

SECRETARY OF WAR DICKINSON QUILTS THE TAFT CABINET

HENRY L. STIMSON HIS SUCCESSOR

Will Be Succeeded by Recently Defeated Republican Candidate for Governor of New York—Resignation Occasions Great Surprise—Another Important Appointment Announced.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, May 13.—Secretary of War Jacob M. Dickinson of Tennessee, the Democratic member of the cabinet, has resigned. Henry L. Stimson of New York, the recently defeated Republican candidate for governor of the state, has been given the war portfolio. This announcement was made at the White House last night, and it occasioned great surprise.

In the letters exchanged between the president and Mr. Dickinson, no reason, other than of pressing private affairs, is given for the secretary's retirement. The president will confer with Mr. Stimson in New York today or Sunday, but the new secretary of war will not take the oath of office until the return of the president to the capital on Monday.

Another Appointment. Mr. Dickinson will go to his Tennessee home. He expects to devote his attention to business and will not return to the practice of law, in which he was engaged when the president appointed him secretary of war in March, 1909. He is the second member of Mr. Taft's cabinet to retire to private life, Secretary of the Interior Ballinger having severed his connection with the president's official family only a few months ago.

Coincident with the announcement of Mr. Dickinson's retirement came that of the appointment of C. S. Millington of Herkimer, N. Y., to be assistant secretary of the United States in New York. Mr. Stimson was the Roosevelt candidate for governor, while Mr. Millington was a former member of the house from the Twenty-seventh New York district and is a close friend of Vice President Sherman and other leaders of the "Old Guard" in the Empire state, having succeeded Mr. Sherman in the house when the latter became vice president.

Food for Speculation. In the two appointments, official Washington found food for speculation, and many politicians thought they saw therein the first step of the administration to straighten out the tangled skein of New York politics.

No effort was made by the president to conceal the satisfaction with which he viewed the appointment of Mr. Stimson. Not only has he the highest personal regard for the incoming member of his cabinet, but he is well aware that the appointment will be agreeable to a large faction of the Republican party in New York.

Others Give Approval. While the selection of Mr. Stimson was made after only a few days' consideration, Senator Root and others were consulted and gave their approval. Former President Roosevelt was not called into conference, but there is no question that he must approve the naming to such an important post of a man for whom he worked tooth and nail in the recent governorship campaign.

The appointment of Mr. Stimson will give New York two members of the cabinet, Attorney General Wickham being a resident of that state.

The fire department was called out this morning to extinguish a fire that had started from the chimney on a small house in the rear of N. Primeau's saloon. The fire was quickly squelched and $25 will cover the damage.

THE ROYAL THEATER WILL OPEN MAY 17

Announcement is made that the Royal theater, formerly the Lincoln, will be formally opened to the public next Wednesday, May 17, by which time the alterations and improvements projected by its new owner, C. S. Sullivan, will all have been completed. Mr. Sullivan plans to make his theater an exclusively picture attraction. There will be no vaudeville, only straight moving pictures. Not even advertisements will be shown and at each performance, covering an hour and 15 minutes, four reels of film, making 4,000 feet of pictures, will be used. The theater will be equipped with two picture machines and two operators and will, it is declared, be the most completely equipped picture theater in Escanaba.

JENNIE W. WILL RUN TO MAYWOOD

Escanaba People to Be Given Opportunity to Spend Sunday at the Popular Resort Up the Bay—Captain English Looking for a Manager for the Maywood Hotel.

For the accommodation of Escanaba people who are desirous of enjoying a visit at Maywood tomorrow (Sunday), Capt. George English will make a trip with his launch, the Jennie W., to that popular resort and return. He announces that the Jennie W. will leave the Stephenson dock at nine o'clock tomorrow morning and leave Maywood for the return trip at four o'clock in the afternoon.

Captain English is now engaged in looking for a man to take charge of the Maywood hotel and conduct it during the coming season. This would be a profitable venture for any man who understands how to run a summer resort hotel. The house is all furnished and has a store in connection, while an ample supply of ice is stored in the ice house. There is also an acre of fertile ground that can be converted into a first class "garden patch."

LIFE IMPRISONMENT FOR JOHN F. DIETZ; WIFE AND SON FREE

JURY FINDS THAT DIETZ MURDERED DEPUTY SHERIFF OSCAR HARP AT CAMERON DAM DURING FIGHT LAST FALL.

OLD MAN SMILES AT VERDICT.

Mrs. Dietz, His Wife, and Son, Leslie, are Found Not Guilty, and Will Go Free—No Demonstration Made in Court When Verdict is Announced—Dietz Apparently Not Disturbed.

(By Associated Press.)

