

COLLISION IS DEATH TO ONE

Engineer William Russell of This City is Killed in Wreck of Two Ore Trains Near Crystal Falls—Nobody Else Hurt—One Train Crew at Fault.

Through a head-on collision of two ore trains running as extras, William Russell, a well known locomotive engineer of this city, was killed about 5:30 o'clock this morning.

The collision occurred at Panola, a small station about four miles this side of Crystal Falls, and is stated by division officials here to have resulted from an overlooking of orders by the crew of one of the trains, which should have stopped at Crystal Falls.

It is stated that their orders were to wait for the other train at Crystal Falls, but that through some oversight the order was not observed and the train went right along and met the extra coming to Crystal Falls.

Jump and Is Killed. None of the other members of the crews of either train was killed or injured. It is stated that Mr. Russell jumped from his engine when he saw that a collision was inevitable, but that he was unable to clear the wreckage and was struck by an ore car, with the result that his back was broken and he was otherwise injured so badly that his death was almost instantaneous.

His remains were taken to Crystal Falls, where they were prepared for burial and will be brought here tonight and taken to his home at 523 Hale street. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

As soon as news of the wreck was received here a wrecking outfit and crew were sent to the scene. Both engines were considerably damaged, as were a number of ore cars. That the other men on the two trains escaped being killed or injured is considered remarkable under the circumstances.

Daughter Seriously Ill. Mr. Russell was 55 years old and had been a resident of Escanaba for about 28 years, most of which time he was in the employ of the Chicago Northwestern company. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Miss Lillian Russell. The latter has been seriously ill with typhoid fever for several weeks and her condition is such that it has been deemed advisable not to inform her of her father's tragic death.

Mrs. Russell was almost completely prostrated when she learned of the accident and its fatal results to her husband, but is bearing up bravely under the shock.

Mr. Russell also leaves three sisters, one of whom lives at Carbondale, Pa., the other two are in Germany. He was married at Carbondale on August 31, 1881, to Miss Elizabeth Holgate. Several children were born to the couple, but only one, Miss Lillian, survives. Mr. Russell was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the local lodge of that order probably will have charge of the funeral, for which arrangements remain to be made.

TALK ON INDIA IS MOST INTERESTING

J. Mohammad Ali, Chautauquan Speaker of Note, Entertains and Instructs a Large Audience at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday Evening Appears in Native Costume.

Intensely interesting, highly instructive and shot through here and there with keen satire or incisive humor, the lecture on "India," delivered in the First Presbyterian church Sunday evening by J. Mohammad Ali, was greatly enjoyed by a large audience. The lecture occupied just an hour and was largely an account of the life of the people of India, their habits, dress, customs, institutions, beliefs, etc. Its trend was social, economic and political rather than religious and handled in the most interesting way imaginable.

As an orator Mr. Ali is gifted. He has an excellent voice and a perfect command of the English language. While speaking he wore his native dress made of silk, with silver lace and gold embroidery, and upon his head was a rich white turban, the entire outfit representing the costume worn by men of high caste in India.

Mr. Ali made a hit with the men in the audience by delicately suggesting that the ladies remove their hats before he proceeded with his lecture. They graciously did this, whereupon Mr. Ali declared that they looked much handsomer with their hats off than they did with them on.

At the close of his lecture Mr. Ali stated that he hoped to come to Escanaba again and deliver a more extended lecture upon the same subject, but touching upon things and conditions not mentioned in the talk he had just given. Although a Chautauquan lecturer of note, Mr. Ali follows a commercial line of business, being a tea merchant.

H. G. BECKER TO LEAVE ESCANABA

After a residence of ten years in this city, Henry G. Becker will leave Friday night for Grand Forks, N. D., where he has accepted the management of Swift & Company's business for that territory. Mr. Becker did not accept his new position without a considerable amount of thought. He owns his own home in this city and has a large circle of friends in Escanaba that he regrets leaving, but the new position offers so many inducements that he could not refuse it. Mrs. Becker and the children will not go west with Mr. Becker, but will remain in Escanaba until Mr. Becker finds a suitable home for them in his new territory.

STRAWBERRIES LATE IN OCTOBER

In corroboration of the statement recently made by George Cobb that second growth strawberries are ripe in this county, P. M. Peterson today brought into this office a bunch of some of the finest and sweetest wild strawberries that has ever grown in this county.

Mr. Peterson has a piece of land along the line of the street railway between this city and Gladstone and while there on Sunday found the berry patch. The berries are all large and sweet and considering the time of year are a rare curiosity.

Mrs. Herman Flath of Castleton, N. D., has arrived in the city to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, the late Emil C. Wickert, which is to be held from the Wickert home tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

LASALLE PLACED ON TRIAL

ESCANABA MAN BEFORE BAR OF JUSTICE TO DEFEND HIMSELF AGAINST A SERIOUS CHARGE.

SHOT HIS WIFE AND DAUGHTER. His Case is the First to Come to Trial at the October Term of Circuit Court for Delta County—Calendar is Called—Six Criminal Cases Nolle—Others Held, Open, Passed or Continued—Many Cases Remain to Be Tried, However—Details.

In circuit court this afternoon the trial of Orson Lasalle, charged with assault with intent to commit the crime of murder, was begun and is now in progress before a jury, which was completed about 3:30 o'clock.

It will be recalled that shortly before noon on August 11, last, Lasalle made an alleged attempt to murder his wife by shooting her through the right breast at the Lasalle family home, 400 South Charlotte street, and that in the attempt his eldest daughter, Miss Albertine Lasalle, was also wounded, being shot through the left leg below the knee.

