HOUSE IS SCENE OF STUBBORN BATTLE

THE INSURGENTS AND REGULARS FOR HOURS WAGE DESPERATE FIGHT OVER RULES.

UNCLE JOE MAY LOSE HIS CROWN

The House is in session all night and until after one o'clock this afternoon—all efforts to compromise are futile—Reported That Regulars Would Vote for Democratic Minority Leader for Speaker if Need Be.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, D. C., March 18.—At three o'clock the leaders of the insurgents met a committee of the regulars in conference on the compromise proposition.

Washington, D. C., March 18.—The house of representatives remained in session throughout the night, but transacted no business, efforts to force the presence of a quorum failing as often as attempted. The insurgents pounded the position of the regulars steadily from the time, late yesterday afternoon, when Congressman Norris of Nebraska, insurgent Republican, introduced his resolution to so reorganize the rules committee as to leave Speaker Cannon out and give the house itself power to choose the committee members, until daylight and refused to suspend proceedings when such action was suggested at 7:30 o'clock this morning by Representative Olmsted, Republican.

No Tangible Results.

The election of Minority Leader Champ Clark as speaker is seriously considered by some regular Republicans. They say they would follow a Democrat in preference to a Republican who defies the majority of his party. This course would be contingent upon the defeat of the organization in the present crisis.

The house remained in session continuously and at times there were lively incidents, but for the most part the proceedings were extremely dull. It seemed that all were awaiting the outcome of the conference between the committees of insurgents and regulars. It was stated that the regulars had promised to bring in a rule increasing the size of the rules committee.

At 1:15 o'clock the conference of regulars, insurgents and Democrats ended without tangible results.

At two o'clock, by a vote of 161 to 151 the house took a recess until four o'clock.

Sensational Report Denied.

From one of the most intimate friends of Speaker Cannon comes a statement that if the Norris resolution passed Cannon would resign and the regulars would vote with the Democrats for the election of Champ Clark as speaker, rather than side with the insurgents for the selection of one of their own choosing. This was denied by other friends of the speaker.

It was at an early conference between Gardner, Hayes, Norris and Lenroot for the insurgents and Clark and Underwood for the Democrats that the question of a compromise was debated. The proposition was that the house elect an enlarged committee on rules, omitting the speaker therefrom. This was considered satisfactory.

Immediately afterwards followed a lengthy conference between the insurgent leaders and Dalzell and Smith of the Regulars' committee. No definite conclusion was reached.

DIRECTORS OF FAIR SOCIETY TO MEET

Pursuant to a notice issued some time ago, the directors of the Delta County Agricultural society will meet this evening in the office of Torval E. Strom, secretary of the society, to consider the question of purchasing a site for fair grounds. Options have been secured upon several pieces of property suitable for the purpose and it is possible that one of these may be selected tonight and arrangements made for its purchase.

EXPRESS COMPANY ADDS BIG MILEAGE

O. F. Graves, local agent for the American Express company, has received notice that on April 1, the American will take over all lines west of Omaha, formerly operated by the Pacific Express company. Included in the transfer is the express traffic of the Union Pacific, Oregon Short Line, Oregon Railroad & Navigation company, and several other smaller western railroads. The addition of this mileage formerly operated by the Pacific company will give the American Express company direct service from ocean to ocean and make it the largest express company in the world.

Over 1,000 new offices will be under the control of the American and the company will be in much better shape to handle western business promptly. Some of the larger cities with which the American will have direct connection as the result of this purchase are: Portland, Salt Lake city, Denver, Ogden, Seattle and Butte. Tariffs for the offices on the newly acquired lines have not been received as yet at the Escanaba express office. Mr. Graves states.

TOWN IS JUDGED BY ITS NEWSPAPERS

A town is judged by its newspapers, much as a man is sized up by his clothes. The whole community is thus a partner in its journalistic enterprises. If you want your city to put its best foot forward, give the home paper the support it needs to keep an expanding and growing more attractive.—Fond du Lac (Wis.) Reporter.

FINE ATTRACTIONS COMING TO THE CITY

Manager P. M. Peterson has booked a number of sterling attractions for appearance at his opera house during the present theatrical season. Included among them are "The Wolf," "Polly of the Circus," "The Third Degree," "The Traveling Salesman," and Miss Blanche Walsh. Mr. Peterson does not know yet what play Miss Walsh will present here, but it will be one of the best in her extensive repertoire, he states. All of the other attractions are also top notchers in the theatrical world.

Mrs. Michael Powers and Miss Anna Dickle are home from a visit in Marinette.

ATTACKS ALL ADS OF HARMFUL CHARACTER

C. W. Arnold of Minneapolis Wages War Upon Certain Class of Newspaper Advertisements That Are Evil in Their Influence—Compliments the Local Newspapers.

About sixty people were assembled last night at the First Baptist church in the union service at which C. W. Arnold of Minneapolis was the speaker of the evening. Mr. Arnold is conducting in the west the same sort of a campaign as that which is carried on by Anthony Comstock of New York. While the work of Mr. Comstock is confined largely to New York City, the work of Mr. Arnold takes him into several states, Michigan, Minnesota, Iowa and Illinois.

His address last evening had to do with a class of newspaper advertisements that are evil in their influence and although he paid a compliment to the local newspapers, saying he had noticed nothing objectionable in their advertisements, he spoke of the evil influence of such ads. on the boys and were read in the city papers.

Mr. Arnold attacked a certain class of patent medicine advertisements, clairvoyant advertisements, and those of the mail order houses. Mr. Arnold declared that the latter paid the smallest wages of any of the stores of the great cities. There is a bill to be presented before the Michigan legislature soon that deals with this subject and the measure is being fathered by Mr. Arnold. Over 145,000 letters have been sent out already and the influence of the campaign will be felt in every portion of this state. The parents were strongly urged to aid him in the warfare he is conducting against these evil practices.

ESCANABA PEOPLE GUESTS WITH TAFT

Escanaba was well represented among the throngs who aided in the welcome to President Taft in Chicago yesterday. Not only that but a number of people from this city had the pleasure of being in attendance at a banquet at which the nation's chief was the guest of honor and one of their number had the distinction of delivering an address at that same banquet, which was given by the Irish Fellowship club last evening.

The Escanaba speaker referred to was Hon. John P. Fer, who spoke on "The Day We Celebrate," and among the Escanabans present as guests of the Irish Fellowship club were Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Glavin, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cleary, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. John Cumiskey, Mr. and Mrs. N. Spencer, City Treasurer T. J. Burke, M. N. Smith and A. R. Northrup. Some of these returned home this afternoon and are enthusiastic in their descriptions of what they saw and heard during their eventful visit in Chicago.

