

GEN. CARRANZA SEEKS RECIPROCITY

ASKS THAT MEXICAN TROOPS BE GIVEN RIGHT TO CROSS THE UNITED STATES BORDER

Administration Looks upon Proposal with Favor and Will Probably Notify Mexican Chief at Once—Aero Squad will Accompany Force—Seven Wounded Villa Soldiers are to be Tried for Murder—Another American Soldier Dead.

Washington, D. C., March 11.—While American troops are preparing to cross the border into Mexico General Carranza in an official communication to Consul Silliman asks permission to send troops across into America in pursuit of bandits should the occasion demand. The request, while given informal consideration, will probably be given favorable action. An agreement would go far to satisfy Carranza and would satisfy the American people.

BRIGADIER GENERAL TO COMMAND EXPEDITION
Antonio, Tex.—General Funston announced today that while he would direct the affairs on the Mexican border the expedition in pursuit of Villa would be in charge of a brigadier general, whose name will be given out from Washington.

The full aero squadron stationed here will be sent with the expedition, organization of which will not be completed for two or three days, as reports from other army divisions are to take part. General Funston would say what the exact size of the expedition would be.

MORMON MAY BE ANNIHILATED
The position of the 500 members of the Mormon colony 150 miles south of this city, is critical. Villa and 300 of his followers are now near the city and an attack upon it is almost certain. In El Paso friends of beleaguered Mormons rest their hopes in the fact that Villa is reported very short of ammunition. While Villa only has 300 men with him, it is known to have more than 2,000 in that vicinity.

COLUMBUS, N. M.—Seven wounded Villa soldiers captured by Slocum's men will be charged with murder for the killing of the seven Americans on the raid on this city. One of the prisoners is but 12 years of age and two are officers.

Carlos Sanchez, arrested while signing Mexicans across the border will be charged with giving aid to the enemy while on United States soil.

The death of Jessie D. Taylor, an American soldier, is basis for the eighth murder charge. The others are all bodily wounded and will be arraigned by the United States commissioner from Deming as they lie on their cots in a hospital of the 13th cavalry.

The case against the prisoners is deemed to be strong since it has been determined that while the bandit column approached Columbus Villa stopped and made an address. He told the troops to spare no Americans. To burn out the town and make human beings of every man, woman and child.

The report comes to this city that eight wounded Mexicans, left behind by the Villa bandits in their flight, have raided the home of H. A. Shanhav, 18 miles east of this city. The family, including two small children, escaped through a rear door, and away under cover of darkness lay in the bushes through the night.

Villa at Ascension
Washington—General Villa is said to have reached Ascension, south of El Paso, with 300 followers. This information was given in a message to Carranza's embassy.

General Slocum has received many commendations highly in praise of his driving the Villa bandits out of Columbus.

Chicago—Charles A. Coey has telegraphed Secretary of War Baker offering the use of three large balloons for use on the Mexican border.

Columbus, N. M. General Garcia, a Mexican officer, died here today. He was among those who were charged with murder.

THE WAR A YEAR AGO TODAY

March 11, 1915.
British captured Neuve Chapelle after three days of severe fighting. Bombardment and mine sweeping in Dardanelles continued. Panic in Constantinople. Many foreigners fleeing. Million men battling in North Poland on 80-mile front.

Paris, March 11.—The battle about Verdun is dwindling. Despite the violence of the fighting that has been in progress the French forces are in excellent condition. The Germans are well nigh exhausted and it is not believed that they will protract their efforts to gain the fortifications.

There is still violent fighting for fort Vaux, according to the French official statement. The Germans have made progress on the slopes leading to the position but have not as yet reached the barbed wire entanglements in front of the forts.

London, March 11.—An official German communication from Amsterdam says that on Thursday German aeroplanes dropped bombs on a Russian squadron consisting of one battleship and five destroyers, together with a number of merchantmen in the Black Sea. Just off the coast of Bulgaria. It was observed, the statement says, that some of the destroyers were hit. The air squad returned safely to its base despite a heavy shelling from the Russian ships.

