

NORTHWESTERN HAS NEW HEAD

Marvin Hughitt Retires from Presidency of Great Railway System and is Succeeded by W. A. Gardner—Hughitt Heads Directors—Other Changes.

According to an announcement received in Escanaba today, Marvin Hughitt, for 23 years president of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company, has retired from the presidency and has been elected chairman of the board of directors.

eration and maintenance, succeeding Mr. Gardner. William D. Cantillon, assistant general manager, promoted to general manager in place of Mr. Aishton. Willis E. Morse, general superintendent, promoted to assistant general manager.

These changes took place at the annual meeting of the directors in the Chicago & Northwestern offices in Chicago Thursday afternoon.

Samuel G. Strickland, appointed general superintendent of the lines east of the Missouri river, except the Minnesota and South Dakota divisions, and Chester T. Dike, general superintendent of the Minnesota and South Dakota divisions.

Although he has been railroading for 53 years, 35 of which he has been with the Northwestern, and is now 73 years old, Mr. Hughitt is not retiring from active service, but in his new position as chairman of the board of directors is given comprehensive authority over the administration of the company in all departments.

The changes in the operating departments are effective November 1. Gardner Also Is Director. At the meeting of the stockholders and voting bondholders, Mr. Gardner was elected a member of the executive committee, and the retiring directors, Mr. Hughitt, Frank Work, James Stillman, Oliver Ames, and Zenas Crane were re-elected and Mr. Gardner was elected a director to fill the unexpired term of Hamilton McK. Twombly, deceased.

Other changes announced at the conclusion of the director's meeting were: Samuel A. Lynde, general attorney, elected vice president in charge of the legal and financial departments, in place of E. E. Osborn of New York, who retired on account of ill-health, and was also made assistant secretary. Richard H. Aishton, general manager, appointed vice president of operation and maintenance, succeeding Mr. Gardner.

Mr. Gardner, who will now be the active head of the entire northwestern system, as he has been for some time the president of its most important subsidiary, the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha road, has been Mr. Hughitt's right hand man in the management of the system since he was elected vice president in January, 1906.

BRIEF HEARD IN CANAL LABEL SUIT

(By Associated Press.) Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—The government's brief in the so-called Panama label suit of the United States against the Press Publishing company of New York, was heard in the supreme court here today. It not only contained a statement of facts, but an argument in support of its position that the indictment against the company should not be quashed.

on October 19 she was assaulted by Mrs. McLean, who bit her severely on her arm, she asserts, and she declares that while Mrs. McLean was assaulting her Mr. McLean held her (Mrs. Malcomson) so that she could not defend herself. Mrs. Malcomson also alleges that John Gould, a relative of the McLeans, encouraged the couple in their alleged assault upon her. Prosecuting Attorney Dotch is prosecuting the case, while Attorney J. W. Comiskey is representing the defendants.

This case grew out of allegations made to the effect that J. Pierpont Morgan and others, through their friendship with Taft and Roosevelt, had made a big profit in the sale of the Panama canal route to the United States.

LEAVE STRANDED SHIP FOR LAND

Key West, Fla., Oct. 21.—The last of the passengers of the liner Louisiana, which went ashore on Sombro reef during the recent hurricane, were landed today. All the mail and other valuables have been recovered, but in order to save the steamer it will be necessary to discharge its entire cargo.

J. MOHAMMAD ALI HIGHLY COMMENDED

Noted East Indian Prince and Chau-tauqua Star is Now in the City and Will Deliver a Lecture in the First Presbyterian Church Next Sunday Evening.

J. Mohammad Ali, who is to lecture at the First Presbyterian church Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock comes highly recommended. A communication was received here from Robert E. Speer of the Foreign mission board of the Presbyterian church in reference to Mr. Ali, in which he says: "The work that Mr. Ali is doing cannot help but accomplish good, and I am glad that he is using his influence to counteract the harmful influence of the Swamee adventures of one sort and another from Asia."

The Daily Record of Wausau, Wis., says of Mr. Ali: "An audience that filled every available inch of space in the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. gathered yesterday to listen to Mohammad Ali. There was no time during the entire address when the lecturer lagged for a moment. Boiled down to a nicety, his address teemed with striking features of the life and customs in India. Mr. Ali is an interesting talker and his use of the English language is remarkable. The scholarly character of the man and his familiarity with the history of his own land will be conceded without argument."

It is thought that many will avail themselves of the privilege of hearing Mr. Ali Sunday evening. There will be no admission fee. All are cordially invited to be present. Mr. Ali has already arrived in the city and will remain until after he delivers his lecture.

CHURCH TO TAKE IN NINE NEW MEMBERS

Rev. C. A. Hognander, pastor of the Swedish Mission church, corner Pannine and Ayer streets, has arranged to hold special services at that church next Sunday morning and evening which should attract large congregations. At the morning services there will be special music and a feature will be the taking of nine new members into the church. Rev. Mr. Hognander has been pastor of the church only four months, but in that short space of time has injected new life into the congregation and increased its membership very perceptibly. At the evening service an unusually attractive musical and literary program will be rendered by the choir and members of the Sunday School Bible class, and the pastor will give a short address. He will also preach at the morning service.

CHORAL SOCIETY ASSURED

PRELIMINARY ORGANIZATION OF THE ESCANABA CHORAL CLUB IS EFFECTED AT MEETING.

TEMPORARY OFFICERS CHOSEN

Prominent Vocalists and Musicians Favor Idea of Having a Choral Club in Escanaba and Decide to Organize Permanently Next Thursday Evening—F. E. LeVine is Chosen Temporary Chairman and Mrs. A. P. Smith Temporary Secretary—Details.

Escanaba is to have a choral society.

This much was practically assured at a meeting of prominent local vocalists and musicians held in the Armory on South Georgia street Thursday evening when a preliminary organization was effected by the election of temporary officers and the adoption of a motion to hold another meeting at the same place on Thursday evening of next week for the purpose of making the organization permanent.

Not only were these things done but the organization was given a name. It will be called the Escanaba Choral club, the purposes of which are indicated by its title.

Temporary Officers Chosen. F. E. LeVine was chosen chairman to serve as temporary president of the club and Mrs. A. P. Smith was selected as temporary secretary. Mr. LeVine presided over the meeting, which was attended by 25 or 30 of the leading exponents of voice and musical culture in this city.