Hayward, Wis., May 13.—John F. Dietz will spend the remainder of his life at hard labor in the penitentiary at Waupun, according to the verdict of the jury today, which found him guilty of the murder of Deputy Sheriff Oscar Harp in a fight which took place at Cameron Dam on the eighth day of last October.

The verdict was guilty of murder in the first degree.

Mrs. Dietz, his wife, and his son, Leslie, were found not guilty and will be allowed to go free.

The smile with which the old man always faced things as they happened to him did not desert him and was still in evidence when the judge read the verdict of the jury.

He made no demonstration himself, but Mrs. Dietz glared at the jury as the verdict was read.

Blames the "Lumber Trust." Following the verdict, the judge informed Mrs. Dietz and Leslie that they were discharged. He then asked Dietz if he had anything to say, to which Dietz replied:

"Do you suppose that I did not know that sooner or later the trust, because it is big and I am little, would kill me or put me out of the way? I have fought my fight and defended my home and family. I did nothing wrong and this conviction does not alter the fact. The trust has one law, one creed, one purpose. That is to rule or ruin. They could not rule John Dietz, so they tried for six years to ruin him. This morning it looks as if they have got what they were after."

Dietz then made a motion for a new trial, again denouncing the lumber trust in doing so. The court overruled the motion, but gave Dietz ten days in which to file exceptions.

HEAD OF LOCAL BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION SENDS EX-PRESIDENT REQUEST TO BE CITY'S HOME-COMING GUEST.

HOPED THAT HE WILL SAY "YES."

Senators Townsend and Smith and Congressman Young Asked to Use Their Good Offices in Securing His Acceptance—July 3 is Date Set for the Home Coming Celebration.

(By Associated Press.)

Escanaba, Mich., May 13, 1911. The Honorable Theo. Roosevelt, Oyster Bay, N. Y.: Voicing the sentiments and desire of the unanimous populace of this community, we wish to extend to you a most cordial invitation to be present as the guest of our Association on "Home Coming Day," July 3rd, in the largest city in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, noted for large families, large industries and big sticks. Escanaba Business Men's Association, J. E. Byrns, President.

Acting under his own wishes and those of the directors of the Escanaba Business Men's association, which at a meeting Friday evening decided to have a Home Coming day in Escanaba on July 4, President John E. Byrns of the association this afternoon dispatched the foregoing telegram to the only living ex-president.

It fully explains itself and there is hope that the invitation it contains may be accepted by Colonel Roosevelt, in view of the fact that it is probable he will accept an invitation to attend the Hancock Home Coming celebration at a somewhat later date.

Kladic sued to recover damages for personal injuries inflicted upon him by Scribbs during an assault made by the latter. In the melee Kladic had two of his teeth knocked out and the result was not only considerable pain, but a dentist's bill of some proportions.

SECOND DEATH SENTENCE AT SOO

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., May 13.—For the second time within a week a death sentence was pronounced yesterday at Sault Ste Marie, Ont. William Carroll, sixty-five years old, tottering from the court room, after being sentenced by Justice Britton to be hanged July 26. Carroll's crime was the murder of William Theiland last November in a lumber camp near Blind river. Mrs. Angelina Neapolitana was sentenced a few days ago to be hanged Aug. 9 for killing her husband with an axe. The dates of the two executions fall just two weeks apart.

FAIR AND WARMER WEATHER IN SIGHT

The following summary of weather conditions was prepared today by Local Forecaster H. S. Cole: "Showers have occurred in the north Atlantic states, the north Pacific states and in the southwest. "The area of high pressure has moved from the Dakotas to the upper lake region, causing heavy frost in northern Michigan and light frost in northern Wisconsin. Temperatures are rising in Kansas, Nebraska and the Dakotas, and from there westward to the Rockies. "Low pressure approaching from the west will cause fair weather, rising temperature and light variable winds becoming southeast and south; light frost tonight."

MOVING BUILDING IS NOT STOPPED

Common Council Finds No Necessity for Rescinding Permission Given to the Kratz Brothers for Removal of Frame Building—Indemnity Bond is Exacted, However.

Because of the objections that had been raised by certain parties to the removal by the Kratz brothers of a large frame building from the corner of Ludington and Jennie streets to a new location in the 1300 block on Ludington street, and the claim that the common council had no right to grant the permission it had given for such removal, the council held a special meeting last evening to take further action in the matter, if that should prove necessary.

There was considerable discussion over the question, but it was not shown that the council had exceeded its power in granting permission for the removal of the building, for the resolution expressly provided that the removal should be made in strict accordance with the provisions of the fire limits ordinance.