Lasalle was immediately arrested and placed in the county jail, where he has been ever since. He waived preliminary examination.

Wife and Daughter in Court. Both his wife and daughter have recovered from their wounds and were in the court room this afternoon when the case was called. Lasalle was arraigned this forenoon during the process of calling the calendar at the opening session of the regular October term of circuit court for Delta county and entered a plea of not guilty. Attorney H. J. Rushton is defending him, while the people are represented by Prosecuting Attorney H. R. Dotsch and Assistant Prosecuting Attorney N. C. Spencer. Not a great deal of difficulty was experienced in getting a jury to try the case.

Lasalle is considerably changed in appearance since the day of the shooting, for his face is now adorned with a full beard and shows the effect of his confinement through a more pallid color. He appears to be in good health, however, and is outwardly undisturbed over the serious charge upon which he is now being tried.

Several Cases Nolle. At the opening session of court this forenoon much of the time was devoted to calling the calendar and that process was continued during the first part of the afternoon session, at which a day calendar for each day of the week was also fixed.

Many of the cases on the calendar were passed, continued, settled or otherwise disposed of, but there still remains a long list of them to come to trial. Upon application of the prosecuting attorney, the following cases were nolle, the first five being cases (Continued on Page Six.)

ESCANABA HIGHS CORRAL ANOTHER

They Continue Their March Toward the Interscholastic Football Championship of the Upper Peninsula by Defeating the Manistique Team By Score of 21-0.

That Escanaba High school football team is showing some real class and incidentally demonstrating that it may be considerable of a factor in the race for the interscholastic baseball championship of the upper peninsula. Saturday afternoon the local players administered a sound defeat to the Manistique High upon the latter's own grounds, the score at the end of the contest standing 21 to 0 in favor of Escanaba.

The Manistique team played a good game, but was outclassed by the locals in almost every department of straight and trick football. Escanaba's goal was in danger but once, it is stated. Escanaba scored some points in every quarter.

Unfortunately the game was marred by accidents, which resulted in the injury of two Manistique players. Smith, playing right half, had his nose broken and Roberts, quarterback had one of his knees severely hurt. All of the Escanaba players escaped injury and returned home Saturday night, well pleased with their victory. Their next game will be with the Norway High. This will be played next Saturday and the result will determine the championship of this district.

LOCAL TEAM BEATS GLADSTONE HIGHS

Gladstone boasts of a pretty strong and fast High school football team, but the St. Joseph's High school team of this city is more than a trifle stronger and faster. At least that is the conclusion to be drawn from the result of the game played by the two teams at South Park Saturday afternoon, when St. Joseph's won by a score of 9 to 0. Although the local players were considerably outweighed by their opponents they more than made up what they lacked in weight by superior speed and knowledge of the game and their victory was hard fought for and well won. St. Joseph's made its first score in the second quarter and in the last quarter secured the only touchdown in the game. Schils for the local team distinguished himself by making a splendid goal kick from the 30-yard quarter.

EPWORTH LEAGUE TO HOLD MEETING

Announcement has been received here that the annual Epworth League convention for the district comprising Delta, Schoolcraft, Luce, Alger and Dickinson county will be held in Manistique on November 15 and 16. It is expected that there will be a large number of delegates present from various portions of the district and a very interesting and helpful program is in process of formation. Mayor Middlebrook of Manistique has consented to make an address of welcome in behalf of the city. Dr. Mitchell will welcome the delegates in behalf of the churches of the city and the president of the Manistique Epworth League will extend a welcome on behalf of the society. The Escanaba and Gladstone branches of the Epworth league will be well represented at the convention.

DIDN'T PLAY GAME AT MENOMINEE

The Escanaba City Football team did not go to Menominee to play the Menominee City team Sunday as had been planned. The teams may meet later in the season, after the local team shall have been reorganized and rounded into shape for real football playing. According to the Menominee Herald-Leader, the cancelling of the game scheduled for Sunday was considerable of a disappointment to the Menominee football fans.

ST. JOSEPH'S FAIR IS LARGE SUCCESS

After extending over five afternoons and evenings St. Joseph's church fair came to a close late Saturday night. There was a large attendance and great interest taken in the final drawings for prizes. Practically everything was sold and the fair was in its entirety a tremendous financial and social success. It is believed that when the accounts are all figured out the net receipts will exceed $3,000. Everybody connected with the fair is gratified over its outcome. Saturday night also saw the close of the watch and doll contests. Miss Anna Roser was the fortunate winner of the watch and the doll was captured by Miss Grace Berube. A very large number of votes were turned in by the numerous contestants for both prizes.

DR. CRIPPEN WILL DIE NOVEMBER 8

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 24.—The championship of the world belongs to the Philadelphia club of the American league. They clinched the big pennant fast on Sunday, 7 runs to 2 for the Chicago Nationals, and there was none in the overflow crowd to say that they had not won it fairly and squarely.

Five games were played, and the eastern youngsters took four of them by outbating, outfielding and outrushing the veteran Chicagoans. They "got the jump" at the start, and although Chicago punctuated their progress with a defeat on Saturday, it really did not change the situation a bit.

The Philadelphians were due. They won the American league banner in 1902, but there was no world's series that year. Five years ago the New York Nationals were too strong for them. So in this year of grace it was not in the cards that they were to be denied.

Riches For the Players.

