EUROPE STARTS "STORK" CAMPAIGN TO BUILD UP LOSSES CAUSED BY THE GREAT WAR—SAY BOY BABIES ARE THE KIND MOST WANTED

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD. (United Press Staff Correspondence.) London, Feb. 16. (Correspondence.)

"Wanted—Boy babies!" That's the cry of the statesmen of Europe. It's a dead earnest demand. They need boy babies just as they need wheat, or horses, or copper, or cattle. These statesmen of most of the nations in the great war have thrown aside all the peace time conventionalities about marriage.

Germans Thorough On Plan. The German statesmen have gone about the baby breeding business with characteristic thoroughness. They have rules which encourage young recruits to marry before departing for the front; they want the fathers of German babies to be the strong men of the firing line, not the weaklings who couldn't go to war.

But the most astonishing German plan is already in the way of accomplishment. Red Cross parties of doctors and midwives from the lying-in hospitals of Germany will be sent to Belgium and northern France during the next few weeks and escort into war ridden Europe the babies that are born in the trail of the German army.

France Legitimizing Babies. In France the statesmen have gone to the last limit in legitimizing babies. "Unmarried mothers" and ranked with the married ones when it comes to the payment of war benefits. If a couple have lived together for six months preceding the war, that fact is as eloquent as a wedding ring.

And the statesmen of staid old England have followed France in this direction. In France there was no protest, but a handful of Episcopalian bishops in England, who happened to be in convocation at the time the rule was passed, complained bitterly about placing "unmarried wives" on the same footing in the war benefit lists with married women.

"It degrades the married women who have led careful and conventional lives," the bishops complained.

It was suggested that "unmarried wives" ought to receive less benefits than married ones, but the statesmen pointed out that "unmarried wives" often had as large families as married ones and that their need for food and shelter was as great as that of the married women and their children.

English soldiers are encouraged in every possible way to wed before departing for the front. The church authorities have reduced the heavy license fee which is necessary for quick and sudden marriages in England, and many soldiers and officers who return home on two or three day leaves of absence marry in that short space of time and return again to the firing line.

The French, however, have exceeded all former bounds. They have planned a law by which a soldier at the front may be married by proxy. In this way it is believed many "unmarried mothers" will be "set right" and their children legitimized without the necessity of calling the soldier farther home from the busy front.

Are Women Protesting? If the women of Europe, in any nation, are protesting against this plan of the statesmen for extensive and general breeding of babies, their objections are being silenced by the censors.

Not a word of the women's side of the great plan creeps to the press. The only objection that has been made came from the bishops in London. The suffragists of London are silent on the matter, and the feminist writers of France who for long have a vogue of speaking for women, have held their tongues and their pens. The war has reached so deeply to the roots of Europe's ancient conventions that there seems to be a general tacit understanding among the peoples of the various nations that now is not the time to raise questions of conventions. The soldier's idea duels in Europe. And his idea is "we must have boy babies, no matter how we get them."

TWO AMERICANS ARE KILLED BY MEXICANS

On board U. S. S. San Diego, San Diego, Cal.—The gunboat Annapolis, at Guaymas, reported to Rear Admiral Thomas B. Howard on the San Diego that Jean Cameron, an American employed as a lineman on the Mexican branch of the Southern Pacific railroad, was killed last Friday at Lencho, Sonora, by Yaqui Indians.

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 28.—Official advices received here by American owners of the Chamberlain estate at Cerritos, San Luis Potosi, tell of the execution of J. Cervantes, manager of the estate, by order of Col. Nemecio Reyes, a Villista commander.

The state department at Washington confirmed the report. Cervantes was an American citizen, born of Mexican parents in the United States.

Jersey City is giving 8-cent meals to the poor.

St. Cloud, Minn., fire department is motorized.

Waco, Tex., is motorizing its fire department.

BLACKMAIL IS NOW HINTED AT IN THE N. Y. PASSPORT PLOT

Washington, D. C. March 2.—A statement issued today by the German embassy, in the name of Count von Bernstorff, the ambassador, announced that the main facts in the Stegler passport case, with which the name of Capt. Boy-Ed, naval attaché of the embassy, has been connected, had been communicated to the state department. It added that "the whole matter looks very much like an attempt of blackmail, which failed."

