MISSION CIRCLE SCORED SUCCESS

Tour Around The World Most Unique and Enjoyable Event Ever Arranged in Escanaba.

All entertainment successes that have been recorded in the past by different organizations of Escanaba, pale before that scored by the members of the Mission Circle of the First Presbyterian church last night in giving a Tour Around the World.

The "Tour" was really one of the most unique and at the same time enjoyable events that have ever been carried out in this city.

It was a decided departure from the regular church entertainment and to those who worked for several weeks in planning the details much credit is due.

From the time that the first "train" left the central station at 7:30 o'clock until the final load of passengers had been delivered at the church where an enjoyable musical program was given, not a single hitch in the arrangements occurred. The "trains," which were carriages, hacks and automobiles ran on schedule time throughout the evening carrying the passengers from one station to another until the complete circuit had been covered by all of the tourists and that the "trains" did not become mixed in a terrible tangle was due to the effort of A. O. Syverson assistant train dispatcher for the North-Western road and who acted as "train dispatcher" last night.

At each of the six stations the idea of a tour around the world was well carried out. Each home representing a certain country or city was prettily decorated in the colors of the country and carrying out in detail some phase of the life of the people.

In addition to carrying out the fund raising idea of a tour around the world several amusing features were also carried out at the central station.

A country bride and groom ready to launch on their honeymoon and decked out in all of the gay regalia peculiar to couples so afflicted were represented by Miss Henrietta Calhoun and Oliver Thatcher.

The troubles of the groom and his newly found spouse furnished much amusement for the throng of people waiting at the central station.

A party of emigrants consisting of a mother and seven small children and a "granny," were also at the station. The mother of the children was represented by Miss Edith Irwin and Miss Edith Fenton represented the "granny." The head of the family had become lost in the crowd at the landing point and the frantic efforts of the little party of foreigners occupied much time and several trains arrived and departed before it was finally decided to continue the trip without his aid. The children in the emigrant party attracted particular attention. All were dressed in native costumes and assisted in carrying out the ideas well.

"Uncle Sam" and Goddess of Liberty represented by Asst. Pros. Atty. A. W. Norblad and Miss Edna L. Cate also took part in the "tour" paying official visits to all of the different countries where they were received by special delegations of much flattered officials.

Paris, which city was represented at the home of Mrs. C. M. Thatcher was decorated in the national colors of France and presented a decidedly attractive appearance. The guests were received at the entrance by Miss Alice Hoole who greeted the visitors in French. Cake and ice was served at the home by servers in French costumes.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cram was converted into a typical German village, with its palm garden and many side features. Great strings of pretzels, the German colors and many relics from that country furnished material for the decorations.

Pretzels, frankfurters and coffee, which with its coating of whipped cream and served in steins presented such the appearance of the amber fluid known as beer. A single sip convinced the visitors that it was strictly temperance. Girls in quaint German costumes acted as servers at that station.

The hearts of all Irishmen were gladdened when they arrived at the home of Mrs. Edward Erickson where "could not" descendants were much in evidence. The decorations used at that place were potatoes covered with gilt, Irish flags and shamrock and the decorative scheme was one of striking beauty. Those in charge of the home were in Irish costumes and Irish songs were given throughout the evening by George J. Wisk, J. A. Allo and T. A. Cleary.

One entire room at the home was given over to the display of Catholic church emblems as symbolical of the religion of the Irish people. Potato salad served in baked potato cases and milk were the refreshments served at that station.

Bright tartan plaids several attendants in Scottish costumes and strains from a bagpipe played by C. E. McGillis of Marinette in full Highland costume gave to the home of Mrs. H. H. Allyn a decidedly Scotch appearance. Every feature of the plans at that station as carried out. Scones, catfishes and tea were served in Scotland by servers in the dress of the people of that country. Arnie Laurie and a program of other Scotch songs were given by Mr. Allyn and Miss Ella Becker.