ESCANABA'S SCHOOL SYSTEM IS PERFECT

In his second writup of Escanaba and its institutions as a city, James H. Lanyon, staff representative of The Houghton Daily Mining Gazette, who was here to attend the recent meeting of the Lake Superior Press association, had the following deserved mention of the Escanaba schools:

"The public school system of Escanaba is perfect. The city has a new $110,000 high school, as fine as any city in Michigan can produce. It is on the accredited list of many colleges and eighteen teachers here instruct pupils in every line of high school study. The domestic science and manual training departments are growing in importance. The principal is Frederick R. McKenzie. Besides this magnificent high school there are five grade schools employing forty-six teachers. The arrangement and management of this great system is under Superintendent D. Davis.

"There are two Catholic parochial schools, a German school and a business college in this city."

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Nicholas Walsh Jr., is home from a sojourn at Hot Springs, Ark.

John Walsh has signed a contract to play with the Escanaba Baseball team this season. Walsh is a catcher and is conceded to be one of the best backstops in the semi-professional ranks. This spring he will catch for the State University team, but later on will be with the local team.

The weather is warming up and becoming more springlike every day. Some Escanaba residents are in consequence beginning to develop symptoms of the gardening fever.

Andrew Peterson of Fayette was an Escanaba visitor yesterday.

Henry Olmsted, whose contract as pitcher for the Denver club of the Western league was renewed for this season, left last evening for Excelsior Springs, Mo., where he will join the team for the spring training. Mr. Olmsted is already in good condition for work on the diamond and his friends here look to see him repeat his success of last season as the Western league's best pitcher.

Mrs. Henry Olmsted left today for Hazelhurst, Wis., for a visit with relatives for a week or so before going west to be with her husband, who left last night for Excelsior Springs, Mo., to join the Denver team of the Western league.

San Jose, Cal., March 18.—Halley's comet will be visible to the naked eye in this region just before dawn April 8, or shortly after that date, according to W. W. Campbell, director of Lick Observatory.

"On May 18 the earth may pass through the tail of the comet," said Director Campbell, "but there is no danger for terrestrial life, as the tail will be extremely attenuated."

EASTER FLOWERS IN GREAT DEMAND

Local Florist Says Escanaba People Are Becoming Fond of Flowers for Home Decorations and as Expressions of Easter Sentiment—Easter Lilies and Violets.

The approach of Easter is being marked in Escanaba by a somewhat general demand for flowers as gifts and for home decorations as the best expression of the day. An Escanaba florist says that this flower sentiment is spreading wonderfully in this city and that annually the demand is growing greater.

Escanaba people have a divided affection in the matter of Easter flowers, finding it difficult to choose between the stately Easter lily and the modest but fragrant violet. The lily is offered in great numbers by local greenhouses and thousands of violets have been prepared to meet the demand.

There are fashions in flowers as in other things, and this year there is a violet fad, the flowers being sold on a silken display card to which they are fastened with a big clasp pin. Or they may be affixed to small down fans.

The greenhouses also produce a variety of hyacinths, daffodils, narcissus and all the carnations and roses, including American Beauties. The greenhouses have literally thousands of all varieties of flowers and the demand for them is increasing to an extent that shows Escanaba people are giving much attention to home beautifying.

CAUSE OF TROUBLE IN THE LOWER HOUSE

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, D. C., March 18.—The house, by a vote of 164 to 150 postponed amendment of the rule until tomorrow. The conference between the insurgent and regular leaders this afternoon failed because Speaker Cannon refused to entertain the proposition that he be eliminated from the rules committee.

Washington, D. C., March 18.—The immediate cause of the fierce battle which is now raging in the house of representatives between the insurgents and the regulars was the introduction late yesterday afternoon of the following resolution by Congressman Norris of Nebraska:

"Resolved, That the rules of the house be amended as follows:

The committee on rules shall consist of fifteen members, nine of whom shall be members of the majority party and six of whom shall be members of the minority party, to be selected as follows:

"The states of the union shall be divided by a committee of three selected by the house for that purpose into nine groups, each group containing as near as may be an equal number of members belonging to the majority party. The states of the union shall likewise be divided into six groups, each group containing as near as may be an equal number of members belonging to the minority party.

"At 10:30 o'clock on the day following the adoption of the report of said committee each of said groups shall meet and select one of its number a member of the committee on rules. The place of meeting for each of said groups shall be designated by the said committee of three in its report. Each of said groups shall report to the house the name of the member selected for membership on the committee on rules.

"The committee on rules shall select its own chairman; the speaker shall not be eligible to membership on said committee. All rules or parts thereof inconsistent with the foregoing resolution are hereby repealed."

MISS MARY JENSEN HAPPILY SURPRISED

Miss Mary Jensen, who is soon to be united in marriage to Chris. Hendrickson of Big Lake, Wash., was tendered a delightful party in the North Star hall last evening by her fellow members of the Danish Sisterhood. Miss Jensen was unaware of the pleasure that was in store for her and was quite surprised when she was informed that there was to be a party in her honor. The remainder of the evening was passed most enjoyably with cards and dancing and an elegant luncheon was served. As slight tokens of the esteem in which Miss Jensen is held by her friends she was presented with a number of valuable gifts in the form of silverware. Miss Jensen is a daughter of Hon. and Mrs. Peter Jensen and is to be married to Mr. Hendrickson some time in April.

ORATOR EULOGIZES THE IRISH NATION

REV. FATHER JOHN DALY OF MILWAUKEE DELIVERS AN ELOQUENT AND INSPIRING ADDRESS.

FEATURE OF THE ENTERTAINMENT

In Glowing Words He Tells "Ireland's Story in Oratory, Music and Song" at Closing Portion of Local St. Patrick's Day Celebration—Large Audience is Delighted—Instrumental and Vocal Music Also on the Program—Details.

With a program of rare merit and just about long enough not to be a bit wearisome, the Escanaba celebration of St. Patrick's day was concluded last evening in Peterson's opera house in the form of an entertainment distinctly appropriate to the day and occasion.

There was nothing lacking to make the entertainment a success and a credit to those who arranged it in honor of the memory of the good patron saint of Ireland and as a demonstration of their own patriotism and love of their nationality.

The principal feature of the entertainment, which was thoroughly enjoyed by an audience that filled the house to its capacity, was an address delivered by Rev. Father Daly of Milwaukee on "Ireland's Story in Oratory, Music and Song." Father Daly was introduced by Rev. Father J. M. Langan, pastor of St. Patrick's church, who preceded the introduction with a few remarks relative to St. Patrick's day and the significance of its observance wherever in the world there may be people of Irish blood. Not only in Escanaba, but in almost every civilized community in the world, Father Langan said, was St. Patrick's day observed and the memory of the saint venerated.

