PROGRAM WAS ENJOYABLE

Graduates of Escanaba High School Acquit Themselves with Credit in Short Orations.

No commencement program that has ever been arranged for a graduating class of the Escanaba high school has been more interesting than that given at the Petersen opera house last night by 11 members of the class, assisted by attractive musical numbers by students of the entire high school.

The final program of the commencement exercises will be given at the Petersen tonight when the remaining members of the class will contribute their parts to the program.

Members of the graduating class who appeared on the special program acquitted themselves with great credit last night each appearing to advantage in the particular part taken in the program.

In addition to the numbers given by the graduates, the program was interspersed by attractive musical numbers which gave the necessary variety to the entertainment and proved a strong factor in making the whole program interesting.

The chorus numbers given by 40 students of the high school, numbers by a girl's chorus and by a boy's chorus, were all excellent and showed well the great amount of preparation that had been necessary.

The high school and girls' choruses were trained for their appearance in the program of last night and tonight by Miss Edna M. Watson, instructor in music for the public schools and the art class, as they showed well the ability of the instructor.

Much of the credit for the excellent having and the boys' chorus is due to Olive Thacker, one of the members of the chorus, in whose charge much of the work of training that chorus was placed.

The opera house was prettily decorated with the colors of the graduating class, orange, red, and green, which were blotted before the stage and lined the walls of the parquet and the stage isle.

An audience which filled the greater portion of both floors of the opera house was attracted and each member was enthusiastically applauded.

The Rise of Russia was the subject of the program for last night and each short oration by the graduates was a veritable page of history of the Czar's domain. The early history of Russia, the factors which have entered into its progress through the centuries, the last great war of that country with Japan and sketches of the lives of men who have played a prominent part in making Russian history were treated.

The program of last night was a most pleasing oration in commencement exercises, being practical throughout, and in addition to being interesting was instructive to the audience.

Tonight the subject of the program will be The Golden Age of Literature in which the same scheme will be carried out with the oration of each graduate treating of some phase of The Golden Age.

ALUMNI PARTY GIVEN TONIGHT

The Elks hall will be the scene of an especially pretty dancing party and reception tonight when the Escanaba Alumni Association will entertain in honor of the graduating class of 1906.

The members of the association, which was formed one year ago, have been working for the last week to make the event of tonight a success and it is expected that many dancers will respond to the invitations that were issued.

Tomorrow night at the Elks hall the members of the Phi Alpha fraternity will entertain a large number of guests at a dancing party.

FOGS ARE EXPENSIVE

Many Collisions and Strandings Result From Thick Weather of Last Two Weeks.

Dense fogs which have prevailed over the upper lakes for a fortnight past are adding very heavily to the insurance losses. For the past five days the straits of Mackinac, the Soo passage and the Detroit and St. Clair rivers have been covered by dense fog banks for at least a part of the day. Three vessels were reported ashore this morning on account of the fog. The most serious losses so far have been the sinking of the steamer John Dun can by the Anchor liner Labigh near the Manitowish, Lake Michigan, and the collision between the steamers Steel King and Manchester off Harbor Beach Lake Huron.

An underwriter estimates the losses directly due to fog for the past few weeks at $250,000. One concern operating a large fleet of boats served formal notice on all masters a month ago not to move in times of fog unless they knew exactly where they were. Masters were ordered to lie idle until the fog lifted if in doubt as to their location. This peremptory order has thus far not had the slightest effect judging from the list of wrecks. "There seems to be weakness in the minds of captains and mates," said a vessel owner today, "which prevents them from coming to a full stop when they are approaching points of danger in thick weather. Apparently they have to keep going and take chances of striking something. One stranding will take away all the profit possible to be made by running through fogs for at least a half dozen years, yet owners are not able to impress this upon their captains and there is a long string of wrecks after every 10 or 15 days."

NEW DOCK IS NEAR COMPLETION

Wood Construction Work on new Structure is Completed and Crew Awaits Arrival of Steel Spouts.

The work of constructing the new St. Paul dock is nearly completed and it is believed that it will be possible to place the new structure in commission early in July.

All of the wood construction work on the dock has been completed and the crew in charge of the work is now awaiting the arrival of the steel spouts to be placed in position beneath the pocket openings.

