PRINTERS TO CONDUCT BASKET PICNIC, JUNE 13

Plans for the outing and basket picnic under the auspices of the Escanaba Typographical Union are rapidly drawing to a close and it is announced that the event will be one of the most enjoyable excursions ever run out of the city to the islands of the bay. The steamer Saugatuck has been chartered for the occasion and a four piece orchestra will dispense music during the day. The trip will be made to Washington island, one of the real beauty spots of the bay. With promises of warm weather it is believed that a large crowd will make the trip.

The sale of tickets has already begun, the cost of the trip being seven-fifty cents for adults and twenty-five for children accompanied by parents. Light refreshments will be served on the boat, both outgoing and returning.

Leaving the Stephenson dock at 9:30 o'clock the excursionists will be given a two hours ride on the waters of the bay, arriving at noon at the scene of the picnic. The return will be made at 6:30 arriving here two hours later.

BERLIN "U" WILL CONFER DEGREES ON ITS CANDIDATES

(By Associated Press.)
Berlin, June 3.—The philosophy faculty of Berlin University has decided to confer the degree of doctor of philosophy upon all candidates who, after passing the required examination and submitting the required thesis, have been killed in battle before they could be formally invested with the degree earned. The form of the new diploma has been drawn by Prof. E. Von Willamowitz-Moellendorf and Prof. Ed. Norden, and reads: "The dean of the faculty of philosophy has conferred upon the reputable, learned and brave _____, who after he had passed the examination in philosophy with (great, very great) praise and had published, with the approval of the faculty, a (very) praiseworthy dissertation with the title _____, earned for himself, through his death for the Fatherland, glory beyond all praise, the distinctions and honor of a doctor of philosophy, in order thereby to consecrate his memory."

Y. M. C. A. MAN IN CHINA DESCENDANT OF OLD CONFUCIUS

(By Associated Press.)
Peking, June 3.—A descendant of Confucius is not only an active member of the Young Men's Christian Association in Peking but has entered the service of that association, which in China deliberately undertakes the propagation of Christianity. This descendant of the Sage who lived on earth in the days before Christ, is a graduate of Cornell University. He bears the Chinese surname Confucius, that is "Kung," and has adopted the English prefix of Chauncey.

It is not considered an extraordinary matter in China that a family record should be preserved for two thousand years, and it is considered very bad form to boast of ancestry.

LARGE HAULS OF HERRING TO PULL FISH COST DOWN

(By Associated Press.)
Vlaardingen, Netherlands, June 3.—The first herring caught this season by a Dutch fishing smack was brought into this port during the third week of May and gave promise of a reduction in the price of fish, for it was accompanied by a large haul. The retail prices have soared recently beyond any previous limit and there has been considerable deprivation among the poor.

Dutch fishermen have been particularly handicapped since the North Sea was declared a war zone. The dangers have been brought home forcibly to the Netherlands public by frequent reports of the blowing up of Dutch smacks by mines, attacks by aeroplanes and the occasional seizure of the boats by German destroyers, which have taken them into German ports and detained their crews on charges of espionage. The chief inspector of Dutch fisheries, in order to prevent such occurrences, has issued a set of regulations requiring

GERMANY REGRETS ATTACKS ON SHIPS; ASKS MORE FACTS

Berlin Government Replies to President Wilson's Note.

CALLS LUSITANIA A CRUISER

United States Requested to Investigate—Asserts Liner Carried Guns and Ammunition—Justifies Sinking of Steamer Falaba.

Washington, June 3.—The German reply to the American note sent after the sinking of the Lusitania was received in Washington Sunday night from Ambassador Gerard at Berlin and made public here.

The following is the text of the German note:

"The undersigned has the honor to submit to Ambassador Gerard the following answer to the communication of May 15 regarding the injury to American interests through German submarine warfare.

"The Imperial government has subjected the communication of the American government to a thorough investigation. It entertains also a keen wish to co-operate in a frank and friendly way in clearing up a possible misunderstanding which may have arisen in the relations between the two governments through the events mentioned by the American government.