After Daly is not an entire stranger in Escanaba, having delivered an address here last summer at a banquet given by the Knights of Columbus, and his welcome from the audience was a hearty one. He at once proceeded to put himself on more than cordial terms with the audience by making some humorous references to local affairs and personalities connected with the celebration.

He then took up the early history of Ireland and in his able exposition of the subject successfully refuted charges that have been made that

MRS. BLANCHE PHILLIPS PASSES FROM LIFE

News has been received in this city of the death of Mrs. Blanche Phillips, widow of the late Dr. F. I. Phillips. Mrs. Phillips passed away yesterday in a hospital at Saginaw after an illness of several weeks. The fact of her illness was not generally known here and the announcement of her death is a distinct shock to her friends. Mrs. Phillips had lived in Escanaba for about fifteen years, but several months ago went to Saginaw to stay with her sister, Mrs. A. M. Roosevelt. About five weeks ago she was stricken with illness and grew steadily worse until the end came. It is announced that her funeral will be held in Saginaw tomorrow morning.

Senator Gordon's Frank Talk.

Senator Gordon's graceful goodbye to his colleagues a day has been commented upon as an interesting revelation of personal experience and humor. It is more than that; it is an American document. Among other things, it lifts the veil from what has long been a mystery to civilians as to the feelings of the northern and southern combatants in the civil strife toward one another. Colonel Gordon said that a great many of his men "stayed at home," and he might have done the same had he been "smart." Like thousands of others, he stayed in the game to the finish, but it is plain that this was not because of personal animus against his northern antagonists. The foes then were not mad at one another, and that is the reason they are friends today.

In 1860-1 the men of the north and south were very mad, as they thought. But after meeting on the battlefield they saw that they were brothers, and all anger faded out of the strife. The armies, north and south, would have gone to pieces in a year or two but for the American trait of sticking to a venture once the east is made. Be whipped by the south? No! Be whipped by the north? No! Mattered not which was right nor which wrong. Then the hour struck for the Lees and Grants, the McClellans and Johnstons, the Buells and Longstreets and the Shermans and Gordons to lift up a hand and say, "Boys, we'll teach you to become soldiers." After that to the men in the field the war was a game put through on professional valor. Both sides fought well, both yielded honors when deserved, and victory fell only to "the biggest battalions and most guns." This is how northern veterans can contemplate without regret a statue of Lee in Washington and ex-Confederates can cheer lustily the name of Grant.

MAKE THEMSELVES IMMUNE TO TYPHOID

Omaha, Neb., March 18.—In the interest of science, Quartermaster Benson, Hospital Steward Balsche and Post Surgeon Brooks of the naval recruiting station at Fort Omaha have rendered themselves immune, so far as typhoid fever is concerned. Two weeks ago the three men were inoculated with typhoid germs. Typhoid symptoms developed, but they soon recovered. Ten days later each man took into his system by injection, 800,000,000 of the germs. They have produced no effect other than to bring on a slight fever. The men are considered immune.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

HIS CHOICE.

If you should wake up some morning and find yourself worth $5,000,000, what would you do?

Celebrate? Well, Newell Dwight Hillis, the eminent Brooklyn minister, found himself worth that much money recently.

Dr. Hillis came into possession of an island in the north Pacific, near Prince Rupert. Not long ago coal was discovered on the island.

The coal measures were prospected by practical coal men and a full estimate made of the deposit. The report showed that the entire island was in effect a solid body of coal and worth beyond all question $5,000,000.

How lucky, you say. Think of the fun a fellow might have with five millions, of the luxuries it would buy, of the comfort for loved ones, of the good the money would do.

And—Come to think of it, who is better entitled to a big lot of money than a preacher? Who could use it to better advantage?

Strange to say, that money frightened the minister. After struggling with the problem presented by this great wealth, fighting it out on his knees, Dr. Hillis went out and sold the island for only a little more than he gave for it.

Quisitic? Possibly so from your standpoint. The preacher's point of view was different. He was not ordained to make or handle money, but to make converts and handle souls. He was dedicated to spiritual uses.

This preacher said to himself: "I cannot stay in the pulpit and do my work if I am incumbered with money. The love of money is the root of many kinds of evil. I might grow to love money."

Was he right? From his angle of vision, yes. In time the care and the love and the lure of money would have lessened his energies, more or less deadened his sensibilities and finally put him out of sympathetic touch with his struggling parishioners.

Therefore he fled the temptation. It was a big temptation. But he decided that to realize his ideals was worth more to him than five millions of money.

Did he choose the better part? Yes or no?

QUARANTINE FOR USERS OF SLANG.

Omaha, Neb., March 18.—Rev. John Grant Shick, pastor of the McCabe Memorial Methodist church, has declared war on slang. From the pulpit he has insisted that all such expressions as "cut it out," "get onto that," "me for it" and thousands of others should be shunned as one of the intolerable evils. He takes the position that a man or woman who insists in using slang, if they cannot be broken of it any other way, should be quarantined the same as though afflicted with a contagious disease.

REQUIRES MOTOR BOATS TO CARRY PRESERVERS

Bill Passed by the Senate is Objectionable and Unfair to Owners of Small Craft.

Washington, March 18.—A bill, very objectionable to motor boat owners, passed the senate on January 25 last, with little or no opposition, and is now before the house committee on merchant marine and fisheries. The bill provides: "Sec. 1. That every vessel propelled by machinery other than steam machinery shall carry life-preservers of kinds approved by the board of supervising inspectors, so that there shall be at least one for each person on board. "Sec. 2. That all life preservers shall be so stowed that their position may be known, and that they may be readily accessible to those for whom they are intended. "Sec. 3. That for any violation of this act the vessel shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each such life preserver lacking or improperly stowed."