DOCK WORK IS DELAYED

Car shortages in the west which have tied up shipments of Pacific coast timber to this part of the country, are delaying work on the new docks in the course of construction at the head of the lake.

The work at the Mirabeau's new dock in the west end has been tied up to quite an extent during the last two weeks and the contractors complain that a lack of material is also retarding progress on the reconstruction of Great Northern dock No. 3 at Allouez.

The amount of timber used in this work is enormous and when it is practically impossible to get timber from the coast, the effect on these extensive building operations is most apparent. The concrete foundations for the approach to the new Mirabeau dock are completed and the only thing lacking now to rush the structure to completion is the timber.

It was expected that the new Mirabeau dock would be near enough to completion by the first of August to permit boats to be loaded there, but that possibility is rapidly fading.

When the Great Northern dock is enlarged, it will be as large as the big one, No. 2. The improvements will make it about 996 feet longer than it was.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Axel Erickson have gone to Depue, Wis., to attend the funeral of Capt. Daniel E. Stalker master of the coal barge Golden Age, who was killed aboard his vessel at Milwaukee on Saturday afternoon. Capt. Stalker was well-known to many marine men at this port having frequently made trips to Escanaba for ore.

COMMITTEES WILL MEET

Fourth of July Plans Again to be Discussed at Meeting of Tonight.

Members of the different committees having in charge the plans for Escanaba's Fourth of July celebration will meet at the city hall at 8 o'clock tonight to discuss additional plans for making the demonstration a marked success.

Members of the general arrangement committee together with all sub-committees will present reports at the meeting of tonight and after the reports have been submitted a general discussion will follow as to means for adding new attractions for visitors and carrying out every part of the program laid out for the day in all of its details.

E. E. Wood secretary of the general committee on arrangements has received a letter from the Amusement Booking Association of Chicago assuring him that two good special attractions will be furnished for Escanaba on the day of the celebration.

The nature of the attractions has not yet been announced but Secretary Wood has been assured that they will be "thrillers" and new and novel.

The letter received by Mr. Wood from the booking agency says in part: "In view of the fact there is a round trip excursion rate from Chicago to Escanaba for the next few weeks we are enabled to give you two good attractions for the Fourth of July. It is however impossible for us to send you the cuts for these acts at this time, but will do so within the next few days as they are now in the hands of the engraver and are not yet at our disposal. You can rest assured that the acts we send you will be a recommendation for us to secure future business."

Members of the committee on sports are arranging a long list of events for both amateurs and professionals. The amateur events will be confined strictly to amateur athletes while special events will be held for the professional class.

Prizes will be offered for every event and it is expected that a long list of entries will be booked for each.

LARGE FAMILY IS MOTHERLESS

After an illness of two weeks from Bright's disease Mrs. Henry Hansen, 38 years of age, died yesterday afternoon at the family home at Spalding leaving a motherless family of five children, the oldest of whom is ten years and the youngest 11 months of age.

Mrs. Hansen had frequently visited in Escanaba and the announcement of her death will come as a shock to many people in the city.

Besides her husband and children Mrs. Hansen is survived by her parents, one sister and three brothers.

Mrs. Hansen was born at Spalding and had lived at that place during all of her life.

Funeral services will be conducted at the home at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, the Rev. Hjerstad, of the Norwegian Lutheran church of Manistique officiating. Interment will be at Spalding.

WILL ENLARGE THE BUILDING

Extensive improvement plans are to be carried out this summer at St. Paul's German Lutheran church at Jacob and Jennie streets.

The greater portion of the old church building is to be torn down and replaced by a larger and more modern structure.

The contract for the work is to be awarded at once and the work will be pushed in order that the new church may be ready for occupancy early in this fall.

A large basement is to be constructed under the entire building, which will be wider and longer than the present structure. The present tower will be torn down and raised to a higher point than that now reached.

The interior of the building is to be constructed with a main floor and gallery, greatly increasing the seating capacity.

COUPLE TOOK MARRIAGE VOWS

Miss Marie Luecke and Charles Jaeger were Married at Home of Bride Yesterday.