While the series was not the most profitable ever played, it helps to simplify the high cost of living problem confronting even such heroes as the Philadelphians, to say nothing of the Chicagoans, with winter coming on. The players' share of the money amounts to $79,071.03. Of this 60 per cent or $47,443.15 goes to the winners, and $31,628.77 to the losers. As there are twenty-three players on each team eligible to participate, each of the Philadelphians is entitled in round numbers to $2,062, and each Chicagoan to $1,375.

The players shared in Sunday's receipts by courtesy of the managements of the two clubs, who conceded that if Sunday's receipts should be larger than those of any previous day the smallest receipts should be considered as accruing to the fifth game and the Sunday receipts accredited to the (Continued on page six.)

"I talked with our foreman yesterday. I spoke of the cost of living. He says he started in on less wages than I am getting and managed to save money. It seems almost impossible, but he began by making a schedule of his living expenses—those things absolutely necessary. What remained he called his profits, and used half for pleasure expenses, saving the other half. He said it was all due to the little system he used and knowing exactly what he spent.

Mrs. Anna La Piere, 512 Wells ave., left today for a two weeks' visit at Chicago, Cincinnati and Lafayette.

EDI
The main question in New York is whether Lyman Abbot as T. R.'s equilibrator will serve any better than the one Wellman had on the airship America.

Owing to the spotty nature of the market for explorers' lectures, Mr. Wellman should hoe his platform corn before the Indian summer suns turn into the chill winds of November.

If Mr. Wellman carries out his promise to try again, we hope he will start from the tip of Newfoundland where he will be away from the advice of the weather bureau.

Our political orators seem to be suffering either from elephantiasis of the mouth, or donkeyism of the hind legs.

In view of the stories about that $500,000 fund to buy votes against the New York race track bills, some to prevent crime than all the agencies of government.

"No public official has the right to beg newspapers not to publish all the facts.

"The light turned on graft and crime by the newspapers is the best protector of the public. The crook is powerless with the light shining upon him. Many a man dreads a prison term less than he dreads the publication of the facts in a newspaper.

"More men would beat their wives, if it were not for the newspapers."

Continuing Mr. Wayman says: "If the public is willing to allow grafters and corruptionists to occupy office, the public ought to be forced to read about it in the newspapers.

"Some persons would limit the publishing of a murder to the mere fact that 'Brown shot and killed Jones,' but would wish the motive or the 'red haired girl' behind the tragedy omitted. I believe the newspapers have the right to make the incident a story and the printing of all details. While such a story might tell other crooks how a similar crime might be committed, it would warn all good citizens to reload their guns for self-protection."

The printing of the news to serve a private or political end of the newspaper itself was condemned by the speaker. The real newspaper, he said, prints the news with the personality of the editor divorced therefrom.

According to the state's attorney, the newspaper does not owe it to public officials to report to them for consideration facts discovered by itself in regard to graft or crime, and is free to publish such revelations.

SHOOTS HERSELF THROUGH BIG TOE

Miss Matie Ehlers of Powers met with a painful accident last week when she accidentally shot herself through the big toe of her right foot with a 22 caliber rifle. Miss Ehlers was resting the point of the barrel on her foot and previous to placing the rifle in this position she raised the hammer ready to shoot a partridge. The bird was not readily seen and in an unexplainable manner she pulled the trigger and the rifle was discharged. It was unnecessary to amputate the toe, although it will be several weeks before she will fully recover from the injury sustained.

AUTO CHEAPER THAN THE HORSE

Contest Between Vehicle and Animal Has Proved This.

RESULT OF SIX DAY TEST.

Low Priced Car Pitted Against Equine Shows Some Interesting Figures. Summaries of Mileage, Disbursements and Depreciation on Each.

Complete results of the first official cost test ever held between an automobile and a horse and wagon were certified recently in New York. The figures show standards of economy in automobile operation. They are instructive to those who take a keen interest in learning how cheaply a well built car can be driven long distances. The auto not only won the six day test in a decisive manner, but covered almost three times as much ground at less cost than the horse and buggy.

Inasmuch as passenger mile cost was the basis of the test, it was decided that the automobile while not in operation should be locked up by the observers in the place designated by the contest board, making access impossible. This was unnecessary, however, for the reason that the car required no attention, no repairs nor adjustments of any kind throughout the entire test.

Gasoline and oil were the only items of cost, and these were procured along the route for the purpose of striking a fair average of retail prices. Since the horse was also "touring," the feed was purchased in the same manner to get liverymen's average price for feeding a transient boarder; therefore neither side had the advantage of wholesale prices, and the figures show accurate touring conditions.

Twenty per cent depreciation a year is allowed in the case of the automobile on a basis of 10,000 miles a year. This amounts to $180 a year or 18 mills a mile. Depreciation on the wagon, harness and horse is based upon an original cost of $275, the outfit lasting ten years and supposedly capable of ten miles' travel every day, making the depreciation a mile 7 1/2 mills. Following are the summaries of mileage, disbursements and depreciation on each vehicle:

Day	Miles	Gasoline	Oil	Cost
1.....	67.4	5	1	$1.00
2.....	76.1	5	1 1/2	.92
3.....	78.3	5 1/2	1	1.12
4.....	80.0	5 1/2	1	1.00
5.....	82.3	5 1/2	1	1.07
6.....	75.3	5	1	1.09

AUTOMOBILE		HORSE AND BUGGY
Day	Miles	Quarts	Pounds
1.....	25.5	12	20
2.....	25.5	12	20
3.....	25.5	12	20
4.....	25.5	12	20
5.....	24.4	12	20
6.....	21.6	12	20

As in every test, certain factors must be assumed. In this one it is held that the cost of shoeing, bedding and wagon grease will more than offset the omission of grease charges from the automobile's operating cost. In fact, the cost of shoeing a horse only once would buy enough of the best grease to run an automobile for a year. These costs, distributed over the actual mileage for each vehicle, bring the automobile net cost a passenger mile well within the two cent a mile guarantee.