Applies to Small Craft. The bill, if passed, will take effect June 1, 1910 and will apply to all gasoline launches, large or small, whether carrying passengers for hire or not. It would even include power canoes. Imagine the owner of a power canoe, who desired to comply with this law, trying to "properly stow" say four very bulky life belts, which would undoubtedly be the only kind of life-preservers to receive the approval of government officials if this act went into effect. The life preservers would easily occupy half the seating capacity of the boat. Many small boats have air compartments and are non-sinkable, yet this law would in no way recognize the diligence of the boat owner for the safety of people aboard. No small boat, without a standing top, could comply with such a law without the greatest annoyance; and it is doubtful, in fact, if life preservers on the top of the boat would be considered "properly stowed." It is the next thing to impossible for a small boat now to comply with all the navigation laws affecting it relative to whistles, lights, bells, etc., and to compel a painstaking motor boat owner to comply with the provisions of this proposed act would be to insult and to injure. Mr. Fordney to Oppose Bill. Congressman Fordney recognizes that this bill is altogether too general in its effect, and has notified the chairman of the committee on merchant marine and fisheries that if this bill is to receive serious consideration, he wants to be heard in the interest of several hundred boat owners on Saginaw river. Mr. Fordney considers this bill an unwarranted restraint on personal rights and believes that it should at least be amended to apply only to boats carrying passengers for hire. Representative Fordney said: "If this bill is to be defeated concerted effort should be brought to bear on the committee on merchant marine and fisheries and it would be well for interested boat owners to enter their protests at once with Hon. Wm. S. Greene, chairman of the committee on merchant marine and fisheries, house of representatives."

HOW OSBORN GOT HIS FIRST START

Mr. Osborn is a wealthy man, but he was once mighty poor, and so far as we know, not a cent of his coin is "tainted."

One of the most diverting features of his talk to the scribes last week was his account of his first business venture. He bought a little newspaper plant in northern Wisconsin, and had $80 left after making the purchase. He spent $60 in moving his family to his new home, leaving $20 for his working capital.

The first night there, the bullies of the town broke into his office, smashed his presses, "piled" his cases, and otherwise disported themselves about the office, just to welcome the new editor, and to show him he must not get too fresh with the wild gang then overrunning the upper country in Michigan and Wisconsin. But Osborn had struck just what he wanted, and to quote part of his speech, this is what followed:

"I fought them on the Wisconsin side, just as Attorney Grant (later circuit and supreme judge) was fighting them on the Michigan side. He drove them over to me, and I sent them back. We burned them out, and whipped them out, and starved them out, and had to kill a few, but we rid the country of the rascals. I was arrested a few times, but always went free, and Grant would have been arrested if they could have caught him."

Those were rough times in that lumber country, and that's where Chase S. Osborn got his real start as a fearless first-class, two-fisted fighting man.—South Haven Tribune-Messenger.

Short Lived Notoriety.

Marietta Wolf, once the cook in the home of Mme. Steinhell, whose acquittal on the charge of murder was, in a great measure, due to Mrs. Wolf's testimony, has found a new occupation. She has become a professional bill poster in Paris. On one of the recent "notable people" postcards published in that city she is shown as a smiling, elderly, plump woman carrying a ladder. A cap is set jauntily over one ear and the poster bag hangs at one side, held by a broad strap over the shoulder. The fact that she goes about her business unnoticed, says a Paris letter, shows that people have forgotten another celebrated case.

Vinegar Improves Dates.

Knowing that the Arabs use vinegar to improve retarded dates, A. E. Vinson of the Arizona experiment station has tried spraying bunches of the green fruit with acetic acid for 12 or 15 hours, and in three days has produced perfect commercial dates of the best natural flavor. The process may be aided by sunshine or a heat of 110 degrees F. It is anticipated that this process will be of much practical importance, as the dates can be shipped while green and hard, and ripened after reaching their destination. Other chemicals had a ripening effect, the flavor being impaired by some.

WILL REAPPRAISE THE STATE LANDS.

Lansing, March 18.—It has been announced by State Land Commissioner Huntley Russell that he will reappraise 500,000 acres of state lands, as he claims that the lands have greatly increased in value since the appraisal was made when the lands were deeded to the department by the auditor general.

MICHIGAN MAN LIVED DUAL LIFE.

Laporte, Mich., March 18.—A term of two to five years was the sentence imposed by a jury at Plymouth in the case of William Waymire of Three Rivers, Mich., charged with bigamy. Two of the wives were in the court room to give evidence against him revealing a dual life extending over a period of about twenty years.

WOULD REDUCE THE COST OF LIVING.

The Manistique Pioneer-Tribune offers a suggestion which may be applied to the upper peninsula in general. If every citizen of Manistique would cultivate his back yard in an ing summer, it says, he would help to solve the question of reducing the cost of living. Most of the lots in the city, if properly cultivated, will realize at least $50 worth of vegetables in a season. Then, too there is such a satisfying feeling in seeing things grow that it is worth another $50.

Traverse City, Mich., March 18.—William Buckstaller, aged seventy years, while giving a surprise party in honor of his wife's birthday, fell down stairs, striking on the back of his head and breaking his neck. He died in the presence of the company. He was a pioneer of Good Harbor.

WILL INSTRUCT THE FARMERS ON CENSUS

The United States census bureau is printing 4,000,000 "sample" copies of the farm census schedule which the enumerators will start filling out April 15. These schedules will be distributed in rural districts throughout the country. The reason for sending out "sample" lists of census questions is to give the farmers a comprehensive preliminary knowledge of the census questions which will be asked by the census enumerators, and also to give the inhabitants of the rural districts an opportunity to thoroughly think over and digest their answers to all questions, so that Uncle Sam will not be misled in his calculations by incorrect information.

In a note to farmers on the front page of the schedule, Census Director Durand states:

"In accordance with the act of congress, the census of the population and farms of the United States will begin on April 15, 1910. On or soon after that date an enumerator will call at your house for the purpose of obtaining the required information concerning your farm.

"Many of the questions which will be asked you concerning the equipment and operations of your farm can not be accurately answered by you without considerable thought and the making of careful calculations or estimates. Therefore, this form has been sent to you in advance, so that you may study the questions at your convenience and have the answers written down before the enumerator comes.

"You are earnestly requested to read this form and instructions carefully, to write down the answers to all questions that apply to your farm, and to keep it until the enumerator comes. By doing this you can save yourself much time and contribute greatly to the success of the agricultural census.

"Besides the information concerning your farm, the enumerator will also ask you the names, ages, and other facts concerning the members of your household."

POSTING TEACHERS ON TUBERCULOSIS

The quarterly pamphlet of the Michigan state department of health, just issued is designed for the use of the school teachers of the state in the instruction of school children regarding tuberculosis and other dangerous communicable diseases.

The report points out that the law provides for the imparting of such knowledge to the pupils by teachers. The danger of tuberculosis is emphasized in the statement that the disease causes a death in the United States every 2 1/2 minutes, that about 2,500 people die of consumption in Michigan every year, and that such deaths are unnecessary and should be prevented.

ARMY UNIFORM TO BE RESPECTED.

Washington, March 18.—The uniform of an enlisted man of the United States army or navy may never again be used as an excuse to bar its wearers from public places. The house committee on naval affairs has reported unanimously a bill introduced by Representative Hobson, of Alabama, prohibiting by fine and imprisonment the exclusion of soldiers or sailors from hotels, restaurants, theatres, dance halls and other public places. The recent experience of two members of the marine corps who were barred from a Washington theater because they were in uniform inspired the introduction of the bill.

