DECISION HITS THE RAILROADS

Interstate Commerce Commission Holds that Roads in Eastern and Western Territory Cannot Increase the Charges at Present Made for Carrying Freight.

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, Feb. 24.—The general counsel of all railroads will meet in Chicago next Monday to consider the interstate commerce commission's rate decision. Appeal to the new commerce court will be discussed.

New York, Feb. 24.—The stock market today reflected its opinion of the interstate commerce commission decision against increased freight rates by heavy sales of stock at sharply declining prices, from two to four points below the close of the market yesterday.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The interstate commerce commission has decided against the railroads in both the Eastern and Western cases. The decision was handed down late yesterday afternoon.

The proposed advances in the class freight rates in the official classification territory, aggregating among all the railways in the territory approximately $27,000,000 a year, were disapproved by the commission. In the case involving the increases in the Western trunk line territory, the commission declined to approve the proposed advances in the commodity rates.

The carriers in both cases are required to cancel on or before March 10 their advanced tariffs and restore their former rates, which are the rates now in effect. If this requirement be not complied with, the commission will issue a formal order suspending the proposed advances and putting in effect the existing rates for at least two years.

Surprise to Railway Officials.
In the case of the railroad commission of Texas against the Santa Fe railway and other carriers, popularly known as the Southwestern rate case, the commission declined to disturb the commodity rates of the first class rates complained of. The defendants are ordered, however, to reduce the second class rates, which were increased. On the remaining classes they are required to restore the rates in effect before the increased rates were published.

In brief, the above summarizes the disposition made by the interstate commerce commission of the most important cases ever brought to its attention.

YOUNG WOODSMAN DIES OF INJURIES

Frank Peterson of East Lake, Mich., is Caught Under Falling Tree at Camp Near Ralph and is So Badly Hurt that Death Ensues Four Hours Later—Story.

Frank Peterson, a young woodsman employed in McCafferty & Conners' camp near Ralph, was caught under a falling tree Thursday afternoon and so badly injured that he died about four hours later. His back was broken and he was otherwise badly hurt. Immediately following the accident arrangements were made to rush the injured man to the Delta County hospital in this city, but before he could be taken aboard the train he was dead. His remains arrived here at 12:30 o'clock this morning and were taken to J. A. Allo's morgue, where they will be kept pending the receipt of orders for their disposition.

It is believed that Peterson's home was near East Lake, Manistee county, Michigan, and the police authorities there have been notified of his death and requested to locate his relatives and inform them of the sad occurrence. Peterson was not more than 18 or 19 years old and had been in this section of the country but a short time.

LITTLE HOPE FOR ENTOMBED MINERS

(By Associated Press.)
Tonahap, Nev., Feb. 24.—There seems to be no chance of rescuing alive the ten men entombed in the Belmont silver mine last night, as the fire is still burning.

FIRE BURNS ROOF OF OFFICE BUILDING

Fire which started on the roof of the general office building of the Escanaba Manufacturing company about noon today burned the roof of the structure and its interior was damaged to a considerable extent by the water thrown to extinguish the flames.

The firemen made short work of the fire after they arrived on the scene and got into action, but its location on the roof caused a good share of the water to find its way into the building, soaking the contents and loosening the plaster. The origin of the fire is not positively known.

The building is a two story brick affair and at one time was used as a boarding house. The loss is covered by insurance, but the amount could not be learned this afternoon. Manager T. M. Judson is in Chicago today and has been notified by wire of the fire.

REMAINS TAKEN AWAY FOR BURIAL

The remains of the late Anton Lamance, who died suddenly on Ludington street Wednesday afternoon after being stricken with apoplexy, were taken to Green Bay today and from that city will be taken to Champlain, a small place near by, where the funeral will be held tomorrow. The remains were accompanied by the dead man's widow, several of his children and Undertaker J. A. Allo. Members of L'Institut Jacques Cartier acted as pall-bearers when the remains were taken from the family home on North Charlotte street to the railway station this morning.

ANOTHER CLASS OF TELEGRAPH SERVICE

The Western Union Telegraph Company Decides to Inaugurate a New Class of Service to Be Known as Day Letters, Effective Between all Its Offices—Details.

Some time ago the Western Union Telegraph company inaugurated a new class of service known as night letters, which has proved so successful that the company has decided to establish still another class of service to be known as day letters.

