Russian War Office Admits Retirement Along Gallician Front—Due to Superior Forces is Said

(By Associated Press.)
The assertion is made by the Russians that in view of the recent fighting in Gallicia that the Austro-Germans have made their advances at the cost of great losses. In two days fighting the Teutonic forces lost "tens of thousands of men," and on a sector of the 38 mile Gallician front between May 29 and June 15 they lost 125,000 to 150,000 men. Reports from Vienna and Berlin indicate that the Russians are being steadily pushed back.

Negotiations between the Balkan states and the Allies is once again going on. A Berlin despatch expressed doubt whether former Premier Venizelos of Greece in case he was successful in winning the election would be unconditionally in favor of entering the war. The failure of Bulgaria and Roumania to enter the war on the side of the allies is given as a basis for this view.

The heaviest fighting in weeks is now going on in the western area. Each side has sustained severe losses and although reports from Paris and Berlin are at variance it is evident that the French have made advances.

British in Bad Shape
Constantinople, June 18.—An inspection of the Turkish forts, made by a correspondent of the Associated Press shows the British to have lost most of the ground formerly held by the "moon Gallipoli and now have only a small crest of land north of Gallipoli on the west coast of the peninsula near the extremity, 2800 yards long and 1100 yards in breadth. Three sandy hill crests and beach below are left to them. The British troops have little water and but small shelter from the sun. Their position is considered desperate.

Hide From Submarines
Constantinople, June 18.—A correspondent of the Associated Press who visited Gallipoli peninsula reports that the British fleet has taken refuge in Bayale bay on Bimberos island, ten miles from the coast. The British ships can be seen at anchor in the bay from a height. On several different occasions the Turks have been successful in exploding mines beneath the ships in their place of refuge.

German Advance on Schedule
London, June 18.—The Austro-German forces on the Gallician front are still advancing on schedule established by General von Mackenson and Vienna claims that part of the fortified Grodek region where the Russians have concentrated, has fallen into the hands of the Teutonic forces. Petrograd does not admit the loss of any part of this district, but states that the Russian troops have gathered there for the defense of Jemberg. ORCHESTRA, SCHOOL YEAR, 1914-15.
The above picture represents the Escanaba High School Orchestra, an organization which has been to the front all during the school year just now drawing to a close. The orchestra has been a valuable aid to the many festivities of the institution and has made a most favorable impression on those who have been fortunate to hear it. The individual members of the organization are members of the various classes of the school. Miss Ryan has had active charge of the orchestra, and the advancement made during the year was noticeable. Several members of the organization will receive their diplomas Monday evening and be lost to the orchestra. However it is believed that another year will see another strong orchestra.

Forty Autos Coming For Two Game Series Against Locals, Saturday and Sunday
With a squad of fifteen scrappy, fighting, class ball players, all of whom are imported talent and with several hundred of the most rapid and enthusiastic fans, Manistique's pastimers will descend on Escanaba tomorrow morning bright and early in a special train, and in automobiles in anticipation of the two big scraps to be pulled off at South Park, Saturday and Sunday afternoons.
Nothing now is left undone, except the approval of the weather arbiter regarding the character of weather to be dished out tomorrow and Sunday. If that finicky individual so directs his elemental forces so that fair and bright weather is on hand, it is believed that the rest will be easy.
Wants Big Stand Section
According to a wire received last evening by Manager Schram of the Escanaba outfit, the Lake City crowd wants reservations for half the seating capacity of the grand stand at South Park, accommodations for 15 pastimers, a siding for special train, preparations to receive a half hundred automobiles and a license for the use of a rolling brass band. A hint was also carried in that message that a "pot" of some size, said to be $1000 or better was ready to be stacked up against half that amount of Escanaba change that Manistique will cop both scraps. The above arrangements, except for the taking of that side bet have been completed.

(By Associated Press.)

As a preventative of war Bryan prophesied that a wide investigation of his universal peace treaty plan would be made.
"Mediation" he said, "is the means by which belligerent nations can be brought into a conference. The time for an investigation of disputes is the means by which future wars will be avoided."