PLENTY OF CARS IN NORTHWEST.

St. Paul, Minn., March 18.—Railroads of the northwest have come through the winter with fewer complaints of shortages of cars than for several years.

A month ago a shortage of cars existed in the eastern, middle and southern territory, while there were over 9,000 surplus cars in this territory.

The distribution of cars of all sorts has been better for the past six months than for the previous two years.

WATER PREVENTS MINE EXPLOSION.

Washington, March 18.—A new method of preventing explosions of coal dust in mines has been tried with good results in some German mines, according to Richard Guenther, American consul at Frankfurt, Germany. Water is introduced under high pressure into a deep bored hole of a coal body, the hole is closed and the pressure allowed to act upon the coal until water is forced out through the fissures. The coal body is thus thoroughly wet and so loosened that the coal can be broken out with the miner's pick and blasting is avoided.

You may call a man a rolling stone but don't insinuate that he isn't on the level.

Fashion Hints

FADS FOR THE FAIR.

Short Coats Are an Assured Fashion of the Spring.

Fashion has decreed that short coats are smart, and the newest gowns from abroad show the abbreviated coat. Gold, silver and brass buttons with insets of precious stones are made in order to carry out the color scheme of the costume.

TIDBITS OF FASHION.

Apron Overskirt Draperies on Skirts Are Only For the Youthful Figures.

Those cute little apron overskirts that remind one of the stage waitress will be popular for girls this summer. To my way of thinking only a waist on the guimpe order should be chosen for use with such a skirt in short apron effect if one preserves that girlish appearance.

Pongees are apparently to be epidemic once more. The popularity of chameleon effects—changeable two or three toned colorings—is reflected among the shantings and volles, silk mousselines, chiffon cloths, crapes, tafetas, etc.

Some good looking tailor made suits have coats with square cut necks. The coat crosses in a square line on the chest, and the collar runs around the back and down each side in front.

This is a sensible, and attractive summer frock for the small girl. The neck may be cut high if desired and the sleeves long. There are bloomers that accompany the dress.

New Discoveries of Radium. Valuable deposits of radium-bearing pitchblende are said to have been discovered on the McCloud river in California. Similar discoveries are also reported in the Cripple Creek district in Colorado. Pitchblende is a rock, tons and tons of which must be ground up, treated chemically, washed, precipitated and filtered, over and over again to obtain a few grains of the precious radium-bearing salts.

DEER A SOLUTION OF MEAT PROBLEM

Marquette, Mich., March 18.—The suggestion of Dr. C. H. Merriam, chief of the federal biological survey, that the raising of deer offers a possible solution of the meat problem, has been received with much interest in Upper Michigan. There is no better region in the country for testing this theory than the upper peninsula, where there is ready at hand plenty of stock with which to start ranches of the kind. That deer are capable of a considerable degree of domestication is shown at Presque Isle park, in this city, where a good-sized herd is fed on bran and other cattle feed the year round, the animals apparently preferring that class of fodder to the natural food that is available.

The deer turn up at feeding time as regularly as would cattle, and then pay little attention to the coming and going of visitors. Deer are prolific breeders. The herd at Grand Island, the Cleveland Cliffs Iron company's game preserve, has increased so rapidly that last fall, with its numbers considerably in excess of a thousand, the preserve was thrown open to hunters, in order that the number of animals might be reduced. The deer and other game, notably the elk, have cleaned up much of the natural food on Grand Island, and it has been necessary to cut down their number to prevent a famine. Latterly shipments of game have been made to various cities throughout the country.

CLEVELAND ELM IS CUT DOWN.

Caldwell, N. J., March 18.—The Cleveland elm here, under which President Cleveland spent many a pleasant hour when a boy, has been felled to make way for a butcher shop and fruit store. The tree was planted by Rev. Stephen Grover, first pastor of the old Presbyterian church after whom Cleveland was named.

After the tree was felled, the trunk was cut up into blocks which were distributed among the townspeople as relics. Some of the choicer bits of wood will be made into a jewel box for Mrs. Cleveland.

Capt. Bogardus Again Hits the Bull's Eye

This world famous rifle shot who holds the championship record of 100 pigeons in 100 consecutive shots is living at Lincoln, Ill. Recently interviewed, he says:—"I have suffered a long time with kidney and bladder trouble and have used several well known kidney medicines all of which gave me no relief until I started taking Foley's Kidney Pills. Before I used Foley's Kidney Pills I was subjected to severe backache and pains in my kidneys with suppression and oftentimes a cloudy voiding. While upon arising in the morning I would get dull headaches. Now I have taken three bottles of Foley's Kidney Pills and feel 100 per cent better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and once more feel like my own self. All this I owe solely to Foley's Kidney Pills and always recommend them to my fellow sufferers."

Training Camp Echoes Tell of Great Work by Youngsters.

BLACKBURNE A GOOD ONE

Youngster Purchased by the Chicago Americans Last Fall Setting Diamond Afire—Brooklyn Has Two Good Ones in Daubert and Wheat.

By TOMMY CLARK.

If one can believe the reports that are emanating from the different major league baseball training camps the coming season will produce pocket editions of the famous diamond stars Hans Wagner, Ty Cobb, "Three Fingered" Brown, Christy Mathewson and Larry Lajole. According to the many baseball correspondents, these phenoms are the greatest ever and are setting the diamond afire with their sensational batting, fielding and pitching stunts.

But, as has been the case in former years, a majority of these so called wonders explode as soon as the real season is a few weeks old. Of course there are exceptions, but the major portion of them go up like skyrockets before crowds on their respective home grounds.

From the New York Nationals' training camp in Marlin Springs, Tex., comes the reports that McGraw has the finest collection of youngsters in the country. Lush, Spencer, Zacher and Pitchers Evans, Dickens and Parsons have all shown major league caliber, according to the correspondents.

At the Chicago Americans' camp in Los Angeles, Cal., all eyes are centered on the sensational playing of the $10,000 beauty Russell Blackburne. Correspondents inform us that he is a second Wagner without doubt. Manager Hugh Duffy says this youngster will be the leading sensation of the 1910 American league season.

Bill Dahlen says he has two wonders in Zach Wheat and Jake Daubert. Wheat has been doing sensational stunts in the fielding and batting line. Dahlen says he is a future star par excellence. Fans who have seen Daubert perform say that Tim Jordan will have to go some to hold down first base this season for the "Infants." He has been pasting the ball all over the diamond and handling himself in grand style round the first sack.

