AIRMEN SAFE SET NEW MARK

Hawley and Post of the Lost Balloon America II. Come Safely to Land After Being in Air 46 Hours and Traveling 1,600 Miles—Search for Them Ends.

Chicoutimi, Que., Oct. 27.—Aeronauts Hawley and Post, who left St. Louis in the balloon America II, nine days ago and who have been believed to have been lost in the Canadian wilderness, arrived here last night under an escort party of trappers. They landed on the mountain side in Lac Du Blanc de Sable township. The trappers brought them in a canoe to Stambrose and then forty miles over rough country to this village. The balloon America II, made a long trip and was in the air forty-six hours. Though the distance travelled was about 1,600 miles the place where the landing was effected was but 1,355 miles from St. Louis. The two men left this morning for Quebec, where they will arrive at six o'clock tonight.

An Earlier Dispatch.

New York, Oct. 27.—Alan R. Hawley and Augustus Post, the aeronauts of the balloon America II, and for a search had been started in the Canadian wilds, are safe and have established a new world's record for sustained flight. They traveled approximately 1,355 miles.

The aeronauts came to earth in Chicoutimi county, Quebec, last Wednesday, but were not heard from until last night, when telegrams sent from St. Ambrose, Quebec, reached New York. The balloonists started from St. Louis with nine other aerial crews in the international contest Monday, Oct. 17. All the others had reported.

Two messages from Hawley and Post were received early last night. One was to William Hawley, brother of the aeronaut; the other to Samuel F. Perkins, pilot of the balloon Dusseldorf II, which until last night had been considered the winner.

Remarkable Search Ended.

To message to Hawley read: "Landed in the wilderness a week ago, fifty miles north of Chicoutimi. Both well. (Signed) Alan." Perkins message read: "Landed on the Paribonka river, north of Lake Chilagana, the 19th. All well; returning. (Signed) Hawley. Post."

With the receipt of the news of the safety of the men there ended a search which was regarded by many as almost hopeless and in which the governments of this country and Canada in addition to the agents sent by the St. Louis Aero club of America and William Hawley, the United States revenue cutter service, the army signal corps, the Hudson Bay company and other agents were either scouring the Great Lakes or were already entering the dense Canadian forests.

Reward increased to $7,000.

Clifford B. Harmon, a wealthy amateur aviator of New York, had offered $1,000 to anyone finding Hawley and Post dead or alive, and this was increased last night by subscription to more than $7,000. At the international aviation meet, nearly $2,000 was subscribed among the aviators yesterday afternoon, headed by $500 by Glenn H. Curtiss.

MINNESOTA TO HONOR JOHNSON

(Special U. T. Service.)

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 27.—The first definite steps looking to the erection of a memorial to the late Governor John A. Johnson were taken at a meeting of the memorial commission here today. The memorial, which is to be erected with a fund subscribed by the people of Minnesota, will consist of a bronze statue of Governor Johnson, mounted on a pedestal of Minnesota granite. It will stand in the state capitol grounds.

EAGLE PURSUES TWO CHILDREN

Aurora, Ill., Oct. 27.—While talking over stories they had heard of great eagles swooping down and carrying off children, Eva and Anna Brummel, the little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Brummel, who live near Eola, discovered one of the big birds making for them as they were driving the cows in from a field. They ran screaming to their father, who shot the bird, which measured eight feet from tip to tip.

MOVE TO DISMISS THE BALDWIN CASE

Attorneys for F. L. Baldwin Ask That Criminal Libel Suit Against Him Be Quashed—Motion is Yet to Be Argued in Circuit Court, Now Sitting Here.

Attorney A. H. Ryall of this city and Judge C. R. Brown of Marquette have filed in the circuit court now in session here a motion to quash the libel suit brought against Editor Francis L. Baldwin of the Escanaba Journal, as the result of an article published in that paper during the recent primary campaign, in which the character and integrity of Chase S. Osborn, Republican candidate for governor, were assailed.

Mr. Osborn immediately swore out a complaint against Mr. Baldwin and the case was tried before Justice Emil Glaser and a jury, with the result that Mr. Baldwin was convicted and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and serve a term of 90 days in the county jail. From this judgment Mr. Baldwin took an appeal to the circuit court for this county and the case is on the calendar for this term.