The matter of forming a choral club was thoroughly discussed in all its bearings and the general sentiment was favorable to the proposition. However, the details of the proposed organization were left to be worked out at the meeting to be held for permanent organization next Thursday evening. It was decided that the club should hold regular meetings and Mr. LeVine and Mrs. Smith were delegated to look about and endeavor to secure a suitable place for holding the club meetings after the club shall have been fully and permanently organized.

Professor Enna Present. Prof. Alex Enna of Marinette was at the meeting and gave those present the benefit of his knowledge and experience in the purposes, work and conduct of a choral society. Professor Enna is director of the Apollo club at Marinette and described how that society is conducted, stating what are the membership fees and dues, etc. These latter matters will also be decided at the meeting next Thursday evening, when it is expected that not only those in attendance last evening but many others will be present to enroll themselves as members of the Escanaba Choral club.

BARBERS ENTERTAIN AT DANCING PARTY

Anticipations regarding the dancing party given in Clark's hall Thursday night by the Barbers' Union were fully realized except in one respect—the attendance was not as large as had been expected. This is probably accounted for by the strong counter attraction afforded by the card social at St. Joseph's fair, which attracted many who otherwise probably would have attended the dance. However, there were enough present to make the dance a financial success and socially it was all that could be desired. The hall was prettily decorated with strings of electric lights and the music furnished by Brotherton's orchestra was a constant source of satisfaction to the dancers, who enjoyed themselves to the limit. The barbers are noted for the enjoyability of their parties and this one fully sustained that reputation.

ST. STEPHEN'S TO LOSE ITS RECTOR

Rev. E. E. Williams Presents His Resignation to the Vestry of the Church and it is Accepted—Resignation Takes Effect November 15—Going Elsewhere.

Many of the friends of Rev. E. E. Williams, who were unaware of his intention in regard to the matter, will be surprised at the announcement that he has resigned as rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, a position which is considered to have filled with eminent satisfaction to his congregation and credit to himself for nearly two years.

Mr. Williams' resignation, to become effective November 15, was presented at a recent meeting of the vestry of St. Stephen's church and regretfully accepted. It is understood that Mr. Williams has received calls to several desirable churches, but has not yet decided which one he will accept. It is certain, however, that he will leave Escanaba soon after his pastoral relations with St. Stephen's church expire. He will continue to discharge his duties as rector up to the time his resignation takes effect, preaching his last sermons here on Sunday, November 13.

Mr. Williams' determination to withdraw from the Escanaba ministerial field will be regretted by not only the members of his own church but by many people of other religious denominations in the city, who have grown to know his ability as a clergyman and his worth as a Christian gentleman. Wherever he goes the best wishes and regards of these people will accompany him.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE TALKING ABOUT

"Just walk down the street any day and make it a point to overhear what the people you meet and pass are talking about," said a local street corner philosopher yesterday afternoon. "It's a ton to one shot that two or more adult women will be discussing dress and fashions or talking about their own or a mutual friend's real or fancied ailments, while the young girls will be gushing about somebody's new hat or party dress, or raving about their latest beau—'he's simply grand.' A group of men, on the other hand, will usually be found to be talking about the world's championship baseball games business or politics—very rarely about clothes or aches or pains. Funny isn't it?"

REMAINS OF TWO INFANTS BURIED

The remains of Frances J. Coran, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Coran of Loud's Spur, were brought to this city Thursday night and given burial in St. Anne's cemetery this forenoon. The funeral was held from St. Anne's church. The little one was 17 months old and died on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Coran accompanied the remains here and attended the funeral.

The funeral of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Beaudry, 928 Hartnett avenue, was held from St. Joseph's church at nine o'clock this morning, burial was made in St. Joseph's cemetery.

EMIL C. WICKERT PASSES AWAY

Emil C. Wickert, who was stricken with paralysis last Tuesday morning, died at his home, 420 South Jennie street, at 4:50 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Wickert's condition from the time of the seizure was extremely critical and there was little hope that he would recover. He was 59 years old and is survived by his widow, four sons and four daughters. Further details are necessarily deferred until tomorrow.

WORK FOR THE CIRCUIT COURT

Calendar for the October Term, Which Opens Next Monday, Contains 71 Cases--Of These 24 are Criminal--Term Likely to Be Long and Busy One.

LAST RITES FOR MRS. VALENTINE

Funeral services for the late Mrs. George Valentine, who died at the family home, 520 South Sarah street, Wednesday afternoon after a prolonged illness, were conducted at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the First Baptist church by Rev. F. W. Ainslie, after which the remains were taken to Lakeview cemetery for burial. Notwithstanding the bad weather, the funeral was well attended by friends of the deceased. The pall bearers were M. A. Haring, C. B. Whitney, A. J. Young, J. J. Sourwine, Harry Broad and James Nielson.

According to the number of cases that are on the calendar, the October term of circuit court for Delta county, which convenes next Monday, October 24, is likely to be a very long and busy one. There is a total of 71 cases scheduled for trial or settlement otherwise. Of this number 24 are criminal cases, 31 jury civil cases, 8 non-jury cases and 8 chancery cases. Of the criminal cases more than half are for violations of the liquor law in some form or another. There are a number of other cases that may be of unusual public interest. Among these is that of Orson La Salle, who is charged with assault with intent to commit the crime of murder, in connection with the shooting of his wife and daughter several months ago. Another is the appeal taken by Francis L. Baldwin from the judgment of Justice Glaser, sentencing him to pay a fine of $100 and serve a term of 90 days in the county jail upon conviction by a jury of having criminally libeled Chase S. Osborn, Republican nominee for governor.

The fire have originated chimney.

Following is the complete calendar as prepared by Clerk of the Court John A. Semer:

John A. Dix, Democratic candidate for governor of New York, is for a low tariff. But as the wall paper company of which he is a director asked 25 per cent more tariff in 1908, he does not seem to have become enough of a Hebrew to eschew "pork."

Republican administrations, with no misgivings about using national authority, have made the sugar trusts higher ups come down. The Democrats, with their preference for state action, would no doubt have been contented could they have gathered in a few local agents.

Few people realize the enormous change in railroad control in the past six years. Rebates to powerful corporations have been cut off, the poor man pays the same freight as the rich, an army of dead heads has been made to help, keep trains running, and a body representing the people has been given power to say whether rates are fair. All done under Republican administration.