Compound Suspension Wheels. The curious wheels of this heavy saloon limousine automobile are of the compound suspension type. This suspension makes the use of pneumatic tires unnecessary. The covering of the wheels is a highly compressed

NEW SUSPENSION WHEELS IN USE. leather. The vehicle carries twenty-three people and was recently presented to a Chinese military delegation in Paris. It made a journey from Brussels to Paris without accident and demonstrated on several rather rough roads an absence of jar and vibration that was commendable.

Valve Grinding Compound. In grinding valves a fairly good job can be done by applying powdered charcoal mixed with kerosene oil to the surfaces and grinding them in the usual way. Charcoal produces an extremely fine surface and, unless the valves are in very bad condition, requires but little longer in the grinding process than do most other materials commonly used.

Pure in the Can Pure in the Baking

Do you know that Baking Powder undergoes a chemical reaction in the process of baking which entirely changes the nature of the original substance? It's a fact. One of the greatest authorities on Chemistry in the country found that a loaf of bread made from a quart of flour, leavened with Cream of Tartar Baking Powder, contained 45 grains more Rochelle Salts than is contained in one Sedlitz Powder. Remember, this drug was not in the can. It was formed by the chemical reaction that took place in baking. That is why so many baking powders which produce impurities in the baking can be advertised as "absolutely pure." It may be pure in the can, but it is not necessarily pure in the food. CALUMET is absolutely free from every impurity. Food leavened with it contains no Tartaric Acid, Rochelle Salts, Alum, Lime or Ammonia. It is chemically correct. CALUMET is the only high-grade baking powder sold at a moderate price. Do not confuse it with the cheap and big can kinds, or the high-priced Trust brands. It stands alone.

MICHIGAN'S FOOTBALL SQUAD

Strong and Powerful Eleven.

Michigan's close game with the Michigan Aggies, in which the Wolverines were victorious, 6 to 3, should not be taken too seriously, as the Aggies have one of the strongest teams in years this season and in Hill the farmers have a player who continually can keep his team from being scored upon by his beautiful punting.

The game demonstrated one thing, and that is that Michigan has a strong defense, one that will be mighty hard for Pennsylvania, Syracuse and Minnesota to penetrate. If Coach Yost is satisfied with this defense he surely will develop an offense which will be equally effective. Followers of football should not take this contest or the one with Case as criterions of Michigan's strength. Yost is going to have a strong and powerful eleven and he is sure to have a team which will make things exceedingly interesting for Michigan's opponents. Whatever use Michigan may make of the changes in the rules this year, it is certain that the opportunities offered by the rule allowing unrestricted direct passes is to be taken full advantage of by the Wolverine eleven.

Yost himself doesn't say that he is going to use the direct pass exclusively, and probably he won't. But it is a good bet that the big majority of the plays upon which he pins his faith in the Notre Dame, Minnesota and Pennsylvania games will be plays in which there is no middleman—in other words, plays in which the quarterback is the man who calls the signals, and nothing more.

The Wolverine leader always has been strong for crossbucks and straight bucks by the halfbacks, and under the new code the chances for success of those plays seem to have increased immeasurably.

OHIO TEAM HOLDS MICHIGAN TO TIE

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 24.—Ohio State held Michigan to a 3-to-3 tie here Saturday, each team kicking a goal from the field. Ohio held her own in the first half, the score at the end of the half being 3 to 3. No scoring was made by either side during the first period. Ohio showing good form in blocking fake forward passes. Magidson in the first period made a brilliant run around end for twenty-two yards.

In the same period, Conklin, Michigan's right guard, kicked a field goal from the twenty-three-yard line from a bad angle. Wells of Ohio then kicked a field goal from his thirty-five yard line. He did this on the first down.

In the second half neither side was able to score, the final score standing: Ohio State, 3; Michigan, 3.

Blane went in for Boessel for Ohio State. There was a good deal of punting and Wells did his usual kicking. Thompson's toe was also in evidence. McMillan was laid out but soon resumed play, although his leg bothered him. Thompson made a forward pass to McMillan, who fumbled to Leybourne, but the fumble was not allowed.

Thompson made a forward pass, but it was incomplete and Michigan lost a down.

A forward pass, Wells to Barrychlow, netted eighteen yards. Thompson made another twenty-yard gain on a fake punt. Thompson's forward pass was intercepted by Wright on State's forty-yard line. Wells failed to gain and time was called.

EARLY SWEETHEART GIVES HER $10,000

Bay City, Oct. 24.—May Lodeholtz, who is now Mrs. May Eaton and resides on a farm near Lake City, has been left $10,000 by the late George Langworthy, of Buffalo, N. Y., who was Mrs. Eaton's childhood sweetheart.

The solicitor for the estate traced her to Mecosta county and found her mother, Mrs. Mary Lodenholtz, who lives on a farm on the old toll road in Green township, and disclosed the purpose of his visit. Lodeholtz is a German name, the last syllable of which means wood, and because the daughter tried to simplify matters by translating the name into English and calling herself Lodenwood, the agent had a hard task to establish the family's identity. His search led him to several states before he reached Big Rapids.

