

FIGHT IS JUST STARTED SAYS PROMINENT OFFICIAL

That More Men Will Suffer Along With the McNamaras is the Statement Made by Detective Burns-Talks of Case. MORE ARRESTS ARE TO BE MADE SOON Much Money Has Been Saved by the Confession of the Brothers-Nearly A Quarter of A Million Has Already Been Spent-Business Men Take Hand in Trail to Save Problematical Trouble in the City

(By Associated Press.) Los Angeles, Dec. 2.—District Attorney Fredericks gave today the full account of the negotiations leading up to the plea of guilty in the McNamara trial. He declared that in making the agreement the defense came to his terms and outside influences did not prevail against him. He admitted that business men conferred with him, but that he rejected their proposition. Attorney Fredericks declared that since July he had an offer from the defense to let James McNamara plead guilty to save his brother, John. Fredericks said he insisted that both men must plead guilty.

Fight Just Started. New York, Dec. 2.—"The fight has only begun. The confessions of the McNamaras is only the first chapter. What we want now is to find out who were behind the McNamaras and this we propose to do." This was the statement made today by Chief Counsel Drew of the National Erectors Association, which employed Detective Burns to investigate the Los Angeles case.

Further Arrests. Chicago, Dec. 2.—According to Detective Burns there may be further arrests in the Los Angeles dynamiting outrage, which may now be looked for at any time. The detective discussed the case to great length today. He says that there are other prominent men implicated and that he will keep at work on the case until every one of them are run down and brought to justice.

(By Associated Press.) Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 2.—The community is dazed over this afternoon when asked for his comment on the McNamara case. "But," he added quickly, "turn back to my editorial in the Outlook entitled 'Murder is Murder.' Compare what I said then with what is being done now."

Berger on McNamara Case. Washington, Dec. 2.—Congressman Berger of Milwaukee, socialist, described the McNamara confession as the "Greatest blow that ever came to Gompers-Mitchell School of Unionism."

It is known that concerted efforts have been on foot for some time to bring about some kind of a compromise. The prosecuting attorney is inclined to minimize this and says that the state had given the ultimatum that both the men must plead guilty and that his is just what was done. He added that their action has probably saved many revelations.

POLICE FEEL SURE RADER IS DROWNED AFTER EXTENSIVE INQUIRIES REGARDING WHEREABOUTS OF MISSING MAN NO NEWS IS RECEIVED BY POLICE.

The trial so far has cost the state $200,000 and it is estimated that the sudden termination has saved the county a million. The alarm clock device with the fulminating cap for touching off the nitro-glycerine bomb and which is now accepted by the defense as the method by which James B. McNamara destroyed the Los Angeles Times did not entirely cause the wreck of the building. At least that is what Attorney Darrow said this morning. The bomb exploded and ignited the gas which eat up what the bomb did not demolish. The eight sworn jurors and the two talesmen were discharged and have returned to their homes, happy to be relieved from jury service.

The police are now still more strongly inclined to the theory that John Rader, cousin of Arthur Lindquist was drowned in the bay some weeks ago when he attempted to cross to this city during a heavy sea, for the ostensible purpose of visiting his relative held here for the murder of Alvin Fogarty. The finding of the boat which he used and which was minus the oars points to the possibility that he was a victim of the gale swept bay. It is said that in battling for his life among the big waves he must have went down clinging to the oars. These it is expected will be found along the bay shore before long.