One of the pretty June weddings in Escanaba was that which occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lutcke yesterday afternoon when their daughter Miss Marie Luecke was married to Mr. Charles Jaeger by the Rev. William P. Peters, of St. Paul's German Lutheran church.

The home was prettily decorated for the occasion and the scene presented when the bridal party entered the parlor where the ceremony was to be performed was strikingly pretty.

The bride was attended by Miss Rose Jaeger, sister of the groom as bridesmaid and Mr. N. Arndt acted as groomsmen.

Lilly Jaeger sister of the groom acted as flower girl.

Both the bride and the bridesmaid wore gowns of white and with the bride appearing with the bridal veil caught with a wreath of myrtle.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served and at 9 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Jaeger left for an extended trip through the west and they may decide to locate in some western city.

Both the bride and the groom have many friends in Escanaba having spent the greater portion of their lives here.

CRIPPLED BY BLANK CARTRIDGE

Walford Johnson Loses Thumb and Finger by Carelessness in Firing Explosive.

Walford Johnson, employed by the Escanaba Woodware company, was following the loss of the thumb and second finger of his left hand in the future shop premature firing of July celebrations in general and the use of blank cartridges in particular.

Early this morning before beginning his work at the plant Johnson placed a blank cartridge of large caliber, on an iron table at the plant and struck it with a hammer.

In the explosion that followed the thumb and second finger of his left hand were blown off and the palm of the hand was badly lacerated.

REPORT IS SUBMITTED

County Board of Canvassers Finish Work After Many Errors in Returns are Corrected.

After being in session for two and one half days the Delta county board of canvassers completed their work at noon today, having caused errors made by election inspectors in many wards and townships of the county, in making returns of the vote cast, to be corrected.

In but few wards and townships of the county were the returns as submitted to the canvassers absolutely correct but in some errors were made which could be corrected by the members of the board and in others it was necessary to call the election officials to their assistance.

The official report of the canvassers made public this afternoon shows that out of the total Republican vote cast in Delta county at the last election, 808 enrolled members of that party voted in favor of adopting the primary system of elections to nominate a candidate for governor of that party. Of the total Republican vote cast on the question of nominating a candidate for lieutenant governor by direct vote, 277 favored the new system and 34 voted "No." Of the total of 37 Democrats who took part in the primary election 35 members of that party favored the direct nomination of a candidate for governor and two were opposed. Of the Democrats who voted on the question of direct nomination for lieutenant governor 16 favored the idea and one voted "no."

The official report of canvassers shows that, Gov. Fred M. Warner and Woodbridge N. Ferris are not the only candidates for their respective parties in the race for the office of governor. If the total of 339 Republicans who indicated their choice of candidate for governor 337 voted for Mr. Warner, one vote was cast for O. B. Fuller and one Republican voted for Ferris as the nominee for the party.

Magnus Mattson also received one vote for governor.

The vote for Republican candidate for lieutenant governor was Patrick D. Kelley 232, Maitland, one, Fuller one and Ole Erickson one.

A total of 37 Democratic voters were cast for Woodbridge N. Ferris as the Democratic candidate for governor. The Democratic vote for lieutenant governor was John J. Sourwine, three and Charles Kimerlee one.

AGREEMENT NOT REACHED

Jury in Justice Court Unable to Decide Whether Louis Kaufmann was Promised Commission for Buying Farm.

Whether William Wodtke had really promised to pay Louis Kaufmann $50 as a commission for arranging for the purchase of a farm by Wodtke, in Harris township of Menominee county, could not be decided by a jury of six men in Judge O. V. Linden's court yesterday afternoon.

Kaufmann claims that the commission was promised by the farm purchaser and he was so thoroughly convinced that he was in the right that he retained Atty. C. D. McEwen to present his case in court. Mr. Wodtke was equally as confident that he had made no promises to the plaintiff and Atty. I. C. Jennings was engaged to defend his position.

After the greater portion of yesterday afternoon had been consumed in listening to the testimony of witnesses and the arguments of the attorneys the case was submitted to the jury.

After being out for several hours the members of the panel reported to the court that they were unable to reach an agreement.