Notice to that effect has been received from headquarters by Manager H. E. Grimes of the Escanaba Western Union office, the notice stating that the new service will be inaugurated on March 1. This service will be in effect between all the company's offices in the United States and as soon as the consent of the Canadian authorities can be secured it will probably be extended to Great Northwestern and Western Union offices in Canada and the Maritime provinces.

It is stated that messages for transmission as day letters will be accepted at any hour for delivery upon receipt at destination, but they will be secondary to regular messages in the order of their transmission and delivery. The rates will be 1-2 times the night letter rates for 50 words, plus 1-5 the initial charge for each 10 words in excess of 50. Code language will not be accepted at these rates.

Day letters may be filed by telephone or will be collected on call in the usual way and will be handled the same as ordinary day messages in all respects except, as stated, they will at all times be subordinate to the latter in the order of transmission and delivery. They must be written in plain English and code language will not be admissible.

STEP TOWARD POPULAR ELECTION OF SENATORS.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, Feb. 24.—The Sutherland amendment to the Borah resolution for the popular election of senators was adopted in the senate this afternoon by a vote of 50 to 37.

Next Sunday morning the pastors of St. Patrick's, St. Joseph's and St. Ann's Catholic churches in this city will read the rules and regulations that have been promulgated for the observance of the Lenten season by the people of the Catholic faith in this diocese. The rules which will be read are as follows:

1. All Fridays and fast days during the year are days of abstinence from flesh meat. On Saturdays, which by law are also days of abstinence, flesh meat is allowed by apostolic indulgent at all meals, unless they happen to be fast days.

2. The following are fast days of obligation: All days of Lent (except Sunday); the ember days, the vigils or eves of Pentecost of the Assumption B. V. M., of All Saints, and of Christmas; lastly, the Fridays of Advent.

On fast days only one full meal a day is allowed to persons obliged to fast. But indulgent and custom allow coffee, tea, chocolate, with a piece of bread in the morning, and the use of eggs, butter, milk, etc., in the evening. For sufficient reason, the collation (lunch) may be taken at noon and the principal meal in the evening.

Regard Use of Meat.

During Lent, by apostolic indulgent, flesh meat is allowed only at the principal meal on week days, except all Wednesdays and Fridays, and also Saturday in ember week (March 11).

CITY COUNCIL TO HEAR OBJECTIONS

At a meeting of the common council Thursday evening a resolution was adopted instructing the city clerk to advertise the fact that objections to the proposed improvement of North Birch street from Sinclair street to Escanaba avenue will be heard before the council on Tuesday evening, March 7. Plans and specifications for this proposed improvement were prepared and submitted to the council in September, 1907, but were never acted upon. They provide that the street shall be macadamized with stone and given a tar top dressing.

DRINK OF DEATH IGNITED BY PIPE

Eldora, Iowa, Feb. 23.—Robert Pinske, a German farmer, 45 years old, living near this city, was burned to death on his way home from town when he endeavored to take a drink of alcohol from a jug he was taking home.

The fluid became ignited from the sparks of Pinske's pipe, which he held in one hand while raising the jug to his lips.

The liquor had spilled over the man's body and the fire was soon beyond control. His body was a charred mass when found by neighbors attracted to the unusual sight by the flames.

The man was quite well-to-do and had a farm fourteen miles west of Eldora, near Hubbard. He leaves a family.

Clyde Cane of Tamrack was killed by a log while unloading a carload of logs. Oscar Peterson, a miner, was killed by a fall of rock in Quincy mine.

RULES FOR LENT PERIOD

and holy week (April 15). On fast days flesh meat and fish (including oysters, crabs, frogs, turtles, etc.) are never allowed at the same meal, a rule which applies even to the Sundays in Lent and to all persons, however otherwise excused or dispensed from the law of either abstinence or fast. But meals may always be prepared with the drippings of either fat or lard.

Persons excused from fast may use flesh meat more than once in the days it is allowed to all, whether in Lent or outside of that season.

Bound by Law of Abstinence.

3. Catholics having attained the sufficient use of reason are bound by law of abstinence. But when it is either physically or morally impossible to observe the law, or when it would entail serious difficulties, they are excused from it.

