Reciprocity Loses; Laurier is Ousted

Conservatives of Canada Swept Into Power by Unexpected Landslide

LIBERAL LEAD OF 43 WIPED OUT

(By Associated Press.)
Montreal, Canada, Sept. 22.—The latest returns from yesterday's election show a total membership for the conservatives to be 161. Of the 19 Canadian provinces, only Quebec, the home of Laurier, came anywhere near remaining faithful to him. Ontario went almost solidly against him and the same might be said of Manitoba and British Columbia.

(By Associated Press.)
Montreal, Sept. 22.—The Laurier government and reciprocity suffered an overwhelming defeat in the Canadian elections held yesterday.

By a veritable political landslide, the Liberty majority of forty-three in the house of parliament was swept away, and the Conservative party secured one of the heaviest majorities—upwards of fifty—that any Canadian party has ever had. Seven cabinet ministers who had served with Sir Wilfrid Laurier are among the defeated candidates.

Borden to Be Premier.
The Liberals lost ground in practically every province of the Dominion. Where they won, their majorities were small. Where the Conservatives won, their majorities were tremendous. Ontario, the leading province of Canada, declared almost unanimously against the administration and reciprocity.

Robert L. Borden, leader of the Conservative party, will shortly become the prime minister of Canada. He will be supported in parliament by a working majority of members far more than ample for his purposes.

The government defeat means that the Fielding-Knox reciprocity agreement, ratified by the United States congress in extra session, will not be approved when the twelfth parliament assembles next month and a revised basis of trade with the United States, looking to closer commercial relations, will not be possible in the immediate future. The Conservatives are committed to a policy of trade expansion within the empire and a closed door against the United States.

Laurier Done With Public Life.
Although reelected in two constituencies in Quebec, the defeat of the Liberal party also means the retirement from public life of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who for nearly two decades has directed the destinies of the Dominion. Several times during the bitter campaign which preceded today's election the venerable premier said that the defeat of his party at the polls meant the end of his career; that he never would consent to lead a minority in opposition to a Conservative government.

"There is no doubt that we have been decisively beaten," declared Sir Wilfrid Laurier early in the evening at Quebec. "I gladly lay down the premiership, a burden which I have carried for fifteen years. We believed that in making the reciprocity arrangement we had done something that would be greatly to the benefit of the people of Canada. The electors have declared otherwise and I bow to their decision. I regret that we have been unable to carry reciprocity, which I still believe would have promoted the growing friendship between the United States and Canada."

SENTENCE TWO MEN TO 30 DAYS IN JAIL

Because they are habitual offenders and have been taken by the police repeatedly, serving jail sentences each time, Pat O'Hara and Joe Johnson were this morning sentenced to thirty days in the county jail each. They were brought up in Judge Linden's court charged with being common drunkards and notorious police characters. After a hearing the judge sent them both to jail.

TAFT GUEST OF K. C.'S AT PEORIA TODAY

(By Associated Press.)
Peoria, Ill., Sept. 22.—President Taft arrived here at 6:30 this morning. The Knights of Columbus, whose guest he is, escorted the president to Creve Coeur club where he was tendered a breakfast by Bishop Dunne. A luncheon at the Country Club was tendered him at noon by the Republican State Central Committee. This evening the president will deliver an address at the annual banquet of the Knights of Columbus.

EVANGELIST LIKES LOCAL AUDIENCES

REV. S. K. WHEATLAKE IMPRESSED BY ATTENTIVENESS OF ESCANABA PEOPLE.

"I am greatly impressed with the attentiveness of my Escanaba audiences," said S. K. Wheatlake, Urbana, Ill., the evangelist who is conducting the Free Methodist revival meeting in the tent at the corner of Norris and Ludington street.

Last evening he took for his theme the words of Pilate, "What Will you Do With Jesus?" and developing them into a sermon, consistent with his forceful style, pictured the scene in Jerusalem on that memorable day of Jesus' trial.

"There are many present day Pilates," he said. "Many of us are rejecting and crucifying Christ every day." With his convincing and powerful style he continues to interest his audiences which are increasing daily. Services are now being held every afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and at 7:30 in the evening.

"SKINNY" MADDEN'S WIFE ASKS DIVORCE

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, Sept. 22.—Martin B. Madden, a widely known Chicago labor leader, was made the defendant in a suit for separate maintenance filed today by his wife, Florence B. Madden, who makes charges of a sensational character against her husband.

Mrs. Madden alleges that her husband left her because she refused to allow their home to be used as a "meeting place and resort of thugs, sluggers and gun men and a depot for the manufacturing of bombs."

Mrs. Madden states that with a salary of $25 a week as a labor business agent, her husband has "accumulated property worth more than $125,000, by means mysterious and unknown to her."

ST. CLAIR PASTOR TO OCCUPY PULPIT

Two services will be held in St. Stephen's Episcopal church Sunday. Rev. William J. Watson of St. Clair, Mich., where he has been connected for five years and been doing excellent work will occupy the pulpit. He is a prospective candidate for the rectorship and comes highly recommended by those who have kept in close touch with him for a number of years. The morning service will be held at 10:30 and the evening service at 7:30. There will be a parish meeting in the church Monday evening at 8 o'clock at which everyone interested in the welfare of the congregation is requested to attend.

WHERE ALONZO WENDT LIVED

The Tilden House as it looked in 1865. The small building on the corner was a saloon and bowling alley. Wendt was an expert bowler and spent much time there. It may be of interest to know that the small building was used for the first Delta county fair.

