GOV. OSBORN AGAINST POSTAL CARD EVIL; ISSUES OPEN LETTER

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF THE STATE IS OPPOSED TO CIRCULATION OF IMMORAL AND SUGGESTIVE POST CARDS.

CAMPAIGN OF MRS. M'KEE HELPED

Governor Quotes the Law Covering General Distribution of Offending Cards—Recommends that Censors Before Designs are Sent to the Printers.

According to a dispatch sent out from Grand Rapids last Saturday, Governor Osborn has given his official sanction to the crusade against immoral and suggestive postal cards, a crusade against which was inaugurated some time ago by Mrs. Mary D. McKee of Grand Rapids, who is the founder of the Michigan Home for Girls.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, Executive Office, Lansing, May 16, 1911.

To the People of the State of Michigan, to the Churches, Press, Postmasters and Educators in Particular, in Every City, Town, Village and Hamlet: In the interests of the young, who need every possible protection, and in behalf of proper enforcement of our laws for such protection, I am in hearty sympathy with the campaign Mrs. D. McKee, founder of the Michigan Home for Girls, Grand Rapids, is engaged in, to prohibit the making and circulating of immoral and suggestive post cards; and as chief executive of the state, will authorize any action necessary to remove this insidious evil.

I recommend that the authorities give proper attention to the complaints of censors, who shall be appointed to inspect designs before going to the printers, and that their authority to report dealers, drug stores, or other places where immoral cards are sold, be recognized. Provisions of the Law. The law is as follows, and will be enforced and violators prosecuted: "If any person shall import, print, publish, sell or distribute any book, pamphlet, ballad, printed paper or other thing, containing obscene language..."

REMEMBER DAY OF THE CORNERSTONE

Sunday was the fourth anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of the First M. E. church and it was appropriately observed with special services in the morning and evening. These services were unusually well attended, the day being made an occasion for a rally of the church members. Rev. Frederick Spence made appropriate reference to the anniversary in his sermons at both services. His theme in the morning was "A King's Dream that Came True," while in the evening he preached on "The Place of the Cross in Modern Life."

TIME TO PAY DOG TAX IS HERE AGAIN

Do you own a dog? If you do, have you paid your dog tax? If not, now is the time to pay it. The tax is $1 for each male dog and $3 for each female dog and the time limit for paying it expires June 30, City Clerk Pepin states. After that date dogs whose owners have not paid the tax are liable to have their careers cut short by revolver bullets, for it is given out that this year the authorities are determined to enforce the dog tax ordinance, which provides that dogs whose owners neglect to pay the tax shall cease to live.

NEW YORK STORM FATAL AND COSTLY

(By Associated Press.) New York, June 12.—Five are dead, five are missing and there is a property loss of nearly a million dollars as the result of the two days' storm which has been raging intermittently in New York and environs. The weather indications are that the storm will continue throughout the day.

STRIKE BY COAL CARRIERS DELAYS OCEAN STEAMSHIPS.

(By Associated Press.) Southampton, Eng., June 12.—Owing to the strike of the coal carriers the officers of the American lines are having difficulties with the sailing of the steamer St. Paul, due to leave for New York several days ago. It is doubtful whether the White Star line Olympie will be able to get away from here on Wednesday.

TEACHER ASKS TIMELY QUESTION

She Wants to Know Whether Anything Has Been Planned or Done to provide Screens for the Windows in Escanaba's Public Schools—Addresses Query to The Mirror.

Editor The Daily Mirror: I would like to have the following inquiry published in your paper: I would like to inquire whether anything has been planned or done in this city to provide screens for school-room windows or to protect school children in some way from the house-fly?

We have learned from some excellent reference books on physiology that have been furnished us this year, from the columns of The Mirror, and from many other sources that we ought to exterminate this insect and to avoid contact with it.

Private dwellings, offices, and even the Panama Canal Zone, have been screened, but I have been unable to learn that anything has been done in this matter anywhere in regard to schoolrooms.

I wonder if parents, health officers, and school officials have thought of the fact that especially during the examinations children are in a poor physical condition for resisting disease germs—Sincerely yours, A CITY TEACHER.

EIGHT MEMBERS IN GRADUATING CLASS

Diplomas Will Be Awarded at Commencement Exercises of St. Joseph's High School Next Friday Evening—Choice Program Arranged for Event—Two Notable Features.

An exceptionally attractive program has been arranged for the exercises. One of the notable features will be an address by Rev. Father William A. The valedictory of the class will be delivered by Rose Dupuy and Ann Seidl.

LEAGUE STANDING UNDERGOES CHANGE

The Ishpeming and Negaunee teams of the Marquette-Delta county league broke even in their games Saturday and Sunday afternoons. Ishpeming took Saturday's game by a score of 3 to 0 and Negaunee won Sunday by a score of 15 to 8. Escanaba's winning both games from Marquette and Ishpeming's losing one to Negaunee changes the league standing all around. Before the Saturday game Escanaba and Ishpeming were tied for first place and Negaunee and Marquette for second. Now Escanaba stands first; Ishpeming, second; Negaunee, third, and Marquette, fourth. The Ishpeming and Escanaba teams will play here next Saturday and Sunday and Marquette and Negaunee at Negaunee.

William J. Clark left this morning for Saginaw to attend the 55th annual meeting of the Grand Commandery of the Knights Templar of Michigan, which begins there tomorrow morning and continues several days. Mr. Clark is eminent commander of Escanaba commandery No. 47 of the Knights Templar.

SQUALL SWEEPS OVER LITTLE LAKE BUTTE AND CAPSIZES SMALL SAILBOAT LOADED WITH NINE YOUNG PEOPLE.

FIVE OTHERS NARROWLY ESCAPE.

Spectators of Tragedy Powerless to Give Assistance—Two Boys Living at Jackson Lose Lives While Canoeing—Brothers at Des Moines Drown While Bathing in River.

(By Associated Press.) Appleton, Wis., June 12.—Four girls were drowned and five other persons, occupants of a small sailboat, narrowly escaped death near here Sunday afternoon when a squall struck the craft on Little Lake Butte and capsized it.