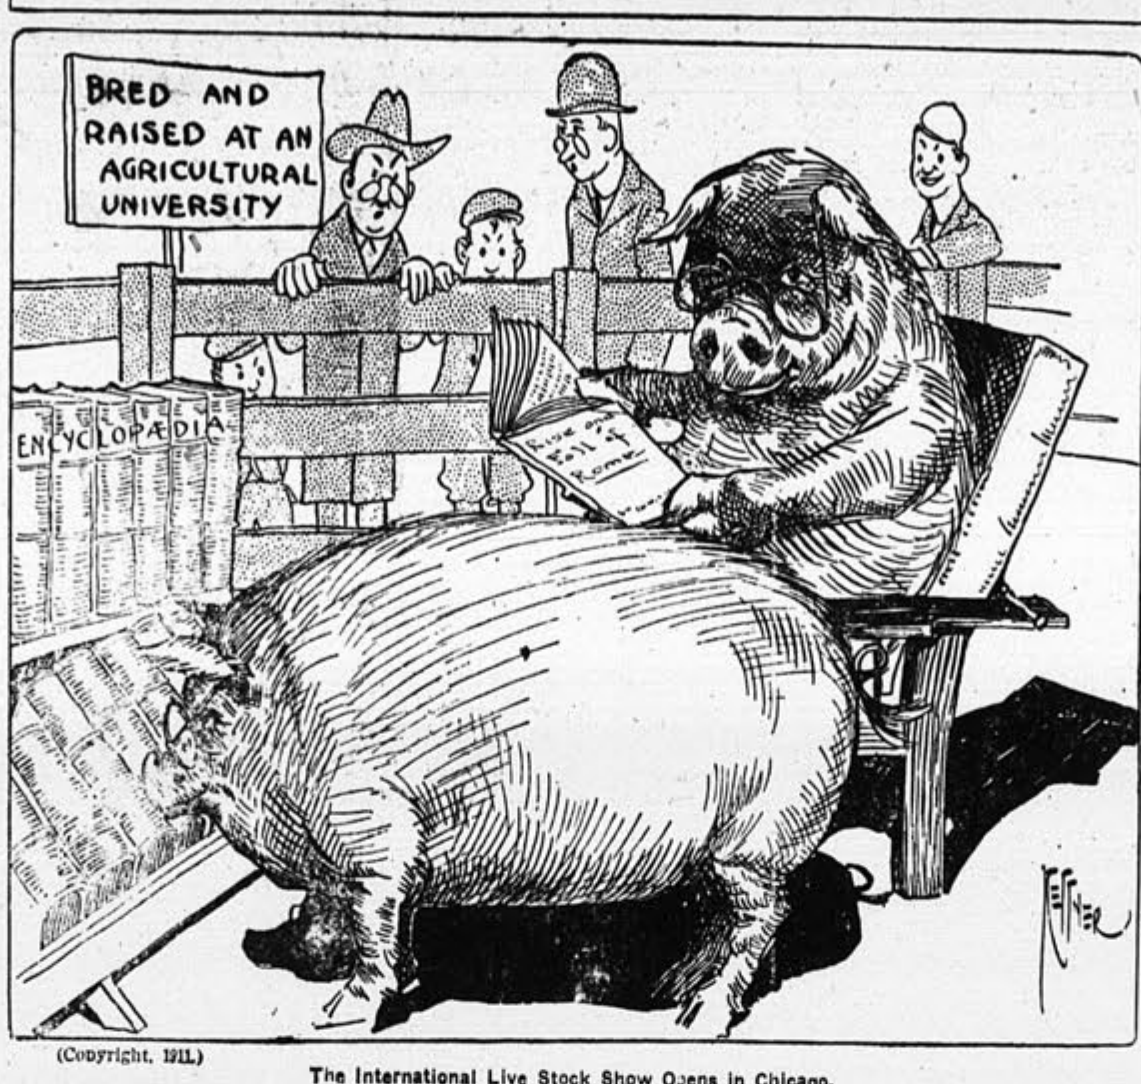

NO MORE ROOM AT NEWBERRY ASYLUM

UPPER PENINSULA INSTITUTION HAS NO MORE ROOM FOR ITS MEN PATIENTS—WILL SEND THEM TO TRAVERSE CITY. The northern hospital at Newberry is overcrowded and while a few more women patients can be cared for at that institution, men will have to be sent to Traverse City. A Menominee patient who was committed to Newberry is being held in Menominee now awaiting word from Traverse City that he may be taken there. The Misses Gertrude Bagley and Ethel Bagley of Wilson were here shopping yesterday, accompanied by the Misses Amy Wells, Evelyn Wells, Lottie Enfield and Minnie Enfield.

NOVEMBER BIRTH RATE NUMBERS 31

In the city clerk's report of births and death in the city for the month of November the birth rate was higher than the preceding month, the death rate was one more than for the month of October. The November report was ready today, and shows that 31 certificate of birth and 14 of death were filed at the city clerk's office during the month. FOUR ARE SENTENCED TO HANG IN CHICAGO TODAY. (By Associated Press.) Chicago, Dec. 2.—Ewald Shiblowski, Frank Shiblowski, Phillip Sommerling, and Thomas Schultz were today sentenced to hang on December 22nd for the murder of Fred Guelos, a farmer. Leo Suobomski and Frank Kita were sentenced to life imprisonment for complicity in the murder.

