

RUSSELL HIT BY THE HOUSE

That Body Adopts Minority Report of Investigation Committee Recommending Removal of the Warden of Marquette Prison, Abolishment of Lash, Etc.

(By Associated Press.)
Detroit, April 14.—A special from Lansing quotes Governor Osborn as saying that he will not ask for the resignation of Warden James Russell and the board of control of the Marquette prison as recommended by the minority report of the investigating committee.

Lansing, Mich., April 14.—By vote of 53 to 29 the house at one o'clock this morning adopted the minority report of the Marquette prison investigation committee, thereby recommending the discharge of the entire board of control and Warden Russell and the abolition of corporal punishment and contract labor.

The adoption of the report, however, does not carry with it the enforcement of any of its recommendations. The removal of the warden and members of the board of control is a matter for the governor to decide and the other features are subjects for legislative action.

Many of the members were absent when the vote was taken. The upper peninsula members stood by the warden, but a two-hour speech by Representative Straight, one of the signers of the minority report, apparently swung the tide against the prison official. Governor Osborn is a member of the board.

Struggle is Bitter.
At midnight the house was still hopelessly involved in a bitter struggle over the question of accepting either one of the reports submitted by the members of the committee which investigated the affairs at Marquette prison. A motion by Representative Knight to place copies of the reports and the testimony in the hands of the governor met with such stiff opposition that it was withdrawn.

Representative D. F. G. Warner of Frankfort, one of the members of the committee, who signed the majority report, spoke for two hours in defense of the administration of Warden Russell. "I want to say at the outset that the people of the state should thank God that they have a man like Jim Russell to manage a place like Marquette prison," said Mr. Warner. "We must remember, that he is not dealing with children. His is the unpleasant task of controlling an institution in which is confined the cream of the state's most vicious criminals."

Most Hardened Criminals.
"There are men in Marquette prison who cannot be reached by words of sympathy or acts of kindness. They are the most hardened criminals, third and fourth timers, many of them. And I say that when these kinds of brutes are banished from society they must be taught to behave in the place to which society has sent them."

"If sympathy and kindness cannot do it, then punishment must be inflicted, and let me state right here that some of the so-called floggings

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR INSTALL OFFICERS

In Connection With the Installation There are Several Notable Features of Enjoyment, Including a Banquet, Music, Speeches and Social Diversions.

Thursday evening there was held a special convocation of Escanaba commandery No. 47, Knights Templar, the primary purpose of which was the installation of the recently elected officers of the commandery. In connection with the installation, however, there were a number of other notable features, including a banquet, vocal and instrumental music, speeches and a social session, at which dancing was one of the diversions.

The doings of the evening were opened at 6:45 o'clock in Masonic hall with the serving of a banquet to a large number of Sir Knights and their ladies, after which the officers-elect were inducted into their respective places. Past Commander William Elliott officiated as installing officer, being assisted by Theodore Farrell acting as grand marshal.

Before the installation was begun the Sir Knights and ladies had the pleasure of listening to a duet sung by the Misses Carrie and Drusilla Shaw and after the ceremonies they were further entertained by Miss Gertrude Lindsay and Mrs. E. G. Royce, who sang solos.

Short addresses appropriate to the occasion were made by Past Commander William Elliott, Commander William J. Clark and Generalissimo Charles W. Malloch and they were listened to with much pleasure and interest. Following the singing and speechmaking a general good time ensued. Dancing was indulged in and continued until a quite late hour.

CHORAL CLUB TO PRODUCE CANTATA

Rehearsals of the Opera, "Chimes of Normandy," are Suspended and Members of the Company are Now at Work on the Cantata, "Rose Maiden," to be Given in June.

For certain reasons considered to be excellent, the members of the Escanaba Chorus club have discontinued until some future time their rehearsals of the opera, "The Chimes of Normandy," and are now working on Cowen's cantata, "Rose Maiden," with the intention of presenting it on some evening about the middle of June.

Last evening the club had a good rehearsal as well as a large attendance and judging from the interest which its members are taking in "Rose Maiden" its presentation will be a success.

"Rose Maiden" has been given by all the prominent choral clubs in the country. It was produced last year at the Chautauqua at Marquette under direction of Prof. Alex Enna, director of the Escanaba Choral club. For its presentation here a soloist and perhaps other singers will come from out of town and Professor Amsden and several good outside musicians will augment the local orchestra.

W. C. T. U. ELECTS SET OF OFFICERS

An important meeting of the Escanaba branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George W. Shipman, 128 Wells avenue. One of its principal features was the election of officers, which resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Alice Walters; recording secretary, Mrs. J. S. Compher; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George Shipman; treasurer, Mrs. C. D. Johnson; superintendent of flower mission, Miss Mattie Atkins; superintendent of hospital work, Mrs. Peter Olson.

HUGE BOAT COMING TO ESCANABA SOON

Marquette Eagle-Star: The Amazon, the biggest freight vessel which ever entered the local harbor, will leave in about two weeks to begin the season's work. It will go from Marquette to Escanaba about May 1, and will probably load there for a trip to the east. The Amazon arrived here late in the fall with a full load of coal for the Central West Coal company of Menominee. The coal was to be unloaded as it was needed. The unloading was finished last Saturday.

HELD FOR TRIAL ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Elmer Peterson of Fairbanks township, who was arrested several days ago and brought to this city Wednesday evening to answer to a serious statutory charge, was brought before Justice Linden today for his preliminary examination. Peterson decided to waive the examination, however, and was thereupon bound over for trial in the circuit court under bonds of $2,000. He has not yet furnished bail. Attorney John Cumiskey has been retained to conduct Peterson's defense.

SIX PERISH IN WRECK OF VESSEL

The Schooner Ottawa Strikes on a Reef at Clay Bank and is Wrecked, Resulting in the Death of all the Members of Its Crew—Five Bodies Recovered.