The victims were members of a picnic party, given by an Apple dry goods store. The remainder of the party were obliged to stand helplessly by on the shore of an island only a short distance from the scene of the tragedy and witness the drowning. The dead are: Miss Elizabeth Geenan of Kimberly, Miss Gertrude Kuschel of Appleton, Miss Madge Brill of Buchanan, Miss Ruth Pollock of Appleton.

The four girls who were drowned were held under water by the sails of the boat. The current at the point where the craft capsized is rapid and the bodies were carried down stream so that at a late hour none have yet been recovered.

When the party left Stroebe's island, where a picnic dinner had been served, the lake was perfectly calm. A heavy windstorm blew up in less than five minutes and caught the loaded craft before she could be reached.

Two Michigan Boys Drown.

Jackson, Mich., June 12.—Eddie Dalton, son of Edward Dalton, proprietor of the Hotel Dalton, and Leo Ross, son of William Ross, foreman of the Novelty Stove works, were drowned by the capsizing of their canoe at Vandercook's lake Saturday evening. The boys, aged about sixteen were cousins.

Two Brothers Die at Des Moines.

Des Moines, Ia., June 2.—Garret and Martin Hankle, brothers, aged 23 and 25, respectively, were drowned in the Raccoon river near the city Sunday afternoon. Cramps caused both deaths. J. A. Estey, who had been swimming with the brothers, was forced to strike one of them when he secured a death grip on Estey's throat, while he was attempting a rescue. The bodies have been recovered.

MEMONIEE WINS FROM THE RICHTERS

Although defeated by a score of 6 to 1, the Richters of this city played a good game of ball against the strong Memoninee team at Memoninee Sunday afternoon. Monte Olmsted was in the box for Memoninee and the Richters landed safely on his slants no less than five times, which was better than any other team has been able to do this season. O'Connors caught for Olmsted in his usual effective fashion. Walsh and Murray were in the points for the Richters and did well. Walsh struck out six men, but was found for nine hits, two of them being two-baggers. Olmsted fanned eleven of the Richters. John Dotch umpired the game, which was witnessed by a large crowd. The Richters are scheduled to play the Garden team at Garden next Sunday.

SUGAR TRUST HEAD ADMITS SOMETHING

(By Associated Press.) Washington, June 12.—In giving his testimony today before the house committee which is investigating the alleged "sugar trust," E. F. Atkins, acting president of the American Sugar Refining company, admitted that the combination was organized for the purpose of reducing expenses and in the hopes of avoiding some competition which had become onerous.

The preliminary hearing of Samuel Black on a charge of arson was concluded this morning and he was held for trial in circuit court. William Black, held on a similar charge, waived examination and was also bound over to circuit court. Bail in each case was fixed at $750.

CEDAR RIVER LUMBER PLANT IS DESTROYED BY FLAMES.

(By Associated Press.) Menominee, Mich., June 12.—The large saw mill of Crawford & Sons' company at Cedar River was totally destroyed by fire Sunday, resulting in a loss of $100,000. The mill was comparatively new and was considered one of the finest and most modern in the Northwest.

YANTIC MAY SAIL ON JULY FOURTH

Reported That Training Ship of the Escanaba and Hancock Division of the Naval Militia Will Cruise on Lake Superior for Two or Three Days Next Month.

According to the Hancock Copper Journal, it has been given out from reliable but unofficial sources that the Yantic, training ship of the Hancock and Escanaba division of the Michigan Naval brigade, will dip her nose into old Lake Superior as a perfectly and same manner of celebrating July 4 and the anniversary of the nation's birth.

The ship may go out for a two or three days' cruise on the natal day that may take it and the crew as far as Isle Royale or perhaps around Keeweenaw point, though both these courses are only tentative and may be shifted at the will of Commander H. S. Goodell.

The Yantic is allowed $500 by the government for the July 4 cruise and it is not thought that the appropriation would make both ends meet for a trip of longer than two days or two nights and a day.

The old war craft, now stationed at Hancock, is undergoing a cleaning up and will be ship-shape in good time for the setting of sails on July 3.

FUNERAL OF LATE MRS. H. OLMSTED

The funeral of the late Mrs. Henry Olmsted was held from the First M. E. church at 9:30 today and was largely attended, notwithstanding the unpleasant weather. Services were conducted by Rev. Frederick Spence, pastor of the church, and Rev. P. B. Ferris, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and music was rendered by a special choir. Following the impressive services, the remains were taken to Lakeview cemetery for interment. The pall-bearers were: T. J. Burke, L. M. Beggis, C. J. Farrell, W. L. Kennedy, Dr. R. E. Hodson and Charles Bladec.

UNABLE TO ACCEPT CALL TO ESCANABA

According to a letter received Saturday night by William Hall, senior warden of St. Stephen's church, Rev. Edward J. Hale of Cambridge, Mass., will be unable to come here to accept the rectorship of St. Stephen's church. Mr. Hale writes that on account of his mother's recent death and the care which he will be obliged to give his younger brother and sister that it will be impossible to accept the call to Escanaba. A meeting of the vestrymen of St. Stephen's church will be held soon to consider the other applications that have been made for the vacant rectorship.

TIP TOPS LOSE 2-1 GAME AT THE SOO

Hoyler's Tip Tops of this city dropped a hard-fought ball game to the Sault Ste. Marie team Saturday afternoon by a score of 2 to 1. Errors lost the game for the locals, for Jimmie Smith, their twirler, did not allow the Sooties a single hit, while Murray, the Soo hurler, was touched up for seven hits, three of them being bunched in one inning. The same teams were to have played Sunday afternoon, but were unable to do so because of a force electrical and rain storm, which suddenly prevented the game, but sorely disappointed a crowd of about 1,500 fans, who had gathered to see it. The Tip Tops returned home last night and are loud in their praise of the treatment they received at the hands of the Soo team, particularly its manager, and the Soo people generally.

The Continental baseball team of this city played the Naima team at Naima Sunday afternoon and won by a score of 5 to 2. Nolden and Shanahan were in the points for the Continentals.

DELEGATES COMING TO ESCANABA FOR C. O. F. CONVENTION

REPRESENTATIVES FROM LOWER PENINSULA COURTS HAVE ALREADY ARRIVED AND ARE BEING ENTERTAINED.

CONVENTION OPENS TOMORROW

Besides Transacting Business, the Delegates Will Be Given an Auto Ride, a Banquet and a Boat Ride—Mayor Lindsay to Give Them Welcome to the City—Other Features.