22 DAYS TO CHRISTMAS

SUPPER AND SALE AT ST. PATRICK'S

AN ELABORATE TURKEY SUPPER AND SALE OF FANCY WORK HAS BEEN PLANNED FOR DECEMBER 18 AND 19. Elaborate plans are being laid for an immense supper and sale to be given by the St. Patrick's church on the evenings of Monday and Tuesday, December 18 and 19. The turkey supper that has been arranged for the evening of the 18th will be the more pretentious affair of the kind that has ever been held in the city. The entire floor space of Peterson's hall will be filled with tables and as the supper will be served for three hours, from 5 to 8 o'clock, a very great number of people can be accommodated. The women of the congregation have taken charge of the supper arrangements and it is safe to prophecy that they will handle them in a way that will make the fair an unqualified success. The sale of needle work and household articles will also attract much attention from the women who attend and they will be able to find many things displayed on the booths that will make very acceptable holiday gifts. Edwin Paquette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paquette went to Howell, Mich., yesterday for a visit. Miss Ella Bacon has gone to Green Bay to visit friends for a few days.

HUGH JENNINGS, MANAGER OF DETROIT AMERICAN LEAGUE BASEBALL CLUB IS HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT. CONDITION REPORTED SERIOUS. While Motoring Through the Mountains in Pennsylvania the Car Skidded on a Bridge and Fell 10 Feet to the River Bed. Jennings Sustained Internal Injuries That are Serious. He received internal injuries, but no bones were broken and it is expected that he will recover. Jennings had been (Continued on page six.) RUSSIANS STORM TEHERAN. (Continued on page 4.) Teheran, Persia, Dec. 2.—The Russian forces are advancing on the city and the populace are intensely excited over the prospects of the coming battle. The people are quite determined to free themselves of Russian dominance and have put up placards all over the city bearing the slogan, "Independence or death." Hadji Mohammad Tagi, a prominent reactionary, was assassinated here this morning and Prince Firman Firman met a similar fate at Kasbin. Miss Luella Kirchner, of Saginaw, engaged as a teacher at Crystal Falls, is visiting with Miss Jennie McColl. Mrs. Joseph Moureau left today for a visit with friends at Houghton.

SCIDMORE TO COME NORTH

GOVERNOR OSBORN DOES NOT LIKE PRESENT AUDITOR GENERAL ON ACCOUNT OF MANY TURN DOWNS. WANTS TO BE AUDITOR GENERAL. Scidmore Has Large Following in Lower Part of State and Thinks That He Can Line up a Few in Northern Michigan—Will Spend a Week or Ten Days Up Here. According to the Marquette Chronicle, Auditor General Fuller is going to have strenuous opposition from a lower state politician. The Chronicle says: "Doc" Scidmore, of Three Rivers, former member of the legislature and of various state boards, member of the Republican state central committee from the Fourth district and a pretty strong person politically in the southwestern part of the state, is coming north of the straits immediately after the holidays in the interest of his candidacy for auditor general, according to advices from southern Michigan. Mr. Scidmore expects to spend a week or 10 days in the north country visiting with his friends and explaining in playing politics and as a result he has the toughest kind of sledding in his campaign for renomination for a third term. The Tangled Situation. There is no question now but that Gov. Osborn and the state administration will be out openly against Mr. Fuller for renomination. This will have two results; in some places working against the Fort River man but in others being to his advantage. Also Mr. Fuller lost considerable support just why they should see that Scidmore delegations attend the Republican state convention next fall. Just how much encouragement Dr. Scidmore will receive is pretty hard to estimate. Auditor General Fuller has made an excellent record in office. He has conducted it on a high plain of efficiency with the interests of the whole state always in sight. But the fact remains that he has erred (Continued on Page Two.) Funeral services were held on Friday afternoon over the body of Lillian Cholette, the 14 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cholette. The services were held at St. Joseph's church with the Rev. Father Julius officiating and the interment took place at the St. Joseph cemetery. Mrs. Joseph Moureau left today for a visit with friends at Houghton.

