension will be undertaken but he will probably visit the head offices of the company at Detroit, within a few days and will then be able to announce the definite plans of the company.

All of the supplies necessary for the construction of the extension have been delivered at Gladstone, thus insuring the completion of the work this summer.

The people of Manistique as well as business men of all cities of this district are anxious that the work shall be undertaken as soon as possible, as communication by telephone with Manistique has long been desired.

The officials of the Michigan State Telephone company were influenced in hastening arrangements for building the line by a petition which was signed by the prominent businessmen of all cities in this portion of the peninsula as well as the signatures of the principal business houses of Manistique, and it was hoped that the work would be completed and the line placed in commission early in this spring.

Because of the inadequate telegraphic facilities that are offered from this portion of the peninsula with Manistique the new telephone line will prove a great convenience and will undoubtedly draw a thriving business from the start.

Further experience with primary elections more and more prove the wisdom of the requirement that voters who desire to take part in the making of party nominations shall be members of the party they thus assist in controlling. Primary elections without this requirement can be utilized to defeat all the better purposes which those who have most favored them had in mind. Added experience with the new nominating method will probably suggest a number of changes and improvements, but it is not at all probable that any changes will be permitted through which the power to make party nominations will not be reserved to the members of the party the nominees are selected to represent.

BRIGHT COMEDY HERE TONIGHT

Isle of Spice will Attract Large Audience to the Peterson Opera House.

Full of tuneful music, pretty costumes, sensational electrical effects and the lavish environment of costly scenery and presented by a large company of well known comedians, and almost thirty young and pretty women, the "Isle of Spice" will be seen at the Peterson tonight.

The story of the piece is interesting, and abounds with comic situations and brilliant dialogue and lyrics. On the occasion of its premiere performance at the Majestic Theater New York City, where it ran for five months, the New York Press had this to say:

"The Isle of Spice aroused a large audience to genuine enthusiasm last night. Seldom indeed has a musical play been received as favorably in this city. It is rollicking good fun. The music is of the lifting kind, comedy forces hilarity, and the chorus is smarter, prettier and more full of ginger than any yet seen in New York. The person who believes he has an aesthetic temperament committed to his tender care may not go into raptures over the 'Isle of Spice.' It is not a production for the rare individual, but for the great, big, good-humored public. There is that mystic something that gives one a sense of elation before the first act is well under way. Perhaps it is the music, perhaps it is the stage setting; again it may be the bewitching attractiveness and delightful abandon of the chorus in full regiments, but whatever it is, a lifting feeling comes to the spirits, and before long the grumpiest person in the audience is joining in the applause. The story is laid on an island in the China Sea, and is the joint work of Allen Lowe and Geo. E. Stoddard.

On this island reigns King Bompoka and to his oriental realm come two Yankee sailors in a balloon. They are hailed as messengers from the sun and great is the honor that is at first their portion but evil befalls them: their real identity is revealed and when the future looks black with a Boxer ready for a beheading matinee, in march the comrades of the two unfortunates from the American warship and their lives are saved. Among the principal members of the company are Chas. A. Posey, Ethel Tilson, Louise Gould, Bert Wainwright, Jack Collins, J. L. Weber, Mabelle Leonard, W. J. McGraw, and a singing and dancing chorus of great beauty.

Men Past Sixty a Danger.

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rock Port, Mo. writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 91 years old." CLASSES PLAN ENTERTAINMENT

Two classes of the Sunday school department of the First Methodist Episcopal church have arranged a unique entertainment to be given in the parlors of that church on Thursday evening.

The event is announced as a "Fire-side" entertainment but the different features which will characterize the program are being kept as a secret by those who will take part.

It is expected that a large crowd of spectators will be attracted.

No. 100. Domestic Science.

Girls of the present day, each one of whom in a few years will in all probability, be at the head of a large establishment, are educated to do nothing. They are sent to school probably to a fashionable boarding school; they dip in to all the "ologies" and come out with a smattering of many subjects, but with minds in a far less vigorous, healthy and rational condition than that in which they went in. They rush into the rapid, and empty whirl of society, balls, party calls, theatre, and when other things fail, inordinate church going, till the small remnant of what they have learned is effectually dissipated.

Without any special training for her duties, and what is of infinitely more consequence, lacking a well disciplined reason, self control and moral earnestness, such a girl marries, and is installed as queen of her own little kingdom, a kingdom that needs constant vigilance, intelligence and executive ability. The first tyranny is the worst of all, anarchy. The poor little wife, after the misery and discomfort of trying to teach them what she does not herself know, falls an easy victim to the first efficient woman who, as cook or housekeeper, consents to take charge of her illregulated household and reduce it to order. She gladly sells her birthright for a mess of pottage, always providing the postage be well cooked and well served.