Japan was represented at the home of Mrs. Ole Erickson. Japanese screens and draperies gave the home a decidedly Japanese appearance and the effect was further carried out by the attendants appearing in brightly colored kimonos.

The furnishings had been removed from the dining room and the visitors following the Japan custom were seated on the floor while refreshments of tea and cakes were being served.

A colonial mansion was represented at the home of Mrs. S. H. Selden where the idea was exceptionally well carried out.

The home lent itself well to the carrying out of the decorative scheme and on entering the rooms one could easily imagine that he had been suddenly carried to the home of a Southern colonel. Attendants in colonial costumes greeted the visitors and were conducted to the dining room where frappe and cake were served. At the door of the home a colored man servant in full livery was stationed and throughout the time that the tourists were arriving red fire was burned in the street in front of the residence.

After leaving the Selden home the tourist proceeded at once to the First Presbyterian church where a short program of musical numbers was given. Among the numbers was an organ selection by Mrs. John E. Todd, a vocal selection in German by Miss Lou Anthony and numbers by a quartette made up of T. A. Cleary, Oliver Thatcher, George J. Wisk and J. A. Allo. All of the numbers were excellent and made a fitting ending to an evening's entertainment which had been marked by unique features and was enjoyable throughout.

OLIVER COMPANY BUYS BIG TRACT

Cedar River Land Company Sells 60,000 Acres in Four Counties to Steel Corporation.

The Oliver Iron Mining company has secured an option upon all the possessions of the Cedar River Land company in the upper peninsula and the deal will undoubtedly be closed within a few weeks.

Gordon Murray of Norway, who has charge of the timber operations on the Menominee and Marquette ranges for the Oliver Iron Mining company, is now engaged with a crew of eight men in making an estimate of the timber on the lands.

The tract of land under option contains over 60,000 acres in the counties of Dickinson, Delta, Marquette and Menominee. Nearly 30,000 acres of the land is in Menominee county. There are about 8,000 acres within the boundaries of Dickinson county and the remainder is in Delta and Marquette counties, although the amount in Delta is comparatively small.

The deal also includes the large sawmill plant of the Cedar River Land company at Cedar River, Menominee county, and all the other buildings, docks and other property of the concern at that and other places in the peninsula.

The deal is the largest land and timber transaction in many years, and will represent an investment on the part of the Oliver Iron Mining company of over $7,000,000.

TO DEDICATE GREAT CHURCH

Boston, Mass., June 9.—Special.—Thousands of Christian Scientists many of whom have journeyed from the most distant parts of America and from Europe, are gathered in Boston for the annual communion, which this year is of more than ordinary importance as the exercises of the week will include the dedication of the magnificent new "mother church." The dedication of this splendid edifice will take place tomorrow and the event will mark an epoch in the history of the world wide movement directed by Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy. Much to the regret of her followers "Mother" Eddy has sent word that she will be unable to be present in person owing to her age and the fatigues of the journey from her home in New Hampshire.

The new Christian Science temple is one of the most remarkable church buildings in the United States and is the largest church building in America. It has been completed at a cost exceeding $2,000,000. An idea of its size may be had from the statement that it contains a mile and a half of pews seating 5,000 persons. The temple occupies a commanding site in the Back Bay district, just off of Huntington avenue.

The architectural style of the temple is Italian renaissance. The materials are granite, marble and Bedford stone. The extreme height is 224 feet and the mammoth dome is 92 feet in diameter. The interior is finished in Bedford stone and marble, with plaster for the great arches and ceiling. The staircases are of bronze and marble, and the lighting fixtures are of massive bronze. The pews and woodwork are of polished mahogany. Everywhere that conditions would allow it pure white marble has been used, and at every point where art makes it permissible the sculptor has enhanced its beauty. On the two grand entrances the architect has placed the most lavish adornment. Both of these are surmounted by Byzantine domes.

The great organ is placed behind a reader's platform. It has an architectural stone screen and is an imposing feature of the interior. There is also an echo organ. This organ is said to be one of the most perfect in the country.

