HOM DIN, ESCANABA CHINAMAN, IS FREE

THE CHARGE OF ALLEGED BLACKMAILING BROUGHT AGAINST HIM FALLS TO THE GROUND

LETTER IS PROOF OF INNOCENCE

Case is Dismissed by United States Commissioner at Houghton and Hom Din is Set Free With His Name Untarnished—Returns to His Home in This City—Letter Which Was Thought Proof of His Guilt is Found Just the Reverse—Story.

Hom Din, the Escanaba Chinaman who for several weeks has been in the custody and under the surveillance of Houghton county officers, is once more a free man with an unsullied name.

The case wherein he was charged with attempting blackmail or extortion of Houghton county Chinamen fell completely to the ground when it came up before United States Commissioner C. O. Oliver at Houghton yesterday and Hom Din was discharged from custody.

Five Hancock Chinese babled in the court room and retired in chagrin when it was demonstrated to them that the letter on which they based their charge was a positive proof of the prisoner's innocence, rather than guilt. The epistle said:

Text of the Letter:
"Dear friend:—I was in the Soo the other day and while there the officers asked me if I thought or knew whether you had legal right to residence in this country. I told them I didn't know, but thought you had."

"I didn't stay long, but went back to Escanaba, for my wife was sick. I am without money and will you be so kind as to loan me $20. I expect some funds within a few days and will return the loan to you."

"Yours truly,
"Hom Din."

The script was in Chinese, but the above was its English equivalent. No stronger evidence of guilt could be brought to bear on the Escanaba celestial. It was in reality held a proof of innocence, so the case was dropped.

Further Details of the Case.
In its report of the case and the result so favorable to Hom Din, who is now at his home in this city, The Hancock Evening Journal gives the following additional particulars of interest:

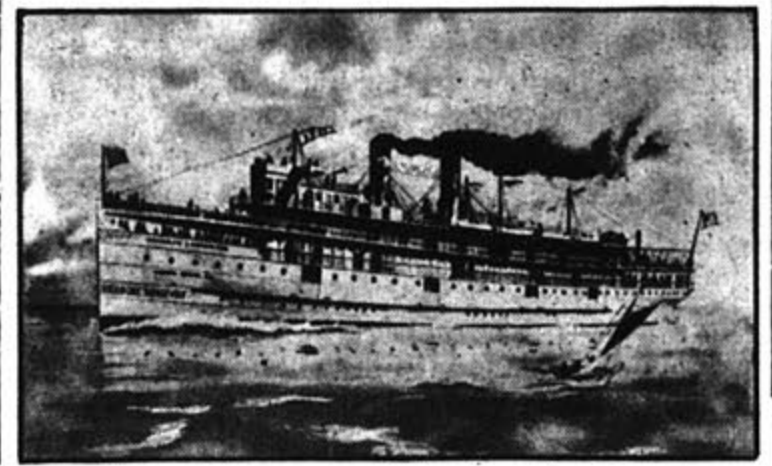

"Attorney Harry Edsall of Chicago was seen at the Douglas house today and said that he had succeeded in having the charge against Hom, brought on by the local Chinks, dismissed. Mr. Edsall represented Hom Din in the case, and had an interview with the local Celestials. He told them that in conducting the prosecution against Hom they were antagonizing the federal government because Hom was a government witness; that, no matter how strongly they protested that they were not fighting the government and only conducting the charge against Hom, still they were in direct opposition to the federal authorities. The local Chinks after some conversation among themselves agreed with Mr. Edsall in his contention and decided to withdraw the charge as they had no desire to contend with the federalcy.

"Hom Din left this afternoon for his home in Escanaba. He is a free man and will have no further fear of

THE STEAMER ROOSEVELT NEEDS PLENTY OF ROOM

Arrangements Are Made for Her Dockage When She Comes to Escanaba on June 22.

General Manager W. K. Greenebaum of the Indiana Transportation company has already made all arrangements for the coming of the palatial steamer Roosevelt to this port on June 22, when she will bring a large prosecution. M. Edsall will remain in Houghton until he is joined by T. W. G. Wallace, the Chinese interpreter, who has been delayed at El Paso. Joe Pang, who came here to attend the examination of the alleged extortionist, will also remain in Houghton for a few days."

MINISTERS TO MEET HERE NEXT MONDAY

The Twin City Ministerial association will hold its regular monthly meeting next Monday morning at the First Methodist Episcopal church, in this city. Rev. Edgar Wilson, pastor of the Gladstone Presbyterian church, will read a paper on: "Some Present Day Tendencies," which will be followed by a general discussion.

The visiting members will be entertained for dinner at the Ludington hotel.

GOES TO JAIL FOR NEGLECTING FAMILY

John Dart, arrested several days ago on a charge of not supporting his wife and three children, was brought into Justice Glaser's court this morning and given his trial. He was found guilty and sentenced to serve thirty days in the county jail. According to the evidence submitted, Dart has not contributed anything toward the support of his family for the last six months and his wife has been obliged to keep the wolf from the door by doing laundry work

FEDERAL INSPECTOR FINISHES HIS WORK

Inspector H. A. Webber, who has represented the government in the construction of the federal building, and who has been in Escanaba for several months, will leave tonight for Quincy, Ill., where the government is doing a considerable amount of building. During his stay in Escanaba, Mr. Webber made many friends and while he was placed in a position where it was hard sometimes to get along peacefully, he conducted his business in such a manner that he is leaving the city with the best wishes of all those with whom he came in contact. There are several little details yet to be completed and a list of these were made out and given to Postmaster H. W. Coburn, who is now in charge of the building.

BLAZE ON A ROOF CALLS OUT FIREMEN

The fire department was called out about 11:40 o'clock this morning to extinguish a fire that had caught in the of Nicholas Jungles' residence at 308 Frank street. The blaze was speedily extinguished after the firemen got to work and the damage done was small, being limited to the burning of some shingles on one side of the house. The origin of the fire is not positively known, but it is thought that it may possibly have been started by sparks from a passing engine blowing onto the roof and igniting the shingles.

JAMES R. ANDREWS BUYS A RESIDENCE

James R. Andrews, one of this city's prominent young business men, has purchased the Phillips property on Michigan avenue and thereby declared his intention of making his home in this city permanently. It is rumored that his engagement to one of Escanaba's young society women will be announced within a short time and the anticipation of this event was what warranted Mr. Andrews in purchasing himself a home.

