YOUNG & FILLION CO.

918-920 Ludington Street, Escanaba, Mich.

These photographs show scenes in the camp life at Charamauga during the Spanish American war where thousands died of poisonous canned beef and a photograph of Herman Hirschauer who is exposing the crimes of the packers.

These photographs are of especial interest now that the methods employed by the packers are being shown to be so free from regard to the public welfare.

The desire for the almighty dollar has caused the packers to forget that human beings are to eat the canned meats and the other so called foods that are put by the big firms.

The methods used are such that the packers are working night and day to remedy the cause for the public outcry that has been aroused by the exposures.

Upton Sinclair did his work well and to him has come the satisfaction of having the public appreciate his work after calling him crank and fanatic and other names not so pleasant. He has seen the president stop to take notice and had the government authorities return a report that his story was not as bad as it might have been.

The story that came out at the time of the Spanish American war was hushed up but now it seems that the boys in blue who were killed by sickness owe their death in large measure to the filthy meat that was given them.

The investigation that is now on shows that the people are now eating just as bad if not worse meat than was given as government rations.

The high prices now asked seem to be no guarantee that the meat is good but only is a means to the packers to line their pockets with more money.

The American people have been aroused to the condition of things and it is hoped that there will not be enough money to buy off the investigation.

It is to be hoped that the American people will no longer rest until they are assured that the packers have given them the pure food that they have a right to expect.

The fact that human fingers torn from workmen, have been ground into sausage and that the dead rats poisoned by rat poison have fulfilled the same purpose is not the worst. The workmen who have fallen into boiling vats, have, it is claimed been rendered into lard. All these practices must be stopped and it is no matter that the foreign trade may be damaged. The lives of the people of this country are more important than the dollars gained by trade and until we as a people get the same grade of meat that is being sent to Germany where a more rigid inspection is in force, let the trade stop and let the lives and health of the people be saved.

Let there be a lasting reform and then the trade will return and all will be well.

JUVENILE BAND TO BE SUCCESS

The Boy's Band Organized by L. O. Kirtine is Well Started.

The Juvenile band is sure to be a success. L. O. Kirtine who will organize this organization has already received 35 applications and the maximum number in the band is to be 20. The great interest taken has caused Mr. Kirtine to feel sure that he has started an organization that will be a credit to Escanaba and himself.

The basement of the city hall has been offered as a place to practice and this offer will probably be accepted.

Each boy who wishes to enter the band must pay $3 and this sum will be used to get instruments and music.

B. OF A. Y. TO HAVE PICNIC

First Anniversary to be Celebrated by Outing Across the Bay.

At a regular meeting held last night the members of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen decided to celebrate the first anniversary of the organization of their society in Escanaba by having a picnic.

The date of the anniversary is July 24 and the picnic will be held at some point across the bay, but definite plans have not yet been made as to where the outing will be held. Announcement will be made soon as to the details of the first outdoor entertainment arranged by the Brotherhood of American Yeomen in this city.

MANY WILL GO TO MENOMINEE

The Excursion to Menominee on Sunday June 24 Given by the Elks will be well Attended.

The Escanaba lodge of Elks is making great preparations to make the excursion to Menominee on Sunday June 24, the banner excursion of the year. Every effort that will help make the day a success is being put forth.

The steamer Maywood will leave the Stephenson dock at 9 o'clock and will leave on the return trip at 7:30 o'clock. No liquor will be sold on the boat.

The Third regiment band of Menominee has been engaged to furnish the music and at Lakeside park there will be a balloon ascension and games. Every indication points to a capacity load for the Maywood and a good time for all who attend.

BIG BAY EXCURSION

First Sunday Excursion to Big Bay de Noc Tomorrow.

The steamer Maywood leaves the Stephenson dock tomorrow at 9:15 o'clock on the first big bay excursion of this year.

The weather having assumed a truly summery temperature will drive the people to the water and the first excursion to the beautiful points on the big bay will doubtless be more than well patronized.

CLASS OF 1906 IS GRADUATED

The Menominee Schools are Closed for the Year.