The ambassador, who is in New York, telegrapher instructions for the issuance of the statement. The communication to the state department was mailed and officials of the department had not seen it tonight. The embassy statement follows: "The main facts of the Stegler affair as far as the naval attaché is concerned have been communicated by me to the state department. "I must refrain from dealing in any detail with all the false statements and fantastic allegations of Stegler and his wife, which are multiplying from day to day and are of a pathological character. "There may be other motives in question, but, in any case, the whole matter looks very much like an attempt of blackmail which failed. "It is up to the judges and the public opinion to form their own judgment of the reliability of Stegler."

SUBURBS OF MEXICO CITY SHOT TO PIECES

Mexico, City, March 2.—Suburbanites, who number nearly a quarter million of people, are seeking lodgment in the city with the result that provisions are still more scarce and high-priced than they have been. During the fighting in the suburbs between the forces of Zapata and the Carranzans, the modern system of electric car lines which link the capital to its six principal suburban towns has literally been shot to pieces. The suburbanites are thus cut off from their business in the city, and are also in danger if they remain at home. The fighting has been of the most indelicate character with the contending forces occupying and reoccupying villages at intervals sometimes as short as twenty minutes. The fighting has been of the most indelicate character with the contending forces occupying and reoccupying villages at intervals sometimes as short as twenty minutes.

The difficulty the soldiers have in distinguishing friend from foe is illustrated by a recent incident in the suburb of Coyacan. A party of Carranza men who had dismounted in the main plaza encountered some loungers who were not recognized as Zapatistas. A friendly conversation was commenced and continued until someone suspected the identity of the loungers and challenged them. The answer rang back "Viva Zapata." With that rifles were brought into play and the plaza was strewn with dead from both sides. Reinforcements arriving for the Carranza men, the Zapatistas were finally driven to the woods.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE CITY OF ESCANABA

So far I am the only candidate for the office of City Clerk who has made the proposition to the taxpayers of the city that the work of said office should be performed for the salary paid to the clerk therefore, without calling upon the taxpayers to pay an additional salary to an assistant. If the clerk elected, whosoever he may be, is unwilling or incapable of performing the work of the office, he ought to pay the assistant out of his own salary. This is exactly what I propose to do if elected. Now it is up to you Mr. Taxpayer. Do you want to pay $1800. per year for the work that can and should be performed for $1200. If so I do not ask you to vote for me. On the other hand, if you are in favor of cutting down unnecessary expense, wherever possible, thereby reducing your high taxes, I ask your favorable consideration of my candidacy and your vote for the office of City Clerk.

Respectfully yours,
Respectfully yours,

NEGRO CAUGHT AND CONFESSES ALL IN REGARD TO ATTACK

GREAT EXCITEMENT IS CREATED IN ILLINOIS CITY WHEN BLOOD-HOUNDS RUN NEGRO TO EARTH WHO ASSAULTED AND ROBBED AGED WOMAN.

Chicago, March 2.—Shortly before midnight several closed automobiles sped out of Aurora in the direction of Wheaton. In the first car, manacled and under close guard of Sheriff John Hesterman of Du Page county, and two armed deputies, sat Jesse Williams, confessed negro assailant of aged Mrs. Francis E. Schwartz. The other cars carried more armed guards and Dr. George W. Schwartz of Chicago, the son of the victim of the negro's attack.

The negro had been trailed through Aurora's saloons and dives and had been turned up by a negro suspect in the Peterson slaying shortly before noon. He broke down and confessed everything when the two bloodhounds sued to track the Peterson slayer were brought to the bars of his cell.

Fear Mob Violence.

Chief of Police Michels and Sheriff Hesterman decided not to take the prisoner back to Wheaton until after darkness for fear the enraged citizens of the western suburb would take him away from the authorities. It was feared an angry crowd would meet him at the depot should they go by train so the automobiles were brought into service.

The deputies were heavily armed, and one or two rifles were placed in each car.

Williams first went to West Chicago and then to Aurora. Chief Michels learned Williams had been seen drinking about town late Saturday evening.

He had one of the negro suspects in the Peterson case brought before him and told him that if he would go out and find Williams he would be turned loose. The negro was gone all morning, and returned at one o'clock in the afternoon and announced that Williams was at the Colored Men's Social club, a dive in the heart of the "black belt."

Divorce Cure.

Chauncey H. Depew, discussing the change for the worse in the ideals of the American girl, said, recently: "Our young women should think less of tango tents and automobiling. They would do well to return to the ideals which prevailed when I was a lad. These ideals included the ability to manage a house properly, an intelligent supervision of children and a thorough knowledge of the kitchen. This last accomplishment, I think, should be given particular attention." Depew concluded, with a smile, "For many a good husband nowadays is spoiled in the cooking."