(By Associated Press.)
Green Bay, Wis., April 14.—Two more bodies of the crew of the schooner Ottawa, which was wrecked at Clay Bank yesterday, were recovered today.

Sturgeon Bay, Wis., April 14.—The schooner Ottawa, with a crew of six men, was wrecked at Clay Bank, and all of the crew were lost, some time yesterday morning. Owing to a fog, nothing was known of the accident until late yesterday afternoon, when three bodies were washed ashore, and when farmers sent here for the life saving crew, which located the schooner on a reef a mile off.

It is supposed that the schooner was wrecked early in the morning, because the table was set for breakfast, but the crew had not eaten. The men, it is supposed, were drowned while trying to get ashore, though if they had remained on the schooner all would have been rescued.

The bodies of Claus Weberg, captain, and Carl Merquist were washed ashore, along with those of an unidentified man.

The Ottawa, which is a two masted lumber schooner of 163 tons burden, was bound from Manistique, Mich., to Kenosha, Wis., in the service of John Loper of Menominee, Mich.

BOATS ON THE WAY HERE TO TAKE ORE

There will be several boats arriving at the Escanaba docks after cargoes of ore just as soon as the ice goes out to a degree that will permit them to enter the harbor.

At least two boats, the steamers Stackhouse and Woods, are expected to arrive here by next Monday or Tuesday. If they can get through, to load ore at the Northwestern docks, and it is probable that the St. Paul docks will also get some boats to load as soon as the season opens. There was a report current today that ten boats have already left Cleveland for Escanaba after ore, that seven of these would load at the Northwestern docks and the other three at the St. Paul dock. This report could not be verified, however.

MEXICAN BULLETS SLAY AMERICANS

In Yesterday's Battle at Agua Prieta Bullets Fly Across the Border, Killing an American at Douglas, Ariz.—The Mexican Government Will Be Held Accountable.

(By Associated Press.)
Agua Prieta, Mex., 4 p. m., April 14.—A battle has just opened west of town. The federals are using machine guns.

Agua Prieta, Mex., April 14.—The revolutionists who captured this place yesterday are still in possession, but further fighting is expected. During the battle yesterday bullets flew across the border, killing an American in Douglas, Ariz.

Washington, April 14.—The Mexican government, according to the views of the state department, will be held accountable for loss of life and injury to Americans at Douglas during the battle yesterday, no matter whether the fire of the federals or the insurgents inflicted the injury.

It will be the federal government that the United States will look to for reparation. There was a protracted conference in regard to the matter this morning between the president and the secretary of state.

Besides the American that was killed there was one mortally wounded and eight seriously wounded.

FACTORY EMPLOYEE LOSES RIGHT HAND

Henry Bloom, an employe in the Escanaba Manufacturing company's plant had his right hand caught in a saw this afternoon, with the result that it was so mangled and cut that it became necessary to amputate all the fingers and a portion of the hand. Immediately following the accident Bloom was taken to the Delta County hospital, where the amputation was performed and he was given the necessary care by the company's surgeon. He will be able to leave the hospital in a few days, but it will be a long time before he can resume work.

DR. ROY H. BANKS WEDS HANCOCK GIRL

Announcement is Made of the Wedding of Miss Edna Valerie Smart and Popular Young Dentist of This City—Marriage is Solemnized at Hancock Wednesday Evening.

"Mrs. Thomas Smart announces the marriage of her daughter, Edna Valerie, to Dr. Roy Harold Banks on Wednesday, the twelfth of April, nineteen hundred and eleven, Hancock, Michigan. At home after the fifteenth of May, Escanaba, Michigan."

The foregoing wedding announcement was received by friends of Dr. Roy H. Banks in Escanaba today and caused not a little surprise among them, for it was not generally known here that he was planning to become a benedict. Then, again, it need not have been so surprising, for Dr. Banks has since his return from Hancock to Escanaba made frequent trips to the former place and they could not all be placed in the business class.

Dr. Banks is a son of the late Dr. F. A. Banks and prior to locating in Escanaba lived most of his life in this city, where he has a host of friends who will take sincere pleasure in congratulating him and his fair young bride and give them a hearty welcome when they come to Escanaba to make their home here.

As stated in the formal announcement quoted above, the wedding was solemnized at Hancock Wednesday. Further details are supplied by the Houghton Mining Gazette, which on Thursday morning had the following in its Hancock department:

"Miss Edna Smart, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Smart of Water street, and Dr. Roy H. Banks of Escanaba were quietly married at eight o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's mother in this city. Rev. Luther K. Long, pastor of the Calumet Congregational church, performed the ceremony. Relatives and immediate friends only were present. The couple were unattended."

"The bride in last evening's ceremony is one of Hancock's most charming young ladies. In social and musical circles she ranks very high and holds the respect of the entire community. Dr. Banks was one of this city's rising dentists until a few months ago, when his father's death caused him to move to Escanaba, his home town, to look after family interests. Dr. Banks is now practicing dentistry in Escanaba. While a resident of this city the groom was lieutenant of the Hancock division Michigan Naval Reserves."

"The bridal party left on last night's train for a brief wedding trip

Escanaba is to enjoy the distinction of having the first session of the grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows ever held in the upper peninsula. Houghton expected to have that honor when the officers of the state grand lodge signified their intention of being present at the dedication of the new Odd Fellows' temple in that city on April 26, but it will have to be content with the second session, for Escanaba is to get the first, which will be held in the Odd Fellows' temple of this city on Monday evening, April 24.

Three Notables Coming.
As exclusively announced by The Mirror in its issue of April 1, three of the chief officers of the state grand lodge of the Odd Fellows' order are to be in Escanaba on April 24 and while they are here they will be entertained as guests of honor by the members of Escanaba and Impellant lodges.