BREWERY ARTESIAN WELL RUNNING DRY

"We don't have enough water for our own use," is the placard that is displayed conspicuously at the Richter brewery for the benefit of those who have made a practice for years of going to that place for artesian water. For the last two weeks it has been necessary for the brewery to use city water mixed with the artesian for use about the brewery and many of those who have gone with jugs and cans to get the artesian aqua pura returned home with nothing but city water in their possession.

The officials at the brewery have informed the public several times that they could not get any more of the artesian water, but the warning doesn't seem to be heeded. The artesian supply at the brewery is giving out rapidly and it may not be a great while before it plays out altogether.

TEN DAYS IN JAIL FOR BREAKING QUARANTINE

Justice Glaser Imposes Sentence on John Russell for Violating Order of City Health Officer—Still More Severe Punishment Awaits the Next Offender.

For violating a diphtheria quarantine notice issued by Health Commissioner Harry W. Long, John Russell of 418 South Norris street will be obliged to serve a term of ten days in the county jail. That sentence was imposed upon Russell late yesterday afternoon by Justice Glaser, before whom Russell was brought after being rearrested upon a complaint made by Dr. Long.

It was shown that Russell had refused to observe the quarantine which had been placed over the home of Russell's daughter, where a case of diphtheria existed, and had gone in and out of the house a number of times without regard to the possibility of his carrying diphtheria infection to others.

Justice Glaser in passing sentence scored Russell severely for his actions and made the statement that the next person brought before him for a similar offense would be given the limit of punishment, ninety days in jail. This violation of quarantine which are necessitated by contagious diseases is a serious offense and one which the authorities are determined to put a stop to.

ESCANABA MAY GET COURT OF THE I. O. F.

William Lehman of Menominee, Deputy Supreme Chief Ranger of the Independent Order of Foresters, arrived in the city this morning with the object of meeting such members of the order as are residents of Escanaba. While there is no court of the Independent Order of Foresters in Escanaba, it is believed that there are some members here and Mr. Lehman would be pleased to have them call upon him tomorrow afternoon at the New Ludington hotel for the purpose of taking preliminary steps toward the organization of a court in this city.

The Independent Order of Foresters is one of the strongest fraternal and insurance organizations in the country, having a membership of 260,000 and a reserve fund of $16,000,000. Mr. Lehman will remain in Escanaba probably the greater part of next week and hopes to be successful in his mission.

EVERYBODY IS INVITED TO JOIN IN THE FIGHT

Large Attendance is Desired at Anti-Tuberculosis Mass Meeting Tomorrow—Program.

Everybody in Escanaba is urged to attend the anti-tuberculosis mass meeting at the High school auditorium tomorrow afternoon, opening at 3:30 o'clock, and join in the fight which has been started here against the great white plague.

All of the arrangements for the meeting have been completed and it promises to be an occasion of the greatest interest and value to the community. With the promise of good weather, which bids fair to be realized, the attendance should be such as to crowd the auditorium to its utmost capacity. It is hoped, at least, that this will be the case.

To Reorganize Society.
One of the objects of the meeting will be to reorganize the present local anti-tuberculosis society, giving it a permanent set of officers and board of directors. At the head of the local movement are the leading members of the medical, ministerial, legal and other professions and the general business men of the city. The women are also interested and promise to give valuable aid in the work that lies before the association.

Inspiration and instruction along the lines mapped out in the local campaign that has been inaugurated against the dread disease of tuberculosis will be supplied in large quantities by the gentlemen who are down on the program for addresses and by the general discussion which will follow. The program proper will be as follows, following an introductory address by Dr. A. F. Snyder, who will preside as chairman of the meeting.

BISHOP WILLIAMS IS ESCANABA VISITOR

Head of the Episcopal Diocese of Marquette Will Preach Tomorrow Morning and Evening and Administer Confirmation in St. Stephen's Church.—The Details.

The Rt. Rev. G. Mott Williams, bishop of the diocese of Marquette, arrived in the city at eleven o'clock this forenoon and will remain here until Monday forenoon, when he will go to Crystal Falls.

Bishop Williams will preach at both the morning and evening services at St. Stephen's Episcopal church tomorrow. The rite of confirmation will be administered at the morning service and will be conducted by the bishop.

The special music for the day will consist of a solo by Mrs. A. J. Carlson and a trio by the Misses Eastwood and Briggs and C. R. Williams. Announcement is made by Rev. E. E. Williams, rector of St. Stephen's church, that the Sunday school hour has been changed to 9:30 a. m., instead of the noon hour as formerly. During his stay in the city Bishop Williams will be a guest at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Williams.

necessitating the expenditure of about $485. The board asked the council's sanction to expend that sum or as much of it as should be necessary to make the desired improvement.

ASPHALT PAVEMENT FOR GEORGIA STREET?

Georgia street may be paved with asphalt this summer. Last evening at the common council meeting there was read a communication from Judge Judd Yelland, representing the property owners of Georgia street asking that the council take steps to pave that street with asphalt in accordance with the original plans of two years ago. Last year the proposed improvement was held up at the request of the property owners who are now, according to Judge Judd Yelland's communication, willing to have it made. The communication was referred to the committee on streets.

G. M. Mashek and family have moved into their new home on Michigan avenue, the business of moving having been completed yesterday. The Mashek home on Wolcott street is for sale and will probably be disposed of in a short time as it is very desirable residence property.

ARONSON IS VICTOR AGAINST BALDWIN

SHERIFF OF DELTA COUNTY IS GIVEN VERDICT AWARDING DAMAGES FOR LIBEL.

THE AMOUNT IS FIXED AT $500

Jury Finds that Libelous Article Printed in Defendant's Paper Damaged the Plaintiff's Reputation $300 Worth and His Feelings to Extent of $200—Baldwin Has Until First Day of Next Term to Move for a New Trial—Details.

After being out not quite four hours the jury in the case of Sheriff F. W. Aronson against Francis L. Baldwin an action brought in circuit court by the plaintiff to recover damages to the sum of $10,000 for libel in the defendant's newspaper, at 2:30 o'clock this morning brought in a verdict awarding Mr. Aronson $500 damages and costs. Of this amount $300 is for damages to his character and reputation and $200 for injury to his feelings by reason of the libel which the jury found Mr. Baldwin guilty of having committed. The publication of the article upon which the suit was based.