The regular commencement exercises of the class of 1906 of the Menominee high school took place at the Presbyterian church last evening. The church was crowded, even to the limits of the lecture room, the exercises opening at 8:30 o'clock. The church was tastefully decorated about the pulpit and other parts of the building with flowers and green, potted plants and the colors of the class, purple and gold.

Above the organ was suspended the figures '06 in the class colors. The motto of the class was "Do It Now."

After an organ prelude by Dr. D. M. Wilcox and a selection "Welcome, Carolina" by the girls' chorus, Prof. Clark was introduced by Supt. Kirtland. Prof. Clark's subject was "The Responsibility of the Educated Man and Woman." The address occupied about an hour and was learned and instructive to a degree. The speaker dwelt upon the great fact of individual responsibility in all walks of life. In speaking to the graduates he reminded them that as their education and culture have been the gift of the community and state, they are in duty bound to render back to the community and state a proper recompense for this training which they have received. Prof. Clark made a strong plea for a better support of the public schools, which he says are only doing half the work they might do were they given the support that they need. He made the statement that should the Menominee schools, for example, be given twenty per cent more support than they now receive their efficiency would be increased one thousand per cent.

After a fine rendition of "Lift Up Thine Eyes" and "Faithful and True," from "Lohengrin" by the girls' chorus and a spirited rendering of "The Soldiers' Chorus" from "Faust" by the male chorus, the formal presentation of the diplomas was made by President Peter Sibenaler. The evening's program closed with "Winged" by the girls' chorus. Miss Florence Bird played the accompaniment.

NEW SOURCE FOR MAHOGANY

Consul W. L. Avery writes from Belize that the opening of, or the extending of, a new route of transportation always develops trade, and it should be a matter of much interest to American lumber dealers to know that opportunity is now offered for transporting mahogany and cedar from Belize to New Orleans in small or large shipments. Avery continues: This consulate has received many letters during the past five years asking for information as to purchasing Honduras mahogany in Belize, and my answer has been that it has always been practicable to purchase, but weight impossible to ship, anything less than a schooner load, or half a small steamer load, thus virtually shutting out American lumbermen from this market.

There was no way of getting the wood from Belize to a gulf port in small shipments, for the regular lines of steamers were established to carry fruit—first, last and all be time. Heavy freight for the United States was not accepted.

Of course it would not pay to send a vessel after a few logs of wood, but now it is practicable to secure two logs or 200, and the freight is sought for from this date by the Harrison line, from Liverpool, Colon and Belize, direct to New Orleans. The sailings are monthly, and the present rate in effect is $8 per ton of 40 cubic feet, or 400 superficial feet for round or squared wood.

There are Brown and Louisville firms cutting and shipping woods from this colony, their works being carried on a large scale, and shipments made by the hundreds of thousands of feet in their own steamers, but the newly operated route will give our smaller purchasers a chance, and for them, more particularly, the foregoing facts are addressed—United States Consular Reports.

MRS. NONTELLE PASSED AWAY

Mrs. Marguerite Nontelle 63 years old, of Schaffer who died, Thursday at 1 o'clock was buried this morning at 9 o'clock from the Catholic church of that place. Mrs. Nontelle was the mother of nine children, six of whom are living. Mrs. Nontelle was born in Canada.

GOOD MATERIAL FOR BASE BALL

"Hank" Olmsted, Fred Olmsted and John Loell Will Help in Making a Great Team.

A baseball game could be played in Escanaba now that would be like the old times. The only trouble would be in securing a team worthy of the material at hand. The fans in the city could see a game that would be of the best.

Henry Olmsted could certainly twirl them in and John Loell could do the catching and then Fred Olmsted could hold down short stop. That would be a starter and the remainder of the team could be selected from the local players.

The line up could surely do things and it is surely hard lines that a game can not be arranged that would enable the enthusiasts in Escanaba to see a game of ball that would be a game. The Olmsteds will be in town for part of next week and Loell will be here all summer.