It was ascertained, however, that the Kratz Brothers had not yet filed the proper indemnity bond required by the city and the city attorney and the street committee were instructed to procure such a bond in the sum of $5,000 and approve the same before permitting the work of removal to continue.

This bond was furnished today and approved and the work of moving the building, which was begun several days ago, is again under way.

It is understood that it is the intention of the Kratz brothers to so remodel and reconstruct the building after it reaches its new site that it will conform in every respect to the requirements of the fire limits ordinance.

The site where it stood at the corner of Ludington and Jennie streets is to be occupied by a fine brick store building, which the Kratz brothers will build in accordance with plans now being drafted by a Milwaukee firm of architects.

W. J. HATTON WEARS A "SHINER"

Supt. W. J. Hatton of the Escanaba Water company met with an accident yesterday that might have cost him the sight of his left eye. On entering the basement at 602 Ludington street, the Water company's new location, he stepped on the end of a loose board and the other end, flying up, struck him a terrific blow in the left eye. As a result Mr. Hatton is wearing a pair of dark glasses and a supply of court plaster.

HAS GREAT HOPES FOR MEXICAN PEACE

(By Associated Press.) Juarez, May 13.—"I have the greatest hopes for peace and think that I will succeed this time," said Braniff, one of the "go-between" for peace in Mexico, after he had a conference with Madero Jr., today. He said further that negotiations for peace have been unofficially resumed. "Old General Navarro, the leader of the defeated federalists against whose life threats have been made by the insurgents, was personally escorted to the river at noon today by Provisional President Madero and forced the river to the American side on a horse.

BIG EXCURSION TO WASHINGTON ISLAND ASSURED

COMMITTEE OF THE BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION REPORTS THAT IT HAS CHARTERED STEAMER MAYWOOD FOR TRIP.

THURSDAY, JULY 8, IS THE DATE.

Movement of Several Associations Now Under Way to Secure Service by Water—Association Will Try to Secure a Slogan for the City—Prize of $5 for Slogan Offered.

There is now every assurance that the proposed excursion to Washington Island under the auspices of the Escanaba Business Men's association on July 8 will be given. Friday evening at a meeting of the association directors the committee which had been instructed to attend to the matter reported that it had chartered the steamer Maywood for the trip. Arrangements for the excursion will now go forward. It is planned to have the Maywood leave here about 10 a. m. and to start from Washington Island on the return trip whenever it shall be agreeable to a majority of the excursionists.

After some consideration, it was decided to decline an offer of ten per cent of the gross receipts in return for the use of the association's name in connection with the excursion to be given from this city to Menominee and Marinette June 15 on the steamer United States. While the offer was considered a liberal one, it was deemed inadvisable to accept it.

President J. E. Byrns reported that he had taken up the matter of securing better water transportation service for Green bay ports with the Business Men's associations of Green Bay, Menominee and Marinette, and that (Continued on page 6.)

ANOTHER BALL PLAYER ARRIVES

Danfel Kidder, a ball player from Hart, Mich., arrived in the city this afternoon and reported to the directors of the Escanaba Baseball club that he was ready to go on duty as a member of the team. Kidder has been signed to play in the outfield and comes well recommended. He has played with the Duluth and Lansing teams. He will be given his first chance here to show what he can do in the practice game to be played at South Park tomorrow afternoon.

"FLANDERS" CAR MAKES HIT LOCALLY

L. K. Edwards has received the new "Flanders" fore door touring car, and it is making a decided hit in automobile circles. The engine is about twenty horse power and is equipped with a magneto, the same as a higher priced car. The "Flanders" is sold for $500 and there is probably no better car for the price made.

LEAGUE TEAM TO PLAY TIP TOPS

Arrangements have been made for a practice game of baseball tomorrow afternoon between a team composed of players who have been signed by the Escanaba club of the Marquette-Delta County league and the Tip Tops. Not all of the league team players have arrived here and any vacancies in positions will be filled by local players. The game is to be played at the South Park ball grounds and is expected to be a reasonably good one.

INSPECTED THE BRAMPTON ROAD

Gladstone Delta: Mayor Hammel and Road Commissioner Johnson inspected the Brampton road Wednesday afternoon. They are of opinion that the city should grade the road to its limits from the top of the bluff this year, as earnest to the county road commission that it purposes to make improved highways within its own boundaries.

William Northrup was a business visitor in Minneapolis Friday.

PYTHIAN SISTERS' BALL IS A SUCCESS

All anticipations connected with the annual ball of the Pythian Sisters, held in Clark's hall Friday night, were realized. There was a large and congenial attendance of socially inclined people and they enjoyed to the fullest extent the good time furnished them by the Pythian Sisters, assisted by their brothers of the Knights of Pythias. Dancing began shortly after nine o'clock and continued until after midnight. Brotherton's orchestra furnishing its best music. The hall was very attractively decorated for the occasion. Refreshments were served and there was nothing lacking to make the function one of the most successful and pleasant of the current season.