Case Will Be Appealed.
Following the return of the verdict, which was received by Judge Flannigan after he had been notified of the jury's agreement, the jurymen were discharged from further duty in the case and dispersed to their respective homes.

An order was entered by the court to the effect that the defendant, Mr. Baldwin, shall have until the first day of the next term of circuit court to move for a new trial or settle upon a bill of exceptions and that in the meantime all proceedings in the case, except taxation of the costs, are to be stayed upon the defendant's furnishing a stay bond in the sum of $700.

It is authoritatively stated that Mr. Baldwin will not accept the verdict of the circuit court jury as conclusive, but will appeal the case to the state supreme court.

Closing of the Case.
Taking of testimony in the case was concluded late yesterday afternoon and the court took a recess until seven o'clock, at which time the arguments of counsel were begun. For the plaintiff arguments were made by Attorneys John Cumiskey and John Power, while for the defendant pleas were made by Attorneys George Gallup and A. H. Rydahl. All were especially strong and able presentations of the respective sides of the case and were listened to with great interest by the crowd that filled the court room.

Mr. Power, who made the closing argument concluded at ten o'clock, the limit for all the arguments being three hours, and Judge Flannigan then delivered his charge to the jury. This occupied about thirty-five minutes and is said to have been one of the fairest and most comprehensive charges ever delivered to a jury in the Delta county circuit court. At 10:45 o'clock the jury retired and nearly four hours later came in with its verdict as noted.

This morning there was no business in circuit court, Judge Flannigan ordering a recess to be taken until two o'clock Monday afternoon, May 16, when he will be here to finish up the cases on the calendar yet undisposed of.

PEROW IS WILLING TO WRESTLE GRUNERT

"Dick" Perow says that he is much interested in the fact that "Fritz" Grunert wants to meet him in a wrestling match. To a Mirror reporter last evening "Dick" said: "Say in your paper that I am more than willing to meet Grunert in any kind of a wrestling match. He would be easy for me and as long as he wants a little exercise, I will take him on before the Athletic club or he can come down to the jail any time and I will throw him as many times as he cares to have it happen."

It is now up to Grunert as the challenging party to set a date and a place for the contest and as neither one of the boys seems to care anything about the financial end of it, it should not be a hard matter for them to arrange a meeting.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY NEEDS A NEW ROOF

The Carnegie public library is to have a new roof. Last evening the common council authorized the board of trustees of the library to go ahead and have a new roof constructed, with the understanding that its cost should not exceed $485.

The action of the council was taken following the reading of a communication from the board of library trustees through its president, F. H. Van Cleave while stated that the roof of the library has always been in a leaky condition, owing to faulty construction in the first place. Repairs have been made at various times, the communication stated, but without accomplishing the desired results. It was stated that the only remedy for the trouble would be the construction of a new roof of first class material.

Grand Rapids, Wis., April 30.—Business men are complaining that their mail and even express and freight are frequently misrouted being taken to Grand Rapids, Mich. This name would happily record the fact that this city is the result of the merger of Centralia and Grand Rapids.

TRAIN FORCES GIRLS TO LEAP TO DEATH

Fond du Lac, Wis., April 30.—In an effort to escape death beneath the wheels of an oncoming train two girls, Hilda Lemke and Amanda Leu, were drowned in the river here on Friday.
 Three girls, Mollie Lemke, Hilda Lemke and Amanda Leu, were playing on the bridge at the time of the tragedy. Engaged in their games they did not hear the warning whistle of the train until it was well upon them. They started to run to safety, but as the passenger bore down upon them leaped into the river below.
 Two of the children never rose again. But Charles Lucas, a saloon-keeper, who witnessed the occurrence, went to the rescue and succeeded in drawing Mollie Lemke from the water.
 The police are searching the river for the bodies, but up to this time no trace of the bodies had been discovered.

NOTED LECTURERS ON SUMMER SCHOOL PROGRAM

Arrangements Made to Have Strong Speakers at Six Weeks' Term at Marquette Normal.

According to the Marquette Mining Journal, the summer term of the Northern State Normal school at Marquette will this year, as usual, present a strong series of special lectures for the entertainment and instruction of the student body. One of the leading educators of the upper peninsula already engaged for the lecture work is Supt. F. D. Davis, head of Escanaba's public school system.

The announcements for the summer school are now being printed, and within a week or so will be circulated throughout the upper peninsula. Arrangements for the summer session are practically complete. Inquiries in regard to it have already been received, and the attendance is expected to show a gain over the last summer school.

Foremost among the special lecturers who have been engaged is Prof. Ira Woods Howarth, of the University of Chicago, who will be in Marquette the week of July 11. His lecture subjects are announced as follows: The Rising Generation, Talent and Opportunity, the Physical Welfare of School Children, Education and Public Health Learning and Labor, Brains vs. Battleships, Patriotism—Instinctive and Intelligent, the Heroism of the Common Life, Social Waste in Education, Education and the Common Weal.

Noted as an Educator.
 Dr. Howarth is a graduate of Harvard University, and has been at the University of Chicago since 1893, having been dean of the University of Chicago College for Teachers part of the time. From Jan. 1, 1908, until April 1, 1909, Dr. Howarth was the secretary of the Illinois Educational commission, appointed by the governor to codify the school laws and recommend improvements in the school system. He revised and rewrote the general school law of Illinois, prepared half a dozen bulletins on various phases of school reorganization and administration, and drafted the report of the commission, including bills presented to the legislature. The preparation of the bulletins involved a comparative study of the public school systems of the United States and other countries such as has been made by few men and such as has elsewhere not been published. Many of the states are now using these bulletins in an effort to secure educational reforms. Dr. Howarth is thus a particularly well informed educational authority, and he is also an effective and pleasing speaker.

Other Lectures.
 Mrs. Abby Snell Burnell will give a series of monologues on Hindu life July 18-19. Mrs. Burnell gained her experiences of Hindu life in southern India, where she had an extended residence. She appears in Hindu costumes and tells an engrossing story of Hindu life, talking in the first person. Mrs. Burnell has met with much success in her platform work.

Dr. A. E. Winship, of Boston, known in Marquette through former appearances, has again been engaged for the summer school, and will give a series of lectures July 25-26. Among his lectures will be his new one on "Schools and Their Critics." Dr. Winship is an editor of a leading educational magazine and one of the most progressive educators at work in the country.