Dogs Can Be Used In Woods This Year, Says Game Warden

W. R. OATES PRONOUNCES HIMSELF AS HAVING NO OBJECTION.

A question which has worried the hunters since the enactment of the last game law, was settled this week so far as the game warden's department is concerned, by a statement issued by Major W. R. Oates, state game warden. Whether the attorney general will stand for this ruling or not has not been learned.

Section 15 of Act No. 275—the game law passed by the last legislature—apparently forbids hunting birds with dogs in Michigan this season and that particular part of the law has accordingly excited the ire of local as well as of other sportsmen throughout the upper peninsula.

The state game warden says: "Section 15 of said act provides that no person or persons shall make use of a dog in hunting, pursuing or killing deer; the presence of a dog in the woods, hunting camp, logging camp, or club house during the deer season shall be prima facie evidence of its unlawful use. Any dog pursuing, killing or following upon the track of a deer is hereby declared to be a public nuisance and may be killed at any time by any person, without criminal or civil liability."

"Section 16 provides that 'no person, or persons shall molest, harass, or annoy, break, train or practice with dogs upon any game birds during their respective closed seasons. Provided, that it shall be lawful to train or practice dogs upon game birds for fifteen days preceding the opening of the season for hunting ruffed grouse of each year. It shall be unlawful, however, for any person while so training dogs to have in possession any firearms.'

"The material and only important change in the provision referred to in section 15 of said act is the substitution of the word 'dog' for 'hound'; it thereby being the clear intent of the legislature to safeguard the deer from any possible injury which might result from the presence of any kind of dogs in the woods during the deer hunting season.

"It is the opinion of this department that during the deer hunting season the presence of a dog in the woods unaccompanied by a person who is exclusively hunting birds, or any dog found in any hunting camp, logging camp, or club house (during such season where each or any of the occupants have a license for hunting deer), is expressly prohibited and prima facie evidence of its unlawful use, but dogs used by hunters, who are legitimately and exclusively hunting birds are entitled to protection under the law."

COLLISION AT PORT HURON. Steamer Joliet is Rammed by Steamer Henry Phipps this Morning.

(By Associated Press.)
Port Huron, Mich., Sept. 22.—The steamer Joliet was rammed by the steamer Henry Phipps, during a fog this morning near this city. The Joliet sank but the crew escaped on wreckage that broke away from the vessel as she went down.

LIBRARY WORK WILL BE SUBJECT OF TALK

DEPARTMENT IS RECOGNIZED BY EDUCATORS FOR FIRST TIME IN UPPER MICHIGAN.

Notice has been received at the local library of the installation of a department dealing with this work at the annual meeting of the Upper Michigan Educational association which gathers in Houghton, October 3 and 6. This is looked upon by librarians as a formal admission of the library as a necessary adjunct of the public school, and for the first time in the history of this association it has occurred.

Mrs. Gudren Thorne-Thompson of the University of Chicago, who organized the primary department of the Midway school will address the meeting on "The Library Story Hour and its Relation to School Work." Miss Edna Lyman of Oak Park, Ill., will talk on "The Creed of the Story Teller." She is a story teller of note and an instructor of the art of story telling.

Inasmuch as this work is expected to be instituted in the local library the portion of the annual meeting given over to this department will be watched and listened to with interest by local teachers who attend.

COMPLETE TENT ERECTION AT FAIR

WORKMEN WILL HAVE CANVAS UP BY THIS EVENING—MANY EXHIBITS.

Workmen are busy today at the fair grounds erecting the six tents that will house the exhibits and attractions of the coming fair, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week. The canvas is expected to be up by this evening.

Concerts will occur each day by the Ishpeming band which made such an admirable showing at the recent Gladstone Labor day event. The band stand has been erected.

Not the least interesting of the features of the fair is expected to be the Escanaba public school exhibit. The work of the pupils of all grades, from the kindergarten classes to the high school, will be on exhibition, and instructors will be present to explain the development of the work.

COLLEGE MEN HOLD DANCING PARTY

A number of young men who will soon leave for the different colleges have arranged a farewell party which will be given in Clark's hall this evening. Brotherton's orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music and those who have been fortunate enough to receive invitations will be assured of a pleasant evening.

BOXING BOUTS TO RAISE CHURCH FUND

EXHIBITION TO BE ONE OF THE FEATURES OF PARISH DAY AT PERKINS.

One of the principal features of the celebration of Parish Day of St. Joseph's church in Perkins on October 4 will be a boxing exhibition. The young men of the church have taken this method of increasing the receipts. The winners of the various events will be accredited with many votes in the competition now on there.

The boxing exhibition will occur at 1 o'clock at Gibb's warehouse. "The School Ma'am" an amateur play will be given on Oct. 3 and 4 by the young people of the church. Parish Day will undoubtedly be one of the greatest events that the town has ever experienced.

LEAVE FOR CAMPING TRIP IN MOTOR BOAT

EDWIN LINDEN AND HARRY SMITH DEPART FOR WEEK ON WATERS OF BAY.

Edwin Linden and Harry Smith departed this afternoon on a unique camping trip, which will consume a week and be taken in a motor boat. The young men believe that this season of the year is the ideal time for camping, because of the freshness of the air and the absence of mosquitoes.

The first stop will be made this evening at Porter's Island. Tomorrow they will continue their trip to other places. Each night will be spent in a small tent carried with them which will be pitched on the shore. A complete set of camping paraphernalia is carried.

MARQUETTE HERE FOR TWO CONTESTS

LAKE SUPERIOR TEAM COMING TOMORROW TO TRY FOR SECOND PLACE.