FORD RIVER LUMBER COMPANY TO QUIT

Operations of Its Extensive Plant at Ford River to Be Discontinued at Close of Present Season—All the Company's Property is Offered for Sale—Some Offers.

According to information received by The Mirror from an authoritative source, the Ford River Lumber company will discontinue the operation of its big lumbering plant at Ford River at the conclusion of this season's run.

It is understood that the company is offering all its property, including the mill and townsite, for sale and that several offers from prospective purchasers have already been made.

It is stated that the I. Stephenson company will take over what remains of the Ford River Lumber company's timber holdings.

The Ford River Lumber company has furnished the principal industry of Ford River for many years and its retirement from business will prove to be a loss to that village, unless the plant is sold to an individual or firm that will continue its operation there.

PLAYGROUND AT CITY PARK WILL BE POPULAR PLACE

THAT FACT IS MADE APPARENT WHEN CHILDREN FLOCK TO THE CLAY FIELD AND PLAY THERE FOR FIRST TIME.

Field is a Longfelt Need and the Common Council and Park Commissioners are Given Praise for Providing It—Bath House Another Feature That Stirs Enthusiasm of Children.

That the playground of the City park will be a most popular place this year was shown yesterday afternoon, when the sunshine brought out a big squad of boys, who enjoyed for the first time the clay field. Baseball was the game participated in by the youngsters and their delight was shown by their capers and antics and gleeful shouts, which drew quite a group of spectators who seemed to enjoy the sport as much as the boys.

This field is a long felt need and many words of praise were spoken by the boys yesterday for the city council and park commission, that at last a place had been given them where they could feel at ease. Heretofore, the boys assert, no one wanted them in the streets in front of their homes. They were not allowed in the small parks, and they were forced to journey all the way out to the "yellow diamond" for their sport. The younger boys, of course, could not do that and were forced to play in the small door yards or in the alleys.

"Now," said one of the spirited lads yesterday, "we are going to form baseball teams and we will meet here every day for practice and for our match games. It's a dandy place and 'you bet' we will use it every day."

The proximity of the bathroom to the playground is another feature that seems to stir the enthusiasm of the boys.

"We'll use that all right, all right," said another of the lads. "No more dressing in barns for us." Everyone should be glad that the boys at last have a place where they can enjoy themselves and be free to play their games without being endangered by automobiles and other vehicles, and to use Escanaba's excellent beach without being compelled to find a dressing place in an outhouse or barn.

MADERO HAS SOME TROUBLE WITH HIS MEN

GEN. OROZCO HIMSELF HEADS A REVOLT AGAINST THE MADEROS AND DEMANDS FOOD AND MONEY FOR HIS MEN.

SOLDIERS HUNGRY AND RAGGED.

General Madero is Arrested and for a Time it Looks as Though the Madero Forces Would Vanish—Promise Made By Madero Satisfies the Men Somewhat, but Still Grumble.

(By Associated Press.)

Juarez, May 13.—An incipient rebellion arose this morning among the forces of General Orozco and was headed by the general himself.

The demand was made upon General Madero himself and was for food and money for the hungry and ragged soldiers.

Madero was unable to satisfy their demands at the time and his explanations were thrown aside by Orozco and his soldiers and he was declared under arrest.

Critical for a Time. The matter was finally settled by Madero promising that the immediate needs of the men would be attended to.

The insurgents then dispersed, with much grumbling over the treatment they had been receiving at the hands of Madero.

For two hours it looked very much as though the Madero forces at Juarez would pass out of existence.

Waiting for Ammunition. Juarez, Mex., May 13.—It is probable that tomorrow many insurgents will be sent southward toward Chihuahua. It is now reported that Chihuahua is defended by numerous field guns. The revolutionists will certainly not attack the city before the arrival of ammunition for their artillery, which was ordered after Washington announced the free shipment of arms across the border.

Cananea May Surrender. Cananea, Mex., May 13.—It is understood here that a Mexican official is here to negotiate the surrender of this city to the rebel leader, General Cabral. It is stated that Cabral would have no trouble in taking the town tonight if he wanted to do so.

"Mothers' Day," tomorrow is to be appropriately observed by many of the people of Escanaba. That much is certain, for several of the churches will hold special services appropriate to "Mothers' Day" and these are sure to attract large congregations of people, who will join right heartily in doing honor to their respective mothers if living or in paying tributes of respect to their memories if they have passed away. The pastors of the First M. E. and the First Baptist churches will preach "Mothers' Day" sermons at their morning services and there will also be special "Mothers' Day" services in the First Presbyterian church, which will be decorated with carnations, the "Mothers' Day" emblems.