These grand lodge officers are: Grand Master C. F. Granshaw of Saginaw, Grand Secretary H. M. Wilder of Lansing and Grand Herald L. K. McNeil of Paw Paw. They will stop over in Escanaba on their way to Houghton to participate in the dedication of the new temple there and while here will hold a grand lodge session for the purpose of conferring the past grand degree on all past grands in Delta and Schoolcraft counties. Past grands of Escanaba, Gladston, Rapid River, Garden and Manistique are expected to be present to have the past grand degree conferred upon them.

This grand lodge session will be held in the Odd Fellows' hall, where it is also planned to have a great entertainment in honor of the distinguished guests and in commemoration of the 91st anniversary of the founding of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. The actual date of this anniversary is April 26, but its celebration here will be held April 24 because of the presence on that date of the grand lodge officers.

Committees at Work.
Arrangements for the celebration and entertainment are already being made by committees composed of members from both Escanaba lodges. There are three such committees—on entertainment, decorations and banquet. The entertainment committee has eight members, the decorations committee, seven and the banquet committee, four. The entertainment committee will, of course, have general charge of the arrangements and the preparation of the program.

All of the members of both lodges and their feminine auxiliaries, the Daughters of Rebekah, will be in attendance at the celebration, which promises to be the most notable Odd Fellows' affair in the history of Escanaba.

and upon their return will reside in Escanaba."

THOMAS GOES TO CAPE MAY

Veteran Philadelphia Player and Coach to Manage Seashore Ball Team During Present Season. Roy Thomas, the present coach of the University of Pennsylvania baseball team, and former member of the Phillies, has been selected to manage the Cape May baseball team for the present season. It is expected that he will secure a fast aggregation of players to represent the seashore town. Thomas was persuaded to accept the management through the efforts of Adam Suelke, a dyed-in-the-wool enthusiast, of Cape May. The ball park has been thoroughly renovated, better accommodations being provided for the players and spectators and the grounds greatly improved. The games are being booked by Albert H. Wilkinson. He has already secured several fast teams for his schedule.

NATIONAL LEAGUE BALL PARK BURNS

(By Associated Press.) New York, April 14.—Ten thousand persons stood on Coogan's bluff early this morning and saw the National league baseball park swept by a roaring fire which reduced three sides of it, including the grandstand and most of the bleachers to ashes in less than three-quarters of an hour. At 2 o'clock this morning only the bleachers at the east end were standing. With the grandstands were destroyed also the club house and dressing rooms for visiting teams. The loss is estimated at about $75,000.

U. P. BOOSTERS WILL GATHER AT MARQUETTE

Meeting of Executive Committee of Upper Peninsula Development Bureau Planned.

Marquette will be, probably on April 27, the scene of the most important meeting held in connection with the Upper Peninsula Development association since its organization in Menominee several weeks ago. The session there will be attended by the members of the executive committee, which comprises one member for each county, and it is likely that the directors, five for each county, will also be invited. The executive committee will take stock of the progress already made and outline plans for the aggressive pushing of the association movement at all points where it has shown any tendency to lay quiet. It is planned in connection with the committee's meeting to arrange for a dinner that will be attended by all the visiting officials of the association, members of the Marquette county board of supervisors and other guests. At this dinner toasts on several phases of the subject will be responded to and there will be a general interchange of ideas.

Officers Well Pleased. Coincident with the meeting of the executive committee, it is expected that plans to boom the association in Marquette county will be outlined. Considerable progress has already been made along this line, but the work is not yet as far forward in Marquette as it is some of the other counties. The officers of the association are well pleased with the progress that they have made the past few weeks. In several counties the association has the endorsement of the boards of supervisors and the assurance of material financial aid. In other counties where first there seemed to be a spirit of indifference interest is being aroused, and the association's work will shortly have strong support. There is no doubt that ultimately the supervisors of every county in the upper peninsula will endorse the movement, and financial aid to further its ends is expected from most of them.

Green is a Hustler.

The association has an unusually active president. Thornton A. Green of Ontonagon, who fills that office, and who will attend the Marquette meeting, has been working in and out of season to get the county organizations under way. He is a man of unbounded enthusiasm, a strong believer in the possibilities for diversified development in the upper peninsula and in the value of the movement the association is planned to promote. The publicity bureau of the association, of which W. F. Knox of the Soo is chairman, is also in active working order, and is sending to the press

THE BON AMI GETS STUCK IN THE ICE

Thick Fog and Ice Make Passage of Vessel Wednesday Night a Thrilling Experience—Boat Gets Out of Its Course—Finally Reaches Marinette in Safety.

According to the Marinette Eagle-Star of Thursday, the steamer Bon Ami of the Hart Transportation company, on its first trip from Sturgeon Bay to Marinette this season, had a rather adventurous trip but came through several trying experiences without damage of any consequence. Just before leaving Sturgeon Bay the vessel, which was in command of Captain Noble, either grounded slightly or struck a partly submerged field of ice. Later when the boat was out in the bay it became wedged in a field of ice and was unable to proceed for a time.

The night was unusually foggy and this complicated the troubles of the boat. A number of twin city people were passengers on the vessel returning from Sturgeon Bay, and they were uneasy for a time, but apparently there was not much danger.

During another part of the trip the vessel got out of its course due to the fog. It was impossible for a time to even hear the fog whistle at the local port. But the crew finally got their bearings and reached the Marinette port shortly before midnight. The boat went on its way this morning, making a trip to points on the east shore.

W. J. COOMBE IS NOW BANK EXAMINER

William J. Coombe, of Laurium, formerly bookkeeper at the First National bank of Calumet, has received his commission from the state banking department as state bank examiner. Mr. Coombe is in Lansing as present receiving instructions in his duties as bank examiner.

Mr. Coombe is very well known throughout the upper peninsula. He was raised in the copper country. His many friends are pleased to hear of his appointment. Mr. Coombe was recommended for the office by many of the leading business and professional men of Houghton, Calumet, Laurium, Mo-Hawk, Ironwood, Escanaba, Iron Mountain, Negaunee and other northern Michigan towns.