Berlin, March 11.—The capture of a French position 1400 yards wide and about two-thirds of a mile deep, south of Ville-Aux-Bois and near Rheims, was reported today by the German war office.

RUMORS OF AIR RAIDS, DEATH AND DISASTER

Shooting Along the North Shore Excited The Townspeople Last Evening

Rumors of a battle between the police and bandits, of aeroplane raids upon the ore docks, of robbery, murder, bombs, death and destruction were rife in Escanaba last night following protracted explosions along the north shore of the Little Bay. But the rumors were ill-founded. Some of the members of the Escanaba Game and Gun club were experimenting with moonlight trap shooting. The clay pigeons were decorated with phosphorus and they presented a very good target for the gunners. It is not probable, however, that any match shots will be held under the light of the moon.

ESCANABA MAYOR AIDS IN BLOCKING "INSIDE" POLITICAL "FRAMEUP"

WITH MINORITY IN MEETING OF MAYORS AT GRAND RAPIDS IN FIGHT ON BALCH

B. J. MACKILLICAN GIVES STRAIGHT TALK

Doors Closed to Newspaper Men in Gathering of Executive Committee

Mayor B. J. MacKillican has returned from the meeting of the executive committee of the Michigan Mayors association held at Grand Rapids on Thursday, more firmly convinced than ever that the president of the association, Mayor James B. Balch, of Kalamazoo, Milo D. Campbell, former insurance commissioner and others of the association seek to use the association for political purposes alone; and with the satisfaction of knowing that he had a very material part in defeating the aims of the political clique.

Plain Talk Rampant

There was much plain talk at the meeting. At the very outset Balch drove the newspaper representatives from the place of meeting, shut the doors and chalked the keyholes.

For two hours riotous talk raged behind the closed doors, between Balch, who insisted that the meeting should be private, Mayor MacKillican, H. F. Paddock, of Saginaw and the mayor of Grand Rapids. The latter contended for an open session and when the proposition finally came to a vote the Balch forces carried the day by a vote of 6 to 5.

When the resolutions presented by the Balch forces were presented, another fight was on. The resolutions were not in accord with the avowed purposes of the organization and Mayor MacKillican and those who opposed Balch finally succeeded in defeating them.

Balch was openly charged with "framing up a political deal" for Milo D. Campbell and with using the Mayors association as a club with which to rap his enemies.

Campbell was elected first vice president over August Gansner, of Bay City. Senator Tropp, of Allegan, was named second vice president and the anti-Balch forces scored a victory by naming John T. Winsip as third vice president.

During the afternoon session the Balch forces took up the insurance question with the idea of having the executive committee recommend the repeal of the present insurance law. Mayor MacKillican has pronounced convictions on the subject of insurance and he is convinced that no other state in the Union has an act that is better or more just. He concedes that it might be amended and bettered in some respects, but he is absolutely opposed to its repeal and the fight he led against the Balch forces blocked any action contemplated by them.

Kalamazoo was represented by the president of the association, Mr. Balch and by the secretary. After considerable effort Mayor MacKillican succeeded in convincing Balch and the others present that Kalamazoo was entitled to but one vote and this aided materially in the blocking of the Balch program.

Late in the morning session Mr. MacKillican made a second effort to have the doors thrown open to the public. He charged that the meeting was held in the interest of Milo D. Campbell, manager for a Republican gubernatorial candidate, and that Campbell's interest was not in the association but in politics.

The Michigan Mayors' association was organized in Kalamazoo one month ago to fight anti-discrimination insurance law. Many of the mayors disagreed with Balch that the law was the cause of high insurance rates. A good fire department, the mayor said, was the first requisite to low rates.

An executive committee of 25 was named at the Kalamazoo meeting to hold a session in Grand Rapids today for the purpose of perfecting the organization. Only 13 responded.

It was said by several of the mayors who opposed Balch's scheme, that if the association was to be made a political machine they were now ready

TO ORGANIZE AN UPPER PENINSULA LEAGUE OF MUNICIPALITIES HERE

MAYOR MACKILLICAN MAKING ARRANGEMENTS FOR MEETING HERE ON MARCH 22

CITY AND VILLAGE OFFICERS TO ATTEND

Mayor Handy of The Soo is Working Actively to Make Success of Move

The organization of an Upper Peninsula League of Municipalities will probably be accomplished at a meeting to be held in this city on Wednesday, March 22.