About thirty of the delegates who are to attend the state convention of the Catholic Order of Foresters tomorrow and Wednesday are already in the city and the remainder, about as many more, are expected to be here by the time the first session opens tomorrow morning. The delegates now in the city are mostly from the lower peninsula and are being informally entertained by the members of St. Joseph's and St. Patrick's courts.

Tomorrow morning the delegates will assemble in Elks' hall where the sessions of the convention are to be held and from there march to St. Patrick's church to attend a solemn High Mass, which will be celebrated by Rev. Father Barth, assisted by two other local priests. Following the mass the delegates will return to the Elks' hall, where Mayor Lindsay will deliver an address of welcome and this will be followed by a business session.

Another business session will be held immediately after dinner and at three o'clock the delegates and other visitors will be given an auto ride to Gladstone, going there on the old road and returning on the new road.

Tomorrow evening the visitors will be entertained at a banquet to be served in St. Patrick's hall. Matt Fillion will preside at toastmaster and the address of welcome will be delivered by Rev. Father Julius. Toasts will be responded to by state officers and prominent members of the C. O. F.

Wednesday morning there will be a business session at nine o'clock and at 10:30 the delegates and others will be given a boat ride. At the nine o'clock session it is planned to hold the election of state officers. The final session will be held at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

CONCERT AT M. E. CHURCH TONIGHT

The weather does not promise to be very agreeable for this evening, but there should nevertheless be a large audience at the concert to be given in the First M. E. church by the Orpheus Concert company. It is assured that the entertainment will be one of such marked excellence that it will more than repay anybody for any inconvenience they may experience in attending. The members of the company, Mrs. Edna Kimball Wilcox, Miss Jean Porterfield and Mrs. Nellie Louise Hastings, are all well known here and will be given a hearty welcome by their admirers. E. Pepin is visiting relatives in Green Bay.

FIRE AT CAIRO, ILLINOIS, BURNS TWO MEN TO DEATH.

(By Associated Press.) Cairo, Ill., June 12.—Pilot Hibbard of Uniontown, Pa., traveling for a Chicago coffee house, and Axel Grampton, of Cairo, were burned to death early Sunday morning when a large frame building house was destroyed by fire. Henry Steinhouse was overcome by smoke in an effort to rescue Hibbard.

ORE SHIPMENTS STILL IN DECLINE

May Shipments During Last Month Shows a Great Decrease Compared With Corresponding Period Last Year—June Movement Promises to Show Increase Over May.

According to figures compiled by the Iron Trade Review, and which are presumed to be entirely correct, ore shipments during May were 3,684,819 tons, making the total shipments to June 1 of the present year 4,016,464 tons. This is a decrease of 3,585,201 tons compared with the corresponding period last year, but nevertheless it is better than expected.

The June movement will undoubtedly show a respectable increase over May as more vessels have been daily going into commission and the Steel corporation has begun to charter outside tonnage.

While the lake situation is not rosy, it is certainly less discouraging than it appeared two weeks ago. Following are the shipments by ports:

EXCURSION OF EAGLES A SUCCESS

According to all reports, the excursion given Sunday on the steamer Maywood from Escanaba to Menominee under the auspices of Escanaba aerie of Eagle was a pronounced success. It was attended by from 300 to 400 people and was not marred by a single unpleasant incident. The boat left here before nine o'clock and arrived at the dock on the return trip shortly before midnight. The weather was ideal, both going and coming, and comparatively few of the excursionists suffered qualms of seasickness. The Escanaba City band was aboard and enlivened the trip by playing at frequent intervals. Some of the excursionists attended the ball game played by the Richters of this city and the Memoninee team, but most of them spent their stay on shore in visiting friends or viewing points of interest in Menominee and Marinette.

BIG MEN SUMMONED TO LORIMER QUIZZ

(By Associated Press.) Washington, June 12.—The Lorimer investigating committee, it is understood, has issued subpoenas for Lee O'Neill Brown, the Democratic leader of the Illinois house; Edward Hines, the Chicago lumberman, and Edward Tilden, whose name was connected with the $100,000 fund alleged to have been collected for use in Senator Lorimer's election. General Manager Funk of the International Harvester company, it is claimed, will also be called upon to testify. A special officer has been sent west to summon all of them to appear as witnesses in Washington.

After being ill less than a day and a night with pneumonia, Rose Paulina, the six months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Wagner, died at the family home, 320 South Mary street, about 5:30 o'clock Sunday morning and the funeral was held from St. Joseph's church this afternoon. Rev. Father Julius conducted the services and burial was made in St. Joseph's cemetery.

ESCANABA ADDS MORE VICTORIES TO GOOD RECORD

ALTHOUGH HANDICAPPED TO A CONSIDERABLE EXTENT, THE LOCALS TAKE TWO GAMES FROM MARQUETTE TEAM.

NOW AT THE HEAD IN STANDING.

Score in Each Game is the Same, 3 to 2—Errors Made by Marquette Materially Aided Escanaba in Making Scores—Account of the Contests as Given by a Marquette Paper.

LEAGUE STANDINGS. Table with columns: Team, W., L., P.O. Rows include Escanaba, Negaunee, and Marquette.

Through winning both its games at Marquette Saturday and Sunday and because Ishpeming lost to Negaunee Sunday afternoon, the Escanaba team returned from Marquette this morning at the head of the teams in the standing of the Marquette-Delta County league.

The local team won both games by the same score, 3 to 2, and the players and Escanaba fans are alike feeling jubilant, for owing to the crippled condition of the team through the partial disability of two of its pitchers, the unavoidable absence of another and the absence also in Sunday's game of Captain Fred Olmsted, it was scarcely hoped Escanaba would be able to take both games. That it turned the trick under these disadvantageous circumstances strengthens the belief that the team is fast and strong enough to fully hold its own with any of the other teams in the league.