The Marquette baseball team will come here tomorrow for the last league games of the 1911 season of the Marquette-Delta league on Escanaba grounds. The game will begin at 2:30 o'clock and with the Sunday contest will be the last opportunity to witness a league team in action here.

Marquette has still a chance to take second place in the league and may win its way to that point and shove Escanaba to a lower position in the column. Not obtaining first place, Escanaba is equally determined not to lose second place and the games will undoubtedly be hard fought.

Negaunee has now a hard grip on the pennant and cannot be disturbed. Practically the race is at an end, but technically more games are to be played. The local players say that second place is as low as they intend to drop this season, and some pretty playing is expected to be seen in the coming games.

MISCHIEVOUS BOYS MAY BE ARRESTED

Prosecutions may soon result because of the depredations of boys at the location of the Free Methodist tent at Norris and Ludington street, where revival meetings are now being conducted. At the close of the evening services the tent was left unguarded and boys entered the place and wrecked the interior, turning furnishings upside down and creating damage. Their identity is known.

Strange Nobleman Lived Here in 1868 and Was Great Friend of a "Duchess" and Her Brother RELIC NOW AT MIRROR OFFICE

What would the gruesome find of the skull that was unearthed yesterday mean to some people in a far distant part of the world?

Who was Alonzo Wendt and who was the mysterious woman with the sickly brother who came here and became acquainted with Wendt?

Was the sickly brother the next in line to Wendt to inherit an estate and title?

Had the mysterious woman anything to do with the disappearance of the high-toned foreigner?

Is this the skull of Alonzo Wendt? Does this skull belong to the headless body that was found in the bay several days after the disappearance of Wendt?

Will the rest of this strange mysterious story ever be known?

William Coolman has returned from Port Huron where he attended the special meeting for the adjustment of rates of the Modern Maccabees, a delegate from this city, man; changes were made.

Any member may transfer to Plan B (sixty year term), Plan C (seventy year term), Plan D (whole life), Plan E (seventy year annuity), by paying the rate provided for in such plans at three years less than his attained age. He may transfer to Plan F (whole life), or Plan G (seventy year annuity) by paying the rate as provided for said plans at age of entry into the society, by having the present value of the difference between his rate at entry age and attained age, charged against his certificate to be deducted at death without future interest on the amount of said lien.

If he does not elect before December 1st, 1911, to transfer to any of these plans, he may continue to pay his present rate at his attained age, will be charged against his certificate and be deducted at death with compound interest at 4 per cent.

GLADSTONE GIRL WEDS MINOT MAN

A pretty wedding occurred in Gladstone Wednesday morning when Miss Agnes Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gleason of that city became the bride of George Inglebrand of Minot, N. D. Rev. Father Bennett of All Saints church performed the ceremony during the nuptial mass. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Vine Gleason while Charles Inglebrand of Ashland, Wis., a brother of the groom acted as best man.

The bride is the daughter of Michael Gleason, general manager of the Gleason Exploration company, and an accomplished young woman. The groom is connected with the Armour & Co. branch at Minot, where he holds a responsible position. Scores of out of town guests attended.

WARD IS INJURED.
(By Associated Press.)
Hornell, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Aviator Ward fell today after flying five miles and was slightly injured in addition to his machine being smashed. He says that he will not make any further attempts in the race to the Pacific coast.

Is the skull found yesterday afternoon at Wells avenue and Smith court by men excavating, the missing portion of the body of Alonzo Wendt, which was found in the bay in 1868? Many "old timers" think it is. The ghastly relic is now on exhibition in the window of The Mirror office.

In early years, about the time of the civil war, a middle aged German came to this city. He was carefully dressed and displayed an aristocratic demeanor. The report spread that he was a German count, or some member of the nobility. Although a democratic mixer, Wendt never denied that he was of such birth. Neither did he affirm it.

Several early pioneers when questioned today, of this circumstance of early years were fully cognizant of the facts surrounding the mysterious death of Alonzo Wendt. One opinion vouchsafed was that the body was quietly buried without search being made for the missing head because it was thought that the stem of a huge boat had amputated that portion.

Spent Much Money.
He remained here for some time and spent his money lavishly. He apparently had an enormous amount of funds.

He became known to everybody in Escanaba and was quite a character about here. His fame, because of his eccentricities and peculiarities spread from town to town and everybody coming to this place, wanted to see the "Count" as he was called.

Remembered by "Old Timers."
D. A. Oliver, furniture dealer, who came to this city when a boy in 1863, distinctly remembers the affair. He shows much additional and interesting light on the affair.

"About 1868 the man known as Wendt came to Escanaba," says Mr. Oliver, "He lived at the Tilden house. For two summers he resided in this town. After his arrival the first time a woman, known absolutely to be of the nobility arrived in this city and was called 'The Duchess' by everybody and claimed that she was entitled to the name. With her was a sickly brother, aged 19 years. They came here for the latter's health. Hardly had she been in the town a week than an acquaintance with the 'Count' was made and after that they were seldom seen in public unless with each other. It was rumored that the boy was next in line for the count's title, although this was unknown to the count at the time, but the Duchess was fully aware of it. The couple furnished interesting gossip for the neighborhood and many strange and unusual stories were told of them."

Find Body in Bay.
"Suddenly the townspeople were alarmed. Alonzo Wendt was missing. Following his disappearance came the departure of the Duchess. She and her brother left the city as quickly as they had come. Nothing further was heard of them. Some time later the decomposed remains of a man were found on the north bay shore. It was supposed that he was from one of the boats, identification being impossible because the remains were bereft of a head. Pioneer's today connect the skull with the case, thereby clearing a mystery that has been a blank record for almost fifty years."