LABOR UNIONS IN U. S. CONTRIBUTED $190,000 TO DEFEND THE M'NAMARAS

(By Associated Press.) Troy, New Jersey, Dec. 2.—President Gompers of the American Federation of labor today seemed nervous whenever he referred to the McNamara confession. He declared "Labor was grossly deceived." He referred to telegrams from the McNamaras to the Federation recently thanking the unions for their confidence and help. Gompers said he did not think the labor unions will suffer from the results of the confessions. "We stand for peace and uplift among men rather than violence and brutality," he said. Gompers said that the labor men raised $190,000 to defend the McNamaras; Attorney Darrow, believing them innocent, gave up his business in Chicago and went to California to free them. Gompers said John McNamara assured him in the Los Angeles jail that he was innocent.

CHIEF KAMRATH GETS WARNING

STATE FIRE MARSHAL C. A. PALMER SENDS OUT CIRCULAR LETTER TO FIRE CHIEFS AND OTHERS. In order that the different communities of the state may not suffer from fire during the Christmas festivities, C. A. Palmer, the state fire warden has sent out a circular letter to the fire chiefs and others that are or should be interested. The letter received yesterday by Chief Kamrath is as follows: To all Fire Chiefs, Presidents of Villages, Clerks of Townships and Deputy Fire Marshals: Gentlemen: With the approach of the Christmas holiday season, we are reminded of the great loss of life and property annually occasioned at this time through the careless decoration of store windows, Christmas trees in homes and churches, and the reckless handling of electric wiring, inflammable materials, etc. In order to reduce the disasters resulting from the above, it is the desire of the Department that all Fire Marshals (which includes yourself under the law) shall make an especial effort to carry into effect the following regulations: The decoration of Christmas trees in public places with any of the above materials, is considered a crime by this Department, and you (Continued on Page 2.)

LOCAL COUPLE ARE MARRIED IN SECRET

PAIR OF YOUNG ESCANABA PEOPLE MARRIED THIS MORNING AT ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH AND SURPRISE FRIENDS. A very quiet little wedding occurred at 6 o'clock this morning at St. Patrick's church when John Kress and Henrietta Fitzbitzen, both of Escanaba, were married in the presence of but two witnesses, William Fitzsimon and Miss Maud Holran. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Barth. Mr. Kress is employed at the freight office of the Northwestern railroad here and is one of the popular young men of Escanaba. Miss Inderbitzen has been attending the Marquette Normal school and had come home ostensibly to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her relatives here, and told only one or two of her most intimate friends of her plans. In this way she managed to keep the matter a profound secret and the news that she has been married will come as a surprise to her many friends and acquaintances in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Kress will not leave for their wedding trip for a week or so, but will make their home here.

"UNCLE IKE" IS ON HIS WAY EAST

SENATOR STEPHENSON LEFT MARINETTE LAST NIGHT FOR WASHINGTON TO BE PRESENT WHEN CONGRESS OPENS. Senator Isaac Stephenson left Marinette last evening for Washington, D. C., to be present at the opening session of Congress which convenes on Monday. The senator was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Joshua Hodgins who will remain with him during the December session of Congress. An adjournment of the law makers will take place shortly before Christmas and Congress will reconvene in January 1912. It is not known just when the senate committee which investigated the election of Senator Stephenson will make their report, but it is quite probable that it will be one of the first matters to be taken up. The cases of Eric Osterberg and Charles Strand, the remaining defendants in the Gladstone saloon case, in which four saloonmen were arrested on a warrant sworn out by C. H. Rutledge, supt., of the U. P. Anti-Saloon league, were continued until the 16th of December, on a motion by Attorney H. J. Rushton for the defense, in Judge Linden's court today. Closing out the jewelry department, Ladies watches $13.50 formerly $20.00. Groce Drug & Jewelry store. 311-336 Mrs. Roy Banks entertained number of friends at her home last night at a little function arranged in honor of her sister. MUNICIPAL DOCK FOR MARINETTE

TWO FIRMS WILL VIE WITH EACH OTHER FOR THE CONTRACT—BOTH BID ABOUT THE SAME FIGURE. The bids for the new municipal dock in Marinette were opened Friday afternoon at the city hall. Only two bids were received, the lowest being that of Greling Brothers of Green Bay. They agree to rebuild the old city dock for the sum of $4,355.70. The other bid was that of Capt. James Larson, who will rebuild the dock for $4,861.14 or will build an entirely new dock for $4,898. The letting of the contract will be made at the next meeting of the Marinette city council. It is quite probable that Capt. Larson's bid for the new dock will receive much consideration.