GIDEON VASSAW DIED TODAY

Gideon Vassaw, 73 years old, living at 1211 Wells avenue died this morning at 10 o'clock at his home. Mr. Vassaw leaves ten children.

Mr. Vassaw has been growing feeble for some time and his death resulted from old age.

As yet no definite funeral arrangements have been made.

BREAKS PAROLE BACK TO PRISON

Fred LeClaire a paroled prisoner of Marquette broke his parole and was arrested by George McCarthy at the orders of the deputy warden and was taken back to Marquette yesterday.

LeClaire was sentenced to five years for assault with attempt to do great bodily harm and had served three years when he was paroled. McCarthy found his man working in the woods, and arrested him Thursday.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurts.

BACCALAUREATE ADDRESS GIVEN

Rev. Frederick Spence will Address Seniors Sunday Night.

The Baccalaureate address of the class of 1906 of the Escanaba High school will be given at the First Presbyterian church by the Rev. Frederick Spence, pastor of the First Methodist church. The subject will be "Our Contribution to Life as a Measure of Success."

A special musical program has been arranged by the choir of the Presbyterian church. Mrs. R. E. Morrell will preside at the organ for the first time since her illness. Two anthems will be rendered by the church quartette. Mrs. E. C. Norton will sing a solo and Miss Ella Becker and George D. McIntosh will sing a duet.

The program will be unusually interesting and the church will be crowded to the doors.

CHURCHES LOOTED

Three Churches at LaCrosse, Wis. Entered and Robbed.

LaCrosse, Wis. June 16.—Special.—Burglars broke into the three largest churches at North La Crosse and carried away everything of value, the churches being completely stripped of decorations and gold vessels.

Two of the churches robbed were Catholic and one Lutheran. Several thousand dollars' worth of plunder was taken and the interior of the buildings torn to pieces by the vandals.

AUTO CAUSES RUNAWAY

There was a bad spill and smashup on the Peabody road late Wednesday afternoon, alleged to have been caused by an automobile. A farmer by the name of Gravel living near Oconto was on his way home with his wife and little baby. When about a mile from Peabody an auto passed them, and the horse became frightened, reared and plunged and then went into the ditch.

Mrs. Gravel jumped with her baby and probably escaped serious injury for herself and the child. Mr. Gravel was thrown out, the rig smashed and the horse ran away. The vehicle was a light wagon and was filled with groceries and dishes. There was a new dinner set. Nearly every piece was shattered. There was flour, lard, meat and small groceries of all kinds and they were mixed up in a miserable mess on the road side. Neighbors assisted the couple to get started again toward Oconto.

THIRTY-SEVEN IN CLASS

Before hundreds of friends and relatives and amid surroundings of much beauty, and with the best wishes for success by thousands of people in Marquette, the thirty-seven graduates of the class of 1906 took part in the Commencement program at the Sotheater Thursday evening and their diplomas from the hands of A. Brown, the president of education.

 Why waste your money on luxuries when you can have the comforts of life added to the pleasures of keeping a savings account.

FASHION LETTER FROM ESTELLE

Regular Weekly Letter Written for Mirror on Styles in Women's Clothes.

New York, June 16.—Special.—As the anxieties and duties of the home dressmaker are practically over, for the present at least, I am going to devote this letter largely to an account of what I saw in the shops this week in the way of ready to wear apparel. The display was fascinating because of the loveliness of design and beauty of material, and it was also perfectly satisfactory in regard to workmanship. One is almost tempted to advise all women, whenever possible, to avoid the wear and tear of home dressmaking entirely and to choose the season's outfits as needed at the ready-to-wear establishments.

If the expense seems too great, figure again and see if a coat or frock less will not equalize matters. Of course the made over garments must be done at home or under personal supervision, but even here the ready-to-wear costumes are invaluable in the way of ideas and suggestions. And, after all the cash sums required to purchase coats and frocks ready-to-wear, they may take a pretty slice out of one's wardrobe allowance, yet it has been proved over and over that the actual cost is less in the end, for it is quite possible to get a real tailor-made ready-to-put on, at one-half the cost of an ordered gown.