"Regarding firstly, the cases of the American steamers Cushing and Gulfight. The American embassy has already been informed that the German government has no intention of submitting neutral ships in the war zone, which are guilty of no hostile acts, to attacks by a submarine or submarines or aviators. On the contrary, the German forces have repeatedly been instructed most specifically to avoid attacks on such ships.

Cites Misuse of Flags.

"If neutral ships in recent months have suffered through the German submarine warfare, owing to mistakes in identification, it is a question only of quite isolated and exceptional cases, which can be attributed to the British government's abuse of flags, together with the suspicious or culpable behavior of the masters of the ships.

"The German government, in all cases in which it has been shown by its investigation that a neutral ship, not itself at fault, was damaged over the unfortunate accident, and if justified by conditions, has offered indemnification.

"The cases of the Cushing and the Gulfight will be treated on the same principles. An investigation of both cases is in progress, the result of which will presently be communicated to the embassy. The investigation can if necessary be supplemented by an international call on the international commission of inquiry as provided by article III of The Hague agreement of October 18, 1907.

Justifies Sinking of Falaba.

"When sinking the British steamer Falaba, the commander of the German submarine had the intention of allowing the passengers and crew a full opportunity for a safe escape. Only when the master did not obey an order to heave to, but fled and summoned help by rocket signals, did the German commander order the crew and passengers by signals and megaphone to leave the ship within ten minutes. He actually allowed them 23 minutes' time and fired the torpedo only when suspicious craft were hastening to the assistance of the Falaba.

"Regarding the loss of life by the sinking of the British passenger steamer Lusitania the German government has already expressed to neutral governments concerned, its keen regret that citizens of their states lost their lives.

"On this occasion the Imperial government, however, cannot escape the impression that certain important facts having a direct bearing on the sinking of the Lusitania may have escaped the attention of the American government.

"In the interest of clear and complete understanding, which is the aim of both governments, the Imperial government considers it first necessary to convince itself that the information accessible to both governments about the facts of the case is complete and in accord.

Calls Lusitania Cruiser.

"The government of the United States proceeds on the assumption that the Lusitania could be regarded as an ordinary unarmed merchantman. The Imperial government allows itself in this connection to point out that the Lusitania was one of the largest and fastest British merchant ships, built with government funds as an auxiliary cruiser and carried expressly as such in the 'navy list' issued by the British admiralty.

"It is further known to the Imperial government from trustworthy reports from its agents and neutral passengers that for a considerable time practically all the more valuable British merchantmen have been equipped with cannon and ammunition and other weapons and manned with persons who have been specially trained in serving guns. The Lusitania, too, according to information received here had cannon aboard which were mounted and concealed below decks. To direct the particular attention of the American government to the fact that the British admiralty, in a confidential instruction issued in February, 1915, recommended its mercantile shipping not only to seek protection under neutral flags and distinguishing marks, but also while thus disguised, to attack German submarines by ramming. As a special incitation to merchantmen to destroy submarines, the British government also offered high prizes and has already paid such rewards.

Says Liner Carried War Material.

"The Imperial government in view of these facts indubitably known to it, is unable to regard British merchantmen in the zone of naval operations specified by the admiralty staff of the German navy as 'undefended.' German commanders consequently are no longer able to observe the customary regulations of the prize law, which they before always followed.

"Finally, the Imperial government must point out particularly that the Lusitania on its last trip, as on earlier occasions, carried Canadian troops and war material, including no less than 5,400 cases of ammunition intended for the destruction of brave German soldiers who are fulfilling their duty with self-sacrifice and devotion in the fatherland's service.

"The German government believes it was acting in justified self-defense in seeking with all the means of warfare at its disposition to protect the lives of its soldiers by destroying ammunition for the enemy.

Puts Blame on Ship Owners.

"The British shipping company must have been aware of the danger to which the passengers aboard the Lusitania were exposed under these conditions. The company in embarking them, notwithstanding this, attempted deliberately to use the lives of American citizens as protection for ammunition aboard and acted against the clear provisions of the American law, which expressly prohibits the forwarding of passengers on ships carrying ammunition and provides a penalty therefor. The company therefore is wantonly guilty of the death of so many passengers.