For two weeks in July Frank K. Walter, vice director of the Library school at Albany, N. Y., will be engaged on work for the summer session. He will give many lectures of popular character.

Miss Mary Masee, children's librarian of the Buffalo public library, who like Dr. Winship, is known in Marquette because of a previous visit, will lecture on children's reading, children's books and children's literature. She will bring with her a model Children's Library of 500 volumes, which will be of much interest to teachers, parents and students.

For lectures on practical pedagogy and teaching the services of upper peninsula superintendents have been enlisted. Those who will assist with this work at the summer sessions are Orr Schurtz of Negaunee, F. D. Davis of Escanaba, and L. E. Amidon of Iron Mountain.

Mankato, Minn., April 30.—Halley's comet is no stranger to Captain Clark Keyser of this city. He remembers well having seen it when it appeared seventy-five years ago. He was then in his tenth year and lived with his parents in Saratoga county, New York. The appearance of the comet made a deep impression upon his mind, because it taught people to pray and swelled the attendance at prayer

Handsome Dresses

AFTERNOON DRESS FOR MATRON.—This very charming dress is a combination of cashmere, soft silk and velvet. The underskirt has a band of cashmere at the foot, ornamented with a wide, wavy pattern in braiding, above which is velvet. The princess over-dress of cashmere is open at each side to show a panel of velvet at side of bodice and on hips, each cashmere edge being finished with small velvet-covered buttons and handsome silk ornaments. The upper part of bodice and over-sleeves are of finely-tucked silk; the bands of cashmere and the pointed pieces are braided; the latter also ornamented with silk ball fringe. Puffed under-sleeves of chiffon gathered into velvet bands.

Materials required: Eight yards cashmere, 2½ yards velvet, 2½ yards silk, seven yards lining satene, one yard ball fringe, two ornaments, three-fourths yard chiffon.

SIMPLE HOME DRESS.—Here is a simple and very practical dress for home wear that may be carried out in fine serge or later on in linen. The skirt has a panel front and back, that in front is trimmed with silk-covered buttons. The bodice is tight-fitting, and has an added piece arranged in tucks that are carried over the shoulders and cross below bust; the center front and back are lightly braided, so are the turn-up cuffs. The collar and fly yoke are of lace.

Materials required: Seven yards 46 inches wide, three-eighths yard lace, seven yards lining.

MATTER FOR THE INDIVIDUAL

All Cannot Wear the Collarless Gown, Becoming as It is to Most Women.

Whether to accept it or to defy fashion by asserting one's individuality is the question that the next few weeks will answer. The "little girl" fashions that have been evolved in great variety have come upon us, and it is to be hoped have not found us wanting. But you and I know that there are some necks that never will be swan-like, and despite the fact that the collarless corsage is here, it must be judged in connection with the wearer. If your neck be round, white and graceful, by all means adopt the becoming fashion. If it be anything but these things, then it were wise to invoke the favor of lace and net to bring attraction to the upper part of the gown.

There are many little edgings for the collarless gown, and if detachable, a pleasing variety is possible. For some there are the turn-down collars of sheer linen, to be worn with the black silk tie with a Byronic air. Then there is the Vandyke collar, lace trimmed and plaited, that should be worn with a dress of the more fluffy type. Hand embroidery figures largely on many of the soft null collars, while the crisp gaufered net is decidedly attractive. These collars and collarettes are easily designed and made at home. The number of the dainty pieces of neckwear depends upon your time only, for the expense is hardly to be considered.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Tucks to Curve Sleeve. Made on rather straight lines, the best blouse sleeves of sheer linen show from five to seven tiny tucks crossing the front seam of the sleeve just where the sleeve naturally wrinkles with the turn of the arm. You see, these will give the desired—the necessary—curve, and you may select the exact position for your own exclusive plait by trying on the blouse with the sleeve in place and secured at the armhole, and by observing the wrinkles at the turn of the arm.

Tape Instead of Ribbon. For every day underwear it is often so much trouble to the busy girl to run in fresh ribbon. Where garments are not fitted to do without a draw string, substitute the narrowest linen or kidkin tape such as is used in baby clothes. Run the tape through the beading, and catch it firmly at center of back. It will not pull out in laundering. This saves time, expense and washes nicely. It is not pretty, but it is substantial.

Striped Collars. Collars, the plain turnover variety, are once more embroidered upon striped linen and in the color of the stripes. This is a particularly attractive idea for the wearer of black and white, and in lavender it produces a most attractive effect.

WALKING COSTUME.

Cream serge would look well made up in this style, the skirt is quite plain and is cut a nice walking length. In style the coat rather suggests a Russian. It has a panel down back and front, while the sides are plain, the fullness being drawn in at the waist by braided straps with rounded ends. The flat turn-down collar and cuffs are also braided. Hat of soft straw, bound at the edge with velvet, and trimmed with a large feather mount and velvet ribbon. Materials required: Seven yards serge 48 inches wide, 1½ dozen yards braid, six yards silk for lining coat.

BRIDES DANCE WITH HUNDREDS OF MEN

Duluth, April 30.—The champion Marathon dancer of Duluth is easily Mrs. B. Winneka, and she is a bride who established her right to the title last evening at the celebration of her wedding at a West End home. She danced with each of the guests, each of whom, according to a Polish custom, threw a dollar down. The celebration began early in the evening and lasted until early this morning, and when the dancing bride took account of the dollars she had collected she found $250. The bride was an ironer in a laundry. Her maiden name was Steffles Rutka and she was married to B. Winneka.

This One is Still Better. Madison, Ill., April 30.—Mrs. Joseph Barry, a bride of a day, made $600 by dancing 600 dances Tuesday night, and she proposes to keep on dancing, day and night, for a week unless her strength gives out. Mrs. Barry is twenty-three years old and the wife of Joseph Barry, twenty-six, of East Madison. Tuesday, he and Miss Antonia Rapezak were married in Venice, Ill. They returned to East Madison and at night the festivities began. Frank Annis had built a hall for the occasion. Barry and his bride and the six bridesmaids, and six groomsmen went to the hall and a greater part of the population turned out to dance with the bride. When the proceeds were counted at daylight Wednesday the bride had 600 silver dollars, one for each dance.