The Marquette Mining Journal gives the following account of the two games and it will no doubt be read with great interest by local fans:

On account of lack of team work and errors at critical times, Marquette dropped two games to Escanaba Saturday and Sunday, both by scores of 3 to 2. Marquette outhit the visitors in both games, but Escanaba was enough better inside baseball to overcome that handicap and win. In the two games Marquette made four runs, every one of which was obtained by clean hard hitting, while all six of Escanaba's runs in the two games were presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Willman of the Isthmus of Panama are in the city, visiting at the home of G. W. Willman, 924 South Charlotte street, a brother of the former Mr. Willman, is employed by the government on the Panama canal work, having charge of a steam shovel. He has been granted a six weeks' vacation, which he is spending in visiting relatives and friends in this country.

THE TILDENS TRIM THE WELLS TEAM

The Tildens defeated the Wells team on the Wells grounds Sunday afternoon by a score of 12 to 4. Whiston worked on the mound for the Tildens and but for a sore arm probably would have scored a shutout. He allowed but three hits, while Hillard, who pitched for Wells, was touched up for nine hits, five of them being two-baggers. One of the features of the game was Derwine's star work behind the bat for the Tildens. Following is the score by innings: Score: R. H. E. A Neat Trick

By JEROME WILLIAMSON

When railroads were first built the car was a string of stagecoaches joined together. We in America at the very beginning abandoned this form and opened the car from end to end. In Europe they still retain the stagecoach pattern. Their coaches are built in compartments, though those on through trains are connected by a passage at one side. Their way trains are the same as they were some eighty years ago.

I was traveling one day in a way train and locked in a compartment with one other passenger, a young woman. Soon after the train started she asked if she might smoke a cigarette. When a compartment is used for smoking over there put up a notice to that effect. I felt pleased that she was a smoker herself, granted her permission at once and drew forth a cigar.

"You must first have a whiff with me," she said, "then you may smoke your cigar." She handed me an open box of cigarettes. "These are something very fine. Try one."

I accepted the offer. The woman turned away from me to put the box back in the satchel from which she had taken it and took a cigarette for herself while her back was toward me so that I couldn't see her doing it. I lighted mine and as soon as I began to smoke felt a delicious languor. I should have suspected that something was wrong and thrown the weed away, but I was enraptured and soon fell into a delicious trance.

The woman kept her eyes on me and presently asked me to hand her a novel she had left on the seat beside me. I couldn't move even a finger. She had evidently expected as much and had asked me to hand her the book to see if I were able to do so. As soon as she was satisfied that I was powerless she took off her dress and hat and threw them out of the window. There was a man's costume underneath the dress, and it was evident that the pretended woman was a man. He took a felt hat out of his bag and put it on, then, taking a paper out of his coat pocket, he put it in mine.

All this was done between two stations about ten miles apart, although the train went pretty slow. When we reached the second station the man got out of the train, leaving me still powerless. I was just as conscious of the situation as if I had not inhaled the cigarette. I surmised that the man was a criminal fleeing from justice and had put papers in my pocket that would cause his pursuers to think that I was the man they were looking for. Why he wished them to think so I fancied to be because they were hot on the pursuit and he wished to gain time by throwing them off the track.

The train seemed to be delayed in starting again. It appeared to me that it must be waiting for something. What was my horror to see several men come to the door of the compartment led by the man who had drugged me.

"That's the man," he said. The effect of the cigarette had passed off sufficiently to enable me to protest. But the man interrupted me.

"I tell you," he said to the others, "he's the notorious Cartouche, who a day or two ago escaped the French police. I saw him in court once and knew him the moment he entered the train. If you don't believe me search him. He may have something that will identify him on his person." My blood ran cold. I knew of Cartouche, who was under sentence of death. I was ordered out of the coach, but as I had not recovered the use of my limbs they were obliged to pull me out. They placed me on a baggage roller and went through my pockets. A letter addressed to Jacques Cartouche was found on me. At that moment the train pulled out and my accuser, jumping on the footboard, went off with it.

I was taken to the town jail. On the arrival of the next train police officers arrived. The moment they saw me they knew they had been tricked. I told them my story, and they knew by my description of my accuser that he was Cartouche himself. But the train in which they came had gone on and they were obliged to wait for the next to get on in the chaise.

I considered myself lucky to escape as easily as I did, for the police believed my story, saying that it was just like Cartouche, who had played that and similar games before. By a very singular coincidence I saw Cartouche again, though some years later. I returned to America. On the steamer I found the stern faced off with canvas. There was an opening between the canvas and an after cabin through which I could look into that portion of the deck which had been fenced off for the use of the stowage passengers. While looking through this aperture who should I see but a man whom I immediately recognized as Cartouche.

I was sorry I had seen him, for I felt it incumbent on me to prevent his landing in America. Had he been going the other way I should have held my peace. But as a criminal coming to my own country my duty as a citizen was to inform the immigrant commissioners of his identity. On reaching New York I told my story and the criminal was sent back to the port from which he sailed. What became of him after his return I don't know, but he was smart enough to cheat the gallows more than once, and he may have used another as he used me.

THEATRICAL

THE GRAND—Who says there is "nothing new under the sun?" There is certainly something new at the Grand this week in the Dervish Arabian dancer, who began a special engagement at that popular playhouse today. Onetta, described as a dervish, whirlwind, is certainly new and original and she holds her audiences spell-bound with her whirling and contortion dancing and feats of strength with her teeth. Her finish is wonderful. She whirls like a top for over eight minutes, with one chair held in her mouth and one in each hand, all being lit up with electric lamps. It is a great climax to a sensational act and is bound to make a tremendous hit with Escanaba audiences.

Ocean Derelicts.

There is an old dread of encountering a derelict that is just below the surface of the water. There is no such danger. A derelict that will sink below the surface will sink to the bottom. Take a tub of water and try to find any object that will not sink to the surface or at the bottom. There is a long task ahead of you. There is the false theory that the water grows denser as one goes deeper and that a sinking object will find a place where it will remain suspended. This theory is not correct, and a boat that will sink beneath the surface will sink to the bottom, even if that bottom should be twenty miles down. The derelict that is bumped into has a piece of itself sticking out of the water as an alarm if the eyes of the lookout are only sharp enough to catch it.—New York Tribune.

Knew the Boundary Line.

The friends of a couple in Cleveland, in whose household no doubt exists as to who is the head of the family, tell an interesting story relative to the last trifling passage at arms between husband and wife. One evening just before dinner the wife, who had been playing bridge all the afternoon, came in to find her husband and a strange man (afterward ascertained to be a lawyer) engaged in some mysterious business over the library table, upon which were spread several sheets of paper.