The motion to dismiss the case, which is based upon the claim that no offense recognized by the laws of Michigan has been committed, will be argued before Judge Flannigan within a short time, but the exact date as yet has not been set. It is understood that if the motion is denied, the next step of the defendant and his attorneys will be to file application for a change of venue. It is not at all likely, in any event, that the case will be heard on its merits at this term of court.

This case has attracted much interest throughout the state, as Mr. Osborn, now making the race for governor on the Republican ticket, has personally pushed the prosecution thus far and has declared that he will fight it through. Mr. Osborn was the principal witness against the defendant at the original trial of the case in Justice Glaser's court.

LOST BOY IS STILL UNFOUND

Up to 4:15 o'clock this afternoon Rene Chaille, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chaille, who disappeared from his home near Newhall last Monday, had not yet been found. It is now believed that the child was actually lost in the woods surrounding the Danforth settlement and that he must have perished. Parties of men have for three days been industriously searching for the lost boy, but thus far have found no trace of him.

No Bloodhounds Available.

Chief of Police Iversen, acting for R. E. MacLean and C. W. Kates, who volunteered to defray the expenses, attempted yesterday and last night to secure bloodhounds to be used in the search, but failed. Chief Iversen telephoned inquiries for bloodhounds to Green Bay, Marquette, Sault Ste. Marie and Munising but from each place the answer came that no such dogs were to be had. He also telegraphed the police authorities at Chicago, Minneapolis and La Grange, Ill., with a like result. It was supposed that bloodhounds could surely be obtained from La Grange, but the chief of police of that city wired back that he no longer had the animals.

Mayor Sends Out Men.

Mayor Greenboot, upon learning this morning that bloodhounds were unobtainable, took it upon himself to engage an automobile and several expert cruisers at his own expense and sent them to the district where the boy was lost. Many other men are also assisting in the search, but thus far no trace of the boy, living or dead, has been found.

TO BE BURIED AT HIS FORMER HOME

Funeral services over the remains of the late William Russell, killed in a wreck on the Chicago & Northwestern railway near Crystal Falls last Monday morning, were conducted in the First Presbyterian church this afternoon by Rev. P. B. Ferris. The remains will not be buried here, as at first intended, but will be taken to Carbondale, Pa., the former home of the deceased, for interment. They will leave here tonight and will be accompanied by relatives of the dead man, who came here to attend the funeral. Mrs. Russell will be unable to go. Members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers acted as pallbearers.

ROOSEVELT IS FIFTY-TWO TODAY

(By Associated Press.) Utica, N. Y., Oct. 27.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt is 52 years old today, but he is not worrying about it and might not even have given it a thought if his attention had not been called to it. He is spending the day in campaigning in this district.

SNOW FALLS IN CHICAGO TODAY

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 27.—Snow fell here today for a short time and the weather forecast says that there will be a sharp drop in temperature. Calumet, Mich., Oct. 27.—The first snow of the season fell here today. About three inches in two hours was the record made.

YEGGMEN LOSE OUT CRACKING A BANK

(By Associated Press.) Galva, Iowa, Oct. 27.—Robbers wrecked the vault of the Galva State Bank early today, but were unable to open the safe. They secured about $35. A note was left by them saying that the bank was indebted to them for a balance of $25 owing to the fact that it cost them $60 for expenses.

ALFRED NAULT WEDS ISHPEMING GIRL

Miss Edith Decaire of Ishpeming and Alfred Nault of Escanaba were united in marriage Tuesday morning at St. Joseph's church, Ishpeming, Rev. E. P. Bordas, the pastor, officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Louise Ver-ville of Maas City, and Joseph Decaire, brother of the bride, was best man. Following the marriage the bride and groom were entertained at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Decaire, at Frechtown. Mr. and Mrs. Nault left Ishpeming that evening for Escanaba, their future home.

VICTORIA, AUSTRALIA, HAS TWO MILLION DOLLAR FIRE

(By Associated Press.) Victoria, B. C., Oct. 27.—Fire last night destroyed about $2,000,000 worth of property in the business section and threatened to wipe out the entire business district.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE CIRCUIT COURT

Considerable Progress is Being Made in the Disposition of Cases—Parties in One Case Waive Jury Trial and Submit Case to Court—Action in Other Cases.

Considerable progress is being made in the disposition of cases set for trial at the present term of circuit court and the term is likely to be concluded sooner than had been anticipated.

Wednesday afternoon both parties in the case of Sven Hall vs. the Queen City Fire Insurance company, after some of the evidence had been introduced, agreed to waive trial by jury and submit the case to the court.