"There can be no doubt, according to the definite report of the submarine's commander, which is further confirmed by all information, that the quick sinking of the Lusitania is primarily attributable to the explosion of the ammunition shipment caused by a torpedo. The Lusitania's passengers would otherwise, in all human probability, have been saved.

"The Imperial government considers the above mentioned facts important enough to recommend them to the attentive examination of the American government.

Withholds Final Decision.

"The Imperial government, while withholding its final decision on the demands advanced in connection with the sinking of the Lusitania until receipt of an answer from the American government, feels impelled, in conclusion, to recall here and now that it took cognizance with satisfaction of the mediatory proposals submitted by the United States government to Berlin and London as a basis for modus vivendi for conducting the maritime warfare between Germany and Great Britain. The Imperial government by its readiness to enter upon a discussion of these proposals, then demonstrated its good intentions in ample fashion. The realization of these proposals was defeated, as is well known, by the declinatory attitude of the British government.

"The undersigned takes occasion, etc. JAGOW."

Woman Destroys Bomb.

What might have been a disastrous explosion was prevented when Mrs. Pauline Siegel picked a bomb, with a lighted fuse attached, from the doorstep of the house of her neighbor, Mrs. Salvatore Corso, 1621 South Franklin street, Philadelphia. Mrs. Siegel hurled it into the street. This broke the crudely constructed bomb, and only a section exploded.

Mrs. Siegel saw two men place a queer-looking package on the step, apply a match, and run away. She grasped the package and hurled it into the street.

It contained six sticks of dynamite and a large quantity of gunpowder. The copper wires, which had been wrapped around the package, broke. The contents of the powerful bomb were scattered in all directions. Mrs. Corso said her family has no enemies.

Difference Made by Years.

When a girl is six, she weeps if the seams of her best doll loosen up and let out sawdust. When she is twenty-six, if her beau doesn't loosen up and spend some, she's equally peeved.

NOTICE TO WATER TAKERS

The attention of water takers is directed to the rule adopted by the North Michigan Water Company, governing Sprinkling Hours, which reads: "The hours for sprinkling laws are as follows from 6:00 a. m. to 10:00 a. m. and from 5 p. m. to 9 p. m. Sprinkling laws during the heat of the day is poor practice and the result is harmful to vegetation rather than otherwise. So that to a great extent this practice constitutes an unnecessary waste. The hours as above specified are ample for any ordinary lawn service, therefore, the Water Company can expect and will insist upon a reasonable observance of such sprinkling hours.

Instant violation of this rule will result in an interrupted service and a payment of $1.00 will be required before the water is again turned on.

In case of a second offense the supply will be stopped until a meter has been installed and such service established upon a measurement basis and at the regular rates.

GREEN BAY GIRL IS BRIDE OF ATTORNEY

Former Escanaban Enters Ranks of Benedicta Yesterday

One of the prettiest weddings performed in Green Bay in recent times is described in the ceremony which united Miss Marie Martin of Green Bay, daughter of Atty. and Mrs. Patrick H. Martin, and Atty. John McHale, of Iron River, a former Escanaban. The ceremony was performed at St. John's church Wednesday morning, an Escanaba clergyman, Rev. Fr. Barth officiating. Fr. Barth has been a close friend of the groom for many years.

The bride was gowned in white satin with a lace veil and carried an arm bouquet. She was attended by a sister, Mrs. John Sullivan as matron of honor and by two bridesmaids, Dr. John Long of Iron River acted in the capacity of best man. The bride was given away by her father.

Atty. and Mrs. McHale left yesterday afternoon for this city and from here they have gone to the lake district near Lathrop for a several week's stay.

Among the guests at the event were Atty. and Mrs. A. H. Ryal, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kennelly and Miss Irene Keannelly of this city

BIG STORY OF BRET HARTE IN PICTURES

World Film Corporation presents Beatriz Michelena in the five-part photoplay "The Lily of Poverty Flat," produced by the California Motion Picture Corporation after the writings of Bret Harte. To be shown at the Bijou theatre Friday.

The story is a blend of three of Bret Harte's poems; and a dramatization of them which some years ago was successfully offered on the stage.