Sometime ago Mayor F. H. Begole, of Marquette and Mayor Handy, of the Soo, broached the matter to Mayor MacKillican of this city. It met with his approval and he at once suggested Escanaba as the place of meeting. To this Mayor Begole and Handy assented and Mayor MacKillican has since been devoting considerable time to perfecting arrangements for the meeting. It will be held in the city hall and two sessions will be held, the morning session to begin at 10 o'clock. Arrangements are in progress looking to the entertainment of the various officials.

Given Much Consideration
Mayor Sherman T. Handy, of the Soo, and Mayor Begole are the real sponsors for the scheme. For a long time they have given it careful consideration, and a plan that has been evolved by them will be presented for the approval of the delegates at the Escanaba conference.

Every city and village executive officer has been asked to attend the meeting, and many of them have already signified their intentions of being present.

The organization will be similar to the state league of municipalities, which holds a meeting every year in the lower peninsula. Annual meetings will be held, at which important municipal questions are discussed and ideas of government are interchanged.

Sends Out Letter.
The following letter has been sent out by Mayor Handy:

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

My Dear Mayor—

Sometime ago I suggested to Mayor Begole, of Marquette, that to my mind it would be a nice thing if we could have an association made up of the mayors of the different cities in "Cloverland" with a view of meeting, at least once a year to become better acquainted and exchange ideas on municipal government with the object in view of trying to better municipal conditions and also becoming more neighborly and uniting in boosting "Cloverland."

The idea has been discussed by some of the mayors and spoken of favorably by the public press. By request and with the consent of Mayor MacKillican, of Escanaba, I am taking the liberty of asking the mayors of the different cities in the upper peninsula to meet at Escanaba, on Wednesday, March 22, at ten o'clock in the forenoon in the council chamber in the city hall, for the purpose of considering the organization of such an association and if deemed advisable to organize, then to perfect an organization. It has been suggested that possibly it would be advisable to include all cities and villages in the upper peninsula in this organization and allow each municipality to be represented by a certain number of delegates.

There are a great many matters that should be given careful consideration in case an organization is perfected, and for that reason, wish you would give the matter such thought as you can before that time and come prepared to give expression to such ideas as you may have formed.

I trust you will find it convenient to be present at this meeting, as the organization of this association will depend very largely upon the interest taken in this preliminary meeting. I wish you would drop me a line signifying whether or not you will, or expect to be present.

Yours sincerely,
SHERMAN T. HANDY, Mayor.

Mrs. J. J. Cox is confined to her home with illness.

PHYSICIANS EXAMINE GLADSTONE TOTS, FIND SCARLET FEVER CASE

ONE FEATURE OF BABY WEEK DOUBTLESS PREVENTED EPIDEMIC IN NEARBY CITY

STURDY LOT OF HEALTHY YOUNGSTERS

Physicians Make Examination of 35 Babies Under Three Years of Age

Gladstone mothers showed their interest in Baby Week and their babies yesterday afternoon more than 35 of them took advantage of the opportunity presented by the committee in charge to have their infants examined for physical defects and ailments without charge. A case of scarlet fever was brought to light by the examination of the physicians but fortunately the tots were brought into the examination room one at a time and the other babies were not exposed to any great extent. The health officer was at once notified and a quarantine was established.

Had not the committee in charge included the examination of the babies as a feature of the week the baby suffering from the disease would doubtless have spread the ailment to a considerable extent before the nature of the disease had been determined. As it is the child was promptly quarantined and every care taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

The mother of the child had noticed the rash upon the child but believed it to be nothing more than the not infrequent stomach rash that is often baby's lot.

Drs. W. Elliot and A. F. Snyder, of Escanaba, were the examining physicians and they report the Gladstone youngsters an exceptionally healthy, wholesome, fine appearing lot of youngsters. Babies up to three years of age were examined for adenoids, ear, eye and constitutional troubles and the percentage of defects and ailments found was surprisingly small. "It was a fine study lot of babies that we looked over yesterday," said Dr. Elliot this morning, "those Gladstone mothers have every reason in the world to be proud."

