staff of expert physicians at our University, all drawing yearly salaries and the board at the hospital is only charged at actual cost. In cases of adult persons, I follow the same rule by advancing the transportation and costs to and from Ann Arbor, with the understanding that it will be repaid to the County after the patient is discharged.

No Report on Case As Yet
"In the case referred to in one publication, the patient was sent to the University Hospital upon the petition and request of his attending physician and it was expected that he would undergo a serious and critical operation. After several doctors had examined him, an operation was found unnecessary and under their treatment, he is now practically restored to health. About thirty days after his discharge from the hospital, he was able to reimburse the County and offered two or three different times to do so but I informed him that it would be first necessary for me to hear from the University Hospital so that I could include all expenses. I have not yet received any report on this case. The county will not be out one cent in this case as soon as I receive the necessary reports of the case. It would have been perfectly proper and lawful if he did not pay any of the expenses except to carry out his promise before going to the Hospital. I consider that by this person going to the Hospital at the time he did, saved his life.

"These facts could have been ascertained by any person calling up the Probate Office instead of making a public statement, based entirely upon gossip.

No Cost to County
"The records will show that of the cases which have been sent to the University Hospital, it has not cost the county one cent, except in one case, a lady from Masonville Township, who is now in the Hospital in a critical condition. I may be able to collect something in that case, but if I do not, it will be the only case in which I have not collected every cent the county has paid out.

"It is very necessary that these cases be not made public, because if a poor person or a person with limited means is going to be held up to public ridicule, they will not take advantage of these munificent laws and a great injustice will be done.

"The state of Michigan is paying a large number of doctors, each a yearly salary at Ann Arbor, and it does not cost the county or State one cent by them operating and treating patients sent there. No where in the world can better medical and hospital service be received than at Ann Arbor, and it is a grand opportunity for the people who are sick to receive the benefits of these laws. The doctors at Ann Arbor are very anxious to get these patients. They have about two thousand medical students in the University and it makes a great clinic for the medical department. In the past, the medical colleges in the large cities have enjoyed an advantage over medical colleges located in cities the size of Ann Arbor on account of the lack of actual practice for the students. These laws now provide even a greater advantage for the University Hospital at Ann Arbor over most medical colleges on account of these two laws.

Worthy Persons Eligible
"I will be glad to send any person in need of medical treatment who comes within these laws to the University Hospital at Ann Arbor, and in the first instance, we will furnish the transportation and expenses going to and from Ann Arbor when believed necessary by the patient giving assurance that the County will be reimbursed for all expenses within a reasonable time after the patient has been discharged. This may not be possible in every case but it will be carried out as far as possible.

SURE MEDAL PLAY IS BEST.

Travers Thinks Match Game Unfair For National Title.
Jerome Travers, national open golf champion and probably America's leading amateur, is emphatically in favor of deciding the national amateur golf championship the same as the open championship—by seventy-two holes medal play.

"I have been advocating the adoption of a seventy-two hole medal play round as the amateur championship test, for over two years," said Jerry, "and I am convinced that it is the only fair test. To begin with, it eliminates two elements of luck, the luck of the draw and the stytle, which I think should be abolished, except possibly when a man styles himself. Then, too, a man is playing not against one opponent, but against every man in the field, and, as you hold the championship to pick the best man, why not make him play against every one of his opponents?"

"I have played in both the amateur and open championships," continued Travers (he didn't add that he had won both of them), "and I know that the medal play test is the best. I should like to see it adopted in the amateur championship, and I hope that it soon will be."

tion shortly. It is said he has tired of running and will devote his time from now on to business.
Kolehmainen is the greatest long distance runner the game has ever produced, and his retirement will be a great blow to the sport. He has defeated every man he has met within the past three years and has captured nearly every big race in which he has entered. He is also the holder of many world's records.

MAN OUTDOES DAVID HARUM
Canadian Tells of a Duck and Drake Trade and Draws Firm Distinction.
Montreal.—One remount now celebrated throughout the Dominion was bought for $170 or $180 by the government from a man who admitted that he had bought it for $70.
"How much did that man pay for it?" inquired the commissioner.
"He traded two drakes and a duck for it."
The commissioner sat up in astonishment, leaned over the railing toward the witness and asked sternly: "Do you mean to say that his government had palmed off on it a horse that had been bought for three ducks?"
"No, Your Honor," replied the unruffled horse trader; "I didn't say that. I said two drakes and a duck."