BOAT INSURANCE BEGINS APRIL 15

Consequently that Date Will Mark the Formal Opening of Navigation on the Great Lakes—Actual Season Will Not Begin, However, Until Several Weeks Later.

Marine insurance goes into effect on the Great lakes on Saturday, April 15. On that day navigation will be formally opened. But the actual season for a majority of the lake craft will be from two weeks to a month later, as many owners have announced a determination to wait until May 15, before beginning operations.

There are several reasons for this determination. The ore outlook is not the brightest, coal charters are slow, and grain rates are not particularly inviting. Last year the season opened under promising conditions, but by midsummer traffic had so fallen off that owners found it necessary to enter into an agreement to throw many boats into ordinary for thirty days. They hope, by a late start this spring, to escape this necessity the present season.

Coal shippers admit they are not inquiring very persistently for vessels to load for delivery at some distant date. The shippers are looking for vessels which can be depended upon to go early in the season as they will be able to get what they need and it is no object to transfer coal from cars to boats for storage until demurrage goes into effect.

ACTOR IS HUSBAND OF MEMONIEE GIRL

George Gilligan, a member of the cast which will produce "The Cat and the Fiddle," at the Peterson this evening is the husband of a former Menominee young lady, Miss Camille Burheim. The couple were married about seven years ago at Menominee. Gilligan is billed as George G. Wakefield with the company and plays the part of "Great Gobs," who would like to be the ruler of Eye Land. He was probably chosen for the part because of his commanding stature, being about six feet seven inches in height. Mrs. Gilligan is not an actress. The couple have made their home in lower Michigan most of the time since their marriage. Gilligan is a former Norway, Mich., young man, and is well remembered there and at Menominee. He has a good voice and good stage presence, but has little chance for brilliant work in the play in which he is now appearing.

Detroit, April 14.—Hard hitting by Crawford and Cobb and Mullin's steady pitching enabled Detroit to defeat Chicago, 4 to 2, in the opening game of the American league season here yesterday. Detroit found Walsh for a home run, a triple and three singles in the first three innings, after which he resorted to his spit ball with better success. Score: R. H. E. Detroit.....10100002*—4 8 2 Chicago.....000001001—2 6 1 Batteries: Mullin and Stange; Walsh and Sullivan and Payne. Two-base hit—Crawford. Three-base hit—Crawford. Home run—Cobb.

New York, 3; Philadelphia, 1. Philadelphia, April 14.—New York again defeated Philadelphia yesterday afternoon, winning by a batting rally in the eighth inning when four hits, including a double by Blair and a triple by Wolter, were made off Coombs' delivery. Hartzell made one of the greatest one-handed stops ever seen at the park and robbed Barry of a two-bagger. Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia.....000001000—1 5 2 New York.....001000020—3 10 0 Batteries: Coombs and Lapp; Fisher, Coldwell, Quinn and Blair and Sweeney. Two-base hits—Wolter, Blair, New York. Three-base hits—Oldring, Philadelphia; Wolter, Johnson, New York.

St. Louis, 3; Cleveland, 1. St. Louis, April 14.—A cyclonic wind and hail storm, during which the steel flag pole snapped and crashed into the bleachers, while the players were driven from the diamond by the bombardment from the skies, brought the Cleveland-St. Louis American league game to an abrupt ending in the first half of the ninth inning yesterday afternoon. The spectators in the grandstand and the newspapermen and the official scorers in the press box were obliged to take refuge under the seats and many were bruised on the face and head by being struck by hailstones. Score: R. H. E. St. Louis.....00011010—3 7 3 Cleveland.....00000010—1 4 2 Batteries: Lake and Clarke; Kaler, West and Land and Smith. Two-base hit—Laporte, St. Louis.

Washington, 3; Boston, 2. Washington, April 14.—The fielding of Milan and the batting of Miller were the features. Score: R. H. E. Washington.....00000201*—3 8 4 Boston.....100000010—2 8 3 Batteries: Groom and Street; Cicotte and Madden. Two-base hit—Williams, Boston. Three-base hits—Gardner, Boston; Cunningham, Washington.

NATIONAL LEAGUE. Philadelphia, 6; New York, 1. New York, April 14.—The Philadelphia's hammered Christy Mathewson to all parts of the field yesterday. Only his own brilliant fielding kept the score down to respectable dimensions. Paakert, of Philadelphia, made one of the greatest catches ever seen on the home grounds in the eighth inning, when he captured Snodgrass' fly with his bare hand while racing toward the fence. Score: R. H. E. New York.....000001000—1 3 0 Philadelphia.....110100300—6 15 1 Batteries: Mathewson, Marquard and Myers; Rowan and Doolin. ## EXTENSIVE SUGAR CAMP RUNNING IN FULL BLAST

One Operated by Peter White Land Company is Largest in the Upper Peninsula.

What is doubtless the largest maple sugar camp in the upper peninsula is now running in full blast near the White hunting lodge, a few miles in from Deerton, says the Marquette Mining Journal. It is being operated by the Peter White Land company and will output, in all likelihood, 500 gallons of maple syrup, and perhaps considerably more. The camp is under the management of Charles Anderson, of Marquette, and five men and a team of horses are employed in connection with the work.

The first run of sap occurred about two weeks ago, during a brief warm spell. The flow was free, and in a day and a half fifty-five gallons of the fine syrup was made. Then the weather hardened up and the flow stopped. It only resumed last Sunday, since which time the camp has been a scene of picturesque and strenuous activity. If the weather conditions remain favorable the flow will probably continue, on and off, for two weeks, in which event the total product of syrup will reach the figure mentioned above.

1,890 Trees Tapped.
The magnitude of the camp can be appreciated when it is stated that 1,890 trees have been tapped, whereas a camp with 600 trees is considered of very fair size. The building that houses the evaporator is located on comparatively level ground. Back of it are two ridges covered with maple that rise to some elevation. To these ridges extend from the camp, like spokes from a wheel, three pipe lines. The longest is of 800 feet, the next longest 600 and the third is 200 or 300 feet long.