LIEUT. WARNEFORD, CANADIAN AVIATOR WHO BLEW UP DIRIGIBLE FALLS WITH MACHINE
AMERICAN WRITER WAS ALSO KILLED
Explosion Caused Accident—Warneford's Feat First Recorded of Destruction of Zeppelin From Air Craft
(By Associated Press.)
Paris, June 18.—Reginald A. J. Warneford, who gained fame by blowing to pieces a Zeppelin over Belgian several days ago, was killed in a fall with his machine yesterday at Bue, France.
Lieut. Warneford was piloting the machine and had as a passenger, Henry Beach Needham, an American writer who went up with Warneford to get material for a story. He also was killed in the fall. The men and machine fell from a height of five hundred feet.
Explosion Rocks Craft
According to a report received in Paris the accident resulted from an explosion in mid-air, which caused Lieut. Warneford to lose control of the aircraft, the machine falling swiftly to the earth. Needham had been in Europe for four months acting as correspondent of magazines and a New York newspaper. He had received permission from the authorities to make the ascent with the aviator to get the material for a story.
Warneford suddenly acquired world fame by his unparalleled exploit of destroying a Zeppelin airship by dropping bombs upon it and wrecking it as it flew below him. June 7 was the first time in the history of the world that such an event has ever occurred.
The death of young Warneford is being mourned throughout France, his exploit having made him as popular here as in England.

JUNIORS SCORE SUCCESS IN BANQUET TO SENIORS

GRADUATES AND FACULTY MEMBERS ARE GUESTS OF UNDER-CLASSMEN AT SCHOOL GYMNASIUM
FORMER FACULTY MAN ADDRESSES STUDENTS
"Gym" Prettily Decorated in Colors of Two Classes in Honor of Event—Class Presidents in Address
One of the prettiest and most successful of high school affairs of the past year was held in the school gymnasium yesterday evening in which members of the graduating class and of the Junior organization were participants.
The event was the annual Junior banquet, tendered the graduates. Practically a full membership of both classes were present in addition to the faculty members. A. E. Curtis of Chicago, a former member of the local faculty was also a guest for the occasion.
Banquet at 6:30 O'clock
Shortly after 6:30 o'clock the guests were seated at the tables provided and the banquet was under way. Throughout the entire progress of the feast music was discoursed by Oimsted's orchestra.
At the close of the banquet, President Clarence Wademan of the Junior class addressed the guests of honor, the Seniors, expressing the welcome of the underclassmen to their peers, and expressing regret at the parting soon to come.
Miss Frances Defnet, president of the Senior organization responded in a brief talk, giving the appreciation of the graduates to their hosts and hostesses for the splendid banquet tendered them and urging that the close relationship between the classes continue even though separated.
Former Instructors Talk
A delightfully informal and intimate talk was given by Mr. Curtis, a guest of the classes in which he recalled some of the pleasant experiences which befell him while a member of the school staff a number of years ago. W. L. Davidson, faculty member, and teacher of agriculture closed the interesting program with a short address. Dancing was then indulged in for the rest of the evening.

PAROCHIAL GRADUATES RECIEVE DIPLOMAS AT THE DELFT LAST NIGHT

ST. JOSEPH'S HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES EIGHT—REV. FR. HENZE PRESENTS DIPLOMAS
REV. FR. DOOLEY DELIVERS ADDRESS
URGES STUDENTS TO CONTINUE THE PATHWAY SUGGESTED IN THEIR STUDIES OF THE PAST FOUR YEARS
THREE ACT PLAY IS PRESENTED BY GIRLS
"Katinka" Makes Hit With Large Audience—Parochial Schools of City Close Today for Summer