LANGFORD CLAIMS KETCHEL'S TITLE

(Special U. T. Service.)
 Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 24.—As Jack Johnson has not signified his willingness to accept any of the various challenges Sam Langford has hurled, the Boston negro has decided to become a champion by laying claim to the middleweight championship title.

According to Langford, the death of Stanley Ketchel, the champion, leaves him undisputed king of the middleweight division. He argues that he had the better of his recent bout with Ketchel and that while he did not knock out the white man, his showing proves that he is the best man of his weight in the world.

Should Billy Papke or any other aspirant desire to dispute Langford's claim, the negro says he is willing to fight out the issue and bet $2,500 on the result.

The loss due to disability of the professional man is frequently just as serious as is the loss to the merchant of his shop and stock in trade.

PRIMA DONNA FILES ABOUT IN BALLOON

Miss Perle Barti Makes a Successful Ascension in Peterson's Opera House—Soars Over Audience—Mechanism of Spectacular Feature of "A Broken Idol" Explained.

One of the prettiest and most spectacular feats ever accomplished in the Peterson opera house was the sailing Friday evening of Miss Perle Barti, the prima donna, over the audience in a balloon.

This balloon act is the first of its kind that has ever been placed on an Escanaba stage and many people who saw it are wondering how it was done, and will welcome an explanation. Miss Barti, in response to a request, graciously favored a reporter with a description of the workings of the ascension. She stated that an extension bar from the tree that was on the stage carries her out into the theater auditorium and it can be swung back and forth, or up and down, giving the appearance of the actions of a balloon going up and down in the air waves of the earth. The balloon ascension is the most spectacular feat of the show and made a decided success here.

"Do you get frightened when you are up in the balloon?" she was asked.

"My goodness, no," she replied, with a brightening smile. "I just love to do that, and I know the people like it. I have given instructions to the stage manager to let me stay out in the air as long as possible, but at that I don't think he lets me stay out long enough. I remember my first 'ascension'—we call it an ascension—it was at Michigan City, Ind., at a rehearsal before the opening performance. The setting was

STATE WILL FINE 200 CORPORATIONS

(Special U. T. Service.) Lansing, Mich., Oct. 24.—There are about 1,000 railroad, express, telephone and telegraph corporations which are required to report to the state tax commission annually, but about 200 of them have failed to comply with the law and report this year before Sept. 15, as the statute requires. Secretary George Lord of the commission is calling the matter to the attention of the attorney general. The law provides for the imposition of a fine of $500 a day for every day the companies fail to report after Sept. 15.

RAILROADS WILL INSURE BAGGAGE

Woes of that part of the traveling public which occasionally loses its baggage soon will be decreased, for the railroads are planning to put into effect a system of insuring baggage valued at not more than $100 free of charge, and for a small fee if worth more than $100.

This is one of the features of a set of rules prepared at Chicago with a view toward uniform baggage regulations. The joint committee which worked out the rules will present them to all passenger associations for adoption. In order to take advantage of the proposed insurance the passenger will be required to declare the value of his baggage before starting on his journey. In the event of value above $100 the passenger will be required to pay approximately 16 per cent of the excess baggage rate.

In percentage the new rule will figure about 1.5 per cent of passenger rates for every $100 of value declared. Should the passenger carry, for example, $1,000 worth of baggage an additional charge of 16 per cent of the passenger rate will be made.

CRISIS NEARING FOR OLD IRELAND

Toledo, Ohio, Oct. 24.—"On Nov. 15 next, or less than a month hence, the question of home rule for Ireland will be settled one way or the other. The world will then know whether Ireland is to have self-government or whether England is to be torn to pieces by the greatest constitutional fight the Anglo-Saxon nation has known since Charles I. was taken out and beheaded." This was one of the remarks made by John E. Redmond, the Irish leader of the nationalist forces in the English parliament.

SENDS 6 CENTS TO PAY SHORT POSTAGE

Washington, Oct. 24.—The treasury came into more than its own today through the act of a conscience-stricken citizen of Muncie Pa., who sent to the postmaster-general six cents in stamps in reparation of short postage in two documents transmitted through the mails. The stamps which were enclosed in a letter signed "Debtor," will be placed in the miscellaneous fund of the postoffice department and in due course turned into the treasury of the United States. It is presumed that the recipient of the documents long ago paid the shortage, but there is no way for the government to pass the money along.

BAPTISTS WOULD BAN CIGARETTES

Detroit, Oct. 24.—The Baptist state convention adopted a series of resolutions including the following: "We demand that the manufacture and sale of cigarettes be prohibited in Michigan. We recommend that Baptist ministers be trained in the principles of social hygiene so that they will be equipped to instruct congregations along these lines. We request that the state legislature formulate a plan of reforestation. We request that the United States government take up with Russia a treaty that will tend to promote religious freedom."

SCORE OF VESSELS SUNK IN HURRICANE

(Special U. T. Service.) Tampa, Fla., Oct. 24.—More than a score of small fishing vessels were sunk in Tuesday's hurricane, and in several cases their crews drowned, according to advices brought here today from Boca Grande, southern Florida, by a sailing vessel. Fishing camps on the exposed keys were also washed away, in some instances leaving no clue to the fate of their occupants. Havana, Oct. 24.—Reports from the vicinity of Cape San Antonio say the Cuban revenue cutter Cepedes has been wrecked, with the loss of the captain and all hands except two. An unknown American bark is stranded on the cape. The crew was saved. The Norwegian steamer Hames, the Cuban steamer RKA and many small craft are ashore on the northwest coast of Pinardel Rio.