Notwithstanding the temple has a seating capacity of 5,000, it early became evident that the building would not accommodate all who would be present at the dedication. It has therefore been decided to repeat the dedicatory service six times tomorrow, so that a total of 30,000 will be able to attend.

CREW MEMBERS GET BERTHS

Men From Bulgaria are Taking Berths on Other Boats as Fast as Positions are Offered.

Benjamin Gallagher, second mate on the steamer Bulgaria which was stranded on Fishermen's reef on Monday night and is reported to be rapidly breaking to pieces, will leave tomorrow for Bay City to accept a berth as first mate on the new steel steamer Charles A. Weston of the Niagara Transportation company. Mr. Gallagher is one of the best known marine men of this port and is his new berth is considered to be an excellent one.

Daniel L. Blair, who was engaged as lookoutman on the Bulgaria will leave for Milwaukee tomorrow to accept a berth on a vessel out of that port. The steamer Bulgaria has now been abandoned by the owners to the underwriters as a total constructive loss and the insurance companies will probably not get back their investment on the wrecked vessel.

It is said that the owners held insurance amounting to $50,000 on the Bulgaria and which was obtained by paying the high rate of 8 per cent, which is now demanded by underwriters on all wooden vessels.

HOLD CHILDRENS DAY EXERCISES

Attractive Programs Have Been Arranged for Special Services at the Churches Tomorrow.

Elaborate arrangements for the annual Children's day exercises at the First Methodist Episcopal, First Baptist and First Presbyterian churches, tomorrow have been made and attractive programs have been prepared at all of those places.

The exercises at the First Methodist and First Presbyterian church will be held at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning while at the First Baptist church the Children's day exercises will take the place of the regular evening sermon.

At the First Presbyterian church the Rev. P. B. Ferris will tomorrow evening deliver his first sermon since returning from an extended vacation and the subject of the sermon at that time will be "An Advance Ordered." The First Presbyterian church will be especially decorated for the exercises given by the children of the Sunday school at 10:30 o'clock. Musical numbers and recitations will make up the attractive program.

At the First Methodist Episcopal church an especially interesting program has been prepared for the morning service with the greater portion of the number given by the classes of the Sunday school at that church. The church will take on an attractive appearance for the occasion with the special decorations that are provided. One of the features of the morning program, in addition to the numbers by the Sunday school, will be a sermonette by the Rev. Frederick Spence on "Giants."

The sacrament of baptism will be administered following the sermon. In the evening the subject of the sermon delivered by the Rev. Spence will be "Church Union; A Discussion of Dr. Miller's plan of Church Consolidation."

While the regular Children's Day exercises at the First Baptist church will not begin until at 7:30 o'clock in the evening the services of the entire day will be interesting to the children of the congregation. At the regular morning services the

SUBSCRIPTION LIST IS GROWING FAST

Greatest Fourth of July Celebration Ever Attempted by an Upper Peninsula City is Assured for Escanaba. Fund Reaches $500 Mark With few Hours Work and but Small Portion of City is Canvassed. All True Citizens Should Join in Booming the Demonstration.

Members of the soliciting committee named on Wednesday to raise funds for one of the most elaborate Fourth of July celebrations ever attempted in Escanaba obtained subscriptions amounting to $350 within a period of three hours yesterday afternoon.

But a few of the merchants on Ludington street were seen yesterday and the work of the committee was undertaken again this morning. At noon over $500 had been subscribed to the fund and the success of a demonstration, the scope of which has never before been approached, is assured.

The soliciting committee will continue its work next week until the entire city has been thoroughly canvassed.

Tomorrow afternoon at 8 o'clock at the Elks' club rooms, the members of the special committee named by Mayor Perron early in this week together with the soliciting committee will meet and the first definite plans for the demonstration will be laid.

Arrangements will be made which will attract over 5,000 visitors to Escanaba from surrounding cities of the peninsula.