CHILD RECONCILES ESTRANGED PARENTS

Kalamazoo, Mich., May 13.—Because their 8-year-old daughter pleaded with them constantly to marry again, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bittenbender, who were divorced three years ago, were remarried. Besides the officiating parson and two witnesses, the little girl was the only attendant at the wedding. Both the father and mother admitted that it was because of the constant pleading of the child that the differences which led to their divorce a few years ago had been forgotten. At the time the divorce was granted it was specified that the little girl should remain with her father a part of the time.

NOW WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT THIS?

Fort Plain, N. Y., May 13.—An eight-pound fish set fire to a hay car on a siding here, burned the car to the trucks, and with it sixty-five tons of hay. The fish was a sucker. Boys had built a bonfire on the Mohawk river bank, a few feet from the hay car. When the fish was landed it fell among the burning brands and threshed about wildly, showering sparks in every direction, one of which nestled in the hay and kindled the blaze.

WOMAN MAYOR SHOWS THE FIGHTING SPIRIT

Hunnell, Kas., May 13.—Mrs. Ella Wilson, America's only woman mayor, has proved herself of the militant brand by demanding that Governor Stubbs remove from office the five councilmen who have refused to meet with the mayress or to confirm the appointment of Mrs. Alice Hilton as city clerk, or Mrs. Rose E. Osborn as city marshal, the head of the police department. Mrs. Wilson complained to the governor that her administration is being hampered by the obstructive attitude of the men council members. The councilmen, on the other hand, declare that, ungalant as it may seem, they are going to fight the woman mayor to the finish. She possesses the town records and no business can be transacted unless she will surrender them. This she refuses to do unless she is assured her wishes will be carried out.

TIGHT COLLAR CHOKES A WOMAN TO DEATH

New York, May 13.—Rose Degeran's tight collar shut off her breath while she was asleep on a sofa, and instead of awakening she died. She was a cook and out of work. She called on Mrs. Anna Scotch, who had formerly employed her. After helping with the housework for a while she complained of feeling very tired. Mrs. Scotch offered her the sofa for a nap and left her alone for several hours. When Mrs. Scotch could not rouse her she called in a policeman, who pronounced Rose Degeran dead. Dr. Ross of New York hospital examined her and said the tight collar had strangled her.

It is an established fact that SWISS ALUMINUM COOKING UTENSILS are superior to those made by any other metal. This has been proven by scientific research, as the test shows that no verdigris, rust, nickel-oxides or injurious zincs can form, no matter how it is used. Neither is there danger of chipping as with enameled ware. It is the very best heat conductor, which means quick boiling and saving of fuel. Its light weight makes it easy to handle, and the silvery-white color of the ware is pleasing and always clean looking. Every piece is SPUN (not pressed or stamped like the ordinary kind) out of pure sheet material, and is absolutely seamless and sanitary. We have the Exclusive Escanaba Agency for this Famous Ware.

EXPRESS CHARGES.

Public indignation at the methods of the express companies and additional indictments against their monopoly in business are secured every time further facts are brought out, declares the Houghton Mining Gazette.

The most spectacular exhibit in recent weeks has just been brought out in an investigation made by the Minnesota railroad commission. In a nutshell, the Wells-Fargo Express company set out with a capitalization of $5,000,000, which has been increased (presumably without materially increased cash investment) to $24,000,000; that after paying 10 per cent dividends for many years, it declared a 310 per cent dividend last year; that it still has a cash surplus of $3,000,000 on hand; that the property investment of the company is not more than $5,000,000, but that it has $28,000,000 invested in stocks, bonds, mortgages and loans and on deposit in banks.

No utility, engaged in catering to the necessities of the people is legitimately entitled to any such balance sheet. It is an abject confession that some public servants have not been doing their whole duty. It constitutes an unanswerable argument against the continued domination of the parcels transportation business of the country by organized monopoly.

There are just three possible alternatives. Express companies must reduce their rates to a point which will permit merely a fair and reasonable return upon the capital actually invested in the operation of their business—and this will mean a reduction in rates which will have to be absolutely revolutionary before it will be sufficient. The second alternative is for the express companies to disappear and for the roads to handle express matter in the same general manner that they now handle fast freight—the express company being pure surplusage so far as necessity of service is required. The third alternative is the intervention of government control in the matter of parcels post. And the country merchant with his fear of the constantly growing strength of the mail order houses constitutes the strongest argument in antagonism to such an innovation.

IMPORTANCE OF SCREENS.