The examination of the tots was continued this afternoon with Drs. A. J. Carlson and W. B. Boyce, of this city, as the examining physicians.

COUNTY ROAD DEPT.

MAINTENANCE OF GOOD ROADS

Farmers Urged to Vote Against Bonds or Taxes Whenever Plans Do Not Provide for Up-Keep.

The progressive farmer believes in good roads, as everybody knows. Nobody needs good roads more than the farmer and his family. Good roads increase profits and enrich social life. Poor roads cost more than good ones. At the same time, we have reached the conclusion that it is our patriotic duty to advise our readers to vote against road bonds or road taxes whenever the plans for building the roads do not include proper provision for maintaining them after they are built. It is just as foolish to spend money to build a road, without at the same time providing for funds to keep it up, as it would be to spend money to get a horse without providing feed for him after he is bought. The South has wasted millions and millions by building roads without keeping them up, and it is high time to stop wasting the people's tax money in this fashion. We must aim not merely to get good roads but to keep good roads.

Another important matter is that of having all road expenditures made under expert supervision. Secretary of Agriculture Houston says: "The nation today is spending annually the equivalent of more than $200,000,000 for roads. Much of this is directed by local supervisors and it is estimated by experts that of the amount so directed anywhere from 30 to 40 per cent is, relatively speaking, wasted or misdirected." Every state should have a state highway commission, and the people should not vote money for any expensive scheme of country road improvement until it has been approved by experts.

The third matter we wish to emphasize is the importance of the road drag. As we have said before, the drag is undoubtedly the cheapest good roads maker ever invented, and if some commercial company had patented it and sold it at five times its cost, every county in the South would be using it. It is so simple and cheap that people will not realize what a wonder-worker it is. The time to prevent next winter's bad roads is now, and the way to prevent them is to make plans to have the roads dragged. Every farmer interested ought to see his county road authorities and demand action. Send to the United States department of agriculture, Washington, D. C., for a free copy of Farmers' Bulletin 597, "The Road Drag and How to Use It," and keep pestering your fellow citizens until your county gets the dragging habit.

1. Road building is too expensive a business for you to intrust it to men without expert knowledge. Demand that your state highway commission approve your county's projects.

2. The cheapest way to keep dirt roads in good conditions is by the use of the drag. Demand that your county commissioners make plans for using it to improve the roads you already have instead of spending all the road money building new roads.

3. There is no such thing as a "permanent road," hence no plan for road building should be approved unless it includes provision for keeping up the roads after they are built.—The Progressive Farmer.

FIXING BAD SPOTS IN ROADS

Temporary Expedients for Making Them Passable—Should Be Employed Only in Emergencies.

(From Weekly News Letter, United States Department of Agriculture.) Temporary repairs to roads are, or at least should be, confined to emergency measures. In proportion to the results obtained, temporary work is always expensive and is never justified by ordinary conditions. Unusual conditions, however, often occur to plague the road man. For example, the closing of a main highway to traffic because of construction, repair or wash-outs may suddenly throw a heavy traffic for a short time on a little-used and probably unimproved byway. Clearly, in such a case temporary expedients are legitimate.

The most common troubles met with in a case of this kind are mudholes and ruts if the soil is heavy, and dust and loose sand if the soil is light or sandy.

On a clay or gumbo road mudholes usually cause the most trouble. As water is absolutely necessary for the existence of a mudhole, any treatment, whether temporary or permanent in character, must provide for getting rid of the water. The first step is, therefore, to dig a trench to the side and allow the water and mud to drain. If necessary, open up also the side ditches. Furthermore, remove all of the soft mud left in the mudhole. The bottom of the trench should be filled with broken stone or coarse gravel so as to provide a drain to prevent any further accumulation of water. Gravel is the best material for filling the old mudhole. If gravel is not available, use the best earth at hand, tamping it down in three or four-inch layers. If possible, spread a little gravel or sand over the new fill, which should be made slightly higher than the adjoining road surface. The best treatment of all, however, is to keep the drainage in good condition. Serious mudholes will then rarely develop.