In the case of Matt Kowista vs. John Hill a judgment of $210.06 and $25 costs was awarded the plaintiff by default.

Upon application of the defendant, the case of Nellie Snow, as administratrix, vs. the Escanaba Power company, was continued over the term.

Trial of the case of Andrew Peterson vs. the MacGillis & Gibbs company was begun late Wednesday afternoon before a jury but this forenoon the plaintiff submitted to a voluntary non-suit, reserving the right, however, to move the court to have the non-suit set aside.

Trial of the case of John LaMarbe vs. Jerry Ktts and Charles Arnold, an action for slander, was begun before a jury and was still in progress at the conclusion of this report.

FISHING SCHOONER CLEANS UP $43,000

Gloucester, Mass., Oct. 27.—The honors of the haddock and shacking fleet of this port for the fishing year just ended belong to Captain William H. Thomas of the schooner Thomas L. Gorton, owned by Captain John Chisholm and Captain Thomas.

From November to November the gross stock was $45,000, the net being $43,000. The Gorton carried ten dories and crew of twenty-three men. The share of each member of the crew was $960, while the cook received $1,300.

The stock is said to be the largest made by any vessel in any branch of the Gloucester fisheries. The record is believed to have been equalled by but one other New England vessel, the Santos of Provincetown.

Captain Thomas had a record in 1909 of a gross stock of $39,000, or net of $36,000. His record for 1908 was $35,000 gross and $32,000 net. So that in three years he has harvested from the deep a total of $119,000 gross, or $110,000 net.

VOTERS HEAR STRONG TALKS

Issues of National and State Politics are Discussed by Congressman H. O. Young, Hon. W. M. Smith and Hon. W. R. Oates Before Escanaba Citizens.

Citizens of Escanaba who turned out to attend the political meeting held in Peterson's opera house Wednesday evening were well repaid for their time and trouble. They had the pleasure of hearing the issues of national and state politics discussed in a fair and most interesting manner by three able and exceptionally pleasing speakers—Congressman H. Olin Young of Ishpeming, Hon. William M. Smith of St. Johns and Hon. William R. Oates of Laurium. It is unfortunate that the meeting was not more largely attended, for the three addresses contained much that was instructive and of important interest to the average citizen who has the welfare of his state and nation at heart.

To give even a condensed summary of the speeches would require more space than The Mirror has at its command, but it may be said that they covered about everything in the line of politics and state and governmental affairs that are now occupying the public consideration.

Smith Follows Young. Hon. William M. Smith followed Mr. Young and gave a rattling good political talk, devoted principally to state issues and the leading candidates on the two great party tickets. He also discussed some of the national issues, particularly the tariff, in such a manner that they dovetailed with state issues. Mr. Smith could not say too much in praise of the upper peninsula men on the Republican ticket, saying they were men who are always on the job. He said, however, that a particularly vicious fight is being made on Osborn in the lower peninsula and that his friends up here should make it a point to get out and vote for the entire Republican ticket on election day. While he expressed confidence in Osborn's election he thought Republicans should not take any chances, but rally in their full strength to give him the largest majority possible.

Mr. Smith also spoke of the danger of electing a Democratic house of representatives, for if such a house is elected Michigan will lose a Republican senator—John T. Winship will be elected instead of Charles E. Townsend. He was glad to note that in this district the Republican candidate for the legislature has no opposition. Mr. Smith severely criticized Mr. Hemans for his course in conducting his campaign along sectional lines and intimating that Osborn, if elected, would discriminate in favor of the upper peninsula wherever he could. He said that the people of the entire state should set the seal

He maintained that many of the platform pledges of the party made two years ago have already been redeemed and argued that all of them would be carried out before the present administration ends, if a Republican house is returned at the coming election. Mr. Young devoted considerable attention to the tariff law, maintaining that while it is not perfect it is the best measure of its kind that has ever been enacted. He mentioned briefly all of the important legislative measures enacted by the last congress and pointed out the beneficial effects that have already followed.

Gives Credit Where Due. He gave full credit to what had been accomplished during the seven years of President Roosevelt's admin-

One Man's System

"I talked with our foreman yesterday. I spoke of the cost of living. He says he started in on less wages than I am getting and managed to save money. It seems almost impossible, but he began by making a schedule of his living expenses—those things absolutely necessary. What remained he called his profits, and used half for pleasure expenses, saving the other half. He said it was all due to the little system he used and knowing exactly what he spent."