ELKS WILL HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICE

The annual memorial service held by the Escanaba lodge of Elks will be held next Sunday afternoon at the Elk's temple. The service will be held at 3:00 o'clock and it is expected that a great many of the members of the local lodge will be in attendance. Memorial Sunday in the Elk's lodge is the occasion for holding religious exercises and short addresses, partaking of the nature of sermons, in memory of the departed members of the order. Mrs. Roy Banks entertained number of friends at her home last night at a little function arranged in honor of her sister. Mrs. William McCurtir of Milwaukee and Mrs. Thomas Connere of Neenah are visiting at the home of Mrs. S. J. Connors. Miss Agnes Coughlin, of Ishpeming is spending a visit with friends here.

The Pool of Flame

The Irishman met the onslaught with a stinging uppercut; which, nevertheless, failed to discourage the captain, who grappled and began to belabor O'Rourke with short, stabbing blows on the side of the head, at the same time endeavoring to trip him.

The noise of the conflict had brought the crew down upon the contestants. Surrounded, he was rushed to the rail. With that to his back he drew on his reserve of strength and, poisoning himself, began to give his assailants personal and individual attention.

Chance, too, would have it that there should be an arc-light ablaze precisely at the foot of the pier, beneath which stood, clearly defined in the white glare, the figure of a hulking black native representative of the municipal police, whom O'Rourke must pass ere he could gain solid earth.

The latter remained all unsuspecting until—and then the mischief of it was that O'Rourke was still a full five yards the wrong side of the man—Hole himself leaped from the boat upon the end of the quay and sent a yell echoing after the fugitive.

The black was facing O'Rourke in an instant, but simultaneously the Irishman was upon him and had put an elbow smartly into his midriff in passing, all but toppling the man backwards into the harbor.

It had been well for him had he succeeded. As it was the fellow saved himself by a hair's breadth and the next minute was after O'Rourke, yelling madly.

The Irishman showed a fleet pair of heels, he was sure; but, undoubtedly, the devil himself was in the luck that night! Who shall describe in what manner a rabble springs out of the very cobbles of Alexandria's streets?

Turning and twisting, dodging and doubling, smiting this gratuitous enemy full in the face, treating the next as he had the limb of the law (and leaving both howling), he seized the first opening and swung into a narrow back-way, leading inland from the waterfront.

He ran as seldom he had run before, straining and laboring, stumbling, recovering and plunging onward. And, by the gods, wasn't it hot! The khamsin raved and tore like a spirit of hell-fire through that narrow alley, turning it into a miniature inferno.

Exhausted as he was, the Irishman struggled with little skill before he mastered his own surprise; and in the end saw his fins written along the blade of a thin, keen knife which the Greek had whipped from the folds of his garments and jerked threateningly over his head.

"The Irishman Was Upon Him"

plained O'Rourke. "Sure, and 'tis a pretty mess I've made of it all, now!"

Saying which he rose and clambered to the top of the quay—with the more haste than good will in view of the fact that the splashing of oars, the dimly outlined shape of a boat heading directly for his refuge, had suddenly become visible.

Feeling that it is only necessary to call your attention to this matter in order to have the proper steps taken and thanking you for whatever action you may take towards keeping the road open, we are,

Gentlemen: I find that the following amount of pipe has been laid by Geo. Hogan toward his contract with the city for laying the gas mains.

13,276 feet pipe at 14 cents per foot, less 200 per cent ..... $1,858.91

The contractor has dug practically all the necessary trenches and has laid all the larger sizes of pipe, and I therefore estimate that he is entitled to a further credit of $250.00 less 20 per cent ..... $ 200.00

Total ..... $1,858.91

Respectfully, J. A. MacKillean, City Engineer.

Approved: L. J. McMartin, President.

A NEOLITHIC VILLAGE.

What is thought to be a neolithic walled village has been discovered near the main road between Harrogate and Bolton abbey, at a spot a few miles from Otley, by W. Storey of Fawcett, member of the Royal Archaeological society of Great Britain and Ireland. The discovery may be divided into two parts, says the London Times. In a dell behind a hill are twenty-four stone circles, varying in diameter from twenty to three feet, the whole being surrounded by evidences of a stone wall. One of the stone circles was a well, and two others are indisputably iron-smelting furnaces. A number of stone implements, which experts ascribe to the neolithic period, have been found. On a site above the village is a twenty-foot stone circle, commanding a magnificent view for miles down the valley and evidently at one time used as a lookout. On the other side of the hill are two stone circles connected by a huge stone slab, a small stone circle filled with smaller circles about eighteen inches in diameter and two feet deep, containing charcoal, and two large circular erections, supposed to have been used as a place of worship and a crematorium.