Lily Follinsbee was the daughter of a miner who suddenly struck it rich; Joe was her poor lover, also of mining interests. Lily goes to Paris; an aristocratic admirer, with the assistance of her mother, tries to take the girl away from Joe.

But Lily remains loyal all through a long, long series of exciting incidents and adventures which occur in and about the mining camps. There are robberies; feuds between Mexicans; Indians and Westerners; mine swindles; interludes of brilliant Parisian life; and all the moving panorama of the romantic period of the '50's when the gold rush was on.

The producers have constructed a dramatic story with beautiful settings for background.

Beatriz Michelena is supported by a powerful cast and the California Motion Picture Corporation spent money lavishly to make the picture worthy of its theme.

SPLENDID PROGRAM BE PRESENTED AT ARMORY

Plans for the big concert and meeting of the Salvation Army have been practically concluded today and it is indicated that a large number of Escanaba people will be present at the Armory tomorrow night to hear Col. Stephen Marshall and Major C. Boyd, provincial officers of the Salvation Army.

Cummings "Reform" Measure Went Into Effect Tuesday Night

Washington, June 3.—Beginning with midnight Tuesday the traveling man or woman who carries more than $100 worth of baggage on a railroad journey will now have to pay the freight.

This is required by the Cummings amendment to the railroad rate act which prohibits a railroad from making any limitation on its liability on either the transportation of baggage or freight. IN CHART CLASS AT SEVENTY Kindly Colored Woman Wants to Learn to Read the Bible and to Write.

Hutchinson, Kan.—Kansas' oldest primary pupil is Mrs. Charlotte Harrison, aged seventy years, a regularly enrolled pupil of the chart class in the primary grade at the Avenue A school in Hutchinson.

It has long been an earnest ambition of Mrs. Harrison, a kindly old colored woman, to learn to read the Bible and to write. A month ago her little granddaughter, who is a pupil at the Avenue A school, asked permission to let her grandma enroll also.

"Anybody that anxious to get an education should not be deprived of it because of age," declared the superintendent, and Grandma Harrison was duly enrolled in the "A, B, C" class.

NEW SHADE OF BLUE

POPULAR SPRING COLOR IS REMARKABLY PRETTY.

Probably Seen at its Best in the Taffetas—Illustration Shows One of the Most Effective of the Recent Gowns.

The newest and smartest shade of blue is designated "bleu soldat" or soldier blue, and really is remarkably pleasing. It rather borders on a violet tone, but is not so dark and probably resembles the blue of gentians as nearly as any other known shade.

This is a modish spring color and is particularly good in taffetas, of which the illustrated dress is fashioned.

It will be necessary to have a white China silk waist lining, sleeveless, of course, and just serving as a foundation to which the skirt and little shirred neck yoke may be attached. The shirred yoke is merely added above the round décolletage of the lining and shows inside the wide V of over-blowse.

The top of the skirt is evenly gathered all round, and an added section above is shirred and corded in three or four more rows. The lower part of the skirt is trimmed with two bands of self material, the first a trifle narrower than the second, and both slightly frilled under a finishing cord. The lower edge of these bands is cut in little square tabs to correspond with the lower edge of the blouse.

In front the short unconfined edge of the blouse runs up at the center. The sides and back are held in a little, about four inches above the waist under a cording. The long sleeves show three encircling bands of self material all slashed to form square tabs.

Over either hip and below the center of the V neck a bit of dull silver embroidery is introduced, taking the form of long, narrow points that are extremely attractive as a trimming.

MORE TRENCHES FOR ALLIES

British and French Report Gains Along Battle Front—Germans Tell of Repulsing Attack.

London, May 31.—Slight gains for the allies on the western front are reported in both the British and French official reports. Sir John French says the British forces have made an additional small gain east of Pestrubert. The Paris reports describe the capture of all German trenches on Hill 17, in the Pilken region, where 50 prisoners were captured and three machine guns seized. An advance of a quarter of a mile was made when the French troops attacked the German work called the labyrinth southeast of Neuville. New trenches were carried in the outskirts of Le Petre forest. The Germans report the repulse of a French attack north of the Der Houdt farm east of the Yser canal, which was made after ten hours of artillery preparation. The foe's loss was heavy, according to the Berlin official statement.