In virtue of the apostolic faculties granted us by the holy see, we hereby delegate pastors to dispense, in each single case, from abstinence the men actually engaged in threshing, as well as the farmer families at whose place threshing is going on.

4. Catholics having completed their twenty-first year of age are bound to fast. But the causes just mentioned in regard to abstinence apply also to the law of fasting. Hence the church ordinarily exempts from fasting the sick and those in feeble health (whether by sickness or old age), women nursing children; all who are engaged in laborious and exhausting occupations. Persons in doubt whether they are excused or not, should consult their confessor or pastor for advice or dispensation.

Ought to Do Good Work.

In virtue of the apostolic indulgent we permit workmen and their families the use of flesh meat at the principal common meal on all fast days and abstinence days throughout the year, with the exception of all Fridays, Ash Wednesday, the Wednesday and Saturday of holy week and the eve of Christmas.

5. Persons excused or dispensed from the law of fast or abstinence ought to perform some other good works of piety and charity in the spirit of Christian penance and sanctification. Hence the pious custom of giving Lenten alms. "Redeem thou thy sins with alms, and thy iniquities with works of mercy."—Danv. lv., 24. Also the custom of abstaining from intoxicating drinks, or staying away from theaters, card parties and other profane amusements, etc.

Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent, falls upon March 1. Eastern will end the forty penitential days on April 16.

Pneumonia Follows a Cold.

But never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar, which cnecks the cough and expels the cold. M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo., says, "I contracted a bad cold and cough and was threatened with pneumonia. One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar completely cured me." Sold by druggists.

ROOSEVELT AN ADVERTISER.

"Theodore Roosevelt is one of the most successful advertisers of all time," declared Frank J. Bayley, piano dealer, in an address on "Class Advertising," before the Baraca class of Woodward Avenue Baptist church, Detroit.

"Mr. Roosevelt advertised himself from the police commissioner of New York into the governorship of the state. He advertised himself by his exploits during the Spanish-American war, though he was not the most brilliant military chief on the field. His advertised personality finally landed him in the vice-presidency and then good fortune placed him in the head of the nation.

"In his tour of the old world countries after his wonderful African hunting trip, one of the greatest bits of advertising in record, the colonel became one of the most widely advertised men in the world through the medium of the addresses he delivered in the foreign lands.

"Mr. Roosevelt was a successful advertiser because he always dealt with the commonplace—he did things and said things that appealed to the human nature in the masses. Above all else, he impressed the people at large with the thought that he was honest in his utterances and in his acts, and he preached that others be honest also.

"So must the man who has wares for sale deal with the public. He must be honest with the public. He must be honest with those who read his advertisements and he must say things that are commonplace, easily understood and which will appeal to the human nature in them.

"All men are advertisers, in more or less degree—some unconsciously. The dude spruces up to advertise himself, to satisfy a streak of vanity. The artist will advertise his profession by the manner in which he wears his beard and by the cut of his clothes.

"People buy newspapers because they have an inherent streak of curiosity in them. They are curious to know what the world is doing—what is going on around them. That is why the newspaper is the best advertising medium. The advertiser stumbles on to the advertisement while satisfying his inherent curiosity to know what others are doing.

"Preparation is one of the greatest essentials in advertising. The merchant should advertise those goods by his own personality. He should use also his window display. Then, when he has thus prepared his business for presentation to the public through the artificial medium of the press, he should exercise the greatest judgment and discretion, not only in the preparation of his copy, but also in the selection of the medium in which that advertisement is to appear."

BUYING IN DISTANT CITIES.

The proverb that distance lends enchantment applies particularly well to the fascination found by some people in shopping away from home.

Many go to great inconvenience to buy in Paris and London. And yet it is the general testimony of travellers that there are no more attractive shops in any considerable American city than anything in those foreign capitals.

People wear themselves out on pleasure trips by shopping. They carry heavy bundles, hang around crowded counters, waste time that they might spend in rest and sight-seeing. In the cases out of ten they can do better at home.

"The prophet is not without honor save in his own country" is a saying that applies to trade as well as religion. Our merchants are lying awake nights trying to meet the needs of the people of this city. If they don't carry certain goods, it is simply that they have learned by sad experience that the people is not adapted to this locality, or not wanted for some reason. Why not pick the goods which the men who have made life study of the business find that the people of your home town want?