The styles shown in many of the moderate priced garments are equal to the exclusive costumes turned out by the most fashionable dressmaker. Also, altho' I am not yet ready to admit that there is any designer or maker of gowns superior to a French artist. I have lived too long in this country not to appreciate its remarkable versatility. There are in New York several Irish-American so-called "Maidens," who act as designers for the large drygoods houses and their work in many ways cannot be surpassed. I saw a great deal of it this week during a day spent among the ready-to-wear shops, and made numerous notes for present and future use.

Among the garments shown me there were several attempts to revive the long sleeve, but this cannot be accomplished during the warm weather. To be sure Mme. Bernhardt is lending her aid, having ordered for all her costumes long lace undersleeves coming well over the hands, but the majority of gowns and costumes on exhibition were made with elbow lengths. However, one charming street gown exhibited had solved the sleeve problem by making its bolero with sleeves of three quarters length. They had double turn back cuffs, the outer cuff being of pique. The skirt had two double box plaits both front and back, and near the hem there was a wide stitched band which gave it the desired and necessary flare. The deep wide girlo extended well up on the waist where it met the cunning little bolero. The edges of the coat were trimmed with bias folds of cloth and fancy buttons. A long silk cravat passed the front on fastenings and tied in a four in hand. The material of this practical street gown was of mixed worsted and was a very safe investment for the woman with a moderate income.

There is something new in check material, which was used successfully in street costumes. It is called shadow check and is a mixture of silk and wool. In some high class effects is of the ordinary simple check, in other lights it has a pronounced checkerboard appearance. This effect is obtained by the weave of the fabric and not by color combination. The material is so new and uncommon that it is some higher in price than the average dress stuff. It will attain and keep for the present at least a certain supremacy, as it cannot be found in cheap goods. Some of the thin veillings are made in shadow check, but these must be carefully used in costumes as the effect is greatly enhanced or marred by the lining used, or the foundation material selected.

For instance, a light gray shadow check veiling was elegantly combined with an underslip of gun metal silk. Another dress of the same light gray was exquisitely over shrimp pink. A navy blue had lining of light blue, an apple green had ivy green beneath. The trimmings blend in color with the foundation material. Altho' the prevailing mode all spring was grays in all manner of design and weave, quite suddenly they are set aside in favor of tans and browns. However, the woman fortunate enough to have a becoming frock in gray must not discard it, for it is a color always in good form and invariably becoming. Many of the new brocades require the most faultless complexion, and unusual care must be used in adjusting any of the light tones. I saw some very smart walking costumes in light browns, tans and fawns, but a dress on a wax figure and against a wax complexion is not always successfully transferred to the ordinary, every day woman.

Notwithstanding the vogue of the princess and empire fashions, which would seem to do away with need for belts and belt buckles, the shops show great quantities and any number of new styles both in belts and in separate buckles to be worn with ribbons, belts or those made of the material of a gown. Broad griddles are shown made of the most elaborate combination of linen, flowered silk, embroidery and lace. There are also broad cut buckles of linen and leather, embroidered and trimmed with lace.

The newest idea in buckles presents a combination of embroideries, metal and semi precious stones or past jewels. Others show the same design with leads used instead of the ordinary. These buckles are very remarkable and at the same time so stylishly pretty. The buckles are almost all large, being square, oval or rectangular in shape. They are made of ivory or nickel, the frame being set with stones or made of cut glass. The center of the buckle is formed of a large bunch of solid embroidered flowers, but although the embroidery is solid the flowers are cut all around. The buckle, of course, has been made for this special branch, and back of the flowers is a metal piece, to which the flowers are fastened. A rhinestone buckle had a spray of cherries used in this fashion. Grapes, apricots, little apples, currants and small peaches are also used.

WORK WEAKENS THE KIDNEYS.

Doan's Kidney Pills Have Done Great Service for People who Work in Escanaba.