A Democratic congress means another game of "pork" swapping between sections, with prize packages for Democratic districts. A Republican congress means continuance of the present scientific investigation to determine tariff facts on an impartial and business basis.

Few people who recall the industrial depression the last time the Democrats had a president and congress would vote for another dose. It is up to all of us to tell young men and newcomers to our shores a few cold facts about the dinner palls of 1893-97.

In view of the robbery and graft so prevalent in city and state governments, the biggest triumph in government work ever recorded in the world's history is the conduct of the Panama canal operations so far without breath of scandal.

HEARST PAYS A TRIBUTE.

William R. Hearst is erratic as a journalist and as a politician, but as an observer of national movements and as an interpreter of national inclinations, Mr. Hearst commands attention and consideration. Although always an opponent of the Republican party, Mr. Hearst has felt constrained to make this declaration with reference to present political movements: "President Taft's acts and Mr. Roosevelt's words have driven the swindling traction trust, the convicted sugar trust, the indicted beef trust and the corrupt bosses out of the Republican party. I approve of Mr. Taft's methods and his policy of quiet and effective performance."

Mr. Hearst further declares that as an independent striver for desirable political results he has no faith in the progressive pretenses of the Democratic party nor in that organization's self selected leaders. That Mr. Hearst's views of President Taft and the Republican party at this time are based upon well known facts takes nothing from his generous acknowledgement of his frank tribute to those whom he has heretofore aggressively opposed.

ATTENTION, VOTERS.

Although it is important to the people of Michigan to provide for the election of Republican state candidates at the coming election, and to secure the further and continued advantage of Republican legislation that have been given in response to Republican state platform demands, it is equally desirable to secure the election of Republican congressmen and to make certain the return of a Republican United States senator from this state.

The interest of the farmers and laboring men, and merchants and manufacturers of Michigan in this connection is by no means merely sentimental. The period of fearing and doubting and waiting that would follow Democratic congressional success in the country at large this fall would bring loss to every property holder in Michigan and to every employe and every employer to whom business activity is necessary.

The people of Michigan know something of the experience such a result would bring to them. Business doubt means business death, and the question as to what the future would bring in case of Democratic congressional victory is one that would find no immediate answer, but it would bring immediate consequences. Because of their interest in maintaining uninterrupted progress in safe and satisfactory directions, the voters of Michigan are more than ordinarily interested in the election of Republican legislative and congressional candidates at the coming election.

A FAIR EXPRESSION.

Almost 200,000 Republican voters of Michigan participated in the primary election. This great army of the representatives of every county and every township and every voting precinct in Michigan made their selection of the Republican candidate for governor after a primary election campaign of unusual vigor and unusual interest. Less than 23,000 Democratic voters participated in the selection of the candidate of that party, says the Saginaw Courier-Herald.

cial. Response to this very proper plea should serve as a pledge on the part of every Republican in Michigan to earnestly and loyally support his party candidate for governor. He was chosen by the people, almost ten voters taking part in the primaries of his party to one that expressed preference for his opponent. There is inspiration and life for this Republic and splendid promise for its endurance through largest confidence in the people and honest acceptance of their wishes.

HANCOCK EX-MAYOR NEVER A CITIZEN

A. J. Scott, One of Hancock's Leading Men, Discovers That He Was Never a Bona Fide Citizen of the United States—Prominent and Popular Story.

Hancock, Mich., Oct. 21.—A. J. Scott, president of the village and subsequently mayor when Hancock became a city, for seven years, supervisor of Hancock township before the city of Hancock was separated from it, for thirty-six years, and prominent in other official life, and in business and fraternal circles in Hancock, for many years, has just discovered that he is not a citizen of the United States, and has just made application for naturalization.

It is probably the most remarkable application for citizenship ever made in Houghton county. Mr. Scott discovered only a day or two ago that he was not a citizen, his previous belief that he was being based on the fact that he had served in the Civil War, which he thought naturalized him. He will get his papers in ninety days, the new law making this speedy action possible because of his having exercised the rights of a citizen through lack of information as to the real facts in the case.

Mr. Scott was born in Canada in 1848, and came to Ohio with his parents in 1859. He enlisted in Co. D of the Fifty-second Wisconsin regiment on March 10, 1864, and served until the close of the war, coming to Hancock that year, 1865. He was Hancock's first executive and probably would be at the head of municipal affairs yet were it not for physical infirmities which have almost disabled him in recent years. He has been village treasurer, assessor and chief of the fire department while not a citizen of the United States. And more remarkable yet, he has been on the bonds of postmasters and other officials. He was undoubtedly the most popular office holder in the history of the city.

Mrs. Grundy.

The first mention of Mrs. Grundy is found in Morton's clever comedy "Speed the Plow." Farmer Ashfield, at table with his jug and pipe, is talking to his wife on her return from market.

"Well, dame, welcome whome. What news does thee bring from market?" "What news, husband? What I always told you—that Farmer Grundy's wheat brought 5 shillings a quarter more than ours did." "All the better for her!" "Ab, the sun seems to shine on purpose for him." "Come, come, misus, as thee has not the grace to thank God for prosperous times, dost thou grumble when they be unkindly a bit?" "And I assure you Dame Grundy's butter was quite the crack of the market." "Be quiet, wool ye? Always ding dinging Dame Grundy into my ears: 'What will Mrs. Grundy say?' 'What will Mrs. Grundy think?' Canst thee be quiet? Let us alone and behave thyself pratty!"

No Mystery About It.

The other night after Harker was safe in bed there came a mysterious tapping below his window. Harker slipped out of his covers and cautiously raised the sash. "What's wanted?" he demanded, his teeth chattering. "I just wanted to tell you," came a muffled voice, "that there's a hand moving round just inside your cellar window."

Facial Contortions Bad Form.

A great many of our facial contortions are due to nervousness, just as we owe to the same cause equally obnoxious habits of tapping with the foot and handling small objects that happen to be within reach of restless fingers. All of these annoying little habits are due to a lack of repose and lack of training in early youth to acquire control of the nerves. So unconscious are the perpetrators of these tricks that they will actually find fault with other people for like habits and be ignorant that they themselves are guilty of similar bad breeding.

A Guide to Good Manners.