Eight graduates of St. Joseph's high school were awarded their coveted sheepskins during most interesting exercises at the Delft theatre last evening. Rev. Fr. Henze made the presentation and spoke briefly but eloquently of the past four years spent in the pursuit of knowledge and the final culmination of that work.
A large attendance was present during the evening and listened attentively to the various features of the program as presented at that time.
Speaking to the class on the aims and accomplishments of the year of schooling they were about to leave behind them, for future paths of endeavors, Rev. Fr. Dooley, of St. Joseph's church delivered a most interesting and applicable address. His thought teemed with evident truisms, and his advice on the courses that are open to those who have completed the preliminary work of life was especially pertinent.
Play Well Received
"Katinka," a three act skit, presented by the students of the school, was received with approval, those of the cast in the principal roles revealing the results of consistent and painstaking efforts.
The presentation of diplomas followed the close of the skit.
The following received their diplomas:
Classical Course: Catherine Cecelia Doherty, Edna Pauline Duford, Jane Frances McDonough, Agnes Harriet LaFave.
Commercial Course: Gertrude Vina Loeffler, Margaret Helen Roth, Benedict John Mannebach.
Music Course: Edne Pauline Duford.
Parochial Schools Closed
With the exercises at the Delft last night, the final chapter in the 1914-15 school year has been written for parochial schools of Escanaba, St. Joseph's students getting their final grades this morning and St. Anne's scholars this afternoon.
Various activities in the way of class parties, picnics among members of the several classes in the school are coming thick and fast these last few days of the term.
Have New School
When St. Joseph's students return, ready for work in the fall, a fine new school building will be ready for occupancy, it is believed. Work on the new structure has been started and is progressing rapidly at this time. The new building replaces the one destroyed, with its furnishings and apparatus last fall, by fire. However, despite the disaster to St. Joseph's school, the past year has been a most successful one for Escanaba parochial schools it is said.

FIGHTING TUBERCULOSIS BY MOTION PICTURES

Universal Film Company Produces First Film For This Great Fight —Is Released Today

New York, June 18.—In its nation wide fight against consumption, the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis has enlisted the aid of the "movie." "The White Terror," produced by the Universal Film Co., the first shot fired through the new medium, is released today in thirty eight different cities.

The picture tells a dramatic story in an effective manner and yet emphasizes the vital lesson of prevention of the disease before it becomes incurable.

"The White Terror" describes certain conditions in Everytown and reveals how Boyd, the political boss, controls the industrial, political and social life of the town. His only object in life is money.

Among his many activities Boyd manufactures a fake cure for consumption and when the Clarion, the only newspaper in town, attacks him and his methods Boyd buys the paper's silence.

Matthew Brand, who is in love with Boyd's daughter, buys the Clarion, and goes after the "boss" hammer and tongs. His vigorous attacks on Boyd makes the political boss desperate and he plans to blow up the newspaper office to get rid of Brand. The explosion kills one of Boyd's political henchmen instead of the fearless editor.

At the same time Boyd's daughter becomes desperately ill—from tuberculosis. Finally, all his troubles unnerve Boyd and he reforms. A scene of Everytown a year later shows how the former boss has turned his abilities to good account, even opening a tuberculosis sanatorium for workingmen and providing visiting nurses and open air playgrounds. The former boss' daughter has recovered and Brand and she are married.

NEW VEGETABLE IS PRODUCED IN KANSAS

Manhattan, Kas., June 18.—If you have been looking for a variety for the table for something new to eat, why not try the new vegetable, dashen? The domestic department of the Kansas State Agricultural college has tried it, with good results.

Dashen—The name comes from the French words meaning "from China"—was first raised with success in this country in South Carolina in 1909, though it has long been grown in the tropics. It is in the same family of plants as the Indian turnip and the elephant's ear.

As a food dashens greatly resemble potatoes, but are much more fibrous. Their distinguishing characteristic is in the extreme abundance of starch present, 50 per cent more than in the potato.

TAFT URGES WORLD UNION TO END WAR

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—Former President Taft, in an address here tonight outlined the plan for the proposed League of Peace which was discussed in Independence hall yesterday. Mr. Taft was of the opinion that such a league could be formed which would enable nations to avoid war by furnishing a practical means for settling international quarrels or "suspending them until the blinding heat of passion had cooled."

At the conference tomorrow proposals will be considered for a league of peace and steps will be taken with a view to obtaining the support of public opinion and of governments.

Noted Men Attend Conference.
The national provisional committee, which called the conference, includes well known publicists, educators, peace advocates, editors, and economists. This committee gave a dinner tonight, at which Mr. Taft was assigned the part of delivering the keynote speech. Other speakers were President Lowell of Harvard university, Oscar S. Straus, a member of the Hague court; Hamilton Holt of New York, and former Judge George Gray of Delaware, also a member of the Hague court.

"In calling this meeting," Mr. Taft said, "my associates and I have not been unaware that we might be liken-

EIGHT LANGUAGES FAIL IN MARRIAGE CEREMONY

Cleveland, O., June 18.—Justice of the Peace Zool's eight languages availed him nothing when a couple appeared in his office, Lakeside avenue and Ontario street, to be married. English, German, Hungarian, Spanish, French, Scandinavian, Russian and Greek obtained no response and the justice gasped.