The Pepper Vine. The most common and widely used of all spices is pepper. It is a native of the East Indies, but is now cultivated in various parts of the tropical belt of this hemisphere. The plant is a climber and has a smooth stem sometimes twelve feet long. The fruit is about the size of a pea and when ripe is of a bright red color. In cultivation the plant is supported by poles. In some localities small trees are used instead of poles, for the best pepper is grown in a certain degree of shade.

ROCK ISLAND SOLD TO CHICAGO MAN

Rock Island, located at the extreme northern end of the county, and separated from Washington Island by a narrow channel only has been sold to Chester T. Thordarsen of Chicago. The deal includes the whole of Rasmus Hansen's interest, and embraces practically the entire island with the exception of the small reservation in the extreme northern part owned by the general government, and which contains what is known as the Rock Island lighthouse station. There is a small tract on the east side owned by a transient, who at one time had manifested a disposition to sell to Mr. Thordarsen, but who of late has shown no disposition to do so. The deal was engineered by Arne Gudmundsen of the island, and it is understood that the former owners received their price, no attempt having been made to beat them down. It is believed that the other and remaining party will also dispose of his holdings in due time.

TEACH GIRLS TO CARE FOR CHILDREN

(Special U. T. Service.) Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 24.—Having already pledged themselves to woman's suffrage, the conservation movement and the insistence that Michigan history be taught in Michigan schools, in the State Federation of Woman's clubs is now likely to go on record in favor of housekeeping teaching in all state schools; city and rural. Mrs. Nina Delong Sands of Pentwater, starts the new movement. She believes girls should be taught domestic science, cooking and the care of children while in the public schools. The federation, judging from the applause given Mrs. Alice Guysl, of Detroit, will also work for personal hygiene, medical inspection, school nurses, playgrounds and better equipment for schools in the larger cities of Michigan. There is no other form of protection in the world where so much is secured at so little cost as in accident and health insurance. And there is no other where it is so much needed. Any man of intelligence will concede this if the facts are properly brought home to him. Let him be made to feel that in going without such protection he is guilty of a most unbusinesslike course and of great folly.—Eastern Underwriter.

Our Daily Short Story

Restored Confidence
By DANIEL A. GREENE
Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

Paul Kaisarovitch was sitting in his room in St. Petersburg when he heard the tread of a number of persons on the staircase coming up. Every vestige of color left his face.

There was a great surprise in store for Kaisarovitch. The first person to step into the room was Peter Eukoff, who was not only a member of the same revolutionary circle as himself, but his intimate friend. Eukoff said to the officer in charge of the police force, nodding toward Kaisarovitch, "There is your man."

"Peter," gasped Kaisarovitch, "what is the meaning of this? Can it be possible that you are a traitor?"

"No; I am not a traitor, for I entered the circle in order to inform the government of its treasonable designs."

Kaisarovitch was led away muttering a curse on the head of the man who had betrayed him. He was taken to the office of the minister of police, where he underwent a searching ordeal. Asked about the circle of which he had been a member, not one word would he say. Torture was applied, but he endured it without giving up any information.

When the next gang of political prisoners went to Siberia Kaisarovitch was among them. No information as to whether others of his circle had been arrested or if so what had been done with them reached him. His imprisonment was embittered by the fact that a man he had loved had betrayed him. His faith in anything good had been blighted. His friend had been so much to him that he had no thought of revenge. He never wished to see Eukoff again, and if he should be felt that the sight would be simply melancholy.

One day while Kaisarovitch was brooding there came a sound of a stroke on a metal pipe running through the prison for the purpose of heating it. He thought nothing of it till two strokes were given in quick succession, then two others and two others, when he knew that some one was striking the pipe either above or below. He had learned the code by which prisoners communicate by means of these pipes and listened. What he heard he judged to be a call. But the sounds would be heard in other cells besides his own. He did not think the two strokes together to be for any special person, but a general invitation for attention. Presently the sounds began to indicate letters under the code. The letter P was given, then a U L in succession. Paul is a common name in Russia; and Kaisarovitch did not consider for a moment that any one was calling him. But when the letters "Kaisarovitch" were indicated he was astonished. He had no friends among the prisoners and could not imagine who could have anything to communicate to him. The only thing he had in his cell to hammer with was the sole of his shoe, and with this he spelled out the words "Who is it?"

The answer caused Kaisarovitch to clutch his forehead in dread lest his sufferings had made him mentally an imbecile. The name given was that of Peter Eukoff.

When Kaisarovitch regained his equanimity he had lost a part of what had followed the name. What he caught was this:

"Noble conduct. It has strengthened your friends in their confidence in human nature and that enough true men and women exist to make Russia free."

Paul took up his shoe and telegraphed back as follows:

"Is this Peter Eukoff, who betrayed me?"

The answer came: "You were betrayed to save your companions. Arrests were to be made among us that would have divulged all our purposes. Ten of us agreed that if we could concentrate suspicion upon you the government might kill you, but could never extort a secret from you. It was agreed that I should gain the confidence of the government by informing on my best friend and name as members persons not of the circle and who would have time to get away. No one of us has suffered except you, and I am here to save you."