If you are puzzled about a question of etiquette and have not time to consult an older or more experienced friend or relative apply the Golden Rule—to do as you would be done by—for this will almost always bring you out of your difficulty with flying colors. The expression "a nature's gentleman" is often applied to some simple minded and unsophisticated man who is thus guided, for, whether he be gentle or simple, the truest good breeding is shown by our care for the feelings of others. The real "great lady" is as thoughtful and considerate for those beneath her in social position as she would be for royalty, though she would show her thought in a different fashion, and since we may all be "queens by love" it behooves us to be royally courteous and considerate. The brusque, rough woman who confounds a pleasant manner of speaking with insolence is greatly to be pitied, for she has thrown away her scepter and lost her crown.

There is always a welcome place for a good listener. If you are in this class there are a few rules to be kept in mind. First pay strict attention to the talkers. There is no worse breach of good form than the one young girls and young men, too, make to those others who try to amuse them than that of letting their eyes rove in search of somebody else or possibly of a mere escape. Pin your thoughts to the conversation. Do not let your wits go wandering into the why and wherefore of the talker's dress or business.

Be ready to answer any question that may be asked, for of course a good talker will try to engage his listeners in an exchange of ideas. Make it a point to rescue the interesting topic from an inglorious death due to the interrupting person. "You were saying that you saw," etc., is frequently a little thing to bring out a good story that might otherwise go unheeded. Every person can do that much. A casual, relevant remark is within any one's power, and the good listener with this ability is as necessary to a social gathering as an interesting talker.

Good listeners rarely have cause for regret or humiliation, and that is much in their favor. Then, too, by listening carefully and attentively you will gain a certain knowledge and valuable information that will in time undoubtedly result in an easy, self possessed ability to talk well. Indeed, there are many more good listeners needed in the social gatherings of our little world.

This is the plea for the rarely cultivated art of keeping silence while others speak. The silent ones should remember that it is the inveterate talker who is considered a bore. So the good listener should never despair.

Bedtime Hour For Guests.

Until the end of time it will probably be a mooted question whether guest or hostess should make the first move for retiring for the night. When staying in a house for the first time this is one of the most difficult points for a guest to decide, and it takes a great deal of tact and discernment to arrive at a correct conclusion. On the basis that a hostess orders the house and the guest conforms there is no doubt that the person whose home it is should make the first move. One who is staying in the house for the first time cannot be expected to know the habits and rules of the place, including the hour for arising, on which greatly depends that for retiring. In the summer house at country or seashore the chances are, if the host goes to town for business every day, that the whole household is up early. The hostess is certainly, as a rule, if her husband is a business man. In that case it is almost essential that they go to bed early. Logical as this conclusion may seem, a guest fears to suggest going too early to her own room lest she should seem to be bored during the evening, and thus it is when both really would like to turn in at a reasonable hour they and others are kept up by a desperate attempt to be polite.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT IN THE STATE OF MICHIGAN

Its Restoration to the Code is Not Favored by a Majority of Circuit Judges.

Capital punishment in the state of Michigan is about evenly divided in the favor of circuit court judges, according to a canvass made by the Grand Rapids Herald, although a preponderance of public sentiment does not favor restoring such punishment to the Michigan code. That paper wrote to the circuit court judges, and eleven were found to be opposed to any capital punishment and six in favor of limited capital punishment. Those in favor of the limited form were Judge Joseph W. Donovan, Detroit; Judge Frank E. Knapfen, Kalamazoo; Judge James O. Murfin, Detroit; Judge Morse Robnett, Detroit; Judge M. J. Connine, Oscoda; Judge James A. Parkinson, Jackson. Those opposed to any form are Judge Henry A. Mandell, Detroit; Judge Frederick W. Mayne, Charlevoix; Judge Chester L. Collins, Bay City; Judge Keeley S. Searles, Ithaca; Judge Peter F. Dadds, Mt. Pleasant; Judge Nelson Sharpe, West Branch; Judge Joseph H. Steere, Sault Ste. Marie; Judge Willis B. Perkins, Grand Rapids; Judge Clement Smith, Hastings; Judge W. H. North, Battle Creek; Judge Samuel S. Cooper, Ironwood.

Judge Steere's Views.

In setting forth his objections, Judge Joseph H. Steere of Sault Ste. Marie says: "Your favor of recent date is at hand stating that you are asking the circuit judges of this state to give an expression of opinion touching the advisability of a law providing for capital punishment in Michigan for certain offenses and requesting me to indicate whether or not I favor capital punishment in any case and my reason for the views entertained. "The occasion of your inquiry at this time is the fact that two murderers have just confessed to an atrocious crime in Grand Rapids and have been sentenced to Marquette for life. History shows that such atrocities occasionally occur in every country, savage or civilized, no matter what the degree of civilization or the severity of punishment. On reading or hearing of them the first instinctive thought is that no punishment for such wretches is too severe; that they should be made to suffer some of the anguish and pain imposed on their victims. Certainty and promptness in inflicting punishment, rather than extreme severity, produces the deterrent effect, hence the development of modern thought in dealing with the criminal classes. Capital punishment is inconsistent with our present ideas of a proper administration of the criminal laws.

"The problems presented by the criminal must be solved without the aid of capital punishment.

"Its enactment in any form I believe, would be considered by the majority of civilized people as a step backward.

"I certainly believe it would be, and that we should proceed along the lines of present day thought until it has been fairly demonstrated that our course is a failure. Extreme individual cases should not cause us to abandon the policy upon which, as a people, we have entered. Let us rather provide for more speedy trial and some changes in our system that will lessen the burden of 'the people' in a criminal trial without doing any injustice to 'the respondent.'

"I suggest these: Promptly upon the examination before the magistrate being concluded (within a reasonable time) the information should be filed and a copy served upon the accused; then within a reasonable time proceed to trial, granting a continuance only when necessary to secure a fair trial to the respondent, without waiting for the next term of court; then slightly modify the requirements as to 'reasonable doubt,' as the trial judge is now required to give it—allow 'the people' an appeal and have a reversal only when necessary in the interests of justice and not for technical reasons, which might or might not have affected the jury in arriving at their verdict.

"And in case of a verdict of not guilty, if it should be determined that the same was secured by unfair means, on the part of the defendant, permit a second trial.

"The foregoing sufficiently 'indicates' my position, reason therefor and remedy for the evils of our present criminal practice, and so I have cheerfully complied with your request."