An attempt will be made to make July 4 of this year a home coming day for former residents of the city, in order that all may see the many improvements that have been carried out within the last two years.

The people of Escanaba will resolve themselves into a committee of the whole to act as hosts for old friends and new friends and those that have never yet been counted as friends but who after seeing Escanaba will be named on the city's regular visiting list.

The demonstration will mark the beginning and partial completion of one of the greatest street improvements that have ever been undertaken by an upper peninsula city.

It will cause Escanaba to become known among the people of sister towns as a city of beautiful streets.

In short a demonstration such as is planned, will again place Escanaba on the map.

It is claimed that Menominee is a good town, but Escanaba is a better town and it is this fact which the people of the city will show the outside public on July 4.

The entire program of the day will be carried out on Ludington street beginning early in the morning and continuing until the evening when an elaborate display of fire works will be the feature.

Every minute of the entire day will be taken up with some attraction in order that the people who are attracted to the city will not soon forget their visit to Escanaba. Every true citizen of Escanaba should aid in booming the coming celebration.

We know that Escanaba is the best city north of the straits.

Others may have a doubt.

Now is the time to prove it.

The greater portion of the excursionists will go to Sturgeon Bay however to witness the ball game in the afternoon between the Escanaba and Sturgeon Bay teams.

New York, N. Y., June 9.—Special.—Police believe that Mrs. Alice D. Kinnan, who was murdered last night on the veranda of her father's house at 2464 Washington Ave., was clubbed to death by a man she knew. She was called to the door and talked for twenty minutes. Screams were then heard and the woman was found in a dying condition having been clubbed on the head with an iron pipe. Mrs. Kinnan separated from her husband eight years ago and has been seeking a divorce.

HIS CONDITION IS IMPROVED

George Eastwood Regains Consciousness After Many Hours and his Recovery is Assured.

After lying unconscious at the home of his parents on South Georgia street for 94 hours, George Eastwood, a passenger brakeman employed by the North-Western road who was struck by a car while uncoupling a baggage car in the yards on Thursday night, has regained consciousness and unless unforeseen conditions arise he will recover.

At the home this afternoon it was said that he was resting easily and that his condition was much improved over that of yesterday.

After making an examination of the wound at the back of the head late yesterday afternoon it was decided by the attending physician that it would not be necessary to perform an operation.

DANCING PARTY TO BE GIVEN

Many dancers of the city will be attracted to the North Star hall tonight where a dancing party will be given by several young men of the city. Sullivan's orchestra has been engaged for the occasion and an attractive musical program is assured.

The party of tonight is one of a series to be given at frequent intervals during the summer.

MAY GET STONE

State Highway Commissioner Earle Will Recommend Building of New Prison Keweenaw County.

State Commissioner of Highways Horatio Earle went into Keweenaw county this week when he inspected the borrow piles at the old Horn property, the Cliff and the Phoenix. He considers the rock ideal for road making purposes, and stated that he intends recommending to the legislature that a state branch prison be established in Keweenaw county for the purpose of employing convict labor in the breaking of stone for shipment to other parts of the state.

Commissioner Earle is sincere in his statements, and says he believes the scheme would work out well. He thinks the rock piles in Keweenaw county are composed of just the kind of rock that is needed. He claims it can be broken and crushed at a minimum cost, and can be taken by rail to Eagle Harbor and thence as "cheap" freight to lower lake ports in Michigan.

It is the commissioner's intention to recommend that a branch railroad line be built, "probably with the right of way over certain parts of the Keweenaw Central road, running direct to the Harbor.

Mr. Earle states that the people in the lower part of the state are road-making mad. A total of 160 miles of good roads have been laid there, and after seeing the advantages of good roads the people are clamoring for more.

In the lower peninsula there is a dearth of good rock and all eyes are turned to the upper peninsula for material. It can be found in Keweenaw county in any quantity. The class of rock on the borrow and dump piles is considered ideal, and if Commissioner Earle's recommendation will count for anything a branch prison will be located in that county.