"What are you doing with all that paper, Henry?" demanded the wife. "I'm making a wish," meekly responded the husband.

"A wish?" "Yes, my dear. In your presence I shall not presume to call it a will."—Lippincott's.

Not a Hindrance.

It was a revival meeting, and the church workers were working up and down the aisles. A gray haired woman past middle age approached a sedate looking gentleman who occupied a rear seat on the end of the row. Placing her hand on his shoulder with maternal touch, she said: "Don't you think you would like to be a Christian?" "My dear madam," he began, "don't you know that I am professor of theology in the little seminary at the other end of the town?" The woman, a homely character, and ignorant of the "isms" and "ologies" of the modern curriculum, gave answer in smooth accents: "Well, my dear brother, don't allow a little thing like that to stand in your way."—Philadelphia Times.

Garrick and Kitty Clive.

Kitty Clive, the paramount soubrette of Garrick's time, was celebrated for her temper and her spiteful tongue. She denied "little Davy" had skill in tragedy and mocked at him when he prepared to put on "Hamlet." During the performance she stood in the wings, intending to scoff, but she was carried away with enthusiasm in spite of herself and applauded vigorously. "Well, Kitty," asked Garrick as he came off the stage, "have I convinced you that I can act in tragedy?" Kitty burst into tears of vexation, declaring, "Why, — you, Davy, you could act a gridiron!"

GLADSTONE WELL FIXED FOR AUTOS

Some of the newspapers of the peninsula have been publishing figures to show the automobiles per capita owned in the city. If this is the guarantee of progress, Gladstone is keeping her end up, says the Delta. Twenty-six autos makes a rate of one to 133 of population. The owners are: I. N. Bushong, C. J. Shing, R. J. Hammel, W. F. Hammel, J. P. Bushong, W. L. Marble, S. G. Nelson, Charles Olson, William Blake, C. J. Magon, A. P. Burrows, Henry Thompson, Phil Hufford, Mrs. O'Connell, A. E. Neff, J. A. Hetrick, C. D. Mason, Dr. D. N. Kee, Gust Gilbertson, C. H. MacLaurin, H. I. Neff, R. B. Beattie, Bernard Micks, F. L. Bendure, A. W. Wolfe and E. A. Segerstein.

CANINE HUMOR.

More Marked in Mongrels Than in Dogs With Pedigrees.

I generally find, writes a well known English scientist, that mongrel dogs when they happen to be sociable have a keen sense of humor. An aristocratic dog with a pedigree may have some inherited smartness, but has no originality. A common yellow dog with no ancestry to speak of, who has to gain his living by his wits, could give him cards and spades at his own tricks in two lessons.

Once I took into the house out of pity a mongrel yellow dog who insisted on installing himself at my doorstep and always came back, no matter how often he was chased away. I had at that time a pedigree water spaniel, and I tried to teach him some tricks when I took him out along a quiet road at times. The yellow dog, who made friends with him, always came along and beat the water spaniel at his own tricks without training. Then he began to play tricks of his own on the spaniel. When he had a bone he looked out for his comrade, and when he saw him loping along he would lay the bone in his path and disappear. The spaniel always made for the bone, but the yellow dog, just as he was about to grab it, would dart from his hiding place and, setting it, run off with it. This happened over and over again, but the high bred spaniel never tumbled to the joke.—New York World.

TEN KINDS OF MONEY.

But Not All of Uncle Sam's Assortment is Legal Tender.

Uncle Sam officially has ten kinds of money—gold coins, standard silver dollars, subsidiary silver, gold certificates, silver certificates, treasury (1890) notes, United States (greenbacks) notes, national bank notes, nickel coins and bronze coins—says the Indianapolis News. While some of this paper currency is not legal tender, minor coins are legal tender in small amount. Legal tender is so called because in payment of a debt or obligation of any kind it can be forced on the creditor "in full of all demand."

Gold certificates, silver certificates and national bank notes, despite the enormous quantity in circulation, are not legal tender. So far as silver coin is concerned, only $10 worth of "halves," "quarters" and "dimes" are legal tender, and, as to nickel and copper coins, only 25 cents can be forced on the creditor. However, with the standard silver dollar there is no limit to the amount to be paid in liquidation of a claim. The creditor can refuse the silver certificate, but when it comes to the "dollar of the dads" the dollar must be received at its face value, even if a thousand weigh 58.32 pounds.

Jack Robinson.

A. Forston Ferguson of Oxford university, speaking of the old time ballads, said that as most of the public executions took place in some park or market place, where everybody could be present, the gnookeepers oftentimes amused themselves by singing ballads giving the entire history of the victim, and this is the reason why so many of the old songs are concerned with the hangman and the gallows tree. Particularly interesting also was his description of the origin of the expression "quicker than you can say Jack Robinson," heard so often in both England and America. It came, he said, from an old ballad about a sailor named Jack Robinson, who returned to Portsmouth, England, to find his old sweetheart married to another. The poor sailor vowed that he would roam the seas forever, which he set out to do hardly before his friends realized what he was doing. They called after him, but he had gone.

NOW INTERESTED IN MINERAL SPRING

Lew A. Cates, formerly proprietor and editor of the Escanaba Iron Port, is now a member and secretary of the Calapooya Springs company at London, Oregon. This company was formerly the London Springs company and owns the Calapooya mineral spring, whose waters are said to be of peculiar efficacy in relieving certain diseases and to have effected many marvelous cures. The water from this spring was awarded a diploma and silver medal against the world at the Lewis and Clark exposition in 1905 and again in 1909 the gold medal and diploma at the A. Y. P. exposition at Seattle, in competition with all the most noted waters of America and Europe. Mr. Cates, although he has his office as secretary of the company at London, makes his home at Cottage Grove.

The Mandarin's Robe.