JUDGE DECLARES WEDDING IS VOID

Hungarian Heiress Who Tried to Buy Fortune by Wedding An American May Not Get Cash After All—Claimed Now That Man She Married Already Had a Wife.

(The Mirror yesterday published an account of the event referred to in the following dispatch.)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—Following closely the climax of a hunt for a husband instituted last week by Miss Eugenie Schumaker-Sauer, the Hungarian heiress, known as "Miss Eugenie Adams," which was supposedly finished when she conducted Harvey O. Brown of this city to the altar for the sum of $200, Judge Charles S. Bundy of the Municipal court received a letter from Mrs. H. E. Dilks of Brooklyn, N. Y., expressing the belief that Brown, the bridegroom of an hour, is her husband.

Mrs. Dilks was deserted by her husband on Aug. 10. She saw Brown's picture in a New York paper and was impressed with the strong resemblance to her missing spouse.

Judge Bundy after learning the identity of the woman he married to Brown declared the marriage to be invalid under the terms of the contract entered into, which set forth that the couple were to separate and not attempt to communicate.

Judge Bundy characterizes the marriage of Brown and the Hungarian heiress as a "scandalous proceeding." He says that had he known their identity he would have refused to marry them.

"Mrs. Brown" left Washington immediately after the ceremony, announcing it as her purpose to proceed to Hungary to claim an inheritance which would have been denied her unless she returned home with a marriage certificate.

The Sixth Sense.

In a primary school examination over which I once had the pleasure to preside one of the questions was with regard to the five senses. One of the bright pupils handled the subject thus: "The five senses are sneezing, sobbing, crying, yawning and coughing. By the sixth sense is meant an extra one which some folks have. This is snoring." — Woman's Home Companion.

For the Children

Interesting Family of Five Clever Boys.

One of the most interesting families in the diplomatic corps and, for that matter, in the whole city of Washington is that of Count de Bulsart, the minister from Belgium. The children are great favorites at the national capital, where they have become known through their skill as linguists and musicians. The children are all boys, and there are five of them. Even the youngest is a good musician, for their education began at an early age. On occasions when the count and countess entertain the youngsters are often called upon to show their skill in music, and so well do they perform that their efforts have won universal commendation.

Who Was Touched?

The two players who know the secret remain in the room long enough for the trick to be made sure. One stands in a corner, and the other in the middle of the room calls out, "Ebenezer, do you hear?" Ebenezer says nothing, but listens attentively to hear who among the company speaks first. The other partner repeats the question, and still no answer. Some one will be likely to make a remark soon, and then Ebenezer will rouse up and answer, "Yes, I hear." "Then leave the room," says the other player, and Ebenezer goes out. The partner then makes a great show of choosing which one he shall touch, but of course ends by touching the person who first spoke after the game began. This done, Ebenezer is called in to say who was touched, and every one is puzzled to know how he can tell.

My Lady's Toilet.

The players are all seated except one, for whom no chair must be provided.

Each player takes the name of some article of a lady's toilet—her necklace, chain, bracelets, rings, comb, gloves, hat, shoes, gown, etc. One stands in the center as lady's maid and says, "My lady is going out and wants her hat." The hat must instantly jump up and spin around. If she forgets to do so she pays a forfeit. Each article must spin around when "wanted." Occasionally the lady's maid says, "My lady wants her toilet changed," when all the players must rise and change seats. In the scuffle the center player tries to get a seat. If she succeeds the one left chairless becomes lady's maid for the next turn.

The Ticket Collector.

One of the boys in the back of the room was evidently thinking of something besides his lesson. So the teacher, merely to attract his attention, put the question: "Harry, can you tell me where Noah was when the animals were going into the ark?" "S'pose he was takin' tickets," was the prompt response.

Corner Ball.

Four players stand on the four angles of a square and the four adversaries in the center. The ball is passed from one to another of the players in the corners and finally thrown at the central players. These last, if they can catch the ball, may fling it back. If the player in the corner hits a central player the latter is out, and vice versa.

The Thieving Magpie.

A few weeks ago a large tree in England in which several magpies had nested for years was blown down during a gale, and in a hollow which was unsuspected was found over $300 worth of articles stolen from various houses. The principal thing was a diamond ring worth $200. The largest article was a silver backed hairbrush.

All Together, Sing!

Sparrow, swinging on a branch, sang the softest trill.
Low and long it was, full of lovely meaning.
Robin, tugging at a worm, paused and wiped his bill.
Paused and perked his head, stood his feathers preening.
To sing his song it really seemed he had forgotten quite.
A bee that flew from rose to lily lingered in her flight.
Hummed and buzzed and hummed again, tried to give the keynote.
Wren, though busy with her nest, stopped to sing a wee note.
Thus reminded, robin chirped cheerily and sang.
Sparrow trilled his very loudest, sang his sweetest, best.
Wren, upon the arbor perched, looking at her nest,
Sang with robin and with sparrow till the garden rang.

THEATRICAL

THE PETERSON—The Marquette Mining Journal of Thursday had the following complimentary of "The Cow Puncher," which is billed to play at Peterson's opera house next Saturday afternoon and evening.

With those who like a show in which there is a great deal of gun play and near-tragedies every minute, "The Cow Puncher," played at the opera house last night, struck a responsive chord. "The Cow Puncher" is a western play of the orthodox type, the scene being laid on the plains among a people, all of whom carry guns and where the lives of legitimate ranchmen are ever beset with cattle rustlers and stage robbers. Of course there is the hero, who miraculously escapes death at the hands of his enemies several times in every act, and in the end is captured by an eastern maiden, who is a "tenderfoot" in name only. Harry Bannister plays the leading role and the cast compares favorably with those usually making up companies of this character.

THE PETERSON—"A Broken Idol" will be seen at the Peterson this (Friday) evening, the 26th. The piece comes direct from over a two years' run in Chicago, New York and Boston. It is in two acts and deals with the breaking of a Chinese idol in a chop suey restaurant by a party of tourists who are seeing Chinatown, during the Chinese New Year's celebration. The tourists think they have killed a real Chinaman, and they flee to Santa Monica, where the second act takes place, and things are not straightened out until the final curtain.

Among the cast are Don A. Macmillan, Perle Bartl, J. W. Carson, Edyth Valmaseda, Dorothy Gray, Jack West, Sydney Stone, Dan Russell, Madge Carson and forty show girls and broilers, including the famous "Chop Suey" Dancing Girls. There are numerous song hits, such as "China Doll," "Alabama" and "Love Makes the World Go Round." The piece is mounted lavishly.