A London editor thinks only 15 works of fiction published last year are remarkable. Several circulated during the last political campaign might be added to that number.

A woman inspector for hotels and restaurant kitchens is pointed in Cincinnati. She will learn in time that the easiest way to get rid of dirt is to put it into the food.

A master plumber has been admitted to the German House Lords. Perhaps he will look down on his new associates who have been less successful in life.

One hears much about Oregon's initiative, referendum, and recall, but the tax bills will likely to come around soon for these luxuries.

Some queer bed-fellows on this reciprocity business. It looks as if there had been a shuffle of latch keys and no one able to find his own house.

WILL ENTERTAIN THE ELKS IN FINE STYLE

That is Portland Will Do it if the Reunion of the Antlered Herd in 1912 is Held in That City—Fund of $125,000 Assured for Purposes of Entertainment.

Portland, Ore., Feb. 24.—Portland will spend $125,000 in entertaining the Grand Lodge of Elks at the annual reunion of 1912 if the antlered herd can be induced to come here. A campaign to secure the convention has been started and will be waged actively at this year's reunion in Atlantic City next July. There will be a number of competitors in the field who will strive hard for the honor of entertaining the Elks but Portland is going after it in a determined manner and hopes to land the convention. The "Rose City" realizes the importance of bringing to the coast such a large number of Elks from all parts of the country and subscriptions to the entertainment fund will be pledged during the coming week. The local lodge of Elks, No. 142, has headed the list with $25,000 and business men generally will follow with generous pledges.

A large number of Portland Elks headed by Exalted Ruler William R. Apperson, of the local lodge, will go to Atlantic City this summer to boost for Portland as the next convention city, although they realize they will have considerable competition for the honor of entertaining the 1912 reunion.

RAILROADS' TOLL OF DEAD AND HURT IN 1910

The steam and electric railroads of the state killed 253 persons during 1910 and injured 2,285. Of this number but 23 were passengers, and 21 of these are credited to the electric lines, while the steam roads killed 12. These figures are taken from the records in the offices of the state railroad commission.

But for the few serious wrecks on steam roads during the past summer the death rate on the steam roads would have been small, for the records show that from June 30, 1909, to June 30, 1910, the steam roads were credited with but one passenger death.

The death rate for the past year was 81 less than 1909. The list of injured, however, was 794 higher for 1910 than the preceding year.

WARNED TO EXERCISE CARE IN EATING PORK

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.—Warning has been sent out by the department of agriculture urging the people of the United States not to eat pork until after it has been properly cooked, whether or not it has been inspected by federal, state or municipal authorities, as "an average of 1 or 2 per cent of the hogs slaughtered in the United States are infested with parasite or flesh worm."

COMPANIES STILL OWE 201,000 IN TAXES

Auditor General O. B. Fuller says the uncollected tax from the various telephone and telegraph companies at present amounts to $201,000. There is still due from the companies who attempted to evade their share of the tax by litigation $181,000 and since the United States circuit court decided in favor of the state the companies have shown no inclination to remit. Auditor General Fuller and other state officials are wondering whether the companies have shown no inclination to remit. Auditor General Fuller and other state officials are wondering where the companies intend appealing the case to the United States supreme court.

MAJOR GEORGE O. SQUIER HAS Invented Multiple Telephone

Copyright by American Press Association.

MAJOR GEORGE O. SQUIER, assistant chief signal officer of the United States army, has invented a multiple system of telephoning by which it is possible for two, four or perhaps a score of persons to talk over the same wire at the same time without interfering with one another or causing any mixing in messages. The system that Major Squier has invented is somewhat similar to that successfully used for some years by telegraph lines. But the difficulties of telephoning have been greater than those of telegraphing, and efforts to apply the principles to the telephone have heretofore proved unsuccessful, though many inventors have puzzled their brains over it. Major Squier in announcing his success said that he had solved the problem while working for the people and that the invention belonged to the people and that he would not patent it with any view of gaining personal profit.

BACKWARD, TURN BACKWARD.