SOME INTERESTING TELEPHONE FACTS

The New York-San Francisco telephone line is 3,396 miles long. There are two circuits, each using 6,780 miles of hard-drawn copper wire.

There are 870 pounds of copper wire in each circuit mile, and 2,960 tons in the entire line.

The longest telephone communication on record took place January 25th, when Theodore N. Vall talked from Jekyll Island, Georgia, to San Francisco, a distance of 4,400 miles.

If a voice were loud enough to be heard from New York to San Francisco, it would take four hours to travel that distance through the air.

The voice by telephone travels from New York to San Francisco in 1-15th of a second, traveling at the rate of 56,000 miles per second.

The voice of a man speaking in New York is heard in San Francisco three hours earlier, that being the difference in the standard time of the two cities.

The first sound was transmitted by telephone June 2, 1875, in Boston.

The first words were transmitted by telephone March 10, 1876, in Boston. Mr. Watson heard Prof. Bell say, "Mr. Watson, please come here, I want you."

The first conversation held by telephone took place October 9, 1876, over a telegraph line two miles long between Boston and Cambridge. Mr. Bell and Mr. Watson talked.

The first newspaper report ever transmitted by telephone was sent from Salem, Mass., to the Boston Globe.

The New York-San Francisco line crosses thirteen states.

The Panama Canal has begun nine years ago and has cost $310,000,000; within the same space of time the Bell Company has spent twice that amount in its engineering construction work alone.

NOISE AND GLAMOR OF WAR DISTURBS THE FEATHERED TRIBE

without lamps. There is no doubt that the birds found their way to the south, as usual, but they grouped their way, and it was probably slow traveling. Their return to the north, when spring comes, will be as difficult.

The bird men have proved, beyond a doubt, that the birds are disturbed by the sounds of firing.

The Rev. Charles Kent of Theford, one Saturday night recently, heard a terrific chattering of the pheasants and small birds around his house. There was terrific fuss in birddom. The cries were shrill and wild. The birds left their nests in the trees and flew about in terror. Their ears were catching sounds in the air that the rector and his family were missing.

But, when the rector picked up the Sunday morning paper, he saw that the German Zeppelins had bombarded the coast, some miles away, during the very hours of the birds' excitement. He was so impressed that he wrote a letter to The Times about it, whereupon many other residents of that part of England said that all the birds in their neighborhood had conducted themselves in the most extraordinary manner during the raids, even though the writers, themselves, had not been able to hear the sounds of shooting.

At a distance of 97 miles the pheasants themselves shrieked themselves hoarse over sounds of firing.

Whether the birds will become tired of the incessant firing on the continent and impatiently leave the war districts remains to be seen.

FLATIRON BELIEVED CAUSE OF BAD FIRE IN GREEN BAY, MONDAY

A tallors "goose," overheated and left standing in the tailor shop of the D. E. Detelne company at Green Bay, is believed to have been the cause for a bad fire which visited that city last night during the early part of the evening.

According to the statement of railroad men here, the Detelne shop is one of the oldest business institutions of the Wisconsin city, its owners being well known here. No details of the fire have been received, but it is believed the loss was large.

CORONER'S JURY SAYS HURST WAS A SUICIDE; BURY BODY TOMORROW

A coroner's jury, impaneled at the Allo undertaking establishment last night, viewed the body of Henry Hurst Danforth settlement suicide at that time and immediately returned a verdict of suicide, while despondent.

Coroner Bartley named the following as members of the panel: A. Graham, P. Manard, V. Groth, J. A. Allo, Jos. Buchanan and John Richter.

The testimony taken at this time shows that Hurst was last seen on the date that the calendar in his shack was marked through, Feb. 17, by John Richter on whose land the shack was located. The body will be buried this afternoon or tomorrow, it is said.

MARCH WIND IS VERY MUCH IN EVIDENCE

Nothing is lacking today to make this an ideal March day. Cold weather, with a sting to it, all the wind that is necessary to carry out the spirit of the time and bring sunshine—all combine to show that the weatherman knows how to maintain the traditional March weather. It was not an unusual sight today to witness some local man playing tag or attempting a marathon with his headgear, as the latter sky piece took wings unto itself and sped away down Ludington street, until stopped by some kindly minded person.

Bulgrave Purchase Completed. The signatories were the Duke of Teck, Lord Shaw, chairman of the executive, and Lord Cowdray, chairman of the finance committee. The estate includes the old house and nine acres of land adjoining. A copy of the only genuine portrait of Mary Ball Washington, mother of George Washington, will eventually be placed at Sulgrave.