THREE MEN ARE DROWNED

Two Wisconsin Men Go Down in Lake, While Hundreds See Iowan Sink in Shooting Dam.

Madison, Wis., May 30.—Stockton H. Dwell and Harrison F. McCarthy, University of Wisconsin students from Baltimore, Md., were drowned in Lake Mennocota. Earlington Hoopes of Belair, Md., a third occupant of their canoe, which overturned, was saved.

Iowa City, Ia., May 31.—James Boucher, Marshalltown, Ia., son of Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Boucher, a freshman dental student at the University of Iowa, capsized his canoe as he went over the dam drop, and after struggling frantically for ten minutes was sucked into the undercurrent. His body has not been recovered. Hundreds of university students had lined the shore to watch Boucher "make the dam," and preparations had been made to have his picture taken.

French Vote Fund
Paris, June 3.—Alexander R. Ribbe, French Minister of Finance introduced a bill into the chamber of deputies today for an appropriation of 5,600,000,000 francs ($1,120,000) to provide for the requirements of this quarter of the year.

San Marino in Scrap
Amsterdam, June 3.—An agency despatch received here from Lignano, Switzerland, says that the San Marino republic, the little republic on the Adriatic, has officially approved the Italian attitude towards Austria and has declared itself in a state of war. It is located on high land a few miles from Rimini and the fact that it has joined with Italy makes it impossible to be used as a neutral point by Austrians.

The area of San Marino is 22 square miles and is situated nine miles from Rimini and on the mountains, dominating the Adriatic. It is contended that if it remained neutral the Austrian aeroplanes could go there, repair, take on supplies and then return to the attack on Italy.

Italians Take Resort
Verona, June 3.—The Austrian troops are withdrawing from their positions along the Fiemme valley (part of the valley of the River Avelino, north east of Trent.) They have virtually destroyed the health resort of San Martino de Castrozza. This village contained eight first class hotels, six owned by Germans and two by Italians.

WOMAN THE HOME BUILDER

Undoubtedly the Chief Trade in Which Females of the Country Are Engaged.

Yes, of course, it is homemaking. Everybody knows that, but the figures for it, compiled by the United States Board of Education statisticians, are worth noting. Of the 31,000,000 females over ten years of age in the United States 24,000,000 are engaged in homemaking. Girls may be entering more and more into other trades, but in the last analysis they generally fall back or advance to the rank of homemakers.

Hence, says the Federal Educational board, the importance of giving special attention to scientific cooking in the vocational schools. The girlish hope of being able to hire a cook is apt to be disappointed as frequently as the hope of keeping one when she is hired. It is one of the oddest things of life that cooking, the preparation of the food that sustains life, the art that can waste or economize in the chief item of family expenditures, is so largely left to be picked up as best it may be without serious consideration or training. If the woeeful waste resulting from amateur cookery could be computed in dollars and cents it would rival the war bills of Europe. If the indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred physical disturbances caused by incapable cooks could be tabulated they would dwarf the list of killed, missing and wounded.

"There's a Reason"
FOR Grape-Nuts

WISE WORDS A Physician on Food.

A physician of Portland, Oregon, has views about food. He says:
"I have always believed that the duty of the physician does not cease with treating the sick, but that we owe it to humanity to teach them how to protect their health especially by hygienic and dietetic laws.

"With such a feeling as to my duty I take great pleasure in saying to the public that in my own experience and also from personal observation I have found no food to equal Grape-Nuts and that I find there is almost no limit to the great benefit this food will bring when used in all cases of sickness and convalescence.

"It is my experience that no physical condition forbids the use of Grape-Nuts. To persons in health there is nothing so nourishing and acceptable to the stomach especially at breakfast to start the machinery of the human system on the day's work. In cases of indigestion I know that a complete breakfast can be made of Grape-Nuts and cream and I think it is necessary not to overload the stomach at the morning meal. I also know the great value of Grape-Nuts when the stomach is too weak to digest other food.

"It is written after an experience of more than 20 years treating all manner of chronic and acute diseases, and the letter is written voluntarily on my part without any request for it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