Four barrels of beer added zest to the occasion Tuesday night.

BRIDES CROWD INTO LIVELY MINING TOWN

Lead, S. D., April 30.—That many of the new citizens who have become employees of the Homestake Mining company here intend to be permanent residents is evidenced by the increasing number of marriages.

Within the past month over a score of young miners who recently came here from Missouri and Kansas have sent for their prospective brides and been married on the arrival of the girls, and others are only waiting until houses can be secured here, as the town has been crowded with both the old and the new men. The marriage license records for the present month show an unusually high number, due to the new arrivals.

150 WOMEN PROPOSE MARRIAGE TO GREEN

St. Louis, April 30.—E. H. R. Green of Terrell, Texas, president of the Texas Midland railroad, and son of Mrs. Hetty Green of New York, and who recently announced in St. Louis that he had not married because he could find no woman who would accept him except for his money, admitted last night the receipt of 150 letters from women asking his hand in marriage during the last two weeks. The letters were accompanied by 50 photographs of the writers, according to Green. One of the letters was from a widow with half a dozen children. Green will remain in St. Louis several days. He denied a statement that his mother had retired or was about to retire from business.

COMET'S TAIL WON'T AFFECT THE WIRES

Cambridge, Mass., April 30.—Although the end of the tail of Halley's comet may brush the earth about the 18th or 20th of May, Prof. O. G. Wendell of Harvard observatory said today that he did not look for any interference of the electric wire or wireless communication.

TOO MANY VESSELS FOR THE BUSINESS

Cleveland, O., April 30.—There is too much tonnage in commission for the business there is in sight, said a big ore shipper at a meeting of vesselmen yesterday, and the owners of wild carriers should be slow in starting any more boats. The ore men have about all they can do in most cases to take care of their own capacity, and with little coal moving on account of the labor troubles at the mines, there is a scarcity of cargoes all around. A number of the ore firms notified the vessel owners some time ago that they would not be ready to furnish cargoes on carrying contracts until after May 1. Mirror Want Ads bring results.

THEATRICAL

The Peterson.—The secret of many a lawyer's success is strikingly divulged in Charles Klein's great masterpiece, "The Third Degree," which comes to the Peterson tomorrow evening. Richard Brewster, the celebrated exponent of international law in "The Third Degree," says to the wife of his best paying client: "The painful part of our profession, Mrs. Jeffries, is that the client's weakness is the lawyer's strength. When men hate each other and rob each other, we lawyers don't pacify them. We dare not. We encourage them; we pit them against each other for profit. If we didn't they'd go to some lawyer who did. When a man wants to do the wrong thing, he's always willing to pay a lawyer a good price to advise him to do it." Promising young attorneys will find a great deal of sound philosophical wisdom in "The Third Degree," and incidentally prospective legal contestants will glean much wholesome advice, which, if sought direct of any recognized and reputable legal authority, would cost a pretty penny. In explanation of this splendid and clear insight into the methods of barristers by the playwright it may be stated that Charles Klein is a lawyer of ability, having studied law at Lincoln Inn, London, England, and been admitted to the English bar. Always intensely interested in the drama and endowed with a fertile brain and literary talent, Mr. Klein abandoned his chosen calling and adopted playwriting as his profession. Thus the bar lost a brilliant advocate and the stage gained a powerful mind that has already proved its mightiness through his other signal success, "The Lion and the Mouse," which was given to the stage by Henry B. Harris, who is also responsible for "The Third Degree," which, by the way, ran for seven months at the Hudson theatre, New York. The production to be seen here is an exact duplicate of the original, while the cast of players is said to be one of superior excellence.

The Peterson.—The only play that ever received the endorsement of the United Commercial Travelers of America and the Travelers Protective association is "The Traveling Salesman," James Forbes' latest comedy, which Henry B. Harris will present at the Peterson on Thursday, May 5. Incidentally it is the only play ever written that truthfully depicts that most interesting of all American characters, the modern commercial traveler. Written by its author for the sole purpose of entertaining all classes of playgoers, it more than makes good, as evidenced by the fact that it played for over nine months in New York and for twenty-one weeks in Chicago, to crowded houses, Mr. Forbes, it will be remembered, is the author of "The Chorus Lady," a play that has attracted the multitude of theatergoers by reason of its collection of slang phrases of unique originality. Its successor, "The Traveling Salesman," brings to light slang idioms of a character that tend to throw the audience into convulsions of laughter.

The Peterson.—Local theatergoers are anticipating with great interest the forthcoming appearance of Miss Blanche Walsh in "The Test," which will be seen at the Peterson on Thursday night, May 12. Miss Walsh has always been a great favorite here, but declares that this year she will astonish even her most ardent admirers by the newest role she has created. The actress regards it as the greatest of her career, despite the fact she has triumphed in all the noted works of Sardou. The character is even stronger than that she played in "Resurrection," which proved a sensational hit throughout the country.

For the loss of a hand or foot, one and one-half year's wages, but not less than $500, or more than $1,000. For the loss of both hands or feet, or one hand and one foot, four years' wages, but not less than $2,000. In case of other injuries, one-fourth wages during the first thirty days or one-half wages for a longer period, or a pension if disability continues permanently.

VESSEL BLOCKADE AT SOO IS SERIOUS
Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., April 30.—As was feared when the downward bound vessels began to arrive the blockade at the Soo is greater than ever. Today noon there is a fleet of fifty vessels upward bound lying at anchor below the locks and along the river awaiting their turn, downward bound, are forty others lodged. To the great relief of the marine interests however, comes the official announcement that the American locks will be opened Wednesday, May 4. This was given out by Supt. Sabin this morning.

Why Have an Overheated Kitchen in Summer?
When the sultry days come and the coal range makes the kitchen almost unbearable and cooking a dreaded task, put out the range fire and try the newest method of cooking in hot weather—use a

New Perfection Oil Cook-stove
WICK-BLUE-FLAME
What a contrast! The kitchen no longer is stifling hot, the work is now done with comfort, and the housewife is not worn out with the heat.