Find Brings Back Memory.
The find of yesterday, when the skull was unearthed, brought back the memory of this tragedy to early pioneers. Several of them distinctly remember the queer character of long ago.

Carefully buried in a box made of heavy planks, the men found the skull, in an excellent state of preservation.

I slipped down the rope sorrowfully, seizing my pistol from my teeth as I landed in a heap in the basket. Instantly recovering my feet, I swung round furiously to face Payton and slash him.

CHAPTER XVII.

RESIGNED BY THE PIRATE.

HALF stupefied with surprise, I glanced around and saw, besides Miss Grayman, only her maid. The parachute, righting itself, descended more swiftly than before.

"Good heavens, Miss Grayman!" I exclaimed. "What are you doing here? Where is Payton?"

For answer to my last question she had only strength enough to point upward. I glanced toward the wreck of the Chameleon, hanging black and torn to shreds above us, and saw a second parachute dropping from it almost in our track.

Then I understood the situation. Miss Grayman had in some manner managed to get away with Susan, and now Payton was pursuing them.

We had a long start, but Payton was following the same line, and it was evident that he would touch the earth in almost the same spot. But I was not dismayed, and I felt wrought up to a heroic temper when Miss Grayman clung to my arm, sobbing:

"Oh, sir, help us! Save us! My God, what will become of me?"

"Have no fear, Miss Grayman," I said, summoning all the steadiness of nerve that I possessed. "I will save you."

There must have been a great deal of meaning and of encouragement in my words, for a faint color and a look of relief came into the girl's wan face.

Save her! I would have encountered an army in her cause.

I was too anxious that we should make a safe landing to pay much attention to Payton at present. I inspected the ground beneath us and saw, as we got nearer, that we were likely to come down in a marsh. But there was solid ground, brush covered, near, and by desperate exertions, throwing all my weight to one side, I succeeded in swaying the parachute toward the drier land, so that finally we struck in a very good place, the basket alighting with but a slight shock in a clump of low, leafy bushes.

I had hardly assisted Miss Grayman and the maid out of the tangle when there was a splash in the water close by, announcing the arrival of Payton's parachute. I heard one of his men swear horribly at the fix in which they found themselves, for the water, with soft mud under it, must have been three feet deep.

Osprey around in some way so that she could catch the parachute. The parachute umbrella had opened promptly, and it was descending in long swings. In a few moments we were almost upon it, but I saw that we should pass a little to one side and above it. There was but one chance. Putting my pistol in my teeth, I sprang out with both arms wide abroad. Luckily I succeeded in grasping a rope of the parachute as I shot downward. The Osprey rushed on, and I was left suspended in midair.

the parachute lurching and gyrating with my added and misplaced weight. I had heard a shout of dismay from Mr. Grantham as I plunged overboard, but the instant I felt the rope in my fingers I had no fear.

I had taken my resolution that Alfonso Payton should not escape, and I meant to kill him.

PUTTING MY PISTOL IN MY TEETH, I SPRANG OUT.

In a moment I thought of trying to take them at a disadvantage, shooting them down before they could extricate themselves. But I could not see their exact location, and, looking around, my eye lighted upon a pile of great rocks which rose above the brushwood not more than thirty rods from where we stood.

"Come," I said, taking Miss Grayman's hand; "we shall be safer on those rocks."

She was trembling like a leaf, and the maid could hardly stand.

"Miss Grayman," I said, putting all my heart into my words, "you must please have confidence in me. I have left your father in the aero, and I hope that he, with plenty of help, will be able soon to reach us. In the meantime trust in me. I would give up my life to protect you, and I know that I can protect you. I am an officer in the service of the United States government, and the secretary of the treasury himself is with your father in the aero. You know that we have destroyed Payton's Chameleon, and he himself will soon be in our hands."

During this speech I had been hurrying toward the rocks, for I heard the foundering of Payton and his men in the marsh and knew that they were fast extricating themselves. My words had the happiest effect upon Miss Grayman. She glanced at me with the first cheerful look that I had seen upon her face.

"What is your name, please?"

"I am Lieutenant John Allan of the revenue service and in command of the expedition fitted out by Secretary Grantham for your rescue."

"Lieutenant Allan," she replied, "you have performed an act of splendid daring. May God reward you for it."

My heart thumped against my ribs, but I made no attempt to reply. Instead I quickened our steps. In a few minutes more we had reached the rocks.

There was a clear space around them, and they were rough and precipitous. "An excellent fortification," I said to myself.

The highest point may have been forty feet above the surrounding plain. I immediately scrambled up, drawing the girls after me. When we reached the top we found a slight depression in which we could conceal ourselves from the eyes of any person below.

While from the rim I could command the approaches on every side, I placed Miss Grayman and Susan where they were perfectly protected and then, pistol in hand, crept to the edge and carefully looked over in the direction of the marsh.

Afar off I saw the Osprey speeding away on the course that I had given

INSPECT BOATS SOO FOR FIRST TIME

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sept. 20.—For the first time in the history of inspection of trust boats, the inspections, which have always been made annually in lower lake ports, is being done at the Soo. The work is in charge of Allen F. Harvey, assistant general manager. The first boat to be inspected was the William P. Dixon, upbound.

It is thought all the 108 trust boats can be looked over within ten days. Repairs and changes recommended by the inspectors will send the boats at the end of the season to different ports. All repairs or changes that can be made above the water will be made at the Erie shops.