These pipe lines are designed to lessen the labor of getting the sap from the more distant points to the storage tanks near the evaporator building. The conveyance carrying five barrels capacity, is hauled by horses among the distant trees, the pails in which the sap is collected are emptied into it and then the contents of the tank are drained off into the pipe lines, which lead to the storage tanks, of about eighty barrels capacity.

The sap from the trees on the level ground closer to the evaporator building is hauled directly to the storage tanks, and the supply on hand is sufficient to keep the evaporator running constantly.

The evaporator is a modern plant, installed last year, and the total outlay for equipment was nearly $2,000, making the plant one of the most expensive, as well as the largest, to be found anywhere in the upper peninsula.

Works Automatically.
The regulation of the flow of sap into the evaporator is automatic, more sap being drawn into it as rapidly as the syrup is boiled to the proper constituency. The syrup is drained from the evaporator into gallon cans, and neither sap nor syrup is touched by the hands of the workers at any stage of the process, making the product absolutely clean.

Hardwood is used for fuel under the evaporator, and the consumption fuel is heavy, as the sap must be kept at a high degree of temperature throughout the process of the syrup making. The boiling process goes on throughout the day. In the night the flow of sap usually ceases, unless the weather is unusually warm. The best syrup is produced when the days are warm, which makes for a free flow of sap, and when the nights are cold, absolutely stopping the flow.

The Peter White Land company is sending out notices that it will be prepared to furnish this upper peninsula syrup as long as the supply lasts, at $2 a gallon, and it is said that this price will not permit of any large margin of profit, for the investment is a considerable one and the cost of operating the plant is heavy. In a year when the output of syrup would run 800 or 900 gallons, as it might with ideal conditions, there would be, however, a considerable margin of profit. There promises to be a good demand for the syrup, many orders having already been received.

SEVEN CONTESTANTS ARE TO TAKE PART

Superintendent A. Doelle of the Houghton schools, chairman of the upper peninsula district of the Michigan High School Oratorical association, has been advised that there will be seven contestants in the upper peninsula oratorical and declamatory contests to be held at Houghton Friday evening, April 28. There will be three in oratory and four in declamation.

Mr. Doelle has not received the names of the contestants, but the three in oratory will be from Calumet, Marquette and Menominee and the four in declamation will be from Lake Linden, Marquette, Newberry and Menominee.

Superintendent Doelle has given out names of the judges on thought and composition, on the orations. They are John B. Brennan of Ironwood, Professor Louis A. Straus of the University of Michigan and Dean Thomas Nadel of Olivet college. Copies of the orations have been sent them. The judges on delivery have not as yet been selected.

PRESIDENT M'NAIR TO CALL ON MR. TAFT

President F. W. McNair of the Michigan College of Mines at Houghton expects to leave within a few days for Washington to interview President Taft on the matter of his projected visit to Houghton for the Michigan College of Mines celebration in August.

President Taft has promised to come to Houghton for this occasion if official duties do not prevent and this visit of President McNair is not to seek a removal of the pledge of President Taft but rather to advise with him regarding the entertainment and accommodations required by the president and other details which the distinguished visitor may insist upon.

In connection with the reunion, the executive committee of the Copper Country M. C. M. club wishes it understood that all former students of the Michigan College of Mines, whether graduates or not, are eligible to membership in the club and are expected to take an interest in the reunion plans.

PLAYGROUND MAY BE JOHNSON'S MEMORIAL

Cleveland, Ohio, April 14.—"When I die I hope the people will make a playground over my body. I would rather have the children romping over my grave than a hundred monuments."

This was the statement often made by Former Mayor Tom L. Johnson, who died Monday night, to his friends when men in public life died and monuments to their memory were being planned.

LARGE VILLAGES IN THE COPPER COUNTRY

Washington, D. C., April 14.—E. Dana Durand, director of the census, has made public the official census figures for villages in Houghton county, as follows:

Red Jacket	4,211
Laurium	8,937
Lake Linden	2,325
Hubbell	1,059
South Range	1,097
Houghton	5,113
Ahmeek	766

In only two of the above villages was there a decrease in population since the last state census was taken six years ago. At that time the population of Lake Linden was 2,347, or twenty-two more than this year, and the population of South Range was 1,177, eighty more than at present.

The population of Red Jacket in 1904 was 3,784; Laurium, 7,653; Hubbell, 1042 and Houghton, 4345. The population of Laurium increased at a higher rate than the population of Red Jacket, but this was to be expected, owing to the increased area of the former town.

ORDER IS PLACED FOR A NEW FERRY BOAT

The Mackinac Transportation company, which operates the car ferries St. Ignace and Sainte Marie, between Mackinaw City and St. Ignace, has awarded to the Toledo Shipbuilding company the contract for a new steel car ferry, which will cost approximately $400,000. It is expected the new steamer will be ready to go into commission in October, this year.

The steamer will be 352 feet long and 60 feet wide. She will have a capacity for carrying 25 cars. There will be three engines, two placed in her stern and one in her bow, giving the vessel 5,000 horsepower.

In size and carrying capacity the new boat will be larger than the Sainte Marie, the largest and newest of the two ferries the company now owns.

HAS SLIM CHANCE OF GETTING THE CASH

Houghton Daily Mining Gazette:—The latest from Lansing is that Escanaba has a slim chance of obtaining that suggested $15,000 for an upper peninsula fair. That is not news. Nobody with any real knowledge of the Michigan legislature ever suspected that there was a chance of getting that cash. Legislative appropriations for fairs are confined entirely to the southern peninsula and they are busy now investigating the use of the money given to the state fair. There seems to be some justification for the investigation, too.

USE MICHIGAN COAL.

The bill of Representative Kerns which is now pending before the legislature, providing that Michigan institutions shall use Michigan coal, is an excellent measure and deserves to be enacted into law, declares the Saginaw Courier-Herald.