The author of "Recollections of a Society Clairvoyant" tells of the case of a lady who was haunted by reason of a garment she wore. It was a mandarin's robe from China, stated to be part of the loot from the sack of Peking. The owner, who lived in a flat in a London suburb, first began to be alarmed by "a small decomposition in her bedroom" and heard "stealthy footsteps padding along the tiny passage in and out of the sitting room." She changed her house, but the obsession continued. The dreadful smell recurred, her cats died in great agony from some unknown cause, and uncanny footsteps were heard at night. According to the clairvoyant's diagnosis, the robe had belonged to "a man who had worn it when he engaged in the mystic forms of ceremonial magic known to the Chinese. He had met with a violent death, and certain malignant forces were still imprisoned in his robe, which, from the bloodstains on it, it must have been wearing when he was killed." The curse was eventually dispelled by the robe being burned.

Sunlight grows the Hops But will ruin the Brew

Many Americans prefer beer in a light bottle.

Most brewers follow the course of least resistance.

Light starts decay even in pure beer. Dark glass gives protection against light.

Schlitz is sold in brown bottles, to protect its purity from the brewery to your glass.

The first Schlitz was brewed in a hut over 60 years ago.

Now our agencies dot the earth. Our output exceeds a million barrels a year.

If you knew what we know about beer, you would say, "Schlitz—Schlitz in Brown Bottles."

A Big Drawback.

A man was praising the improvements by a friend in his dwelling.

"Your house looks a lot better now that it has been painted."

"Well," the man who had been redecorating admitted gloomily, "it does look a bit better, but we shall have to clean the windows more frequently to keep in harmony with it."

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

From time immemorial, sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost everyone knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair, for curing dandruff and falling hair, and for making the hair grow.

In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this sort, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

The influence of women has ever been the leading one in the world, and it is to their keen discernment, that golden grain belt beers, owe their rapidly growing popularity. Women like its original flavor, tonic qualities, and bracing value. Order a case for The Woman now.

WHAT EVERY GIRL SHOULD KNOW.

Mayor Gaynor of New York has ideas on the subject of the perfect woman. Here is a recent utterance of his honor, which may be interesting to some readers as an exhibition of old fogysm and to others as a contribution to common sense:

"Every girl ought to be taught to cook, to wash and to keep house, even though her little hands are spoiled. Men are afraid to marry today, because the girls do not know these things. A man has a much greater affection for a woman who knows these things for one who does not."

Commenting editorially on the remarks of Mayor Gaynor, the Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin says:

Sentiment ought not to be ignored in marriage. In this country it rarely is. Yet there is no reason why sentiment in its proper degree should not go hand in hand with practicality, and there is more likelihood that sentiment will survive when practically endorsed it than when it has no such ally. The old proverb says that when hunger comes in at the door love flies out at the window. It might be revised to suit modern conditions. Love is apt to fly out at the window when...

Life is real, life is earnest." It has its ups and downs. The poet did not misrepresent his sex when he sang: "Beauty draws us with a single hair," yet it is obvious that a single hair is a fragile cord, apt to break if unduly strained. Moreover beauty is in the eye of the beholder, and a man's wife is likely to be doubly beautiful in his view if she is capable as well as fair to see.

There is another aspect of the matter not unworthy of consideration. To a certain extent the esteem in which every individual is held by others depends upon that individual's poise and confidence. The woman who is competent to conduct her home is a more compelling personality than the one who finds herself at every turn incapable and dependent upon hired help. The accidents of fate being equal, the average of substantial happiness among capable women is likely to be larger than among those who neglect to equip themselves with the technical business responsibility which every woman assumes when she undertakes to enter upon a partnership whose essential object is the establishment and maintenance of a home.

MAKING PIES BY ELECTRICITY.

Now they make pies by machinery. To the novice this would seem quite impossible, but it is an established fact, in every modern bakery. It is well known that most of the baker's products are made by electrically-driven machinery but the latest addition to the mechanical bakers is the pie making machine.

Mixing and kneading machines prepare the dough and cut it into lumps of just the right sizes for a single pie crust, which lumps are dropped one by one into the hopper of a pie machine. Each lump passes between rollers in two different directions, thereby flattening it into a disk a trifle larger in diameter than the needed pie crust.

The Chicago Tribune favors using the roller towel to swat the fly with. We prefer an old newspaper as an illustration of the power of the press.

The June college orator feels competent to write a guide book of life, but by the time he marries he is reconciled to a personally conducted tour.

The girl scouts have been organized now, and they will soon blaze a distinct trail to the nearest ice cream parlors.

SELF-CONSCIOUSNESS, THE FOE TO SUCCESS.

Timidity, shyness, and self-consciousness belong to the same family. We usually find all where we find any one, and they are all enemies of peace of mind, happiness, and achievement. No one has ever done a great thing while his mind was centered upon himself. We must lose ourselves before we can find ourselves. Self-analysis is valuable only to learn our strength; it is fatal if it makes us dwell upon our weakness.

Thousands of young people are held back from undertaking what they long to do, and are kept from trying to make real their great life-dreams, because they are afraid to jostle with the world. They shrink from exposing their sore spots and sensitive points, which smart from the lightest touch. Their supersensitiveness makes cowards of them.—O. S. Marden in Success Magazine.

Owing to the good sense displayed by the cities of the upper peninsula, it may be said to their credit that street carnivals will be a rarity above the straits this season, says the Mastic Pioneer-Tribune. A representative of one of the companies has been sailing over the upper peninsula recently with the speed developed by the average cat in Vermont, the Granite state, and with less luck. He became angry at Gladstone, and claimed that he was going to show there anyway whether the people wanted the show or not. The city council of that city will see to it that he stays out. What Gladstone is doing should be done by every other city council in the upper peninsula.

SIMPLE LINES.

Summer Outing Gowns Will Be Handsome, but Plainly Cut.

GOWN OF LINEN AND LACE.

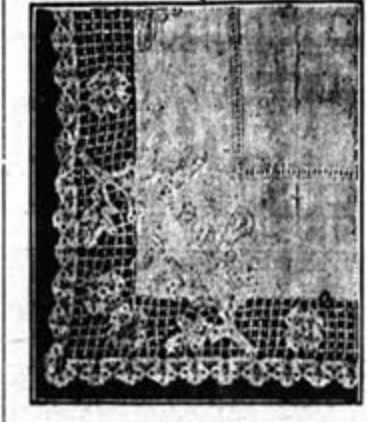

Linen and cluny lace are the fabrics exploited in this charming afternoon gown. The thrifty girl is already preparing her wardrobe for summer outings at the seashore or in the mountains, and she will do well to note the simple lines on which this and similar new gowns are built. Laces and ribbons and frills have their places, but it is not on this season's outing garb, which is cut on lines of severe simplicity, although it may be embroidered and trimmed with flat applications of lace.