The cooking school is a most valuable adjunct to the system of public education, says a writer in the Houston Post. It has been tested and has proved its efficiency in the Fort Worth high schools. The writer then falls into reminiscences as follows:

"It would appear that the art of cooking has fallen into bad ways in Texas, and common experience proves that other states are little if any better off than we are.

Throughout the south, which used to be famous for its culinary excellence, the capable cook is being quite rare. No girl is too rich to know how to cook and sew. The education of women to do household properly, to promise better cooking, and the cooperation of employer and employe in raising the standard of domestic service, are the objects of all women. The incorporators say the servant system in this country is sadly demoralized by employers, as a result of which both those who are engaged in household work and those who pay for it are dissatisfied.

The advancement of the benefits of pure food, right living, economical buying, rational cooking and marketing are among the important steps the members of the alliance will take. Cooking, serving, marketing, and household economy is as important to any girl as her Latin and possibly more so.

In the ideal marriage husband and wife are equal partners. A girl ignorant of home cooking has no more right to marry than a man ignorant of bread earning. A large proportion of our young women are being prepared for everything except domestic life which statistics show nearly one half of them are living. Let us teach those who are members of our families, whether maids or daughters, that work done in the kitchen is quite as honorable and much more necessary than the accomplishments of the drawing room."

No. 88. Domestic Science.

Domestic science is a study which I think should be taught in all schools, because there are always more or less pupils, who desire to take it where they can derive some good out of it, instead of other studies in some branch which would never do them any good at all.

Dress making which is taught is very useful to most girls. We often find girls who cannot do the least thing in the line of dress-making not even as much as sew a button on anything.

The reason for this is because it is not taught in the schools. All girls do not want to devote many months just to learn the trade, where if it were taught in the schools they would willingly give an hour or so of their time up to this useful science and thus would not grow up wholly ignorant of dressmaking.

Perhaps some girls are just taking studies which may never do them any good whatsoever, only because they want to have the required number of credits.

There are some girls who are going to school because their parents want them to and don't ever expect to make any use of their course. Now if dress-making was taught they could take it which would enable them to make their own clothes at least. A great number of girls never have the opportunity of learning the trade from their folks at home. So I think that dressmaking is just as necessary to know as anything else, because if we didn't have any dressmakers I don't see how we could ever get our clothes made.

Another form of domestic science I think is absolutely necessary is cooking, and I think all schools should have a department where girls can learn to cook. They are safe as long as their mother does the cooking, but if anything should occur, that they would have to take their mother's place then they will wish that they had learned it before.

When girls are home they don't bother themselves about cooking, and their mothers want to teach them a little bit about the science they turn away and think to themselves what do I want to learn that for I won't ever want to cook. Now if this was taught in the schools, girls would take more interest in it and therefore learn more about it than they would if there others taught them. They also learn how to select food that can be easily digested. They teach what are the best diets to use.

In general cooking schools do a pupil just as much good as any other study for they learn all the economical methods how to make beautiful and delightful dishes, how to prepare the most wholesome, nutritive and agreeable food.

Perhaps there are some girls who have no place where they can learn to cook except in school. So in general I think domestic science should be taught in schools.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Trouble. An Escanaba Citizen Shows How to Cure Them.

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure those troubles or they lead to diabetes or Bright's disease. The best remedy to use is Doan's Kidney Pills. It cures all ills which are caused by weak or diseased kidneys. Escanaba people testify to permanent cures.

James Bridge, carpenter, of 1225 Escanaba St., Escanaba, Mich., says: "I suffered with my kidneys for several months, the result of a bad fall on the ice about two years ago. I have had several very severe attacks brought on by taking colds which settled in my back and caused terrible pains particularly at night. I could not stoop forward and regain an erect position without taking hold of something, and have had to lay off work several times. I used a number of remedies but none of them gave any more than temporary relief. I learned the value of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at the Moon Drug Co's store. The relief obtained from their use was almost instantaneous and the cure was permanent. I have had no return of the trouble now for over eighteen months."

TWO OFFICERS ARE DEPOSED

James Moloney, marshal and Eric J. Johnson, street commissioner for the city of Marquette were formally removed from office Saturday evening by the action of the common council ratifying the order of suspension given down Friday night by Mayor Culver. The vote on the two resolutions which carried endorsement of the mayor's charges was the same in both instances, fourteen aldermen voting in the affirmative, Alderman Reichel voting nay. The status of Moloney and Johnson after the action of the council has the effect of permanent removal, and neither can again hold office except by appointment in regular manner.

A Thousand Dollars Worth of Good.

"I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pain," says A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O. "I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick-dust-like substance and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1000 worth of good." Foley's Kidney Cure will cure every form of kidney or bladder disease. Ellsworth's Drug Store.

REPAIR DAMAGE TO THE BRIDGE

County structure Across Escanaba River, Badly Heaved by ice Shove is Made Safe.