If the plaintiff and defendant remain steadfast to the claims made by them when the suit was instituted it will be necessary to arrange for a second trial, before a new jury.

KEEP COWS IN STABLES

Mayor Perron today issued a request to all owners of cows in the city of Escanaba that on Saturday, when over 3,000 visitors will be in the city to attend the St. Jean de Baptiste day celebration, that they shall keep the animals in their stables and not allow them to graze on the commons south of the city as is the usual custom.

It is pointed out by the mayor that the cows owned in the city are herded near the South park where the greater portion of the program of the celebration will be held, and it is his special desire that all the bovines be conspicuous by their absence near the park during the celebration.

The request issued by the mayor is directed not only to the several herders but to the city as a whole.

The four hundred delegates to the convention of the Michigan United Commercial Travelers, recently held at Potosky, unanimously adopted a resolution extending the thanks of the commercial travelers of Michigan to Governor Warner for his energetic assistance in the matter of having the railroads of Michigan restore the interchangeable mileage books.

More than one million emigrants were added to the producers and consumers of the United States last year, and their coming did not to any degree disturb the wages paid to American labor.

Fred M. Warner will enjoy in history the peculiar privilege of having been the first governor of Michigan selected by direct vote in which open opportunity was given all the members of his party to participate.

OLMSTED TO PITCH GAME

Definite Arrangements Made Today for Series of Two Games With Crystal Falls on Saturday and Sunday.

Negotiations were closed today for a series of two baseball games between Crystal Falls and Escanaba to be played at South park on Saturday and Sunday.

Escanaba's team will be an all star aggregation with Henry Olmsted, the star of all ball tossers ever turned out in the north country, appearing in the box for one of the games.

Fred Olmsted, one of the fastest short stops that ever donned an Escanaba uniform, will be in his old position for both games and John Lowell, who won his "M" with the university of Michigan baseball team this spring, will also be in the lineup.

Although the definite lineup of the Escanaba team for the games was not prepared today it is probable that Matt will be behind the bat for both games while Lebr, Aubin, Flath, M. Walsh, Lentz and other diamond stars will be among the remaining members of the team.

The Crystal Falls team is stronger this season than ever before in the history of baseball at the mine city, having defeated Oakshob, of the Wisconsin State league, and Lake Linden of the Northern league by decisive scores.

Nemachek, who has appeared in the box for Crystal Falls for several seasons and who is said to be stronger than ever this season, will probably pitch both games for the visitors.

The announcement that Olmsted will appear in the box for the Escanaba aggregation in one of the games will be the source of much satisfaction to baseball fans throughout Escanaba and it is believed that South park will be packed to the gills for both contests.

The game of Saturday afternoon in order that many people who are detained by business early in the afternoon may witness the contest, and also in order not to interfere with the St. Jean de Baptiste day program at the park, will not be called until 3:45 o'clock.

Permission to arrange the game for Saturday afternoon was obtained from the officers of the Institut Jacques Cartier who have charge of the celebration and with the great number of visitors who will be in the city on that day it is expected that one of the largest crowds that has ever witnessed a ball game in Escanaba will fill the park at that time.

Fred Olmsted has assumed charge of all arrangements for the game and will be prepared to announce the full lineup of the Escanaba team tomorrow.

BATTLE SHAFT IS DEDICATED

Woodbury, N. J. June 21.—Special.—Where the colonial troops of Rhode Island, New Jersey and Pennsylvania engaged the British troops in the Battle of Red Bank, Oct. 22, 1777, a handsome monument commemorating the conflict was unveiled today.

The unveiling was made the occasion for an all day program of exercises, the various features of which included a parade of troops, a sham battle, and historical exercises attending the monument dedication this afternoon.

The participants included state officials and other distinguished representatives of the three states that were represented in the battle. The monument, which consists of a handsome granite shaft surmounted by the figure of a colonial trooper, was unveiled by Miss Virginia Andrews of this city.

AN AMERICAN STEAM SHOVEL AT WORK AT PANAMA.