She saves her strength, keeps her health and is better able to enjoy the summer. The New Perfection does everything that any other stove can do—all the family cooking, baking, washing and ironing. No smoke, no dust, no odor. Heat is applied directly and not wasted. A turn, and the flame is out. The New Perfection stove has a Cabinet Top with shelf for keeping plates and food hot, drop shelves for the coffee pot or saucepans, and nicked towel racks. It has long turquoise-blue enamel chimneys. The nickel finish, with the bright blue of the chimneys, makes the stove very attractive and invites cleanliness. Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet. Every dealer everywhere; if not at yours, write for Descriptive Circular to the nearest agency of the

HARMONY DWELLS IN REPUBLICAN LEAGUE

State Clubs Take Decided Stand Against Favoritism—Election of Officers Takes Place and is According to Precedent—J. W. Egan at the Head.

Lansing, Mich., April 30.—Symptoms of discord in the meeting of the State League of Republican clubs here Wednesday were swallowed up in absolute harmony. Factionalism was forgotten and the election of officers went through as peacefully as that of a ladies' aid society.

The league came out firmly against tying itself up to any candidate for office in a set of resolutions which were adopted reading as follows:

"The States League of Republican Clubs of Michigan, in annual convention assembled, for the purpose of clearly defining the objects and principles of the league, hereby declares:

"First. The objects of this league are to encourage and assist in the formation of permanent Republican clubs throughout the state for practical and effective work, to unite these clubs into a permanent state organization, to assist in the election of Republican nominees for public office and generally to advance the interests of the Republican party.

"Second. It is not, and cannot be, the policy of the league to promote the nomination of any person or persons as candidate for any political office, and the state league shall not be committed, either directly or indirectly, to the candidacy of any person or persons for nomination for any public office at a primary election or at any convention.

"Third. We earnestly recommend that the constituent clubs of the state league preserve their integrity by a strict adherence to this broad and vital principle."

The election of officers took place as traditional, each man being advanced so that the roster stands as follows: President, John W. Egan, Fre. ont; vice president, Will A. Waite; secretary, Roy M. Watkins; Grand Rapids; treasurer, T. Earl Jarrod, Lansing.

Twenty-two clubs were represented at the meeting and 230 delegates were present. Big delegations from Grand Rapids and Detroit came in early. Chase Osborn, P. H. Kelley and Amos Musselman were in evidence all day holding conferences and discussing matters political. As politics was kept out of the league meetings proper, there was considerable pow-wowing on the side.

At the banquet of the Zach Chandler club in the evening at the Masonic temple nearly 1,500 Republicans were present. Lieut. Gov. Kelley, Congressman Duncan E. McKinley, Hugh Shepherd of Detroit, Chase Osborn and Amos Musselman were the speakers. President Charles Hayden introduced Lieut. Gov. Kelley as toastmaster.

NEW CHAMPION SLOW SMOKER

Philadelphia, April 30.—H. Schmitz, 65 years old, of Brooklyn, made a new long smoking record here last night, when he kept an ordinary cigar lighted for one hour and fifty minutes, ten minutes and thirty seconds longer than the record recently made by Abraham Pugh at Phoenixville, Pa.

"It is all in knowing how to smoke a cigar," said Mr. Schmitz. "Very few men get possible enjoyment that may be derived from the proper smoking of a cigar."

OSBORN RESENTS SLURS ON HONESTY OF PRESS

Congressman McKinley Taken Sharply to Task for Attack on Newspapers—Osborn's Remarks.

Lansing, Mich., April 30.—In a cyclonic fifteen-minute address in which he eloquently defended the American press, American magazines and the national insurgents for the attacks made upon them earlier in the evening by Congressman McKinley of California, Chase S. Osborn proved the scintillating feature at the annual banquet of the Zach Chandler club at the Masonic temple here Wednesday night.

Mr. Osborn's speech proved the shortest he has made since the governorship campaign began and yet he received the greatest ovation ever tendered him in the city of Lansing.

Congressman McKinley, the first speaker of the evening, declared as a climax to an eloquent address that the newspaper readers of America were not receiving truthful news from Washington, and claimed that in his opinion the press has been subsidized by the big importers of the United States through the medium of advertising.

Osborn Defends the Press.
"I have been a newspaper man all my life and perhaps the statement of Congressman McKinley sounded a little worse to myself and the newspaper men than he wished to have it sound. But I do wish to take objection and serious objection to his statement that the press was venal and subsidized.

"We have 400,000 publications in America which have a readership of practically all the people in this nation. In this state there are over 600 newspapers alone, more than 200 of which are fighting the battles of the Republican party. When many of us are at home each week or day, these papers come out preaching the gospel of Republicanism and if perchance they disagree with some measure or some man, it is no indication they are dishonest or subsidized and I believe that if they were the future would look gloomy indeed." Great applause greeted this statement.

Mr. Osborn declared that the great censorship of the press lies in two directions, first the newspaper reading public and second with the libel laws.

"Mr. McKinley tells you you cannot get the truth from Washington," he said: "I know many correspondents at Washington and I know they are honest. Some support the insurgents and some do not. But they are honest. If you believe that it is impossible to find the truth of doings in Washington from the newspapers, get the congressional records. You will find it there. (Applause). He never mentioned that route.

Views of Insurgency.
"Mr. McKinley declares that insurgency will pass away like a summer cloud. I believe insurgency is a pretty good thing if you insure for the right things. If insurgency means progress, if insurgency means greater honesty, if insurgency means higher ideals, if insurgency means the good of the many at the expense of the few, then my friends, that is a good thing and the Republican party can afford it." (Great applause).

Mr. Osborn dwelt but few minutes upon the governorship campaign, assuring the Republicans present that no matter whom of the three Republicans was nominated he would support that man.

Musselman Agrees With Osborn.
Amos Musselman surprised his audience by getting up and also taking a slam at Congressman McKinley's statements which Mr. Osborn had taken exception to. He boosted the Taft administration and urged for the state a government conducted on a business basis. Governor Warner was on the platform but did not speak.

Lieutenant Governor Patrick H. Kelley, introduced by President Hayden of the Zach Chandler Club tonight as toast master of the evening, was applauded for many minutes, and spoke but briefly. The lieutenant-governor, following a short tribute to Zach Chandler stated that Congressman McKinley of California who came here from Washington to attend the banquet was forced to return on the nine o'clock train and the congressman was the first speaker.

ASHLAND PASTOR IS FINALLY DEPOSED

Ashland, Wis., April 30.—Rev. August Lutz who until deposed by Presiding Elder Droegcamp, was pastor of the German Evangelical association church at Ashland was deposed at the conference of the church and also expelled from the church. Rev. C. F. Mayes will come to Ashland to take charge.