Are you doing anything to make the world better for your having lived in it?

God bless the man who first invented screens. The device that has at once brought the greatest degree of personal comfort, cleanliness of household and individual safety in the door and window screen. No other invention of the last quarter of a century can compare with its worth and utility as a life and health saver, and yet, until recently, screens were used principally to exclude the fly and mosquito solely on the ground of personal comfort.

Heads of families who are looking for an investment may be assured of one that is certain of enormous returns through the prevention of sickness and maybe death by the early and effective screening of every outside door and window of their home. It is much easier to keep flies out by proper screening than to get them out once they get in. Screen your house! Scientists of all countries are agreed on one point—that the fly is a carrier of disease germs—therefore, screen your house!

Flies love to feast on filth, and then get into the house and wipe their feet on your cake or baby's bottle. Screen the house! It is true they are nature's scavengers, but they spread filth and very often disease in doing their work; besides it is better to do your own scavenging by keeping clean than to have the fly do it for you; for not only is the fly a dangerous companion, but clean people are beginning to suspect that those who have flies about them are dirty housekeepers, else flies would not be there. If, therefore, you wish to bear the reputation of cleanliness in your neighborhood, be sure that your trash and manure heaps are frequently removed, and that your house is properly screened!

THE HOME MERCHANT—NO. 2.

A full line of well kept retail stores is a great public convenience. It enables our home people to make purchases and take the goods home the same day. It enables them to take their own time for inspection of goods, when they are not cut short by the hurry of a trip to some distant city.

Gail Hamilton, a well known writer of some years ago, wrote a book called "Twelve Miles from a Lemon." It was a humorous description of the inconveniences one encounters in living in a place where the conveniences of retail stores are not good.

People think of those things when picking out a residence town, and they hate to locate in a place lacking good stores, just as they dislike to go to a place lacking good water and lights and streets and sewers.

In order to get public conveniences of any kind, we have to tax ourselves. Even if it could be proved that one must occasionally pay a little more to buy goods at home, this tax necessary to get a good system of local shops is but slight compared with what we pay for other conveniences. But it does not cost more to buy at home.

The postal savings banks are so successful that 50 to 100 will be established every month. It looks as if some people had taken to heart the valuable lessons learned by putting their money into 20 per cent investments.

Jack Johnson is going to the Coronation. He will probably be accepted over there as a better type of American culture than former President Elliot of Harvard, or Henry Cabot Lodge.

There's a big crusade against bill boards and other outdoor advertising in Germany. That is one more thing that will make the American traveler spend his money abroad instead of at home.

Miss Helen Taft attended the naval academy dance the other night, and as her father works for a living, she was mighty lucky to get into this aristocratic circle unchanged.

THE KNIGHT OF THE SILVER STAR

Copyright, 1907, by R. F. Fenno & Co.

My greatest enemy in the world was before me. Revenge and death poised the scales equally. It was his life or mine now. Those below seemed to recognize the supreme moment. They did not follow, but gave the captain free fighting room. I had the advantage in position, but his arm was fresh. Engaging me swiftly, he pressed me sorely. My mad longing for revenge drew an oath from me as he parried my thrusts skillfully. I had never seen him handle his weapon so well before.

With his eyes fixed on mine he watched his opportunity. With a swift stroke he put my sword aside and sprang at me even to the step on which I was standing.

"For heaven's sake wound me, Ver-rall!" he whispered. I had done so almost before the words were spoken, how badly I did not know. He fell back into the arms of his comrades so heavily that I thought death had ended our acquaintanceship. My sword slipped from my hand, but I drew my dagger and ran to the roof. Bridget stood in my way a moment, but I pushed her aside and was on the roof before my enemies had time to follow me.

I swung the curled rope over the wall and then jumped forward to meet my last enemy, the sentry. He was unprepared and knew not how desperate a man he had to deal with. He struck one blow at me and then—Ab, it was most awful work to do! The dagger passed in softly underneath his

"I have a message for you from a woman who loves you well," said the strange knight, "so well indeed that your heart is her only home, and thus she enters it."

The last words were hissed out as a swift blow struck me. I was saved from death by the mailed shirt I wore. I knew the strange knight now—Lady Aldrida!

She threw her arms around me and called to my pursuers. I had to tear myself from her. She staggered backward and fell. I escaped into the next street and soon found myself opposite O'Ryan's house.

There were lights within. Two or three torches were before the door, throwing grotesque shadows of men standing there, and in the street to the left and to the right were torches. The place was well watched.

I drew back into the passage down which I had come and considered my position. O'Ryan knew of the rope, and since he had turned traitor it was probably no longer in its place ready for use.