BEULAH BINDFORD AT FOND DU LAC

(Special to The Mirror.)
Fond du Lac, Wis., Sept. 21.—Beulah Bindford, the woman in the Beattie case, who is said to furnish the "real reason" for the slaying of his wife by the young and wealthy Virginian, may come to Wisconsin.

It was stated today that the southern girl, whose name is known to all who followed the proceedings in the recent Chesterfield trial, had been booked by the Western Vaudeville Manager's association to appear at the Henry Boyle theater, now a vaudeville house, as well as in Oshkosh, Appleton and other cities in and about the Fox river valley.

Though no formal announcement was made by the theater's management, it was reported that Fond du Lac clergymen would endeavor to interfere with the reported plan of the vaudeville bookers, and that if the girl was billed here an appeal would be made to the mayor to prevent her appearance on the stage.

The best umpire in the American association and the best umpire who ever officiated since the A. A. was organized will not be in harness in this league next year.

Clarence Owens is through with the American association when the final games are played on Oct. 1.

Today, he mailed a contract which calls for him to umpire in the National league next year. The signed contract will reach President Lynch tomorrow.

It is not improbable that an effort will be made to have Owens work in some big league games this year but "Brick" wants to get back in Kansas City and rest up.

For several weeks it was reported that the National league would get the big fellow but until the contract suited him he refused to sign. It is also known that the American league wanted him.

"Brick" preferred the National because he has heard reports that Joe O'Brien may head that league and "Brick" would like to umpire for O'Brien.

It was in the fall of 1905 that "Brick" Owens came to the American association. Before that "Brick" umpired in the Western association while "Doc" Shively was head of that league.

From the very beginning, "Brick" made good and he is now touted as the best umpire in any class A league, and it's a safe bet that he's as good or better than some of the "umps" working in the big leagues.

"Brick," like some ball players, a few years back, held out for more money than any minor league umpire ever received. And that was not all. He asked for a three-year contract. And he got it—also $525 a month, which is some salary for an umpire. But his National league contract calls for even more than that. And with it all "Brick" wears the same sized hat.

FEW ACCIDENTS IN CALUMET MINES

(Special to The Mirror.)
Calumet, Mich., Sept. 21.—A special investigation made by an agent of the Michigan employers' liability and workingmen's compensation commission, appointed by Governor Osborn, discloses a very low number of fatal accidents, considering the many thousand men employed, in the copper mines of the Lake Superior district, and remarkably few injuries resulting in permanent disability, such as the loss of an arm, leg or eye. Most of the accidents reported consist of minor injuries, a lacerated hand, finger or skull, bruises and sprains, resulting in the loss of only a few days' time.

TROUBLE IN TRUSTS.

Another big industrial combination alleged to be in violation of the Sherman law is to be haled into court to show cause why it should be allowed to exist. The United Shoe Machinery company, while not attracting as much attention as some of the other so-called trusts, has undoubtedly, if all that is said of its operations be true, been somewhat more oppressive in its dealings with that portion of the business public forced to do business with it than many other big combines.

Its plan of refusing to sell the machines controlled by it, leasing them instead, is not looked upon with favor in the business world and does not seem to be consistent with the idea of free competition. On the other hand the shoe machinery "trust" undoubtedly believes that it has the right to dispose of its machines in any way it sees fit, whether by lease or sale. A court decision compelling this company to sell its machines outright when it preferred to lease them would be a very decided invasion of property rights as they have heretofore been held in this country. A decision to this effect by the supreme court might prove the opening wedge for a general tearing asunder of rights which have been sustained for many years.—Green Bay Gazette.

WHEN DOES A WOMAN CEASE TO BE YOUNG?

The difficult question of determining when a woman ceases to be young confronts the Y. W. C. A. of the country. In New York the age limit has been fixed at thirty-five, and in Chicago with less consideration, at thirty, the inference seeming to be that the farther west women go the more rapidly they grow old.

There is no reason for regarding every woman as no longer young at thirty or thirty-five. The assumption is simply that at thirty or thirty-five every woman is presumably old enough to take care of herself. The great object is the seemingly unreasonable harshness of the term. Very few women are in a hurry to be considered middle-aged, much less old, and the compromise, "no longer young," is a poor one for the pill. To be turned away from a Y. W. C. A. institution because at the age of thirty she is not a young woman would be a cruel affront to any woman's pride. To be told that girls only are admitted might prove a soothing satisfactory balm.

The topic of a woman's age is a delicate one and men may rejoice that in the present instance the discussion is carried on solely by women and that the decision will be made by them.

WOMAN'S RIGHT TO BANQUET.

Woman hasn't got all her rights in Colorado yet. She can vote and even hold office, but she cannot eat at presidential banquets. When the arrangements were made for the Taft banquet at Denver no provision was made for seats for women. Some of the women politicians applied for seats but were refused and given tickets to sit in the balcony and see the men eat.

All of which prompts the query: Is equal suffrage a failure and does the woman voter count as much as she thought she did, and if she does what is going to happen to the Republicans of Colorado for having put this slight upon her? A seat in the gallery where the woman voter may look on while the man voter feasts! That certainly is not one of the rights the woman suffragists has been contending for.

They called it a governor's conference but it looked more like a Mother's congress on the care and feeding of infant presidential boomlets.

Although September is the proper time for asters, it is hoped that since a prominent Newport wedding they will cease to blossom on the front pages of the newspapers.

If it is true that Nevada permits roulette in one of its prisons, perhaps they think they must teach the prisoners to earn an honest living.