The trouble in the Evangelical church at Ashland occurred when Presiding Elder Droegcamp sent Mr. Bloede to Ashland to take the place of Mr. Lutz, who refused to give up the pulpit. The first Sunday Mr. Bloede attempted to preach he was interrupted by Mr. Lutz which resulted in Mr. Lutz swearing out a warrant the next morning for one of the members of the congregation on the charge of assault. He subsequently withdrew the charge. After this took place, Presiding Elder Droegcamp came to Ashland and secured an injunction restraining Mr. Lutz from interfering with the church in any way. When this injunction came up in court, it was thrown out and the fight was renewed for the possession of the pulpit with the result that Mr. Droegcamp came to Ashland and held services to prevent Mr. Lutz from gaining possession. He also secured another injunction against Mr. Lutz which the latter disregarded entirely as he claimed it was not legal.

The final act as far as the church is concerned took place at the conference. Presiding Elder Droegcamp was sustained. It is not known whether Mr. Lutz will carry the matter any further into the courts. The fight has cost Mr. Lutz and Presiding Elder Droegcamp over $1,000 thus far.

THOUSANDS TO SEE STATUES DEDICATED

Washington, D. C., April 30.—Under the present plans over 7,000 men will march in the parade incident to the dedication of the statues of the Polish revolutionary heroes, Kosciusko and Pulaski, on May 11. The column will include about 3,000 soldiers and about 4,500 Polish patriots. President Taft and Secretary Dickinson will deliver addresses.

POSTMASTER KRUGER IS REAPPOINTED

Frederick Kruger, postmaster of St. Ignace, has been appointed for another four year term from March 31st, last. Mr. Kruger has already held the office for thirteen years, having been appointed first by the late President McKinley. His reappointment is popular.

POPE PIUS KINDLY ARRANGES RECEPTION

OSTEOPATHIC TALKS
By DR. B. F. BAILEY.

Does osteopathic work last or must one keep up treatment as medicine is required in such complaints as headache and constipation?

Cause always precedes result. The cause found removed and result gone, you understand why, what and how it was done, and unless the cause repeats results never can. What you learn about your life needs and limitations makes possible more often than otherwise your continued ease instead of disease.

Cause always precedes result. The cause found, removed and result, you understand why, what and how it was done, and unless the cause repeats results never can. What you learn about your life needs and limitations makes possible more often than otherwise your continued care instead of disease.

Do you treat all kinds of sickness? You would not ask a jeweler or engineer if he could do everything in his line, but would likely ask—Can you fix this? Osteopaths being body mechanics tell you with reasonable judgment what they can do for your trouble.

You dodge the question. Yes, to some extent, still rightly understood, I have answered DIRECTLY to the point. We treat conditions, causes, and relations—not results—diseases. The effects known as pain, lameness, or just a miserable bad feeling, named neuralgia, lumbago, or nervousness are symptoms and a guess what to call them.

To the osteopath, pain, lameness and feelings are guides directing him toward a cause, condition or relation he seeks to remove or change. They range all the way from strongly evident physical to the very uncertain imaginative; from what are unmistakably in the body to those as undeniably in the mind. Results in particular individuals being modified by age, occupation, climate, inheritance, etc., present some hard problems requiring candor, confidence and well balanced judgment in the spirit of do to others as you would be done by for their solution.

The Usual Way. It was little Marlon's first day at Sunday school; her mother had given her a penny for collection. After Sunday school was over, her mother noticed that Marlon had two pennies. "Why, Marlon, where did you get that other penny?" she queried. "Oh, they passed the pennies and I took one," was the naive reply.

FOUR SCORE AND TWO SALOONS CERTAIN

In all probability, Escanaba during the coming year will have about eighty-two saloons. The common council last evening approved the applications and bonds of four more saloon men and these with those previously approved bring the total to more than that number. There are several of those, however, whose applications were approved on April 1 who did not pay for their licenses within the two weeks' limit and their applications are therefore void.

One bond, that of John Bartels, was not approved last night, because of insufficient surety, but he may have it in proper shape by the time the council meets again next Tuesday evening.

The bonds of the Richter brewing company and three druggists' bonds were also approved.

Those saloonists who have already paid their license fee of $500 each are as follows:

Albert J. Boddy, Peter Blake, Thom as Curry, John Christie, Joseph Charlebois, Coll & Gallagher, Decker & Lemmer, Ciprien Devost, Matt Dahl, Phil Dupont, Clark J. Denner, Sylvester Denter, Joseph Delorier, John Freeman, John Gorman, John Holmgren, John J. Hines, Joseph Hirn, Victor Johnson, Johnson & Carlson, Paul Jaeger, Axel Johnson, Edward P. Johnson, Paul Kelley, Peter Klein, Peter Lemmer, Napoleon Laporte, Albert Lamothe, Jacob P. Miller, Joseph Mileski, Alfred J. Moreau, Irene Marchand, Magnus Mattson, Moline & Berg, William Matt, Monson & Powell, John Magnuson, Daniel Mahar, Nelson & Johnson, Andrew Nelson, Henry Norman, Nick Niece, Charles Olson, Frank Paquin, James Pelott, Stanislas Pichette, James B. Patton, Homer Papeau, Napoleon Primeau, Thomas Riedy, Thomas Rowan, John Rowan, Felix Roberts, Snyder Bros., Oscar Sederlund, Eugene Sullivan, Emil C. Stuhl, Paul Stricker, Louis Schuette, Nick Thines, Christ Westerland, William Wiseman, Bernard Welter, E. W. Wickert, Louis Anderson, John F. Burns Ben Clairmont, Patrick F. Gannon, John Hjanic.

WILL BE GREETED BY LARGE AUDIENCES

From all indications, the young men of St. Joseph's church who are to present "A Tramp's Revenge" and "A Troubled Lieutenant" at Petersons opera house next Monday and Tuesday evenings, will be greeted by large audiences. Large numbers of admission tickets have already been sold and the reserved seats are being taken rapidly. An especially large audience is promised for Monday evening and there is every assurance that they will enjoy both the play and the sketch to be presented.

SENSATIONAL STORY SPRUNG IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Ill., April 30.—The Chicago Tribune today prints a copyrighted story in which it claims to have in its possession the sworn statement of Charles A. White, Democratic member of the Illinois legislature, charging that Senator Lorimer was elected last May by bribery and corruption.