Commissioner Earle has made an estimate of the amount of available rock in Keweenaw county and will endeavor to figure out how many miles of road he will be enabled to build with it.

He has also taken samples of the rock.

He will urge upon the next legislature the advisability of erecting a state prison in Keweenaw county, and will advocate the transferring of 500 prisoners from the other prisons in the state to Keweenaw county for the purpose of working on the large rock piles there.

Mr. Earle states the first step would be to erect a large branch prison sufficient to accommodate at least 500 prisoners. His plan is considered feasible by those acquainted with the circumstances. It is a scheme similar to that adopted in New Jersey, where all of the stone needed for roadmaking is crushed by convict labor.

There is a strong antipathy by unions in the state to prison labor in the making of union articles that is articles of wearing apparel, and it is believed that the employment of some of the convicts in the breaking of stone would be in part a solution of the difficulty.

Three Physicians Treated him Without Success.

W. L. Yancy, Paducah, Ky., writes: "I had a severe case of kidney disease and three of the best physicians in Kentucky treated me without success. I then took Foley's Kidney Cure. The first bottle gave immediate relief, and three bottles cured me permanently. I gladly recommend this wonderful remedy." Ellsworth's Drug Store.

BATTLE CREEK IS JUBILANT

Battle Creek, having a larger percentage of vegetarians than any other city in the world—save the voluntary vegetarians of India—is in a state of joyful exuberance over President Roosevelt's disclosure of the Chicago packing house situation. The revolting condition pictured so graphically, it is held, will assist in the acceleration of the famous "Battle Creek idea." Already substantial effects of the president's disclosures have been noted by experts who keep the promulgation of vegetarianism in constant surveillance.

It is a popular belief throughout the world that vegetarianism is required by the laws of the seventh day adventist church. This is erroneous, though the principle is practiced greatly throughout the denomination. The health crusade, however, while started in the church, was not started by the church. Dr. John H. Kilgore was its champion—and circumstances of late have plainly shown the world that Dr. Kilgore and the adventist church are not synonymous.

But the principle of vegetarianism was accepted as an adventist doctrine years ago, and even in Battle Creek total abstinence from meat is attributed to every adventist citizen. Here, too, the public mind. There are adventists who eat meat, and are still true members of the church—but they are few.

In India, where the population is almost entirely vegetarian, the habit is a part of the people's religion. Taught that God lives in the body of every animal, the natives consider it a sacrilege to kill cattle. Thus their vegetarianism is entirely different from the adventist, who claim no such doctrine, but believe meat eating is positively injurious—and who are backed in this by Uncle Sam's expert chemists.

The steel to be used in construction of the pockets has been on hand several weeks. TO PREVENT CALF LOVE

New Orleans, June 9.—Special.—T. Spence Smith, of Rapides, has introduced into the state legislature a bill to regulate marriage contracts and prevent-race suicide. The bill only applies to whites and provides: It shall be unlawful for any young man to attempt to court any young woman before he is 24 years of age.

Before making such attempt he shall inform the parents or guardian of the woman he proposes to court of his intention to do so.

He shall also make affidavit before a justice of the peace that his courtship will be in good faith and for the purpose of trying to convince the young woman that it will be profitable for her to marry him.

It shall be unlawful for widowers over the age of 40 to attempt to court any woman under the age of 18 beyond the confines of the parish or their residence.

After the passage of the act all children born to legally married people in this state shall be raised and educated at public expense.

All boy children shall be sent to the state university at Baton Rouge and all girl children to the state normal school at Natchitoches.

An appropriation of $17,000,000 to carry out this education feature is provided for in the bill.

BOLD BURGLAR ON THE ROOF

Unsuccessful Attempt Made Early This Morning to Enter Home of H. Bittner Sr. on Hale Street.

A burglar early this morning attempted to break into the home of Herman Bittner Sr., at 101 Hale street, but was frightened away by members of the family who had gained an entrance.