This illustration shows one of the several American steam shovels which have been sent to Panama. They are monster machines, capable of performing twice the work done by the older French machines. The one shown here is at work in Culebra cut. Others of the same kind of machines are being erected as rapidly as they can be gotten to the isthmus. The Culebra section is where the largest amount of rock and earth must be removed. Realizing the task before them and knowing that the French type of shovels would never be able to perform the task, the American engineers had special machines constructed, which are the largest in the world.

INDUSTRIAL NEWS NOTES

The Canadian Pacific Railway, according to report, is preparing to build another line through the Rocky Mountains at a point some distance north of the present route through the Kicking Horse Pass.

The Colorado transportation bureau has been organized in Denver for the purpose of making more effective the dealings of Colorado merchants, jobbers and manufacturers with the railroads that handle their goods, and to prevent discrimination in favor of other territories as against Colorado.

At Decatur, Ill., work has been begun on the extensive new shops which the Wabash railroad is to build there. The shops and yards will cover forty two cars and will be modern in all their equipment.

A proof of Canadian prosperity is found in the fact that Canadian customs receipts for May, 1906, exceeded those for May, 1905, by $508,585.

Over 100,000 spindles were added to the Southern cotton mills in the first three months of this year. They are estimated to cost $20 a spindle, which indicates an investment of $3,813,040. This is a much better record than that of any quarter period of 1905, being nearly 50,000 more spindles than reported for the best quarter of last year.

IN HONOR OF SOLDIER DEAD

Lawistown, Pa., June 21.—Special.—The Millin county soldiers and sailors' monument was dedicated today with impressive ceremony and in the presence of one of the largest crowds ever gathered here.

The Millin county soldiers and sailors' monument is one of the finest memorials of its kind to be erected in Pennsylvania. It consists of a solid granite column 34 feet in height, rests on a magnificent foundation of carved stone. About the base are four figures, representing the four branches of the service. On each side are appropriate inscriptions. The column is surmounted by the figure of a color bearer 11 feet high; the entire monument is 64 feet 4 inches high, and cost upwards of $15,000.

Millin county claims the distinction of sending the first troops to the defense of the nation and also of sending more soldiers to the front during the civil war than any other county of equal area and population.

MACK HELD AT MARQUETTE

Man who Collected Many Superfluous Dollars in North Country Held in Jail.

John Mack, suit club organizer, and assiduous collector of four dollar bills, is an inmate of the county jail in this city says the Mining Journal. Mack arrived here yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in custody of Deputy Sheriff Maney who arrested him at Ishpeming on a warrant issued on a complaint sworn to by John S. Harlan, charging the offense of obtaining money under false pretenses. It is set up in the complaint that Mack obtained Harlan's order on the representation that he (Mack) made a suit of clothes for a conductor on the St. Paul railway who was a personal friend of Harlan's and it afterwards developed that the railway conductor did not even know the tailor. Harlan says he will be able to show that Mack solicited other orders on the same representation, using Harlan's name also among the railway men as a means of obtaining ready customers for his club. When arraigned in justice court last evening, Mack told the justice he would not attempt to furnish the $400 bail asked, but preferred to take to the jail for his night's stay, which was set for 10 o'clock Thursday morning. At least a dozen of Mack's victims had the "tip" that he would arrive here on the St. Paul train last evening, and were on hand to get a part of their money back by watching his movements as the officer led him through the streets to the justice shop. The never-wear-off smile that won so many customers in such a short time on the occasion of his former visit was visibly affected, and it was with difficulty that he worked up enough to pass out a grin for each "member."

"I've been waiting for that suit of clothes, Mack," said one man with a card containing four $1 holes, "when will it be here?"

"Yes, and I've been waiting to get out of trouble at Green Bay and all these places so I can go and get it for you," replied Mack with an injured air.

The Marquette men who invested in Mack's catnip are taking steps to organize a club, the purpose being to give the man a long jail sentence. Under the law Mack cannot get more than sixty days for the offense charged in the complaint, as the amount alleged to have been obtained under false pretenses is less than the statutory requirement for grand larceny. The plan is to get the "members" together, swear to complaints in each case, and as fast as the Milwaukee man completes one jail sentence, place him on trial for another. If this plan is carried out as outlined, Mack will be an old, gray haired man in his 40s before the last case is tried, as he has visitors enough here to keep him in court the rest of his natural lifetime. It is related that one of Mack's club members, who gave him a $5 banknote in exchange for a card bearing receipt for $1, received in change a $1 counterfeit silver dollar from the tailor. The member did not observe that the coin was counterfeit until after the man departed, consequently the matter was not mentioned at the time.