The bill does not throw the state open to a greater expense on account of the purchase of Michigan coal. It is provided only that where the price is the same the preference shall be given Michigan coal, and this is reasonable.

COUPLE MARRY AGAIN AFTER FORTY YEARS

Hudson, Wis., April 14.—County Clerk H. S. Offerdahl today issued a marriage license to Louis B. Littlefield of Sacramento, Cal., and Eva S. Childs of St. Paul, who married each other forty years ago.

Over in France, Arbor day—although it does not go by that name—does not come once a year, but once a week.

More than two score forest protection societies now exist in the European country, and every member of them is working hard for a common purpose—the growing and saving of forests. Already they have established nearly three hundred nurseries. A hundred thousand trees either have been grafted or planted. Millions of seeds of every known species of tree indigenous to France have been sown.

CHAPTER XIX.

Rutten's Daughter. In darkness the blacker for the sudden disappearance of the light, somebody stumbled over Amber—stumbled and swore in good English.

"Thank God!" He felt strong hands lift him to his feet. He clung to him who had helped him, swaying like a drunkard, with a swirl in the brain thus roughly awakened from semi-hypnosis.

"Here," said Labertouche's voice, "take my hand and follow. We're in for it now!"

He caught Amber's hand and dragged him, yielding and unquestioning, rapidly through a chaotic rush of unseen bodies.

The ring had electrified the tense audience. With a pandemonium of shrieks, oaths, shouts, orders and commands unheeded, a concerted rush was made from every quarter to the spot where the doomed man had been kneeling.

He was now recovering rapidly and able to appreciate that they stood a good chance of winning away; for the natives were all converging toward the center of the cavern, and apparently none heeded them.

"Don't hesitate to shoot if anyone comes this way!" he said. "I've got to get this door open and—"

He broke off with an ejaculation of gratitude; for while he had been speaking his fingers busily groping in the convolutions of the sculptured pedestal had encountered what he sought, and now he pulled out an iron bar two feet or so in length and as thick as a woman's wrist. Inserting this in

"I'll with you," panted Labertouche, removing the lever. "Don't delay."

Amber did not. He took with him a hazy impression of a vast, vaulted hall filled with a ruddy glare of torchlight, a moving rabble of gorgeously attired natives in his center.

Labertouche followed and with the aid of a small electric pocket lamp discovered another socket for the lever. A moment later the slab moved back into place, Labertouche chuckled.

"Come along," he said, and drew ahead at a dog-trot.

They sped down a passage that delved at a sharp grade through solid rock. Now and again it turned and struck away in another direction.

Labertouche pulled up impatiently. "What's the matter?" "Sophia!"

"Trust me, dear boy, and come along."

It was some time later that Labertouche extinguished his lamp and threw a low word of warning over his shoulder.

Labertouche pushed Amber on ahead. Stooping the Virginian entered a small, ruff chamber hollowed out of the rock of Kattapur.

The Virginian saw the jet of flame spurt from her hand and felt the bullet's impact upon the wall behind his head.

with the reverberations of the shot and the screaming of the woman on the charpy. The pistol exploded again as he grappled with the would-be murderer; the bullet, passing up his sleeve, crossed his left arm as with a white-hot iron, and tore out through the cloth on his shoulder.

"You would!" he cried, and threw her from him, putting a foot upon the pistol.

She reeled back against the wall and crouched there, trembling, her cheeks on fire, her eyes aflame with rage.

His change of position left the pistol unguarded, and the woman swooped down upon it like a bird of prey; but before she could get her fingers on its grip, Labertouche stepped between them, fended her off, and quietly possessed himself of the weapon.

"Your pardon, madam," he said, gravely. Naraini retreated, shaking with fury, and Amber employed the respite to recognize Sophia Farrell in the woman on the charpy.

"I'm all right," she took his hands, helping herself to rise. "Thank you," she said, her eyes shining, a flush of color suffusing her face with glory.

"Yes, why?" The Englishman explained without turning from his sombre and morose regard of Naraini.

"No!" she cried, going swiftly to the secret agent. "No!" She put a hand upon his arm, but he shook it off.

"What do you mean to do?" insisted Sophia. "You can't—you mustn't!"

"This is no time for half-measures, Miss Farrell," Labertouche told her brusquely. "Our lives hang in the balance—Mr. Amber's, yours, mine. Please go."

"You promise not to harm her?" "Amber!" cried the Englishman, impatiently. "Will you—"

"Please, Miss Farrell!" begged Amber, trying to take the girl's hand and draw her away.

"I won't!" she declared. "I'll not move a step until he promises. You don't understand. No matter what the danger she's—"

"She's a fiend incarnate," Labertouche broke in. "Amber, get that girl—"

"She's my sister!" cried Sophia. "Now will you understand?" "What?" The two men exclaimed as one.

She held up her head defiantly, her cheeks burning—"my sister by adoption. We were brought up together. She was the daughter of an old friend of my father's—an Indian prince. A few years ago she ran away—"

"Thank God!" said Amber from the bottom of his soul; and, "Ah, you would!" cried Labertouche tensely, as Naraini seized the opportunity, when his attention was momentarily diverted, to break for freedom.

Amber saw the flash of a steel blade in the woman's hand as she struck at the secret agent, and the latter, stepping back, deflected the blow with a guarding forearm. Then, with the quickness of a snake, Naraini stooped, glided beneath his arms, and slipped from the coil.

With a smothered oath Labertouche leaped to the doorway, lifting his pistol; but he was no quicker than Sophia, who caught his arm and held him back. "No," she panted; "not even for our lives—not at that price!"

He yielded unexpectedly. "Of course you are perfectly right, Miss Farrell," said he, with a little bow. "I'm sorry that circumstances—"

A long, shrill shriek echoed down the gallery. Labertouche shrugged and turned to the left. "Come along," he said. "Amber, take Miss Farrell's hand and keep close to me."