Extensive damages sustained by the county bridge across the Escanaba river, north of Wells, from shoving ice during the winter and spring, have been repaired by a force of men working under the direction of D. A. Brotherton who was engaged by the county board of road commissioners to undertake the work.

In several places the piles, on which the bridge was supported, were heaved three feet from their original positions and the bridge was rapidly becoming unsafe for traffic.

At some points it was found by Mr. Brotherton that the piles had been raised completely out of their foundation in the river bed and were resting lightly on the bottom.

The bents at some points had been raised until the stringers supporting the bridge platform held by but a narrow edge and any great weight would have forced the structure part.

Cribbing was constructed about all of the piles that had been heaved by the ice and after the structure had been forced back to its normal level the cribbing was filled with heavy stones and which it is believed will hold the bridge supports against considerable pressure.

The problem of keeping the bridge across the Escanaba river in repair, it is believed, will be found to be a serious one by the road commissioners for all time, owing to the defective plans of construction.

It has been held by many that no bridge constructed with long spans and supported by piling can be successfully maintained on the Escanaba river where ice and log jams occur each spring.

The experience of this spring, when the entire structure was made unsafe by the first ice shove, would appear to bear out that contention and the condition of the bridge each spring from this time will be watched with much interest.

GRANGERS HAVE BANKING SCHEME

Philadelphia, Pa., May 1.—Special.—Embodied by the success that has already attended the first grange bank established in the United States, the farmers of Pennsylvania are planning a cooperative bank banking institution, and expect confidently that within five years the chain of grange banks will cover every state in the union. The more optimistic promoters of the scheme, indeed, are already looking forward to the day when the chain of grange banks will have so spread as to enable the establishment of central banking organizations in the country, through which exchange clearances can be made. The bank system is under the wing of the National Grange, which has influence and branches in nearly every rural township in the country. It is supposed to have the banks supported and managed by the farmers themselves.

CLAIM BILL IS EXCESSIVE

Salt Lake City, Utah, May 1.—Special.—After being on the docks for nearly two years the case of H. Rasmussen against the Union Pacific Coal company came up for trial in the United States district court here today. This is the case in which Rasmussen, who was an undertaker, sued the Union Pacific company for $75,000, which he claims as recompense for burying the bodies of 198 miners, who were killed in the Hanna mine disaster of several years ago. The company has refused to pay the bill on the ground that the charges are grossly excessive.

Fortress at Esquimaux is Evacuated Today by British Forces and Canadian Government is in Charge.

Victoria, B. C., May 1.—Special.—The evacuation of the fortress at Esquimaux by the imperial forces today marks an epoch in the history of Canada. It means that for the first time in three centuries there are no British soldiers, using the term British soldier in its restricted sense, doing duty in North America. In future the fortifications at Esquimaux, as at Halifax and elsewhere, are to be garrisoned by soldiers for the king under the direct control of and maintained directly by the Dominion of Canada.

STOLEN STORY IS THE THEME

Providence, R. I., May 1.—Special.—A number of theatrical people and newspaper men from New York, Boston and other points are here to witness the first performance tonight of Jesse Lynch Williams' new play, entitled "The Stolen Story." The piece derives its inspiration from the great field of American journalism, and the concluding scene is a realistic picture of the main editorial room of a great metropolitan daily just before the paper goes to press. The production is made by Henry W. Savage and the cast includes Jameson Lee Finney, Dorothy Tennant and other players of note.

TEXTILES ARE ON EXHIBIT

Paris, May 1.—Special.—Under the patronage of the French government a notable exhibition of the textile and allied industries was opened at Tourenay today, to continue through the entire summer. In addition to the textile exhibits the exhibition embraces a comprehensive display of progress, products and machinery for textile, mechanical and electrical industries, and also exhibits pertaining to social economy and hygiene. England, Germany, Belgium and a number of other countries, as well as France, are represented at the exhibition.

BELASCO IS RAISING FUND EIGHT HOUR DAY GRANTED

Denver, Colo., May 1.—Special.—Practically every employe in the great plants of the American Smelting and Refining company went to work today under a new eight hour schedule. Heretofore they have been working from ten to twelve hours a day. The reduction in hours was voluntary on the part of the company and carries with it no reduction in wages. Between 2000 and 3000 men are affected, distributed among the company's smelters in this city, Durango, Pueblo and Leadville.

OLD ITALIAN VILLA SOLD

Rome, May 1.—Special.—The famous Villa Palmieri, near Florence, was sold at auction today, together with its estate of nearly 100 acres. The villa is famous because of its associations with the lives and works of the painter Botticelli and the poet Boccaccio. In later years it was owned by the Earl of Crawford and on two occasions the villa was occupied by Queen Victoria during her spring time sojourns in Italy.