Now the women of the East have a new fad—dolls. Yes, little over dressed, red cheeked, blond haired, wax, china, or composition dolls. And an eastern writer is optimistic enough to see in it a return to babies. Oh, no! Chase S. Osborn, the Republican candidate for governor, received seven out of every eight votes cast at the primary election in Chippewa county. No better testimonial could possibly be given as to Mr. Osborn's standing in his home city and his home county than the almost unanimous vote cast for him at the primary election provides. Mr. Osborn is an active and aggressive man, one who does things and seeks to have others perform their part. It is not usually true that such men are popular. They do not seek for popularity, but for helpful accomplishment. In Chase Osborn's case, however, he has secured accomplishment without creating antagonism, and the fact that he received the almost unanimous endorsement of his home people for governor shows what is thought of Mr. Osborn and his ability and his value by those who have known him long and know him best.

THE WARM FALL.

The summerish weather of the present October has led to the wearing of old clothes. You could not persuade the mother of a family to rig out her brood in fall togery when an Indian summer sun was encouraging their old straw hats or going barefoot.

Although this has meant economies for the common people, the weather has not been viewed with equanimity by the clothing and dry-goods men. It takes frequent and sharp reminders of coming snow and ice to make people dissatisfied with their summer clothes. Many retailers are complaining that the unseasonable weather has rendered October, ordinarily a month of lively trade, as sleepy as August.

It will take a lot of advertising to empty those shelves. Otherwise many people who have worn summer's goods so long will skip the mid-weights of fall clothing. They will not buy anything before wintry weather, unless you can make them believe you have bargains that may be missed later.

SMART AND CLEVER HAND BAGS SHOWN

All important to the Escanaba lady is the hand bag this season, for it gives the touch that makes a costume complete. Some very clever bags have arrived in this city, being imported by the merchants for the holiday season. In leather alone, there is the greatest variety of color and texture. Some smart new ones shown are made of ecrase, or, in other words, polished calf. This leather, which is a French product, is especially serviceable because the surface is so highly polished that it does not soil easily. New features in the finishing of bags are shell tops to the metal frames and silver mountings for the little tongues, that facilitate their opening. The bags are most complete and upon opening them one will find many little articles necessary for a lady to possess when traveling or shopping; among them are a dainty little powderbox, a hairpin holder, sachet pocket, mirror, hat brush, pocketbook, card case, and a perfume bottle. The straps by which leather bags are carried are longer and narrower than formerly, and the bags themselves are smaller, longer and narrower. For lining the fashionable moire is used in tones to match or harmonize with the bag. Among the bags that are the latest are those made from genuine old Paisley shawls. The cords of which the handles are made are of mingled threads, reproducing the colors in the bag, or they may be in some solid color. In choosing a bag of this kind the color of the cord must be taken into consideration, as it is an important factor in bringing about harmonious relations with the street costume.

WOULD USE THE CONVICTS ON ROADS

"Nothing in the six years that I have been governor of Michigan has interested me so much as the plan to work prisoners on the roads or on farms, practically without guards; that is, let them be their own guards, place them on their honor. I know it works, for I have seen it in operation," declared Governor Warner at Detroit this week.

The governor is a member of a commission provided for by the last legislature to investigate prison conditions the country over, and to report to the coming session of the legislature as to the best methods of handling Michigan's convict problem. He has been west, visiting Minnesota, Iowa and Colorado prisons, and was accompanied on the trip by Edward Anthony, of the Marquette prison board. He was in Detroit on his way home.

Would Work in Michigan.

"What impressed me most was the good effect the system has on the prisoners, not overlooking, though, the benefit to the state," said the governor.

"I went out inclined to think that the road-making system was both expensive, owing to the number of guards needed, and depressing on the prisoners, owing to their working in gangs in public view, and I found my supposition wrong in both particulars.

"I visited two camps in Colorado where the system is working, and instead of their having the appearance of a prison camp, they looked more like logging camps.

"I think this would work in Michigan just as it is working in Colorado by a Michigan man, Warden Timan of Canon City prison, whose father still lives in Niles, Mich.

"The honor of the prisoner is the basis of the whole scheme. He has to be carefully picked for those qualities and every effort is put forth to help build up that honor before the chance is taken."