"Horses!" Amber interrupted. "Great heavens, man, you're—you're omiscient!"

"No—lucky," Labertouche retorted briskly. "Where'd I been without Ram Nath? He's taking care of the animals."

and came back. "If you help me, Amber, I'd say we can get Miss Farrell across without a wetting." He offered to clasp hands with the Virginian and so make a seat; but Amber had a happier thought.

"I think I can manage by myself, thank you—if Miss Farrell will trust me." (To be continued tomorrow.)

NATIONAL MOVEMENT AGAINST PRISON LABOR

New York, April 14.—Secretary-Treasurer Thomas F. Tracy of the union label department of the American Federation of Labor has asked the labor unions of the country to unite in a campaign against prison labor in the shirt, shoe and garment industries.

The Sixty-first congress adjourned without giving us any relief. It failed to pass the prison labor bill endorsed by numerous conventions of the Federation of Labor and by this department as well.

The fire loss in this country for the first three months of the year amounted to $70,000,000, an increase of $30,000,000 over the same period for 1910.

Chicago, April 14.—The fire loss in this country for the first three months of the year amounted to $70,000,000, an increase of $30,000,000 over the same period for 1910.

Insurance men feel that the public must take up the consideration of the enormous fire waste in a sane and forceful way and endeavor to slow down on the $250,000,000 annual drain from the fire fiend.

Most experts who are studying the problem give it as their opinion that the careless attitude of the American people is the cause of much of this heavy loss.

Chicago, Ill., April 14.—After the arrest of Andrew Buktus on a charge of counterfeiting, United States secret service men found a counterfeiting plant for raising $2 bills to $20 bills hidden under piles of Bibles in Buktus' room.

"What do you mean to do?" insisted Sophia. "You can't—you mustn't!"

"This is no time for half-measures, Miss Farrell," Labertouche told her brusquely. "Our lives hang in the balance—Mr. Amber's, yours, mine. Please go."

"You promise not to harm her?" "Amber!" cried the Englishman, impatiently. "Will you—"

"Please, Miss Farrell!" begged Amber, trying to take the girl's hand and draw her away.

"I won't!" she declared. "I'll not move a step until he promises. You don't understand. No matter what the danger she's—"

"She's a fiend incarnate," Labertouche broke in. "Amber, get that girl—"

"She's my sister!" cried Sophia. "Now will you understand?" "What?" The two men exclaimed as one.

She held up her head defiantly, her cheeks burning—"my sister by adoption. We were brought up together. She was the daughter of an old friend of my father's—an Indian prince. A few years ago she ran away—"

"Thank God!" said Amber from the bottom of his soul; and, "Ah, you would!" cried Labertouche tensely, as Naraini seized the opportunity, when his attention was momentarily diverted, to break for freedom.

Amber saw the flash of a steel blade in the woman's hand as she struck at the secret agent, and the latter, stepping back, deflected the blow with a guarding forearm. Then, with the quickness of a snake, Naraini stooped, glided beneath his arms, and slipped from the coil.

With a smothered oath Labertouche leaped to the doorway, lifting his pistol; but he was no quicker than Sophia, who caught his arm and held him back.

"No," she panted; "not even for our lives—not at that price!"

He yielded unexpectedly. "Of course you are perfectly right, Miss Farrell," said he, with a little bow. "I'm sorry that circumstances—"

A long, shrill shriek echoed down the gallery. Labertouche shrugged and turned to the left.

THEATRICAL.

THE GARRICK—Without reservation or qualification, it may be stated that the stock company now playing at the Garrick theater is giving more and better entertainment for the prices of admission than was ever before given in Escanaba. This is a statement that anybody who has attended the performances during the last week in the new playhouse will be willing to endorse. Especially will those who attended the performance last evening back it up, for they saw in every respect equal to many for which admission of 50 and 75 cents has been charged.

In addition to the play, "The Irish Detective," which was excellently presented, there were two high class singing specialties, one by Thomas E. Depew and the other by Miss Clara Du Hadway and a splendid series of moving pictures, which unfolded a charming and at times thrilling love story in Ireland, "Where the Shamrock Grows."

Every role in the play was well taken and for a first performance it went with unusual smoothness. Thomas E. Depew in the leading role of Larry Brogan, the Irish detective, has a part that fits him down to the ground and he gets out of it all there is to get. Mr. Depew is a natural comedian and his ability and personal characteristics have already made him a prime favorite with the Garrick audiences. His curtain announcements made before the last act of each performance are alone a joy to listen to and chuckle over.

Miss Clara Du Hadway, as Kitty O'Neil, in love with Larry, shares the comedy honors with Mr. Depew and is also greatly liked in her singing specialties. Miss Ella Kramer as Grace Dinsmore, Z. Volney as Herbert Crafton, Miss Beattie Fox as Mona Travers, Ed. Stirling as Ralph Dinsmore, Jack Snyder as Jack Dinsmore and Raymond McSherry and Eugene Phelps in minor roles, are all worthy of praise for their intelligent and capable work. The play is well mounted as to scenery and is presented with an attention to correct staging and detail that is as gratifying as it is unusual in popular price theaters.

"The Irish Detective" was enjoyed last night by a large audience and deserves to be seen by an equally large assemblage at every performance during the remainder of its run, which ends next Wednesday night.

THE PETERSON—The gorgeous musical extravaganza, "The Cat and the Fiddle," which for the past four seasons has been such a whirlwind success, will be the attraction at the Peterson tonight. A company of some forty singers, dancers, comedians, and a large and carefully drilled and beautifully gowned chorus are included. The plot is taken and founded on the favorite old nursery rhyme, "Hey Diddle Diddle, the Cat and the Fiddle," elaborated upon, and worked out by deft touches into a fine big musical comedy extravaganza, just the sort that is a delight to theatre goers on account of its breeziness.