"PIGS IS PIGS" AS AN "AUTHORITY"

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—"Pigs is Pigs," a humorous story that convulsed the nation some years ago, was referred to on Wednesday in the Supreme court of the United States by the government as an "authority" for its argument in defense of the constitutionality of the so-called "Carmack amendment" to the Hepburn rate law.

This amendment makes initial carriers of interstate commerce liable for damages to or loss of freight during transportation, not only on its line, but upon the lines of connecting carriers. It also prohibits contracts releasing the initial carrier from this liability.

Judge Joseph R. Lamar, Augusta, Ga., attacked the law as counsel for the Atlantic Coast Line railroad company.

New York Oct. 21.—It was learned here today that among the candidates for chief justice of the United States supreme court, whom President Taft is considering is Associate Justice Edward Douglas White. Justice White is being strongly urged for the place, and President Taft is giving serious attention to the recommendations. Justice White was appointed to the supreme court from Louisiana, and is a Democrat. It is believed the President will give great weight to political consideration in making his selection. While the president is considering both Senator Root and Justice White for chief justice, he has not as yet given up the idea of appointing Justice Hughes. Some time ago it seemed

CARTOONISTS MAY TOUR THE COUNTRY

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 21.—W. C. Morris of the Spokesman-Review will enter into correspondence with cartoonists of 150 prominent journals in as many cities in the United States and Canada, with the view to arranging a tour of the continent, so planned that every newspaper on the circuit will have the services of each man some time during the twelve months required to complete the journey. Every state, territory and province in America is to be visited.

"While the present plan is to treat only national subjects as developed in the news," Mr. Morris said in outlining the undertaking, "it is probable that the visiting cartoonist will also interpret the leading state or local stories in the city to which he is assigned at that time. Other features may be added.

"If the idea 'takes' with the cartoonists of the country, the plan will be submitted to owners and managing editors of from 100 to 150 journals, to be selected by a committee. It is planned to give one newspaper in each city on the circuit the exclusive services of every man assigned there, in addition to a daily travel cartoon by its own artist, during the progress of the tour.

"The primary purpose is to make the trip one of education and inspiration, familiarize the pen and ink men with all parts of the continent and study the makers of its history; also to acquaint the people with the work of America's foremost cartoonists.

"Details of itineraries, transportation, expense, and the management of the tour from a central office, probably located in Chicago, will have to be worked out; but there is ample time to do that, as the tour will not begin until next summer, unless it is decided by a majority of newspapers to start earlier in 1911."

Technically Gentlemen.

There is only one strictly technical definition of gentleman—a man entitled to bear coat armor. In the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries it was used with this significance, and the secondhand bookstall hunter will occasionally find "No-and-so, gentleman," written on dusty and stained fly leaves. But this definition has dropped out, for now any one may use arms who chooses to pay for an arms license. The inland revenue takes your guinea or two guineas without inquiring as to your right to bear arms. And, though the heralds' college has the right to grant arms to those who can afford to pay the necessary fees, it cannot prevent people from using arms to which they have no right.—London Chronicle.

Made Her Pay Well.

A certain queen of Hanover once upon a time when travelling stopped at an inn called the Golden Goose. She remained two days to rest herself and receive such entertainment as was needed and for the same was charged 300 thalers. On her departure the landlord besought her with obsequious deference to favor him with her patronage on her return.

"If you desire that, my dear man," replied her majesty, "you must not again take me for your sign."

Very "Respectful."

The villagers used to make love in a solid, stolid fashion. "I'm sure, m'm," said a servant to her mistress, "nobody could have had a respectful young man nor what Thomas has been to me. We're been courting two years come Martlemass, and he's never yet offered to kiss me!"—From "Recollections of a Yorkshire Village," by J. S. Fletcher.

A Similarity.

"He's quite wealthy and prominent now," said Mrs. Starvein, "and they may be rose from nothing."

"Well, well!" remarked Mr. Border. "That's just what I rose from—at the breakfast table this morning."

PEOPLE OF NATION HAVE A NEW FEAR

The greatest corn crop in all this history of American agriculture is now being harvested. During recent weeks there has been anxiety and doubt and fear in millions of American homes through the possibility that frost or flood or storm might interrupt or disturb the successful ripening of this mighty means of American wealth. When it became known that the corn crop was safe telegrams of congratulation passed to and fro between the great commercial centers of our country, and the leaders of great industrial enterprises felt relieved and happy.

Just one further cloud now darkens our country's commercial and industrial sky, declared one trade paper of national influence and standing, and that is the fear that a Democratic congress may be chosen at the coming election. This statement was not made in a demagogic spirit or with partisan spirit. It was made through recognition of the fact that a Democratic congress would bring with it doubt and question and fear as to our nation's future business policies; that it would cause business enterprises to be postponed and trade movements to be halted; that it would be accompanied by an immediate entrance upon the same sort of conditions that have followed the election of every Democratic congress in our country's history.

The ripening of the great corn crop was a source of joy and gladness to millions of American people, but the election of a Republican congress is necessary to assure the corn crop's value and to make its contribution to the well doing of American farmers and the happiness of American homes fully complete and altogether secure.

THE TARIFF ON PRIDE PROBABLY NEEDS REVISION

WHILE the Tariff question engages the attention of the lawmakers, it is appropriate that you should consider one phase of it which comes home to you, personally:

It is the TARIFF ON PRIDE---and, it is likely, this particular tariff costs you more than all other tariff schedules combined.

If pride prevents you from going "bargain-hunting;" from seeking the best market in which to buy things; from watching the want ads. for opportunities to buy and sell things; from advertising for boarders or lodgers, even though you need the income they would bring; from advertising your services, or used articles which can be spared, or from taking advantage of chances to save or earn money---then you are, indeed, paying a high tariff on Pride.

The matter of how much tariff you pay on Pride is in your own hands---and if there is need for revision, YOU are the person to revise it!

PRICES OF SUGAR BEETS CLIMBING

Sugar beets this year will bring a price of $6 per ton, instead of $5, according to the management of the Menominee River Sugar company. This is good news to the farmers for at this price they will receive several dollars more to the acre than at the old rate.