CLOSE FRAUNCE'S TAVERN TODAY

Hostelry Where Washington Bade Farewell to his Generals is no Longer a Public Resort.

New York, May 1.—Special.—After a continuous existence of nearly 150 years, Fraunce's Tavern, where General Washington bade farewell to all his generals after the close of the Revolutionary war, ended its career as a public resort today. The historic building, which stands at the corner of Broad and Pearl streets in the heart of the financial district, will tomorrow pass into the hands of the Society of the Sons of the Revolution, which organization has acquired the property with a view to preserving it as a public museum.

From May 13, 1768, the tavern was known as the Queen's Head hotel. It passed into the hands of Samuel Fraunce on Sept. 20, 1770, and he had a big new sign painted and hung on the wall outside. It read "Fraunce's Tavern," and it hangs there yet. The New York Chamber of Commerce held its first meeting there on Dec. 6, 1768, and continued to do so until the Revolution started and seriously interfered with all the business of the city.

With the closing of the tavern all the relics of colonial days which are still there will be sold at public auction. Among the other relics is a solid oak table known as the "Round Table," at which Washington often sat, as did many other notables. Several old muskets with their flint locks are also there, but not less interesting are the three dungeon like cells in the inner rear wall of the first floor. There still hang near the cells heavy iron chains firmly bolted to the walls and they were formerly used to chain prisoners to the walls when the cells were full.

WAGE INCREASE FOR 150,000

London, May 1.—Special.—There is great rejoicing in the Northern counties, where the wage increase for cotton operatives went into effect today. The advance amounts to 21-2 per cent, and affects 150,000 employees of the cotton mills. It is the first time in thirty years that they have been placed on the full wage standard adopted fifty years ago.

BANK IS OPEN NIGHT AND DAY

New York, May 1.—Special.—It is now possible for a New Yorker to draw out his money and spend it at any hour of the twenty-four—if he have an account with the Day and Night Bank, which opened its doors for business today. The institution occupies quarters at Fifth Avenue and Forty-fourth street and is the only one of its kind in the world.

Its promoters believe it will fill a long felt want in the metropolis and are of the opinion that it will be of substantial benefit to brokers, business men and others.

San Francisco, Cal., May 1.—Special—Two hundred thousand homeless and penniless people of San Francisco may be in more desperate need of assistance from the outside world within a few days than at any time since the catastrophe of two weeks ago.

A serious famine threatens thousands here unless additional help is forthcoming immediately. Mayor Schmitz says that the conditions promise to become more serious than a week ago and he has issued an appeal to outside cities to continue in sending contributions of money and provisions.

A total of seven hundred carloads of food supplies have been received and distributed in Frisco since Apr. 18 and railway officials announced that they have but 108 more cars now on the way. Both money and supplies are needed at once.

SOLOISTS HEARD AT CINCINNATI

Cincinnati, O., May 1.—Special—Judging from the number of visitors in the city and the advance sale of tickets Cincinnati's seventeenth biennial music festival will be a financial as well as an artistic success.

The initial concert is to be given tonight and the final one Saturday afternoon. Sir Edward Elgar is here from England to conduct two of his oratorios and two of his orchestral works. The soloists to be heard this year include Miss Gaski, Mme. Louise Homer, Miss Janet Spencer, Hubert Witherpoon and others of note. In addition there is the festival orchestra and a chorus of 400 voices.

Of course you pay your money, but you get your money's worth. For what does money mean to you? When Rocky Mountain Iva's on earth?—Hill Drug store Co., both stores.

Wisdom in Piano Buying does not always show itself in the price paid, nor in the choice of an instrument—it lies primarily in the selection of the RIGHT HOUSE to do business with.

The average buyers know little about Pianos—their comparative Musical worth, their construction, their reliability, etc.—He knows little about Piano values. It is plain that someone must be trusted. Who better than a large, responsible house, with an unassailable reputation for honorable and liberal business methods?

They who wisely buy of GRINNELL BROS., are assured of getting BEST PIANOS at the LOWEST PRICES for which they can be bought anywhere! In fact, owing to the immense quantities in which we buy for our 15 Busy Stores, we are able, in many cases, to offer values that are positively not duplicated elsewhere in this whole country.

There Are Many Other Reasons Why It Is Wisdom to Buy of This Great House. Among Them---

Piano Manufacturers, as well as dealers, and having an intimate knowledge of cost to produce, can command prices that are right.

Over 25 years' experience with Pianos in general, has enabled us to select for our line those makes which time has proved best and most reliable.

Having a larger and more complete organization than almost any other Piano Store in existence, the service we offer is positively unapproached.

We give our Personal Guarantee with every Piano, and that guarantee is backed by a capital of Over One Million Dollars.

Our long-established reputation for honest dealings and fair treatment of customers is a Bond of Absolute Protection to every patron.