The petition which Calumet businessmen signed several months ago requesting that an open pouch be carried on the night train out of and to Calumet is still in the hands of the postal authorities and practically nothing official has been learned regarding the matter. If this is true a mail car will undoubtedly be carried on the South Shore out of Calumet at night and returning during the morning. The convenience of an open pouch on these trains is understood, and businessmen north of Marquette would unite in making the requisition.

HEIR TO MILLIONS

(Special U. T. Service.)
Virginia, Ill., Oct. 27.—Rev. R. Sheerer Campbell, pastor of the Church of Christ in Virginia, is one of the direct heirs to the Sevier millions, which the United States court of claims has recently decided is a just debt.
Campbell's great-grandfather, John Sevier, of revolutionary fame, who served five terms as governor of Tennessee, loaned the government $8,450,000 in 1790 to pay off the indebtedness occasioned by the war, and the contract read he was to receive $10 for each $1 and 6 per cent interest until paid.
Sevier left an only daughter, Winnie, who afterward married Abram Campbell of Kentucky, and the heirs are her surviving son, J. C. Campbell of Greenup, Ky., the father of the Virginia pastor; one sister, Mrs. Ellen Alexander of Lebanon, Va., and the children of their three deceased brothers, making a total of 80 heirs, to divide the sum of $300,000,000 now due the estate.
A. W. Campbell of Washington, D. C., writes his brother in Virginia this week that the court has rendered the claim valid and Congressmen Barnett of Kentucky, Painter of Illinois and other prominent men will urge congress at the coming session to make the necessary appropriations.
In a recent speech Theodore Roosevelt is quoted as saying this particular claim is one the nation should pay. J. C. Campbell, now 76 years old, will be entitled to $37,000,000 as his share, and means to divide it equally among his ten children.

THEATRICAL

THE PETERSON.—If more such plays as "The Fighting Parson" were offered for public approval, there would be more consideration given the melodrama field than has been given in the past. While the play is full of comedy, sensation and mechanical stage effects, it is also uplifting in its moral and spiritual teachings.
The leading character of the play is that of a young minister who has adopted modern methods in his efforts to point out the right paths to those who inhabit the slum districts of our great cities. The Parson is liberal and broad-minded in his views and with his athletic qualifications combined with his natural friendliness to the down-trodden of mankind, the results of his work are most marvelous. At the Peterson October 30.

THE PETERSON.—Local theatergoers, no doubt, will be pleased with the announcement that Miss Mildred Holland will come to this city shortly, appearing in "The Provider," her latest play, written especially for her by Matthew Barry. It will be Miss Holland's first appearance in this city as an American woman of the present day and her entire company will appear in modern, familiar roles.
"The Provider" is simple in its treatment of the theme of the two men who love the one woman. One,

FIRE HOUSE AT ESCANABA, MICH.
CHARLTON & KUENZLI, ARCHITECTS.

The above is a picture of the new fire station which it is proposed to build in the Seventh ward, commonly known as North Escanaba, and for the construction of which the people of the city are asked to agree to an issuance of $15,000 in bonds. The question of issuing the bonds will be voted upon at the general election that is to be held on November 8 and it is believed will be carried in the affirmative, for it is conceded that the fast and growing section of the city where the station is to be located is in imperative need of better fire protection than is now given it. The station itself will cost not quite $11,000, the remainder of the $15,000 being needed to furnish it with the necessary equipment and fire fighting apparatus.

FIRST SNOW OF SEASON OCT. 27.

Just make a note of it in your mental memoranda or written records that the first snow of the season in Escanaba fell on Thursday, October 27. To be sure there wasn't much of a snow fall and it melted and disappeared almost as fast as it fell. At first it was in the form of "sugar" snow, but later on the snowflakes were of considerable size and of exceeding wetness. There is some promise of a storm, but nothing of a serious nature is expected. However, it is just as well to be prepared for the advent of winter weather, even though the winter season has not actually arrived.

of disapproval upon this sort of campaigning and he believed they would do it in no uncertain manner. He expected the upper peninsula, at least would roll up a magnificent majority for Osborn.

Oates in the Windup. William R. Oates devoted most of his speech to a consideration of state issues, the Republican and Democratic platforms and the Republican and Democratic candidates for governor. Every comparison he made was of course favorable to the Republicans, but he had the facts and figures to back up his conclusions. He also decried the course being pursued by Mr. Osborn and said he believes that Osborn's election will bring about a better understanding between the two peninsulas and forever wipe out the so-called Mason and Dixon's line.