As the would-be robber ran from the building he was seen by Mr. Bittner, who gave chase clad only in his night clothes, but after following the fleeing man for one block the trail was lost in an alley and could not again be found.

Members of the Bittner family were awakened shortly after 8:30 o'clock this morning by the sound of someone attempting to open a window on the second floor. Occupants of the room into which the window had been opened and Mr. Bittner who was sleeping on the first floor was awakened.

He attempted to find his revolver but could not locate it but finally remembered that the gun had been taken by him a few days before while on a hunting expedition. Mrs. Bittner hurried to the second floor to obtain the gun while Mr. Bittner stood guard at the door when the noise that was made on the interior of the house was heard by the burglar and he ran swiftly over the roof of the house to the rear porch. He leaped to the ground and as Mr. Bittner gave chase the burglar was disappearing beyond the street.

In the darkness of night Mr. Bittner saw that he was a man of medium height, dressed as a laborer and on his feet he wore only a pair of rubbers.

Although Mr. Bittner obtained a clear view of the burglar for a moment, he could not recognize him. Mr. Bittner continued the chase for a block when he lost sight of the fleeing man and returned to his home.

The police officials were today given a complete description of the would-be burglar but no arrest has been made.

A similar attempt was made by a burglar to enter the home of Mr. Bittner early in last fall and because of the similar methods employed by the burglar on the two occasions it is believed that the same man made both attempts to break into the house.

ORE MOVEMENT BREAKS RECORD

The Iron Trade Review says: Statistics of ore shipments for May show that despite the recent ten days' idleness as a result of the longshoremen's strike the movement of ore from upper lake ports to June 1 was only 60,000 tons less than at that time last year. This indicates that the present movement is at an unprecedented rate and that predictions of a record tonnage being brought down this season will be realized. The signing of an agreement by the marine firemen removes the last of the lake labor difficulties and insures a pace for the remainder of the year.

The wide breach in prices between steel makers and foundry irons continues with the tendency towards greater spread. As low as $15.75 Northern valley furnace has been done on the latter while Bessemer is exceedingly firm, a sale of 10,000 tons by the Association to the Republic Iron and Steel Co., for Aug. delivery at $17.25, indicating that no decline is to be expected. Basic iron is strong at $17.00, with some good inquiries pending. An advance of $2.00 per ton on block and galvanized sheets has been announced. In view of the strength of this line, it was anticipated and no difficulty is looked for in establishing the new price. Tin plate is stronger than was expected since the recent advance.

The demand of San Francisco for structural materials is still prospective and will probably remain so for half a year. Many bookings of the American Bridge Co., were for 70,000 tons of structural, which is near the record. Railroads are the heavy buyers, large amounts going into bridge work. Plates for three lake freighters are to be rolled at South Chicago.

THE LOVELAND FAMILY SOLO QUINTETTE Who Will Appear in a Musical Act at Ben's Theatre Next Week

CASTRO WILL VISIT SHOW

President of Venezuela to Attend the Jamestown Exposition Next Spring.

Norfolk, Va., June 8.—Special.—Cipriano Castro, president of Venezuela, is not the kind of man to take a rest while there is breath left in him, but he intends to treat himself to a year of recreation, during which he will visit the Jamestown Exposition on the shores of Hampton Roads, near Norfolk, next spring.

President Castro will come in his gorgeous and beautiful yacht the "Restaurador" which was formerly the "Atalanta," built by the late Jay Gould, and has a history. In costliness and luxuriance, she is excelled only by the royal yacht of Great Britain which has cost to date about $6,000,000, "The Victoria and Albert." On the death of Jay Gould the "Atalanta" passed to his son George. By him it was sold to the United States government for use in the Spanish War. After the war it is said to have been bought by Mr. Gould, who sold it to Venezuela, whereupon it was rechristened the "Restaurador" and equipped with armament and war fittings and used during the Venezuelan rebellion of 1901-1902.