Pittsburg has several phenoms at the training camp in Hot Springs. In fact, Fred Clarke is sure he will discover a first baseman that will fill the bill in first class shape.

St. Louis American ball tossers are high in praise of Kinsella, the young pitcher corralled by the Browns last fall. In the practice games this youngster has shown all the qualities of a veteran and is assured of a permanent berth on the team. In young Hendrick, Manager Jimmy McAleer of the Washington Americans is sure that he has another Walter Johnson. Hendrick has been showing remarkable control and a large assortment of curves in the practice games.

For the first time since he assumed the management of the New York Americans George Stallings is enthusiastic. It takes a lot to arouse the enthusiasm of the big chief. "Unless I greatly miss my guess," he gushed recently, "these young fellows will show you something before the season is over. I never saw a bunch of youngsters that so appealed to me. They are intelligent apparently from their conversation and actions, and brains go further in baseball than you would imagine.

"Now, there is that big fellow Uppham. I brought him to the training camp at Athens to pitch to the batters. I wasn't figuring on him in any capacity. I had almost promised him to Ed Barrows of Montreal, but Ed hasn't a chance if the big kid keeps on showing the stuff that he has done in several games. It's tough on the manager, but I'm about as much up a tree as last year. It looks as if I'll have another big task in picking out the best. The trouble is they all look too good to turn loose."

A. A. U. BOXING CHAMPIONSHIP

Bouts to Be Decided in Boston April 11 and 12.

Bantamweight, 105 pounds and under; featherweight, 115 pounds and under; special weight, 125 pounds and under; lightweight, 135 pounds and under; welterweight, 145 pounds and under; middleweight, 155 pounds and under; and heavyweight, 165 pounds and over. Amateur boxers from all over the United States are expected to compete in the coming tournament.

New Ball Park to Open July 1.

The new $500,000 ball park of the Chicago American league club will open July 1, according to an announcement made by President Charles A. Comiskey. The St. Louis club is scheduled to play Chicago on that date.

LANGFORD WINS IN EIGHTH FROM FLYNN

Los Angeles, Cal., March 18.—Sam Langford knocked out Flynn in the eighth round of their fight here on Thursday. Sam forced the fighting from the first round and had Flynn at his mercy throughout the entire fight. Langford put Flynn down early in the third round for a count of seven, but Flynn came back strong in the fourth, Flynn was unconscious for five minutes after being counted out by Referee Eytan.

The first round was Langford's. Flynn fought close and hugged the colored man continually. He was bleeding profusely at the mouth as the round ended.

The second round was more even, with Flynn hugging and keeping his head on Langford's shoulder. Neither was harmed.

Flynn was badly punished in the third round, being down at one time for seven seconds. He was bleeding from the mouth when he went to his corner.

Flynn stood back in the fourth and let go some long arm punches and then rushed into a clinch. He was distressed and cut under the chin. Langford appeared unharmed.

Langford tried to force Flynn to open his guard in the fifth. He landed right and left on Flynn's ribs and Flynn clinched the round out.

The sixth round was a series of clinches. Langford came out of it bleeding from the right eye and mouth. Flynn seemed to be stronger.

The seventh was a series of clinches. Flynn did not allow Langford to set himself until near the end of the round, when Flynn ducked under a vicious right swing.

Referee Eytan gave the fight to Langford in the middle of the eighth round after Flynn had fallen to the floor of his own weight. In falling Flynn's face struck the floor and blood spurted from his mouth and nose.

Flynn fell when he missed a right hand swing and was unable to get to his feet. He was counted out. He was unconscious for five minutes after being led to his corner, bleeding profusely from mouth and nose.

DUTCH GIRL CROSSES SEA TO WED LOVER.

Grand Haven, Mich., March 18.—Crossing the ocean from her home in the dike country to meet the sweetheart of her school days in Holland, Miss Johanna Gertrude Kilean arrived here in her quaint costume to meet the lover who had plighted his troth before coming to the land of liberty to make his fortune, and last night she and the young man, Herman Vonk, were married by Rev. P. D. Van Vliet, pastor of the Second Christian Reformed church. The couple had been boy and girlhood sweethearts, and the wedding was the culmination of the dreams of youth. Vonk is 23 and his pretty, quaintly-attired little Dutch bride is 20.

HAS SERVED TWENTY-NINE YEARS IN STATE PRISON

Jackson, Mich., March 18.—Confined in the Michigan state prison in this city so many years that the outside world has forgotten his existence is a man for whom the prison authorities have a tender regard. The man is Frank Upright, the oldest prisoner in point of service in the institution. The prisoners are numbered consecutively as they arrive. Upright's number is 2,600, the lowest borne by any convict serving time here.

This prisoner, who is serving a life sentence for slaying wife, heard the big iron door clang behind him, separating him from the outside world nearly twenty-nine years ago. At that time he had just passed the twenty-fourth "mile stone." Today he is fifty-three.

Ask any prison official what kind of a man Upright is, and he will tell you he is one of the best prisoners in the institution, and more than that he has been a model prisoner ever since he arrived.

Killed Faithless Wife.

It was so long ago that Upright came to prison that all the facts concerning his case are not remembered. He came home one night and found his wife in company with another man. The circumstances were found by him to be the same as have caused many a man to take life. He shot her.

He has seen 6,500 prisoners come and go. Upright came from Oakland county.

The next two prisoners who have been confined in the state penitentiary the most years are from Wayne county. These are Daniel Graham and Isaac Clark, Nos. 2,750 and 2,751, respectively, who are also serving life sentences for murder.

Tortured Old Couple.

Their crime, which was committed at Cora, is interesting because of the discussion that has sprung up several times during their incarceration as to their innocence or guilt. These men are alleged to have assaulted an old couple with intent to rob; and to have tortured them unmercifully in their home to make them divulge the hiding place of their money, finally resulting in death.

Both Graham and Clark always have claimed innocence, and the action of Clark in killing a prisoner some years ago led some to think that he really was innocent. One of the main witnesses for the prosecution at the trial of Graham & Clark was Enos H. Gerrard. These men claim he swore their lives away. Not very long after they were sentenced to prison Gerrard came on the charge of burglary.

Clark went to Gerrard one day and asked him to make affidavit which would free himself and Graham from the sentence they were serving. Gerrard refused to comply and this cost him his life, for after making a second attack on him with a knife, Clark killed him.

Just as they were marching in to the east cell block at night from work Clark ran out of line and dashing up ahead, where Gerrard was marching drew from his pocket a jackknife and cut Gerrard's throat.

FIANCEE SAID HE MIGHT GET DRUNK.