Most Escanaba people work every day in some strained, unnatural position—being constantly over a cask—riding on jolting wagons or cars—doing laborious housework; lifting, reaching or pulling or trying the back in a hundred and one other ways. All these strains tend to wear, weaken and injure the kidney, until they fall behind in their work of filtering the poisons from the blood. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, put new strength in bad backs. Escanaba cures prove it.

Oscar Glaven, miner, of 328 No. Murry St., Escanaba, Mich., says: "I never saw a remedy which acts so beneficially in such a short time as Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured me of an old chronic case of backache from which I had suffered for years in spite of trying all kinds of remedies. I have seen the time that I had to quit work and come home, simply on account of the pain in my back. It would be so severe at times that I thought my back would come unjointed. I was told about Doan's Kidney Pills and sent to the Mead Drug Co's store and got a box, and their use as directed helped me from the start. I had not used one whole box before my trouble had left me. I have never had a backache since I took Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Millburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's and take no other.

Feel Impending Doom.

The feeling of impending doom in the minds of many victims of Bright's disease and diabetes has been changed to thankfulness by the benefit derived from taking Foley's Kidney Cure. It will cure incipient Bright's disease and diabetes and even in the worst cases gives comfort and relief. Slight disorders are cured in a few days. "I had diabetes in its worst form," writes Marion Lee of Dunreath, Ind. "I tried eight physicians without relief. Only three bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made me a well man." Walter Wellman who has started for the trip to the North Pole, enjoyed himself these bright spring days in Paris showing off his airship to the notables. He had the best sort of luck pointing out the good things about his many horsepower motor, that is to carry him to the North Pole, and explaining in learned language to attentive listeners the scientific theory of the expedition. It is well that he made the best of his opportunity for now the grim work has begun.

COMPANY TOOK PARTS WELL

Humbag as Given by the Winner's Stock Company, Pleased Audience.

Peter on's opera house was filled again last night when the Winninger Brothers' Stock company gave "Humbag." All of the members of the company took their parts well and that the audience was pleased was shown by the frequent applause. The specialties were up to the standard.

The bill at the matinee this afternoon was Simple Simon. The house was filled when the curtain went up at 2:30 o'clock.

Tonight The Missing Witness will be given and tomorrow night a detective play, Sheridan Keene. Detective will be played.

Three Physicians Treated him With Success.

W. L. Yancy, Paducah, Ky., writes: "I had a severe case of kidney disease and three of the best physicians in Kentucky treated me without success. I then took Foley's Kidney Cure. The first bottle gave immediate relief, and three bottles cured me permanently. I gladly recommend this wonderful remedy." Ellsworth's Drug Store.

SHE JUMPED HER CONTRACT

Crystal Falls June 16.—Special.—Miss Edith Swinton, for the past three years, assistant in the high school, left town suddenly and unceremoniously last Saturday morning along with her affianced, a doctor from down in Ohio. It is understood that the couple are to be married very shortly and the doctor couldn't wait fifteen days, or until his fiancée would be liberated from her contract by the ending of the school term.

The affair occasioned much talk about town, many passing it off as a joke. The members of the school board feel very indignant over the action of Miss Swinton, who has heretofore always been a creditable reputation, and they speak in the most uncompromising manner of her idea of "honor."

ASTHMA SUFFERERS SHOULD KNOW THIS.

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Buesing, 501 W. 3rd st., Davenport, Iowa, writes: "A severe cold contracted twelve years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give me more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one fifty cent bottle entirely cured me of asthma which had been growing on me for twelve years, and if I had taken it at the start I would have saved years of suffering." WORKED GRAFT AT ISHPERING

John Mack of Milwaukee Organizes his Suit Club in the Hematite City.

A week or ten days ago John Mack of Milwaukee, claiming to be the proprietor of a large merchant tailoring establishment, called on a number of prominent Ishpeming men and induced them to join his "suit club." A large number subscribed, a majority paying $1 in advance.