Indeed, it is said that mohairs are likely to take the place of linens for serviceable summer wear, mohair showing less quickly than linen the signs of wear and tear. Mohair does not wrinkle, dust may be easily brushed off it, and it needs less often to be sent to the laundress than the linen costume. Moreover, mohairs are so much prettier than they have been that they cannot fail to please. Some of the new mohairs look not unlike satin and are almost as supple and easy to drape.

FOR THE TABLE.

Handsome Lace Trimmed Tablecloth With Applied Motifs. Lace trimming appears on the smart new tablecloths to an extent to be expected in a season when lace is used everywhere that it is possible to use it. One particularly handsome cloth was adorned with a deep border of lace, made by applying lace motifs to the surface of heavy net. The lace motifs were also applied on the linen.

Fashion is fickle in table service as well as in other things. The formal dinner table of today is not what it was a few years ago. The whole scheme of decoration for the modern dinner table makes for simplicity. Any suggestion of ostentation is bad form. The table is not strewn with trailing smilax and loose flowers, nor is the bare mahogany seen, as of old, except for luncheon or breakfast.

There is a reversal of taste in favor of good linen, plain glass, good flowers and a general practical simplicity of service in every detail. Glass bowls with a few well selected flowers are even supplanting the silver ones, but the latter are often of such real beauty and lend to the table such distinction that it will be difficult to supplant them entirely.

Invalid Food.

When any meat extract is to be given to an invalid try making it with milk instead of water. It is most nourishing made in this way and very appetizing.

PASSING OF GREAT PITCHER

Sam Leever, Recently Released by Pittsburg, Had Remarkable Career—Twelve Years a Pirate.

The recent release of Pitcher Sam Leever by Pittsburg marks the passing of the last remnant of the old Pittsburg team as it was made up before the consolidation of the Pirates and Louisville, when the National league circuit was reduced from 12 to 8 clubs. Until the season of 1907 brought a deal with Boston, Leever had one old comrade of the late 90's in Clarence Beaumont, who was finally let out of fast company by Chicago. Leever's career has been a remarkable one, and shows the old Pirate to have been one of the greatest pitchers in the history of the game. For 12 full seasons and part of another he had been a member of the Pittsburg team and until the flight of time cut him down to emergency roles, a few years ago, he always ranked as one of the most successful slubmen in the majors. Indeed, there is one feature to his record that put him in a class of his own, for he was champion pitcher of the National league no less than three times—1901, 1903 and 1905—while his name also appeared at the head of the list in two other years, though he did not participate in a sufficient number of games to earn the title of leader. Leever, who is now thirty-eight years of age, was secured by the Pittsburg club of the Atlantic league, W. H. Watkins being then manager of the pirates. Sam was troubled with a sore arm and pitched only one game that season, but the following year he was back with bells on, and from that time on ranked as one of the greatest fingers in the business. Since joining the Pittsburg team Leever pitched a grand total of 290 games, and while this is not as much work as some other veteran heavers have done, the records of few rivals are to be compared with that of Leever in the all-important matter of percentage of victories. Of those 290 games pitched, Leever won no less than 193 contests, against only 97 lost, for the remarkable percentage of 66.

KONEY WORTH HALF OF TEAM

Manager Roger Bresnahan of Cardinals Wouldn't Trade His Star to New York Giants.

Roger Bresnahan, manager of the Cardinals, was all worked up the other day over the report that he had gone to New York to close a trade in which ed permanently in some southern city and share the expense, has been agreed upon by the owners, according to announcement made. It is proposed to establish a training camp with a clubhouse to be used jointly by the teams and with two baseball fields near by. Instead of depending on hotels, the players will have their quarters and eat at the clubhouse, under the direction of the trainers. A gymnasium will be a feature of the clubhouse.

Few Modern Hitting Pitchers.

Clark Griffith of the Reds regrets there are so few pitchers in the modern game who can hit like those of 20 years ago. The team that has a slugging twirler and a hard-hitting catcher is sending nine sluggers against seven men who can hit but who are handicapped by two almost certain outs, declares the Old Fox, and the arithmetic is all in favor of the nine who can use their bats.

TYRUS COBB IN VAUDEVILLE

Famous Tiger Player Has Received Many Tempting Offers to Go on Stage Next Winter.

It is not at all improbable that Ty Cobb may go on the stage next winter in a vaudeville act of some sort. Several managers have been after him to go on the boards and some of the offers made him have been attractive from a salary standpoint. Up to date, Ty's engagements have been such that he has passed up the Thespian proposition, but next fall he will be ready to consider an offer.

Ty hasn't decided yet what sort of an act he will attempt. A monologue, baseball sketch, moving picture lecture and a number of other plans have been considered, but so far the Georgian hasn't been able to make up his mind just what he wants to do. There is no doubt that with any sort of an attractive act Cobb would be a great card in vaudeville, for hundreds of persons who would be willing to pay money just to see him before the footlights.

Cobb says that he has plenty of confidence, and that he believes he could get away with anything he attempted in the line of a vaudeville skit. He has been called upon for speeches in theaters on several occasions and has

ESCANABA ADDS MORE VICTORIES

Among those who saw the games, it is the almost universal opinion that once the Marquette players have been together long enough to perfect their team work, the line-up is as strong as any in the league.

Had Escanaba's Guessing. Both the new pitchers, Abler of Marquette university and Jackson of lower Michigan, judging from the showing made in the two games, are able to deliver the goods. Both men are southpaws and had the Escanaba batters guessing all the time.

As in Saturday's game, Escanaba was presented with a run in the first inning yesterday. Jackson struck out the first man up. Burke was retired via the Jackson-Magnan route. Then Jackson hit Aronson in the side. He stole second and came home when Rippelle dropped Minor's easy fly, the first error that Abbey has made this season.

Bases on balls resulted in scores for Escanaba in the fifth and seventh innings. With two out in the fifth, Jackson gave Hirm free transportation. Burke fell on one of Jackson's slants for a two-bagger to deep center, on which Hirm scored from first. In the seventh Jackson passed the first man up, Lantz, who stole second, was sacrificed to third by McDonald and brought home on Hirm's single between first and second.