Of the different causes for rejoicing contained in this message the fact that the man Paul loved had done the apparent act of treachery for a purpose was the chief. Of all the moments of Paul Kaisarovitch's life this was the happiest. He telegraphed back:

"I glory in my sufferings since I have saved my friends and have my confidence in you restored."

Peter Eukoff had promised the minister if he would send him a supposed prisoner to Siberia he would get from certain prisoners there information the government very much desired. Eukoff was sent in chains, but with a letter to the governor of the prison stating that he was really a spy on other prisoners. In this way he obtained access to Kaisarovitch and secured permission to take him to a certain point where information was to be derived through his influence. When the two men got beyond the prison guards they set off through the wilderness and after many months of suffering reached the boundary of Sweden. There they found other political exiles, who helped them with funds to reach America. Kaisarovitch is now worshipped almost as a God by the revolutionists, and Eukoff is considered one of their most efficient workers.

THE TARIFF ON PRIDE

PROBABLY NEEDS REVISION

WHILE the Tariff question engages the attention of the lawmakers, it is appropriate that you should consider one phase of it which comes home to you, personally:

It is the TARIFF ON PRIDE---and, it is likely, this particular tariff costs you more than all other tariff schedules combined.

If pride prevents you from going "bargain-hunting;" from seeking the best market in which to buy things; from watching the want ads. for opportunities to buy and sell things; from advertising for boarders or lodgers, even though you need the income they would bring; from advertising your services, or used articles which can be spared, or from taking advantage of chances to save or earn money---then you are, indeed, paying a high tariff on Pride.

The matter of how much tariff you pay on Pride is in your own hands---and if there is need for revision, YOU are the person to revise it!

NEW OFFICIALS OF THE C. & N. W. KNOWN HERE

Interesting Facts About W. A. Gardner and W. D. Cantillon--Also About Marvin Hughitt.

William A. Gardner, the new president of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, and W. D. Cantillon, the new general manager, are both quite well known in Escanaba, the headquarters of the Peninsula division, which they frequently have had occasion to visit.

Mr. Gardner, Mr. Hughitt's successor, has the reputation of being one of the best operating railroad men in the service. He has had just one ambition and that was to eventually become, through merit, the head of what he believes to be the best railway system in the United States. In the gaining of this ambition he has steadfastly refused preferment on other roads, which would have led him to the presidency much earlier than on the road which he loves best.

He has spent the greater part of his life in the service of the Northwestern, starting as telegraph operator and being rapidly promoted through every step of the operating department, until he now is regarded as one of the ablest and most efficient railroad officials of the United States. He is also a director of the Western Trust and Savings bank, president of the Industrial club, and a member of the principal clubs of Chicago. He lives in Evanston.

First Class Subordinate.
"I always have tried to be a first class subordinate" said the new president when asked his motto for success. "I came to the Northwestern first in 1878, after leaving a position as telegraph operator in the local office of the Illinois Central, where I was getting $100 a month, to take a position with the division superintendent because I thought the opportunities for promotion were better. I have been here about all my life and have filled about every job there was to fill in the operating department, as well as I knew how. That's about all there is to it."

Mr. Gardner was born at Gardner, Ill., fifty-one years ago, and learned telegraphy on the Chicago and Alton and later on the Illinois Central. In 1885 he was appointed assistant superintendent of the Wisconsin division of the Northwestern, five years later superintendent of the same division six years later assistant general superintendent; in 1899 general manager, and in 1906 vice president. Cantillon a Wisconsin man. Mr. Cantillon is a Wisconsin man.

born in Janesville in 1869. He has had a rapid rise in the railroad business. He started as a boy of 17, working as a bridge builder. Within a year he was a brakeman, and thereafter he passed through all the grades in the operating department to his present position.

While he was superintendent of the Wisconsin division, Mr. Cantillon resided in Milwaukee, and took an active part in civic and political affairs. In 1899 Mayor David S. Rose appointed him a member of the police and fire commission.

Both Mr. Gardner and Mr. Cantillon belong to the new type of operating officials, aggressive and hard-working, but tactful and disposed to meet the public half way in matters of dispute. Mr. Cantillon is a brother-in-law of Edward Hyzer, general counsel of the railroad.

Relative to Marvin Hughitt.
In this connection a few words concerning Marvin Hughitt, the retiring president are pertinent.

Mr. Hughitt joined the official staff of the Northwestern in 1872 as general superintendent, was made a director in 1887. He has thus been the executive head of the company throughout the period of its greatest development, and retired from the presidency at the time of the practical completion of one of his greatest achievements, the new $20,000,000 passenger terminal in Chicago.

Like his successor he started in business life as a telegraph operator, although not at first in the railroad service. He was born in Genoa, N. Y. Aug. 1, 1837.

When he entered its service the Northwestern had 1,500 miles of track and earned gross $11,000,000 a year. Now its mileage, including subsidiary companies, is over 9,500 and its gross earnings for the last years were over $74,000,000.

He still remains in the service of the road, for upon his retirement as president he was elected chairman of the board of directors.

WHY SHOULDN'T THE STATE BUY BROOMS?

Lansing, Oct. 24.—The superintendent of the Michigan Employment Institution for the Blind at Saginaw in a letter to Auditor General Fuller asks why it is that the state does not buy its brooms of that institution.

The state purchases brooms from several firms, but buys none from the state institution, and the institution is compelled to sell its output and hire traveling salesmen. Auditor General Fuller says that the scheme is a good one and the matter will be laid before the state board of auditors.