The more I weighed the possibilities so much the more did it seem to me that my only escape lay through the house opposite. There was another fact which hurried my decision. I heard the distant cries of other bands of enemies who had been scouring the city in search of me. If a desperate effort was to be made, now was the time to make it. I gripped my sword firmly, made certain that the dagger in my belt could be easily drawn and then, with a prayer for safety, dashed across the street.

The men before the door were taken by surprise, as I had calculated, but they recovered themselves more quickly than I had expected. I was not well within the doorway before the air was filled with shoutings and the darkness with rushing men.

"Take him alive! Take him alive!" I dashed into the passage and sprang up the stairs, but I had little start in the race. My enemies were upon the steps behind me, and that I might not be struck in the back I was forced to turn upon them. It was a moment in which a man forgets the sacredness of human life. The first who sprang toward me fell back, with arms wide spread, clutching at nothing in the air, his soul leaping into the unseen ether, his body lay still. A second fell toward me flat upon his face. A third spun round and then pitched head foremost into the crowd of shouting men below. Step by step I mounted backward, my face to the enemy, my sword red from point to hilt, the perspiration standing heavy upon my face and arm.

"What is all this?" The voice behind me nearly took me off my guard.

"Out of the way, old woman!" "Strike him down!" "Her husband shall cudgel her presently."

Shouting, they rushed at me again. Bridget was behind me, but she did not come close enough to hinder my defense. I thought I heard her growl with satisfaction as my foremost foes reeled back down the steps. Still I retreated upward.

"The rope!" she whispered. "Still there?" "Yes."

She might be deceiving me, but her manner sounded honest. How was she still my friend when her husband was so vile a traitor to friendship?

"CHAPTER XVII. TAKE him alive!" came the cry. Yes, weakness meant that.

"The roof. There is only the sentinel." Bridget's words put new courage into me. I stayed another rush and then sprang backward. I was almost at the top of the stairs now.

"Let me pass." I knew the voice. Sword in hand, O'Ryan pushed his way through the crowd below, jumped across the body of the last man who had fallen and came at me. Had a dash to the roof meant absolute safety at that moment? I do not think I should have taken it.

me made me look at the man more closely. His limbs seemed long and loose. One arm was evidently broken. Could it be a prisoner who had made a friend of the executioner and had died so easily? There was a blue mark round his neck where a rope had been. Had not Costa said that the weight tied to a corpse slipped sometimes? This man, too, had escaped from Yadaras, but by the way only dead men took.

I sprang to my feet. I was a fool to wait here, so close to that terrible fortress. It was light now. Safety for me lay only in the woods. My enemies might know the set of the currents in the river and seek for my body in this very spot. I bathed my arms and legs and then made quickly for the woods behind.

It was well that I was wise in time, for even as I entered the wood I saw a party of horsemen coming from the bridge. Some went along the river bank, while the others spread in twos and threes fanlike over the country. They did not intend me to escape. I plunged into the wood, keeping from trodden paths, and broke off a stout stick to help me to walk and to serve as a weapon in case of need. It would be a poor defense if I were once seen. YOUR GRAY HAIRS QUICKLY VANISH

A Harmless Remedy, Made from Garden Sage, Restores Color to Gray Hair.

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs, which, unfortunately, are looked upon as heralds of advancing age. Gray hairs, however, are not always an indication of advancing age, for many people have gray hairs quite early in life. Of course, it is unnatural, and indicates that there is something wrong with the individual, and that Nature needs assistance in correcting the trouble. The same is true of hair that is constantly falling out and becoming thinner every day. If everything is right with Nature, the hair, even in comparatively elderly people, should be long, thick and glossy, without even a streak of gray.

The ideal assistant to Nature in restoring and preserving the hair is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a clean and wholesome dressing for daily use. It not only removes dandruff, but strengthens weak, thin and falling hair and promotes its growth. A few applications will restore faded or gray hair to its natural color.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

WE LEGGED TWIRLER IS WONDER OF COAST

Los Angeles fans can boast of a deaf and dumb catcher and a one armed second baseman, but Dutch Coombs of the Redondo club, so far as known, is the only pitcher with a cork leg. While railroading Coombs met with misfortune in the loss of his leg. Despite this handicap, his work exceeds that of the average semi-pro pitcher, and he is to the Moonstones in the Trolley league what Jack Coombs is to the Athletics in the American league. Coombs recently pitched a sixteen inning game and at the finish declared himself ready for more. Last season he pitched for the Bennett (Mo) club, which won thirty-three out of thirty-five games.

LAKES SHIP BUILDERS MAY BUILD NAVAL TUGS

Washington, May 13.—Great Lakes ship builders are at liberty to build, bid for and construct the two sea going naval tugs authorized by the first naval appropriation act.
A question as to whether the building of such crafts on the lakes would not be in violation of the stag agreement limiting the naval force maintained on the lakes has been decided in the negative by the state department.