Muskegon, Mich., March 18.—A wedding under unusual circumstances was celebrated in the court of Justice Osterbaan here. The bridegroom, Fred Sloman, had been arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He told the judge he had been given permission to get drunk by the girl he was to marry.

To prove his assertion Sloman produced a new marriage license. The bride was summoned and told the court the prisoner's defense was true. She wanted her future husband, she said, to have a final "fling," so that he would remain sober the rest of his life.

The couple declared themselves ready to be married and the judge dismissed the case and performed the ceremony.

What is worth doing at all is worth doing well, except when we are being done.

SPRING IS HEYDAY OF THE PEDDLER

This is the heyday of the peddler. At this season of the year he issues forth from his winter's hibernation with a pack full of glossy looking articles, whose exterior appearance deceives the housewife, into the belief that she is getting an article of unusual value. His wily tongue reels off a well learned lesson in which the merits of his article are descanted upon at length, and to cap the argument he offers the goods which he is selling at an absurdly high price, which he softens by adding that the goods are disposed of on easy terms.

The housewife is generally a gullible person. She will listen with open ears to the man who shows her a flashy set of silver or the latest thing in flawless cookery, and append her signature to a contract which obliges her to pay a certain small sum weekly or monthly, with a deposit which is paid down, and which generally forms about half of the peddler's commission.

To the person who will reason out the value of an article, one can easily see that the itinerant merchant who has to pay a daily tax in order to sell his wares cannot do business as cheaply as the home merchant. In addition to his living expenses he must pay a license to the city every day and he must make a profit which amounts all the way from $50 to $75 per week.

A proof of this can be seen by picking up any Chicago or Milwaukee paper and reading the glittering advertisements of "Sells on sight," "$100 weekly," "Every housewife buys." It is the small towns which prove the easy money for these men, who jump from one specialty to another, as the demand changes.

LOANER OF AUTO MUST PAY $5,000.

New York, March 18.—Don't lend your auto. It may cost you a matter of $5,000 or so. This lesson has been brought home forcibly to James C. Brady, a New York broker, who has been directed by a supreme court jury to pay $5,000 to Benjamin Friebaum, a lad who was hit by Brady's car. Brady had loaned the car to his brother and a hired taxicab chauffeur drove it. The verdict, however, was returned against the owner of the car.

POTATO GROWERS ARE GIVEN TIMELY WARNING

The Government Issues Notice of a Dread Tubercle Disease Which is Spreading in Europe.

Washington, March 18.—The department of agriculture is making extraordinary efforts to warn the people of the United States against a new disease of the potato which has been spreading swiftly through the potato growing areas of Europe. The warning is especially meant to be of the first importance to the great potato producing section about the Great Lakes.

The new affliction is known as the water disease. Also as "Black Scab," "Canker" and "Cauliflower." Big warty excrescences, sometimes as big as the tuber itself appear on the sides or ends of the potato.

In an advanced stage of the disease the tubers are wholly covered with the growth and lose all resemblance to potatoes. When this fungus growth has utilized every particle of food stored in the potato it is reduced to a brownish black soft mass giving off a most unpleasant odor of putrefaction.

This last is the most dangerous stage of the disease and if an attempt is made to harvest the crop the potatoes break into pieces and the spores of the fungus inoculate the ground so thoroughly that it remains infected for years. British experts who have studied the disease declare it by far the most serious menace the potato crop ever has faced.

Germ Stays in the Soil.

J. W. Eastham of the British college of agriculture and horticulture says:

"When this disease is once established in the land it is useless to try to grow potatoes there again until the pest has been starved out. So far as is known no other crop is liable to be attacked. Cases have been noted in England where potatoes had not been grown upon land for six years, yet upon an attempt to raise that crop the disease was found still virulently present. Some of the same seed used elsewhere did not develop the disease and some of the same manure used upon other lands failed to show a trace. From this it is apparent that even as long as six years is not enough to starve out the disease."

The department of agriculture says there is grave danger of importing the disease through the use of foreign seed potatoes. A considerable importation of potatoes from Europe occurs every year and the department advises against the use of any of these for seed purposes.

First Found in Hungary.

The disease was first noted in Hungary in 1896, but it has already spread practically all over Europe and England and Scotland, and the British government is now making strenuous efforts to keep it out of Ireland. Potatoes imported into this country within the last year or two have gone as far west as Arizona, so that the fears of the department that the disease may secure a foothold far in the interior appear well grounded.

It is proposed to ask congress for legislation authorizing the secretary of agriculture to establish and maintain a system of quarantine against plant diseases in order that the country may be protected against the potato wart and also against any other disease of plants that may threaten the country.

CHASE S. OSBORN IS STIRRING UP THINGS

The life that has been instilled into the gubernatorial game in Michigan can be credited to Chase S. Osborn, remarks the Bay City Times. He is a vigorous fellow who is stirring up things so that the people are already thinking that perhaps he will make a good man for governor. Those who thought Judge Montgomery would bring to the office the dignity with which it has not been equipped for several years, and who favored the judge for this high position of trust, must now make their choice from the three remaining candidates or else dip into the field of dark horses.

Osborn is frank in his declarations. He wants to have the primary law lived up to in all its intents and purposes. He wants the corrupt and extravagant use of money in the canvass prohibited just as the law was intended to prohibit it, and he wants to put all the big men aspiring to public office on record as upholding that law to the letter. He will live up to the intent and spirit of the law himself, no matter what the other candidates do. He believes the law is intended to put a stop to corrupt practices in Michigan, and he is willing to take that meaning of the law as final, regardless of any other construction that may be given to it by the legal experts who may pass upon it.

If Osborn keeps pounding away for a better citizenship, an uncorrupted electorate and better conditions in Michigan politics, he is going to make his words count.

"Pleasure as an End." The man who chooses pleasure as the object of his life has no real haven, but is like a boat that beats up and down and drifts and drifts and fro, merely to feel the motion of the waves and the impulse of the wind. When the voyage of life is done he has reached no port; he has accomplished nothing.—Henry Van Dyke.

Inconstant Cat. An angora cat belonging to a Massachusetts woman took up its abode with the pig last fall and slept every night on the pig's back up to a few weeks ago, when the pig was killed. The cat mourned the loss of its friend for a day or two until it discovered the horse stall. Now every chance the cat gets it sleeps on the back of the horse.

Real "Son of the Revolution."

Prof. Jeremiah Smith of the Harvard law school, who has just presented his resignation, to take effect September 1, 1910, when he will be in his seventy-third year, is actually a "Son of the Revolution." His father, likewise Jeremiah Smith by name, ran away from Harvard in 1777 to join the revolutionary army, being then 18 years of age. He served in the campaign against Burgoyne and was wounded at Bennington. He finally graduated at Queens (now Rutgers) college in 1780, and was later governor of New Hampshire, congressman from that state, and its chief justice.