Alimony is now considered a rather improvement method of settling marital affairs. The New York Smart Set requires cash in advance of the wedding.

The healthy season for grandmothers now begins. Few will die before they are needed for funeral purposes during the next baseball season.

Burglars got $315,000 out of a Westminster, B. C. bank, but the fellows that get those hauls usually need it all to see that the kitty is properly cared for.

A Great Advantage to Working Men

J. A. Maple, 125 S. 7th St., Steubenville, O., says: "For years I suffered from weak kidneys and a severe bladder trouble. I learned of Foley Kidney Pills and their wonderful cures so I began taking them and sure enough I had as good results as any I heard about. My backache left me and to one of my business, expressman, that alone is a great advantage. My kidney acted free and normal, and that saved me a lot of misery. It is now a pleasure to work where it used to be a misery. Foley Kidney Pills have cured me and have my highest praise." For sale by all druggists.

CAMPAIGN COMES TO END IN CANADA

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 21.—The hottest political campaign Canada has witnessed since the day of Sir John Macdonald and the National Policy was brought to a whirlwind finish yesterday with rallies and speechmaking in virtually every city, town and hamlet from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Today the electors throughout the country will express their political preferences and on their verdict depends the fate of the Liberal government, which under the leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, has been in office for fifteen years, and also the fate of the proposed reciprocity pact with the United States, for which Sir Wilfrid stands sponsor.

Before you reach the Limit. of physical endurance and while your condition is still curable, take Foley Kidney Pills. Their quick action and positive results will delight you. For backache, nervousness, rheumatism, and all kidney, bladder and urinary troubles. For sale by all druggists.

NO FOOTBALL THIS YEAR IN SHEBOYGAN

Sheboygan, Wis., Sept. 21.—"No football games will be tolerated in Sheboygan this year," declared Chief of Police Scheck on Wednesday. "The police will prevent any such plays on the ground that they are unwarrantably brutal and are dangerous to life and limb."

"Boxing and wrestling matches are not permitted here by law on grounds of their brutality and danger to the participants. Football is worse than either of these. The record of accidents and injuries in football is greater than in either boxing or wrestling. "The police will take it upon themselves to see that there is no football in this city this year."

There is not much football in Sheboygan since the game has been tabooed by the high school authorities. A few amateur teams have at times been organized about the city.

NEGAUNEE PIONEERS MARRIED 55 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Eusebe Boyer will celebrate next Monday the fifty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. They are pioneer residents of Negaunee, having settled there the 27th of May, 1865.

Mr. Boyer was preceded to this country by his brother-in-law, Antoine Delorier, and he came to Negaunee to manage Mr. Delorier's farm. This farm included the tracts of land upon which many years later, the Negaunee and Mass of mines were discovered. At the close of 1865 he went to Choolay to assist in the work of constructing charcoal kilns which were being erected by Fred Delorier, a brother of Antoine. July 10, 1867, two years later, Mr. Boyer came back to Negaunee and built himself a house on what is now Case street, and on the lot on which Dr. Larson's house stands.

Mr. Boyer engaged in the business of supplying the furnaces with kiln material. He cut thousands of cords of hardwood from the lands between here and Ishpeming. Subsequently he went to Forestville, when it was in its best days. He lived there ten years, removing thence to a homestead at Garden, Mich. He returned to Negaunee in 1891, and since lived here.

Mr. Boyer was born in the parish of LaTortue, county of LaPrairie, Quebec, the sixth of December, 1831. He made his home with his parents till he was twenty-five years of age, when he married Miss Eulalie Mesnard. Thirteen children were born to the couple, six of whom are alive. Mr. and Mrs. Boyer now make their home with their daughter, Mrs. Charles Choquette. Next Monday, in celebration of the nuptial event of fifty-five years ago, the family will have a reunion and will attend mass in the early morning. The many friends of the couple are one in wishing them continued happiness during their remaining years, and they trust that these years may be many.

Soda crackers are extremely sensitive to moisture.
Before the advent of Uneda Biscuit the only persons who ever tasted fresh, crisp soda crackers were the people in the bakeries.
Imagine their trip from bakery to your table; exposed to air and moisture—kept in grocers' boxes and finally in a paper bag on the shelf in your pantry. Could they be the same as they were the day they were baked?
Now that we have Uneda Biscuit—we have perfectly baked soda crackers—perfectly kept.
No moisture can reach them—no contaminating influences can affect their flavor—their goodness is imprisoned only to be liberated by you for you when you open the package.
Always in the moisture proof package. Never sold in bulk. 5 cents a package.

Major League Notes

New Orleans again won the pennant in the Southern league this season. Otto Hess, the ex-Senator, pitched great ball for the winners and it was chiefly due to his excellent twirling that New Orleans once more "copped" the flag in the Southern circuit.

Pitcher Cileo Webb of the Indians' pitching staff, was removed to a hospital at Indianapolis last night, suffering from what is said to be an advanced case of typhoid fever. He was taken ill at Milwaukee soon after the tribe started on the western invasion. The southpaw was said to be suffering from stomach trouble of some kind, and when he reported unfit for duty, Manager Burke allowed him to return to Indianapolis.

The reason for Dode Criss deserting the Louisville team is explained by Manager Howard this way: "The secretary made out his check payday for $25 less than was coming to him. Instead of coming to me and having the mistake rectified he told a friend that he was tired and would start for home at once."

Mike Cantillon has closed a deal whereby he will get a 30-year lease on Nicollet park at Minneapolis. This will allow the Cantillon pair to build a new ball park and erect a modern plant, a gift the Miller fans will surely appreciate. Joe remarked to Mike in discussing the deal: "Yes, you will have a ball park thirty years from now, but do you expect me to still manage at that time. They accuse me of being 45 now and I would look fine in a uniform when I am 75."