During recent years the growing tendency toward surgical interference to cure disease has been a subject of unfavorable comment both in and out of the medical profession. It has become the general belief that many practitioners are too ready to resort to the knife. For this reason opinions of prominent surgeons, as expressed at the congress recently held in Chicago, commend themselves as evidence of a saner professional view. These surgeons announce that the reaction has set in, and that the drift is away from operations and toward greater dependence upon medicine. As the ideas acquired at this congress will be impressed on the profession all over the country the effect of the discussions should be generally apparent. Let us hope that surgeons will bear in mind the advice of men eminent in their profession, who protest against operations that are not absolutely necessary, says the Chicago Daily Journal. While the splendid achievements of modern surgery inspire admiration it should not be forgotten that its resources are designed to be used only when less radical treatment proves unavailing.

The educational influences of the mine demonstrations in this city, says the Pittsburgh Post, are already resulting in good. Birmingham, Ala., in the midst of the southern coal fields, is taking steps for an exhibition along similar lines in that city. The demand for greater safety in the mining industry is heard from all portions of the world, where the toll of death has been leveled with appalling regularity for years. It is believed that the demonstrations here this week will prove of inestimable value in the saving of human lives and in adding to the safety of the industry.

A FAMOUS LAWSUIT

By M. QUAD

Copyright, 1911, by Associated Literary Press.

The town of Bidwell, up in the New England hills, was a town of peace. It had been founded just forty years when its first real sensation came. One day Deacon Goodhue borrowed Deacon Hardman's garden hoe, and after using it a few minutes he broke it off at the shank. While he contended that it was old and rusty and ready to break, he offered to buy a new one to replace it. Much to his surprise, he was allowed to do so, and he went home to say to his wife:

"Martha, I've known Deacon Hardman for thirty years and have just found him out. He's a human hog, and if he ever goes to heaven I want to go somewhere else."

For two weeks after that the two deacons nodded coldly to each other whenever they met, and it gradually became known to Bidwell that their relations were strained. Then one morning Deacon Goodhue set out to drive five hogs over to the weighing scales. He had to pass the other deacon's house, and as he came along the gate was open, and all the hogs made a rush for it. He was trying to drive them out of Deacon Hardman's yard when the latter came out and said:

"By gum, Deacon Goodhue, but this is goin' too fur—too fur! You opened that gate and driv' your hogs in on me a-purpose!"

"I never did, and you know I didn't!" retorted Deacon Goodhue as he paused in his running.

"Yes, you did!"

"No, I didn't!"

"Do you call me a liar?"

"Yes, if you call me one."

"Take it back or I'll mop the ground with you!"

"Come out here and I'll make you see stars!"

Then and there the deacons clinched and rolled on the ground together, and they were choking each other and breathing hard when Moses Scherhorn came along and separated them. Deacon Hardman went straight to Justice Somerfield and swore out a warrant for assault and battery.

Both men had their friends, and the public was divided. The only person who had witnessed the fracas was Deacon Hardman's wife, but there were other witnesses sworn.

Old Mrs. Taylor swore that she had always suspected Deacon Goodhue to be a man of violent temper and that he only needed to be kicked to become a murderer. Moses Hunt was a mile away that morning looking for his cow, but he swore that Deacon Hardman was the sort of man to lose his temper and do awful things if he found a strange hog rooting up his hollyhocks. Abner Crossman, who had known both parties for thirteen years, swore that he had known Deacon Goodhue to fall off a haystack, get mired in a swamp and fight bumblebees for half an hour without losing the smile on his face, and he could not believe that he had begun this fuss. Opposed to him was Trueheart Johnson, who said he had seen Deacon Hardman kicked head over heels by a cow, run over by a hog and knocked down by a ram and that he preserved a humble spirit throughout and even asked the cow to forgive him if he had hurt her feelings.