Backward, turn backward, O Time, in your flight,
And give us a maiden dressed proper and right!
We are so weary of switches and rats,
Billie Burke clusters and peach-baskets hats;
Wads of jute-hair in a horrible pile,
Stacked on their heads to the height of a mile!
Something is wrong with the maidens we fear—
Give us the girls as they used to appear!
Give us the girls we once knew of yore,
Whose curls didn't come from a hair-dressing store;
Maidens who dressed with a sensible view,
And just as Dame Nature intended them to!
Give us a girl with a figure her own,
And fashioned divinely by Nature alone;
Feminine styles getting fiercer each year—
Oh, give us the girls as they used to appear!
Oh, for a girl with a sensible mind!
One of the twenty-five-year-ago kind;
One whose fair tresses were ample enough
Without additions of make-believe stuff:
Give us the days when the hats women wore!
Were not the reason why Christian men swore;
Over our way such a fair maiden steer.
Yes, give us a girl as she used to appear.

CITY OFFICIALS TO ATTEND DEBATE

Invitation Extended to Members of the Common Council by Superintendent King of the Public Schools is Unanimously Accepted—Text of the Invitation.

Among those present at the debate to be held in the High school auditorium this evening between teams representing the Escanaba and Menominee High schools will be members of the common council and other city officials, who will no doubt be as highly interested in the proceedings as the many other citizens who are expected to attend. Last evening the council received an invitation to attend the debate from Superintendent King of the public schools and unanimously accepted by the same. The invitation reads:

To the Hon. Mayor, City Officials and Council of Escanaba:
We desire to extend to you, and through you, to all the citizens of Escanaba who are interested in the welfare of our City Schools, a cordial invitation to attend the "Contest and Debate," between the high schools of Escanaba and Menominee to be held in the high school assembly room here, Friday evening, February 24th, 1911, at 8:00 p. m.

The question to be debated is: "That the United States Navy Should be Substantially Enlarged." A substantial enlargement to be interpreted to mean an immediate enlargement of not less than ten per cent of its present fighting force.)

Our young people are having their first experience in inter-high-school contests in debate, and we shall be pleased to have their efforts encouraged by your presence.

Very respectfully yours,

The pool hall conducted by Gasper LaCombe on Delta avenue, Gladstone, was burglarized Thursday night and $4 or $5 in small change taken from a show case. The burglar gained entrance to the building by breaking out a staple which fastened the rear door, and took the money and made his get-away without being molested. Mr. LaCombe was at supper at the time. The cash register, which contained about $8, was not touched. No clue has been found to the robber.

BRANCH STORE TO OPEN NEXT MONDAY

The Ewert Bros. Company Will Soon Be Ready to Do Business in Escanaba and With the Farmers of Delta County—Circular Letter Gives Information.

Some time ago The Mirror announced that the Ewert Bros. company of Chicago would establish a branch house in this city for the purpose of extending its wholesale produce and seed commission business among the farmers of Delta county and that the branch would be in charge of L. J. Ewert, vice president of the company. Since that time Mr. Ewert has been busily engaged in preparing to engage in business here and today the announcement is made that the firm's branch store will be opened for business at 410 Ludington street next Monday. Incidentally, the firm has issued a circular letter which gives information of value to its prospective patrons. This letter in part is as follows:

"It is our purpose to buy everything that the farm produces, but before we can do this it will be necessary for the farmers to learn the necessity of growing crops, and the best varieties of the crops, for which there is a market at all times. Our eighteen year's experience in buying and selling farm produce for the Chicago markets has given us information that is valuable, and we are anxious to give the farmers the benefit of this information. It is important to plant crops for which you know there will be a market after the crop is grown. The time to decide upon your crops is now, and we wish to help you in making this decision. We want every farmer in this county to call at our store, 410 Ludington street, Escanaba, as soon as possible and talk over this matter with our manager. He will advise you, and he also will be prepared to take your order for anything and everything in the seed line that you will need for the coming season. The seed that we sell includes the varieties that the market demands. We urge you to call at our Escanaba store as soon as possible. Our manager will be pleased to meet you and will give you any information you may desire."