To those farmers who put in a crop of twenty to thirty acres, it will mean a considerable sum. The raise in the price of the beets will in no way augment the price of sugar, it is stated. It is expected that since the return to the farmers has been increased, larger crops of beets will be planted next spring.

My Corns Don't Hurt A Bit.

Tired, Ailing, Swollen, Smelly, Sweaty Feet, Corns, Callouses and Bunions, TIZ Cures Right Off.

Say good-bye to your corns the very first time you use TIZ. You will never know you have a corn, bunion or callous or sweaty, tired, swollen, aching feet any more. It's just wonderful the way the pain vanishes. Rub the corn—hammer it with your fist if you wish—no more pain after TIZ than if there had never been a blemish on your foot. Doesn't that sound good to you? Doesn't it? Then read this:
"The corns on either of my toes were as large as the tablets you make to cure them. Today there is no sign of corns on either foot and no soreness. It's an up-to-date Godsend.—Sam. A. Hoover, Progress, N. C.
Just use TIZ. It's not like anything else for the purpose you ever heard of. It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principle of drawing out all the poisonous exudations, which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely clog up the pores. TIZ cleans them out and keeps them clean. It works right off. You will feel better the very first time it's used. Use it a week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. There is nothing on earth that can compare with it. TIZ is for sale at all druggists, 25 cents per box, or direct, if you wish, from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill.

GREEK FREIGHT CAR THIEVES PUNISHED

Seventeen Aliens Rounded Up at North Fond du Lac by Chicago & Northwestern Railroad Detectives and Haled into Court—Fines and Costs Aggregate $1,360.

Fond du Lac, Wis., Oct. 21.—Seventeen Greeks arrested by W. H. Stevenson, a Northwestern railroad detective, as the result of thefts of various articles from railroad cars at North Fond du Lac during the past ten months, paid fines and costs amounting to $80 each in Justice J. L. McCadden's court at North Fond du Lac Wednesday afternoon.

This is the first time in the history of the county that so many foreigners have been arrested at one time. It is also the first time in the history of North Fond du Lac that fines and court costs, aggregating $1,360 have been paid. The amounts received by the railroad companies were: Northwestern, $682.52; Soo line, $215; leaving a balance of $462.48 to apply on the court costs.

The arrest of the Greeks was accomplished after a three weeks' investigation conducted by Mr. Stevenson, who, until a short time ago was a detective of the local police department. Mr. Stevenson spent many nights hiding in cars in the railroad yards at North Fond du Lac and finally secured evidence enough to warrant a raid on three houses occupied by the Greeks. At the time of the first raid, nine foreigners were arrested, and a second raid resulted in the arrest of eight more.

When the cases were heard in Justice McCadden's court on Wednesday, several of the prisoners stoutly protested their innocence. One man denied that he had stolen any butter, and said, "No, I didn't, I took chicken." Another was afraid that his friends in the old country would hear of his arrest.

nurses since the Teddy bear made his triumphant appearance. Indeed, in the affections of some of the small folk Teddy's nose is completely out of joint.

These dolls come in different sizes and prices. The kind most liked are about the size of the bear toy, and the body is of the same plushy material. The rooster's plinions are of red, yellow and green felt, and the top-knot is the familiar cockscomb carried out in bright red cloth. Topping the pretty face of a "little girl" bisque doll, this headgear effect is very amusing. The doll is jointed and may be twisted into all sorts of attitudes.

BAPTISTS SETTLE VEXED QUESTION

Management of the Student's Guild at Ann Arbor is Given to Committee—Its Director Will Not Be Tried for Heresy or Asked for a Theological Statement.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 21.—After much heated discussion at the Baptist state convention here the financial management and support of the Baptist Students' Guild at Ann Arbor was transferred from the state board of missions to a guild hall committee, which is authorized to canvass churches of the state for funds. Director Merrifield, of Guild Hall, however, will not be asked to make a theological statement and will not be tried for heresy.

"You are killing all the Baptist precedents of the ages," shouted Dr. A. W. Wishart, pastor of the Fountain Street Baptist church of Grand Rapids, when it was alleged attempts were being made to overrule him and others of his faction, the so-called "higher critics," who were battling to have the Ann Arbor Students' Guild continued under the financial auspices of the state board of missions.

The protest of Dr. Wishart grew out of President Jasper Gates' ruling that there should be no discussion of a motion that the recommendation that the state board of missions transfer the support of the student's guild to other auspices be adopted. The motion was adopted.

Dr. Wishart then moved a reconsideration which was lost by a close vote of 107 to 110.

In making his motion, Dr. Wishart said: "Denominational loyalty demands we must not refuse to support a board simply because we do not approve of everything done by it. The problems now confronting the Students' Guild are not the result of the teaching of Dr. Merrifield, but of a free scientific spirit. University atmosphere is not anti-religious, but different than that of any other town. As a result of meetings at the guild last year, several students dedicated their lives to Christian ministry and work in the foreign field."

OBJECTS TO MAIL SERVICE ON SUNDAY

Holland, Oct. 21.—Holland clergymen have started a crusade against Sunday mail service by preaching sermons on the theme "A Better Observance of the Sabbath." Although the attack was primarily aimed at the open postoffice, the Sunday newspapers, Sunday excursions, Sunday delivery of milk and cream, and the confectionary and fruit stores were severely censured.
Petitions will be circulated in a few days asking the Washington authorities to discontinue the Sunday mail service.

ECONOMY and QUALITY

GO HAND IN HAND AT OUR SEVENTH ANNUAL SALE OF

Summer Resort Pianos

It is always possible to buy cheaply made, inferior Pianos at cheap prices, but the big, important feature of our Summer Resort Sale is that it offers FINEST PIANOS of the WORLD'S LEADING MAKERS, many of them substantially new, AT BIG REDUCTIONS FROM REGULAR PRICES.

These Rented Pianos were taken right out of our regular stock. People who have Summer Residences usually demand and can afford the BEST. In some cases only the finest Steinways would do and for them were received about $100 each for the Season's use. Every Piano was used only in a first-class, private home—the moving and shipping were done by our own men, under our own supervision—and now that the instruments are back in our warehouses, with the dust of travel and fingermarks removed by our Expert Polishers, most of them cannot be told from brand-new-fresh-from-factory stock.