Osborn is the candidate of the entire state and not of any section, he maintained, and should be given the loyal support of Republicans throughout the state. He defended Mr. Osborn's public record wherever it has been attacked and said Mr. Osborn had a right to feel proud of that record and the people should be well satisfied with the work he had done in whatever position he has filled. Mr. Oates emphatically asserted that Mr. Osborn has "made good" and that he will continue to make good in the governor's chair. He concluded the meeting and introduced the several speakers.

DISTRICT MEETING COMES TO AN END

The meeting of the Green Bay district of the Superior conference of the Swedish Lutheran church, held in the Swedish Lutheran church, this city, Tuesday and Wednesday, came to a conclusion Wednesday evening. The concluding session was devoted to a general discussion of the subject, "The Certainty of Our Salvation," which was introduced by Rev. C. J. Karl of Marquette. At the afternoon meeting special services were held and sermons preached by Rev. F. E. Sard of Peshtigo, Wis., and Rev. S. L. Wilson of Norway. The morning session was devoted mostly to business, the details of which are not given out for publication. Rev. C. A. Lund, president of the Superior conference, presided over the various sessions of the meeting, which was one of benefit and pleasure to all attending.

GOOD NEWS FOR "HOME PROTECTORS"

Escanaba people who were members of the order mentioned will be interested in a dispatch from Port Huron stating, in effect, that Horace G. Snover, receiver for the United Home Protectors' Fraternity, which was wrecked by W. L. Wilson, who is now serving a prison sentence, announces that another 10 per cent dividend will be paid to the stockholders. This makes the third dividend and it is thought that the investors will receive 100 cents on the dollar before the affairs of the fraternity are wound up.

COFFEE WAS IT

People Slowly Learn the Facts. "All my life I have been such a slave to coffee that the very aroma of it was enough to set my nerves quivering. I kept gradually losing my health but I used to say 'nonsense, it don't hurt me.'"

"Slowly I was forced to admit the truth and the final result was that my whole nervous force was shattered. "My heart became weak and uncertain in its action and that frightened me. Finally my physician told me, about a year ago, that I must stop drinking coffee or I could never expect to be well again."

"I was in despair for the very thought of the medicines I had tried so many times, nauseated me. I thought of Postum but could hardly bring myself to give up the coffee."

"Finally I concluded that I owed it to myself to give Postum a trial. So I got a package and carefully followed the directions, and what a delicious, nourishing, rich drink it was! Do you know I found it very easy to shift from coffee to Postum and not mind the change at all!"

"Almost immediately after I made the change I found myself better, and as the days went by I kept on improving. My nerves grew sound and steady, I slept well and felt strong and well-balanced all the time."

"Now I am completely cured, with the old nervousness and sickness all gone, in every way I am well once more."

It pays to give up the drink that acts on some like a poison, for health is the greatest fortune one can have. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," 8 pgs. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

WILL TALK TO THE GLADSTONE VOTERS

Hon. William M. Smith of St. Johns and Hon. William R. Oates of Larum, who delivered strong addresses at the political meeting held in Peterson's opera house last evening, spent most of the day in the city doing campaign work for the Republican party and this evening will be the principal speakers at a meeting to be held in the opera house at Gladstone. Both Mr. Smith and Mr. Oates are very effective campaign orators and will surely give the Gladstone voters something to think about.

Peterson for the presentation at his opera house of that new popular musical show, "The Golden Girl." Realizing that it is one of the late hits of the American stage, Manager Peterson made up his mind to secure it for the local play house and was Wednesday informed that he could have the show for November 13. Included in the company which will come here are some of the best people appearing in American musical comedy today. It is a large company, well staged and will be a treat for Escanaba lovers of musical attractions. The music is catchy and the lines are ones to be remembered. A large amount of preliminary advertising will be done to make the visit of the company here a successful one.

ESCANABA TO SEE "THE GOLDEN GIRL"

Negotiations were completed Wednesday afternoon by Manager P. M.

"The Fighting Parson," which comes to the Peterson October 30 for matinee and evening performances, has been creating a furore since the opening of that attraction in Chicago. W. F. Mann, the producer, has certainly found a big winner, both from an artistic and a financial point of view.

Frank Perrin has returned to Harwood after a visit of several days with relatives in Escanaba.