Nothing loose in Pennantville for Roger Bresnahan this season, but his cardinals threw a regular scare in to the big boys at that.

Having failed to put over a deal for the Boston Nationals, it is said that New Hanlon is now trying to purchase an American league franchise.

While his team has come near falling out of the American league standing and into Lake Michigan, Big Ed. Walsh has gone right ahead pitching as grand ball as you wish to lamp at.

The Athletics are wishing morning, noon and night that the Giants cop the National league pennant. They figure that there is more coin in a world's series played in New York than in Chicago.

With The Fighters

John L. Sullivan, former mauler of the features and hopes of a flock of pugilistic aspirants, and more lately a landed and peaceful squire at Abington, is not and will not be a candidate for congress. His wife won't let him. Lately the report spread to New York, by way of Brooklyn Jimmy Carroll, that the one-time heavy weight champion prize fighter, would soon announce his candidacy.

James Coffroth of San Francisco telegraphed today to George MacDonald, manager of Matt Wells, the English lightweight champion, offering Wells $5,500 for a bout with Packey McFarland, or $7,500 for a contest with Ad Wolgast, the lightweight champion, the fights to take place in California.

Joe Mandot, the lightweight who defeated Tommy Kilbane of Cleveland in an eight-round bout at Memphis Monday night, has been signed to meet Young Saylor of Indianapolis in a twenty-round bout at New Orleans on October 29. Monte Attell and Johnny Daly are slated to meet there one week from next Monday.

Frank Conley and Joe Rivers were matched last night to fight twenty rounds at Vernon arena at Los Angeles, October 14. The fight is to take place regardless of the outcome of the Conley-Kilbane match scheduled for September 30.

Bob Moha signed articles last night for a bout with Frank Klaus of Pittsburg to take place before the Armory A. C. in Boston, October 10.

A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

A Little Sage and Sulphur Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A Remedy for All Hair Troubles.

Who does not know the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is not better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If you have dandruff, or if your hair is thin or turning gray, get a bottle of this remedy from your druggist today, and see what it will do for you.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

Write a want ad and the finder will probably be glad to return it to you.

JOHN R. WALSH WILL BE FREED NEXT MONDAY

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 22.—John R. Walsh, now serving a five-year term in the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kas., on a charge of wrecking the Chicago National bank and its affiliated institutions, is to be set free. Officials of the department of justice at Washington, D. C., say the aged Chicago banker's appeal for a parole will be taken up by the federal parole board on Sept. 25 and favorably considered.

Having served nearly one-third of his sentence, Walsh was entitled on Sept. 1 to a parole, providing his conduct during his prison term has been satisfactory to the game warden.

Walsh was charged with misappropriating funds of his three banks, which he used in promoting various railroad and quarry enterprises.

Walsh at one time owned the Chicago Herald. He sold it and established the Chicago Chronicle, which suspended after several years' publication.

THEATRICAL

AT THE PETERSON—We are to witness a grand revival of that famous old historical play, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" as produced by Al. W. Martin's mammoth company at the Peterson Tuesday, Sept. 26. It is doubtful if in earlier days when "Uncle Tom's Cabin" occupied the enviable position of the most popular play of the day, and when it was the novelty of the dramatic stage, if it ever received the attention so liberally bestowed upon it as in Mr. Martin's revival. It surely has never had the benefit of the scenic environment with which he has sumptuously provided it. The stage settings and photo pictures are noteworthy and veritable triumphs of the scenic artist's skill, while the company is all that talent and careful direction can produce.

HOLD PRETTY PARTY AT CLARK'S HALL

A pretty dancing party given by a number of younger society people of the city occurred last evening at Clark's hall and was a most enjoyable affair. The hall was decorated prettily for the occasion and the music for a complete set of dancing numbers was furnished by Brotherton's orchestra.

BURGLAR SHOT BUT SENT TO PRISON

Appleton, Wis., Sept. 22.—After being shot in the head while robbing a hardware store in Birnamwood, Shawano county, John Malloft, of Petersburg, Mich., was sentenced yesterday by Judge Goodland to one year in Waupun after the prisoner had pleaded guilty to burglary.

On Sept. 4 Malloft, while drunk, broke into the hardware store. Citizens surrounded the place and while Malloft was endeavoring to escape he was shot, eight shots from a shotgun taking effect in the back of his head. As the sentence was pronounced this morning the prisoner broke down and wept and promised to reform. He was taken to Waupun by Sheriff A. F. Anderson, of Shawano county.

RECIPROCITY LOSES

States and Great Britain. However, the country has spoken. We must bow to the inevitable and I cheerfully do so."

Both Sides Surprised.

The landslide was not expected by either side. The Liberals were confident that they would be returned by the people with an increased majority, for they believed that reciprocity would be most acceptable to the Canadian electors. While the Conservatives claimed that they would have a majority (they did not expect it would be so large, or that the general verdict of the country would be given so definitely. They feared that reciprocity would prove popular with the farmers and fishermen of the Maritime provinces, and while confident they would win the cities were dubious as to the results in the rural constituencies. However, in Ontario especially, the agricultural vote went almost solidly against reciprocity and in the Maritime provinces it did not prove to be the popular issue expected.