Improved Cutting Blowpipe.

The cutting blowpipe, of which so many surprising things have been reported, has recently been improved in France in a way to render it more generally useful. Two inflammable gases must be employed. One is required to keep the metal at a high temperature. The other is oxygen to concentrate action by oxidation along the line of the cut. For heating, either coal gas, acetylene or hydrogen is employed, but as there is sometimes difficulty in procuring a supply of these gases, the new blowpipe is arranged to use instead of the ordinary gasoline employed by motorists.

WANTS $25,000 FOR DEATH OF HUSBAND

Menominee, Mich., March 18.—When the petition which was filed in probate court by Mrs. May Rawlings, asking that she be appointed administratrix of her husband's estate is granted, she will begin suit, through her attorney, George Power, against the Menominee & Marinette Light & Traction company, charging them with liability in connection with her husband's death. The petition which was filed two weeks ago, will be granted within the coming week and the papers in the suit will then be filed.

The accident for which she is going to sue the Menominee & Marinette Light & Traction company occurred last November at Grand Rapids, where the company is erecting a power plant. Her husband, William Rawlings, who was a well known former Menominee man and who had served on the police force, was thawing out several sticks of dynamite when they exploded, blowing him several hundred feet and mangleing his body terribly.

It is claimed by the widow that Mr. Rawlings, who had been working with the dynamite but a few days, had not been warned of the danger attendant upon his new duties and that he was unaware of the risk he ran when thawing out the explosive.

The case will be tried at the coming May term of circuit court and will doubtless attract much attention, because of the large sum of $25,000 being asked and the uniqueness of the complaint.

The Menominee & Marinette Light & Traction company now have three damage suits pending against them. The other two have arisen out of injuries which have been sustained by passengers getting on and off of their cars. Both of the latter are filed in the Marinette circuit court and will come up for trial at the May term of court.

THE ICE ON GREEN BAY IS BREAKING UP

Green Bay, Wis., March 18.—With continued mild weather for a few days it is expected there will be a general breaking up of the ice all through Green Bay. Fishermen are beginning to pull their nets out of the bay, because they feel conditions warrant that precaution before the ice begins to move north. The ice is less than one-half as thick as usual. The early snow covered a thin layer of ice and prevented the water from freezing to any great depth. The ice in East river shows signs of breaking up.

THE THEATRES

The Peterson.—"The Man on the Box," which comes to the Peterson next Sunday night, received the following comment from the Chicago Tribune, when it was played in that city:

"A comedy as neat in construction, as delightfully entertaining, and as delightfully played as was ever given on a theater loving public, is being offered at the Whitney. It is called 'The Man on the Box,' by Harold McGrath.

"It has been some time since Harold McGrath has favored us with anything from his pen, and it was pleasant last evening to listen again to the clever dialogue and the bright quips which he fashioned with more of ease and masterfulness than does any other of our native authors. He has written a charming little three-act comedy in 'The Man on the Box,' and has given us a play which, while it may not go ringing down the ages as a particularly significant or vital piece of dramatic literature, nevertheless displays his ability in most favorable light, and supplies the amusement seeking public with an entertainment at once sparkling, refined and neat."

LAKE INSURANCE WILL BE INCREASED

Cleveland, O., March 18.—F. H. Osborne, the Chicago marine insurance man, stopped here on his way home from London, England. He spent some time visiting the local vessel owners, and he informed them that in his opinion the underwriters would surely increase the lake insurance for the coming season. He said he had no idea just what the increase would be, and the underwriters will not make known their decision until about the Easter holidays.

"I have no definite information on the subject," said Mr. Osborne, "but I am positive there will be an increase in the rate. The underwriters have as yet come to no conclusion as to how much of an advance there will be made, but they will make an announcement in the next few weeks. Several of the companies have threatened to withdraw if the rates are not advanced on the Great Lakes tonnage. There have been several withdrawals of companies from lake hulls in the last few years, which is an indication that the business has become unprofitable, they argue; otherwise they would not have withdrawn.

The Irish are an ignorant people, turbulent and unable to govern themselves or their country. For one thing, he said, Ireland had never shed the blood of those who came to teach it Christianity. St. Patrick did not find the Irish people barbarians. He found them well advanced in education and civilization and their laws as administered by their own Irish kings were marvels of justice. That they could govern themselves, he said, was proved by the fact that for 1,000 years they had done so wisely and well, in peace, justice and tranquility.

Father Daley spoke of the intense love of religion and the deep patriotism of the Irish people and also their strong desire to obtain knowledge. This love of learning has placed them in spite of all obstacles high upon the rolls of scholastic fame he declared.

Father Daley dwelt at length upon many of the well known and admirable characteristics of the Irish race and of the great help they have been to America in its every crisis. He enlivened his address with humorous stories and pertinent observations and quoted frequently from beautiful poems written by Irishmen.

Incidentally, he took a hard rap at some features of the present American school system and scored the present standards of honesty in American commercial and political life. He said in this connection that it is getting to be the belief that the man who can swindle and deceive and not get caught is the smartest. "Thou shalt not get caught" appears to be the modern commandment, he said.

Father Daley closed his remarkably interesting address with an eloquent exhortation to young Irish people to be faithful to the traditions of Irish history and their own patriotic blood. At the very end of his talk Father Daley sang an Irishman's toast and it made such a hit with the audience that in response to the insistent applause he was obliged to tell another little story.

Besides Father Daley's address the program included the following numbers: Overture, Medley of Irish Airs, orchestra; vocal solo, "Wearing of the Green," Mrs. William Ramspeck; vocal solo, "The Hat Me Father Wore," George Riley; vocal solo, "Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly," John A. Allo; vocal solo, "The Girl in Fair Killarney Waits For Me," Ralph Inley; closing selection, "God Save Ireland," played by the orchestra while the audience stood. The first two selections preceded Father Daley's address, the others following it. All were exceedingly well rendered and all of the singers were obliged to respond to encores.

Are You on Salary? ---Then Save

It is possible that luck may play an important part in the quick making of fortunes, but it has nothing to do with fortunes accumulated from the savings of labor.

A bank account, however, will be of assistance and the young man or woman who will take this method of saving from his or her salary will eventually reach the desired goal.

This bank welcomes the accounts of those people who are working on salary and have a desire to save a part of it.

WE NOT ONLY SAFEGUARD YOUR MONEY AGAINST FIRE, LOSS OR THEFT, BUT WE ALSO ALLOW YOU 3 PER CENT INTEREST FOR THE USE OF IT.

$1 WILL OPEN AN ACCOUNT.