The bridegroom handed the justice a slip of paper. On it was written: "We are James H. Scott, Newburg, and Mrs. Clara Willard, 7206 Central avenue, and we want to be married." As an afterthought Scott had subscribed: "We are deaf mutes." The ceremony was performed, questions and responses being written.

Two Lads Who Are Held For Theft of Local Man's Automobile Confess to Prosecutor

Fred Higgins and Fred Durmal, the pair of youngsters captured at Marquette a week ago and held to circuit court for trial on a charge of stealing the automobile belonging to E. J. McMartin have confessed to their part in the robbery, according to Prosecutor Rushton.

The confession revealed that the lads were going under an alias, Higgins' saying his real name is Frank Duncan, son of A. P. Duncan, a Soo mail carrier. "Durmal" is Stewart Wilson, also of the Soo resident. Lenox sent the stolen clothing from the Gladstone store, robbed by the trio, to a young woman at the Soo, a Miss Margaret Browne.

SUFFRAGE BIG FEATURE OF YEAR'S LEGISLATION

Practically Every State in Union Considered the Question During Year Just Closed.

(By Associated Press.)
New York, June 17.—Equal suffrage and other legislation affecting women figured prominently this year in the discussions of a large majority of the state legislators. The sessions of most of them have now come to a close and a summary of their activities collated by the Associated Press discloses that the question of woman suffrage came up for deliberation in twenty-two states and that divorce laws, mothers' pensions, women police, minimum wage, eugenic marriage or other subjects relating to women were considered in twenty-seven states. The legislatures of seven states adopted resolutions whereby a consti-

They are Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania in 1915; Iowa, South Dakota and West Virginia in 1916. Tennessee adopted a similar resolution, but it must also be passed by the next succeeding legislature before it can be submitted to the voters. So did Arkansas, but the resolution was ineffective because of a provision of the state constitution which forbids more than three constitutional amendments to be submitted at one election and three had already been filed with the secretary of state.

SOLITARY WALKING BEST.

Walking clubs are an excellent institution, for to most people the pleasure of a walk needs to be shared in order to be enjoyed thoroughly. The real and inveterate walker, however, generally prefers to go alone. The two great essays on walking, by Henry D. Thoreau and William Hazlitt, both refer for the most part to the pleasure of walking alone. The man who has the true passion for the woods, the fields and the waysides does not like to have his attention diverted at the most thrilling point by the necessity of carrying on a conversation with someone at his side. In short, you want to be in the woods and field, and not in England, Italy, Greece or Persia, in Broadway or in any lady's boudoir, or wherever else the vagrant fancy of a wandering conversation may take you. It is not that one does not like a companion. Almost anybody likes a companion. In nine cases out of ten the true walker's objection to a companion rests upon no surly misanthropy whatever, but solely upon a desire to enjoy intimately the scenes and sounds that are delightful to him, without distraction—to walk when walking pleases, and to loiter or halt when the mood moves, without the necessity of conforming to the moods of someone who, perhaps, is not in sympathy with one's own caprices.

GOVERNMENT INSURANCE FOR WORKERS IS PROPOSED FOR PROTECTION DURING SICKNESS-- WOULD INCLUDE ALL CLASSES

Washington, June 18.—There are already several million wage earners in the United States insured in sickness insurance plans and organizations and sickness insurance is even now recognized almost universally as the most feasible method by which workers can meet the expenses and the loss of wages occasioned by ill health. The great majority of the insured workers, however, are the better paid, the low paid worker who is least able to meet the cost of sickness and to weather the periods of employment that sickness forces upon him, is rarely insured. The development of the existing agencies and organizations into national or state systems of insurance similar to those which have been so effective in European countries, is the next step for the United States.

These are striking facts brought out in a report on sickness insurance in the federal commission of industrial relations prepared by Surgeon B. S. Warren, of the United States public health service, who was detailed as sanitary advisor to the commission, and Edgar Sydenstricker, a member of the commission's staff, according to an announcement by the bureau of the public health service here.