PUT $5 IN COLLECTION BOX
Akron Police Now Question Sanity of Generous Contributor and Demand an Investigation.
Akron, O.—Is a man insane who alips an honest to goodness $5 bill into a church collection plate? Akron police want to know.
Theodore Bibea did it here recently. Police are holding him pending an investigation into his mental balance.
Bibea announced he made the contribution in celebration of his release on bail from jail, where he was placed following a charge of carrying concealed weapons.
Police, however, argue that Bibea, while concealing weapons, didn't conceal the contribution. They do say he announced it in church with enthusiasm and with exceedingly great tonal power.

MAN DIVES INTO STOVEPIPE
Rural Mail Carrier of Connecticut is Nearly Scalded by Plunge From Loft.
Winsted, Conn.—Zera J. Hinman, rural mail carrier of Collinsville, met with an accident the other day which nearly cost him his life. In lowering a sleigh from a loft he lost his balance and plunged head first into a section of stovepipe that was propped up in the shed.
The sharp edges of the pipe closed over his head and cut his scalp nearly half way around. It took 25 stitches to close the wound.

COUNTY IS REIMBURSED

of the Poor. I have received more satisfaction from the work done under this law than from any other duties I have performed as Judge of Probate. I have sent deformed and crippled children to the University Hospital all of whom have been practically cured and who would have gone through life in their deplorable condition, if it had not been for this law. These cases are sent to the University Hospital only upon the recommendation and report of the attending or family physician. Just to illustrate, I sent one boy about eight years of age to the University Hospital who had been injured while playing, so that he could not walk for several years without placing both hands on one knee and even then, with the greatest difficulty. It was necessary that he receive treatment before he became much older and the bones hardened. He was only at the Hospital a short time and now is walking and playing about the same as other children. This is only an ordinary and average case.
Hospital Makes Final Decision
"After all proceedings have been taken admitting the child to the Hospital, the papers must be sent to the Hospital where the physicians of the institution decide whether the child will be received. The attending or family physician must first certify that in his opinion the child can be benefited by an operation or treatment, giving a full description of the ailment and the physicians of the Hospital will not receive any child unless they are satisfied that the child can be benefited.

"I have the County advance enough money in the first instant to pay the railroad fare and expenses to and from Ann Arbor, which is always repaid back to the County from thirty to sixty days after the child is discharged from the Hospital.
Extended to Adults
"This law produced such excellent results and was so satisfactory that the 1915 legislature enacted another law extending the same benefits and privileges to adult persons, excepting that the costs must be paid by the county. With this exception, the two laws are very similar. It is well to bear in mind, that the main costs of these cases when sent to private hospitals in our large cities, is the hospital expenses, nursing and doctor bills, which generally cost from two to five hundred dollars, while the principal costs of cases sent to the University Hospital is the railroad fare to and from Ann Arbor. This is the case, because the State has a large

WILSON STUDIES WAR MAPS

Keeps Tab Daily on Positions of the Struggling Armies—Officer Keeps Record.

Washington.—President Wilson is a peace-loving official, but the walls of the cabinet room do not indicate it. Huge maps of all the war zones of Europe cover the walls, and on each map the battle lines of the opposing hosts are drawn.

Col. W. W. Harts, the president's aid, is in charge of all the "battle-fields." He adjusts the tiny flags and colored cords which indicate how the different armies are moving from day to day.

Frequently, when the president goes over to his executive offices in the morning, he stops in the cabinet room and personally surveys the positions of the struggling armies. In addition to the European maps here also is one showing the position of the United States troops on the Mexican border and the positions of Mexican forces.

ONE CROP PAID FOR FARM

Kansas Farmers Are Worrying About What to Do With Their Money.

Atchison, Kan.—Albert Armstrong of this city, who has just returned from a trip to Lane county, says the farmers out there are worrying about what to do with their money this year, instead of worrying how to get along for lack of it.

This has been a wonderful year for western Kansas farmers, according to Armstrong. Last spring one Lane county farmer traded a helper for a piece of volunteer wheat for the purpose of pasturing his cattle on it.

The wheat did so well he decided to let it grow and harvest it. Result: He harvested 1,300 bushels of wheat, which he sold for $1,300. Another farmer bought a half section of land for $15 an acre and this year's crop paid for the land.

USE TOMBSTONES AS GUIDES

Discovery of Ledge of Tungsten Ore Makes Some Changes in Nevada.

Reno, Nev.—Tombstones are being used for location monuments in the new mining district near Sodaville, where a supposed fabulously rich ledge of tungsten ore was discovered, according to reports brought to Reno by men who answer the call of the desert.

One miner located the village cemetery, and as there were no rocks near he used some of the best looking tombstones to mark the boundaries of his claim.

Others soon followed suit, and now the relatives of the departed, interred there years ago, would have a hard time recognizing one grave from another.