You Save ALL THE Rent

Read that line again and just think of what we offer you—Every dollar received as rent on these beautiful Pianos has been deducted from their lowest net cash prices. This means a clear saving to you of $50 to $100, according to length of service. Could you make $50 to $100 any easier? And please remember—in saving so much money you lose nothing in quality, for these Pianos would positively pass for new and we GUARANTEE them just the same. This is just as sure and positive a saving to you as though we handed you the amount in cash. Note the accompanying illustrations of a few of the Extraordinary Bargains.

In addition to the rented Pianos we are including in this sweeping clearance sale all our recently exchanged Pianos. These have been carefully repaired and refinished by our Factory Experts and are in finest possible condition. Included are such well-known makes as STEINWAY, GRINNELL, STERLING, KNABE, CHICKERING, VOSE, HAINES BROS., MASON & HAMLIN, CABLE, CONOVER, HALLET & DAVIS, etc. Regular prices $300 to $600, but look at our sale prices—

CARD PARTY AT FAIR IS A SUCCESS

There was a gratifyingly large attendance at the card party held in connection with St. Joseph's church fair in Peterson's hall Thursday evening and it was a complete success in all respects. So large was the attendance that nearly 100 tables were required to accommodate those who desired to participate in the card playing and compete for the honors that were awarded at the conclusion of play. Miss Josephine Walsh was the fortunate winner of the door prize, which was a ton of coal.

Notwithstanding that the card party was the great attraction, the other features of the fair were not neglected and they received a liberal patronage. The formal tea served from four until 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon was also well patronized. It will be repeated this and tomorrow afternoons. Tonight the drawings for the articles on which tickets have been sold will be inaugurated and will be completed tomorrow evening, when the fair closes. The fair thus far has been very successful.

THREE MEN FACE SERIOUS CHARGE

Mike Okonich, Frank Okonich and Paul Matakki have been placed under arrest and are now in the county jail awaiting preliminary examination on serious charges. Mike Okonich is charged with having raised an I. Frank Okonich and Matakki are charged with aiding and abetting Mike in his alleged forgery and attempt to realize thereon. In the possession of each was found a similar two days' time check, but they had not been raised as Mike Okonich's was. All the checks are held as evidence. The three men were arraigned before Justice Linden this afternoon and the cases were then continued until next Friday. Mike Okonich's bail was fixed at $500 and the bail of Frank Okonich and Matakki at $200 each. None of the men furnished the required security and they were remanded to jail. They had each worked two days for the I. Stephenson company.

BALLOON MEN MAY BE LOST

Serious Alarm is Felt for the Safety of Crews of Three Missing Balloons that Started in International Race—Canada Asked to Search for them

(By Associated Press.)
St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 21.—Alarmed at the silence of three of the balloon crews who left here last Monday in the international race of the Aero Club, the officers have asked the Canadian government to begin a hunt for them as it is feared that the men are in distress in the Canadian forest.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 21.—Theodore Schaeck, piloting the Swiss balloon Helvetia, which started in the international race here last Monday evening, landed at Marie, Pontiac county, Quebec, late yesterday afternoon, according to a message received here last night. Ville Marie is about 1,100 miles northeast of St. Louis. This is not thought to be the balloon sighted at Kishisnuk, Canada, 1,200 miles from St. Louis, yesterday. If the report of that balloon is authentic, it makes this international race the most remarkable in the history of balloon-

UNUSUALLY BAD ROAD REPORTED

Ishpeming Men Make Trip From That City to Escanaba and Return in Automobile and Report a Part of the Road in Very Bad Condition—The Details.

According to a report published in the Ishpeming department of the Mining Journal, there is a long stretch of road between this city and Marquette that is sadly in need of improvement. The article is based upon the statements of four Ishpeming men who recently made a trip to this city in a motor car and is as follows:

E. R. Nelson, George A. Newett, J. S. Wahlman and John S. Mennie, who went to Escanaba Tuesday in Mr. Nelson's touring car, arrived home Wednesday. The trip to Escanaba was made by way of the Menominee range, but the return trip was made by way of Rapid River, Gladstone, Wells and Tremary. The distance from here to Escanaba by way of Iron Mountain is 123 miles. The distance covered on the return trip was ninety miles.

Mr. Nelson said yesterday that some thirty miles of the road between Escanaba and Marquette is about the worst he has ever traveled over. In many places the wheels of the car would go down to the hubs in mud and there were several places where it seemed that the car would be helplessly stuck. He was told by Escanaba men before he started out that he would never get through. Only recently an Escanaba man, with a big six-cylinder car, tackled the trip. He made four miles of the thirty miles of rough road, but had to send back for a team to pull him out.

MEMONINEE HAS BIG BOY PROBLEM

Memominee, Mich., Oct. 21.—The "boy problem" is becoming a complex affair in the city of Memominee. In the beginning of the week three youngsters nearly blew themselves up with dynamite, five others were mixed up in a scrape caused by the reckless use of firearms within the city limits, which resulted in a bullet entering a barber-shop and wounding two employes, and are also suspected of being the same culprits who sent a bullet through the bedroom window of a private residence in the same vicinity. Another young hopeful demanded a ride in the automobile of Prof. Arthur Amsden, and when he refused, threw a stone which struck the musician in the face. As a result of these and other pranks, Chief English has been reading the riot act in the schools.

THIN PICKING FOR THE INDEPENDENTS

Independent cessals will have pretty thin picking after this month and some of the managers are only planning to maww one trip in November. Ore shipments are being cut down pretty fast and a leading shipper yesterday said that the movement after Nov. 1 would not exceed 2,000,000 tons. That will not much more than take care of the boats operated by the shippers. Last season the fleet carried 5,418,745 tons of ore after Nov. 1 and there was a good demand for tonnage in the grain trade during the latter part of theseason.

SOMEBODY SHOT DEER ILLEGALLY

According to the Ishpeming correspondent of the Marquette Mining Journal, two Ishpeming men who spent Tuesday in the Flatrock district, south of Ishpeming, ran across the carcass of a deer that had been shot either that day or the previous day. The carcass was found not far from the middle dam on the Flatrock river, in the heart of the district where the Stephenson company is conducting logging operations.

MILD WINTER, SAYS OLD INDIAN

"Mild winter, maybe. Mushrats no fat." These were the words of an old Indian who has resided in Marquette county for forty years or more on a visit to Marquette yesterday. The red man stated that it was an ax-lom with those of his race that there would be a mild winter if in the fall the muskrats were not fat.