The report includes the results of a study of the various sickness insurance systems in Europe and of plans in the United States. It strongly advocates a governmental system, in which employers, employees and the public contribute to the fund and co-operate in its control and administration, and which is closely linked to the governmental health agencies, as the most effective form of sickness insurance for wage workers. The report points out that in nearly all European countries the private sickness insurance plans and methods have given way to governmental systems, and the governmental systems now exist in Great Britain, Germany, Austria, Norway, Servia, Russia, Luxembourg, Roumania, Italy (for miners) and France (for miners, seamen and railway employees).

The chief shortcomings of private or non-governmental sick benefit plans in this country are pointed out to be: First, the low paid worker, who is financially unable to provide for healthful conditions of living and to meet the cost of illness, is not insured; second, the employer as well as the employee has not a sufficient incentive to reduce the prevalence of disease in their places of work and in the homes of workers; third, there is no close correlation of sickness insurance with the public health department, bureaus, and boards.

A governmental system of sickness insurance, says the report, will prove to be a preventive measure as well as a method of enabling the low paid worker to tide over periods of illness, since the cost of insurance is determined by the amount of sickness to be provided for. The lower the sick rate of any industry, trade, or locality, the lower is it possible to put the rate of contribution by employer, employee, and government. A governmental system necessarily implies that all workers of a trade or an industry in any locality will be insured. This will, it is believed, enable the cost of insurance per insured person to be much less than is now provided for in the trade union, employers' sick benefit funds, and mutual benefit societies.

BIG DAY PLANNED AT STEPHENSON; JUNE 30

A personal invitation to the business men and to Escanabans in general has been extended through E. O. Gillespie of the Stephenson school board, to be present during the dedication ceremonies of the new high school at the Menominee county town on June 30. It has suggested that the day be designated as Escanaba Day, and that a big delegation from this city make the trip. Governor Ferris will be present to deliver the dedication address, and it is planned to extend to him the biggest reception possible. The above invitation was received this morning by Herman Salinsky of the Fair store.

GYMNASIUM SUIT FOR A GIRL.

which the blouse can be slipped quickly for a fitting to correct any imperfections and regulate the length. In applying pleats, pockets, turning in the hem, etc., it is well to bear in mind that the large "O" perforations indicate the front. Face collar and sew neck edge as notched. Close shoulder seam of pleats as notched; turn under edge of pleats and belt on slot perforations; adjust on front and back edge of pleat having double "oo" perforation, along line of single small "o" perforations in front and back, shoulder seams, double "oo" perforation and lower edges even; stitch belt and pleats 1/4 inch from folded edges, leaving openings between single small "o" perforations to pass belt through. Blouse is made without pleats, adjust belt to position, upper edge of belt at large "O" perforation in back. Turn hem at lower edge of blouse in double "oo" perforations. Turn hem in shield at notches. Sew standing collar to shield as notched; small "o" perforations indicate center-back. Stitch on the sleeve pockets; then close sleeve seams; close cuff seam as notched, face and sew to short sleeve, double "oo" perforations and seams even. Sew sleeve into armhole with as few gathers as possible. Now close under-arm and shoulder seams of under-body and stitch hem in the back. If puffed bloomers are preferred turn under extension on slot perforations. The double "oo" perforations indicate center-back. Pleat upper edge, pleating on corresponding seam as notched; turn hem at lower edge on small "o" perforations; insert elastic or a drawing. Close center seam from upper edge in front to extension in back. Lap right back on left, centers even and tack at lower edge. Sew bloomers to lower edge of under-body, centers even. Incidentally the blouse may be used separately with serge skirts.

For the small girl who is enthusiastic over athletics is this suit designed. It is smart either in serge or with serge bloomers and a linen middie.

Given a blouse and plain or side pleated bloomers attached to an under-body of heavy muslin, the home dress-maker can easily design a gymnasium suit for a small girl. The model illustrated here is stylish as well as serviceable and can be varied in two or three attractive ways. For a girl of eight years 4 1/2 yards 36-inch or 3 1/2 yards 44-inch material are required. It is always best to use serge for the bloomers, although the blouse may be of linen. A half yard of muslin will make the underbody. In making the blouse close the under-arm and shoulder seams first, after Pictorial Review Pattern No. 6283. Sizes 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. Price, 15 cents.