At his anchorage in Hampton Roads facing the Jamestown Exposition, president Castro will be in good company. Around him there will be a fleet of the finest yachts of the world and the warships of the great powers that formerly frowned upon him will doubtless entertain him right royally. There he will see representative warships of all the navies of the world mingling in friendly intercourse and mutually enjoying fetes and games.

It is learned from a source very close to Castro that he has an object other than the pursuit of recreation in coming to the United States. He believes that he has not been thoroughly understood by our people and he desires to show them that he is something more than a mere disturber of the peace of nations. He desires us to know that he is a statesman actuated by high ideals. He venerates the character of George Washington and has erected a statue to his honor in Caracas. It is his intention to call on President Diaz while on his way to visit the United States. Castro has survived so many attacks that he is considered immune. A vivid impression of the dangers that have threatened may be gleaned from the headlines of some of the yellow publications during the period when he was suffering from stress of weather "Castro will be Spanked," "Castro To Be Bombarded," "Castro the 'Monkey of the Andes,'" the "Ape," "Savage," "Barbarian," "the hairy Gringo," they cried in unison.

The much beset president has come out of it all calm and placid with colors flying. In a recent interview in the "New York Herald" Judge Calhoun, whom President Roosevelt sat to Venezuela to investigate charges against Castro, intimates that there is a creditable side to Castro's connection with the matters in question. There is much in the Venezuelan president's picturesque personality that appeals to Americans and he may be assured of a good time and the extension of every courtesy when he visits the Jamestown Exposition next year.

GOOD PLAYS IN THE LIST

It is seldom that the theatre going public have the opportunity of witnessing productions of the nature and merit presented by Winninger Brothers Own company at popular prices. In this organization is found a cast seldom equalled by the higher priced attraction each and every one an artist in his or her respective line. The plays are chosen from among the latest and most successful one night stand productions and are presented with the closest attention to details in costuming and effects. The vaudeville numbers introduced between the acts are changed as well as the plays for each performance, and are a whole show in themselves, seldom equalled outside of the big city vaudeville houses. At the Peterson opera house one week commencing Sunday June 10.

MISS HEWITT HAS RESIGNED

Librarian at Carnegie Public Library Accepts Position With Marquette Institution.

Miss Mae B. Hewitt, for three years librarian at the Carnegie public library of Escanaba, has resigned her position with the local institution to accept a similar position at the Peter White library of Marquette.

The resignation of Miss Hewitt will take effect on July 1, and her acceptance of the position at Marquette was officially announced by the Peter White library board yesterday.

Miss Hewitt's resignation as librarian of the Escanaba institution was presented to the board at its regular meeting of this week and despite the fact that the trustees were unwilling to lose the services of the present librarian they were forced to accept the resignation.

To Miss Hewitt much of the credit for the success of the Carnegie public library in Escanaba is due. Miss Hewitt came to Escanaba at the opening of the library three years ago and despite the limited fund at the disposal of the institution has made the Carnegie public library of Escanaba one of the foremost institutions of its kind in the peninsula.

Last year with a smaller number of volumes to be circulated and a smaller appropriation than that of any other library in the peninsula a greater daily circulation was recorded at the Escanaba institution than at any other library in the district.

It was mainly through the efforts of the librarian that this record was made.

Under the regime of the present librarian patrons of the Carnegie library have been able to obtain the best and latest works of fiction direct from the publishers and as soon as they are circulated from the libraries of the large cities.

While the fiction department has been made attractive, it was in the works of non-fiction that a considerable portion of the growth of the circulation was made.

Works were added which were interesting to students not only in the schools but out of the schools.

The Carnegie public library was developed by Miss Hewitt from a mere source of pleasure for a few people to a valuable aid in completing the education of many.

Patrons of the local library cannot but greatly regret the decision of Miss Hewitt to leave Escanaba but the loss of the local institution will be the gain of the Marquette library and a marked improvement in circulation and other features of the work in that city, can be expected.