One Ishpeming man was suspicious of Mack, but gave up his four dollars. After thinking the matter over for an hour or two he called on Mack at the hotel, and demanded his money back. "Why, my dear man," said Mack, "do I look like a man who would treat you, or in fact beat anyone? Show me up, look me over carefully." "Well, to tell the truth, Mack," said the local man, "your appearance is all right, but I am satisfied that this suit club business is all wrong. Furthermore, I think you are the sneakiest 'duck' I have ever met, but remember, if the suit is not delivered next Wednesday morning, when you promise it will be here, I will get after you." The Ishpeming man was a good at

NEW FAD FOR MILLIONAIRES

Former Marquette man has Adopted a Town and is now Running it.

A new fad for millionaires has been found, says the Mining Journal. Giving away libraries, working for a living and trying to die poor, and such commonplace follies are old compared with the very latest in fads. Adopt a town. That is what Harry Pickands, a former Marquette young man, and son of the late Henry S. Pickands, of Pickands, Mather & Co., did three years ago, and he is "making good" to such an extent that a bank teller is busy counting out money, in order to "pay the shot." Young Pickands, after the death of his father, came into a fortune amounting to $2,000,000. He went to work in the offices of the company notwithstanding this colossal windfall, and mastered the details of one branch of the business. Then he spent several years at Marquette in the offices of James Pickands & Co., and later gained experience in active work on the Marquette range.

Three years ago he made up his mind that he would leave Cleveland and settle in the country. He saw a place at Euclid, a Cleveland suburb, and he bought it. It was a fine estate, with a large rambling house on a ridge overlooking the heart of the village.

He had only lived there a few weeks when he realized that he did not like the village. There were several saloons in the town, and a large wine farm that was crowded with people from the city on Sundays. While not a teetotaler, he did not like the idea of having so much liquor sold near his home. Besides, the roads and streets of the village were in poor condition. It was difficult to get to and from his office in his automobile. The traction cars did not always make regular stops in the village, and on several occasions he was delayed in coming into town in bad weather. Besides, the village was overrun with tramps and reckless automobilists and it was whispered that there was a gambling resort within its precincts.

To do away with all these objectionable things and to establish conditions to suit himself Henry S. Pickands conceived the idea of adopting the village. He would become its mayor, pass laws to bring about the desired changes that was three years ago. This was no easy task, although he had one of the best qualifications for a candidate for office, an unlimited supply of money. The village of Euclid covers an area of five square miles and has a population of about 9,000, the majority of whom had never heard of the aspiring young millionaire. Charles S. Burns was mayor and a candidate for reelection. He had been a county commissioner and was widely known and liked. Besides, he was proprietor of the big wine farm, and had the liquor

EPWORTH LEAGUE GIVES RECEPTION

One of the pleasing social functions given this year, was the reception given by the Epworth League of the First Methodist Episcopal church to the teachers of the public schools who have attended that church during the year. A short musical and literary program was given. Among those who took part were the Rev. Frederick Spence, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Leighton and Mrs. Emory Snyder. Ice cream and cake were served.

CLASS WILL NUMBER ELEVEN

Seven Boys and Four Girls to Graduate From Gladstone High School

The Commencement exercises of the Gladstone high school will occur on June 22 and will be something of a novelty for the occasion. The program will consist of two plays of one act each, the first of which will be a farcical sketch "Burdell vs. Pickwick," by Charles Dickens. The second is "The Obstinate Family" from the German. The class this year consists of seven boys and four girls. The pupils are Rufus Sible, Allen Miller, Wm. Donahue, Carl Hood, Richard Nobel, Carl Olson, Frank Brown, Jeanette Bellaire, Olive and Mae Calder and Edith Prober.

More than half a million officials, business, professional men, bankers, farmers and stockmen have been cured by using Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets. Hill Drug Co. both stores.

RAISED TO SECOND CLASS

Owing to the increase of business the Gladstone postoffice has been advanced to the second class and Postmaster Laing's salary will be $2,000 from and after July 1. This increase in salary is much larger than appears on its face, for there are no deductions for clerk hire or expenses; in the second class offices these are borne by the department. The greater share of the increase of postal revenue to this office comes from the rapidly growing business of the Marbis axo factory, which makes large use of the mails for its advertising matter of all kinds as well as an extensive correspondence with all parts of the world. This substantial progress will be gratifying to the whole city.