Don't try to fill a mudhole without first draining out the water and removing the soft mud. Don't try to fill it with large stones, because if this is done there will soon be two mudholes instead of one. Don't try to fill a mudhole with sods or similar material which absorb water readily.

On an earth or gravel road ruts are best treated with the drag. Don't be afraid of dragging too often during a rainy spell. If a thin coat of sand or gravel be spread over the road surface when it has been softened by rain and then worked in by traffic and a liberal use of the drag, a poor earth road can be much improved and made to carry a surprisingly heavy traffic for a short time.

In contrast to the clay or gumbo road, the sand road gives least trouble during wet weather. On sandy roads anything that will prevent the free movement of the sand particles will be of value. As long as the road is damp, the surface tension of the capillary water acts as a binder and holds the separate grains of sand in place. All efforts should, therefore, be directed toward preventing the sandy places from drying out, or to adding some binder. The addition of clay furnishes a positive binder and is really the best and most permanent treatment. The addition of any fibrous material such as straw, spent tan bark, sage brush or pine needles is of value and, when spread on the road and covered with a thin coat of sand or allowed to work into the surface, will make an almost impassable sand road fairly good for a time. But the best way to treat a bad place, whether on a clay or a sand road, is to treat it before it gets bad. Immediate attention to small injuries will prevent later prolonged attention and extensive repairs to serious damages.

Narrow Roads of Benefit.

While it is bad policy to build roads of such narrow width where traffic is likely to become at all excessive, unquestionably there are many districts where they would be a profitable investment as compared with the fruitless effort to maintain ordinary stone or dirt roads.

Banish Poor Roads.

Good road-building material is found in practically every county, according to the University of Missouri exhibits shown at the state fair. It ought to be used to banish poor roads.

Good Roads.

The improvements of good roads and ditches is a matter which concerns every farmer who desires to increase the value of his land or the farm property of the community in which he resides as a whole.

Oil Helps Greatly.

Oil, properly applied, helps greatly, but the dust must be removed, and the surface broken up and loosened about two inches deep; otherwise the oil stands in pools or runs into the ditch.

Good Roads Booster.

There's one sure way to make every citizen a booster for good roads: buy him an automobile.

Reasonable Proposition.

A good road between every farm and market is a reasonable and worthwhile proposition.

Crushed Oats for Horses.

There is no doubt that crushing the oats fed to all horses is far the most economical way of feeding them. Any thrifty farmer can well afford to own his own crusher.

Prevent Chuck Holes.

Chuck holes in the road multiply if neglected. Each chuck makes another. Road patrol prevents the first one.

Servants, Not Masters.

Our country roads should be our servants, not our masters.

IS "BOOZE" OR LOW WAGES TO BLAME?

The "wets" blame low wages and the "drys" blame whiskey for the number of men that are confined in prisons throughout the United States and some one asks us what we think about it.

Low wages may be to blame in many cases for men stooping to crime and men out of work steal bread and other food to keep from starving to death, but far more men go wrong on account of excessive drinking than by the low wage route. This question cannot be disputed.

But on the other hand some of the greatest defaulters are men who neither drink or work for low wages. I almost look to us as though if a man is born a thief he is going to be no matter what the conditions are that surround his daily life. We know of a case where the highest paid employe for a certain concern turned out to be a petty thief. He was given more money than he asked for and many favors besides, but eventually was a born crook and could not resist the temptation to steal. It might be well to add that he did not drink.

If saloons would sell to men that are habitual drunkards and would keep boys out of their places of business, the record of crimes committed by men while under the influence of liquor would be materially lessened.

It may be remembered that if Delta county does not find "dry" conditions satisfactory, the county can go wet again. The people of Lansing tried local option for a couple of years and then voted the town "wet" again, but after a year of it the people decided for a dry town again and it has continued that way.

Here is another question asked this paper and we would like to be able to answer it but cannot with any sense of reliability. The questions is this: Why are there so many vacant buildings in Escanaba at the present time? This question has nothing to do with the present wet and dry controversy, but it opens a wide field for serious thought. Will someone write the answer?