McDonald Pitched Well.

McDonald, for Escanaba, had the Marquette sluggers at his mercy except in the seventh inning, when Tallion and Clark touched him up for singles and Magnan brought them home with a double to deep left field. In no other inning was Marquette able to get a man past second base. The fans had hopes of tying the score in the eighth when Ryan singled after two were out, but Rippelle, who had already made two safe hits, laid down an easy one to the pitcher, and the inning was over. The summary and score by innings follows:

Costly Errors Lost Saturday.

Errors at critical times and poor coaching on the base lines defeated Marquette in Saturday's game, though Abler, the new recruit from Milwaukee, outpitched Love, for Escanaba, two to one. The score was 3 to 2, but with perfect support back of Abler not an Escanaba man would have crossed the plate. The game was witnessed by a large Saturday crowd.

Escanaba scored in the first inning without a hit. Olmsted, the first man up, was walked, and was thrown out at second on Burke's infield drive. Aronson sacrificed Burke to second, he stole third, and went home when Tiffany made a wild peg to second to catch Minor, who had reached first on a base on balls.

All of Marquette's scoring was done in the second inning and on clean hitting. Tallion opened with a two-bagger to center, and Hanaway followed with another of the same variety to left, scoring Tallion. Tiffany's single a moment later brought Hanaway home. After that Marquette got men on bases almost every inning, and had it not been for errors of judgment on the part of the coaches, the score might have been tied. In the fourth Clark was run home from third after the ball was inside the infield and, of course, was an easy out at the plate. In the sixth, with Rippelle on first and none out, the hit and run signal was given, Tallion at bat missed the ball and Abby was caught by blocks. Two hits followed in that inning, but there were no scores.

Won in Sixth Inning.

The visitors won the game in the sixth inning on one hit and two errors, which netted two runs. With one out, Olmsted doubled to left field, Burke, who followed sacrificed him to third. Aronson drove a grounder at Tallion, that latter making a perfect throw to first, but Magnan let the ball slip out of his mit, and Olmsted went home. Aronson stole second and completed the circuit when Tiffany threw the ball far over the third baseman's head. Had Magnan held Tallion's throw to first, it would have retired the side and neither of these runs would have been made.

Lottery Chances.

M. Henri Poincare, the mathematician, told us a few years ago that if every one who buys a lottery ticket knew how little chance there was of any one winning a prize there could be no successful lottery. The chance of each was about equal to the danger of being killed in a railway accident.—London Truth.

A Few Thoughts on Money.

Money, otherwise known as tin, dough, cash, gold, rocks, etc. The cupricules of national circulation which indicate the strength of our constitution. It is often called a curse. Some swear by it, others swear for it, and still others swear at it. It often causes a species of mental derangement or delirium called money mania. Many are willing to be thus inoculated. It is the feature of social distinction. It is the measure of intelligence—those who have it are wise, those who have it not are foolish. Possession of it entitles one to the use of a money-gram. Though a medium of exchange, it has no connection with souls or astral bodies. It is the religion of today, often called moneythelms. Preachers pray for it; laymen lay for it. It is to be all and the end all. Children cry for it, women sigh for it, men die for it, and all lie for it.—Smart Set.

Wrecked by a Knife Blade.

A ship was once wrecked on the Irish coast. The captain was a careful one. Nor had the weather been so severe a kind as to explain the wide distance which the vessel had swerved from her proper course. The ship went down, but so much interest attached to the disaster that a diving bell was sunk. Among other portions of the vessel that were examined was the compass that was swung on the deck, and inside the compass box was detected a bit of steel, which appeared to be the small point of a pocket-knife blade. It was learned that the day before the wreck a sailor who had been set cleaning the compass had used his pocket knife in the process and had unceremoniously broken off the point and left it remaining in the box. That bit of knife blade exerted its influence on the compass and to a degree that deflected the needle from its proper bent and vitiated it as an index of the ship's direction. That bit of knife blade wrecked the vessel.

Scotch Students.

Many a man who never had any "schooling" gets an education, and often a surprisingly good one. A traveler in Scotland once met a farmer whose ground rent was about $20 a year and who wrote poetry in Gaelic that was of a high order. This same traveler met a youth in Scotland who rode from home on horseback to the seaport and then across Scotland to Aberdeen, where he sold his horse to enter the university. It is related of another Scotchman that he was overheard repeating a line of Tennyson, whereupon some one asked him what poet he liked best. "Homer," he replied. "Whose translation do you read?" "I rarely read a translation," he said, "liking the fish scales from his apron. 'I like best to read Homer in the original Greek.'"—Minneapolis Tribune.

Manhattan Scallop.

A delicious breakfast or luncheon dish is Manhattan scallop. Shred sufficient cold cooked fish to measure a good half pint. It must be free from skin and bone. Add to it one cupful of fine stale breadcrumbs, a good seasoning of salt and pepper, two well beaten eggs mixed with a half cupful of stewed tomatoes. Turn all into a buttered dish, sprinkle the top with buttered breadcrumbs, dot with bits of butter and brown in a hot oven.—Suburbanite.

All About a Cruiser.

"What sort of a boat is this?" inquired the inquisitive man at the docks. "A cruiser," replied a smart lad. "And where is she going?" "A cruise, sir." "What makes it go?" "It's screw, sir." "Who are on board?" "It's crew, sir." "It looks pretty smart." "We have to keep it clean, or rubbish and dust would accrue, sir." "Oh, you're too smart! Where do you come from?" "From Crewe, sir."—London Tit-Bits.

Clean Your Glasses.

The most scientifically fitted glasses in the world will do more harm than good unless they are properly kept and correctly worn. It is a strong temptation to make, but most people wear dirty glasses, even those who are fastidiously careful in all other respects. Peering through any clouded and uncertain window is a strain upon the vision. How much more must the strain be when the window is so close to the eye that it is almost a part of it! Glasses must be worn at the exact angle for which they were prescribed and no other. For this reason many people and all children do better in spectacles than in eyeglasses. The glasses should be fitted to the eye by the optician, after which care should be taken not to handle and loosen the frame. If this occurs in the slightest degree they should again be fitted and tightened.—Youth's Companion.