WANTS FLOWERS ON HIS GRAVE

Washington, Oct. 24.—John S. Farrell, a grocer who died last October, set aside $150 in his will as a fund for the decoration of his grave. He stipulates that $3.75 worth of flowers shall be placed on the grave twice a year for twenty years. The money is to be deposited in two banks. Farrell's will has just been probated. The rest of his $1,000 estate is left to charity and to his mother.

Too Talkative.

The following story is told of the famous painter Makart: The artist was a very passionate chess player, but he did not like his adversary to utter a single word during the progress of a game. A stranger who was very anxious to get on intimate terms with the famous artist thought to be able to achieve his object by means of the royal game. After many tries he succeeded at last in getting an introduction to Makart, and one day the latter consented to play a game with him. Being well aware of the fact that his adversary was very much averse to any talk during the game, not a word was spoken, and even the word "check" was never spoken. All the stranger dared to do was to touch his adversary's king when he put that piece in check. The game ended in Makart being mated, when the stranger quietly said "checkmate." Makart rose very excitedly, threw the pieces off the board and, giving his opponent a fierce look, got off his chair, turned his back to the stranger and exclaimed "Prattler!"

Curious Way of Cooling Water.

The average native woman in the interior of Nicaragua may appear enervated and listless, but her method of cooling water is strenuous indeed. She fills a half gallon earthenware jar about two-thirds full. The jar is made of baked clay and, not being glazed, is partially porous, so that it soon becomes moist on the outside. By means of two leathern straps firmly attached to the neck of the jar the woman causes the same to rotate swiftly in the air. The mouth is wide open, but the centrifugal motion keeps the water from flying out. The endurance shown by the Nicaraguan women of the poorer class in this form of calisthenics is said to be marvellous. When, in the opinion of the operator, the water is sufficiently cooled she stops the movement by a dexterous twist of her wrist and hands the jar to the person that has been waiting to quench his thirst. By this process tepid water can be reduced to the temperature of a very cool mountain spring. —New York Press.

An Unmanned Lightship.

There is stationed off the island of Islay, on the west coast of Scotland, at the Otter rock an interesting lightship. It is unmanned, yet it can be relied on to display the warning light to guide the mariner on this dangerous coast. It is a very ingeniously constructed vessel and the only one of its kind. In its two steel tanks sufficient gas can be stored to supply the vessel for several months. Experiments have shown that the light may be dependent upon to burn continuously for months at a time. The approximate duration of the light can always be predetermined, and there is no danger whatever of the light being extinguished by wind or spray. The light is visible at a distance of from eight to twelve miles. The lightship also has a bell, which is made to ring automatically by means of an ingenious device that utilizes the gas as it passes from the tanks to the lantern to work the bell clapper. —Harper's Weekly.

fourth contest, the last in which the players had a financial share.

Total Receipts $173,980. The total receipts for the series were $173,980. The two clubs' share $38,755 each, while $137,398 goes to the national commission. The total paid attendance was 125,219 persons.

The day was bright and the weather of the Indian summer variety. Ground rules, as usual were necessary. Philadelphia took the lead at the outset, when Hartzel, who went to left field, while Lord played center in place of Strunk, singled. The Philadelphians present cheered, for that was exactly the reason that Topsy was played instead of Strunk. He stole second while Lord was striking out and brought in the first run when Collins hit to center for one base. Brown struck out Lord and Davis in this inning.

Cubs Tie the Score.

Chicago came right back in the second, when Chance doubled to left, took third on an sacrifice and scored when Steinfeldt delivered a belated hit.

In the third and fourth stanzas the Philadelphians were not threatening, but Coombs did some stellar pitching to save himself from trouble in Chicago's half of the fourth. Two hits and a pass had filled the bases, with one out, but the young Philadelphian, settling to his work, fanned the always to be feared Tinker and Archer. The easterners assumed the lead in the fifth and were never headed thereafter. Steinfeldt's fumble gave Murphy a life at first. Barry sacrificed and Lapp, who donned the catcher's mitt in place of Thomas, sent him home with a single.

Nationals Go to Pieces.

The Chicago team went to pieces in the eighth. Brown held Coombs too lightly and the latter singled, but later was forced by Hartzel. Lord doubled and Hartzel scored, following which Collins rapped out another two bagger and Lord crossed the plate. Collins taking advantage of the confusion in the Chicago camp, stole third, but was out at the plate when Baker hit weakly to Zimmerman. Davis was allowed to walk, placing runners and first and second. Then Chicago blew up. Murphy singled to center and Baker, scored from second. Davis was at Baker's heels, and Hofman, who retrieved the hit, threw a block away from Archer, and Davis scored. Murphy had reached second and stopped, but Umpire O'Day invited him to take another base under the ground rules, Hofman's wild heave having bumped the grandstand. Just to top off the farce, Brown delivered a wild pitch and Murphy came home. A moment later Brown gave Barry a base on balls, but Lapp ended the hilarity with an easy grounder.

Chicago Takes Brace Too Late.

In their half of this inning Chicago took a desperate brace and aided a run to their score, but that was all. Sheppard, the head of the batting list, doubled to left and went to third on Schulte's out. Hofman missed three good ones, but Captain Chance produced the needed hit and Sheppard scored. Zimmerman ended the opportunities of this inning with a long fly to left.

Coombs tightened up in the ninth. Steinfeldt and Tinker hoisted to Lord Archer made his first hit, but was forced at second for the last out of the series when Kling, who batted for Brown, sent an easy grounder to Barry.