COMPANY TO HAVE SPECIAL

Definite arrangements for bringing the Wenzinger Brothers Stock company from Ishpeming to Escanaba for a special one night's engagement at the Peterson opera house on Sunday evening, were made yesterday by the advance agent for the company.

The company will be brought from the Hemetite city to Escanaba on one of the excursion trains from the north after returning passengers who attend the St. Jean de Baptiste day celebration on Saturday, to their homes.

Without arrangements being made to bring the company to Escanaba on the excursion train it would have been impossible for the players to arrive here in time to fill the special engagement.

JUDGE HAD CLOSE SHAVE

Mass City Justice Lost in Woods Tread by Wolves and Held for Many Hours.

One of the most thrilling experiences that could happen to any man during a lifetime occurred to Justice of the Peace Irlah Blythe of Mass City Sunday night in the woods of Ontonagon county. In company with Dr. W. R. Hanna and Tom Wilcox also of Mass City, Judge Blythe went on a fishing trip Saturday evening. Dr. Hanna and Wilcox misadvised him the next morning and returned without him. When it was discovered he had not returned grave fears were entertained for his safety. Search parties went after him, and he was eventually located yesterday after he had passed Sunday night up a tree with a pack of wolves howling under him.

The judge had wandered and lost his way and he endeavored in vain to retrace his steps. Night came on and he was in a bad predicament. Added to this he could hear the howling of wolves in the distance, and had a premonition that the pack was on his trail. The hungry animals came near and the judge lost no time in scrambling up a tree. Swinging himself into the branches he proceeded to pass the night. His feelings can better be imagined than described. The wolves circled around the tree, making frantic endeavors to leap into the lower branches. They remained with him all night but as day came on they scampered off. The advent of the rescue party was a joyful one for the judge. He thanks his climbing powers for his wellness of skin. He isn't so young as he used to be but he still can climb a tree.

ONE CERTAINTY.

Some Escanaba People Fully Realize it Now.

When the back aches from kidney ills, When urinary troubles annoy you, There's a certain way to find relief: A sure way to be cured. Doan's Kidney Pills will do it. Escanaba people endorse this claim. Mrs. A. V. Lindquist, of 1401 Escanaba, St. Escanaba, Mich., says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills bigly. I suffered from kidney trouble and backache for a number of years. There was a dull, dull aching across the small of my back, so severe at times as to almost lay me up in bed. I tried many remedies but without success. Finally seeing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended by well known Escanaba people whom they had cured, I got a box at the Mead Drug Co. I was greatly surprised as well as gratified at the almost immediate relief I received. I used two boxes in all and the trouble left me and has never returned."

Girl Seizes Rabid Dog. Cleveland, O.—After grappling with a dog supposed to be suffering with rabies Miss Louise Wetherholt, 17 years old, held down the animal while Patrolman Mears shot it. The dog was the property of Mrs. Emma Bonner, with whom Miss Wetherholt lives. The animal had shown symptoms of hydrophobia and was locked in the cellar. Patrolman Mears was called in and requested to shoot the dog. Miss Wetherholt opened the cellar door and the enraged animal, frothing at the mouth, leaped out and attacked her. To prevent the dog from biting her she bravely seized it around the neck and held it until the patrolman sent a bullet through its head.

BOARD WILL MEET MONDAY

Contest is Scheduled at Opening Session of Supervisors for Position of Chairman of the Body.

Members of the Delta county board of supervisors will meet at the court house on Monday for the regular mid-summer session of that body and which promises to continue through the greater portion of next week.

The interest of all Republican politicians of the county will be centered in the contest which will mark the first day's session of the June meeting when a chairman of the board for the coming year will be selected.

Chairman William Bonifas of Garden township, will be a candidate for reelection and it is understood that the name of Mayor M. Perron will be proposed in opposition to the candidacy of Mr. Bonifas.