BULGAR ARMY IS WELL PREPARED FOR ACTION

If Bulgaria Enters War She Will do so With 120,000 Finely Equipped Soldiers

Sofia, June 18.—The Bulgarian army is now far better prepared for war than it was for the Balkan war of 1912. It comprises four divisions of 120,000 men ready for action, with another ten divisions of 300,000 men of first line reserves, who could be mobilized in a few days. If necessity should arise, this force could be more than doubled.

Bulgaria's entry into the war as the foe of Turkey would relieve pressure on the allies to the south. Adrianople which the Bulgarians were forced to hand back to the Turks after the last Balkan struggle, has been denuded of its arms for use in the Dardanelles campaign. This ought easily to fall to the Bulgarians, who could then cross down to Rodosto on the Sea of Marmora. This would cut Constantinople off from Keshan, where the Turks have concentrated their forces for the operations on the Gallipoli peninsula. At least, the Turks would be reduced to communication by sea.

Bulgaria no longer demands Salonika. Her claims are small compared with those of the other Balkan nations, being confined to the really Bulgarian portion of Macedonia with Kavalla and its natural outlets on the Aegean Sea.

QUAKERS OF BRITAIN ENROLLED IN ARMIES

Peace Loving Friends Engage in Business of War When Nation Threatened

London, June 18.—The Quakers notwithstanding their peaceful tradition, have contributed 215 men to the British army and navy and 43 to the army medical corps. In addition, 43 have joined the home guards and 15 are serving on recruiting committees.

These figures are taken from the annual meeting of the Society of Friends. The society's books of discipline declares its members must maintain an "unequivocal testimony against war." This is a vital principle of Quakerism. Accordingly about 50 of those enlisting sent in their resignations, but only thirty of these were accepted.

Besides the soldiers, the parents of the soldiers openly sympathize with the war. These may all be properly expelled, but the feeling among the members is against taking severe measures.

Opinion on the subject of war was much divided at the annual meeting but discussion was avoided.

HIS LETTER NEVER CAME; NOW IS DEAD

Waukegan, Ill., June 18.—Abraham Littlejohn, 77 years old, of North Chicago, died last night. His death removes a daily visitor at the North Chicago and Waukegan postoffice for the last twenty-seven years. He was waiting word from his son, John, who left home in 1888, saying: "I'll be back when I can't stay away any longer."

Every day since then the father called for his letter—the letter that never came.

INSURANCE AGAINST AIR RAIDS SERIOUS PROBLEM

London Residents Besiege Risk Companies For Protection Against German Air Visitors

London, June 18.—The problem of insurance against damage by air craft raids has become a serious one for merchants in London and other commercial towns near the east coast. The insurance companies have been beset with applications for insurance against fires started by Zeppelins but the companies doing fire insurance business cannot take such risks. Insuring against Zeppelins is a pure gamble since there is nothing in the way of experience or probabilities on which any sound system can be based.

Consequently, the British government will be obliged to take charge of the matter, as it did of insuring merchant ships in the earlier days of the war.

Banks holding bills against goods in London warehouses are demanding policies for air craft insurance or the refund of amounts advanced. Sir Albert Spicer brought up the question in the House of Commons in the first meeting under the new cabinet, and the Chamber of Commerce has asked the Board of Trade to take measures also. It is probable that the government will bring in a scheme this month by which the situation will be remedied.

For several days this week a representative of the Barber Asphalt company has been in the city, and with Escanaba officials has made an examination of the paving which is declared to be deteriorated along Ludington street. the east front the Russ war office admits frequent retreats along that line caused by superior forces, but that the attack of the enemy left the Austrian and German forces so exhausted that the Russ were enabled to return to the positions left. The strategy of Grand Duke Nicholas has enabled the Russ to form and reform their lines from time to time.

The French are still on the offensive in northern France on a wide front with the Vosges again figuring in official communications, after a period of comparative quiet. The French have advanced, after a hard fight of two days, Paris reports that in the Arras region the Germans used eleven divisions which suffered heavily. No news has reached London from the Dardanelles, but a sudden drop in the stock exchange indicates the bankers have advance intimation of a sudden change in the situation or that they are confident of the ability of the allies to open the straits soon.

Force is Annihilated.
Berlin, June 18.—An official announcement given out here today says that an allied force, which attacked German positions north of La-Bassie in northwestern France was destroyed, only a few survivors succeeding in retreating.