ECHOS FROM ROCK

Rock Happenings Always Interest Our Readers.

After reading of so many people in our town who have been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, the question naturally arises: "Is this medicine equally successful in our neighboring towns?" The generous statement of this Rock resident leaves no room for doubt on this point.

N. DeBeck, Rock, Mich., says: "I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a valuable kidney remedy. I have taken them for backache and kidney trouble with good results. I don't hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone as they act just as represented."

WHY not give your lad the same training?

"When I was a growing lad, and came upon many words in my reading that I did not understand, my mother, instead of giving me the definition when I applied to her, uniformly sent me to the dictionary to learn it, and in this way I gradually learned many things besides the meaning of the individual word in question—among other things, how to use a dictionary, and the great pleasure and advantage there might be in the use of the dictionary. Afterwards, when I went to the village school, my chief diversion, after lessons were learned and before they were recited, was in turning over the pages of the 'Unabridged' of those days. Now the most modern Unabridged—the NEW INTERNATIONAL—gives me a pleasure of the same sort. So far as my knowledge extends, it is at present the best of the one-volume dictionaries, and quite sufficient for all ordinary uses. Even those who possess the splendid dictionaries in several volumes will yet find it a great convenience to have this, which is so compact, so full, and so trustworthy as to have, in most cases, little to be desired."—Albert S. Cook, Ph.D., LL.D., Professor of the English Language and Literature, Yale Univ., April 28, 1911.

MURDER VERDICT IS RETURNED BY JURY

Ralph Albert Thompson Convicted of Killing Henry Picotte of Walsh

Ralph Albert Thompson, aged 30, eastern college man, was found guilty yesterday by a jury at Ontonogon of murder in the first degree for killing Henry Picotte aged 29 of Walsh, Marquette county. The latter was employed in the camp of the Spies Lumber company near Ontonogon. He left his shack one day for work and his body was found in the woods several days after with a bullet wound in the head. Thompson had been living with Picotte and wife but there was no suspicion against him. About two months after the finding of the remains Thompson went to the sheriff's office and gave himself up, saying that he could no longer keep the secret of the murder but he claimed he committed the act in self defense. He was arrested and tried. The first trial resulted in a disagreement. His second trial occurred this week and resulted in a verdict of guilty after the jury had been out for a short time. The bullet which killed Picotte entered his body through the back of the head and it was this evidence which undoubtedly brought about the conviction. Thompson, who was a drinking man had frequently been upbraided by Picotte for his habits and it is believed that anger over this and other rumored domestic troubles actuated Thompson to commit the crime.

Henry Picotte was murdered early on the morning of Feb. 15, 1915, while he was on his way to work. No one saw the slaying and hence the case was decided on purely circumstantial evidence.

Thompson drank heavily at times. According to Mrs. Picotte, her husband argued with Thompson on the morning of the murder because he had been intoxicated the night previous.

Buried in Wallace.
Later her husband left to go to work and that was the last she saw of him alive. The body was found in a clearing in the woods. It was sent to Walsh, Wis., for burial and Mrs. Pi-

NO OVERWORK—NO TIRED DAYS

The FREE is a sewing machine that runs so light you can sew for hours without feeling tired or nervous. The FREE treadle runs like magic—the automatic lift brings the head in position and the belt on ready for sewing. The toggle-link movement removes all noise and friction and when clogged the machine is entirely dust-proof.

The FREE case is so beautiful it will be an ornament in any room. Its attractiveness is due to its self-raising treadle. Its beautiful finish, its dainty and artistic design.

You can have your favorite wood in any design—Colonial, Mission, French or Adam.

The FREE is absolutely guaranteed for life. When you buy The FREE you are buying a sewing machine that you can depend on as long as you live.

Do not allow yourself to use an old hard-running sewing machine one day longer when the lightest, simplest and speediest machine ever built can be yours for only $1.00 a week for a few weeks.

WE MAKE A LIBERAL ALLOWANCE FOR YOUR OLD MACHINE
Come, see the machine of today and of the future and make it your very own.