White, the statement alleges, says he received one thousand dollars for voting for Lorimer and that the money was paid him by Lee O'Neil Browne, the Democratic leader in the last legislature.

White, it is said, also claims to have received $900 additional from an alleged general corruption fund distributed at the close of the legislative session.

White, so the story goes, declares Browne had $30,000 on his person when he made his last payment on the thousand dollar bribe.

Browne declared today that he never spent a nickel in behalf of Lorimer, one way or another, and added that he holds notes of White for small amount "touches."

Governor Deenen declares a searching investigation of the matter is due the people.

BRAKEMAN HAS CLOSE CALL FROM DEATH

William Moore of this city was painfully injured and had a narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon while engaged in his work as a brakeman on the Escanaba & Lake Superior railway. Near Cornell, Mr. Moore was accidentally caught between the engine of his train and a pile of telegraph poles near the track and was severely injured before the train could be stopped. He was brought to this city and is now at his home, 203 Norris street. Today his condition was reported as favorable.

PRESIDENT TAFT VISITS IN BUFFALO

By (Associated Press.) Buffalo, N. Y., April 30.—President Taft arrived here at 7:25 o'clock this morning and was met by a committee of the business men and escorted to the home of Ansley Wilcox, whose guest he will be while in Buffalo.

Much of this morning was spent by the president in dictating to stenographers. It is believed that he will enter into a new defense of the tariff act either in his speech before the chamber of commerce in this city tonight or in an address that he is to make at Pittsburg next Monday.

The first public functions of the day were held in the chamber of commerce, where President Taft held an informal reception and proceeded from there to the Buffalo club, where he had luncheon.

REFUSE TO SHOW LETTER

(By Associated Press.) Washington, D. C., April 30.—Much of the time of the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation committee's time was taken up this morning discussing another request for the attorney general's letter bearing on the Glavis affair. The request was refused after much argument and the testimony of Ballinger was resumed.

During the discussion Attorney Verrees, the counsel for Ballinger made the assertion that the request for the production of the letter showed a conspiracy directed at persons very close to the president and was prompted by the resentment of the former secretary of the interior, who was not retained and that it is no more than the act of a man who has been removed for misconduct.

COAL DEALER IS INDICTED

(By Associated Press.) Chicago, Ill., April 30.—James P. Conroy, president of a coal company in this city was indicted today on the charge of swindling the city on coal contracts that he took in behalf of his company.

CAPT. D. J. NORTON UNDERGOES OPERATION

Capt. Daniel S. Norton, who has been ill for several months, was operated on this morning at the Augustana hospital in Chicago and telegrams were received by relatives here this afternoon announcing that his condition was favorable. Mrs. Norton and her brother, Capt. John Coffey of Manistique, are in Chicago.

OBSEQUIES OF MRS. GEORGE MCCARTHY

The funeral of the late Mrs. George McCarthy was held from St. Patrick's church at nine o'clock this morning and was largely attended. Unusually impressive services for the dead were conducted, a solemn high mass being celebrated by Rev. Father Bender, assisted by Rev. Father Sauriol, Rev. Father Beauchain and Rev. Father Tully, the latter priest being from Marinette.

Following the services in the church the remains were taken to St. Joseph's cemetery for burial, being followed there by a large number of mourning relatives and friends. The floral tributes were unusually numerous and of great beauty, testifying in some degree to the love and respect in which Mrs. McCarthy was held by her many friends. There were eight pallbearers, all old friends of the deceased. These were Capt. Bartley, Hon. John Power, William Manley, John K. Stack, John Tolan, D. E. Glavin, James S. Doherty and John Trotter.

EXPERTS NOW HOLD THE STAGE IN THE HYDE CASE.

Kansas City, Mo., April 30.—The entire time of the court in the Hyde murder case was taken up this morning in the examination of experts. Although several men who are prominent in medicine and chemistry gave testimony, one and all agreed upon the fact that Colonel Swope did not die of natural causes.

THERE WILL BE NO BALL GAME SUNDAY

Because, as The Mirror has been informed, the member of the Gladstone Baseball team are suffering from frigid pedal extremities, otherwise "cold feet," there will be no ball game at South park tomorrow afternoon between the Escanaba and Gladstone teams. The Escanaba team was willing to play and had, in fact, advertised that the game would come off according to the exhibition game schedule made up some time ago, but today the manager of the local team received notice that the Gladstone team would not be here to play. As the Continentals are to play in Rapid River tomorrow, there is no team left here to take the place of the Gladstone team and so of necessity the game that was proposed for tomorrow has been called off.

CHICKEN THIEVES ARE ACTIVE AGAIN

Residents in the east end of the city are complaining that chicken thieves have been operating the past few nights, with the result that chicken owners have lost quite a number of birds. One victim stated today that his coop had been opened by thieves who carried tools with which to remove the locks and the owner is correspondingly wrathful. Precautions are now being taken by chicken owners to keep a sharp watch and anyone caught in an attempt to open a chicken house will be rather roughly handled.

ANOTHER PUGILIST DIES AFTER FIGHT

(By Associated Press.) San Francisco, Cal., April 30.—Tommy McCarthy, a lightweight pugilist, died today from injuries that he received last night in a sixteen-round prize fight with Owen Moran of England.

The fight was fiercely fought from the sound of the gong and both men received a lot of punishment. In the sixteenth round Moran landed hard on McCarthy and whether it was the blow or whether McCarthy sustained a fracture of the skull when he fell to the floor will never be definitely settled, according to the reports that have been circulated.

McCarthy was taken to a hospital at once and doctors worked over him the greater part of the night, but the injury was so severe that there are little hopes for his recovery.

IOWA ATHLETE IS INJURED WRESTLING

Chicago, April 30.—After fifty-one minutes and thirty-one seconds of strenuous wrestling by Stanislas Zbysko, the Pole, and Jesse Westergaard, of Iowa, here last night, the bout came to an abrupt end through the severe wrenching of the ligaments of Westergaard's left leg. Under the rules of the game, the bout was given to Zbysko, but later he refused to accept the victory, saying that he would like to meet Westergaard again, as Westergaard is a good wrestler. Only once was there a probability of a fall, and when the Pole seemed a sure winner, Westergaard, with a quick turn, however, threw himself out of danger.