WILL PUT UP FINE BUILDING

(Continued From Page 1.) Joining it on the west, have been purchased by Kratz Brothers from Joseph Charlebois and will be moved as soon as circumstances will permit to the lots at 1308-10 Ludington street also owned by the Kratz Brothers. The property just acquired by the Kratz Brothers has a frontage of 59 feet on Ludington street and is 140 feet deep, and it is their intention to use it as a site for a fine brick building of modern construction throughout. The work of putting up this building, complete plans for which have not yet been made, will be commenced next spring, and by fall it should be ready for occupancy. The building is to be used by the Kratz Brothers in their own business, dry-goods and general merchandise, and will be an ornament to that part of the city in which it is to be located. To Remodel Old Building. The deal for the purchase of the property was consummated through the real estate agency of Lyman M. Beggs and no inkling of it was permitted to become public until it was finally closed and the request for removal of the old buildings made to the council. The buildings will be practically reconstructed so that they may be used for business buildings. Although the consideration involved in the transfer by Mr. Charlebois to the Kratz Brothers is not made public, it is understood that the price per front foot is the highest ever paid for similar property in Escanaba.

ANNUAL BANQUET IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

Following the appetizing and well served banquet there was a program of toasts and responses, and F. J. Byrne, superintendent of the company, made a most interesting report of the operations of the company and the results obtained since it went into the business of conducting a general system. William J. Hanrahan gracefully filled the difficult role of toastmaster and in response to his call short speeches were made by Herman Salinsky, Charles Ehnerd, F. H. Atkins, E. M. St. Jacques, S. W. OLDEST RESIDENT OF COUNTY DEAD

At the Delta county almshouse there passed away Thursday the oldest resident of Delta county in the person of Mrs. Harriet Hogan, who is believed to have been 102 years old. Mrs. Hogan had records which indicated that she was born in Canada more than 100 years ago. She had lived most of her life in the United States, however, and performed great services for her adopted country as a nurse during the civil war. Mrs. Hogan was married three times, her first husband's name being Hogan and that being the name by which she preferred to be known. Several years ago she became a public charge at Gladstone and last fall was brought to the county almshouse. The remains have been taken to Gladstone, where they will be given burial.

COLONIAL PARTY IS NOVEL AND PRETTY

On Wednesday evening Mrs. James Corcoran, 629 south Elm street, entertained thirty of her women friends at a party in honor of Washington's birthday. The house was most beautifully decorated in the national colors and the hatched and cherries reminded all of that truthful boy of long ago. The guests were all dressed to represent some prominent character of the colonial days, and the costumes were very pretty. Betsy Ross and Molly Pitcher paid their respects to "The Father of His Country," and then all responded to roll call with quotations from the ever-famous Washington. Cards were then the amusement of the evening and the ancient looking characters presented a very pretty picture as they moved from table to table. Delicious refreshments were served and all voted that this Colonial party was a success in every feature.

DECISIONS HITS THE RAILROADS

(Continued From Page 1.) tion. In a sense, the decisions were in the nature of a surprise to the railroad officials and other experts, a majority of whom believed the commission would grant some increase to the Western lines if not to the Western lines if not to the Eastern. After considering exhaustively the whole subject, however, the commission could not see its way clear to grant any advance in rates, although it concedes that in the case of some of the roads an increased revenue is needed. Public Not Responsible. In what is known as the Eastern case, the commission was embarrassed by the admitted fact that several of the lines in the territory were paying good dividends upon existing rates, while other carriers in the same territory were barely able to make both ends meet—a few of them scarcely that. In the Western case, the carriers entered a powerful plea for increased revenue, in order that they might have additional money to put into improvements and betterments which would enable them to handle with greater facility the constantly increasing traffic of the country. The same argument was advanced in support of the proposed advances in the official classification territory; but Commissioner Prouty, who wrote the opinion in the Eastern case, says: "This argument does not appeal to us. We doubt the practical difficulty suggested (that of obtaining by loan sufficient money to finance the roads) and, were it true, it is not apparent that the general public should stand responsible for the mistakes which have been made in financial these railroad system."

CANCEL ACT NOT UP TO STANDARD

That they desire to give the patrons of their theatre the best they can get in the line of amusements was demonstrated yesterday when the management of the Grand found it necessary to cancel one of their acts on account of its not coming up to the standard that has been set for their play house. A new act to take the place of the one cancelled arrived this morning from St. Louis. The new act is put on by "May and June" in a comedy sketch that is highly recommended to the management of the playhouse. Last night Tolon Bros. appeared in a musical act to take the place of the act that was discontinued.