Good looks bring happiness. Friends are more for us when we meet them with a clean, smiling face, bright eyes sparkling with health, which comes by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.—Hill Drug Co. both stores.

KEEN INTEREST IS AROUSED

Big Crowd will Attend the Base Ball Game Between the Fat Men and Leans at South Park, Wednesday.

Now that the Fat Men's baseball team has announced that they will be on hand to defend the honor of their team, much interest is being aroused in the game to be played next Wednesday at South Park.

Notwithstanding the fact that the teams have been practicing hard for the game the champions of the Fat Men's team hold that they will carry off the pennant in this year's game. They maintain that they will do this without calling in any help from outside and they are so sure that they will win the game that now all the Leans are supposed to do is to attempt to keep down the score.

The Rev. Father Langen has announced that his team will be picked from the following list: Smith, Driscoll, Mertz, Groesbeck, Jones, Voght, Ed. Erickson, Dr. Brutenbach, Howell, Cleary, Tolan, Thomas, Kratzo, Nea, Perron, Cotton, Lucas, Fenslon, Sourwine, Paul, and twenty others.

Owing to the great interest taken in the game, tickets will be on sale at the following places, Mend drug store, D. A. Oliver's furniture store, Ellsworth's drug store J. A. Allo's undertaking rooms, Hill drug store, Bolger and Peterson's bicycle store, Groos' drug store and Young and Filion's shoe store.

The funds derived from the game will go to the St. Joseph's and the Presbyterian churches. It is not known as yet what arrangements have been made to pay the doctor's bills caused by the accidents but it is expected that satisfactory arrangements will be made before the game is called.

Aphids or Plant Louse (Aphis Brassicae)

EVERYONE who has had even the slightest experience in raising flowers knows the trouble caused by insects of various kinds, especially on rose bushes. To successfully raise flowers—to bring them to their full growth and development unblemished by the mark of these pests, requires constant watchfulness. There are a variety of methods recommended for exterminating the pests, but nearly all have the very serious difficulty of not only killing the insect but killing the plant as well. Those of us who have tried Paris green, hellebore, tobacco water, tobacco dust, and soaps of various kinds, as well as certain patented products on the market, have had experience with the injurious effects of these productions. Scientific investigation, however, has brought to light one remedy at least for this pest, and that is chemically pure Nicotine, which absolutely destroys any form of insect life. It is applied as a weak watery spray or bath, and in this form it is colorless, stainless, and odorless, and cannot be distinguished from plain water, etc. It is sold in small bottles, and is sold by all druggists, and is sold by all druggists.

WOMAN SELLS FAKE STOCKS

Inhabitants of the Fox River valley, residing in the vicinity of Neenah, Menasha, Appleton and Oshkosh, have just discovered that they have been made the victims of a smooth swindle in the way of a honey-tongued young woman selling stocks in an interurban rail way that is being projected from Chicago to Cleveland. It is said that the young woman was so plausible and persuasive that she disposed of over $10,000 worth of the stock in a short time and then disappeared. It is alleged that one person purchased $400 worth of the stock.

The young woman is said to have been very good looking and in fact, quite fascinating. She presented fine engraved stock certificates which she filled in with prices for stock regulated according to what she judged to be the financial circumstances of her victims.

The cheat was discovered by one of the buyers of stock writing to the supposed headquarters of the interurban company in Chicago and being informed that the woman was a fraud, that there was no such concern as that she claimed to represent and that the interurban project was backed by millions and was selling no stock.

ROSE NOW CUTS WOOD

Ralph W. Rose, the gigantic young athlete, has left his home in California for the University of Indiana, where he intends resuming his studies. Incidentally, he may enter the record breaking business in the athletic world again. During his vacation Rose has been cutting wood in the hills of Sonoma. One of the athlete's admirers says he can cut two cords of wood a day. He is the pride of the postoffice infesting citizens of his native town, and when Saturday evening he joined a grand march through the main streets a crowd of admiring youngsters kept close company with his heels.
