PLAYED JOKE ON EX-MAYOR

Story of Peene at City Call Follow ing Citizen's Party Convention is at Last Divulged.

That there was a formal burial service held over the remaining political aspirations of Ex Mayor A J. Valentine and Ex City Clerk H. J. Robertson, immediately after one of the conventions of the last municipal campaign was not divulged until today when the full details of the story which has before been suppressed were given.

The bier for the dead was the office table at the office of the mayor at the city hall where Ex Mayor Valentine was accustomed to meet people of the city having business with the chief ex ecutive at certain hours of each day.

According to the story that was related today the acting city clerk on the morning following the convention of the citizen's party when both Mr. Valentine and Mr Robertson were defeated for reelection arranged the dis-

A silver casket plate bearing the words "At Rest" was obtained at an undertaking establishment and after the table had been draped in black the plate was placed in position while over the top which was formed to resemble a casket were strewn dead and withered flowers while at the head of the supposed casket was placed a faded palm. A placard placed on top of the supposed to be the casket bore the following words, "Sacred To The Memory of the Political Aspirations of A. J. OF CANADA MEET Valentine and H. J. Robertson.

What was said by Ex-Mayor Valentine and H. J. Robertson, when the display was found is not divulged but it is known that steps were taken at once to suppress the story.