Unique Punishment. Forcing a cigarette smoker to give up for one year the use of cigarettes is the novel sentence a judge in Pennsylvania has passed upon a young man brought before him for obtaining goods under false pretenses. While the course of this court could not be followed exactly in many cases, there is something in the spirit of its ruling that will appeal to all who condemn indiscriminate punishment.

The young man might have gone to prison for a year, but that would have marred his life. Besides there may have been members of his family dependent upon him for support who during his absence would have suffered quite as much as he. Always pursuing conventional lines of punishment some of the shadow of the punishment falls upon innocent persons. This is inevitable. But in this case the offender is the only sufferer, and no one doubts that he will be very unhappy and sincerely sorry that he ever went wrong. And what other ends can punishment have in view?

SWADE KEEPERS AND STARTLE COLORED CONGREGATION.

ANIMALS CREATE A PANIC.

Make Their Escape While Being Loaded Into Train at Cincinnati—Are Recaptured After Causing Considerable Excitement.

Cincinnati—An elephant hunt engaged an army of men and a company of circus attendants from early morning until six o'clock the other evening in the territory north of the city. While being transferred from the winter quarters of the circus to a railroad a herd of 29 elephants escaped from their keepers. Part of the herd escaped into the front door of a colored Baptist church near by while services were in progress. The congregation dispersed through the windows, and the parson slipped out at a rear stairway to find refuge in the belfry. The animals scattered in all directions, trumpeting and mowing down fences in their mad rush. Some of them pulled up small trees and shrubbery. Most of the animals were retaken by the middle of the afternoon, but there were many wild scrambles by pedestrians to get out of the way.

The animals, after their long stay in winter quarters, were rather chary of stepping on the ponderous runway and entering the cars. Finally one elephant was induced to go up into the car, and the others, emboldened, were about to follow, when an express train came along at full speed on the opposite track, the engine whistling as it passed through.

The terrified elephant in the car charged down the runway through its companions, knocking the attendants right and left, and in a moment there was a stampede. To add to the trumpet and squealing of the monster beasts was a continuous clanking of chains.

Frightened pedestrians, seeing the elephants coming on a run, sought safety wherever they could, and the street were soon deserted by all but the attendants. Fences were pulled up lamp posts overturned and business signs thrown helter-skelter.

At the First Baptist Colored church the congregation had just finished a hymn, and the minister was giving out the text when pandemonium seemed to have broken loose in the church yard. One elephant with long tusks, the patriarch of the herd, butted his head against the door, which crashed in, and an instant later the beast's head was shoved into the church, and the long trunk waved about threateningly. Several members of the Sunday school class saw the animal's head and trunk, and, imagining that Satan had called either to admonish them or to take them with him, rent the air with their infantile shrieks. The elephant then withdrew his head and, taking a place in front of his companions, commenced a slow gallop about the church edifice, a trick they had been taught in winter quarters. Women screamed and several fainted, although Pastor Francis endeavored to allay their fears.

The members of the congregation covered in terror as the elephants circled the building, their outstretched trunks pulling down limbs of trees and hurling the benches and chairs in the yard to splinters.

After their little run-about recreation the elephants proceeded to dig up the church yard and other yards in the vicinity and made them look as if a number of laborers had been at work with picks and spades. Finally the keepers arrived on the scene and went to work to calm the animals, but they were so excited that this took some time. Several of them, however, obeyed the command "Duke!" which means in elephant language to lie down, and these animals were formed into a line. The elephants were, after a short while, under control, with the exception of five, one of whom was the old animal that led the outbreak. With four other elephants he disappeared in the direction of Carthage Heights and as soon as word could be sent to the fair grounds men on horseback, with ropes and chains, started after them.

At a dinner in New York city Mark Twain was attacking Christian Science in his whimsical way. "I only know of one convert to Christian Science," he said, "with whom I can feel any sympathy at all. I despise this man, but at the same time I can understand him. He came to me one day and told me that he had become a Christian Scientist. 'What? No more medicine,' said I. 'No more doctors. No more medicines,' he said, firmly. I was pained and grieved. I thought his mind must be going. He told me casually, as he was putting on his coat, that his mother-in-law had been taken seriously ill at his home a few days before."