Chicken Pot Pie
The Chef's Favorite

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

Some folks think that only "colored mammys" can cook chicken, but a trial of this famous chicken pot pie disproves that assertion. Every member of the family will thoroughly enjoy it.

K C Chicken Pot Pie, Baked Dumplings
One fowl cut in joints; 1/2 cup flour; 1/2 teaspoonful salt; black pepper; 2 cups flour; 3 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; 1/2 teaspoonful salt; 1/2 cup shortening; milk or cream.

Cover the fowl with boiling water and let simmer until tender, then remove to a baking dish. Mix the 1/2 cup flour, salt and black pepper with cold water to a smooth paste and use to thicken the broth. Remove the fat from the top of the broth if necessary before adding the thickening. Pour this gravy over the fowl, until it is nearly covered, and reserve the rest to serve apart. Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt, three times; into this work the shortening and use cream or milk to make a dough, less stiff than for biscuits. Put this by spoonfuls over the fowl in the dish, which it should rest upon and completely cover. Let bake about 35 minutes.

When young, tender chickens are scarce, this presents a most satisfactory way of serving old fowl. Veal or lamb prepared in this manner is more appetizing than when served as a stew. Try this and the 89 other delicious recipes in the K C Cook's Book, a copy of which may be secured free by sending the colored certificate pocket in the recent can of K C Baking Powder to the JAGUES MFG. CO., Chicago.

they had all agreed to cooperate in any efforts the Escanaba association might make toward that end. The several associations are now endeavoring to secure a boat line that will make regular trips during the season from Milwaukee and Chicago to Escanaba and the other ports named.

Through the efforts of President Byrns and the transportation committee, better express service to points north and to the copper country has been secured, a fact which was reported at the meeting. This matter was taken up some time ago on complaint of the Hoyer Baking company and an adjustment was only secured after considerable effort.

The matter of adopting a slogan for the city of Escanaba, which shall be suitable for advertising, was discussed. There were a large number of slogans submitted, but none of them appeared to fill the bill and it was decided to refer the problem to the advertising committee. It was also decided to give the students of the High school a chance to enter into a slogan competition and the student whose slogan is accepted will be given a prize of $5.

Secretary Matthews was instructed to take up with the board of public works the matter of furnishing the string lights for Ludington street this season. The lighting is to be the same as last year.

The committee to which had been referred the investigation of better systems for street lighting was unprepared to report and was given further time.

Following the reading of a communication from the members of the Escanaba High school team which won the High school football championship of the upper peninsula last season, the directors decided to present each member of the team with a sweater bearing the initials of the school. John M. Miller, Thomas J. Riley and Dr. R. E. Hodson were appointed a committee to purchase and present the sweaters. The communication from the students composing the football team was one of the best the Association has ever received and is worthy of publication, which will be given it in these columns next Monday.

Bills aggregating $180 were allowed and ordered paid and the sum of $246 was received in the payment of dues.

COL. ROOSEVELT IS INVITED TO ESCANABA

The following request to United States Senators Charles E. Townsend and William Alden Smith and Congressman H. Olin Young:

Escanaba, Mich., May 13, 1911. "The people in our community, through our association, have extended an invitation to Honorable Theo. Roosevelt to be our guest on Home Coming day, July 3d. Our association will appreciate your efforts in requesting Mr. Roosevelt to accept the invitation and honor us with his presence. —Escanaba Business Men's Association, J. E. Byrns, Pres."

An Enthusiastic Meeting. At the meeting of the directors of the association Friday evening considerable business of importance was transacted, one of the principal actions taken being to have a Home Coming day and a proper celebration of the Fourth of July.

President Byrns was authorized to appoint a general committee of arrangements for both events, with himself as chairman, and to appoint such other committees as may be necessary to carry out the plans decided upon. These committees will be appointed soon and will lose no time in getting to work.

Five New Members. All of the directors, except John A. Stromberg, who is confined to his home by illness, were present at the meeting, which was one of the best and most enthusiastic in the history of the association. Five new members were added to the roll and there is promise of more additions at the next meeting.

May Apportionment of Primary School Money is Made and the Schools of This County Get Large Amount—Escanaba City Comes in for Nearly $30,000—Details.

State Superintendent of Instruction Luther L. Wright has announced that the semi-annual apportionment of primary school money has been apportioned and is to be distributed among the school districts of the state, according to law.

The total amount to be distributed is more than $5,350,000 and, according to information received by County Clerk John A. Semer, Delta county's share will be $67,718.