A successor to Miss Hewitt has not yet been named by the Carnegie public library board but it is probable that the position will be filled temporarily until the board has had sufficient time to engage a permanent head for the institution.

URGES VOTERS TO TURN OUT

Gov. Warner is Sending Circulars To Friends Throughout the State Asking for Action.

Lansing, Mich., June 9.—Special.—Gov. Warner is sending out to his friends in the state a circular letter in which he declares himself in favor of the adoption of the primary law as applied to the nomination of candidates for governor and lieutenant governor. In his letter the governor says:

"You will pardon me for writing to you relative to the primary election next Tuesday, June 12. This is the first election under the new direct voting law and it is desirable that as large a vote as possible be obtained. I am urging my friends to exert every effort to bring about a large attendance at the primary. This will allow a full expression upon the questions submitted."

"Especially do I urge upon you the importance of going to the polls and voting upon the question of the direct nomination of governor and lieutenant governor. There should be a full and fair expression of sentiment based upon this question by the enrolled Republicans of Michigan."

It has been made clear that the people desire to have the nomination of these two officers taken out of the state convention. Personally, I will state that I hope and believe that a very large majority of Michigan's Republicans will vote "yes" upon that proposition.

Your attention is also called to the fact that at this primary election delegates are to be elected to attend county conventions which will be held throughout the state on June 18 for the election of delegates to the state convention for the nomination of the balance of the state officers as required by the new law.

FLOWER BUG (Triphleps insidiosus) magnified.

Everyone who raises flowers of his own has doubtless often looked with envy on the success which crowns the efforts of the florist, and wondered how he achieved such results.

One reason is that the florist knows how to keep down these bugs, especially the one shown at the head of this article.

The principal florists of the country have learned that there is no article that will prove so effective in killing plant insects and bugs of all kinds as nicotine, the active principle of tobacco. It not only kills the bugs, but acts as a plant food, and stimulates their growth.

A great many amateur gardeners try tobacco tea, tobacco dust and leaves, none of which are really effective, because the amount of nicotine they contain is very small indeed. The correct way of using it is to use Thompson's Rose Nicotine, which is pure nicotine from tobacco, and dilute in proportion of one to two teaspoonsful to a quart of water, and spray this mixture on the underside of the leaf of the plant affected, where the insect always lives.

This treatment will kill any kind of bug which feeds on the flowers, and by using it a few times, as will be found necessary during the course of the season, you will be surprised and delighted at the results obtained.

No fear need be entertained that Rose Nicotine will injure the plant in any way. It is a clear liquid, both stainless and odorless, and can be used without harm to the most delicate plants.

It is also much in demand for household use, as it will kill any kind of house vermin, wherever found. Many householders use it for killing roaches, bedbugs, ants, fleas, moths, carpet-bugs and other pests. It is unequalled for killing fleas and lice on cats, dogs, poultry or the human body; also in dog kennels, hen-houses, etc.

It can be used with entire safety on the most delicate pet animals or fabrics, when applied as directed, as it leaves no trace except the dead insect pest.

This convenient insecticide is put up in 25c. and 50c. cans (liquid), and sold by all druggists. Full directions for use are given with every package. The manufacturers issue an instructive little book entitled "How to Destroy Plant Insects and Vermin," which is full of valuable information about insects and their destruction. Ask your druggist for a copy, or send to F. A. Thompson & Co., Detroit, Mich. Free sample supplied by your druggist only (not mailable).

Hundreds of women are just waiting for this opportunity and there should be lively selling at the "Undermuslin" tables on second floor Saturday and next week. In addition to our regular stock, we have several hundred manufacturers samples, not any two alike, including nightgowns, skirts, drawers, corset covers and chemises, these are samples carried on the road by the traveling salesmen of an Eastern manufacturer -- most of them slightly soiled and mussed. This in addition to the Specials from our regular stock make this sale by far the greatest muslin underwear sale ever held in the city of Escanaba.