While Sir Wilfred Laurier, the prime minister, was safe in two constituencies the Conservatives made a great harvest of ministerial heads. Thirteen members of the Laurier cabinet sought reelection and seven of them were defeated. Minister of Finance Fielding and Minister of Customs Paterson, who made the reciprocity bargain with the United States, failed to win their election. Sir Frederick Borden, minister of militia; MacKenzie King, minister of agriculture; George P. Graham, minister of railways, and William Templeman, minister of inland revenue, also went down to defeat.

Small Deposits Wanted

WE ENCOURAGE them because many large accounts began in a small way. The small depositor of today becomes the large one of the future. More people would be bank depositors if they realized how it would help in building their credit and their success.

FLOUR MAY JUMP TO GREATER PRICE

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 22.—A general advance in the price of wheat at market centers today followed the defeat of reciprocity in Canada. In Chicago options jumped 2 1-8c; at Duluth 4 cents; Minneapolis 4 cents; Kansas City 3 cents. Oats followed wheat in its upward course. The increase in the price of flour from 25 to 35 cents per barrel is considered inevitable.

On the New York exchange a continued discussion of the future of the steel corporation caused an early slump of four points in common and 2 1-2 in preferred from last night's close.

Later, however, there was a rally in both closes.

MEMONINEE PIONEER DIES IN OHIO CITY

Memoninee, Sept. 22.—August Alford Carpenter, founder of the Lumbermen's National bank of Memoninee and at one time president of the former Kirby Carpenter company of this city died Monday at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. John E. Newell at Mentor, Ohio.

Mr. Carpenter was born in New York in 1825. When he was 26 years old he went to California and was engaged in the mining business for several years. He was president of the Kirby Carpenter Company, lumber dealers, from the time the company was formed until it dissolved. His first wife died in 1863. Later he married Elizabeth Kempton, who died in 1900. He was president of both the Commercial and Union Clubs of Chicago and was a member of the Chicago club and the Athenaeum.

GIANT COMBINE WILL DISSOLVE

(By Associated Press.)

New York, Sept. 22.—It was reported last night on excellent authority that the matter of dissolving and reorganizing the United States Steel corporation is receiving the earnest attention of the department of justice and the legal representatives of the so-called "billion dollar trust." There is ground, also, for the assertion that the Steel corporation is making a strenuous effort to meet the demands of the government, but reason of the complexity of the situation little headway has been made. Informal conferences of prominent steel officials were held during the day, but no news of a definite character was obtainable from these sources.

FIRELESS COOKER AS A BABY INCUBATOR

Willows, Cal., Sept. 22.—A fireless cooker has come to the rescue of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Piepler of this place in sustaining life in their twin children, born a day or two ago. Curled in separate compartments of this kitchen appliance, the boy who weighed two pounds at his birth and the girl who weighed three, are sleeping their way to health when not receiving food by aid of a medicine dropper.

When the twins were born the doctors declared that an incubator was the only thing that could save their lives. Nothing of the kind was to be found in the vicinity, but the fireless cooker proved equal to the emergency.

FAIR STORE WILL CLOSE TOMORROW

Announcement is made elsewhere in this issue that The Fair Savings Bank will be closed all day Saturday, but will be opened in the evening at six o'clock. The store is closed on account of the Jewish holiday which is always observed by Mr. Salinsky as well as other merchants of the Jewish faith in this city.

KELLEHER FUNERAL TO OCCUR SATURDAY

The funeral of Mrs. Anna Kelleher, who died here Wednesday will take place tomorrow morning at nine o'clock from the St. Joseph's church. The pall bearers will be: Edward Corcoran, Zephyr Beauchamp, Frank Hess, John Walch, Samuel Dunn and Daniel Rasbeck.

LA FOLLETTE TALKS.

New York, Sept. 22.—Senator La Follette of Wisconsin has an introductory chapter in his autobiography pin the American Magazine, about to appear. In it he spoke of the progressive movement of which he says, "It is the struggle to uphold fundamental principles of representative government. It expresses the hope and desire of millions of common men and women."

KIMMEL HOPES TO PROVE IDENTITY

Niles, Mich., Sept. 22.—"I recall more details of my boyhood which will convince my mother that I am her son," said the man who represents himself to be George A. Kimmel, yesterday, as he prepared to hold another conference with Mrs. Estella Kimmel. "Kimmel," whom half of Niles declares it recognizes, while the other half, including Mrs. Kimmel, believes him to be a stranger impersonating the real Kimmel, who disappeared thirteen years ago, said he was confident that today Mrs. Kimmel would be convinced she is his mother.

ADVOCATES CONVICT LABOR ON HIGHWAYS

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Gov. Shaffroth of Colorado at the International Good Roads Congress and Exposition today advocated the use of convict labor for building and maintaining public roads.

At the conclusion of the Colorado governor's address the congress adopted resolutions demanding the enactment of federal and state laws for this purpose.

MARINETTE DEATH WAS AN ACCIDENT

Marinette, Sept. 22.—After hearing the testimony yesterday of the several witnesses called at the inquest over the body of John Wankoski, the Crivitz farmer who died of a broken neck, the jury returned a verdict of accidental death and thus exonerated Peter Kies, who had been suspected of having maliciously dug a trench which caused Wankoski to fall from his wagon.

Millinery

If you failed to visit our Millinery Department—during our opening days—you must not fail to come down to the store Saturday night. There's a delightful treat awaiting you, for we have the most remarkable showing of trimmed hats that we have ever exhibited. A handsome display of "model" hats, beautifully trimmed in a variety of charming effects, also an attractive group of dress and street hats in all the newest colors from our work rooms. While the hats displayed here are of unusual and distinctive character our prices are unusually low.