Mrs. Hardman's testimony was that she was washing the dishes after breakfast when she heard her husband give a grunt and rush from the house. She followed him to the door and heard and saw all that subsequently passed, though in such a nervous state that she could not be sure of anything. She felt almost sure that Deacon Goodhue said "by gum" and "devil" and "old crank" but she wouldn't be positive of it. She was almost as sure that her husband started to sing a hymn and made some Scriptural quotation, but she might have been mistaken. She was not sure who grabbed the other first, but she could swear on the living Bible that they had trodden all the cucumbers into the earth and broke down most of her tiger lilies.

It took two days to try the case, and meanwhile all business was suspended, including the sawmill. There was no jury, and when almost everybody in town had sworn on one side or the other Justice Somerfield put on his most dignified look and said:

"This case seems to go back to the hoe and to Deacon Goodhue's garden. Was there any need of the deacon working in his garden that day? What had become of his own hoe? Was the borrowed hoe rusty in the shank or was it not?"

"Then there were the hogs. Any man who had ever set out to drive one hog along the road, to say nothing about five, knew that the animal wouldn't go straight for a rod at a time. He wouldn't be a hog to pass an open gate without making a rush for the opening. As to whether the hoe was actually given and who gave it first is a matter of doubt. The same is true as to who grabbed first, but there can be no possible doubt that many cucumbers and tiger lilies were destroyed and that Deacon Hardman emerged from the conflict with a skinned nose. Taken full and by and back and forth, it was about an even thing. The costs will be divided between them, business resumed at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning, and if either has any root beer in the cellar he will be expected to treat the other and both make up and let hoes and hogs go to grass forever more!"

There is a strong human interest in the play besides the ceaseless fire of comedy situations introduced by Miss Floy Mann as the girl, and Mr. Byers as the Tramp. Cats in Ancient Times.

An ancient statute ascribed to Havelok the Good, a Welsh prince, who ruled in 1048, regulated the price of cats. A penny was the price of a kitten before its eyes were open, twopence until it had caught its first mouse and four pence when it was old enough for company. He who stole a cat from the royal granaries forfeited either a milk ewe, with its decee and lamb, or as much wheat as would cover the body of the cat suspended by its tail, with its nose touching the ground. A penny was a coin of great purchasing power in the tenth century.

The Eternal Feminine.

From the fresco paintings of women in the Cretan palaces of the period about 2000 B. C. it is learned that the women of that time plucked in their waists, wore an elaborate collure on their heads, shoes with high heels and hats which might have come from a Parisian hat shop, while one woman might be described as wearing a Jupe culotte.

SKATING ON BAY IS RISKY SPORT

THE SKATING SURFACE IS VERY NICE, BUT THE SKATER TAKES A RISK OF GOING THROUGH THE THIN ICE.

For the past two or three weeks there has been a sheet of ice formed along the south shore of the bay from Sand Point all the way out to Portage Island, where the water is shallow and the sand bars have acted as breakwaters and allowed the water to remain still enough for freezing. All this week there have been some venturesome people who have put their trust in the thin sheet of ice and gone skating over it. Some of them have had rare fun while others have paid for their timidity by receiving a nice cold bath when they happened upon weak places in the ice. This is an ideal place for skating, the ice surface being several miles in extent and the danger slight on account of the shallowness of the water. There is no place over the entire course, if one remains within a few hundred yards of the shore, where the water exceeds four feet in depth and should the ice brake under a skater, the unfortunate person would get nothing worse than a cold bath. A day or so of cold weather with no additional snow will make some very fine skating conditions on the south shore.

BIG SHOW IS OVER NOW

and this will aid very materially in giving Escanaba a first class ball team for next season and one that will have no deficit in its treasury.

The thing that seemed to make the biggest hit in the show was the "beauty (?) chorus" and according to the members of the cast, this feature was the most fun producing thing in the show, both before and behind the footlights. The description of the manner in which the members of the chorus donned their unusual costumes is very entertaining. One of the near chorus ladies asserts that the method of applying corsets to the sweet young things who cavorted before an appreciative audience, was for the victim to stand with hands reaching up toward Heaven, while three of the strongest members of the cast, one in front and the others on either side, each with a foot on the sufferer's ribs, pulled lustily the laces that caused the man to lose the shape that nature gave him and assume one that nature never gave to anything. The news has leaked out that a stage door "Johnny" drifted in through the stage door last night and endeavored to make a date with dreamy Florence Scanlon.

formation as to his whereabouts, but up to date no reply has been received. It is said by friends of Rader's sister that she no longer lives in Milwaukee, hence the reason for no answer to the chief's letter.