There are many new big song hits and musical and dancing numbers by the famous beauty chorus, all of which have delighted thousands so that they are now on the musical programs of every band and orchestra concert in the country. They include "My Maid in the Moon," "Mother Goose's Dolls" and the success of last season, "1882," "Rosey Dreams," "I've Never Been Introduced to You," "In the Shadow of the Old Date Tree," etc.

THE PETERSON—"The Rosary," a beautiful play to be produced by Messrs. Gaskell and MacVitty, at the Peterson next Sunday evening, April 16, is described as follows:

A typical American family is shown, a young wife, her devoted husband, their friends and the material surroundings which wealth can procure.

Then comes the jarring note, so slight that even the most sensitive could hardly hear it. Rather it is a subtle discord of the atmosphere. No one knows whence it comes or the reason of its being; but it grows, grows, more and more apparent. Now it swells into suspicion and doubt, then blind rage, and the household is rent, its happiness is gone.

Then rises the other power, a higher spiritual note, which swells upon the ear until its beauty and divine harmony brings the discordant souls of the family back to peace and full accord. That is "The Rosary." Chicago liked "The Rosary" so well that it stayed there for three months. Its success in Boston is so great that it will undoubtedly run at the Globe Theatre in that city for a year. Don't fail to see it at the Peterson next Sunday night.

SAILOR SELLS QUART OF HIS OWN BLOOD

New York, April 14.—Two hundred men called at Mount Moriah hospital here yesterday in answer to an advertisement offering $25 for a quart of human blood. Most of them were penniless and all declared that the monetary reward was their sole consideration in applying.

G. J. Allen, a strapping sailor, was selected and for half an hour last night blood flowed from his arteries into the veins of Mrs. Rosie Reiser, Allen wanted to depart when the operation was concluded, but surgeons detained him until he recovers his strength. Mrs. Reiser, who had lost blood through an internal hemorrhage, is today on the road to recovery.

Out of every dozen people you see on the streets these days, two or three are on their ways to answer advertisements.

"WHITE WINGS" ARE AGAIN ON THE JOB

The "White Wings" are now familiar figures on the streets of Escanaba, and although they don't wear their spotless linen, the shovels and picks and carts are on deck. They seem to work harder than ever, after having laid up all winter watching the snow pile on the streets that many of them have swept for a number of years.

Where the ice had congregated during the winter, picks were used in chopping it loose from the pavement and it was later hauled away in wagons under the street commissioner's directions. Most of these places have been cleaned now.

WILL PLANT SUGAR BEETS THIS SPRING

Several Farmers in Escanaba Township Take Kindly to the Idea of Raising Sugar Beets, for Which There is an Assured Market—General News of the Township.

(Special Correspondence.)

Escanaba Township, April 14.—There is a prospect that the farmers will plant quite an acreage to sugar beets this spring. Already contracts have been closed for sixteen acres and several other farmers are strongly inclined to put a part of their land to sugar beets. Thomas Jones will plant eight acres to beets and thinks it will pay better than potatoes. Of one thing the farmer is assured that every ton of beets he can raise is worth six dollars and that there will be no trouble to get rid of them. The business is new and requires some time for the farmer to thoroughly understand. But in time he is bound to succeed, for the climatic conditions are favorable for sugar beets.

Several of the farmers here attended the county grange meeting held in Danforth settlement last Friday and by all accounts it was a complete success.

Mrs. E. Sarasin spent Saturday and Sunday in Gladstone visiting relatives. No farm work has been done yet. The snow has not entirely disappeared.

Mrs. James Burr has been quite ill for the last month at her home, but is now improving.

DAVID JAYNE HILL RESIGNS HIS POST

(By Associated Press.) Washington, April 14.—David Jayne Hill, of Rochester, N. Y., American ambassador to Germany, has resigned. The resignation has been accepted by President Taft.

Neither in the resignation of Hill nor the letter of acceptance by the president is any reason given for the ambassador's resignation. The president thanks Mr. Hill for his services at Berlin and says that he is glad to know that he will remain there until July, at which time the resignation goes into effect.

It is believed that Ambassador Hill's retirement is in accord with the custom of past administrations to appoint new ambassadors to all important posts. President Taft has already made changes in all important diplomatic posts, excepting Great Britain and Germany.

SEASON TO OPEN MAY 27

Continued From Page 1. Concerning the meeting, its proceedings and results the Marquette Mining Journal of today gives the following authoritative report, which will undoubtedly be read with the greatest interest by Escanaba baseball fans: "The first games will be played on May 27, when Marquette will appear at Union park, playing the Negaunee team, and Ishpeming will play Escanaba at that city. On the 28th the same teams will meet at the same places. For the 29th and 30th Negaunee will go to Marquette for two games and Escanaba will come to Ishpeming. After that there will be regular week end games, Saturday and Sunday. The schedule will put the Marquette and Escanaba teams at home each second week. "The league officers elected were: President and secretary, Frank J. Russell, Marquette; vice president, Capt. F. E. Keese, Ishpeming; treasurer F. M. Olmsted, Escanaba. Mr. Russell was elected praident and secretary largely because he had charge of the correspondence that brought Marquette county teams and Escanaba together on the league proposition, and looked after the negotiations with Escanaba for the teams of this county. Harmonious and Enthusiastic. The Ishpeming team was represented last evening by Messrs. Walters, Yungbluth, Simons and Wank; Escanaba by L. M. Beggs and E. J. McMartin; Negaunee by T. A. Thoren and J. M. Perkins and Marquette by J. G. Stenglein and S. J. Mitchell. The meeting was both harmonious and enthusiastic, and the representatives of all the towns reported that the work of organizing their teams was practically completed. It was agreed that the outlook is excellent for some of the fastest baseball that has ever been played in the upper peninsula. "Each town will appoint one umpire for the league staff. It is planned to give the umpires extensive powers, including full charge of both teams. They will be empowered to assess fines up to $5 on players who do not conduct themselves properly."