The police say they would not be surprised to find Rader's body floating in the bay. After a thorough search for the missing man they have been unable to find the slightest trace of him. He has vanished completely. At the local jail Arthur Lindquist asserts that he has received no letters from the missing man, and that he does not know whether Rader is living or dead. Should he be alive and located by the police, he will have to face a charge of boat stealing made by Oscar Lindell, a Stonington man who complained a month ago to the authorities that Rader had stolen a 14-foot skiff, which was found, however, last week, having floated back to the Stonington side of the bay.

CLUB IS SETTling FOR MINSTREL EXPENSES.

Longfellows are just what they are called and in addition to being very long, they are also very thin. The ridiculous appearance they make and their pleasant manner of poking fun at the defects in each others physical make up, affords great amusement. They do a dance that keeps the audience in constant fear that they will break their slender limbs. Atlas and company are the feature of the bill and the stage setting of their act is something both novel and beautiful. They do a number of different things and do them all well. The act includes balancing of a very unusual good quality, dancing and a trained dog that is very clever. Smith and Summers have a little comedy playlet, with a few songs introduced, that is very good.

LOCAL YOUNG MAN HAS MADE GOOD

"MIKE" MEAD HAS PASSED THE STATE BOARD EXAMINATIONS AND HAS HIS DIPLOMA AS A DENTIST.

Word has been received that Harold L. Mead, the popular Escanaba young man, better known as "Mike" has passed the State Board Examinations for Dentists and in the course of a few days will receive his diploma from the Dental department of the University of Michigan.

It is one thing to get through this course at all, but another to finish with credit as Dr. Mead has done. Among the requirements of the state board is that each applicant shall make a set of teeth for exhibition. Among all the applicants who took the examinations, Dr. Mead headed the list for making the best set of teeth and also received one of the highest marks given on any of the examination papers.

His friends in Escanaba are not at all surprised at the good news, because "Mike" has always been interested in his chosen profession and learned many things through practical experience during the summer vacation months. He is a strong believer in the motto "Keeping everlastingly at it brings Success," and it is believed that when the new doctor returns to Escanaba to practice, he will, with his host of friends and admirers and the splendid record achieved in his work at the University, have little difficulty in establishing a good practice.

CHRISTMAS TOY DISPLAY OPENS

The first display of imported Christmas toys of every description was opened to the public today at the Fair store. Electrical playthings are in greater evidence this year than ever before in the history of toy-making. One miniature electrical train on view is a marvel of ingenuity. It has all the complicated parts of a real engine with passenger cars. Everything in the holiday line is at hand at the store for public inspection.

A new silverware department was installed in the basement of the establishment yesterday. Forty feet of show case space was required for the installation of this section. Fancy cut glassware of rare design is also to be had in this new department.

CITY INDOOR TEAM DEFEATS FACULTY

The City Indoor Baseball team of Escanaba this morning won their first game when they played a team composed of members of the High school faculty and defeated them by a score of 16 to 9. The game was played in the gymnasium of the high school and was quite an interesting game, the score being pretty close all through the game up until the last couple of innings when the city team seemed to find its gait and reeled off a number of runs that put the educators out of the running. Willerton of the High school team covered himself with glory making a most sensational catch. Freedstrom and Boyle made up the battery of the city team while Mackenzie pitched and Willerton acted as backstop for the faculty.

Are You a Money Saver?

Most every one expects to be a money saver some time.

Some expect to save when their income is larger; others plan to save when their expenses are less.

People who wait until they can save without effort rarely begin to save; they wake up filled with regrets because of the opportunities they have missed.

The Moral is: Begin regular saving at this bank NOW; whatever the income, make the outgo a little less and save the difference.

It's a simple matter to start a savings account here.

PICTURE EXHIBIT

OPEN ON SUNDAY

The exhibition of pictures that is being held at the Escanaba Public Library has been very successful in attracting the attention of people who are interested in art works and in opening the eyes of others who have previously given but little attention to these things. The display has been so popular with local people and has been so well attended that the board of trustees has decided to hold it open on Sunday for the benefit of those who are anxious to see the pictures and are unable to attend conveniently at other times. The display room will be open from 2 to 5 Sunday afternoon.

The audience has been very large every day and the room is thronged with appreciative crowds of people during the greater part of the day and during the entire evening.
